INGRID BERGMAN'S BABY

by Grant Lewi

WHEN abundant publicity surrounds the birth of a child, the horoscope is very likely to hold some unusual points of interest. Pre-natal, and quick post-natal, advertising can indicate either a nine-days' wonder—after which the child grows up in the normal quietude of his family; or it can indicate a situation that will remain with the child and become a part of his development.

On Feb. 2nd, 1950, the following news-story appeared:

"The Italian news agency Ansa said film star Ingrid Bergman gave birth to a baby boy tonight in a Rome hospital . . . Ansa's account said the birth occurred at 7 p. m."

THE CHART FOR INGRID BERGMAN'S SON as erected for 7 p. m. on Feb. 2, 1950, for the latitude and longitude of Rome, Italy, is an intensely interesting one, since it contains a Full Moon, with the Moon in Leo in the 12th House, and the Sun in Aquarius in the 6th. (If this chart is rotated for the latitude and longitude of New York (1 p. m. E. S. T.) we find that the Sun comes into the 9th House, with the Moon opposed from the 3rd; these are the houses of the press and publicity (9th House) and of its pettier counterpart, gossip (3rd House) and indeed it was in the United States that the publicity attendant on this child's birth was enormous.)

It is, however, the Full Moon as such which enlists our first interest. The houses across which the Full Moon falls are, by its presence, given particular meaning; but the Full Moon, of itself, is such an important influence that it should be considered the key aspect of any horoscope in which it occurs.

The Sun is the male (father) principle; the Moon is the female (mother) principle. These two principles—male and female, active and passive, projective and receptive, extroverted and introverted—are contained in everyone. An harmonious relationship between Sun and Moon, such as a trine or sextile, is one of the strongest assurances of soundness, and of a personality able to adjust harmoniously to the business of living.

In addition, the space-relationship between Sun and Moon is one of the basic clues to the nature of the personality as a whole—whether it is inclined to be introverted and involving, or extroverted and projective. There are two rules that are fundamental in this connection.

1. The closer the Moon is to the Sun, the more personality inclines to be introverted and introspective. The extreme of this type is the individual born at the New Moon (Moon conjunct Sun). The correlary to this rule is that the farther the Moon is from the Sun, the more extroverted and projective the personality tends to be. The extreme of this type is the individual born at the Full Moon (Moon opposite Sun).
2. Individuals born in the "light of the Moon"—i.e., with Moon going away from the Sun, toward the full, tend to be projective and extroverted; while the correlary to this is that those born with the Moon coming toward the Sun ("dark of the Moon") tend to introspective and introverted.

A study in planetary influences, centering around the Full Moon and its meaning in the horoscope of the infant and the adult.

IN THE FULL MOON PERSONALITY, THEN we discover several things.

First, the two poles of the nature, the male and the female influences, are opposed to each other, and as far apart as they can get.

Second, the extreme distance of Moon from Sun indicates the maximum of extroversion—of the capacity, the desire, and even the need, to project the personality into the world.

The need to project is seen as arising from the individual's sense of separateness between the two poles of his nature.

What actually happens is that the Solar nature, which should be the basic seat of individual identity, constantly tries to project itself through the lunar nature. This occurs because the Full Moon individual usually manifests, and expresses, a very shaky sense of place in the world. Many children have the fantasy, at some time or other, that they are orphans, that their parents are not their real parents, and so forth. Such fantasies are so universal among children, as they grow out of their first infancy into awareness of the world, that they are accepted as normal. The child, entering into awareness of life, seeks for his place in the world as an individual, rejects his apparent place in fantasy, invents a new place for himself, and so forth. This fantasy does not, ordinarily, last very long, and is replaced by an acceptance of reality.

The sense of placelessness of the Full Moon person, however, is such that the fantasy of not belonging is likely to persist for a long time. The projective tendency of the Full Moon person is an effort to find a place in the world, by identification of the self with someone else. This someone else is usually the Mother (Moon), since those born under the Full Moon tend to see the whole world, as it were, through the screen of the Mother. It is as if the child (and then the adult) says to himself, "I am not sure of my place in the world, of my own individuality, of my own reality; but Mother is real, and therefore I will be mother, I will see with her eyes, think her thoughts, and so I will make sure of my place in the world, of the world's reality, and of my reality."

IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND THE FULL Moon personality (and it applies also to any lunar-dominated chart) it is necessary for the non-lunar type to accept the fact that not all people live in the same type of world.

Most live in the world of reality, of things as they obviously and apparently are.

But some live in a world of fantasy, because they do not believe in the real world, and therefore they invent another world in which to live.

The world in which the Full Moon personality lives is, first and foremost, the world as seen through the eyes of the Mother and through the screen of the mother-image as it comes to exist in the child, and as it is often carried over into the life of later years.

A child born under a Full Moon will strive very hard indeed to please the mother, not always because the mother demands it, but often because of something in the child which is very difficult, in some cases, to track to its psychological and experiential lair. Sometimes there appears no sufficient cause, in the individual's chart or history, for the excessive dependency on the good opinion of the mother that is exhibited by the Full Moon child, and later by the older person with the Full Moon in the chart.

Yet in all cases, the tendency to lose the identity—first in the mother, and then perhaps in a succession of other people—and to become identified with someone else's ideas, wishes, etc., is very prominently marked in individuals born under the Full Moon.

Some, by this kind of identification of self with other, achieve considerable success in the world of drama or politics; these are their best media of development, for they provide a constructive use for the need to project, for the dramatic sense, for the need to be someone else, and to achieve a sense of place in the world through such projective identification.

And some, who do not put their fantasies to some such use, can either drift, or, by finding an individual (husband, wife, partner) who fulfills the image and occupies the screen that is constantly before their eyes, can achieve an harmonious life, as a part of the life of someone else.

THE FULL MOON IS ESPECIALLY SENSITIVE to the influences in the chart which show the presence or absence of love in the environment. Being so dualistic in nature, those born under the Full Moon are particularly sensitive to the struggle between what Karl Menninger calls Love against Hate, in his book of that title. Thus, when we see strong lunarmartian influences (such as conjunction, square, or opposition between Moon and Mars) in a Full Moon chart, we expect serious emotional consequences unless the individual is given intelligent, and early, special handling. Similarly, when Venus and Mars are adversely configured, we are dubious about the development of the emotional life, for the projective qualities then operate from an excessively agitated emotional basis, and the results are likely to be unhappy.

In the chart of Ingrid Bergman's son, however, the underpinning emotional influences are very sound, as shown by the disposition of Mars and Venus, which are also the rulers to the 4th House (Mother) and 10th House (Father). The trine between these planets indicates, especially because they rule these parental houses, a powerful and harmonious bond between the parents; while the absence of afflictions to the Moon (other than its opposition to the Sun and its related planets) is a happy circumstance to find in connection with the Full Moon. It indicates that the projection of the boy, and his tendency to identify himself with his Mother, will occur in the environment of love, and will not get mixed up with the contrary emotions which, when they agitate the emotional centers that should breed love, can make serious emotional conflict. The rising Saturn, plus the Full Moon, indicates too strong a bond to the world of his elders, his parents . . . and because the rulers of the 10th House (father) is conjunct the Sun, the father is a close second to the mother, in this boy's sense of place, identity, and belonging.

Because the Full Moon falls in the 12th House, this child seems likely to lead a sheltered life, surrounded by a great love and a very high degree of material security. His chart looks like that of a lovable darling, who will do everything in his power to merit the love and happiness he gets, and who can be "spoiled" by an excess of devotion. The publicity surrounding his birth is shown by Uranus elevated in the chart, technically in the 10th House though within a degree of the cusp of the 11th; yet this publicity does not seem to impinge very strongly on him, nor to have much bearing on his immediate development. That the Moon, which is the universal signifier of public opinion and publicity, is bottled up in the 12th House would indicate that, so far as his early years are concerned, publicity may never reach him at all . . . and this would seem to indicate a desire on the part of his parents, especially the Mother (Moon) that he should be kept apart and aloof. There is a danger in this, considered in light of the Full Moon, in the 12th House: it is very dubious whether the sheltering process can be continued in ways that will actually protect: the effort to shelter may prove unduly restrictive to the individuality of

What's Your Astrological Age?

Part III

By Dane Rudhyar

IN our study of the "age-levels" into which the life-span of man can be most generally divided, we have come to the mid-forties and the more or less sharply marked crisis of the "change of life." The crisis is usually experienced, first, at the psychological-emotional level; then a few years later at the level of physiological functions, and in changes of the "tone" of the entire organism of personality.

In its broadest aspect, this crisis can be said to last from 42 to 56, and thus considered, it follows a period, also lasting fourteen years (28 to 42) during which the basic issue is the definite establishment of an "integrated personality," in relation to one kind or another of function or work in the community.

I USE THE TERMS "INTEGRATED PERSONALITY" to mean the condition of a man or woman who has reached maturity; who is therefore theoretically on his or her own, relatively independent from parental influences, relatively secure in a life and a type of work of his or her own choosing, with or without a family.

An integrated and mature person is one who presents a relatively unified and steady front to society, who "stands by himself" in the midst of other human beings, and who, to some degree at least, produces something of value in the community—whether this something is a child, a well-kept home, a commercial product, or a professional service.

THERE ARE THREE BASIC LEVELS AT which a normal human being can and should operate.

The level of the "integrated personality" is the third.

The first is the "organic level"—that of the body and its instinctual activities—the main focus of experience from conception to the age of 14.

The second is the level of psychological-mental and social unfoldment, the stage on which the life-force in man primarily operates from 14 to 28.

Each of these three levels can be subdivided into two seven-year periods, and we have seen how these periods correlate approximately to the main subdivisions of the cycles of Saturn and Uranus.

WHAT I CALL "INTEGRATED PERSONALITY" is founded upon the sense, not only of being an autonomous "I" or ego, but also of being able to function as an independent and well-organized ego in a community—thus, to perform a work, to serve a purpose, to fill a place. This means a sense of responsibility (Saturn) to some sort of whole or organism greater than one is—responsibility to society, responsibility to the whole evolution of humanity, and to "God" as the symbol of the wholeness of the entire universe.

To be a self; to take one's place in the world as a self—these are the requirements of life as an individual person. And this means to have become basically autonomous (i.e. self-determined, self-sustained, and aware of one's unique purpose of destiny) and creative (i.e. able to fulfill this purpose). The period lasting from 28 to 42 should bring these two facets of an integrated personality to a condition of at least relatively steady and definite development.

SOMETIMES, HOWEVER, THIS DEVELOPMENT is either unsteady or vague. The person remains emotionally immature and still bound to the "psychic womb" of some "Mother" (whether the actual mother, or a substitute motherly entity such as the idealized wife, the Church, the Party or some protective "spiritual" Group). If the growing individual has not yet overcome and neutralized a sense of inferiority or guilt, or some other complex resulting from difficult early experiences—then, the years 28 to 42 fail to witness the establishment of a mature and integrated personality. The result is, in such a case, a difficult crisis during the forties; a more or less chaotic or tragic "change of life."

URANUS OPPOSES ITS NATAL PLACE around the age of 42; Saturn, around the 45th year. What these opposition-phases indicate essentially is the need to establish a new attitude toward human relationship and society. If the old attitude has not led to personal maturity, then a radical change of attitude is necessary; this usually implies emotional upsets, "falling in love", and a new kind of "crisis of adolescence".

The adolescent is in love with love; he is yearning for, yet afraid of, the "great Unknown".

The men and women in their mid-forties are trying, on the other hand, to absorb a sense of failure with love; they want to be redeemed, to drink from a deep well they had failed to discover in their preoccupation with life's superficialities, to tear down the "veils of Isis"—the protective mother-envelopes which have stifled them—and to meet the "God-in-the-depth", the Plutonian Fountain of Rebirth, the bare, all-human Roots of their essential humanity. They must make a new start . . . before it is too late. And the pressure of the feeling of this being "a last chance" can bring to them not only great emotional intensity, but also tragedy. Both may be necessary; but are, in most cases, costly, in one way or another.

The opposition-phases in the Saturn and Uranus cycles force the individual in his mid-forties to become aware of the meaning and value of intimate human relationship, of love, and as well of true cooperation at the level of social processes: (profession, everyday work, friends, etc.).

IT IS BECAUSE THESE MEANINGS AND values have not been understood—because the adolescent has clung to the protection of his or her parents, tradition, or religion, and remained passively and semi-consciously identified with these psychic "wombs"—that the condition of mature, autonomous, self-sustained personality has not been reached.

This subjective, taken-for-granted state of identification and introversion may have been fostered by early illness, by the over-absorbing love of the mother, or by whatever developed an early sense of inferiority and over-sensitiveness to the impacts of a chaotic society. In any case, it made real human relationship very difficult, or impossible; while creating a sense of loneliness and psychic dependence, a yearning to escape either in dreams or to lose oneself in hard work, business, heroic adventures—even in artistic creation and "spiritual" study or teaching. Superficially great things may have been accomplished, if one had a fine ancestry or a splendid mind; yet, the personality has remained immature, divided, inwardly uncertain, beset by an inner sense of frustration and perhaps fear.

The struggle of the forties is thus primarily—when of a tense nature—a confrontation with the failure of the ego to have become deeply "human", to have used in individual freedom and responsibility, with courage and a clear sense of purpose, the energies at the "root" of human nature.

However, where there has been no such failure, then, the opposition-phases of the Saturn and Uranus cycles can mean indeed real illumination—or at the more average social level, professional success and the rewards of increased prestige and authority in one's community.

AT ABOUT THE SAME AGE, NEPTUNE reaches a position 90 degrees ahead of its

"Why Did That Happen to Me?"

Each month, we're going to try to answer this question, by dealing with readers' queries. Not only WHY it happened, but why it happened just WHEN it happened—for these questions and their answers are tied together by your horoscope and the influences at work in it, at the time of crucial, surprising, exciting, and out-of-the-way events in your life. Elsewhere in this issue, you'll find an announcement telling you how you may participate in this feature and, if your letter is used, be paid for it. Don't be limited by the type of the letters here; these are selected from many, covering many different subjects, and whether it's love, romance, adventure, good or bad fortune, or whatever it is that you are wondering, write to us, and we'll do our best to include your letter and the answer to the question that interests you. Even if it doesn't fall strictly in the "why-did-that-happen?" class, send it along anyway. Anything that interests you interests us, and we'll look for astrology's answer and publish as many each month as we can.

Letter Editor, The Astrologer:

This has been the most trying period I've ever experienced. After several months' layoff I was re-hired and given a position that was way below that position I'd held with this company. Now every place I turn to try to locate a job (anything at all) I seem to run into a stone wall.

I've tried about everything but it either does not pan out or it blows up in a day or so. It seems that I have an ability to stop pain and relieve suffering that comes from a Higher Power. Several times the thought has entered my mind that I should take this opportunity to go out and relieve suffering. Could it be that my inability to get work indicates that I should devote all my time to this greater work? However, I have a family to support and two sons of my own and an adopted son, all going to high school, and with my wife it means that I have to keep busy.

I've never failed to have faith that some way we would be provided for and that faith has always been justified for we have never suffered from want.

Now what should I do? My work the last several years has been as a supervisor in a large manufacturing plant. I have a great deal of skill at repairing machines and know somewhat of electrical apparatus. Should I go after a position in one of these lines or should I devote my time to healing?

I was born at 44 N., 89 W., on May 14, 1906; my wife, August 18, 1909. We were married at Reno, Nev., about 10:00 a.m. August 17, 1929. Our son Bill was born at 3 a.m., June 19, 1932. And Dick was born at 6:31 p.m., July 17, 1933.

I was hired just prior to February 1, 1946, and my pay started at 7:30 a.m. February 1, 1946, though I did not actually go to work till a day or so later than that. I was hired as a supervisory-foreman and received two large raises in pay between then and the time I was laid-off on July 1, 1949. On December 5, 1949, I was called back and put to work as a leaderman at a great deal less pay than I'd been getting. This job lasted until January 27, 1950, when I was again laid off.

I hope that I've given you the information that you need, and that you can give me some idea of when it will all end. Sincerely, Worried Father.

YOUR SIGNATURE—"WORRIED FATHER"—indicates the point of difficulty, and the area from which the pressure is coming, in the transit of Saturn in the 5th (solar) house of your chart—and this is the house that rules children. Saturn had just entered this area of your chart when, on July 1, 1949, you were laid off; Saturn then stood at 2° Virgo, and was moving swiftly to the square of your Mars-Jupiter-Venus conjunction in your solar 2nd House, indicating earning powers, finances, and also expenses . . . which are shown to be heavy in your case, since, though you're a good earner, you are also a ready spender, relying more on your powers to earn, than on saving. Your wife's chart is prominently in the picture, since Saturn in Virgo (your 5th House of children) activates her solar 2nd House, of finances, where her Moon is, in Virgo, and so there is a shared worry and concern. . . . Your brief re-hiring between Dec. 5, 1949, and Jan. 27, 1950, coincided with the transit of Jupiter and Venus over your 10th House Moon in Aquarius; mathematically, as Jupiter passed the conjunction of your Moon and as Venus retreated by retrograde motion past the same place, this temporary job came to an end. It wouldn't be surprising to learn that, after you wrote me, you got another job, or a revival of the old one, shortly after the middle of March, as Venus went over the 13th degree of Aquarius again, and if this is the case, you may have begun to get "out of the woods" before this appears in print.

However, in the longer view, your time of pressure does not come to an end till Mars and Saturn turn direct on May 3 and 15, respectively. This coincides with the completion of Saturn's transit opposite his own place in your chart, and also with the coming completion of Uranus' transit opposite his place in your chart. It is these cyclic factors—Saturn opposite Saturn, Uranus opposite Uranus, which always come around the 44th year of the life—that cause you to write that "this has been the most trying period I've ever experienced." Indeed it is, and you may also add that it is the most trying period you are ever likely to experience. This is a trying period in everyone's life; in your case, the trials were deepened by the involvement of your Mars-Jupiter-Venus, and your wife's Moon-Jupiter, in the cyclic pattern, for though the cyclic oppositions of Saturn and Uranus always occur at around the age of 44, it is people like you, with other planets on the Saturn-axis (or the Uranus axis) that feel it most intimately and personally. Thus, as you come out of this trial—which you should be doing right after May 15th, when you emerge into a freer area of growth and expansion—what has been the significance of it, in terms of yourself and your future?

We find the answer to this in your Saturn's square to (1) Mars; (2) Jupiter; (3) Venus . . . for it is these squares that have been agitated, and in the proper understanding of them, you will gain perspective for the future, and for the avoidance of repetitions of similar periods of depression. . . .

With Mars square Saturn, one tends to base his life to some extent on a false premise: in your case, this premise is centered in attitude toward finances: i.e., Mars in solar 2nd causes you to put your faith in constant earning, and not enough in saving. To have faith in earning is excellent: the blind spot obscures from you the value of saving.

With Venus square Saturn, Venus being in 2nd, there is a tendency, perhaps unconscious, to earn love by hard work as well as money. Thus, the drive to do, earn, work is seen to be rooted in the need to prove your worth constantly by hard work. The emotional drive is not to save, since if you had money in the bank, you would be bereft of the necessity to prove yourself loved by working hard for your loved ones.

With Jupiter square Saturn, there is a kind of failure of imagination, where financial matters are concerned: you cannot vision yourself with money in the bank, secure and safe from periods of depression.

PLUTO

by Winifred Mary Rawlings

*"Pluto, mysterious on his far domain,
Somnambulant in his regenerate sleep
That whispers to the never-sleeping brain."*

BECAUSE of its eccentric orbit Pluto was first mistaken for a comet. Search had been going on for a planet beyond Neptune since 1915, but it was not found until January 21st, 1930, a dim. 15th magnitude member of the solar system, yellow and old.

Its orbital revolution takes 248-249 years, the slowest and longest of all known planets. Its influence is strongest when separating from the conjunction to any planet, and its transit through the houses brings turning-points into the life.

PLUTO RULES THE WATER SIGN, SCORPIO.

(1) Its gifts, good or bad, are plentiful. It inclines toward the gigantic, the fantastic, and the adventurous. It is often the power behind the scenes in state, national, world or industrial affairs.

Pluto gives a refined sense of touch, of smell, and of orientation. It is interested in soul-culture, giving an irresistible urge for experience of life, death, and the beyond.

In the 8th or 12th houses it gives some memories of a former life in sunken civilizations.

In the 1st house it gives leadership, a gift of healing, and a hypnotic eye. (Rasputin, the mad Russian priest, had Pluto in 1st house.)

In all houses, it acts strongly upon the mentality; it can produce either mysterious and sinister, or brave and sacrificial natures. Pluto may mistrust others but rarely itself.

Pluto has a tendency towards earthquakes; national and social upheavals; great spiritual surges; and immense dictatorial power. It is connected with plagues and pestilences; crime waves and religious revivals; sadism or extreme mercy. Like Scorpio, it knocks either at the gates of heaven or hell.

Its flower is the narcissus, or self-love. As Pluto rules the underworld and realms of the dead, its tree is the cypress, an emblem of mourning, whose branches were anciently used at funerals.

Its stone, the obsidian, is a volcanic rock of glasslike lustre. Pluto has relationship with all that is inside the earth, such as caves, minerals, excavations, buried civilizations, and volcanoes. Its jewel is the black pearl, most precious of all pearls, and the most mysterious. Its colars, bluish-purple and reddish-brown.

Pluto in Aries

1850—January 1st, Pluto was in Aries 26:50; to May 27th, 1851.

1851—September 18th to April 11th, 1852.

1852—December 4th to February 18th, 1853.

PLUTO IN ARIES IS INCLINED TO BE REVOLUTIONARY. Luther Burbank (March 7th, 1849) who revolutionized plants and fruits by his cross-breeding experiments, had Pluto Aries 25:51; Thomas A. Edison (February 11th, 1847) had Pluto Aries 24:06.

Pluto here adds impulsiveness to the nature, and gives a strong desire to stir things up just to see what comes out on

(1) This is the author's opinion, held by others, too, but all astrologers are not agreed on this. Some believe that Pluto rules Aries. Everyone appears to agree that it rules one of the other of the hitherto-Martian signs, Scorpio or Aries, and it does indeed seem to have an affinity with both. G.L.

"LOOK AT THE MOON"

by Carl Payne Tobey

We are proud to bring to our readers, chapter by chapter, this distinguished and rigidly scientific demonstration of the influence of cycles on the affairs of human-kind. Mr. Tobey, whose Astro-statistics have attracted the attention of men of science, has brought to the compilation and writing of this work the same undeviating accuracy, patience, and fidelity to observed and tabulated fact that has won him a place of foremost importance among the investigators of cyclic phenomena. This book, for which publication is planned in the not-too-distant future, is another milestone in scientific astrology, sure to awaken widespread interest. Readers of THE ASTROLOGER are privileged to see it first.

CHAPTER IX—A FURTHER VERIFICATION

WE HAVE covered considerable territory since Chapter II, and now we are going to revert to the subject of that chapter.

There, we found our first hint that an individual's income might be affected in some way by the motion of the moon.

There were weaknesses in the experiment, because it was not conducted under sufficiently controlled conditions.

In spite of all this, the graph that appeared as a result of that experiment proved to be the equivalent of a prognostication of the results of other experiments which followed. Lack of time and other circumstances made it impossible to repeat the experiment with new data immediately, and over a considerable interval, records were not maintained. Thus the further experiment was postponed.

IT WILL BE RECALLED THAT IN CHAPTER II, we tested income from a mail-order business owned by the writer and possible association of its fluctuations with the motion of the moon as related to the position of the sun on the date of the writer's birth.

Over a considerable period, records were kept on a weekly basis, and they did not lend themselves to a repetition of this experiment.

Finally, on October 18th, 1948, the writer decided that daily records must be maintained for the next interval of a year in order to repeat the experiment. Operations were on a five-day week. This time, we made allowances for the fact that the moon would be in some zodiacal signs longer than in other signs, and that there would be no mail received at times when the moon was passing through a given sign because of Saturdays and Sundays.

At the end of a year, a table was prepared. This table showed each date, the amount of money received on that date, and the position of the moon by space segment on that day as related to the writer's birth date. This first table is a little voluminous for presentation here and so we omit it and prepare a second table.

In this second table, we place the numbers of the space segments across the top. Then, we take each day's figure in dollars and place it beneath the number of the space segment occupied by the moon on that date. In other words, the figure "144" under "7" means that on a day when the moon was in the 7th space-segment, orders received totalled $144. We divide this table into two parts, showing the first and second six-month periods separately. We will call this Experiment "M".

IN BOTH HALVES OF THIS EXPERIMENT, the effect of the lunar cycle is in evidence. Considering the high half of the cycle to be the 10th, 11th, 12th, 1st, 2nd and 3rd segments, the averages in the first half of the experiment total 462 against 418 in the remaining segments which constitute the low half of the cycle. In the second half of the experiment, the corresponding figures are 512 for the high half of the cycle against 345 for the low half.

In the first half of this experiment, the first figure of 144 under the 7th segment is far above average for that 7th-low segment. It should be noted that this figure is for November 1st, 1948. There had been

We can now combine the figures for the first six months with those of the second six-month period, and we obtain the following:

The raw averages (or actual averages) of the top half of the lunar cycle total 483, while the averages for the low half of the cycle total 388. Splitting this into quarters, the two quarters of the top half of the cycle register 245 and 238 against the two quarters of the lower half of the cycle which score 204 and 184.

IT IS THE FEELING OF THE WRITER THAT in any experiment of this kind, an interval of at least six months, and probably one year, should be employed in order to exclude other cycles or factors which may be operating. This cycle is not necessarily visible to the eye when observed on an ordinary graph. It can be completely hidden behind other interfering factors, but when the statistical method is applied, its existence is detected. An astronomer detects objects in space at distances beyond the reach of the human eye, by the use of the telescope. A biologist detects the existence of objects too small for observation by the human eye through the use of the microscope. In the same manner, we detect what is otherwise hidden, by the careful use of the mathematical science of statistics.

WE CAN LOOK AT THE FIGURES OF EXPERIMENT "M" on Graph "M."

Here, we see the familiar curve that we have repeatedly seen in other experiments. The line is a little weak at the 12th segment, but it is above the mean. In fact, at all points our line is above the mean while the moon is passing through what we have already designated as the high half of the lunar cycle. Insofar as the low half of the cycle is concerned, we find our line below the mean in five out of six space segments, the exception being the ninth, which adjoins the high half of the cycle. It should be noted that this graph is based on the 3-moving average figures.

During the high half of the cycle, we took in $11,032 during 138 business days, while during the low half of the cycle, we took in $7,943 in 120 business days. This means that during the high half of the lunar cycle, we averaged $79.94 per day, while during the low half of the cycle we averaged $66.19 per day. This is language that the average business man will understand. The practical value of knowledge of the lunar cycle becomes evident

Judging The Future

BY THE PAST

by Grant Lewis

PERHAPS the "repeating" influence of most immediate importance this month is the square of Mars to Uranus, on June 24th. This aspect, and those related to it, are explained in the Planoscope, on page 19, where the XX series of influences during this month, starting with the entrance of Mars into Libra on June 11, is noted for your guidance, and its nature explained.

If you note the last line of the Table on page 16 (your key to judging the future by the past, for June) you will see that the square of Mars to Uranus has been in effect twice before this year, once on Jan. 1st, and again on Mar. 25. Thus, the square that is forming and completed on June 24 is the last of a series of three; and if you can recall what was going on in your life at the two preceding squares, you will have a clue to the nature of the influence at work on you between June 11th and 24th.

If you wish to go farther back, the conjunction of Mars to Uranus on July 27th, 1949, provides a focal point of time in the past, out of which the Mars-Uranus sequence of aspects, influences, and events stems. It is likely that the events of the last week of July, 1949, have in some way, and to some degree, a connection with the developments of Jan. 1, Mar. 28, and the present (June 24) square of Mars to Uranus. Since this is an emotional and temperamental influence, you will do well to be on guard against the stirring of your "planetary memory," especially if the events of the past, along this line of Mars-

Uranus influences, have had any temperamental or emotional involvements or overtones. Thus, if you can recall any disagreeable moods, etc. around July 27, 1949; Jan. 1 or Mar. 28, 1950, you may learn something about any impulses that may tend to rise during June, and if you have previously fallen into traps of temperament, impatience, depression, etc. under this type of influence, you may, by awareness, prevent a recurrence of regrettable feelings or acts.

THERE IS ANOTHER USE OF THE SQUARE of Mars to Uranus which is of a definite and constructive nature. It is, true, a disruptive aspect, and it is not ordinarily good to act—especially suddenly, or on impulse—under such an influence as this. You are usually advised to "sit tight, lie low, wait, be patient," and so forth. And this is sound advice: you will be well advised to postpone actual actions, new starts, and so forth, till this influence is past on June 24; since after that, there is a far better period for constructive changes, etc.

However, it sometimes take a blast of planetary dynamite to get people out of a rut, especially a rut of long standing. And the square of Mars to Uranus is just such a blast. If the situation you are in is of itself a good one, and if you are just feeling restless, adventurous, and impatient, then you should in all likelihood stand pat and sit tight.

But if your situation is, and has been, genuinely unproductive, and if you have any sound ideas for bettering it, then the blast of Mars square Uranus may be just what you need, to turn inertia into purposeful action. You may judge whether this is the case, by your reactions to this influence in the past: if, under the previous influences noted in this series, you have wished to move, change, etc. but have been withheld from doing so by timidity, not feeling the time was ripe, etc. then you acted wisely and well, for until after Mars turned direct on May 3, the time was not ripe. Now, however, the planetary situation is different; and if a move made right after June 24 would indeed get you out of an unproductive rut, then you should use the square of Mars to Uranus, between June 11 and 24, to get your mind geared to ideas of change, so that after the latter date, you will be mentally and emotionally ready for a change at which you have hitherto balked.

To use these tables, start with the two columns headed "Occupied this zodiacal area in the recent past" and "Occupied this zodiacal area in remoter past". Note the periods of time in the past set forth in these tables. Recall these periods in your life: for you are now under similar influences, between the dates on the same line, in the column to the far left. Use this knowledge of the past, which now tends to repeat itself, to judge your present and future, and to act to best advantage.

It is in this way that past reactions to this influence are of importance in judging its present worth to you.

If this influence in the past has meant temperament, anger, haste, discontent, depression of spirits, etc. then you must beware of these things in the present, and indeed "lie low."

If, on the other hand, your reaction to the Mars-Uranus series in the past has been one of patience, prudence, etc. then you may indeed be ready for the change, and should use this dynamic influence to

ASK WYNN

In this department, Wynn will reply to as many letters as space will permit. His answers are his own opinions and reactions to your representations and should be taken in the light of what you think they are worth. No charge is made for this service, so please do not send money or anything else of value. To do so would make it impossible to reply to you. Send your birth date, place, year, and if possible, hour, together with your sex. Give complete data of others inquired about. Ask only one specific, non-fatalistic question. It will be impossible to answer by mail. Your name will not be mentioned—every letter addressed to "Ask Wynn," care of "The Astrologer," 215 Fourth Avenue, N. Y. 3, N. Y., will be treated with absolute confidence whether you receive a reply or not.

INTERNAL VACUUM

DEAR WYNN:

Perhaps my ardent wish to be accepted as part of the crowd has always stood in my way. I can remember from my earliest days wondering if there were some strange or terribly wrong thing the matter with me.

Never a brilliant conversationalist, or even an adequate one, when I see or visit with friends we seem to be living in two different worlds. I feel as if I had no share in their normal interest. They're drifting away from me. After an hour of "Did you hear about So-and-so?" and my reply "No, I never see her any more", they're rightly bored.

It's not that I don't want to play unless I can be captain of the team. I just want to be on the team.

I was born July 14, 1925, at 5 a.m., in New York City—does this explain anything? Sincerely, R. B.

WE ALL WANT TO FEEL THAT WE BELONG—it is entirely normal. Yet there are times for all of us when we just can't click. At such times, the thing to do is to turn our attention and our energies toward something where such a situation will have the least possible power over us.

This always involves calling on one or more of our inner resources, usually something that will develop our skills, our knowledge, our understanding. Books, correspondence courses, special training—these are all helpful. But we can't substitute inanimate subjects for personal relationships forever. We must live with, for and by people—or go goofy.

In other words, we are always living two lives at once: our external life of personal contacts with the outside world; and our inner life of individual growth and increasing awareness of the meanings of the symbols of the outer existence.

We are all both extroverts and introverts—looking outward and inward at the same time. With some of us the accent is temporarily on the extrovert; with others, temporarily on the introvert. Some seem to be permanently on one or the other of these two emphases.

But, whether it is temporary or seemingly permanent, the same rule is good: if the accent is on extroversion (need for outside contacts), make a conscious effort to be self-sustaining by cultivating the inner life; if the accent is on introversion (shrinking away from the outside world), make a conscious effort to get around more, see more people, make yourself as necessary as possible to others, see their side of it.

The idea is to live as nearly balanced a life as you can, striving for about equal extroversion and introversion.

The foregoing is general for all of us. Now for you, Miss B.:

YOU ARE ACTING LIKE AN EXTROVERT, AS

though your inner life were a vacuum—as though you had nothing to turn to when the outside world fails you. But such is not truly the situation. The fact is that you are either unwilling to look and live within, or afraid to. It is probably a combination of both, with the accent on the fear.

This could be because of your natural sensitivity, of which you have a generous supply. Plus a strong personality that is largely at variance with both your parents. This has no doubt contributed to a general state of frustration and conflict between your true Self and your family training. Part of your training may have been along lines that would force you to associate with people who were supposed to be your “betters”, or at least your “equals”. This would go against your inner tendencies, for you are one who has excellent social consciousness and a desire to serve.

So your solution is to be willing to release any people who do not seem to need you very desperately (phony contacts and small talk are no substitute for a worthwhile use of your time). And be willing to release those elements of your experience which demand actions which to you are boring. Be interested in what you like—you will find by so doing that there are many others who are interested, and mutually helpful, in the same things.

As for playing on the team, you’ve been trying for the wrong events. And there really is no reason why you couldn’t, or shouldn’t, be Captain. You have the equipment for it.

WHEN YOU’RE WELL OFF

DEAR WYNN:

I met a girl ten years ago and fell for her; but she went for a fellow with a later model car than mine. A year after that, when I had a new car, she went out with me—but my love for her had died. Then I went into the service and she got married—yet we continued to correspond.

Last year she obtained a divorce; and I started seeing her again, although I never dated her because divorce is opposed by my religion. But I fell for her all over again.

This time it was truly the real thing, so I wrote to an astrologer and received the reply that the girl does not love me—which I know is true.

Yet I think I couldn’t be satisfied with any except another just like her—but feel it’s practically impossible to find one with her characteristics. Can you see anything in our charts that indicates either a professional or marital relationship? My birthday: January 30, 1918, 7:30 p.m.; hers: January 22, 1924, 1:30 a.m.; Muscatine, Iowa. Gratefully, A READER.

LET’S BE SURE TO GET THIS STRAIGHT.

You know she doesn’t love you; and you don’t believe in marrying a woman who has obtained a divorce. But you are really in love with her (or a reasonable facsimile thereof). Question: Is marriage or a professional relationship indicated by our charts?

Do you remember that case a few years back—it got into the papers—of a gent who got so angry at another gent that he, the first gent, filled his own pockets with dynamite, lit the fuse and then chased the other gent all over town? He, the first gent, didn’t exactly think the whole thing through; for the only event he could be sure of was that when the dynamite went off he himself would be rubbed out. With or without the intended victim. Which, as I recall it, is just what happened.

Brother, what you are mistaking for love is its opposite pole. Hatred can attract as powerfully as can the tender emotion. In spite of the rather formidable obstacles which you mention, you want to show her that she couldn’t do all that to you. You just want to win the game. You aren’t looking ahead beyond getting her to say “I do” in front of a lot of people. What comes after that? I’ll tell you: it’s the dynamite in your own pockets that you want to light the fuse to.

Fortunately for you, isn’t it, that there

YOUR PLAN-A-SCOPE

Right timing is the key to right living, growth, achievement and happiness

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down and a time to build up;
A time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak;
A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace."

ECCLESIASTES, CHAPTER 3—VERSES 1-8

The wise men who wrote the book of Ecclesiastes knew that every time has its purpose, but that not every time will suit every purpose. There are times to be aggressive, and times to be passive; these tables, and the paragraphs which interpret them, are to help you plan the right uses of the different days, and the differing hours within the same day.

The symbols used are the regular astronomical and astrological symbols used in almanacs and ephemerides: Sun ☉; Moon ☾; Mercury ☿; Venus ♀; Mars ♂; Jupiter ♃; Saturn ♄; Uranus ♅; Neptune ♆; Pluto ♇; Aries ♈; Taurus ♉; Gemini ♊; Cancer ♋; Leo ♌; Virgo ♍; Libra ♎; Scorpio ♏; Sagittarius ♐; Capricorn ♑; Aquarius ♒; Pisces ♓; Conjunction (0° apart) ☌; Sextile (60° apart) ✎; Trine (120° apart) ✎; Square (90° apart) ☐; Opposition (180° apart) ☌. Retrograde, R; Direct, D.

In the final column to the right, you will find a letter. This refers to the paragraph among those immediately following this table which tells you the nature of the aspect and the best uses of its hours. Aspects are in force up to the time given in this table, starting to be effective very shortly after the preceding aspect is past.

Time given is Standard Time by Zones. Clocks in places on daylight savings time will show an hour later than the time shown here. Example: the Moon is square Mars at 11.05 a.m. E.S.T., which is 12.05 p.m. according to clocks that show Eastern Daylight Savings Time.

The Moon remains in Capricorn until late tonight, making no more aspects until the trine to Venus tomorrow afternoon; you can anticipate this condition by overlooking minor annoyances of last night, and going ahead with a friendly and sociable approach to all whom you meet.

THE MEANING OF PLANETARY INFLUENCES

The timing of the aspects between the planets is to be found in the tables preceding these paragraphs. To the right of each aspect in these tables is a letter (A, B, etc.) Below is the meaning of the planetary influence in force at the time of the aspects as shown in the Tables. The best way to use these Tables is to sit down as soon as you get The Astrologer, and get a view of the month as a whole. You will find that certain influences repeat, as the A series, the T series, the RR series, and other linked and interlocking influences. Discover in advance when influences, either favorable for activity, or better for reserve, recur, and plan to build up on the favorable and progressive series, and to avoid repeating errors under the less favorable influences. In this way, you can plan your activities far ahead, so as to catch and use the crest of beneficial influences as they come into force and are repeated.

A. Afflictions to Uranus. Unpredictable behavior, temperament, anger, haste, emotionalism are to be especially avoided. With Moon, quick flareups disrupt harmony. With Mercury involved, originality tends to become eccentricity; with Sun, issues forced with or by superiors come to grief; with Mars, very tricky and demanding extreme caution; with Venus, watch out for the delusive aspects of love and human relationships.

AA. This is a very forceful influence tending to erratic actions which can lead to no good. The reserved and restrained will come through this without much trouble, but those who follow their impulses are likely to embark on some gay path that will, not later than Feb. 12, prove a dead-end. Best to hold your fire till after this is past, and then to move with great caution anyway for several days. This influence operates between Christmas and New Year's Day, to warn against all kinds of holiday extremes, as well as against extremes of all kinds.

B. Good for putting into operation long term plans and projects in which your highest ideals are given practical form and direction.

C. Suspicion, doubt, and distrust can mar peace of mind for those who live too much on their negative or fearful side. Faith is an essential to right living, and should be trotted out and exercised here.

D. Hunches, intuitions, flashes of "wisdom" should be taken with a grain of salt. The unstable are less stable than ever, and even the Rocks of Gibraltar and the Pillars of Society tend to be confused. Good time to listen—and sift what you hear carefully. No commitments.

E. Papers signed, agreements reached, are enduring. Confer with others, talk things over, and reach settlements that benefit you materially.

F. Optimism runs riot, information is inaccurate, and those who go to extremes find themselves in hot water. Play safe in everything. With Mercury involved, news is inaccurate, the truth is not always told. With Venus, gossip and ill report attend social indiscretions. With Jupiter, waste of money is a danger for the unwary. Under all these, the moderate have the edge on the extremists.

G. Good for original thought, purposeful action, contacts with other people, and progress in general. Originality pays, and high ideals are rewarded. Inspiring associations make the world seem brighter, add to self-assurance and good will all around.

GG. Like G, only lasts longer. Benefit by this several days before the aspect is complete. Seek help of influential people.

H. Time for work and practical purposes, and for little else. Do things for elders, those less fortunate. Be useful, and don't mind if your efforts seem unappreciated. Force no issues, and take what comes philosophically. With Venus involved, steer clear of entanglements, and don't pass judgment on emotional matters.

HH. The square of Venus to Pluto encourages suspicion and distrust, especially in personal matters . . . and warns everyone against his most characteristic emotional weaknesses, which are now encouraged with the force of what seems like reality, but isn't. Adherence to the ideals of love as set forth at RR is especially necessary under these influences, which can undermine human relationships and chances at happiness and growth, if emotions are allowed to run unchecked.

I. Excellent and progressive influence to get things done practically, win the rewards of the world and the respect of people who deal them out. Go ahead confidently with all practical plans.

J. Very fortunate for material and social matters. Seek gain, a raise, the love and good will of those you value. Put your best foot forward with assurance and the expectancy of harmony.

K. The need for concentration is of prime importance. Those who know what they want get much done in jog time, while the unsure are going around in circles. Avoid hasty speech, anger, temperament. Do, don't chatter.

L. Very temperamental influence, tending to extremism, anger, strife, and self-indulgence. The mature ride this out in gaiety and good times, while the infantile are pulling out each other's hair or weeping into their drinks.

M. Good energetic influence under which bosses may be arrogant, but can also be approached by those with courage, tact, and self-respect. Good for self-promotion, advancement, progress by individual effort and initiative.

N. Realism is the great need under this influence—realism, and a willingness to work in harness and according to the dictates of necessity. You gain insight into the basic problems of the world and your life if you accept fully your own responsibilities. The escapists have a pretty unhappy time; the realists go along smoothly if slowly and deliberately.

O. The Full Moon will evoke all the least desirable traits of individuals, especially of the unstable, who need to be on guard against erratic behavior. Be sure you act in accordance with your permanent self, not along some by-path that leads down a blind alley.

P. Inspires the idealists, and shakes the assurance of the flibbertygibbets. Seek those friends, associates and activities that feed your idealism, and don't let sensational considerations or indulgences waste your talent or time.

Q. Excellent and far reaching influence, on which to plan. In force for several days before it is exact, and provides you with a stepping stone of achievement. Build your progress according to this influence, which increases the favor of superiors, the good will of the world in general, and favors those with steady purpose to further under them.

QQ. An extravagant influence, to warn against material and emotional waste.

R. These influences, though of briefer duration than Q, are also excellent, providing good hours for promoting yourself and your best interests in love, human relationships, business, and in all ways that get you where you want to be.

RR. The aspects in this series center and culminate in the coming trine of Jupiter to Uranus, on July 20, one of the happiest and most fortunate of the influences of the present year, according to the houses it activates in your chart, which you will find in "Your June Prospects" for your sign. This aspect was formed first at the end of April, and is formed again, in February, 1951. The developments of June and July, indicated to be best at the time of this RR series of aspects, are excellent for all personal and business matters. Plan your life to take advantage of maximum opportunity by developing your projects and desires at the very favorable times indicated by this series of aspects, which runs all through June and will be continued into July. These are the best of all possible times to promote what you most want, to meet people, to seek substantial gain, materially and in human relationships, and in all ways to advance in happiness and worldly prosperity.

RX. The Sun's conjunction to Uranus brings together the beneficial nature of the RR series of aspects, with the temperamental dangers of the XX series. Prudence and preceding planning will make this an inspiring influence for creative good; the reverse can make it stormy, temperamental, and reminiscent of things you would rather forget. Get on the constructive side of this by concentrating on the RR-series developments, and by erasing any hang-over from the XX-series, which culminated several days ago, and should be left buried in the past. Good things done here have lasting results, heading toward betterment to be achieved by July 20, and on into the future until February 1951. Be mature and creative, to get the most from this.

S. Energetic people make progress if they know where they are going, but the eccentric get into hot water and keep it boiling. Moderation pays. Lost tempers are hard to find.

T. Romantic influence can be good, but be alert to the influences described at QQ, which can be dangerous if you are off guard.

TT. Excellent for idealism, and for cementing a relationship of love and friendship for enduring purposes. Operates several days in advance of its exact time.

TY. Emotions tend to go to extremes. The prudent will distrust their enthusiasms, curb their expressions of love, and also their spending. Operates several days in advance of exact time.

TZ. The mature, and those with faith, get emotional and personal matters settled, while the childish are quarreling and being suspicious.

U. See S, V, W. Very tricky for emotional matters. Hysteria in the air: keep it away from your door. Be discreet, and make no hasty decisions in love, friendship. Avoid self-indulgence. Operates several days before its exact time.

UU. Excellent for love, friendship, stable and steady relationships of all kinds. Operates in advance, too.

V. See S, U, W. Apply the brakes, and don't be influenced by hysterical people or your own extremes. Operates for about 2 weeks in advance of its exact time. Play safe!

VV. Tact with elders, plus willingness to conform with necessity, gives the month a slow but sure start. Haste can injure opportunities. There are plenty ahead; be content to "make haste slowly" and to get the ground work for your projects quietly and securely laid for the few days preceding June 3, when it's influence ends, and delays should be in the past.

W. See U, S, V. This influence clouds visions, makes impulses attractive. What you see and hear can't be trusted: reserve judgment, postpone decisions, and make no commitments. Operates in advance of its exact time by a couple of days.

X. Reach agreements, sign papers, take in new territory mentally, and go ahead with confidence and enthusiasm. Discussions are rewarding, keep social life on a somewhat intellectual plane for happiest results.

XX. This series begins with the entry of Mars into Libra, runs to a culminating point with his square to Uranus, and then tapers off during the balance of the month. It indicates danger from haste, speed, impatience, and temperament; and warns against excesses of all kinds. At all times indicated by this series, the utmost of reserve is required, and increasingly required as the square of Mars to Uranus comes closer and is completed on June 23/24. Slow motion under these influences enables you to take advantage, without distraction, of the splendid benefits under the RR series; concentrate on the good to be achieved at the RR times, and by willingness to abate the pace and subside when the XX's are in force, get the rhythm of the constructive forces at work. Slow and reserved is the watchword at all XX times.

Y. Very stabilizing influence for realistic appreciation of what is going on around and within you. With Sun involved, superiors will listen to reason, can be approached with sensible proposals. With Venus involved, artistic matters are favored, and those you love will heed what you say. Clinch important matters in all departments. Operates in advance of its exact time by about two days.

Z. Good for business deals, contracts, agreements with elders and mature people. Seek facts and act on them for enduring results.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN MAR. 21-APR. 20

YOU END A PERIOD OF WORK AND ADHERENCE to duty, which began at the end of last October, and has been going on, in one form or another, pretty much ever since. As Mars ends his transit of Virgo (till June 11) you conclude this period, which may be likened to a period of apprenticeship: as it ends, you are ready for a fuller participation in life, less as a servant, so to speak, and more as an equal, a partner, a full sharer of the world around you.

This transfer of emphasis from the 6th House to the 7th—from duty to sharing, from subordination to participation, from employee to partner, etc.—takes place June 11, at the level of the influence of Mars. Later, on Nov. 20, 1950, and with greater finality on Aug. 10, 1951, it takes place at the level of Saturn; to establish the form and direction of your life until the end of 1953.

Therefore, the changes that come about now, in June, are paving the way for more enduring changes to come, and should be viewed in this light. Anything, now, which broadens the scope of your life, especially to bring you more fully and harmoniously in contact with other people, in some mature partnership-relation, is to be welcomed as setting the right tone and pace for rewarding and mature living, now and in the future.

Partnership may come, or be sought, either in business, in social life, or in marriage—or in any two or all three. If you are not married, you should be moving purposefully in the direction of marriage. If you are, you should be strengthening the marriage ties, and adding new dimensions to marriage by seeking wider circles of friends. Apart from marriage and broadened social life, this is an excellent influence for the formation of business partnerships which, if you move into them with deliberation, can mean much and grow satisfactorily for a long time.

THE INITIAL IMPACT OF MARS' ENTRY INTO

TH. 1: Make hay while the sun shines, find satisfaction in a sizeable stack. Tensions are relieved with relaxing pursuits such as reading.

FRI. 2: Emphasizing the good points of the other fellow draws forth a co-operative spirit and you both pull together to win mutual benefits.

SAT. 3: Important people will promote your efforts when directed along practical and worthwhile lines. Prestige is gained through efficiency.

SUN. 4: Harmonious relations develop through talking over with loved ones the deepest wishes of your heart and mind. Devote day to sharing views.

MON. 5: Get essentials for security well established in your planning so as to be most effective with efforts and direction of energies.

TU. 6: Personal contacts can bring you some important support, increase your earnings and give you a new confidence in your ability and purpose.

WED. 7: Study your problems with impersonal slant that yields a truly objective viewpoint and release you from confusion and inner turmoil by so doing.

TH. 8: Check the ego to meet outer demands and more important needs of others. Analyze your motives to discard those that impede progress.

FRI. 9: A smile and helping hand will surmount obstacles, irksome details, irritating intrusions if you don't take yourself too seriously. Be mature.

SAT. 10: Act with full consciousness of worthy motives and you'll find others are encouraging, helpful. Project personality and persuasiveness now.

SUN. 11: Those close are ready to help if you reach out with warmth and good will. An even disposition does much to strengthen family relations.

MON. 12: Plan the day so as to have time to make important contacts, seek a raise, show reasons why your work merits a better position. Have confidence.

TU. 13: Get in touch with those who mean the most to you. This may be the very time when you can give greatest assistance, find strength in love.

WED. 14: Buckle down to necessary tasks not only to get them done, but to derive inner satisfaction from accomplishment and signs of progress.

TH. 15: Work within the present framework of family relations and take what comes up in an easy stride that doesn't rebel against restrictions.

FRI. 16: Don't lose sight of the woods for the trees! Stabilize your base of operations with a keen wariness that protects interests, builds for future.

SAT. 17: Make contacts that lead to wise investments or pacts of long standing. Material matters prosper with sensible decisions, thrifty.

SUN. 18: Participation in community ventures, group activities gives outlet to your desire to be helpful, add to the general good. Give time and thought.

MON. 19: Lift eyes above the ground of routine to see what and who is about you. Find happiness with loved ones. Contentment in home, with friendly contacts.

TU. 20: Share interest with those close and improve mind with studies, new concepts, expansion of educational ideas. A fuller life is in sharing.

WED. 21: You trip over yourself if you start fussing about odds and ends that are unimportant to main purpose. Keep cool, proceed steadily.

TH. 22: Get an early start to a productive day if you handle matters with intelligent finesse. Self-discipline cautions early rest, quiet recreation.

FRI. 23: Go to others with your problems and heed their advice. Show appreciation of their interest by serious consideration of what has been said.

SAT. 24: Original ideas can be given concrete form if you are practical, willing to expend extra effort. Enjoy creative outlets that release feelings.

SUN. 25: Show affection for those you cherish in demonstrable ways that reach their hearts and spirit. Warm appreciation shows true devotion.

MON. 26: Facts and figures are your safest guides in transacting business. Don't sign papers, make commitments until you have an accurate report.

TU. 27: Take the time to see what goes on around you and gain additional inspiration from observation of new places, new contacts. Travel, read.

WED. 28: Time-wasters are to be avoided, especially those whose thoughtless gossip causes reckless harm. Say a good word or hold your peace.

TH. 29: It's important that you give full attention to responsibilities dependent upon you. Integrity and common-sense accomplish most.

FRI. 30: Plan your routine work so that you can help in civic ventures, group activities which work for general welfare. Moderate enthusiasms for health.

Libra (June 11) is likely to be over-stimulating. His first aspect, after that, is the square to Uranus (June 24) in your 4th House, and until this is past, you should be cautious of your moves in regard to other people. Indeed, the first 24 days of June will bear careful watching, lest discontent over the past (till June 11) lead you to some swift and fruitless action (June 11-24) which, though it may be in the right and broadening direction, can none the less be ill-conceived, because over-hasty. Remember that prudence, patience, and forethought (till June 24) will insure all the best, which is most likely to come to you, as a result of present moderation, between June 25 and July 14.

FORTIFY YOURSELF IN DAILY LIFE AND DOMESTIC agreements (till June 3) and be ready to take advantage of practical opportunities in the business and financial world (June 4-12) when you should grasp chances for gain and material betterment of all kinds. Behind-the-scenes influences, and your own unassuming and tactful efforts work for you here; you have a chance to put your best foot forward, and to get what you want by tact, and without seeming to make demands. This is a splendid time, too, for all romantic matters, which have a practical and enduring quality, as well as plenty of excitement. You are finding the way to achieve a life that is simultaneously more stable, more exciting, and enriched by new viewpoints, and even though the tasks of everyday life may be exacting, there are plenty of rewards, too.

Look out for extravagant ideas, and depressed thoughts (June 13-23) among those close; the influences of others are very demanding (June 11-24) and "haste makes waste" in more ways than one. Prevent strife at all costs; what's good need not be struggled for . . . and what needs struggle is not good. "Seek peace and pursue it" for with peace as your anchor, you will find (June 25-29) a serene and also exciting answer to your needs. Take care of security here; it may be that the best demands of security require a change, but it must be a change with purpose. Take advice from private sources, to re-define the needs of your personal life in terms of the growing future, into which you are now moving swiftly and surely—especially if you are doing so in active harmony with those who share your life and aspirations.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS

IF YOU WERE BORN APRIL 21-MAY 21

WITH VENUS IN YOUR SUN-SIGN (JUNE 1-27) and thereafter in your 2nd House, you are indeed favored at a time when the world is moving forward at a swift pace; and you should be able to use the favorable influences surrounding you in any reasonable and mature way you wish, for progress, growth, contentment, and success. A time of perhaps excessive emotional or social activity comes to an end (June 11) as Mars completes his transit of your 5th House, which has been in force, one way or another, since last October. Any social and emotional problems which have been prominent in these last months (perhaps re-accented again since the end of March) should now be resolved and solved. If love has been vexing or exacting; if children or young people have made demands; if your own feelings have been causing you difficulty—you can expect these things to reach a conclusion, and it is your business to see that the conclusion reached is mature and productive of the right kind of future growth and development for all concerned. You are in many ways the hub of your universe, with Pluto in your 4th House; your stability is essential to the stability of all; and the way you point now, as the planetary emphasis changes, will be taken seriously by those around you. There remains a "wind-up" period of these problems, till Nov. 20, when Saturn also leaves your 5th House; but the decisions made, and the directions taken now will have a serious and important bearing on the future for a long time.

Therefore, make sure (till June 11) that you do not simply become bored with the past, and over-eager to take off into the future which now appears over the horizon. Be sure you are moving toward something new and better—not merely away from something unsolved of which you are tired. Indeed, until after June 24, when Mars squares Uranus, you should use all your imagination and foresight to see the possible future clearly, for to act out of impulse or with-

TH. 1: Check liabilities to figure a sounder way of progress along material lines. Examine the budget for new ways of saving.

FRI. 2: Let outer tensions roll off like water off a duck while you work away at necessary jobs. Impersonal friendliness withstands pressure, give you time.

SAT. 3: Find mediums for expression of potential creativeness, increase interests for self-development. Conservative course indicated for latter part of day.

SUN. 4: Join with others in communal spirit, friendly contact. Go for outing or have family gathering to increase personal response, relations.

MON. 5: Confidence in your own integrity of purpose gets across to others if you step forward to utilize present contacts and opportunities.

TU. 6: Go to those whose opinions you value and gain much from discussion of problems and plans. Support is yours for the asking if you are sincere.

WED. 7: Faith and good will are a magnet to those who can further your way to reaching your goal. Rejoice in work that produces constructive results.

TH. 8: Within the confines of present circumstances more can be developed and realized than a defeatist, restricted attitude might recognize.

FRI. 9: Drop your personal wishes to be out-going and helpful to associates, others around you. Help them out of rut of irksome duties with cheerfulness.

SAT. 10: Approach boss for advantageous promotion or monetary gain. Investments made now are apt to bring substantial gain in future.

SUN. 11: Reach above material, physical interests to meet those dear to you on a plane of higher interests. Share ideals, realize nobler purpose.

MON. 12: Energies well directed today get more of what you most want, show ways of achieving it. A splendid day for concentrated efforts, planning.

TU. 13: Tendency to extremes or extravagant gestures should be curbed. Go over figures once and then again for proper evaluation of expenditures.

WED. 14: Like 13th in the need for caution and watchful attention to prevent waste or increased expenses. Take pressing matters in an easy stride.

TH. 15: Temptation to play with security by taking a glittering risk should be firmly squelched. Hang on fast to what you know is practical.

FRI. 16: When you feel like exploding or letting go of temper, just let off steam in personal work that needed extra energy anyway. Be conservative.

SAT. 17: Neighborhood friendliness gives an inner glow of warmth, contentment. Reciprocate with kindly acts, considerate attentions for mutual growth.

SUN. 18: Tell dreams and aspirations to loved ones, get close to them by sharing confidences so that there is an increased understanding.

MON. 19: Natural reserve and firmness of purpose help to win others to consideration of your wishes, willingness to help you in realizing them.

TU. 20: Domestic tranquility comes through united efforts and reasonable behavior, through active interest in building a truer relationship.

WED. 21: Methodical procedure in the day's work gets it done with a modicum of interruptions, annoying pressures. Maintain peace with smiles.

TH. 22: An early start to the day is most productive. Work well in hand leaves you free to make important contacts, consider new possibilities.

FRI. 23: Go to boss, partners for a new understanding of present conditions, plans for future expansion or necessary curtailments.

SAT. 24: Group work, dealings with young people are favored today. Devise other methods for more successful handling of group activities. Have fun!

SUN. 25: Personal contacts bring rewarding support, increased confidence and assurance of future help. Relaxing day will give renewed strength, purpose.

MON. 26: Safeguard interests with watchful eye and readiness to curtail expenditures if essential to continued security and well-being. Be prudent.

TU. 27: Work within a framework of controlled energies, consideration of physical welfare that gets most done with least fatigue or stress and strain.

WED. 28: Important decisions should not be made until later date. In meantime check the facts thoroughly with security, amount of risk well in mind.

TH. 29: Plug away at present work and plans. Don't alter course now until more objective viewpoint has been achieved in future. Stay put!

FRI. 30: Day in and day out performance of duties brings results that are gratifying, that show something of permanence has been built. Follow routine.

out due and mature consideration before this date is to run the risk of getting off to a bad start, just when a little more patience could insure a good start.

ALL PRACTICAL FINANCIAL MATTERS MUST BE settled (till June 3) without taking feelings too much into account. Permit conservative counsel to rule, if more exciting proposals are not sound. You will have a chance to say your piece, and to good purpose (June 4-12); confer with those close to you, and, by causing their radical notions to harmonize with your more truly progressive and sound ideas, set forth a plan of action here that will serve as a guide.

Having done this, be sure not to take worries, doubts, and forebodings too seriously (June 13-24) as Venus squares Pluto, and Mercury squares Saturn. Faith in the rightness of your basic life-structure and those who share it with you is essential; prevent suspicion, distrust, envy from hurting you and those near you. If finances seem muddled, cut costs to keep the budget alive, and don't take risks, cut corners, or act in haste or panic where money is concerned.

Social life is active and happy; it's a fine time for engagement or marriage, if you aren't already married; and for "going places and doing things" with husband or wife, if you are. Be careful, however (June 11-24) that you don't wear yourself out physically trying to do more than is good for you. This is the period, too, in which to avoid rash and hasty moves; slow-motion here will end one phase and start another in the best possible manner, and with fewest causes for the regrets, which haste could bring. If you are changing jobs, do so in slow-motion . . . and it is perhaps better to wait in making an actual new start till after June 24. You enter here (June 25-29) an excellent period in which to "get set" for the future. Agreements with those close open new doors of expression, new avenues of thought and conduct; and you will find, as June closes, that you are indeed moving into a new world, in which your daily life is newly enriched, and which is, as a consequence, a place of infinite possibilities, for the present and the future. Friends are of utmost importance; cement old ties, and make new ones, for they're essential to all that is best in the months ahead.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS AND YEAR'S PLAN

IF YOU WERE BORN MAY 22-JUNE 21

THE YEAR ON WHICH YOU EMBARK WITH your 1950 birthday is an extremely important one, for its own sake, and additionally because it leads you into a chain of planetary influences, reaching to the end of 1953, under which you should come to a high point of creative self-expression and secure happiness.

During the coming year, you complete the transitional phase of your life which began when Saturn entered Virgo, in September, 1948. By your 1951 birthday, you will be within eye-shot of the end of this transit; for Saturn leaves Virgo, to enter Libra, on August 10, 1951, so that by June, 1951, you will be at the last stage of his transit of Virgo, your 4th House. During this coming year, therefore, you are completing a process of change, growth, and revitalized security, perhaps in a new place, and almost certainly in a new situation, domestically, emotionally, and psychologically.

Since November, 1949, Mars, as well as Saturn has occupied the 4th House of your chart, moving now to leave it and enter your 5th House, Libra, on June 11th. At this date, you end an important period with respect to your roots, place in the world, and home environment; and you are launching forth along some new line of thought and endeavor which includes greater freedom of personal expression, and a greater sense of individual worth, than you have experienced in some time. This greater freedom of personal expression must be used wisely and well, for it is the fore-runner of Saturn's transit of your 5th House (Nov. 20, 1950-Mar. 1, 1951, and again for the major portion of the transit, Aug. 1, 1951-Oct. 20, 1953). Saturn in 5th will require of you a close union between self-expression on the one hand, and a sense of mature responsibility on the other. As Mars now moves through your 5th House (June 11-Aug. 8) the urge to self-

TH. 1: Your business interests are well favored now if you work with advantages to others as well as to yourself in mind. Be on your toes.

FRI. 2: More experienced heads will help you reach fruitful decisions if you seek such counsel today. Give new projects tangible outline to put in motion.

SAT. 3: Domestic affairs prosper with their interest in the foreground and a practical viewpoint in procedures that strengthen the base of operations.

SUN. 4: Give thought to your actions and what thoughts are uppermost that you can deal with them frankly, be fair in judgment, give value to others.

MON. 5: Add creative ideas to the mechanical performance of routine duties and have the fun of new expansion, relief from dullness of routine tasks.

TU. 6: Increase in possessions, monetary gain will come with attention to present offerings, stable investments and thrifty use of means at hand.

WED. 7: Efforts are supported by interested associates, friends so give full measure in executing details, maintaining standards of integrity, purpose.

TH. 8: Love affairs need delicate, sensitive handling that does not urge extremes or unwise demands. Think and act along idealistic lines that cherish.

FRI. 9: Watch your step in dealing with others now—be patient, understanding and diplomatic to preserve a smooth and peaceful relationship. Eve: Seek advice.

SAT. 10: If common-sense and practical measures are employed you can make increased income through business deals, long-range pacts. Be prudent, saving.

SUN. 11: Intimate circle of loved ones, friends rewards your time and interest with ready response, helpful advice and show you where you can be most useful.

MON. 12: Older people bolster your credit and reputation if you speak freely with them of your plans and desires for the future. Be frank, open and warm.

TU. 13: Find some outlet to express inner creativeness that needs to find a definite form. Logical steps to such expression are necessary and beneficial.

WED. 14: Get a grip on your energies when starting the day so as to get into smooth, ready action that produces results later on. A relaxed, easy tempo.

TH. 15: Don't deviate from normal pattern now but give serious consideration to what reasons are present for changing your course for sound decision later.

FRI. 16: Impulse should give way to reason, conservative behavior, if progress is to be made today. Obstacles are surmountable if looked at realistically.

SAT. 17: Like 16th—inner compulsions need firm handling lest they run away and upset your deepest aspirations. Think about the other fellow instead.

SUN. 18: The gayety and laughter of young people, family is a soothing, happy time for you if plans are made for a sociable, get-together day. Have fun.

MON. 19: Start the week with a well-planned program that releases time and energy to devising new, efficient methods of handling routine problems, work.

TU. 20: Project towards others and find an encouraging response to your overtures. Win those close to sharing your interests and heartfelt wishes now.

WED. 21: Hold steady to planned, sensible economy and be firm in refusing to risk or gamble with security. Domestic tranquility essential.

TH. 22: Put personal wishes aside to conform to others and find a much greater satisfaction in having assisted others over some rough spot, trying hardship.

FRI. 23: Courage of your convictions carries you forward to important contacts and cinching matters that will be most beneficial in the long run. Be cheerful.

SAT. 24: Like 23rd—your efforts most likely to succeed today if you are earnest about what you are after and willing to bend your efforts to convincing others.

SUN. 25: Open house to friends and neighbors makes a bright, pleasant day of hospitality and good will. Give tensions a good, sunny airing.

MON. 26: Resentments are stumbling blocks in the way of achievement and recognition of your finer qualities—get rid of them with realistic evaluation of self.

TU. 27: Associates can shed light on perplexing problems, show a smoother way of operation to get in touch with them and be free in discussion for results.

WED. 28: A calm, easy approach does much to help others fit into the day's round of activities, successful carrying out of duties and conserves strength.

TH. 29: Full Moon—don't deviate from understanding with partners or willingness to have mutual concern at heart for later recognition of trustworthiness, solidity.

FRI. 30: Knowledge of adherence to principles gives self-assurance and ability to reach for larger scope of interests, recognition. Confer with others.

expression will be great—and it is likely to run away with your maturity and responsibility, if you are not consciously aware of the need for expressing these. The wisdom with which you use these present impulses and opportunities, therefore, will stamp your inner attitudes and means of growth and expression for a long time to come. For this reason, your birthday-period, 1950, is of especial importance. It marks your transition into a new-won security, away from that which is outworn toward that which is progressive and aspiring; and it gives you the creative drive which, if rightly used now, will merge with the longer-lasting influence of Saturn, starting Nov. 20, and gathering force Aug. 10, 1951, to bring you to a new and deeply rewarding level of self-expression and happiness, in the three and a half years now beginning.

MAKE YOUR PEACE WITH CIRCUMSTANCES (till June 3) by a mature willingness to give ground before the impact of necessity. If those who share your life, or if circumstances themselves, prove stubborn and hard to handle, be mature and above all patient. It's needless to force issues before June 3; after this date (June 4-12) you gain extraordinary support from unexpected, behind-the-scene forces; finances become better; and you are able to see and plan ahead easily and without making demands. You're winding up, in this period, some pressureful period that began last October; though domestic demands and the necessities of private life remain, they are now much easier to handle. Do not be worried (June 13-24) by doubts and fears, and do not be panicked into some emotional or financial excess. This is a period for slow-motion and thoughtful deliberation; the square of Mars to Uranus (June 11-24) "incites to riot" where emotions are concerned. False moves of temperament, excessive pleasure-seeking, are here destructive of happiness and peace of mind. Study the XX series of influences in Your Planascope, and be guided by them through the maze of temptations that are present, centering your attention, for best developments, on the RR influences that accent the benefits to be derived under the trine of Jupiter to Uranus, and the other influences which activate it. Restraint of ego and temperament is essential. This is a fine time for a vacation, if it can be managed: use care in travelling, and keep costs to a sensible level, to "get away from it all" in some purposeful way, relax, and take stock of what is to come. If you have creative gifts, this is the time to develop them; if not, then set your mind on "creative living", on the highest ideals of human relationships, and the contributions which you can make to them. Love is accented, under this 5th House influence; and the maturity, as well as the warmth, which you bring to your love-relationships is of the utmost importance. Love from here on entails increasing responsibilities—to your loved ones, to young people, to the best you have in yourself. Purposeless pleasure-seeking (especially till June 24th) is very dangerous. So also is gambling with security. This is a time to play safe and stand pat on known values; thus you get the drift of the tide, and are able to catch its crest later, when the seas are less tempestuous.

FOLLOWING JUNE 24, THERE IS AN EXCELLENT period (June 25-29) in which some remarkable financial opportunity can be developed, to mature under the trine of Jupiter to Uranus (July 20) and to be clinched and cemented as Venus conjoins Uranus and trines Jupiter (July 21-28). This is one of the finest of material chances you have had in a long time; it continues to operate to your benefit till Sept. 15, and then takes hold again between Dec. 1, 1950, and April 23, 1951, with a "high center" in February, 1951. Prestige is high now, with Jupiter in 10th House, and is focused and reflected in income, because of his trine to Uranus in 2nd. You win the support of influential people, and may find yourself suddenly in a position of authority and responsibility with exceptionally good pay, as well as the boost to your ego, to reward you. It's because of this that it is worth while to avoid haste before June 24th. It's possible that, before this date, you will get word of the good things to come, and it may require the square of Mars to Uranus (June 24) to get you out of some rut, onto the broad highway that expands before you. If so, you can make up your mind to better things before June 24, and be prepared to "move in" right after that date. Do nothing in temper or temperament, however, and be sure of where you are going before you burn your bridges behind you . . . for bridges burned before June 24 are hard to rebuild; therefore be sure you will have no further need for them before applying the torch.

GEMINI: PLANNING YOUR YEAR

THE TRANSIT OF VENUS THROUGH YOUR sign (June 27-July 22) with Mars and Neptune in your 5th House and Jupiter in 10th trine Uranus marks a high point of popularity, and some very exciting, opportunistic developments to which you should be constantly alert, ready to take advantage of any and all "breaks," in personal or in business life.

If you are single, this is a prime chance to alter that condition. Engagement or marriage (June 27-July 9) are richly favored, for the romantic influences are strong and, if you are mature and sincere, can be made into a permanent part of your life at this time. Be alert to the excessive emotionalism of Mars conjunct Neptune (till July 14); the purely romantic can be explosively exciting, and anything that is merely a castle of sand, or a house of daydreams, will be blown away in the tempest of your emotionalism. If, however, your feet are on the ground, your head-in-the-clouds can reveal some durable vistas, toward which you can move, and to which you can come for lasting happiness.

If you are already married, deepen the ties of love that are yours, and make new friends, move in new circles, open your mind and heart to new human and social values.

This is a fine time to put your best foot forward, in all ways. If you work, seek advancement . . . and if you haven't worked before and want to, this is your time to start well up the ladder. Superiors favor you; if you are in the public eye, in politics, church or club work, expect to have added responsibility, and the increased respect of your associates. Seek a position of leadership, and in all ways build high the structure of your success and prestige, on the solid foundations of your new-won security and sense of belonging.

This is a splendid period financially, and one in which past efforts can be rewarded, and new ones quickly productive. If you have invented anything, seek returns from it here; if you have investments, they should yield well. If you work, a raise is in order; and from whatever source your income derives, you should be better off than in a long time. Make present good fortune the basis for future affluence and prosperity: save a good part of what comes your way. Invest soundly for income and stability. Expect the good things of life to come your way, and do all in your power to deserve them, and to build them into a permanent part of your life-structure. Major agreements should be reached by July 20th, and long-term contracts signed; these are cemented (July 21-28) at a high level of happiness and security, and the basis of a prosperous and happy life should here be formed. Don't let emotional-financial extremism of any kind jeopardize your position, contentment or security, for there is a cloudy and muddled influence (till Aug. 3) that can go to your head and cause personal or economic indiscretions if you are not on guard.

SOUNDNESS, HOWEVER, IS VERY DESIRABLE here, since in August you come (Aug. 4-24) into the year's best period, during which all that has previously been achieved receives new confirmation . . . and if by any chance you "missed the boat" before, you have an opportunity to get on board now. Here, Mars moves into your 6th House (Aug. 8) to trine Jupiter in 10th (Aug. 16) and Uranus in 2nd (Aug. 24) in a grand trine involving your 10th House (Jupiter, prestige, standing, credit), your 2nd House (income), and your 6th House (daily life and occupation.) This is a seldom-seen configuration, under which you should cinch whatever job and income-source you have, or move confidently into a new and better one. Everyone helps, here; superiors and influential people are on your side; co-workers are cheering for you; and if you need financial backing for even a quite daring scheme, you can pretty surely get it, provided the elements of common sense are marked in your approach to your project. You should seek, in every way possible, to better yourself here, through betterment of your job, your daily life, your prestige. It should be your aim to end this period (Aug. 24) with all flags flying, and with your life established in the way you want it to go for a long time to come.

SLOW-DOWN AND WIND-UP

BETWEEN AUGUST 24 AND NOVEMBER 30, you encounter a period of consolidation, rather than of continued expansion. Your life will continue to grow and flourish, according to the plans you made, and the projects you launched, in June, July, and August. But now you should not apply the steam for the sake of new and exciting developments; you should rather tend the fires you have already built, bank them slightly, and be content with holding your gains, instead of seeking new ones.

Health and peace of mind can suffer (Aug. 24-Sept. 24) if you are driving yourself too hard. Publicity favors you, if you aren't "trying too hard" and so being misunderstood. This is no time to be an "eager beaver" for public recognition; rather, if you stick to your job, you will get all the recognition you need and deserve—while if you are making demands or seeking the limelight, you are likely to present a broad target for the envious to shoot at. This condition continues, in somewhat altered form, right through till the end of November. There's an excellent chance to steady and stabilize your situation (Sept. 24-Oct. 17) through far-sighted cooperative agreements with others, looking more to the long-term good than to any immediate changes or gains.

You are warmed, encouraged and supported here by your loved ones, perhaps more so than by those you meet in everyday walks of life, who may seem contentious and difficult. Be a yes-man where there is occasion to be; you gain ground heeding the needs and demands of others, and lose it trying to get your own way. This is addedly true (Oct. 18-Nov. 6) when Mars in your 7th House squares Saturn at the last degrees of your 4th: here excess speed, impatience, discontent, etc. can "upset the apple cart" just when the problems of the past are about to be solved. Major changes may come here, due to forces beyond your control; if so, consider them a push in the right direction, and realize that your best time to make new connections, plans, etc., will come in December. Do not, in any circumstances, try to force things before the end of November; emotionalism runs high, and you can make some false move, if you are putting yourself under pressure, that can jeopardize happiness and financial security. You are making a major transition, as Saturn moves from 4th House to 5th (Nov. 20) and should be willing to "drift with the tide" till after Dec. 1, when things will come clearer.

SIGN-POSTS TO THE FUTURE

THE ENTRANCE OF SATURN INTO LIBRA (Nov. 20) introduces a kind of prologue to the full drama of this transit, which will hold stage-center in your life between Aug. 10, 1951, and Oct. 20, 1953. The present prologue runs between Nov. 20, 1950, and March 1, 1951, after which Saturn returns to Virgo (Mar. 1-Aug. 9, 1951) to wind up his transit of your 4th House, which now comes to a preliminary close.

Saturn in Libra (Nov. 20, 1950-Mar. 1, 1951) activates the 5th House of your chart, the house of creative self-expression in all its manifestations: love, social life, drama, young people, and any abilities you have in literature, music, or the other arts.

Saturn is the focus of immediate attention: the house he transits demands attention; thus attention now centers in these 5th House needs. Saturn, in his own right, demands maturity and responsibility, with respect to the house he activates, as well as in general. Thus, the years now foreshadowed, and the present period during which Saturn is in Libra, demand of you attention to your own creative needs, and also maturity in satisfying them.

When Saturn in 5th House catches people in the midst of some personal situation that is not all moonlight and roses, the reaction is frequently to accent the need for attention of the 5th House (romance, self-expression) and to neglect the need for responsibility and maturity in connection with it. Thus, discontent with things as they are tends to lead into a frantic effort to "express one's self" in some kind of irresponsible adventure, when the transit of Saturn occurs. When adults suddenly start acting like adolescents, it's often because Saturn is transiting 5th House, centering attention on the need for individual self-expression, without at once evoking the mature and responsible response which alone can make this transit productive. This is no time to go adventuring down the "primrose path of pleasure"—though the urge to do so will be there. The first thing you must do, in the presence of this transit, is to decide where your emotional responsibilities lie, and to center your attention there.

This done, you are ready for a deeply rewarding experience in self-discovery, and in self-expression, at a new and adult level. For at whatever age this transit finds you, you should emerge from it with love more profound, because more mature, and with your life and emotions organized in a stable and enduring pattern of living and loving, in which one supports and enriches the other. This is the transit under which to discover, or re-discover, that "happiness is not a thing to be sought separately; happiness is the by-product of a full, well-rounded life."

Anything that makes happiness look like something you can seek as something apart from the normal order of living is to be deeply distrusted; anything by which you come to understand happiness as the by-product of a full, well-rounded life provides the right way for you.

There is a chance, under this transit, for the discovery of creative talents in the arts, and you should open your mind wide to this possibility.

WITH JUPITER IN 10TH HOUSE (Dec. 1, 1950-Apr. 20, 1951) prestige is high. You should here cement the gains made last summer, and fortify your business, professional, and social life at a new and rewarding level of success and achievement. Publicity favors you (Dec. 1-17) and you have a chance here to enter new agreements, or to reassert old ones under new circumstances into which they can be made to fit. Be ready to sit back and relax (Dec. 18-Jan. 15, 1951) and avoid excess spending.

BETWEEN JAN. 16 AND FEB. 25, 1951, Mars goes through your 10th House, conjoining Jupiter and trining Uranus there during February. You can lose here, through over-extending your credit, through being too eager or too grasping; superiors can lead you along through too great optimism, and your own optimism is likely to encourage you to dangerous risks or extremes. Be an opportunist, for there are great opportunities here; but stay on the safe and sane side of all decisions, and be especially careful, as Mars opposes Saturn at the end of February not to shake your security by an unwise move, or by stubborn adherence to some plan that should be abandoned, or at least postponed.

EPILOGUE TO YESTERDAY

SATURN'S FINAL ACTIVATION OF YOUR 4TH HOUSE (Mar. 1-Aug. 10, 1951) necessitates a "retake" of some things you may have thought done with last November. This period completes the transitional period which began in September 1948 and gained fresh impetus in June 1949. The present period completes the new foundations you have been building and should be regarded as putting the finishing touches on the new house before moving into it for a permanent habitation. Responsibilities accumulate here, but should not discourage you, since you know they will be lessened this summer, and that the better you take care of them now, the freer you will be of them later, and for a long time to come. Be especially cautious against resentments at the end of February; and do not let your emotions get the better of you, as Mars moves through your 11th House (Feb. 26-Apr. 6) to emphasize your aspirations, and perhaps cause you to rebel against anything that stands even temporarily in the way of their attainment. Be discreet socially, and in all forms of self-expression; also be careful that money doesn't run through your fingers wastefully. If you can withdraw a little from social and other activities (Apr. 7-May 20) you will do the best possible things for your peace of mind, growth, and betterment. With Jupiter in your 11th House (Apr. 21, 1951-Apr. 26, 1952) you have numerous and valuable friends; don't let them distract you from your main purposes, which remain creative and deeply personal. These purposes you can fortify (May 1-20) so that they will form the rock-like foundation on which your life is built.

As Mars goes through your sun-sign (May 21-June 30, 1951) you are launched on a new two-year cycle, and should make this, your 1951 birthday period, count in the same way that your 1950 birthday counted: as the pace- and tone-setter for the future. The final square of Mars to Saturn in your 4th House occurs here, in June. Here also occurs the trine of Mars to Neptune in 5th. This means that your accent must be and remain on the creative, self-fulfilling side of your life, and that the material situation in which you find yourself must here be made into a servitor of your deepest, most intimate, and most mature creative needs. By establishing yourself in this situation, and this frame of mind, at the time of your 1951 birthday, you stand ready to move forward into two richly rewarding, and personally gratifying years.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS

IF YOU WERE BORN JUNE 22-JULY 23

THIS IS THE MONTH WHEN THE CHANGE that peeped over the horizon in December, and vanished in February, comes back to life again, perhaps in a new form, but "this time for keeps." As Mars completes his transit of your 3rd House (June 11) you are able to wind up a lot of odds and ends of details, and to move forward along some new line, which is a continuation of the old, into new areas of growth and achievement. Although many, and perhaps most, of the elements of your recent environment continue in force, you're heading for a broader sphere of action and influence, and should be ready for changes with a high heart, and with sound purpose.

There is some danger here that you will be inclined to move too fast, and without due consideration of all the factors involved. The square of Mars to Uranus (complete June 24, and worth remembering all month) strikes hard and fast; if you have been covering up any impatiences, they are likely to burst forth now, in a manner that can make your new start more frantic than it ought to be. Examine your ego, above all: do not do anything merely because you want it that way, if you cannot prove to yourself and others that it is well done, with ultimate goals, as well as present desires, in mind. If there is a dragback of elders, conservative insistence on the part of relatives, and long-standing circumstances, you should welcome these; they act as a check-rein on the too-spirited horse that is your self-assertiveness. Be ready to move, but with deliberation, in order that your most individualistic aims may be truly served and realized—not merely driven into the blind alley or a dead-end street where ego and emotionalism will land you.

TAKE PRIVATE ADVICE OF RELATIVES AND THOSE close to you (till June 3) and moderate the tone of your thinking to conform with the demands of circumstance. Although Mars is changing

TH. 1: Being able to receive as well as give in friendships puts them on a truly mutual basis and merits a closer, more harmonious unity. Go slow.

FRI. 2: Stress importance of security, home foundations in your actions now. Work for stabilizing the foundations for lasting well through the future.

SAT. 3: Expand mental capacity through increased study and wider interests. Readiness to assist associates is of immeasurable value. Be generous.

SUN. 4: The influence of those dear to you comes to your aid and helps promote your inner desires and aims. Welcome such help with deep appreciation.

MON. 5: A day in which to make each minute count for something constructive, creative and worth the doing. Enthusiasms should be checked to steady purpose.

TU. 6: Like yesterday in that actions bear tangible fruit, so plant your crop with care and proper selection to harvest a satisfactory result later on.

WED. 7: Stimulating forces should find broader horizon and scope for self-development through observation and increased perception and knowledge.

TH. 8: Attune yourself to a steady rhythm of accomplishment, not only for yourself but others who need your help, depend on you for encouragement.

FRI. 9: Control impulse to talk back to those in authority or who, in some way hold you to irksome duties. See beyond present limitations for expansion.

SAT. 10: True evaluation of yourself, your good points, lends weight in promoting self to others, especially when the cause is for general welfare.

SUN. 11: Enjoy travel today, meeting with old friends, finding new places or new contacts. Distant matters are favored if proper steps are taken.

MON. 12: Gather in today's offerings with a ready appreciation of its value and utilize what is practical to your advantage and increased prestige.

TU. 13: Home and family merit first consideration and provide a constant lasting source of happiness if you are aware, considerate and co-operative.

WED. 14: Pick out essential duties to do first so that later hours may not find you lagging behind or fretful over unexpected delays or interruptions.

TH. 15: Wholesome thoughts leave no room for unhealthy, cantankerous ones that sabotage a normal progress or interfere in constructive procedure.

FRI. 16: Like 15th in need for self-awareness. Guard against unreason of compulsions that tend to throw you off the path of common sense, fair play.

SAT. 17: Plan a sociable time with friends and have fun relaxing in their company after a business day that is gratifying if handled smoothly, calmly.

SUN. 18: Release from past tensions in today's quiet family group and comfort of loved ones close whose interest in your welfare is sincere and deep.

MON. 19: Innovations in business are acceptable if you have proved capable of securing base of operations, being practical and far-sighted.

TU. 20: Support from associate should give you necessary confidence to forge ahead and welcome new responsibilities, a higher position of authority.

WED. 21: Conservative procedure insures reputation and continued prestige at a time when temptation would lead you along foolhardy paths. Use discretion.

TH. 22: Give yourself a pat on the back for real accomplishment and then forge ahead with steady purpose towards high goal of achievement. Contact friends.

FRI. 23: Don't be hasty in offering solutions for present difficulties that need due consideration and best knowledge to reach equitable outcome.

SAT. 24: Present offers prove of incomparable value if modified to practical expression and thrifty outcome. They work to benefit domestic stability.

SUN. 25: Get out and enjoy yourself, go for a picnic or excursion with family, loved ones. Call on those sick or less fortunate. Write letters, read.

MON. 26: Self-control gets things done with less wear and tear on nerves, energy. Be moderate in approach to problems and snags that are apt to come up.

TU. 27: A well-planned program is easier to stick to than a hit or miss doing of things which are apt to tangle up with outside interference. Steady!

WED. 28: Keep your procedure in the day's work free of ire or temper to come out ahead with production and satisfaction in a job that is well done.

TH. 29: Full MOON—Pursuits of a private nature are well to follow rather than risking quarrels or other upsets of harmonious relations. Use tact.

FRI. 30: Comprehend problems of those dear to you so that you may supply the needed sympathy or help that eases their way. Give them full support!

houses (June 11) and inciting to a new start, Saturn does not make the transition from 3rd House to 4th till Nov. 20. Therefore, there are still hold-overs from the past that need to be dealt with calmly and collectedly. Promises or obligations in your immediate environment can be made to consume less time and energy, but they cannot be abandoned entirely by any means. The time to make your peace with them, and to relate them, in orderly and mature fashion, to a new life is till June 3.

Friends and social life are very important (June 1-27) and you are popular and sought after (June 4-12) in a way that enriches your life, and adds gaiety and high spirits to the chances that are coming about. It's entirely possible that marriage may be prominently in the picture. If you are not already married, the move of Mars (June 11) and Saturn (Nov. 20) into your 4th House is excellent for engagement and for taking first steps toward the establishment of your own home.

Remember that (until Sept. 15) you are under excellent support from Jupiter, trining Uranus in your Sun-sign from your 9th House. Therefore, change is of the essence of things—change for permanent betterment, or vacation travel, or anything that broadens your sphere and gives access to good will and good fortune through the doorway of a wide-open heart and mind. Refusal to make changes impedes growth; be sure they are made with purpose, by being especially careful (till June 24) of self-will and ego-demands. With these under control, you have now an unbeatable chance to "move into a better life" and should take full advantage of it. Curb discouragement (June 19-24) which may first mask as over-elated spirits and then cast you down if you are being impulsive. Accept restraining advice here, for maximum growth and progress.

ENTERING YOUR BIRTHDAY PERIOD, TAKE STOCK (June 21-29) and consolidate your forces, reaching high with courage and confidence. Over-rule a chance at domestic friction by travel, or by having your eyes fixed on high goals that minimize nearby chafing. Protect your security from eccentric ideas (till June 27) in order to cement (June 28, 29) your plans, and to move purposefully in the direction of your highest goals, which now become happily attainable.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN JULY 24-AUGUST 23

FINANCIAL MATTERS ARE NOW EMERGING from a stressful period, as Mars ends his long transit of your 2nd House (June 11) and moves into your 3rd, where he gives greater scope and freedom to mental and creative expression, and removes the pressure from purely material affairs. If you have been building well since last October, you should find practical matters in sound shape, so that, between now and the end of November, you can find your fortunes cemented at a gratifying level of income and security. Saturn, remaining in your 2nd House till Nov. 20, and returning there between March and August, 1951, should be used to steady finances at the level you wish them to maintain for the coming years. The first phase of this process is completed June 11; by this time you should know where your interests lie, and how you can handle them to best advantage. Evaluate the changes that have come about since last fall, and make your peace with material conditions in your life.

BE CAUTIOUS, AS MARS MOVES TO THE SQUARE of Uranus (complete June 24, and to be considered all month) that highly elated spirits do not cause you to deviate from the practical demands of the world, which continue in full force, though with lessened tension. If you have "suppressed desires" through Uranus in your 12th House, they are now likely to demand expression. But these demands should be sternly denied. The square of Mars to Uranus (till June 24) is over-stimulating to the mental-emotional centers; it is an influence under which you can "talk yourself into anything", for the most improbable notions will now appear in a rosy light, and can lead you far astray if you follow the false gleam, which is really ego and self-centeredness, masking as something high and noble. Examine your motives gravely and soberly, and do not give in to any which are

TH. 1: Circumstances favorable for material interests and chances for promotion if you exercise sound judgment in taking advantage.

FRI. 2: Light can be shed on present affairs if you seek advice, take it objectively, utilize in a constructive way. Don't overdo or get unstrung.

SAT. 3: Morning hours yield best work when energies and mind are fresh from rest. Later, stick to moderate course that curtails risks, gives relaxation.

SUN. 4: Meet with others on a social, friendly basis that draws out confidences, is receptive to furthering of mutual purposes. Be frank, open, fair.

MON. 5: Get work outlined in such a way as to leave time for broader interests. Give daily job new zest by inventing time-saving devices.

TU. 6: Capital increase comes through quick perception of value in present chances, providing dealings are square, and benefit others as well as yourself.

WED. 7: Development of public contacts meets with success. Philanthropies are furthered through enlistment of important individuals by personal charm.

TH. 8: Clearly define essential duties and put them in the foreground of today's schedule. Be thorough; keep an even speed that produces careful work.

FRI. 9: Take what is at hand and make the most of it—the rewards will be richer than seems apparent and you will have overcome a feeling of restriction.

SAT. 10: Personal matters helped by some private party such as friend, boss. Welcome suggestions and support that gives additional steam to go ahead.

SUN. 11: Companionship is of deep value in the everyday business of living. Take time to make it more meaningful with those who are already close and loved.

MON. 12: Innovations in system of enterprise will help its success and gain favor with superiors as well as with associates. Increase reputation for soundness.

TU. 13: Romance flourishes with encouragement and consideration of loved one. Project good will that builds worthwhile associations, increased friendship.

WED. 14: Buckle down to routine and have it well out of the way by afternoon when more relaxing pursuits can be followed.

TH. 15: Diligent work produces a rewarding day and helps you to avoid tangents, unnecessary risks or other acts which could impede steady progress.

FRI. 16: Conform to pressures of the moment by putting emphasis on your own performance, as well as giving help to others who need direction.

SAT. 17: The outer world holds some valuable offer if you are keen to grasp and use it with common-sense, prudence. Methodical approach makes things smoother.

SUN. 18: Join with neighbors in good fellowship; be ready to take part in some activity that benefits the group. Do your part in making home hospitable.

MON. 19: Have confidence in your aims, that the other fellow may, too. Present them in a way to be understood and appreciated.

TU. 20: Everything conspires to help you along the way to happiness and security if you are aware and opportunistic of what is here to be utilized.

WED. 21: An essential safeguard to a stable bank account is revising the budget with sufficient provision for the unexpected. Be thrifty.

TH. 22: With proper management you can increase profits. Later in day take it easy and get in some healthful exercise that helps keep you fit.

FRI. 23: Good impulses may well be followed into some constructive work that helps someone else as well. Get closer to living up to high principles.

SAT. 24: Beware of going around in circles by sticking to a set job that needs your time and efforts. Research, study open new vistas of thought, activity.

SUN. 25: Friendship is important. Hold fast to the friends you have by thoughtful deeds, keeping in touch through calling on them or by correspondence.

MON. 26: Start the new week by fitting details into a well-planned schedule that gives efficiency a chance to operate at highest level, produces most.

TU. 27: Routine well in hand should give some leeway for outside interests. Development of contacts for a wider scope of action. Be observant.

WED. 28: Confine yourself to personal work that secludes you from friction or bumping into contentious folks, to your chagrin. A friendly reserve wins the day.

TH. 29: A turbulent household can be quieted down with calm objectiveness that is reassuring, turns mountains back to foothills, and is firm.

FRI. 30: Past performance gets its recognition in tangible form today if perseverance has been your forte. Have conferences with partners, associates.

purely emotional. Those close to you may be provocative, either by being quarrelsome, or more insidiously, by falling in with, and encouraging, your unsound ideas.

YOU ARE AIDED, PERHAPS PRIVATELY OR EVEN secretly, to some excellent practical attainments, which can involve rewarding partnership in business or in marriage. This is due to the trine of Jupiter in 8th to Uranus in 12th, effective till Sept. 15th, and of maximum intensity during June and July. A business association can be very lucrative . . . and marriage can also be a partnership of both romantic and practical importance. Link your fortunes, and your best creative abilities, to others, for best development all around. A hard-headed agreement (till June 3) paves the way for added prestige and financial betterment (June 4-13) in which superiors favor you, and your worldly position rises high. Prevent momentary doubts, distrust, suspicion (June 14, 15) from injuring your excellent situation; and do not yield to over-optimistic ideas of friends and associates (June 16-20) unless you want to experience the backwash of discouragement (June 20-23) as realistic forces take hold and demand recognition. Prevent (till June 24) all over-excitability from making inroads on your growth and progress; the pressures of your environment are turned into inspirations, after this date, if you side-step strife and anything that would drain you emotionally or mentally. The inner and creative forces struggle for expression; let them wait till after June 24, and they will then work to their best advantage. Mounting inner pressure (June 21-24) needs deliberate relaxing and self-study; find out "what makes you tick" here, in order to be able (June 25-29) to make fullest use of your personal abilities. An agreement, either a new one or an old one strengthened in secret, is excellent here; this can be in personal affairs (such as a secret engagement for an excellent marriage) or in business matters (such as a privately-managed partnership through which all will benefit) or in both. Make these last days of June count heavily by overruling personalities, rejecting chances for strife and discord nearby, and so getting your life organized in a way that will lead you forward into a world that is growing and expanding rapidly toward new horizons.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN AUG. 24-SEPT. 23

THE LITTLE DOUBTS THAT MAY HAVE BESET you come to an end as Mercury turns direct (May 27) and after a period that requires a great deal of tact, especially with superiors (till June 3) you are "in the clear" and moving smoothly toward much-to-be-desired goals and objectives. From now till Nov. 20, as Saturn goes through the balance of your Sun-sign and into your 2nd House, you have a chance to rise to new heights of responsibility and success, and in all ways to summarize your life to date in the establishment of yourself in a firm position, for a long time to come. It is a time for you to "come into your own" in all ways that mean greater maturity and stability. Marriage may be included here, if you are not already married; if you are, you find new and richer meaning in marriage and its adult responsibilities. Your obligations may be large, but they should not be burdensome, since with Saturn in your Sun-sign, you should see them as part of yourself, not as something imposed from the outside. If you are in the business or professional world, this is your time to make the most of opportunities, and to go out and create opportunities for yourself. In all ways, you have the signal to advance, and to do so along the lines that are most important with you, and most consistent with the ideas and aspirations that are most truly and legitimately your own.

WITHIN THE FOREGOING OVER-ALL PATTERN of Saturn's influence that brings major opportunity, you are helped, by Jupiter in your 7th House (till Sept. 15, and again after Dec. 1st) which brings you the assistance of other people. Thus it is a time to form partnerships, (marriage, business, or both) and in all ways to link your fortunes with those of others. Friends are a tremendous help; you have unusual friends, some eccentric, some truly creative. Select the best, and adhere to them loyally; you TH. 1: You score high with others. Don't throw their favor overboard by being indifferent to chance of enhancing reputation, insuring credit. Act!

FRI. 2: Persistence along lines most important to you will materialize sooner or later. Keep basic aims in foreground of your thinking, and act accordingly.

SAT. 3: Satisfying relationships with others in morning hours. Afternoon and evening should mark a tapering off of activities for rest, relaxation.

SUN. 4: Promote peace in the home where it is most essential to your own personal interests. Consider all involved, to reach the greatest harmony.

MON. 5: Avoid the materialistic rut that robs you of precious time with loved ones, friends, by handling all matters with mature perspective.

TU. 6: Find in helping others that you are richly rewarded with the knowledge of being useful and needed. Be willing to give as well as receive.

WED. 7: Open heart and mind to new ways of thinking, of doing things, of appreciation for others. Find self-growth, maturity through such awareness.

TH. 8: Don't play hob with the family budget by undue extravagance or self-indulgence that is certainly not worth the risk to security and future well-being.

FRI. 9: Like 8th, with need for extra caution and realistic procedure that does not commit you to expensive pacts or things that prove costly in long run.

SAT. 10: Partnerships get off to a good start if entered into, today. Lay lines of agreement with the future well in mind. Be just, fair-minded.

SUN. 11: Closer relation with home and its members gives knowledge that is beneficial to solution of problems. Find happiness, love near you.

MON. 12: A good day for trips whether on business or pleasure. A broadened outlook provides new stimulus to implement your plans, achieve goals.

TU. 13: Routine needs a careful checking for successful operation, continued smoothness. Observation shows the way to fit in with others now.

WED. 14: Start over again if the pace seems too fast; concentrate on methods that achieve the most with the least strain to nerves and temper. Go slowly!

TH. 15: Stay out of limelight with firm desire to work with others and to meet their demands graciously, willingly for the present. Be expedient.

FRI. 16: Give form to nebulous notions that are floating around so that you can see their substance and decide their value. Discussions help get views.

SAT. 17: You gain much with an enthusiastic approach to others, if based on real aspirations and good motives. Forge ahead with optimistic behaviour.

SUN. 18: A picnic or some outing with an intimate group will provide a lively, sociable time that gives many moments of pleasant memory and reflection.

MON. 19: Take what comes up in an easy stride, not easily upset by discord or sour notes. A smile or kind word does much to make an even pleasant day.

TU. 20: Set about your business with conviction in its success and be ready to accept with alacrity what comes, because it is all apt to be good today.

WED. 21: Don't ride the horse of ambition too hard or you can find the speed upsetting. Caution finds the realistic pace that conforms with necessity.

TH. 22: Modify your actions, speech to conservative measures that safeguard prestige, maintain credit. Don't put yourself in a false light.

FRI. 23: Excellent for raise, promotion, offer of important responsibilities that carry honor as well as work. Make investments after checking facts.

SAT. 24: Like yesterday in the chance for gain, providing prudence is used in reaching ultimate decision. Down-to-earth plans most-likely to prosper later.

SUN. 25: Those close give encouragement to what you most wish. Accept their good will with appreciation.

MON. 26: Meet the new week with a flexible attitude that doesn't weigh you down with a feeling of its all being a case of work and more work. Steady!

TU. 27: Use the morning hours for monetary matters and their expedient handling. Outline program of sensible diet, proper amount of exercise for health.

WED. 28: Gear yourself to a consistent pace of activity that gets work done well, but not too hastily for clean details or loss of good disposition.

TH. 29: Like 28th, in need for firm grip on emotions, nerves to work with others peaceably and to gain the most along your lines of endeavor.

FRI. 30: Contact important people who can benefit your progress in some tangible way. Support from others makes shorter work of tedious routine.

will find the whole world opening at your touch, if you bring warmth and understanding to bear on all your relationships.

The transition of Mars from your Sun sign to your 2nd House (June 11) brings important financial opportunities. It is necessary not to be too personal in your approach to material matters. The long transit of Mars in your own sign (running, in effect, since last October) has perhaps sensitized you, and made you touchy—eager to assert yourself now that the barriers are down, and the way ahead is clear. Any undue self-assertion, in either financial or business matters, can lead to trouble and loss of opportunity, as Mars moves to the last of three squares to Uranus. This is complete June 24, and worth watching all through the month. Risks lose here—but sound application of effort to practical matters can lay the groundwork of a fortune, to be started slowly here, and brought to its peak under Saturn's transit of Libra between Nov. 20, 1950, and Oct., 1953.

IN EVERY SENSIBLE WAY, BE AN OPPORTUNIST where practical and personal affairs are concerned. Diplomatic handling of human relationships can bring wonderful results, both in romantic life, and also in business. Excellent support (June 4-12) from loved ones near and far makes you popular, and enables you to carry popularity into spheres where it is useful, as well as productive of happiness. Get engaged or married; deepen bonds of love; seek publicity that advances your business or your standing in the community. Reject inner doubts and fears (June 13-23) to avoid errors of judgment. Be hardheaded here, and put off decisions if possible; you lose by "trying too hard" and by being over-anxious. If you let things work, they'll work for you far better than if you are making loud or heavy demands. Stress earning and saving, and cut costs. Prevent pressures of friends, or of your own ego, from standing in your light (June 10-24) and be on guard against excess of all kinds (June 21-24) when social pressures are enormous, and tend to drain you financially and emotionally. Prudence here enables you to reach a sound decision aided by partners (June 25-29) and, by keeping material matters well under control, to form some excellent tie with others that points the way to progress and happiness, now and in the future.

Libra

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN SEPT. 24-OCT. 23

THE PERSONAL, PERHAPS INTROSPECTIVE, pressures that have been so forcibly a part of your life since last October diminish now. With the settlement of some small but vexing problem of cooperative finances (May 27) the way ahead is clear for action, progress and growth. A good clear look at yourself (till June 3) should do much to help you understand your world and your relationship to it, and this is important, since you are starting on a cycle that leads you, between now and the middle of 1953, to the major opportunity of your life. Saturn moves now, without hesitancy, into your Sun-sign, which he reaches Nov. 20, to remain for the largest part of the three years thereafter. The road on which you now embark may therefore be likened to a broad highway; it runs now for a while through level country, and then rises to a high point which it reaches at the end of 1952. The opportunities ahead may not yet be clearly visible, but you can have faith that they are there, and should attune your life to that conviction.

AS MARS MOVES FROM VIRGO TO LIBRA (JUNE 10) and goes through your Sun-sign (June 24-Aug. 8) you have a chance to set the tone and pace of your life for the next two years (one Mars cycle, till Mars returns again to your sign) and should therefore make plans and preparations, along the lines that will be enduringly serviceable. The position of Uranus in your 10th House, for the next five years, is bringing you opportunities more in line with your individual best desires than you have ever had. The trine of Jupiter to Uranus, from 6th House to 10th, brings you chances at a type of daily work that is profitable, that enables you to build prestige and authority, and that causes you to feel self-fulfilled in ways that are personally very gratifying, as well as constructive to your career-wishes. You are at an excep-

TH. 1: Stay firm in purpose though you have to ward off interruptions. Detering factors should be met with a friendly reserve. Help others, too.

FRI. 2: Domestic life gives many satisfying moments that make work, though tedious, very worth-while. Leave mind free to dwell on home interests now.

SAT. 3: Put aside emotional factors to get a clear perspective of those close (their problems as well as yours), and be helpful as a result.

SUN. 4: Stimulating discussions mark today as specially worth-while if you join with others, are communicative and receptive about ideas.

MON. 5: Recognize your good points and don't hesitate to promote their value to others in connection with important projects, consummation of pacts.

TU. 6: Like 5th. Confidence in purpose gets others to back your projects and give you strong support that gets you closer to realization of aims.

WED. 7: Don't get so involved in physical, material matters that your mental growth stagnates, is neglected. Open eyes and mind to new vistas for growth.

TH. 8: Self-seeking defeats your better motives and sets you back on the road of life which should be one of expansion, reaching out to others, higher goals.

FRI. 9: Distrust impulses that bear no relation to fact or reality to protect your own interests and welfare. Older people can give sound advice.

SAT. 10: Find a ready response in those who know you well and have liked what they have seen in you. Be persuasive and tactful to get their full backing now.

SUN. 11: Consider those whose lives are bound with yours and plan ways and means that benefit all. Thoughtfulness of others is an endearing, stable quality.

MON. 12: Plans well formulated can be presented to superiors in a way to make a tangible impression which attracts their interest and strong support.

TU. 13: Don't deviate from a set pattern in today's work to get it done well and not to have things pile up for a later headache. Get an early start.

WED. 14: Like 13th—stick to present outline of work, with start in early hours that gets the ball rolling and accomplishes much to your satisfaction.

TH. 15: Finish up the details in a steady turn-out of work that does not strain the nerves nor build up tension. You are less apt of make mistakes if slow.

FRI. 16: Start the day with some form of exercise that gets you in a relaxed frame of mind and body to meet with the day's demands on energy.

SAT. 17: You can have success in dealing with the outer world now if you proceed confidently with faith in your abilities and purpose. Be gracious and tactful.

SUN. 18: Draw the family circle closer with heartfelt desire to understand their needs and plans. Communicate your own, and strive to reach a higher level.

MON. 19: Moderate your pace to get a clearer slant on relations with others. Listen and observe to be wiser, more understanding and useful in cooperation.

TU. 20: Get out and travel, see new places and faces that adds a fuller perception to your own limited circle and sphere of action. Good for publishing.

WED. 21: Properly evaluate the problems that need direct handling today. Don't let distractions lead you away from the necessity of handling them.

TH. 22: Subjugate ego, personal indulgences, to the greater need of family, associates. Give attention to them with willing heart, helpful mind.

FRI. 23: You can win a turn in events that benefits you and yours if you go forth with a cheerful smile, and self-confidence expressed in a way to reach others.

SAT. 24: Include those you cherish in your plans to promote their welfare as well as your own. Personal satisfaction is increased through such consideration.

SUN. 25: Be part of some group that gives you a sense of being together with your fellowman in some altruistic venture that works for the general welfare.

MON. 26: Steady attention to job and its details yields a rewarding pace in its freedom from strain on nerves and strength. Be cautious, saving.

TU. 27: Hold steady on the path of accomplishment to see gains via essential duties. Be free, easy in disposition that calms others as well as yourself.

WED. 28: Rumors should be carefully checked and not repeated until verified. Even then, be conservative about what you say. Take care of what needs to be done.

TH. 29: Keep a wary eye on the home foundations to maintain their stability. Act only in ways which will make them more firm. Be impersonal, calm.

FRI. 30: All problems can be met with steady faith and perseverance. Solutions are obscured by present commotion, if you try to hurry too fast.

tionally fine time, therefore, to get off to a new start in all that matters most to you, in connection with work, daily life, and career. If you work for wages, seek a new and better job with more chances of advancement; you have realistic chances of being in a position of authority, perhaps much more quickly than you think. If you do not work for wages, find ways to better and enrich your daily life. Do things in and for your community; service can lead you to political acclaim, club leadership, and the like.

There's a health angle, too, that you should consider. Jupiter in 6th normally gives abundant vitality, which is one of the chief assets you should now have in the march toward your goals. Don't injure this with overindulgence in the pleasures of eating and drinking, or in any other way. If you don't feel up to par, see your doctor; a physical check-up can uncover something and cure it before it gets important.

THIS IS A GO-AHEAD TIME FOR YOU. BUT GO ahead with moderation and good sense. As Mars moves from Virgo to Libra, and to the square of Uranus (till June 24) you may feel like a kid let out of school . . . and any tendency to run wild with your new-found freedom needs stern checking. Make no demands here. Proceed in slow-motion (till June 3) and improve your opportunities (June 4-12) through behind-the-scenes activities and contacts that enable you to link your fortunes beneficially with others, perhaps through private or secret agreements. Marriage can be favored here; if so, it's materially, as well as emotionally, excellent. Trust loved ones (June 13-23) and don't let suspicion, doubts, jealousies interfere with happiness and growth. Say no to sure tips on race-horses, etc., which lose for you. Your enthusiasms are too strong (June 10-24) and need to be curbed; if you heed public opinion and the requirements of those in authority, you'll avoid trouble; if you insist on getting your own way . . . you may get it, but you won't like it. . . . Take advantage of rising prestige (June 25-29) to better your position through "pull" and the good will of bosses and co-workers. Again, submerged ego serves you best, and self-assertion drives off happiness and success. Cultivate the regular opportunities of your daily life to find yourself at the end of the month in a sound, happy, and successful position.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN OCT. 24-NOV. 21

THE OBSTRUCTIVENESS OF THOSE AROUND you, and of your environment, which may have been causing you doubts in small matters during May, should disappear as Mercury turns direct (May 27) in your 7th House. Other people should become more cooperative, after this, and you for your part will see better how minor difficulties can be surmounted, for the sake of the bigger and more important things that are now developing in your life.

Those who share your fortunes may remain conservative and, until the Sun passes the square to Saturn (June 3) you will do well to be advised by the more cautious of your friends and associates. This is a good time to move slowly, in the direction of what you most want, and not to be unduly elated by the exceedingly good developments at a distance, and in your own social life. Your popularity is high, and remains so all summer (till Sept. 15); travel and publicity favor you; and it's an excellent time to put your best foot forward, in search of what is most important to you. Your aspirations, which may have seemed frustrated and blocked last winter, and now coming within eyeshot, and within your realistic reach. You are supported by firm friends, and by the warmth of those who love and value you, and you should emphasize the human and intimate side of your life, for it is from this that you draw strength for the pursuit of worldly aspirations. Those around you are exciting and exhilarating (June 1-27) and you should be able, by understanding the views and needs of others, as well as of yourself, to cement some splendid ties (June 4-12) in business or personal life, or in both. This is an excellent time for engagement or marriage, if you are not already married; and if you are, it's a fine time to tie the wedding knot tighter by a reaffirmation of love and the rightness of your situation. In any case, it's an excellent time for business dealings, and partner-

TH. 1: Handle what is at hand without frittering away your energies and emotions in things at a distance. Be methodical, accurate.

FRI. 2—Morning hours are good for making investments or pacts, with need for solitude and concentration later in day. Be a yes-man if necessary.

SAT. 3: Make harmony among those close of first importance in your relations with them now. Be slow and careful about any decisions or words at present.

SUN. 4: Open the doors to friends and neighbors with a warm hospitality that draws them closer and gives a fine sense of unity and well-being.

MON. 5: Accentuate the good things, the important intangibles, in your life to relegate annoyance, irksome duties to their proper level. Be positive.

TU. 6: Morning hours are the ones in which to get the most done today as far as the job or material matters are concerned. Quiet recreation later.

WED. 7: Job well-in-hand gives leeway for more personal, creative work. Find tangible expression for your inner talents. Have lively talks with friends.

TH. 8: Responsibilities need your attention to be kept well in hand. Having accepted them, be whole-hearted, pertinacious in carrying them out well.

FRI. 9: Plan social doings for evening and finish up details with efficiency and pride in perfection that gives you freedom for relaxation later on.

SAT. 10: Wind up odds and ends to get ready for a new week. Make a date to call on elderly or invalided people in evening, or write letters long delayed.

SUN. 11: The other fellow's shoes may not fit, but at least you know how he stands. Show real interest in getting his viewpoint. Understand family.

MON. 12: Associates offer long range plans and solicit your support which should be forthcoming if well-considered and constructive to good of all.

TU. 13: Pinch pennies and fill the pot for a rainy day rather than squander that which should be saved or held aside for future need. Revise the budget.

WED. 14: Haste results in wasted motions on this particular morning so take it slow and be thorough in checking your work and its details.

TH. 15: Long-range planning is essential to stabilize the trend of present set-up. Make your objectives fit in with present reality and future needs.

FRI. 16: Innovations in business work out well if tested for accuracy. Constructive ideas will benefit everyone. Go ahead with them confidently.

SAT. 17: Have work so planned that you can get away from the hubbub of the business world for a few days either by travel or through studies, recreation.

SUN. 18: The give-and-take in social relationships can be stimulating and rewarding in knowledge of good fellowship. Take part in family activities.

MON. 19: Don't let enthusiasms, over-idealization of those close magnify their virtues out of true proportions. See clearly, be level-headed.

TU. 20: A good day in which to sign papers or reach agreements of a satisfactory nature. Important contacts are apt to promote your plans concretely.

WED. 21: Maintain an impartial attitude that avoids friction and leaves the way open for more constructive measures. Accent unselfishness.

TH. 22: Wonderful day to have fun and enjoyable associations with others, especially those you hold most dear. An outing yields a good time.

FRI. 23: Find a private retreat where you can concentrate on your personal affairs unhindered by outside distractions or emotional upsets.

SAT. 24: Like yesterday in a need for clarifying major objectives and increased growth as a result of meditation, cleansing of unwholesome thoughts.

SUN. 25: Speak freely with those who matter to make clear your position and to receive understanding and support for what you most wish to realize.

MON. 26: Be unassuming, diplomatic to cinch that which is yours and make the most favorable impression on others. Listen and observe to get a new slant.

TU. 27: Slow the pace to a reasonable stride. Balance your energies to conserve strength and nerves. Avoid pressures, especially of your own making!

WED. 28: No matter how glitters the temptation to splurge, be skeptical of its value and stay with that which already is tried and true. Be conservative.

TH. 29: Tread softly, gently to avoid the sharp pricks of today's thorny progress, which you feel if you are contentious or arouse the ire of others.

FRI. 30: Recreation, especially that which is shared with family and friends, is relaxing and enjoyable. Attune yourself to others. Have fun.

ships with other people. You gain here with and through others; the good fortune of those with whom your welfare is tied benefits you; and agreements reached (June 4-15) are stable, and very profitable.

AS MARS MOVES OUT OF YOUR 11TH HOUSE and into your 12th (June 1-11) and thereafter to the square of Uranus (till June 24) you must keep a close watch on your intimate and personal reactions. This is an exciting, and perhaps over-stimulating influence. Any submerged desires or motives which you may have should here be brought out into the light of reason, studied, analyzed, understood and—if they are not making you happy—re-evaluated or totally discarded. There are powerful incentives to change here (June 1-24) and indeed change can be excellently conceived, if your personal reasons for it are sound, creative, and progressive. If, however, you know in your heart that you are in reality trying to run away from yourself, or from some unsolved problem in your own nature, or your own life, then this is the time to stand firm, to solve your problem first, and to move later, with a clear conscience and no loose ends to nag or annoy you. Remember that you are moving in the next three years into ever and ever more powerful 12th House influences.

BE ULTRA-TACTFUL WITH SUPERIORS AND partners (June 13-23); avoid letting envy, jealousy, or self-seeking trip you. Keep faith with your own ideals of conscientiousness, and look very carefully (June 16-23) into the clauses and intentions of any papers you sign, or any agreements to which you commit yourself. Be skeptical without being suspicious, cautious without being timid or fearful. Avoid secrets: anything worthy now can and should endure the light of day, and secrets, especially guilty ones, backfire loudly and unhappily. Move with utmost caution till after June 24, becoming innerly prepared for some excellent move or change which, if made June 25-29 in the absence of any resentment or antagonism, and in an atmosphere of love and realistic hope, can lead you far and fast along a very happy and successful road. "Accent on love" brings much that you want, in romance and adventure, and in practical matters, too.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN NOV. 22-DEC. 21

LITTLE ANNOYANCES IN DAILY LIFE, IN connection with routine or relationships with co-workers, disappear as Mercury turns direct in your 6th House (May 27). After this, it'll be easier to do what is expected of you, to be smoothly efficient, with a minimum of stress and strain, and to be able to take advantage of the numerous opportunities for worldly advancement that are opening up before you. Even though, with the Sun opposing your Sun (till June 21) you may feel slightly low in vitality, and not up to par, you have wonderful chances for progress and growth, and if you will attune yourself to the "way of the world" and accustom yourself to its demands and the needs of elders and superiors (till June 3) you will find a new horizon expanding before you, with highroads to achievement opening up all along the line.

As MARS ENDS (JUNE 10) HIS TRANSIT OF your 10th House, which has been going on in one form or another since last November, the demands of your environment, and of your position in the world, become less exacting. You are able now, until Nov. 20, and after that, in the first eight months of 1951, to gain and progress wonderfully under the transit of Saturn, now working unimpeded in your 10th House, to bring you, by Nov. 20, 1950, and especially by August, 1951, to a new high in worldly status. If you are in business or professional life, you now embark on a time replete with opportunities for success. If you're not an earner, then your standing in family, community, etc., rises high; you can be ward leader, or club president, and should in every way welcome the responsibilities that lead to, and accompany, popularity and leadership.

As Mars moves toward the square of Uranus from your 11th House to your 8th (complete

TH. 1: You build a chain of circumstances that will reap future benefits if you make yourself heard and understood by those in important places.

FRI. 2: Like 1st, in the advantages that can be obtained from making public contacts, meeting with associates, partners, to shape future plans.

SAT. 3: Blend your actions and speech into a smooth-fitting pattern with others to achieve best results. Be positive but not demanding or stubborn.

SUN. 4: You can relax with a mind free of everyday cares and worries, having performed essential duties. Go places, do things with others, have fun.

MON. 5: Profitable enterprises can get under way if you have considered the benefits for those who are joined with you in making them work. Be fair.

TU. 6: Domestic security should be the objective in the foremost part of your efforts and mind. Consideration of family welfare enables you to reach goal.

WED. 7: Previous efforts receive merit and increased position if they have been up to your own standards of performance. Be willing to accept your gain.

TH. 8: Best to be conventional in action, speech to safeguard reputation as well as position. Go out of your way, if necessary, to gain good will.

FRI. 9: Blowing bubbles is fun but not for you, today, if you wish to forge ahead in business matters important to welfare. Be thorough about details.

SAT. 10: Reach out to people to make valuable, lasting contacts. Promote growth in meaningful relationships that will account for much good later on.

SUN. 11: Family or close friends should be met with today, either in social time or by correspondence. Speak, write freely, to share innermost thoughts.

MON. 12: Support from outer world available, with some effort on your part to gain the recognition that your abilities deserve. Act confidently.

TU. 13: Advice from those who know you best can be constructive and add to your well-being if you seek it with open mind and are willing to act on it.

WED. 14: Let the other fellow take the lead. Be cooperative, willing to help him shine. Listen, observe to increase your knowledge; apply it to work.

TH. 15: A wary step avoids a tumble and finds a smoother path when the going is rough. Consider those around you, and how you can soothe the ruffled ego.

FRI. 16: Put other things aside to get a clear look at questions arising today. Verify facts before making decisions and avoid any drastic action.

SAT. 17: Excellent day to make investments, sign papers or join in pacts on equitable partnership basis. The results of past work can be capitalized.

SUN. 18: Strive for personal growth by exercising the mind in intellectual pursuits and the heart in warm, outgoing thoughtfulness of others.

MON. 19: Take part in community welfare or groups who have altruistic purpose as their motivating force. Ingenuity, creative ideas, if practical, help.

TU. 20: The love of friends and kindred strengthens you in your efforts to make worth-while use of your time. Be conscious of their interests and affection.

WED. 21: Attend to your own responsibilities so that they may receive proper attention and be carried out to the best of your ability. Be reliable.

TH. 22: The morning hours are best for efficient handling of work, making of important contacts. Seek a quiet place later to do private research.

FRI. 23: Hold true to the good you have found in friends, loved ones, even though the picture is clouded now by doubts that have no real foundation.

SAT. 24: Be receptive to new outlook and gain from a trip, talking with people who stimulate desire for expansion in personal development. Have fun!

SUN. 25: Don't bog down in selfish, self-centered pleasures that exclude others. There is twice the amount of enjoyment in sharing good things.

MON. 26: Keep that temper in strict check to maintain harmonious relationships. The other fellow may be irritating but ignore it objectively.

TU. 27: Stress wholesome thoughts and desires to avoid pitfalls that might interfere with progress, react to your detriment, make you rueful later.

WED. 28: Analyze the gossip and the gossip-monger who comes your way now. See the truth of what is being spread; either nip it in the bud or hold your peace.

TH. 29: Tendency to extravagance, self-indulgence will give way to common sense if you apply it. Be practical and stick to the budget thriftily.

FRI. 30: Go after a raise or other recognition now. Arraign the facts concerning your merits in convincing manner, with confident air that gets across to boss.

June 24, and worth watching all month till that date) you may feel like cutting loose from obligations, and just enjoying life. This is all right, if you do not go to emotional or financial extremes; however, bear in mind that not all your friends, loved ones, and associates are sound and stable. There are some very exciting and happy-go-lucky people around you; don't be influenced by them.

YOU ARE HERE AT AN EXCELLENT TIME FOR the putting down of new roots, and the making of a new start. This is due to the trine of Jupiter and Uranus (Apr. 15-Sept. 15) from your 4th to 8th Houses, and activated happily and beneficially (June 4-12) by splendid supporting aspects from Venus in your 6th House. This is an excellent time to better your job or daily life; to move into a new home; to buy or establish a home of your own . . . and, because it is so good for all these things, it is also good for marriage, considered as a partnership of love and home-making. You receive from those around you excellent moral and material support; the generous give and take of love and material help enriches your life, which is centered in mutuality and considerations of the "general welfare" of your world, to which you contribute, and in which you share and benefit. . . . Be careful that distant influences, perhaps of a gossipy nature, do not hurt your happiness needlessly (June 13-15) and watch the operations or partners and associates (June 16-23) who can be extravagant and take needless chances with security and prestige, if not watched. . . . Move with utmost caution in financial matters (June 13-24) lest the social pressures of unreliable friends hurt the material security on which your chances depend. By playing safe till June 24, you put yourself in position to gain, perhaps almost magically, with and through others (June 25-29)—especially if you are avoiding conflict with friends and loved ones, and in all matters accenting the highest ideals of love and friendship. Your home is happy, and also fortunate, and by taking your stand firmly on basic and important values there, you find yourself, by the end of June, moving swiftly and steadily in the direction of what you most want, with much gained and more ahead in the near-at-hand future.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN DEC. 22-JAN. 20

YOUR WORLD IS BROADENING AND EXPANDING rapidly this month, after the passing of some personal, and perhaps over-emotional, worries and doubts which end as Mercury turns direct (May 27). There seems to be a press of duties (till June 3) that demand your attention, and require that you move serenely and without haste through numerous details connected with your job and your daily life. Distant matters are coming into focus now, and may hamper your efficiency, if you let day-dreams or discontent interfere with your routine. A serene and steady course, concerned mainly with small matters till June 3, clears the decks for action to come, and prevents a sense of fatigue which undue haste, or impatience, can induce if you don't relax and "whistle while you work."

YOU ARE NOW AT A TIME WHEN CHANGE, OR travel, or both can be exceedingly beneficial, in all ways. The movement of Mars through your 9th House and into your 10th (June 11) is followed by Saturn's transit over the same area, until he too enters your 10th House (Nov. 20). The opportunities that develop now (during June, and especially after June 10) should be seen as fore-runners of the opportunities to come later (Nov. 20) which set the pace and tone of your business life, and your community standing, for the next two and a half years. Thus, you should do all in your power, here and now, to start out on the course to which you want to adhere enduringly. This may—and probably should—involve change, and perhaps removal to another place. Unless your present situation is in every way happy, successful, and fruitful for the future, this is your time to get out of a rut and strike out for new and broader spheres of living and aspiring. And because important changes are not easy to make, it is possible that you will need to act on the square of Mars to Uranus (complete June 24) and

TH. 1: Gather in the offerings of today with a welcome that makes them yours to build a happier future. They add to your own personal growth.

FRI. 2: Like yesterday in the need for awareness, appreciation of what is there to be taken and used to your advantage. Real development is aided now.

SAT. 3: Discriminate between the true, the false for real progress. Don't fritter away your time and energies in foolishness.

SUN. 4: Find companionship right within your own sphere of family and friends. Soak up warmth and affection to be healed of hurts, disappointments.

MON. 5: Start the week refreshed by congenial contacts, relaxation; make a new start that gets you going at a good, productive speed, though not too fast.

TU. 6: Fun and pleasure can be added to the daily routine by being free with appreciative comment, a friendly smile. Win others to cooperative procedure.

WED. 7: Make the most out of what is at hand and discover new horizons that you probably did not know existed.

TH. 8: Even though you see the need for things getting done, and done better than they are, it is more important to yield ground to others today than to insist.

FRI. 9: Practical gains can be substantiated with foresight and quickness in perceiving present opportunities. Add to the savings account if possible.

SAT. 10: Carry on today, with emphasis on practical objectives and determination to secure some comfortable margin for operations, both of money and time.

SUN. 11: Get away from routine along some new line of study or discussion with friends, those close. Open new avenues of self-expression to relieve pressure.

MON. 12: Sincerity of purpose gets across to those who count if you are communicative and willing to express yourself with confidence and enthusiasm.

TU. 13: Put the finishing touches on projects to get them really under way. Enlist support of others if essential to carry them out. You can progress now.

WED. 14: Limber up to make full use of energies and mental attention in your work and in activities engaged in. Taper off with quiet recreation.

TH. 15: Watch out that undercurrent of desire and impulse doesn't boil up and blow the lid off of well controlled, sensible action, considerate speech.

FRI. 16: Say yes to superiors, others in authority and do your best to gain their approval. It is a good way to make your qualities appreciated now.

SAT. 17: Take the day off if you can and have a thoroughly good and relaxed time on an outing or other satisfying form of relaxation that renews energies.

SUN. 18: Add your share to activities that work for the good of all and create kinder feelings of unity with fellowmen. Have faith and good will.

MON. 19: An excellent day for promoting monetary affairs, make investments, or possibly receive windfalls. Be generous and consider others.

TU. 20: Reputation is increased with recognition of your conscientiousness and integrity. Cinch what is offered with appreciation for its merits and your gain.

WED. 21: Hold yourself to a concentrated effort that produces results with accuracy. Find time later to take some exercise that relaxes you.

TH. 22: Things pertaining to the business world should be attended to in early hours, with work of private nature in afternoon and evening. Steady!

FRI. 23: Boss, partners are in receptive frame of mind if you present well thought out plans, or innovations in method, that can be practical.

SAT. 24: Continue with yesterday's encouraging support to cinch agreements and to put ideas into concrete form. Keep cool, calm, collected.

SUN. 25: Exert personal charm, magnetism to reach a closer bond of affection with those you care for. Be demonstrative and agreeable to win response.

MON. 26: Start slow and sure, in taking up the weekly routine to conserve energy and put out the best work that is free of error, will stand on its merits.

TU. 27: Confine your thoughts, efforts to tasks of paramount importance and don't waste the time that could be put to good use. Avoid self-indulgence.

WED. 28: Don't resent your small sphere of action. By working well within its framework you gain adeptness, knowledge for future use, expansion.

TH. 29: Go unobtrusively about your tasks. Do your utmost to preserve harmonious relations. Be willing to listen and show consideration.

FRI. 30: Personal growth comes with awareness of what is about you. Attune aims to high concepts and ideals. Steady your desires to be a better person.

operative till that date) in order to catch a new and forward-looking rhythm. This is an influence that will jar you out of a rut, if you are in one that you ought to leave. It is also an influence that can make you restless and discontented.

If you run away from an unsolved problem here, you cannot expect much good to develop from it. Make sure, therefore (especially June 10-24) that you are not doing this. Veto anything urged by temperament, strife, escapism, or failure to "face the music."

On the other hand, if you stand clear of such things, and if you have a chance to make a sound and progressive move, do not be held in a rut by inertia, fear, or unwillingness to do something new. Better, perhaps, to postpone any actual move till after June 24. But you should be thinking in terms of progress and growth, and you should utilize this entire month to prepare for any change which, after June 24, can lead you high, far, and fast along the way you want to go.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL LIFE IS EXTREMELY happy (June 4-12) and it is here that you should strike out along some new line. This may include marriage or partnership or both; it may include a new life in a new place with new and exciting associates. Be confident and self-assured; you are wonderfully supported by relatives, in-laws, those near and far, through whom your progress and happiness can come. A vacation now can lead to important developments, more permanent than you at first may imagine. . . . Watch finances (June 13-24) and do not permit suspicion to close doors which should be wide open to you. Distrust your impatience; and be sure enough in your own calm to hold off the injurious pressures of those around you. Caution and commonsense (till June 24) are richly rewarded (June 25-29) especially if you are keeping emotions out of the picture. Be conciliatory of bosses, public opinion: false moves get you gossipped about. Take the advice of those nearby to reach for a new and higher goal which betters prestige and standing, and is an incentive to growth, progress, and happiness for a long time to come, if you accept here the challenge of very exciting opportunity and follow up on it with all the best you have to give.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN JAN. 21-FEB. 19

UNCERTAINTIES IN YOUR DOMESTIC LIFE come to an end as Mercury turns direct (May 27) to be replaced in your 4th House by Venus in Taurus (June 1-27). Thus, the environmental factors that may have made you feel shaky in May yield to warmth and love that is all around you, giving you now a strong foundation in your home from which to consolidate your personal and material life, and move in the direction of your dreams and aspirations as Mars leaves 8th House to enter your 9th on June 11. This causes your world to expand, perhaps through travel or a vacation, or some new and inspiring influence from afar, or in your own mental processes, that opens to you new avenues of expression and achievement. A slight feeling of emotional and financial restriction (till June 3) should be taken in your stride; if something in business or personal life is disappointing, or delayed, you don't need to take it too seriously. Submerge your ego, your sense of adventure, and your tendency to worry over business matters; be aloof and detached in taking care of the necessities of life; and thus be ready, with everything ship-shape, for the growth and progress to come after the last-mentioned date.

YOU SHOULD SEEK (JUNE 4-10) TO SETTLE your financial affairs satisfactorily, especially those in which your welfare is bound with others. It's possible to form a profitable partnership here . . . or to dissolve one that has been too limiting in the past. But before letting go of the past, take a final clear look at it. There may be more in it, now and in the future, than there has been before. And just because new avenues are opening for you, you need not haul up all your anchors. There is still an excellent chance that, between now and November, the business deals you have made in the past will pay off, despite the fact that they've

TH. 1: Work into progressive relationships that accomplish much through mutual purpose and reciprocal benefits. Latter part of day should be restful.

FRI. 2: Experience and interest of older people is valuable to the success of projects. Approach them with recognition of their abilities, seek their advice.

SAT. 3: Unite your energies with those of associates to pull in a smooth pattern of efficient work and steady gain towards set goals. Conform with good will.

SUN. 4: Personal affairs can be settled satisfactorily if you take those close into your confidence and enlist their support. Be open and above-board.

MON. 5: Test new ideas for sound practicality. Present them to boss, partners for approval. With diplomatic handling they are apt to be put into practice.

TU. 6: Financial gain is possible today with well-defined plans laid before interested parties. Consider all aspects to ensure a thrifty decision. Save.

WED. 7: Deals can be consummated now that increase security of home and family. Proceed with their interests as main objective. You can be well rewarded.

TH. 8: Back up and start over again if the way seems obscured by friction or strife. Examine your own motives to see if they are sound, based in friendliness.

FRI. 9: A methodical approach will catch mistakes and finish present work with maximum efficiency. Later relaxation in the company of loved ones is desirable.

SAT. 10: Push a little harder, if necessary, to get the details well in hand. Plan a social evening that does not go to extremes either in energy or expense.

SUN. 11: The weight of the world can wear down your shoulders. Take an impersonal, analytical look at what is bothering you. Get viewpoint of others.

MON. 12: Go to boss with clear, well-defined ideas that will impress with their constructive points. Properly presented, they should receive adequate support.

TU. 13: The rut can become quite deep if thoughts, attention are too closely confined to routine duties. Get out on a broader track of larger interests.

WED. 14: Consider well the requests, demands others make on you today. Be deliberate and slow in response that shows friendliness as well as firmness.

TH. 15: Like yesterday in need for reserve and postponement of decisions. Weigh the facts to find sensible action and fair estimate. Use diplomacy now.

FRI. 16—Keep fiction out of the realm of facts and figures. Safeguard your interests by keeping calm and cool. Survey present ground for practical stakes.

SAT. 17: Find contentment in the home, with those you love. Show affection in small ways that comfort and encourage response. Be sympathetic and kind.

SUN. 18: Participate with others in altruistic measures that build unity in good purpose. Welcome the opportunity to put time to such usefulness, too.

MON. 19: Carry over the impetus of good fellowship into dealings with business associates. Retire early to get complete rest from outer world and routine.

TU. 20: Affairs of the heart are most encouraging now. Give ready response that builds well for happiness. Study ways of being more articulate, understood.

WED. 21: Be watchful of the interests that involve others as well as yourself. Curb waste and extravagance. Conferences get things on steady keel.

TH. 22: A good day to make investments or contracts that make good returns in the long run. Relax with knowledge of well-handled affairs. Early rest.

FRI. 23: Distant matters, trips can be well attended to at this time. Keep your eyes open to observe and learn something new, of additional interest.

SAT. 24: Like yesterday in the opportunity for stimulating contacts, broadening scope through new sights, experience. Gain through studies, reading.

SUN. 25: Domestic tranquility eases the spirit and gives new release of energies, stronger determination to win set goals. Be affable, enter discussions.

MON. 26: Temper desires of ego to meet requirements of others. Responsibilities should be heeded, carried out now. Maintain reputation for being trustworthy.

TU. 27: The same old ways of handling business are no longer expedient if not implemented by new additions that meet requirements of present, build.

WED. 28: Refuse to make commitments no matter how sound they may seem today. Handle your affairs with discretion. Be diplomatic but reticent and firm.

TH. 29: Compulsions, strong urges should be strongly curbed. Let factual common sense take precedence for now. Slow, steady action required.

FRI. 30: Join with others to make progress along constructive lines. Enterprise based on cooperation will show results not obtained by solitary work.

been in slow-motion. Be careful, as Mars moves to the square of Uranus (June 4-24) that you do not blow the lid off the pot just as the stew is beginning to get done. Try to link present growth to what has already been achieved. If something in the past is clearly beyond redemption (especially in business matters) this is your time to admit your mistakes and get rid of them. But be sure they have been mistakes. In some way, this is your time to get finances, and cooperative business matters, settled for a long time.

YOUR HOME IS A FIRM AND HAPPY BASE OF operations all month, and especially June 4-12. Take advice from loved ones, and stand firmly on existing values in personal life. You may have a chance here, through social and neighborhood contacts, to better your daily life magically. If you work for wages, this is an exceptionally good time to get a raise or even more important advancement; you may even be able to hope realistically for some kind of partnership, in which you will both earn more, and feel more fulfilled as a creative individual. If you do not work for wages, this is none the less a fine time to improve your daily life, to get more out of what you do, by being efficient, methodical, and creative in whatever routine tasks are a normal part of your life. Be careful (June 11-24) that excess enthusiasm or impatience does not get between you and attainable goals. With Jupiter in your 2nd House in trine to Uranus, finances should be very good indeed; don't let day-dreams, or super-adventuresomeness, take you away from opportunity. Impatience with routine can cause you to jump the gun just when things are going to break for you. Don't let suspicion of others, or skepticism of your present situation, influence you unduly (June 12-24).

And patience till June 24 is richly rewarded thereafter (June 25-29). A kind of emotional hang-over should be discounted heavily; you are now in the presence of the best opportunities of many, many months. Changed work, or working conditions, can bring added income; while your creative imagination is working overtime, and along very exciting lines, to cause daily life and new ideas to work together for a very progressive and rewarding period that leads you upward and onward for a long time.

YOUR JUNE PROSPECTS IF YOU WERE BORN FEB. 20-MAR. 20

YOU ARE NOW AT THE MID-POINT OF AN excellent period, which began Apr. 15 and does not end till Sept. 15, and which is marked by the preliminary transit of Jupiter in your Sign, in trine to Uranus in your 5th House of personal and creative self-expression, romance, happiness, and growth of all kinds. It is a "preliminary transit" because Jupiter leaves your sign, by retrograde motion, on Sept. 15, to return (Dec. 1, 1950-Apr. 25, 1951) for his full transit of Pisces. Both the present period, and the later one, mark high points of opportunity for you; and therefore you should use the present period with courage, confidence, and high faith in yourself, since the use you make of the present period will have a bearing not only on present gains, but on future ones, too.

During June, the trine of Jupiter and Uranus is twice activated by strong support from the other planets: June 4-12; and June 25-29. Both these times—and indeed the entire month, if you are aware of, and on guard against, certain other factors to be dealt with presently—are excellent for you in all ways. During these two periods especially, put your best foot forward with complete confidence. In business, you can receive assistance from important people. In personal life, you are richly favored in love: it's a good time to get engaged or married; or to make the most of social life by "going places, doing things, meeting people." There are splendid chances to cement old ties in business and personal life, and to form new ones; these benefit both personal happiness and financial welfare, all through the warm and cooperative link you have, or create, with other people.

AS MARS COMPLETES HIS TRANSIT OF YOUR 7th House and enters your 8th (June 11) you settle some problem of human relationships (business, personal, or both) and move into a new and more relaxed phase with respect to other people and your environment in general.

TH. 1: Tend to your business; maintain discreet silence where others are concerned. Latter part of day good for social expansion, discourse, fun.

FRI. 2: Consult with superiors in morning. Get advice that will help straighten your affairs, from those who have proved their knowledge. Be conservative.

SAT. 3: Persistent action gets you closer to your goal. Don't work in such a way as to overdo, or produce over-tiredness from strain and nerves. Slow, steady!

SUN. 4: Meditation helps resolve worrying doubts, indecisions and to refresh the spirit. Go only where there is harmony, understanding, calm relaxation.

MON. 5: Assure others by doing what is expected. It will leave you free later to put in time on personal projects that mean much to you.

TU. 6: Make progress with the early sun and see light shed on perplexing situations, problems. Detach yourself from hampering emotions to act objectively.

WED. 7: Family will cooperate if given a fair explanation of what is necessary to consummate aims. Proceed with confidence, good cheer.

TH. 8: Resist the temptation to buy unnecessarily or discard that which could be useful. Plan new ways of supplementing present income.

FRI. 9: Moderate all spending to fit the known budget, and refuse absolutely to take the least risk with finances. Thorough check-up needed.

SAT. 10: Finish the business week with details in order and readiness for resumption of duties on Monday. Later in day, enjoy pleasant relaxation.

SUN. 11: Make the minutes with loved ones count for a warm, affectionate time. The give and take in relationship with those close should be mutual now.

MON. 12: Stimulus derived from yesterday's enjoyment helps you to move forward along the way of essential duties. Make outline to follow in future.

TU. 13: Stabilize foundations of living with constructive planning and attention that pays for a long time to come. Others give encouraging help.

WED. 14: Get domestic matters going on a higher level of cooperation and peace. Be sociable, ready to welcome outsiders by opening a truly friendly door.

TH. 15: Cast out ire, mercenary motives as being unworthy of your true self. Selfishness hampers development of spirit, health and mind. Be considerate.

FRI. 16: Like 15th in the need for self-discipline and putting the needs of others before your own. Recognize the importance of giving, sharing.

SAT. 17: Write to those who count on your letters; call on those who are elderly or ill. Reaching out to others will bring happy, satisfying times.

SUN. 18: Seek a peaceful haven where thoughts can dwell on uplifting, inspirational content. Avoid excessive or tiring occupations to keep fit and strong.

MON. 19: Your kindness and consideration may well be the key to an associate's lonely heart. The day's work well in hand will prevent the building of details.

TU. 20: If you have done your work well you stand a good chance of making headway with the boss today. Ask for a raise or increase in position that counts.

WED. 21: Attune yourself to present demands in a way that gets essentials taken care of efficiently, unobtrusively and peaceably. Relax with family later.

TH. 22: Understand the other fellow, learn something from appreciating his views for what their true worth is. It will help towards satisfactory results.

FRI. 23: Strict economy not only protects interests but keeps you from being a fall guy in shady or risky deals. Watch your step and don't sign any papers.

SAT. 24: Like yesterday in the need for extra caution. Be conservative to extremes if necessary to security and wise decisions. Eve: moderate your pace.

SUN. 25: A good day for travel or outing with family, friends. New scenery adds zest in contemplation of the daily scene. Limber up with healthy pursuit.

MON. 26: Discretion is the better part of valor when scandal or rumor comes your way. Quietly check the facts before making any comment that does harm.

TU. 27: Keep your own counsel. Temper praise with realistic evaluation and attendance to routine, duties. Plug away steadily for results.

WED. 28: Verify the truth of statements made to you or by you before making them public. Do some research for unassailable position. Use diplomacy.

TH. 29: Be firm though friendly in getting work done. Ward off interruptions with a gracious but decisive air that leaves you free to proceed.

FRI. 30: Consult with those whose opinions you respect. Direct your actions with their advice and assistance. Have a happy time.

If you have been held back by truly intolerable circumstances, this is the time to "remould them nearer to the heart's desire." But be sure the "heart's desire" is not activated by immaturity, impatience, temperament, or ego. There is a good substantial influence around you; it may lately have seemed limiting and during May, has perhaps been irksome. But after May 27, and more especially after June 3, you will see things more clearly, and you should be deeply aware of the benefits of your limitations, as well as of their difficulties. Your material welfare is strongly linked with others, as well as your duty and your sense of security. A false move (June 11-24) can injure both happiness and security, though it may seem very compelling. You are strongly urged to use the greatest possible caution, for emotional pressure can work havoc in this period, and financial and material welfare can be injured if you are letting your unbridled desires run away with your good sense. Hold firm to known values (till June 3) and seek (June 4-12) to reach harmonious cooperative agreements with your associates, which stabilize your life, even if they do not give you quite as much latitude and scope as you would desire in personal matters. Protect health from emotional strain and mental excess, or worry (June 13-24) and in all things, proceed with maturity and a sense of responsibility more firmly in mind than unfettered self-expression. This comes later . . . for the present, put first things first to re-form your relationships on a new, more secure, and happier foundation. Distrust is hurtful (June 16-24); be careful what papers you sign, what agreements you concur in . . . but don't be ruled by needless fear or doubt.

THE REWARDS OF THE LAST WEEK OF THE month are exceptional if you have moved with caution till then. A chance for love and happiness (June 25-29) should be welcomed and cemented into your life. Prevent financial-social crossfire from wasting emotions or money. You can find the way here to a deeply enriched personal life which is consistent with mature responsibilities, too. Your magnetism is high, and by using it in harmony with the world in which you find yourself, you can make it a better and happier world in personal life and in connection with business matters too.

YOUR ASTROLOGICAL AGE

natal place in the zodiac (i.e. a "waxing" square phase). In the case of a disturbed or tragic "change of life" in mid-forties this adds inner confusion to the confrontations being experienced; a falling prey to glamor perhaps (psychic or sexual), or a sense of the walls of the ego being dissolved and of being lost in a great mist, or even in a blinding expanse of light.

Where, however, the mid-forties bring the mature personality to a state of social or spiritual fruition, the square-phase of the Neptune cycle should mean a constructive repolarization of the structure of the ego and of the home, and entrance into a larger world of spiritual or social consciousness; thus, conscious participation in functional activities of a "greater Whole". The citizen of a small community can become then the member of some national organization; the nationalist, a world-citizen. Neptune, in its positive aspect, is indeed the symbol of all large-scale organizations, federalistic structures, etc., in which individuals who are theoretically free and self-reliant cooperate toward a common goal.

THE PERIOD FROM 42 TO 56 USUALLY CAN be significantly divided into two phases; the turning point occurring normally in the 50th year. At this point Uranus begins the 8th phase of its cycle—the theoretically "regenerative" phase. Actually what this implies is: meeting the concrete results of the crisis of the mid-forties. These results can be extremely varied, depending on the way the crisis worked out, as a factor in the person's spiritual evolution, that is, in its effect upon the quality, power and scope of the individual self.

Around the age of 52 the transiting Saturn comes to a "waning" square to its natal place; repeating thus, in its second cycle, the pattern experienced previously at the age of 22-23. Now, once more, the individual should pass through a process of severance from ancient Images. At 22, the severance is mostly from ancestral family-patterns and from the set traditional concepts often imposed by an academic education. At 51-52 the individual who has successfully emerged from a crisis of rebirth must primarily dismiss the "ghosts" of his past failure, the memories (or the organic troubles) which are the residua and left-overs of the crisis.

He must do this, if he is to face constructively and without impeding burdens or psychological obstructions the new Saturn cycle beginning when he reaches the age of 59. This third 29½-year cycle means in a great many cases so-called "old age" and a gradual crystallization of psychological and social attitudes and beliefs—thus a negative process. But it may also have a very positive meaning. It may mean the coming to seed of the individual personality; in the same sense in which the seed is the final and essentially valuable product of an entire cycle of vegetation—as in the case of wheat, grains, nuts.

The seed is the end-product of the plant-life, and it is a transferable product. It is transferred intact from one cycle to the next. It survives the disintegrative impact of autumnal winds and rains, the cold of wintry death. It is not only the promise of renewed life; it is the foundation of immortality. In the seed, the particular characteristics of a single plant, grown during a particular year and in a particular field, are transcended. The entire life and character of the species are focused in every seed. Each seed of wheat is, in potentiality, a creative agent for the perpetuation of the whole species, Wheat.

IN AN ANALOGICAL SENSE, THE MAN WHO has reached his late fifties in a constructively spiritual manner, after having overcome his various crises of growth—tragic as these may have been—can bring the sum-total of his experiences to a seed-condition. He can be the builder of his own immortal seed-essence. He can be victorious over death.

What this means can be made clear by stating, even briefly, the several kinds of immortality which a man may experience in the very concrete and actual sense of the word, immortality.

There is a physical-biological kind of immortality. Every human being who establishes a steady line of descent through children and grandchildren makes his biological substance, his "genes", immortal. A man like Confucius has, or had recently, a direct male descendant after over 70 uninterrupted generations. In a biological sense, Confucius' life-substance had triumphed over death for these many centuries.

There is also a social-cultural kind of immortality. Confucius has been a basic factor in the lives of numberless millions of Chinese for nearly twenty-five centuries. His name, the imprint he made upon his society and civilization have remained vital. The "New Life" Movement in recent decades in China had a basis in Confucius' teachings. Even outside of China, even in jokes, the name of Confucius is alive, immortal.

Then there is the more difficult-to-understand, yet very real, personal immortality of the great Personage who, as an individual person, consciously overcomes death by building a "body of mind and spirit" in which he is able to function, even though the physical organism disintegrates. The Gospels tell of this achievement in the case of Jesus, who "resurrected" and operates in a "Christ-Body". Occultists claim that this achievement is not unique, and that there is a Sacred Company of great Personages who together constitute, as it were, the immortal Soul or Self of Humanity as a whole—and Catholics speak of the Church triumphant" or of the Mystic Body in a somewhat similar sense.

THE FIRST KIND OF IMMORTALITY (BIOLOGICAL) was said, in ancient times, to have been attained when a man had his first grandson. Biologically, this grandson was the "re-embodiment" of the grandfather, whose name he had to bear. He insured the perpetuity of the line, especially after he had grown to adulthood as a citizen.

THE TECHNIQUE OF SELF-REALIZATION TEACHES YOU TO CREATE AT WILL WHAT YOU NEED

"May all men come to know that there is a definite scientific technique for the overcoming of all human misery." These words are the essence of the life work of Paramhansa Yogananda, exponent of the great spiritual sciences of ancient India and the founder of the non-sectarian Self-Realization Fellowship.

The priceless treasures of India's scientific truths are in these studies through which you may learn how to REMOVE FATIGUE AT WILL; HOW TO BECOME VIBRANT AND EFFICIENT IN ALL YOUR ACTIVITIES; and how you may receive the sacred Kriya Yoga initiation to find true, conscious union with God. Seek God first and all things will be added unto you.

Likewise, a creative mind, artist, scientist, or statesman, usually does not make his permanent mark upon his time until he is 60. The works he performed truly as an individual (thus after 30) become impressed upon the consciousness (and even the unconscious) of the next generation, born at the time these works were produced. And this impress is the foundation of the social-cultural immortality of the truly creative mind.

At the psycho-spiritual level, the age of 60 was said to be "the age of philosophy". The individual could, after having brought up his children and served his community, devote himself to the spirit-within, to God. He could prepare himself to face constructively the spiritual crisis of growth, which we call death—theoretically as Uranus completes its 84-year cycle, but in most cases, even before.

The age of 63 is particularly crucial, as Uranus comes to its "waning" square to its natal place—the tenth phase of its cycle. Saturn is then nearing the "waxing" square of its third cycle, and the two great 7-year and 9-year rhythms come together ( $7 \times 9 = 63$ ). This Saturn square around 66 or 67 can mean a new, great adventure into the realm of spirit and wisdom; but if the individual has nothing positive to offer to consciousness and society, the process of body-crystallization and lowering of vital forces takes on added power.

This occurs if the "waning" square of Uranus, at or around 63, has marked a gradual severance of the creative self from the body and the daily routine of life. This severance may be caused by a sense of hopelessness at the way in which the society and the power of tradition keep frustrating any creative effort of this self. It may be the end-result of the outer personality's failure to meet constructively the crisis of the mid-forties and to deal with its by-products.

AS EVER, THE POSITIVE ROLE IS PLAYED BY the spirit-within. When the everyday personal life can no longer offer anything of value to the spirit, the spirit gradually—or suddenly, in case of sharp crisis—withdraws. Then the body and the mind are left to disintegrate; or, for a while, to crystallize. One grows old out of lack of interest in life, out of a sense of failure to gather any harvest, any "seed", from personal experience. This is Uranian death; a letting go of some unbearable situation—largely under a Neptunian sense of defeat. Saturnian death is, on the other hand, the slow result of a progressive solidification of living structures, in the body and the psyche, which becomes increasingly rigid and with ever less inner, spiritual contents—thus, it is death in automatism and meaninglessness or senility.

However, there are positive deaths which are indeed the transition into a new condition of being; deaths like the falling of a seed upon the ground, deaths which are conscious and deliberate preparations for an eventual new life. In Tibet, and before in India, the conscious and unemotional preparation for a significant death was begun by all students and wise men after the forties or fifties. To pass in lucid consciousness the threshold which we, Westerners, so childishly fear, was the culmination of a life wisely lived. It was the culmination of personality—and the setting of the stage for the future re-embodiment of the spirit-within.

Like most sharply marked crises death is, however, an individually timed event—yet, within the generic limits of man's possible life-span under particular geographical and social conditions. And, strangely enough, of all crises death is the one that is the least easy to forecast! It may be that the reason why the time of death so often does not seem to register clearly in the birth-chart is that the actual time of the disintegration of the body is not spiritually the most significant moment; that many are inwardly "dead" whose bodies are still organically alive; that some indeed "live" whose bodies no longer function.

Here we touch the mystery of what really constitutes a man's true identity. To many men indeed, it is the complex operations of the body which sum-up to make this identity; this sense of being an "I". To such men, "age"—the generic factor to which all human bodies are subject—is the dominant power. But there are also men for whom the truly individualized spirit is that which can and does say, with increasing power: "I am". For such individuals, true age has become the degree of fulfilment of the works of the spirit; and the death of personality comes only when these works are done—which may be in, or out of the body "born of woman"; which may be "never", as the spirit can work forever in and through the individual consciousness which has won, through many and repeated crises, the victory over age and death—the "pearl of great price": permanent and conscious Identity.

The salesman might find it very interesting to check his results during the high half of the cycle with those during the low half. For some years, the writer has made a practice of devoting the low half of the cycle to routine matters that have to be done some time but which do not require particular skill, while devoting the high half of the cycle to important conferences, etc. In such matters, we can only report general observations, but since we have already reported a great deal in the way of statistical evidence, perhaps it is now time to make some general observations, and before going into an entirely new phase of this work, we will devote the next chapter to something in the way of general observations of the writer.

Pluto in Aries is the sign of pioneers and reformers who strive to bring about radical changes, envisioning some form of world or religious revolution, seeking to stir up the emotional unstable (neurotics) to rebellion while the agitator rises to power.

Pluto here is intense, unrebukable, and fearless; always demanding more; given to fits of great anger or ecstasy, yet capable of much martyrdom to gain their ends. Full of original ideas they like to champion some unusual and daring cause. Pluto here is ruthless in going after what it wants.

1882—October 30th to June 30th, 1883.

1883—November 29th to April 24th, 1884.

PLUTO IN TAURUS ADDS STUBBORNNESS, pertinacity and defiance if chided for being too demanding, for when it covets something it won't give up until it is possessed. It has extreme endurance, constancy in purpose, and tenacity.

The Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock, December 21st, 1620, when Pluto was in Taurus 12:20. Mahatma Gandhi (October 2nd, 1869) had Pluto in Taurus 17:30: retrograde. His stubborn determination to have his own way caused him to undertake prolonged fasts. This position of Pluto makes pioneers and re-organizers.

When well aspected it is refined, sensitive, with a distinct flair of genius along some line. If badly aspected it tends to hatred, envy, greediness and cruelty; a grasping after things not its own. Stalin has Pluto in Taurus 26:53. Pluto in Taurus is erotic, and much given to amatory adventures, with a strong passion for physical beauty, and a great determination to hug the spotlight at all times, rather than being the power behind the scenes as is Pluto in Aries.

It gives interest in real estate with a preference for mortgages. In both Aries and Taurus it gives a compulsion to work and achieve, using each accomplishment as a stepping stone to greater heights.

While in Taurus Pluto speeded up transportation on land and water; liberated slavery, and advanced education ("Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." Daniel 12:4). No longer were the people satisfied with what was good enough for their fathers, they demanded, and got, a better way of living. Booker Taliaferro Washington, the great Negro emancipator, had Pluto in Taurus.

1883—July 1st to November 29th, 1883.

1884—April 25th to August 12th, 1913.

1914—January 5th to May 28th, 1914.

PLUTO IN GEMINI ADDS ADVENTURE AND research. It is inventive, always searching for new problems to solve. It gives keen judgment, the ability to work out technical details concerning rocket-ship propulsion, stratosphere flight, television, radio and radar.

This position of Pluto is in the signature of the investigator, astrologer or detective. In fire and air signs Pluto stirs the mentality. William Penn (October 14th, 1644) had Pluto in Gemini 26: retrograding.

Many times in these positions Pluto stands at the crossroads. In the 12th house it makes the passive martyr who walks into danger with eyes wide open, finding ecstasy in suffering; and capable of self-surrender to a remarkable degree. If religious, is narrow and bigoted; if irreligious, is scoffing. There is no middlepath, either all for, or all against, some theory.

Pluto here gives the insight to see through people's defenses, with a quick comprehension of what is going on all around, yet able to conceal its own weaknesses. It gives sensitive nerves and is in close contact with either spiritual or demonic forces.

If badly aspected Pluto here inclines to tease and torment others, with the ability to nag or pester to get its own way. Hitler had Pluto in Gemini 4:40 in exact conjunction with Prima Hyadum, which brought disgrace, ruin, and a violent death.

Pluto in any sign is a great death-dealer. The Black Plague and Great Fire following: 1665-1666, had Pluto in Gemini, London's own sign.

Pluto in Cancer

1913—August 13th to January 4th, 1914.

1914—May 29th to August 1st, 1938.

1939—February 2nd to June 18th, 1939.

PLUTO IN CANCER GIVES AN OVER-WHELMING curiosity. It was in this sign 17:15: when discovered. In 2178 Pluto will again be in this sign and degree. It gives a liking for dangerous occupations, with a craving for power. Also the thrill and elation power brings as the native soars higher above the clouds, dives deeper into the ocean, rides faster across the continent, tunes in to more distant stations. Neither height, nor death, nor speed, nor distance, holds any terrors for these people.

Pluto here gives ambition and intensity, and though a water planet in a water sign, it bred some unusual dare-devils, fliers, para-troopers, commandoes, espionage.

YOUR PERSONAL PROBLEM STUDIED FOR SOLUTION IN 1950

"Thank you for a wonderful, informative analysis. I shall follow your advice to the letter," a client wrote recently. Another: "Thank you for your most satisfying advice"; and another, "You are the first astrologer who has gotten to the basic root of my chart and my life."

These are typical responses to the special kind of analysis, combining astrology and psychology, that I have been doing for some time, with these inspiring results. It deals with your natal horoscope and with its present stage of development, in direct relation to whatever question is uppermost in your mind. It is a service specially designed to assist individuals toward the solution of some immediate problem. If you have such a problem, and wish this service, studied and written for you alone, send your birth-data: date, month, year, and place of birth, with the hour if you know it; the dates of important events in the past; the birth-data of anyone involved in your problem. State your problem clearly and directly: all work is strictly personal, and strictly confidential.

Present and future planetary indications are tied in with your immediate problem, and all is based on your own individual chart, for your date, month, year, place and hour of your birth. The fee for this service is $10.

agents, heroic rescuers, as well as intrepid fighters and voluntary expendables, in the cause of freedom during World War Two.

Pluto here gives sensitive ears, fingertips and intuitions, and a remarkable talent in dancing, but causes a feeling of great loneliness and the "blues." This loneliness is responsible for some peculiar actions, weird mascots, and strange occupations or hobbies. It inclines to egotism which seeks to achieve the unachievable, yet in so great daring, often does achieve the impossible.

Pluto in Cancer gives a leaning toward archaeological discoveries; for reconstructing ancient monuments; deciphering ancient tablets; it lures with visions of pirate wealth. Many of its natives rise quite high, many sink quite low; few keep on an even keel.

During this period plastics reached mass-production stage; concentration camps were erected; dictators rose to power. For Pluto in Cancer signifies a gigantic struggle of life and death; freedom and slavery.

Pluto in Leo

1938—August 2nd to February 1st, 1939.

1939—June 19th to September, 1957.

PLUTO IN LEO ADDS SELF-CONFIDENCE and gives pride in accomplishment. It is clever, likeable, and very understanding. Benjamin Franklin (January 17th, 1706) had Pluto in Leo: 21:36: retrograde.

Pluto here has an awakening and transforming effect on all it touches; it gives the urge to forge ahead unrestrained. It makes no allowances for mistakes, not even its own, wanting perfection. Forceful in desires, even brutal if crossed or thwarted, yet it holds no malice.

Pluto is hard to restrain here because of its great power of resistance. But it learns quickly in life to subdue its own emotions when necessary. Love, and the sense of home security, helps to calm the intensity of its feelings.

It is this generation which will cause great political, social, and economic revo-

ENLARGED, LIMITED EDITION OF

HEAVEN KNOWS WHAT

The Cast-your-own-horoscope book

by Grant Lewi

editor of The Astrologer Magazine

"Thanks for HEAVEN KNOWS WHAT. It's the best investment I ever made," wrote an enthusiastic buyer recently.

This modern astrological classic has won tens of thousands of enthusiasts because with it anyone can cast and read his own natal horoscope without the slightest knowledge or study of astrology. All the laborious and difficult work has been done for you. All you do is follow simple directions step by step, and you can't go wrong—you get a long detailed and professional reading of all the aspects that were in force at the time of your birth.

This book sold thousands of copies at popular prices between 1935 and 1942. Then due to wartime shortages, the publishers were unable to continue it and it went out of print. We find it impossible still to get out a popular-priced edition. But there has been a constant demand for this book, the first and only one of its kind. Originally, it contained data for every date between 1876 and 1921. Now, in this enlarged new edition, we've added 14 years of Tables, making it usable FOR ANY BIRTHDATE from 1876 to 1935 inclusive. There is also a new preface and The Astrologer's statement of what astrology is, and what it can do for you.

FOR STUDY

Students and teachers can learn astrology from this book, which contains the most modern of interpretations based in the combination of psychology with astrology which is so essential to the proper understanding of the horoscope. Each of the 250 aspect readings is based on extensive research and observation. It is an invaluable textbook for any student or teacher . . . indeed, for any reader of astrology magazines.

FOR FUN

Heaven Knows What has kept parties going far into the night. Your friends will love it—it's been known to make the most hardened skeptics prick up their ears. The character readings hit the nail on the head with uncanny accuracy. Just try out your doubters on their solar-lunar polarity reading for a starter . . . and then watch them as they pore over the many other analyses that go to the heart of their character and personality.

Order your copy NOW using the coupon below. High production costs make discounts to booksellers very low; therefore probably very few if any of the 1,000 copies of this second printing of the enlarged edition will be available in stores. Order direct at once to make sure of your copy!

lutions, for its innate nature is to transform and awaken. Whatever gifts Pluto gives here, it gives with great measure. It does not bother with small gifts, rewards or punishments; all or nothing, seems to be its motto for Leo.

All through life there will be struggles of gigantic proportions these natives will be required to meet and transmute or overcome. Pluto was in Leo 24: when the Magna Charta was signed on June 15th, 1215, for Pluto in Leo is inspired with a grander vision of things yet to come.

"And it shall come to pass in the last days, that your daughters shall prophesy; your young men shall see visions; and your old men shall dream dreams." (Joel 2:28. Acts 2:17). This is Pluto in Leo at its best.

During this period great strides will be made in over-coming the force of gravity and air-pressure. Ocean depths will be explored for their mineral wealth; sunken ships raised and their valuable cargoes salvaged; the jungles and Ice Regions surveyed for Uranium and other priceless deposits. Huge air liners will cross the Atlantic in little more than one hour.

As Pluto moves into Virgo, the wanton, wasteful strikes of today will die a natural death under the discriminating, withering analysis of that sign.

NOTE: Pluto remains so long in a sign that his influence is more likely to appear as the general bias of a generation, rather than in individual lives. In order for individuals to manifest the influence of Pluto, as he is described according to the signs he has inhabited for the past hundred years, the influence of Pluto must be found focused, in the individual chart, through one of the faster-moving, and therefore more individualizing planets, or through the Sun, Moon, or ruler of the individual chart. Whole generations feel the influence of Pluto in any given sign; of these, certain individuals will manifest Pluto more than others, and these are the ones in whose charts Pluto is in some way high-lighted and made prominent.—G.L.

. . . and why did it happen when it happened? The Astrologer wants to answer these questions for you, in connection with your own experiences. We'll pay $5 for each letter accepted for publication, so write us of something that has happened to you which you want to have explained by astrology. Each month we will publish as many of these letters as possible, giving the astrological factors underlying the events and experiences about which you write us. Don't worry about literary style: that's not what we're interested in. It's you and what's happened to you that counts. Write us, telling us about the event that interests you, and if we select your letter, we'll send you $5, and publish your letter (with or without your name, as you chose) in The Astrologer magazine, with the astrological explanation of your experience. Include your birth data, of course (year, month, date, place of birth, with hour if you know it) and give also the same data of anyone else involved in your experience. Be sure to write at the end of your letter the following: "If you decide to use this letter, you will send me $5, and in consideration of this, I give you permission to publish my letter and the data in it." If you wish us to publish your name, add, "You may use my name"; otherwise, your name will not be published. Sign your name to this statement at the end of your letter, and send it to Letter Editor, The Astrologer magazine, Harle Publications, Inc., Suite 1904, 215 Fourth Avenue, New York 3, N. Y. No letters can be returned, and if you wish your letter acknowledged, please enclose self-addressed, stamped postcard or envelope for that purpose.

INGRID BERGMAN'S BABY

the boy, though the submissiveness of the rising Saturn will prevent this from being manifest for a long time. And if the boy's nature takes, as it may, an artistic turn, in any one of the creative arts, or in connection with the theatre (which would not be surprising!) then he may indeed become productive and successful at a very high level, for the chart is one of high artistic potential, providing that the fine balance of the emotional and psychological nature is preserved.

BECAUSE THE LOVE-INDICATIONS OF THE chart are so strongly symbolical of harmony between the parents, this boy's chances for a good, useful, though perhaps somewhat confined and limited life, are excellent. They will remain excellent so long as there is harmony between the parents. The testimonies of Mars and Venus, ruling 10th and 4th Houses, are splendid in this respect, as we have seen.

But whenever we are in the presence of a Full Moon chart, we are in the presence of a divergence between the male and female components, in the personality, and also in the environment. The one thing that the Full Moon personality is more sensitive to than anything else is any contention or separation involving the parents. Then indeed does the separateness of the Moon and the Sun—of the male and female principles in the nature—come under maximum strain. All too often, the Full Moon personality is subjected to this very strain, to deal with which it is very inadequately equipped. The harmony and happiness of this boy's life depend on the continued harmony and happiness of his parents. If this should fail, he could indeed become a "lost soul," but in the presence of their mutuality, harmony, and love he is sheltered and protected for a life of creative usefulness and achievement.

WHY DID THAT HAPPEN?

If you will combine these three factors, you will have the clue to what you should have learned through the past experience. In its simplest and most worldly terms, you should have learned to save up in good periods for bad periods. See the Bible, and the story of Joseph: the seven lean kine that ate up the seven fat ones. In order to learn and apply this simple lesson, you should examine your emotional attitudes, especially with respect to money. You should realize that you needn't drive yourself constantly, to prove you are loved. When you realize this, you will be able to imagine yourself in a sound economic position, and to utilize your tremendous earning powers, not only to provide for your loved ones (and your own good times) when you are working; but you will also be able to save a portion of what you get, to be able to continue this process with peace of mind and a sense of security through the depressed periods, as they recur.

However, after May 15, and more especially after June 24, you come out of the forest into a brighter area that lasts for a long time. I would expect your occupational problem to be by way of being solved when this reaches you, and to continue to be solved, with more and more security, until at least the beginning of 1951. You may here encounter another brief set-back: therefore, learn the lessons indicated above, and be ready for it with money in the bank, which you can do. Your chart is one of fluctuating fortunes; you can offset these by a program of budgets and savings, so that, in the slack periods, you will have a cushion on which to relax; and you can continue this process forever, to remain always, in all circumstances, on an even keel of security and peace of mind.

ASK WYNN

is nothing fatalistic about this astrology business? You'd dearly love to have someone in a stern voice of authority tell you that you must marry her, that you two are fated to be man and wife. Then you could go ahead with your emotional nonsense and imagine that you weren't to blame for the results.

Fortunate, I say—because you don't have to marry her. You don't have to not marry her. You could, of course. All we can get out of astrology is what would the harvest be, not what seeds are going to be planted.

Take that ammunition out of your system, throw it away, and start looking for a newer model yourself.

LOSING HER MIND?

DEAR WYNN:

Please help me. I was born October 4, 1916, 2:30 a.m., Mendon, Mo.

I married a boy in 1932; we were married only six months when I had infantile paralysis and he ran away and I secured a divorce. Then in 1933 I married again and in 1934 my daughter was born. I fell in love with a married man, in 1940, who tried to get his wife to divorce him, but failed to do so. In 1944 my son, fathered by the married man, was born. Then in 1946 we each went our separate ways, believing it was all over. Then I married again and had a son in 1947. This marriage didn't work out and we were divorced in 1949.

Lately I have been having some nervous trouble and have feared I was losing my mind. I have reviewed my past and my failures many times over; and it would relieve my mind if I could understand them. Why was I never able to stay in love with one person; and why could I never be faithful? Now it is too late to do anything about it and I feel I have ruined the lives of myself and my children. Is there a ray of hope for me anywhere?

I am so confused. I have searched all my life for something, I know not what—and my feeling of failure is very definite for not having found happiness.—MRS. H. D.

LOSING YOUR MIND?

Or beginning to find it?

"Why was I never able to stay in love with one person?" you ask. But you did—although not with another person. And you are so right when you confess to not having been faithful, although you apparently do not perceive that much of your faithlessness was to yourself, the one you have truly loved through all the fast-stepping events of your brief career.

Venus is the strongest planet in your horoscope. It rules your midheaven (aspirations, occupation, public relations); it rules the sign occupied by your Sun and Mercury, the Sun being the ruler of your life; and your Venus, the planet that has all this strength, is at your ascendant! This means that it colors everything you do in a personal way, the negative application of which is to seek ease, luxury, domination over others, and superficial pleasures.

The solution for you is to switch to the positive applications of Venus. This means using your gifts of creativeness, friendliness and artistic talent for the benefit of more people than yourself alone. Don't

In The Astrologer for July

YOU AND THE DESTINY OF THE UNITED STATES

July 4th, 1950—our 174th national birthday—finds us closing an important cycle of national existence and about to start another. This will affect the life of every man, woman and child in the country, both because of the influence on our national and international life, and according to the place which the vital influences fall in your individual chart.

stop having as much fun as you are sure you deserve; but at the same time add to your activities the novelty of honestly and practically doing the thinking (you can, you know) which will help others.

Yes, to some extent at least, you have ruined a few parts of a few lives. So make it your job from now on to un-ruin them for awhile—and maybe you will find that mysterious “something” you have been searching for.

“Is there a ray of hope for me anywhere?” you ask? Yep. But you’ll have to turn around to see it.

HELP US HELP YOU TO BETTER SERVICE

If you’ve been having trouble finding copies of THE ASTROLOGER on your local newsstand lately, please accept our sincere apologies. You see, it is physically impossible for us to print enough copies to supply every newsdealer in the country. So, we do the best we can, allotting most of the copies to larger newsstands and sending the rest to dealers who have standing orders with their wholesalers.

Because of the ever-growing popularity of THE ASTROLOGER, many folks are finding their dealer “sold out” when they stop at his stand to get the current issue . . . and, as a result, we have been deluged with complaints.

You can assure prompt receipt of every issue of THE ASTROLOGER in either of two ways: First, you can place a standing order with your local newsdealer—asking him to place an order with his local independent wholesaler for a copy of each issue of THE ASTROLOGER, and to let you know when your magazine arrives. Or, if your dealer is unable to do this, you can get copies promptly by placing a subscription today, effective with the next number. Simply send $1.00 (Canada, Foreign $1.20) and receive the next 4 issues. Or, send $5.00 (Canada, Foreign $6.) for 24 issues—saving 50c over the regular price! Magazines will be sent in a plain wrapper. Act now!

Would You Invest 3¢ to win HAPPINESS?

THREE CENTS—the price of a postage stamp—is not much of a risk when your future happiness is at stake.

If you are discontented, unhappy, not getting ahead . . . if you are worried about rising living costs . . . if you want to feel equal to other people mentally and financially . . . then you will want to know something about the easy to use principles of self-improvement taught by the Mayan Order. Many people who have used this proven system claim wonderful improvement in mind power. Some give credit to Mayan teachings for helping gain new love from wives or husbands. Many say that now, for the first time, they can face the future with confidence and without fear. Others tell of astonishing new health.

The Mayan Order is a fraternal society which bases its teachings on the traditional wisdom of that mysterious race of astrologers and temple builders, the ancient Mayans of Mexico and Central America. They deal with the problems of making PRAYERS work; how to use your subconscious mind, and thousands of other practical, helpful suggestions.

If you are an average man or woman who is in a rut financially and mentally, the cost of a postage stamp may alter your whole life. All you're investing is 3c—so you can't lose.

The Mayan Order will be glad to send a copy of their FREE book, Mayan Mysteries, which explains Mayan teachings. It tells of the surprising accomplishments of your own mind and how to put cosmic power on YOUR side. There is no obligation in mailing the coupon. You decide for yourself what to do after you read the FREE book, Mayan Mysteries. Don't just sit and wait and wish for a better life—DO SOMETHING. Mail the coupon NOW.
