PAUL — The Venetian

THE CHATEAU DE LIBERTE

From August 15th through September 14th, the Liberty Flame will be sending Its Mighty Radiation into the Earth and Her people, under the direction of the Great Hierarch of this Retreat, Paul, the Venetian.

While this powerful focus of the Three-fold Flame of God, represents the Holy Trinity for the Earth, remember that each one of you is also a Guardian of that Flame, in that you carry a replica of that same Liberty Flame within your own Heart. You may call to It at any moment of the day or night.

One of the Great Ones has suggested that after you have expanded that Three-fold Flame in your heart, that you treat any problem you may have, no matter what it is; whether it is lack of faith, supply, sickness, disappointment in others or whatever it may be, treat that problem by drawing the disturbed energy INTO THE FLAME IN YOUR HEART! Transmute it there by LOVE in your breathing while the breath is HELD, and then breathe it out through the disturbed energy charged with Divine Love in its mighty Balancing Activity of Life. Do not requalify it after you have transmuted it into perfection through the Love of your Heart.

Cultivate LOVE, in your dealings with one another and observe the uplift of soul which follows its use.

THE LAW OF BALANCE

by

The Ascended Master Paul, the Venetian

The correct understanding of the God Power Almighty is essential for the individual to become the Holy Spirit in Action.

Energy is man's to command! Energy becomes power through use, whether in the wielding of a sledge hammer or the strengthening of the biceps of the arm--or in wielding the God Power Almighty in strengthening the full momentum of the Victory of the individual wishing to identify himself with this God Power and catapulting It into the atmosphere, commanding the Electronic Light to express the completed form of his fiat or decree.

This Law of Balance, also referred to as the Law of Retribution set forth in the old axiom, "As you sow, so shall you reap," was not intended as a threat of punishment for evil doers but as an expression of the mathematical precision of Life; that you must sow your seed for Perfection in concise mathematical accuracy and that your reaping will be in exact proportion to your sowing. This Law has been dulled in its potency by the inference that, "If you cast your bread upon the waters, your good will be returned to you." This is true, but it is a haphazard way of living as your "bread" has no definite form or precision of outline.

He who would work with the Divine Plan tunes in consciously to the Perfect Etheric Plan, and rather than daily "casting bread" haphazardly, takes that Great Energy of Life, coupled with his mental picture, and DRIVES it into the substance of Earth by the Power of his feeling. Then, issuing the Great Fiat "I AM", projects into the mental form the Perfected Atom which is the cohesive power of Love. Instead of receiving back miscellaneous "loaves and fishes," one becomes the Master of Energy and receives back exactly that which one has ordered.

The right hand is the directing wire through which the energy may be catapulted into the appearance world, and as you are conscious of it as the Representative of the Holy Spirit, you become the authority of Life when you release that energy through the hand in a Cosmic Fiat.

In the privacy of your own room, you can draw that energy into your body with your left hand and then catapult it into your world with your right hand, and thus see some definite manifestation by your conscious use of this law of Life.

The energy of man's world reaching to his finger tips is his sole concern, and when that energy is completely harmonized, purified, and charged with the understanding and consciousness of Faith in the Light of God that never fails, no outer condition or expression of another can disturb the inner Peace and Tranquility of the student.

The attention is constantly pouring into appearances which are none of the concern of the individual seeking Mastery over himself.

If you will examine your feeling world throughout one half-hour, you will find a tremendous pressure of opinion about the actions and re-actions of individuals in your personal association, governmental affairs, business, etc. All these opinions are based on one's ignorance of the complete plan and create vortices of inharmony in your world which begin to spew forth the disintegrating processes of both the flesh body and the constructive endeavors of the Lifestream.

If an individual could refrain for even one twenty-four hours from any opinion about the rest of the world, keeping his attention one-pointed on his own "I AM" Presence, such an one would find that the natural flow of harmonious energy through his own lifestream would not only dissolve the impurities of the flesh but the limitations of both finance and unhappiness.

You have seen the gently flowing water of a clear mountain stream through a deep, clear bed, and then the chaos of the rapids and how difficult if not impossible it is to guide a barque through the raging, broken rhythm of the rocky river bed of these rapids. This gives a small mental picture of the average man's feeling world.

The sooner the student recognizes that his attention must be controlled and focused on his own Victory, the sooner he releases every human being from the pressure of his feelings. The pressure of energy directed through a strong opinion driven at any one, a member of your family, a business associate, or a political figure, enters that individual's world and oftentimes swerves him from the fulfillment of his own Divine Plan. It draws back into your own world the condition you see in the other one, and many times forms a mental carbuncle which is ugly to behold and a serious obstruction to your own Divine Plan.

When a Master presents instruction, or a Code of Living to a group of individuals, He must project that energy through their mental concepts. Thus the calm, serene, open-minded persons receive a great deal more than the one who is strongly opinionated.

Strongly opinionated people are their own worst enemies for they create a fort of formidable strength against the inrush of the God-Power from their "I AM" Presence. I would ask that, not mentally, but in your feeling worlds, you begin now to release every person, place, condition and thing from the pressure of your personal ideas. Turn your attention to your "I AM" Presence; walk into the Light of the Pure Energy surging through you to set you free! Recognize That "I AM" Presence active in all you contact. I guarantee that twenty-four hours of conscious application will prepare you for a release from your Presence that will transform you and your world, as you will apply it.

AT THE CHATEAU DE LIBERTE

You are to be among the guests of honor at My Chateau. This Retreat represents the activity of the Holy Trinity. We always try to bring the action of the "Three in One" to the attention of Our visitors. The steps leading to the front entrance are in groups of three, a grassy sward separating one group from another. The first landing contains a beautiful fountain of blue fire activity; the second landing has a fountain with the gold fire; and at the top of the steps is the fountain with the pink fire radiating from it; the Pink Flame being closest to the special service which We give there.

The Altar is in three tiers, the lowest one covered with beautiful roses; the second tier has two beautiful candelabrams; the third tier holds the Grail from which the Liberty Flame expands.

Mankind has desired Liberty for many ages, from the time the Immortal Three-fold Flame of Life was projected by the Godhead and the first individualization of Himself realized "I AM"! From that time on, the Great First Cause gave into the use of That Flame of Life--FREE WILL--LIBERTY--in the use of that Flame, by which each individual so created may grow into limitless perfection. No matter how dense the accumulation around the human form, within the heartbeat is that same God-given prerogative of free-will to use life and reap the harvest of that using.

Since it is on the wings of your attention that you come to Our Retreat, I wish you would return to the Chateau De Liberte when you place your bodies at rest, that I may have the pleasure of taking you Myself through the gardens. I want you to feel My Love for you each one, for I believe in you!

As your project, I would like to ask you to take someone with whom you do not feel in absolute accord, and send your feeling of Divine Love to such an one. There may not be any such person in your world--you may feel harmony with all life--but if there is such an one, within this thirty day period I think I shall provide one for you! There is no challenge in loving Life that doesn't bother you! There is no challenge in saying the words of Divine Love while everyone is out of your way that is discordant, but the challenge comes when energy in man, beast, or elemental treads on your toes, so to speak. During this period We shall provide a Sponsor to assist you in the activity of manifesting this pure Divine Love.

BE A LIVING EXAMPLE OF PERFECTION

by The Maha Chohan

As I have stressed before, "The need for the moment is not information but to consciously apply God's Laws and BE A LIVING EXAMPLE OF THIS MANIFESTED PERFECTION!" No matter how small this may seem, it is the only present necessity and the only plea which We are sending forth.

I would like to have you include in your daily application the decree to stop war which was given to you some time ago. We will then take the energy and amplify it seven-fold and so charge the Earth with It's Perfection that the only possible result will be a nullification of any talk of war. We want you to make this your project, as it is the only impending threat with which you should be concerned presently.

Beloved ones, if you will do this, if you will accept God completely surrounding the entire Earth and picture the Earth as a Great Central Sun when sending forth this decree, the results will be marvelous.

The decree is not all that is necessary. I have something else I shall ask you to do. When you read your newspaper and see headlines concerning war, I want you to REALIZE that it has absolutely no power and cannot act. Do not read the article, but completely dismiss it from your mind. Do the same thing with all newscasts and any other medium of news. When you hear it on your radio or TV, I want you to say: "You have not the slightest power," and then turn it off!

Each time you allow this vibration to manifest within your home, world, or any place, you are giving it energy; energy which you have no right to misqualify. It may seem strange to your outer self that this would be considered a misqualification even by reading a newspaper, but it is something which you have no right to do, and if you intend to advance in this great work, this is an activity which must cease from your outside affairs.

Beloved ones, do not think Me a dictator! I am giving you THE LAW as I have applied It and as Others have applied It before Me. I am only giving you The Law and telling you what you must do and what you must be consciously aware of.

We constantly hold about you a perfect, unmarred image of your Divine Plan and your day to day service. We do not see your misqualifications. We see only Perfection and the decision and application is up to you.

Anything that is not accepted by God, or is not accepted by your own individual "I AM" Presence, is not real! Only God's Energy and the proper application of God's Energy through love of your own "I AM"

Presence is reality! All else is but a poor imitation of reality.

I would like each one of you to have the conviction that starting right now, you are going to be reality, or a properly applied individual of God's Divine Laws. I want you to feel this and clothe yourself in the Great Silence.

I want you to get to the point where as you walk down the street, you will appear as a Mighty Violet Flame dissolving all imperfection which comes before you. Think of the great service which would be rendered to you and to the Earth!

I want you to say as little as possible about this Great Law! I want you to keep It within! The only way I want you to express It is through decrees and the complete manifestation of God's Perfection. This is the only way to express It. DO NOT MAKE THE ATTEMPT OF TRYING TO EXPRESS IT TO ANYONE THROUGH WORDS!

I want you to improve your feeling nature. Bring it forth into the outer and consciously use it!

May God bless you and the service you are performing in His Name, and may His Light enfold you and constantly there remain.

THE MONTH OF AUGUST - BELOVED AUGUSTA AND VIRGO
by the Maha Chohan

What, think you, is the feeling of a Being like Augusta or Virgo when the wealth of Her consciousness and the capacities that are within Her Being are invoked for the blessing of the race? When the desires and designs of centuries are invited into the affairs of men? When an understanding of the nature, purpose, and powers stimulate the human consciousness to the required effort to evolve a vibratory rate sympathetic enough to understand and comprehend the consciousness of such a Being?

To cultivate the friendship and join one's interests in the desires, nature and capacities of an Ascended Being, is to draw back the Flame of Gratitude and expansion of consciousness through the personal self which is an amazing, delightful and permanent experience. It also opens to such an one an opportunity to intelligently cooperate with, join and enjoy that specific time when such a Being's Cosmic Service and Office are in power.

We invite and anticipate your association with the Earth Mother during this Her Month of Glory!

In a twelve-month Cycle, the Earth draws and releases one breath. The inbreathing is under the direction of Virgo. Aries, in March, begins the externalization of the out-breath, which carries into form the designs that are collected within the lungs of the planet through the six months of the Winter Season.

The leaves fall from the trees; the animals go into hibernation and the Earth rests from Her service of supplying substance and form. So may man, during this season, store up within himself the wealth of his preceding six months' experiences, and make his own, the instruction, lessons that have throughout that period been offered to him, to increase the depth and stability of his nature.

From inner levels, this fall of the year is one of the busiest times for Myself, as an Individual, and for all elementals and beings dedicated to the sustenance of the bodies of man and beast, which are wholly dependent upon the supply that Virgo and Her Kingdom will externalize when the out-breathing begins its cycle in the Spring of the year. Every potential shoot, every leaf, every grain of corn is designed, planted and vitalized in this period. All the beneficent and beneficial Gifts of Nature, the blankets of leaves, the snows and rains which will come later, would be of no avail were it not for the initial creation of these impersonal sparks of Life which are created and planted in the bosom of the Earth Mother at this season.

In answer to the question as to the difference in climatic conditions in various parts of the Earth which make it possible for crops to be sown and grown in complete opposite to the natural Spring and Fall of the temperate zone, We would say that the Earth in Its original and natural position, when the axis is straightened, will make the temperate zone, which is in the natural area of the lung cavity, the heart of all the rhythm connected with Nature.

Excessive heat and excessive cold, drought, flood are abnormalities which have no part in the Divine Plan. The present North Temperate Zone, We have held as the permanent rhythm of Nature pending this hour, which makes it not only a more powerful vibration for those who live within it because of its permanence, but also a tremendous potential for a sustained supply for GOOD not to be equalled at any other point on the Earth's surface.

* * * * *

Dear Students, remember on August 15th to give your attention to our Beloved Mother Mary in honor of the Victory of Her Ascension. As you invite Her into your world and send your love and gratitude to Her, She will come back to bless you and assist you to a like Victory.

MUSIC, IN THE UNIVERSAL SCHEME OF CREATIONby Serapis Bey

Music is, in itself, an effect of stirring the Universal Light Substance into motion through the creative powers of thought, feeling, action, or the spoken word. Yet, although it is an effect resulting from the vibrations of energy waves, it can be used mightily as a CAUSE when properly understood, directed, and interpreted.

Music is synonymous with activity in the Realms of God's Perfection, for every thought and feeling of the Godhead creates a glorious sound and emits a beautiful color, clothed in exquisite form. Creation takes place to the accompaniment of such beautiful music as would make the heart of man stand still. The rhythmic motion of the planets around the Sun contributes to the Cosmic Symphony and the forward motion of the Galaxy is a processional of such magnificent splendor that words could not attempt to describe its inspiring, uplifting, energizing power.

Every Ascended Master radiates an individual Keynote, woven into a beautiful symphony of sound; and as They move through interstellar space, the mingling of Their Cosmic Tones is an inspiration to all who are privileged to have access to the faculties of the inner ear.

These natural songs of the Sun, the planets, the Angelic Host and the Ascended Masters are like the perfume of flowers, the radiation of those Beings contributes to the Music of the Spheres, without the self-conscious cooperation of the faculties of the lifestream, because each One may concentrate and focus the Gift of Song through his own vocal chords as the gift of music through the particular talents evolved by his self-conscious Intelligence.

When the Masters, the Devas, or the Angelic Host choose to concentrate the Music of the Spheres through Cosmic Concerts, then truly do the highest Heavens ring.

Every lifestream who belongs to this Universe Who has attained the Victory of the Ascension, and every Cosmic Being and Master Presence, is a contributing factor to this Sea of Music which, like Light Itself, forms the atmosphere of the Octaves of Light. The "I AM" PRESENCE of every unascended being also pours forth its particular Keynote and Universal Melody in the realm in which it functions prior to the Ascension of the outer self.

It is from this Sea of Light that the Masters draw the music which is the general property of the entire Heavenly Host, and focus it through Music Temples under the direction of Angelic Beings Who amplify it by Their Own Life and direct it toward composers who are worthy of more than ordinary inspiration and assistance.

They also direct it toward artists who have developed (through centuries of dedication to the Spirit of Music) sensitivity to the Spiritual Currents that may flow through specific musical activities. These people are usually fortunate enough to be permitted entrance into some of these Music Temples at night while their bodies sleep, as well as when they pass through the Halls of Karmic Retribution at the close of their earth life. The glorious melodies, stepped down by such men and women, are the results of this endeavor in which I, Myself, am extremely active.

Most of the great operas that have endured through the centuries represent the outpouring of some Music Temple which has become the concentrated focus for a particular vibratory action in the Inner Realms. For instance, the precession of the Sun and Her planets around the Great Central Sun is incorporated in the majestic music of Wagner. The Music Temple through which this music is directed earthward, is a beautiful azure Blue and the Devas and Angels are robed in the various shades of blue from the most delicate blue-white to the deep, deep Royal Blue of the First Ray.

When a composer, for instance, Wagner, picks up the music of a Music Temple, usually a Master directs His Ray into the mind of the composer to endeavor to build a suitable story around the music. The state of development of the mental body, which receives the impression of the story--and the development of the emotional body, which is the recipient of the feeling and theme of the music, will contribute greatly to the ultimate results. Some composers did marvelous things with the musical interpretation but were unable to receive clear mental directions and the resultant story was not truly representative of the theme.

In the case of the Wagner compositions we had the assistance of his mental body and thus the mystic initiations are woven through his stories.

The Insignia of the Knights of the Round Table was the Swan, which represents the Initiate--able to soar through the air, master of the emotional element of water, and through its particular faculties (long neck and sharp eyes) pierce beneath the water and discover the elements of the "deep" as well. Again and again Wagner uses The Swan as a symbol of the mystic initiation. The ancient Norse Mythology tells how the noble men of that age "sang their swan song." Today, people interpret that as the acknowledgment of failure, defeat, and submission to fate, but in those early days the Great, when Earth's battles were finished, were allowed to sing the Swan Song to signify that they had become Initiates and were consciously ascending from the limitations of matter to freedom.

When an Opera is sung, the quality which is its predominant Theme is greatly amplified by the Music Temple and Its Attendants. From the central focus where such music is presented Angel Devas and Cherubim and Seraphic Hosts carry the Rays of that Opera into the City, State, Nation, and Earth. Great buildings that have housed the Musical Genius of the Race are, of course, overshadowed by Devas and Builders of Form who cooperate with the Officiating Cosmic Temple in this service. We hope to secure the conscious cooperation of certain students in receiving these currents, amplifying them and directing them forth with the added impetus which comes from conscious understanding of the Mystic Inner Activities connected with so-called outer world presentations.

Lohengrim is primarily the story of FAITH. The aspirant (Elsa) stands before the Karmic Council. Her sponsor (and Twin Ray) comes to stand by her side, riding on the back of the Swan (mystical powers controlled by self mastery). She must accept him on his worth, without curiosity, which she does. Then comes the test, during which Ortrud instills doubt into her mind as to the Beloved's True Identity. She accepts the suggestions of doubt and forfeits the right to His Presence. Lohengrin calls his Swan who remains to help Elsa in a lesser capacity, for such is the Mercy of Life although she has forfeited the Presence of The Initiate.

Thus, does each student stand one day alone and, with only the Light of his Heart to guide him, he must decide on the nature of his Teacher, not by His Name, His Person, or His Heritage. At this time all the forces of doubt and uncertainty rise from within and without. This is the crucial moment in the life of a chela who has been chosen for more than ordinary association with a Master of Light. If doubt and uncertainty require of the chela that he cannot accept the Teacher, like Lohengrin, such an One must withdraw and a lesser Light becomes the Guarding Presence of the lifestream until a later life.

Since this is a story of Faith, the Quality of Faith from the Blue Music Temple under the direction of the Cosmic Being Faith, is poured into the Grail where the Opera is performed and directed by the Devas of the Blue Ray into any student or aspiring lifestreams through that city and then the planet, and on into the discarnate realms as well. The Elohim Hercules also assist in this.

HOW TO HEALby the Master Jesus

When I first studied the Law of Life in regard to Healing, I spent several embodiments in the Eastern Retreats learning the Law of the Silence. I was given certain beautiful Truths to contemplate until I drew from the World of the Silence a great Peace and tremendous reserve of Power. From childhood until I had achieved maturity, I spent years in the Retreats of Nature's building and I learned from the grass, the herb, the flower--the true understanding of "Being"!

When I completed My Ministry in Judea, it was these centuries of contemplative living that enabled Me to blanket the minds and feelings of those about Me with the "Healing Feeling" of the Cosmic Christ. Then, when the Great Silent Power had stilled their turbulent emotions, the Presence of All Life performed the "miracles" that were attributed to My humble Self.

To those of you who desire to heal, I offer you My full gathered Momentum of Peace and the Power of the Silence. When you start your healing calls, send your thought to Me; see My Light descend and My Personal Presence within It. You will experience almost miraculous results.
