Beloved Kuan Yin

TEMPLE OF MERCY

The beautiful Temple of Mercy, around which are twelve smaller Temples, is located in the ethers, near Peking, China. This is the Focus for the Flame of Mercy and Compassion for the Earth and all Her evolutions.

The Lady Master, known well in the Orient as Kwan Yin, Goddess of Mercy and Love magnetizes this Flame of Mercy and Compassion from God's Own Heart into the lower atmosphere of Earth wherein the distresses of soul, mind and body are temporarily experienced.

Long ages ago, Beloved Kwan Yin was well known to many of the people of Earth who, being aware of the tremendous gifts of Her Flame of Mercy which could be theirs for the acceptance in the transmuting of their own destructive karma, as well as that of their loved ones.

At certain times, Kwan Yin and Her Spiritual Court would travel over much of Eastern Asia and those who were not able to make the long pilgrimage to Her Temples were so given personal audience by this Gracious Lady, at that time visible to the physical sight of the Earth's people. She has always been and still is particularly interested in helping children and parents redeem their respective and collective destructive karma, so that they may more quickly outpicture the Perfection of their own "I AM" Presence.

Often, in those past ages, Beloved Kwan Yin would baptize with Violet Fire the children who were brought to Her for blessing, holding them during that ceremony in Her Own compassionate arms and, as much as the Law of their Beings would permit, She would mercifully transmute as much as She could of the unseen (to the physical sight) but destructive karma of these little ones before it could externalize as distresses of soul, mind, body or affairs. These destructive energies, of course, had been generated in past lives.

After the veil of maya had been created by the mass of mankind, Beloved Kwan Yin, like Others of the Divine Beings, was no longer seen by the outer physical sight of the people but She continued Her services from the Inner Levels of consciousness which, of course, are very efficacious and render a transcendent service to mankind, the Earth and Its atmosphere. Since mankind's attention is the Open Door in his world of all upon which it fixes that attention, when this Beloved Goddess of Mercy, Kwan Yin, is again better known to Earth's people and Her beauty and loveliness (as well as Those Who serve with Her) are again visible to the physical sight of the people, then will such blessings of healing, balance, peace and joy come forth to the people as have never been known on Earth before. This is just one of the glorious gifts of "The Seventh Ray" which She serves and has served so selflessly for ages and which await mankind as the Permanent Golden Age comes into Its complete fulfillment.

Wise, indeed, is the chela and grateful, indeed, is Kwan Yin for such an one who will consciously, daily, offer the younger generation and incoming children to Our Beloved Kwan Yin for Her loving and merciful assistance in these days. She will answer your calls and take each such lifestream into Her embrace, performing for them that same service which She rendered in those past ages.

After a soul has passed through the change called "death" at the close of an Earth-life, Beloved Kwan Yin again renders each such an one a specific service, helping to wash away many of the scars upon the etheric body of that one of disappointment, feelings of apparent failure, remorse and the causes and cores of other distressing conditions which the Law of that one's being will permit Her to remove. This makes it much easier for the individual to stand before the Karmic Board Who, of course, must see all that is within the entire world of the applicant and it enables that loving and merciful Karmic Board to assign that soul to the highest possible Sphere for instruction and help between embodiments.

The Beloved Kwan Yin, with Her Sisters and Brothers of Mercy, as well as Her limitless Legions of the Angels of Mercy, are also dedicated to the complete removal as quickly as possible of the cause and core of the scorn which so-called "righteous" ones direct toward unwed mothers and their illegitimate children. One of Her Legions is always a Guarding Presence over all Homes and Orphanages where such lifestreams are given as much assistance as possible. Her Flame of Mercy and Compassion always surrounds the mothers and mothers-to-be, whether they are helped by their fellowman or not and, in many instances, abortions and suicides often have been averted by the protecting faith-sustaining power of the Legions of Kwan Yin, the radiation from Whom gives such tremendous help to those unfortunate lifestreams who have become enmeshed in distresses of this nature.

The extreme quiet of the Temple of Mercy is the very first thing a visitor notices. The Brothers and Sisters move silently from Temple to Temple, rendering Their Service without fanfare of any kind. So does True Mercy act, even through unascended human beings.

The exquisite graciousness of Kwan Yin is embodied in all Her Celestial Helpers and even in the unascended chelas who belong to Her Legions of Mercy. This graciousness is also the predominant Nature of the Beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain and it is a heart feeling, not a surface expression of kindness and love.

There are many individuals belonging to the Earth's evolutions who cannot or do not desire to forgive injustice done to them. Even sincere chelas sometimes harbor feelings of resentment and rebellion against other lifestreams, as well as against circumstances of an unhappy nature. To these is recommended the invocation of Beloved Kwan Yin's own feelings of true Mercy, Compassion and Forgiveness. She will give to you the feeling of Her full gathered Cosmic Momentum and joy that comes in generating that feeling for yourselves.

Goddess of Mercy, lovely Kwan Yin,
Guiding us on - our Vict'ry to win;
God's great Forgiveness; His Mercy too,
In Love unceasing, flow forth from you.
We feel the Pow'r of Thy Mercy Flame;
Through invocation, Thy Love we claim
To e'er outpicture Thy Great God Pow'r -
Raising the Earth in this Cosmic Hour.

BELOVED KWAN YIN

Belov'd Kwan Yin,
By Love we win;
Belov'd Kwan Yin - God's way.

Thy golden fields
Love's harvest yields;
Our hearts all feel Thy Rays.

Mercy, Forgiveness, and Love's healing Flame,
Blaze and just blaze
As each one we now claim.

Temples of Love -
Thy deeds above;
Lotus of Purple Fire.

Goddess of Mercy,
We call to Thee now,
To Thy sweet Presence
Our hearts all now bow.

Belov'd Kwan Yin,
By Love we win;
Belov'd Kwan Yin - Love's way.

THANKSGIVING CLASS ADDRESS

BELOVED VIRGO

November 25, 1971

Welcome children of Light into the embrace of My Being! Rejoice that We have the privilege of consciously sending forth the Flame of Gratitude from our hearts to the Heart Center of Creation for the gift of Life bestowed upon us! Will you kindly be seated.

On this day, set aside for turning inward to the Well-spring of our beings, and realizing that our every thought, word and deed should carry a free-flowing stream of Gratitude to the Creator, we have a glorious opportunity of tremendous scope through entering into that Sacred Essence, and in the embrace of the Father-Mother God receive a glorious Blessing of Pure Divine Love. Adoration and Gratitude go hand in hand and is the means by which all Life can expand the borders of God's Kingdom, at the same time accelerating the service of one's own lifestream.

In sacred communion with My Maker, at the very dawn of this Holy Day, I felt the privilege which has been Mine during this year in having the opportunity of being one of the Sponsors, and the honor it is to be able to expand the Gifts of My Being to assist all Life evolving on this Planet. It is indeed gratifying to have the chelas send their Love and attention to Us, and through that attention, provide an avenue through which the return current may flow Earthward. I am most humbly grateful to the chelas for giving Me an opportunity to assist in the purification of My garment which you call 'Earth' which is the cloak which I have volunteered to wear. All of the Directors of the Elements with Whom I have been serving as Sponsors this year, have asked Me to convey to you Their deep Love and be assured that through your attention upon Us, We have been able to expand Our own Auras.

When an individual's attention is centered upon constructive service, the more Light he draws into his being, the greater is the acceleration of his consciousness. When I say 'his consciousness', I mean that Facet of Light, the anchorage of the Supreme Source, is expanded and thus the individual Focus can delve more deeply into the Cosmic Consciousness.

The Earth is My garment, and once It was a Shining Star. I appeal to you, the chelas of the Spiritual Hierarchy, to release more Light individually. You say you have dedicated yourselves to the service of the restoration of the Earth to Her original Perfection! How many of you really understand the meaning of dedication? A dedicated chela should place his ALL on the Altar of Love for God. Now I sincerely commend you for what you have done, but oh, My children surrender completely to the Christ within and then you will have truly dedicated yourselves to the Service of THE ONE - the Supreme Source of all Life!

When an individual enters the Path of Light and comes to the expansion of consciousness where he knows there is no separation in Life, that he is ONE with every other part of Life, he realizes how wonderful it is to send forth the blessing of his own lifestream - thus to widen the borders of Cosmic Consciousness and to be a conscious Co-creator with The Almighty!

Permit Me to take you into the Heart of God.

Place your attention on the Presence of God 'I AM' within you. Feel that pulsating Flame in your heart and know that the Breath of the Holy Spirit is animating your being....here we find the expression of The Father, you the Son (The Christ) and the Holy Spirit - the Trinity of Life. As you become The Christ in thought and feeling you, individually become a Holy Spirit. I do not, of course, refer to the Office of the Holy Spirit but to the true state of your being, an individualized Holy Spirit.

In this glorious heartbeat, in humility, realize that you are a cell in the Heart of Creation. Now visualize the Pink Flame of Adoration fill your being, and then expand and expand until it embraces the Earth. Now in this blazing sea of Pink Light, send your Love to all Life - to the entire Universe - immerse yourself in the Essence of Pure Divine Love.

You are not limited in this exercise, except by your own individual consciousness. Please feel at ONE WITH ALL LIFE as the Elixir of Pure Divine Love clears the way for God Illumination and the controlled power of God's Will.

As aforestated We, the Sponsors of this Year, have had a mighty opportunity of bringing your attention to the four elements, and We are most grateful that you have cooperated with Us in such a commendable manner. In consultation, Beloved Vesta suggested that We enter into a concentrated activity to impress the consciousness of the chelas with the fact that the four elements actually comprise their beings - yes, most can intellectually accept this, but it is expedient that the feeling world accept this Truth.

When a chela realizes that every time he makes a Call for the Forces of the Elements to render a specific service, that he is actually purifying his own vehicles, he will find his own garments become less cumbersome. I do not indicate that this is a method of reducing one's avoirdupois, but of bringing a buoyancy of feeling. Yes, poundage could be regulated in this manner, but take your attention away from the dense outer form and let the Light do Its perfect work!

Most certainly on the credit side of your ledger - your Book of Life - is the fact that you have consciously released your energies in cooperation with the Sponsors and the entire Spiritual Hierarchy in averting much catastrophic action on this Planet. Be not unduly concerned when activities of the Elements or other means, take numerous lifestreams from the Planet Earth - each lifestream sheds his physical garment at the appointed hour. We have said time and time again that the Universe is governed by scientific precision - there is no deviation, else the Cosmic Activities would not function as ordained!

One might say, "how is it that the Earth then is so far behind in Its schedule of Perfection?" - and this is a good question. The free will of man is the answer. When man fell from Grace and decided to use the human will and create all manner of imperfection to satisfy his human appetites, it was necessary to set into motion those activities which would purify this imperfection. This did not, and could not, affect the mathematical perfection of the Cosmic Law, but Currents had to be set into motion which would accomplish the end result. For instance, when a railroad experiences power difficulties on one line, they provide means for those aboard to reach their destination through another avenue of transportation.

The means provided by the Cosmic Law for the people of this Planet to reach their destination is the use of the various methods of Purification presented to you. One avenue is most certainly the activity of Pure Divine Love. You will remember that aeons ago the Governing Body of the Universe was considering the dissolution of this Earth, and that it was Our Beloved Sanat Kumara Who offered to come from His Home Star Venus and hold the Earth within His Love until She could begin Her return to the Perfection ordained for Her. The Spiritual Hierarchy, not so many years ago, felt it was safe for Beloved Sanat Kumara to return to Venus, since Beloved Gautama had expanded His Light sufficiently to hold the Planet in His Love. As you know, Sanat Kumara serves as Regent, and comes from time to time to assist in this restoration process. You will find that Beloved Sanat Kumara is devoting His energies to this Planet more and more in the immediate days ahead. This surely should indicate to you that the Earth is in Her final throes of agony; that the requirement for Love is becoming evident, and that Our Beloved Regent has offered to lend His assistance to the Cosmic re-birth which will take place in the not too distant future.

Prepare you well for the Blessing of Pure Divine Love which you will receive this coming Sunday when the Mighty Sanat Kumara will stand in your midst and speak to you at the concluding Class of this Thanksgiving Service.

The glorious Star of Sanat Kumara has been externalized from His Being and is pulsating over Shamballa, providing the Thought Form for this Class.

INSTRUCTION

from Beloved Kwan Yin

The ceremonial activity of Life, of course, has concerned Me for many centuries. I held the office as Chohan of the Seventh Ray prior to Our Illustrious Brother, the Beloved Saint Germain. In that service to Life, I was privileged in many ages, not only in China, but in the great civilizations all over the world, to teach those interested in mastering energy, the inner significance behind all the seeming intricacies of ceremonial Life - in church, in home and in person.

You might be interested to know that the first Chohans were the seven great Archangels to whom you are now giving such honor and opportunity to serve in the world of form. They were, for the Elohim, the magnetizing centers of the powers of the Seven Rays through the early golden Ages. They were the radiating centers of those powers in those ages also, until there could be raised up from among the Guardian Spirits - and later from among the earth people themselves - lifestreams qualified to represent those Rays.

After the great Archangels relinquished Their responsibility, many among Us took over those offices. The Gautama Buddha officiated before Myself on the Seventh Ray.

We are joined together in a tremendous bond and affinity which is the result of ages of common interest, and that is why We have great love for each other, which enables Us to work co-operatively in Our Realm to serve Life.

In Peking, for many, many centuries, I have focused an activity of healing, and within the Retreat, I offer the chelas seven initiations. They are concerned primarily with the development and mastery of the seven bodies which make up the instrument of each 'I Am Presence'. Each one of your bodies, beloved hearts, should have full freedom and a natural service to Life in one of the Seven Spheres. The consciousness by right should be able to function in any one of those seven bodies as freely as the master of a house performs his service in any one of the rooms that make up his mansion.

The 'fall of man', as it has been termed, incapacitated the conscious mind to function and to bring back the remembrance of the activities in higher spheres, and for the most part made inaccessible the conscious use of the Holy Christ Self, the Causal and Electronic Bodies of the people.

The four lower bodies were drawn down by the senses into the sub-strata of the etheric plane, and even they do not function in their natural spiritual habitat.

The alignment of the seven bodies, returning them to their own sphere and enabling the conscious mind to function in each sphere in an alert, awakened capacity and to draw back the gifts of that sphere and the activities of it into the world of form is the purpose of the Retreat at Peking and My service in the healing of minds and of bodies.

The Electronic Presence and the Immortal Threefold Flame are functioning primarily, or are supposed to, in the First Realm, in the Heart of God Himself, where the great ideas and the causative centers of the Universal First Cause are freely accessible. The Causal Body was destined to function in the Second Realm, where ideas were clothed in form, where they took on specific and definite outline, and where the Causal Body of the consciousness was enabled to fashion clothing, so to speak, for some portion of the Divine Plan.

The Holy Christ Self originally functioned in the Third Sphere, and the etheric body, which functions now mostly in the psychic and astral realm, originally held the Divine Pattern in the Fourth Sphere, where the Holy Christ Selves presently abide.

The mental body functioned in the Fifth Sphere where the dedication of the energies and the drawing forth of the plan enabled the life-stream to cooperate both with the inner realm and the realm without. It was the activity of drawing the great services of the inner realms into form. The emotional body was to function in the Sixth Sphere, the realm of ministration, and its service was to pour forth the qualities of the God-head, the nature of the God-head.

The physical body then, of course, was to function in the Seventh Sphere.

That is why Saint Germain is beginning, through the contact of the outer consciousness, through the physical body, in the Seventh Sphere to help that consciousness work its way back into the heart of God. Do you see?

The seven ganglionic centers in the flesh body are a focus or connection with each one of the Seven Spheres also, and the connection into your physical form of the activities of each inner sphere. It is a most detailed service, and yet if you understand it fully, you can enter into the necessary personal application to develop your conscious awareness within these inner spheres, placing your bodies again at the disposal of the soul and the Self, and using them as they were intended. When they are in perfect alignment with the Silver Cord running through them, you have the Master Presence, functioning freely, knowing the Will of God; working in the world of form from the consciousness of the Causal Body, and then lowering into physical expression the Divine Ceremony of manifesting that Will in every activity of your daily life.

These Temples in Peking enable Us to draw initiates and people interested in re-aligning themselves and awakening the higher consciousness from the world of form. Here We teach them first the control of the physical body; the proper eating and breathing habits; then We develop within them an understanding of the ganglionic centers, the color of them; the connection with each center and the body which it represents. When they are well versed Master Physicians, We take them into the mental, emotional, etheric, and finally the higher mental world and on up into the Causal Body. Then you have a very real 'Messenger of Light' Who can function in the Electronic Body, who can contact the Masters at will. They can also act in the capacity of the mediator, or step-down transformer, not only for the Word, but the qualified energy of any Master Presence in the Universe.

It is truly a beautiful service to Life and it is one that, if it interests you, I will choose to develop and give to you so you may embody some of the application and endeavor to find a way to aligning your blessed vehicles again; developing them, maturing them, and making them your servants.

You know there is so much to any one facet of service. Each one of Us has served for thousands of years, hundreds of thousands, sometimes millions, in developing and maturing and perfecting one particular service to Life. Then We are given thirty or forty minutes in which to present Our activity to the earnest and yet oft-times confused outer mind.

It is difficult in the extreme to restrain Ourselves and to give you just some simple, workable knowledge which can alleviate your present distresses. Yet that must come first, because, there must be a medium of peace in mind, body, and affairs before the deeper activities of the Law can sufficiently take hold of your interest and energies so you may prove them in fact.

I come to bring you the blessings of the Seventh Ray, Whose Chohan you have served, and which Ray you have served so selflessly through this embodiment...to bring you the blessings of Its great Chohan.....that Being Whose next two thousand years of activity in the physical world will be proof to every man, woman and child on the Planet of LOVE indescribable...to bring you the blessings and the feeling of My Mercy and Forgiveness to Life, which does melt away at inner levels every vibratory action which is a cause of distress.

These I give to you and anchor through you. I invite you to come into the heart of Peking, and into the heart of Our Temples where you may perchance pick up something that will be pleasing to you and of workable, practical knowledge in the application of the Law. I thank you. .

* * * * *

I bow before the glorious Light within your hearts in gratitude for the opportunity and the privilege of serving your life, and for your gracious kindness in receiving Me and entering into the consciousness of My service to your life.

As We have opened the Temple doors to your so welcome Presence, may you feel Our happiness in your acceptance of Our simple hospitality and friendship in that service to Life.

To live but to amplify some particular gift of God's beautiful Nature is to live in the happiness of your complete freedom, for through the doors and windows of your soul there will sweep forth the glory of the Ever-Presence to enrich the world through your invitation.

This month your thoughts are on Mercy, Forgiveness and Love Divine! There is not one life-stream who has not received these three immortal gifts from the Heart of God and His Messengers many times throughout the ages. You are not strangers to these gifts which pulsate through the Flaming Lotus of Cosmic Mercy, whose purple petals of Living Flame encompass the Earth. There is not one unascended being who could attain the full freedom that lies within the Ascension, if these qualities were removed from the Earth! By Mercy, through Forgiveness, and in Love, all Life ascends again into Its true estate.

I ask you now, as the Flaming Power of Mercy, Forgiveness and Love Divine encircles the Earth, to open your feeling worlds to the acceptance of this power of transmutation and allow the miracle-working alchemy to melt those creations in consciousness that yet hold you bound. Oh, accept it for ALL LIFE! It is the greatest concentration of the forgiving love of the Cosmic Christ that the Earth has yet known.

Now, beloved hearts, I ask you to be that Mercy, Forgiveness and Love Divine to ALL LIFE everywhere. Do you know what Mercy is? It is more kindness than justice requires; it is more kindness than can be claimed by merit or service. Will you daily begin to consciously forgive all the life that has consciously or unconsciously done you an injustice, back to the beginning of time? Make it a daily ritual of your contemplative hours. Where you see those frightful distortions of mind and body - of disease or distress of any kind - STOP for a moment and do consciously forgive the energy that created such an appearance and set that energy free. I shall amplify your every endeavor to be the merciful, forgiving, loving power of My Presence, and I shall be so grateful to use you as Myself while We have the opportunity of drawing, focusing, and directing Our Flame of Mercy on a worldwide scale.
