CONTEMPLATION
Remember that in body thine a God is dwelling there;
Thy temple from pollution free let is forever be.
Offend thou not thy God in thee, indulging in man's lusts;
Moreover if tormenting self thou groanest foolishly,
God has descended just to see the world with eyes thine.
Then breathe on Him with senses pure, the Breath of Sacrifice.
It's He in thee, that sees, feels, thinks, and speaks
by day and night.
Be thus in all thou dost see, feel, think, speak—
divinely bright.
We all admire a man who says what he thinks—as long as he says it about other people.

Our Pearl Harbor War Criminals

WASHINGTON.—President Roosevelt polled his Cabinet one month before Pearl Harbor on the question "whether the people would back us up in case we struck at Japan" to stop aggression in Southeast Asia. He got the unanimous opinion that they would.

This was disclosed in the diary of former Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson. Stimson sent excerpts to the Senate-House committee investigating Japan's December 7, 1941, attack. The committee, which had asked for them, made them public.

They disclosed also that the President and his so-called "war cabinet" agreed on November 28, 1941, that the United States would have to fight if Japan attacked the British or Dutch in the South Pacific.

THEY DISCUSSED WHETHER THE UNITED STATES SHOULD ATTACK JAPAN WITHOUT FURTHER WORD. THIS WAS REJECTED.

It was decided instead that a warning message should be sent to Emperor Hirohito and the situation put before Congress. Mr. Roosevelt sent a message to Hirohito December 6, but there was no message to Congress until after Japan's attack.

OUR WAR CRIMINALS

The "war cabinet" was composed of Stimson, Secretary of the Navy Knox, Secretary of State Hull, General George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, and Admiral Harold R. Stark chief of naval operations.

Stimson's record represented Mr. Roosevelt and his top advisers in November, 1941, as expecting war. The questions were the time, the place and how it would begin.

Stimson said Mr. Roosevelt pointed out at a meeting, November 25 with his war cabinet, that "the Japanese are notorious for making an attack without warning, and the question was what should we do."

"The question was," Stimson added, "How we should maneuver them into the position of firing the first shot without allowing too much danger to ourselves."

This explains why Gen. Marshall did not notify Short and Kimmel of the coming attack. 4000 dead and wounded.

HULL, FDR DELIBERATELY STARTED PEARL HARBOR WAR TO PLEASE CHURCHILL

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Twelve days before Pearl Harbor, former War Secretary Stimson favored a diplomatic truce with Japan which might have prevented the attack on Pearl Harbor and America's entry into World War II, he revealed in a 38 page statement filed with the congressional Pearl Harbor investigating committee.

TRUCE SHOWN BY HULL

The diplomatic truce referred to by Stimson was shown to him by State Secretary Hull during negotiations between the United States and Japan in Washington. It would have lasted three months and under it, Japan would have been asked to evacuate China and cease aggressive action. In return, the United States would have permitted trade with Japan to supply her civilian needs, particularly in oil.

"It adequately safeguarded all our interests," Stimson wrote in his diary Nov. 25, 1941, altho he added he feared the Japanese would not accept the truce because of its drastic terms.

The next day, Nov. 26, Hull, instead of proposing the truce, delivered a note to the Japanese which literally broke off the negotiations. It proposed a complete withdrawal by the Japanese from their conquered territories and held out no hope for future negotiations.

Brewster said that Gen. Marshall, former army chief of staff, had told the committee that had the Japanese not attacked on Dec. 7, 1941, they might never have launched the war. A delay of two weeks, Marshall said, would have shown the Japanese they would have a strong Russia on their flank. It was in December, 1941, that the Russians turned back the German attack on Moscow.

"In other words," Brewster said, "if we had offered Japan that three month truce—which Stimson said adequately safeguarded our interests—and Japan had accepted it, there might never have been an attack on Pearl Harbor and America would not have been drawn into the war."

BRITAIN WANTED TRUCE

"Instead, Hull proceeded to issue an ultimatum, Japan went ahead with her plan to attack Pearl Harbor, and then proceeded to conquer vast areas in the southwest Pacific."

Brewster also recalled that Sumner Welles, former state undersecretary, told the committee British Ambassador Halifax rushed to the state department the day after Hull delivered his final note to Japan, asking what had happened to the truce proposal and asserting Britain had wanted the truce.

Meantime, according to testimony taken by the committee, Churchill had protested to Washington that the truce put China "on a thin diet." The Chinese also protested it.

KNEW OF DANGER

"Apparently," Brewster said, "Churchill had been in touch with Roosevelt and between them they decided not to offer a truce. It was to the British interest that we take no step which would avoid war."

James Hervey Johnson vs. Thomas Whelan

There appeared in the San Diego issue for March 21, Tribune-Sun, an anonymous political advertisement which has started the political circles guessing.

(Political Advertisement)

Where was District Attorney Thomas Whelan during the war?

Answer

He was safe in the court house, helping promote legislation to raise his salary to $10,000 a year.

Why did Whelan suddenly resign as district attorney, remain out of office and then jump back in as his former chief deputy resigned?

Answer — ????

Which public official subpoenaed a 58-year old citizen into the grand jury room, had him searched for weapons, then when the man was seated in the witness chair made a cowardly assault on him, beat him in the face before he had an opportunity to defend himself and then hurriedly left the grand jury room?

Answer

See the newspapers of December 12, 1935.

Do the citizens of San Diego want a gentleman in the District Attorney's office or a hoodlum and bully? Do they want a man who fought for his country or a man who fights helpless witnesses in the grand jury room?

Answer

The people can decide the issue at the Primary Election, June 4.

WHO INSERTED IT ?

During the war there was not much local political gossip, aside from the defeat of Jacob Weinberger by Joe Shell for Superior Court Judge, because the Newdeal has practically eliminated local self-government and centered all power to make decisions in the hands of its totalitarian bureaucracy. Elections have been very tame affairs with incumbents mostly unopposed. So naturally, the political wisecracks and gossipers caught that juicy morsel contained in the anonymous smear and are chewing on it heartily.

Ever since the elections of 1930 the San Diego District Attorney's office was in the hands of Thomas Whelan who resigned for a short time only to return to his old job when his temporary successor, James Abbey, decided to run for Congress against Newdealer Ed. Isaac born Isaacs. Isaacs won by 800 votes thru the expedient of a trumped up "sedition" charge against our editor who was kept in jail and the P. O. placed a "delay order" for "inspection and censorship" on THE BROOM until Isaacs' votes had been counted, to make sure that we couldn't campaign for Abbey, Republican.

There is no opposition to the incumbents on the superior and municipal benches and at first nobody expected any opposition to Whelan for D. A. because the office pays only a measly $5000 a year and after deduction of federal and state income taxes it is not enough for any highclass corporation lawyer to afford the bother and insults, plus political smear and friction, connected with such a responsible office in a $300 million public corporation. During the war period the office pays double as all such offices have been raised, but with return of peace only mediocre youngsters or inveterate politicians care for it.

Naturally, the gossipers wondered who inserted that smear adv. Some figured it must have come from the Curtis Hillyer gang, whose son is a candidate against Whelan, while others guessed better, namely that the former county assessor, James Hervey Johnson, whom Whelan had removed from office thru court action and convicted for criminal libel against the editor of THE BROOM, could be the author. It was dirty and sneaky enough to have originated with the Hillyer crowd or Johnson, or both in cahoots.

Curtis Hillyer used to be "boss" of San Diego while he was attorney for the defunct SUN and was the power behind many a dirty political deal, especially while Harry C. Clark was mayor and refused to knuckle down to "Boss" Hillyer in police chief appointments for control of the underworld as is done in every metropolitan corrupt city. Also there are other deals chalked up against Hillyer, in the case of Mitchell and Mitchell, which have a court record that stinks to high heaven. Evidently the Hillyer crowd is attempting a comeback now that most oldtimers are dead and the city is populated by unsuspecting newcomers who don't know the record of the characters that pull the political strings to control the D. A. office.

WHY ANONYMOUS SMEAR ?

Upon closer examination of the contents of the smear adv. one wonders why the Tribune-Sun became a party to such procedure. Had this appeared in the SUN, with Curtis Hillyer as the paper's attorney, the explanation would have been simple. But the Tribune-Sun is under a different management, not as irresponsible, so the gossipers became inclined to accept the version that James Hervey Johnson is attempting to get even for his conviction of criminal libel, the only one in the annals of San Diego county. Even that would not have happened, but only because Johnson published in "The Spotlight" some unprintable stuff about our editor's wife and children. The jury decided that it had to protect the woman and children against a character like James Hervey.

Mertig On Court Procedure

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Just to inform you that N. Y. Supreme Court Judge Peter Daly has not yet handed down his decision on our application for a certificate of reasonable doubt, argued on March 5th.

Our lawyer, Henry H. Klein, believes that the Judge is going into all phases of our case which might make legal history and clear the atmosphere once for all.

This coming Friday our lawyer will make a motion to the same Judge for a new trial on basis of undisclosed evidence at the trial.

Last week our lawyer filed charges with the Appellate Division against Magistrate Joseph de Andrea and demanded the investigation of every judge and lawyer in our case.

The latter thing has hardly ever been attempted in New York courts, but, if it should go through, an effective stop might be put to future railroading of innocent Americans who have incurred the displeasure of certain pressure groups.

This is a worthy purpose indeed to achieve. Miss F. von Weinrich, 23 E. 81st St., New York 28, N. Y., acting chairman of the Citizens' Protective League, is in charge of collections for a defense fund to enable us to defeat the scheme of our opponents to make a joke of American justice.

Sincerely, KURT MERTIG, Chairman
Citizens' Protective League

Winston Churchill in describing the menace of Russia and Communism did an excellent job of describing the monster that he and FDR helped create.

HE AIN'T SO CRAZY

CORONADO, Calif.,—In this city, inhabited largely by U. S. Navy personnel, the town-wit has erected a blackboard next to the Safeway Store on Orange avenue. On it he writes a daily "lesson" for the "public" to take to heart and ponder. As a rule his sentences are culled from religious subjects which caused many to consider him a religious fanatic, queer and perhaps crazy.

The other day our reporter told a friend, "lets go and see what there is on the bulletin board today." And this is what they found:

"Why build a big Navy when the Jews don't even own a canoe and they control the world."

MILLIONAIRE SANHEDRIN-POTENTATE DECRIES HIS OWN JEW-DEAL POLICIES NOW

WASHINGTON,—Bernard Baruch told Congress that strikes and lockouts must be prevented for at least a year—by law if necessary—so production can reach the high levels needed to lick inflation.

At the same time, he called for creation of a high court of commerce, "a sort of supreme economic council," to help settle clashes between all segments of the national economy.

"IF THIS IS NOT done," Baruch warned, "we shall soon find ourselves in the morass of confusion that will bring us either to Fascism or Communism; and that ark of the covenant of human liberties and dignities, our form of government, will have been lost."

Editor's Note: 2-time war-profiteer and "advisor" to presidents, Baruch means by "human liberties and dignities" the liberty of his ilk to amass fortunes by gambling in the stock market on the lives, sweat and blood of American suckers.

Generals Afraid of Jew-Communist Criticism

CHICAGO,—Laird Bell, Chicago attorney who was deputy director of the economic division of the office of United States military government in Germany, charged that professional army officers there are so sensitive to criticism from the so-called liberal press in the United States, that they are carrying out the worst provisions of the discredited Morgenthau plan for control of Germany. He spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Chicago Association of Commerce in Hotel Sherman.

The smallest article in an obscure journal, no matter what its political philosophy, agitates the high command as the mouse is supposed to trouble the elephant, Bell said, "and the most bloodthirstiness comes from the so-called liberal press."

CITES DANGER TO AVOID

Bell conceded that one must be on his guard to avoid the danger of becoming a victim of a "pity the poor Germans" campaign.

"The Germans are clean and they are industrious," he added, "but if you can generalize about a nation they are also arrogant tyrants when on top and truckling sycophants when they're down."

"I am not concerned with keeping their traits and their kultur alive. I am concerned that we should not so conduct ourselves that they will want to spring upon us again the moment our supervision is relaxed."

WHITE HOUSE ZIONISM INCREASES COMMUNISM AMONG ARABS

BAGDAD, Iraq,—Dr. Fadhil Jamali, director general of foreign affairs, said "a weakening of Arab confidence and faith in western democracies" both here and in other Arab states is contributing toward a general increase in communist sympathies thruout the whole middle east.

Jamali described the growth of communist movements in the Arab world as "a natural development which began when the Russians entered the war and has been increasing steadily ever since, especially among the youth." He declared that "pro-Zionist" utterances in America and England have been "a major contributor factor in the weakening of Arab confidence and faith in the western democracies."

ARMY GRABS NAZI BOOKS

NEW YORK,—Fully 50 per cent of the book stocks in 175 newly opened book stores in the Munich area were confiscated when American military authorities, in a series of surprise raids, found them to be anti-democratic and anti-Semitic in content, according to a BBC broadcast monitored here by NBC.

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court Order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"Scientific" Extermination of Anti-Semites

In last week's issue, on page 4, we quoted the California Jewish Voice in their rejoicing editorial over the fact that the Zionists have started shooting in Palestine in their war against the British and the Arabs. The Voice winds up with the statement that "Jews who shoot" have discovered the "scientific approach against anti-Semitism."

It is taking a long time for the American public to discover the real nature of the Jewish character. Americans have been beguiled by the wailing Jews and their cries of persecution. Even though every church celebrates Easter, as well as Christmas, nevertheless it never is brought home to the people in the church that an unbridgeable abyss separates the Jew from the Christ. The Mosaic tenet is brutality and revenge; the Christian principle is Love, Mercy and Forgiveness. The one demands a life for a life, blood for blood, an eye for an eye; the other rises to the Throne of the All-Father and from this position views the transgressions as the Christ did on the cross: "Father forgive them, they don't know what they do!"

In our atheistic public schools, where religion is not taught the growing child, but Communism is encroaching by leaps and bounds, the young generations fail to realize that our whole life, and all things that happen to us, are the result of our own thought, habits and decisions, put into daily practice, individually, nationally, internationally. "What we sow that also we reap, for God cannot be mocked" is not made the scientific basis of ethical instruction in applied psychology.

The Jewish Voice, of Los Angeles, has helped to focus our attention on the cause that produces world-wide Jewish "persecutions".

At present the thinking people are being educated by the Jews to realize the cause of "persecutions" that force every nation to expel them. We can see in New York City what Jews will do when they control the courts. They don't permit free speech and they frame their antagonists as they have framed Maertz, Mertig and Elmhurst. In Chicago they have arrested and charged Kister, Smith and Terminiello with inciting to riot, while they freed the actual rioters who came there to destroy property, commit violence and prevent Kister and others from speaking. The Jews came here under the protection of our Constitution but are the most aggressive destroyers of the Bill of Rights.

It is they who, then, cry "persecution" and wail to high heaven. They have again and again raised that cry because again and again and again, for 3,000 years, they have betrayed the people who took pity on them and opened their doors to these perfidious guests to give them asylum.

Now the Jewish Voice speaks up, rejoicing that finally the Jews have started shooting. This is one admission, but the facts speak much louder. The Jews in Russia led the Communists in all their depravities. Wherever the Jewish Reds usurped power they employed the "scientific" approach of liquidation of their opponents. He who does NOT THINK that the Jews are appointed by God to rule and ruin all of us and make us like it, is called an anti-Semite and the Reds have liquidated them in Hungary, Italy, Belgium and France in the recent "trials" in "people's courts", which means lynch courts.

Yes, when the Jews start shooting, and they are training private armies even in these U. S. A. for that purpose, it will be brought home to all why the Jews are "persecuted". The LAW works inexorably. Hitler adopted the Mosaic principle and turned it against the Jews. Even Stalin now has ceased being their patron saint for the Jews are fleeing Soviet territory by the hundred thousands into American and British zones where they are being fed at the expense of the American taxpayers.

Once the Jews follow the signal trumpet of the California Jewish Voice to start shooting as the "scientific" approach against anti-Semitism, meetings of men like Smith and Terminiello will not be terrorized by mere bottles thrown thru the windows, but the bullets will follow. This is the logical result of what the Jewish Voice gleefully announces awaits all who still abhor the Jewish approach because it is inherent in the white man and woman to follow the Christ approach. And as Jesus had to pay with his life for his, daring so the Jewish Voice announces will be our fate, too. Yes, it's "scientific" liquidation. Hitler learned it from them, hence Nazism has never been Christian but a Jewish principle come home to roost.

Walter Winchell, the hypocrite and character assassin, is trying to get over on the anti-Communist bandwagon for fear he will be caught with the wrong gang, which gang he has been flattering for many years.

Red Rogge Goes Fishing to Germany

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

United States of America, Criminal No. 73086

v. Joseph E. McWilliams, Et Al

United States of America, Criminal No. 71203

v. Gerald B. Winrod, Et Al

United States of America, Criminal No. 70153

v. Gerald B. Winrod, Et Al

MEMORANDUM

I have decided to grant the prosecution's request, made in the form of a motion, to defer decision of all pending motions to dismiss the above-enlisted cases for want of prosecution. This action is taken in order to permit an investigation to be made in Germany as to whether there exists any direct evidence of guilt of the defendants.

Ordinarily when cases including charges of commission of crime have been pending for a long period of time, the Court is not justified in granting additional time to investigate as to the guilt or innocence of defendants. But the present cases, which involve allegations of conspiracy to undermine the morale of the Armed Forces of the United States, arose at a time when Germany, where important direct testimony of guilt is said probably to be available, was in a state of war with the United States and access to such testimony was impossible. Now that the war is at end, it seems to me reasonable to permit the prosecution to have opportunity to complete an investigation which apparently has been under way in Germany for some weeks.

If a trial of these cases is to be set by the Court, it is important that directive of guilt, if it exists, should be adduced. Counsel for the prosecution has stated in argument before me that late decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States in cases similar to those pending in this Court have made him doubtful as to the possibility of sustaining a conviction, if one is obtained on the evidence now at hand. This statement of doubt of counsel is supported by his failure thus far to inform the Court, although requested to do so, as to his attitude toward actually proceeding with a prosecution. If a serious doubt of the legal guilt of the defendants exists in the mind of the prosecutor, who is fully familiar with the evidence and is advised as to the strongest aspects of the Government's case, it would seem futile to prosecute these cases through many tedious months. Especially is this true where the Court is compelled to call upon a large number of defense counsel to serve impoverished defendants without any assurances of compensation. On the other hand, if clear, direct evidence of guilt is found to be available against the defendants, they should not escape trial.

I am fully mindful of the fact that the defendants have rights which, under our laws, must be protected by the Court. The cases against them, long pending, should be promptly disposed of. The investigation by the prosecution should be completed in a reasonable time and then the cases should be either dismissed or set a date for trial.

I shall grant the prosecution until April 30, 1946, to complete its investigation in Germany. This is longer than the minimum period requested, but I wish to afford what seems to me beyond question to be ample time, so that a further extension will not be requested.

On or before April 30, 1946, counsel for the prosecution will be expected to advise the Court in writing (copy to be sent to each defendant) whether prosecution of the case is desired, also whether in his judgment, there is evidence available which reasonably will warrant the sustaining of a conviction of the defendants, if one is obtained, under controlling decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Motions filed by defendants inconsistent with the foregoing will be overruled.

The Birth of a Savior

A Fragment of Ancient History Among Covenanters Transcribed and Abbreviated.

By Rev. Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Ha'nish of Math-El-Kharman.

Accompanied by her maid, Miryam entered her lonely home, as the city had no room for peace and quietude; everybody was occupied with gossip, every mind filled with tales. Miryam submitted to the lowly surroundings without a murmur. Had not her Lord Yousef thot it the wisest step to escape the tongues of evil-doers? She missed the comforts her Lord had given to her at Nazareth. In her still moments recollections drew pictures of a past splendor while yet at her mother's home, and later among the privileged ones at the Temple academy; the glorious times she spent when on vacation with her Aunt Elizabeth at a beautiful country villa surrounded with groves and hedges of roses. She pictured it all and yet with a peaceful smile her thot returned to the place of humbleness to await the disclosures of the near future.

* * * *

The breezes of the night turned cool, yet the sky was clear. The stars stood out brightly against the deep purple of heaven's canopy. It was long past midnight and stillness reigned supreme. All the world seemed to slumber in peace, and even the cattle would not stir from their once established position. In the valley of Tabor the breath of peace exercised its spell of magic, for the shepherds of the many flocks of Yousef slumbered in the arms of Morpheus, a sleep of the righteous. The campfires had long died away and except for a light burning brightly at a distant cattleshed there was nothing to denote the presence of wakefulness. Suddenly the light in the cattleshed took on an extra glare. It seemed as if several lights had been lit and a few minutes later a flame of fire kindled in the courtyard ascended to the unseen courts above. It was a rather unusual hour to kindle a campfire, an unusual hour to stir about. It was the hour before dawn, the hour of change, when cattle and sheep rise to their feet and after a few minutes of uneasiness and stir change their position and lie down again to rest there the remainder of the night. It is the hour when the hireling shepherd takes advantage of his opportunity to sneak among the flocks and rob the mother sheep of their young kids and steal away with them under the cover of darkness to sell to the traders, ever ready to accept such booty.

As if by magic touch star upon star disappeared and only the star of the morning pierced its way thru the density of space, appearing in its brightness and glory as if declaring a new message to the inhabitants below.

Simultaneously with the phenomenon of the heavens, and that of the customary one upon the earth, the shepherd's song thrilled the balmy air of the valley of Tabor. The notes, well drawn and the melody rising key upon key, revealed a message of an unusual event. A messenger riding upon the back of a donkey shouted a most wonderful message:

"Glory, glory, glory to God on High—
Peace, peace, peace has come to earth;
Good will to man thru our Saviour's birth.
Joy, joy, joy from afar and joy, joy, joy from nigh."

Again and again these words echoed from mountain to dale. It was the message of the first born and He a Saviour unto His people, who had been in bondage for generations. The shepherds were frightened out of their deep slumber and put out their heads thru the opening of their tents to inquire as to the meaning of this midnight cry. With their widespread hands over their brows they peered into the dark night and in one accord they raised their high voices, calling:

"Peace, peace, peace be unto thee. Tell us the message our Lord pleases to give!"

And in answer the shepherd's song, an instrument made of two hollow reeds tied together, pealed forth the ancient melody of the new song declaring peace unto freedom. As the rider neared the camp the shepherds beseeched their chief to give them hope, and in a few words he excitedly related the news to them, as he was not to tarry by the wayside but to hie to Nazareth that the birth of their Saviour might be recorded in the archives of the synagogue, as well as their release from bondage be announced.

"Rejoice with us, for unto us a child is born, a Saviour to redeem His people.
And this is the sign unto you.

Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes,

Resting within a manger of a cattle shed

In Bethlehem, the estate of the house of Pandu."

And as he thus spoke, for it was Sirach who had sounded the shepherd's song unto freedom, his countenance shone forth the illumination of ecstatic joy and felicity, radiating the halo of angelic presence that brightened the darkness round about and raised the vibrations of the heart unto the light of understanding. As he rode off to perform his duty, the shepherd's song continued to thrill the air and with it the hearts of the astonished shepherds who were overpowered at the message of hope.

(To be concluded.)

No Cow-Milk For Vegetarians

Dear Kosti:

We are enjoying Fred's Sermon very much. My wife and I and our son, age 4, have been living minus dairy, meat, or cereal products and on a 100 per cent raw food diet for nearly 1 and one half years now. We can agree with Fred and even back him up with the proof, that there is not any abnormal effect from this way of living. On the contrary, exceptionally clear thinking, rapid growth on the part of our son and freedom from disease is the result. As for the boy he has been subjected to the measles and has slept in the same bed with children who were suffering from whooping cough and contracted neither; nor has he thus far been afflicted with any child's disease.

Any who contradict this must do so on a basis of hearsay, but we have the proof of what we say here, it is by personal demonstration on ourselves.

Sincerely yours in the interest of what is right, LAWRENCE LA BARRE .

EXPERIENCES OF DOCTOR HANISH

My Dear LA BARRE:

THE BROOM in its news columns, naturally, must quote a speaker as he spoke, even verbatim, but that does not mean that the speaker always has the facts. I believe in freedom of expression and never curtailed it in my children, but, then, they also had to listen to my answer, and reason together with me.

Had Fred discussed with me some of the details of his 'Sermon' before he delivered it from the altar steps of the Temple, he would have spared himself a few mistakes which his father now has to correct. Young people are quick in assuming a basis for their conclusions without analysing their ideas to make sure that their assumption is born out by the facts; in this case, Fred assumed that because he had not found anyone who had become mentally unbalanced by a precipitated change from meat, cow milk and hen-eggs diet, therefore the attitude of Henry Sarge was based on hearsay only. But Fred is, to use the vernacular, just an 18 year old kid and has not met many varieties of people in this world.

Here are the facts in a nutshell.

Dr. O. Z. Hanish as a child was about to die because of a malformation in the heart-passages which lacked proper walling of the aorta within the heart-muscle. Also because his home surroundings were not congenial, to boot, for a highly sensitive spiritual child genius. As a last resort his parents, near the Caspian Sea, donated him to a Mazdaznan Temple community where the priests saved the boy's life and raised him. His stay with them lasted 25 years. As Sarge stated, they were real vegetarians without any animal product foods, dairy or hen.

When Dr. Hanish left the Temple compounds, not being born there he did not fit into that life, and the wanderlust of the Aryan nomad took him all over the world, uniting this impulse with the mission of bringing the concept of Aryan Thought and Life, up-to-date, to the highest capacity of the best within the race: he had the theory and practice at his fingertips, but, like Fred, he was inexperienced in the world of his day, having been brought up in mountain-canyon seclusion among the ranges of Central Asia.

Being imbued with enthusiasm, like Fred, and spreading an aura of mysticism and mystery, oriental fashion, too many of the people who came to his classes succumbed to their own frailties by which they worshipped him as the incarnation of God on earth. Same as they did with Jesus, in his day, and worse since.

Since Dr. Hanish sounded the call to the sick in mind and body to come and be saved, via Health and Breath Culture, Vegetarian Diet and Galamic Breathing, as well as Divine Love of Mazda, as must happen in such cases those sick in mind and body—deranged, even though "normal" for everyday appearances, lacked the deep spiritual sense which is alive already in you, Fred and was in Dr. Hanish, and provides the proper guidance, natural understanding, discernment in the selection of proper foods.

They followed their idol, Dr. Hanish, blindly and stupidly, gave up what good sense Nature had left them, and not grasping the true meaning of his instructions, unbalanced themselves completely. That brought home to the young missionary the meaning of "Quod licet Jovi non licet bovi," what is proper for Zeus does not apply to an oxen. There is quite a gap between the ox and Zeus.

Dr. Hanish discovered to his heartbreaking dismay that All his Love of the pupils in his classes did not change the animals into divinely intelligent human beings who can live and thrive on Nectar and Ambrosia.

Imagine the re-action upon the young missionary, as if a mother gave birth to a number of idiot children among normal ones. The shock was terrifically depressing when they had to be placed into insane asylums.

He rewrote his whole Diet and Cook Book and gave to the animals animal food. That happened 40 and 50 years ago.

Fred is right when he said that the children of the original pupils of Dr. Hanish, pupils who gave up at least meat, who learned to breathe better, those children could take the next step now, as Fred did of his own volition, and exclude animal products from their diet. Also those who for 42 years, like myself, had practiced what Dr. Hanish had taught them, could now take the next step up to live in this world and not be of this world.

Dr. Hanish died a heart-broken man. His books and the extant copies of lectures and ritual contain the Master-Thought of the Aryan origin and the way of Life. But a living, physical example of Mazdaznan Life in the U. S. A. is non-existent. It expired when Dr. Hanish gave up the right diet to associate with his animalistic pupils since he had taken them into his heart and was Karmically bound to see them thru, as a mother is bound to all her children, genius or idiot.

Those who succeed to build bodies from pure substances and find their spiritual ties of relationship in Mazdaznan can now redeem the flaw, for as Jesus knew His limitations so does every true teacher charge his faithful pupils with the duty of daring towards greater progress: "Greater things than these ye shall do!"

Fred does not realize the difference it makes in the motif-force which made him chose vegetarianism and that of many followers of "leaders" in the field. Fred thought it all out for himself and his own heart revolted at the thought of abusing the animals, so that henceforth partaking of dairy foods and hen-fruits would actually turn his digestive juices against it. But not so in people who merely take the "doctor's word" and have no inner insight in the moral issue involved. There is nothing to guide their stomach to find RELIEF, spiritual and physical relief, in pure vegetarianism. Their bodies continue to crave the fleshpots of Egypt and find relief in the animal propensities of eggs and cow's milk or its derivatives. When they were deprived of this relief, since these people yet ARE or, at that time, were animalistic, they went haywire.

Were one to take a 30-year old Eskimo who happened to be sick and influence him thru religious ceremonies, oriental garments, into believing that the "doctor knows best", then upon the doctor's orders substitute pure vegetable and fruit diet, the cells in that Eskimo body would wither and shrink within 3 months. In six months the man would turn a howling lunatic for meat, blubber and fish. If he did not get it, in another 3 months he would be deadlier than a doornail, "died insane".

These matters are not hearsay; experiments on human bodies have been made and the spiritual consciousness which produces results in Fred and in you and your child is completely lacking as a guiding, creative force in those who merely "take the master's word for it." Sincerely, KOSTI.

Four highlights in the new Communist Party line for the U. S. are: (1) Demobilize all military strength on land, sea and air; (2) Weaken the army and navy as much as possible for the postwar period; (3) Internationalize our atom secrets; (4) Slow down reconversion by perpetual strikes.

Mail To Germany Authorized Apr. 1

BERLIN.—The Allied Coordinating Committee authorized the institution of postal service, beginning April 1, between Germany and other countries in the International Postal Union, with the exception of Japan and Spain.

Commercial correspondence will be forbidden. Only personal and domestic matters may be discussed. Cards and letters will be censored.

Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson, the radio scandal mongers, are trying to climb on the anti-Communist bandwagon. This move proves that anyone who is playing the Communist game is on a hot spot.

"Christ's Church of the Golden Rule"

Dear Sir:

Now Mr. de Aryan I have known for some time that something was going to happen to cause me to write to you. I have been connected with the "Mankind United" movement since 1937 and believe I am familiar with every detail of the work. Some of their methods did not appeal to me but I did not believe in war and I DID believe in Love and co-operation as a cure-all for the inharmonies of the world. SO on that basis (an "economic Co-operative guaranteeing the same size pay check for all") I did all I could to further the interests of suffering humanity.

No one ever thought of a CHURCH. However, about the time of the "sedition trial" we were told that a wonderful plan was being worked out to "save us and everything we had" etc., etc. Finally we were told that we were to study METHAPHYSICS and get certain books and edit a paper and all that sort of thing.

Well, to make a long story short, I saw things that I did not approve of BUT I had been a metaphysical student for years and when they dropped everything else and began to PREACH AND TEACH what they knew NOTHING about themselves I knew something would happen, and it DID. They have been in hot water ever since. I could not judge the motives of anyone, therefore, continued to put up cash and do what was asked of me knowing full well that they had invoked a law that was eternal, unchangeable and FUNCTIONING every minute. I knew if they were sincere "nothing under Heaven or among men" could hinder or stop the work. I knew also if they were NOT absolutely honest and sincere, all the money and legal authorities and church affiliations they could muster would avail them exactly NOTHING.

Therefore I awaited developments with interest. My work was to keep a clean heart and avoid criticism or censure and let THEM "demonstrate" some of the teachings they handed us.

When we were asked to form a CHURCH and the application blank was read to us (We were refused permission to even leave the room to quietly look over the by-laws, etc.) we refused because the requirements were an insult to any self-respecting person. Since that time about all we know about them is what we see in the papers.

Since you became sufficiently interested in the matter to publish several letters and investigate the case I am quite content to let a Divine law operate, knowing that what I have "sown" I will surely "reap" and vice versa. I thought several times I would write to you but had a subconscious hunch to wait and get a lead and I got it, this morning when the mail brought me the — — —.

Hoping I have not bored you too much with this lengthy explanation of my experience with Mr. Bell and his agents I am,

Very truly yours, — — Mrs. W.

Congressman Sabath, of Chicago, is heading a new so-called peace committee. The committee will be made up of left wing Congressmen and private citizens of pro-Communist leanings. The announced purpose of the committee is to put a stop to the criticism of Russia and to make sure that we do not have war with Russia. When the names of the Red spies in the U. S. are announced the list will include high-paid government employees, some diplomats, and very likely an ex-Ambassador or two.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

By all means continue my subscription. We are all for you in your good work. Enclosed $8.

Why don't you raise the price? News of this type is sure worth it.

Yours sincerely, — — J. A.

Editor's Note: The price should be $6.50 per year to give us a decent break, but there are many who have a hard time paying even the $1 for 4 months and they need the paper. So we depend on donations to cover the deficit.

It is a fact that there are literally hundreds of thousands of people trying to hide from Stalin in western Europe. These include Finns, Latvians, Estonians, Germans and Russians. All of these people face death or the next thing to it at the hands of the Communists, thanks to the surrender of Messrs. Roosevelt and Churchill at Yalta.

Is Arthur (the Voice) Bell a Swindler?

AUDITING BOOKS OF THE "CHURCH"

The whole issue of the integrity of Arthur Bell, founder of "Mankind United" and "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule" rests upon the question of an audit and report of the financial record. As Gilbert Nelson, Deputy Atty. Gen., in charge of the prosecution and Chas H. Manaugh, investigator, stated: "Why does Bell not give a public accounting as all other non-profit corporations do every year?" Both these men assured our reporter that their office does not propose to persecute the church as a religious organization, but cannot consider it other than fraudulent as long as public reports of its financial activities are unavailable.

Manaugh, then, related his "experiences" with Bell. He said that the "Church" hired him at $25 a day to set up a proper book-keeping system as a competent auditor and produce a public statement of the financial status. But, said Manaugh, after Bell had hired him he withheld the records and Manaugh was told "to read a book", therefore Manaugh did not figure that he "earned" his $25 a day and placed them in a sealed envelope as "evidence" of bad faith.

That transaction, naturally, is very interesting. On its veracity depends the whole reputation of Mr. Bell and the "faith" of his "church" activities in the name of the Christ. It is a very dangerous matter to call out the faith of simple souls by impersonating an officer of Christ's Kingdom, while not living up to it. One destroys one's very soul and the faculty that discerns between truth and falsehood. It leads to atheism and materialism of which the world's churches are generally guilty, hence wars in the name of religion, God and even the Christ. Read John 8.

Our reporter questioned the spokesman for the "church" minutely on this matter of the audit. His replies are the exact opposite of Manaugh's version.

According to the officers of the church the Atty. General's personnel informed them that the church must set up a system of book-keeping acceptable to the Atty. Gen. of California, otherwise a new audit would have to be made. Bell is supposed to have protested the high per diem of $25, claiming that $10 would do, but Manaugh, it is said, showed him that in that fashion the church would save the additional cost of a state audit, since Manaugh could "earn" both salaries. It was not Bell who asked Manaugh to work for him, but on the contrary, Manaugh is said to have written a letter, offering and suggesting that he be hired. Our reporter has not seen that letter as yet.

Bell is supposed to have accepted the offer and paid the salary under protest with the understanding that Manaugh would not snoop as a detective to get the names of the members and other information which did not concern a bona fide auditor. But when Bell discovered that Manaugh was more interested in "getting something" on the church, rather than auditing the books, he refused Manaugh access to records that did not concern him. Then the Atty. Gen. proceeded to throw the church into receivership without a vote of the members of the church to find out whether they wanted Bell displaced or had no faith in him after he had trebled the assets of the corporation.

Evidently, now, the matter hinges on the facts. Did Manaugh worm himself into the church audit to "pin something" on Bell or did Bell hire Manaugh to bribe him with $25 per day for "reading a book" instead of studying the books of the church's finances?

The church officers claim that the financial rise from a million dollars to almost four millions, thru Bell's ingenuity and control, was so fast they had not been able to catch up with the accounting to satisfy the state.

Henry Morgenthau will go down in history as one of the most hated men in this generation. His so-called Morgenthau Plan to liquidate the German race has back-fired and he is reaping universal scorn for his sadistic and revengeful policy.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I am enclosing check for $5. Five Dollars, for which I ask you kindly to send me the "Broom" for one year.

I am also subscribing to the New York Staats-Zeitung and the other day when I brought it to some Germans, they said: "How can you waste your money on a paper like that, the Jews run it now." So I felt guilty and here I come with my money and shall let those people also read it. I do not understand many things in this PEACEFUL world now, but hope some of the people have different ideas about it all. Wishing you further success, I remain, Yours respectfully, — — F. H.

And may God bless you!

While "Negro" Congressman Meets Master In Smart Mulatto

Adam C. Powell's "Marching Blacks" Halted By Radio Critics Over "WHN"

NEW YORK (Special), March 16.—Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, white Afro-American hero of millions of darkskinned Americans, came back to New York last Monday night to defend his radical book, "The Marching Blacks", against its critics, over radio station "WHN", and was almost annihilated by a brilliant mulatto critic, Grant Reynolds.

Mr. Powell is pastor of the largest (10,000 members) and the richest ($500,000) colored church in the world, Harlem's famous Abyssinian Baptist tabernacle. Although Powell was elected on the Democratic, Republican and Communist tickets simultaneously, all rival religious faiths in Harlem regard the eloquent Adam as a dyed-in-the-wool Communist. (He is listed in the Congressional Directory as "Democrat".)

Station WHN's famous program, "Author Meets the Critics", is held weekly in the big auditorium of the Barbizon-Plaza hotel for one-half hour. It was expected that quite an audience of Harlemites would be present to cheer Mr. Powell, but the writer was able to note less than a dozen colored people among the brilliant white audience, one of whom was Powell's wife, Hazel Scott, the West Indian pianist.

When the curtain rose and the author took his seat on the stage, a surprised murmur of astonishment—almost a gasp—ran through the entire audience, "HE IS A WHITE MAN", everyone seemed to whisper.

The minister-congressman is a tall, handsome, movie-star type young man—obviously Caucasian, Aryan, with fair skin and classic features. Although his hair is dark, it is not of the coarse, flat, wooly texture of the African, but the fine round hair of the Aryan.

Of the two critics—one, Prof. Harry A. Overstreet, was favorable to the Powell book. The other, Grant Reynolds—a mixed-type, yellow-skinned "colored" man, an educated Southerner tore it to pieces. He had read it three times, and he had written down the numerous defects, the historical and statistical inaccuracies, with page and line in every instance, and read as many as the radio time would permit, and much more than enough to make the political minister boil with indignation.

In fact, Reynolds dominated the debate and made the Congressman look foolish. He condemned the tone of the book, as an unChristian plea for the Southern blacks to maintain a "DISCIPLINED RESENTMENT" against all white people who do not welcome all Negroes as social and political equals.

INVITING 5 MILLION NORTHWARD

Powell's invitation to five million Southern blacks to migrate North was branded by Reynolds as foolish, demagogic and would be disastrous to the colored, if obeyed.

"Where would we house them, Mr. Powell? As a veteran of three years' overseas service, I have found it almost impossible to obtain an apartment in Harlem or elsewhere" roared Reynolds. There was no answer.

As soon as the microphone closed, the handsome congressman, goaded by criticisms he could not answer, lost his temper, and spoke insulting to Mr. Reynolds:

"I've let you have your way long enough. Now I tell you plainly. YOU ARE A LIAR—from start to finish!"

Prof. Overstreet was horrified and said, "I've been for you, Mr. Powell, but I cannot support such language. It is very improper." He attempted to smooth the waters.

After the curtain fell, the writer asked Mr. Powell, "What are you English, Irish or Scotch?" "Just American," he answered. "My grandparents were slaves in Virginia."

"Well, you probably trace an English-Irish pedigree." He smiled.

Like the self-appointed leader of American Negroes, Walter White, who has blue eyes, blond smooth hair and fair skin, Powell is a Mendelian throwback to the white race.

Editor's Note: The largest and richest colored church in the world is the Ethiopian Coptic Church of Haile Selassie of Abyssinia, both in membership and wealth, 5 million members, over $50 million wealth.

Arnold S. Leese, 20 Pewley Hill, Guildford, England, advises Feb. 5, 1946, regarding the charge published in the Daily Worker, Jan. 11, 1946, by John Meldon, "that he was once convicted of rape and sodomy," that "I am quite innocent of any rape or sodomy! this libel (criminal) is so outrageous that there must be something behind it. . . . Anyhow, as it is a criminal act I am writing your Attorney-General making a formal complaint and asking for proceedings to be taken."

Gerald Nye and William Langer will both be elected to the U. S. Senate if they avoid getting involved in the old North Dakota political feuds. It is to their interest that Langer and Nye let each other alone and get reelected.

Veiled threats are coming to Tyler Kent to the effect that he will be imprisoned for another 10 years if he tells what he knows. He will ignore these threats and reveal the truth at the proper time, according to reports coming from intimate friends.

Congressman John Rankin and the Committee for the Investigation of Un-American Activities will soon lift the curtain on a program of treason involving nationally known personalities.

Mayor Edward Jeffries of Detroit, who defeated the PAC candidate Richard Frankenstein and was endorsed by Gerald L. K. Smith and the America First leadership in Detroit, will be candidate for Governor of the State of Michigan.

Upon the complaint of a delegation of Rabbis, Upton Close has been removed from his radio outlet in Denver, Colorado.

Has Newdealism Helped Create a New "Dark Age"?—Great Words From Congressman Sumners and Dorothy Thompson

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, March 24, (Special).—Altho Stalin's expression of hope for world peace was welcomed by our statesmen, there is a growing pessimism among them as to the ability of our republic to survive the dangers and injuries resulting from the war and the New Deal's misgovernment.

The recent utterances of a great man and a great woman have alarmed all thoughtful Americans. As a drop of dew may contain the image of earth and sky, so the brief words of Representative Hatton Sumners of Texas and Dorothy Thompson, the writer, have appeared to give a true picture of a degenerating nation and a world rapidly entering a new "Dark Age."

For calling attention to such things in past years, 42 persons were dragged to our nation's capitol by the New Deal despotism and charged with conspiracy to commit "sedition," some 26 of them finally undergoing seven months of a Moscow style persecution and farcical trial before an admitted political judge or New Deal stooge.

Congressman Hatton Sumners, the powerful chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, after thirty-three years of faithful service, announced that he intended to retire from Congress and devote his efforts to awakening America to the mess we are in and trying to help abolish the political despotism that the New Deal socialists have foisted upon us.

The sizzling words of this great man—a true statesman, which went out over the airwaves, and were inserted in the Congressional Record of March 11, were, in part, as follows:

SUMNER'S INDICTMENT

"I have watched what my own generation, under administration of both parties, has been doing to the greatest system of democratic government ever evolved through the procession of the ages. By ignoring principles and the lessons of history, and accepting the theories of men and political expedience for our guidance, WE HAVE MADE VASSALS OF OUR STATES AND DEPENDENTS OF OUR PEOPLE.

"By concentration of governmental power and drafts upon the Federal Treasury, we have now a FINANCIALLY 'BUSTED', great piled-up mass of GOVERNMENTAL CONFUSION beyond human comprehension, impossible of democratic control. EXTRAVAGANT, WASTEFUL, INEFFICIENT, and by its nature the instrumentality of favoritism, TYRANNY, OPPRESSION AND CORRUPTION, and the destroyer of the self-reliance and self-respect and governmental capacity of the people, qualities without which NO PEOPLE CAN REMAIN FREE.

"The people are coming to realize what has happened, Republicans and Democrats; people of all stations and political faiths."

Mr. Sumners goes on to show how the executive and his bureaus have usurped the powers of the Congress and converted the lawmakers into "go-betweens" for constituents and the bureaucrats, robbing them of time for statesmanship.

In this severe indictment of the vicious New Deal we see the real reason for the coalition of Southern old-line patriots (Democrats) and Northern Republican patriots to check the radical New Deal socialists.

The socialist Wallace has recommended that the Southern conservative Democrats be "purged" from the New Deal party,—the very same Wallace who wrote in his book, "Whose Constitution?" that he hoped to see us "get rid of the old Constitution without bloodshed."

Recently the Hendersonville (N. C.) Times-News wrote as follows almost exactly what I wrote in April, 1940:

"There is no national Democratic party in the United States today. The party which has stolen the habiliments of Democracy and is masquerading therein, and which controls what was formerly the organization and machinery of the Democratic party, is a radical, national socialist aggregation. It is no more an American Democratic party than is the aggregation Joe Stalin dominates and dictates in Russia."

COMMUNIST PRINCIPLE TO LIE AND CHEAT

The brilliant and discerning Dorothy Thompson in her widely syndicated column of March 15, regarding communism, seemed to be laying the groundwork for her historic release of March 21, in which she asserts that "WE ARE IN A NEW DARK AGE. We are in it up to our necks." And she just about PROVES IT.

But the rhetorical gem I wish to quote from Miss Thompson's pen is her description of the Communist, to wit:

"No one will ever understand the Soviets who has not known Communists. IT IS NOT A BREACH OF COMMUNIST PRINCIPLE TO LIE, CHEAT, DECEIVE, FORGE, make fools of 'rotten liberals,' betray friendships, make 'united fronts' only to subvert them, or indulge in any means whatsoever to defeat non-Communist policies. Communist principle embraces mortal struggle

"In the eyes of a Communist believer the individual is nothing, and personal scruples but remnants of a 'sickly,' 'bourgeois' morality.
"If necessary, through blood and slime—the exploitation of every vice, the assassination of every opponent, the wily deception of the tolerant, the mobilization of every passion of envy, frustration and hatred; the exacerbation of every injustice, the promise of every utopia; the temporary flattering of the capitalist; the harsh disciplining of the worker; the debunking of the traditional heroes; the subversion of the law—through all these the Communist faithful press toward the great redemption, with unswerving conviction of the final unconditional surrender of their enemies. leading to the enthronement of heaven on earth."

This crazy Communism, she declares, is the complete negation of our Christian principle, which declares that good can never be promoted by evil, which demands that victory be, at every step, the overcoming of evil by good.

She implies that the New Deal foreign policy has abandoned Christian principles, the four freedoms, the Ten Commandments, the Declaration of Jefferson and the faith of the Founding Fathers—"still living expressions and imperatives of our personal and social morality."

"We are being undone," she says, "not by the triumph of Communist principles, but by the capitulation of our own"

OUR TOTAL national and State debts are greater by 100 BILLION dollars than our total national wealth, and yet there are those who would continue to lend and give until we have no credit left.

BLATHERSKITES like red Senator Pepper of Florida would not be in the U. S. Senate, if legislatures still had the power of electing Senators. And the same goes for men like radicals Morse, Chavez, Aiken and Austin.

NATIONAL wage-hour laws are SOCIALIST measures, intended to hamstring and eliminate small employers and pave the way for real socialism. They also make for unemployment.

Dear Editor of The Broom:

I enclose in this letter $4 for the coming year. $1 for backpay because you have been so kind to send us all the time the papers and I think the 4 months are overdue for which I send you the first dollar.

We are going this summer to Brazil, South America, would you send the paper down there, we would not want to miss it, because this paper, we believe, is the only one you can read without feeling disgusted!!—

I only want to add a few words to one sentence you wrote in an issue about a month ago: "The Jew is a racial bastard." I add, he is not only a racial bastard, he is even much more a political bastard.

Very truly yours, — J. B.

Gentile Veterans of Un-Christian Wars

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Mr. Eugene Flitcraft has called my attention to an article in one of your recent issues where you make reference to myself and our organization.

I would like to correct you on one point you refer to us as the "CHRISTIAN WAR VETERANS". Our organization is the "CHRISTIAN VETERANS OF AMERICA". There is an organization called the CHRISTIAN WAR VETERANS OF AMERICA located in Los Angeles, California. We have no connection with that organization. We would never refer to ourselves as Christian War Veterans because actually we are Christian Veterans of un-Christian Wars.

Your paper contains many items of interest and we wish you much success in your courageous work.

Sincerely yours, —FREDERICK KISTER
Christian Veterans of America, Suite 604,
35 So. Dearborn St., Chicago 3, Illinois.

Editor's Note: Mr. Flitcraft is wiser than Mr. Kister; he called his publication Gentile News and advocated buying war bonds. Had he used the name Christian, we would have protested as we do in Mr. Kister's case.

GIVES KEY TO CITY TO DP'S LEADER

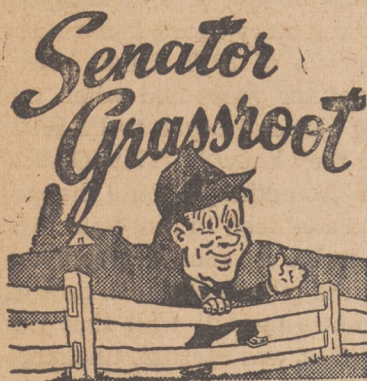

CLEVELAND,—Dr. Zalman Grinberg, president of the Committee of Liberated Jews in Germany, was received at city hall by Mayor Thomas Burke.

Presenting the key to the city to Dr. Grinberg, the mayor said: "We shall have more keys made, Dr. Grinberg, if more of your people can be liberated."

Kurt Singer, Communist editor and refugee, addressed a rally of Reds on the campus of Denver University March 8. He advocated the liquidation by hanging of Upton Close, Tyler Kent and Gerald L. K. Smith. He urged Communists to take license numbers of cars carrying people to the Englewood Baptist Church (Rev. Harvey Springer, Pastor) so that the individuals owning the cars could be coerced into deserting their church, whose Pastor is a Christian Nationalist. Note: The Englewood Baptist Church is the largest Baptist Church in Colorado.

Churchill now realizes that he was used by shrewder scoundrels than himself. Realizing that at the very time he was saying, "I did not become the King's first minister to preside over the liquidation of the British Empire", he actually was doing more than any man in history to destroy both the Empire and Britain

KNOWLAND OPENS LUMBER SHORTAGE PROBE

WASHINGTON, D. C., — Sen. William F. Knowland, California Republican, drove hard last week to solve two knotty problems—the national lumber shortage and the California cannery tieup.

Serving as chairman, Knowland led interrogation of witnesses in a weeklong Senate subcommittee investigation of lumber scarcity, particularly as it affects the national housing program and returning veterans.

In between hearings, Knowland conferred frequently with Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, Labor Conciliation Director Warren and with John R. Steelman, President Truman's special assistant, in seeking a compromise between AFL and CIO differences over collective bargaining for cannery workers.

While Knowland's committee findings were not complete, the hearings developed that OPA failed to ring its wartime pricing policies up to peacetime needs. Lumber experts from coast to coast testified that when price relief is warranted it requires "at least" 60 days and generally from four to six months to put into effect. Many small lumbermen can be put out of business in that time, witnesses said.

The California Republican was signally honored by being made chairman of the lumber subcommittee, a post which ordinarily would have gone to a Democrat. It was Knowland's resolution by which the Senate authorized the hearings.

U. S. DICTATORSHIP AND REGULATION OF LIFE MUST END

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah,—Republican leaders representing eleven Western States and Alaska recently declared in a platform adopted here that "human rights" must not be subjected to regulation from Washington.

They charged that "leadership in the Democrat Party by word and act has espoused a cause and a course, radical and un-American" and asserted that "only through the election of a Republican Congress can our Nation reestablish its economy on a sound basis and insure the future of all our people."

The conference adopted resolutions affirming Republican belief in free enterprise, in the right of every citizen to a review in court of any government regulation or directive, in labor's right to organize, and asserted that public interest is supreme in labor disputes.

The platform resolved that industrial war plants owned by the United States should be sold promptly to private industries and the West industrialized to the point con-herself. He was in the U. S., not so much to aid in getting a loan for Britain, as to enlist U. S. aid for the Third World War, which many think will break out between Britain and Russia as early as this summer. Britain wants the showdown before the U. S. is completely disarmed. She especially fears her fate once Russia has the atom bomb.

If Republicans in Congress are not mighty careful, their handling of FEPC is going to lose their fifth election in 1948.

stant with available markets.

The Republicans declared they favored lifting of wartime restrictions on the mining industry to encourage development, purchasing and coinage of domestic gold and silver, restorations of free gold circulation, and the removal of silver ceiling prices.

The delegates resolved that tillable public lands should be opened to homesteading with priority privileges to all returning veterans and favored revising the parity formula to include farm labor costs and family labor. They said they believed ownership of public lands not essential for federal purposes should be transferred to States control. They emphasized conservation of resources by declaring that fisheries should be fully protected by domestic regulations or treaties and that full development of forests should be undertaken.

The Republicans expressed opposition to government-sponsored river valley developments, declaring that the "sweeping" authority vested in them menaced the American way of life.

Other planks in the platform included restoration of shipping of exportable goods in American boats to the Seven Seas; halting lumber exportation until critical shortages are alleviated in the United States; granting Alaska the right to elect its governor.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Sen William F. Knowland, California Republican, receives correspondence from Mary McBride, Los Angeles, member of the Senator's staff, as hearings begin on the Senate's investigation into the lumber shortage. Knowland, whose resolution called for the hearings, is chairman of the special subcommittee.
