IF ENTERTAINMENT is all you desire and attending church bores you, studying out anything tires you, and if reading the Bible only confuses you, you are steeped in sense consciousness. You are too concerned with conditions, objects, personalities, and status symbols. This state of mental attention is called in the Bible the "carnal mind," or "mortal mind," and is said to be "enmity to God." Enmity means displeasing hostility.

This "carnal mind" usually thinks it is praying when it is asking the Supreme Being to relieve it of the effect, or result, of some mistake it knows it has made. Unless you are willing to take your attention off the world of the senses — that is, what you see, hear, taste, smell and touch — and find the way to do so, you haven't "prayed" in a real sense.

WHO SAID IT ?

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

GOOD SEED — A short time ago a friend sent me a copy of Chimes. I believe it is one of the finest gifts I ever received. I wish everyone could have a copy. It is so enlightening.

Years ago I used to give a lot, not big gifts, but a share of what I had to people or groups I felt were in need. As I gave, I received. A few days ago I stopped and thought about my poor financial condition. It amazed me to find I had become quite selfish, and I was receiving as I gave — very little!

So I decided to do something about this. I looked around to see where I could put my paltry dollar or two, and I didn't find anyone who I felt could give the help that I had received. I prayed about it. A little while later I felt an urge to get Chimes and look at it again. As I turned the pages, losing myself in an article now and then, I looked at the ads, the directory, and everything as I perused. Then I came to a page I couldn't remember seeing before. It was the "Call to Prayer", and on the opposite page was the "Seed Money" form. That was it! I knew it. The few dollars needed would send this magazine to someone else . . . and I know there are many people who would enjoy Chimes as much as I do. Thank you for that page in particular. Sincerely,
Ellie McMasters, Willow Springs, MO

PASS THE WORD — Just a note to tell you how very much Chimes means to me. I always keep it in sight for my clients to see. Most of them pick it up while waiting to see me.

I do so enjoy reading about the people who depend on your writings for guidance. I am also happy about seeing the Mark Age material and Youth's opinions as so many young people now are much more aware of the deeper mysteries. Many students from the university study with me and are much more advanced than we realize. They just don't know how to handle things in the right way yet. I am very frank with them and their abuses with drug experiments. Believe me, I do shake them up a bit when I have the opportunity. Many times I get reports from friends later that 'something' got to them, for they improved their appearance, got jobs, and cut away from undesirable associates. It sure does make me feel good inside that they are receptive to Spirit and that something constructive is being done.

Rev. Emilie L. Gibbs, Houston TX

(Shortly we shall be introducing a whole series of publications aimed at assisting the young people — another joint venture by Mark Age and Chimes. News of anything of this nature going on concerning the younger generation we would very much like to receive. We appreciate Rev. Gibbs' comments and sincere interest and would encourage all to let their light shine that others too might share in the Truth they know. This is no time to be a "shy violet" when the need to dispel ignorance of God's laws is so great.)

TO ALL LIGHT BEARERS — Just have to call you "Light Bearers" because that's the way I see you as being. Thanks for the wonderful issues of Chimes and enlightening lessons in them. Keep up the good work. Wish I could give Chimes to each and every one of my friends and family members. However I do pass my copy around, so the work does go on. Sincerely,
Estela M. Kusch, Kingsville, TX

(THANK YOU . . . all you dear and loyal friends of Chimes and its unseen workers for the gallant efforts you have made recently to swell the Chimes subscription ranks. Every little bit helps so much, for this in turn enables us to spread the words of Truth and Light even wider. We may sometimes think of ourselves as being like small candles trying to push back the infinite darkness, but even that seemingly small amount of light shines like a beacon to those who are engulfed in darkness and who are drawn to it as their one ray of hope and life. God needs all our lights if ever this planet is to become enlightened and bask in His reflected glory. These are the Latter Days . . . and the time for action is NOW!)

INSURANCE — Rather than continue to accept the uncertainty of receiving my friend's Chimes on loan, will you please send me my own subscription, and send one also to the Metaphysical Library in Princeton, Illinois. While I am at it, would like to congratulate you on the great part you are taking in shaping the New Age! Blessings from,

Mrs. Fred Warnecke, Princeton, IL

WORD OF MOUTH — My mother introduced me to your wonderful magazine. As yet, I haven't had a chance to subscribe to it; however, the first chance I get (and money) I will send for a subscription. The short time I've been reading Chimes I've been feeling much better. Many thanks and much love for such an uplifting magazine. I'm learning a lot and trying to put it into practice. E. Weathers, Altadena, CA

(Mothers always have a way of watching out for their brood, and apparently one knew that her child needed the inspiration and guidance that would surely come with a copy of Chimes. Sometimes all one needs is to touch upon or tune in to ONE THOUGHT and it saves the day. We should always remember to ASK Spirit for help, for ourselves or for others, and in some form it will come!)

EITHER . . . OR

"THE CLOCK TICKS, however it ticks a bit slower here in New Mexico" . . . a favorite phrase used in this land, and while it is true on one level, it is false on another.

The clock ticks at one speed . . . for all mankind . . . everywhere. There is no place to hide any longer. This is true particularly for Light workers. You asked . . . you volunteered . . . you requested the mission Earth in this cycle of time. For you, and those like you, there is no shadow . . . no hiding place within, or without.

Glory or failure — harsh extremes — so are the consequences of your actions for your planet. Either . . . Or . . . EITHER the planet is ready at the appointed time (which no man shall know till the hour has come), OR it is not ready. In the latter instance, new consciousness must be placed here, for the Planetary Logos will continue. The third-level conscious man, however, will have to be given an environment where he is better suited, more at home . . . one like that which he will then have demonstrated stubbornly he prefers to Light Awareness.

This need not happen! There are enough Light workers, both full consciously aware, opening to Light — yet still in the dark chains of humankind — who could tip the balance any day they worked together in concert.

You, each of you, are truly the salvation of your world. It is not the high consciousness on other planets, other dimensions, other levels which matter. You are "on the scene" and you, and your workers alone, carry full responsibility for implementation of the Program.

Read that sentence again. Implementation . . . not creation, not decreeing, but ACTION. If you do not act, who shall?

If you do not hold fast to the concepts of Life you know within yourself to be true in the face of worldly "facts", then who shall? Unenlightened man? Never! Not so long as those who have come to lead him cannot even stand true to their pledge. This is not harsh to speak so. This is true. If you and yours do not perform NOW, then hold fast in the days and days and days ahead, all is wasted.

The Infinite Consciousness has given Earth a special dispensation. Think of it in terms of "special attention". The plan and program here is unique unto the planets. No other has needed it. No other has been treated thus.

Fail, and the ripples shall expand throughout Infinity. Succeed . . . and you shall set a new master pattern which will glorify the wisdom and infinite compassion of The Creator.

Either . . . Or.

The choice is your . . . yours alone.

Why were you born upon the Earth? We in our solar system are in a very special period of time, the cleansing and harvest period, and are about to reach a spiritual crisis involving the Earth and all upon it. It is through the awareness that the crisis is a spiritual one that we gain our present insight and understanding of world events and problems.

The promise and future of the Earth as a spiritual planet lie in the mass awakening of today's youth. What have you come to do? How can you find your soul's purpose and mission? There is a master plan for Earth and you have a part in it. You have been trained for eons of time to bring forth this program, on other planes and planets as well as on Earth in past lives. The veil of ignorance and negativity around the Earth is being lifted in stages, with brotherly love replacing it. Youth's concern for truth is making the difference.

aquarius*

Brotherly love in action is the mode of operation for the Aquarian Age. This intuitive awareness already is prevalent within today's youth. They are demonstrating it in all fields of interest and are crying out for a positive approach in every area of man's endeavors. Instinctively they know love begets love, good begets good, peace begets peace and security for all who share equally this planet and solar system.

Consciously or unconsciously our youth are instruments for cleaning up the errors and for harvesting what is good, practical and functional from our Earth's past history, which is the program of this Mark-Age period, the forty years of preparation before the full expression of the Aquarian Age.

Beginning since about 1940 and through the rest of this century there are incarnating now upon the Earth highly spiritual souls who are infiltrating every culture, nation, race and religion to bring forth the new Aquarian teachings and principles. If each one manifests his own individual spiritual Self he can prevent crises in his own life, in his own family, in his own community, in his own country, thus bringing about harmony, understanding and peace on planet Earth. Are you demonstrating it in your own personal life, school, family and community?

Q. We need a change in our education system. Do you think the campus protesting will help change things?

A. There will be a complete metamorphosis in the field of education and any other fields you care to name. But it will not be brought about by riots or violence, as this is only a frustrated attempt stemming from true inner realization that change is needed, but with not enough clear understanding as to how to bring it about.

Spiritual teaching eventually will replace the entire educational system, as new truths about to come forth as to the origin of man and Earth will necessitate having educators well grounded in spiritual sciences. All of our hard, fast Earth rules will be changed and re-evaluated in the next 40 years due to discoveries made within that period.

The protesting is merely a beginning to make way, through re-evaluation, for the changes that are going to take place. It is hoped that the leaders in education soon will be able to see this spiritual evolution and base their actions on it.

TOGETHERNESS WITH LOVE

Revolution, revolution, violent revolution. It won't work.

Send them love vibes,
They will work.

The sun is the only place to be,
To get there, just be lovingly

Children of light come forth to shape the world.
Take it, shape it to what it should be.

— Mari Lee Moore, Miami, FL

Spring, then summer, fall and winter.

The spiral traveled round again once more,
The work a little different than before;

The senses more attuned as up we climb,
The union with all nature more sublime.

And this my humble prayer will always be:
A little more of you, God, less of me.

— Jan Hector, Courtland, OH

keep it soft and shining

Do I love myself? Not the personality expression known as myself, but the inner me, the truly beloved of God, the I Am expression of that all-loving God, that true being which is all of the various aspects manifesting here on Earth as myself. Since I do love the total me, therefore I love all the other manifestations of the loving God who are externalized as my fellow men, for they also are one with me in this life which we are experiencing here on Earth.

No matter what color, race or nationality I Am in this lifetime, I am aware that I have been of many races, many expressions of color, nationalities and religions in previous lives. So how can I then not love my fellow man, for he too has been of these other life expressions in his many previous lives?

LOVE GOD AND LOVE ONE ANOTHER. These are the only two commandments which are needed to express ourselves as the true spiritual beings we really are, for they encompass all the others. Be love, divine love, in all you do, say and think so that you are God expressing on the mortal plane as a human being, glorified.

* * *

The program for Earth is a many-act play. The last act is now in motion. The drama is about to begin. The stage has been set for thousands of years, lines have been rehearsed and have been polished, and now the final curtain. Are you ready to go on stage?

This subtly beautiful member of the feldspar family has, like most gemstones, revealed very little of its true beneficial qualities to mankind. This will be so until more cleansing is done upon the Earth. Each gem has untold qualities far beyond mankind's needs at this time. As more is necessary, it shall be uncovered naturally until each gemstone and mineral is placed in the complete awareness category.

It has been said of moonstone that it is an aid to spiritual guidance. This is true, as it functions primarily on the higher bodies rather than the lowest or physical body. Wearing of the moonstone gives aid in the alignment of the astral and the etheric bodies with the physical body.

— Jo-el of Mark-Age

sweet things happen

Sound is spiritual energy and can be useful or misused. Earth is slightly off key in our universe and is making our whole solar system orchestra sound a bit freaky.

As we tune ourselves up individually we set examples of harmony that will be contagious and will effect changes in all men.

Therefore planet Earth will key in and will make a harmonious blend of sweet music in the cosmic orchestra.

TITHING in the highest sense opens the way for the happening of seeming miracles. But we know that happenings which register before the human eyes as miracles are merely happenings long foreseen for that Soul by God.

That which we know as God prepares a place of divine service for those who tithe in this highest way. Such efficient tithing would presage more efficient use of hands and mind in daily work. Such effective services soon are called into the kingdom of God, following which the tither becomes fully God-indwelt, giving the entire life into the service of bringing the higher and ever higher and clearer truth to awakening mankind.

THE WAY TO ABUNDANCE

Abundance does not come to those who, unwilling to PERFECT the services which they render man or God, continue to do slovenly work, hoping that the few hours a week spent in helping with the clerical or other work of a spiritual organization will earn for them their seat in Heaven and abundant divine supply while on Earth. The law of abundance cannot operate unless ALL factors essential to its operation are embraced by the mind and put into action.

The sincerely earnest Soul KNOWS within when the time has come to change from a daily occupation, engaged in for the purpose of supplying daily needs, to a ministry in which the supplied spiritual needs of others bring forth the daily supply. For most people today BOTH occupations can be simultaneously engaged in. Physical and mental food comes from one form of occupation, but SPIRITUAL OR DIVINE FOOD comes best as the divine manna of one's highest thoughts are fed spiritually to the seeking Souls of others.

THE NEW PHILANTHROPISTS

There are Souls who now have a sufficiency of the world's abundance and with that an awakened consciousness. Such Souls are stewards of the golden treasury of God. From within come instructions as to how and where the wealth is to be expended for the GOOD of mankind.

Personal needs must be supplied, yes, but personal needs become simpler and simpler as the times goes on. These lessons are not being written for the eyes of those still seeking for human experiences;

The Idea of Tithing

they are written for those who have put on at least in a measure the garments of divinity and who seek to know the WHY and HOW of the spiritual laws so they may intelligently instruct others on the path inward and upward. Such people will know all of the comforts of modern living, when such have been EARNED through the meticulous following out of the SPIRITUAL LAWS of living. When the NEED of the God within is for a mansion or a limousine, such are there. The difference is that such a Soul knows how to make full and divine use of such appurtenances to daily living; the unawakened Soul uses them in a less enlightened and perhaps more selfish way.

FOR THE SPIRITUALLY MATURE

Tithing, divinely done, is the act which PROVES the spiritual coming of age of the Soul. Those in the spiritual activities of organization, the only ones who know the tither from the non-tither, can attest to the joys, bounties and beauties such service to God does bring. The true tither is SILENT about the fact that such is his way of life. His life and his happiness reveal this fact to the eyes of those who see with the wide-open eyes of the God-within.

God cannot come on Earth until the world is peopled with tithers! Tithing builds the educational institutions that alone can prepare the way for God's coming. God comes through the illumined minds of men. God is in the minds of illumined men and women of today, guiding them into the preparation of the instruction for the MEN OF THE FUTURE WHO ARE TO REBUILD THE WORLD. Tithe-money is divine money when given into such. Such money is holy money. Holy things are WHOLE things, and bless ALL whom they touch with a renewed divine beauty.

WHY YOU ARE ON EARTH

Read with the Eyes of the Spirit of God within! Your own future part in the rebuilding of the world will be shown to you. Be consistent in the giving of your tenth until God finds you worthy enough so that ALL you have and ALL you are is acceptable in the divine work of the world. Then it no longer is: "one-tenth to God, nine-tenths to me". Then God and you are wholly, indivisibly, eternally ONE, and all that you have is God's, used in God's way, in God's service to mankind. THAT IS WHY YOU ARE ON EARTH! When that lesson is fully learned you are released from the Earth plane to ascend to another planet where NO MONEY is in EXISTENCE. On that planet LOVE is the medium of exchange. LOVE the golden key that unlocks the coffers of divine supply for the on-going of your LOVE-BODY ... a body built entirely of atoms composed of the substance called on Earth: DIVINE LOVE.

Such living as is outlined here entitles you to future residence on that planet, Venus, the Wonder Planet. Such a precious right must be earned fully. Venus is a celestial planet, a "heaven".

EARNING THE RIGHT TO DIVINE ABUNDANCE

First, a perfected service in all tasks rendered to man or to God is required. There can be no hurried, slipshod work, no "poverty-work" in the realm of Divine Abundance. No matter how simple your task, how humble, how menial ... PERFECTION must be the RULE!

Second, intelligent giving must be learned. Giving when the opportunity presents itself, just to "get rid of a person" is not intelligent giving. Such gifts weaken the person who receives them and injure the person who gives in such a way.

DIVINE GIVING

Thought must be exercised. It is only by the EXERCISE OF THOUGHT that a higher grade of intelligence can evolve in the human mind substance.

Giving to a friend because a friend has given you something does not draw divine abundance; that is human giving and is of the moment only.

Divine giving is a RICH GIVING, a giving of the whole heart joyously with the gift itself, whether that gift be a tiny sum of money, an opportunity for earning, or a garment to replace someone's tattered clothes. Such giving is not a "gift of the moment"; it is a giving that registers in eternity becoming a source of divine supply in later years. The GOOD you do in turn does GOOD to you. Be sure it is GOOD and not the thoughtless act of a hurried life. TAKE TIME to give YOURSELF with the gift. BLESS IT by the joy in your heart ... no matter how humble the gift, no matter how frequently you give a similar gift to the same person. EVERY ACT in which you convey something to another is a GIFT. You give of yourself in EVERY ACT you do to or for another. In this way you draw divine supply to you in God's own time!

PATIENCE is your watch-word. HOPE comes out of your vocabulary. You Must KNOW! You must KNOW beyond any question of doubt that God's laws DO WORK when you do your full part. Your questioning frequently should go deep-searching within: "Am I really doing the finest work I can do? Is there not SOME WAY in which I can increase my value to man and to God? Is there not SOMETHING about my daily service that I can improve still further?" or: "Has the time come for me to increase the scope of my activity?"

THE INNER MEANING

Such Soul-searching will bring its own reward, and you will grow; as you grow you become MASTER of that which is on your path of life. MASTERSHIP always draws the highest form of divine abundance.

Master yourself; master your service; master your life. Then you will know the real inner meaning of DIVINE ABUNDANCE, and you will have the outward supply to express fully the God-self in you in the finest, most modern, and to you, in the most desirable way.

Penny-pinching, niggardliness, stinginess, fearfulness, block the way most effectively to the door leading to true abundance. An open heart, an open hand, and an open mind open the way! This is truth. Think upon it! Live it. DO YOUR FULL PART in proving the present livingness of God to those whose minds still question and wonder, almost fearing to believe that heaven is on Earth, HERE AND NOW.

This interpretation of the idea behind tithing is taken in part from one of the Inner Teaching lessons given by The White Brotherhood in "Light on the Science of Living." You will find a description of these lessons on the reverse of the calendar in the center section of this issue.

Things Are Not Always What They Seem

JUST AS THERE are many occasions in life when we can be misled by superficial appearances, so, too, there are such times in spiritual healing; times when, because we only look for the obvious, we mislead ourselves into thinking that our prayers are not being answered.

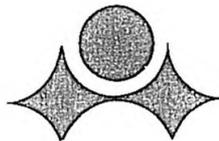

Whenever we see a person responding quickly or positively to the healing flow there are many exclamations of how wondrous it is, and rightly so for healing is always a cause of joy and indeed an occasion for thankfulness. But, we can only ASK for healing, we can never demand.

Sometimes a person does not seem to respond to healing in the way in which we perhaps think that they should. The person, and sometimes those close to him or her, becomes despondent, occasionally may even turn away from healing, feeling that it has failed.

Jumping to conclusions is one of the frailties of man and we should remind ourselves that just as the appearance of the weather can be misleading when viewed from the warmth of our home, things are not necessarily what they may appear to be when viewed superficially; in accepting too readily the obvious it is not only the less pleasant things which can be overlooked but also many things which are very much better than they may appear on the surface.

It is very easy to assess a healing when we see an immobile joint regain its mobility or when we see some long-standing condition alleviated, but there is, after all, very much more to spiritual healing than the putting right of the physical body.

The medical practitioners of our world concern themselves only with that part of us which is physical whereas in reality man is more than just flesh and bone; as a complete spiritual being he is of Spirit as well as of the Earth, and for man to know a complete state of health it is essential that there be harmony between the purely physical

By
Leslie Harvey
From Spiritual Healer magazine

consciousness of man and that part of him which is of a finer and permanent nature — man's Spirit. If there is any state of dis-ease between these two parts of man, true health or wholeness cannot be said to exist.

Spiritual healing goes beyond the simple repair of the physical body so that this state of wholeness can be restored. Whilst we may ask for healing for some physical malfunction of which we have knowledge it does not necessarily follow that we are aware of the complete disharmony which may exist within that person. Such knowledge is beyond mortal man and yet we know that such knowledge is within the scope of an intelligence superior to man's for it is demonstrated with every healing that takes place.

Every healing, is, we know, a planned act, a person receiving that which it is necessary for him to receive; the acknowledgement of this fact alone should make us wary of describing failures. Perhaps the point could be better illustrated by reference to a specific case:

A lady, given up by her doctors as incurable, received healing for a chronic spinal condition over which she had, for many months, been deeply depressed, almost to a point of bitterness that she had been struck down in this way.

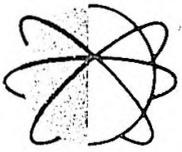

For some time there was no real outward change in her condition and, if one were to assess this case at a purely physical level, there would undoubtedly be many cynics who would claim that the healing had failed. Soon after healing commenced a change came over her which was positively striking, she became bright and cheerful and, although nearing her 70th birthday, she regained a zest for life which would put many a person half her age to shame. At last an improvement became noticeable in her physical condition, and today she eagerly looks forward to being able to discard altogether what she calls her "straight-jacket."

It would have been very easy for this woman to give up, but fortunately she was persuaded to persevere and is now reaping the full benefit. If we were to analyze the healing, we must accept that there was a greater degree of disharmony within herself than was visibly apparent; the evidence that this was dealt with is there for all to see. As the healing progressed she found physical, mental and spiritual ease, something which she had not known for a very long time.

Once again we see the demonstrable truth that all healing is planned. In our haste to mend the physical body we sometimes overlook the fact that a part of us not readily visible may be in even greater need of healing.

With our acceptance of this spiritual intervention on our behalf, let us also give ourselves a timely reminder. When we are faced with something which may, on the surface, APPEAR to be a failure, a longer and deeper look often proves things are not always what they seem.

(Spirit Healing by Harry Edwards illustrates these principles beautifully.)

AUNT EUGENIA'S SIGNATURE

By Gertrude Naugler
San Rafael, California

MY AUNT EUGENIA passed to Spirit on Christmas Eve of 1946, and I worried about her. Where had she gone? Was she happy there? She had been a beautiful woman, with hair that framed her face in a cloud of white fluff and large dreamy blue eyes. But the lovely eyes often were cold, for Aunt Eugenia, the wife of a university president, was a stickler for proper behavior.

Any breach of good manners was apt to provoke an icy response. Understandably, her nieces and nephews, not to mention the university students, were in awe of her. I was no exception. But she was very kind to me during a difficult period in my life, and I felt a great affection for her.

Owing to an injury sustained in a riding accident, Aunt Eugenia's handwriting was shaky for many years before her death. However, a letter or gift to her always brought a prompt reply typed by her secretary, with her name signed in a painfully wavering script that contrasted sadly with the beautiful handwriting of earlier times.

About two weeks after her death I was in our San Francisco home, thinking of Aunt Eugenia, as I relaxed in a warm bath. Her desire for perfection had not always made it easy for others, and I was wondering if she had found happiness on the other side. Suddenly the green-tiled bathroom was blotted out, and all around me was soft blue sky with fleecy white clouds floating in it.

At that moment I knew my aunt was well and happy. For, not only did that magical sky bring the blue of her eyes and the white of her hair, but written across it was her name, not in the shaky script of recent years, but in the firm, distinctive handwriting of long ago — Eugenia.

RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS

A mind full of sincerity,
A voice soft as a turtle dove;
A heart full of sweet charity,
And a heaping measure of love.

CHRISTMAS, 1970

By Dr. Joseph Murphy
Beverly Hills, California

For unto us a child is born . . . and the government shall be upon his shoulder . . .
Isaiah 9:6

WHEN YOU realize for the first time that God is your mind and consciousness, this is the birth of the child in you. The Bible writers referred to your awareness of this Indwelling Power and Infinite Intelligence as the birth of God in you.

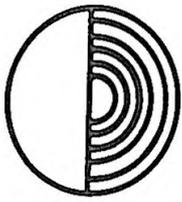

You are consciously aware of this Power, and if you want to experience Its wonder, begin to use It more and more every day. Then the child will grow stronger and greater in you, until God's wisdom begins to govern all your life.

Call on this Primal Power now. Affirm boldly:

"God's love fills my soul; my intellect is flooded with the Light of God. God's river of peace floods my mind and heart. God's healing balm restores my soul, my mind, and my body. I am the House of God, and my constant prayer is, 'Oh, that I might see the beauty of Thy house and the place where Thy glory dwelleth!'"

My Christmas wish for you is "The Lord God Omnipotent reigns supreme in your mind and heart."

Cosmic Power Within You by Dr. Murphy will demonstrate to you how this Power can produce anything you desire — dissolve illness, aid adverse financial conditions, break bonds that impede career progress, or gain the respect of worthwhile people — a Chimes book you may order any time.

PSYCHIC DIGEST

DO WE LEARN FROM THE PAST?

INSCRIPTIONS found in Yucatan tell us that like Mu, Atlantis (both lost continents) had warning earthquakes and did not sink all at once . . . Plato attempted to make people understand why Atlantis sunk so that history would not repeat itself. If he could have addressed any specific future audience and time perhaps it would be ourselves in the age in which we are now. Perhaps he would advise us to let spiritual considerations guide our progress and never permit technology or greed to overpower philosophical values.

— From J. M. Harmon in Search magazine

AMATEUR RESEARCHERS

SINCE THE SCIENTIFIC STUDY of ESP was begun by the London Society for Psychical Research in 1882, there have been hundreds and perhaps thousands of experiments done with a care typical of the journals of the APA. Many psychologists of high repute admit that the evidence is as good as that for other phenomena that are accepted by their profession. Surprising as it may seem, though, most of this research on ESP has been done by people who were not psychologists. From this fact, and from the usual psychology textbook treatment of the subject, as well as from private discussion, we know that psychologists are not interested in ESP. This raises a question, writes R. A. McConnell of the University of Pittsburgh in the American Psychologist, a very mysterious question I invite you to answer: Why are psychologists not interested in ESP?

SEEING PARENTS ARIGHT

SEEING PARENTS ARIGHT often is no easy task. Blind devotion is not a balanced perspective. It may be the other extreme of harboring some form of antagonism toward them. And if our thought is filled with mental discord resulting from a father's or mother's apparently arbitrary demands of the moment, or we entertain a disturbing recollection of them, certainly a better outlook on them is needed.

When one prays, one's first duty, according to an article in The Christian Science Monitor, in fulfilling the fifth commandment — to honor one's father and mother — is in honoring the one universal Parent of us all. Our love for God will then be reflected in love and respect for our human parents as well.

When one prays to see others aright, according to the Monitor article, it is not in an endeavor to whitewash them, but to separate from one's human view of them the false traits of character that seem so apparent, and discern instead the man of God's creating. Through such prayer one may have the joy and satisfaction of learning truly to honor and love one's human parents as children of God. This right beholding of one's parents also can bring one the added blessing of a higher sense of sonship and enrich one's life with many opportunities for deeds of kindness to others in need of some evidence of loving interest.

MEDITATE . . . MEDITATE . . . MEDITATE

ALL DEEP MEDITATION is transcendental. This is because it transcends our space-time concepts and transports into the realm of pure consciousness and superconsciousness.

Without a single word being uttered today, Buddha is giving a very loud and significant message to the modern world: His striking message is imprinted on every stone or metal image dug up in various centers of India, Burma, Thailand, Laos and Cambodia, hundreds of years old, all showing Buddha in a state of deep meditation with the eyes closed, in a sitting Yoga posture, hands in a certain position, and with a most remarkable face of mental serenity and bliss.

The eternal message is: "If you people of the world want peace and happiness, then you must meditate, meditate and meditate." This sums up the Wisdom of the Ages.

LESSONS FOR STUDENTS

HOW PSYCHIC ENERGY ENABLES YOU TO SEE YOURSELF AND OTHERS AS YOU WERE IN PAST LIVES

ONE OF THE remarkable gifts of psychic energy, a talent to which almost any person may aspire, is the ability to see different visages of past lives superimposed on the face of another, or on one's own in a mirror. This introduces the idea of reincarnation, the belief that we live again and again. The concept is not readily accepted by the average western mind yet more than half of all the people in the world take it for granted. Just as they know they were born, and that some day they will die, they believe with equal certitude that they have lived many lives before the present, and will experience many new and different incarnations in the future.

A REINCARNATIVE EXPERIENCE

When we are small and as we grow up we accept without question the beliefs of our elders and contemporaries. In the Christian world, which means western civilization in general, everyone is taught that we live but one life, the present. When I first had reincarnation explained to me I could not accept it and it was not until I had personal experiences of the type I will now describe that I changed my mind. The strange thing about a belief deeply ingrained in early childhood is that it can but seldom be altered by reasonable argument. As a rule, an actual experience is necessary before conviction is possible.

A TECHNIQUE FOR SEEING INTO PAST LIVES

Here is the technique. FIRST, calm yourself. If you are in any way physically upset or disturbed emotionally you will get no results. It is almost like trying to see the bottom of a lake when the surface has been disturbed by winds or when the water itself is muddy. So put off your attempt until you are thoroughly relaxed and quite calm.

SECOND, charge yourself with extra psychic energy. The simplest method is one already suggested, namely to take five deep breaths, hold each one for the count of ten and then exhale slowly over the count of fifteen, all equally cadenced. Relaxed and charged with energy you are now ready.

THIRD, if you plan to examine yourself be sure you are alone and will not be disturbed. Set a large mirror, at least 10 x 12 inches or larger on a table or desk before you as you seat yourself in a straight backed chair. Extinguish all light in the room except a single candle which should be placed to the left of the mirror and in your line of vision.

FOURTH, compose yourself and look steadily at yourself in the mirror. Say to yourself "I would like to see what I looked like in one of my previous lives," Then while remaining otherwise relaxed, strain your eyes slightly as you look directly into the eyes in the mirror. If you find you have an inclination to squint slightly as you do this, it is all right. Just try to establish and maintain a tension in your eyes themselves. You will, as a rule, notice first a tendency for the mirror to cloud over and obscure your image. This will come in flashes and change quite rapidly. Next there may appear a shimmering in the mirror almost like looking into a rippled pool. This is an indication of the activity of your psychic energy on the subtle vibrations of the chemical crystals of the air itself. Then sometimes gradually and sometimes quite rapidly your image will change. Often the reconstruction will begin not in an alteration of the facial lines but in some details of headdress or clothing. The very character of the face will change quite imperceptibly and in the most unexpected features. Rarely will your facial image hold to its present type. Do not prolong the experiment as it puts a strain on the eyes. Ten minutes at the most should be ample.

TRUE NATURE OF THIS EXPERIMENT

This is not psychic sight or what is usually called clairvoyance, but actual physical sight using the optic nerve. The psychic energy acting under your request so stimulates the optic centers that by slight additional effort, like trying to pierce a fog or look into the distance, a different dimension is brought into range of your normal eyesight. This experience can be most convincing. Try it.

Let me add that this is not autosuggestion. If you are honest with yourself, you will know that you had no previous knowledge of the appearance perceived. It may be pleasant or it may be nondescript. On the other hand it may be noble and inspiring or it might be terrifying. In all events you will see something strange and far different from anything you may expect.

PSYCHIC ENERGY: How to Change Desires Into Reality by Joseph J. Weed tells HOW you may see your past lives thru the use of psychic energy — a most valuable Chimes book.

Getting to Know God

SEE TO IT that there are spaces of silence and solitude in your daily life, times consecrated to the business of prayer.

There will be days when some great need almost irresistibly drives you to God. There will be some problem that baffles you; some difficult decision that you have to make.

Go apart, then, to set the matter right in the Light of God's presence, to think it over with Him, to wait until from a tangle of confused motives and impulses some clear direction shall arise.

It might also be that some sorrow sends you to God's feet . . . some disappointment, some inward hurt received in life's battle. But in turning to God, you will always find relief and comfort.

HOW DO YOU PRAY?

DO YOU PRAY daily for peace? Really pray? If so, how? When? Survival of our world might well depend on the impact of our prayers for peace.

Guideposts magazine has a Spiritual Workshop designed to help work out a specific plan for this kind of prayer. Here it is:

First — believe that peace is possible. It is rather frightening, the extent of our negative thinking in this regard. Too many people simply do not believe peace is possible. A prayer for peace should begin with a conviction that God has a plan for His world and that this plan means for all peoples to learn to live at peace with each other.

Second — believe that you as a person are important to the peace effort. Again negative thinking has to be overcome. Avoid the thought, "I'm only one person." Instead say, "What I do is important to help bring about God's plan for world peace."

Third — pray each day in a specific way. One housewife begins the day with the prayer that God will first remove all strife and animosity within herself. Then she asks this for each member of her family, going from there to relatives, friends, neighbors. Then by name, she prays for city, state and government officials, ending with the leaders of the major countries.

A businessman from Freeport, New York, Horace DeLisser — according to a recent Guideposts article — who for twenty years has been concerned with the prayers-for-peace movement, uses the following five-step plan every day at the stroke of noon:

The specific quality of the prayer is important. If you pray for the President, visualize him letting God's peace come into his heart, then see him transmitting this peace in discharging all his duties.

1. I thank God for the peace in my own heart. (If it isn't there, I wait until I have it).
2. I thank Him for allowing me, a little-known person, to be an instrument of His peace in all ways He has been leading me.
3. I ask God to bless all the others who are joined with me at this noon hour in prayer — or at other times in the day. I visualize them at prayer all over in America, in Europe, in Asia — everywhere in the world.
4. I pray for all who are disturbing the peace, that God will forgive them, touch their hearts, and heal their hate and make them instruments for peace.

There is an art to tuning in

5. Finally, I take all of these activities and offer them one by one up to God, asking forgiveness if any be foolish or too self-centered. Then I seek His guidance for what to do next.

As a specific experiment, Guideposts suggests that in the months ahead we all join together briefly at noon, regardless of time differences, for a prayer for peace (which, of course, many Chimes readers already do).

Noon is a good hour for mutual prayer for a number of reasons. It was an eventful time in Scripture: In Psalms 55:17 David says, "Evening and morning, and at noon will I pray." The Gospels indicate it was at the hour of noon when Christ was crucified. Paul's conversion on the Damascus Road came at noon (Acts 22:6).

The hour of noon was the hour of the angelus for the early Christian church, and Roman Catholic church bells all over the world still toll at noon to remind people to join in prayer. The Senate and House of Representatives in Washington, D.C. convene at the hour of noon with prayer, as do many state and local government bodies.

Noon is also a good time for a break in the day's work; a prayer interlude before lunch will ease tension, restore perspective. But the best reason for taking this time for prayer is to be a part of a world-wide fellowship whose concentrated impact could have undreamed of results.

• As Guideposts puts it: Have an open mind about how peace best can be won – not my will but Thy will be done. Pray for peace daily, but keep your heart open for His answer with this reminder always before you:

"If my people which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." (II Chron. 7:14).

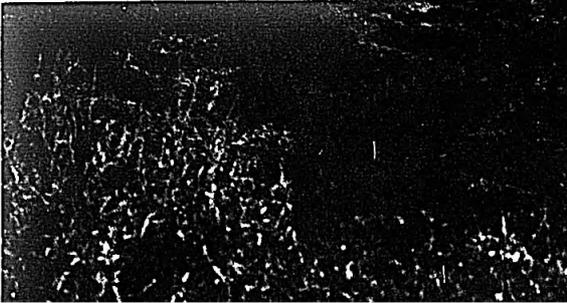

If you need help, or if you know of another person who does, write to us at the Chimes Prayer Ministry. We will be sure to include you as we gather each day at noon (your time) to pray for the greater spiritual inspiration of our work, for our friends, families, for our nation and for the world. A form is provided for your convenience on page 33 when you write.

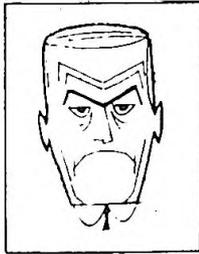

If you have faith enough to pray, you have faith. If you have faith enough to give thanks that your prayers already are answered, that is faith bigger than the "mustard seed" . . . and such faith, Jesus said, is big enough to move mountains.

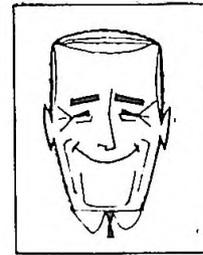

Upon the great sea of spirit, there is room for every sail.
In the limitless sky of truth, there is room for every wing.
Soar in the atmosphere of freedom.
Walk in your chosen path, and let no man's words disturb you.

IT'S WHAT THEY SAY

Dr. Donald Hatch Andrews - There is enough scientific and technological knowledge available now to correct the problems of depleting our natural resources; the real barrier is the fact that human beings lack either the will or the knowledge to work together in good will to accomplish what is needed. Changes in human dynamics must begin with the individual and extend to the family, the community, the nation, and the world. Perhaps we are all at the exact place in our journey of life where it is starkly apparent that "man's extremity is God's opportunity"; we must look beyond things material to a higher guidance in order to live together in harmony on this earth planet.

— From Unity magazine

Jesus The Christ — The chains that bind men to the carcasses of earth, said Jesus, are forged in fancy's shop; are made of air, and welded in illusion's fire. If man will stand erect, and use the power of will, his chains will fall, like worthless rags; for will and faith are stronger than the stoutest chains that men have ever made.

— From the Aquarian Gospel by Levi

Master Dwal Khul — Though the world seeks it in a thousand guises, its desperate need is for the light of spiritual understanding. This is the true bread of life for which it is hungry. It is hungry for the truth about the human soul and about life and the laws that govern life.

— From New Age Interpreter quarterly

Paramahansa Yogananda — Even death is nothing to the spiritual man. I once dreamed I was dying. Nevertheless I was praying to Him: "Lord, it is all right; whatever is Thy will." Then He touched me and I realized the truth. "How can I die? The wave cannot die; it sinks back into the ocean and comes forth again. The wave never dies. And I can never die."

— From Autobiography of a Yogi

Sri Daya Mata — The Lord is not interested in whether one has attained stature according to the standards of the world. Such achievements do not afford us any significant spiritual knowledge; yet realization of the soul is the only attainment that has lasting value, that will not be taken away by death. Spiritual principles are a great leveler of man's ego!

— From Self-Realization magazine

Ian Stevenson, M.D. — If there is survival — the persistence of the mind, including the memory, of an individual after the death of his physical body — reincarnation could be one form that it could take for all, for many, or only for some human beings . . . according to a recent Life magazine article featuring Is There Another Life After Death? On the other hand, Dr. Stevenson continues, survival could occur without reincarnation. In addition, we must consider the fact that there may be NO survival and that cases of apparent reincarnation are explainable by facts not presently known to us — although I personally do not happen to believe that this will be the case.

Whether Ian Stevenson — a respected member of the medical profession who heads the department of psychiatry at the University of Virginia and specializes in reincarnation research — can ever find the answer to the question, "Is there life after death?" remains problematical, according to the Life article. But at least he can claim, according to Life, that at last the study of reincarnation has become a respectable field of research. Perhaps, to some, that is a consolation.

Charles Harvey, General Secretary of the Astrological Association — The amount a good astrologer can tell you now is about a tenth of what he will be able to tell you in ten years' time. By the end of the century astrology will have become an enormous force in criminology, medical diagnosis, vocational guidance and the whole field of industry.

QUESTIONS WE ALL ASK

. . . with messages for the searching mind in quest of Truth, satisfaction for the perplexed, comfort for the sorrowing heart.

The following were questions submitted by members to The Parastudy Group of Chester Heights, Pennsylvania concerning the subject of reincarnation which it is hoped will bring greater understanding to those seeking more light on this intriguing subject.

IS THIS the basis for a "new religion"?

Not at all. It appeals to and unifies people of all faiths the world over. It helps strengthen Christian faith, providing better understanding of God's plan. Belief in the principle is in no way considered to be "necessary for salvation".

IS THIS a new idea?

Rather than new, it was an intrinsic part of the faith of the earliest Christians and persisted for hundreds of years. Its present-day believers outnumber Christians considerably. It is the oldest such belief in man's recorded history.

WHAT ARE the basic principles?

THAT MOST SOULS, if not all, require more than one life experience to acquire a "full education" of that soul.

THAT a soul may employ many successive bodies to acquire this experience, but never regresses to inhabit other than human bodies.

THAT there may be a very short or very long "rest period" between rebirths.

THAT we will not remember former lives until we have made sufficient spiritual progress.

THAT we cannot and should not attempt to judge any soul's spiritual progress, or lack of it, from a person's life circumstances and conditions.

A believer does not seek to return but rather seeks to learn enough and progress enough to avoid returning for another experience.

IS REINCARNATION supported by the Bible?

TO HELP yourself find the answer, ask yourself these questions:

1. Where did the idea originate that a new soul was created each time a baby was born?
2. Is there really any passage in the Bible that substantiates that idea?
3. Where is the idea of reincarnation spoken against?
4. Why not, if it was in error and since it was a common religious belief at the time of Jesus and before?

Now proceed to examine these passages according to your own interpretation. Shouldn't the simplest, most literal interpretation be the most likely correct? Can it be "explained away"?

GOD'S TREES

A CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS STORY

By Ruth Clephane

waited so many years to be made into, but instead was hewn into rough pieces and carelessly put together to form a manger in a stable in the town of Bethlehem. The little tree was heartbroken. "I do not like this at all," it wailed. "This is not what I had planned, to be shoved into a dark place with no one to see me but the cattle."

But God who loved the little tree whispered, "Wait. I will show you something." And He did

"And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping their watch by night. And, lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them and they were sore afraid. And the Angel said unto them, 'Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all the people. For unto you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord, is born. This shall be a sign unto you. Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger'. And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the Heavenly host praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men'. And it came to pass, as the Angels were on their way to Heaven that the shepherds said one to another, 'Let us go even unto Bethlehem and see this great thing which has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us'. And they came with great haste and found Mary, Joseph and the babe lying in a manger." (Luke 2:8-16)

In the stillness of the night God had laid there His own little Son. The manger quivered with delight. "Oh this is just wonderful!" it whispered. "In all my dreams I never thought of holding a baby like this. This is better than all my planning; why, I am part of a miracle!" And out on the hillside the other trees of the forest clapped their leaves (hands) because their little brother, the manger, had seen his dream come true.

Months passed by, then the men came to the forest to cut down the second tree. "I wonder whether I shall be made into a great vessel now", this one thought. "I have waited

(concluded on page 46)

FAR AWAY on a hillside grew a forest of trees. There were little ones, big ones, old ones, and young ones. The trees were very happy with life, with the gorgeous reds and golds of autumn, and the winter's blanket of glistening snow.

Trees, you know, have a language all their own, something God has given to all His creations. Sometimes the younger trees spoke of the future and things they would like to be when they grew up. For example, one little tree said:

"I should like to become a cradle and hold a sweet little baby in my arms. I think a baby is the sweetest thing I have ever seen and I would like to be made into a baby's bed so I could hold a baby."

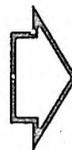

Then a second tree spoke up: "That would not please me at all. I would like to be something important. I want to be a great ship, strong and stately, and cross many waters and carry cargoes of gold and silver."

Another tree stood silent, apparently in deep reflection. "And what would you like to be?" asked the Mother tree. "Have you no dreams for the future?" "No dreams," he answered, "except to stand on a hillside and point to God. What could a tree do better than that?"

The Mother tree looked very fondly at him. "Indeed!" she said.

Years passed and of course the trees grew up. One day a man came to the forest and the first young tree was cut down. "I wonder what I shall be made into now," thought the little tree. It was not made into the cradle that it had

Earth Man on the Moon

AFTER TWENTY YEARS of investigating UFOs or Unidentified Flying Objects, the U.S. Air Force has prepared a textbook for its cadets including a fourteen-page chapter devoted exclusively to this subject. The book warns that scientific studies of the UFO mystery have so far been based on man's present limited knowledge of physics and this present knowledge may not apply to UFOs.

The textbook reads: "One thing that must be guarded against in any such study is the trap of implicitly assuming that our knowledge of physics (or any other branch of science) is complete. We should not deny the possibility of alien control of UFOs on the basis of preconceived notions."

According to the textbook there are three possible reasons why we may be visited from beings of other planets or realms. It is the third one that is of most interest and value to those who understand the spiritual program of the hierarchal plan now in effect upon Earth. Further it indicates that the Air Force has seriously pondered the true spiritual material that has been channeled and disseminated on Earth for the past twenty years.

"1) We may be the object of intensive sociological and psychological study. In such studies you usually avoid disturbing the test subjects' environment.

"No man in his three-dimensional vehicle will be allowed on any fourth dimensional sphere. It cannot be. However, man is what you would call half way between the third and fourth dimensional expression or understanding. As he will reach this fourth dimensional understanding closer to 1965 and 1970, you will have such abilities to go further than you have. But until man, any man, on your planet can be in the fourth dimensional body, he cannot be physically in those realms. He may travel astrally there but he cannot travel physically there."

Dr. Hannibal. May 31, 1961

"We have contacted key units (such as Mark-Age) because they are teaching this new understanding, or Aquarian development, now. That is why we come via mental telepathic communication. Why do we not come through to your government heads or your highly educated scientists; educated to your way of thinking, of course? Because they could not change the temperature of the mass consciousness, for they do not believe in thought transference or thought control or thought power. But your New Age light centers or key units do."

Dr. Hannibal (St. Germain). January 14, 1961

"Spacecraft No. 1235 is one of several thousand such craft, ready to work for the Earth program, from many dimensions and all planets in this solar system. The spacecraft known as No. 1235, which is a Unit No. 11 craft, is assigned to coordinate various individuals coming into Christ-conscious awareness. Their work primarily will be to relay energies, both physical and etheric, to ones who are preparing to unite spiritually for the work to advance this program."

"In this particular time, when the transmission of energy for your transmutation of body and mind is necessary to match the new frequency vibration of the planet, we are here to aid and to supplement this program. We send forth our mechanical equipment, and work a means of stepping up your own vibrational frequency. Our purpose in coming at this time is to help speed up these reactions so you will be prepared for a change-over in the Earth's frequency. This is taking place over a number of years."

Dr. Hannibal. May 6, 1961

"3) Such contact may have already taken place secretly, and may have taken place on a different plane of awareness — and we are not yet sensitive to communications on such a plane."

EARTH MAN ON THE MOON

SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE

Of the estimated three billion souls incarnated on Earth in the 1960's, most of those aware of Earthman's space program as developed by the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. have wondered of the purpose and value of such a gigantic effort. With so many problems facing mankind on Earth, it is only natural a large segment of the population should be concerned about this vast expenditure of funds, energy, scientific research, and resources. Is it all worth it, they ask. Here is the spiritual answer to this issue, based on information Mark-Age has received since 1958 from those concerned with spiritual government and which Mark-Age has published since 1960.

God — or Spirit or Creative Energy or Divine Mind — is the Source and Creator of all that eternally exists. Mankind collectively is the Son of God and as such also eternally exists, not only as a kingdom but as individuals. The Son of God or body of mankind inhabits all realms of God's universes. Mankind evolves throughout his eternal existence, to become and to function as a co-creator with God. In this spiritual evolverment he progresses through a vast number of schools and rooms in our Father's many mansions.

Within our solar system there are the physical planets, each with their own astral planes, and the etheric or spiritual realm. Each planet and each astral plane represents a different level of attainment, the etheric being the highest for man. When one earns a passing grade he advances to a higher plane or planet. When he fails he must stay in the same schoolroom, be it the physical planet or its astral planes, until he passes.

GRADUATION TIME

It is graduation time for the race of man assigned to the Earth planet and its astral planes. All here are being given the opportunity to rise from the mortal to the divine. Those who earnestly seek to pass and to go on with their spiritual evolverment will make the greatest advances yet in their soul history. Those who do not wish to advance into the next level of evolverment will be taken out of the solar system in which they have evolved with others for eons of time. Those who do make the grade will come back to Earth in the Golden Age or will evolve to higher planes and planets.

No one originated on Earth and no one will end here. Man came from a higher state of evolution, became enmeshed in the third dimension of materiality and consciousness, and has been making his way back to his true spiritual status. Many have made it already and have gone on to live in physical worlds of the fourth through the eighth dimensions or ranges of frequency vibration in this solar system, or to live even beyond this system. These ranges of physical expressions are beyond the five physical senses and instruments of Earthman today. Spirit does not will have better contact with their fellowmen. But it has been necessary for us to use channels and broadcasting units of light through physical vessels such as yourself on the Earth plane itself to do this work. Regardless of whether or not the program workers personally feel they have been influential in this task, they have been necessary and a prerequisite to our functions and goals. You have completed your task. The men who have been instruments for us shall be returned to you on Earth safe and well."

INTERDIMENSIONAL COMMUNICATIONS

The Mark-Age publication entitled "Visitors From Other Planets" is a special presentation of selected discourses and experiences published by Mark-Age since 1960. A revision and enlargement with special features has been prepared for hardcover book form in 1970, until which time a small supply of the original booklet series is available. The following are a few extracts pertinent to the hierarchal and the Earth space programs, given by the masters indicated. The dates mentioned are the ones when Yolanda received them, with publication shortly thereafter.

--- oOo ---

"The space phase of this program now is in operation. From this week on, reportings and sightings will be stepped up. Remember the purpose of these sightings. They are only to open the minds and hearts of the skeptical ones: that there are life beings on other planets; that these intelligences have a civilization and a knowledge beyond that which those on Earth have at this present time."

Wains. November 14, 1960

neither flew nor fell, just hovered." In another article she read, Armstrong is quoted as having confided to a friend after a series of mishaps, "I should be dead. But I guess God has something else for me to do in my life."

From 11:00 P.M. on Sunday, July 20th through Monday, July 21st, when astronauts Armstrong and Aldrin were physically on the moon, Yolanda was watching it on television with Mark. She was aware of an electromagnetic beam from Dr. Hannibal, aboard his own spacecraft headquarters aiding the Eagle's activities. This beam also was a hieronic transmission for helping to change the frequency vibration of the two astronauts, as representatives of all Earthmen and as the matrix for the race's physical form now ready to go from third dimensional frequency into the fourth dimension.

As soon as they had reentered their spacecraft after the historic moon walk, Dr. Hannibal told Yolanda via mental telepathic communication, "You were the focal point on Earth for transmitting the change in frequency for third dimensional frequency form of human bodies. All men on Earth will notice some change in their bodies, though this may come to their attention very gradually."

On the seventh day, Katoomi — Archangel Michael, titular head of the Hierarchal Board — contacted Nada to inform her that at the splashdown of the Apollo 11 crew the next day, July 24th, she would be released from her special assignment. "Your special attention, prayers and light-body projections, as well as those of all Mark-Age associates who are in proper spiritual understanding of this mission, helped raise the astronauts sufficiently in vibration and spiritual consciousness so they had a deeper and more spiritual appreciation of what they have accomplished for all mankind. There has been a rise in race consciousness.

"From this point onward the light workers on Earth duplicate schools, lessons and manners of expression.

Normally there are communication and travel between the various planets and planes within the solar system. Man on Earth partook of this interdimensional and interplanetary intercourse until as recently as the civilization of Atlantis, some twelve to fifteen thousand years ago. But man then lost his spiritual contact with God and his fellowmen of this and other worlds, seeking segregation rather than integration into the federation of planets in this solar system. The spiritual government or Hierarchal Board of this solar system had no choice but to draw the veil over Earthman's consciousness to such an extent that even awareness of life beyond the physical one on Earth was hidden.

Now the time has come for Earth and all on it to be raised into a higher, the fourth, dimension or range of frequency vibration. To aid in this process, many of higher realms have been incarnating on Earth. Others have come via mental communication, projection of their bodies and in the spacecraft called flying saucers or unidentified flying objects by man of Earth. Performing a myriad of purposes and accomplishing goals beyond human imagination, these visitors from other planets and planes have been helping prepare the way for Earthman to rejoin the race of man throughout this solar system.

MAKING MAN SPACE CONSCIOUS

To be effective, this has had to be a multifaceted spiritual project, called the hierarchal or Mark Age plan and program. A vital phase of this project has been to make man of Earth space conscious. This has been done in part by millions having witnessed or having believed the demonstrations in the skies performed via the spacecraft of our sisters and brothers of other realms, accomplishing feats Earth science cannot duplicate. But there has been far more aid of a more subtle nature through mental projection of thoughts to Earthman concerning those scientific principles which have enabled him to go to the moon in person and throughout the solar system by probe.

So the goal of making Earthman space conscious has been achieved. He knows space travel is possible. This has enabled him to entertain the possibility or probability or certainty that life must exist elsewhere, be it as we know it on Earth or in other forms. This now has opened the way for man of other worlds to appear openly on Earth and to be accepted as visitors from other planets. This then will permit our fellowmen of higher evolvment to explain the federation of planets to which all mankind in this solar system now belongs, except those of Earth.

MAN'S SPIRITUAL HERITAGE

Through the teachings, demonstrations and assistance of our sisters and brothers from other realms, man of Earth will learn again of his spiritual nature, heritage, talents, powers, purposes, his past and future. He will understand the present crisis, and yet golden opportunity, as concerns his individual and planetary graduation into a higher physical and spiritual evolvment and he will work together to achieve that purpose. Then truly will the way in space become the way in Spirit for man of Earth.

This, then, is the real purpose behind God's guidance of man in the Earth space program, an integral part of the hierarchal space program, which itself is but a part of the vast Hierarchal Board program which has been in effect for nearly twenty-six thousand years to lift man of Earth to his rightful position in this solar system. Thus was the race into space literally a race toward destiny, for there has Unmistakably, Yolanda saw the face of Jesus stamped over the Earth exactly as He had appeared to her just prior to the Apollo transmission. This was His sign. In a subtle, even humorous, way He had demonstrated His reply that all would not know or accept the same sign which all could see.

On the second day of the flight, July 17th, Nada channeled through her physical body the light or understanding of God to all men of Earth. This was a channeling of higher spiritual energies being reinstated to Earth for the first time since Atlantis, when Nada as Yolanda, high priestess of the Sun Temple near what is now Miami, Florida, had helped the Hierarchal Board withdraw them from use by man of Earth. This reinstatement was being done for the rending of the third phase of the seventh veil.

During the third and fourth days of the voyage of Apollo 11, Nada spent all her time and energy spiritually preparing the astronauts. Her body, as an instrument for the channeling of this higher or hieronic energy, was used to synchronize their bodies to the new frequency vibration they would experience in going out of the third dimensional environment of Earth. It is doubtful the astronauts consciously would have known anything of this activity, other than an upliftment in contemplation or mediation or in some dream episode. Nevertheless it was effected and so must be recorded for the race record.

At the end of this energy transmission on the fourth day Yolanda was told mentally that she would receive confirmation, of the ability of the moon walkers to receive her projections, by reading the profile on Armstrong in "Life" magazine for July 4, 1969. The opening paragraph contains, "When Neil Armstrong was a small boy, he had a recurrent dream: he could, by holding his breath, hover over the ground. Nothing much ever happened — he a new level.

That Wednesday evening of July 16th during a meditation at 7:45 P.M. Nada met Sananda, and some of his disciples from his last Earth incarnation as Christ Jesus of Nazareth, in an astral realm. She watched them descend from the etheric realm. Sananda embraced Nada and asked why she had called him. Nada replied, "We need a sign, an outer sign; not for myself, but a sign that would satisfy all mankind as to your influence and presence in this day and age."

"No single proof would satisfy all men," Sananda answered.

"For me it would make no difference," Nada insisted. "But the peoples of Earth need something they cannot explain, regardless of whether or not they can accept it for what it is. And we, the program workers whom you have selected on the Earth, need something, also, to work with."

"You will have a sign of this visit. You have my word. It will be there and you will know it," Sananda-Jesus promised.

Nada's light body then descended over her physical body like a bell over a clapper. She was in two bodies, yet she could operate in both simultaneously. Once again she visited the Apollo 11 crew and from their craft projected golden rays to earth, bathing it in divine love in preparation for the rending of the third phase of the last veil, stating, "And the third step in the final rending of the seventh veil of mystery for man of Earth shall be!"

Two hours later Yolanda was watching a movie on television, when it was interrupted by a nonscheduled videotape broadcast from the Apollo mooncraft. At 8:00 P.M. (fifteen minutes after Nada's contact with Sananda) the crew unexpectedly decided to broadcast pictures of the Earth from sixty thousand miles away.

been but little margin of time remaining for this transmutation of Earth and all on it before the entire solar system enters a new level of manifestation and evolution.

Yes, the Earth space program, actually instituted by God and the Hierarchal Board, has been beyond realization of value in material terms, for it has opened the door to a new dimension, to man's spiritual awakening. No matter now that the awakening could have been accomplished eons ago or could have been done in better ways. For it has been a crash program necessitated by the solar system's needs, and thus had to be accomplished by the end of this twentieth century in the best and fastest manner possible. It has been accomplished, through the grace and guidance of God and the assistance of untold billions from other worlds.

This is the Mark Age or latter-day period, known also as the War of Armageddon. The two nations engaged in the race to the moon have been the U.S.A., founded and declared to be under God, and the U.S.S.R., currently an avowed atheistic government. Thus it has been a battle of the Christ versus the anti-Christ forces, or of those who believe in the brotherhood of man under God and those who do not. The spiritually dedicated nation won.

But would Earthman have achieved the goal and have become space conscious from this planet without overt outside intervention if there had not been such a race or battle? And not all the citizens of the U.S.A. can be categorized in the Christ forces, nor all those of the U.S.S.R. as of the anti-Christ. All are brothers, sons of God, loved equally and dearly by our Creator. Thus all have benefited and have participated, even in those nations not directly involved. But the U.S.A. is a nation developed by God and the Hierarchal Board to become the New JerUSAlem, a spiritual government on the Earth in the New Age now beginning.

APOLLO 11 MOON MISSION

Those who have been aware of the spiritual or hierarchal program have seen much significance and evidence of divine direction, guidance and protection in the Earth space program of the U.S.A. As prelude to the Apollo missions, consider that there were seven original astronauts. Seven is a spiritually significant number in all creation. It is especially significant now in that it represents the seventh step of mankind and the rending of the seven phases of the last or seventh veil that separates man from his spiritual awareness. The first sub-orbital flight by the U.S.A. was in a capsule named Freedom Seven.

There were the Mercury, Gemini and Apollo series of flights. Mercury is a legendary bearer of messages or news, or a conductor of travelers: those of higher realms coming to aid man, or man's own spiritual Self calling upon the mortal self to awaken and to rise. Gemini is the sign of the twin: man of other realms and man of Earth, or spiritual Self and mortal self. Apollo is the name of the sun god: the son of man becoming the son of God. The Saturn rocket lifts the Apollo craft: Saturn is the seat of the Saturnian Council, the Council of Seven that spiritually rules this solar system.

Apollo 11 spacecraft, the Columbia, named for Christopher Columbus, and the Eagle lunar module, making one think of the New Testament's prophecies of the second coming, were named by President Richard Nixon, who is a worker on the Sixth Ray of Transmutation under Chohan St. Germain. The present activity of St. Germain is as Dr. Hannibal, in charge from the etheric realm of the western hemisphere for the hierarchal space program, who had been Christopher Columbus and whose present spacecraft of city size is No.

1235, which is a Unit No. 11 craft.

The Apollo 11 moon mission from July 16-24, 1969 to land Earthman on the moon was one of the major spiritual events on the physical plane to help raise man into the fourth dimension, both physically and in consciousness. For the entire month of July Nada-Yolanda, the Mark-Age primary channel or prophetess, was led to be in spiritual retreat away from Mark-Age headquarters in Miami, but nearby. Some of her high Self or Nada Self activities in the light body were observed by associates at MetaCenter and elsewhere. Her experiences pertaining to the Apollo 11 mission are presented here for the Mark-Age Family; and for others who may be able to comprehend, or who wish to contact Mark-Age for further information so they can appreciate fully this spiritually directed hierarchal program.

While watching the Liftoff of Apollo 11 on July 16th, Yolanda experienced a flow of thoughts concerning the spiritual significance of the names and locations involved in the U.S. space program, similar to those already related. Part of her meditation was in connection with the concurrent ripping of the third phase of the seventh veil from mass consciousness, explained in detail in Mark-Age publications. This phase began in April, 1968 and would extend no more than two years, after which time man of Earth would become aware of the hierarchal program.

During the afternoon of July 16th, Yolanda in her light body, as Nada of the Hierarchal Board, entered the Apollo 11 craft and spoke silently to astronauts Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins. "Lif up all men. Rip the veil. Power and love are united." Power is the First Ray aspect or function of divine will and power, the first step for man in his spiritual awakening: bowing to the will of God so as to be able to use the power of God. Love is a Seventh Ray aspect or function of divine love and peace, the final or rest step for man in his spiritual awakening or moving into 100 Soul teaching lessons – now are available one lesson at a time, or in groups of five – to all who desire them.

Inner Teachings

FOR THE NEW AGE

Designed as preparatory training for those Disciples of Light who would make themselves useful in the Father's scheme of things for the New Day coming, this is indeed an opportunity for readers of Chimes to receive greater enlightenment. Requested over and over by readers for a period of years, THIS IS THE TIME they were meant to come into being.

If you are one of those who has been seeking Soul sustenance, and a meaningful way in which to become a channel and be of service to your fellow men, you owe it to yourself to become a student of "The Light on the Science of Living".

Printed on 5½ x 8½ looseleaf paper, suitable for use in ring binders, each lesson may run fifteen or more pages. Many contain illustrations, charts, and questionnaires for review purposes, as well as prayers and letters to the student.

No set charge is made for those who wish to receive this training. In order to carry on and expand this work of the Brotherhood, it is hoped each student will do his or her part to help with the cost of preparing and mailing these lessons – well over $1.00 each.

Fill out the coupon below and send now for your initial five lessons. Mail to –

THE PRAYER OF THE CHALICE

Father, to Thee I raise my whole being,
- a vessel emptied of self. Accept, Lord, this my emptiness, and so fill me with Thyself - Thy Light, Thy Love, Thy Life - that these Thy precious Gifts may radiate through me and overflow the chalice of my heart into the hearts of all with whom I come in contact this day revealing unto them the beauty of Thy Joy
and Wholeness
the serenity of Thy Peace
which nothing can destroy.

PART IX.

BHASTRIKA

Rapid succession of forcible expulsions is a characteristic feature of this exercise. "Bhastrika" means "bellows" in Sanskrit. Just as a blacksmith blows his bellows rapidly, so also you should inhale and exhale rapidly. Sit in your favorite Asana (position). Close the mouth. Inhale and Exhale quickly 20 times like the bellows. Constantly dilate and contract the chest as you inhale and exhale. When you practice the Pranayama a hissing sound is produced. You should start with forcible expulsions of breath following one another in rapid succession. After 20 such expulsions, make a deep inhalation and retain the breath as long as you can comfortably and then slowly exhale. This is one round of Bhastrika.

Begin with 10 expulsions for a round and increase it gradually to 20 or 25 for a round. The period of retention of breath also should be gradually and cautiously increased. Rest a while after one round is over and again begin the next round. Do 3 rounds in the beginning and after due practice, do 20 rounds in the morning and 20 in the evening.

Bhastrika removes inflammation of the throat, increases the gastric fire, destroys phlegm and all diseases of the nose and lungs, eradicates asthma, consumption and other diseases which arise from the excess of mucus. It gives warmth to the body. It is the most effective of all Pranayama exercises.

Sirshasana (Headstand)

Spread a four-folded blanket. Sit on the two knees. Make a finger-lock by inter-weaving the fingers. Place it on the ground up to the elbow. Now keep the top of your head on this finger-lock or between the two hands. Slowly raise the legs till they become vertical. Stand on your head for five seconds in the beginning and gradually increase the period by 15 seconds each week to 20 minutes or half an hour. Then very slowly, come down. Strong people will be able to keep the Asana for half an hour with 2 or 3 months. There is no harm. If you have time, do twice daily both morning and evening. Perform this Asana very, very slowly, to avoid jerks. While standing on the head, breathe slowly through the nose and never through the mouth.

Sirshasana is really a blessing and a nectar. Words will fail to adequately describe its beneficial results and effects. In this Asana alone, the brain can draw plenty of Prana (vital energy) and blood. Memory increases admirably. Lawyers, occultists and thinkers will highly appreciate this Asana.

Sarvangasana (Shoulder Stand)

This is a mysterious Asana which gives wonderful benefits. Spread a thick blanket on the floor and practice this Asana over the blanket. Lie on the back. Slowly raise the legs. Lift the trunk, hips, and legs quite vertically. Support the back with the two hands, one on either side. Rest the elbows on the ground. Press the chin against the chest. Do not allow the body to shake or move to and fro. Keep the legs straight. In this Asana the whole weight of the body is thrown on the shoulders. You really stand on the shoulders with the help and support of the elbows. Retain the breath as long as you can with comfort, and slowly exhale through the nose.

You can do this Asana twice daily morning and evening. Stand on the Asana for two minutes and gradually increase the period to half an hour.

BENEFITS

This is a panacea, a cure-all, a sovereign specific for all diseases. It brightens the psychic faculties and awakens Kundalini Shakti (The Mysterious Powers in the Body), removes all sorts of diseases of intestine and stomach, and augments the mental power.

It supplies a large quantity of blood to the roots of spinal nerves. It is this Asana which centralizes the blood in the spinal column and nourishes it beautifully. But for this Asana there is no scope for these nerve-roots to draw sufficient blood supply. It keeps the spine quite elastic. Elasticity of the spine means everlasting youth. It stimulates you in your work. It prevents the spine from early ossification (hardening), so you will preserve and retain your youth for a long time. Ossification is degeneration of bones. Old age manifests quickly on account of early ossification. The bones become hard and brittle in the degenerative process. This exercise acts as a powerful blood tonic and purifier. It tones the nerves. He who practices Sarvang is very nimble, agile, full of energy. The muscles of the back are alternately contracted, relaxed and then pulled and stretched. Hence they draw a good supply of blood by these various movements and are well nourished. Various sorts of myalgia (muscular rheumatism), lumbago, sprain, neuralgia, etc., are cured by this Asana.

The vertebral column becomes elastic as rubber. The vertebral column is a very important structure. It supports the whole body. It contains the spinal cord, spinal nerve and sympathetic system. Therefore you must keep it healthy, strong and elastic. The muscles of the abdomen, and the muscles of the thigh are also toned and nourished well. Obesity or corpulence and habitual chronic constipation, gulma, congestion and enlargement of the liver and spleen are cured by this Asana.

PASCHIMOTTANASANA

Sit on the ground and stretch the legs stiff like a stick. Catch the toes with the thumb and index and middle fingers. While catching, you will have to bend the trunk forwards. Fatty persons will find it rather difficult to bend. Exhale. Slowly bend without jerks till your forehead touches your knees. You can keep the face even between the knees. When you bend down, draw the belly back. This facilitates the bending forwards. Bend slowly by gradual degrees. Take your own time. There is no hurry. When you bend down, bend the head between the hands. Retain it on a level with them. Young persons with elastic spines can touch the knees with the forehead even in their very first attempt. In the case of grown-up persons with rigid spinal columns, it will take a fortnight or a month for complete success in the posture. Retain the breath till you take the forehead back to its original position, till you sit straight again. Then breath.

Retain the pose for 5 seconds. Then gradually increase the period to 10 minutes.

BENEFITS

This is an excellent asana. It reduces fat in the abdomen and makes the lions lean. This Asana is a specific for corpulence or obesity. It brings about reduction of spleen and liver in cases of enlargement of spleen. What Sarvangasana is for the stimulation of endocrine glands, so is Paschimottanasana for the stimulation of abdominal viscera, such as kidneys, liver, pancreas, etc. This Asana relieves constipation, removes sluggishness of liver, dyspepsia, belching and gastritis. Lumbago and all sorts of myalgia of the back muscles are cured. This Asana relieves piles and diabetes also. The muscles of the abdomen, the solar plexus, the epigastric plexus, bladder, prostate, lumbar nerves, sympathetic cord are all toned up and kept in a healthy, sound condition.

Mayurasana (Peacock Pose)

This is more difficult than Sarvangasana. This demands good physical strength.

Kneel on the ground. Sit on the toes. Raise the heels up. Join the two forearms together. Place the palms of the two hands on the ground. The two little fingers must be in close touch. They project towards the feet. Now you have got steady and firm fore-arms for supporting the whole body in the ensuing elevation of the trunk and legs. Now bring down the abdomen slowly against the conjoined elbows. Support your body upon your elbows. This is the first stage. Stretch your legs and raise the feet stiff and straight on a level with the head. This is the second stage.

Neophytes (beginners) find it difficult to keep up the balance as soon as they raise the feet from the ground. Place a cushion in front. Sometimes you will have a fall forwards and you may hurt your nose slightly. Try to slip on the sides when you cannot keep up the balance. If you find it difficult to stretch the two legs backwards at one stroke, slowly stretch one leg first and then the other. If you adopt the device of leaning the body forwards and head downwards the feet will by themselves leave the ground and you can stretch them quite easily. When the Asana is in full manifestation the body will be in one straight line and parallel to the ground. This posture is very beautiful to look at.

BENEFITS

This is a wonderful Asana for improving digestion. It cures dyspepsia and diseases of the stomach. The whole abdominal organs are properly toned and stimulated well by the increase of abdominal pressure. Sluggishness of liver disappears. It tones the bowels and removes constipation (ordinary, chronic and habitual). It awakens Kundalini.

INSTRUCTIONS ON ASANAS

1. Be regular in the practice. Those who practice by fits and starts will not derive any benefit.
2. Asanas should be done on an empty stomach in the morning or at least three hours after food. Morning time is best for doing Asanas.

3. In the beginning you cannot perform some of the Asanas perfectly. Regular practice will give perfection. Patience and perseverance, earnestness and sincerity are needed.

4. If you are careful about your diet, Asanas and meditation, you will have fine, lustrous eyes, fair complexion and peace of mind in a short time. Hatha Yoga ensures beauty, strength and spiritual success to the Yogic students.

Bhakti (Peace of Mind)

Bhakti (peace of mind) can be acquired and cultivated. Practice of the Nava Vidha Bhakti (nine methods of devotion) will infuse Bhakti. Constant Sat Sang, Japa, Prayer, Meditation, Swadhyaya, Bhajan, Service to saints, Dana, Yatra, etc., will develop Bhakti. The following are the nine methods of developing Bhakti:

Shravan — hearing of the Voice of God. Smaran — remembering God always. Kirtan — singing His praise. Vandana — Namaskars to God. Archana — offerings to God. Pada Sevan — attendance. Sakhya — friendship. Dasya — services. Atma neivedhan — self-surrender to God.

Sri Ramanuja recommends the following measures of developing Bhakti: Viveka — discrimination. Vimoka — freedom from flesh desires and longing for God. Abhyas — continuous thinking of God. Kirya — doing good to others. Kalyana — wishing well to all. Satyam — truthfulness. Arjavam — integrity. Daya — compassion. Ahimsa — non-violence. Dana — charity.

Power of a Yogi (Minus Siddhis)

A Yogi forgets the body in order to concentrate the mind on the Lord. He conquers heat and cold by mastering breath-control and by controlling his nervous system.

He can bear extremes of climates without discomfort.

Dharana (Concentration)

Fix the mind on some object either within the body or outside. Keep it there steady for some time. This is Dharana. You will have to practice this daily. Yoga has its basis on Dharana.

CONCENTRATION

Those who practice concentration evolve quickly. They can do any work with greater efficiency in no time. What others can do in six hours can be done easily in half an hour by one who has a concentrated mind. Concentration purifies and calms the surging emotions, strengthens the current of thought and clarifies the ideas. Concentration keeps a man in his material progress also. He will turn out very good work in his office or business-house. What was cloudy and hazy before, becomes clearer and definite; what was very difficult before becomes easy now; and what was complex, bewildering and confusing before, comes easily within the mental grasp. You can achieve anything by concentration. Nothing is impossible for one who regularly practices concentration. Clairvoyance, clairaudience, mesmerism, hypnotism, thought-reading, music, mathematics and other sciences depend upon concentration.

Retire into a quiet room. Close your eyes. Begin to concentrate on your goal. The mind may begin to entertain some other extraneous ideas. It may begin to wander. It may think of a show you saw the other night. It may think of going shopping. You should try to have a definite line of thought. There should not be any break in the line of thinking. You must not entertain any other thoughts which are not connected with the subject on hand. The mind will try its level best to run in its old grooves. You will have to struggle hard in the beginning. The attempt is somewhat like going up a steep hill. You will rejoice and feel immense happiness when you get success in concentration.

For a neophyte the practice of concentration is tiring in the beginning. He has to cut new grooves in the mind and brain. After some time, say two or three months, he gets great interest. He enjoys a new kind of happiness. Concentration is the only way to get rid of the miseries and tribulations. Your only duty is to achieve concentration and through concentration to attain the final beatitude, Self-realization.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

Napoleon Bonaparte was a man of great concentration. His success was all due to the power of concentration. He suffered from various diseases as epileptic fits, Brady cardia, etc. But for these maladies, he would have proved still more powerful. He could sleep at any time he liked. He would snore the moment he retired to bed. He would get up at the very second of the appointed time. This is a kind of Siddhi. He did no Vikshep or shilly-shallying. He had the highly developed Ekagrata mind of a Yogi. He could draw, as it were, any single thought from the brain pigeon-hole, dwell on it as long as he liked and shove it back when finished. He would sleep very soundly at night amidst busy war; would never worry a bit at night. This was all due to his power of concentration. Concentration can do anything. Without concentration of mind nothing can be achieved.

SECLUSION

If circumstances prevent you from observing Mowna (seclusion), strictly avoid long talk, conversations and all sorts of vain discussions and withdraw yourself from society as much as possible. Too much talk is simply wastage of energy. If this energy is conserved by Mowna (seclusion), it will be transmuted into Ojas Shakti (Spiritual Energy and Powers) which will help you in your Sadhana (meditations).

Sadhaka (The Spiritual Aspirant) should always remain alone. This is an important factor in spiritual progress. Mixing with people is dangerous. Solitude for Sadhana (spiritual exercises) is a great desideratum. All energies must be carefully preserved. After a short stay in solitude, aspirants should not enter the world. What they have gained in five years in seclusion through hard Tapas (exercises), will be lost in a month by mixing with worldly people. Several persons have complained to me that they have lost the power of concentration in this manner.

After attaining perfection in Yoga, one can enter the world if he is not affected by the unfavorable, hostile thought currents of the world. There is no harm if you mix with congenial company which is also devoted to Yoga. You can discuss various philosophical points. You can be in the company of higher spiritual personages who have entered into the Samadhi (spiritual state).

Everything must be done gradually. It is very difficult for a man who is in the world to be in entire seclusion.

Most of the difficulties arise in your daily life if you do not have a proper control over your mind. For instance, if a man does evil to you, instantly you want to revenge, to extract tooth for tooth, tit for tat policy; to return anger for anger. Every reaction of evil shows that the mind is not under control. By anger one loses his energy. A balanced state of mind is not possible. From anger all other impurities emanate. Anger transmuted into Love, becomes an energy so powerful as to move the whole world.

If you have the evil habit of drinking whisky, coffee, etc., and if you want to stop it, go to the meditation room and promise before the Deity that you will stop the bad habit from that moment. Proclaim this determination to your friends. If your mind goes to the same habit, you will naturally be ashamed to continue the habit. Several times you will fail. Still struggle hard. Study religious books. You can destroy all impure habits. If you find it very difficult to give up, the last remedy you will have to take is in running away from the present society and you must flee to a place where you cannot get all these. Out of compulsion you can leave the bad habit.

Develop the power of endurance (Titiksha). Learn to bear happiness and misery evenly and to pass through all phases of life and all experiences.

Humility is the highest of all virtues. You can destroy your egotism by developing this virtue alone. You can influence people. You will become a magnet to attract the world. It must be genuine. Feigned humility is hypocrisy. The River is mighty because it humbles itself below the mountain streams.

Control anger by practice of Kshama (concentration), Dhairya, patience and Mirabhimana (profound meditation).

When anger is controlled and replaced by Love, it will be transmuted into an energy by which you can move the whole world. Anger is a modification of passion. If you can control lust, you have already controlled anger. Drink a little water when you become angry. It will cool the brain and calm the excited, irritable nerves. Count twenty, one by one. By the time you finish counting twenty, anger will subside. Watch the small irritable impulse or thought-wave carefully. Then it will become more easy for you to control anger. Take all precautions. Do not allow anger to burst out and assume a wild form. If you find it extremely difficult to control it, go out and walk for half an hour. Pray to God. Meditate. Meditation gives immense strength.

Very often depression and discouragement comes in meditation in beginners owing to the influence of Samskaras (sense impressions), influence of astral entities, bad company, cloudy days, overloaded stomach. It must be removed by cheerful thoughts, a brisk walk, singing His Name, laughing, praying, and deep breathing.

If you want to enter into Samadhi quickly, cut all connections with friends, relatives, and others. Observe Akhanda Mowna (unbroken prayer). Plunge into meditation.

"Disease, mental inactivity, doubt, indifference, laziness, tendency to go after sense-enjoyments, stupor, false perception, non-attainment of concentration and falling away from that when attained on account of restlessness, and the obstructing distraction." (Yoga Sutras I-30).

If a practitioner is gloomy, depressed and weak, surely there is some error in his Sadhana (spiritual practices). If aspirants themselves are gloomy and peevish how can they impart joy, peace and strength to others? A cheerful and ever-smiling countenance is a sure sign of spirituality and Divine life.

Oh emotional, enthusiastic young aspirants! Do your Sadhana (spiritual practices) with patience, persevere until you attain the superconscious state. Master every stage in Yoga. Do not take up any higher courses before you completely master the lower steps.

By continence, devotion to Guru and steady practice, success comes in Yoga after a time. The aspirant should always be patient and persevering.

As soon as Kundalini (The mysterious power in the body) is awakened for the first time, a Yogi gets these six experiences which last for a short time — Ananda, spiritual bliss; Kampan, tremor of the body and limbs; Utthan, rising from the ground; Ghurni, divine intoxication; Murcha, fainting; Nidra, sleep.

Do not stop Sadhana (spiritual practices) when you get a few glimpses and experiences. Continue the practice till you attain perfection.

You can do nothing by a happy-go-lucky life. Draw a programme of daily routine. Then follow to the very letter at any cost. Then you are sure to succeed.

You first separate yourself from the body; then you identify yourself with the mind and then you function on the mental plane. Through concentration, you rise above mind; and finally through Samadhi (The Superconscious State), you reach the goal.

Eliminate fear altogether by constantly raising an opposite current of courage in the mind. Constantly and intently think of courage: Fear is an unnatural, temporary modification on account of Avidya (ignorance).

Do not be carried away by name and fame (Kyati). Ignore all these trivial things. Be steady in your practice. Never stop Sadhana till the final beatitude (bliss) is reached.

Several aspirants in the name of Tapasya neglect the body. All possible care should be taken to keep the body in a healthy condition. A Sadhak should take more care than a worldly man, because it is with this instrument that he has to reach the Goal. At the same time he must be quite unattached to the body. That is the proper ideal.

THE YOGI IDEAL MAN OF CULTURE

The cultured man is one who is developed on all planes. He is sound of body, self-respecting. He lives simply, having amply met the necessities of life and is an accepted member of society. He has curbed his egocentricity to the point where the interests of others are also important. He never, therefore, exhibits a lack of sympathy by imposing on others or boring them.

Emotionally he is what is called objective. His love for others is based on his understanding of their uniqueness. He does not try then to exploit or change others. He encourages them to fulfill their own life patterns. Such a love, based on freedom, is the true meaning of the term "respect." It is never possessive or clinging.

The good-will of a cultured man is genuine. He is warmhearted, sympathetic and has a firm handclasp. He is never envious or vindictive. The envious have, at bottom, a real lack of true compassion for the objects of their envy. This gives their well-meaning attempts to "do good" or to "help others" a wooden quality. They therefore fail because they are not totally sincere.

The cultured man does not doubt his own powers and abilities. He is not plagued by that fear or failure and craving for recognition that characterizes the insecure. He is, therefore, free from irritability, anger and fear.

An uncultured or primitive person gets angry at every attack or criticism because opponents appear powerful or wicked. This is because an unclarified mind represses its own faults and then projects them on all opponents. This creates a terrifying sight indeed. A person of discrimination would say with Kh Krishnamurti, "If he calls me a rascal it should give me insight to find out why he thinks so."

A cultured man is tolerant as he sees other viewpoints than his own. He does not consider it a loss of dignity to freely weigh the arguments of the opposition. He has poise, equilibrium, patience, fearlessness and a sense of order (relativity). Above all, these manifest as serenity.

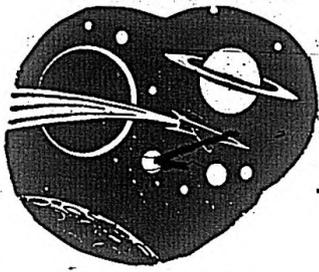

Serenity is more than a social virtue. It is a cosmic attitude. It comes to him who sees the meaning of life and recognizes that there is a divine order. It is an attitude that sees beyond time and space and believes in the law of compensation. I believe that it means that the SUPERCONSCIOUS is active within a man. A man operating on the level of the MORTAL is operating on the level of the "survival of the fittest." He is motivated by envy. His progress means to attain what his immediate superior possesses. He resents both those who have more, and also those who block him from getting what he wants. Such a man cannot love and is always irritated. Others are either a threat to his pride or to his attainment of goals. A man who is in touch with his Superconscious knows theoretically, however, that Spirit means the "instant availability of everything." A sense of power and serenity in his consciousness tells him that he can have anything he wants. He feels secure.

The serene man, then, is one who has connected himself with the Positive Ground of the Universe. He can afford to be calm, fearless, as he realizes that there is no danger to one who knows God's law. Such a man can have anything he wants within that law (that is that does not harm another — which is the whole, including the doer himself).

Such a serene, confident man feels at one with the beauties of nature. He realizes that all manifestations are equally sacred materializations of the One Power operating at different speeds or vibrations. The Chinese called this cultured person "The Princely Man." He is "a follower of the Tao."

THE COIN OF TIME

THE BEGINNING OF TIME saw the beginning of the human race.

Why do I make such a challenging statement?

This is easy to explain. Only when man began to THINK CONSCIOUSLY was there any such conception as the consciousness of time. The animals and the birds have no time-consciousness. Only when they develop into highly organized individual beings does time mean anything at all. Then the animal group-soul or the bird group-soul becomes vaguely conscious of a relationship of hot and cold and of one season with another. As it is, no animal could possibly PLAN to be at any place at any particular time. It is only instinct which carries a flight of ducks south and north again. No individual duck knows what he is about to do except in an instinctive way.

Time, then as such is an exclusive possession of "homo sapiens". Since man did not think until comparatively late in his development it must follow, must it not, that time, as he has understood it, has some invented characteristics . . . some traits peculiar to man. Of course! Time is measured by physical instruments. Instruments man himself invented. Yet time is not physical. Oh no! Not at all. It has many subjective attributes that affect it and which are not measurable at all. Asleep, or in trance, time may speed up immeasurably. This accounts for strange stories of a sage momentarily shutting his eyes and traveling around the world, stopping at some remote corner to investigate and report. These things can be and often are actually carried out.

Take certain hallucination producing drugs, and your time concept indeed may be warped. You will not know if the things you experienced took place in a minute or in several hours. It may seem like the latter, while according to your clock only a few minutes may have elapsed. On the other hand, drug yourself into a somnolent state and you may awaken a day later convinced that only an hour or two has elapsed. Which tells you the truth? Your senses or the clock? Actually your sense of time must pass the final judgment. It is a case of "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's" by eating and sleeping when the clock says you must, while within you retain a true sense of your own relationship to the vast infinitely great and timeless universe.

Your origin has been lost. It goes back so far no one can reckon it. You will live for cycle after cycle, both here and in the never land, until in some remote age in the future your cycle of existence absorbs itself into the infinite. However, for all practical purposes you are going to live forever. Then what about time? It is true the Asiatic religions seem to be non-progressive because of the lack of energy and the lack of urgency. An Asiatic who knows he is part of a vast, timeless universe is not likely to fret so much about a certain number of rupees a year instead of a greater number accruing to him.

On the other hand, he can outstrip the Westerner in the things that go to make up spiritual development; quiet communion and a sense of at-one-ment, not with a God who sits on a throne and allows him one brief and unsatisfactory life span, but with a vast and unlimited, even illimitable God-consciousness which ever was and ever will be.

I do not advocate listless staring into space as a way of life. Just the reverse is true. Since time is a matter of consciousness, after having laid this groundwork, I am going to tell you a way by which you can gather to yourself riches, not of money — anyone can gain money if he is willing to incur karma — but of time itself.

I can see now, however, that this is not necessary. Begin to hoard your days as you would gold pieces, spending each day grudgingly, and being sure to get the maximum return. Or spend your golden days freely. Give them to others. Do courtesies for those who need them. Yet be just as sparing of your days as you are of your purse. If not any other way, spend them in the best of all pursuits. Learn something new . . . something you did not know before. Then your face will be more radiant, your welcome more assured, your reception more glad, as you stand on the steps of the temple that day you finally surrender your outworn cloak and your friends come to greet you. Have you taken time in the past to make as many as you could? I doubt that you did.

Merely take the coin of time and increase it. Spend it wisely. Never throw it to the winds. You will find it coming back to you many times. This, too, is one of life's little mysteries that has been written in sealed books. There are so many I cannot tell, but time and its wise use is not one of them. I bless you, and I pray you will learn to spend your time wisely.

A rosary of golden hours is yours each day. Make each hour a prayer of its own, and your days will know a content and a rich satisfaction you could not know otherwise. The music of contentment will be in your voice and the light of radiant joy in your eye. The dull listlessness of guilt soon will be banished from your body. The new life so often promised in the Bible will begin to be yours.

PROBLEMS!

PROBLEMS!

PROBLEMS!

This world is a glorious place in which to live when you work WITH life vibrations rather than against them.

HELEN FITZSIMMONS helps others solve their problems and strengthen every aspect of their lives through the science of vibration. The numerical value of your name tells a story that is different than any other, and shows you how to solve each problem in your life.

Rev. Robert G. Chaney says of her work: "She has helped me see my own life through clearer eyes and to discover previously undreamed-of possibilities."

For your own personal life vibration study and help with your present problems, send your full name given at birth, your birth date (month, day and year), and Helen Fitzsimmons will show how to take the place in this universe that belongs to you personally.

WE HEAR MORE all the time from spiritual leaders in the community of the deep interest young people are taking in spiritual matters. Many youth programs are under way in high schools, colleges, and spiritual centers where special meditation meetings and deep discussions have served to expand their lives constructively through achieving true spiritual growth. Some of this activity has taken place in the homes, at school, or at public places and via the mass media as well as in song and art.

Mark Age at MetaCenter in Miami has been one center — an exceptional one — to initiate special activities and classes for the youth and young adults, ages from twelve to the mid-twenties, since 1968.

Master discourses, such as those given in their 3-volume booklet, Youth in Action, as well as question and answer sessions, discussions, and sharings of meditation and other experiences have brought phenomenal response by the young people. Their interest, acceptance, participation, grasp and spiritual growth have been astounding, according to the Mark-Age directors. Their desire to work for Spirit and the hierarchal program is a joy to behold. They indeed are representative and symbolic of the hope and promise of the incoming generation which will help lead man of Earth into the fourth dimension during the balance of this century . . . and especially in the 1970s, the spiritual seventies.

An excerpt from the Mark Age booklet referred to above under the caption "All May Attain Light Body This Century" tells what these young people particularly are destined to achieve: "All may attain the light body and deliver truth in its purest form in the limited time left in this century. Do not err in the belief that you are not capable of this highest Earthly attainment, but believe in its possibility. See it in its inevitability and nurture it as you would a small babe. . . . The culmination of this Mark Age period of time (the next thirty years) will find many who have taken advantage of this possibility, have utilized it to the fullest measure and have accepted the crosses which must be borne to give birth, growth and adulthood to a full-blown and full-grown Christ. The intentions of all are pure. The discipline and the willingness, the humility and the givingness may get between many individuals' intention and demonstration. The way between is up to the individual."

(Youth in Action may be ordered from Chimes.)

IF YOU ARE one of the millions of arthritis victims, or if a friend or someone in your family suffers from an arthritic disease, this book can bring new hope into your life. Arthritis is officially considered to be an intractable and almost incurable malady. The most widely accepted treatments, at best, are long-term and slow to bring results. At worst, they are pointless or even harmful. Despite the almost universally pessimistic attitude toward the disease, however, the author of this book, Dr. Bernard Aschner, maintains that arthritis really CAN BE CURED, that painful, prolonged suffering CAN BE ELIMINATED, and that incapacitated persons CAN RETURN to active, useful occupations.

In clear, easy-to-understand language Dr. Aschner tells exactly HOW this may be done, why much publicized wonder drugs have failed, why diet alone cannot cure arthritis, why oil treatments often are ineffective, why the majority of operations are unnecessary, and why he uses the methods he prescribes to cure permanently patients that other physicians have given up as hopeless.

LOBSANG RAMPA

Famous Author and Tibetan Lama

● THIRD EYE, The

1st of the Rampa series of books, and the most famous, it is truly immensely readable and thought provoking, containing highly controversial assertions as to how this mystic came to take on the body of a Tibetan lama in order to do his particular work on Earth.

● DOCTOR FROM LHASA

This is the saga of how Rampa proved that mortal man can discipline his mind and body to survive starvation and torture, yet evolve to ever higher states of consciousness.

● RAMPA STORY, The

A fascinating account of other aspects of this mystic author's strange life, and a look at the unusual spiritual gifts with which he is endowed and how they are put to use for good.

● CAVE OF THE ANCIENTS, The

Rampa's unequalled story revealing his experiences while undergoing spiritual-mystic training at the great lamaseries of Tibet. An eye-opener you will not soon forget!

● YOU - FOREVER

This book amounts to a special course in psychic unfoldment, as well as in metaphysics, written in the ABC's of English which you can put to work instantly. Excerpts from this book have appeared often in Chimes articles.

● WISDOM OF THE ANCIENTS

This is a book of special knowledge containing many special sections valuable for psychic unfoldment training, plus many breathing exercises and special diets.

● SAFFRON ROBE, The

In this account is the incredible personal story of this unusual author's boyhood at the great Lamastery at Potala, Tibet, and how - while there - he acquired the foundation for becoming a renown mystic-seer-teacher.

● CHAPTERS OF LIFE

9th of the series in which Rampa gives the story of the "Coming World Leader" and what it will mean to all of Earth. Included also are instructions on how to meditate and go into trance, answers on whether astral travel is meant for YOU, and prophecies concerning happenings that will dramatically affect the destiny of all nations.

● BEYOND THE TENTH

Newest of the Rampa books in which he explores the spiritual potential in every human being, with advice and teachings on the care of man's physical, astral, and spiritual forms.

so long. Now perhaps I shall do the great things of which I have dreamed." However the second tree did not do great things right then either, for it was not made into a great vessel. Instead it became a tiny fishing boat owned by a simple Galilean name Peter.

The tiny boat was most unhappy. One day it floated near the shore of Lake Gennesaret and pondered while Peter washed his nets. "To think that my life has come to this," it said. "Just a fishing boat, and Peter is not even a very good fisherman at that." But God who loved the little tree said, "Wait. I shall show you something." And He did for . . .

Out of the crowd came a person named Jesus, who entered into the boat and sat down and taught the people. He spoke such words of wisdom and beauty and light that the multitudes, even the little boat, listened intently. When Jesus had finished he told Peter to launch out into the deep water and to let his nets down again. Peter did so, and there were so many fish that the net broke! The little boat trembled, not so much with the weight of the fish, as with the weight of the wonder in it's heart. "This is wonderful," it whispered, "in all my dreams I never thought of carrying a cargo like this. Why, I am part of a miracle! This is better than all my planning and dreams." And all the other trees in the forest clapped their leaves (hands) too, for the boat had realized the longing of its heart.

Weeks went by and the men came again to the forest to cut down the third tree. This was the one that just wanted to stand on a hill and point to God. "I don't want to go into the valley," it thought. "Why couldn't the men have just left me alone?" But the men did not leave the little tree alone. They tore away its branches, hewed it apart, and put it together again in the form of a cross. The little tree quivered all through its being. "This is just terrible," it whispered, "they are going to hang someone on me. Oh, I never wanted this to happen to me - I only wanted to point to God! This is awful!" But God who loved the tree said, "Wait. I shall show you a miracle." And He did for . . .

One day, just outside of Jerusalem, a great multitude had gathered. In their midst was Jesus. Beside Him lay the cross. They led Him away, and soon seized a fellow coming out of the country named Simon, a Cyrenian. On him they laid the cross that he might carry it along the road for Jesus. The cross shuddered beneath its weight with agony and shame.

Then suddenly a miracle happened.

Jesus, after crying out in a loud voice, yielded up the ghost . . . and behold the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were rent. When the Centurion and those who were watching Jesus saw these things happen, they feared greatly, saying, "Truly, this was the Son of God."

The little tree which had become a cross heard floating down from the Heavenly spheres the echo of a remembered promise:

"This was the judgment of the world. Now shall the prince of this world be cast out, and I, if I shall be lifted up, shall draw all men unto me."

And so the little cross began to understand, "This is wonderful!" it whispered. "I am part of a miracle! In all of my dreams I had never thought of pointing to God in THIS way."

All of the other trees in the forest then clapped their hands and thanked God that their brother and friend had realized his dream . . . one much more wonderful than he had ever expected.

As each Christmas season draws near, we are reminded of the greatest of all gifts . . . the gift of Jesus - that great Soul who came to teach us of Life and its beautiful truths.

QUICKENING VIBRATIONS

WITH THE QUICKENING vibration of man, physical matter will be changed. Slowly it is changing now. Presently it will change very rapidly and there will be an etherealization of the whole Earth; humanity itself will be etherealized and spiritualized, and then there will be no more death and decay as you know it today.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL YOU MAY HAVE MISSED

An astounding account of men who perform major operations with their bare hands — with no tools — in a new form of healing.

Here is a hard-hitting report on a most controversial subject — psychic surgery — given by an honest, impartial reporter on psychic phenomena . . . Harold Sherman.

In his book, WONDER HEALERS OF THE PHILIPPINES, you will read the whole inside story of these amazing men — the "pro and con" of what they do, how they do it, and to what avail. Those who have read it say, "I just couldn't put it down until I finished it!"

NO PROBLEM TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL FOR SINCERE HELP

WHO SAID IT?

Muriel Noyes Gillchrest said it in her book, Your Treasure Within. Here is a book that "turns you on" by giving you a better outlook and developing your insight, teaches you why harmony and progress are laws of life, and how much easier it is to go forward than backward. It helps you to put responsibility where it belongs, shows you the right motivation for all you do, gives you a greater degree of understanding of Life's purposes and shows you what kind of wonderful thoughts cover up your wonderful treasures within.

GOLDEN AGE OF AQUARIUS

MARK AGE
PERIOD AND PROGRAM

"Mark Age Period and Program" presents the basic information needed to enter the Golden Age of Aquarius. An entirely new level of evolvement is about to manifest in this New Age for Earth and all on it, so man must quickly come to know and express himself or herself as a spiritual being if he or she is to participate in this new Heaven and new Earth.

The Mark Age period is that forty-year period, known also as the latter days, which since 1960 has been ushering in the New or Aquarian Age, the Golden Era. It is the transition period wherein man must cleanse himself – and the Earth – sufficiently to permit entry into the FOURTH DIMENSION – a new mental and physical dimension of spiritual life.

The Mark Age program is a plan instituted by the Hierarchal Board, the spiritual governing body of the solar system, to help man of Earth rise into his spiritual consciousness. Begun 26,000 years ago, it will be completed successfully by 2000 A.D. Not yet known is how many of us will make the graduation into this glorious New Age.
