A message from the Master BAN-DHU as to why ...

In these days of changing times on your planet, many are being born to it who are being prepared for future spiritual leadership. As these young beings grow and gather wisdom they will appear to certain ones as being 'strange', differing in their views. They will have far less concern for material accumulation.

There will be those, of course, who will misinterpret their motives ... but I must tell you this: many who are dwelling in your Western sectors are such young men and women who, in a lifetime past, dwelt in far Eastern areas of India, Japan, Malaysia, Thailand, etc., and who were Holy Men, devoted solely to the practice of spiritual pursuits. They served their brethren then in a spiritual capacity, dropping gems of wisdom here and there. They were content to sit by the-side of the road with their beggars' bowls asking only to be of service to the soul-hungry.

Now, many of these have incarnated again, but in this lifetime they have chosen a Western sector, in many cases, for it is in the West that such quiet spirituality is needed! If you meet one of these — a devoted self-realized saint — do not cast your judgment on him, but help him to realize the role he has chosen to perform.

Many of these young beings have come to foreign territory after many lifetimes in the East and find it most difficult to find their true identity because of the ignorance of many they meet, of the lack of wisdom even those they live with possess! So they flounder for many years, wasting precious time while they experiment with many methods to bring forward their true identity.

Be patient with these ones. Aid them, you who have received enlightenment, and see through all the rags and riches into the holy souls beneath that are trying to burst out of their shells! Encourage their valiant efforts toward Self-Realization. Do not cast boulders in their way, making their journey more difficult. Understand their need for simple clothes, for hair and face styles typical of the ancient East, for remember, they are reincarnated Eastern souls, who, in time, will bring wisdom of the Masters to you.

Some of you may wonder if all these unusual beings are such dedicated souls. No, it cannot be said so ... but you must not be the judge; you are not qualified. Know this: the Hierarchy will sift carefully the chaff from the wheat, and the chaff will be put to one side and not permitted to hamper the work of the Beloved.

There is a desperate need for spiritual change on Earth, especially in Western sectors, if balance is to be restored. Many of you who are in these areas who once were members of Eastern cultures ages ago are being prepared for the larger work to come. You are workers coming from all age groups and must be willing and prepared to assist the younger ones who are preparing themselves to join the corps of workers for the Hierarchy.

The foregoing message is based on excerpts from New Age Teachings by Illiana of Brookfield, Massachusetts. Rev. Wayne H. Taylor of the City-of-the-Sun Foundation, Columbus, New Mexico replies to this message as he sees it.

The 'non-conformed individualists referred to above are our so-called 'hippies'. Their ways of life, their long hair, their clanish nature, their seeming lack of order in their personal ways, the desire of many of them to go barefoot, and oftentimes their aversion to participate in our industrial, social and political ways of life, indeed have helped them to create a wall around themselves. Yet they can't seem to help it, for they were born that way.

They were born of average, normal parents in our Western nations, but they were 'rebellious' even as small children. Usually they gave their parents a 'hard time', for neither they nor their parents understood each other.

The Master Ban-Dhu has explained that they spent their last several lifetimes in India or other far-Eastern countries. In that part of the world long hair, bare feet, poverty, lack of many of the material things of life, or even worldly ambitions, were part of the normal way of life for them. But they did have an awareness of their oneness with God, and they had love and peace in their hearts. They were men of wisdom, holy men who gave counsel to their fellow men as they gathered together under a banyan tree or met one another along the dusty roads.

Many years ago Paramahansa Yogananda came to the United States to bring the Wisdom of the East to this country. In his widely-read book, *Autobiography of a Yogi, he made a comparison of the spiritual teachings of the East with those of the West. He said the people of the Eastern cultures have much to learn from the West, and the people of the Western countries have much to learn about the laws of God, disciplines of the mind and body — meditation, inner awakening, etc., as taught and practiced in the East. We in the West have learned to harness the forces in the electron and the atom, to generate power, and to create many things for the benefit of mankind. We call this science and industry. We have learned to work with nature to grow our food in better quality, variety and abundance with a minimum of daily toil.

Unfortunately, in the West, man's scientific and material advancements have far outpaced his spiritual development. We have become entirely too materialistic. This has led to sensuality, greed and degeneration. Similar conditions always preceded the fall and destruction of every advanced civilization in the past, and already we have reached the 'point of no return' in this present age as well. The old order soon will be no more.

In accordance with the divine scheme of things, a great migration of the holy people from the East to the Western sectors of the world gradually is taking place, not through the transporting of their physical bodies but, through re-birth. These holy people are re-incarnating in the West for two reasons. One is to bring the wisdom of the East to the West, and the other is to bring balance into their own understanding by learning from the West how to be creative in a material way and to become orderly and industrious at the same time.

I am privileged to know some of these young people who have learned their true identity and whose hearts are full of divine love for others, and whose spiritual understanding and wisdom would be a credit to people of our generation several times their own age. Some are publishing New Age magazines that are distributed by the thousands to their long-haired friends, in the language and style that they can readily understand. These 'new people' are hungry for the truth and fast are reclaiming the heritage of great spiritual knowledge and wisdom that lies dormant within their sub-conscious minds. In the years ahead, many of them will make important contributions to the spiritual awakening of people in the Western world.

SIGHTINGS • LOW-LEVEL CONTACTS

Part VI

BRAZIL — November 24 — 27 and 29, 1970. Hundreds of observers, many of whom were quoted in a report by the Center for Investigation of UFOs, pointed toward a mother ship and many scout ships which skimmed over Belo Horizonte and much of the state of Minas Gerais. At one point they emitted light rays which kept the observers from approaching the craft too closely, probably for their own safety.

The respectable scientific head of this Brazilian Center, Hulvio Brandt Alexo, stated, "The consistency of the information, coming from many responsible people, the clear perception of strange characteristics, the duration of the phenomenon over a wide area are factors which exclude the hypothesis of illusion of self-deception."

For the past fifteen years Brazilian papers continually and openly have reported these sightings, which now amount to several thousand.

NEW YORK CITY — December 1, 1970. The United Press International issued a report that flying saucers were seen over Central Park by heavyweight boxer Muhammad Ali (Cassius Clay) and a UPI reporter.

The objects were "round, somewhat foreshortened, with a dark silhouette surrounded by a thin glow, emitting luminous jet trails, with sudden starts and accelerations, of a size more or less that of the moon as seen from Earth." The description coincided with the ones described in Brazil a few days earlier.

MEXICO — November 5, 1970. While fishing at Cholla Bay, Albert Formiller of Phoenix, Arizona noticed a light in the sky which seemed to come towards him. It was round and saucer shaped. It was quiet. There was no wind blowing and the sea had no surf noise.

The UFO appeared to stop and hover about two or three hundred feet above the water. Then it turned on a searchlight from the bottom and illuminated a spot about half a mile across. The light extended almost to the shore. Formiller was standing about five feet from the water's edge. After five minutes it turned off the searchlight and turned on a similar light from the top, illuminating the upper part of a cloud.

The vehicle was observed for twenty minutes while it moved west. Other lights on the ship were visible, which gave the cloud a green cast. The following morning Formiller asked other fishermen nearby if they saw the light in the air. Many said they did.

AUSTRALIA — November — December, 1970. Mine workers at the desert town of Meekatharra, in the heart of Australia's boom prospecting areas, reported that flying saucers had been watching them at work on December 8th.

An orange-and-white "thing" hovered and hissed for two hours in the sky over an open-cut copper mine to the east of the town 500 miles northeast of Perth.

Tom Murphy, the mining camp supervisor, is quoted, "It was first sighted by nightshift workers ... they woke their workmates and we all watched it up there in the sky."

According to Department of Civil Aviation officials, "This coincides with the same descriptions of flying objects which have been reported in the same area during the past few weeks."

OKLAHOMA — December 1, 1970. A bright luminous light escorted Jack Goss' truck from Wagoner to Tahlequah about 5 a.m. "It was just about as high as the tallest buildings in Wagoner. I thought it was the landing lights on an airplane." When he picked up another trucker, Otis Hodge, it paralleled and followed them, hovering about 200 feet to the right of the truck.

At one point they called it to the attention of a paperboy, who also observed it. Two others, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roundtree, watched it while it would shoot ahead, then zoom back to follow the truck, stopping with it from time to time. Said Mr. Goss, "I wasn't afraid of it, only wished I could have a closer look. If someone was in there, I would sure like to talk to them."

Mark-Age believes the most recent UFO sightings, from late 1970 through early 1971, reported from all around the world, indicate that sooner or later these intelligently manned craft are going to land and make person-to-person contact with Earthlings. More of this will be forthcoming in future issues of Chimes.

THE END OF THE ROPE

Have your thoughts ever told you that you were "at the end of your rope"? Do you know that this is where you LET GO, and LET GOD? Do you know that "man's extremity is God's opportunity"?

There comes a time in everyone's experience, and maybe more than one time, when such a condition appears, and our first feeling is one of disaster, dismay and anguish. We really should rejoice and give thanks that at last God has His opportunity, and be happy about our growing ability to improve in all ways whatever requires such improvement.

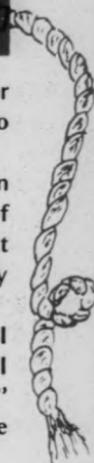

I remember well one day when that "end of the rope" was what I faced, and something inside reminded me, "This is where God comes in." I asked, "Just what do I mean when I think of God? What is God, anyway?"

This is what came: "God is the Creator of all that is. A 'creator' is one who originates something. In the beginning, God."

My thought went from the tiniest, most infinitesimal spot of living matter, to the great galaxy of heavenly bodies. Something of vast intelligence brought all this into being, put the earth in just the right place from the sun, and caused it to revolve as it did so that it didn't burn up on one side and freeze on the other. Yes, it was a Cosmic Power, an originating creative power out of which every element, every kind of energy, all intelligence has come, and it is called Deity, or we call it "God". Every religious book of the world attests to this, as well as that mankind is made in its image and likeness ... meaning, of course, that within mankind is all that IT is, all the elements, plus the intelligence to sustain, maintain and keep it developing.

I discerned that a human being was something like water coming out of a water-tap, and that as long as the water wasn't shut off at the source, a human would continue to develop and grow, showing ever more of the attributes of his Maker, and the human who didn't believe in God, or thought there was nothing "out there" or anywhere to help him, was apt to experience what takes place when the water power is shut off from its source, and only was what was left in the pipes. It was a fascinating concept.

To have a creative power — but on a smaller scale, of course — in order to have this power increase, one would have to realize how close he was to the Greater Power. In order to discern this, one would have to realize, that is see with his Real Eyes, that he came from Something or Somewhere!

by Muriel Noyes Gillchrest

The words, "Call no man on earth your Father, for one is your Father, which art in heaven" bounced into my head. "Why, of course," everything inside me said, "this Life is Spirit and God is Spirit." That made every living thing the offspring of Spirit, this originating Cosmic Power.

The Great Master had said, "It is done unto you as you believe." I now perceived that many of my beliefs had come from what others' actions portrayed, as well as what I had heard, and various opinions. But I didn't have to believe that way, did I? Nobody was hitting me over the head and making me believe that; no, I could shove all that aside and think Truth, that only the Good was the Real.

This Originating Cosmic Power was the Allness, and I was already intimately connected with this Creative Mind, for IT had created me out of Itself! All that was required of me was to remember this.

I thought of all the talk of Atomic Power and how much damage might be done with it, and knew that it was only a small part of what this Universal Mind is. This All-originating Cosmic Power – being the Only Intelligence – was the Universal Mind, and IT quite logically wasn't allowing anything within its creation to delay, prevent, or hamper Its continued expression!

What a joyous feeling that was! There was nothing to fear, but everything to be gained. This Universal Mind is where the infinite good is, and also where the individual mind is (for there is no place else for it to be) and those who have sufficiently developed an awareness of this recognize this as a wealth of indwelling substance. Others are still asking, "How do you do it?"

Often it is done by simply changing an attitude. Of course, to do that, you alter some thought. The thought might be, "I am abused, mistreated and not understood," in which case the thought would be changed to, "I am divinely blessed, for I am loved and helped right now." Should the thought be, "There is some other power at work, unlike God," I would change that to, "That's impossible for I know God to be the ONLY Power. His Will is being done."

The intellect – our sense-level thinking – often tells us there is no way our need of the moment can be met, and we wonder if God is punishing us for some error, made in ignorance, or carelessness. But a little more thought on this tells us that God is NOT a punisher, but Love, the Giver of Good. Right then, we get the feeling of appreciation, a gratitude for all that has been given up to now. Is God, forever pouring out His gifts of good, going to cease doing so? No . . . that is not His Nature.

Our attitude now becomes one of acceptance, a kind of receptivity, and an expectation. We don't look for anything in the outer world of effect, but rather for an idea. As the idea hits, or falls into that realm of mental substance where we believed in a lack of good, it will and does manifest, every time. Harmony prevails because Harmony is a Law of Life.

Your Treasure Within by the author teaches you, as she does here, how harmony in your life is the best guarantee of every progression – another Chimes selection.

Spiritual Break

While the rest of the world grows more cynical and the public schools prohibit the recitation of prayers, the State of Florida Department of Transportation has an early morning "Spiritual Break". Employees arrive in Fort Lauderdale at the nine-county jurisdictional headquarters one-half hour early to visit the building Chapel for a non-denominational prayer meeting. Each employee asks for divine guidance and gives thanks for blessings received. In a pressurized environment where the decision-makers live and the demanding atmosphere of day-to-day demands need to be met, these working people turn to the Almighty for guidance and help.

Making Our Own Prisons

Too often children of Earth make karma their prison. It is true that karma is a reality of physical existence ... and you might say it is a "prison", but it is for you to break out of that prison, not to be chained there forever ... Once you realize that you are in the midst of a karmic situation, then you must do all possible to overcome and eradicate it, thus taking one more step toward spiritual advancement. The very purpose of karma in one's existence is for self-improvement, self-realization.

Aid Those Who Pass On

All on Earth have no conception of how much they help or hold back those who make the transition, or so-called death. You absolutely must cooperate with ones you know have departed or have taken the journey. It is absolutely essential, because every single soul from the Earth plane who does make the transition must relate to the Earth plane during the period of time when making the adjustment. They cannot possibly come into this dimension to cut off all contact with the Earth.

They must relate to the Earth plane; they must have connections with family, friends, business associates and dearly loved ones of every degree and dimension. It helps in making them realize the variation of dimension ... They must have a relationship; in other words, prayer and thought ... Regardless of what your personal feelings or relationships might be at the time of the transition, you must give them good thoughts to carry with them so they can go on and make the linkage, and eventually sever the Earth plane relationship.

EATING FOR HEALTH

The exponents of natural and health foods have for years been bemoaning the fact that our foods have been devitalized and refined, and much of the nutritive content thus removed and wasted. We do not intend in this article to pay more than passing tribute to this opinion by way of saying that we basically agree with it — the facts having been voluminously documented, and being available, not completely without controversy, for all who are concerned to read and consider. We shall rather herein treat some individual instances in our own experience regarding packaging, processing, and the addition of various preservatives to food products.

First and foremost on our list of pet peeves is the almost universal use of various preservatives in the food that one finds on the supermarket shelves nowadays. We know those who do not buy any of their food at an ordinary supermarket any longer, but get it entirely from health food and organic outlets — a procedure which is recommended for any who can afford it. More and more now, one finds the compounds known as BHA and BHT used as antioxidants. If you are buying breakfast cereal you will be hard pressed to find one which does not contain these compounds. A little research into the entity known as BHA reveals that the full name is Butylated Hydroxy Anisole. The word "butylated" indicates that there has been introduced into the produce a butyl compound, which is one that is derived from butanes. So we see that we are dealing with a petroleum product (not that this is anything new, since many synthetic flavors are derived from such sources), but we do not generally think of such products as being something which we would like to consume in quantity. The argument of the industry is, of course, that they are used in such small quantities as not to be harmful, but in view of their almost universal use, and considering the total quantity one might consume over a period of time, we think this point is highly debatable. We found that the compounds known as BHA and BHT have been outlawed in Britain, and of course this brings up again the question of just how effective a guardian of the public's health the Food and Drug Administration is in this country. There is widespread contention that synthetic substances, preservatives and sprays are cancer-producing. Whether this is so or not, I think there is ample reason for avoiding them. My general practice is to buy nothing which is labeled as containing BHA or BHT. Also, in view of all the recent adverse publicity concerning the possible ill effects of monosodium glutamate, I try to avoid this compound as well, but its use is so universal in packaged foods that this is much more difficult. Those who have the time and inclination to do so should raise their voices in protest through letters to Congressmen, the FDA, food manufacturers, newspapers, magazines, etc. Already there is some evidence that the voice of protest is being heard — as witness the fact that Safeway Stores, for instance, have discontinued the use of preservatives in most of their variety breads, and this fact is prominently stated on the wrappers.

We look forward to the day when one who is concerned for the health and safety of his family will not have to pay double prices for his food at a health food or specialty store. Please do not take this as a criticism of these businesses — they are, for the most part, doing a service for humanity, and the usually higher prices are a natural result of the realities of a business which serves a minority of the consumers. Paradoxically, we frequently find an item of organic fruit or vegetables at one of these outlets specializing in such items which is priced lower than a comparable non-organic item at a chain market. There is an economic reason for this, of course. The small grower often, because of smaller demand, or because of the small quantity he has for sale, has trouble finding a ready buyer, so must sell at a less favorable price — and this despite the fact that he has a superior product. A large chain must do business with someone who can supply in huge quantities, of course, so very few organic items are available in this type of store. A promising sign, however, is that organic juices are now being carried in most of the large supermarket chains (at least in the West Coast area). This is another indication of the recognition of the public concern over the preservative and pesticide problems, and though it may be only a drop in the bucket, still it is a straw in the wind and a step in the right direction.

As we see it, the chief end accomplished by the use of preservative compounds and processes is to increase the shelf life of the article, for the economic advantage of the manufacturer, distributor and retailer. There is certainly no objection to this so long as that which is done is not harmful, but that is definitely not the case these days. We understand that milk products are being sterilized now in order to give them a shelf life of approximately one month — more and more we approach the point where nothing has to be "fresh" any more. Perhaps with the increased use of BHA, BHT and other preservatives, we will eventually find the secret of how the Egyptians preserved their mummies, with the consuming public assuming the role of "Exhibit A".

ABOUT VEGETARIANISM: While we stress vegetarianism in this column, we do so recognizing that vegetarianism is not everyone's dish, and there are many people who cannot or should not become vegetarians for one reason or another, usually medical reasons. We recommend the orientation of everyone's diet in the direction of increasing the ratio of fruits and vegetables and decreasing the intake of meats and starches. An ideal way to accomplish this is to serve main dishes which are rich in protein but do not contain meat. Many examples of such dishes are to be found in vegetarian cookbooks. One which is available from Chimes is the COMPLETE VEGETARIAN RECIPE BOOK by Ivan Baker, published in England. This book has probably the most comprehensive collection of lentil recipes that we have seen. The lentil most certainly does not enjoy the prominence it deserves in the field of legumes, considering its nutritive value and its advantages over its cousins of the bean family.

Daily Power

FOR JOYFUL LIVING*

LOVE ... MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND

Love has been talked about many times. It is probably the most ancient of spiritual themes. As we talk about love, let's have love in our hearts. This is the only way we can have any conviction of what love is. Think of any part of God — understanding, benevolent goodness, creative power, completeness, a loving compassionate nature, a higher self, a guiding intelligence of life, inspiration. We are actually defining here over and over again the nature of love.

The primary lesson of life is to learn to love: to be kind, to be fair, to be just, to be compassionate, to be sympathetic, in every kind of situation, no matter what the reasons seem to be for being otherwise. Jesus lived love. Love is the basic teaching of Christianity. If we have love, we don't need anything else. By the same token, it doesn't matter what else we have. If we do not have love, it isn't enough. We must learn to love here and now. We must release past glories and past mistakes. We must love the people around us and the ideas that come into our minds today. If we know how to love, everything will come to us. We do not have to settle for half measures. Our environment is an expression of our inner consciousness. Our world is a projection of our love.

PERSONAL TREATMENT FOR GUIDANCE AND DIRECTION

I am attuned to the Inner Reality. I am immersed in total experience. I am one with God. I flow with Life. I experience all wonderful things. I express my true self, I live. I know. I love. I am. And so it is.

FROM THE BIBLE

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

— John 13:35

GREAT THINKERS — PAST AND PRESENT

It is a beautiful necessity of our nature to love something.

—Douglas Jerrold

DAILY AFFIRMATIONS

I express love toward everyone and in everything I do.

I love God with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my strength, and with all my soul.

I love my neighbor as myself.

I love my work.

I love life and I love to live.

The healing flow of love motivates my life today and every day.

How Meditation WORKS For You

by Bob Spiegel

Aquarian Meditation Society, Houston, Texas

Does meditation really work? Must one be an Oriental to practice meditation? How fast can one expect to see results?

These and other such questions have been asked by Westerners ever since meditation became known in this part of the world. Most Far Easterners do not bother with such questions; they just do it and the results speak for themselves.

Of course a Western mind will be quick to retaliate with: then why is the Far East in such a state of poverty and chaos? The answer is: Even though most Far Easterners do meditate, they do not have proper guidance and supervision. Therefore their subjective minds, which have been trained to accept poverty and limitation, influence their meditations. Collectively this results in poverty. They believe, in most cases, that it is virtuous or spiritual to be poverty stricken. Most of them consequently are contented, even though living in dire circumstances.

WHAT IS TRUTH?

All great masters and sages have understood that meditation is a way in which to connect oneself with the Infinite Power of all creation. When this connection is made, health, wealth, peace, and wisdom is a natural result. The difficulty, of course, is in making the right connection.

The mind must become one-pointed. In other words, the mind must be trained to remove every obstacle, such as ... fear, worry, hate, prejudice, self-pity, envy, etc., allowing the magnetic field of the individual to merge with the magnetic field of the Infinite. This is just another way of expressing scientifically the truth of the Master: "I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me." Take TV as an example. If you want to tune in to a certain program, you turn the dial to that specific channel. What would happen if all the channels came in together on one station? Nothing but confusion would result.

In the same instance, how can you expect harmony in your life when you refuse to let go of your preconceived ideas of lack and limitation? You must begin to let go of all negative and destructive thinking before you can even begin to meditate properly.

HOW TO MAKE IT WORK FOR YOU

There are five basic steps one must take in order to tap the universal source. Here they are:

1. You must believe that there is a power greater than you are residing within you. To prove this, let us try an experiment: Start rubbing your hands together for about a minute. Now hold them approximately three inches apart, facing each other. Do you feel the magnetic pull and tingling sensation? This is the electromagnetic energy in you. Does this not prove there is a greater power in you? Now believe it!

2. You must believe that this power is yours to use. As a matter of fact, this power is YOU. What's the sense of knowing there is power if it cannot be used? Because of past religious training, many fear this power rather than respect and use it correctly. This power was made for you as a child of the universe so that you may have happiness, abundance, health and joy in your life.

If we did not use the power of electricity, what good would it do us? Man has dominion over all things, and, as such, has the capacity to change his life by first changing his thoughts. Believe with all your heart that you have command over all power.

3. Sit down where you will be comfortable, without disturbance, for about fifteen minutes. Do not fight your thoughts, but every time a negative thought comes to you, imagine it is a monkey on a tree. Pluck it out of the tree and put it in a sack. Keep doing this for a while in a calm, relaxed way. You will notice as time goes by that negative thoughts will come less and less. You are training your mind to become one-pointed. That's where the power is. When your mind can think in one direction for a long period of time, you will have attained mastery over your mind.

4. Take six complete breaths. By complete breaths I mean to inhale deeply through your nose. Now exhale completely and deeply through your nose ONLY. This will relax you, make you peaceful. It will cause your blood to circulate properly. It will cause fresh oxygen to go to your brain recharging you, regenerating you.

5. Take a truth statement which means something to you, such as: "I and my Father are one," or "I am a child of the universe," or "I am an open channel for the manifestation of all good." Let these words gently soak into your subconscious mind. Do not force or coerce. Even if you have a so-called serious problem, do not think of it. Just know that the Infinite Power within you knows about your problem, and what you are doing, and will resolve it. You must have complete faith in this. Stay in meditation for as long as you desire. When you are finished, go about your business with a happy heart. Do not concern yourself as to whether or not the meditation is going to work. Your Father Who heareth you in secret will reward you openly.

The important thing is to PRACTICE, PRACTICE, PRACTICE ... every morning and evening if possible. Do NOT, I repeat, do NOT look for results. The results will come forth in due time. Put your faith in the Infinite. Tune in correctly. You will not be disappointed. Bless you, and more power to you!

A good many Chimes readers have written how inspired and helped they were by the book The Art of Meditation by Joel S. Goldsmith. This could provide additional pointers that would make your meditation periods much more meaningful — a Chimes book.

BOOK TALK

THERE'S A FEELING about some books that stays with you, intimately, for years and years. You are never really able to release them after you have finished the last page. At some of the oddest moments an idea or an event from one of its pages suddenly seizes you and instantly you relive that moment. There aren't too many "story" books like this in the metaphysical/occult/psychic field (that are good) ... although it does seem odd that this is true, considering the intriguing and often dramatic nature of these subjects. But there is ONE book that students don't forget ... one usually hard to burrow into at first because of the new and strange terminology relating to the life and times of Atlantis ... but it is one that certainly has had its impact over the years. We are speaking of the book dictated from Spirit often referred to as a classic in its field — A Dweller on Two Planets by Phyllos. As gripping as any great novel should be, it is also most deft in illustrating the deeper principles of reincarnation, esoteric truth and wisdom of the ages, as well as various astounding occult manifestations. Yet it also reads like science fiction in that many of the things when it was written in the 1860's were not yet in use or invented, and many are, of course, yet to come (like the veil that travels under the water, on the water, and in the air). You'll run across people who might first have read this book, say ... forty years ago, and have reread it every few years ever since then. Because of the current interest in Atlantis, and the supposition that this is a time cycle when many Atlantean souls have reincarnated to pay up or meet karma out of the past, it has a very stirring message.

ANOTHER VERY CHALLENGING IDEA is presented in the book by Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie, now back in print, entitled Second Book of Acts. Here the principle of reincarnation is illustrated in the life of Mary, a master soul who came to Earth for the specific mission of being the vehicle for bringing into manifestation on Earth the soul known as Jesus. It isn't customary that we would wonder who she was before her life as Mary, or what she has been doing since then. Deservedly, Mary is predicted to have a most unique role to play having to do with the feminine influence, communication with other worlds, and the evolution of Man on Earth for the balance of this century at least. A somewhat unusual look at Mary, and the disciples, you won't forget. Til soon again ...

Speaking of Life and the Reality of Life, the Master said:

"Man is like the foam of the sea, that floats upon the surface of the water. When the wind blows, it vanishes, as if it had never been. Thus are our lives blown away by Death ...

"The Reality of Life is Life itself, whose beginning is not in the womb, and whose ending is not in the grave. For the years that pass are naught but a moment in eternal life; and the world of matter and all in it is but a dream compared to the awakening which we call the terror of Death ...

There, in the world to come, we shall see and feel all the vibrations of our feelings and the motions of our hearts. We shall understand the meaning of the divinity within us, whom we condemn because we are prompted by Despair."

In the remarkable "psychic age" just ahead we are destined to witness some remarkable discoveries by science and medicine, as well as those from the world's great archives, the Great Pyramid and the Sphinx.

Inner Teachings

YOU A TEACHER?

All are teachers, just as all are students. Wherever we might be, and whatever we might be doing ... no one stops learning in this dimension.

Sananda, who was Jesus the Christ, tells us:

"The education of spiritual matters onto the Earth long has been at work, and also long overdue, upon the Earth. Too long has man striven for knowledge of lesser things and expressions and phenomena. Not enough effort has been made toward the highest expression of all: bringing forth the God within each person."

This is the time ... all of us must become aware that we are teaching and truly begin to teach, even when not knowing the perfect expression on Earth. You must teach wherever you are, however best you can the highest of which you are capable. Here is your opportunity through Chimes ... INNER TEACHINGS from the White Brotherhood. 74 Soul Teaching lessons – "Light on the Science of Living" – ordered in groups of 5 – are a mental, physical and spiritual awakener.

Look at this SMALL PORTION of 74 lesson titles for an inkling of what they can teach you and others about HOW TO LIVE ...

- Chapter 46 – New Habits of Exercise (Glandular stimulation)
Chapter 47 – How to Know Your True Self – How to Know the Christ – How to Know God
Chapter 48 – Forty Laws of Life (How you can benefit from knowing them)

The late Dr. Reginald Mills

... Do you think it strange that Mary, the mother of Jesus, should teach the return of Souls to this world?

... Do you know that some books of the New Testament represent this teaching as the current belief of the day in Palestine in the time of Jesus — a belief uttered by Him, Herod, and the common people?

... Before she made her ascension at 83, are you aware that Mary taught the Disciples that man is to learn who he has been, individually and as a race, what his present status is, and where he can go from this point?

... Have you ever thought of Mary as a medium in that lifetime as Jesus' mother — which she was as she communicated with, traveled to, and saw into the higher dimensions?

Second Book of Acts

discovered and translated by Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie provides these answers.

Here you will learn of the six concurrent lives of Mary and Jesus and how they are to lead man on Earth into the federation of planets of this System by the year 2000 A.D.

worldwide network of light

This spring of 1972 Mark-Age inaugurates a coordinated worldwide program of weekly meditations via tapes in order to link light workers together, regardless of their affiliation with other New Age light centers, organizations, churches or home-study courses.

The main spiritual purpose is to link with the power of love and light through prayer, meditation, decrees and visualizations. In the unity of concentrated meditation there is the strength for New Age light workers to change our world.

SUCCESSFUL EXPERIENCE

Via a fifteen-minute taped talk on cassettes, the Mark-Age leaders, with their twelve years of experienced guidance and inspiration from the spiritual government of our solar system, will:

- Discuss world conditions from a spiritual viewpoint,
- Teach new techniques for breaking down old Piscean crystallizations,
- Build up new Aquarian concepts for each one and the world,
- Share activities of other spiritual groups and centers,
- Give prophecies and help in your development of ESP,
- Reveal the latest developments in the Hierarchy's spiritual plan for our planet Earth.

Mark-Age does not work with formalized decrees or set patterns. Each one in his own consciousness, during God contact and inspiration, is expected to centralize the light in himself and in his own community and affairs. Therefore, this is not a controlled meditation but a guided concentration by light workers on Earth toward the same themes each week.

HOW IT WORKS

Each cassette contains two weekly sessions of fifteen minutes or more as a lead-in to a half hour or more of silent meditation. This permits individuals, family units, study groups, church and New Age organizations who pray and meditate together on a weekly basis to link together in consciousness and to help build a focus of light around the entire planet in order to channel spiritual energies for the Second Coming.

The Second Coming is the return of each one's own higher Self or Christ consciousness and the return of the Christ or the Prince of this planet, He who on the spiritual Hierarchical Board of our solar system is called Sananda, known as Jesus of Nazareth in His last Earth incarnation.

These meetings are coordinated interdimensionally as well. This means that all who participate anywhere in the world will be joined and will be aided by those of other realms who are part of this project, and who in many cases are contributing information and topics contained in these meditation meetings.

If the participating groups, churches, centers or individuals have no other special program of their own to follow this meditation portion of their meetings, in late spring or early summer of 1972 Mark-Age will be augmenting the meditation program with taped lectures, courses and discussions.

Also, there never has been such a wide variety of books, booklets and brochures available on spiritual and New Age subjects as can be obtained easily now through Mark-Age and Chimes, as well as many other light centers of the world.

MASS EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

From 1972 through 1983 the spiritual Hierarchy will be concentrating its efforts on a mass educational program through those light groups and individuals who are preparing for the Aquarian Age and the Second Coming.

This new taped meditation program offers each light group and light server on Earth an opportunity therefore to become an educational center. Short inspired talks, discussions and lectures are available for individual and group listening for as many and as often as possible.

All cassettes are duplicated on quality tapes at Mark-Age headquarters. They are sent by first-class mail in the continental U.S.A. and by air mail elsewhere. This is not a profit-making program, so the costs are kept to a minimum.

Detailed suggestions are available on how each one and each group can contribute to the costs of this program and to expand it. Write for the eight-page, descriptive brochure, Mark-Age Meditations. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to: Mark-Age, 327 NE 20 Terrace, Miami, FL. 33137.

Chimes is in accord with the intentions presented above and plan to participate in this coordinated meditation program. We would welcome those groups and individuals who are Chimes readers to look into this linking of lights.

Editorial Note: Chimes is in complete accord with the establishment of a network of light workers who can be reached quickly and who will work together as one great focussing beam of light at specific times when needed. It is our intention to participate to the fullest in this coordinated meditation program. You who are sincere in wishing to lend your own efforts to the great work which prayer and meditation can accomplish have an opportunity now to see what working together as one — in the Oneness — can bring into manifestation. We highly recommend you write to Mark-Age now to see how you may participate in this joint venture.

The following are communications received by the author through inspiration from the Spirit entity she has reason to believe was the famous clairvoyant-healer, Edgar Cayce. The inner discrimination of each reader will be the guide as to the ring of truth these words convey.

“A Drop

CHAPTER 6

Consider the lightning which shineth from one end of heaven to another. Upon watching, it appears to come down from heaven in a blinding magnificent display of white light. However, some scientists will tell you that contrariwise, lightning travels upward from the ground – it comes from within! So, we have an optical and physical mystery. So also we have a perfect analogy to the Light from Above!

This Light, our Life-source, appears to, and does, come from above. (Above connotating that which lies beyond, or over, the purposed object, or thing.) Our Light, in this sense, comes from above – its origin being above, or beyond, our normal reasoning, or intellectual reach. Above, beyond, self!

So, too, do the spiritual scientists teach that this ‘lightning’ comes from within – an invisible, spiritual mystery! Like its physical counterpart, the mystery can be explained, and in so doing increase your understanding, serving ultimately in the elevation of recipient vibrations.

The greatest and only Master that ever lived taught that the Kingdom of God is within you. Those that are now called ‘the masters’, followers and teachers of His doctrine, urge also that one must look within. Yet our earthly knowledge adds to this equation, supplying the factor of physical ‘aboveness’. Those who wish to progress beyond the sphere of physical thought, mortal thought, must learn to think symbolically, spiritually.

Constantly the urging from spirit is to “look up!”, always, “look up!” Yes! But where? To the sky? No! Look up, above, beyond self! Look up, and perceive the Light that comes from God, which lies so far above self that nothing but love can bridge the gulf!

Each has within certain God-given resources, stemming from his eternal spirit which eternally resides in the heavens – this spirit having awareness, memory, and varying degrees of the likeness of the Holy Son, (or, varying developed degrees of the Christ Spirit). This glory generally remains in a subconscious or sleep state, the conscious mind being aware only of that which is physically manifested, and fed into it by the normal physical senses. However, the subconscious, the spirit within, being fed from above, feeds in turn the conscious, and so directs the soul, or individual. We see now how one's light comes from within . . . from above . . . but from within.

of Rain”

The act of letting the Christ-like, the immortal Christ Spirit, over-ride the mortal and self spirit, is the Christ-consciousness sought by all!

If you have a lamp, and put a filter over its face, you have diffused light. As you gradually remove sections of that filter, pure light escapes, from within the lamp, and shines to all. Using the uncovered bright light, more and more of the filter is removed, until all is Light: no self obscuring the vision! This is illumination, the illumination of Spirit, come forth from within — the Christ Spirit, the Holy Spirit — evidenced and manifested from Above!

To assimilate this into practical knowledge, a daily guide, strive to overcome the narrowness of all physical thought patterns and attitudes. One cannot go to town while remaining within the house — so you cannot become illuminated with Love and Light while remaining within the dark confines of the mortal mind! Don't allow your thoughts to stagnate, to be merely habit: when thinking of yourself, or another, think of total life, the total being, not the physical materialization that is before you. Picture your mind as a large room, only partially filled, and with the door wide open. Know that this which you call now, this life you are living in the flesh, is only an infinitesimal part of your total being; that for a time you are walking with blinders, but that gradually these blinders will be lifted, and then you shall see and understand that which is Truth and Reality.

Be open and ready always for the Light to be increased; pray constantly toward this end, and then live so as to be worthy. Let your spirit from within shed light through you, from Above!

Take these words, and translate them also into your study of the Bible — don't just read it for the story content, study it, letting it bring forth, and add to, that Light which is within.

Much has been said by and about Edgar Cayce. Several of these works described on page 23 are available from Chimes.

as told to Cherie L. Silva

WORTHY WORDS

Helene A. Gerling

In a certain limited sense, anything that substantiates the message to an individual of its discarnate transmitter is actually evidence. It need not be just the evidence of a name, a place, a safe deposit account number, etc., it can just as well be the evidential description of the discarnate person, an evidential factor in the so-called dead person's earth life, a work in which the alleged spirit entity was involved here on earthly terrain, or a sickness from which the loved one suffered in mortal life. These may be "lesser" in their degree of proof, but nevertheless they are factual elements.

—From Spirit Awareness *

Teilhard de Chardin

It is no whim or curiosity that prompts man to see more, to know more and so to be more. It is the very purpose of man.

Phylos

It is only through the mainsprings of character, by our Heavenly Father implanted in the souls of His children, that He ever helps or saves.

—From A Dweller on Two Planets *

Edgar D. Mitchell, Astronaut

If the phenomenon of astral projection has any validity, it might be a perfectly valid form of intergalactic travel and a lot safer than space flight.

The Master D.K.

You will enter the wheel of rebirth over and over again, experiencing the suffering that you have experienced time and time again, until at last you decide to become worthy of freedom from rebirth. You can only become worthy of freedom from rebirth by supreme dedication and obedience to your highest self. You must be able to do this without becoming pious and overly critical of others; you must be able to do this without becoming intolerant and filled with qualities that reflect egotistical and evil nature.

—From The Voice Universal, Sussex, England

Carl Jung

The effect of Light is astonishing in that it almost always brings about a solution of psychic complications, and thereby frees the inner personality from emotional and imaginary entanglements, creating thus a unity of being which is universally felt as a release.

AN ASTOUNDING ACCOUNT OF PSYCHIC SURGERY!

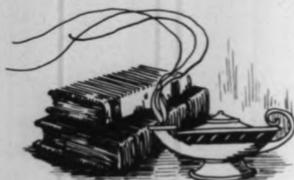

This is one new phase of psychic phenomena you should not miss ... how men are performing astounding major operations with their bare hands – with no tools – with no antiseptics – in a totally new form of healing.

Here is a hard-hitting report on a most controversial subject – psychic surgery – given by an honest, impartial reporter on psychic phenomena, Harold Sherman.

*In his book, WONDER HEALERS OF THE PHILIPPINES, you will read the whole inside story of these amazing men – the "pro and con" of what they do, how they do it, and to what avail. ## Your Spiritual Powers

Continuing with MENTAL TELEPATHY . . .

1. Let one of the group be selected or volunteer as leader for one session. Another should assume this responsibility the next time and so on until every member of the group has conducted a meeting. Then repeat.
2. The leader should come to the meeting prepared to transmit visually and audibly. For this he should bring two or three pictures in color and write out three or four one-line slogans or famous sayings.
3. When the group has assembled, the conductor should sit or stand facing the others and they should all face in his direction.
4. It is assumed that this gathering will be in a room apart and that there will be no intrusions. In order to establish an initial rapport it is usually good to sing a short song which everyone knows or to intone the sound AUM in unison three times. AUM is best sounded on D natural above middle C in a free and natural voice.
5. Let the class conductor start with a picture which he plans to transmit visually. Looking at one of the pictures he has provided (it could be a color advertisement from a magazine) he will say to the class, "I will examine this picture and imprint each detail of it in my mind. When I have done this I will then release it when I give the signal. You are then to try to pick it up."
6. After carefully studying the picture, he takes three deep breaths and as he releases the third breath he says, "Now!" At the same time sends the picture out on a wave of love and psychic energy. The visualization must be released so that his mind becomes blank, like an empty motion picture screen.
7. After about a minute he should ask, "Who has picked up anything?" and then urge each one present to tell what he has received. He should encourage each correct observation by saying,

"That is correct," or comment on one partially so by confirming the part correctly seen. The errors should be passed over in silence. In the first two or three experiments it is helpful to give a general idea of the picture itself. "It is an outdoor scene" or "It is a picture of a package" or "It is a person" could be offered. Later when the skills are greater these clues should be omitted.

8. After trying two or three pictures, an auditory transmission should be attempted. He should tell the group "This is a well known saying of a hero," or "This is the first line of a well known poem," then read the line to himself. As he reads he should see each word written on the inside of his forehead. When he comes to the end, he should release it on a wave of love and energy with the outgoing breath and dismiss it completely from his mind.
9. The questioning should follow in a minute and be similar to the probing of the visual sending. It will be found that some students will pick up the verbal transmission more readily than the visual while with others it will be the opposite.

Each sending and its responses should run to about fifteen minutes. Thus possibly two visual and two audible sendings will consume about an hour, which is enough time to devote at first. Do not be discouraged if the initial results are not dramatically successful. They will improve after two or three sessions. This group training is most efficacious and if it is persisted in, success can be pretty much guaranteed for all participants. The rewards are great for one who has trained himself in telepathy. I seriously urge that you endeavor to explore and learn this gift of psychic energy.

How Soul Rapport Works

Soul rapport is the third general telepathic classification. This exists to a greater or lesser degree between all individuals. As each person achieves a greater refinement and leads a more spiritual life, he gradually becomes more aware of his fellowman. As you train yourself to use psychic energy and employ ever greater surges of this remarkable gift, you will find that your spiritual awareness shows a corresponding improvement. You will become more and more cognizant of all that goes on about you, not only the thoughts and emotions of the people who are close to you, but also the stirring of life in the trees, bushes and flowers, the feelings and intentions of animals, and the great Cosmic calls of wind and rain and tempest. This is the highest human form of telepathy, that of the awakened soul.

To help in your own accelerated progression, it would be well for you to supplement these lessons with the instruction Joseph J. Weed gives in his excellent book, PSYCHIC ENERGY, a recommended Chimes selection.

Lesson Eight

YOUR HIGHEST IDEAL

I believe a brief discussion on YOUR HIGHEST IDEAL will not come amiss here. It is necessary to realize what your highest ideal is before you select your work. Some occupation or surrounding that you may select would tend to tear you down UNLESS you had developed a strong centre within, becoming a leader instead of following those in your working or playing environment who have not yet reached your stage of inner development.

There are levels of inner development, just as there are levels of outer development. By outer development, I mean the surroundings you attract, the work you attract, the friends you associate with. All of these things stamp you with an unmistakable stamp. Money is not a factor in this, because when you have the high inner development, lovely, appropriate surroundings are attracted to you, wonderful friends are attracted to you who do not use MONEY, but TRUE WORTH as a measuring rod.

Pause a moment here. Draw a mental picture of what your highest ideal is. What will you be like when you have achieved that highest ideal?

"Hitch your wagon to a star," Emerson said. That oft quoted phrase can mean that you are to choose a shining light on earth, a star, as a guide. Sometimes it is helpful to find a person who emulates all the things that you desire in your make-up and use that person as a pattern for a while, until your mind presents you something even more desirable.

In these modern days the question of drinking, smoking and "petting" comes up so often in private consultation work. "Shall I or shall I not indulge?" I say that if the question has arisen in your mind as to whether you shall or not, that settles it. You should not. You are on the path, upward. The inner watcher has taken charge of your life and is beginning to make suggestions. The INNER WATCHER is your highest self, your God-self. This highest self knows that it will be a struggle for you to drop off habits of perhaps years, but IT will help you in every way. When you weaken and go back after having made a forward step, IT soon brings up again the new picture of the things necessary for your growth upward.

As you grow within, developing a finer character, the habits which do not help you will gradually drop from you. "The blossom of the undeveloped self vanishes naturally and gradually as the fruit of the higher self grows." You have seen how the blossom withers and drops away as the orange or apple begins to grow. Just so your destructive habits drop off as you make continuous efforts to grow upward by choosing the better thing when choice comes to you in anything. In this way you learn the spiritual quality of Discrimination.

Picture your highest ideal. Would she or he drink? Would she or he indulge in the habit of smoking, which is not of any particular good?

Would she or he take drugs? Think of your habits. Fit them to your highest ideal. Then judge for yourself. Often you hear of people who go into Christian Science or some New Thought teaching suddenly giving up a habit of years standing that they have tried to eliminate in other ways.

It proves that there is a standard which is higher and where the "human" habits no longer fit. There is a Divine Standard of earth. Many live in the light of this Divine Ideal. It is the most beautiful life on earth, and not a life of negation, but a life of true FREEDOM. You are not BOUND by any habit. You are YOURSELF your present highest expression of your highest ideal. You won't be lonely. On each upward step you take you will find others who have taken the step before you and would not go back for anything. They have burned behind them their bridges which tied them to their destructive habits or thoughts. Often this had to be done by changing their circle of friends. And unlike Lot's wife, they do not turn back to look at the burning city which they have left. Their faces are turned upward and onward. We get ready here on this earth plane for our place or state after we leave this house of flesh. We build our spiritual bodies while we still occupy this flesh-body. The more effort and concentration we are willing to put into dropping off "human habits", the sooner we become our Divine Ideal.

Your Highest Self, the Super-Conscious Self, is constantly giving you urges to better yourself. Procrastination, more than anything else, holds you back from putting those into practice. You become busy at little tasks, and while you are thus busy with the conscious mind, your highest self talks to your lower or evolving self, your subconscious. You are not always consciously aware of this urging, but finally the idea comes with a rush and you resolve to give up all bad habits. You suddenly have come to realize the worthlessness of them. You get a grand start — and then you backslide. By this time you know enough not to condemn yourself, which further weakens you, but to START OVER again RIGHT NOW.

I am sure the Creator must have known at the time He set this world in motion just how long it would take in the "working out" state, and therefore He has infinite patience. When a man sets fruit juice to "work" and adds the sugar, he knows just about how long it is going to take for it to become good wine. The world is in the same process of constant "working-out" or rechemicalization. Therefore, do not become discouraged. Each day presents a fresh slate. Resolve each night to "die" to a destructive, holding-back habit. There should be no doubt about what is meant by that. Your Emotion Chart, and the destructive emotions, will show you what you still have to work out. Consciously gather yourself together each morning. Fling up your arms, if you can get into that mood. Declare, "Thank God, I am alive, full of hope and joy. During the night some destructive idea or habit has departed from me, and today I shall consciously add a good thing in its place." Perhaps you will look for opportunities to love everyone with whom you come in contact.

The attributes of your Highest Self are:

LOVE, which is composed of PATIENCE, UNSELFISHNESS, LOYALTY, TOLERANCE, UNDERSTANDING, FREEDOM. The more of these qualities you express in your contact with other human beings, the more Divine is the LOVE which is a part of you. Red is the color of human life (blood), and LOVE to me expresses a beautiful red, tinged with yellow, in color psychology. (A lesson in color psychology is also included in these lessons). . . Love is tinged with yellow because yellow represents Freedom. The sun is yellow. Is there anything freer or more penetrating than the warm, yellow rays of the sun?

TRUTH is another attribute of your Higher Self. In truth is included absolute fairness to every human you contact — no cheating in any way. It means there must be no bragging or boasting or coloring the facts. It means no gossip, or re-telling of tales that are destructive, no matter how "true" you know them to be. Real TRUTH, the truth that develops your Higher Self, can never be a destructive thing that would harm any one in the telling. In color psychology Truth is represented by a blue with much white in it — the color of the sky on a clear, calm day.

PEACE is another primary attribute of your higher self. Peace has within it poise of body and mind and soul. The highest state of earthly peace is called Tranquility — a state in which nothing earthly that happens disturbs; you yourself are greater than any adverse thing that can happen to you. Peace also contains harmony. Harmony is the music of the spheres. Your life becomes more rhythmic when harmony becomes an integral part of it. Your movements are no longer jerky. They flow. Your walk is light and inspiring to watch. In color psychology GREEN represents Peace. How well God's nature expresses peace! The cool, quiet trees; the velvety grass of the lawns; the sweeping green of the wheat fields; even the cool, peaceful green depths of the sea.

If you are an artist, you know that Red, Blue and Yellow are the primary colors — The Red of Love, the Yellow of Wisdom and Freedom, and the Blue of Truth. Green, which represents Peace is, of course, a combination of the Yellow of Wisdom and Freedom and the Blue of Truth. If you will ponder this subject as I have written it here briefly, you will understand how all of God's creation is inter-related. Everything dove-tails in with something else. As you grow to become ONE with that Higher Self you dove-tail in, or fit in a higher groove in life. You begin to know what real happiness, joy and Peace means. In order that your choice of work does not disrupt the new ideals of your life that mean harmony to you, it is wise to select your work and your hobby to conform with your new ideas and ideals.

These lessons are preliminary to the advanced series of "Inner Teachings" offered by Chimes entitled "Light on the Science of Living." For more information, see Pg. X.

Sermonette

MUST WE SELL OUR BIRTHRIGHT?

by Philip Hastings

Once, ages ago, there was a certain rich man. He had done very well and never was in need or want. He wore fine, rich clothes and always was waited upon. He anticipated the coming of a Master, and when the Master finally came he asked Him: "What must I do to fulfill my destiny?" — the horrible emptiness of his life having torn from him this anguished question.

The Master, pitying him, paused, searched the universal record, sometimes referred to as the Akashic, and saw that it was not this soul's destiny to be idle and slothful, so he said: "Take and sell all you possess. Give it to the poor and follow me. Then you will learn many things and will be led into paths of understanding that will give you treasure in heaven ... treasure in the life to come."

But the poor rich man turned away sadly. For a few rich robes, a few pieces of jewelry, some fine food, and a house with servants, he shirked his fate. The rest of his life was spent futilely in routine and in search of pleasure. When he perished and his accounts were cast, he found himself far behind, doomed to relive and relearn perhaps for centuries.

Is this not a sad story? It is repeated every day. One need only look about oneself and see certain rich men by the dozens busily selling their birthrights for a little luxury and a small bit of what they think is security.

Whether there are lessons to be learned by grinding poverty that cannot be learned in comparative security is doubtful. Of course the great unanswered question is whether or not they will be.

Discipline is hard in an atmosphere of plenty. Yet in every life the "dubious battle" must be fought. This is one method of developing the will that takes the occult student to a successful conclusion. His will cannot waver or he will be lost. Thus of necessity he learns the lesson of discipline.

The touching story of Brother Lawrence, a simple monk, of his intimate struggles to meet God and how he found Him in even the most menial tasks is a beautiful story of what happiness, love and discipline can bring. If you have overlooked The Practice of the Presence of God (a Chimes book), do make sure you read it before long for fresh inspiration and renewed faith.

Letters to the Editor

IT WORKS! – What wonderful services you are doing for God and mankind! The messages of Chimes have aided in my continuing growth and divine knowledge.

Case in point – Reference: Chimes, March, 1971 – “The Raja Jesua Yoga” by Emil Spacek. The second time I used this method of meditation Jesus appeared to me in the mirror. Many blessings to you all,

Mrs. Nondas Loudenback, Indianapolis, IND

(The article to which Mrs. Loudenback refers above was based on the book by Emil Spacek entitled Origin and Destiny of the Human Soul, a Chimes book, which has many excellent suggestions for unfolding one's spiritual powers.)

STAYING IN TUNE – Six months ago I mentioned sharing what I had with Mark-Age and not really having anything left to contribute elsewhere. I surely can manage a dollar a month and am enclosing six dollars for the past six months.

The change in the magazine was a great surprise, but I feel in tune with your new policy and I am quite used to the change now. The vegetarian articles are timely for me. I am trying to discover through intuition what foods are right for me. I've had Edgar Cayce's recommendations in mind too. For instance, he suggests to so many that they NOT eat raw apples. I find it quite fascinating to read the articles where Edgar Cayce has contacted an earth person to make his suggestions (see “A Drop of Rain” by Cherie L. Silva, page 20). My best thoughts are with you in your continued work.

Dora Brittain, Austin, TX

(There are many writings based on the Life Readings of Edgar Cayce which can be a help for healing and in establishing better diets. Diet Recipe Guide based on the readings and The Normal Diet by Margaret H. Gammon are just two of many containing Cayce's health suggestions ... all available from Chimes.)

PART OF THE WORLD FAMILY . . . THE CHIMES FAMILY IS a family of light bearers, each in his own way doing something constructive and creative to usher in the coming Golden New Age.

NOW . . . in 1972

each and every child of light must link up his efforts with every other child of light to awaken the masses out of their ignorance of God's spiritual laws and the spiritual realms that surround us.

HOW CAN YOU HELP? . . .

by letting your light shine in the loving way in which you perform your daily tasks, in your quiet times of meditation, in your outreach of prayer — when you pray silently with and for others. Remember the saying — the family that prays together stays together — this is because much good is accomplished during those precious times... far beyond our present knowing.

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE MORE BRIGHTLY THRU CHIMES . . .

by doing your part to guarantee its ongoing. Many have written of their wish to participate regularly by their monthly donation... and many already are doing so. This page, then, is the Family Participation Page that can serve as a reminder each month of what you wish to do to help keep the light shining thru Chimes. You may even have ideas on this subject that may be shared with others of the Chimes family. Here's where we do it. Here's your own special opportunity to help keep the family together. Do it the best way you know how!

"SPIRIT AWARENESS"...

by Helene A. Gerling

Are you seeking a balanced point of view on the many levels of interest that relate to the Natural Law of Spirit Phenomena, such as those of prophecy, psychometry, telepathy, spirit dreams, independent voices, levitation, visions and such?

For enlightened insight, along with documented Christian Scripture references, the present day researchers of Spirit will find testimonies of truth that will ring true. The author has spent a lifetime of study and service in the field of the spiritual sciences, has lectured and taught at most of the spiritual camps interested in the psychic area of truth, has appeared frequently on television and radio, and is currently director of a metaphysical center in Florida. The sound principles and reliable facts she sets forth will appeal to those who are looking for something more than another book describing and explaining Spirit occurrences. It is for those seeking Spirit-Awareness.
