He Leadeth Me

*In pastures green? Not always; sometimes He
Who knoweth best, in kindness leadeth me
In many ways where heavy shadows be.
Out of the sunshine warm and soft and bright –
Out of the sunshine into the darkest night,
I oft would faint with sorrow and affright,
Only for this – I know He holds my hand;
So whether in the green or desert land
I trust although I may not understand.*

*And by still water? No, not always so;
Ofttimes the heavy tempests round me blow,
And o'er my soul the waters and billows go
But when the storms beat loudest and I cry
Aloud for help, the Master standeth by
And whispers to my soul, "Lo, it is I."
Above the tempest wild I hear Him say,
"Beyond this darkness lies a perfect day.
In every path of thine I lead the way."*

*So whether on the hilltops high and fair
I dwell, or in the sunless valleys where
The shadows lie – what matters? He is there.
So where He leads me, I can safely go,
And in the blest hereafter I shall know
Why in His wisdom, He hath led me so.*

It is not necessary for me to supply a name, for I do not use a name in the same manner as you of Earth do. I am directing my messages through an earth "channel." He is advised also not to reveal his name. We do not seek profit, publicity or vain glory.

Certain beings of my world are contacting various "Key" Channels at this time. They are the "focal points" for further amazing messages soon to reach you from higher dimensions.

Part One THE WORLDS

Why are you so proud of your inventions earth man? Your small world is less than a grain of sand in the cosmos. But you are already learning this, so I will tell you more:

First, look to the nature of things around you. All Creation is a master teacher, but you can also learn much from your own little planet. Even the lowliest forms reveal this.

Please note the difference between physical worlds and spiritual worlds — between advanced physical (planetary) beings and those who are often called Angels. There are certain 'paramortals' (highly-evolved mortal life-forms) from other planets who observe your world. But awesome Cosmic beings who are god-like in their powers also exist. In fact, they were called "gods" in times past by men of earth. Nevertheless, most do not ask for such high titles or to be worshipped. They know that to be "god-like" is in truth to reflect more of the Creator's character. (The above explanation is added to clarify the confusion over extraterrestrial and ultraterrestrial / other-dimensional theories.)

But beware children! Some entities are filled with pride in their own "glory." These entities subject various mortal leaders on your earth to their error, and these mortals in turn become "puppets" for hypnotic, misdirected power. Suffice it to know that every being who seeks to reveal things to you is not necessarily a "good spirit." Some forces desire to create confusion. Dissolve that confusion with the light of true understanding and love.

Why do you build so many walls around yourself earth man? Break away from the artificial world of your own creating and learn of other worlds and other realms of life. The hidden kingdoms await your discovery!

Material science cannot supply the whole answer you seek, because material science is incomplete without a counterpart, spiritual understanding. A balance must be formed. The masses of earth still adopt a one-sided view.

Do not limit your concept to other physical planets. Think of non-physical worlds (dimensions) also, operating and existing free from the immurement of matter. Do you find this difficult to grasp? Examples exist on earth in smaller scale: The fish have one element, crawling creatures another, and fowls of the air — yet another. Within the spheres of heaven also exist a variety of forms; as with the physical sphere (of earth) ... varied worlds of varied substance. "As above, so below."

I tell you things that some of you already know and believe, while others will not accept. But it has always been so. Observe the symbol I set before you. It is like wheels within wheels and has profound meaning. Such symbolic and geometric patterns can illustrate deep mysteries. Do not be fooled by simplicity of appearances, for your higher mental functions can discern meaning in such things.

You would continually chop things into segments. You speak of "outer" things and "inner" things and divide the whole. Argue not over what is "within" and what is "without" for the Kingdom of Heaven encompasses both. Each element forms the unity of one principle. There is a spiritual plane and a material plane, but each is not as far removed from the other as some would think.

The inner circle in the symbol represents what is called the "soul" of man — his inner, spiritual self. The screen pattern surrounding that, represents the outer physical, environment and universe. The outermost ring symbolizes the Kingdom of God in more universal, cosmic sense. Naturally, it is not obstructed as the drawing shows, but such finite patterns must now suffice to explain some "infinite" ideal concepts.

You will note that the non-physical universe interpenetrates the physical universe (that is what the open screen pattern symbolizes) and that there are links connecting the two spiritual dimensions (human consciousness and cosmic reality).

From this you also see that channels of flow exist between the cosmic and matter-worlds. Although the higher kingdom is not subject to some of the physical laws that limit earth (especially certain time/space principles) there are nevertheless some spiritual laws that are the same. Read the teachings of the Master Jesus to learn of these in their basic form.

The channels I speak of (you might wish to call them "time tunnels" or vortexes) are the 'spokes' of the mighty wheel; a link between individual and universal; rivers of light between dimensions. Everything is wonderfully bound together in harmony — as in music, the notes are separate and varied but the symphony is One. The Master Composer is also One. But you must be mentally and psychically aligned with harmony to know this greater harmony. As the Great Teacher has said "Straight ... and narrow is the way that leadeth to life ... and few there be that find it."

Have you not often wondered how certain great men of simple background acquired genius to understand amazing things? Some earth men have called it "inspiration" — not realizing that unlimited inspiration was there all the time, awaiting only for the "gate" (understanding) to be opened. They acquired genius by developing communication with the higher levels and learning to absorb wisdom from it.

Pray to God with the knowledge that everything depends on Him . . . and work as if everything depends on YOU!

Your Prayer Life

Dear Lord —

I ask that my soul light be veiled today to all I contact, and that my aura be cleansed and shielded.

Thank you, beloved Lord.

“Pray to Him in any way you like,” said Sri Ramakrishna. “He is sure to hear you. He can hear even the footfall of an ant.” The certainty that God IS aware of us and does listen to our prayers has been the assurance of any number of saints and knowers of God . . . Prayer is the bridge between man and God, the one means by which man can speak his inmost thoughts without fear of rejection or ridicule. Only one requirement is asked: that we pray to Him with a sincere and longing heart.

MY TASK

MY TASK is to let the Spirit of Christ express through me. My most important task is to express more and more of the Spirit of Christ. It is a God-given privilege to let the radiant Christ Spirit shine through me to bless my life and the lives of other persons.

This is my task as I go about my daily duties.

I allow the wisdom and joy of the Christ Spirit free expression. Then my work is done quickly, happily, efficiently, and those around me are inspired to do their best.

This is my task whenever I contact other persons. I let the love of the Christ Spirit radiate through me. I am patient, understanding, friendly and trusting. Other persons respond with friendliness and good will.

This is my task. I let the Christ Spirit express through me in all ways. I let it express through me as health and vitality. I let it express in my affairs as order and harmony. I let it express as courage and strength. I let it express through me to help bring freedom and peace to the world. So be it, and it is.

“JOEY”

Part 1

For those who love dogs and wonder about dog heaven.

Joey was a wire-haired terrier and my chief companion at the age of five. I always remember putting him on my bicycle horse and sending them careering down our back-yard, which sloped sharply. Joey would hold on to the bicycle horse, sitting on the horse with his forepaws on the handlebars until just before it crashed into the wall at the bottom of the yard, when he would jump off and return to me wagging his tail. But for some reason, never quite explained, my mother tired of Joey and gave him away to our charlady.

Afterwards, I had other dogs, but none of them replaced Joey in my affections and, as I grew older, I felt an increasing desire to apologize to Joey for putting him on that bicycle horse.

Sixty years passed away. My wife died and I could not rest until I had got in touch with her through a medium. In fact I tried a number of mediums before I found the right one and several spoke of seeing a wire-haired terrier with me. But when at last I found the right medium I was able to speak to my wife as if we were talking face to face.

One day my wife said:

“I’ve got Joey with me. He came trotting up to me when I was walking in a meadow and I knew at once he had belonged to you. Our love had drawn him out of Dog Heaven, where the spirits of all dogs go if they have no loved one over here, and he often comes with me when I visit you.

"I looked up Joey's history at the Dog Registry, where they keep particulars of the lives of all dogs. The man who keeps the register said after Joey left you he had been very unhappy and had been run over by a cart, for his ribs had been damaged. But he's quite happy now.

"Joey is really a lovely character, although he looks rather comic with a black patch round one eye. One night (I join my wife during sleep, but remember nothing on waking) Joey took us to see a number of dogs who had just come over after being gassed in a Dogs' Home. Joey ran around them making a fuss of them, wagging his tail and barking, and then he'd run off and come back with a bone in his mouth until he'd brought them all a bone to make them feel at home.

"Since then, I haven't seen Joey for quite a while and he may have come just to make me feel at home. He loved you when you were a child, but you were not very kind to him and, as you know, you used to stick him on that old bicycle horse and send him rushing down the yard and old Joey didn't like it and hasn't forgotten it".

I said it was quite true and I had always wanted to apologize to Joey, and so I prayed for his forgiveness and soon afterwards he returned to my wife.

"Yes", she said, when I spoke to her a week later, "Joey has come back as the result of your prayers. His face was all blue and he was laughing and blue flashes seemed to be coming out of his tail. I asked him where he had been and he said, 'I've been trying to help people', and he certainly does. He took me once to a woman who had just come over. She was crying and Joey was barking, jumping and frisking round her. Then he licked her face and at last she stopped crying and smiled and Joey said to me, 'I've managed it!' — for I can understand what he says although he can't express himself in words. The lady said she had been ill and wanted to find her husband. I made her realize she was dead and said I would try to show her how to talk to her husband.

"Another time, Joey brought me an old man who had died blind and I made him realize he could see. Soon afterwards Joey came to me with a little boy with his hands and feet tied up. Joey had no difficulty in bringing him since weight doesn't count here. The little boy had died in a cupboard where he had been put by a cruel mother, who buried him in her garden when she found he was dead. Joey kept saying 'Untie him!' I asked the little boy his name. He first said 'Joe' and then 'Andy'. I untied the little boy and made him realize he was free.

"One day, although it is perpetual day here, Joey turned up with a beautifully-colored budgie in his mouth. He said the budgie had been killed by a cat and he wanted me to look after it.

"Another night he took us to the Battersea Dog's Home. He went there with some helpers to comfort the dogs because they were lost and unhappy.

by E. Bernard Morgan

"Sometimes I accompany you when you are taking a walk although you can't see me".

"Does Joey come with you?" I asked.

"If he's with me when I'm getting ready, I say to him, 'I'm going to see B. You know you are B's dog, so unless you're doing anything, are you coming with me?'. Usually he comes and walks with us. But he's not like an ordinary dog. Joey's a very advanced dog and he's got beyond dogs and lampposts. Over here all animals are clean and have no dirty habits".

One day I went to see Peter Ustinov in the film "The Man Who Wagged His Tail" in which a hard-hearted landlord is changed into a dog. I called mentally to Joey to come and see the film, but Katie told me afterwards that Joey was occupied elsewhere, since he is a free agent and comes and goes as he pleases. When she met Joey, she described the film to him, for she had been sitting beside me during the performance.

"What did Joey say?" I asked.

"He said, 'Rubbish!' "

Katie tells me that when I go to town Joey usually comes with us and sits on my lap in the coach. He does not usually accompany us to the sitting, but dashes off before we get there. On one occasion he told my wife he was going into the park — Katie was not sure whether it was Hyde Park or some park in the Astral — because there was a horse he wanted to look at; sometimes he dashes off to chase imaginary rabbits. But, once when I was not well, the medium's guide said Joey insisted on coming into the Seance room, "Just to make sure you are all right".

"Does Joey come back with us in the coach?" I asked Katie.

"Not always, but sometimes when he has been running around a lot, I find him on the journey back with his head on your shoulder.

"Joey is very sensitive to the weather. He doesn't like fog or thick clouds. One bright, sunshiny day, when he came with us, he said, 'Why can't we always come on a day like this?' Another time, when there was snow on the ground, Joey said, 'I don't like snow, I'm not coming today'. But he has a wonderful sense of time and always turns up at night to help me bring you over to Our Side, where you join me in your sleep. By the way, Joey now has a number of new pals".

"Who are they?" I enquired.

"Some dogs who have been gassed and just come over to our Side. I expect he met them when they arrived".

"Where was Joey before he came to you?" I asked.

"There's a place in the Spirit World, where animals who have loved their owners go and wait for them. They are looked after by children and those who love animals".

"Did Joey come to visit me before you passed over?"

"I'm sure he did", said Katie, "for Joey is perfectly at home in the Astral, but you couldn't recognize his presence, just as you can't see him now, as you are not psychic".

Man's Forgotten Goal

Engrossed in the daily battle of life, man has forgotten his goal. He sleeps over a treasure-trove and weeps. He has to be awakened. Dissemination of spiritual knowledge, therefore, is the urgent need of the hour.

— From The Divine Life by Sri N. C. Ghosh, M.A.

Dare to Be Different!

Our whole way of life nowadays is slanted toward conformity. In our schools they try to hold the student to the average mentality. The Divine purpose was that we expand and promote individuality of character and we can only do this by developing distinctiveness from others. A person who is different stands out from the crowd. The more individualistic we can be, the more experience we attain, the greater our growth. It might seem to be a lonely life at times but rest assured you will be progressing beyond the mass, though the mass will always try to hold you back, to pull you down to their level.

— From Search magazine by Marjorie Fry

The Essence of Our Being

The interrelationship between man and cosmos would become much less of a mystery to us if we thought in terms of embodied consciousness, instead of looking upon the heavenly bodies as inanimate globes of gases and organic matter. We might draw an analogy and ask ourselves: Why and how do human beings affect each other? If they were mere lumps of flesh and bones, there would be none of the interplay of subtle influences that continually flash from one person to another, and that can be felt even when there is no overt communication of gesture or word. It is because of our individual consciousness, the very essence of our being, extending beyond the confines of the physical body, that we constantly make an impact on each other.

Parapsychology: Religion's Basic Science

Dr. J. B. Rhine, the father of American parapsychology, has frequently asserted that "parapsychology is to religion what physics is to engineering and what biology is to medicine." However, despite the growing impressiveness of the results of professional parapsychological research, and despite a rising tide of popular interest in psychic matters that seem to indicate a significant deficiency in the offerings of organized religion, Mother Ecclesia continues on her way, unheeding and increasingly troubled.

When Soul-Mates Unite

by Edward W. Koch

PART II (conclusion)

IT IS DIFFICULT to conceive the feeling a soul experiences when it doubles in spiritual attainment through uniting with the Soul-Mate. Besides Godly love, it knows love as the soul desires it to be. This perfect love never can be acquired on Earth, regardless of how true and loving one's Earth mate may be.

During the cycle of Earth incarnation, either mate may take on a physical form, but it is not likely to happen at the same time, as some are told. It is well to know that the Soul-Mate remaining on the etheric side of life agrees to abide by the Universal Laws and not interfere with the other's free will or development while in the physical world. Therefore, one should not expect his or her mate to supply the answers to the many problems of Earth life. Anyone told continuously by Spirit what to do or what not to do may be assured that such advice is not from a Soul-Mate. The Soul-Mate will guide but never command, nor will it solve its mate's problems, for with such help one's purpose for being on Earth would be defeated.

The ecstatic feeling a soul experiences when Soul-Mates are united is utterly delightful and enchanting ... even though they have known each other since creation. The union is pure Godly love. Some who read this may have had a dream or an astral flight in which they encountered their Soul-Mates. If so, they will have known the thrill and surprise of witnessing an enchanting beam of light flowing through the eyes and smile of the Soul-Mate, a captivating experience that leaves one spellbound. No mental or physical love can equal this experience of Soul-Mate reunion. Some who read this already may have seen their Soul-Mates in visible materialized form, even manifesting a voice. On such occasions one usually knows intuitively that it is the Soul-Mate in evidence.

One must also take into consideration, however, that Spirit need not take on any certain form, for projection into any form best suited for a special purpose can be accomplished quite easily. In the case where a Soul-Mate materializes, it is likely to be done in a form to please the mate in the flesh. Human beings naturally think in terms of fleshly or material form, so how else could Spirit better be recognized? This is well to remember when dealing with any of the forms of Spirit manifestation.

A personal experience with one I am told is my Soul-Mate might be of interest to others who look forward to such an experience. This was an occasion when an outstanding manifestation occurred in which my Soul-Mate materialized in the center of the room in the presence of a number of persons, all of whom saw and heard what I did, convincing me that it was not a dream, a vision, or an hallucination. This Spirit form was, no doubt, a spiritual projection made manifest in a semi-solid form, controlled in both movement and voice. Some might describe such a manifestation as a 'thought form' from my Soul-Mate, made solid and visible with the help of the Spirit chemists who understand how to undertake this type of phenomenon.

The form that took shape was one most likely to be admired and understood by me ... something lovely, graceful and heavenly to behold. At first she was quite dim and transparent. Then, moving closer to me, she whispered the word, 'Mildred,' the name given to me personally so that I might recognize her as my Soul-Mate. I spoke to her, saying, "Come closer, Mildred. I know it is you because I can feel it in my soul."

Immediately her form became more solid and visible, so clear, in fact that I could see the color of her hair and garments, and hear the swish of her long robe as she moved towards me. She touched my hand and face to show that she was solid. Her lovely soft, mellow voice ... pitched just slightly above a whisper ... was easily distinguishable by the others in the room. She removed a wide belt from around her robe and held it close to my eyes. It was beautifully decorated with many jewels that almost seemed to be alive. She also showed the belt to the others in the room. Her gown brushed against my knee as proof that it, too, was of solid material. She told me it was possible

In the Silence that follows the Spirit of Truth will seem to speak to you.*

I PLACE MY LOVED ONES IN THE CARE AND KEEPING OF GOD

"God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her and that right early."

Ps. 46:5

I release my children into the care and keeping of God. Of myself, I can do nothing; but, a recognition of the Power of God right where they are is mighty to help them.

I exchange the poison of fear and doubt for the powerful medicine of Truth and they are lifted up. I trust the Power of God within them and they receive immediate help.

I know that the Truth about my children is that right now they are divine, perfect, spiritual beings, one eternally with the perfect Life that is God. Divine Life indwells them, constantly revitalizing them in mind and body. God Intelligence guides them, telling them all that they should know or do. Divine Love protects them, keeping them secure forever.

This knowing on my part acts as a healing agent. I release my children into the care and keeping of the loving Father. I know that they will grow and unfold in God's perfect way.

And so it is.

The foregoing is based on a new Chimes book by Jack and Cornelia Addington, Your Needs Met, a dandy help-mate perfectly suited to resolving your daily problems.

IS IT? W. R. Wallace in the last century thought so ... and so do a good many others from personal experience and observation. The hands of a person can tell us many things ... if they are well-kept or sensitive, those of an artist, a busy shop keeper, a doctor, a soldier, a butcher, even the way in which hands are held or clasped, or the type of handshake.

We need our hands for so many things. Only when prevented by illness or injury from using them do we realize their real worth to us. The devil, it is said, finds work for idle hands. How many of us are idle and neglect or fail to do the jobs in this world we know how best to do? Often our hands are idle in that we deny their use as tools in God's Hands ... Hands within Hands, as it were. In the service of the Creator we cannot be idle. We have to strive — to stretch outwards to those in need. This should not be just the physical act of helping the man next door, but a genuine gesture to advance the great work of healing that continues around the world like a never-ending circle.

Even Jesus in His agony said: "Into THY hands I commend My Spirit." He understood how essential it was for God to be unhindered by the mortal in mankind. The work of healing the mystery of suffering is only fully realized if this truth is realized too. So where can we begin?

We can start with prayer. At any time, on any day we may do this. Whatever our occupation or place in life, with prayer we can reach out the hand of friendship to the immense cloud of unknowing, with "a sharp dart of longing love". From prayer we graduate to love ... real love for our fellow man, and where there is love there is no fear. We can be bold with an inner strength, shared and strong in a faith which has its roots in unity. Like a flower that unfolds gradually in the warmth of the sun, you will discover the warmth of the loving sympathy which will unfold for you as your hands are used for helping.

Notice the hands of someone to whom you might have appealed for help if you are distressed or in trouble. They are usually quietly at rest as that person listens with heart as well as ears, intent upon easing your load. In all cases where help is needed, God works through the hands, as though the owner were an empty channel through which His Love can flow.

You and your hands will not achieve overnight success. You will not discover the answers to the elusive medical problems of the world. The lame will not suddenly leap for joy, the deaf hear, and the blind see. But YOU will know. You will feel the power that will be directed towards you if you seek truly to do God's Will in the humility of simplicity of heart and mind.

This knowledge will increase as your faith increases; not in your own strength will your hands move, but as guided by God. You will discover that this strength will go out from you to those in need, even without effort on your part sometimes, and whether the person concerned is aware of this or not.

There are no rewards. Recognition is not important. What matters is that you will have learned that your hands are God's creation, and you are giving back to Him what is His own. Invisible bonds will be like linked hands across the world, a chain reaction to perpetuate the Healing Moment continually. Look at your hands. Others do! What do you, and they, see?

They might be on the receiving end of this invisible power where the basic requirement is faith. Perhaps they lack the faith necessary to acknowledge the need to be made well. Personal faith is impossible to instill in another life. So you trust. Given the power and will to use your hands, you trust in a power mightier than your own that the faith will come to that person. It might be that there will be many uphill journeyings before the merging of minds stabilizes ... but all the time, your hands work for inner peace. Not hands ruling the world, but faith ruling your hands.

Use them lovingly, use them gently, wisely, and firmly, knowing beyond all doubt that all things are possible beyond all that we ask or think.

The foregoing is based on excerpts from an article appearing in The Spiritual Healer magazine of England.

MANIFESTATION ON EARTH

All has begun to be affected upon the Earth plane through many manifestations and services of those who have come to serve the light ... Your frequency rate gradually is being stepped up into the fourth dimensional rate or frequency via means of space beams and via the acceleration of your own physical bodies through natural inner complexes.

Until this era you have not been concerned totally with this phase or this demonstration of Christed Self expression. But because our work does involve an entire solar system and its progression in the universe, we now must bring this total understanding into the Earth dimension ... and let it be expressive ... let it be known ... let it be subscribed to by those who are evolving through this solar system and this particular sphere's karma.

We have not been allowed to bring much information unto the conscious mind of mankind until this present era because of certain conditions that would have prevailed had it been brought forth prematurely. But always the pattern did exist, and always the potential existed because of the pattern that was created by our Master for this plane and planet, who is Jesus of Nazareth, or Sananda of the Hierarchal Board function. Therefore ... in His function and role as the Christ upon the Earth He did, and was able successfully, to manifest that fourth dimensional light-frequency body in a satisfactory manner for many, many days and was able to give enough evidence unto the sons of light that this was their duty to perform and to accept during His resurrection program.

You have been given a great deal of assistance by those who are in the invisible craft around your atmosphere of Earth. Since it is a total solar system project, every type of instrument and every type of assistance has been brought into unification and conjunction. Therefore it should not seem strange in any way that every means and avenue of bringing about this transmutation from within and from without can be sought and utilized. We do not say you must depend upon us in one degree or another. We only say we are coordinated with the high Self of each individual in as many ways as we possibly can be.

One of the ways in which the equipment aboard these etheric craft can affect you is in the mental sphere. We can project certain thought forms via a broadcast of material that eventually will be conceived in your own thinking process and will be received by many channels or individuals simultaneously. This already has gone on in a great measure upon the Earth. Witness the many groups, the many channels, the many contactees of spiritual consciousness who speak of these matters ...

BOOK TALK

MOST WESTERNERS are pretty well convinced that anything they have or do is the best ... the greatest ... until they come face to face with what someone in another part of the world has accomplished. We might have suspected that others were doing some investigative work in the field of psychic or parapsychological research, but not until Sheila Ostrander's and Lynn Schroeder's book, "Psychic Discoveries Behind the Iron Curtain" hit the western market did people realize with a shock what a revolution the Russian researchers, and those behind the Iron Curtain, were carrying on in the field of the intellect and the mind. In the summer of 1968, Sheila Ostrander and Lynn Schroeder visited Soviet Russia, Bulgaria, and Czechoslovakia to explore the facts behind the psychic research they had heard was being carried on in laboratories, from Prague to Moscow. Since their book has been published with their findings and excerpts and reviews of it have been carried in newspapers and magazines widely throughout the Western World, we see that astonishing breakthroughs have been accomplished in the exploration of man's unknown powers. In reading this book you will see the Soviets are considered to have mastered "artificial reincarnation," trained animals and induced hypnosis by telepathy, and filmed the process in the laboratory of "mind over matter" taking place. We also are told about many incredible new inventions: a new Soviet dowsing rod, Czech pyramids that mummify meat and sharpen razor blades, astrological birth control; Bulgarian Suggestology, and, most amazing of all, a machine that photographs the human "aura." "We're in the space age whether we like it or not," state the authors. "Our energies are turned to outer space and quite obviously also to inner space. Awareness seminars, meditation, consciousness expansion, the age of Aquarius — the thrust inward is the propellant of the era." And, as many others have known, but Dr. Leonid Vasiliev, pioneering Soviet researcher has stated, "Discovery of the energy behind psi will be comparable to the discovery of atomic energy." A rather frightening book in some ways, still it is better to know what is taking place. Surprise yourself and read this book.

Second Book of Acts

discovered and translated by Kenneth Sylvan Guthrie asks these questions

... Do you think it strange that Mary, the mother of Jesus, should teach the return of Souls to this world?

... Do you know that some books of the New Testament represent this teaching as the current belief of the day in Palestine in the time of Jesus — a belief uttered by Him, Herod, and the common people?

... Before she made her ascension at 83, are you aware that Mary taught the Disciples that man is to learn who he has been, individually and as a race, what his present status is, and where he can go from this point?

... Have you ever thought of Mary as a medium in that lifetime as Jesus' mother — which she was as she communicated with, traveled to, and saw into the higher dimensions?

Here you will learn of the six concurrent lives of Mary and Jesus and how they are to lead man on Earth into the federation of planets of this System by the year 2000 A.D.

The following are communications received by the author through inspiration from the Spirit entity she has reason to believe was the famous clairvoyant-healer, Edgar Cayce. The inner discrimination of each reader will be the guide as to the ring of truth these words convey.

“A Drop

“THE HOMILY”

CHAPTER 8

I have, by God's will, and through direct communication with one abiding in your dimension, fulfilled that which was remaining of my earthly pledge as Edgar Cayce. The facts touched herein are brief, and purposefully so, in order that the Truth, the true Flavor, not be masked by needless spices.

This last chapter is by intention, deadly serious. Its hidden message will be revealed unto the hearts of those who are sincerely looking for liberation.

“I go to prepare a place for you” — some of the dearest words ever spoken! “That where I am, there ye may be also” — some of the most mysterious words ever spoken!

Many there where you are now dwelling consume vast energies in the effort to PROVE survival after death. Let me be clear in this: if one does not believe in the basic fact of the continuity of life, so that they need spend a lifetime in the pursuit of hard, unequivocal evidence, they have missed the boat entirely!

Throughout this lengthy epistle to you, my friends, absolute devotion to diligent search of the Biblical Truths has been stressed. Do not neglect its repeated references to the necessity of FAITH in your learning. Use this faith concerning survival, and go on from there — do not let it be a stumbling block or a stopping place, or its proof your goal!

Consider this and wonder: if Christ our Lord went to prepare a place for us, that we might be where He is — why are the accounts from those on my side so divergent. Why is it many are confused, and plainly admit to this when communicating with mortals? Why, when asked if they have seen Jesus, are their answers negative? Why are so many of the spirit contacts concerned with mortal affairs, when the Scripture states that to be carnally minded is death? If survival be true — just what IS death, as referred to in the Bible?

Now, consider this: would a doctor (a PhD), be likely to discuss the intricacies of molecular diffusion with a neighbor interested only in his own limited sphere of backyard barbecues and golf? Would the conversations be even remotely analogous were you to talk with a random selection of students, ranging in grade from kindergarten to college? If an alien doubting the existence of the President of the United States were to ask if you had seen him, could you say yes? If you look about you physically and spiritually, do you not witness death working in uncountable ways in the evil and unloving acts perpetrated against your brothers?

Life and death are opposites; spiritual and physical are opposites; so, too, are self and God! Yet, all remain, all exist on the planet Earth. Death (wrongly concluded by many to be synonymous with total extinction) is the ruler of the physical earth; and Life the Prince of the Spiritual Earth, two opposites.

Within the physical visible Earth lies death, evil, and lower self. Opposing these on the invisible plane is Life, love, and Christ self.

Two powerful, warring forces, with the Earth as their battleground and uncountable unseen armies aiding each side, vying for the nation of souls which inhabit the arena.

And, in the midst of this raging chaos, One comes, and with utter simplicity, and Divine mystery, says “I go to prepare a place for you”.

Where is this place, where is Heaven? (Where, in fact, is hell?)

“And if I go, I will come again, that ye may be with Me where I am.”

John 14:3

“Behold the Kingdom of God is within you.” Luke 17:21.

“... and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time ...” Heb. 9:28

It may seem at first glance as if this chapter has rambled on in thought, but, look again – for therein lies a mystery!

I cannot be more explicit, for each must discover the key for themselves; we here can only point the way, it is up to you to follow, and find.

And so, again I leave you, only in semantics – for life cannot die!

With love, Edgar

IMPRESSIONS OF A SOUL AFTER DEATH

What is it like . . . BREAKING THROUGH THE VEIL?

Part II

One of the unusual things I experienced in the "next state" of being was the feeling of lack of bondage to size. In one of the lower planes of Consciousness, I encountered a little animal which was clothed in a soft, silky tan colored fur, striped with darker brown. At my approach he seemed to think of entering his hole, for his thought of it attracted my attention to it, and I knew that if I wanted I could enter that hole. I felt a sense of oneness with the little animal; I felt that I could easily become the same size as he, in Consciousness, to enter the hole, if I wished to do so. I do not know that all Souls experience this particular feeling of no bondage as to size. I do know that I had been put through definite training on the Inner Planes, however, to give me great flexibility of mind and the power to adapt myself to any situation.

So much occurred in such a short space of time that it is not easy to fit every experience in the exact place of its happening, as sometimes several things went on simultaneously. But, as I now recall, one of the first experiences was that I seemed to be taken before a Presence which had the power to show me my past. I was interested in knowing how and why I had warranted this particular experience (and other glorious ones which had come to me).

I felt so unworthy of the great amount of time which I knew had been expended on me in the Inner Planes in preparing my mind, Soul and body for the things which had occurred (and others which were about to occur), so I asked the Presence which I sensed near me why I had merited this which was happening to me. I could not help but know it was a wonderful life-changing experience of Enlightenment. In answer to this, I seemed to be brought to another Presence, or Angel, which could unfold my past to me.

My attention was directed to a "seed-atom" in my heart. I was taken back to the time when there was just the dawn of Self-consciousness in my brain. I was woman then. As the "unreeling of the seed-atom in my heart" took place, I realized how many, many times life had forced me to go over one lesson again and again and again, until FINALLY Light dawned through the suffering I had to undergo, and THAT lesson was learned.

This is not the time nor the place for the revealment of what was shown me as to my past "lives", the experiences I had had in other embodiments. But suffice it to say, that it is now easy for me to understand WHY so few can be made aware of their past lives. In the revealment, I had to undergo the suffering that I actually went through at the time the lessons were being learned. I had to re-live the scenes which had been burned and etched by suffering into the eternal atom of my being. The suffering was even more intense in the re-living than it had been in the living, for with the dawn of greater intelligence, sensibilities had been developed — my sense of "feeling" was keener. Yet throughout the revealment I knew that for some reason I had to stand as much of the pain as I could, that I had to be willing to re-live in my "after-death" body just as many of the scenes as I possibly could so that the question I had asked could be answered fully.

One point stays vividly in my memory — the value of suffering in gaining understanding. That which Earth beings dread the most is their greatest helper in the journey back into the Light of God. Growth can come only as the old is put on. This causes suffering to the human mind. It was so clearly shown to me that suffering ceased only when the Soul could stand alone, clinging to nothing, resenting nothing, fearing nothing, expecting nothing, possessing nothing, but fully clothed in the Light of God, in complete Divine Understanding, knowing the ways of God and the laws of God.

In this "after death" phase, with Soul and body separated, lesson after lesson was burned into the substance of my mind, beyond the possibility of forgetting when the mind of the Soul again became a part of the physical body. It seemed to be intended for the Soul to bring back definite information to be given later to the peoples of the Earth. In order to impress this knowledge and information upon the mind substance of the Soul beyond any possibility of forgetting, it was taught first in words, then in symbols, and finally in EXPERIENCES in the Inner planes.

DIVINE DISCONTENT

It might be said that anyone who does not from time to time feel dissatisfied with his achievement ... really is not sensitive to the promptings of his own High Self. I truly believe that from the high reaches of the consciousness of the sensitive person there emanates a frequent urge to express beyond one's immediate availabilities in the world. It is only the spiritual seeker after a greater life who feels that he may not be living up to his own potentials of service and life significance.

Lessons on Unfolding . . .

Your Spiritual Powers

Concerning SOUL TRAVEL

Another method of soul travel – which works quite well for some – is known as the interrupted dream method. This will give you an idea of how it takes place.

1. The basic assumption is that you dream and can remember your dreams. If you do, then before you go to sleep say to yourself (and really mean it), "When I dream tonight, I will realize I am dreaming."
2. You always dream ... everyone does ... but sometimes your sleep is so deep you have no recollection of dreaming. Some people say they never dream but actually they do. It is only that on waking they cannot remember. So before you fall asleep, instruct yourself to let you become aware that you are dreaming. Usually it is some incongruity in the dream that will alert you. Oliver Fox, in his book, Astral Projection, states he first became aware he was dreaming when he noticed the tiles in the walk before his home appeared to be laid parallel to the roadway, when in actuality they were at right angles to it. When he observed this difference he realized that he was in a dream state.
3. You may take notice of strange abnormalities in a dream and accept them without question, only realizing their incongruity after waking. If you instruct yourself quite firmly before falling asleep, however, you will soon develop a critical attitude which will enable you to decide while still asleep that this or that appearance is out of character. At this point you will then know you are dreaming.

4. When at some point in your dream you actually "know" it is a dream, you are in a position to take control. Decide then to go to a specific place outside of your room or your home and you will find yourself there in an instant. It will be as vivid and clear to you as though you were there in your physical body.
5. Your first experience may be exciting and strange, but continue your efforts and before long you will get "the feel" of moving about in the astral body. Then you should be able to release yourself from the physical without the need to sleep first and dream.

The next method we will investigate is called one-pointed control.

When the practice of the two previous techniques described previously (or any other technique known to you) has made you adept, you then can release your astral body at will, given the proper conditions. There are many people alive today who have learned in previous lives to travel in the astral world. You may be one and have this gift lying dormant within you waiting to be reawakened. The only way to determine this is to try. Here is a way:

1. Select a place where you will not be disturbed. This is important. You are about to induce a trance-like state in your physical body and any sudden shock can be damaging to your heart and nervous system. A loud voice, a slamming door, a touch upon your body will cause a rapid return of your astral body to the physical which is almost as if it had dropped into it from a height of ten feet. So be careful.
2. Lie upon a bed or couch. Keep on your clothing but loosen anything tight or pressing upon you. Do not get into bed. This is associated with sleep, and you do not want to sleep. The state you are about to enter is akin to sleep but is one in which you maintain continuous conscious awareness.
3. Close your eyes and relax, but be sure to stay awake. When relaxed take five deep breaths in order to increase your quota of psychic energy. Breathe as follows, counting to yourself in a regular cadence. Breathe in deeply to the count of four. Hold your breath for the count of twelve, then breathe out to the count of eight, all in the same cadence. Do this five times.

You may wait until these instructions resume next issue, or you may continue yourself with the aid of Joseph J. Weed's book, PSYCHIC ENERGY, upon which these lessons are based. Also helpful are Ophiel's ART AND PRACTICE OF ASTRAL PROJECTION and Muldoon and Carrington's PROJECTION OF THE ASTRAL BODY, as well as Oliver Fox's book mentioned herein, ASTRAL PROJECTION ... all books available from the No. 10 Chimes Book Catalog, or which may be ordered on page ix of this issue.

Lesson Ten

LOVE and COMPANIONSHIP

Pray

BELIEVING the HEAVENLY FATHER wants you to have this happiness, put your prayer in simple words. Your heart may be aching with a desire for a mate, but he can not be called forth unless you clearly call forth the picture in your mind and impress it into the Divine Mind Substance which surrounds you and which contains all things for you.

Add

"Not my will, but thine be done." And believe that you ARE to receive it, thanking the Father for it.

Do Everything

Do everything in your power to make this prayer come true. As does the architect, you have made your blue-print of the one whom you think will make you happy. Now, get busy in your everyday life to bring this to pass. In other words, live a life consistent with your prayer. To pray for a mate and then just bury yourself in your room, not going out anywhere where you might possibly meet him, defeats the purpose of your prayer, just as does the flaunting of yourself before every marriageable man you meet.

One student said that she had prayed for a companion and made the mental image as suggested, but had not been successful in meeting him. She was asked how she had gone about "doing everything" to make it come to pass. She said: "Well, I'm usually tired when I get through working, so I just go right home and get comfy and read. And there is no opportunity to meet anyone where I work". She was asked if she expected him to climb over the transom to meet her, since she went nowhere where she might meet him. She saw the point and laughed. As a matter of fact, she had not really wanted a mate. She just thought she ought to want one. She much preferred her books, so she kept to her books and her "comfy" evenings alone.

In order to do everything, it may be wise to call upon your neglected family friends or girl friends. Become so interesting, agreeable and well-groomed that they feel an urge to invite you to social gatherings, or to meet other friends. Learn to use your intuitive powers and your thinking capacities. Go to the places where you would be most apt to meet a man (or a girl) of the type you have in mind. Many marriages seem to happen because of propinquity.

The most difficult part of all is the FORGETTING of it which is point seven.

Forgetting

Forgetting means letting it go back from your conscious mind to the subconscious where the attracting power is generated. Men seem to sense when a girl is consciously out "after a husband" and they shy clear. With girls the same is true. However, when you have made a distinct picture on your conscious mind of that which you deeply desire, and have done everything consistent with bringing it about, then repress the thought each time it comes into your conscious mind. DO NOT TALK ABOUT IT AT ALL. Say to yourself; "I KNOW that the companion I need will be brought into my life at exactly the right moment" each time the desire comes to dwell or dream about him, or to wish for him. If you continue to wish and desire, after you have put your prayer into the Ether you destroy the power of your prayer, because you are doubting. When this occurs get very busy with your everyday tasks, also making yourself more attractive, perhaps trying your hair in new ways, correcting and straightening your posture, and being always outwardly and inwardly ready to meet new friends of both sexes. Although you consciously "forget" your prayer, subconsciously it continues to work for you bringing about the changes in you which will attract to you the companion you prayed for.

This lesson goes out to many students, some are unmarried and in that case this particular lesson is of great interest. Those already happily married can pass these suggestions on to acquaintances who are hungering, almost eating their hearts out, perhaps for the right congenial companionship.

Do not lower your standards in order to find a companion. You will attract people of higher standards as you continue to grow in soul-stature, through the practice of basic principles learned in the Science of Everyday Living. Later on, during the advanced lessons, you find your own higher standards have become a part of your Being, and are not merely mental desires.

Sometimes in a heart-rending agony of loneliness, standards are thrown to the winds, and acquaintances are picked up in one way or another. Let the lesson of BURMAH WHITE, a pretty young blonde girl of Los Angeles, illustrate the consequences. After her conviction in a criminal proceedings in which she became involved through a young man she married without investigation, a chance acquaintance, she wrote the following letter which was published in the newspapers.

"In the freedom and laxity of this modern day and age, the general tendency of girls in their late 'teens' and early twenties to accept people at their face value, without questioning, is drastically wrong. Girls, before furthering any acquaintance with a prospective suitor, make sure you know who he is, where he is from, and who his family is. In other words, investigate him thoroughly first!"

These lessons are preliminary to the advanced series of "Inner Teachings" offered by Chimes entitled "Light on the Science of Living." For more information, see page x.

From the standpoint of daily life, there is one thing we do know: that man is here for the sake of other men ...

Tetsuzo Tanigawa

This brief span of human life – often little longer than fifty years – cannot reasonably be all there is. This life is a school, a training center, a nursery, the ante-room of the greater world. It is well if you truly learn, even if only a little. But it is useless to hoard what cannot be taken with you. Make the most of this occasion toward some spiritual gain. Seize the time!

– From Oomoto, Japanese bi-monthly

William James

The great use of life is to spend it for something which outlasts it.

Marcus Aurelius

There are many high and noble arts in this world but there is none superior to the art of living. It is a difficult art, in which we are all students slowly but steadily gaining wisdom by learning our lessons.

The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts.

Rene Guenon

The close relationship between the symbolisms of the cave and the heart explains the function of the cave from the initiatic point of view as representing a spiritual center.

– From The Heart and the Cave (not available)

Dag Hammarskjold

The longest journey
Is the journey inwards
Of him who has chosen his destiny,
Who has started upon his quest
For the source of his being.

Henri Bergson

The great mystic does not stop at ecstasy as at the end of a journey. The ecstasy is indeed rest, but as though at a station where the engine is still under steam, until it is time to race again.

Chimes is a point of contact for the healing and blessing of thousands who receive it and who believe that the power of Spirit is unlimited. If YOU believe that Spirit responds to the needs of all who ask for guidance, for protection, for strength, for the healing of any condition, that we DO receive as we believe and accept our good, then write your request for special prayers to Chimes, stating your need briefly. The moment you begin to write to Chimes your special prayer requests, you will be getting results. Countless blessings will flow to you, and your prayer may possibly already have been answered.

Sermonette

HOW TO GET AN ANSWER

By Dr. Joseph Murphy
Beverly Hills, California

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. Matthew 7:7

Here you are told how to get an answer ... you shall receive that for which you ask. It shall be opened to you when you knock, and you shall find that for which you are searching.

This teaching implies the definiteness of mental and spiritual laws. There is always a direct response from the Infinite Intelligence of your subconscious mind to your conscious thinking. If you ask for bread, you will not receive a stone. You must ask believing, if you are to receive.

Your mind moves from thought to thing. Unless there is first an image in the mind, it cannot move, for there would be nothing for it to move toward. Your prayer, which is your mental act, must be accepted as an image in your mind before the power from your subconscious will play upon it and make it productive. You must reach a point of acceptance in your mind, an unqualified and undisputed state of agreement.

This contemplation should be accompanied by a feeling of joy and restfulness in foreseeing the certain accomplishment of your desire. The sound basis for the art and science of true prayer is your knowledge and complete confidence that the movement of your conscious mind will gain a definite response from your subconscious mind, which is one with boundless wisdom and infinite power. This is the way your prayers are answered.

The Amazing Laws of Cosmic Mind Power by Dr. Murphy illustrates how the above principles may be put to work, one of Dr. Murphy's many books available from Chimes.

Letters to the Editor

ALL KINDS OF CLASSES – I have learned more by reading Chimes than by going to any other class, for in it are things I have always wanted to know which I have never received in class. I hope there will always be a Chimes. Thanks again,

Mrs. Bertha Mayhood, San Francisco, CA

(In one form or another Spirit always fulfills man's needs. As long as there is a need of spiritual knowledge, man will be filled with it in some fashion ... Chimes or otherwise. Meanwhile we'll keep on trying.)

SECRETS OF SUCCESS – I am wondering if you folks might have seen an article that appeared in December 1971 in the Miami Herald concerning the role ESP plays in the success of many prominent business executives. "It's really the executives' ESP powers that makes them successful ..." says E. Douglas Dean, a member of the American Society for Psychical Research. Of sixty-seven company presidents tested at an annual convention of company presidents, those who scored the highest also directed the most profitable companies. Any comments?

A. Stewart, Long Beach, CA

(The article isn't familiar, but not at all surprised at the findings. It only stands to reason that anyone would be more successful when tuned in to the cosmic forces. They are infallible ... we are not.)

WHEN THE STUDENT IS READY – I am very much interested in the Inner Teachings I have been receiving from Chimes containing the White Brotherhood lessons. They have opened entirely new avenues of thought. I can only exclaim that they are just wonderful!

Winifred Huycke, Issaquah, WA

(We agree ... they are wonderful lessons. Even those who have been reading Chimes for years who take them seem to agree.)

A World Beyond

the author of "Here and Hereafter" and "A Gift of Prophecy" brings you now an extraordinary description of the afterlife, the result of a series of messages from the famous medium, Arthur Ford, after his death.

Dictated by Ford to Mrs. Montgomery is a full explanation of what life is like beyond the physical plane. Ford tells what it is like to make the transition from earthly form to the Spirit world where all appears with infinitely greater beauty and intensity to the soul prepared to perceive it.

Ford also portrays the active and constructive life being led in the world beyond by John F. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy, FDR, Winston Churchill, Martin Luther King, Jr., as well as many other famous people, including Bishop Pike with whom he was deeply involved himself. A WORLD BEYOND is a totally unique exploration of the nature of man, God and the universe.
