FAIRY LAND

And as the Sun lifted itself above the Morning horizon
It spread its joy rays over the sky
Into my mind
And rebounded off the sides of my Love walls.
It was a Spring morning and my worries were
Only dreams of a fortnight.
Today I will live in my joy castle and Watch the fairies of my mind
Play along the time stream
Which flows thru this sun-land on its way
To Eternity
And I shall live with no fears
For I am indestructible.

The Great White Brotherhood's

In the spheres beyond the Earth are temples of healing, temples of learning, temples of wisdom. Here the Brothers assemble, all of the one pure Light, of the one pure Spirit; and at these assemblies there is always chanted what you call The Lord's Prayer. This is a mantram with power to open the heart of every true aspirant. If such a prayer is uttered with understanding and sincerity it never fails to invoke streams of life-force from the God-head. It is like setting in motion a vibration which attracts spiritual forces, such as waves of light and truth in the ethers — which are attracted as steel is drawn to a magnet.

We cannot too strongly emphasize or recommend too much the efficacy of The Lord's Prayer. In this great prayer there is the sense of surrendering the whole being to God; and this is the first essential of healing — to surrender one's life and being to God. This does not mean that you have to meekly endure pain and ill-health. No, it means that you give yourself in faith to God. Faith denotes an inward knowing that God is all-wise, all-loving and all-powerful. Faith means that you know deep within your heart that God's will for all His Children is that they should be whole, healthy, holy and happy.

The new world to which every human soul is looking forward, beloved, will only be achieved by those willing to meet the cost of what it demands by sacrifice and love, and many realize today how heavy the price must and will be. Everything successful in human life is built upon sacrifice, and the rights of an individual must never be allowed to overrule what is for the good of all mankind.

Have love always in your hearts, and let it manifest in your daily lives, and in this way, my beloved brethren, you will assist in the peace that one day will come to all Humanity.

It seems sometimes that God taps you on the shoulder, saying, "Child, yonder is one who needs Me. I have a wonderful gift for his life. Touch him for Me with your love so that I may release the blessing I hold for him. He is not praying; he is not attuned to Me as yet. I must depend upon your making the connection between his need and My supply. That connection is the channel of your love. Touch him with your loving thought and prayers so that I may flow through you to bless him. To reach him I need somebody's permission, somebody's service, somebody's love, that transmission may be possible from Me to him."

Suggestions for Effective Prayer

I would refer briefly to the Universal teaching of the Great White Brotherhood. You who have studied these teachings recognize that you are all students of the deeper things, the great mysteries of human life on your Earth and also hereafter.

A word about the Centers of Light in man. We do not advocate for the Western world the Eastern method of developing these Centers, but we say this: that through living truly in Christ the Centers of Light will open naturally. Gardeners experiment with flowers and fruit plants to force their growth — but there is always a risk. Let the subtle Centers in your own bodies, my beloved, open and unfold through living the inner life, through the attunement of the Self to the higher world and through selfless service. You will develop naturally these Centers of Light and Power that are within each one of you when you live the Christ life.

When you pray rightly, the channel for the flowing in and out of the God Power should open. Although you may use words at times which may suggest a personal prayer, strive to use this prayer in a way which includes all of God's Children. You can never pray for yourself alone; that could not be true prayer. Prayer must be an aspiration to the All-wise Eternal Spirit of Love and Light, and an endeavor to come into at-one-ment with your Father God so that Christ the Son may become active in your mortal life.

Let's look at TWIN SOULS

PART III.

THE NATURE OF THE TIES BETWEEN SOULS

The Karmic Tie

ESOTERIC science recognizes two types of tie that can draw souls together and bind them in a common fate. These binding ties, which originate upon the inner planes where the unseen causes operate, must be carefully distinguished from mutual attractions that arise upon the plane of effects, cognized by the physical senses.

The commonest type of bond is known as the Karmic Tie. The term Karmic (adjective of Karma) is borrowed from the Eastern Esoteric School, and is used, for convenience sake, to denote the forces, both good and bad, set going in previous incarnations. No corresponding English term exists; the word Fate, its nearest equivalent, having come to mean, especially in its adjectival form, a force exclusively evil.

The Karmic Tie between souls has its root in attractions experienced in past lives. Attraction may occur upon any of the six planes of individualized existence and be of a nature appropriate to that plane. The attractions exercised upon the first or physical plane are simply a matter of physics. Gravitation, capillary attraction, absorption, and similar processes, take place upon the subplanes of dense matter; and magnetic attraction, chemical affinities, etc., manifest upon the etheric subplanes of our world. Emotional attraction does not exist below the second plane, where it makes itself felt in the urge of the instincts, therefore no tie is formed by mere physical propinquity; and emotional action and reaction have to occur before any bond is established.

It is reaction which is the essence of the bond. The fact that one person feels an emotion towards another does not link them together. It is only when the object of the emotion reacts towards it that a bond is formed, because he has then, as it were, taken into his own nature the force proceeding from the other and so formed a continuity of substance, however ethereal, and it is by means of this imperceptible thread that much of the work of practical occultism, both black and white, is performed.

Should one person love another and the love be reciprocated, a bond is formed; should one person love another and the love be returned by hate, contempt, loathing, or any form of resentment or unkindness, a bond will also be formed, and for the rest of their incarnation these rapports will influence the lives of those whom they unite in degrees proportionate to the intensity of the emotions that are experienced. It is only complete indifference that prevents a tie from being contracted, any emotional reaction sets up a rapport.

An action and its answering reaction upon any plane set up a rapport, whether the instincts be roused upon the second plane or the emotions on the third, the relationship of teacher and pupil or fellow-student upon the planes of the mind, or of priest, spiritual guide, or fellow-worshipper on the sixth plane. Upon whatever plane an action and reaction take place a bond is formed between the two interacting units.

These bonds may set up the most intimate relationship, or be a momentary contact immediately forgotten by those concerned; but as long as any emotion in relation to the memory exists the rapport will remain. Should emotion towards a particular person still be felt at the time of death, this emotion, having no means of gratification in the subjective state that follows on death, is stored up until, objective existence having been resumed in a new incarnation, the conditions for its expression are again available. It is this unexhausted emotion which forms the Karmic Tie; and though it waits for hundreds of years, as time is reckoned in revolutions of the earth, it loses none of its force, but reacts to the same objects that previously stimulated it whenever those objects shall again become present. Hence the sudden outrush of "love at first sight" and the sense of understanding and intimacy which "twin souls" experience.

Each renewal of a Karmic Tie increases its strength, and though it may start as the merest carnal attraction in the childhood of the race, as body after body comes into function in the course of evolution, the rapport will spread from one to another until a great spiritual mating be achieved. If, however, the bodies of the pair fail to develop synchronously, then a strong bond will exist upon the lower planes, and the higher self of the more advanced individual be left unmated and unsatisfied, possibly loathing the response of its own lower nature to a degrading attraction, yet unable to free itself therefrom. Such a predicament threatens danger and suffering and frequently causes those tragedies of passion and crime that in all periods of history bear witness to the primitive forces that civilization seeks to control.

A Karmic Tie, however, only develops great strength when all the forces of the nature are concentrated upon a single object with great intensity of feeling; this happens comparatively rarely; unless the desires are thwarted under tragic conditions. A consummated passion usually sleeps the sleep of repletion; but should those who love be parted, either by circumstances or by death, then the unfulfilled love remains as a bond upon the third plane, which for a long time is unaffected by the death of the body. If the parting be by death, and if the survivor, either in sleep, as often happens, or by means of psychic development, become conscious, even momentarily, of the third plane of existence, the bond that exists thereon will draw the two souls into contact again. This is the true means of communication with the departed, to exalt consciousness so that we become aware of their state of existence, not to recall them to awareness of our mundane condition by means of a medium. . . . A medium should only be resorted to in the case of a soul that is earthbound and cannot proceed to its own sphere, and then only for the purpose of giving it quittance.

The third plane is the sphere of existence referred to in spiritualistic literature as the heaven-world; but before the out-going soul, released from its body, can attain to this state, it has to pass through a phase of second-plane existence known as purgatory, where arrears of evil are paid off in the suffering brought about by subjective realization, thereby adjusting balance of fate. Once the soul is released from the deadening influences of the physical body all subtle forces become increasingly tangible, and although the newcomer cannot transcend his own plane of existence till his debts be worked out, the soul that has gone on ahead may, if sufficiently evolved, make telepathic contact with him for short periods, and so give help and comfort upon the hardest part of death's journey. As soon as the soul of the newcomer has risen above its purgatorial experience it enters the "heaven-world," and is then upon approximately the same plane as its mate. No barrier of differing states of existence now keeps them apart, the bond of love exerting its natural attraction draws them together; they can then pass the rest of their time between incarnations in companionship. The bond between them will tend to draw them into incarnation again at the same time and under similar conditions, and then upon meeting will come that strange uprush of subconscious memory so incomprehensible to those whose philosophy does not extend beyond a single life on a single plane, but so readily explicable in terms of the esoteric doctrines.

Should two souls be drawn together life after life by these means, in each life loving and companioning each other and steadfastly eschewing all other attractions, the bond thus formed will become very strong. This, however, but rarely happens. It does not require many incarnations, with the long discarnate periods that intervene between them, to take us back to the ages when human civilization was in its infancy and nothing loftier than second plane unions were being formed. As is well known, low-level unions are formed with great facility and are of little endurance, so that a soul, even in the course of a single incarnation, may have formed several ties of this nature, especially in civilizations where polygamy was practised. Each of such unions will be able to exercise a drawing power in proportion to its intensity upon the plane on which it took place, so that the soul that has contracted such unions, and few have not, will be pulled in different directions by the ties it has formed.

Your Prayer Life

ON LIFE'S BUSY THOROUGHFARES
WE MEET WITH ANGELS UNAWARES

I've never seen God,
but I know how I feel . . .
It's people like you who make Him "SO REAL" . . .

My God is no stranger,
He's friendly and gay . . .
And He doesn't ask me to weep when I pray . . .

It seems that I pass Him
so often each day
In the faces of People
I meet on my way . . .

He's the stars in the heaven,
a smile on some face . . .
A leaf on a tree
or a rose in a vase . . .

He's winter and autumn and summer and spring . . .
In short, GOD IS EVERY
REAL, WONDERFUL THING . . .

I wish I might meet Him
much more than I do,
I would if there were
MORE PEOPLE LIKE YOU.

Make Your Own World

Man is made a little lower than the angels, and yet with the ability to choose. Thus he may turn conditions or positions or associations into Hell or Heaven, according to his use of choice.

from The A. R. E. Journal #5149 quotes by Edgar Cayce

It's All Here Now

Advanced metaphysical thinkers emphasize that all treatment work is done in the absolute. It is based on the conviction that God is all and that God is the only reality. The absolute is the conviction that perfection is already established and that which the individual seeks is already fulfilled.

from New Thought magazine by Robert H. Bitzer

Nature the Best Teacher

I believe emphatically in religion. God made religion, and man made theology, just as God made the country and man made the town. I have the largest sympathy for religion, and the largest contempt for a misleading theology. Do not feed children on a maudlin sentimentalism or dogmatic religion; give them Nature. Let their souls drink in all that is pure and sweet. Rear them, if possible, amid pleasant surroundings. If they come into the world with souls groping in darkness, let them see and feel the light. Do not terrify them in early life with the fear of an after world. Never was a child made more noble and good by a fear of hell.

Let Nature teach them the lessons of good and proper living, combined with an abundance of well-balanced nourishment. Those children will grow to be the best outside. They will absorb it as a plant absorbs the sunshine and the dew.

from Luther Burbank in Orion magazine

The Soul Always Knows

How can will manifest itself intelligently and unconsciously at the same time? It is difficult, if not impossible, to conceive of intellection apart from consciousness. By consciousness we do not necessarily imply physical or corporeal consciousness. Consciousness is a quality of the sentient principle, or, in other words, the soul; and latter often displays activity even while the body is asleep or paralyzed.

from H. P. Blavatsky in Sunrise magazine

DEAR GOD: WE PRAY

For the sorrowing who mourn lost ones. May they realize the truth of life, that there is NO death, that their loved ones live on as they themselves will live on, endlessly.

For the sick and suffering, in home and hospital, and for those struck down on the waysides of the world. May they have divine release from pain, and may that harmony come unto them which heals disease.

For the sick in mind, in mental homes and hospitals. May they be lifted into the light of understanding and mental health.

For those in jails, in prisons and all places of confinement. May enlightenment come to them while their walks of life are so circumscribed.

For the disquieted souls of men, on Earth and in the astral realms. Bring them into Thy Peace: LOVING SELFLESS SERVICE.

For the helpless, the poor, the hungry, the shelterless. Open our hearts — the hearts of their Earth brethren — that their needs may be supplied.

For the lonely, the heart-hungry, those away from home and loved ones. May they find the Divine Companion within, the Christ, to comfort them.

For the Youth of all nations. May there be a new environment created for them, that they may live in purity of thought, purity of word, and purity of deed, in Thee.

For those in the sunset of life. May their "going home" be easy and painless, as Thou preparest them now, oh God, for service in the World of Light above.

For all Humanity, from the North Pole to the South Pole, and all around the Earth. May a universal brotherhood become their guiding motive, so that PEACE may be in all the world.

For Thine Angels, Thy Saints and Martyrs, Thy Holy Ones. May the way open so that Thy Light shining through them may reach and quicken every Soul to realize the eternal truth and beauty of Brotherhood between all Realms of Being.

For the fighting forces of every race and nation, which we sincerely hope will soon be no longer needed. Illumine their leaders; open ALL eyes to the truth which will cause wars to cease forever: — that ALL MEN are brothers.

For those who have been released from Earth's cares and lessons. May peace be with them, and a deeper understanding of life's true purpose and meaning come to them as they now study in the Halls of Learning beyond the grave.

For the leaders of each and every race and nation. May each heart and mind open to the truth of ETERNAL BROTHERHOOD. May the leaders help to open the way under Thy Guidance, beloved Father-Mother of us all, so that Brotherhood may come into all the Earth.

WE PRAY that all of the people of the world may be stirred to pray for the coming of PEACE, for the cessation forever of war between nations and races, between factions and individuals, so that Thy Kingdom may truly come on Earth as it is in Heaven. Amen

For copies of this prayer, send self-addressed stamped envelope to The White Lodge, P.O. Box 909, Del Mar, CA 92014.

KNOW PEACE

IF YOU WOULD

Before your eyes can see God they must be incapable of shedding tears for any suffering of your own. Before your ears can hear, they must have lost sensitiveness. Your voice may not speak eternal wisdom until it has no power to wound. Before your self can stand in the presence of the Eternal, its feet must have been bathed in the blood of suffering, penance, restitution. Then kill the ambition to excel in the poor paths of Fame. Cease to regard this life as your best possession.

Then work for God as earnestly as others work for Mammon; and respect thy life as those respect life who treasure it most, and be happy as those who live for happiness. In the hearts of all is the source of all error, in disciple as well as in the man of desire. Study a plant of mustard—witness it grow and bud. But if thou shalt hew it down so that it never beareth seed, behold a strange thing—it will sprout again and grow through the years, if it never beareth. And this although it is only a material form. Now, therefore, if a human soul shall not be cut down, yet shall not enter into life as a creator by reason that it wills not, then the Spirit of life everlasting shall go into it, and it shall contain itself, and therefore live forever. Study the truth of mustard life. Only the strong in God can act upon this teaching and hold the lower nature. The weak must wait its maturity and then will come their struggle. It will strive to keep the feet from the Path; and may succeed. But if once all its power be wiped out; if once thou doest the will of the Father earnestly, as His obedient child—that is the atonement, for it shall give strength to do every work of the Creator of Being. It will seem to take the very life. That is because it takes the animal soul and throttles it. But the human soul will recover, and the Spirit come into it. This is the time of the Silence of the Soul. Then it shall be clear to you how dark are the lives of those who are around you and have no goal of union with the Spirit towards which to race. And you will see and know karma. Also you will see that because of your past incarnations your karma is inextricably interwoven with the karma of the world. This is that saying which the Nazarene answered when it was asked of Him ‘Who is my neighbor?’ If . . . you shall once be able to know the Peace of Silence, you then shall learn of all things about you, for the Earth is Brahm’s, and all in it teaches His works.

If your soul once knows this Peace, no storm of sin or of sorrow can ever more ward you far aside from the Path, for its knowledge is an abiding wisdom.

PSYCHIC PERCEPTION

and your child

PART III

Let Psychic Perception Raise Your Child

Your perception of the truth that God indwells every child gives you the opportunity to claim constantly that the wisdom, intelligence, harmony, and love of God are resurrected in your offspring. You are always en rapport subconsciously with your child, and the latter feels your conviction and responds accordingly. You are living in an objective and subjective world, and you must also do those things which are objectively correct.

Why Permissiveness Is Always Wrong.

Permissive parents do not really understand the laws of their conscious and subconscious mind. Children learn by education, observation, and experience. Parents should control their children, teach them about God and the powers within them in a very simple way so the child can understand. Children should never be permitted to do as they like, but must definitely be taught and made to conform to the Golden Rule and think, speak, and act towards others as they would wish others to think, speak, and act towards them. When parents do not correct and discipline their children, or offer proper guidance, the latter lack self-reliance, security, and self-control. Parents must exercise their authority and discipline with rationality, understanding, love, and responsiveness to the child. When they do, their children grow up full of self-confidence, poise, balance, and self-control. These parents issue sound directives and instructions to their children and they point out to them why their commands are right. They are able to explain lucidly to the children why the directives are for their good.

Avoid the Dictatorial, Authoritarian, and Totalitarian Attitude

Recently I talked to a young girl of 18, who said her mother had laid the law down to her in no uncertain terms, with orders such as: "Keep away from all boys; sex is evil; men are beasts like your father. You can't use rouge or lipstick or powder – these are of the devil; you must not dance or go to the movies – all these are sins; you must believe in our religion – if you don't, you will burn in a lake of fire," etc.

This mother was really a little Hitler with her you-must-do-this-or-else attitude. The girl was full of fear; she was frustrated, hateful, discontented, and suffering from a profound inferiority complex. She came from New England, and as you probably have surmised already, she had run away from home.

The first thing I did was to teach her who she was from a spiritual standpoint by explaining that there was only one Power and Presence, and that It was within her. I further explained to her that she could contact this Supreme Intelligence and It would respond to her and guide, direct, and prosper her beyond her fondest dreams.

The Special Prayer

The following is the prayer technique I suggested for her:

I am wanted, I am loved, I am needed, I am appreciated, I am Divinely expressed. I forgive myself for harboring resentful thoughts, and I fully and freely forgive my mother. Whenever I think of her, I will affirm, 'God's love fills your soul.' I am at peace. I am joyous, happy, and free. I am gainfully employed. I have a wonderful income consistent with integrity and honesty. I know that as I repeat these ideas, they sink down into my subconscious, and according to the law of my mind (as I sow, so shall I reap), all these truths will come to pass.

This young girl made a habit of this prayer, and in time it completely transformed her life. She now has a wonderful office position and is bubbling over with the joy of living.

(to be continued)

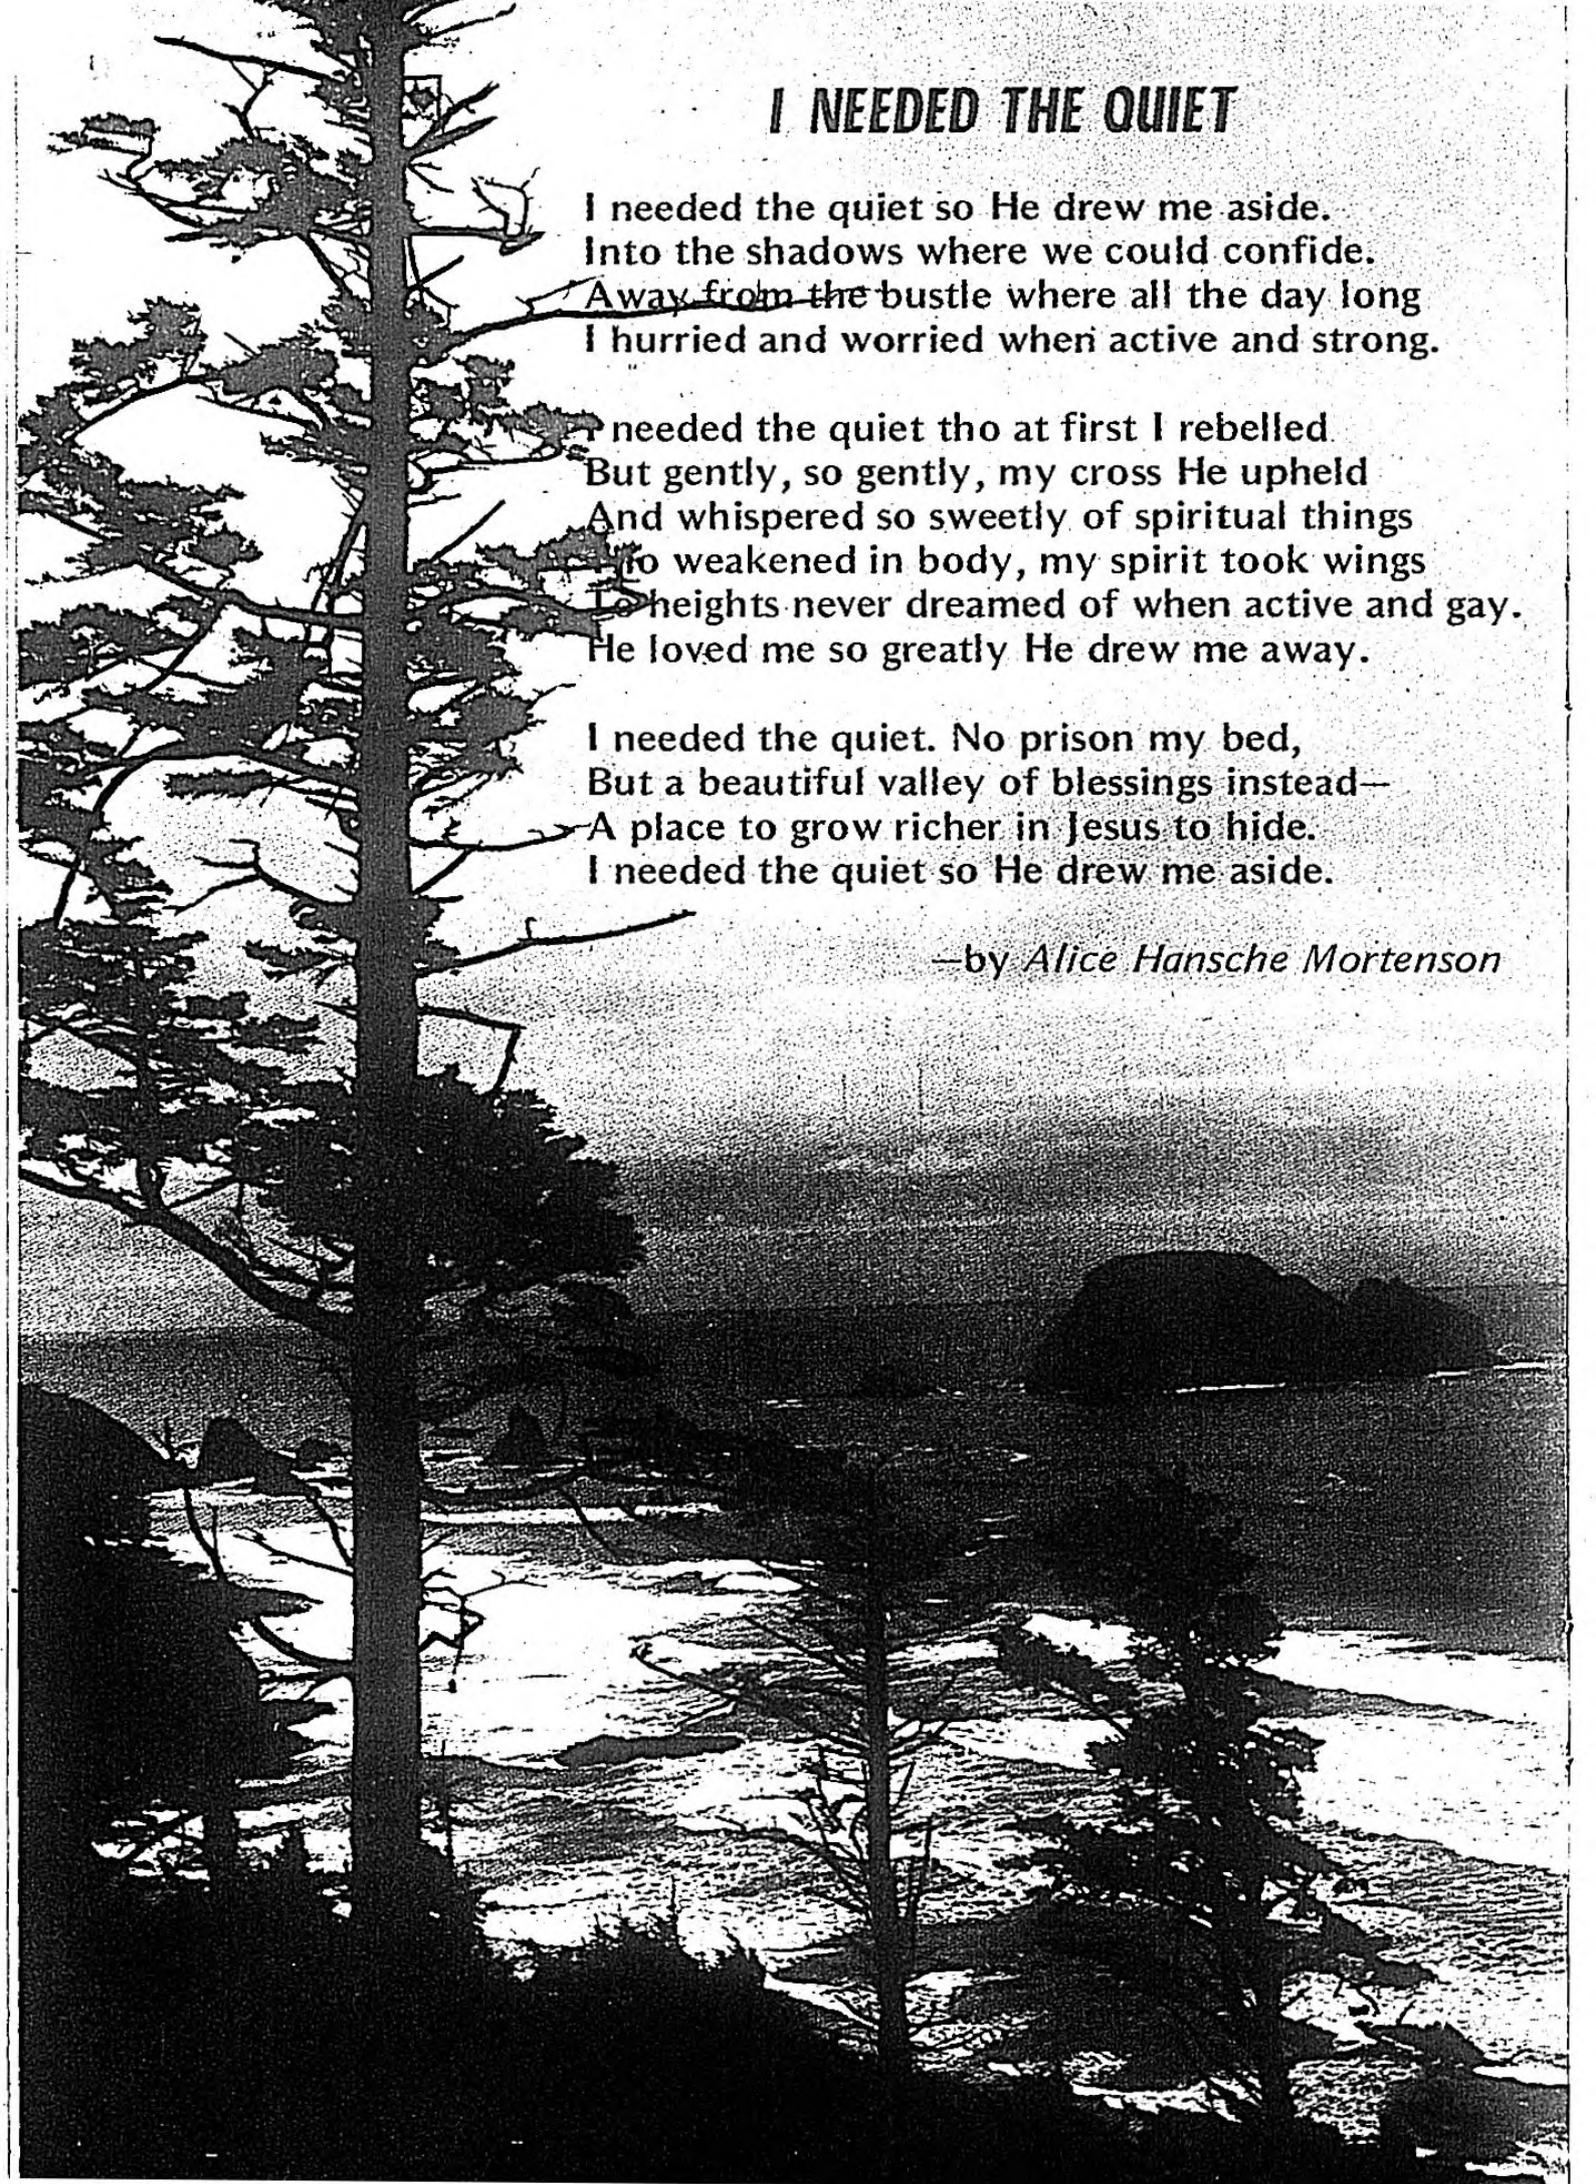

I NEEDED THE QUIET

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled.
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
So weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly He drew me away.

I needed the quiet. No prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead—
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.

BOOK TALK

FOR SOME TIME we have been witnessing the growing educational crisis . . . and maybe it is about time the crisis has arrived, for many of our concepts about knowledge need overhauling and modernizing to suit the needs of the New Age we are now entering.

It is obvious that our educational methods have not been meeting the needs of the human spirit, have not enabled the individual to formulate a balanced philosophy of life with a true sense of values, or to have the time and quiet to analyze problems and arrive at meaningful conclusions. Too much has been based on the bias of others' preconceived views and outdated knowledge. The Tibetan, through the metaphysical writer and teacher, Alice A. Bailey, sees that a balance is needed between the "self-negation" of the peaceful civilization of the Orient and the aggressive "individualism" of the West. We Westerners went into the East in search of markets — outlets for the products of our mechanical power — and we returned with the literature, philosophy and arts of the East which can yield uncalculated dividends . . . IF we make use of them. The Orient is making use of what we had to teach them of mechanization and industrialization . . . as we see in Japan's example . . . so while there is still time we must learn to synthesize the two cultures. This will mean the re-entry of the spiritual factor in life and education. This will be the education for the New Age, as the Tibetan sees it, the East-West philosophy that is to bring immense psychological and social implications in its wake. This he spells out for us in Alice A. Bailey's book, "Education in the New Age." *

Man must be trained to know who he is, what he is, and how he functions in this and other worlds. We see the key to future racial unfoldment in the science of psychology and the science of the soul, the coordination of the personality eventually bringing about its at-one-ment with the soul. The new education will deal with, analyze and interpret the laws of thought, because the mind will be regarded as the link between the soul and the brain. The new education will make man a good citizen, a planetary and interplanetary citizen, because he will then have learned brotherhood.

THE BOOKS OF

Lobsang Rampa

Famous Author and Tibetan Lama....

• THIRD EYE, The

1st of the Rampa series of books, and the most famous, it is truly immensely readable and thought provoking, containing highly controversial assertions as to how this mystic came to take on the body of a Tibetan lama in order to do his particular work on Earth.

• DOCTOR FROM LHASA

This is the saga of how Rampa proved that mortal man can discipline his mind and body to survive starvation and torture, yet evolve to ever higher states of consciousness.

• RAMPA STORY, The

A fascinating account of other aspects of this mystic author's strange life, and a look at the unusual spiritual gifts with which he is endowed and how they are put to use for good.

• CAVE OF THE ANCIENTS, The

Rampa's unequalled story revealing his experiences while undergoing spiritual mystic training at the great lamaseries of Tibet. An eye-opener you will not soon forget!

• YOU – FOREVER

This book amounts to a special course in psychic unfoldment, as well as in metaphysics, written in the ABC's of English which you can put to work instantly. Excerpts from this book have appeared often in Chimes articles.

• WISDOM OF THE ANCIENTS

This is a book of special knowledge containing many special sections valuable for psychic unfoldment training, plus many breathing exercises and special diets

• SAFFRON ROBE, The

In this account is the incredible personal story of this unusual author's boyhood at the great Lamasery at Potala, Tibet, and how while there he acquired the foundation for becoming a renowned mystic seer teacher.

• LIVING WITH THE LAMA

More details of Rampa's extraordinary existence – this time from a different angle – how his "cat" sees such goings-on. An unusual outlook on this plane as well as others.

• CHAPTERS OF LIFE

9th of the series in which Rampa gives the story of the "Coming World Leader" and what it will mean to all of Earth. Included also are instructions on how to meditate and go into trance, answers on whether astral travel is meant for YOU, and prophecies concerning happenings that will dramatically affect the destiny of all nations.

• BEYOND THE TENTH

10th in the Rampa series in which he mystically explores the spiritual potential in every human being, with advice and teachings on the care of man's physical, astral and spiritual forms.

• FEEDING THE FLAME

11th in the series in which Rampa is concerned mainly with answering some of the many questions from readers on a wide range of subjects relating to the occult.

● – All the above books $1.60 EACH, postpaid – ●

• HERMIT, The

$1.75

Here we have the 12th book in the Rampa series wherein a young monk goes to the cave of a blind hermit to learn something of his wisdom and of visitors from other planets.

• THIRTEENTH CANDLE, The

13th book in the Rampa series. More about the world of the astral, healing, life after death, and similar topics.

THINK... WHAT DID YOU FORGET?

LIGHT THE WAY FOR SOMEONE ELSE

YOU ARE A LIGHT . . . wherever you may be. Learn "how to" handle your own light that others may follow their light more readily. Become a "light teacher" to those who cross your path each day.

This is the time when you must become aware that YOU ARE TEACHING ALL THE TIME and truly begin to teach, even when not knowing the perfect expression on Earth. You must teach wherever you are, however best you can the highest of which you are capable. Here is your opportunity through Chimes to become a teacher of the INNER TEACHINGS from the White Brotherhood. 74 Soul Teaching lessons – "Light on the Science of Living" – ordered in groups of 5 – are a mental, physical and spiritual awakener that prepare you to teach truth.

These lessons are printed on 5½ x 8½ looseleaf paper, hole punched for use in ring binders, each lesson running 15 or more pages. Many contain illustrations, charts and questionnaires for review purposes, as well as prayers and letters designed to inspire and encourage the student always to progress higher.

SPIRITUAL MIND TREATMENTS

These handy Spiritual Mind Treatments by Jack and Cornelia Addington are specific Truth for specific needs. Each treatment can open a door of healing for you or someone you know.

Read these Spiritual Mind Treatments over several times slowly. Meditate on them until they are assimilated and you have made them your own. In the Silence that follows the Spirit of Truth will speak to you and bring a healing.

GOD KNOWS HOW

“But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.” Matt. 19:26

God knows how to become blossoms and fruit on the tree. I don't, but God knows how.

God knows how to keep the stars and planets secure in their courses, to regulate the tides and seasons in a perfect plan.

God knows how to produce unlimited power out of the rocks of the earth as oil and atomic power; and out of the heavens as electricity and solar power. No man can fathom God's work. Only the Infinite understands.

God knows how to join two cells and produce a beautiful little body complete to the last detail. No man can reproduce Life; but God creates and maintains His creation according to a plan so magnificent that it is beyond the vision of man to behold the glory of it. God knows how to turn food into blood and flesh and bones, how to constantly create new body cells and supply the muscles with strength. We know that it happens but we cannot understand this miracle.

I now release all my problems to Him who knows how to solve them and say with Jesus, “Of myself I can do nothing, the Father within me doeth the works”. Oh, how beautifully He does them. I surrender my life completely to God, the only Power and the only Presence. And so it is.

The foregoing is based on Jack and Cornelia Addington's helpful little book: Your Needs Met, designed for keeping close at hand to guide you in resolving every daily problem. Available from Chimes, see page ix to order.

Questions We All Ask

by G. de Purucker

Four small paperbacks (approximately 175 pages each) provide refreshing answers to questions from children and adults on philosophy, religion and science — on the atom, the cosmos, nebulae and stars.

The basic teachings of death, rebirth, cycles and the nature of mind are explained. And there are illuminating sidelights on earthquakes, devils, will and memory, thoughts, habits and the power of sound. These and countless other important but seldom discussed topics are handled with charm, erudition and humor.

Prayer

Ministry

Chimes is a point of contact for the healing and blessing of thousands who receive it and who believe that the power of Spirit is unlimited. If YOU believe that Spirit responds to the needs of all who ask for guidance, for protection, for strength, for the healing of any condition, that we DO receive as we believe and accept our good, then write your request for special prayers to Chimes, stating your need briefly. The moment you begin to write to Chimes your special prayer requests, you will be getting results. Countless blessings will flow to you, and your prayer may possibly already have been answered.

It's no secret what God can do. What He has done for others He can do for you.

CHAPTER TWO

“FROM SPRING INTO SUMMER”

SAINT CATHERINE

PART I.

As one travels along the inward way, he may be somewhat surprised, at a certain stage, to find himself in a seemingly most precarious situation. For in the beginning stages as his understanding gained wisdom, he found also strength to overcome and set aside each trial and temptation that beset him. Growing in faith and increasing desire, and drawing on the strength thus given he proceeded without a further thought toward these fires: they were there, but no longer cast their heat upon him. There then ensues a stretch of fairly smooth road, in which the traveler is beset only mildly, his attention being needed and used for deeper, higher, instruction. All is beautiful, wonderful, there is no thing or thought that could disturb him too deeply! He seems to be literally borne upon the wings of an eagle, as his spiritual flight soars upward beyond the clouds and storms of the earth's atmosphere. It is truly the springtime of spiritual birth — glorious, new, ever-producing, and sun-lit! Then, as in all cycles of life, must come the heat of summer. It is at this precise point that the deeper sufferings, the scorch of the sun, the very agony of life is felt to such a degree that even the drawing of one breath requires grace from God!

Of a sudden, without warning, spring up fires of temptations one never knew existed — or perhaps had felt completely overcome before! With intensity will they burn and kindle — and if firmly pushed back from the waking consciousness, they will insidiously manifest themselves during sleep, or perhaps when one is just waking and has not full command of his faculties. It is as if all the demons of the world have concentrated their strength and power upon him! And, indeed, in all probability, they have! For we need not think for a moment that Lucifer will relinquish one soul without loosing all the deceptions and powers of his might upon him: for in that one soul, lies also the key to many others who will know light because of him!

It has pleased our loving and all-wise Father for a time to insure and protect this traveler in order to guide him securely onto the right path and instill such dedication and devotion, and sincere desire for Him that he be completely outfitted for the summer months to come.

Now the days burn hotter and hotter, each moment a personal battle with all the forces of evil; were it not for great exceeding grace from our Beloved one could not withstand the first hour nor even endure its beginning moments! It takes constant continual prayer to make it from one breath to another, from sunset to sunrise. One knows surely, without a shadow of a doubt, that everything depends upon the grace of our Lord. One sees magnificent grace extended one moment, and rejoices; and sees it withdrawn the next, and as he stumbles and sorrows, knows to the center of his soul his complete dependency on This our God, and his own weakness and worthlessness without Him!

Life seems to be upside down. Where are the glorious days of joy and gladness, the blossoming of springtime? Then enters Satan even more cunningly than before, for he plants the seed of self-despair, and waters it with our own tears! One at this point will feel surely, he will know (he thinks!), that without a doubt he has fallen: that the Good Father has given him over to delusion and destruction! A compensating, burning love for the Beloved sustains hope, and even this is torment in its finest degree, for being so tortured in the flesh, he desires with all his strength to escape this furnace and be with God. Yet he feels too weak and useless to be found worthy! This is as close to hell as one of the Father's children will come — to be so awakened unto Him that every atom of his being strains to Him, and yet to feel so far from Him. One at this terminal would state quickly that he feels he is at the farthest, darkest corner of the universe, so intense are his trials and temptations!

After Lucifer has succeeded in badgering down the self-confidence of this Godly aspirant, he multiplies the confusion and despair by adding aridity! As if experiencing the horrible harangues of unseen forces were not enough, now this one knows too the heart-ache of aridity! Moments, hours, days in which every effort at prayer seems blocked by an invisible brick wall; indeed, in which he cannot feel anything at all!

He knows within himself his true love and yearning for God, but he cannot feel it, evidence it at prayer, or show it even unto himself. He knows too, by great grace only, that the Good Master will rescue him from this fiery furnace, from this seeming dead-end, if he can but endure to the end. He begins now to seriously wonder if there are horrible hidden faults within himself, worse even than he thought, that such a just and loving Creator would subject him to all these tribulations.

Overcoming The Last Enemy

It has been said, "Cowards die many times." Every year is a little death. Basically every fear is a fear of death. It is only when we cease to fear death that we are able to face life fearlessly. Death has been called "the last enemy", actually it is the first enemy that we should overcome if we are to enjoy abundant living.

Is death really an enemy? Is it not rather our feeling about death that should be destroyed? Death comes only to the body. It does not touch the Spirit. It is our belief about death that needs to be changed that it may cease to be an enemy.

Nothing can happen to life. Life cannot die. Once a person understands this, death can have no power over him. The Christ within is Life eternal. Eternal means changeless. Divine Life is perfect and changeless. It can never die. The form that it uses may change, but the spirit is indestructible.

The foregoing is based on excerpts from a lovely little 28-page book entitled, Life Never Dies, by Jack Ensign Addington. Printed on deluxe paper, the cover and envelope a lovely shade of blue, embossed in gold, it would make a meaningful gift to friends and loved ones who seek the answers about the life after this one. You may order it on page ix.

PRACTICAL RESULTS OF COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS

a continuation of the inner experiences that lead to Cosmic Consciousness

As you enter still more deeply into the state of Cosmic Consciousness (for this grows within you), as a business person your business increases, for you and God are ONE. Long ago, when you first placed your feet upon the path leading to Divinity, you were probably severely tested. You may have had to give up personal possessions, money, friends, even position in life, but now your reward comes to you. You realize that money, too, may be a spiritual substance, blessed for the good of the world. Only in that way could you now use your money. Therefore it comes to you again, and this time you really KNOW what to do with it. You know it is not for yourself alone, but for every creature that has proceeded out of the Mouth of God. You seek for the ways to use it that will bring the most Light to human-kind. You no longer differentiate between black and brown and yellow. All are alike in your eyes . . . all need YOU and the help you are now equipped to give.

YOUR NEW VISION

You no longer can look at other human beings as apart from you, they are WITHIN you . . . an indivisible part of you. They are in YOUR world, as you are in THEIR world. You are eternally interlocked in the BODY OF GOD . . . living, breathing Cells . . . centers of consciousness. You experience that Divine Emotion — COMPASSION. You consecrate your life all over again. This time you do it in a different way, a deeper way. You no longer merely OFFER YOUR SERVICES to God. You reflect God; and you know what needs to be done, and you go ahead and do it. Not until THIS SUPREME CONSCIOUSNESS comes to you can you have made available to you the full cooperation of the Hidden Forces of Life. With the coming of this final consecration and VOLUNTARY LINKING of your life with all other life (which is nothing more nor less than an acknowledgment of the TRUE STATE of Life as it really is), miracles are made available for you to use.

Time and Space become as one to you. You do not work in days, but in Eternity. You fly on winged feet. Night-times bring but the moments of refreshment in the GREAT ETERNAL DAY which is life! You know that even with the final shedding of the garment of flesh you would go right on . . . there would be scarcely any pause in your service with relation to mankind. This change comes to you: you no longer work for your fellow men, but with them . . . walking right along side of them, helping to lift their heavy burdens . . . giving them the Words of Light from your Consciousness of Light which cannot help but lighten the burdens. In this is your great Joy! As God once walked beside you in your young days, gently urging you on to that mountain top which you have now achieved, so you now walk beside those to whom you become as a god.

Lessons on Unfolding . . .

CONCERNING THE NON-SPIRITISTIC USE OF
PSYCHIC FACULTIES

PART I.

We are about to discuss the methods by which gifted persons (called Mediums) succeed in receiving communications from those who have passed from the visible body. In order to understand those methods it will be necessary that we first consider certain obscure faculties which, while they occasionally play their part in the transmission of messages from the Beyond, are more frequently employed in obtaining mundane information independently of the five senses.

There is advantage in familiarizing the mind with the achievements on earth of faculties which can be used for, and find their supreme use in, communication with life beyond earth. The delicate mechanism of an astronomical telescope enables us to scan the distant heavens, but it can be used in daylight to bring within minute observation the movement of leaves on some distant tree. Such an instrument is the psychic's sensitivity. It can be employed to “contact” realms beyond earth, but is more easily examined, tested and understood when used on earthly objects.

We shall, therefore, speak first of psychic sensitivity and what it can accomplish in obtaining information from earth and humanity.

Let us imagine ourselves without eyes. We should then be unconscious of those impressions coming from a distance which we now perceive as a landscape. The human eye is part of the mechanism by which we become aware of what is happening at a distance. But many things happen around us which cannot be perceived by the eye; we cannot, for instance, see thoughts forming in the mind of a friend, nor can we see the speech or music which is being broadcast, but which becomes audible to us when a radio apparatus is tuned-in. It is just conceivable that mankind might, in the course of ages, develop the power of perceiving and interpreting those etheric movements without the aid of radio receivers: but it is certain that some men have already succeeded in perceiving and interpreting thoughts formed in the mind of a distant friend. Distance does not seem to limit the exercise of that power. There is reason for believing that thought-transmission is habitually used by those who have left the physical body; the difficulty of understanding what discarnate friends may wish to impart will be progressively diminished as mankind succeeds in cultivating receptivity.

(Follow this subject a little more closely yourself in The Mental Phenomena of Spiritualism by Rev. C. Drayton Thomas — available to you on page ix.)

Here is a little something for Chimes which I ran across from a student of a “Creative Thinking” course given in Fort Lauderdale, Florida:

I know you believe you understand what you think I said;
But, I am not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant.

The above has helped me considerably in the business world, and I find that I no longer lose my temper with others as I used to do. Hope it will help your readers like it helped me. I am much happier now.

Lesson Twenty

PSYCHOLOGY OF COLOR

The Effect of Colors on Health and Happiness

PART II

Each color has a certain inner meaning and a certain message to the beholder. Learn the messages of the colors so you can give out to the world your own particular message by the colors you wear and the colors you attract as you journey through this interesting, full, rich life.

YELLOW

YELLOW expresses Freedom ... the Freedom of the Sun which is ever shining outward, and which continues to shine unless something is placed in its path to block its rays, such as clouds or roofs or window-shades.

In cities where the dwellers have reached farther into the consciousness of Heaven, symbolizing their lighter, happier lives by painting houses with the rich Canary Yellow, or the softer Daffodil Yellow, or the white with the sun imprisoned in it by the addition of faint shades of yellow, or in white with pastel shades we also find the "smoke nuisance" being done away with. Factories in surrounding territories use electricity instead of coal to run their machineries and to heat when heat is necessary. Of course it costs more at present, but where one is WILLING, the Divine Intelligence within attracts the additional money to live in the Heaven way.

Yellow is a spreading, lighting, moving color. The movement or vibration of Yellow is outward and onward! The sun radiates out its yellow-white rays, spreading them constantly to greater and greater areas as they leave their source in the center of the sun. How we long for and love the freedom which lights our way by day. When the sun shines we feel free and want to go out and work or play. When it does not we fail to see any reason for going out into the mountains or to the seashore. Our interest wanes. Yet we human beings can use paint of the color of the sun, which has some of its qualities imprisoned, and by this Sun-color bring radiance into our cities in a new way.

Yellow is curative and vitalizing. If you feel depressed, wear a yellow gown, and you will soon be yourself again. Yellow gowns, or yellow ties, engender a desire to go and to do.

The writer looks forward to the day when Heaven on Earth will be completely expressed by the men of the world. This will happen when they doff their "so serviceable" dark clothes and wear robes of the beautiful lighter colors, just as men did in the days of Ancient Greece. The beauties of that civilization still thrill us today. When the thoughts of men lighten, the garbs will also lighten in materials, in colors, and they will become richer in texture and more supple in weave. With the donning of these clothes by men, and by women, there will also have arrived the days of lighter tasks, and more joyousness, and the art of Relaxation will come into its own again. Life will be Joy!

Housewives will be interested to learn that a yellow kitchen will cause them to work faster, and will put speed into the minds of their kitchen-maids. Yellow curtains above the sink, or work-table will cause dishes to be washed faster and with more joy and rhythm! Remember the depressing kitchens of the old days! In these New Days of the New World kitchen work is to be a Science. The housewife will become a scientist, with a knowledge of the chemistry of foods. With this knowledge she will learn how to cure rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, and the bad dispositions of her family. Therefore the kitchen must be done in Heaven Colors, for Heaven knowledge will be learned and disseminated there.

Every home should have a yellow bedroom, radiant with the freeing vibrations of the sun. If one of the family is moody or blue, that bedroom should be his choice until its curative powers are effective.

It is said that a yellow breakfast room is a cure for constipation! It is true, some colors bind; yellow frees.

You have heard it said of a person "he has a yellow streak." You knew that meant to convey the idea that he was weak, undependable. As the sun, he spread himself; he didn't hold together.

Advertisers have found that yellow is a color which catches the eye, and they use it as a background for their signs.

Remember that Yellow signifies FREEDOM, LIGHT, ADVANCE.

Use more Yellow! It is the color symbolic of this New Age.

Next to come will be a look at the colors . . . beautiful blue and radiant red.

NEW RECREATION

The secret of success with the reinforcing power of the higher consciousness is to practice with it as a recreation. Then when the time comes you can test its reality by deliberately selecting an upsetting moment, a harassed moment, and applying it purposefully. But before you can use it in serious matters, you must first use it for your own pleasure. Otherwise, it won't hold up.

WORTHY WORDS

Charles Fillmore

from Unity magazine

Kenneth W. Willoughby

Prayer is a means of getting the beginner to talk with himself. Because the ego or your "I" is your personal piece of God (GOD spark if you will). If you can't talk to it, how can you expect to talk to GOD?

from Search magazine

Helen Keller

I thank God for my handicaps, for through them I have found myself, my work and my God.

Harry Douglas Smith

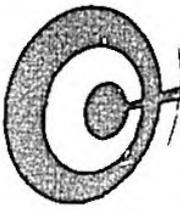

Fear is one of our strongest beliefs. A thought infused with fear begins to be answered on the fear level. Job recognized this ancient truth when he said, "That which I feared most has come upon me." (Job 3:25) However, it is not the specific thing feared which must always be manifested. We experience something which corresponds to the intensity or quality of our fear, whether or not that experience is exactly the thing or experience we feared.

from *The Secret of Instantaneous Healing

No ray of sunlight is ever lost, but the green which it wakes into existence needs time to sprout, and it is not always granted to the sower to live to see the harvest. All work that is worth anything is done in faith.

NEWSWORTHY NOTES

RADAR RECORDS SPIRIT FORM — The Spirit figure of a man wandering on a major runway at the London Airport was picked up by the radar system and started a full-scale alert, according to the Evening News, as reported by the Psychic News.

It seems that over the years a man in a pin-striped suit and bowler hat has been seen searching the runways for a lost briefcase, to which many "hard-headed men" at the airport have attested.

In 1948 a Sabena airliner crashed in thick fog. It went up in flames. During the rescue operations, according to the accounts, rescue workers were angered by a man in a bowler hat who kept asking, "Have you found my briefcase yet?" After the confusion had died down, the rescue workers began to get puzzled, for the passenger list showed that all had died in the crash. Since then the man had been seen by airport technicians on several occasions.

More recently this same man was picked up on the tower control's radar screen wandering dangerously on one of the runways. When police cars rushed to the scene, nothing was found.

The radar scanner told them by radio that the figure was walking towards them and was only twenty-five yards away. The police peered ahead trying to spot him, but could see nothing. Suddenly the radio spoke again: "You've just run him over. He is now behind your car walking away from you." The police, however, never saw or heard anything (or figured it out apparently).

ACUPUNCTURE . . . NEW DIMENSIONS IN HEALING — Writing on this subject in Fate magazine, James Crenshaw describes, among others, the research being done at UCLA to verify acupuncture points by means of Kirlian-type photography and electrical instrumentation. The Russians call it "bio-plasma" and take pictures of what is called the life force. At a symposium Crenshaw attended sponsored by UCLA, Kendall Johnson, research assistant at the University's Neuropsychiatric Institute, demonstrated with two subjects how acupuncture points can be confirmed electrically. He is the inventor of several radiation photography devices for measuring the electrical characteristics of the skin and showed slides to the audience of radiation photography relating to energy systems involved in acupuncture. According to Crenshaw, Kendall has been working with Dr. Thelma Moss, assistant professor of medical psychology at the Neuropsychiatric Institute, in an effort to reproduce and expand the type of work being done in Russia with Kirlian photography.

BUILDING A NEW FUTURE

Repeat these truths frequently and let them sink into your subconscious mind:

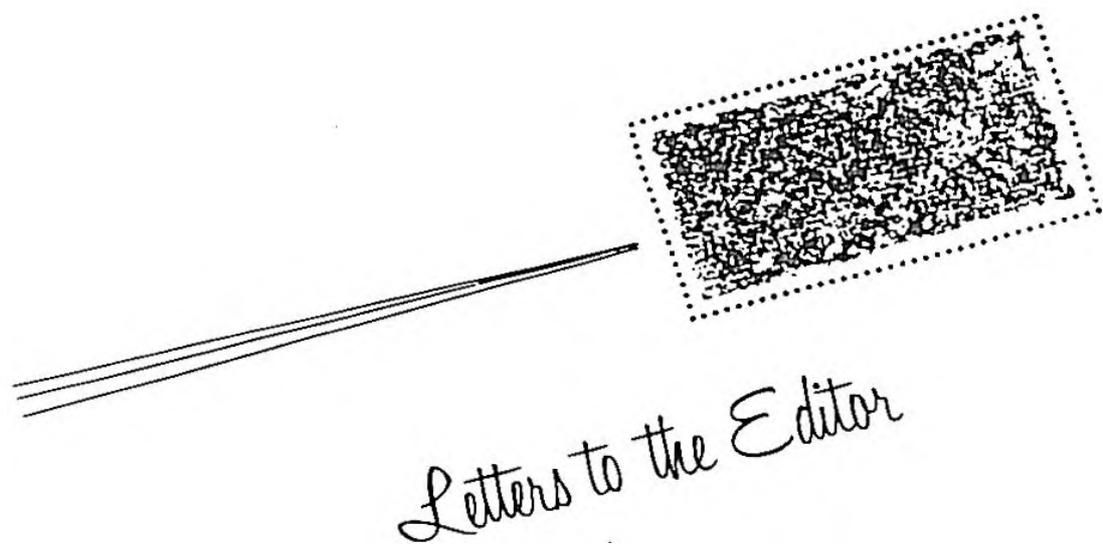

"I am a child of God. I am a channel of God, and God has need of me where I am, otherwise I would not be here. I know I am here to express more and more of God's love, life, truth, and beauty. I am here to do my share and to contribute to humanity. I have much to give; I can give love, laughter, joy, confidence, and goodwill to all people, to all animals, and to all things in God's universe.

"I am here to stir up the gift of God within me. I realize that I am a gardener, mentally speaking, and as I sow, so shall I reap in life. Life is a mirror for the king as well as for the beggar, and whatever I give to life, life returns to me magnified, multiplied, and running over. I deposit in the garden of my mind wonderful seeds of peace, love, goodwill, success, harmony, and joy.

"I forgive myself for harboring negative destructive thoughts, and I pour out love and goodwill to all my relatives and to all people everywhere. I know when I have forgiven others, because when I meet them in my mind there is no sting; I am free.

"I am constantly drawing out the fruit of the delightful seeds I am depositing in my subconscious mind. I know that my thoughts, like seeds, will be made manifest as form, function, experience, and conditions. I think of these things, and the Cosmic Power is with my thoughts of good. I am at peace."

Cosmic Power Within You is one of Dr. Murphy's more unusual books which demonstrates these truths. It can be used to relieve illness, aid adverse financial conditions, break bonds that impede your career's progress, or it can help you gain the love and respect of those you admire . . . indeed, quite a power to be able to harness . . . another Chimes gem.

Letters to the Editor

BON AMI (Good friend) – In renewing my subscription I would like you to know that I consider Chimes part of my way of life now, and I would miss it as an instructor/companion and Spirit presence. God bless all . . .

Judy Pribyl, Stockton, CA

AND ANOTHER – You should know, dear friends, that your little magazine was especially helpful to me this past Christmas season when it was God's will that my dearest friend and husband passed away, December 28th . . . Would you also be good enough to send it to my brother-in-law.

Elizabeth G. Pearce, St. Louis, MO

ENLIGHTENED SELF-INTEREST – I find continuing inspiration and guidance in every issue of Chimes . . . so much so that I am reluctant and selfish about parting with even one issue. I never cease to gain from re-reading an issue. I have shared them with several friends, and now they have voiced a desire to have their own copies. I am thus enclosing three gift subscriptions . . . along with a small contribution . . . as my part in helping to further the continued publication of a very inspiring magazine.

Mrs. Margo Flanagan, Burlingame, CA

A NEW PHYSICIAN – The "Light on the Science of Living" lessons are extremely helpful to me, just as the monthly Chimes is inspiring. I am interested in the second birth process as I think I have experienced (and am experiencing) the pangs of the rebirth myself. I am entering medical school this September and am interested in the training of a Soul Physician (as given in Lesson V of the lessons). What readings or training is involved here? . . . Peace and Love to you, in Christ,

Ellsworth E. Ludwig, Chicago, IL

(74 lessons are offered as basic training for this need to minister to the soul. You may see a description and order on page x.)
