REGENERATION OF THE BODY RESURRECTION OF THE MIND.

Heads or Tails?

"But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God."—1 Cor. 11:3.

Heads, you win: tails, you lose!
Have you lost your head?
You can't go ahead without a head.
The head of the woman is the Man.
Because the head of every man is Christ.
And the head of Christ is God.
Manhood is Christhood, for manseed is God-seed.
God is the Father and Mother of all Life.
The Spirit of God is male and female.
Man is the image and likeness of God.
In other words, male and female man is a god.
Men create and women conserve.
Creation and conservation is the action of life.
Do you live in Jerusalem or Babylon?
The New Jerusalem is Mental Motherhood.

ITEMS AND IDEAS

*** Didn't I do it?

*** I won the game!

*** Every letter was answered.

*** I wrote them with pen and ink.

*** Treatments were given according to your orders.

*** Many of you sent ten dollars for ten treatments a day.

*** You got what you ordered in good measure from both of us.

*** I did not address all the envelopes, for that was not in my proposition.

*** The other fellow arrived in time to address nearly all the envelopes, so you have Her handwriting on your pink envelope.

*** It works so well that we will keep it up awhile and watch results, but She may write some letters, while I address envelopes.

*** At any rate, we will both give the treatments and you will get all that is coming to you for your money and then some thrown in for good measure.

*** We will abide here at Hotel Majestic until the end of May, and then seek the high altitude of Denver and the electric vibrations of the Rocky Mountains.

*** There is no place like home—except New York, and New York is Everywhere condensed. So, you dear ones may return with us to Denver and partake of our joy in the good old summer time.

*** Do not address any mail here after the 20th of May, but we will answer all letters received here up to that time. Treatments will go right along even when we are on the train, as we always carry the list of Christians with us and use it every day. This is why it pays you to stay in the fellowship.

*** No matter when your date comes in the month write us before the twentieth of May and we will make a note of your time. We are anxious to answer all of May letters before we leave the Hotel Majestic and have all of you in our pockets. We will then have a chance to give you the benefit of the train trip. There is nothing like a fast railroad train for healing vibrations.

*** I need not tell you that New York has set us ahead in our work a thousand years, and we would not take a million dollars in money for what we have both gained in mentality. Our work is so smooth and easy that it is a constant joy just to live. And the most of you know it, for you are in our vibrations and mental fellowship. The physical presence seems useless, and yet our next trip will be for public speaking.

*** First of all is the mental fellowship, and the objective publicity will follow in exactly the right time. I have made telepathy practical and even the paper CHRISTIAN contains the healing Word. Listen to this from France: "I must tell you how CHRISTIAN healed my foot some time ago—in which I suddenly had an awful pain. It was glorious!" I wish you could see her beautiful handwriting in English, although her native language is German. She was traveling in France. I could fill volumes with such letters.

*** Our thought of healing is in everything we write and CHRISTIAN and the pink letters carry this thought and hold it ready for the healing. It is a mental miracle, but mind acting in matter is as natural as breathing. We are just now finding out the principle and putting it into practice. It took us a long time to get our eyes open to mental medicine. But telepathy is getting into the mental atmosphere and even the thoughtless can't help absorbing it. This is what is meant by the outpouring of the Spirit of Truth.

*** In April you notice the change in terms back to the very first numbers of CHRISTIAN, namely, from one to ten dollars a month. You get what you pay for, the same as in any other business, and I want the financial fellowship to be on business principles. There is no use to be mealy mouthed about it or get into the religious rot of receiving something for nothing. Although I have steadily advanced and there are now two healers instead of one, my terms are precisely the same as they were seventeen years ago. One dollar is one treatment each day for thirty days; two is two, three is three, on up to ten, and that is the limit for any one person. We have nothing to sell except our time, for we give one subscription to CHRISTIAN for every dollar sent for treatments. It belongs to you.

*** I have told you not to try to form the triangle, for it is a secret symbol never put into print or spoken by the mouth. I only called your attention to it so that when it comes you will be ready to receive it. Hidden things are to be uncovered and the secrets of the ages will be revealed by telepathy. Listen to this from a musician: "The other day, while playing Beethoven, the triangle flashed before my eyes in beams of light. I saw it in the Major Chord." The vibrations in her letter brought tears of joy to my eyes. It is the Lost Word of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons. There are only three degrees in Freemasonry, and, in fact, there are only Three in any form of truth. The mortal masons are earthly shadows of the Immortal Mental Masons and they are forever Three in One.

*** In mortal masonry the three degrees are Entered Apprentice, corresponding to the physical; Fellowcraft, corresponding to the psychic, and Master Mason, corresponding to the pneumatic or spiritual. The secrets of a Master Mason could only be given in the presence of Three, and at the time the word was lost there were only Three Master Masons on earth, Solomon, King of Israel, Hiram, King of Tyre and Hiram Abiff, who was superintendent and chief architect of the temple. Three workmen waylaid and assassinated the superintendent, and as only Two Master Masons were left the Triangle was broken and the Lost Word was never spoken and never will be spoken, for it comes to each mind by telepathy.

*** The whole New Testament is Masonic, and this is the reason the Great Red Dragon is violently opposed to Masonry. Now, don't mistake me, for I have not been inside a lodge or commandery for thirty years, and doubt very much if I could get in if I made the effort, but I am forever in the Real Thing that objective Masonry symbolizes. There are just Three degrees, no matter how men talk about thirty-three. You are born a Mason of the first degree, you develop the second degree, and the Third Degree is taken when you mate with a woman and receive the secret word of the serpent, the Lost Word represented by a Triangle which takes you down from the Cross of your own Christ. It is dual mentality in the invisible One making the Three of the Triune Being. In your new study of the New Testament, think of Three and note how Jesus used this number.

*** Turn, for instance, to the resurrection of the ruler's daughter, in the eighth chapter of Luke. "And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, James and John, and the father and mother of the maiden." Jesus Christ represents the Invisible Spirit and there are Three with him in the objective work, and Three before him for the blessing. At the grave of Lazarus, one sister doubts and protests against the opening of the grave, saying, "by this time he stinketh," but the glorious Mary forms the Triangle with her brother and Jesus, by silently waiting for the Word. Poor Martha! she is always cumbered with much serving. I bet it was she who with her own hands tore the grave clothes from Lazarus, and let him go home to a dinner which she prepared and served! Her joy shall not be less than the joy of Mary. It is always and forever Three acting as One, but the third one is not visible at present. "Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them by my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

*** And many of you are beginning to catch on and enter into triune being, for, first of all, you must recognize and form the triangle in your own personality, for you and yourself are Three in one person. You are flesh, mind and spirit; but you naturally and practically recognize your spirit as yourself. You speak of your mind and body and then let your mind and body run away with you. Lift up the triangle and let both body and mind know that you are the invisible One, "in the midst of them," and they are absolutely under your authority and control. The other two—body and mind—can't get anything and can't do anything without you, the I AM of being. Now, you can be the boss of body and mind when you recognize that mind is also dual, male and female, and this twain must be one flesh. This is regeneration of the body by the resurrection of the real mind, which is male and female. Can't do anything or be anything until men and women are one in mind and the war of the sexes is over.

*** It is practical, for all science is demonstrable in objective manifestation. The theory about electric light is now commercial and practical. We buy it and use it. That is what we are doing with regeneration and the resurrection, and many of you know it without being able to tell just why or how you know it. I know that you know by little things; for instance, since March CHRISTIAN, hundreds of people have addressed me as T. J. Blanche. That's it! That tells more than a library full of books on the theory of regeneration and the new life. Men and women can get together and the I AM is in the midst of them for the resurrection of the mind and the regeneration of the body. T. J. Blanche is good science, for it means the twain in one flesh the dual mentality which is the I AM THAT I AM, the Christ in me and the Church in her, the triangle triumphant, for the invisible One makes the eternal Three.

*** I only give you hints, for the revelation of regeneration is made to men by telepathy. It is utterly impossible to make this revelation in words or even in symbols. The things of the Spirit are revealed by the Spirit to the Spirit, and Mental Masons can't reveal secrets, for all of these hidden things are uncovered by the unseen and invisible One in the midst. But the revelation is being forced on the world and men and women must have the Word or forever remain in bondage to births and deaths. This much I proclaim on the housetops: Men and women are essential to each other. The first page of this CHRISTIAN is science of being for time and eternity. In this Greater New York there are fifty thousand more women than men. Think of it! In one city alone there are 50,000 mateless women. In Finland out of a population of only three millions, there are over one hundred thousand more women than men. In England there are a million and a quarter more women than men. And yet the fool men are talking about more war! The only enemy men need fear is their own ignorance. And women must learn that war is hell and anything that cuts down the number of men is an enemy of women. Alcohol, tobacco, prostitution, war, are all in the same death-dealing vibration. Men and women must mate.

*** In a suffragette meeting the other day, a vibrant, virile, young woman hit the nail on the head, and drove it to the head, when she said: "There are not enough men to go around, and so we are forced out of a home of our own." That's it! There is a Great Red Dragon as well as a Great White Throne. And you are face to face with polygamy and prostitution as the Dragon, while I proclaim from the Great White Sun the marriage of mates and the doing away with births and deaths by a mental motherhood which regenerates the bodies of "the twain" by a resurrection of the real mind. The gods are coming into a regenerate reincarnation, and the gods do not marry—they mate, for matehood is godhood. The union of those whom God hath joined together no man can put asunder. It would be divorcing God from His own. But what are we going to do about it, when there are not enough men to go around? Quit killing men and teach all men the sacredness and glory of manhood. Let men know that manhood is not a joke, but the Christ, and that women are sacred temples of the Eternal Spirit of Man.

*** This is ancient prophecy and modern fulfillment. My wife and I are in the regeneration, in the resurrection, in our last reincarnation, and we are practicing what we preach, right now and right here in the Hotel Majestic, New York City. Don't run! Stand your ground! One of us wrote, in a recent letter, giving the name of a learned professor in a college and said, "start him with something easier than March or he will think you are crazy." I told her that I couldn't, for April was worse than March, and May was still worse than April, and my airflight would continue into the blue sky and go on and on until Lady Blanche and I were in the glory of levitation. We are getting there all right, but you need not be alarmed, for pneumatic vibrations are as serene as the sun. It isn't even new thought, for it is as old as the sun and has been preached by preachers and sung by poets and proclaimed by prophets for ages and ages. It is now being realized in the resurrection, for this is the aerial age and the mental resurrection. I have started something, that's all. Somebody had to start something, and I did it. Get into the battle of the vibrations!

*** Science is always practical. Let us come down to business and find out what we are doing. For the present we are teaching the truth by telepathy and calling attention to it in this periodical. I want you to scatter CHRISTIAN over the earth, and for this reason we print many thousands each month, ready for your use. When you send one dollar or ten dollars, send names and addresses for each dollar or call for your dollar's worth to be sent to you in a bundle, so that you can hand them out to suit yourself. We are now in this work as dual mentality, and we are proving things by healing the sick. And we expect, for your own sakes as well as ours, that the majority of you will be sending ten dollars a month instead of one, for we are going to put you into that vibration. Each month will find us stronger than the preceding and you are going to keep with us for your own kingdom of health, happiness and prosperity. But there is something more in these treatments, for we speak the Word for the utter destruction of disease and death and a full unfoldment into eternal life.

*** We will answer all your letters this year and maybe next, and I have answered all for the past month with my own hand just to show that I was not shirking work. We are now answering you together and will use the typewriter when we feel like it; but you now know that I AM not dependent on anybody or anything. Ten dollars a month is not too much to pay for both of us, for one hundred and twenty dollars a year is a small price for the service we give; and remember that we are going to bring you up to that standard by our treatments. When you begin to climb you will know that we are giving you the inspiration and vibration to make good in your own work. We must be free to go anywhere and everywhere on the earth, and freedom means money. The whole bunch of US must enter into financial fellowship. Write once a month and do it regularly, telling us what you feel like telling. While I am saving space by leaving out quotations from your letters, I could not go on without them, for I want your words on paper. You inspire me at times and spur me at other times. Even when you tire me with tales of woe I like it, for it is my business, our business, to change your tale of woe into a song of joy.

*** Instantaneous healing is getting very common with us and that is the kind we are cultivating. There is no use to give you more than one treatment when that will do the work. If you send me ten dollars for ten treatments a day for a month and I (that I means Us) remove your trouble in one treatment, it is all the better for you and I keep the change, see? What we want is treatment for our troubles in body and business—not to keep us in trouble. The beauty of the mental doctor is that when sickness is healed instead of losing his patient he gains an everlasting friend in the fellowship. Therefore it is up to us to make friends by healing your hurts as soon as possible. I often get letters where people were healed while writing and before mailing the letter. It is a common thing for us to get the mental message not only ahead of the mail but ahead of the telegraph. Telepathy doesn't wait on the slow movements of the mail. While Lady Blanche was in Denver it took three or four days for a letter, but I always got her word by telepathy ahead of the written message sent by mail. This is the age of mentality.

*** "I do not understand all that you say, but I feel the power and know that you know," so write many of us since this year of whirlwind work started. Bless your hearts, I have nothing on you in this matter of understanding, for I wrote from dictation and am just now seeing the fulfillment. There never was a man more surprised than I when hearing many things from the sun vibrations. When the sunbeams began to talk and I saw the sun at midnight, I had to understand that God is Light and that light means mentality, intelligence, enlightenment. Why, bless you, the newspapers reported two brothers in England who are human X-rays and can see into a man as easily as they can see the outside. We are just waking up to the fact that mortality is not only lame but deaf and blind. There is intelligence in every ray of light that falls on the earth. Did you think the sun was shining for the sole purpose of growing vegetables and animals? Are the great solar centers created for no better purpose than raising cabbage? Let me tell you that our sun is the Eye of our solar system and it knows all that can be known in mentality. It is the Eye of the I AM THAT I AM. Are you a Mason? Then know that the Eye IS.

TALKING TOGETHER.

*** I hear your thoughts.

*** And I will answer all your thinking.

*** Only give me plenty of time and all the space.

*** To save space I have left out quotations from letters.

*** You can see the answer to your thought sent by letter or telepathy.

*** No, telepathy does not require that the transmitter and receiver be in tune with each other.

*** This was your question, Bess, and I answered you by letter, but several others have asked the same.

*** In telepathy thoughts go where they will and the only way to guard yourself is to learn to choose for yourself.

*** Learn to taste the good Word of God, and spit out the bad words or thoughts of the evil one, just as you select food for your body.

*** It is the only way, for the air is full of ideas and your mind must be open and ready to receive in order that your own may come to you.

*** Malicious mental malpractice must be free to come and go on the public highway of thought and, for this very reason, we are told to try the spirits.

*** Trying the spirits is a mental process and you soon know your own in a flash, for the vibration is sure and certain. I can tell one of Us in a minute even among public men.

*** Who is who? This is a question you must answer every day and every hour even in your own household. Jesus, foreseeing this mental resurrection, tells us how two women will be at work and one will be taken and the other left; two men are walking together, one is taken and the other left.

*** It is a weeding out process just before the first resurrection and the second death. It does not mean that any will be finally and forever lost, but some will have to wait for a thousand years after regeneration has begun here in the flesh.

*** There is to be a fearful feast of flesh, spoken of in Revelation, for, while the regenerated ones are eating the flesh and drinking the blood of regeneration, others are devouring each other in the damnation of degeneration. Everything corresponds in the law of opposites and mortality is the opposite of immortality. Degeneration is the opposite of regeneration. And yet the law is forever one, for we die in order to live and out of death comes birth.

*** "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." And this kingdom is a small stone cut out of the mountain without hands, but it finally fills the whole earth, and breaks in pieces and consumes all other kingdoms. It shall stand forever, but in the process of unfoldment there is a destruction and damnation which seems to cover everything and everybody. It is only in the seeming, for all things are preserved and conserved in the new heaven and new earth.

*** "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." All such words you will need right now in this mental waking of the world. For it is all mental, mortality is a dream of the senses, and we are just now beginning to awake and listen to the voice of the prophets. The prophetic voice is the only sound of spirituality that we hear on the psychic plane, all else is the noise of nonsense and the confusion of Babylon, the mother of harlots and abominations of the earth.

*** Take the words of poise and peace and go on your way, for what is to be will be and you must be ready to meet it. Mortal mind is going to kill itself. It has always been self-destructive and the only thing you see in the way of reform is the Red Cross and the trained nurse. The instruments of destruction are scientific and we can kill in greater numbers than ever before, and we are spending millions upon millions to murder men.

*** Mortal mentality is madness. Man born of woman is a fool. Talk about your savants, saints and statesmen! They are madmen! Lunatics let loose on earth to devour one another. Let an angel of God read just one issue of the daily newspaper and ask him what he thinks of it. Well, the daily newspaper is a history of humanity, as it is and has been since the gods married the daughters of men.

*** Look back at us and see what we have been doing for ten thousand years! The same thing we are doing now, killing each other. As soon as men threw away the club they took up the sword, and as soon as the sword was out of date we began shooting with powder and ball. Oh, we are fools, all right! And let me tell you that we have not killed a single man or destroyed anything, for everything is indestructible. The men who went away did not go very far from us. They are earthbound spirits and keep in the same old game century after century.

*** For instance, Paris shows you the tomb of Napoleon, and the French think this bloody man on horseback is gone. Not a bit of it! Bonaparte is still in Paris as the leader of the legions in the persons of the Apaches, the fierce criminals in the slums of the French capital. They will reincarnate in these human devils until the spirit known as Napoleon is released from bondage. This is no fanciful story but a mental fact. Men who are trained to war will return as murderers and criminals of all kinds, if they do not find a more congenial mental atmosphere while seeking rebirth. The Roman armies with their emperors and generals have reincarnated in the Roman Catholic priesthood century after century and will continue to do so until released from the Cross of Christ.

*** We are all on that cross, every last one of us, and we can never come out of this carnality and criminality until Christ comes down from God out of heaven and we see his glory. Christ is not on the cross. We are on the cross, we are the crucified ones, ready to kill and destroy our beloved brothers in the name of war. Aye, to kill without any excuse except our desire to kill. On the cross we hang and bleed and die and then do it all over and over again without thinking.

*** But we are coming down from the cross and we will lift up the triangle of truth. The reaction has already set in and the very men who made war are now making peace. The French are taking the lead in advocating universal peace and the Russians are a close second in the effort to bring goodwill to men. I have no doubt but Napoleon and his legions will yet lead France away from militarism and help the whole world to internationalism.

*** Get this in your thought and keep it ever before your mind. Thought is immortal and thinkers are eternal in their individuality. The only redemption from wrong thinking is right thinking. The men who have been thinking war can never find peace until they change their minds. Frenchmen are changing their minds, therefore the spirits of Frenchmen are coming into a peaceful reincarnation.

*** It helps us to know that the population of the earth has never changed and cannot be changed by a single number, no matter how many we kill. Men come and go and the population of the planet shifts but it never changes. The men and women who have been are now and ever shall be world without end. The same minds have been reincarnated over and over and continue in active control of the earth. It is only a shifting of mortal movements when one set of men give place to another set. The men of this nation are still here in the actual affairs of our country. While we are building the sepulchres of the prophets we have the same prophets to face again and again under new names. Washington has guided and governed this nation through many a crisis, coming to us under different names but the same spirit.

*** The old thought that men die and go away is all nonsense in the light of the sun. Where can they go? From whence did they come? Let us hear and heed the statement from the sun center that spirits do not increase or decrease in number. They are the same yesterday, today and forever. It could not be otherwise. And yet I was astonished beyond measure when I first heard the amazing utterance. One minute of clear thinking and I saw that the statement was self-evident and I wondered why it had never entered our mortal minds. To increase or decrease the number of immortals is utterly unthinkable when once you think of it. Our births and deaths are as unreal as our mortal existence. It is a hypnotic dream in shadows of a mortal mind nightmare.

*** "I Am the resurrection and the life," and the resurrection is regeneration and regeneration is through reincarnation. The word regeneration means "to generate again" and we have generated again and again until we are now coming into our senses. There has come to our shores an apostle of peace from Hungary, and he was followed by an equally great apostle of peace from France, and still they come, the mightiest minds among men advocating a universal peace. Who are these men? Apostles and prophets of Jesus Christ, men who were commissioned to preach the gospel of peace to all nations. Did you ever read the writing over the cross of Jesus? It is a triangle, for it was written in Greek, Latin and Hebrew, the language of white men and mental men. The world is filled with Aryans, Africans and Mongols. The blackmen are earthmen who were in the land of Nod. The cross came when Aryans mixed with Africans and produced Mongols. The triangle of light over the cross of Christ means that the three great divisions of the white race, Greek, Latin and Hebrew, will become one in the Hebrew and Jesus will not only be king of the Jews but the head of the Aryans, the WHITE CHRIST.

*** It is all foreseen and foretold in the last book of the New Testament. In the sixth chapter of the first book of the Bible you have the beginning of the cross and in the sixth chapter of the last book you have the beginning of the end of the cross. The man who leads is on a White Horse and is followed by the Red Horse of War, the Black Horse of Law, the Pale Horse of Death and Hell. It looks like hell turned loose, but this Man on the White Horse "went forth conquering and to conquer," and over in the nineteenth chapter you find him with a mighty army "upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean." He started out alone, without a single follower, while warlords, lawlords, and the undertakers were right behind him in full force. Not one of them is left and all men have been washed and made clean and the White Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords. He is clothed with a vesture dipped in blood and his name is called The Word of God or, in one word, THOUGHT. Oh, brothers, mental mates, our man is also called FAITHFUL and TRUE and his name is OUR NAME! It is the language of symbols and it means all of Us, for the sunmen and women are to be saved from the cross of sin, sickness and death by the union of the triangle of thought in Greek, Latin and Hebrew, the conquerors of the world, the leaders of unfolding thought, the apostles of peace and goodwill.

*** All of the Aryans can create peace and goodwill any time they conclude to shake hands. The whites are supreme and when the spirits in prison to the thought of war are set free by the truth we will not only shake hands, but we will kiss and make up our minds to mend our ways and clean up the earth. Even in Italy and Spain the imprisoned spirits are struggling for freedom. The old is giving way to the new thought and all men are coming into a knowledge of the truth. When we can be made to see that all our diseases, births, deaths and other abnormal conditions are caused by the cross we will lift up the triangle. Men will not only see the three in one and the curse of the cross, but they will know that heaven is to be right here on this earth when mind, body and spirit form a perfect triangle in immortal personality. You wanted to know what that sign of the sungods meant, when the triangle was formed by the outspread hands with the ends of thumbs and tips of first fingers joined before the eyes. Shading the eyes from the light of the sun while in the act of worship before this Father of lights! Simple, isn't it? And yet the depth of wisdom is in the symbol, for it was Shekinah above the altar in that temple which was also a symbol of the human body.

*** Oh, yes, it is sexual, for everything is sexual in generation and regeneration. The sex question is the only question, for it is the cause of all our abnormality. It is here in full force and divorce is only a symptom, a pimple on the face of the race. And, Edna of the Pacific, your question about the old maids is answered by a French woman in this morning's newspaper. She advocates absolute freedom in motherhood without the formality of marriage, so that each woman is free to become a mother without taking an obligation of life bondage to the father. In the next column a well-known English woman advocates just the opposite by asking that only the uppertend women be allowed to become mothers. Of the two views I prefer the French freedom rather than the institutional inquisition. And you know the first verse of the fourth chapter of Isaiah seems to foretell the French woman's freedom. It reads: "And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, we will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach." We are passing through that process right now, and it is going to grow worse as women enter into the world of business as wage-workers and bread-winners.

*** All this agitation is the breaking up of old conditions and is not permanent. The whole of mortal life is temporary and the law is a schoolmaster leading us to Christ. In the regeneration there is no war, law, death, hell or any other abnormal condition. In the regeneration they do not marry, but they mate, and mating is in the triangle, not in the cross. You are a triune being composed of body, mind and spirit, or soma, psyche, pneuma, all in one personality. Therefore to mate there must be a union of triunes, see? Two bodies without any regard to mental or spiritual union will do for generation, but not for regeneration. Mating means the two triune beings in one flesh forever regenerating each other, thus doing away with the cross of physical births in a mortal likeness. It is twain, not seven, in one flesh, so making peace. Polygamy and promiscuity are alike psychic and the psychic is purgatory. The intelligent and enlightened are seeking a way out of purgatory and the divorce courts help a little, but not much. Financial freedom points the way, but a mental resurrection is absolutely essential. Think and think about it.

*** The regeneration of the race is in the hands of sunclad women. They must make themselves clean in mind and body and demand the same of men. The dog-women, the smoking and cocktail drinking women are fools, for they can never satisfy their souls on their low plane of mentality. And the ones who are crazy over clothes are in the same class with the pups. The business women, the stenographers, the wage-earners in every class, from chambermaid to cashier, are going into regeneration ahead of the butterflies of folly and fashion. Aye, don't run away, hold on a minute, maybe I had better quote it: "Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you." I endorse it. There is no doubt of it in my mind. The mental apathy and atrophy caused by religion and respectability will often stand in the way of repentance, while the ones who are nailed to the cross will open their eyes to the truth in the very anguish of their souls. There is nothing in the way except thought, and nothing can help thought, for it is all mental, even down to your sins and sickness. Women are beginning to awake, and when they get their eyes wide open and put on their wedding robes of purity, men will begin to sit up and take notice.

*** I have said that I know the secret of regeneration but that it would not be revealed until we are willing to put away the instruments of death. Not only war must cease, but alcohol, tobacco, opium, morphine and all of the modern methods that we use for the destruction of the race. Do you think I'm an exhorter trying to reform people? I simply tell you what I have heard in the mental sunlight. Eternal life is ready when we are willing to quit dying by drugs, opiates, knives and bullets. Just so long as we think disease and death we will be in the hell of mortality. Why, while resting my hand from this writing, I pick up the morning paper and read the public statement of a Boston doctor that ten per cent of physicians are addicted to morphine through the hypodermic syringe. He states that in one hospital all the physicians are under this curse and that morphine is so much worse than opium as it leads to incurable insanity. Now if the blind lead the blind what are you going to do about it? If men who know the truth fall into such grievous error, how can you expect the foolish and ignorant to avoid this open pit of hell? Therefore I say that the truth of regeneration cannot be revealed until we free the mind.

*** But we are going to free it. There is a mental freedom in the very atmosphere of our thought and we are absorbing it by telepathy. All the apostles and the prophets of mentality are leading us to liberty, but it will first be license. It seems the only way we can learn is in the way of the fire that tries every man's work. I wish we could be taught the truth in some other way, but it seems otherwise. However, in the great turmoil and confusion, while the battle rages and the fowls of the air are feasting on the flesh of men and horses, there is another feast being made ready. It is the voice of a great multitude, and the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying:

"Alleluia:
For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth;
Let us be glad and rejoice,
And give honor to him:
For the marriage of the Lamb is come,
And his wife has made herself ready."

TELEPATHIC TREATMENTS.

It is new thought.

There is no doubt about its being genuine new thought the newest thought ever uttered on earth. This I know as well as you do.

Then why don't you hurry up and copy-right it and get it before the world? This question and caution comes to me from all parts of the earth. I'm urged to spread this new truth over the world, and several good friends in New York wanted to call in reporters for a review and send it out in the sensational news of the day. There is plenty of time for all that kind of publicity.

It is not worth putting on paper unless it is worth putting into the man. Get that? Too many paper institutions are now rotting in the world of letters. Too many paper people are parading on this planet and walking the plank for a plunge into the bottomless ocean of oblivion. How is that for euphony? It is more than a play on words. It is a fact, and there are very few facts more self-evident. The mortal men who are droning out the words from books are filling the cemeteries and giving the undertakers a chance to earn a living. "I am the resurrection and the life," they say in nasal tones, and then they go to bed and die from all kinds of diseases. And the drug doctors are busy inventing new diseases for fear the old ones will lose their grip on the people.

I have given more new thought this year of 1911 in CHRISTIAN, little obscure periodical of eight pages, than you will find in the literature of humanity for the last thousand years. In fact you can't find it anywhere else than in CHRISTIAN. Some of it has not even been hinted at in the books. There is some of this thought hidden by parables in the Bible, but no one has opened the seals and revealed the meaning.

Here is a summing up of a few points of this sunthought coming to me:

Telepathy is a transference of thought without words, or thought can beget its own words as it goes along picking up words or making new ones to suit its own purpose.

God is Thought or the Word and is the Spirit and substance of what we call matter.

This Word was with God, and was God, and is God from everlasting to everlasting. Therefore, truth is mathematical and musical mentality. The universe is self-existent and exact in the past as in the present, now and forever, without change or the shadow of variableness in the essence and divinity of its being.

Therefore, there never has been a spirit begotten or created, for spirits are the begetters and creators. Spirits born of women are incarnated of their own accord, self-begotten by their own desire, and no intelligence is the subject of fate or made to do what he does not will to do. From everlasting to everlasting we have been free spirits. Every vibration of divinity is freedom, untrammelled liberty to do what you will to do. The universe is built this way and all the liars in hell can't make it otherwise. I would have a contempt for a God who was in bondage. Any kind of a will that is not a freewill is not a good will. And the angels (gods) sang the song of the universe when they lifted their voices to the blue dome over Bethlehem, that starlit night, when Christ was born: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth goodwill to men."

That's me! That's my Godhood all right. Goodwill is freewill. Now is this not the newest of a thought? The old idea was that we came into this world without our consent and will go out of it against our will. Isn't that bondage? And yet men go out of this world of their own accord and by their own hands every day. Can a person exercise freewill in going out and yet must be thrust in without his consent? Is death in our own hands while birth is the bondage of fate or accident? All this comes from ignorance and because you do not see behind the scenes. You chose your birth, it was your own movement, your own freewill, begotten by your own desire; and, listen to me, you have the same power over death that you had over birth. You are free to do what you will to do, but you don't know it.

Why don't you know it?

Did some almighty despot plunge you into this mental darkness and force you to enter into the hell of mortality? There are no almighties in the universe, for might is mine and yours, it belongs to all of Us. Might is equally and mathematically distributed among Us and we have always had it and will always have it, for it is Us, an element in our being; we could not exist without it. And might and mind are one and the same in substance and your are It. How did you get here? Wake up Jacob! You came of your own freewill and you are self-begotten, self-existent and have always been free, for you are the Free Spirit of the Universe. The foolish fatalism of mortality is a fake, for God is not a fool. Such a universe as carnal thought has conceived would not even be a fool's paradise. It is Babylon, the city of confusion.

I don't care a damn for your topsyturvy universe of mortal mind; therefore, I will top its turvy with the triangle of truth. Say, if somebody started you without your consent, how do you know when that somebody will stop you without consulting you? You are in a pretty pickle. People have been cutting off each other's heads on the plea of fate or providence, for thousands of years. The devil and providence have been blamed for everything in the universe. And every damned scoundrel who comes along wants to play the star role of providence for other people. Oh, lords! with a little I and a big hell how we have strutted in the limelight in the center of the stage playing providence! It is the will of God. Nail him to the cross! It is the will of God. Hang him, electrocute him, shoot him!

Now, who the devil knows the will of God concerning another man? It is all in this old moon vibration, the same old moon that has made men mad with disease and death for millions of years. And did I come here of my own accord? Certainly, I wanted to see hell, and, as my will and desire are one and the same, I came. That desire of mine is leading me to see the tiger and I will twist his tail and count his stripes. I live and move in an infinite universe and I want to be free to go on investigating forever. I am free or I could not be. Being is freedom, and God could not exist on any other principle. Take your medicine and don't blame anybody but yourself. I have no kick coming so long as I am free to kick. Tie my feet and tell me I must not kick and then you will hear some back talk. As it is I say, Mister God you are all right and all I want is to know the truth and the truth will make me free, for knowledge is freedom. He says, Help yourself to the truth. It is free!

But the truth is spiritually discerned. It comes by telepathy or the transference of thought. What kind of thought have we been receiving? A lot of rot in religion and in books transmitted by pen and printers' ink. That kind of transference of thought is not telepathy; it is tell it typographically. Take the science of astronomy. It has done wonders in making us look at the heavens with our mortal eyes, but how much further we can see with our real eyes. The astronomers can't see much even with the most powerful telescopes, for the limit is in the mortal eyes. There is absolutely no limit to the mental vision. One of the big disputes among astrologers and astronomers is as to whether other planets are inhabited or not.

Now the sun telepathy tells you all about it, for by mental vision you can see the other planets, and come into vibration with the inhabitants. The people on other planets are intelligent, and you don't need to communicate in words, for language is mortal and mind can make words to fit any thought anywhere in the universe. Of course there are inhabitants on all the planets. Only the moons are empty, and the moons were never anything other than moons. They are moons and have always been moons for we need moons. But the whole solar system including the sun, is inhabited by intelligent spirits, with the exception of moons and rings and comets and asteroids and other little ornaments on the side. The main mansions are owned and peopled by people like ourselves; and they are our kinfolds in the universe of mentality. What an idea that this little globe should be the only abode of intelligent beings in our solar system, to say nothing of the universe! It is mortal vanity gone to seed.

Many of the other planets are better adapted to the breeding of mortal men than this earth, and when it comes to the gods, the sun is the capital of our kingdom. Too hot! Not a bit of it. Heat is our divine element. Cold is death. The heat is the life. The young men who have visited this earth from the sun were clothed in bright raiment, and gave out from their persons radiant energy. Heat is all right for spirits, for God "hath made his angels spirits (gods) and his ministers a flame of fire."

Certainly, that is what we are, for our God, the principle of universal being, is a consuming fire. Then the astronomers are crazy when they talk about a planet being too hot for inhabitants. Heat is our native element and we spirits down here shiver with the cold. Turn on the heat!

Satanic science is a mental vision that reaches beyond the veil of mortal mind and penetrates the interior of the universe. The idea of our glorious sun with its beautiful planets being a desert waste with the exception of this little island in the ether called the earth! Nonsense! The sun a fire so hot that it can't be approached by divine beings, who are partakers of its radiant energy! That glorious orb of light is the home of the Christ, "and the spirits of just men made perfect." and I know, for I am in conjunction with that radiant Center. The whole solar system, with the sun as the center, has been our dwelling place in the everlasting past and will be in the everlasting future, without change of mathematical certainty. God is God.

But the stargazers are not all materialists. Here is one of Us speaking as a mentalist. I quote from Edgar Lucien Larkin, the eminent astronomer of California:

"Can it be possible that in the magnificent twentieth century any person can write such stuff as this:

"Mercury and Venus are already dead worlds. Mars is rapidly approaching a state of wrinkled old age, and the earth is next in the procession headed toward the extinction of all life."

"Mars is certainly inhabited by some character of organized life." "And the Martians have far greater reason to deny that there is life on the earth than we have that they do not exist." "But there is no life on any other planet besides the earth and Mars, all other members of the solar system being already dried, so that animal life cannot exist, or else, like Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune, much too young in world evolution and therefore much too hot from interior sources to admit of life of any kind."

What makes this rot all the more execrable is the fact that it was written or spoken by one who poses as an astronomer. Here are facts, and they cannot be upset:

First, every planet in the solar system, from Mercury to Neptune, may be teeming with organic life, and all may be inhabited by countless millions of human beings, and man here on the earth totally unable to discover this cardinal fact.

No human being now on earth, no matter how large his telescope, can by any manner of means ascertain whether any planet is or is not inhabited. Not a trace of knowledge is now in possession of astronomers relating to the relative ages of the planets.

None knows which is the older, Mercury or distant Neptune. Even geologists digging around here on the earth's surface are absolutely without a clue to the earth's antiquity. How, then, tell of the past duration of other planets, the nearest approach of any being about 36,000,000 miles?

Venus may be inhabited by men like we humans here on this terrestrial globe. It has a deep and dense atmosphere, which I plainly saw at time of transit in 1882. Human beings may be able to exist on the planet Venus in a far more genial climate than the earth affords. And this may be true of Mercury, so near the sun.

Mars has air and therefore may be inhabited, but there is no way known of finding out, Jupiter is 41 per cent more dense than water. The interior may be a thin liquid or partly gaseous. It may have a rigid crust and a deep atmosphere, a fit abode of life if the air is so adjusted to solar radiant energy as to be able to select waves required by organic beings.

Saturn is only three-fourths of the density of water, about the density of pumice stone. It may, for all we know, be the most delightful place for even human existence in the entire solar system. Its system of ten moons and splendid rings may indeed be a true paradise for beings just like the human. So may Uranus and Neptune."

Now that sounds like sunsense and it is sunnity of the brightest kind. Edgar Lucien Larkin, you are one of Us and ripe for regeneration and the resurrection.

There is no limit to the horizon of your thought unless you make the limit. Of course, you are free and have always been free, and will forever be free to limit or enlarge your mental environment to suit yourself. There is nothing to hinder you from giving your imperial intellect occupation in dallying with dogs and kissing cats. You are left free to follow your own mind and go where you will in the universe of mentality. If you depend on the dead ones, you will never get anywhere for you will be going around and around a circle with an old stump in the center. No one ever got anywhere by following the wheels of the world in its mental revolutions and evolutions. It made you think the sun a ball of fire and all the planets sterile except the earth. It made you think that you began to be at the will of another and that you are subject to a network of laws woven by the hand of fate.

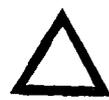

No wonder you want to play with pups and paint your face! Your horizon was too small for an immortal intelligence and so you kept curled up in your little corner, sucking your thumbs and listening for the call of fate and the undertaker. Rise up, Mary, and let in the sunlight! There in the sky is your old sun, the same old sun forever new. It is the radiant center of an everlasting environment. I said it! Did you hear me? An everlasting center and an everlasting environment. The sun is eternal and so are the planets, for the whole system and substance of the universe is mental and mind is immortal. Did you read what Larkin said? "Even geologists digging around here on the earth's surface are absolutely without a clue to the earth's antiquity." I asked the sun, "How old is the earth?" The answer, "As old as I AM?" I asked, "And how old are you?" The answer came in ripples of laughter in the beams of light, "As old as Thought!" I asked no further questions about time, for I knew that it did not exist in Thought.

*** And while woman is making ready for regeneration and the resurrection, Old Mortality commits suicide. He is even now getting ready to use aeroplanes in war and he will be dropping bombs and high explosives on his own fool head. He hasn't any better sense and he can't learn from women for he is crazy over the cross. He has been trying to learn to fly and as soon as he gets the idea to work he nails it to the cross. Man is not a fish. Water is not his native element and he is not a worm of the dust. He is of the air and could have been with the angels in the air long ago if he had quit the cross of death. But he wants to kill, kill, kill man, bird and beast. He is so crazy over this dealing out of death that he is ready to kill himself at the least suggestion. It is sickening to see how we men of the air grovel in the dust and strangle in the water. It is as easy and natural to fly in the air or walk on the water as it is for us to walk on the earth. The air is our native element. The air is Spirit and we are spirits. Why don't we do it? Because our fear of death dashes us to death and our fear is generated by our infernal desire to kill. It is all in our thinking and if you are sensitive you can sense this mental fear of and desire to kill in any crowd of men. Death thoughts bring death.

*** Do you see the symbol of the triangle? Do you wonder that murder was the cause of the secret Word being lost and that killing is still the cause of all our misery? I AM in possession of the Lost Word, for Mental Masons are all Master Masons, having passed the physical and the psychical degrees and entered into the pneumatic, where there are no lost chords or lost words. Jesus formed the triangle on the mount of transfiguration, when he met Moses and Elijah. The mortal Three were Peter, James and John, and you remember that Peter wanted to build Three tabernacles, but the Word spoken from the cloud gave him to understand that the Three had become One.

*** Henry Harrison Brown, editor of Now, called to see me while on his way from Boston to Washington. He is a youngster of three score years and ten and then some. We talked over the whole world of mentality and he agreed with me that when Jesus said, "Salvation is of the Jews," he meant it for all time and eternity. Any man who knows the Bible knows that God never established but one institution and that was the Jews in "the everlasting covenant" made with Abraham. God never goes back on a promise. He can't, for the Word of God IS God. Therefore the only Church of God in a visible institution is Israel. They need no conversion. Once a Jew always a Jew. All they need is a mental resurrection and this they will come into when "the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled," and that time is now at hand. What all the world could not do Time is now doing by the Spirit of God. Jerusalem is being rebuilt, not by Crusaders, not by Protestants, not by Catholics, but by Jews. The old city has been trodden down by the Gentiles for all of these long centuries and the Jews have been scattered among all nations in fulfillment of the prophecy of Jesus Christ, but now "my people" are rebuilding Jerusalem.
