"The Tree of Character"

By COLUMBA.

This is my interpretation of the Madonna. Involution brings the soul down into earthly life. The way we use it determines whether we fall lower or evolve higher — as symbolized by the birds flying down, to be purged of stains, and flying up again.

Incarnation gives us a chance to transform the Flame of Life from the heat of lust into the Light of Love, (of the highest spiritual kind.) We must be tested by the fires of troubles, (like gold is refined) until all the dross is purged out.

By decorating the 'tree' of our character with the shining jewels of all the virtues we can develop here, we give spiritual birth to our highest capacities and powers. In this sense, we are our own 'Madonnas' producing our eternal spiritual body of God-consciousness in Divine Love — in the wonderful realization that we are the Creator in human expression! This is really something sublime to live up to, (through every vicissitude) so we can be counted worthy to progress into higher planes of evolution, by radiating helpfulness to those below us in the scale, and emulating those above us.

This is the real meaning of AT-ONE-MENT whereby we express only Divine Will, and thus can work miracles for the good of all, by overcoming all evil, within and outside. Thus, we have so much to look forward to — more than we can even imagine now!

PREPAREDNESS FOR THE AXIS-SHIFT (By A. Barber, author of "The Coming Catastrophy")

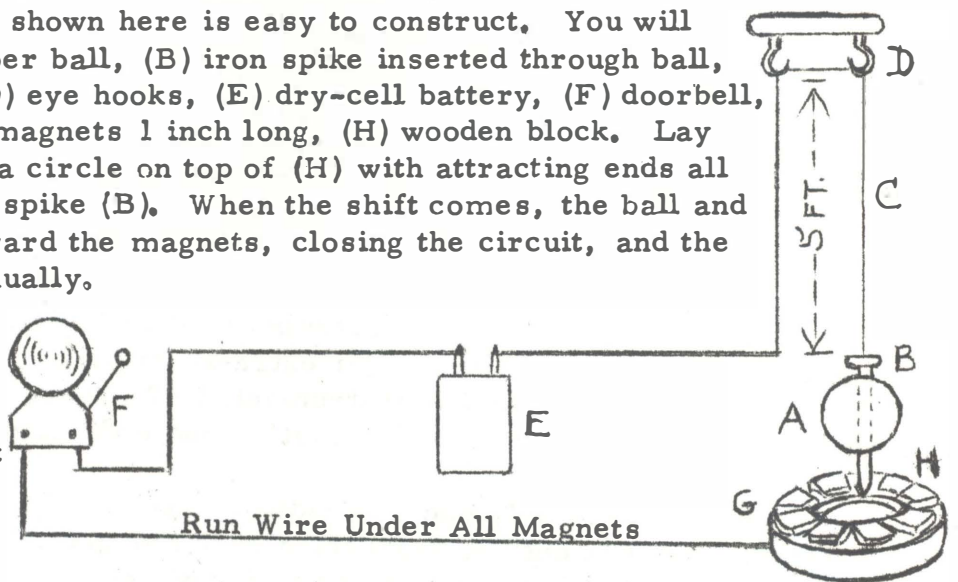

If you decide to build your own raft, here is the simplest way, with the least expense. Get nine ordinary automobile inner-tubes, and lay them in 3 rows, of 3 tubes per row. When each is inflated with 25 lbs. of air, the displacement in water will be about 200 lbs. of weight. Nine tubes will weigh 1,800 lbs., with floating capacity of around 1,600 lbs. Now lay four 2 x 4's (8 ft long each) on top of the inner tubes, so that a square frame 8' x 8' is made (of balsa or cedar wood). Fasten the inner tubes to the frame by water-proof cloth tape. Let a portion of each tube (except the middle) stand out for "bumpers." A small mast and sail, plus paddles will give mobile power.

Supplies include five gallon bottles of water, ten lbs. of assorted seeds. Keep in water-tight cans. Also olive oil and honey, dried fruits and vegetable concentrates. Rubber raincoat, hip boots, warm clothing, etc. First-Aid kit, suntan oil, water-proof sleeping bag, 100 ft. of strong rope, 3/8 of an inch thick; small camper's stove and household utensils, can of fuel, waterproof container for matches, magnifying glass (to catch solar rays to start a fire after landing). All kinds of building materials, like hammer, hatchet, saw, shovel, etc. Store everything in four large water-tight wooden boxes, partitioned. Strap these securely to the raft.

Those who do not have a warning signal will not know (in time) when the axial shift of the earth has started until minutes later. These might make the difference between comfort and hardship, life and death. To survive on D-Day our slogan must be: "FOREWARNED IS FORE-ARMED!"

The warning device shown here is easy to construct. You will need: (A) 2-lb rubber ball, (B) iron spike inserted through ball, (C) copper wire, (D) eye hooks, (E) dry-cell battery, (F) doorbell, (G) nine small flat magnets 1 inch long, (H) wooden block. Lay the bar magnets in a circle on top of (H) with attracting ends all pointing toward the spike (B). When the shift comes, the ball and spike will move toward the magnets, closing the circuit, and the bell will ring continually.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Then you'll all be set for any emergency! If a quonset tent is made airtight, with filters on all inlets, you will also be protected from radioactive fall-out. This is easier than digging an underground shelter, that water could seep into. In any case, such a "raft-camp" could be used for camping-out practice in the back-yard,

Noah was mocked for building the ark - but what's a little mockery compared to being ready if and when the time comes that you'll be thankful for such a "life-saver" that should carry you through over the waves to a place of safety.

ENIGMA ON THE MOON
(From Fate Magazine)

On March 30, 1950, Dr. H. P. Wilkins picked up a weird glow in the Aristarchus-Herodotus region. Oval-shaped and strangely brilliant. An almost identical glow was sighted at the same spot by an experienced American astronomer, James C. Bartlett, Jr. Most recent were the mystifying white "domes" which appeared abruptly in many of the Moon's craters. Strange geometric light formations and many other mysteries have occurred on the moon during the last 200 years.

If these strange reports are correct, an intelligent race must have been on the Moon for nearly two centuries. A highly advanced race could have achieved space travel before we even had steamships. Their spaceships might have circled our globe periodically, checking on our progress. That would explain scores of old sighting reports, going back to the 18th Century.

THE SOLAR ORBIT SPUTNIK
(From Search Magazine)

It is significant that the Russians' solar-orbit rocket was lost from all detection, including visual, as well as radar and radio at a relatively short distance beyond the moon. Although the giant rocket contained batteries sufficient to last for months of signaling, here we have the radio going dead in a few days' time and all contact lost.

Its "orbit" is one we are asked to accept on the basis of "mathematical calculations" alone, and not on any actual evidence. The truth of the matter is that the Russian solar-orbit rocket was lost from all ken of man not far beyond the Moon. This, in spite of the statement by our own scientists that modern radar techniques can detect a body as large as a "spaceship" billions and billions of miles out into space. We have "bounced" radar signals off the sun. Yet, we cannot detect Russia's solar-orbit rocket a mere million miles away! Why? Because it isn't there to detect any more?

* * * * *

EDITOR'S NOTE: Did the Russian Sputnik land on the other side of the moon, or did the original native inhabitants (or extra-lunar visitors) on the moon pull it in with their advanced scientific instruments??? There must be something going on up there, that's for sure - and let's hope we'll find out pretty quick!

As I am not the only one wondering about these modern marvels, I am not "sticking my neck out" in expressing such thoughts. The appearance of spaceships have aroused the curiosity of governments to such an extent that they have scouted around the poles, etc., in the Geophysical Year, trying to examine every inch of our globe; and started the race to space - while telling the people their sightings were "mirages," etc. WHAT GIVES? I HOPE TIME WILL TELL - SOON!

CONJECTURES ABOUT THE U.F.O.'S

By Anonymous

Earthlings have been led to believe that the U.F.O.'s are anything from discarnate spirits, materializing spirits, shy supermen from other planets, down to spacemen who resemble us, living incognito among us and to self-induced illusions, etc., etc. Also, that they are midgets or giants, monsters or godlike masters, nobler or more wicked than we are. That they are arriving to take us over in some strange way, or have come to rescue us from impending disaster. That they bring inspiring messages (although always through earthlings, never directly) via books, tapes and mediumistic trances, etc. Why not by methods that would convince any skeptic with incontrovertible proofs???? Outside of distant sightings (so tantalizingly near and yet so disappointingly far) there is no actual witnessed knowledge of any close meeting with them.

That they come from other planets - inside or outside the Solar System, from inside our planet, at the bottom of our oceans, or from secret hide-outs in the Arctic or Antarctic regions, etc! If the contactee stories are true (and I'm not saying they are not) as most of the sighting reports are, what is their purpose in mystifying everyone to the point of making some agog with expectation of something wonderful (or fear of something dreadful) about to happen? One book about trips to other planets claims that Saturn is inhabited, while another book says it isn't. So who are we to believe? Howard Menger even claims that he saw Americans and Russians working on the moon during his visit there, via spaceship. Why isn't the public told about this through the avenues of publicity?

If the U.F.O.'s were made in Russia, wouldn't they have been over here long ago to cow us into surrender by over-awing us with their superior mechanisms? Yet, if they are from other planets, their advanced scientific powers should enable them to find a way to safely announce it which would leave no room for doubt, if they have friendly intentions to help us over the threshold into the New Space Age. It looks as though we must abide by their choice of the right time for such joy through realizing they must have a good reason for preserving such an air of mystery.

Why were some U.F.O. publishers visited by the fabled "three men in black" to shut them up? This naturally brought up the conjecture that it was because such publishers were coming too near the truth. Can the real facts be deduced by those with analytical insight, weighing all these angles to "find the needle (of truth) in the haystack" (of rumors) that time will prove correct? We are only "doing what comes natural" by demanding proofs of 100% identification and motives. Then we would be only too glad to prove our friendly appreciation of their good purposes.

Therefore, O Spacemen, please come and SHOW yourselves, and thus bring on the New Space Age in its fullness by sharing your wonders with us! Will your "right time" come when we are prepared to greet you as our Elder Brothers, by establishing permanent World Peace, with Justice for all????

OUR SOLAR SOURCE

By Ye Editor

Everything physical must have an invisible spiritual counterpart (the prototype from which matter was formed) and that principle includes the suns. The planets vibrate in the solar force-field as the sun is the "solar plexus" of its solar system. Through our solar plexus (we mis-name our heart) we draw in solar power insomuch as we develop pure, impersonal Love for all. The solar rays are manifestations of Divine Love, and we must increase our "wat-tage" to hold more. Only when we evolve into more perfect channels for Its expression can we rise to higher planes of consciousness.

The solar rays are filtered when streaming through the atmospheres of the planets, however tenuous, so that only certain parts can reach the surfaces. Each planet is placed at the correct distance from its solar Source, according to the type of evolution drawn to inhabit it, for the sake of the lessons its creatures must learn thereon. The cosmic rays that come to earth from all directions, and which puzzle the astronomers, originate from the Grand Central Sun, the solar plexus of our Galaxy, which is a huge force-field that whirls the cosmic rays around so they strike each solar system from all directions.

At first the sun was symbolized by emblems. In time, these symbols were personalized as gods and saviors, and the solar Source was forgotten. All the gods and goddesses of antiquity were personifications of the various powers and processes of Nature. The procession of the equinoxes gave rise to fables of saviors who went through the same phases, as an allegory of how the "soul" (derived from "solar") can win salvation by conquering evil.

The sun, turning north at the winter solstice, on a smaller scale can be compared to the sunrise, the glow in the east resembling a cave. Thus it was said to be born and waxes stronger every hour in the day, or day in the season. The Sun God's infancy is full of dangers, as winter's grip tries to hold on until the spring equinox. At the fall equinox, the Sun God becomes increasingly bowed with the approaching onslaught of winter (the sins of the world). Then the Sun God is resurrected from the grave of winter to ascend into heaven at the summer solstice, after bringing the earth to life again in resurrected vegetation (raising the dead) to flourish during the summer (symbol of goodness and joy). Thus, the ancients explained the daily solar phases and, on a larger scale, the seasons. This gave rise to comparisons between the Sun and the Soul, making the Sun the emblem of the Soul, then constricting it down to personal saviors as symbols of the Sun.

But in future, real understanding of the Soul as being a Spark from the Sun, which (if developed by "crucifying" our lower nature for the "resurrection" of our Higher Nature to bring about our "Ascension") will draw us up to our Heavenly Home by the Law of Attraction. Then we'll find "OUR PLACE IN THE SUN."

COGITATIONS ABOUT HISTORY

By Anonymous

The fair-minded want to see all sides because the complete truth has many aspects, which take deep insight through much study for proofs. Whereas, narrow-minded prejudice is like the three blind men examining the elephant, each claiming only the part they felt was the whole truth! The "Excelsior" magazine published a picture of Christ, taken from a manuscript copied from an original letter of Publius Lentullus (President of Judea) in the days of Tiberius Caesar, to the Senate: "There appeared a man of the Jewish nation, of great virtue, named Jesus Christ - and of the Gentiles is accepted for a Prophet of truth, but his own disciples call him the Son of God. He raiseth the dead and cureth all manner of disease."

According to the "Egyptian Book of the Dead," by Gerald Massey, the life of Christ was more or less modeled upon the lives of other saviors. These were based upon the symbolism of the Solar Procession of the Equinoxes, as a prototype of the soul's successful journey through life's vicissitudes, by triumphs over evils, to the goal of spiritual mastery's celestial rewards.

I now quote from the book, "Mystery Man of the Bible," by Prof. H. Hostema: "The Rev. Dr. Giles says: 'Great is our disappointment at not finding anything about the Christians in the works of Philo (Jewish author contemporary with the Gospel Jesus).' This book tries to prove that Apollonius of Tyana was the miracle worker who brought the highest philosophies of ancient India to the Essene sect in Palestine, and that the Catholic Bishop's Council of Nicea formulated the Church creeds from the West, through HESU (savior of the ancient English Druids) and from the East through KRISHNA (savior in the Hindu Upanishads) in the combination labeled "JESUS CHRIST." In the book, "History of the Jews," by Josephus, there is a page about the crucifixion of Jesus. But this part looks as though it had been interpolated because its first sentence is a continuation of the last sentence just before this interpolation begins. In "The Dawn of Conscience," by Breasted, ancient history proves that parts of the Bible were plagiarized from other religions (such as the Psalms, the Proverbs, etc.)

In view of all these contradictions we should say, "So what? A thing of beauty is a joy forever! Therefore, what's the difference whether we give the great philosophies of spiritual development this or that title? It is the message, not the origin, that counts, as truth can be expressed through many channels! And character (moulded by actions) is more of an index to judge by than mere words." So let's realize that, in their highest aspects, all religions (worthy of the name) spring from the basic fundamentals of morality - Love of God and for Mankind! This is the foundation of Divine Revelation in all ages, to all races. There may have been just as many noble souls on as high a plane in one religion and church as another. Our perceptions of Truth change as our knowledge increases, Wisdom being knowledge applied in practice. Our consciousness, when uplifted through our highest aspects, of being GOD IN HUMAN EXPRESSION, gives us everything to live up to that makes life most worthwhile!

A SAMPLE OF PAST INCARNATIONS

By Ye Editor

Death is but the door into what we have built up in the higher dimensions while here on earth, just as the next incarnation will be what we will prepare while there, between death and rebirth. The time will come when we can so renew our bodies through spiritualization that we can travel between these planes without death's intervention. Just as our past incarnations leave some traces in the character and abilities we are born with, so how we live here will show up in future incarnations to influence our destinies.

In Chicago, in 1933, I met a very old librarian in a Metaphysical Library. She offered to go into a deep trance so her spirit-guide, Ariel, could read and relay my Akashic Records, where everything that has ever happened, either inwardly or outwardly, is imprinted on the fifth dimensional layer around the earth like various designs appearing on frosted windowpanes.

Following is a short summary, in the order given, beginning with the incarnation just previous to this one: I had been a poor peasant girl in Albania who became the mistress of the local Princeling and was held a virtual prisoner in his castle fortress. Before that I was a soldier in the medieval religious wars, who was shot by former comrades when I deserted to the enemy. In France I was the boss of tapestry weavers; a priestess in the Druid cult of ancient England; the wife of a courtier scribe in ancient Rome, calling my two sons my "Jewels." A witch of the ancient Mayans in South America (whose deathbed repentance was visited by a materializing Master, reassuring me of forgiveness); a vestal virgin of Isis (goddess of love) in ancient Crete, breaking my vows to elope; a dancing girl in a Maharajah's court of ancient India, becoming his favorite, next to his wife (with whom I had a lovely friendship which the bards sang about) and for whom the Taj Mahal was built; the commander of an army of Amazons, defeated in an attack on Alexandria, Africa; a Hindu artist who painted famous frescoes in a cave of India; a venerable astronomer in a Mystery School of the Pyramid in ancient Egypt; St. Paul's traveling companion (Damis?) or he himself (Ariel wouldn't tell which), who converted many after surviving a snake-bite on an island; a man who escaped from the submergence of Atlantis in a boat, rescuing survivors. Ariel did not go back beyond the time I was in the King of Atlantis Court, where my brilliant intellect attracted the Prince, who made me his Queen.

According to this "biography," I had quite a varied career, both in masculine and feminine bodies, which alternate as our character needs to develop the positive or receptive qualities. Ariel refused to relay anything about my "lives" in the intervals between death and rebirth, but they must have been something, judging by his tone of awe.

Each incarnation is like a "class" in a planetary "school," teaching us difficult "lessons" we must learn before we can be "promoted" onto a higher grade on a more evolved scale, maybe on another planet or solar system, etc., and so on up (if we don't backslide) to our Heavenly Home in the Godhead.

FLIGHTS OF FANCY

By Ye Editor

Life began in the seas, which gradually uncovered parts of the land as they retreated into deeper basins caused by the earth's shrinkage when cooling. After the waves had beat the rocky crust into sand and land, the various forms of life, led by vegetation, evolved into air-breathing organisms. This transfer was aided by the atmosphere being heavy with mist.

History shows that animals decrease as humans increase in number. Why? Was it because those ensouling the animals in prehistoric times have evolved into human bodies (according to Hindu "transmigration") to give them a chance to graduate into the next higher grades of the angelic realms by overcoming the animal propensities? The search for truth may take us into many strange by-paths of conjecture, but we'll never find out without searching.

Relativity of time can be better understood by imaginary comparisons with our own time-consciousness (if you care to stretch your imagination). Our solar system may be just a huge atom in some gigantic body or material in another solar system of unimaginable immensity, and so on, ad infinitum! Going from the infinite down to the infinitesimal, from a mental telescope to a mental microscope, each atom may be just a miniature solar system - even with inhabitants on the electron-planets orbiting around the proton-sun! Their sense of time would be so much faster than ours, that their whole lifetime could be lived during one of our inhalations!

On the other hand, our lifetime would be encompassed in one inhalation of the giant's body, of which our solar system is just one atom! Is this what is meant by, "A thousand years is as a day, and one day is as a thousand years to God?" Higher dimensions are the birthplaces of everything in the lower three dimensions.

Every evil thought and emotion brings hell closer, with its punishment to purge us. Whereas, every good thought and emotion brings Heaven closer, with its deserved rewards. Heaven and hell (with purgatory in between) are states of mind while we are still in our physical bodies. These states are not affected when we "shuffle off this mortal coil"!

If you hold your wrists under a stream of cold water for a while, it helps to recharge your energy. Or, if one person holds another's wrists (as though taking their temperature), it helps to recharge the other. It takes nothing from the giver, as energy is constantly flowing out from the fingertips.

Some day the therapeutic values of colors and tones will be part of every medical service. If you want to revel in the most exquisite colors of the rainbow, just look at any diamond-shaped piece of glass through squinting eyes while turning it slowly.

PROPHECIES FROM THE GOD-CONSCIOUSNESS OF PRAVOO

P. Jagadbandhu, India, in 1900: "Know thyself that My Great Liberation at the time of Destruction means the Advent of the Righteous Age. Know thyself that My functions are to give check to Destruction, Great Liberation of all animate and inanimate objects, and to bestow 'Harinam' Divine Love on all.

"All of you should perform self-restraint and persuade others to do the same. The Black Water begotten of the Gun of Rains sowed the seed of the Great Devastation with thundrous roar, which made the water of the sea to tremble. The air of destruction will blow till the year 1965, and after the elapse of the year, Mankind will embrace Truth and side by side Peace will be established on Earth.

"The period from 1960-62 will invite the age of complete destruction. The Great Liberation will spring up from the destruction. Until and unless people cry of hunger, and unless they are at bay caused by the strokes of destruction, people will not perform 'Harinam.' Harinam (Divine Love) is the Savior. All of you should perform 'Harinam' everywhere. May you be My assistants in My function of liberation. Gradually time will mature when 'Harinam Kirtan' will be sung over the trees in the sky, rather in the air. Ultimately, 'Harinam' will spread and engulf the whole of the Universe!"

The above is quoted from "Mahaudharan," a quarterly magazine from India, dealing with the ancient philosophies and the teachings of Pravoo Jagadbandhu. Send $5 subscription to N. L. Bose, 11/28, Balai Mistry Lane, P.O. Botanic Garden, Howrah, Calcutta, India. "Life is not mere dance of atoms, and man is neither a thinking reed, nor a developed ape, nor a fallen angel. He is part and parcel of the Divinity. Man's life is a part of the Divine Life, and man is as much necessary to God as God is necessary to him. Man is a fulguration from God. Prior to the creation of the Universe, there was alone the indivisible Supreme Soul, Joy Incarnate, Who, by a creative sport, brought the Universe into being, and entered it as individual Souls."

DREAMS

By W. Shakespeare

"Tell me your dreams, and I will read the riddle of your life. That which comes to you in your visions by day, and your dreams by night, the ideal you set before you - what you have given your heart to; these are the MEASURE OF A MAN."

* * * * *

EDITOR'S NOTE: If you want to analyze your subconscious mind, write down your dreams the instant you awaken. Sometimes the guidance of prophecies and forewarnings come this way - while we are in the subtler planes of being. When your dreams have become something to look forward to with holy joy, then you are quite a way up on the PATH TO PERFECTION.

EXCERPTS FROM SANAT KUMARA, THROUGH THE BROTHERHOOD OF SEVEN RAYS

It is the time of giving and applying. It is not the clarion call, or the order which is given to you alone, but it is the order of the day, now as we enter into this new phase of the planet Earth, and, indeed, our whole system. Catastrophe comes so that Man might learn from experience. But only the great and beautiful and good shall be inherited from it. Out of it Mankind shall rise phoenix-like unto his own golden glory!

God wishes Man - Man that He created - to rule over His celestial worlds; He wishes each Man to take charge of His worlds! Recognize that each one of your fellowmen is a potential god! For, some day, beloved ones, each one (no matter whether they are in your institutions of correction) some day, that soul will command a planet, and then a System and a Galaxy!

When each Man can feel, actually feel the Love and Friendship from another Man, from all Creation, then "the lion will lie down with the lamb" - when all thought is harmonious. For we are all part of ONE ETERNAL MIND; and to come back into that MIND, we must all join our Spirits together. And the CLARION CALL is: "COME HOME, EARTH!" and as I have said: "COME HOME TO THE EMPTINESS OF OUR BEINGS!"

* * * * *

EDITOR'S NOTE: Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father (Spirit of Divine Love) Which is in Heaven (Heaven is Within). The Father (Infinite Creator), the Son, Man (who is the off-spring of the Sun), and Holy Spirit (Love between the two). The highest form of life is always at the center, like the suns in their solar systems, the solar plexus in our bodies, and the proton-neutron centers of the atoms. Thus we are the solar gods of our own bodies, and we can influence billions of cells!

We live on the periphery of the Earth, the surface of its solid crust. According to this universal arrangement, could it be that the center of this planet (as all others too) are filled with those souls who have "graduated" from the exterior? Could it be that those souls who haven't made the grade (called for in their earthly incarnations) are stuck somewhere inside the caves of the hard crust (where the greatest gravity is) because they have not been able to reach the glowing interior, from not having developed the spiritual body that is capable of blending with its high frequencies? Do those souls who have passed the tests of earthly life and been promoted into the earth's light-center eventually rise into living on the periphery of the sun before "graduating" into the Solar Interior?

Do souls cast off from the Sun's periphery begin their incarnations on the planet farthest from the Sun for corrections, and have to work their way in? "Heaven is within" - our souls. Carried further, the larger "Heaven" could be within the Earth, then, in a still larger sense, within the sun, etc. It never hurts to stretch our imaginations, and who knows, we might, just might come up with something that time will prove is Universal Truth!

ANDROGYNY
By Columba Krebs

Humanity was once androgynous, each having both masculine and feminine powers to reproduce itself without any outside aid. But, in time, this balance became lop-sided insomuch as some developed more of the masculine traits and others more of the feminine. Thus they eventually secreted only the essences, cells and forms peculiar to each sex. These changes necessitated re-union of two bodies to create new life. Hermaphrodites and those who change from one sex to another (although very rare), prove this theory by being "throw-backs" to that original state's evolutionary process. The old saying, "my better half," comes from this subconscious memory of being a whole that was split in half! We should strive to develop a well-rounded character by exercising the best qualities of both sexes in their highest spiritual aspects, with emphasis on the sex to which we belong.

History proves that the male has been dominant most of the time, but there have been matriarchies also, as the tribe of Amazons. In the U.S.A., women own most of the wealth and outnumber the men (especially after world wars). What couldn't they do if they all pulled together (without errors)? More and more women are invading various fields of endeavor, even those once held exclusively by men. They are proving by their achievements that the gender of sex makes no difference when it comes to brains, talents and excellencies of all kinds.

On the other hand, this new freedom must not go to women's heads, to encourage them to neglect their natural (and most important) duties as wives and mothers, or express it by bullying their families if they can't reach a high position outside their home. The ideal situation is for no sex to try to dominate the other in any way, but for them to work together harmoniously, helping each other to rise in any chosen field, and rejoicing in each other's success of any praiseworthy kind.

"The pure in heart shall see God" (Creative Power).

THE BOOMERANG LAW

We deserve to reap where we have sown,
 For all the good as well as bad.
 All thoughts and deeds to others shown,
 Return to make us sad or glad.
 If we learn this great lesson well,
 By knowing we are parts of ONE,
 We will escape all kinds of hell,
 Heaven on earth will then be won!

DO UNTO OTHERS

Not what we can do others for,
 Will bring us blessings more and more,
 But what can we do for others -
 'Cause all Creation's our brothers.
 Love and wisdom is the leaven
 That will raise our souls to Heaven!

WHITE FLAME

Descend Thou in Light,
 O White Flame of Cosmic Power,
 To ignite our minds.
 Flood our hearts with a shower
 From Thy seas of Love.
 Through our virtues may It tower
 To burn out evil
 And bring our souls to full flower!

EVOLOSOPHY RESEARCH BULLETIN (3)

(New Age Electro-magnetics)

By F. J. Ryan

This graph illustrates the influx of the PURE WHITE LIGHT; the first touch from the Most High, the Celestial before Its refraction from subtle to gross, from rare to dense chemical, or gross material vibration - physical form and matter. This is the first touch of polarity. This vibratory rate knows no trough or peak of a wave, but rather the threshold of Blissful Ecstasy, Union, At-one-ment. All these terms must mean that the celestial firing order of physical function has been attuned. The harmony of your Mystic Chord rings out after being struck - perhaps the wedding of the glands has taken place - you have donned your ascension garment (Truth).

This is the ultimate, but only as the aspirant's reward, after long arduous effort along other lines that develop perfect function (#1 and #2 graphs), No. 1 straight, No. 2 curved. The lock of key-energy is released via #1 wave, the integration and elevation via #2 wave, and the composite is compounded in the #3 wave.

The wisdom of unfoldment or evolving has been sought down the years, for everyone, knowingly or otherwise, is a seeker and is on The Path, as it were, the right one for him at the time. Only recently has it become known that knowing relationship, affinity and identity has to do with function and structure of the human body. Life and its living takes place in the body, and redemption and salvation is through the physical body by achieving dominion and triumph over its form within, wherein lies the Kingdom, the Wisdom, and the psychophysiological experience of the Glory, Blissful Ecstasy!

EDITORIAL COMMENT: The vortex of clockwise and counterclockwise rotational lines at the navel are the first projection from the outermost (trumpet) band, that may have first formed the matrix of the embryonic body - the first line of Spirit with matter. Our Infinite Creator's clarion call to our souls - to find our way back home to the Universal Mind - reaches us via this level of consciousness the more we attune ourselves to it.

Quotation from "The Kingdom of Heaven," by Prof. H. Hotema:

The ancient Masters said that an invisible stream of Cosmic Electricity penetrates the head. Its vibratory rate decreases, condenses and materializes the microscopic fibers, penetrating through the brain in millions of minute threads, which meet at the medulla oblongata, and there converge and form what becomes the spinal chord. In the brain is the point where they are transformed into the invisible substance of the "Silver Cord." The nerves grow smaller and finally dematerialize completely into silvery rays through the "door opened in the sky." (Rev. 2:1.)
