NEW, ENLARGED, LIMITED EDITION OF

HEAVEN KNOWS WHAT

The Cast-your-own-horoscope book by the editor of The Astrologer

the modern astrological classic that has won tens of thousands of enthusiasts because with it anyone can cast and read his own natal horoscope without the slightest knowledge or study of astrology. All the laborious and difficult work has been done for you. All you do is follow simple directions step by step, and you can't go wrong—you get a long detailed and professional reading of all the aspects that were in force at the time of your birth.

This book sold thousands of copies at popular prices between 1935 and 1942. Then due to wartime shortages, the publishers were unable to continue it and it went out of print. We find it impossible still to get out a big popular-priced edition. But there has been a constant demand for this book, the first and only one of its kind. Originally, it contained data for every date between 1876 and 1921. Now, in this enlarged new edition, we've added 14 years of Tables, making it usable FOR ANY BIRTHDATE from 1876 to 1935 inclusive. There's also a new preface.

There are only 750 copies of this work available, each numbered and signed by the author.

YOUR SUMMER ROMANCE

by Grant Lewi

THIS IS A TRICKY AND EXCITING SPRING and summer, and open season for romance of all kinds, good and bad. Things began popping with the first conjunction of Venus and Uranus (April 30), continued through the first square of Venus to Neptune (May 27) and the second square of the same planets (June 9) after Venus had turned retrograde (June 2) to remain so till July 15-16.

Prudent and mature people who have bided their time through the past six weeks (June 2-July 16) escaped the worst backfires of emotionalism as Jupiter opposed Uranus (June 4) and as Mars squared both of them, and Venus to boot (through July 13).

Now, as Venus turns direct and Mars enters Libra (July 15-17) things look brighter. There is plenty of excitement ahead, much of it still tricky and undependable. But those who know what they want can get it if they operate in the right areas of their feelings and their opportunities.

THE SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL-ROMANTIC INFLUENCES center around several aspects, as follows:

Till Aug. 4, the final conjunction of Venus and Uranus (July 31) and the conjunction of Mars to Neptune (July 17-Aug. 4) focus attention. Both tend to repeat previous conditions, and to settle previous differences, clearing the decks for new things to come.

The 3rd square of Venus to Neptune (till Aug. 17) again ends a confusion that began in May, and opens new doors by ending old doubts.

Also, the New Moon of Aug. 5, followed by conjunction of the Sun to Pluto and Saturn (till Aug. 19) has a hearing in certain charts, and requires calm and deliberation, maturity and the ability to profit by past experience.

Mars transit of Libra (July 17-Sept. 3) holds the clue in some charts; Uranus entry into Cancer (Aug. 30) in others; and the trine between them (Sept. 3) can steady many shifting patterns into a new and unusual harmony.

This winds up the vacation period, but there's still the square of Venus and Mars (Sept. 3-17) to warn the sensible against hangovers and backfires; and the entry of Saturn into Virgo (Sept. 19) for some to aim for with respect to their emotional matters.

IN THE FOLLOWING OPPORTUNITIES AND warnings for each sign, the forementioned aspects are brought into focus, according to the romantic potential of each sign, in order that you may make the most of your opportunities—and side-step the pitfalls that await the over-enthusiastic and the unwary.

So Happy Holiday, and Good Hunting!

ARIES

EMOTIONAL FORCES HAVE BEEN WORKING close to your mental processes for a long time. The final conjunction of Venus with Uranus (July 31) should end a mental-emotional difficulty that dates back to May at least, and perhaps to the summer of 1947. The conjunction of Mars to Neptune should in some way resolve pressures you have been under with respect to other people. All this, as well as the final square of Venus to Neptune (till Aug. 17) can bring a lot of glamor into your life, but unless you have learned the lessons of the past to perfection, it is glamor that should not be trusted too far. In August (5th to

19) you're under great emotional strain, may be re-living the events of a year ago, and should under no circumstances jump to any hasty conclusions with respect to newly-presented emotional-romantic excitement. "Sit it out" thoughtfully at least till after Aug. 19, and take no drastic action of any kind.

After that, till Aug. 30, settle your mind with respect to relationships of all kind. There may be some glamor here which, by Sept. 3, may show you a new road to follow, your feelings and thinking based in a new sense of individual integrity and personal growth which can lead to some cooperative union that will be both personally and materially satisfactory.

But continue to be wary of the pressures of others (till Sept. 11) and of your own tendency to see things foggily. Curb emotional excess (Sept. 8-17) to avoid a break or rift that's difficult to heal.

So, though romantic opportunities are numerous, the chances for you to make mistakes are more numerous. The best course for you is to have fun, don't take yourself or others too seriously, and wait till the fall to make up your mind with respect to the far-reaching future.

TAURUS

ROMANTIC INFLUENCES AREN'T NUMEROUS in your chart this summer—your mind seems to be on other things, and, since Saturn is aiming for your 5th House of love and romance (Sept. 19) you should wait till he has taken up his stay there for the next two years before you commit yourself on any definite line with respect to love, etc.

In the meantime, fun and gaiety are likely till Aug. 4, and you can have an exciting time if you don't go to wasteful financial or physical extremes. A social opportunity (till July 31) can mean something practically, too; and until Aug. 17, those close in family and neighborhood can seem pretty glamorous. Again, have fun with your associates without being indiscreet or expecting moon-foam to become the stuff of daily life.

Mercury in your 5th House (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) can bring you gaiety and light-hearted good times; and through these you may see—perhaps by contrast—your deeper needs that will have to be satisfied as Saturn enters your 5th House.

A very stimulating influence nearby can be clinched (till Sept. 3); after this, you're prone to be over-excitable, and can get into hot water (till Sept. 17) by giving your emotions full rein. Love is around you and close at hand; don't let anything alienate those who should be your friends and loved ones.

Keynote: be practical about your emotions this summer. Enjoy life, but don't mistake fun for seriousness. You'll have to make emotional commitments by or shortly after Sept. 19. Look ahead with this in mind, and use your vacation accordingly.

GEMINI

THE CONJUNCTION OF MARS AND NEPTUNE (July 16-Aug. 4) can be either inspiring to the highest degree—or can knock you into a cocked hat if you're not in control of yourself. Strive for wisdom and maturity in all your relationships—mean what you say, and say what you mean. Look out for over-emotional people who turn on pressure. Protect finances (till Aug. 17) from emotional impacts; and think, don't feel, till after the 19th. Resolve a mental-emotional problem of long standing (till Aug. 30).

This can be a very glamorous period for you, leading to something real and enduring at the end of it (Sept. 3) if you know what you want, and are not merely on pleasure bent. Look ahead to a new start, into which any and all worthwhile emotional matter must fit. Mere summer romances are not for you—you have too much else on your mind. So be serious, and to play safe, don't commit yourself or put others under pressure to do so. If you have yourself well enough in hand, play and relax—but watch out that you don't mislead others or hurt their feelings.

You may reach a heart-warming agreement (till Sept. 11) and should apply your energies to work, to prevent strife from intruding (Sept. 8-17).

Be serious enough in your purposes to avoid wasting time and energy on meaningless romance. Enjoy life, be generous and warm-hearted, but unless you're ultra-secure mentally as well as emotionally, make it clear you aren't playing for keeps. What's done here must be fitted into a very serious pattern to come—don't let trivial heart-throbs interfere with it.

CANCER

BIG CHANGES IN YOUR LIFE SEEM TO proceed in an atmosphere of great emotionalism (till Aug. 4) if you don't curb your excitability and that of those around you. Then, till Aug. 18, you tend even more to take things personally. Try to avoid this, or you'll be unable to grasp a real opportunity right in the offing.

As Mars moves to trine Uranus (Sept. 3) right after Uranus has moved into your Sun-sign (Aug. 30) and to transit your 5th House (Sept. 3-Oct. 16) of love and romance, you may have the romantic chance of a lifetime, finding a new relationship (or a new phase of an existing one) that leads to great possibilities of happiness and personal growth. Grasp this (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) and "grapple it to your soul with hoops of steel" so firm that they will resist the excitement that follows (Sept. 4-18) and emerge with a newly-won love and assurance that is the entering wedge to a new life of happiness and achievement.

LEO

THE MENTAL SIDE OF LOVE IS VERY IMPORTANTLY emphasized as the summer opens, and you will do well to understand and accept the friendship angle of your relationships, especially till Aug. 4. You are ending a period that has been fraught with unusual relationships which you may have thought love, but which were really in the area of friendship (or perhaps enmity!). Also, your mind is pretty emotional, and whether you are thinking with your heart, or feeling with your mind, the result is an amalgamation, or a confusion, of the two processes. Rigid self-discipline will permit you to win some unusual love (till Aug. 11) if you have truly learned the lessons of the past two years, and have moved on beyond selfishness, arrogance, and self-will.

If this is so, then you can (till Sept. 3) win a new start in which love and friendship are importantly involved, and gain by this date a sense of emotional and domestic security that is the underpinning necessity of love. Seek this, and curb passing impulses (till Sept. 17) that would injure it.

Don't play with your emotions, or with others', this summer. Play on the surface, without over-dramatizing what you do, say, feel. Save your true emotions for something enduring—and you may find it here, if you are maturely and awarely on the alert for it.

VIRGO

THE EMOTIONAL FORCES IN YOUR CHART are very much bound up with worldly and practical matters. You may be in love with your work, or with someone on whom your prestige depends; or your emotional life may be expanding and contracting as your pocketbook expands or contracts (till Aug. 4). There's a chance for love here, perhaps for or from someone in an excellent position, as Venus conjoins Uranus in 10th and Neptune and Mars conjoin in 2nd. There's also a chance that if you let your emotions run unchecked, you'll get yourself talked about in ways that don't do you any good.

After this, till Sept. 3, as Mars approaches the conjunction of Uranus right after he enters your 11th House (Aug. 4) you have a chance for some very unusual relationship that will establish a new emotional pattern for a long time to come. Side-step the backwash (till Aug. 17) of some emotionalism that was troublesome in May and early June, and develop (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) friendship and romance, now presented on a new and inspiring basis. Those close to you are very important (through September) and you should cement family ties, not letting yourself be distressed by your own emotionalism (till Sept. 17). Build on the new set of human values you achieved, move into new areas of responsibility and achievement, in both business and personal relationships.

LIBRA

YOU'RE RIGHT UNDER THE HAMMER OF the summer's most intense emotional influences. Winding up (July 31) something that has been over-exciting for a long time, you tend to over-elated spirits (till Aug. 4) and must watch your step. There's a chance here for a very ideal relationship, of enduring importance—but only if you are being moderate and not too excitable. Prestige and happiness suffer (till Aug. 17) if you express yourself indiscreetly or too freely.

After this, however, you move toward the settlement of old matters (till Aug. 30) and the development of new types of relationships, and can have a very glamorous and exciting time (till Sept. 3), moving forward in business and other spheres into new and more happy potentials. With Venus in 11th, after Sept. 8, stress the stable and steady side of love expressed as friendship and good will, in order to avoid wasteful and disappointing extremes (till Sept. 17). Adhere to what you discovered (around Aug. 11, perhaps, and surely Aug. 18-Sept. 3) about yourself and others, and build on what was there developed for permanence and happiness.

SCORPIO

YOU CAN MISTAKE ENTHUSIASM AND excitement for love and deep emotion (till Aug. 4) but can have a good time if you don't take yourself too seriously or get involved beyond your depth. Actually, the indications of romance aren't very numerous for you this summer, until Mars enters Scorpio (Sept. 3) and even then, it seems to be more excitement than true romance.

Prior to this, take it slow and easy as Venus squares Neptune (till Aug. 18) and look then for something that may be developing secretly in your life, to pop out into prominence with enthusiasm around Sept. 3. If it isn't romance in the true sense of the word, it's a good substitute, and can provide you with a much-needed lift of the spirit. Avoid commitments, however, and curb emotional expression (till Sept. 17) for the sake of peace.

All in all, this summer is a good time for you to play, and you can have plenty of fun if you aren't being either too serious or so flip that you hurt others. Get out of your system in your vacation time, for after Sept. 19, you have a chance for some serious and stable relationship, for which you should now be preparing the ground.

SAGITTARIUS

THE FINAL CONJUNCTION OF Venus with Uranus in your 7th House (July 31) finds you surrounded by glamorous and exciting people, as Mars also conjoins Neptune (July 17-Aug. 4). Stress highest ideals of human relationships, and bring your best values to bear on love and friendship. There's a chance here for very exciting, gay times which, if kept under control and commonsense (till Aug. 17) can result in excellent new contacts (till Sept. 3) or in the re-statement of an already existing relationship on new and more rewarding terms. The whole Summer (from July 17 to Sept. 3) finds you with many people, and by avoiding sensationalism and extremism, you can have pretty much what you want in the way of romance, love, friendship, etc. Even in the midst of the confusion that precedes Aug. 18, you can keep things steady in your own life and that of others, and should, around Aug. 11, reach a personal decision that steadies you, though until the 18th, you should keep an open mind. After that, however (Aug. 19-Sept. 3) your birth. When you have your chart, you will work with that; but now, to see how it is done, follow through getting the right paragraph readings that will apply to someone born on this chart's date.

We will deal with the planets in the order that they are shown across the top of the tables on these pages.

First the Moon. The Moon in the sample chart is in Space 170. On page 8, go down the column headed "Moon" till you come opposite to "170." Here you find the number 9k. Write this down.

Mercury is found in space 240. Run down the Mercury column (page 8) till opposite "240." Par. 16b applies.

Venus is found in space 210. Run down the Venus column (page 8) till opposite "210." Par. 31b, 32e, 42x apply.

Do the same with all the planets, and you will find numerous readings that apply to you during the months of August and September, 1948, which, taken together, gives you a new outlook on, and insight into, the phases of your life.

Israel: the Fulfillment of Prophecy

by Charles A. Jayne, Jr.

IN the April-May issue of CURRENT ASTROLOGY the writer stated his belief that the Jewish state would succeed in coming to birth. This was written before the U.S. reversal of its stand on the U.N. Partition of November 29, 1947. After this apparent doom of the hopes of Israel many people found it difficult to believe that the new state could be created. However, at this writing—May 19—the new state of Israel has been born and this in spite of the U.S. blow to the U.N.'s partition scheme; yet, in the face of the grave military attacks of the Arabs on Israel many are at the time of writing still dubious that the infant nation will survive its stormy first few months.

A look at the birth chart of Israel—4 P.M. Palestine time on May 14, 1948, or 8 hours before the official termination of the shabby British Mandate—should convince the skeptics of the foolishness of their pessimism. Mars is at the cusp of the 11th house at the end of Leo where it sextiles the Ascendant at the end of Libra— $23\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  at Jerusalem. In addition Jupiter at the end of Sagittarius in the 3rd house also sextiles the Ascendant and closely trines Mars. This very favorable tie-up of Mars—planet of military force—with the Ascendant and Jupiter is an excellent augury of success for the arms of Israel's brave defenders.

THE BLOODY AND VIOLENT BIRTH OF THE new state is indicated by the square of Mars at  $28^{\circ}$  Leo to the Sun at  $23^{\circ}$  Taurus. In addition the present and future difficulties of the new nation are indicated by the presence of Mars-Saturn-Pluto-Moon in Leo where they square the Taurus Sun at the 8th cusp of the chart. The closest body to the Midheaven is the Moon at  $4\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  Leo—M. C. being at  $25\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  Cancer.

This elevated position of the Moon is a powerful index of the popular nature of Israel—it is a people's government (Moon in 10th)—and especially so since the Moon rules the Cancer on the M. C. The conjunction of Saturn and Pluto— $16\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  and  $12\frac{2}{3}^{\circ}$  Leo respectively—lies in the 10th house between the Leo Mars and the Leo Moon but closer to the latter.

This presence of no less than four bodies in Leo is unusual and especially significant in that they are elevated so close to the M. C. As the 10th house, thus emphasized, is that of Government and as Leo itself is associated with royal power traditionally it would appear that the Government of the new state will be very important to it and that it will bear heavy burdens—Saturn in 10th in square to the Sun.

This Saturn square to the Sun is a characteristic configuration that has marked the birth or rebirth of many major states (as in the case of the U.S. where, as here, it was in terms of a Solar chart a 4th house square).

The burdens and responsibilities of the Government will impose limitations on the nation—square the Sun—and may even tend to emphasize conservative elements in the new nation. But being a square the conservatives (Saturn) will be in conflict with the basic life purpose of the nation and will eventually lose out. However, grave difficulties and weighty burdens will make the path of Israel a thorny one, in that Saturn not only squares the Sun but also is widely conjunction the Moon (the people).

This paints a rather stark picture of Israel's destiny but one that is in accord with the current facts and future probabilities. This powerful configuration in Leo is bound to emphasize nationalism, the curse of the modern world, especially because of the prominence of Saturn. But Judaic nationalism should be understandable as a defensive exclusiveness arising from the hostility of others. If this were all there were to the picture we might feel not too encouraged about the type of influence that Israel will radiate. It should be recognized that Saturn is the planet which is traditionally most closely associated with Judaism—Jehovah being a name under which the great Saturn principle was known in ancient times. The sign Capricorn is also traditionally linked with Judaism—and with India—and it is the Zodiacal Sign ruled traditionally by Saturn.

In this chart it is at the foundation, i.e. at the cusp of the 4th house. A study made some years ago as to the Sun-signs as distributed amongst a large number of outstanding Jews by Carl Payne Tobey found Capricorn especially marked. It so happens that this Sign is also the most frequent one occupied by the Sun at the births of the most prominent of prominent world leaders, creators, etc., so that this would partially account for its peak among leading Jews. But this does not wholly explain the very sharp Capricorn peak for Jewish leaders and geniuses.

Important as the Saturn principle is and has been throughout human history it will be, indeed already is, the task of mankind to pass beyond the circle of Necessity (Saturn) and the planets within it to the realm of the universal as symbolized by Uranus-Neptune-Pluto. In the chart of Israel, Pluto occupies a very significant position throughout its 10th house Leo conjunction with both Saturn and the Moon. Its presence in the 10th house indicates that the birth of Israel possesses universal and spiritual significance and is a matter of more than merely mundane meaning for the world—verily, the fulfillment of ancient prophecies is hereby indicated.

THE MULTIPLE LEO CONJUNCTION OF Moon-Pluto-Saturn is sextile to both Neptune in Libra in the 12th house and to Mercury in Gemini in the 8th house—houses governing the more hidden aspects of life's activities. Indeed there is a close and beneficial trine between Mercury and Neptune which promises inspiration for Israel from invisible sources and an ability to radiate its influence in the form of a quiet but potent stream of idealistic thinking and insight. The inspirational character of Zionist thinking is undeniable and without such a moving idealism to sustain Jews over the world through many years, Israel would never have been born.

We may consider that the 9th house Venus is important in that it governs the Libra Ascendant. Located at 5° Cancer it is squared by Neptune. Zionist aspirations (9th house) are peaceful (Venus) but are beset by hidden treacheries and plots (square to 12th house Neptune) and to a certain amount of self-delusion and emotional beglamorment with a dream, the dream of a peaceful home of their own. But as the square indicates there are cruel stratagems and crosscurrents to be won through before this beautiful dream may be realized.

URANUS AT THE CUSP OF THE 9TH house and in late Gemini gives to Jewish aspirations and philosophical outlook (9th house) a strongly independent cast (Uranus). Indeed if Venus in the 9th represents the search for a haven, Uranus in the same house indicates the determination to be free. Uranus, sextiled by Mars, is supported by the Jewish military strength (Mars—the Haganah) which in turn aids the bitter struggle to attain and maintain Israel's independence. However, Uranus is opposed by Jupiter, the sole opposition in the chart.

As Jupiter is at the cusp of the 3rd house we may consider that among other things it signifies the desire to expand (Jupiter) Israel's narrow plot at the expense of neighboring territory (3rd house). Between this natural desire and the striving for freedom there is a basic opposition, but one which can be constructively resolved through a sense of justice and fitness, i.e. Libra on the Ascendant sextile to Jupiter and trine to Uranus. Indeed the Ascendant is powerfully and favorably aspected by these two planets and the Uranus' trine is a close and therefore powerful one. It is this trine that gives to the direction of the energies of Israel (Ascendant) the strong striving for freedom.

ALL IN ALL THIS IS A DYNAMIC CHART, in which the tensions and difficulties arising from its opposition, and from the squares to the Sun, are more than offset by the numerous and helpful trines and sextiles. Mundane events which occur near the time of an eclipse are invariably memorable. Such is the case with the birth of Israel in that it came into being only five days after the important May 9 Solar eclipse. The often unfavorable effects of an eclipse are not present because the birth occurred after the eclipse.

The eclipse itself, zodiacally so close to Israel's Sun, is a potent dynamizing factor and links up with the November 12, 1947, Solar eclipse which occurred at the opposite zodiacal point in Scorpio. It was just two days before the earlier eclipse that the plan for the ending of the mandate and the creation of the new state was put forward, as we pointed out in our April article, and, as there explained, this earlier eclipse, coming right after this plan for a peaceful transition, foreshadowed the difficulties which beset it and which have made the passage anything but peaceful. Indeed the November 12 eclipse was closely square an exact conjunction of Mars and Saturn and we note that the May eclipse also squared both of them just before Israel was born in its agonizing travail.

THE LAST BRITISH COMMISSIONER IN Palestine, Lord Gort, was appointed July 19, 1944. Since this occurred only one day before the July 20 Solar eclipse of that year it foreshadowed the end of the Mandate. Indeed the eclipse-path passed over Arabia—south of Palestine—and thus was an augury of the area which would be bound up with the future fate of strategic Palestine.

Still another eclipse is also playing a vital role in this Near Eastern drama. The ruler of Transjordan was born in 1882—month and day unobtainable. Now it is notable that an extremely important eclipse of the Sun occurred on May 17 in that year—and therefore possibly near his birth date.

The path of totality of this 1882 eclipse started in North Africa and passed over Egypt and the Isthmus of Suez to Tehran, Iran and then on to China and the mouth of the Yangtze. In so doing it passed over Transjordan and southern Palestine just below Jerusalem, i.e. the very cockpit of the present struggle.

It was at that time that at one end of the path Britain was moving in on Egypt, which it has controlled ever since, while at the other end the U.S. was reaching an agreement with Korea—the first pact Korea ever signed with a Western power.

In May of 1948 with the ruler of Transjordan in the spotlight of crisis we find Britain's tenure in Egypt terminating and the whole British Near Eastern position passing through a basic change—it was through its position in Egypt that Britain became involved in this whole area, i.e. Iraq-Iran-Transjordan-Palestine (all under the 1882 path).

And it was also in May of 1948 that the U.S. relations with Korea, and indeed its whole Far Eastern position, was also passing through a critical phase. The Korean election, engineered by the U.S. through the U.N., occurred on May 10, only 4 days before the birth of Israel—the sole democratic election in 4000 years of Korean history.

Thus we may consider that the 1882 eclipse's activation timed the great crises in both the Near East—under path—and in the Far East—under path (first democratically elected Chinese Assembly in 2,000 years met just before the May 9, 1948, eclipse) and near the path (Korean election). Indeed we may consider that certain strands of destiny which commenced to unfold in 1882 terminated in 1948 at which time new strands commenced with the 1948 eclipse. The path of the May 9, 1948, eclipse passed over the Far East, as did part of the 1882 one, and thus made a geographical connection.

Indeed the 1882 and 1948 paths crossed each other at the mouth of the Yangtze in the vicinity of the great Chinese cities located there (Shanghai, Hangchow, Nanking—capital of China, etc.). Furthermore the 1948 path passed over Seoul, Korea—its chief city—on the very day that the Korean election had been originally slated to take place. It was only because the Koreans—as good astrologers—did not like this omen that the election was delayed for one day!

All of this indicates that the world position of the West—Britain and the U.S.—in the Near and Middle East is closely bound up with their relationship to the Far East as both these great eclipses and their paths have indicated. Certainly on the face of it there is little direct connection between these crucial and stormy developments in the Near East and the Far East except the one of simultaneity, yet as the eclipse-paths and closely correlated historical events indicate there is the closest kind of a connection. In short what appears 'accidental' would, if we could view all things in higher dimensions, be found to be part of a great pattern, i.e. that vast design which men term destiny.

IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD-CRISIS MANY events, apparently unrelated, are all unfolding in concordance and thus Willkie's dicta as to "One World" is very much more than a mere happy phrase, for the whole is indivisible and interdependent. One might be bold enough to assert that it is Man's failure to realize this, and to act accordingly, which brings such terrible troubles upon human heads and hearts. For if we refuse consciously to cooperate and to recognize our common destiny and responsibilities, life will force us to suffer common miseries; our failure to be in accord with the unity of life will turn what could be common joy into shared suffering. Perhaps it will only be through the flame of sorrow that we shall burn away that which blinds us to the true unity of the reality around us and to the unity of Man.

Concretely how may we apply this to the crisis in the Near East? We may be certain that developments there—turning points—will be simultaneous with those in the Far East. We may be sure that a single justice, an integrated world policy will alone suffice to heal the torn web of cooperation of the planet. As we mete to others so shall the law be meted to us.

If we fail to honor our obligations in the Near East, then we may be certain that we shall eventually suffer for it. We cannot apply, no part of the world can apply, one set of values, one kind of justice to itself and another type to another area. Each failure to transcend bias, each discrimination, each betrayal, each wanton use of force will boomerang upon the sender since the world is indivisible.

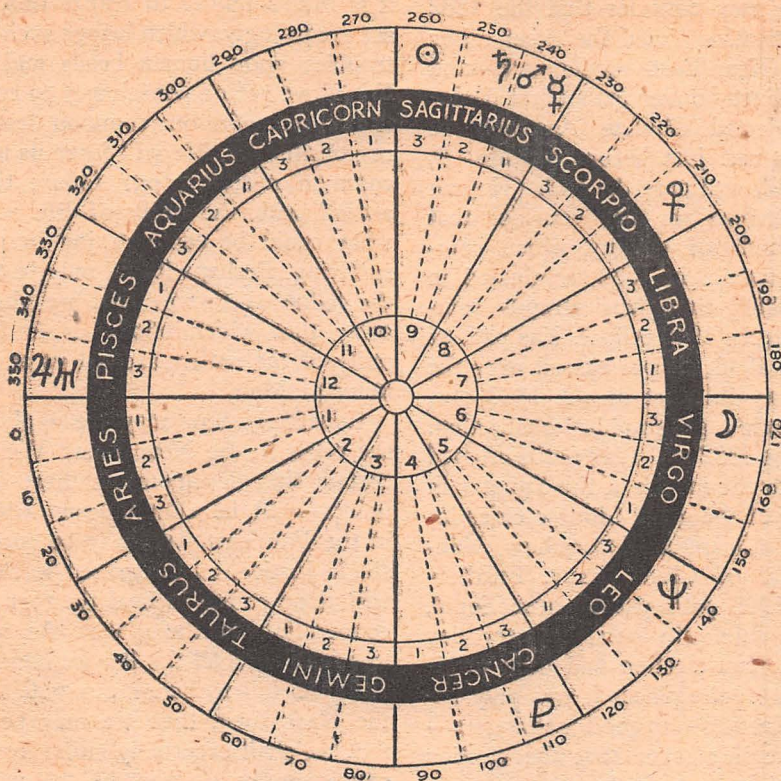

The laws of universality, the energies of the trans-Saturnian planets if heeded and rightly used will enable mankind to build a new world of beauty and justice, one far beyond any that has ever been.

But if not heeded, these very energies and laws will be a stern and inexorable nemesis which will bring destruction and undoing to those who transgress. The responsibility is with mankind as to which world will come about—One World—or None. It was the early and long line of prophets and illustrious moral teachers of Israel who in ancient times expounded this great principle of social justice and who warned mankind of the consequences of

"WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT SINGLE thing in living a successful life?"

We had never met or conversed before. Yet those were the first words uttered by Amelia Logan when she appeared for her appointment with me. Those words were obviously the concentrated distillation of her thoughts concerning this interview.

I was slightly stopped dead in my tracks by her explosive question. All she wanted me to do was to solve the riddle of life and produce the magic formula which would transform the world into a psychological paradise.

Mrs. Logan, as I learned in that and following interviews, was a highly successful author. She had to her credit twelve novels and more than a hundred short stories, all published nationally and enjoying a good sale.

HER PROBLEM WAS THAT SHE HAD UNACCOUNTABLY become unable to write any more.

"I have run dry," she said; and then she contradicted herself with "No, I haven't! I have more power than I have ever had—but I just can't organize my material. I can't write. And I have these terrible, blinding headaches so much of the time. The doctors say my blood pressure is far above normal, but that the cause is more psychological than physical." We went quite deeply into her history, with very satisfactory results. Early in the program I explained that I must have time in which to answer her question.

At my request, Mrs. Logan brought me three of her novels—I had never read any of her works. Those three books made me ask that she bring me all the rest, together with a generous sampling of her short stories.

"Has it occurred to you that there is a thread of similarity running all through your writings?" I asked, after I had taken several days to look them all over.

"You mean the plots?"

"No, not exactly that," I replied, "but the main characters in all your books seem to have enough in common to make them almost the same person. Had you intended them to be that way?"

"No—and I can't see that they are. I have tried consciously for variation in as many ways as possible—different settings, different places and different periods. Yes, and different characters."

"Granted," I hastened to agree. "You did try consciously. But what I refer to is something that you have done unconsciously, or subconsciously."

"Don't tell me. At least not yet," she said. "I want to try to figure it out myself—it's better that way, isn't it?"

"Indeed it is. When a person can achieve correct realizations from within, his effort produces better and more lasting solutions to his problem."

"Are you referring to the fact that all my stories and books are about crime and criminals?"

"No, that wasn't exactly what I meant; but it is significant that you have excluded all other themes. No, what I was referring to has to do with your choice of victims and murderers."

SHE PONDERED LONG, BUT WOULD NOT give up. She asked to be allowed to work on it until the next interview. When she returned she still hadn't discovered what I was striving to elicit from her mind. She asked for another clue and I said:

"Go over in your mind all the worst characters in your writings, whether they be victim or perpetrator, and see if—"

"Yes! Yes, I've got it! The worst character in each book is a woman!"

"That's it, Mrs. Logan, and I congratulate you on reaching this realization."

"But you helped me—you practically told me."

"Oh no I didn't. I told you merely that there was something to look for and to some extent where to find it. I did not tell you what it was; you identified it entirely by yourself."

"But why didn't I once—even just once—choose a male villain? Never until this minute have I ever thought of that. It can't be that I consider women as being all bad, because I definitely do not. Nor do I consider all men as untainted Sir Galahads. Yet in almost 150 cases I did make a woman my worst character. Why?"

"That is for us to discover—together," I replied. "Tell me what specific women have been most influential in your life—particularly in your early life."

She told me of a grandmother who took care of her for five years, whom she definitely did not care for. But she did not have any intensity of emotion about it. And there was an aunt who had encouraged and helped her in numerous important ways.

I waited for more. But apparently no more came to her mind.

"What about your mother?" I inquired; "did she die when you were—?" That was it.

AT FIRST IT WAS NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE FOR her to mention her mother. Telling the story of her early experiences was so painful that not until she had broken two appointments did she come to discuss them.

"Then I have taken my revenge for those early injustices at her hands—by disguising her in my villains? Is that it?"

"What do you think?"

We had several further interviews, during which she was able to produce more and more detail as to her feelings and actions under the unreasonable (at least to her) tyrannies of her mother.

One day, in what proved to be the next to last of our conferences, she suddenly stopped talking in the middle of a sentence and feverishly began to write. I quietly left the room and waited. In about ten minutes she called me back and showed me what she had written. It was the complete outline of a new story—the first she had produced in more than a year.

"I'm cured! I'm cured!" she cried. "Look, the villain is a man—a man!"

I couldn't agree with her as to full cure, but said nothing about it. In the last interview, when she was much more calm, I suggested that a further step which she might take in her future writings would be to try a story in which nobody would get killed.

Another, and by far the greatest, part of that last interview was the fact that I had finally arrived at something of an answer to the question she had asked when she first came to see me: "What is the most important single thing in living a successful life?"

"PERHAPS I CAN BEST ANSWER THAT question," I said, "by calling it the understanding of the law of Duality. Duality, or two-sidedness, is present in every phase of life and living. We are always at the crossroads, always facing two paths; and we must choose one. And then we go on to the next and consequent situation which, in its turn, poses another duality."

I explained to her that energy is forever flowing into people and that it must be allowed to flow on and away from us to make room for more. When we block it we suffer. This applies to emotional and mental energies as well as to those that are physically obvious.

When we hate and thereby direct the flow of emotional energies in a manner designed to hurt others, we are making the next situation more difficult for ourselves.

"Are you saying that I must change my hatred of that woman into love?"

"Not necessarily—in fact, I don't see how you could. But I am saying that you could sublimate that energy, the energy of resentment and hatred. You have tried to do it in your writing, but subconsciously you did it the wrong way and thus kept

VERY basic and far-reaching changes occur in your life during these two months, as both Uranus and Saturn change signs.

Uranus (Aug. 31) leaves Gemini, where for the past six years he has been stimulating and broadening your life, and accenting the individualistic aspects of your thinking. He enters Cancer, your 4th House, where he will spend most of the next seven years giving you an opportunity to carry out in practice what you have previously learned in theory about the demands of your own individuality, and of your own nature. In your 4th House, he brings changes into your life—perhaps geographical changes, perhaps changes in viewpoint or outlook, perhaps changes in the personnel of your immediate environment. Whatever form these changes take, the need of this influence remains constant. It is a need for growth, for a willingness to get out of a rut, for an eagerness to accept changes and to progress along broader and more rewarding lines.

At about the same time, Saturn leaves your 5th House to enter Virgo your 6th (Sept. 19) for a two-years' stay. You have learned, since August, 1946, a good deal about emotional responsibility, and have become in some way more mature and more stable in your thinking and feeling. You now have an opportunity to carry your newfound maturity and stability into useful and productive work. The 6th House, now activated by Saturn, is the House of work, duty, and health. All three of these need sensible attention in the year ahead; for your path lies now along lines of conscientious service to others, with which must be combined a full sense of your duty to yourself as an individual, from both a physical and an emotional standpoint. If you go to extremes of self-sacrifice, you lose quite as much as if you shirk what is legitimately required.

THE MAJOR ASPECTS OF this two-month period are (1) the sextile of Mars to Saturn, Aug. 30; and (2) the sextile of Saturn to Uranus, Sept. 23.

Until Aug. 30, make it your business to cement all worth-while relationships on a sound and enduring basis. Your problems here lie with other people (as Mars goes through Libra July 19-Sept. 3) and with your own emotional responses, (as Saturn completes his transit of 5th House Sept. 19).

Between August 31 and Sept. 23, a further, and farther-reaching, alinement of individuality and circumstances is possible. Here you should be reaching out for some new way of life, some new daily occupation that will be both demanding and rewarding. Work is your need here, as much as anything else; you will be unhappy if you are idle, and you will also lose a great chance for self-betterment. Find an occupation that satisfies you as an individual, and that also gives you a grip on progress.

TILL AUG. 4, be very cautious in your dealings with others. Emotionalism—either yours, or that of some compelling person around you—can shake your judgment; you need to be detached, calm, realistic, and above all self-assured. You are in the process of settling some profound emotional problem, and your best support comes (till Aug. 11) through a heightened realization of what you really believe and want from yourself, from life, from others. Faith—whether in religion, or philosophy, or yourself, is of the utmost importance. Dare to aim high, to believe in your own individual integrity, and to solve all problems with warmth and humankindness with this as your base of operations.

Material opportunity should be developed (till Aug. 17). Your luck comes through cooperative union with others, and continues to do so for some time to come. Be sober and realistic (till Aug. 19) to resolve any intimate problems, and to move steadily (till Aug. 30) toward a settlement of personal matters in a way that will free you.

A FINANCIAL AGREEMENT (till Sept. 3) can be magical, steadying your life on a new and more secure basis. Be generous in your dealings with others. A partnership is profitable.

Side-step emotional excess (till Sept. 17) which tempt to waste of money, and happiness. Be conventional, discreet, practical.

Your world expands if you are keeping your aim high, and, as Venus trines Jupiter (till Sept. 29) you have a chance to reap the rewards of virtue and restraint.

TAURUS

DEPARTURE of Uranus from your 2nd House (Aug. 31) ends a six-year period of unusual financial developments; while the exit of Saturn from your 4th House (Sept. 19) ends a period of change that began in August 1946.

You have a chance now, as Mars sextiles Saturn and trines Uranus (till Sept. 3) to "put your house in order" for a long time to come, and, as Saturn trines Uranus (till Sept. 23) to make some long-term plans.

THE LONG TRANSIT of Uranus in your 2nd House (since 1942) has created unusual conditions with respect to finance and property. If these have been fat years, do everything in your power to keep money in the bank, and investments safe, as the influence comes to a close (Aug. 30).

If the past six years have been lean or insecure, take stock of them now. Eradicate the errors that have kept you from security or abundance, and discover the means by which your situation may be bettered.

Chances to steady financial matters are present here, and should be grasped. They may come (till Sept. 2) through a job; or after this, through the good fortune of someone with whom your welfare is tied. However you seek it, your aim here is to steady your life economically.

At nearly the same time, Saturn leaves your 4th House (Sept. 19) where he has been since August 1946. The past two years have brought big changes into your life—geographic, emotional, or with respect to those who have shared your living. These changes are now complete; you are moving forward on a new basis (with which financial developments are linked) and are leaving some old factors behind you. Clear up odds and ends (before Aug. 30) to be ready for new opportunities to come a bit later.

As Saturn enters 5th (Sept. 19) you come into a two-year period that requires emotional maturity, and a deep sense of personal responsibility toward those you love. If you are already mature and responsible, this can increase your popularity, and steady your whole emotional life. If you're not, then you have a chance to learn how to deserve love and popularity. You enter now a period that can be creative in practical ways, and that can bring you a chance to "be yourself" in harmony with the most progressive forces of the world you live in, and to develop these potentials should be your aim (till Sept. 23) as Saturn makes the powerful and far-reaching sextile to Uranus. Seek growth, maturity, insight into yourself and others; and find the way to be creative and aspiring in terms of the best that you have to give.

PROTECT HEALTH (till Sept. 3) from physical extremes. There is an excellent opportunity here for new work, new employment, new and more rewarding daily life; but you must slow the pace if you aren't to wear yourself out physically or emotionally. This is especially true till Aug. 4, when headstrong influences work through your 6th House of daily life, duty, and health. Prevent extremes from interfering with efficiency.

Till Aug. 11, steady your domestic and personal life, and seek a cooperative financial agreement with those who share your fortunes. You can put down roots for a long time to come (till Aug. 19) by a realistic appraisal of the forces working around you; and should seek (by Aug. 30) to have all parts of your life harmonized and in readiness for new things to come.

THE FUTURE YOU FACE may require the elimination of certain factors you have taken for granted in the recent past, and the acceptance of a quite new way of thinking and living. For you, now, "change is of the essence" and if you resist it, you may find yourself in a pretty deep rut. Equally dangerous, however, is thoughtless change simply because of impatience.

Seek insight (till Sept. 11) into your daily life and its requirements, and, by linking your affairs with others, move progressively into a new phase of your life. The viewpoint of others is essential; without it, you will encourage (Sept. 8-17) clashes of will that are destructive of peace.

As Saturn sextiles Uranus (till Sept. 23) serious-minded acceptance of responsibility gives you a clue to progress and peace of mind; and (till Sept. 29) you have an excellent chance to steady emotional and practical matters through a fortunate individual with whom your life is linked.

HERE comes the beginning of the end of Uranus in your Sun-sign, where he has been since 1942. As he enters Cancer (Aug. 30) you wind up a period that may well have been the most exciting in your life. Whether it has been the most progressive, or merely a long passage of confusion, depends on the extent to which you have used your opportunities, and the degree to which you have been able to respond to this most individualistic of all influences.

Now, with Uranus in Cancer, your 2nd House (Aug. 30-Nov. 12, 1948), a new influence rules financial matters. Seek now for new developments in earning and saving. You may have a chance to make money along quite unexpected lines, and should seek good fortune courageously.

ACCOMPANYING THIS INFLUENCE, Saturn enters your 4th House, Virgo, on Sept. 19, for a two-years' stay there. The changes that have taken place in and around you since 1942 are now complete. You are ready to move ahead along new and exciting lines, to enter a world of broader scope, and wider opportunities, in which your potential for progress will be greatly increased.

Saturn in 4th (for two years starting Sept. 19) should be welcomed as a bringer of change. This change can be geographical—you may move to a new place and take up residence there. Or it can be personal and intimate—you may change your outlook radically, and alter your desires and aims. This influence, too, can change the personnel of your environment, bringing new people into your daily life, and perhaps eliminating some who have shared your life till now.

Under this influence, the chief thing is to avoid getting, or staying, in a rut. Change is here essential to growth, and you lose important chances if, through timidity, fear, self-doubt, or weakness, you neglect to move with the tide that is trying to bear you upward and onward.

WITH MARS IN LIBRA (till Sept. 3) your creative forces are stimulated, in the main favorably. There is a chance—and a big one—that (till Aug. 3) sensationalism will be prominent, with perhaps a tendency to go to extremes in personal life, and to be excessively influenced by your emotions. Any immature or ill-digested desires or resentments can be troublesome; you can get into, or make, trouble by self-will, extremism, self-indulgence, or unwonted yielding to the pressure of loved ones. However, if you have your feet well under you in your personal life, this can represent a very creative period of progress, achievement, and growth.

Following this, you have an unbeatable opportunity to further your deepest and best interests. An understanding with respect to things and people close to you can (till Aug. 19) clear your mind of doubts, and provide the link between your intimate desires and the necessities of the world in which you find yourself. A cooperative agreement (till Aug. 17) can be materially fortunate, and can truly give you a foundation in personal agreements that builds self-assurance, increases happiness, and enables you to put your best foot forward in all ways that are most vital to your growth and achievement. This, clinched till Sept. 3 by a new development in work and daily life that steadies finances on a new and more rewarding basis.

SEPTEMBER IS DOMINATED by the entry of Saturn into Virgo, your 4th House, and by his steadying and progressive sextile to Uranus in your 2nd House (Sept. 23). During this month, you should find yourself on a new high-road of achievement, with both a sense of change and growth, and a sense of new stability. You work now under a very unusual combination of forces through which you can harmonize your individuality with the practical demands of the world, and establish security for a long time to come.

Avoid extravagance in personal matters and home life throughout the month. In connection with work or daily life, where there are new demands and new opportunities, reject personalities (till Sept. 17) and don't permit pressures in family, neighborhood, or social life to lessen your efficiency.

As Saturn enters Virgo (Sept. 19) be ready for a new life, a new start, new opportunity, all based on the soundness of your personal life, and the depth of your self-assurance and self-respect. Keep all relationships harmonious; and seek (Sept. 24-29) for an agreement with your partners or associates that will cement happiness.

For Those

YOU enter in August a radically new influence, as Uranus moves into your Sun-sign (Aug. 31). Here he remains till Nov. 12; then, because of retrograde motion retreats to Gemini. On June 10, 1949, he comes again into Cancer for a six-years' stay of great importance.

Uranus in your Sun-sign will stimulate you to a new realization of your own personal worth and individuality. Under his influence, you will sense the need for growth, which may necessitate some important changes in many departments of your life. You will feel more creative and adventurous than hitherto, and emotions may run high.

To derive the maximum from this influence requires maturity, courage, and definite purpose. You can run around in very profitless circles, if you are self-centered or self-indulgent; and can make a lot of trouble for yourself and others by ego, unconventionality, and self-indulgence. To distinguish between the truly creative side of your nature, and the side that is merely pleasure-seeking is of prime importance.

AS SATURN MOVES OUT OF LEO INTO VIRGO (Sept. 19) another important influence takes hold, to last about two years. The financial pressures that have been insistent since August, 1946, and exaggerated since last October, come to an end. You should by now have made your peace with, and cemented your security in, the material world, and be ready to put your mind on other things. With Saturn in your 3rd House (for two years after Sept. 19), your daily life may be confined to a somewhat limited sphere. There are duties and obligations in connection with family and community matters that cannot be side-stepped, and that may seem to confine you and "cramp your style."

NEPTUNE IN 4TH REQUIRES THAT YOU FIND your security within yourself, as well as in a place, or in connection with others. There is a sense of constant growth and change around you, and if you are to feel well-grounded in contentment and security, it will be because you are able to feel within yourself that you are a worth-while person capable of carrying your peace of mind with you. The creativity of Uranus in your Sun-sign—the daily duties of Saturn in 3rd—should all be made to serve the purpose of this inner and underlying peace of mind, on which your contentment and material welfare must in the end rest.

MAJOR CHANGES TAKE PLACE AS MARS goes through your 4th House (till Sept. 3), enabling you to strike out along some new and progressive line. Under Mars' conjunction to Neptune (till Aug. 4) seek a new basis for your security and growth, ruling out all factors that tend toward emotionalism, sensationalism, and self-indulgence. Very forceful people in your environment need tactful handling.

Financial agreements (till Aug. 19) steady material matters, and you are able to gain practically (till Aug. 17) in connection with work, job, daily life. Seek the help of those close to you.

Avoid emotional excesses (till Aug. 17) which perhaps reflect some problems of last May-June, now up for final settlement.

By Aug. 31, have your material and domestic affairs alined with each other enduringly; and be ready (till Sept. 3) to make a new start that is of the utmost importance.

THE SEXTILE OF SATURN TO URANUS (Sept. 23) rules this month, providing a chance to harmonize all the important factors of your life and your personality in a single pattern of growth, usefulness, and serenity. Overlook trivial matters to arrive (by Sept. 11) at a basic agreement that steadies your personal life by linking your fortunes with those who share your home.

Watch the growth of financial-emotional pressures (Sept. 8-17); the square of Venus to Mars from 2nd to 5th Houses tempts to extremes, can be wasteful of money and injurious to happiness if you let sensationalism or self-indulgence rule.

Moderate the pace (till Sept. 23) to take advantage of long-range influences by rejecting the pressures of relatives, neighbors, and those closest to you. Make long term plans, practically, and seek (Sept. 24-29) a financial agreement involving work and daily life that steadies income, brings budgets into line with reality, and makes for the harmony that grows from emotional and material security.

THE burden of responsibility that has been on you since August, 1946, is removed now as Saturn leaves Leo (Sept. 19) to enter Virgo, your 2nd House, for a two-years' stay. If you have felt that you were under pressure (especially since August, 1947), you can look ahead now with a sense of relief. Though Saturn in 2nd continues to keep you in realistic contact with material necessity, the sense of being personally under the hammer is disappearing.

At much the same time (Aug. 30) Uranus enters Cancer, your 12th House, for a seven-years' stay, to agitate the subconscious and creative forces of your nature, and to impel an awakening to new phases of yourself and your emotional drives and impulses. This influence can have a very rewarding effect, if you examined your inner nature clearly and fearlessly when Saturn went through Cancer (1944-46) and if you accepted and fulfilled the obligations that were yours when he went through Leo (1946-1948).

Your aim, in the present and the immediate future, is to harmonize the personal with the material aspects of your life—to bring into balance the drives and forces of your own nature with the practical demands of the world in which you live.

YOUR MIND IS STIRRED CREATIVELY (till Aug. 4) by the conjunction of Mars with Neptune in your 3rd House. This may pose problems related to those close to you—relatives, friends, neighbors—some of whom will be emotional, and perhaps insistent on getting their own way. You must be careful of following the lead of emotional people—also of forcing your will on others. This is a very creative influence; it gives insight, if you avoid self-indulgence, self-pity, extremism.

Intimately personal decisions (till Aug. 22) give you a grip on reality and heighten self-assurance. Be careful that you do not force issues too far or too fast; you can get your own way here—the only thing to be careful of is that what you get, by insistence, is what you really want. Mistakes are hard to correct, and only the most far-sighted view of things will be ultimately rewarding. Emotionalism heightened (till Aug. 17) brings back certain problems of May-June which must be resolved according to your most realistic capabilities.

As Mars sextiles Saturn (till Aug. 30) you have a chance to "put your house in order." Digest the effects of the past two years; cement those ties that should be enduring, and eliminate everything worthless.

YOU MOVE (THROUGH SEPTEMBER) into a new start, as Mars goes through your 4th House to launch a two-year cycle. Under the trine of Mars to Uranus (till Sept. 3) look ahead courageously and with firm purpose.

For Those
Born
July 23
August 23

Link your innermost desires with the practical opportunities here presented. While avoiding hasty decisions, link your needs and desires with the most progressive forces of your own nature, in a way that satisfies both your individualistic needs and the material world.

As Saturn moves to the sextile of Uranus (complete Sept. 23, operative till then) you may have an unusual chance at some practical and financial agreement that can steady your life for a long time to come. The amount of income involved here is of less importance than the fact that, in getting it, you draw on the best portions of your own nature, and give scope to your creative and individual talents and abilities. Seek such developments now, with full and growing confidence in yourself as an individual, and with faith in the future which the planetary picture fully justifies. Remember that for a long time to come, your progress and growth depend mainly on your inner sense of rightness and worth. With a firm grip on these, you can mould circumstances and take care of practical matters. And, till Sept. 23, you have a chance at some arrangement that will satisfy all your needs, and enable you to be secure and progressive.

A decision involving those close clinches important matters (till Sept. 11). Be cautious (Sept. 8-17) of personalities and emotional-social extremes that can upset security and injure self-assurance. Keep peace, and moderate your personal desires sternly. Avoid all financial risks and extravagances (till Sept. 23) to take advantage of the stable opportunities that are presented here.

As Venus in Leo trine Jupiter in Sagittarius (till Sept. 29) your popularity and magnetism bring happiness in personal matters. Love and social life are favored, and you can attract good fortune and good will.

YOU undergo a double shift of emphasis in your life during these two months, as Uranus leaves your 10th House (Aug. 30) and Saturn enters your Sun-sign (Sept. 19) for a two years' stay there.

Since 1942, when Uranus started his six-years' transit of your 10th House, matters of worldly prestige, position, standing, and success have been prominent in your life. It is likely that, during the years since then, your position in your world has undergone successive changes. You may have come into some exceptionally beneficial position, perhaps quite quickly, or you may have felt more or less continuously that things were at sixes and sevens.

If you have risen to a satisfactory or high position during this year, you should now do everything now to stabilize it.

If these have been years of doubt and uncertainty, you may be happy to know that they are drawing to a close.

In any case, as Uranus leaves your 10th House and enters your 11th, you should aim at a steadying and a stabilizing of your world position, and prepare the way for a program that will allow you more time for your personal interests and hobbies.

SINCE THIS SHIFT OF EMPHASIS COINCIDES quite closely with the entrance of Saturn into your Sun-sign, you will not feel a lessening of responsibility as Uranus leaves 10th, but rather may feel that, more than ever, there are a great number of obligations for you to discharge. During Saturn's two-years' stay in your Sun-sign (starting Sept. 19) you will have plenty of responsibility so far as worldly matters are concerned, and you will be able best to fulfill them if you are "riding loose in the saddle of fate."

To harmonize the demands of the world on the one hand (as represented by Saturn in your Sun-sign) with the demands of your own individuality (as represented by Uranus in your 11th House) is to find the way of progress and growth in the presence of mounting opportunity. And this harmony can be reached here and now, in a way that will endure for a long time, as Saturn approaches the sextile of Uranus (Sept. 23).

DURING AUGUST, AS MARS GOES THROUGH your 2nd House of finances, income, property, and expenses (July 17-Sept. 3) you have an excellent chance to steady your income, perhaps at a very high and satisfactory level. Till Aug. 4, when Mars conjoins Neptune, gain insight and understanding into the realistic forces around you; prevent waste, and loss through excess.

In the last weeks of Saturn in 12th (till Sept. 19), discover new truths about yourself and your own personal nature (especially till Aug. 19) and take an altogether honest and realistic view of your innermost needs and aspirations. Rid yourself of emotions that are unproductive; clear your conscience of any dead-wood left over from the past; face yourself frankly, and find within the well-springs of creative power on which to build the expanding future that is before you. Side-step an emotional-financial involvement (till Aug. 17), and settle any nagging doubts that have been recurring for the past months. As Mars sextiles Saturn (till Aug. 30) put your house in order. By agreement on finances, be ready to move forward with a feeling of personal well-being, and of material security as well.

DURING YOUR BIRTHDAY PERIOD—a natural time for new starts—be careful that personal extravagances and doubts do not injure security and peace of mind (till Sept. 23). You can lose a never-to-be-repeated chance to harmonize your life along lines previously indicated, if you give in to immature impulses, or let discontent intrude on chances for progress and growth. A far-reaching agreement (Aug. 31-Sept. 11) settles material matters, and gives you the support of those close to you.

Internal pressures—the upsurge of emotionalism—self-indulgence and self-doubt—can upset your equilibrium (Sept. 8-17) if you give in to adventuresomeness, or let yourself be plagued by doubts, fears, or guilt-feelings rising from the past.

As Saturn sextiles Uranus (till Sept. 23) you gain immeasurably by taking the broad view of everything, and by looking beyond the emotions and distractions of the moment to the chances now present to create enduring security. A private agreement with loved ones steadies home life (till Sept. 29) and gives you a feeling of worth and well-being.

A NEW activation of your 10th House begins at the end of August, as Uranus moves into Cancer (Aug. 30) to start a seven-years' stay in the area of your chart that rules prestige, success, leadership, standing, and credit.

Since 1942, Uranus in your 9th House has been stirring your ideas and ideals of success, and has been tending to give you a state of mind ready to take authority in your world, and to achieve success. Now, the preparatory process is over, and as Uranus enters Cancer at the end of August, you can expect unusual, swift, and perhaps very far-reaching developments.

This is a condition under which you should "expect the unexpected" for anything can happen. A sudden change in your life, temporarily disquieting or productive of uncertainty, may come, and, properly used, can be all to the good. You may change your job, or be the beneficiary of a change occurring in the occupational or public life of someone with whose welfare your own is tied. You should hold yourself in readiness for new and expanding authority, and be prepared to stand out in front of your world as a leader.

AS MARS GOES THROUGH YOUR SUN-SIGN (July 17-Sept. 3) your energies are stirred, and you have a chance to start a new two-year cycle under excellent conditions.

Use your magnetism carefully (till Aug. 3) while the conjunction of Mars and Neptune is stimulating, exciting, and perhaps tempting to pleasure-seeking and self-indulgence. The urge to get your own way, and to dominate others, must be squelched if you are not to become unduly involved.

Pressure from friends and social contacts (till Aug. 19) demands that long-standing relationships be adjusted according to the dictates of reality, even though these may go against your own intimate desires. Your good fortune here depends on your ability to make compromises, to accept things as they are, and to accord to others the right to their own lives and their own opinions. If friends and loved ones seem a drain on your emotional or material resources, discover how to conform with necessity.

A chance for good fortune (till Aug. 17) is near at hand, and can be grasped through the cooperation of relatives, neighbors, and those close to you in family and neighborhood life. Be very careful of emotionalism and social indiscretions here; a problem that was present in late May and early June may recur, and should here be settled dispassionately, and for keeps. Be discreet in your behavior, and avoid anything that can be misconstrued by gossip or cause adverse public opinion. Reserve here merits, and gets, the support of those whose opinion is important (till Sept. 7) and you can (till Sept. 3 especially) clinch agreements that have an excellent effect on standing.

A FURTHER CHANCE TO CEMENT AGREEMENTS should be grasped (Sept. 3-11); your personality and sense of fair play are of importance here, and you can get things done, especially those things that depend on your personal attention.

As Saturn enters Virgo (Sept. 19) and sextiles Uranus (Sept. 23) you have a chance to harmonize your inner and personal drives in a way that further insures position and standing. The two years' transit of Saturn in 12th (starting Sept. 19) calls for a frank look at yourself with the purpose of clearing your conscience of all dead wood. Entering a period of big changes, and equally big opportunities, you should do so with a new and clearer view of yourself, and of your innermost aspirations.

Look out for the backfire of impulse (till Sept. 23) in order to avail yourself of truly important expanding opportunities. Overlook trivial matters, resentments, pressures close to you, so that you can take advantage of major changes that can take you far along the road you most want to travel.

Finances are important this month, with chance at material increase through your own efforts, aided by the good will of superiors, and the behind-the-scenes support of influential people, perhaps elders or those in authority. Avoid (Sept. 8-17) social-emotional excess that can lead to strife and loss. By reserve and restraint, you steady your life, innerly and objectively, for a long time to come, and put yourself in a way to benefit (Sept. 24-29) through the influence of friends, loved ones, and relatives whose influence increases happiness.

For Those
Born

THE influences which have been at work in your 8th House (since 1942) and in your 10th House (since 1946) come to an end during these two months, as Uranus leaves Gemini, your 8th House, August 30, and Saturn leaves Leo, your 10th House, September 19. During the past years, you should have made a place for yourself in the world, which has bettered your position.

Now, as these influences come to an end, you should step into a period of lessened material and worldly responsibility, and therefore of greater freedom to develop those interests, hobbies, and pursuits which are important to your personal development.

AS URANUS ENTERS CANCER (Aug. 30) you may find yourself in a situation calling for change—either geographical change and removal, or a pretty thorough revision of your mental attitudes. In Cancer for the next seven years, in your 9th House, Uranus starts now expanding your mental and philosophical outlook, and opening to you new avenues of success, growth, and achievement. You should be eager and ready for change now, and should above all else avoid staying in any rut.

As Mars goes through your 12th House (July 17-Sept. 3) to conjoin Neptune (Aug. 3), sextile Jupiter (Aug. 17) and trine Uranus just after the latter enters Cancer (Sept. 3) you have a chance to bring your innermost desires and needs to bear constructively on practical matters. Be well-balanced and deliberative (till Aug. 3) to avoid the unfortunate backfire of self-indulgence and emotionalism on your plans and desires. Distant matters, new ideas, emotional pressures may be confusing (till Aug. 17) and you will have to maintain your own center of balance to avoid being unduly influenced by external forces that seem more impelling than they really are.

Clinch position and prestige (till Aug. 19) and put your house in order realistically. You win the support of important people in your sphere, if your approach to them and your problems is realistic and not too demanding. Prevent self-seeking from getting you out on a limb—you need to moderate the pace and accept the demands of necessity, with which your own best interests are linked. Any effort to take short cuts here, or to force things into your own way, is likely to lead to difficulties; while patience and foresight, plus a willingness to cooperate with others will steady your position, credit, and standing for a long time. Behind-the-scenes influences, plus the power of your own persuasiveness, can lead (Aug. 17) to some excellent financial agreement; and (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) you can get off to a new start of great importance.

AS MARS GOES through Scorpio (Sept. 4-Oct. 17) your energies work over-time, and you should moderate your pace to conform with the circumstances you find around you. As Saturn enters Virgo for a two-years' stay (Sept. 19) you have a chance to move purposefully toward what you most want, and should define these wants here and now, and move purposefully toward them. By having practical affairs well in hand (before Sept. 19) you free your mind of material worry, and stand ready to enjoy life in a new way, and with a new sense of worldly security and personal worth. You will have new adventures in friendship, in the coming two years. Some old friends will disappear, and new ones will replace them.

Reach an agreement with yourself (till Sept. 11) that gives you new insight into yourself, and a new grip on the world around you. Watch prestige and public opinion carefully (Sept. 8-17) as Venus in your 10th House squares Mars in your Sun-sign, and tends to incite to emotional and personal extremes that can lose you the good opinion of those who count. Adventurousness backfires badly here, on practical matters as well as on individual happiness, and you should slow down to steer clear of entangling alliances and wasteful social-emotional goings-on. Extravagant friends can apply pressures that tend to make you wasteful (till Sept. 23) and you will have to be firm and moderate in social-financial matters to prevent little matters from interfering with the great gains which are possible if you take the long view, and act with firm purpose. A chance at material betterment (Sept. 24-29) should be grasped eagerly; you can better yourself very materially here, and should be on the alert for an excellent opportunity to build prestige and bank account.

THE long transit of Uranus in your 7th House, which began in May 1942, draws to a close now, as he leaves that area of your chart Aug. 30. Since 1942, you have been stimulated by unusual occurrences around you, and also by coming into contact with exciting and stimulating people. You have perhaps asserted your independence of older ties, and formed new ones.

As this influence draws to a close, you should evaluate yourself and those with whom your fortunes and your emotions are tied. Cement enduringly those ties which you want to keep as a permanent part of your life, and make your peace with situations that have served their turn and are ready to be replaced by others. It is equally profitless now to adhere to things that have served their usefulness, and to separate temperamentally from things that are merely trying, but have had, and continue to have, a value to you and your long-term purposes.

WITH MARS IN YOUR 11TH House (till Sept. 3) you have an excellent chance to clarify your aims and purposes, and to reassert your faith in the direction in which you wish to continue. You have many friends, and some of them are very worthwhile, even inspiring. Some, on the other hand, are pleasure-seekers, and encourage you in ways that are not in your best interests. As Mars conjoins Neptune (Aug. 3) separate the sheep from the goats in your circle of friends. Refuse to be unduly influenced by emotionalism—others', your own. This is an excellent influence for creative work, and for self-expression along mental and creative lines. It's also good for love and social life—especially if you veto sensationalism (till Aug. 17) and don't let yourself be swayed by confused associates, friends, loved ones.

You have a chance (till Aug. 11) to reach an excellent decision that broadens your viewpoint and gives you a firmer grip on the pursuit of your ambitions.

You are heading into a period of new success and recognition—also of new responsibility—and can, by a private agreement (till Sept. 3) settle your life, practically and personally, for a long time. Harmonize your desires with those around you, and your efforts with the flow of circumstances, in order to enter a new phase of achievement with the best possible attitude and foundation.

AS SATURN MOVES INTO VIRGO, your 10th House (Sept. 19) to make the sextile to Uranus (Sept. 23) you have an opportunity to plan ahead in ways that will be of permanent worth with respect to your standing, position, and security. In the next two years, as Saturn transits your 10th House, you should aim to reach a high point of worldly achievement and personal betterment.

SAGITTARIUS

Major forces are stable and favorable to you and your interests. It is the little things, this month (especially till the 23rd) that are irksome and can get you off on the wrong track. You have to curb your enthusiasms (till Sept. 13) or you will find your optimism being misunderstood, and your efforts unappreciated. Those whose opinions are important need careful handling; they tend to be touchy and demanding, and if you lose your temper, you can make trouble and incur loss.

An agreement with friends (till Sept. 11) betters your insight and increases your understanding of your own needs, and of the social obligations with which you are involved. By being careful of your reputation (Sept. 8-17) you side-step a chance to get into hot water; secret emotional developments are dangerous here, and, though there is the appearance of glamor, you will regret anything you do that's off the beaten track of the conventions. Be ultra-discreet, and use your emotional vitality (which runs high) in creative work of some kind, rather than in social—or financial—self-indulgence.

SELF-DISCIPLINE, plus an ability to put "first things first"—to see and heed the farthest reaching needs of your situation and your development—gives you a very unusual chance for progress, growth, and sound planning (till Sept. 23). Here you are able to harmonize the demands of the world, and your own personal needs, in a pattern that provides you both with material security and a sense of individual growth and progress. And this leads (Sept. 23-29) to a very unusual chance, perhaps involving change, travel, or distant influences, through which you are able to better yourself personally and materially—perhaps romantically, too—in ways that are very gratifying.

CAPRICORN

YOU'RE emerging into a broader life with greater chance for self-expression and more exciting contacts, as Uranus enters Cancer Aug. 30, to remain in your 7th House for seven years. This transit will have a stimulating effect on your whole life, can mean new associations and partnerships, newly rewarding experiences in connection with marriage or can bring enduring romance unexpectedly.

The measure of your progress here is your maturity—your ability to be individualistic and independent without being self-indulgent or eccentric; to mingle with all sorts and conditions of people without losing your head, or your center of balance; to express the most progressive and generous social and human ideals without becoming destructively revolutionary, either in personal or public life. You're leaving behind a round of duties that may have been, since 1942, pretty nerve-racking; and are replacing them with a broader and more rewarding life to which the duties and obligations of the past have been a prelude.

WITH MARS IN YOUR 10th House (till Sept. 3) do everything in your power to improve your standing, position, credit and prestige. Assume leadership in your sphere. Accept new authority. Win the respect of superiors and those whose opinion is important to you.

As Mars conjoins Neptune (till Aug. 3) you can reach a cooperative agreement that may better your position magically, and add to your self-assurance by winning the respect and support of important people in your world. There's a slight danger here that you will over-reach yourself, make excessive demands, or take risks that threaten security. Moderation is essential, as well as a general play-safe policy, by which mistakes can be avoided. Heed public opinion carefully, for gossip will get you if you give it a chance. And continue this caution through Aug. 17, when the emotional pressures of other people can throw you off balance if you are being sensitive, touchy, or self-indulgent.

Grasp an opportunity to reach an agreement, perhaps secret or private, that steadies your finances through cooperative understanding with those whose welfare is involved with your own (till Aug. 11). With a firm sense of realities, clinch business matters (till Aug. 19) in some enduring way, setting the seal of permanence on material matters that have been developing for the past two years, which now mature in a way to provide you with lasting security and peace of mind so far as finances are concerned. Settle all existing problems farsightedly (Aug. 20-Sept. 3).

AS SATURN ENTERS VIRGO, your 9th House, look for new, perhaps distant, opportunities, or chances for growth that take you out of existing ruts and habits of thought. Till Sept. 23, you have an excellent chance to make an entirely new start of some kind that can alter all phases of your life, and lead into a richer and more rewarding future than you may imagine possible. Don't be afraid to dream high.

Look out for the drag-back of self-doubt (till Sept. 13) and strive (till Sept. 11) for an agreement with superiors that clinches your prestige and standing.

Finances tend to get snarled with emotions and with social life (Sept. 8-17) and you can lose both money and happiness by going to extremes or by yielding to the self-indulgent pressures of over-stimulating friends and loved ones. This is a time for "moderation in all things" and especially for a down-to-earth view of your major chances. If you let yourself be distracted by distant trivia, or by the needless pressures of relatives, friends, and in-laws, you can miss (till Sept. 23) a very unusual chance. To see and grasp this, you must be detached from personal considerations, able to see things in the large, and to seek the way by which your individual needs can be harmonized with the demands of the world. A new associate, a partner, someone or some influence at a distance, can work into the pattern of a life that will develop and grow for a long time, if the wheels of progress are set in motion now, and kept rolling in the direction of your most important and far-reaching aims.

Seek, too (Sept. 24-29) a financial agreement, perhaps private, which both steadies your material life, and gives you increased self-assurance with which to proceed in the desired direction. Love is favored here, also, and can be richly rewarding.

YOU end (Sept. 19) one of the most difficult periods of your life, as Saturn completes his transit opposite your Sun-sign, which has been in effect since August, 1946.

At much the same time (Aug. 30) Uranus leaves Gemini, your 5th House, where he has been since 1942.

If, during the past two years the world has seemed a rather cold and unsympathetic place, and if your emotional needs have often appeared to be blocked by circumstances, or by the indifference of others, you can congratulate yourself that this is ending.

AS URANUS ENTERS YOUR 6TH HOUSE (Aug. 30) for a seven-years' stay, be alert to new employment opportunities that can alter the pattern of your life radically, and very progressively. If you are employed, or seeking employment, this is your time to find the job that will both satisfy the needs of the practical world, and also give you a real sense of usefulness as a person. You grow now through and with your daily life.

It may seem that a period of adventure, romance and excitement has come to an end—and it may be true that it has. But the same adventure and excitement is still possible, less linked now with pleasure-seeking and romanticism, and more linked with the progressive forces of every day life. To find your growth, pleasure and excitement here is now your way ahead, for a long time to come; and you should make every effort to link yourself whole-heartedly with the most active and progressive forces in your world.

As Mars goes through your 9th House (till Sept. 3) it is possible that you will have some chance for removal or change. This may involve geographical change, travel, a new residence, a new job in a new place. Or it may involve a change of outlook, a change of heart, that will alter the face of your world, and give you new opportunity.

Till Aug. 4, as Mars conjoins Neptune, take stock of everything around you carefully and (till Aug. 17) be very cautious of your emotions. There is a certain glamor here, that can be elevating or confusing, depending on the clarity of your vision, and the depth of your insight and understanding into your own aims and purposes. You can make mistakes by moving too fast, and too emotionally—also by being "sot in your ways," stubborn, and resistant to change.

Be tolerant of those around you (till Aug. 19) to resolve some difficulties that are passing. Agreements should be made dispassionately, and with finality; it should be your business to have no emotional loose ends to retard you, for (Aug. 20-Sept. 3) you have a very unusual opportunity to change your life progressively.

AQUARIUS

WITH MARS GOING THROUGH YOUR 10th House (Sept. 3-Oct. 17) matters of standing, credit, and public opinion are important. You gain now (especially from Sept. 19th on) through substantial agreements with associates and partners, through whom you can establish very rewarding security.

A decision of last month can be clarified (till Sept. 11) and new ventures furthered through new agreement and understanding.

Those with whom your material welfare is tied may be a little difficult and extravagant (till Sept. 23) and you should resist all pressures that would jeopardize income and security. Risks lose, and you can make mistakes by listening to those who like to take chances when the safe way is so easy.

Also till Sept. 23, as Saturn sextiles Uranus, you have a rare chance to make a stable commitment resulting from events that may have developed very swiftly. Finances and daily life are substantially linked here, and if you are side-stepping the petty distractions that are around, you will find a way to stabilize your life for a long time to come. Elders and steady, responsible people are on your side, and you can win the confidence of those who have it in their power to help you help yourself greatly.

Emotionalism mounts (Sept. 8-17) and you can injure your reputation if you are being self-indulgent or letting others sway you unduly. Great discretion is essential here, especially where social and emotional matters are concerned. Keep your life free of entangling alliances, in order to get the best results from benefits till Sept. 23.

Then (till Sept. 29) everything is smoother and easier, and you may discover among your associates someone who is not only a good friend and a fortunate associate, but also someone of enduring importance.

PISCES

YOU are completing a six-year period of change that began in 1942, as Uranus began his long transit of Gemini, your 4th House. It is possible that between then and now, much in your life has been radically changed. Now, as Uranus leaves Gemini (Aug. 30) to enter your 5th House, these changes should be completed. You should have settled—or be now in the process of completing the settlement of—your domestic life, and be ready for a new period of growth and creativity as Uranus goes through your 5th House for seven years.

The last two years have been filled with work and duty, as Saturn has been in your 6th House of daily life and health since August, 1946. This influence, in the presence of the changes going on in and around you, may have been difficult at times, giving you a sense of the pressure of time, and of obligations that may sometimes have seemed just too much.

However, this too is drawing to a close, and as Saturn leaves your 6th House (Sept. 19) to begin a two-year transit of your 7th, your relationship to work and to other people will undergo a change.

AS MARS GOES THROUGH YOUR 8TH HOUSE (July 17-Sept. 3) finances are important, and can be very favorable. You should nurture here an opportunity to link your fortunes to those of someone else, in business or in marriage. Everything points toward cooperative union with others, for self-fulfillment and security.

As Mars conjoins Neptune (till Aug. 4) be both expansive and cautious where money is concerned. Be expansive, in order not to miss a golden opportunity through timidity and lack of confidence. Be cautious, in order to resist the excessive and risky tendencies of others, who may see things less clearly than you do and tend to act rashly.

An agreement in connection with work and daily life should be reached (till Aug. 19). The aid of superiors is very important here—you can better your prestige, standing, and position magically by calling on others who will be glad to help you if you are also helping yourself. And be generous helping others—the best fortunes of this period come along cooperative lines, and link you with others. Settle routine affairs (by Aug. 20th) and be ready (Aug. 21-Sept. 3) to grasp some chance that may take you far from the usual places of your life, into new areas of creative living and self-fulfillment.

AS MARS MOVES THROUGH YOUR 9TH HOUSE (Sept. 3-Oct. 17) be flexible and ready to implement realistically the changes for which the ground work is already laid. Clinch a business agreement (till Sept. 11) and get material matters well in hand.

The Sun moving through Virgo, opposite your own Sun, may cause you to feel low in vitality; and it may also make others seem, or be, difficult. Reject pressures and emotionalism around you (till Sept. 23); keep your feet solidly under you, and your head clear.

Those connected with you in daily life may be over-emotional (Sept. 8-17) and your own actions may cause you to be unpleasantly talked about if temperament is ruling. Put your energy into constructive work and don't waste time or energy pleasure-seeking.

WITH SATURN IN VIRGO (after Sept. 19) for two years, and sextile Uranus (till Sept. 23) you have a swift and very realistic chance to form some new, important, and enduring relationship—or to give new validity and strength to an existing relationship.

When, as now, a powerful planet (Saturn) in the House of marriage (the 7th) is sextile to another powerful planet (Uranus) in the 5th House of love, the chances for marriage should be excellent. And in fact, through marriage you now have a chance to settle your life enduringly. Saturn in your 7th House for two years brings responsibilities with respect to other people; and if you enter marriage now not only as adventure and romance, but also as a sober and mature obligation, you can have a very unusual marriage.

Make long term plans and clinch them (by Sept. 23). This is a month in which to steady your life, and fix its direction, for a long time. The last week of the month is excellent; through the good will and help of superiors you have (till Sept. 29) a chance at material and personal betterment that will improve your prestige, and give you stability and peace of mind for a long time.

Sat., Aug. 28—Negative for occupational affairs. It is more difficult to gain the attention and interest of people in power and authority, because they are preoccupied with other matters.

PERSONAL SERVICE

I am doing a special type of personal service based on a combination of astrology and psychology. This is designed mainly to assist individuals with some immediate problem. It deals with the natal horoscope, and with its present state of development in direct relation to whatever problem is uppermost at the time. If you have such a problem and wish this type of help, send your birth data: year, month, date, hour, and place; also the dates of important events in the past, and the birth data of any individual or individuals with whom you and your problem are involved. State your problem clearly. The fee is $10.

Your Summer Romance

you can decide basic issues with courage and confidence, and should do so decisively, for a long time to come. The Fall finds you with added responsibilities, and perhaps in a position of heightened prestige. Get your emotional life settled by Sept. 3 to be ready for this, and to have firm ground under your feet on which to sidestep a chance to make a personal mistake (Sept. 4-17).

CAPRICORN

THE SUMMER FINDS YOU IN A POSITION where you have to conform and cooperate with others (especially till Aug. 17) in order to prevent confusion and discord.

An emotional situation in connection with daily life is settled one way or another by July 31, and you are ready to move on to something new. Don't let excitability obscure major opportunities, but keep yourself well in hand emotionally. Till Aug. 17, enjoy life, but postpone commitments in personal matters.

A swiftly developing contact can seem, and be, very important, as Uranus entering your 7th House (Aug. 30) can open new horizons in contact with others. And as Mars moves to trine Uranus (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) you may actually encounter The Real Thing, and for keeps. Be alert to such opportunities, and refuse to let so-called "practical considerations" alter your ideas of what is right in respect to some important relationship (Sept. 3-17).

AQUARIUS

ENDING URANUS' LONG TRANSIT OF YOUR 5th House of romance and love, you encounter what may perhaps be a major chance for some very romantic contact as Venus conjoins Uranus for the last time there (July 31). Here you'd better make up your mind about a love that may have been, for some time, the focal point of much shilly-shallying. Be decisive, and be rightly decisive by lifting your mind,

A competent and sympathetic service in astrology in exchange for birth data and six dollars, my fee. State problems exactly.

and your heart to the highest levels of thought, feeling, and conduct. You can grasp—or lose—the chance of a lifetime here, and should surely do all in your power to grasp it (till Aug. 4).

After this (till Aug. 19) avoid confusion of hazily conceived ideas and feelings, to get down to cases with respect to your relationships in general. Seek to understand those around you and your association with them. Avoid errors that you made a year ago to write off some limiting experience in good will.

Aim to link Desire with Necessity (Aug. 20-Sept. 3) in a way that steadies a love already in existence—or discovers one on new and exciting premises that are also stable foundations for progress, achievement, and growth. Get others' viewpoints (Sept. 4-17) especially those of loved ones, to avoid rifts in the lute, and cement some enduring tie in ways that are permanent and practical.

PISCES

EXCITEMENT IN YOUR PERSONAL LIFE, together with plenty of emotional and social pressure, makes a period that can be at once difficult and exhilarating, exciting and confusing (July 16-Aug. 17). Emotionalism in and around your environment crystallizes (July 31) and tends to become very personal with you (till Aug. 17) as Venus in 5th makes you impressionable and emotional, and the square to Neptune tends to mix you up. Go through this period without undue excitement, for after it comes the real opportunity.

As Mars moves to trine Uranus (Aug. 18-Sept. 3) and as Uranus enters your 5th House (Aug. 30) you may discover something altogether new and different about love, and should be ready for it with an open mind. Be ready for a new brand of love—a richer and more rewarding brand than you have ever known. This may be a development wholly within yourself; it may spring from meeting some new and exciting person, or from a new light on someone to whom you are already attached. Anyway, be ready for it, and don't let hesitancy lose it. Expand your viewpoint (after Sept. 3), being careful of over-enthusiasm (till Sept. 17) and be ready as Saturn enters your 7th House to make lasting commitments in emotional life that will endure for a long time.

breaking Higher Laws. It was they who prophesied the days of the Armageddon and the Last Judgment.

WHILE THE ARMAGEDDON HAS ITS TERRIBLE physical aspects it is essentially a spiritual battle within the hearts of men. While the Last Judgment also has its events in the physical world it is actually and primarily the time which occurs cyclically at great intervals in the history of mankind when the law of the indivisibility of life is rigorously enforced by the energies of the universal planets as Regents of the Invisible Supreme.

Though men realize it not they are even now living in the midst of the whirl of the Armageddon (1931 to 1953) and are approaching the great time of Judgment which indeed may be considered to have already begun. The rebirth of Israel in the Near East is an outward and visible sign that the prophesied time is at hand. Mankind by its acts, both individual and collective, is passing judgment on itself, and the pattern of life is being transformed in an irrevocable manner. All of this has transpired since Pluto was discovered in 1930.

Some years ago Grant Lewi stated that he believed that Pluto was the planet of that Higher Justice, that Law of the Self which governs man's whole being. In consideration of the past 18 years this appears to have been an enlightened interpretation of the meaning of Pluto for we may consider that the discovery of a planet either results from the intensification of its influence or results in the intensification of its influence. One may state the significance of the period in which we live very simply.

All failures to live in concord with the Higher Law and the universal indivisibility of life will result in the destruction and frustration of all efforts.

All endeavors to live in accord with one's highest and best values will result in such a profound transformation of one's life as to be equivalent to a rebirth, the opening up of a new dimension.

The choice is a free one as to which path shall be followed, but a formidable power of compulsion will force one to make the choice one way or another. This applies on the collective level as well as on the individual one, the two being actually inseparable.

The results are what is termed the Judgment while the battle to draw mankind onto one or the other path between the forces of Light and Darkness is what is termed the Armageddon. Thus in a higher dimension and sense, this is indeed the time of Israel as a universal spiritual reality, as well as the rebirth of an individual people.

it alive. You nourished it, let it grow until it caused those headaches. The rest of your system knew it better than you did; that is why it wouldn't let you go on writing any more in that view."

I explained that true sublimation isn't what some folks think it is. It is not fooling yourself into believing that injustice is justice or that the person who is tyrannical can be sincerely loved.

MRS. LOGAN WAS BORN JANUARY 14, 1894, with the Moon in Aries 24°. Set up her solar Equilibrium and you will see Saturn exactly at the 10th cusp, opposed by the Moon at the 4th. The 10th is the focal point of one's reactions to the parent of the same sex, in her case that of her mother. The 4th has to do with our reactions to the parent of the opposite sex.

A further point is that the 1st and 7th are the houses of the grandparents.

The rulers of these houses, in the natural Zodiac, are Mars, Moon, Venus and Saturn.

One of every three people is born with the Sun in one of the Cardinal signs, Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn, and thus have these signs on the angles of their solar Equilibriums, as is the case with Mrs. Logan.

We must do something, and quickly, about understanding and using the true meaning of the Biblical admonition to "honor thy Father and thy Mother". That Commandment does not mean that we must go through life blindly reacting to the characters who are our actual human parents.

It does mean that we must honor the creative laws of nature which are poetically encompassed by the term Father-God, as well as those sustaining laws of nature which are referred to symbolically as Mother-Earth. The one is our heritage of the great mystery, our life-energy. The other is our environment—all the things and conditions peculiar to this world. They, in truth, are proper objects for our most enlightened veneration.

UNDER LEO

By CARL PAYNE TOBEY

*Were You Born
July 22nd to August 22nd?*

THERE CAN BE A MAGNIFICENCE ABOUT LEO. It has been called a sign of royalty, a sign of kings and queens. Its natives are nearly always willing to lend a helping hand. Leo rarely refuses a plea for help. These people are born of a very strong spirit. Their ruling solar body is the Sun itself, center of the solar system, and like the Sun, they have a spirit that shines forth to the world. Leo is happiest when able to help his fellow man, but very sensitive when not appreciated. These people make natural leaders. You will find them in any community, and you will probably recognize them by their kindness, philanthropic attitude or willingness to entertain.

LEO LIKES TO ENJOY LIFE, and he wants those around him to enjoy life also. He is a good entertainer, and often does very well in the entertainment business. He is glad to do favors, but wants to hear expression of appreciation, and can be keenly hurt when it is not forthcoming. He loves a parade, large and gay gatherings, but will be happier with a small group of satellites than in a larger assemblage that he does not control. Like the Sun, he was created to be the center of his own solar system. He likes everything revolving around him. Leo kings and Leo leaders have been the most colorful the world has ever known. They can wear their purple robes well. Usually quick to forgive his enemies whenever they are willing to bow, it is not the nature of the sign to want to hurt or injure. Leo likes to spread happiness and good cheer.

Like any other sign, happiness in married life for Leo is dependent upon selection of a mate with a planetary chart that blends harmoniously, but Leo can supply the elements for a very happy married and family life, if the rest of the family supplies the appreciation and respect to which Leo feels entitled. Never ignore Leo. Leo will not be ignored. There will be a sharp inner reaction, and in some instances, Leo will just run away. No sign can be more affectionate, but love must be returned. In business, these folks have a better than average chance for success. Their personalities are very noticeable, and it is important that they are properly developed and well polished.

YOU MUST REALIZE THAT THESE ARE general characteristics of Leo people. There is considerable difference between one Leo person and another, despite the basic similarity. Two Leo people born a year apart will be different, because aside from the Sun position, the location of all other solar bodies changes in a year's time. There would be quite a difference, for example, if one Leo native had the Sun conjunct Jupiter, while another had it conjunct Saturn. All of the other planets must be considered. Which sign is occupied by each planet? What are the aspects between the planets? These are all things that you should know.

If you were born under Leo, or if your mate, a relative or friend, was born under this sign, you should know all of the intricate characteristics that are indicated by the position of all the planets on the exact date of birth. You can have this information for the expenditure of a small sum. We have arranged to have all of this information compiled and assembled individually for you for any birthdate and year in which you are interested. Of course you can have this information for other signs also. You can have this complete basic horoscope service if you

SECRET OF THE ATOM

ATOMIC POWER is not new—it has always existed. The ancient Atlanteans discovered it and as a result of its misuse destroyed their continent. There is a spiritual atomic power as well as a material atomic power. The wise men of the East, the masters and adepts of the Great White Lodge are custodians of this power. The Brotherhood is one of the channels through which the Elder Brothers release this knowledge to the world.

Write for the free book, "Master Your Destiny," a free magazine and other literature sent without obligation. Read of the Western Shamballa which has been established in the Rocky Mountains as a retreat from atomic war.

THOUGHTS HAVE WINGS

You Can Influence Others With Your Thinking!

TRY IT SOME TIME. Concentrate intently upon another person seated in a room with you, without his noticing it. Observe him gradually become restless and finally turn and look in your direction. Simple—yet it is a positive demonstration that thought generates a mental energy which can be projected from your mind to the consciousness of another. Do you realize how much of your success and happiness in life depend upon your influencing others? Is it not important to you to have others understand your point of view—to be receptive to your proposals?

Demonstrable Facts

How many times have you wished there were some way you could impress another favorably—get across to him or her your ideas? That thoughts can be transmitted, received, and understood by others is now scientifically demonstrable. The tales of miraculous accomplishments of mind by the ancients are now known to be fact—not fable. The method whereby these things can be intentionally, not accidentally, accomplished has been a secret long cherished by the Rosicrucians—one of the schools of ancient wisdom existing throughout the world. To thousands everywhere, for centuries, the Rosicrucians have privately taught this nearly-lost art of the practical use of mind power.

This Free Book Points Out the Way

The Rosicrucians (not a religious organization) invite you to explore the powers of your mind. Their sensible, simple suggestions have caused intelligent men and women to soar to new heights of accomplishment. They will show you how to use your natural forces and talents to do things you now think are beyond your ability. Use the coupon below and send for a copy of the fascinating sealed free book, "The Mastery of Life," which explains how you may receive this unique wisdom and benefit by its application to your daily affairs.
