THE HISTORY OF WITCHCRAFT AND DEMONOLOGY

by Montague Summers

Here is one of the most astounding books in modern English! Your spine will tingle with the actual accounts of witches and their nefarious practices that included weird drinking rites, the Black Mass, orgiastic dances and homosexuali-

AN UNUSUAL ADDED FEATURE of this book is a long and fascinating introduction by Felix Morrow, who tells us the other view of witches—the priestesses of the old religion which continued and continues long after it was presumably overthrown by Christianity. He also gives the rites of exorcism of the Roman Catholic Church today!

Isis Unveiled

by H. P. BLAVATSKY

"One of the remarkable productions of the century," "extremely readable," "monumental work." Such were the press comments that greeted this first major literary effort of H. P. Blavatsky. Originally published in 1877, Isis Unveiled was directed against the scientific and religious bigotry of that era. Its subject matter is timeless and audaciously conceived, written without mercy or reverence for enthroned error; for the author, always versatile and adept, has based her argument upon fact.

With sharp inquiry and incisive analysis, the work covers a prodigious number of themes: science, theology, mysticism, magic, witchcraft, spiritualism, alchemy, ecclesiastical systems, antiquity of Christian rites, fire philosophers, mesmerism, expected messiahs, theories respecting psychic phenomena, etc., etc. — "such an index of subjects never before compiled by any human being," said one reviewer.

Small wonder that Isis Unveiled has required numerous re-printings and continues a best seller in its field.

Faithful in text and pagination to the original edition, with 31 portraits of historic personages referred to by the author.

THE SPACE
CHILDREN
BY

William W. Suther, Ed.

As director of the Childrens Hope of the World Foundation, I feel that I am qualified to write upon a subject that concerns both children and their affect upon prrsent world conditions.

This includrs a study of the effect of movie upon, our present generation. One such picture I recommend for your child to see is "SPACE CHILDREN".

This movie, produced by Paramount Pictures, concerns, 7 children, a brain mass, and diverting a near world war.

Let me say, I have since, seeing thr movie for the first time, seen it w 25 times. I have recommended to my friends, spoken about it at lectures, and written articles, such as this one, on it. So, I feel, if anyone, should be qualified to speak about, I am.

This included my study of todays generation, todays, children. This movie I believe, was written by a space agent, as written about in George Hunt William's book, "Other Tongues, OtherFle" a chapter, entitled, The Agents.

The stars of the picture, two boys, one is 12, another 10, in their scrden role they played Ken & Bud Brewster, actual, Michel Ray (Bud) and Adam Williams (Ken

The meaning of the movie, as I feel it, is this, that todays children, are now awaking to the fact that there are certain higher intelligences coming to earth, and that they shall be the ones chosen to help these space Intelligences.(CONTINUED P 7)

JESUS

an intimate, objective story of His Life

WHAT WAS HE LIKE?

WHAT DID HE SEEK?

Charles Guignebert, professor of the History of Christianity in the Sorbonne, has written the most important objective history of Jesus of this century . . . a thoroughly critical analysis of our sources of knowledge about Jesus.

Although it is skeptical, famed Theologian Reinhold Niebuhr writes: "There is no book which will give the interested layman a more comprehensive account of what has been written and said about the life of Jesus and a fairer estimate of conflicting evidence."

WAS JESUS REALLY A CHRISTIAN?

The author doesn't think so. "The Christian religion is not the religion that filled the whole being of Jesus." Professor Guignebert writes. "He neither foresaw it nor desired it . . . The enthusiasm that engendered Christianity was the enthusiasm of the disciples, not that of Jesus."

Egyptian Fortune Telling Cards

FLYING SAUCER NEWS
337 First Avenue at 20th
NEW YORK 3, N. Y.

$1.50

A real pack of Fortune Telling Cards has finally been produced—one that will answer practically every question. Printed on real good quality white cardboard stock—back design printed in blue. Nicely boxed. This item is not intended to compete with the various cheaper packs of cards that are on the market. The public should take to it strongly—it has an appeal both for entertainment and fortune telling. There is an especial feature for those interested in Numerology—the pack contains 79 numbered cards which can be used wherever there is an unusual interest in combinations of numbers.

Each pack of cards contains a booklet of 116 Questions. These questions are split up into divisions, covering practically all average problems. There are 587 answers to these questions, scattered through the 79 cards. The method of using the cards is extremely simple—any child can grasp the idea immediately—the instructions are printed in the booklet. Cards are the same size as Bicycle playing cards. There is no tax on them as they are fortune telling cards only—not playing cards.

SPACE CHILDREN

THE MOVIE, WHICH ENDED WITH A passage from the Holy Bible, St. Matt. 18. And verily, verily, I say unto you, unless ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

..This verse, in itself, explains, that children are the only chosen people, but we are straying from the picture.

These children, 7 in all, are contacted by a mass, somewhat the size of a brain, that came from space on some type of force field.

Their job was to protect it, until it was ready to return to it's own home, as the hours passed, this mass grew in size, til it was three times the size of the oldest child, who was 14.

We find the numerical 7, is significant, for we find that the number u, is a religious number, we find spoken in the Bible, the 7 is applied to children. This must hold some significant part of the picture.

We find that children all over the world, were doing the same as the 7 children, at this missile base in, Florida, a place called Eagle Point.

What was the fuss about? A war-head satellite, The Thunderer, a satellite, which would be shot into orbit, and, if any nation made an aggressive move, the satellite would be released from its orbit and would, of course, drop upon the enemy.

This would lead to a world war, which these intelligences would not permit, for we would eventually destroy our world.

This mass, gives strange powers to the 7 children. The leader, Bud Brewster, uses exceptional powers.

A STUDY OF SATANISM TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH

DOWN THERE (La Bas)

The innocent can avoid Satanism by learning the bitter lessons of this wicked ex-priest.

The Abbe Boullan's first sinful exploit was to profane a group of distressed nuns. He was disciplined by the Archbishop of Paris and finally expelled from the church.

But that was only the beginning of his fantastic career. Boullan formed his own church and set about perverting innocent minds by practicing mystic-erotic rites. He was challenged to a battle of spells and counter-spells by competing occultists.

Joris-Karl Huysmans, who wrote this biography, was himself a Satanist and practitioner of the Black Art. But he was luckier than Abbe Boullan. "With his hooked paw," said Huysmans, "the Devil drew me toward God." He died safe in the church, but not before he recorded for posterity the story of the wicked outcast—ex-Abbe Boullan.

He stops the sixth warhead from reaching the base, on time and with this power splits the brake and steering rod of a truck. We find no other children are given this same power, two of whom stop a guard's call for help on a phone.

A certain scientist is quoted as saying, 'The children are in the power of it, and we are in the power of the children.' Today we hear so much about juvenile delinquency, but what do we hear about juvenile decency?

There is another phrase, I wish to borrow from the picture. 'Is there no man on this Earth with the wisdom and innocence of a child?' Is there?

There were no flying saucers in this picture, no green men, or others destroying our cities, on the contrary, through the children, the Earth was given a second chance.

A friend of mine Ruth LaVigne author of "There Shall Be Signs" 30 Highland Ct., Bristol, Conn----$1.25 wrote me, after seeing the picture, "He (speaking of Michel Ray) made such an impression upon me, I could'nt stop thinking about him for days.. (continued page 31)

The flying saucer scare set off many fantastic reports; here is the official lowdown on the phantoms of the sky

10 YEARS OF MYSTERY:

By DON MOORE

THE SPACE Age began Oct. 4 with the launching of the man-made earth satellite, sputnik, first authentic space traveler seen in the skies after 10 years of furor over "flying saucers." The accuracy with which this tiny moon has been observed suggests strongly that the saucers would have been tracked down by now if they were real space ships.

Saucers have been "sighted" from every part of the world, but they haven't yet invaded earth. The U.S. Air Force has the mission of identifying and, if necessary, intercepting every Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) in our skies. The 10-year-search for the elusive saucers has cost at least nine lives and four military planes, and probably millions of dollars.

Hundreds of such UFO sightings by credible observers or radar are analyzed each year by Air Force Intelligence and are usually identified as natural aerial objects or illusions. On Oct. 25, 1955, Donald A. Quarles, then secretary of the Air Force, summarized the findings:

THERE SHALL BE SIGNS

by

Ruth B. LaVigne

There shall be signs in the heavens for everyone to see,
 Our Elder Brothers are here
 To help you and me.
 Look ye up high..high in the sky
 see their chariots go winging
 by.
 Be not afraid, I beseech thee,
 for they are beauteous to see.
 Their love shineth like a beacon light as they try to tell us from wrong from right.
 So look for the signs in the heavens I employ you, everyone
 Welcome the glorious Sons of Light,
 Let God's will be done.

"We believe that no objects such as those popularly described as flying saucers have overflowed the United States."

The flying saucer saga started June 24, 1947, when Kenneth Arnold, of Boise, Idaho, flying his own plane, reported seeing nine disk-shaped objects speeding 1700 miles an hour between Mt. Rainier and Mt. Adams "like a saucer skipping across water."

Newspaper stories were quickly followed by new sightings by an airplane crew and by military technicians and fliers at Muroc, Calif., Air Force Base and other Western testing areas. Within days, saucers were seen over England, South Africa, Australia and China.

The military sightings led to fruitless photographic and survey flights by the Oregon National Guard and 250 Wisconsin Civil Air Patrol planes. The first photographed saucer proved to be a weather balloon, as did a UFO over a New Mexico bomb-test area.

The Air Force investigation of the sightings led to the first casualties, on July 31, 1947.

When two Tacoma boatmen told how their boat was deluged with flying metal from a saucer which had burst overhead, Air Force Lt. Frank Brown and Capt. William Davidson flew in to investigate. Convinced the story was a hoax and the "saucer metal" samples were local ores and smelter slag, they were flying back to their base when their B-25 crashed with a burning engine, killing both men. Saucer theorists, however, claimed that the "anti-gravitational" samples caused the crash.

Some pilots have "dueled" with elusive lights or unrecognizable shapes which seemed to make intelligent evasive maneuvers or passes at them. A re-enactment of one such dogfight showed the target was a weather balloon—the intelligent maneuvers were made by the pilot. More than once ground observers have reported that jets fired on a UFO target, although the Air Force denies such claims.

The most troublesome UFOs mysteriously vanish at incredible speed, like the little man who wasn't there. These give life to saucer theory and headaches to Air Force Intelligence.

By June 30, 1957, the Air Force received and researched approximately 5700 UFO reports.

In the first half of 1957, 10 years after "flying saucers" hit the headlines, 250 UFOs were investigated by Air Force Intelligence. The Air Force does not consider the question a dead issue, and continues to use qualified scientists and technicians to investigate and analyze each reported case to establish the truth.

Jets still scramble to intercept any unidentified craft spotted by official observers and radar. No enemy must sneak in, disguised as a pooh-poohed saucer. But of those 250 recent UFOs, only 1.9 percent remain "unknown." Only 2.2 percent of the 768 reports in 1956 stayed mysterious.

SAUCERS, being spotted by trained military personnel over secret strategic areas, got serious attention from the start. The Air Technical Intelligence Center at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, studied 117 sightings the first year. Many were undeniably real objects—balloons, jets, planets, meteors, even birds.

Edward J. Ruppelt, who headed the UFO intelligence unit for two years, tells how it was first code-named Project Sign, then Project Grudge, finally Project Blue Book. His account and the press releases showed a trend from early tension to exasperated ridicule and then to intense research, using panels of advisory scientists like Dr. J. Allen Hynek, astronomer, who now heads the Project Moonwatch, trackers of the sputnik and future man-made moons.

An early press release dismissed saucer sightings as misinterpretations of conventional objects, mild mass hysteria, or hoaxes. Then airline pilots reported wingless lighted craft passing their ships; radar jets chased targets they couldn't catch, and the Korean war pilots saw weird lights playing tag with them.

The latter recalled the "foo-fighters," lights that deviled World War II pilots over Germany and the Pacific. Scientists explained those as light-reflecting air whirls from the plane's wings, enhanced by torn surfaces or ice or fog.

The mysterious Lubbock lights reported in 1952 were geometrical patterns of dim bluish lights crossing the night sky, seen several times by scientists in Lubbock, Tex.

UFOs hit the nation's front pages in July, 1952, when the Washington CAA traffic control center radar screens showed "blips" making incredibly fast jumps. Some pilots momentarily saw flying lights where the radar located them; other pilots saw nothing there. Andrews Field was under repair, and it took two hours for jets to arrive from Delaware, finding nothing in sight or on their radars. The disturbing phantoms returned a week later.

Radar is not as exact and infallible as laymen think, and it can be fooled by mirages; a cruiser once fired at a "target fleet" in the empty Mediterranean—really scattered sky reflections of Malta far beyond radar range.

When similar radar ghosts appeared the next summer, it was dismissed as a local electronic trick.

Many fantastic reports got quickly scrapped. Alleged saucer material—"unmeltable and of unknown elements"—proved on analysis to be kitchen aluminum, Continued on page 19 smelter slag, radar foil targets, party ornaments, jettisoned plane wing-tanks, rare mineral formations, and crudely or ingeniously constructed hoaxes.

UFO: 10 YEARS

"Spaceman's corpses" turned out to be a skinned rhesus monkey. "Angel hair," fragile air-borne thread "dropped by saucers," was found to be industrial waste called bamberg rayon. No valid physical evidence has yet been found.

Still photographs included balloons, reflections, retouchings, tossed trashcan covers, lens or negative flaws, light flares—never a clear, detailed UFO. Movies taken by White Sands theodolites, a Utah warrant officer and a Moritana baseball manager showed high speeds, but the shapes or lights were too small to prove what the UFO was, even under the expert photo-analysis that solved so many air-war problems.

Improved report forms and questionnaires were backed up by quick on-the-spot investigating teams of the nationwide 4602nd Air Intelligence Service Squadron. The worrisome percentage of "unknowns"—good but unexplainable observations by credible observers—dropped steadily.

THROUGH 1952, the unknowns were 19 percent; in the next two years, 9 percent; only 3 percent in 1955, and some 2 percent since then. With fuller observation, the Air Force believes these unknowns would have proved conventional phenomena or illusions.

Project Blue Book was closed after completing its reports. Air Intelligence and its scientific consultants, however, continue to evaluate sightings.

The first famous claim of physical contact with current spacemen was Frank Scully's kidding Variety columns in 1949 and his deadpan best-seller in 1950. His authority was a "leading oil geophysicist" who said one of his employees, a "magnetic engineer," had seen crashed saucers studied by the Air Force—one saucer contained 18 little men burned black.

Mr. Scully quoted a 1949 telepathic-travel book, "Pioneers in Space," by "Prof. George Adamski of Palomar." Mr. Adamski was not connected with Palomar Observatory; he lived down the mountain at Palomar Gardens, practicing amateur astronomy, observing and lecturing on saucers. In 1936, he wrote a book giving answers to religious questions, laws of cosmic brotherhood, visions, space, and levitation.

In 1952, Mr. Adamski told desert picnic near the Arizona saucers. His subsequent approach and photographing of its slight, long-haired Martian flexible shoes warned him in gestures, against atom-bomb.

The Martian left behind desert sand. Witness George's handy plaster of Paris in preserving for publication a design of swastikas, dots representing moons, and intricate lines.

By the time Mr. Adamski's book sightseers from Venus were reported walking city streets in fluent English, and taking his for philosophical lectures.

An Arizona mechanic talked about riding with a beautiful woman in her "scow," a California reported rides and telepathy with a mechanic and prospector. "Trip to Hell in a Flying Saucer."

The saucer groups have split between the cultist "contact" investigators. Many clubs are on record and check up on members' sightings and try to expose hoaxes which bring ridicule on a religion.

Many investigators are scientists, engineers, scientists, and are convinced by unexplained that UFOs can't be dismissed.

Some saucer believers suspect a conspiracy of "silencers" hiding secret and muzzling persons. Others think civilian researchers admitted puzzling sky phenomena.

Some think that the United States is a flatly uncompromising state, covering up a big military secret.

The latter is the thesis of Donald E. Keyhoe, a journalist. Sellers on saucers were few cases, although his theories struck critics as far-fetched.

director of a Washington gation group which includes essage and intelligence men, airline pilots, businessmen, scientists, ministers, and such retired officers as Vice Adm. Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Investigators in the various civilian groups share a common belief that the UFO case is still wide open and that new facts must be obtained. But they may differ widely in their theories about the likeliest solutions.

Some saucer enthusiasts have a dramatic theory of mother ships orbiting around the earth, sending smaller manned or drone scout saucers to observe us close up. Some amateur astronomers have thought they saw natural or artificial satellites near earth before the sputnik. Neither group can take comfort from the results of the first scientific space patrol which concluded Oct. 1.

HARVARD astronomer Ronald H. Menzel, in a book, "Flying Saucers," explained many of the strange objects by meteorological optics—mirages, reflections and refractions in mist and clouds, searchlights on unnoticed clouds, mock suns and haloes caused by airborne ice crystals, and other illusions he called "as real as rainbows." Prof. Menzel saw one of the green fireballs of New Mexico and attributed its color to burning magnesium in the meteorite.

Investigation of UFOs, is actively continuing by the Air Force despite the total absence to date that any aerial object was an interplanetary craft.

Astronomer Clyde W. Tombaugh, Pluto's discoverer, headed the teams in Flagstaff, Ariz., and Quito, Ecuador. For four years they used automatic tracking cameras and telescopes, searching hundreds of concentric circles of satellite space. In an uncopyrighted statement Oct. 1, just before the sputnik was launched, Dr. Tombaugh reported:

"We have found NO satellites (other than the moon). The regions of satellite space for the earth appear to be remarkably empty, except for a few tiny asteroids which brushed close by when they crossed the earth's orbit in the course of their elliptical paths around the sun."

Still, there is a chance that so much sky-watching will produce positive or negative information on UFOs.

THE LAST THING THE DALLAS, TEXAS
SIGN PAINTER REMEMBERED SEEING
BEFORE BLACKING OUT FROM A COMBI-

NATION OF SHOCK, HEAT AND JET BLAST WAS THE FIRE OF THE JET AS THE SAUCER SNAKED AWAY FROM HIM IN THE NIGHT SKY TRAVELING AT A SPEED FASTER THAN ANYTHING HE COULD IMAGINE.

THAT'S HIS REPORT...EXACTLY AS HE REMEMBERS IT.
THIS MAN CAME TO CONSCIOUSNESS IN PAIN AND THIRD DEGREE BURNS COUPLED WITH INTERNAL NUCLEAR RADIATION WERE THE RESULTS OF THE SAUCER CONTACT.

HE STAGGERED INTO HIS CAR AND MANAGED TO DRIVE
BACK TO DALLAS TO SECURE AID. UPON MAKING CONTACT WITH THE DOCTOR AND AFTER A SHORT EXAMINATION
THE PHYSICIAN HOSPITALIZED THE PATIENT FOR A THOROUGH EXAMINATION. THE SIGN PAINTER WAS CHECKED WITH A GEIGER COUNTER AND IT WAS DISCOVERED
HE WAS ALICE WITH RADIO ACTIVITY. RADIATION POISONING WAS AT HAND.

AFTER SEVERAL WEEKS HIS LIVER HAD ALMOST STOPPED FUNCTIONING NORMALLY. HIS HAIR BEGAN TO TURN WHITE AND ON TOP OF ALL THIS...HE IS DOOMED TO DIE WITH CANCER OF THE BONE. THE DOCTORS TOLD HIM HE HAD SIX MONTHS TO LIVE.

THE SIGN PAINTER POINTS OUT IT PROVES ONE THING, OF COURSE, AND THAT IS THAT THE GLOWING SHIPS ARE POWERED BY ATOMIC FUEL. IT PROVES THERE ARE SUCH THINGS AS UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS AND THAT IT WAS NOT HALLUCINATION OR IMAGINATION.

AND TO TOP THIS FANTASTIC REPORT OFF...THERE WERE GENERALLY THREE UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS REPORTED FROM VARIOUS POINTS IN THE UNITED STATES ON THE SAME NIGHT AS THIS INCIDENT. THE AIR FORCE CONFIRMED THE FACT THAT UFO REPORTS WERE RECEIVED THAT NIGHT FROM RELIABLE PERSONS.

SOME MAY BELIEVE THIS REPORT WHILE OTHERS MAY NOT FLYING SAUCER NEWS REPORTS IT TO THEIR READERS AS THE REPORT WAS RECEIVED AT THE DESK OF ITS EDITOR.

FLYING SAUCER NEWS HAS A SERIES OF SCOOP REPORTS ON SOME MASS SIGHTINGS OF FLYING SAUCERS PLUS STRANGE SOUNDS PICKED UP BY TWO SHORT WAVE RADIO MEN ON THE 20 METER BAND AT THE SAME TIME A UFO WAS LESS THAN FIVE MILES FROM THEM.

WESTERN NEW YORK SKIES WERE CLEAR THE NIGHT OF SATURDAY, AUGUST 9TH...THE NIGHT A NEW FLAP MAY HAVE DEVELOPED. MANY RESIDENTS IN OLEAN, NEW YORK WERE OUT THAT NIGHT FOR THE PURPOSE OF CATCHING A GLIMPSE OF SPUTNIK 3'S ROCKET CARRIER. THOSE WHO WERE STRETCHING THEIR NECKS TO GET A PEEK AT THE ROCKET WERE REWARDED WITH THE BEGINNING OF A POSSIBLE SAUCER FLAP.....ONE THAT WAS PREDICTED AS EARLY AS THE MIDDLE OF JULY BY ONE---BOB EWING OF EDGEWATER, FLORIDA. REMEMBER THAT NAME..YOU'LL BE READING MORE ABOUT BOB LATER.

THE ROCKET CARRIER PASSED OVER ON SCHEDULE THAT NIGHT BOTH TIMES (9:54 & 11:37 PM). BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 9 PM AND MIDNIGHT METEORS ZOOMED ACROSS THE SKY WITH SOME OF THEM GLOWING VERY BRIGHT AND LEAVING A TRAIL BEHIND THEM.

TWO HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NIGHT SKY SHOW WERE THE APPEARANCE OF TWO MYSTERY OBJECTS. THREE OLEAN RESIDENTS..ONE OF THEM A MR. FRED HOY, 326 No. 6TH STREET, OLEAN, NEW YORK...REPORTED SEEING AN UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECT ZOOM ACROSS THE SKY AROUND 9 PM. THE OBJECT CAME OUT OF THE EAST AND WAS TRAVELING IN A WESTERLY DIRECTION. THOSE SEEING THE OBJECT SAID IT PASSED DIRECTLY OVER THE TOP OF SCHOOL ONE IN OLEAN AND APPEARED TO BE FLYING AT A LOW ALTITUDE. IT WAS DESCRIBED AS CIGAR-SHAPED AND BEING BRIGHTEST IN THE FRONT PORTION. ALL THREE AGREED AS TO ITS DESCRIPTION AND SAYING THAT IT WAS QUITE LARGE AND VERY BRIGHT PLUS WAS TRAVELING AT A TERRIFIC SPEED...FASTER THAN ANY JET.

More UFO's Observed By Olean Residents

More unidentified flying objects were reported over Olean Monday.

Most spectacular report came from a group of about 20 persons, who saw four objects traveling at tremendous speed from west to north to east. The objects were observed from the top of King St. where the persons had gone to watch the Sputnik satellite go over. The four objects were seen between 9 and 9:30 p.m. One was bright red, the others white.

Three UFO's were seen from the top of Richburg Hill near Bolivar about 9:30 p.m. by James Jones, 18, Bolivar, and his brother, Wayne Jones, age 11. James said this morning the objects were white, and seemed to change color. Two of them came together and separated as if they were "playing around." They disappeared after 15 minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and their 16-year-old son, Bruce Miller, 717 Maple St., reported to Civil Defense Director Bob Barry that they saw two yellow objects traveling from south to north before the satellite went over. One of the two objects, flying lower than the other, changed color to blue, and a light pulsating at the rear.

OVAL-SHAPED

The same three persons observed an oval-shaped object, orange-red in color, about 10 p.m., going west. None of the objects made any sound, or left any vapor trail.

First UFO Monday was seen about 3:40 p.m. by William Ring of 325 Queen St. The second was reported by John Richardson, who saw it about 10:10 p.m. from the Rock City Rd.

Mr. Ring reported to Mr. Barry that the disc-shaped object made a roaring noise, which attracted his attention to it as he installed a TV aerial. He said it was round like a mirror, and it traveled in a southeasterly direction. Mr. Ring said the object he saw left no vapor trail, and disappeared into the clear sky.

Mr. Richardson said the round object he saw, like a star, was moving fast at a high altitude, and he watched it five or six minutes. He said it turned north and then disappeared into the west.

FILTER CENTER CALLS

The report from Mr. Ring was filed by Mr. Barry with the filter center at Canton, Ohio, and officials there telephoned Mr. Ring for details of the sighting.

Mr. Barry also checked with the Niagara Falls Air Force Base to see whether they had word of a similar sighting. Mr. Barry learned that an Amherst resident had reported a similar object about the same time as Mr. Ring. Capt. Christian Criss of the air base talked with Mr. Barry about the object, seen over Amherst about 3:30 p.m.

THE MYSTERY OF ALL MYSTERIES MOSES' MAGICAL SPIRIT-ART

It is said that Moses, the Great Law Giver wrote more than Five Books which appear in the Old Testament as the books of Moses. It is believed he wrote Ten in all, but the Second Five were withheld by Scribes who compiled the Bible because they feared the Great Powers Disclosed might be used for unlawful purposes. Thus this knowledge was known only to a few high priests! Many Authors have originally translated this great work, and we proudly present the New Edition by Lewis de Claremont. OIL of MECCA

Some occult people say the alleged magical power of exquisite oriental oil lies in its ability to attract powerful, spiritual and mediomistic vibrations. Many use perfumes when down-heard, fatigued or suffering from confusion or evil influences, because they claim its subtle aroma seems to clear the atmosphere of any adversity or evil conditions. Oil of Mecca is a compound of ingredients blended by craftsmen whose knowledge of soaking special oils are rarely surpassed. Many people claim that by putting a few drops on a pillow or bed clothes at night they have found it helpful in inducing a quiet and restful sleep accompanied by good influences and bringing very good dreams and visions. Although we make no claims or representations to this effect, we do sell Oil of Mecca Perfume, as a fine type of oriental odor perfume, liked by many.

OIL of KYPHI

The sacred perfume of Kyphi was used by Egyptians to secure the guide and influence of the Sun God Ra. This perfume was prepared according to an alleged old magical formula of which the combination 4x4 seems to be the basis. Plutarch and other ancient writers say, "That is how it gets its special mystical virtues." In olden times sacred words from the Holy Books were read aloud during the process of its manufacture and the aroma was said to have a definite psychological effect upon those who compounded it, as well as those who used it. Oil of Kyphi Brand Perfume has an aroma that would be fitting to any God or Goddess. Mediums say its fragrance seems to bring higher spiritual forces and help them become more highly developed. Many people use perfume in order to attract vibrations of success claiming that the perfume has a psychological effect on those whom they come in contact with, thus, controlling them to their will. Although we make no supernatural claims or representations, but sell it only as a high grade brand of fine oriental type of perfume and highly recommended as such to all.

By Aims Michel, noted French scientist 47 photographs and drawings

- Why are the Great Powers concealing UFO data?
- What's behind the Flying Saucer visits?
- Where do they come from and how do they fly?

From a top mathematician and engineer comes the first solid, scientific analysis of all UFO data and of the revolutionary new Plantier concept with its ominous implications for the real nature and origin of the Saucers! Michel decisively answers doubters and opens new doors of thought.

Dramatic new evidence revealed. Heretofore undisclosed facts and eye-witness reports of UFO sightings in Africa, Europe, the Middle East and the U. S., together with actual photographs, make this "a significant contribution to knowledge about the mysterious phenomenon of Flying Saucers," says physicist Charles A. Maney. Aime Michel's scientific approach and conclusions not only make sense, they make fascinating reading. Send for your copy today and learn THE TRUTH ABOUT FLYING SAUCERS.

THE SCIENCE of
or $1.25

FINANCIAL SUCCESS THROUGH CREATIVE THOUGHT

—by Wallace D. Wattles
THE RIGHT TO BE RICH

This book is intended for you whose most pressing need is for money. "You cannot rise to your greatest height in talent or soul development unless you have plenty of money; for to unfold the soul and to develop talent," writes the author, "you must have many things to use, and you cannot have these things unless you have money to buy them."

You develop in mind, soul, and body by making use of things, and society is so organized that you must have money in order to become possessor of all things—therefore the basis of all advance-ment must be the science of getting rich.

Life has advanced so far, and become so complex, that you re-quire a great amount of wealth in order to live in a manner that even approaches completeness. Success in your life is becoming what you want to be. You can become what you want to be only by making use of things, and you can have the free use of things only as you become rich enough to buy them.

THERE IS NOTHING WRONG
IN WANTING RICHES

The desire for riches is really the desire for a richer, fuller, and more abundant life; and that desire is praiseworthy. To live fully in soul, man must have love—and love is often denied expression by poverty. Your greatest happiness is found in the bestowal of gifts to those you love—love finds its most natural and spontaneous expression in giving. It is in the use of material things that you find full life for your body, helps you to develop your mind, and unfolds your soul. It is therefore of supreme importance that you should have riches.

THE MARTIAN ALPHABET

Is telepathic contact with Mars possible? Did such contact once give Earthlings a Mar'ian alphabet and language—only recently discovered? Read the amazing, new and illustrated booklet "THE MARTIAN ALPHABET & LANGUAGE" by Robert Ernst Dickhoff, Ph.D. Send $2.00 to FLYING SAUCER NEWS 337 First Ave. New York 3, New York.

Why were these men SILENCED?

One by one, the leading figures among flying saucer researchers, who have challenged the government denial that saucers come from outer space, have been silenced. They are still alive, still living where they used to. But they will no longer talk about flying saucers or reveal why they refuse to do so.

Who were the three men in dark suits that visited them? Were they government agents, or agents of other planets? Whoever they were, they have silenced the researchers.

Now . . . in THEY KNEW TOO MUCH ABOUT FLYING SAUCERS, you may read the facts behind this frightening story — facts never before published!

Gray Barker, the author, was Chief Investigator for the International Flying Saucer Bureau—an organization which had its principal leader silenced by three men in black before he could reveal to the world his solution of the flying saucer mystery. Other leading investigators have also been intimidated. All their stories are here.

They Knew Too Much About Flying Saucers

Gray Barker remains one of the unsilenced few. His true, amazing report includes eye-witness accounts of the famed Flatwoods "monster" which landed on a dark West Virginia hillside.

Two Nights To Remember

By CARL ANDERSON

The thrilling experiences of a little group of people who went to the desert and on two occasions not only saw a Flying Saucer at close range but experienced strange effects from the force emanating from the Saucer which, in one instance, produced an instantaneous healing. Other even more startling effects are also described in minutest detail by an honest and sharp observer, an electrician by trade. This is one of the few instances where the experience was witnessed by others, who have also given their sworn testimony. Here you have new clues to the Saucer Mystery. Many illustrations.
