The audiance was delighted with which she delivered her lecture. It was the best I've ever attended. Ed.

ANOTHER FLYING SAUCER VIEWPOINT

Due to our limited amount of space we will outline here the principle objectives of this paper:

1- To educate the Flying Saucer Membership as to their responsibilities as members.

2- To awaken an interest in the rank and file in flying saucers, and to encourage them to participate in the various activities, as attending meetings, calling our attention to flying saucer occurrences and related phenomena.

3- To encourage and support the various groups, such as the many Metaphysical and Occult centres, etc., to express their theories and ideas. Such interpretations are of course essential to us in our efforts to ascertain the cause of their existence, their purpose and their final objective.

4- To fearlessly expose any frauds on the part of any mail-order " get-rich-quick " schemer.

I TOOK A TRIP TO HEAVEN

Oh, I took a trip to heaven
 In a model P-4-7,
 Up where good folks always go;
 And there an angel, in mid-air,
 Awaited me to share her love,
 I honestly declare,
 That lovely creature up above
 Made me fall radiantly in love.
 I know why saints all live up there---
 For with their joys naught can compare.
 Oh, I took a trip to heaven,
 In a model P-4-7,
 That's where I met my angel in mid-air.

Attention Mr. Williamson, co-author of (The Saucers Speak) here are two of the most ardent supporters you will probably ever find. You're a lucky fellow to have them work for you. SO.....be good to them!

Your editor is very proud to announce that with the combined forces of the 23 POLICE PCT of New York City with Capt. V I S I T O R SThe second week in October 1954 we had the pleasure to have Mr. Pressing, the editor and publisher of The Psychic Observer, of Chesterfield, Indiana call on us. Dec.4th 1954 Saturday evening we had the pleasure to have with us James Mosley, Editor of Nexus Magazine and Gray Barker, Editor of The Saucerian of West Virginia. Jim has just been elected president of the Civilian Saucer Intelligence Group of New York. He's from Jersey.

Gray Barker is over six feet tall, a very friendly but soft spoken fellow, interested in mysticism and we add a good sport. Our thanks to Jim Mosley for bringing him around.

Dr. Gilbert N. Holloway of California and author of five flying saucer books has advised us that he will definitely pay us a visit December 27th 1954 at noon at this address.

Visitors are welcomed to our office and shop from Monday through Saturday from 12 Noon to 10 P. M.

FLYING SAUCERS AND EVOLUTION

By Nianda Lynnabeth Hayden

Flying saucers, space craft from other planets, various types of fireballs, focussed streamers of light, and so forth, have been attracted to the planet Earth at this particular time because the human race on this globe has reached a new high point in evolution. This forward step may not be apparent to humanity in general for the reason that the perspective is too close. However, to inhabitants of other planets where evolution is more advanced than on this globe, this remarkable achievement is recognized as the greatest cosmic event which has taken place in this narrow corner of the universe during the past 21 million years. It was approximately 21 million years ago that the human race on this planet Earth individualized into male and female beings, and it was at that time that Sanat Kumara and his group of assistants came here from Venus to guide the evolution of mankind. This great Venusian adept is still here.

The fact that our neighbors from other planets are now dropping in to help us celebrate our latest advance in evolution is a matter of no surprise to those who have been engaged in the shedding of the necessary blood, sweat and tears which has made this advance possible. It is only those who have recently boarded the gravy train for a free ride into the new Golden Age, who are behaving like opportunists. Their opportunism will be short-lived, however.

They are the fearful conservatives, the reactionaries, the die-hards, in every walk of life. Because they are thus negatively polarized they are lacking in true and positive power. They can only make a great deal of noise by throwing words around, by making claims to knowledge, and by muttering dark predictions, but aside from being argumentative and noisy, they can do no real or lasting harm.

On the opposite side, the constructive, progressive, brighter side, are banded together those persons who stand unflinchingly against all opposition in their determination to usher in the new Golden Age upon this most fear-ridden of all planets in the solar system.

It has recently become fashionable for certain scientists and the technological-initiated general public to deplore mysticism. These de-bunking artists, who de-bunk everything from flying saucers to mysticism, are unfortunately mystics. In fact they are the only mystics in existence today, for the age of mysticism passed many years ago. Naturally, its passing has not been discovered by the conservatives and reactionaries who make a habit of living in the past. The true, correctly oriented mystics underwent their mystical experience in medieval Europe. They passed that particular point in evolution, and have now grown up and are behaving in a mature manner. In brief, they are in tune with the times, or in tune with the infinite. They have put aside childish things, such as mysticism, and have reincarnated in this present age as practical occultists.

There is no need to fear that word - reincarnation. Mystics fear it and speculate about the natural law of cause and effect. They even speculate about death and taxes. Mystics are believers and followers. They believe in this or that because somebody else believes in this or that. They are afflicted with the disease of hero-worship and become followers of some person or ideology.

Occultists, on the other hand, are knowers. They have been through the glamorous experiences of mysticism in past lives, and today they are back in incarnation as servers of the race. The self-centeredness which made them mystics has vanished. They are no longer interested in serving themselves or their private God who, of course, must be definitely superior to the private and personal gods of other people. Now they are content to serve their fellowmen, because they know their own welfare is only a by-product of their demonstrated love for humanity.

Occultism precisely marks a point of advance in evolution. Today, it is estimated that there are millions of occultists in incarnation. They have been coming into incarnation in wave after wave since the year of 1900, specifically for the purpose of assisting at the birth of the new Aquarian Age. The old Piscean Age, the age of mysticism, has completed a cycle of 2000 years and has died. It is significant that the Aquarian servers of the race are identified only with the birth of the new age and not with the death of the old cycle. They are specifically known as the New Group of World Servers. They do not function as an organization, for that is an old, Piscean Age method of working; they function in group formation as a living organism.

During the next 25 years humanity will become well acquainted with the activities of the New Group of World Servers. They will be active in every field, in every phase of living, but they will be easily recognized because of their scientific or occult approach to all mundane matters. For they are conscious of no barriers between so-called spiritual and worldly affairs. These occultists will serve the race under the Aquarian method of White Magic, for that is the governing energy of the New Age. White Magic is, in the final analysis, concerned with the scientific method of using light and sound. The opposite method is called black magic and is based on the misuse of light and sound.

In order to introduce this new Aquarian Age method the New Group of World Servers will make an increasing use of light and sound for the benefit of humanity. During the next 25 years the last three-fifths of the cosmic formula for electricity will be given to the human race on this planet, under the directed guidance of Sanat Kumara. The first two-fifths of the formula was entrusted to four great servers of the race - M. and Mme. Curie, Thomas Edison, and Robert Millikan.

At the same time, during the next 25 years, humanity will begin to benefit by teachings from servers on neighboring planets. Before this century has closed this planet Earth will enjoy a push-button civilization, manipulated by frictionless machinery. Large passenger and cargo ships will move silently through the air at a speed of miles per second. They will carry no fuel and thus offer no resistance. They will draw their power directly and instantaneously from the air.

They will be frictionless. We will be able to enjoy these advancements for one reason - and for one reason only - the majority of the people will be frictionless also. Fear and tension will vanish, and friction between individuals and nations will cease. Humanity will no longer resist progress.

It is now, in these latter days, that the meek have come to inherit the earth. On many other planets such an inheritance has already been enjoyed for countless centuries. It is indeed fitting that our neighbors from other solar systems, from other constellations, should be here on Earth with us to share in our rejoicing as we go forward into life more abundantly.

SAUCER SIGHTINGS

PILOT SIGHTS a " FLYING DISK " A "large, white, disk-like object" was sighted near Boston and kept in view for a full 10 minutes in plain daylight yesterday morning by a TWA Paris-to-New York air-liner pilot who later insisted that it was not a weather balloon as suggested by the Grenier Air Force Base at Manchester, N.H. Some jet pilots also saw the objects.

" That weather balloon stuff sounds to me like a cover-up," said Capt. Charles J. Kratovil at his Port Washington, L.I., home where the Air Force message reached him.

" I was there; I saw it. There was no basket on it as the Air Force describes. There was a 60-mile-an-hour wind blowing and this object was moving against it at high speed. We had it in view for a full 10 minutes as it flew parallel to us and high above us. How could a balloon move against such a wind if it had not some kind of power?"

Capt. Kratovil spotted the object first at about 9:30 A.M. when he arrived at International Airport here he reported that he had radioed the Boston airport control tower about it and that he had received word back that a flight of jet planes had been sent aloft. Pilots of the jets saw the object when they reached 10,000 feet and according to the message from Boston, said it appeared to be "about 10,000 feet above us and climbing ver fast." (Courtesy Daily News of New York City 6/2/54)

Rome Sept. 18, 1954 Again a report of a Flying Cigar was seen over that city and which flew at great speed. It was seen by many.

F L A S H! New York Herald Tribune Dec. 10, 1954 shown on the front page a saucer photo 9"X 7" almost half a page devoted to the story. The picture was taken at Taormina, Sicily. This conservative paper is to be congratulated. We would suggest that the members avail themselves of this opportunity and write into the editor a word of appreciation.

Life Magazine, Nov. 1, 1954 Nationally known magazine devoted two entire pages with photographs and written material on an incident from France. Title of the story is ASTRAL ADVENTURES.

The NEWS LETTER of Dr. G. N. Holloway, writer and lecturer of California, states that he saw saucers during the past summer, about 50 miles from St. Louis, Mo. (Dr. Holloway) is well known to your editor and we have every reason to believe that his report is true and correct.

According to Harold Salkin of New Brunswick, N. J. who paid us a visit lately, Mead Layne of B.S.R.A. has a picture of a 27" man (Interplanetary Man) and was published in POINT Magazine, Sept. 8, 1950. The man was supposed to have died within a few hours after the crash of a flying disc near Meico City. Point Magazine is now out-of-print and scarce. This paper will pay anyone who can supply us with copies of this issue. Write care of this paper James S. Rigberg, Editor 1597 Third Avenue & 90th St., New York.

Harold wrote a commercial and the documentary film "Flight Without Wings " a history of the helicopter in 1950. According to our crystal ball we are convinced Herald will be going places and selling to the big magazines this year. Good luck to you Herald!

It is reported that the Duke of Edinburgh , that is the Queen of England's husband is an ardent flying saucer fan.
