EDGAR CAYCE'S EVIDENCE FOR REINCARNATION

told by a trained psychologist in
MANY MANSIONS

Shortly after receiving her Ph.D. degree in psychology, Gina Cerminara decided to study the files of the late Edgar Cayce, probably America's greatest psychic. As her study progressed, Miss Cerminara discovered that Cayce's work formed the basis for a new approach to the ancient philosophy of reincarnation. This approach is the structural basis of her book.

In Cayce's files is probably the most remarkably documented body of psychic phenomena in the world. Here is an exciting and beautiful book, free from cant and self-delusion. For the first time, the profoundly moving facts and statements of Edgar Cayce's readings have been assembled into a philosophical order. In addition, it opens up "the magnificent possibility" that reincarnation is truth. Offers a new horizon to anyone interested in the meaning of life.

Sir:

Why don't you increase the NEWS from twice a year to four times a year? And I believe would be better if you would omit the off-beat ads. Aside from those ads it would be one of the best U.F.O. magazines.

John Prytz, 21 McCouns Lane

This suggestion is helpful. However unless enough book purchases are made we must be forced to accept the ads.

Sir:

After shooting a large number of pictures of unidentified activity overhead, the question persisted in my mind--was this natural phenomena or was this the workings of intelligences from outer space?

One afternoon, while out on the desert, I sent out this thought: Are you from outer space? Immediately, in a matter of seconds, a large ARC was made in the sky!

This photo (272) was promptly taken. As soon as the picture was snapped, it dissipated.

On a few other occasions, this same type of ARC was photographed and is on file.

Many references are made in the Bible regarding the ARC. i.e. Arc of the Covenant.

(PS)--as to these references of my "Birdmen" research, mentioned in "FSN" recently, may I say this:
 "Ask not why you are being told.. Someone has to tell mankind, even if it has to be a New Age Buddha, in whom there is no falsehood, in whom there be the Truth, in whom you may trust, as you did when shut up in your mothers womb, not knowing of a world, which as a captive of a sun, is also the captive of winged Beings, as far as wingless humans are concerned!"

(title withheld until days of publication). In his own fearless style, he, the Lama, attempts uncompromisingly, to reveal TRUTHS, as he knows them to have existed since the dawn of these afore mentioned 311 civilizations. All during this time a force has ruled here, that kept the wingless earthling chackled to the rocky real estate, we call earth, a force so sinister, ruled by an invisible mutant deity, responsible for these fallen civilizations, that it is hard to fathom, of why earthlings ever put up with it so long. The dividing line of what is accepted as 'angelic' or satanic is so thin, that by their deeds alone they can be judged properly. Are these winged, 'heavenly' hosts any better, than these wingless earthlings, who both destroyed two cities each with fire, together with their inhabitants??

Are they the same "heavenly hosts" who terrified shephards and than promising "Peace on earth" — in their time, since there still is no "pacim en terris" in our time? The art of getting sensible informations from these winged and wingless celestians, 'visiting' this planet, of why man is here in the first place and why he remains corralled by THEM and for what purpose, must have even astounded Gautama, the Buddha in his days, when he was interviewed by a Deva.

We are told that Krishna had a Devaki for his mother, like the demon creature Drasrinmo, who got together with a cave dwelling apeman, somewhere in Bon-pa (Tibet) ages ago, starting off the tibetans on their road as a race and possible culture, supervised by beings they worshipped as gods, who must have their angelic helpers or their satanic counterpart in the realm of winged mutants. They can no longer hire devils, who rather "reign in hell, than serve in heaven," where the eternal ringing of bells would drive even the devil nuts!!

Dear Sir:

Sir:

Here is an account of the sighting last week, Thursday, 10/15/64. Geoffrey Barnhart, coming home from school at noon, ran into the house and called his mother to come out and see the four shiny lights in the sky. Geoffrey is nine years old, and a bright boy in school. His mother on viewing the four flying discs, hurried two doors up the street to call her niece to see them. But by the time she reached her home, the discs had disappeared from sight. There were two ahead and two following, in a square-shaped formation. This was reported in the local newspaper, The Evening Times, Sayre, Pa. The Barnharts live in Waverly, N.Y., just across the state line from Sayre, Pa. From the height at which they were sighted, they were much larger than any airplane.

Being in the early winter it was pitch dark at the time and the objects, 9 or 10 in number, were very luminous."

Sir:

One highly interesting sidelight to the Seminar, was the appearance of a fire-ball or space craft (which is anybody's guess), at the time Dan Fry appeared in Lakemont. It stayed around until the last visitor of the Seminar left the area and sightings continue to be reported by native Georgians.

As Maria Graciette was leaving the area headed for Atlanta, she was buzzed twice. At the same time, Eddie Boyer and her children spotted the fireball in the direction of Maria.

COLOURS OF THE SKY

Why do we all seem alike in our vision of a blue sky,

The many colours that are seen at the setting of darkness?

What do we Earthlings really know about nature-----

Are they Galaxies of Planets on their journeys escorting the Saucers?

As all these brilliant colours shine in the skies, do they colour all our plant blooms as well as our skin?

Sir:

An article appeared in Roanoke World News Jan. 14, 1965 describing a sighting by Mr. Horace Burns of Fishersville, Va. seen between Staunton & Waynesboro, Va. on Dec. 21, 1964. This man was interviewed on W.O.B.J. - TV 1/14/65. He said it was 125 feet in diameter & 90 feet high, bee-hive shaped, no doors or windows, and that (Prof. ) Dr. E.G. Gehman of Eastern Mennonite College, Harrisonburg, Va. measured radioactivity at the sight 12/30/64 at over 600,000 count. They said on TV that the Air Force Invest. came down later and found NO radiation at site but was still on side of Mr. Burn, s car.

Con Man Nets $300G by Scaring Thousands Into Believing...

VENUS IS GOING TO INVADE THE EARTH

By ANDREW TERENCE

Karl Mekis warned the world of an invasion from Venus — and made a fortune from it.

He told all who would listen that he had met with the creatures from outer space in their flying saucers, and had been appointed Venus Security Commissar on Earth.

He said the coming invaders would enslave all peoples of the world — except those he personally picked to help rule with the Venus masters.

Thousands who believed him bought survival kits, jobs in the post-invasion World Republic of Venus and even marriages with the conquerors from that planet.

The more fantastic his story grew, the more fantastic were his profits.

For six years, Mekis and a sidekick carried off the space-age con game and lived in luxury on the more than $300,000 they reaped from it.

But the interplanetary hocus-pocus finally collapsed — because his frightened, mercy-seeking victims got tired of waiting for the invasion.

Mekis, 52, learned the ABCs of terror tactics as one of Adolf Hitler's dreaded SS elite guards, and put the tactics to use after World War II in a variety of small-time swindles and smuggling rackets.

But after a short stretch in an Austrian jail for smuggling, he decided to move to South America and switch to a more up-to-date racket in Chile.

On the boat trip to Chile, Mekis met another con man, Franz Weber-Richter. Together, they laid plans for the Venus invasion to get rich on the fears of gullible people.

In Santiago, Chile, they set up a Venus Invasion Headquarters, and began issuing warnings and edicts in ads in newspapers and science-fiction magazines back in Europe.

The ads described his flying-saucer meetings with the Venus men, his appointment as Security Chief and the coming Invasion — "Day X."

"Only a handful of Earth people will be picked to rule with the Venus masters after the invasion," the ads explained. "And you can be one of them — if you act now."

Some of the ads offered specific jobs. One said: "World Republic of Venus. Chauffeur wanted to serve top official of Venus after invasion of Earth."

Applicants paid to get the jobs which were offered.

One ad said special camps would be set up to breed "new humans." It offered marriage to Earth women with Venus men, to build a new "master race."

Thousands of people — blinded by fear and greedy for power in a new regime — swallowed the hoax and sent Mekis their life savings.

In return, Mekis sent his victims survival kits, including identification cards which, he said, would give them special privileges after Day X.

To dedicated supporters, he

VENUS PASSPORT: During Mekis' trial, Helmuth Muile, one of the victims, produced this passport the con man had given him showing he was an official citizen of Venus.

also sent copies of a book entitled: "Planet Men Visit Our Earth." It told how to survive an invasion.

For those seeking more information, Mekis wrote: "The invaders have white skin just as we, and they speak just in a very clear, intelligent tongue."

NATIONAL ENQUIRER

SPACE SALESMAN: Karl Mekis, 52, sold people on the idea that Venus was going to invade the earth and enslave all peoples of the world — and then pocketed $300,000 in profits from their fears.

MANUAL: To all of his dedicated supporters, Mekis sent copies of this book entitled: "Planet Men Visit Our Earth." It told how to survive invasion.

Mekis and Weber-Richter packed their bags and moved their whole operation back to Europe, settling in Rome, Italy.

To their hoar victims, they explained by mail that the Venus bosses had ordered the move so Invasion Headquarters would be closer to "our European followers."

And business got even better. But as months and years of profit went by, some followers began to ask why the Invasion hadn't come off yet.

Mekis sent out circulars, which said: "The landing has been delayed because of a shortage of staff in the World Republic of Venus Civil Service. More volunteers and more funds are urgently needed."

And more funds came in quickly.

Later, Mekis explained a further delay by saying: "We regret to announce that the sudden death of the Commander-in-Chief of the Venus Invasion Fleet has caused a postponement."

Mekis made sure he did no business in Rome, where police might get after him.

But he finally tripped himself up by taking a vacation with Weber-Richter in Vienna, Austria, where some impatient followers had complained about him to the police.

When word of their Vienna arrival reached police, Mekis was nabbed and charged with 17 counts of fraud and swindling. Weber-Richter fled before he could be caught.

At Mekis' trial, dozens of witnesses were brought in to testify against the swindler.

Wenzel Freschner, a 40-year-old Bavarian tavern owner, produced a telegram from Mekis which said:

"Planned invasion delayed. Need financial support. Please send all you can."

Freschner went on to say: "I was the newly appointed Advisor for Venus Economic Affairs, so I thought I had to do something. I took my last $1,100 out of the bank and sent it to him."

Annelmarie Baumann, a 22-year-old Austrian girl, said she was one of Mekis' secretaries — and didn't know his business was a hoax.

She said: "I thought everything he said was true because he went into such great detail (Continued on next page)

During His Trial Con Man Warns Judge: Venus Invaders Will Destroy You

"I lived at his house and worked for him without pay because he promised me a Venus man after the invasion.

"He insisted that I sleep separate from everyone else because I was to be preserved for one of the big Venus leaders."

Another victim, 30-year-old Helmuth Mille, said he paid to get a civil service job with the "Venus Republic" when it was set up.

"Mekis even gave me a passport showing I was an official citizen of Venus," Mille added.

A space scientist testifying against Mekis explained the real chances of an invasion from Venus.

"It's unlikely that there is any advanced form of life on Venus, let alone invaders with flying saucers," he said. "The most advanced life on Venus is probably moss and some simple plants — if anything."

But Mekis insisted to the end of his trial on August 25 that his story was true.

And he warned Judge Hans Braun: "If you find me guilty, you will live to regret it. The day the Venus invaders land, I will be free and you will be destroyed."

But Judge Braun decided to take the risk.

He found Mekis guilty on all 17 counts and sentenced him to 5 years in jail.

I was looking out of my kitchen window towards the sky when I noticed a bright light that was pulsating. I thought it was a plane but it didn't move. A number of unusual sightings have come into OBUIC during the past two months. These are the ones worth mentioning:

Oyster Bay, Mr. Gary Fitzgerald a member of OBUIC reports that he and his friend had seen recently a bright, white light in the sky making no noise and moving rapidly N to S.

Levittown, N.Y. Mr. Belmont Ketchen says he observed a red object in the sky that blinked on and off as well as speed increase and decrease at regular intervals. Date 10/64
Exact date unknown etc.

Oyster Bay... Two small objects with a line of some sort that connected the two was sighted by a member of our club. It moved from east to west and travelled about 300 m.p.h. At no time did the two points of light move further apart or closer nor did the line disconnect or disappear.

A reddish-white light moved quickly across the sky August 64 over Oyster Bay. There was no noise or any indication that the object could have been anything but a U F O.

Reporter Sees Flying Object On Return Trip from Chicago

By ROY VANETT
C-N Staff Writer

Am I going nuts?

It was suddenly weird, then gone.

First, there was a very bright white light. Then in quick succession:

A glare of deep red, a flash of green and yellow and another very bright white light.

And then: Poof!

That did it. I knew, when it disappeared, that I had seen an "unidentified flying object."

So like a good (?) citizen,

I reported it to the Iroquois County sheriff's office.

I was driving back from a trip to Chicago, traveling south on Route 1 just south of Route 24 when it happened. It was 2:15 a.m. May 29.

Up in the moon-lighted sky, this thing appeared, streaked across the sky in a diving swoop and flashed out of existence. I stopped, looked, listened. Nothing.

Was I going nuts?
Nope, said the sheriff's office. A trooper saw the same thing over Gibson City and Kankakee officers saw it from their city.

Thank Heavens. My boss would never believe me otherwise!

And now that he does, I reminded him that it was only this week that South Danville woman saw a similar object over Tilton.

So maybe I won't have to see the company headshrinker after all.

The (2) reports were sent in from Mrs. Walter Keerns, 1306 North Jackson St., Danville, Illinois for which we are grateful and to The Commercial-News we are thankful for permitting us to reprint the two items..

South Danville Mother Sees Flying Object

An unidentified flying object was reported to the sheriff's office last night by a South Danville mother.

Choosing to remain anonymous, she said she saw a very bright, white object in the sky over Tilton. It was traveling south, turned a bright red, then disappeared about 9:20 p.m.

She added that her 13-year-old brother saw it first. He called her from the house and they watched it disappear. "He was white as a ghost when he told me about it," she explained.

Another source reported similar sighting last week southwest of Westville but he, too, chose to remain unidentified.

TELEPATHY EXPERIMENT

Sir:

On the 11th of Dec. 1964 9:P.M. our group had just closed our meeting. From there we went to my Observatory to make an experiment. We wanted a Flatwoods Monster to appear in my room! About thirty minutes later, we saw a mysterious glow in my room that communicated with us by circling the mirror on my wall. This lasted for about half an hour. Hence, I am still shaken up over the incident. There were 5 witnesses, Four boys and one girl.

Norman Schreibstein

Sir:

I won't go into details, but in 1957 I saw a very impressive space craft. The night was very clear, this huge cigar-shaped thing was low over the hills along San Francisco bay and I watched it fly towards the moon at a speed impossible for me to calculate. As bright as the full moon and stars were on that unusually clear night, it was brighter, as it went up and out into space. This lead me to reading books about U F O'S and, fortunately, " DWELLER ON TWO PLANETS."

This news just in and released through the Associated Press.....

663 SIGHTINGS UNEXPLAINED ! ! ! !
The article went into great detail to try and convince the public that there were no such animals as FLYING SAUCERS. However it must be pointed out that if such be the case, why then should there not be an explanation of this number? I point this out because in the past The Air Force has always denied their existance and always came up with such excuses as clouds, birds, a plane or anything that would tend to ridicule the person who claimed to see a U.F.O.. NOTE..... read the article SAUCERS NOT HOSTILE in this issue. You will find that the same idea holds true.

C.B.S. - TV March 1, 1965 11P.M.

Announced over TV.... A man (location unknown) was visited by a Space Visitor Via a U.F.O. He was given 2 strips of parchment which he was unable to read, these he turned over to the Air Force. Mr. Butler, New York City

Saucers not Hostile Report of the Scientific Panel on UFOs

Released April 9, 1958, by Major
L. J. Tacker, U.S.A.F.

January 17, 1953.

1. The undersigned Panel of Scientific Consultants has met at the request of the Government to evaluate any possible threat to national security posed by unidentified flying objects ("flying saucers") and to make recommendation. The Panel has received the evidence as presented by cognizant Governmental agencies, primarily the United States Air Force, and has reviewed a selection of documented incidents.

2. As a result of its considerations, the Panel concludes:

That the evidence presented on unidentified flying objects shows no indication that these phenomena constitute a direct physical threat to national security.

We firmly believe that there is no residuum of cases which indicates phenomena which are attributable to foreign artifacts capable of hostile acts, and that there is no evidence that the phenomena indicate a need for the revision of current scientific concepts.

3. In the light of this conclusion, the Panel recommends:

That the national security agencies take immediate steps to strip the unidentified flying objects of the special status they have been given and the aura of mystery they have unfortunately acquired.

We suggest that this aim may be achieved by an integrated programme designed to reassure the public of the total lack of evidence of inimical forces behind the phenomena.

(Signed)

Lloyd V. Berkner, Associated Universities, Inc.

H. P. Robertson, California
Institute of Technology.

Luis W. Alvarez, University of California.

S. A. Goudsmit, Brookhaven
National Laboratories.

Thornton Page, John Hopkins University.

(The word inimical used in the last line of the report means "hostile." You will notice while they said the saucers were not hostile to the national security, they did not say the saucers did not exist. In fact, they implied that they do! It is also interesting to note that this five-year-old report has only just been released by the U.S. Air Force.—Ed.)

A POLARITY TESTER

This strange space craft passed over us at 10 East Avenue A, Nickerson, Kans. about 3 P.M. on June 28, 1957 at a height of about 500 feet. It was traveling slowly and silently, with the spindle horizontal (Fig.2). As it passed over Railroad Ave. it turned 90 degrees in straight flight so the spindle was verticle as shown in figure 1 and continued so, N.E.

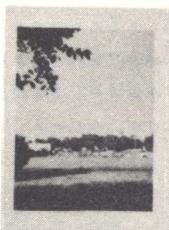

Fig. 2.

In June, Zagga of the Galactic Tribunal, incarnated here on Earth since about 1935, present at Buck Nelson's Convention near Mountain View, Mo. identified it as a polarity Tester, evidently manned, and it was checking the polarity of the Earth at the time, mid-year 1957. At the convention in June 1964 I had this write-up and photographs on display and Warren Bartling of St. Louis said he had seen a similiar one during the eclipse of the Sun July 29, 1963 along with about a hundred space ships of more conventional types. I have heard of none others like them.

JARCY'S 721 East 40 Street, Savannah, Georgia 31401.

At mid-year 1957, Dr. Harold Babcock of Mt. Wilson and Mt. Palomar Observatories discovered the Sun's magnetic field was reversing itself. The Sun was positive and all the planets were negative. The reversal began at the Sun's south pole and moved to the north pole by the end of 1957. It could cause the reversal of the fields of all the planets.

But, on March 29, 1962, George Adamski of Vista, Calif. was taken up in a space ship to the Counsellors Meeting of representatives of all of the twelve planets of this System on Saturn which is the Tribunal planet. There he learned that our bombing tests had not only upset the magnetic lines of force of the Earth but had affected those of the whole Solar System so the Sun would lose its pull on the planets and they would all drift away into black outer space. An astronomer reported that our years were growing measurably longer but others assured us that that occurred occasionally. Others say it will make no difference, the Earth will not do a "polar flip" nor will its magnetic poles be changed.

On Saturn, it was made clear that they could do nothing about it except to move out to another System and the exodus had already begun. The eleven other planets have a population of 141 billions (not counting Clarion) so all available space ships would be needed to transport them and their belongings. If there was time after that, the three billions of Earth would be taken last, as we were responsible for the catastrophe. Robert Renaud who writes his story for the U F O Int., Magazine was told by his space friends that Mars has a population of 3 billion and Venus  $3\frac{1}{2}$  billion so perhaps we won't have to wait so long if we look for the worst.

Dino Kraspedon of Brazil gives this hope.

He was told by the captain of a ship from Jupiter (really of Io and Ganymede) that such a calamity would occur and the positions of the minor planets would be changed.

The Earth would drift out to the old orbit of Maldek, between Mars and Jupiter. A second Sun would enter this system and we would have binary suns as many systems do. It is already on its way and was due to arrive 1975. Earthly scientists who say that would be impossible will find that the Captain has already declared that they are on the wrong track. However, he also said that Jupiter was not inhabited while Rev. Frank Standing Horse, now of Perris, Calif. says he was taken to Jupiter at Christmas time in 1962 to a great celebration there and found wonderful people enjoying themselves. He told his story quite fully at Nelson's place in June of 64' and described the Entronia Ship as being tubular, over a mile long.

A similiar one was seen on the dry lake bed south of Elsinore by several people who checked its length as two and a half miles.

I have given my lecture on " Flying Saucers and the Scriptures" several times at Nelson's convention grounds where we see so many space ships overhead during the evening. The few that do land and take Buck around the world or to unusual places on the Earth like it because the Earth's magnetic currents are favorable in the Ozarks. He has plenty of camping space and Route NN North of U.S. 60 west of Springfield leads right to his place. It is centrally located for the whole U.S. easy to reach from any direction.

SPIRITUAL HEALING... Maria Jimenez, 235 Rutledge St., Brooklyn, N.Y. fell down the stars of the building she was living in. She had fractured her leg and was kept in the hospital for 24 hours (Greenpoint Hosp.) on Jan. 10, 1965 after xray examination. During her stay.. a mass prayer by her spiritualist brothers and sisters for her recovery was made (conducted by Epraem Lugo, who is the medium for the group).

Two days later another xray was taken and the bones were found to be perfect. "A most unusual healing" said the doctor in charge.

It is fantastic to know that in the year of our Lord Jesus Christ 1965, persecution still persists. Word just in from Congonhas, Brazil that Jose Arigo was arrested and sentenced Oct. 22, 1964 to 16 months in prison. Charged with helping people or WHAT? He has helped 800,000 people and has accepted NO MONEY at any time!

WILL YOU BE ALIVE IN 1975?

BY GORDON COLLIER

When will the world strife end? Will there be one more world war? In what year shall we witness the advent of permanent peace on earth? Here is an astounding book that tells how the Masters have been foretelling the future through one man for the past 30 years. He has been predicting political trends, business cycles, natural and man-made catastrophies, rise and fall of important men, wars, revolutions, and new inventions, since 1930 and his forecasts have been unbelievably correct. Statesmen, financiers, diplomats, corporation heads, and thousands of lesser folk, have been amazed by the accuracy with which he pinpoints future happenings and the time when they will occur.

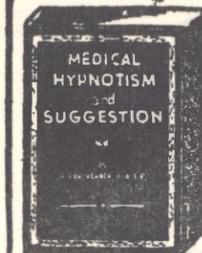

All authorities on world affairs are agreed on one thing -- that we live in a period of danger to all humanity. Never was there a time when an acknowledgement of the future would be of such value to you. These forecasts may save you many, many times their cost. This book may show you what line of business to go into for greatest profit. It may show you how to increase your life span by many years. We stand at the doorway of a new kingdom where each of us can be a king in his own right. Will you be ready to enter?

In order to reach the greatest number of people, the price of the book WILL YOU BE ALIVE IN 1975?, has been kept so low that anyone can afford it -- only $2.00. You may send remittance or order book on our free examination plan and return book if you are not delighted by it. If you decide to keep it, send us $2.00 plus 25¢ bookkeeping charges, within two weeks.

OUR GUARANTEE: So amazingly accurate are these predictions that we are willing to make you a proposition: IF ANY ONE of the forecasts in this book do not come true in the years ahead, then return the book at any time within the next five years for full refund of your $2.00.

But act at once. This edition will not last long. Mail your order NOW -- before you miss these important forecasts. Mail your order FLYING SAUCER NEWS - Dept. C.S., 119 East 96th St., New York 28, N.Y.

SIMMONITE-CULPEPER HERBAL

By William Joseph SIMMONITE and
Nicholas CULPEPER, 128 pages, 5 x
7 3/4, cloth, $2.95.

Three centuries separate these two physicians. Nicholas Culpeper was the most famous astrologer-physician of the early 17th century. He left as his legacy a vast collection of herbal remedies which are as invaluable today as they were 300 years ago. Use of the penicillin mold as a curative measure was a direct result of Culpeper's work. In the early 20th century, Dr. Simmonite used Culpeper's quaint original book as the basis for a useful modern book of folk and herb medicine.
