

THE GOLDEN DAWN

CITY OF THE SUN FOUNDATION

NUMBER 59
(Mar.-Apr. 1931)

GUIDANCE ON THE PATH.

We greet you warmly. First of all we would like to say, do not try so hard to make contact with the higher realm. Contacts are made when one least suspects, when one is quiet and the mind has been put to ease. Therefore, remain in an expectant mood and much more will be given unto you. Now, if you strain and push yourself, thinking that you must always be in a meditative state, this is not true. Perhaps once that was the way it was taught that you received messages through the higher self in the state of meditation, but we can no longer afford that luxury. Nor can the Students of Light spend their days in meditation. For the Father's business reaches down into the mundane, physical world as well as the spiritual. Remember that.

We are in the latter days, and it is now that we contact those who are on the Path. We contact them at any time, day and night. We do not contact them only when they are in a state of meditation. You could be driving along the road with your mind not particularly on what you are doing, and a seed will be planted, a thought, will enter your mind that you know is not your own. Or you may be sitting at your desk reviewing the papers that are upon it, not fully intent upon what you are doing, when you will hear the voice that soon becomes beloved to you, of your own personal initiator. So you see, you need not isolate yourself in order to receive these gems of wisdom, nor should you. Always remain receptive. We know that in order to conduct your business upon the earth that you cannot always be this way. We realize that, but the mind should not be allowed to run idle.

Now is the time for the Children of Light to purify themselves. This means that they are to release themselves from so much of the earthly contacts. This means withdrawal completely from any kind of narcotic, drugs, alcohol. This means conducting their lives in such a way that when they come face to face with their own personal initiator, they are ready. For if the forces within your own body are not purified and made ready, then no matter how much you desire contact, contact will not amount to very much. That is why the warning goes out to all those who desire further contacts with hierarchy that they must make their bodies into a temple, unto the God Most High, and it must be purified to receive this energy. It cannot be otherwise.

Never in the history of mankind since the continent of Atlantis disappeared beneath the ocean has mankind been so subjected to negative, destructive forces as it is now. You are now engaging upon that final battle between the forces of good and the forces of evil. This is a battle that is being waged at all levels of consciousness. It is being waged through advertising, the radio, television, the communications industry. It is also being waged by magicians of the dark forces psychically, against the Children of Light. Just as the dark ones turned the Atlantean crystal against the Children of Light to force them to attend to their evil ways, so now, are those same beings incarnated upon the planet and are again trying to force the Children of Light to their knees. This is being done by psychic manipulations. Those highly trained beings of darkness broadcast out subliminally with their minds to anyone and everyone. Those who are fully subjected to this find that they suddenly turn upon themselves questioning the fineness of their own beings. They are pulled down into the drug cultures and the alcoholic stupors. Government officials in every nation suddenly reverse their strong stand against the forces of evil on an issue and suddenly capitulate. This is because they are being bombarded day and night by the psychic suggestions to turn from the Light to the darkness. The Children do not know how to defend themselves. The Children of Light who are being subjected to this psychic bombardment need remember that the only way they can truly defend themselves, and can truly be numbered in Lord Michael's Army, is to devote their body temple to the use of pure, high energies in the fight against these forces. We are calling to all of the Children to be aware of what they put into their bodies because it tends to attract these psychic forces to them, and this is not good.

Who is this personal initiator of whom we speak? This is not simply a "guide". At one time this was fine. The guides have now been replaced with the concept of the initiator. In the quietness of the soul comes the initiator. He, who leads you by the hand, with a lighted lantern of wisdom held high, has been especially trained to work with you during this time of accelerated growth to bring you to the doorway of the Golden Age. He is your guardian, the protector of the Truth and Wisdom. Just as the initiator of old stood before the door to the temple of Inner Mysteries at the great temple at Giza, so now does the individual initiator stand at the door ready to unlock the inner mysteries of the soul. Step by step is each new revelation made known to you, as each new initiation is successfully passed. For the soul is tried and tempered in the fiery furnaces to be found acceptable unto the Father. The individual initiator comes from the Cosmic Christ to draw the Child back to the Universal Christ Consciousness.

And now Child of Light, you are ready to step upon your Path.

I am He who is known as Marius. And now good day.

S H T A R C O M M A N D C O M M U N I Q U E

In the beginning of the contact of the brothers from other worlds, there was great despair. Conditions upon the planet left little cause for rejoicing. Souls had lowered their vibrations so far beneath the original plan ordained for them by the Great Lord that their activities brought only sorrow to those who came to help.

With the passing of many cycles of time, there was a continual infiltration of souls from other dimensions who came into the fleshly form and walked the earth for the purpose of lifting its vibrations. This action of the Divine Plan lasted for many thousands and thousands of years, and continued expanding from time to time through many cultures and civilizations.

As one studies the past history of mankind upon the planet and learns of the individuals who played so prominent a place in that history, one is able to discern the identities of Light Beings. The advancements they brought, the enlightenment they shared, the inventiveness, the expertise, the inheritance they left upon the planet in every field of endeavor, speaks plainly of the origin of these great mentors and benefactors of humanity. Thus the upliftment went on.

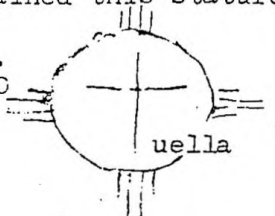

There were those who had come to offer their great abilities and wisdom, who were contacted on inner levels by those of other worlds. Often they were not aware of the source of their contact, or its nature, or the manner of its transmission and reception. They would accept the messages to be the voice of God and the guidance of God. But even then, so very long ago, there were those who were aware of these things and could look upon those who spoke with them, and beheld their countenance and perceive their appearance, and understand that one from a Higher Realm spoke with them and stood beside them. Since the dawn of time, there has ever been those souls incarnate who could consciously enter into fellowship and exchange of thought with the Watchers of the planet. World scriptures are filled with these incidents. Thus Light has penetrated, Light has expanded, Light has lifted the world in which you live.

Nevertheless, there always remains those who choose the darkness, those who refuse the Light, those who willfully refuse a better way to present themselves that they might become enlightened and open to the things of spiritual nature and outer space. We may not intrude upon their choices when the human will has so decided. For on the earth there exists the right of freedom of choice and the exercise of freedom of will. The other worlds do not have this arrangement. It is unnecessary for all hearts are in harmony with Light and the will of God, and the knowledge of God. No policing is necessary and there is no need of this freedom of wills in other dimensions, for all choose that which is best. All are so captivated by the Love of the Radiant One, and His Spirit, that they automatically do that which is the good, and choose that which is the best, and walk in constant Light.

Those who have totally surrendered their lives and their will into the hands of the Loving Father, have themselves moved beyond a point where freedom of will is the guidance of their lives. For though they remain incarnate upon your planet, they have advanced to that spiritual standard wherein their every desire and their every decision is in harmony with the mind of God. When a soul has attained this stature, then no longer does the law of freedom of will apply. When every act, every word and every thought is in harmony with the universe.

THERE IS NO FREEDOM THAT CAN COMPARE WITH THE FREEDOM TO DO AND TO BE THAT WHICH IS IN HARMONY WITH ALL OF LIFE THROUGHOUT INFINITY. I have desired to share these thoughts with all.

I am ASHTAR.

THE VIOLET FLAME

The Violet Flame is an activity of Divine Love. It is an aspect of the Sacred Fire and was first given to humanity by the Ascended Master Saint Germain for the purification of ourselves and the Planet fifty years ago.

As we know, Violet has the highest rate of vibration in the spectrum, and when we draw it through ourselves as the Violet Flame, it has the effect of raising the rate of vibration of our four lower bodies to the state in which no discord can exist.

Through our wrong thoughts and feelings we have imposed a black substance upon cells of our bodies which has caused the slowing down of the rate of vibration of the denseness of our bodies. In the beginning the Light shone through our flesh because there was nothing to obstruct it. We are now slowly getting back to that glorious state once again, and the Violet Flame will help us to do so. If we call the Violet Flame through ourselves it will LOVE US FREE. It will transmute the black substance we have imposed upon the electron, and allow the Light to expand.

On the outside of the Violet Flame it is Blue, which has the effect of cutting away the discord. Next comes the Violet which transmutes the discord; and in the centre of the Flame it is PINK which is LOVE. It is the Love within the Flame that prevents the purifying action from hurting us.

We should not forget Forgiveness, because this is an essential quality in the efficacy of this method of transmutation. We should forgive those who have hurt us and forgive ourselves for any distress we may have caused others, and for mistakes we have made in the past. This is necessary before we can expect the full benefit of the transmuting action.

If you would like to use the Violet Flame, first raise your consciousness to your own "I AM" Presence/Individuality, and then affirm:

The Violet Flame through me?
The Violet Flame lifts and raises me!
The Violet Flame Loves me FREE!

Then visualize and FEEL IT coming up through your feet and through your four lower bodies. It is necessary to do this regularly each day. Once is not enough!

I would like to say that I drew it through myself for many years regularly each day. I have SEEN It! I have FELT It, and I have SIBLT It! I know It's real! It is very beautiful!

It has helped me a lot in the past. I have visualized It going through parts of my body that have had the "appearance" of imperfection at times, with very good results. It has stopped pain, etc. etc. I have used it for others, and of course for our planet. You can visualize It through animals and also things and conditions. (SPECIAL NOTE: Several of us at The City of the Sun feel that the Violet Flame should NOT be used through OTHERS UNLESS they ask.) We should remember always to see Perfection and not the "appearance". This helps the manifestation of healing.

Of course there is Love and Upliftment in all the colours of the Rays, but the quality of the Violet Flame is specifically Transmutation and Freedom. Remember to see Light and Love taking the place of all that has been transmuted! Feel the Lightness that It brings, and let us feel that Glorious I AM Individuality/Presence above and around us, permeating our whole Being with Its Love and Light!

LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE.

Fy Chohan HILARICH

I speak to the Children of Light across the world. My message is this: That the Light you are is the only Light in this dark world today. The Spirit of Controversy, the Spirit of Criticism, the Spirit of Anxiety, and the Lack of Comprehension, are abroad among the Children of Men, wreaking havoc where they may. We ask you all to take thought as to your actions. We ask you all to take thought as to your words and deeds.

If there is any common ground which you can find on which to base your conversation and your ideas and ideals of teaching and working with others, then well and good!

If you cannot find that common ground of acceptance of anything at all in your experience, let that old adage to "Be as wise as a serpent, and harmless as a dove." be your guidance in this instance. There is no reason for you to raise any controversy in any mind at this time. There is no reason to boldly step forth and forcefully give out your knowledge, so that the ignorant ones have the opportunity to criticize and condemn and to act bigoted in any way whatever.

You know the Spirits of controversy and Bigotry do exist. Therefore, We ask you to Let your Light so shine that there shall be the gentle soft illumination of your Light in the corner of the world where you live. It is time for you to shine and let your beams of Light beam forth in softness and glowing beauty, to light up the darkness of whatever place you happen to be. You are the Light of the World. You are that Light which has come into the World.

If it so be that the Light you are shows gently to others that there is more of understanding, they will want it for themselves. If the Light you are shows to others that there exists fullness of Joy, Happiness and Light and Understanding and Knowledge - well and good! But at this time of the Changes, when the forces of darkness are rising to a concerted fury, out in the byways of the world, let your Light shine in your own place, right where you are. Do not excite controversy. Do not allow anyone to use any psychic attack against you. You know how to deal with such things. You know how to let your Light shine.

We must depend upon you, wherever you are, to be that Source of Energy and that Vortex of Power which we can use to empower and energize and blend with our own forces, so that the energies will assist to sweep back and contain the changes now rapidly coming about.

Blessings and Light and Love to all the Lighthouses and the Children of Light across this planet, wherever you may be.

INVOCATION

Light Thou, the Flame of Truth - within my mind.
Light Thou, the Flame of Love - within my heart.
Let me understand - the wisdom of Thy Eternal Plan.
Let me take my place - within Thy Plan and Purpose, Lord.
Amen

From Cosmic Light Foundation,

WORD OF LIGHT:

Steadily learn to draw more upon ENLIGHTENMENT from within. Let His Golden Light manifest through your understanding. Thus you will become reacquainted with us on the inner planes of your existence. You will realize WE ARE INTERNAL IN YOUR LIVES AND YOU IN OURS. We are of One Kingdom, One Spirit, One Purpose.

Do not fear this transitional process of your consciousness. It will cause new perspectives to occur, revealing in greater clarity the spiritual labours which your world-peoples are engaged upon. It will open up your understanding to a tremendous degree. You will be inspired and illumined by this great re-centering, for INSPIRATION and ILLUMINATION are the Two Angels of the New Age in Man.

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL

The Silver Lodge

Let there be Light, and everywhere Jesus went, there was Light.

Let not your hearts be troubled my friends. There is still Love, Beauty, Service to man, and many other good things in this world today, although half of it is in chaos. Spread Light and Love in your surroundings, villages, towns, cities, or countryside, wherever you can. Try to lighten other people's burdens. Listen to their troubles as they weigh heavily upon them, and try to dissolve all negative thoughts before they become real.

Keep the lips sealed unless the speech is good and uplifting. Try to do your best always, and radiate the Love out north, south, east, west - time and time again. Then We will multiply it and send it forth. You have to make the effort now to go into the new dimension. Unity and harmony are very essential.

BELLOVED MICAH

The Turquoise Chapter,

John said:

"That was the true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world."

The Light which He spoke of was no common Light. It was not the light of day which we behold, or even the light of reason. Neither was the Word, which He referred to, the common sound which we hear with our physical ears. The light was an inner light, a Divine Light, brighter than the effulgence of a thousand suns put together; the Word being the Music of the Spheres, the Divine Melody emanating from God and reverberating throughout creation.

ALL SUBSTANCE responds to LIGHT ENERGY, and WATER pervades all CREATION. Blessing your FOOD - blessing all THINGS, you will find their RESPONSE to your need quickened. The property - structure of WATER can be commanded to take on the ENERGIES beneficial to YOUR re-newing and quickening. (cellular) All that you partake of should be quickened by your conscious-thought-energy prior to taking it in. Holding a glass of water before drinking it, and calling upon the DIVINE PRINCIPLE to flow through you into the water you hold - will bring that water into proper balance for you INDIVIDUALLY. And as you drink this WATER you will become AWARE of its LIGHT SUBSTANCE, and you will KNOW that you drink the WINE that is the ELIXIR OF LIFE.

WATER, the GREAT MYSTERY, will reveal itself unto you!

VISITING THE SPACE SHIPS

"Good morning. I am Athena from the Ashtar Command and greet you in the Name of our Beloved Commander, Jesus the Christ. This morning we are going to take you up into the etheric and show you some of the ships that are anchored there. Leave your chair and relax yourself on the floor. I will wait"

As instructed, I gathered all of my energy into the head and shoulder area and let myself slip out through the head center, and realized myself standing erect. As with other etheric experiences, I was in a simple white robe with long hair hanging freely in a youthful appearance. My two escorts would be two of the blue angels who guard my home, while the third remained at his post to guard my physical form. I closed my eyes and placed my hands upon the arms of my escorts. A sense of great speed is involved in this upward sweep, and it is over very quickly.

As I opened my eyes we were entering a door at the top of the ladder into a small room. After a lifting sensation, a door opposite opened and we stepped into a control room. I immediately saw Athena, and my escorts withdrew. We were in a large area where it seems we were to be dispatched to one of the small ships. The larger area was apparently a kind of embarkation point within a very large ship. Three lower levels comprised parking area for all of the smaller ships. I could not guess the number. The walls had the appearance of annodized shiny metal, silvery in appearance.

We entered a small ship and bypassed the two lower levels, one in which the pilot and crew were housed. We arrived at a round observation platform at the top, from which one could see both upward and outward for an unfathomable distance. We occupied the very comfortable seats placed before a massive electronic panel with hundreds of controls. Athena spoke to the pilot through a microphone and I realized we were actually moving, although I commented that it hardly seemed we were. She laughed in musical tones and said we were traveling 7,000 miles an hour. We zoomed into the edge of earth's atmosphere and she began to explain the large screen in front of us. The first picture was a general map of the state of Maryland. Then with the flick of a button, another picture was superimposed over it and it became nearer in focus. The flick of another button brought in more detail. She focussed in Baltimore and I could clearly see Charles Center and the ships at dock in the inner harbor.

I saw the brightness of souls who served the Light. My home came into focus and I saw the glow of the angel guarding my form. Athena located my daughter's home, and her light was brighter than my form. Athena explained this was because I was out of my body. She taught me that every soul incarnate has an individual identifying ray or vibration in the ethers. In our world we have social security numbers, finger print files and identifying information from great central computers. In the etheric realms they can attune to, and identify, the ray beam of any soul with an electro-magnetic beam which instantly tunes in all of the records of that particular soul. I wondered if this explained what we refer to as the akashic records, and the statement of Jesus that "every jot and tittle" was recorded. Athena clarified by discussing the method they use. When the panel board "light" of any soul is activated, through prayer, or call, or devotion, identity is immediately made through the interconnected computers in lesser scout ships which are in turn connected with the Master panel which Athena monitors in the Mother Ship of the Ashtar Command.

We pivoted around above New York City. I was amazed at the density of the darkness surrounding it. The great clouds of negativity hung low and thick over the city in the panel board picture. Athena discussed the continual efforts of the Higher Ones to remove Light Souls from the area before returning Karma destroys the city. Most of our larger cities are in similar situations. We climbed high once again to return to the Mother Ship and my return home. Its appearance was long shaped and not circular. The radiations surrounding it appeared white in a scintillating vibration. After arrival there I was whisked back to my apartment in quick descent, filled with joy from the trip.

A MESSAGE OF THE INTERGALACTIC CONFEDERATION

Greetings Children of Light: Violent storms that you experience are a part of the new method for the protection of you on earth. We prefer a less violent method but we must do that which is necessitated by man's actions. Man ignores all the pleas from those of us who have put forth the words to alleviate these devastating conditions. Therefore, we must take any steps necessary to exterminate and bring under control the existing debris in your atmosphere. We pray also that the cataclysmic happenings will be as a warning to those who stand on the threshold of Light, wavering as to the right direction.

We can do nothing except to guide and direct you Earthians by thought, and to those who are attuned, by our words. Be steady and stable in positiveness, for we cannot reach you where there is the least vestige of negativity. We serve you, one and all, with a Love that is Pure and Divine. We would do all in our power to stand in your shoes, and in reality, go through the Tribulation for you if it were possible. You will look back upon this experience with no regrets, and a serenity that will astound you. All that has transpired so far in this final phase has been mild, and not even a sample of what lies ahead.

There will be those who will come over. Do see it as a blessing as it truly is. For many of the physical bodies are in such a state that we cannot do much toward conditioning them and bringing them into the higher frequencies without a severe shock to their systems. We would need much more time than we have to do this task. Many will be held in the realms above this planet. Many will be taken to other planets. As soon as your planet becomes habitable after the cleansing, they will be returned to continue their evolution under qualified teachers and instructors.

We regret that our stepped-up activities have kept us from bringing more channelings. We know the desire of all of you of disseminating all that we can bring forth at this time. We who operate the crafts above you have been given assignments to communicate certain information through designated channels by the Divine Director, the Architect of this magnificent Plan, our Celestial Brother, and His Echelon of Command. All Brothers and Sisters accepted their assignments with a deep, sincere, heartfelt Love for all mankind. Do not be swayed by the thoughts and impressions of others who are in darkness of the Plan of the Celestial Host, and would put forth the effort to create dissension amongst those who strive to walk in His Steps.

We close our beam at this time. We encompass you all in Our Love. A messenger under direction of Intergalactic Confederation. Adonai. Vassu.

THE REBUILDING OF THE TEMPLE.
(The Cell's Voice of Pain)

Our cells speak to us in the only voice they have to reach our consciousness - Pain. Pains are caused by toxins or poisonous gases, and by foreign exudates resulting from a tense state of mind due to wrong thinking. The toxins, or poisonous gases, are formed in the cells of your body by incorrect foods, fatigue, worry or self-condemnation. Man's wrong thinking may be classified as resentment, anger, bitterness, egotism, sarcasm, adverse criticism and hardness of mind.

When the foreign chemicals or exudates caused by wrong thinking are forced into the cells in which they do not belong normally, pain is the natural consequence. CONSCIOUSLY, we must now form new, better habits of eating and living which will someday rule us SUBCONSCIOUSLY.

Here are a few words about the "strain or pulling" pain. Different occupations require one to get in different positions. Perhaps we are required to stand long hours to which we are not accustomed. These pains are caused partially by resistance of the cells to the new standing position for so long. The shape and texture of the cells must change in order that they may accommodate themselves to the new way of living chosen for them. If you take the time to speak to your cells in a loving manner when you ask them to accommodate themselves to a new occupational position, you will find that they are much more willing to co-operate - with much less fatigue and pain. Bless them and apologize to them for what you have caused them to suffer.

This may be a new idea to you, but try it and see how soon the lessening of pain occurs. Try it, not once, but dozens of times until you set up complete communication with the Divine Intelligence in the cells of your Being. Say many times a day, "Aching cells of my Being, I bless you. I become receptive to your voice so that you can commune with me and inform me of your needs. I no longer resist your voice of pain. I Bless You! I Bless You! I Bless You!!

The pain caused by "deterioration" was given as the third factor resulting in pain. Deterioration of the cells results when the warning symptoms of discomfort and pain are ignored. Deterioration of cells is caused by the thoughts you think. Negative and destroying thoughts repeated over and over cause a breakdown of one cell, then two cells, then perhaps an entire organ or position of the body. Stomach ulcers are caused this way, so is cancer, diabetes, liver troubles and many other pain producing manifestations, indicating a state of dis-ease in the body.

Negative thoughts and a negative attitude toward life also provide the soil in which disease germs sprout and grow. All of these can be cleansed from the blood stream if enough changing the daily habits which we have is accomplished. Effort given to learning the laws of constructive, creative thinking is necessarily entailed.

Nothing is impossible with God or to the man who leagues himself with God. Nothing is impossible to the man willing to make the effort required to take the steps outlined and to wait for the great healer, Time, to do its part.

"What you are thunders so loud,
I cannot hear what you say."

THIS IS A DAY THE LORD HATH MADE - IF IT LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD!

Oh, my child, my children, all who may be reading these words: How we, thy teachers and thy guides do desire that this pronouncement may become a reality in thy lives!

If the day seemeth drab, it is thou thyself who hath made it so, not the Lord. I say, and I speak truth, each and every event or circumstance which arises to confront thee throughout this day can provide thee with a reason for rejoicing, impossible as at times it may seem.

Shackled as often thou art with self-considerations, know ye not that because of these seemingly adverse events and circumstances thou art being given an opportunity to rise above discord, ineptitude and apparent failure? It depends and depends only upon whether thou dost view these events and circumstances with thy man-sight or with thy God-sight. Close thine eyes to that which seemeth drab about thee, then with inner vision, thy God-self vision, behold the day that is before thee, not as thou thyself wouldst make it, but as the Lord hath ordained it to be in all its glory.

Great is thy responsibility, my child, that thou dost not lessen the glory of this day which thy Lord hath made. Thy daily task may be monotonous and thou mayest feel inept, but if thou wilt deliberately endeavor to find something in that task that thou canst enjoy, someone with whom thou dost work toward whom thou canst express understanding love, lo, thine ineptitude will become aptitude. Wilt thou not try this way for just one day?

And then there are those who may feel unloved. May it not be that because of self-centeredness, thy power to love hath become atrophied? Try loving everything about thee; send out a glow of warmth to the stranger who is passing thy gate, to all whom thou dost meet that day, even unto things that crawl and fly; then lo, there will come an hour when thy deliberate endeavor to love hath become a reality, and in that hour, my child, truly wilt thou be able to say, "This hath been a day the Lord hath made. In it I HAVE rejoiced and been glad."

TONGUE CONTROL

Wherein comes control
For this mighty outspoken warrior?
If not from the mind,
Then who quiets the furor?

Words fly at random
With no visible limitation;
Emotions run rampant
With spiteful, pointed connotation.

We must control these warriors
So that they not slay another.
They must be used to uplift,
And encourage and edify our brother!

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

The regular Members' Monthly Meeting, as well as the Annual Meeting of the City of the Sun Foundation were held January 10, 1981. Yearly reports were given, as well as reports of various standing committees. The annual election of officers was had as follows:

Trustees:

Thelma Terrell, Chairman	Austin Love
William Switzler, Vice-Chairman	Faun Homman, Treasurer
Connie Arnot, Secretary	Sarah Leonard
Wayne Taylor

Faun Homman will again be Membership Meeting Chairman. Eileen Schcen will be Secretary of the Membership Meeting. Mary Jane Switzler was again elected Secretary of the Foundation.

Sarah Leonard arrived from Miami, Florida. She has been busy settling in her mobile home.

Wayne Taylor took a short trip to Tucson and Eloy, Arizona to visit several friends. Wayne enjoyed a fine visit from Rev. Florence McGinley and a friend from the Chicago area.

Hilde Bloedow was overjoyed with a visit from her son, Deiter Queck of Canada.

Numerous people interested in Thelma Terrell's new book have been by to see her. Several were from the Solar Cross Group. They have come from California, Texas, Nevada and New Mexico.

Several other people - friends of residents here - have visited. The Deming area is always well represented with various friends.

Work is being done in the various yards and gardens getting ready for spring planting.

Preceding the Member's Meeting on February 14 a lovely Valentine Day luncheon was enjoyed by the community members. The food was delicious and the decor so attractive.

RESTORATION

The restoration and the restitution of all things are at hand. When the Prodigal Son came home, all that the Father had was his for the acceptance. So as we come home to the Father's House (in consciousness) all things are ours.

Also, its time we accept our complete inheritance which includes freedom from fear, limitations, sin, sickness and all disease. For we have all power over death, hell and the grave, and all negativities. Jesus gave us "all power over the enemy", so it behooves us to use our authority over the enemy, and not yield to the old concepts, traditions of the (church) age.

Too long has man suffered and died and gone via the grave, when Jesus, the Wayshower came to give us life, and that more abundantly. For He conquered death and He said, "We would do what He did, and even greater things shall we do."

FULL CIRCLE

I take from the earth, I take from the sky;
My life intermingles with forces from on high.
But now is the time for return of such things,
For to tithe back my gifts
Will put them on wings;
Soaring back to the source
Of all loving and giving,
A constant renewal of Life in the living.
So a circle we travel, and what do I see
But the tithes that I give
Returning back to me.

Happiness or unhappiness depends more on the way we meet events than on the nature of those events themselves.

A good thing to remember
And a better thing to do
To work with the construction gang
And not with the wrecking crew!
