A MEDITATION ON LOVE.

There is only one real love and that is pure love. Real love is non-possesive and boundless. That which the world calls Love is not really love at all but a contaminated semblance of the real. Confined Love is not Divine Love. The very fact that it is confined means that there is some degree of attachment. True Love can have no limits. To love your family, your religious group or your country is not sufficient for there is still an element of possessiveness in your Love. If your Love has still the tiniest element of possessiveness it cannot be pure Love. Your Love must not be of the mind for the mind confines. To love Jesus is not sufficient, but you must learn to love as Jesus loved that you may become Love.

To become Love is to become at one with God, to become Christed. Jesus was speaking as Love when he said "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me." There is no other way to God only through the power of His Love. This at-one-ment is atone-ment in which the Love within us makes us desire to try to make up to God for foolish things we have done in the past. It has nothing to do with punishment. True Love is of God and is God. It is Spirit ever living, ever moving. It seeketh its own and by what measure you can give Love, by that same measure it is returned to you again.

As the perfume of a rose is given to all, so must Love blossom. It cannot be confined but grows only in the giving. The Love of a man for a woman and a woman for a man is of the earth, and as with all things of the earth it must surely die in its season unless it is transmuted to the real. Love is a law unto itself. It is the highest of all laws and through it all other laws are superceded and transmuted. True Love is absolute and changeless. It can neither give hurt, nor yet receive it. The pain that we think is caused by Love is caused by the lack of it. The smallness of our Love causes the greatness of our pain but Love is merciful for it is very life itself, and those who have but little Love have but little awareness, little sensitivity, little life. The earth is like a drug to them and they sleep, troubled only in the dullness of their sleep by dreams that refuse to die.

To be born of Spirit is to be born again of Love - to experience the growing pains of the consuming of the old as it is uprooted and transmuted by the flame of Love. Those who know rejoice for they have heard God's voice. They see this life as Hell when Love removes the spell. And they who were the Sons of Men can never be the same again. The world will call them strange and odd, reborn to be the Sons of God - the Children of the Light.

Throughout the land in the closer circles of awareness, ponderous messages of urgency are coming forth. The astral levels are also aware of these coming emergencies and are actively contributing their portion of chaos. We desire to warn many to challenge the spirits and to discern their source. Weigh all messages carefully, and blend your confirmations one with another. Be not taken unawares by strange voices or hurried messages of doom.

All of our own, who walk within the Great Light and serve with us in the will of the Great One, are watched over one by one and protected with guidance at all times. Fear must not enter the heart of any of God's little ones!

You are strategically placed to shine your confidence and faith as a Light to those who lack that dimension of awareness. Therefore, now is an important time to be strong in your witness of Our presence and the faithfulness of the Radiant One. It is the demand of the times that proofs and material evidences be given, but no greater proof hath any man than the shining aura of faith and Light with the detailed guidance upon the pathway of those who abide in the shadow of God! Let those who demand the physical things mock as they will our beloved brothers and sisters upon the earth who shine as great beacons in the darkness, and their presence there has long held off many disasters said to come. Inevitable changes due to natural and cosmic laws must come, but our diodes of Light remain therein.

Listen carefully to the still small voice of God within you and follow your own inner awareness. Seek the personal witness within thy being. Know thyself and the splendor that is within thee and no harm shall befall thee. A Great Light has come upon the planet and a Great Influence toward that Light accompanies it in the months that follow in 1982. You will sense this Light and feel its influence in all of your ministries and service.

Now is the time when the Stars shall sing for joy, but the darkness will comprehend it not. Awaken the angel that is within thee and reach for the inheritance that is already thy very own. Become that which you already are, radiant Sons and Daughters of the Most High. Hold fast to all that has been told thee, and be in Peace.

PSYCHIC WHACKS AND THE BOOMERANG EFFECT.

Most of us would never intentionally commit an overt, harmful act against another person. Yet every day each of us probably delivers at least one psychic whack to someone we've had contact with. And those psychic whacks we deliver have a way of coming back to haunt us.

What, pray tell, is a psychic whack? Thoughts are real, tangible energies. Thoughts have power. A psychic whack is simply a negative thought about someone else. A driver cuts in front of your car, a grocery clerk is rude to you, a friend keeps you waiting, someone you have contact with is ill-mannered, a co-worker is uncooperative, and you have even a fleeting negative or angry thought about it. Whack! And each time you remember it or dwell on it with the same negative feeling attached to the incident, you give the person involved another whack. You do it. I do it. We all do it. But it's wrong. It does nothing to correct a bad situation and often makes it worse.

In psychology we learned that a good therapist is warm, accepting, non-judgmental, and non-evaluative. It strikes me that a highly evolved person - which is what we are all striving to be - is also warm, accepting, non-judgmental and non-evaluative.

What right do we have to be critical of anyone else's action or path? Each person has the right to choose their own path. It is, after all, their path, not ours. Even when we see pitfalls in their path, while we can point out those pitfalls if asked, we have no right to criticize or judge the person for choosing that path. That's his right. He's choosing the path necessary for his growth. Each of us has a right to make our own mistakes. How else can we learn?

The last thing which that person needs is someone making his path more difficult by giving him psychic whacks. Then the person not only has to deal with learning from the problems in his path, but also has to deal with our criticism, our anger, or our bad vibes which we have contributed to the situation. We had an opportunity to lift that person into the light, to send help - but, instead, we chose to send a psychic whack.

We all get angry from time to time. We all experience hurt or frustration. We all see actions we don't approve of - actions which make life more difficult for us or for someone else. In such cases, it is hard not to give psychic whacks. But no matter how angry or hurt you are, do you really want to harm someone else?

I have a strong sense of right and wrong, a strong social conscience. When I see someone harming another person or denying his rights as an individual, I get upset. I get angry. I also have a harsh temper. So when I'm angry, I am sure that the vibes I send out are something fierce. When I catch myself doing this, I remind myself "You're hurting this person. You are not helping this person grow or change, but only pushing him down. Come on, now, repair the harm you've already done, and try to do something constructive, rather than destructive."

What we are to remember is that there is part of God dwelling within everyone we meet. No matter how unpleasant or corrupt that person might seem, there is a God-self within him and he is on his path of growth.

The Bible tells us, "In as much as you have done it unto the least of these my brothers, you have done it unto me." What we do to the people we have contact with - to the God-self within those people - we have done to God. "I gave God a psychic whack. Oh, my."

That passage also refers to "the least of these my brothers." But with regard to psychic whacks, we tend to be non-discriminatory. We whack out at a best friend or a family member as quickly as we whack a careless driver, a grocery clerk, the President, the school system, or a police officer who's given us a ticket. In the system of psychic whacks, there is equal opportunity for all. And it is equally damaging no matter who we whack. The only thing that influences the impact of a psychic whack is the strength of the emotion behind it. The more anger that is felt, the stronger the whack.

I belong to a couple of mystical organizations which are attended by many highly evolved people. I am frequently shocked when I hear some of these highly evolved people criticizing or judging the actions of others. It's wrong. They shouldn't do it. They don't have the right to do it. And neither do I. Each time I am shocked each time I judge the person making such a comment to be self-righteous and harmful, I am falling into that same trap. I am delivering a psychic whack.

Psychic whacks not only hurt the person you have whacked, they also hurt you. Each time we have an unkind thought about someone, part of that thought - and the negative energy in that thought - boomerangs back to us. Karma is an interesting thing. You're not supposed to enjoy someone else's negative karma. If you do, you earn part of it for yourself.

How many times have you thought, "Just wait, he'll get his. Ha, ha, ha!" Or "I hope someday somebody does to you what you have done to me." Or "That's what she gets for doing thus and so." Congratulations! You have just bought yourself a portion of that person's karma.

While it is true that part of your thinking might be that the person needs a particular experience for his own personal and spiritual growth, face it, part of you wants that person to be punished. "That person hurt me, and he ought to be made to feel the kind of pain he's caused me!" That might be true. That might be what the person needs for his growth. But you don't have to wish that fate on him. If the person has earned that karma, it will happen. And if you have grown enough from your own experiences, you should have compassion for that person that he will have to suffer the same pain he caused you. When you lack this compassion, when you enjoy his negative karma, you share that karma with him. You have earned a portion of that karma.

What can we do to avoid delivering psychic whacks? We can be aware of what we are doing - what we're saying, what we're thinking - and of the effect it has on other people. When we have negative thoughts about someone, we can cancel them. When we get angry, we can try to neutralize that anger - to lift the person into the light rather than pushing him or her farther down. When we deliver a psychic whack to someone, we can go back and try to repair the harm we've done by sending love to the God-self within the person we've harmed. We can try to have more understanding and compassion towards the paths of others. We can be more tolerant. We can try to reach such a degree of peace within ourselves that the negative actions of others have no more effect on our emotions than raindrops falling on the ocean. A tall order. But we can try.

ASCENDED MASTER MESSAGES AND MESSENGERS.

With the assistance of MOTHER MARY.

Sometimes the members of the various churches and organizations which claim to represent the Ascended Masters and their teachings do not even know that more than one such organization exists. The material that we receive from the several messengers, currently active, often agrees both in overall idea and specific terms used and techniques advocated; but differs in many ways, especially in that subtle quality, the mood or tone, the emotion that underlies the words. When people become aware of this multiplicity of revelation their reactions naturally vary. Some express an innocent delight in variety; others suspect that the messages received from organizations other than their own are the works of imposters, members of a fallen hierarchy. People of this latter view may even say that they can discern the mark of the imposter in nuances alone, if no major differences are apparent.

A fallen hierarchy may indeed exist and may be active, but we need not attribute to them even the irreconcilable differences in the various revelations. Our common error is to suppose that an Ascended Master dictation gives to us a direct access to the Master's words, ideas, and feelings, as if no intermediary had been involved. If we would think for a moment we would realize that the accuracy of the message depends entirely upon the clarity and receptivity of the channel, the mind of the messenger. The subconscious mind of the messenger must express the thought of the Master, a thought beyond words, in our earthly language with its many limitations. The Master must choose his words and phrases from those that the subconscious mind of his messenger offers to him. He is limited to concepts that the subconscious mind of the messenger can comprehend. Moreover, he must express his elevated feeling through the medium of the human feelings of his messenger. A single obsession, or fear, or anxiety present in the messenger's subconscious mind, can distort or color the message drastically. The clarity of the messenger's mind can vary from day to day. Even in the best instance the message received must differ from that which had been intended.

True religion attaches great importance to the purity of the heart and mind of a would-be prophet. The disciple must endure a lengthy journey of spiritual growth before the Christ can fully uplift and illuminate his subconscious mind. If ever we would strive to be messengers to ourselves, and seek an inner guidance, we would experience how greatly our limitations hinder our Inner Guide.

We cannot hope to realize the Truth behind the many revelations without sincerity and a humble knowledge of our own inadequacies. We must carefully scrutinize every message that we receive, even from a messenger whom we trust, and compare its content with what we know of the Christ within. We can form no absolute conclusions. The revelations challenge us to grow in our own Divine awareness, else we would not know what to believe, or we would believe blindly. Ultimately the messages must serve us as a means and an invitation to communicate with Ascended Masters directly. Ultimately all religions and prophets and churches must be means to the end that we ourselves shall be one with Truth. If they are not this, they are nothing.

MOVING INTO A NEW STATE OF CONSCIOUSNESS.

Suns of Light, rapid changes are occurring on Planet Earth in preparation for the advent of the 'New' Age of LIGHT. These changes are observed both on the physical level and on the spiritual level. Many transformations are going on, on the surface of the Planet - weather changes affecting both land and sea, slight deviations of the world's axis, and atmospheric changes. None of this must alarm a Pure Sun of Light for you must remember that all IS in Divine Order and nothing transpires which is not for the ultimate GOOD of the Planet and of the TOTAL UNIVERSE.

Spiritually there are also many changes as well as 'new' attitudes being adopted. Unquestionably the Divine Will is also Master of these changes - that is why you are observing certain groups in their downfall while others appear to be progressing. We speak here primarily of the 'New Age' Groups rather than the 'Old Age' religious organizations. At this time in history the Realm of Light is impressing the pure Consciousness of 'man' with a discriminating mind in order to 'sift' out the false ideas from the true ones - whenever a Planet experiences an active period in Its history, as Earth is now doing, the dual Forces must show the dark as well as the Light, as each one learns to discriminate between the two. My Suns it is SO important for each of you to discover your own Inner Guidance and not depend solely on the Realm of Light to decide things for you. We can be with you, We can inspire you - but you - your Expressive Self must make the final judgment regarding the true and the false..

In this accelerated time on your Planet you are finding many, many teachings being given world-wide. Many are compatible with TRUTH, BUT My Suns, many are not, though they are cloaked in what appears to be 'pure garments'. When you read or hear the various Teachings consider their source. Are the Channels for the Teachings living exemplary lives - or do they embellish their teachings with personal data which are ego-motivated? Beloved, Pure Messengers of Light, speaking from the Cosmic Realm, ALWAYS REFRAIN from flattering the receiving channel!!! Pure Messengers give Messages through the earth channel which will benefit the Spiritual life of all the Students who study the Lessons. No time is wasted on 'complimentary' remarks which would only serve to inflate and exploit the human ego. Blessed Ones, the Realm of Light (the only PURE Source of Spiritual Teachings) speaks NOT about physical altars or Centers, but speaks totally about the INNER CENTER OF ACTIVITY - the pure INNER ALTAR within each one. The outer meeting place can be a humble shack, a tree, a sand dune OR a mansion. It is not important. What IS important is the beauty and purity of the INNER TEMPLE - THE GARDEN OF PEACE!

Earth Beings must transcend all outer forms of spiritual experience if they are to rise into Pure Spiritual Awareness. Remember you are moving into a Pure State of Spiritual Consciousness which is totally disconnected from the 'object' world. You must NOT begin to detach yourself from the many man-made temples and ideas. You must accept PURE LIGHT as the only Temple - as the only Law! This 'old' age has been one of rapid movement - many lessons were learned - many experiences lived - many changes wrought as the Sojourners travelled on their Way to the Summit of LIGHT.

And without doubt there are the thousands who made no progress to speak of and they are the ones living in dread, and perplexed at the earth changes they observe occurring. These are the stubborn ones who cling to the 'old ways' and embrace religions made by man. It will require other lives, other experiences to 'change their hearts'.

Suns of LIGHT, you are the 'chosen' people. I say 'chosen' but I must explain what this means. Contrary to the general interpretation of a 'chosen people' what WE of the Realm of LIGHT, mean is that YOU HAVE CHOSEN THE PATH OF LIGHT - so you are a chosen people! Let Me emphasize that ALL BEINGS HAVE THE SAME RIGHT - BUT MANY CHOCSE A DIFFERENT WAY so then they cannot be designated as a 'chosen people' of LIGHT. It is important that all Beings understand that Father-Mother God (Universal Light Energy) gives EQUAL rights and freedoms to all entities - and even when one chooses a 'lesser' way to travel still that One continues to be loved and cherished and blessed by the Realm of Light: Father-Mother-God Light. And whenever that one chooses to release himself from the 'lesser' way becoming a Disciple of Pure Light, he too joins the ranks of 'the Chosen People'.

Divine Blessings pour forth on Planet Earth in these changing days as LIGHT and Love extends from the Realm of LIGHT purifying all Receptive Souls.

TAKING CARE OF FEAR.

People of the Earth are immobilized
With the strongest emotion of all,
This is the one of "Fear" and "Dread"
Which causes many of us to fall.

So let no worry claim you.
KNOW GOD DOES EVER CARE!
You do not need to become afraid,
HE WILL YOUR BURDENS BEAR!

KNOW you're under God's protection -
One for whom Christ came.
Claim your precious Sonship.
Henceforth you'll never be the same!

Bask in His tender mercy!
Visualize His Perfect Love.
Accept these gifts He daily offers,

As often as fear raises her head
PROCLAIM within your heart
I AM GOD'S BELOVED CHILD!
Then fearsome feelings will depart!

Once again we have the privilege of printing an unpublished message of ANNALEE SKARIN. It is too lengthy to go in one issue and will be given in probably three parts.

WALK IN THE LIGHT.

You say that sometimes the effort seems so great you wonder if it is worth it. That is a very good question. Perhaps it is easiest to answer it this way. Can you lose anything by trying? Surely there is nothing to be lost, and glory and peace and unspeakable joy and light and happiness and power to be gained. If life is a miserable thing of darkness and despair as it takes its tribute from you of the years, why let it continue to do so. Every minute of living should be paying a tribute to us of the things we have earned from it. And by that I do not mean money. After you have worked so long on this, after you have had the feel of it, caught the vision it contains, felt the light and glory of it, you could no more drop it than you could stop breathing. But there are few who can stand the test of knowing. Life was never meant to be a drab, hopeless thing of despair. These things are so divinely beautiful. They are so unspeakable in their grandeur, so eternal and magnificent in their scope that there are no words to describe them. They can only be felt.

Is it worth it? Why wade in deep mud when you can travel a highway of Light. Why walk in darkness when it is your right to step forth and "Walk with God" - not just for an hour, a day, but every moment of existence.

Stop worrying about the doubts and fears, and from here on just take hold of Light, and hold to that Light. I want so badly to take you by the hand and lift you up into the light, but YOU must travel the road so that you will understand it thoroughly - so that you can reach out to lift others from the darkness and the night. Is it worth it? Just one hour of living in this divine light of love and peace and glory is worth all the struggling that is possible to give. It is all so wonderful.

Yes, this work is true. All one needs to do to know of its truth is to live it. It is strange but only the most spiritual can grasp these divine truths that have been before our eyes always, for anyone who denied these books would also have to deny the scriptures, for all they do is throw the spotlight on the most inspired words of these precious, glorious books.

I wish I could share with you only a few of the letters that have come in from various parts of the earth - letters that testify of the great blessings that have been given to those who have caught the vision these books contain, and have begun to apply them in their lives. Conditions that have been impossible have been changed utterly, and joy and light fills hearts that were filled with despair - and these great blessings of vision and light are no more imaginery than is the electric system that lights our houses. These joyous conditions are not a fancy, nor a momentary bit of enjoyment, but they increase continually and become ever more real and beautiful.

God has asked that we reason with Him. Tell Him your problems. Discuss them with Him, in detail at first, until you learn to know just how close He is, then it will only be necessary to turn to Him with a thought - and at last you will understand the scripture, "Before they speak, I Will hear." But to get that perfect contact, you must learn to talk to Him about anything that troubles you. Do it freely, with all the love you possess, and as you do it, begin to realize that you have found that contact that will gradually set you free - free you from every difficulty, all darkness, all pain, all ignorance, all confusion - for you will KNOW God. Now, as you learn to talk to Him, through your own heart, your confidence will grow and your joys increase.

You ask what happens to your children if you could fully apply these teachings. That would be the greatest possible blessing you could give them - they would grow up without discord and confusion in their lives, or under the Millennial Law. You could surround them in such love and peace that nothing could hurt them, and so that these principles would be a very part of their lives before they accumulated a million tons of negatives that would have to be unlearned later. They would receive the blessings right along with the parents.

As you learn to take hold of this Light you will know that it is life - and that it is truly "LIFE MORE ABUNDANT", or Life so filled with joy and energy and power that one forgets what it was ever like to be tired. Those are conditions which we have long ago forgotten. The "second wind" can be contacted at all times, and give that breath of life - giving energy at all times and under all circumstances.

Cultivate that song of faith and joy until it becomes an actual part of you. When you find it slipping from you, then just turn your mind and lips and heart to praising the Lord. Worship and adore Him. Love Him with your whole soul, and as you do this you will find that the darkness has vanished and you are walking again in the Light. These precious keys of glory and happiness are ours to use always and forever. They open the portals to the realms of Light and no one can ever take them from you. Only you can use them for yourself, and you are the only one who can let them rust from disuse. They are yours to use from this day henceforth and forever. Guard them well. Use them often. Love them and thank God for their power and with their use know that there need be no more dives down into the dark pit of darkness and despair. You immediately can surmount all darkness and banish it from your life, and know that as surely as you hold to the path of Light it will increase for you until you are filled with light and comprehend all things. You will walk in the Light of God and His glory, and His love will enfold you, and His power will be over you, and before too long the keys to use that very power for His glory and the benefit of man will be added to you also.

There are moments when it is difficult to hold to Light, but that is what is meant, "He shall be filled with light, and comprehend all things and there shall be no more darkness in him." That is our work. We ourselves must eliminate the darkness, every thought, every word, every vibration of fear, worry, despair, or confusion. "We must cast out all jealousies and fears." For hundreds of us the jealousies are not even there to cast out, but the fears, the darkness is there - and when we can cast it from us regardless of all outer conditions, then we shall be filled with eternal Light, we shall become a very part of the great Light and comprehend all things. We shall walk with God, and all power will be subject unto us, "Both in heaven and on earth, the Light and the Life, the Spirit and the Power." This promise is so huge in its scope it is almost impossible to fully comprehend. Down the years mankind has been sitting idle waiting for God to pour out Light and glory upon them - asking Him continually for His blessings, begging and pleading to Him for gifts, and it is in our hands to receive, even as Paul said, "I lay hold of the best gifts."

If you wish to follow the vision, that will be up to you. No one can gain it for another. God Himself will become your teacher as you follow the Light - and perhaps at times I will be permitted to share with you some of the great, unspeakable things that are too sacred to write or be given in the books, for they can only be shared with those who begin to apply these glorious truths in their lives.

Whenever you feel yourself stepping down into that dejected attitude you mentioned, just begin to sing. Sing songs of praise to the Lord - sing glory and praise and send it out across a universe to glorify Him, and the angels will join and multiply your song of praise until it will play a melody on the stars - leaving light and glory and peace across the wide expanse of eternity.

Sing in your soul, and in moments of discouragement. Sing at your work, in your home, in your garden, to yourself, to your family, to the birds and the flowers. It doesn't matter. Just sing! And with your singing will come that contact with the Holy Spirit of Almighty God that will banish darkness and enfold you in love and light and glory.

Now is the time! This moment - live it in glory! Love it! And the moments will turn into days and the days into weeks, and the weeks into a life glorifying God. But you do not need to worry about the life ahead, stand with God this moment and feel His Light and love pour its great power down through you - out to your family, your friends, to a world - to heal and bless and enlighten.

The greatest sermons preached have never been put into words, but are the righteous desires, the great love, the compassionate kindness pouring forth from a human heart, and they will be heard by those whose hearts and souls are in tune to receive. And those who aren't - well, they will be prepared to receive in time, just by the very glory of the things you feel in your heart.

SPECIAL NOTICE for those who receive this issue of the Golden Dawn No. 65 by MARCH 10, 1982.

We have just been sent a tape from a friend in another Light Group which gives two messages - one by Lord Gautama and one by Lord Maitreya.

At 12:00 P.M. Pacific Standard Time, and continuing for one twenty-four hour period (1 day) the Christ Consciousness energy will be increased and more securely anchored or grounded. The talks suggest that all interested Light Workers join in the meditation several times during the 24 hour period. Consciously accept these Christed energies and send them out in blessing to the planet.

They further suggested that at the beginning of the period on March 10 your meditation be started from 5 to 10 minutes ahead of the hour. (At the City of the Sun this would be 5-10 minutes before 1:00 P.M. Each person does according to their own time zone.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

On January 16, 1932, the regular Annual Meeting of the Members of the City of the Sun Foundation was held after the January Members' Meeting. Faun Homman, Wayne Taylor, William Switzler, Mary Jane Switzler and Sarah Leonard gave special reports of the Foundation Work for the past year.

Faun Homman had been chairman of the members' meetings for some years, and appreciation was given to her for her faithful guidance of the monthly meetings. Wayne Taylor was chosen as new Chairman, with Maurice Hastings as Secretary.

The annual election of the Trustees of the City of the Sun Foundation was held. Those elected were:

Sarah Leonard, Chairperson
Mike Webber, Vice-Chairman
Wayne Taylor, Secretary
William Switzler
Austin Love
Faun Homman
Connie Arnot.

Faun Homman was again chosen Foundation Treasurer. Mary Jane Switzler was elected to serve as Secretary of the Foundation.

Helen Webber was asked to be the community hostess.

New improvements for the City of the Sun have been detailedly discussed, and the plans accepted by the membership. As this is being written some of the improvements are coming into being. One of the projects is a small mobile home donated to the Foundation by Elvin and Althea Noel. It has been moved and is being refurnished and will serve as a guest house.

Two "helping couples" are here this winter. Joy and Trevor Rowe of New Zealand returned. Also, David and Blanche Harrison of Nevada/California are here sharing their talents. You cannot know the encouragement it gives to all of us to have such people enter into our fellowship in so many helpful ways.

Ruth Love found it necessary to be in the Deming Hospital for awhile. To remain nearby Austin Love stayed most of the time too in Deming. They have just returned to their home in the City of the Sun.

In January seven of our group journeyed to El Paso, Texas, to take in a concert given by the internationally known singers, Robert Hale and Dean Hilden. Enjoying the treat were Trevor and Joy Rowe, Mike and Helen Webber, Sarah Leonard, Connie Arnot and Robert Hale's mother, Olie Mae Hale.

HELPERS WE.

When the new year starts, what do we say?
"Help me Lord on my way?"
Or - "I'll help you Lord what 'ere you say."
It's not a question of our love
But what we contribute to the plan above
That matters in the scheme of things
And helps the New Year fly by on wings.

To All with whom I come in contact.

From this moment on I AM pure Light
In the presence of God, my Father.
In my going out and my coming in
I AM the Christ within me now.

AUM.
