BE YE NOT DECEIVED

Just as the drama of Life and Death, good and evil, negative and positive was played out upon the steps of the pyramids, and later the ball courts of Atlantis and the Mayan Empire, so it is that Quetzalcoatl and Tezcatlipoca (Life and Death) play out their roles once more upon the stage of life on Planet Earth. However, no longer is it Quetzalcoatl and Tezcatlipoca, but we now find new players upon the stage: alien players who play for the life or death of Planet Earth. The Planet Earth has now become that electromagnetic ball of plasmic energy being tossed between the two opposing sides, while the inhabitants of the Planet Earth look on as chaos is seen all around them. They look on hopelessly, little able to understand the immensity of the warfare that wages around them, seemingly indifferent to it at times.

Children of the God Most High, I come to you tonight on a most urgent mission of warning. There are aliens among you in person and in your heavens at this very moment, contacting earth channels. These aliens are not of the Light, but imitate it, giving facts, but slightly warped facts. Beware the subtlety involved! These aliens are maneuvering to take over the Planet Earth. They plan to destroy the Children of God and subdue all others under their hypnotic forcefield. Planet Earth would become a captive planet. They are advising the unwary through dreams, and through their voice channels that mankind has forfeited his Free Will. They are advising the people that they will need to bear arms, and above all that they must cancel out any previous moral or ethical training and listen only to THEIR commands, and that they should no longer uphold the Light for Planet Earth.

I say to you NAY! Arise into your Christ Selves now and hear the truth. Mankind has not lost his Free Will and NEVER can that Free Will be interfered with, or discontinued under any circumstances. Those that tell you otherwise be it in the dream state or telepathically, are lying. Never can an alien forcefield - alien to a planet - inflict its ways and means upon that planet without grave penalty. Cosmic Law is involved here. Do you not see, Beloved Ones? These forces through trickery are trying to take away from you the very thing that makes your world so unique and beautiful, that makes you STRONG - that God Given Free Will. Indeed, the minute you give up that Free Will, then indeed you can be defeated. Therefore, defend with your Light and your Life the RIGHT to Free Will on Planet Earth. We can defend and protect you just so far, then it must be up to you, using your Free Will.

That you are being advised of the necessity to bear arms is also erroneous. We are not speaking of any earthly government action here. We are speaking of an alien communication. The Children of God NEVER should bear arms against one another. We are familiar with the wars on your planet but we are saying to you, we of the Christ would NEVER ask you to bear arms one against another. We ask you to use your good judgment in this and all other situations as they arise. Stay constant to the moral and ethical codes with which you were raised. Stay true to the Master Christ Himself. He never advocated the bearing of arms, nor do we. If you receive thought messages such as this, know them for what they are - an attempt by an alien race to subtly destroy your Light and to turn you against that which is true within. Oh, yes, they say to check with the Jod Within. Of course. Did we not tell you that they were the imitators? The final Battle of Armeggedon is in full fury as the peoples of Earth war among themselves, while the heavens nearest the earth are full of the fury also as Lord Michael and The Lord's Hosts fight a winning battle against the hordes of darkness that fill the lower astral, spilling into your third dimension.

We cannot have the Children of Light distracted from their true purpose and that purpose is to hold the balance of Light for the Planet. What would you say if I told you that the Dark Forces, knowing of each Child of Light, will cause those Children of Light to be destroyed by those so-called children of light who have been misguided in their "supposed" direction to use those arms. Diabolical isn't it? Frightening! Well, Dear Hearts, all is not well on Planet Earth. Which will it be a darkened planet with a captive humanity, or will you allow the Christ freedom to declare His Own and to claim the Planet for His Own? You hold the decision within your hands in how you react to the messages coming from Space. Challenge every message. Challenge every source. No true sources of light will ever be angry over a challenge, but will respond with Light and Love. Challenge so that you may be very clear. This is a matter of Life and Death. Entrapment and destruction of your soul's Light lies as a pitfall if you are not careful.

However, Hearts of Light, there are those from many galaxies who are in your skies also on a mission filled with the Christ Love for mankind. It is our fondest desire that man may evolve into the Christed Being that he truly is. We are ready to serve you to that purpose. We cannot interfere with your Free Will. In fact, many of you will use that Free Will as to whether you choose evacuation or not, should that become necessary. Many on the other hand will have no choice as their souls must, of necessity, pass through this time of tests and tribulation, but the Father/Mother God will not forsake them. Out of their tribulation will arise new leaders and a new world nation, ready to accept peace and brotherhood at planetary level as well as at the solar level, as Earth is welcomed back into the Confederation where it has always belonged.

Therefore Dear Hearts of Light, hear my love and concern for your welfare with your innermost hearts and be more discerning. This is no time for gullibility. Do not give away any of your power or freedom to someone or something, just because they tell you they are from another planet or some sort of hierarchy. Theirs is not the truth. Remember always to walk in the Light of the Christ Consciousness and let His Will be your Will. That way, you will walk safely through all the pitfalls that lay ahead, and there are many.

God Bless You all with His Light, Life and Love.

Ambassador to the Intergalactic Council.

A FURTHER WORD ABOUT EVACUATION AND THE SO-CALLED
"REAPPEARANCE OF THE CHRIST"

While plans are going ahead for planetary evacuation, they are going ahead on a "Crisis Basis" only. Man with his Free Will has the option to stay the Hand of the Lord. While the hour is extremely late, we have not given up hope that man will yet realize the immediacy of his peril both to himself and the planet and come into alignment with his Christ Being. However, should there be planetary warfare then the Hand of God will be stayed no more and we will have to rescue our Light Servers for theirs is not the destiny to witness the full cleansing.

Between now and December 30th, will be the crucial testing period. The Children of Light have already rallied and are holding the Light for the Planet from the earth plane. They are doing a marvelous job of it against all odds. Without their Light, Love and concern for human brotherhood, the Planet would be in far worse shape than it already is. We ask you to continue to beam and broadcast the White Light to the Planet and its inhabitants. Use Lord Michael's Ring Pass Not of Blue Flame to surround the physical earth in His protection. Project the Violet Transmuting flame into all unstable situations, that negative karma may be dissolved. Thus you will aid us in our continuing efforts to stabilize the planet. Without your constant and faithful help we could not go on. It is your choice, using your Free Will, to invoke Heaven's help. However, if you withdraw your support of the Light you will cause the Light to be extinguished. We could not help you and your planet would be darkened.

The June and July eclipses have placed a great burden within the earth's stress field, complicated by mankind's reaction to the energies released by these three eclipses. We are asking the Children of Light to hold fast to the God Within and do not break ranks due to unseemly ecliptic pressures. As you have been warned, the seven eclipses are doorways leading to the Sanctus Sanctorum, your innermost sanctuary. Now if you are able to hold steadfast between now and Dec. 30th, never swerving in your commitment to the Light, no matter what personal problems arise, then at the eclipse on December 30th, while you are in meditation or even in higher realms, you will make the bonding with your own Higher Self, the Christ Within. Then the Christ will reappear - not in the form of a human, but in His True Power and Glory, manifesting through each and everyone of you. For truly you are Sons of God. On December 30th, the Christ Power and Spirit enters into the Earth and claims it for Its Own. This is the COSMIC CHRIST SPIRIT under which your dearly beloved Master Jesus Sananda operated. He demonstrated for you the "Putting on of the Christ Spirit." This is the same power of spirit under which we all operate throughout the Universe. In December will you be able to do thusly?

As you have already witnessed, every one upon the planet is being subjected to severe initiations this year, brought to focus by the seven eclipses. How you handle these disruptive energies at your human level will be an individual matter as no two persons are at the same place on the Evolutionary Path, nor do they have the same amount of karma to be resolved. Much power from the past is being focused through you for review and transmutation. You must be able to transmute this dark, negative energy before you stand before your Christ. Not only is this a hard year for personal transmutation, but it is also reflected in disharmony among nations of the planet and in the geography of the planet itself. More and more will become evident as we pass through the next eclipse on July 20th. The stress builds up and must be released through shifts in the ground.

To all of you we simply ask that you hold steadfast in the Light, and use your common sense regarding all incoming messages. There are those of the astral realm who delight in tricking you. This is no joke. It is a Life or Death matter. While the Children of Light are busy with the transmutation of their own karma, perhaps not thinking as clearly as they should because of the weight of the returned karma, these negative entities helped along by the alien space brothers of which Andromeda Rex has already spoken, are snatching and destroying the Light of the Light Seekers because they give away their power naively.

With these thoughts I now leave you. With the Christ's Love, I AM JOSHUA.

AN ANALOGY

In the beginning was all that IS, God -- Creative Energy. He grew restless within. He stirred, stretched, and asked, "Who am I?" From within came His reply. "I AM He, I AM Myself; Whatever I am or whomever I am, I AM I. I AM THAT I AM. I Am the One and Only Creator of my world. Whatever I Am is He because I create Myself, and because I Am I."

He said, "Let there be Light and there was Light", because He already was Light. He discovered He could create because He was First Cause. So, first, He created a body through which He could express Himself. That was the effect of the First Cause, which was thought from within His own Mind.

Thus, if I believe my "I AM" is one with His "I AM" (that we are not separated) then I Am a co-creator with God! He, being Spirit, and me, being in a physical body, He needs me, and I, definitely, need Him. He needs my physical body to express through, as I need His Creative Energy to express with. This beautiful arrangement equips us to co-create as ONE. He, being my Father, because He created and sustains me, naturally desires me to express His attributes. Even though I may at times fall from His grace, there is great rejoicing when I return.

The moral of this Analogy is: From Him I came -- to Him I shall return!

THE SILENCE

Out of the Infinite Silence
Is born the Christ in me,
The Son of God, the pattern,
Of the Christ that is to be.

Out of the Infinite Silence
Is born the Christ in me,
And the prototype I follow
Is the Christ of Galilee.

Out of the Infinite Silence
Cometh the light to see;
Cometh the strength to follow,
The Power and the Victory.

TALK III: THE LIGHT

You are now learning to think with your soul, and your thinking will reveal such breathtaking glories as you have never before dreamed of. It is more a developing of the sixth sense - the sense of feeling with the inner soul - and then will follow the understanding to the physical brain. The brain is the only part of us which has become so sealed in the traditions of the fathers, as is described in Doctrine and Covenants 93 that nothing of light can penetrate. I was only sealed upon one subject and it was a very painful experience, tearing away those seals that had been placed upon my mind in infancy.

Then you said in your letter, "Oh, well what would there be to overcome if we didn't have trials." The trials will be automatically overcome when we overcome our own inner blindness and weaknesses. As we get ourselves completely in tune with the Spirit of the Lord everything surrounding us falls into a rhythm of utter glory. And one thing now, you may hit bottom occasionally, but you climb back out. The powers of darkness can never hold you for long - and each battle won is a victory for Christ and these great principles of eternal light. It is something so far more reaching than you at present comprehend. Every achievement is a step forward, and every shred of darkness you banish is another link welded in the chain that will eventually bind Lucifer and banish darkness. That is why he fights so hard against this work. It is so easy to do. Don't get too tense, just relax in love and Light and feel that glorious spirit of the Lord enfold you, and shortly you will be able to hear its voice, and it will lead you into this great Light. It is a privilege and a glory and a definite necessity to those who wish to enter into the realms of Light, leaving the darkness behind.

The past year has been a glorious one. So many wonderful things have happened, and right now I think of how thoroughly all of you have taken hold of these great divine, eternal truths and made them a part of your lives. It has become so much a part of you that you could never again lose it without deep regret.

It is such a marvelous day and age in which to live - and life itself is so terribly important. I am daily more thrilled by the miracle of it - this power to think and breathe, to move and seek and choose and love, to worship and adore. Every breath has become a priceless gift from God my Father, for which I am most grateful. And in such deep reverence I hold this gift of life He gave me upon the High altar of His divine love to be as a flame of fire in His hands, to glorify His Name, and to help bring light to a world. Stand with me upon this sacred spot of dedicated devotion and be bathed in His love and feel it flow through and around you, and then with a divine humility that matches the love, you will feel His hand upon your head and know that your hour of service is near.

FROM THE TEACHINGS OF SATYA SAI BABA:

The tenets of Satya Sai Baba's Teachings are the universality of all religions. He says: "Let the different faiths exist. Let them flourish and let the glory of God be sung in all the languages and in a variety of times. Respect the differences between the faiths and recognize them as valid as long as they do not extinguish the flame of unity.

"There is only one religion, the religion of love; there is only one caste, the caste of humanity; there is only one language, the language of the heart.

"Love is the key word." "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God," said Jesus. "The pure heart becomes inspired, it sees beyond the intellect and reason.

The motive behind the formation and propagation of all the different faiths was the same. The founders were all persons filled with love and wisdom. Their goal was the same. None had the design to divide, disturb or destroy. They sought to train the perceptions and the emotions, to educate the impulses and direct the faculty of reason to paths beneficial to the individual and society."

SELF CONCEPTS MIRRORED IN TIME

Lady Vancia Speaks - CP

Some people are upset because they're afraid others will believe what their attacker says and come to agree with him. Maybe you think your friends will be persuaded you are inferior, or that you haven't behaved like the Christed individual you're striving to become. You've been trying to convince your subconscious or soul of the Truth of your Divinity, and now to your humiliation, someone's questioning it for all to hear. Of course you're upset, until you remember it is YOU who really harbor these doubts. The discord-maker has simply shown them back to you - NOTHING MORE! Anything that comes to you in your world is a challenge - a blessing, for it shows you what you really think about yourself.

Take your mind OFF the person who hurt you, and fill it with decrees of your own Divine self-worth. The old psychological affirmation used to help teenagers, is invaluable here with a few changes to fit your case. Stand in front of your mirror, (and remember your world is just that,) then look yourself in the eye and make a "righteous judgment" of the situation, by affirming: "I am God! I am Love! Therefore, I love and respect myself and approve of all I do." That is the most wonderful and comforting thing you can say. It is like a pat on the back. Or decree: "I am God. I am Wisdom, and I create Perfection in all my affairs," or "I am God. I am omnipotent Power and I control everything that takes place in my world." Remember to do this in Love without a feeling of criticism. People strive for power over others because they have a poor self-conceit.

You're on the Path. You're working to become a CONSCIOUS Christ and when you build thought-patterns of yourself as the supreme Lord of all you survey, NO ONE can threaten your sense of security again. NO ONE WILL EVEN TRY, because you've come to CONSCIOUSLY love and regard yourself as a Divine Being, and those you meet will begin to accept this as the truth about you. You will be accepted at your own evaluation. As I said, the insult you sustained was caused by YOUR FEAR - by your mistaken thought that you lacked some Godly Power, or by the sneaking suspicion that you weren't behaving as a CONSCIOUS Christ should behave.

When someone calls you stupid, affirm your omnipotent Wisdom. If someone infers you are not "good enough" to "be in their league" so to speak, raise your self esteem by decreeing your Godhood. If someone cheats you, declare your power to create and maintain control of all your affairs. Don't waste your effort while you are still smarting under the pain they've inflicted, by trying to convince yourself that THEY'RE Divine. Of course they really ARE, BUT their present actions have failed to show you this Truth, and until you repair whatever it was IN YOU that reflected forth the unpleasant happening, it is best to affirm your own Divinity instead. When you affirm that you're God, and as such that you're Wisdom personified - when you do this persistently enough, no human soul will be able to upset your faith in this truth. In fact, as I said, NO ONE will even make an effort to do so again. Of course, this type of treatment should be used in the face of any problem when your feelings are hurt, or you've suffered a loss, or your free will is challenged. NO MATTER WHAT OFFENDS YOU, regardless if it seems to be your fault or not - the situation you have encountered is simply showing BACK TO YOU WHAT YOU THINK ABOUT YOUR-SELF!

Perhaps people tend to disapprove of you. Perhaps one after another has appeared in your life at different times and all have pointed their fingers and shaken their heads and called you wrong. To combat this you should decree your own love for YOURSELF, every day. Use the affirmation I listed above, or one like it and declare you are doing the will of the God that you are, to the best of your ability. Insist that you are successful in all that you do and that you approve of your own way of life. You must learn to love yourself but you should also come to LIKE yourself as well, and you can do this by programing your subconscious thru decrees that claim your worth as the Divine, loving Lord and Creator of all you survey.

The person who loves and approves of HIMSELF, CAN LOVE AND HELP OTHERS, LEAVING THEM FREE to live their own lives in a broad sense of tolerance and brotherhood. He also finds he's surrounded by many who mirror his attitude, returning his friendship with cooperative understanding and good will. To sum up, when you're feeling hurt, you must not fight discord with violence, yet neither should you run and hide. Above all, treat the cause, which is you - not the problem itself, especially not by declaring your assailant is perfect, when you are still smarting beneath his attack.

YOU LOCKED UPON EVIL and it slapped you in the face. However, you alone created the discordant appearance in your world by inadvertently accepting imperfection in YOURSELF. Being a God, you must refuse to see the iniquity. However, don't try to deny it away by affirming perfection in it's place "CUT THERE" until you can change your mind about the lack that caused it in yourself. WORK ON YOU when something goes wrong. This cancels the difficulty without suppressing it. To simply affirm your attacker's perfection causes you to have a sense of guilt because you don't feel as loving toward him as you think you should.

Your hurt feelings can't be expressed and this causes your blood to boil which can result in diabetes, or some other unpleasant disease. Affirm your love for yourself and this will give you new substance from which to rebuild whatever seems incomplete in your world. Realize your assailant has done you a favor. He has shown you the part of your soul that needs to be filled with Power, Wisdom or Love, depending on where your self concept is weakest. If you weren't ready to solve it, you wouldn't have it yet. If something faces you in your world it is the right time, for you are projecting that now - this is the lesson for you to learn NOW.

Thanks to him, you're one step nearer to Christhood, and when you reach it, you can say with Jesus, "None of these things move me." Why? Because you'll KNOW you have all the POWER you need to get rid of discord. It cannot show itself to you because it no longer exists in your opinion of YOURSELF. In CONSCIOUSLY realizing the TRUTH of your own Perfection, you've been set free from all assailants FOREVER, and as a Christ, you have overcome the last vestage of discord in your world.

So be it! Amen.

When there is no strong focal point for love, animal pets can be important. Love given to anyone or anything helps the astral body and improves the health and well-being of the physical. To love yourself holds the cells together - holds the atoms in the perfect form they should take. To feel love alone is to manifest perfection, and to love the Lord of your Being, is the only way your supremacy is going to manifest. You love your God-Self into being, for without love nothing can take form.

ENERGY

Energy must be understood in a much broader context than most of you on Planet Earth conceive of it now. Energy is vibration; the life force of God in action. The higher vibration ALWAYS will accelerate the lower. (This is why we caution each of you about future mobility amongst the masses). As the chasm becomes wider, your presence alone can so jar their nervous systems, emotional bodies that people can become physically or emotionally ill by your presence alone. Containing the aura - shielding it - will be the first step. The second will be discrimination and following your guidance. Why do you not see more space brothers walking amongst you? You are not yet prepared in your 3rd dimensional vehicles for their vibrations.

Why does the higher overcome the lower? Because it is cosmic law that all evolution is accelerating in its return back to the source. It is literally spinning into "non-existence" in the 3rd dimension and then vibrating beyond the 4th, etc. Healing would NOT be possible if it were not for this law. Healing is accomplished by the transference of the energy - vital life force from the higher vibrational energies around and above the healer, through the healer's body and out - usually through the hands. IF the healer is NOT clear without any emotional cloudiness or ego, he can contract the condition or energy of the one he is attempting to heal. In this case, the energy reverses to the healer (who in this case has some lower energy) instead of the proper polarity. NEVER believe that you can heal anyone - it is always of God. If you believe that YOU have the power, it, too, will be cause for energy reversal. Until you are clear with your energy, rinse the hands, etherically or physically, in cold water to pull all the energy from the client into the water.

Energy is composed of etherons. It takes thousands to produce an atom. This is the smallest divisible particle of matter. Each physical object is held together by a different ratio of etherons to protons. Etherons are creating matter constantly by thought. The radiant energy - life force spinning at a high voltage (example, when you pull the energy of the masters, angels or I AM Presence, etc. through you for healing or manifestation) can greatly magnify the creative use of the Universal laws of thought and creation. All of the universes and dimensions of creations contain the vital life force in either an active or dormant expression (even what you think of as voids in space).

Energy is the active expression of God - such as the great silence - point beyond vibration is within the Great Central Sun. The faster you are evolving now, the quicker you are spinning all the etheron particles within this atom. It will not be long now before you will have mastered with conscious control the ability to speed the vehicles in and out the 4th dimension and teleport them by thought. It will require concentration and is one of the reasons you are being taught to be "totally aware" of your mind and activities as well as your vibrations. We do want your teleporting to be totally successful. If you scatter your energy now, it is possible for you to do that with your vehicles as you travel and relocate!

Blessings unto each of you in your evolution.

Love, LYTTON

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

Wayne Taylor enjoyed some visitors, Barbara Bowman and Faith Hemingway in June. Debra and Carter Smith, California were here. David Guest came by.

June 21 was an important day at the City of the Sun, as elsewhere. It was the day of the summer solstice; a New Moon, partial Solar Eclipse; followed closely by the Moon at perigee (the point where it is nearest the Earth); both of these occurring as the Moon entered Cancer where it is said to have its greatest strength.

Members of the community held a devotional and meditation period at the Vortex at 8:45 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. At 1:00 P.M. at the Community Building Elvin Noel gave an interesting talk on the importance of the occasion. Lou and J. R. Spurling, son John, and Larry McClendon of Deming, New Mexico visited us for this special event.

William and Mary Jane Switzler had an unusual trip, for them, in going over 2/3rds of the way to Los Angeles. They met with their son and wife, Paul and Jonne-Marie Switzler of Hollywood, California, and another son, Richard and a friend, Michael York. Richard had been living in Europe since 1970, and he and Michael had been on a world tour for several months. This was a most enjoyable partial family get together near the Colorado River.

The community had a special treat when Harry Jones brought his daughter, Barbara, by to get acquainted. She works in Jacksonville, Florida.

Robert Hale made a quick stop-over - between singing engagements - to visit his mother, Clie Mae Hale, at the City of the Sun.

The 24 hour Prayer Vigil held during the Total Lunar Eclipse in July had an excellent response. There were numerous beautiful experiences shared by those that participated, and we appreciated the efforts of all those that took part in it.

Our prayers continue that the Master Plan is now being made manifest for World Peace and Earth Purification. We give praise and thanksgiving to the Great White Brotherhood and our Space Brothers for all They are doing to save humanity and our planet. We are One, and so it is.

Maurice Hastings spent the last two weeks of July in Minnesota visiting, principally, his mother who was in critical condition. She was slightly improved when he returned home. At last report her doctor said she is making slow but steady progress.

During Maurice's absence the daily decree sessions were held at the home of David and Blanche Harrison with Blanche leading. We are grateful to the Harrisons and to those attending for keeping the flame blazing in Maurice's absence.

It was nice for Dieter Queck, son of Hilde Bloedow, to visit one weekend. He lives in Canada.

The month of August started off for the community by a homemade peach ice cream feast, which also included wholewheat homemade doughnuts at Switzlers.

As this is being printed we await the arrival with their furniture and furnishings of Tony and Dorothy Rayburn Zawick. They are new members coming from the Albuquerque, New Mexico area. They have purchased the Austin and Ruth Love home. Dorothy, particularly, has visited the City of the Sun many times. We welcome them into our midst.

MESSAGE FROM THE PLANETARY HIERARCHY

The Hierarchical Plan for the coming times involves the re-alignment of the Planetary Chakras or force centers which distribute Earth's vital energies over Her Planetary Sphere. We do not wish to alarm you, but at this time there is great stress placed upon the Planetary Body by the combined alignment of all of the planets within our Solar System. The technical understanding of this phenomenon is not well understood by humanity at this time, as it involves the ley lines, or the etheric grid or web of the entire solar system as one complete celestial body. Please be advised that we as Hierarchical Members of this planet are working most diligently to prevent catastrophe from occurring on the physical planet as a result of these stresses in the etheric web. However, it may not be possible to avoid certain massive changes in the geographical formations of the planetary surface. Ours is the position of watching each development very closely and then making the necessary adjustments according to the new possibilities which arise.

Humanity can assist in this process by linking up with the Christ as Supreme Head of the Planetary Hierarchy of enlightened masters who govern the planetary body under His directions, and then radiating His Light outward to all other beings within the planetary spheres of Earth. This will establish a great powerhouse of Light within the planetary etheric body which can then be used by the Hierarchy to dissipate the clouds of density which now exist within the etheric body of the planet and obstruct the free-flow of etheric energies throughout the planetary web.

Our position is that of acknowledging the difficulties of planetary stress wherever found and then proceeding with the required adjustments needed to reestablish harmony in accord with the Divine Plan of Christ for the planet. We seek to enlist the support of those members of humanity who will heed the call for alignment to the Christ and His Plan of Redemption for Earth. Beware of the claims of those whose voice proclaims the imminence of His return in the flesh, for such is not the case. All of our efforts must be to readjust our own thinking, willing and feeling to come into concordance with the Holy Perfection which is embodied by the Divine Presence within the Great Lord Christ.

Now for the consequences of the failure of a significant percentage of humanity to assume responsibility for carrying forward the work of the Christ in their own lives: This could only result in tragedy for the populations of the planet which are evolving under His Loving Care according to the Will of the Father Creator whose desire to see man grow into His Own Divine Stature prompted Him to grant man Freedom of Will to chose his own directions in life. The planetary situation at present thus presents humanity as a whole with a great test of responsibility for its worthiness to continue as an inhabitant of planet Earth. We sincerely hope that all of you who read these words will take them to heart and deeply consider their relevance to your own personal lives. And we pray that the spark of Spirit within the Soul of each of you will blaze forth into the Divine Flame in Oneness with ALL that IS.

Peace Be Unto You, and Our Prayers Go With You All!

 Have you remembered the City of the Sun in your Will?

PEACE CONFERENCE

"Peace Conference" the newswire screamed
As delegates came from far and near,
They would succeed in "peace in our time",
At least it did to the public appear.

But each man was suspicious of the other;
Affrontery, rancor overflowed.
Plots, and sub-plots sprang up
With increased trade as constant goad.

They quibbled over the agenda,
And wrangled over the rules.
These were the diplomats for peace?
Blessed irony, how cruel!

Many days the words did flow
With agreement never very close.
The stately edifice was a battlefield
As each man to man did oppose.

God's peace comes best in units it seems
Of exact denomination "one" -
Your heart, and my heart separately,
Through them stable peace can come!!

Abraham Lincoln remarked when asked what could be done about one's "enemies", "There's only one sure way to get rid of an enemy that I know of, and that is to make him my friend."
