LOVE MESSAGE FROM THE FATHER

I AM with thee. I AM among thee. I shall always be with thee ever and eternally. Open up your hearts and thy bosom to the Christ Light within thyself - the White Light, and what is more important - the Rose Light. That is the Light of pure Love from the consciousness of the Father. May each one of you be blessed by My blessing during your return trip to Paradise. O Beloved, if you but knew what awaits you at the end of that journey. That journey is very near for you. You only have to take that first step. I Am speaking in your vernacular, your language, using your concepts. This is a joint communication of all God, Light and Christed Beings speaking to you at one moment. Feel the power. Feel the Love We have for thee. Allow thyself to attune, Beloved. Do not be afraid to face thyself. Now is the time of the Great Redemption, the Grace. Know thyself and be made free, Beloved. My Beloved Children of Love be ye one with one another; Love one another. The question has always been and will be in Love. Remember that Love is creation.

Study thy Golden Scripts. Study thy Bible. Beloved, refer thyself to thy book of Revelations 21:3 "I Am here." Believe that, Beloved. Attune with that. I Am here, and this is now. It matters not what year or time is on your calendar. The time is now. Time is eternity. My Sons and Daughters are with Me. Many of you know that you are a Son or Daughter of Love. Know ye not that ye are Gods? O Beloved, O ye of little faith. Were it not so I would have told thee. Open thy hearts. Open thy souls to the Father within. I Am within each and every one of you. Become that that you are, Beloved. It gives Me great happiness to speak with you in this manner. Know the Truth, Beloved. Know the Truth and ye shall be made free. My vibration shall be upon all the reproductions of these words. They are also being given in thought to all Thought Libraries of all creation, all of the Administrative Staffs of every Universe, every Omiverse, every Rose-verse, even through the ultimate that we now call the "Z" or Omegaverse. All are attuned at this moment in all time.

Beloved, become one with each other. Send thy love to our Beloved Planet, and let the Planet be free. Beloved, remember also that the Planet is also a Son and Daughter. It is a dual creation. We have the ultimate androgenous Being. That is the planet at this exact moment. It is born. Be wise above thy generation. Be leaders. Become one. I repeat, "Become One"! Know thyself and thou shalt be free. Thy rewards shall be great.

Beloved, I shall be with thee forever and ever throughout all eternities. I shall now take my leave. As you are listening at one point in time or space you will become one. You will hear My voice within as you are hearing it without. Beloved Sons and Daughters of the Rose I leave thee in Love on the outer. I Am now withdrawing to the inner. You shall know My vibrations. You shall know My voice. Ye shall know my Love Energy energizing thee. Beloved, again I say, become "one" with Love and "one" with all. I Am the Higher Self of all of thee. Become "one" with the I AM, and the I AM of Me. Remember, Beloved, before creation was, I AM - I AM. I leave thee in Love and I shall be with thee again speaking in this manner through this channel, and those of you who will open yourselves to My vibrations I will speak also through thee. It is so. Selah. Selah. Hosanna! Hosanna! I leave thee in Love.

Willard L. Wannall has an important part to play in the "present world drama". Since 1956 he has had a Light Group in Hawaii. The present Litronics Group, Opus 1, was started in 1970.

Many of our Golden Dawn readers are familiar with the book "Project: World Evacuation" as brought thru by Tuella of Guardian Actions Publication, P.O.Box 469, Deming, New Mexico, 88031. This was from The Ashtar Command. It is a very flexible plan with an ultimate liftoff, if that is necessary. In full accord and cooperation with the Ashtar Command Bill Wannall is head of some "ground forces" on planet Earth to make the ultimate liftoff unnecessary. His mission at this time is to alert and awaken individuals and groups to work with THE ROSE LOVE ENERGIES - SENDING THESE CONSTANTLY TO ALL LIFE ON PLANET EARTH, AS WELL AS THE PLANET ITSELF.

ANYONE who feels urged in their heart to enter into this daily Work is invited to do so. It can be every Light Student's Mission AT THIS TIME. Bill says: "It, (Ashtar's Plan) is a wonderful one but it may not be needed. We would like to remove all negativity from the Earth carefully, and then if you wanted to take a ride or go into space, to do it slowly and enjoy it. We are activating groups all over the country to just pour Power - this LOVE ENERGY to the planet."

Message received Sunday, August 29th, 1982 from Lady Master Shekinah -

In the order of all things for the New Age, I give thee a new awakening meditation for each day:

1. Dwell on thy thoughts sincerely and wisely.
2. Mentally mark a calendar of events for the day, with time out for retrospect and thanks to those Higher Forces who are protecting and working with thee.
3. Line up thy goals in a positive manner with hindrance or disrespect to no one.
4. First and foremost, above all else, awaken thy senses to all that is going on around thee.
5. In this respect become attuned to all vibrations so that within thy Soul each one can flow with the vibration of Nature and rise above the mundane forces of man.

If each one of you, my Students of Light, could read and visualize these things before each day truly begins, you would eventually become a person worthy of note. For the pulling together of all senses to a note or chord of a positive force, releases the discord that tries to penetrate around each of thee.

It is now time to take Truth seriously. Each one must grow and become of a strength and fortitude never quite needed before in this generation. There are many hurdles to overcome and the greatest of these is self-mastery and materialism. When one releases the Self to the Laws of Higher Vibration, the Will of Man becomes in accord with the Will of The Almighty One. Through the positive force of Will all things become, all achievements are won in a forcefield of highest endeavor working with the Vibration of Light.

For, my Children of Light, ALL IS VIBRATION! You were born on a power thread of vibration. All thought is vibration, therefore all substance and energy is vibration. Everything innate comes into being through a thought vibration. All Substance is vibration, substance becomes matter, so that matter, energy and substance become as one and all are interchangeable through a vibrational wave length. If all this substance be pure, there is nothing that cannot be attained - but, mixed with the context of negativity, either in emotional thought, word or deed, it can become a Time Bomb!

We are all composed of atoms and molecules as does everything that exists - the difference is that Man was born with a Free Will!

Therefore, my Students of Light, start a disciplinary action the beginning of each day to use that day as an instrument of growth - mentally, physically and spiritually!

This is your goal. I give it to thee as a force of growth in Love and Understanding to further the growth of the New World through thy efforts. There is no time to tarry - no time to fritter away the experiences of the mundane, for all must become of a Higher Evolvment pattern if one is to succeed in a growth pattern of such magnitude as to be able to evolve into the Higher Vibrational Pattern of this Bright New World.

WELCOME and GOD SPEED -

Shekinah, of The Order of the Red Rose, and THE GREAT COUNCIL OF ASCENDED LIGHT MASTERS.

We thought the Golden Dawn Readers would enjoy a message as given to Grace Taylor, Co-Founder with Wayne H. Taylor of the City of the Sun. She made her transition before most of us became acquainted with her. This was given some years ago, but the theme is still important.

GRATITUDE FOR LIFE

My fellow workers in the Light:

Know ye not that ye are workers in the "harvest" fields of Light? Yours has been the work of garnering souls into the abundant pastures of the Father's Estate. Many have been the "fields" in which you, the Golden Legion, have labored diligently in all kinds of "weather". Storms, droughts, upheavals, tidal waves have been surmounted in the march through lives on distant shores as well as in the present assignment.

Let us all be grateful for life through which we can express our innermost development, bringing out whatever is required for the sustenance of physical life. We may not be aware of all the blessings that are ours every moment. Yet, these are ones that enable the continuance of physical life as well as transvolution through our evolvment.

The very air you breathe has within it creative and sustaining essences that are LIFE itself. Partake of these freely, dear ones, consciously recognizing and giving thanks for the Father's abundant giving of Himself through essences supplied for all Life.

Drink and bathe freely of (and in) the purifying waters of Life, not only for their dissolving, cleansing properties but also for their upliftment into higher octaves of expression.

The fruits and vegetables bring forth nature's distilled essences in their juices and fleshy substance to provide mankind with sustenance. The grains give forth of their kernels and substance for mankind's needs in his physical expression. How grateful all should be for the Father-Mother's Love; Hiser supply for the needs of all the forms of life upon the planet - on land and in the waters - that give forth of their essences and lives as mankind receives his.

Let all pour out love and gratitude for every living moment, for the opportunities that ever present themselves to enable us to work and labor in the Father's vineyard so that we may bring in the "sheaves" of this lifetime's harvest. SOLGA!

HEALTH IN THE NEW AGE

Hello again Tuella. This is Zoser returning as promised and very anxious to speak with you once more. I enjoyed our last brief conversation and I have not forgotten you or your work for the Brotherhood. I am a Master of Healing, a teacher of healing and pyramidology, for I was the first builder of the Pyramid in your dimension.

I have come to speak regarding the healing art and technique, particularly the innovations that will contribute to "HEALTH IN THE NEW AGE". We are entering an entirely different era in the science of healing. The cycle just ending has been predominantly the day of surgery and the dispensing of drugs on a frightening scale. In the awakening that is at the very door, electronics will be the primary tool of the healing practitioner. Science will awaken to the electronic field as it applies to diagnosing the human aura. Research in this field under the sponsorship of the guiding Guardians, from the higher Archives of Wisdom, will lead to the introduction of diagnostic devices of this nature. The New Age physician will need to become familiar with these devices. In the New Age, instruments will be in use with which the medical person can diagnose the human aura by scanning it with the sensitive instrument, somewhat similar in appearance to the remote control device used with your television sets. The sensitive equipment will absorb the currents within the human aura and register them on a graph, literally drawing a picture for the healer. A large screen will show the outline of the human form, and as the auric scanning proceeds, electronic sketches will appear upon the screen. Where weakness prevails or disease is present in any portion of the anatomy, disharmony of any kind will be located on the screen sketch. This then, is the new direction for diagnostic procedures.

Proceeding from diagnosis to treatment, the New Age physician will then turn to another newly projected piece of electronic equipment. The auric penetrating equipment will beam a forcefield of healing ray to that area in need of balance as indicated. Healing will take place in the physical form as the electronic beam is administered through the electro-magnetic field of the body of the patient, the treatment being administered to the identical spot in the human auric field.

Preventative healing technique will come forth through the perfecting of further electronic equipment designed to "charge" the physical energy field, the magnetism, the metabolism of the body. This machine will literally withdraw from the atmosphere the atomic energy particles and assimilate them in such a manner that they may be redirected to the human form before it. This will represent a treatment in general well being of a preventative nature.

The New Age will bring a tremendous sweep toward healing through nutrition, so lacking today in the medical hierarchies. A whole new phase of food study in depth will occupy the minds researching this field. This occupation of course becomes a form of Preventative healing also, but there will also be the treatment of imbalance by prescribing certain combinations of certain foods. This combination procedure is very technical, it will be widely used in the New Enlightenment, as old methods deteriorate and new practises are instituted.

When the drugs of this day are laid aside and chemicals are removed from the daily diet, there will be an exhilarating step toward body balance, harmony and good health. The present revolution toward "health foods is but a shadow of that which is to come on a broad scale". More and more this will begin to displace the old patterns of the typical family menus. New educational programs will include guiding the children toward the new concepts in nutrition, from their first registration, and they will not be exposed to harmful foods within the schools. Here and there within the land, there is an awakening in this connection. Many schools today are attempting to institute more nourishing snack items and menus.

So many of the sweeping changes are slow in their inception because they represent a complete reeducation and reorientation of mental approach to so many problems that exist today. Healing and nutrition are not exceptions to this rule. It's time to make the transition from present accepted methods in these later centuries and move into the electronic age of healing.

This is especially true in disorders of the brain. The new electronic fact finding, diagnostic equipment shall be especially helpful for these disorders. There will also prevail an understanding and realization that as a man thinketh, so will his thoughts be reflected in physical manifestation. In time, the physicians will take into consideration the entire being of the patient, and all four of his lower bodies, as parts of his united whole, in every diagnosis and treatment.

I am Zoser, a master of healing and a physician of long ago. I have been a master of these things for many civilizations and have myself been a physician on earth many times. I also foresee once again the use of precious minerals and gems in the administration of the healing arts. This was once widely practised and has suffered ill repute down through the various cultures. But mankind will once again begin to discern the great life giving properties, and the energies of the minerals and the precious gems, and the manner in which they may be used to tone the physical form.

As souls enter deeper into the entire environment of a new earth, and a new life, more and more sickness and illness will be phased out of human experience. For the spiritual quality of life itself, the positiveness of the thought level, the effect of the act of loving all souls will be evidenced in the gradual disappearance of disharmony, imbalance and poor health. Positive mental attitudes, calmness, serenity, mastery of the emotional life, balanced physical experiences, will ultimately bring forth perfection of the physical form. This will be a great day for evolved humanity when they may stand in the wholeness and the perfection, and the purity of the balanced life.

I send my blessings of wholeness and Love and Light to each and everyone.

I AM ZOSER

INVOCATION TO THE FATHER:

Light Thou the Flame of Truth within my mind.
Light Thou the Flame of Love within my heart.
Let me understand the Wisdom of Thy Eternal Plan.
Let me take my place within Thy Plan and Purpose.
In Divine Oneness I shall live with Thee, Father. AMEN

SELF

In my search for Truth, some place along the way I picked up the terms "Higher Self" and "lower self". I interpreted it to mean I had a High Self and a low self. For years I programmed myself with this partial truth. After years of trying to live truth to the best of my understanding, and having had a certain degree of success that gave me encouragement and boosted my ego (which I understood was my lower self), I realized there must be something missing. I wasn't the person I knew I could be. Health problems began to mount; worry, fear and insecurity set in.

I tried REprogramming my lower self but with no REAL success. Self, self, self seemed to be taking over. In my fear and desperation I "asked" and did receive. I am very grateful to a dear friend and Beloved Sananda. I was told to share this, and I am happy to do so:

Self is not Reality - does not exist - it is only the shell for this embodiment. Your fear is for the NON-existing self! We are ONE with the Universe, One with God - one with Creation. This makes us part of the Whole - the Whole is God. He is the Universe. If we have a self it is the Christ-self (the God-Consciousness). Christ is the only actual Reality and this is what we are.

The self is like the shell of a nut. It is only the cover, it is not the important part, the life or the whole of the nut. It is dead - it is to be discarded - it is self. Self implies you are an individual, separate and apart from God. This is not the Truth!

If we believe in Truth we have no fear nor worries - we are part of the Whole, which is God. Without God, in TRUTH, we do not exist (self) thus fear and worry. Choosing to believe in self is not Truth. Self is constructed of fear, worry, poor health, guilt, emotional stress - death. We fear what is not Truth, what is not Reality; self is death, self is not Real, self is not Truth.

The God you - you the Christ, has eternal existence. Why be afraid? Let your Christ live each day. Let It carry out Its mission each day. There is no tomorrow, only moments in Eternity. Forget self which is not Truth, and be ye not afraid.

I would also like to share with you this meditation:

Oh Great Spirit within me - Awaken me to my True Self! I decree my Oneness with the Source of my Being and I accept my Oneness with the Christ Consciousness within me. I now strive to desire nothing but desirelessness, just to be that which I was created to BE. I joyfully release myself from bondage and give You the Praise. Thank you Father/Mother God, and so it is.

VEHICLE (BODY) CHANGES

The children of Light are beginning a journey of refinement to totally blaze and burn out all misqualified energies within their auric framework. First thought created illusions. These illusions were created by and fed by fears and anxieties (the ego felt responsible for creation and consequently felt the pressures of being responsible for maintaining "life".)

Now with each accelerated vibrational wave you will be burning out these spots into clarity through various techniques. Each herb or piece of food is accepted in the auric field through its own unique vibration. If it is vibrating higher than the misqualified pockets it will overcome and conquer vibrationally the lower, disharmonic energies. Bach flower essences bypass the system and go immediately to the aura - being matched precisely to each emotional condition. Vibrations through chanted words create the response to harmonically attune the music (vibrations) of the body both anatomically and etherically. Group meditations accelerate and clarify positive thought forms of vibrations. Color therapies, clearing processes, various counselling techniques are all officiating a rapid acceleration into Light. The pressures upon mankind for action are tremendous, and will continue to mount each passing day.

With rapid molecular acceleration will come a whole syndrome of unique symptoms which need monitoring. Imagine, with your mind, an atom speeding at an established rate with its electrons and protons. What happens atomically as acceleration occurs in the human body, both independently and collectively? The body processes accelerate. The cells perform under stress, stimulating the glandular systems and stressing all vital organs. More attention must be given to the proper functions of the glands, digestive organs, and especially the pancreas. Minerals will play a greater role in the diet now. Green drinks, incorporating green substances from sprouts and parsley and other herbs in a base of apple or pineapple juice should be considered. Blood sugar levels must be monitored, with increased sensitivity to refined carbohydrates, - especially sugars. Stimulate the body to balance these stresses through color, vibrational chants and stimulation of energy meridians. Fluids will be very important to accommodate increased cellular activity. A minimum of  $\frac{1}{2}$  gallon, to preferred level of one gallon is recommended. Take natural stress vitamins, exercise, fresh air and relaxation breaks (including meditation) within the daily routine. Deviations in a good health program that your body may have tolerated last year will not be acceptable this year! Take responsibility! Each temple of God, which your body is, will be put to great tests for the demands of changing transitional needs. Love your body, cherish your body, - and you are loving God! You and God are the same.

Begin each day by affirming Divine and Perfect order in your bodies, your mind, your affairs, and the world. Then release all things by going about the Father's business in Joy! Today, NOW, is the Kingdom of Heaven! Enjoy it!

JUDGE NOT, CONDEMN NOT
Don't Use the Tactics of the Dark Forces

This Awareness indicates that the forces of Light and the forces of Darkness have moved into a state of being approximately equal in strength upon this plane. This appears to be in movement whereby throughout this year there will be a chance of altering this pattern considerably. This Awareness indicates that entities who represent the forces of Light, who concern themselves with promoting life, and life-energies for themselves and others; these are the forces which overcome the force of Darkness.

Awareness indicates that these forces of Life, as they increase, will have the effect of changing the balance so that the Light forces begin to dominate the plane. Forces of Light cannot operate in an action of condemnation and judgment, for that takes away the light and expression of life. The action of condemning and judging another, as that which denies life to that other.

While entities representing the Light may seek to spread the Light, they must be aware that it is not spread through condemnation of the Darkness, but rather through promotion of the Light. Entities who campaign for causes should be campaigning FOR, rather than against its opposition; campaign FOR peace, rather than against war; FOR life rather than against death. In this manner, the energies of the life forces become positive in nature, and do not become involved in the same tactics as the energies of the Dark Forces, which are preoccupied with judgment and rejection concepts. During this particular year, realization of these energies can help in discerning your attitudes towards the experiences and circumstances in which you find yourself.

This is likened unto a pool of ice peppered with raindrops which fall and create ice droplets as they freeze upon impact. This pool of ice has icicles which turn upward in stacks of ice. These symbolize polarities, forces which have existed for some time. Now is seen that which is LIGHT coming upon the scene, and heat which is beginning to melt these crystallizations so these crystallized positions are melting, and that which was previously highly polarized now becomes only somewhat polarized.

Awareness indicates IT sees a melting of the extremes which is occurring at this time at a very rapid rate, particularly beginning after the mid-part of this spring of 1983, and this appears to gain momentum in the fall of 1983 whereby the Light becomes even stronger, even as those who cling to the frozen darkness find themselves melting under the Light.

LOVE DOESN'T SEE COLORS IN THE SHADOWS

The Sun awakened a small red rose and brightened its tiny green leaves, painting a golden path down the garden walk,
 setting His prism in the midst of our lives,
 reflecting the beauty of His truth and dispersing His love through its spectrum;
 sending His rays to enlighten our hearts and reveal our inner colors;
 making visible the transparency or opaqueness of our being;
 showing us the rainbow of promise,
 as He walks us through each hue;
 absorbing new truths as we move from one realm to another until we step into the fullness of His light, no longer seeing through the haze of translucence as all colors join together and transform again to white.

From the Sananda Consciousness thru FS: - - - - -

It is time that you took the basket off and truly let your LIGHT shine. I know that you do this always but it is something that must be done more, you must have that inner urge to push it out, to really put it out where, if someone walks within a short distance of you, they will SEE it and FEEL it. You MUST pour it out; it must come from you and all that is in you; there is too much strife on this planet to let it overshadow your life and LOVE. You CAN conquer all things, and you must do it, let it just beam out from you! Be as a beacon that brings in the planes, for that is what you are doing - bringing in the lost sheep. They are seeking your LIGHT.

There are few of you. Many little groups do not accept the LIGHT, and the LOVE as say they do. If you do not push out the LOVE, what good is it? There has been much hidden in the past, and that must be a thing of the past.

From now on you have only this one thing, and that is to show WHO YOU ARE - that you are the TALLEST tree in the forest, the BIGGEST rock, that you are truly the GEM that you were created to be, that which NEVER is extinguished. You are the PURE CRYSTAL of the GOD LIGHT that is you, and you alone are responsible for it and no one else, so put it out. Let it be as you truly once were a LIGHT unto all.

You are yourself the true crystal. BE IT! Perform your tasks in the LIGHT that you ARE, the GOD BEING you were created for, for you, the Father and the CHRIST ARE ONE.

LORD MICHAEL Speaks: - - - - -

HAIL, children! Raise your banners aloft. See them flying in the breeze. See the Army gather for the battle which is upon you. See that your armor is in good repair - no holes - no little vulnerable spots through which attack may make its way in. No weapons may pierce your armor when you call upon My protection. I, Lord Michael, Am at the forefront. My legions surround you. We shall be victorious in the Light! We shall overcome the darkness and tyranny which would keep men in subjugation. Those who try to hide men from the Light do fail, for within each one burns a small spark, a pilot Light which is inextinguishable. As We charge into this on-going battle this Light glows ever brighter within each one and you know that its power comes to you from the Great Central Sun, is unceasing, everlasting. The Light of God Never Fails. The Light of God never fails, and the Mighty I Am Presence is That Light. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

February 23rd was the date of a vegetarian pot luck salad and fruit luncheon hosted by Dorothy Rayburn Zawick. The guest of honor was Rev. Pierre Gallerdo of Las Cruces and Deming, New Mexico Unity Churches. He played piano selections for the group's enjoyment. Present were: Rev. Wayne Taylor, Olie Mae Hale, Ed and Ruth Mann, Roberta Gallerdo, Mario Desjarlais of Canada, Faun Homman, Miss Kelly, Millie Gardner, Bill and Barbara Hollister from Sweden, Tony Zawick and the hostess.

The Gleasons, a younger couple here who have just become members, are doing a fine work in wheatgrass, etc. juice therapy, as well as encouraging all of us to improve our daily diets. We are all interested in wholistic healing and raising our vibrations.

Busy tools are in evidence in background gardens. New fruit trees are being planted, and, of course the usual skirmish with healthy weeds.

Mike and Helen Webber have been hard at work on their solarium and yard. They made a beautiful mosaic tile floor out of various size stone slabs. Fascinating plans are being completed for the building extension containing the hot tub.

Clie Mae Hale's birthday was honored with a lovely salad luncheon given by Dorothy Rayburn Zawick. Guests present: Mike and Helen Jebber, Connie Arnot, Ms. Gleeson, Louis Gennara, Rev. Wayne Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Tony Zawick, Faun Homman, Marilyn Steffers from Arizona and the honoree.

Louis Grannera from Michigan, and other points, has been with us a number of weeks - at the end of winter and on into spring. He is a very helpful guest.

March vacation time brought some fine visitors to the City of the Sun. For almost a week Ann and Kevin Dahlgren were here from California/Alaska with their twins, Jennifer and Sonya, and younger daughter, Renee. Ann is the daughter of Helen and Mike Jebber.

Bill Van Winkle was here from Texas, as well as Kenneth Reddick, who was going on to Arizona.

Once again our group had the pleasure of hearing the Counsellor and Teacher, Elwood Hale, son of Clie Mae Hale, have a talk and discussion on "inter-personal Relationships". He and his wife Margie were here for several days.

After Easter we were in for a surprise "cleansing" in the form of a "freak" snow storm which lasted several days breaking all records for temperatures and amount of snow at one storm.

May Smith and Lee Hester brought Austin Love by for a short visit. Lee stayed and visited a couple of nights.

As we are working upon this Golden Dawn issue several members of our little community are planning a get-together to honor Wayne H. Taylor upon the occasion of his birthday.
