ANNALEE SKARIN SPEAKS

Much has been written about the river which has to be crossed when your name has been called and your earthly dispensation has ended. The truth is that you yourself, while living on earth, fashion the craft necessary to make the crossing when the time comes. Either you cross that river or you stay within the earth's atmosphere, which is the Astral Plane. The craft of which I speak is the Soul Craft, and your passport to Heaven is Faith.

Many who go from you in death never cross the river, for their consciousness of the glory of God is practically nil. They have no aspirations outside of worldly ones. These people often are from high places, yet they are truly lowly. They seldom pause in their earthly caperings to give even a fleeting moment to high thought. Each day is spent in self adoration, self justification, or self lamentation, and so on, with never a moment spent in thanking the Divine One for His blessing.

This then is a picture of the earth today. All are encumbered in some way. There are sins of omission, indulgence, slipshod morals, casual ways, intolerance, lack of charity - and, most certainly, a lack of Faith. All such things retard one from seeking and receiving the Divine Light and energy free to all who believe. Take many of your successful men of today - many of whom have no time for God. Mortals applaud their ways, speak of them as successful, yet what empty success is theirs! No less empty are the ways of those who approve. Riches, prestige, comforts must all be left behind when your name is called. You take only what you have fashioned within, and if your soul be threadbare of Divine Faith, you have nothing at all.

What happens to those souls, you might ask? Those who have no Faith, no Light, cannot cross the river to the beautiful land that beckons. The astral claims another victim, a victim who has become enslaved by his own deplorable habits which have brought about moral degradation. Earth is the place to learn the lessons set down by the Master, for on earth you may choose your companions and mingle with all kinds of people. You may live next to one most high in Spiritual Development, yet another of your neighbors may be quite the reverse - concerned only with earthly things - but by observing both you have abundant opportunity to decide which to choose. When you pass over to the Astral, however, you go to the place where you will find others who think and act exactly like you do. Thus, if you have lived your life on a negative vibration, you will have no other criterion, and negative thinking will continue. It takes far longer to pull oneself out of this twilight of wrong thinking on the Astral than it does on earth where countless opportunities are presented to all during a life's span.

Few souls from earth come over the river completely free from the earth's vibrations, for so strong are the negations that cling to all in some measure. Some are almost free except for a few small defects (those representing the lower self); these souls cross the river and are received with loving kindness. It, therefore, behooves all to work toward Light, sufficient to show the way across to the higher realms. Please - dear earthlings - turn to the Master's teachings while still on earth. Learn NOW! - do not put it off until tomorrow, next week, next year, or to some convenient time which may be fitted in between your multifarious earthly tasks. Do it NOW! Take a good look at this Glorious Light - this Christ Teaching.

Daily ask your Father to forgive your trespasses. Thank Him for His bountiful blessings and give time for the ritual of going within to commune with the Great Eternal One.

Do not be afraid to speak forth these words for they are Truth, and Truth must be told. The secret of life is giving out absolute love; nothing else is so important. Give generously in prayer and in service. No prayer goes unanswered. Light shines forth from each word uttered, or from each thought sent out into the ether in sincerity, in the name of the Father. All are answered, perhaps not at once, nor yet as you may desire, but answered, nevertheless. Remember too, that all prayers on behalf of others are as jewels placed in a casket in Heaven. You shall find them waiting when finally you, too, cross the river - gems of priceless quality - of Faith and Love - they are yours eternally. So give out unstintingly, without thought of reward, and it shall be yours a hundredfold.

The gates of Heaven are open to all who believe, none is turned away who carries the Light. Great Beings of exquisite and indescribable glory are on hand to welcome all in that moment of ecstasy when a Soul enters in. Words are inadequate to describe such joy and glory. Often you have heard it said that the Heavens ring with joy. Believe me, they do ring a glorious anthem - beginning softly, swelling to a crescendo of full throated glory, accompanied by color and exquisite perfume.

To those of us who watch, it is as though those of earth are blind, and go about feeling their way through a dense, cloying atmosphere. This state is most enervating to those of us who come to teach. Seldom can we stay long, for we must condition ourselves to come at all, just as the diver must who prepares to plunge beneath the ocean. We, just as he, can stay for a given period before we must surface in order to renew ourselves.

So, dear ones of earth, lift up your thoughts to the Glorious One so that we might come in our thousands to help make Earth that shining orb it should be in the Heavens.

WALK LIGHTLY ON MOTHER EARTH

As you walk can you feel it? While you sit quietly looking out across the mountains or ocean can you hear it? This earth on which we reside is a living thing, always offering us support and guidance. These we can avail ourselves of if only we watch and listen quietly and attentively.

We truly are here as stewards, custodians of this most sacred Mother, and as her children her rewards are ours and her ills are reflected in us. Through ignorant and thoughtless destruction of the diversity of ecosystems and organic matter in the vital glowing mantle which she wears, much of the life force has been drained and she grieves with the pain of this loss. Many places once lush with vegetation are now barren and hard packed, lacking a loving hand to weave the cloak of life anew where the fabric has been worn thin by exploitation and mismanagement.

As we come into the New Age there are some guidelines we can follow to help restore the balance and abundance of life force on Mother Earth. First, and foremost, we must strive to introduce diversity into our landscapes and gardens, intermingling many different sorts of vegetables, flowers, herbs, bushes, and trees, as well as animals and birds. The addition of a fish pond, waterfall, or birdbath creates another diversity, that of the aquatic environment. Diversity of elevation and aspect (direction) can be created or enhanced by terracing and/or digging sunken gardens and protecting them with hills where the excavated soil has been piled. All of these techniques will help produce a resiliency in the vital fabric while inspiring the esthetic sensibility.

Second, we must strive to create more organic matter and a healthy soil ecosystem, the flesh of Mother Earth. The organic matter of the soil acts as a microscopic reservoir system, providing a water supply for the plant roots. The more mulch we apply to the soil surface, and the less general tilling or turning of the soil we do, the better. Naked tilled soil not only blows away or turns into mud, but also loses much precious water to evaporation. Under a heavy mulch a fantastically complex world of micro-organisms/elementals will develop creating the fluffy, light soil so necessary for the support of the vibrant tapestry of plants and animals indicative of health, abundance, and the joy of creation.

Third, we must arrive as much as possible to utilize perennials and self seeding varieties in our plantings and foodstuffs. This allows us to let the soil organism grow without slicing and tilling it, therefore destroying its structure, and provides production with less toil.

It is time for the earth healing to begin. The best place to return to the "Garden of Eden" is right at home. Developing your relationship with Mother Earth using these three guidelines and your own guidance, perceived through a quiet and watchful mind, abundance and beauty will once again be the order of the day.

Dr. J. J. Hurtak's Material:

(Principles 7 and 8)

RESPECT AND AID YOUR SPIRITUAL SISTERS AND BROTHERS IN THEIR WORK AND EVOLUTION. PRINCIPLE SEVEN, NOV, STEAKS OF RESPECT IN TERMS OF AN ACT OR FORM OF DEDICATION, A FORM OF ACTION. In order to respect your sisters and brothers' spiritual evolution, you must aid in that evolution; but this aid must be invited. You must not force ideas, you must not force even revealed higher spiritual teachings on anyone. The process of their life experience is to come to their inner synthesis. If you simply present to them the teachings, whether it comes through Hoova, whether it comes through Enoch, whether it comes through other teachers of Light; then you are giving them information that can go on one side of the template and out the other side, one side of the crown chakra and out the spinal column on the other. You have to be able to convert the information to knowledge, to wisdom. This means the active sharing of life with the realization that sometimes you must allow a person to suffer isolation in their own life space until they realize that they are not here to be alone. For the Brothers have been out there in every generation of mankind, but they have left this earth to suffer in the weeping and gnashing of teeth out here on the edge of the galaxy, because the majority of the people down here, with the exception of the mystics and the Brotherhoods and some of the others who had divine contact, prefer to worship graven images, their fuehrers, their dictators, their popes, their Caesars, their economics. They thought they had it all down here. They thought they were the only test run, the only bio-chemical model. When the others come, the others are brutalized with myth, or put within dimensions of history eons ago.

We are now seeing a time period of aiding our brothers and sisters work in evolution so that they can walk through the judgments of the Pharisees and the Sadducees. The Sadducees are mentioned in the Bible. They were the ones who did not believe in the resurrection of the physical body. According to Enoch, the Sadducees are the organized religions that do not believe that this light transformation is happening now. They have in their scriptures that this happened thousands of years ago, but this is not happening now. So they do not come to the aid of their brother and sister. They do not join in the real work of preparing the human seed to survive great changes. They do not prepare the human seed to take an exodus from this planetary dimension into other planetary dimensions. They have the texts; they have the codes; they have the archives, but they do not believe that that same mind energy that could be activated thousands of years ago has remained activated, and that the theological, sociological, and scientific dimensions have somehow lost the inputs to that source of the Infinite Mind. The Pharisees, the perushim, were those that practiced the outer purifications, but do not have the spiritual love and forgiveness also mentioned in the Bible.

According to Enoch, the Pharisees are those who are working with the teachings of the New Age, but they are not working with the totality of the teachings. By that he was referring to the Brotherhoods of Light that were working through evolutionary councils of teaching; that were working with what he called a hundred and forty-four thousand ascended masters. It is good to have a group that has the teachings of one particular spiritual master, but Jesus Himself said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." The Christian Church has taken the first word and built the door, and people stop at the door rather than going through the door which is in the realization of the Father within you, and you within the Father. So you are not to stop at the master and worship his words, worship his embodiment, even though it is a higher form, a higher dimension. Rather, you are to go through that embodiment, recognizing that he is here to instruct you. You are ultimately to be where he is. When your life force down here is one emanation of that light force that he can share with you, and in sharing you begin to realize that everything can be put into new energy pulsations and pass through the old molecular grid, and you can be here, but you can also be there, once you go through your old molecular threshold. The door was the ancient astronomical symbol for the opening of the gate of time. When we can knock on the door and ask the brothers to come in, and when we can go through the door and show them that we can go through the door, not slam it in our face again and again; then it will open, and then we will enter into the other mansion worlds of Light.

THE PRINCIPLE EIGHT NOW SPEAKS OF FORGIVENESS. HAPPY ARE THE FORGIVING AND MERCIFUL, FOR THEY SHALL BE SHOWN FORGIVENESS AND MERCY. Without the spiritual gifts of forgiving your fellow man, as well as yourself (for everyone falls short of God's grace and love) you are not able to accept the imperfections within the life state, and according to the Brothers of Light, this earth is out of sink; in fact, our whole electro-magnetic field is being changed. The government scientists know about this. Papers will be published. Information will come out suggesting that we are moving into a whole new electro-magnetic spectrum, an electro-magnetic null zone as the vacuum in space. This is going to change our whole rotational field and we are going to be put into a whole new electro-magnetic density. When all this happens we will realize that our earth doesn't have it. It has its imperfections, gross imperfections. If we are on this earth we also share with the earth these gross imperfections. We are also out of sink. Because we are on the edge of our galaxy the energy dimensions of the anti-universe have a negative drag, and people on this planet take the easy way out. They prefer to go with the downward spiral rather than with the upward spiral which is very awkward. It takes much spiritual discipline, much love, much forgiveness. If we are to raise the consciousness of the planet then we are to work with imperfections of the Faustian image; you are to work with broken mirrors, because all mirrors upon this planet are broken. When we began to see the radiations of the crystal vehicles of light that the Buddha speaks of, then you can realize that this earthly Jerusalem - this earthly city of experience - will ultimately become the heavenly Jerusalem (or the City of Light), the dimension of crystallized knowledge that we will enter into when we are ready for it. Therefore, we must have the forgiveness and the mercy so that we are patient with one another, so as we go out and teach and heal we can seed the higher love, and come back and forgive one another, and, if necessary, fall upon each other's neck, and embrace each other, recognizing that even in doing the work it sometimes means suffering, perhaps the loss of friendship, perhaps the loss of love. But the greater work renews the love and renews the friendship.

The spiritual brother and sister is one that you can share your soul with, and the soul that will be really shared is the soul that will really die, and you will realize that you meet your best friends in hell, in the flames of hell, in the flames of agony and despair; what the philosophers call anks - you will realize that the spark of the common light is going out down there, and the spark of the New Age is coming. When I showed the scroll of the B'nai to Uri Geller, this twenty-two foot scroll divided into ten sections, an ash tray that was in the room left the table and knocked a light bulb out of one of the main lamps. This was witnessed by others. I looked at Uri Geller and we were excited because we felt the presence of the Brotherhood of Light within the room, and I said that the light of the Old Age is going out, and the light of the New Age is with us.

The scroll speaks about the coming of the Brothers of Light to the earth plane. It speaks about how Uri Geller will become a Morázeddik, a teacher of righteousness, a teacher of spiritual truth, and how he will bring the nations of the earth together. Mercy is not only the quality of the Morázeddik, but of all the Zeddikim, all the righteous. MERCY IS THE SPIRITUAL INTENSITY OF RECOGNIZING A PAINFUL LOSS, A PAINFUL SCAR TISSUE OF GROWTH, IN ANY LIFE RELATIONSHIP. IF WE ARE TO BE A FAMILY IN LOVE AND LIGHT, WE ARE ALSO TO BE A FAMILY IN MERCY AND FORGIVENESS. If we are to be a family that is to be visited by the Brothers of Light, and will see evidences of higher intelligences, and will actually make contact with these higher intelligences, or in some way help this country and the countries of the world acknowledge a whole new cosmology, then we must also accept the scar tissue, the persecution, the isolation that may come through social estrangement, of being ostracized in our professions, of being taken out of context, of working with a higher language of light, , a different realm of the experiential self, a different psychology of the higher evolution, a different light emanation that goes behind, beyond Einstein and Lorenz. When we have this forgiveness and mercy, then we can be an appointment to the community because we are spiritual economists. We will not drag down or suck the energies of our brothers and sisters. We will be economically accountable. We will be spiritually accountable. We will know what scientific tools of language to use, and how this language is to be protected, and given only to those who have the acknowledgement of the divine self. For without that acknowledgement the higher spiritual knowledge serves the mammon, the brain structures of the old world, the spiritual genocides of those brain structures, those that have the professional attitudes to come, to look and to conquer you.

By carefully weighing then the spiritual emanations of a person, looking at their aura, looking at their works, looking at the way they love and heal their fellowman, you realize their responsibility, and if they are responsible, you share the word of God with them. For the Word of God is the teaching of the Infinite Way, the Infinite Universe. God is the love of your fellowman, and the love of the infinite self. The Word of God includes all of the basics, psychologies, cosmologies, philosophies necessary to remake alpha and omega, beginning and end, from this consciousness time cell to others.

THE EARTH AWAITS

The Earth awaits the arrival
Of the movements of the spring,
Growth of bursting bud,
Melodic tunes birds sing.

It's time for release of color
Which Nature does bestow -
Lush green, gold and red -
As in plant garments sown,
Even fruit has its beginning
In the darkest winter hours,
Long before visual forming
Is seen in leafy bowers.
During months of hibernation
Renewal is ever ready
For the active warming winds,
The rays of sun that's steady.
So within our bodies too
We await complete rejuvenation -
This Glory of the Father -
Behold His New Creation!

(CUT-PICTURE YOUR PERFECTION)

(Each man is the out-picturing of his image.)

THE WORD - Start each day knowing that you are Pure Spirit clothed in flesh, in matter. This flesh, or matter, is subject to your word - for you are Lord and master of your body, or universe. If you are creator of your universe it stands to reason that your word is law unto your being. Your cells - each cell is an entity, or particle of life must obey the command, or Word of its master, which you are.

Speak the Word to your whole body.

Speak the Word to your heart, your liver, your spleen, your solar plexus, your eyes, your ears, your hands, your feet.

COMMAND THEM TO BE PERFECT - Command these to be whole, perfect to BE that perfect one that you image.

THE IMAGE - Can you image a perfect you? Can you see yourself as youth, strength, beauty, filled with energy? Why should it be otherwise? You are all of that, for within the body is the Master Architect, the Builder of your body and "might to restore", remold, re-build, re-energize, re-organize according to your word and your concept or image.

Speak the word to this Master Builder, for you are lord of your universe, or body. Your word is law unto your world, your being.

You are creator in human form. There could be no order in the universe without law - nor can there be order in your body without the image of order, or perfection. Think on this great Truth of Being.

THE BREATH OF LIFE - Give life to your image. You see, without the Breath of Life nothing lives. O yes, it would remain in the image, but could not become alive, or real until the Breath of Life was breathed into it. Make it come alive through your Breath.

THE WILL - Without the Will nothing is accomplished - even though you have followed the first three steps, there remains the Will. But nothing can hinder the Will or determination. Once having the Will to do, or determination to follow through, it is already done - in the abstract.

This is accomplished by the Will of God. Remember this word "God" as meaning Pure Spirit.

THE FAITH - There remains the Faith to know this is so - for it is Law, and Law is. But man must still know this if he is to create consciously.

THE LOVE - Breathe upon your image the Love of your being. Or, "God called it good", which would lead us to believe He was satisfied that it was done, and so was good.

REST - Then He rested. It means having done all, or worked according to Law, or planted the seed, He waited for Law to bring it into manifestation. He knew it was already done because Law is, or Life Essence is Creative Energy and can be molded into any image man shall image.

NOW create your world, O man, for you are Creator in human form. You have been given all power in heaven and earth, as the Son. Claim your heritage, your inheritance. It has been yours since the beginning.

A QUESTION AND ANSWER

QUESTION- What do I do when others around me are negative, and constantly "programming" me with suggestions of lack, failure, etc.?

ANSWER: That is THEIR problem, not YOURS. Do not ACCEPT their thoughts and words as your own. You cannot serve two masters! When you give credence or power to another person you recognize THEM as your master. A false God!

To negative suggestions from others say, "I Am the Presence annulling all of this, so it cannot affect me, my home, or my world. It has NO power over me."

It is the easiest thing in the world to consciously dissipate something that is voiced in your Presence. Simply state: "I Am the ONLY Presence acting here!"

To anything you do not wish to accept or continue, say: "Through the Presence that I Am, this (situation) shall CEASE NOW AND FOREVER!" Say it with conviction, and MEAN it! When you really FEEL and MEAN a thing you let loose the power that does the thing.

Try to realize the Limitless Power at your command! Believe it! Use it! The Truth, indeed, will set you free!

KNOW - what the "I AM" MEANS!

KNOW - what it is to YOU!

KNOW - what it can do - NOW!

ANCHORING IN THE NEW RAY OF CONSCIOUSNESS - WORLD HARMONY

The Christ Plane is on Earth now. As you turn to The Christ within, you will feel this plane rising in you. It is the grounding force of the new creation. As you learn to live in this new creation, thanking God for it, it becomes your life circuit, yea, your entire being. The Rapture is here. It has begun. You are in the Mighty Rapture right now as you accept this new vibration as the Divine Love Circuit and release the past, even that which is most pleasant to you.

The blessings of the New Age are upon us all. The Love of God is judging you perfect. This Love, which is ALL, favors no one, is all embracing. It says, Come! This is the true God of your creation. God is Love.

I AM not an angry God. Nor do I cause karma. I do not punish. I AM joy, love and beauty. I enfold you in My arms right now if you will have Me. As you learn to live in the Presence, so you shall understand I AM Love. For you, that is all there is. Take Me as I AM.

The anchoring in of the new World Harmony Ray brings a new focus for world unity. The Body or the "Elect" must unite and truly stand in the revealed light of God's wondrous Love for all creation. Encircle the globe with this love. Embrace your fellow creatures. Rise as one body all, and bring them home. There is so much need now for unity found only in the Christ, Universal Love. Let us rise above our petty differences into the Body of the Lord where world unity cannot only be perceived, but be an action for the new dimension. Let Love be our banner, and Understanding our nature that all may be free! Christ Awareness is alive on the planet today. In joy we are anchored into the new frequency of the Christ Plane. The building on this Plane is the New Age, as all awaken through the harvest of the Son's. God bless you all!

THE NEW AGE

My Blessed Child: You question the authenticity of certain ideas you have been exposed to recently. Let us give you a few guidelines to go by.

We have told you before that before you accept anything as TRUTH it must harmonize with your INNER feelings, with the SELF of you. You have heard and read many, many concepts and ideas about the emergence of the NEW AGE, of the SECOND COMING, of Earth Changes, etc. You will continue to hear of these things from established sources and from many new sources. The New Age will emerge. The Second Coming is a reality. The earth will have major changes. These things are true, but no man has the answers as to how or when or where these events will take place. Each prophecy or revelation is colored by the consciousness of the Channel. As each has different degrees of awareness there will be differences in the interpretations of the Channelings or Revelations.

The New Age is emerging and each one on earth is relating and reacting to it in his/her own way - some with expectancy and joy, some with violence because they cannot cope with the release of new energies, some with scepticism and unbelief because they are bound to the past. Some see only destruction and are doomsday advocates. So, you see each has his own truth, his own revelation, and will endeavor to convince or convert others to his/her belief.

There is ONE SOURCE, ONE TRUTH, ONE PLAN. When one is in complete oneness with these, he/she will know that his responsibility lies, not in evangelizing, BUT IN BEING. His endeavors are to live as an Example. He allows his Divinity to express in all areas of his life. Then, if others are drawn to him he shares his wisdom and shows them how they may contact their own Source and find out what is needful for them. No two have identical awareness and so no two need the same answers at the same time. Thus, for anyone to attempt to convert or coerce another into his philosophy or belief before they are ready, is wasted energy. Each must use what truth he has and build on that. As he begins to question and search he will be drawn into those areas and to those people who will give him support and understanding in his quest. Lectures, books, classes, workshops, etc. are all from someone else's experience. You may gain some insight or inspiration, but until it is YOUR revelation or YOUR experience it has no real power for you. Seek for your OWN revelation. Experience Life in its fullness. Allow all the creative qualities or opportunity to express through you, and you will experience the "Second Coming". You will be aware of the "New Age" and "doomsday" will have no power over you.

Bless you as you allow your own Divinity to enlighten you and guide your footsteps into the pathway which is for you and you alone. Take each new idea or presentation into your inner sanctum and there evaluate it to see whether or not it resonates with the Divine Self. If it does not qualify, let it go and give it no energy to manifest in your life. Others may find it valid for them. You decide for yourself what is for you. No one else can do this for you. You are the judge. Your decision brings either fulfillment or disappointment. If you have been true to the inner Voice you will find that you are secure, you are stable and the earth changes will not frighten you. The New Age will be an exercise in growth, and the Second Coming will manifest in your inner consciousness. Each will experience these things in his/her own time.

So, again we say, do not put your entire faith in another human being but only in the Divine within you. There lies your fountain of Truth, your tower of strength, the foundation to sustain you, and there lies your eternal SELF. All else is transitory and an illusion. The DIVINE IS! Attune yourself to the Divine, eternal station, and enjoy the song of life!

I AM THE SOURCE OF ALL THAT IS.

THE CHRYSALIS

Think of a butterfly emerging from the comfort and security of its chrysalis. Suppose the butterfly stopped in its process of emerging and said, "No, I cannot leave this place, I don't know what may lie outside." Suppose it stopped and refused to move out. What would happen? It would be failing in its own evolution and if it remained in its chrysalis it would simply shrivel up and die.

So with you, My child. To refuse to move on because you are afraid of the unknown would most certainly hold up your evolution.

I have the most wonderful surprises and joys awaiting you as you step forth fearlessly into this new adventure, as you emerge from your chrysalis. There is nothing to fear. Only the perfect will result from this advance on your part, a whole new opening up of many untold mysteries and wonders.

Remember My child, I AM with you always no matter where you are or what you are doing. I AM there guiding and guarding you.

TRANSLATION

Like a white ghost stepping
Through the twilight of the world
Moves the New Age Spirit
Not yet to sight unfurled,
Seen but not seen,
Everywhere at once,
Behind yet highlighting
Every circumstance.

Till as a fierce flame burning
That Spirit clears the mist
Revealing in its Presence
The timeless catalyst,
In one precise moment
Fast every thought and act
Translating all our being
Into Loving Fact.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

We are happy to announce that Bonnie and Roy Johnson of Redding, California, who had been visiting the City of the Sun, are now becoming members of the Foundation and will be assisting in the development. Their young granddaughter, Tammie, spent several weeks with them.

Chas. Showman and Jeanette Petersen from Florida visited Wayne Taylor several days on their way to Phoenix, Arizona. area

A most enjoyable visitor to our camping/for a week was Rowena Armstrong of Sedona, Arizona.

From time to time people come into the community for special assistance and we are glad to be able to be helpful.

On the afternoon of January 21 we had both a regular Monthly Members' Meeting and the Annual Meeting of the Foundation. It was indeed a full afternoon. Among other business, water and sewer lines were decided on to be extended to the west of the wind tower. This will make six more lots for incoming residents available near the Vortex. A committee to look into an animal shelter for larger animals (goats, etc.) was appointed. Some land near the entrance to the City of the Sun was set aside for a park.

At the Annual Meeting reports were given for 1983 of the Golden Dawn, our Annalee Skarin Binder, and the work that had been accomplished on the Foundation grounds. (Our guest mobile has skirting now and a new coat of paint, among other things.) Mike Webber and Roy Johnson have done a wonderful job on our lot which was set aside as an orchard. For those who have been here, this was the lot Shirley Saunders (and later Thelma Terrell) occupied. Many new trees have been planted, as well as a watering system installed. A report of New Members and Guests was given. Faun Homman, custodian of the chickens, reported 471 dozen eggs were layed in 1983! Special thanks was given to Maurice Hastings who has charge of the mail, and to Faun Homman who has been Treasurer of the Foundation since 1975. Others were recognized who had contributed maintenance work, carpentry and painting around the grounds.

The Board of Trustees for 1984 was elected and are as follows:

Constance Arnot, Chairperson	William Switzler, Vice Chairman
Mary Jane Switzler, Secretary	Wayne Taylor
Sarah Leonard	Mike Webber
Ralph Snyder

Maurice Hastings became the new Foundation Treasurer.

Mary Jane Switzler was retained as Foundation Secretary.

A group of community members shared birthday greetings and refreshments with Maurice Hastings in January.

During the early part of 1984 the emergency water tower has been placed upon its stilted foundation.

After the February Trustees' Meeting there was a lovely surprise birthday luncheon for Mary Jane Switzler.

Many of our community members were oggling at some overnight visitors we had in our little lagoon - Canadian Geese winter vacationing in the area.

February also brought another new member - Ray Schuckmann, the Permaculture environmentalist whose type of work was discussed in Golden Dawn 76. His work can be very important here.

Feb. 18 brought a surprise birthday dessert for William Switzler.

The City of the Sun Foundation is starting plans to build a pyramid 16' x 16' near the Vortex. This can be used for meditation and the total well being of all those led to use it. Two of our newer members, Ralph and Bertha Snyder, have had a life long vision of constructing such an edifice, and will be putting in a good proportion of the cost. More will be written later as the plans progress. We also expect to print something about pyramid energies.

HE NEVER FAILS

He never fails, how can He?
Since all the worlds are swayed at His command,
Yet not a sparrow falls without His knowing
So we can safely trust our lives within His hand.

At times, the shadows seem so heavy
They hide the sunshine from our heavenly view,
But this we know, He will not fail us
And sometime, somehow, He will see us through.

Sometimes the grief and pain are hard to carry
And in earthly wisdom we complain,
Yet He who watches o'er the tiny sparrow
Shall not allow our suffering in vain.

As in His wisdom, which we cannot fathom,
Each of His children's journey here is planned,
So we can safely lean upon His bosom.
He never fails. He always understands.
