FOLLOW THE TRUE SPIRITUAL PATH

My Beloved, as a soul seeks deep within, it will find its true path, and when it has found it let it follow that path without deviation. But let not that soul try to persuade another soul that that path is the only path and that only by following it can the goal be reached. Try to understand there are hundreds and hundreds of different paths but they all lead to the same goal. That is why every soul must learn to do its own seeking and never try to follow someone else's path unless it is inspired to do so from deep within.

Seek and ye shall find, ask and ye shall receive, knock and it shall be opened. Meditate on this, take time to be very still and allow your consciousness to rise so that you understand the full meaning of these words. They are there for all who choose to take time to ponder on them, put them into practice and see whether they work. Unless these truths are put to the test, how can you possibly tell whether they really work or not? If it is raining and you have an umbrella in your hand, unless you open up that umbrella and hold it over your head to protect yourself from being soaked, you will simply get soaked. You have to do something about it. You have to lift it up over your head and open it, and only then can you see if it works and how it works. When you are led upon a certain spiritual path, it is up to you to see whether it is the right one for you. You can do this by trying it out, putting it to the test in your daily life and living and seeing for yourself whether it works for you, whether you find true and lasting satisfaction from living this way a hundred percent; whether it really changes your life and draws you ever closer to the realization of your Oneness with Me, the Lord your GOD.

If the path does this for you, follow it until you reach the goal. But if you find yourself questioning this and that and are dissatisfied with certain points, with doubts creeping in about it, never strain nor strive to understand. Realize that this path is not for you and seek again and again until you find the right one. You will always know when you have found your true spiritual path because you will find perfect peace of heart and mind. All striving will cease and you will find your feet following a path of Light. You will know where you are going and will no longer hesitate but every step you take will be firm and sure and taken in absolute confidence. When you know you are doing the right thing you can speak and act with real authority, and it matters not to you what anyone says, thinks or does. You know you have to follow that path without faltering until you reach the ultimate goal.

Always remember, the true spiritual path for you is not complicated, for you are able to see it absolutely clearly even if it is only a very small portion at a time. You are willing to accept it and allow it to unfold for you step by step, giving constant thanks for each step as it unfolds before you, for you have placed your life in My hands and you know it is I Who am guiding and directing your every footstep, and all is very, very well. When I AM with you, who can be against you?

When you have found your path, be very tolerant, very loving and very understanding with those who have not yet found their path, and turn them within to enable them to find theirs.

PROSPERITY

All that is is GOD. And GOD'S nature is one of creative abundance. As I look around me, I can see that nothing was created meagerly or in short supply. Trees do not bear one or two or even ten leaves, nor are there only one or two kinds of trees. In the skies, even so great a creation as a sun was not done in short supply. GOD filled the universe with a marvelous diversity of things, all in generous supply. As a unique Child of GOD, I delight in this marvelous abundance. I look for the many evidences of GOD'S creativity and abundance, and I am filled with joy at the beauty, mystery, intelligence and profusion of all that is. As I acknowledge the abundance of my world and allow myself to become joy-filled, I create a powerful channel in my own consciousness to experience ever more of this abundance. I am also filled with awe and gratitude, for I could never have done enough to "earn" all the Good that is effortlessly mine. I could not have earned the blue sky, the sparkling water, the soft breeze or the smiling eyes of a friend. GOD gave these without asking and without demanding payment. So, I know that as these things that I need like air and water are given, so will smaller things also be given as I make a clear channel of my life so that I do not overlook my blessings by focusing on thoughts of fear or limitation. When I know rightly, I know that fearfulness and limitation are not part of this creative universe. So, I fill myself only with thoughts of abundance and I am prospered.

Thank you, GOD.

DIVINE RELATIONSHIP

Infinite Spirit indwells me. Divine Love is within me. I am at One with GOD. My body and my affairs are transformed in the awareness of my Divine relationship. GOD is what I am, in me as me.

Dr. J. J. Hurtak's Material:

(Principle 9)

TWELVE SPIRITUAL PRINCIPLES

PRINCIPLE NINE, JUDGEMENT OF OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS, NOW, DURING EVOLVEMENT INTO OTHER LIFE SYSTEMS COMES ONLY FROM THE UNIVERSAL MIND. Once again, judgement of our brothers and sisters, now, during evolution into other life systems, comes only from the Universal Mind. This relationship with our brothers and sisters brings no judgement. Enoch has explained to me how the day of transformation will be a day of graduation for those on this planet. It will be a day of judgement for those who judge themselves. It will be a day of judgement for those who do not believe in the Infinite Mind, for those who do not acknowledge the Brothers of Light, who live in fear of what they project as the darkness out there, which is really the darkness within themselves. These are the ones who have been neutralized by the false forms of religious forms of education, or scientific education, who are caught up in linear constructs of space and time, either in terms of spiritual consciousness, or scientific consciousness. They cannot conceive of how the spiritual time dimensions, the perceptual, the scientific dimensions of time and space can come together, and how this molecule of the life force can be impregnated with another. As a consequence they are in judgement of all other molecules; theirs isn't the only one.

Their scripture is the old prosaic sand bag; their understanding is to bring judgement upon others who do not accept their sacred truths. They do not realize that there are revealed truths that are now coming in from the Brotherhoods of Michael, the Brotherhood which controls the galactic thresholds; the reaching Brotherhood of Melchizedek, which controls the consciousness thought forms of regeneration from one planetary dimension to another; and the teaching Brotherhood of Enoch, which is working with the spiritual science of the Pyramid, and all pyramid technology from this planetary dimension to other life fields. They do not understand that revealed truth means precisely that. It is revealed within our time, within our consciousness; that we can break the seven seals, the seven chakras, and open up all of the chakra grids to understand how that is coded on the capstone of Light, without and within the biological pyramid of the human experience. For we are all collectively the bio-chemical pyramid upon the face of the earth, and as we are synchronized with the model of the Great Pyramid, we also acknowledge that we need the capstone of Light from above. That capstone comes when we see that capstone as a graduation into other dimensions of that pyramidal life force. The whole process then of our education is the synthesis where we go beyond that judgment; we recognize that we have to go through certain changes. In judging ourselves we learn to love ourselves, and to give forth a greater love and forgiveness. The judgement comes only from the Universal Mind. The Universal Mind allows nations to judge themselves.

Enoch explained how there would be great wars and upheavals upon this planet, but how the Brothers of Light would sit back and let nations use their nuclear weapons if necessary, if that was the freedom or free will of those in command of that authority force, for they were the authoritarian force of consciousness which had to program themselves out of existence. Now the authorities of consciousness have turned this planet into a place of violence, darkness and despair, so that the meek and righteous are oblivious to the other light dimensions, and even to the major truths that the religions have locked away in their Vaticans and their archives. It has taken man several thousand years to recognize the truth of the Dead Sea Scrolls; that there are many teachers of righteousness, many communities of Light. It has taken the eastern communities thousands of years to recognize that man has to go through the caste system and recognize that the Buddha is within everyone. Working with the revealed text, with the revealed truth of these Enoch keys, we are breaking seals of these old documents to gather the scientific scriptures from Tibet, China, India, Egypt, Israel, so they all form one pattern of Light, one new Bible, one new story of creation, or one new story of genesis that we must go through. It is not a case of the book of Revelation or the book of Genesis, but a combination of the book of Genesis, book of Exodus, and the book of Revelation all together. You cannot have one without the others. As you go into the new regeneration of the planet, we find the higher science revealed, and as we find the higher science revealed, we are able to take a genetic exodus out of the old pyramidal models of Light energy into new life forms. We are able to leave the old vortex patterns and go into whole new relationships with other energy fields, other energy thresholds. We are able to understand the language of spectre and spectra, matter and muon waves, to reflect the need to go beyond the sun worship, or the neutralization of simply being within our own solar spectrum, or our own sun's light, our own son of God, and work with the many sons of God, the many sons of Light.

The Universal Mind at this time has stationed in our galaxy teaching Brotherhoods of Light. They are part of a tremendous galactic rearrangement, a galactic housecleaning. The threshold controls are being changed. Many planetary time cells are being changed. It's like when your brain dies and some of the brain cells are replaced by new brain cells. The recording mechanisms are already recorded upon the new brain cells to take the place of the old before it dies out. There are auto coupling devices that monitor various parts of your systems, and let inner flashes go on, showing you that you're entering a state of collapse, but also the chemistry here will be synthesized and merged anew in a different state. The plasma of the planet is being put through the terrors and upheavals of the changing of the planetary membrane. We are told through Enoch that there are twelve meridians, twelve geophysical time warps, all throughout the planetary membrane that will be used by the Brotherhood of Light as it lands, and directs the civilian population to go into those threshold areas where they will be protected from the radiations that will come with the changing of the electromagnetic field. Government scientists know about this. They are already working on clothing that can be worn for radiation fallout that will take place. Some have even envisioned cities under the ground. Some have taken this with the passing of Yahweh's Light over the face of the Earth where the people of Israel have to hide in the rocks and not turn their faces to God lest the electromagnetic radiation ruin their spiritual and genetic capacity to think and spiritually evolve. We are told that this happened before on the planet when there were nations that rebelled and did not respect the word of the Masters of Light, and thought they could do it all by themselves, and now have to suffer their genetic karma for thousands of years. Once again this is coming around again and again. It happens every so many thousands of years. Some are taken off while this takes place; some remain, protected while this takes place, protected by the pillars of light to become the new Adams and the new Eves. The Universal Mind allows all things to take place, but within the realm of Love you have the realm of the Eternal Light; you have the protection, the healing and the deliverance.

According to Enoch, these twelve geophysical time warps will be organized as pyramids of Light. In other words, these Light emanations of the people and the scientists gathered there, set up pyramidal facings of Light. One will be the face of electro-medicine, the healing power of Light. One will be a new source of Light that will come out of a new source of electro-mechanical energy conversion, free pulsation of Light. Another will be a Light technology that will be made through using the higher keys of science. It will be a whole new energy vehicle that will be there. The combination of all of these new Light embodiments will allow the specie that is there to have its gel structure already prepared, programmed to inhabit the next level of electro-magnetic programming. We will be able to go into the density. Those who are not prepared for the changing will either go down into more violence, or will go the other way into greater spirituality, for the chemistry here is already working with a timetable of events. However, the free gift of the redemptive Light is freely given, even to those without the original Light, so that all can walk in the Light if they freely desire.

A LOOK INSIDE A PLANT

After reading "Mind in Plants" a message in Golden Dawn 76, one of our New Mexico friends shared this life experience with us:

"When I was a youngster I had this experience: Because I had been born, and lived several years on an African desert, I was very much delighted with the colorful flowers and gardens when we moved to Germany. Sitting in front of a flower I stared at it for a long time until I found myself (my consciousness) inside the flower. I discovered that it was a living and pulsing entity. Bright greenish tinged light filtered through the walls which had small slits where I could see the blue sky through. It was much brighter inside than I thought possible. I saw the plant fluid streaming along. After such a long time I remember only that the light filtered through in different shades of green. The plant also communicated with me and explained different functions, the workshop of the chloroplast bodies, the protoplasm. As it was, the plant appeared to me as an upside down being. Its intelligence was concentrated in the soil, or at ground level, where the roots and the stalk came together.

"It was a stark impression, and a glorious sight, to behold the moving, the pulsing, and pumping going on inside; observing the differences of light under the sunlight changing with the clouds. As soon as it grew darker ( a cloud covering the sun) the whole life process slowed down considerably; perking up again when sunlight reappeared. I was not allowed at the time to enter the globular chloroplasts because I would not understand the complicated functions going on inside."

GERMINAL THOUGHT FOR SPRING

From this epicenter of Light there can spread a message not only of hope, but of possibilities and growing patterns of Light and Love. The way is clear and we must walk it; the word is given and we must talk it.

I say, "Plant a seed and care for it when you are able, do not be attached to the harvest". Let the goal be the planting, the tending in the planting. The pattern of life is generated anew and so grows the life force. The seed cannot grow until it is planted. When the tender babe arises for all to see then someone may come to nurture it - or eat it. It will have begun, and thus life has moved forward again by one generation. So plant and walk, and talk, I pray, and care for the sprouts along the way!

A REGRETABLE TRANSGRESSION

Lady Vancia Speaks - CP

(The following sermon was given to a large, weeping congregation in one of the Heaven Worlds. Ed.)

NEVER under any provocation allow yourself to "sit in the seat of the scorner!" That is the most dangerous "throne" in the world - more deadly and pain-causing than the electric chair. All souls are God, personified according to the INTEREST Life has chosen to focus upon and thus become identified with individually. YOU ARE what you're attracted to. You ensoul the ideas that claim your attention to the point where you can say I AM this or that. Your separateness is only an ILLUSION of selfhood. It dies daily as your interests change, causing you to BE a little different from what you were the night before, though the transition is so gradual you hardly realize it takes place.

Though you go on in the illusive framework of time to work out the so called "karmic" effects of the ideas you've emotionally entertained, you are always changing your limited sense of selfhood, as your mind explores the unlimited ideas that make up the Mind of the World Soul, in whose body you exist. YOU are in charge of your destiny and as Paul said, can renew your sense of selfhood by the renewing of your mind with its focus of ATTENTION, till you conceive of yourself as an entirely different sort of being - the being you've CHOSEN to become, though you may never have realized that you made that choice.

When your "mind" renews itself by changing its interests, your outer experience naturally begins to correspond, for everything in your body and world reflects what you conceive yourself to be from moment to moment. Of course in the framework of time, the day to day transition seems slow, as causes your thinking produces take effect in "the mirror" of your external reality. The point, as I said, remains that you are not the same CONSCIOUS INDIVIDUALIZATION of LIFE you were this morning, or last week or five years ago. YOU ARE WHAT YOU CONCEIVE YOURSELF TO BE RIGHT NOW, and your body and outer experience correspond to this concept EXACTLY, moment by moment as you live your life as a human soul.

That is why you must never look down with scorn or consider yourself better (or worse) than anyone else. Man doesn't realize his oneness with his human brothers until he reaches Christhood, but each of you is God Personified - no more and no less. Perhaps you were interested in Wisdom and your neighbor was interested in love. He didn't choose to experience the knowledge that drew you, but his relationship to his family is close and strong and brings him joy. Because he doesn't KNOW what you do, doesn't make him worth less as a soul. It only shows his self identification with Limitless Life has drawn his selfhood into a DIFFERENT sort of expression.

I repeat, ALL OF YOU ARE GOD, personified, because as Life, you chose to identify yourself as you in a certain way and this illusion has caused you to think and feel separate from your brother man, as well as the animals, flowers and birds of the Elemental Kingdom. However, Life is Omnipresent. That means YOU are omnipresent in the world you look upon. According to your interests you can be ANY KIND of individual with any quality, power or sense of self identification you choose - right on up to the Nirvana State of total Oneness with all Life EVERYWHERE. That is why you must never look on ANYTHING or ANYONE and judge by its false appearance to you, that it is better or worse than yourself. When you fail to love ALL you are failing to love that which is a PART OF YOU. YOU alone are Lord of all you survey and can decide what you will call every manifested form in your reality. You become aware of the people and things that surround you ONLY because, to some extent, your vibratory soul make-up has come into accord with theirs. Of course, if they bring you pain, you have a right to see them as a Perfect expression of Life, and by doing this you can prevent them from manifesting anything contrary to that in your presence. Thus your Love can overcome what once seemed to be an enemy or adversary. If there is something in their makeup that rejects the idea of Perfection that you are projecting towards them, they may just drift out of your way, but if there is something in them that you can enjoy, they will remain so you can both benefit from the continued relationship.

True, YOU are the Lord of your own world before whom there is none other, but to scorn ANYONE is to see an imperfection that will have to become manifest in your life. LOVE! Don't criticize. Keep your eye single to the Godhood in all you meet and ONLY GODS will come into your experience. Remember, NO ONE can be dumb, evil, hot tempered, dishonest or in opposition to you until you ACCEPT the fact that their imperfection exists in your sight. What you bind in heaven, in relation to what can affect you, you also bind on Earth to the point where that imperfection manifests to your detriment.

BE STILL AND KNOW "I AM GOD!" I CANNOT look on iniquity lest I manifest that. Leave the gossip and holier-than-thou attitudes to the unilluminated. So be it. Amen.

THOUGHTS TO CONTEMPLATE

We all know the Creation story in Genesis -

"In the beginning, when GOD created the heavens and the Earth, the Earth was a formless wasteland and darkness covered the abyss, while a mighty wind swept over the waters. Then GOD said

"Let there be L I G H T " and there was L I G H T . . . (New American Bible)

"light" the symbol of New Age Light children.

"Light" the blessing, the life giving force on this planet, changing in photosynthesis its photons, its light carrying particles into matter, that we may be. Manna created for us every single day.

What is light? The scientist Philip Morrison, an MIT cosmologist states: "Light is electromagnetic radiation, its basis is electricity, is countless electrons twirling in unison." Not all light-vibrations can be seen by human eyes, yet, its elusive electricity is everywhere as K.C.Cole states in the Discover 2/84. He says: "It lives in the walls of our houses, regulates the life in our cells of the body, bolts from the sky as lightning, as sparks from our fingers if we touch metal after shuffling across the rug. It runs electric trains and human brains, and almost no one knows how to explain it."

Electrons move, some of them are captivated by the nuclei of those atoms; our will holds them together as our present human body. Those billions of atoms are creating our magnetic field, our AURA, this scintillating colored halo that shows to a psychic IF there is harmony in us or not. There are auric magnetic fields around EVERY living thing, and there is NO-THING that can be called "dead". ALL is composed of tremendously active moving atoms, combined in groups (molecules) giving distinct properties to your wooden stool, the cloth we wear, all that you/we ARE and use. We cannot walk through a wall, yet, we wouldn't stub our toe if we tripped over a light-beam.

Consider our Solar System, the Sun and its planets, an exact copy of an atom with its nucleus and its moving electrons in shells around this nucleus. The sun and planets all moving, all held together in a precise order by electromagnetic powers measured by our cosmologists, physicists, etc. The density of earth-matter can not be penetrated by us. We do not sink into it, thank goodness. Yet, there are cosmic particles that can pass through our whole planet, never touching its atoms that give it form. Their speed is phenomenal. Gravity does not affect them; their size is incredibly small, yet their pass can be predicted by our scientists.

These thoughts shake our ways of accustomed thinking. God....Light....Creation..... The CREATIVE FORCE penetrates all - all of Cosmos, all of our bodies, all be it immensely big or small. All is made of the Essence of the Creator. We ARE of the Essence of the Creator, the Force of the Creative Potential IS IN US!

"Let there be Light and there was Light."

WE CONDENSED FROM THIS LIGHT: Thought, ideas we receive are Light impulses; their impact on our brains can be measured by man's computers.

CONTEMPLATE: Does it not seem that we are IN THE MIND OF GOD, part of it? "Know ye not that ye are gods" the Master said 2000 years ago. Can we endure this shifting of responsibility? Dare we say "I AM God" not "a" God but of the "essence of God"? I can say: ... I AM a point of Light within a greater Light....

A small essay.... I think "atom" and its perfect balance of its positive and negative parts that create its perfect equilibrium!
So much more to contemplate!

MORE ON PYRAMIDS IN GENERAL

Golden Dawn 77 stated that we intended to build a pyramid at the City of the Sun for the purpose of using its energies for meditation and upliftment.

We will probably be learning a great deal about the energies which a pyramid accumulates and throws off. In ancient times pyramids were used not only to bury the pharaohs, but for initiation and rites of enlightenment. It was said that an initiate was blessed by knowing the great mysteries, or, if not spiritually advanced, was saindeed unfortunate for probing into the potent pyramid energies!

The Kerlian photographs of pyramids (generators) show this energy, invisible to the naked eye, being released in jets up through the apexes of the pyramid. (They think about 80% of the energy is released thru the apex, the other 20% exiting via the base-corners.)

There is more to a pyramid than meets the eye. From studies it seems to be both a receiver and transmitter of energy. Natural energy is magnetism supplied by the sun to our solar system, as other suns supply all the systems throughout the Universe. It is the spark of life to all living things and the means of retaining shapes in others. It is the beginning and end of power, travelling full cycle. You can collect it at its present level, build it up to enormous strengths, use its performance and it will return to its natural level. Life is energy in a shape, ready to move, expecting resistance. For anything to grow or move the power of the energy must be greater than the resistance. Our problem has been how to harness energy without depleting it - oil, coal, gas or uranium. We cannot destroy this pyramid energy by consumption, only use the power of the energy which is unlimited, stable and for all time.

Throughout the Earth many are testing pyramid energy - on plants (for them to grow more quickly and bear more), for food preservation, for relieving human ailments such as headaches, etc. ALL PEOPLE, HOWEVER, SAY TO TEST PYRAMID POWER CAREFULLY AND SLOWLY. People who meditate too long under a pyramid have had severe reactions for awhile.

MORE ON OUR PYRAMID

We mentioned that the City of the Sun is building a pyramid. Because of our efforts in meditation to carry out the wishes of the Higher Ones the plans have become more and more in detail, and thus more costly. The dear Snyders have furnished two-thirds of the necessary materials, but they are now financially unable to do more to complete the project. The Higher Ones' specifications call for the foundation to be four feet underground and one foot above. (This has already been excavated.) Concrete bricks are on hand and mortar for foundation walls, framework materials, special tinted windows, sheets of plywood for the roof, a marble slab for an altar, and part of the flooring.

But more materials are needed to carry out these plans, as well as some labor, and probably a dozen other small things we haven't thought about, and FUNDS WILL BE NEEDED TO COMPLETE THIS PYRAMID PROJECT. This is the second time in the life of the City of the Sun Foundation that any assistance has been invited by Golden Dawn Readers who might be interested. The first time was in 1974-75 when the community building was erected. At that time many of you lovingly shared. So, now a Special Fund is being announced for any of you who wish to participate in this Pyramid Project. With Love and Gratitude we accept any Love Gift.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN FOUNDATION:

Inadvertently we left off the names of two important officers from the list printed in the last issue. They are: Sarah Leonard, Chairperson, and Faun Homman, Secretary, of our monthly Members' Meetings.

A surprise sumptuous breakfast was served to honor Sarah Leonard on her birthday March 6th.

March 8, 1984 was the beginning of the physical work upon our Foundation pyramid. A back hoe dug out the hole where the walls will be placed. A building permit is being secured.

Alexis Spriggs of the Columbus Fire and Rescue Crew gave an excellent talk on Sensible Fire Safety at our Members' Meeting.

On March 16th an enjoyable outdoor gathering was had to celebrate Olie Mae Hale's birthday.

We are so pleased that Rowena Armstrong of Sedona, Arizona (also Idaho) has become a new Foundation member.

Roy and Judy Pearson of Tijeras, New Mexico took the opportunity to visit several of us at the City of the Sun.

Ray Schuckmann and Carol Ely have recently returned from a trip to Mazatlan, Mexico and California. They attended meetings and continued to help promote awareness of the evolving land use/architectural design concept called "permaculture". Their stops included the Green Gulch Zen Center near San Francisco, and the Ojai Foundation near Los Angeles.

Mike and Helen Webber and Olie Mae Hale have just returned from an extended trip to Louisiana where they separately visited their relatives and friends. It is reported that Mother Nature was bedecked in spring finery - so uplifting!

Dr. James W. Barton and Dr. Verlie Barton, both Naturopathic doctors, and he also a chiropractor, have just become members of the City of the Sun. They expect to be moving here soon, and we shall be telling more of their work then.

A "birthday shower" was held for our Founder, Wayne Taylor, on April 17th, his natal day.

Bill Van Winkle made a fast visit to the City of the Sun.

Olie Mae's son, Elwood Hale, and wife Marge, visited one weekend. He gave one of his worthwhile talks on "Communicating".

LOVE CHART

I am Love!
I am loving, loved and beloved.
I give and receive abundant love.
I see love everywhere, in everything.
I feel love - right here and right now.
I speak only with love in my heart.
I desire and deserve love.
I am a love magnet.
Love serves me, and I serve love.
I am the self-generator of love.
With my love I create
Beauty, truth, health and happiness,
Success, prosperity and more love.
I live in love
More fully each day.
