MAY YOUR SEARCH FOR TRUTH NEVER CEASE

From one of the letters of Annalee Skarin:

"Never let anyone take from you your God given right to think and feel, to pray, to search, and to inquire of God, that your search for Truth may never cease. God bless you.

"This is sacred ground on which we tread, and we can travel it safely by walking humbly and with a constant prayer. I used to tell my husband that he and I had reached out into the Universe and gathered our arms full of stardust; then held on until our very hands were seared that we might bring some of it back to glorify our fellowmen and this little world of ours. Therefore, to us these are not just books, but they are experiences, and we could no more deny them than Christ could deny the Resurrection after the Lord experienced it.

"There is much of glory and light that I can share with you as time goes on, if you desire to travel this divine highway of Light. But this I do ask of you, never accept anything I tell you without praying about it. As you study and read these books you must do the same. Pray with your heart and soul and mind wide open to the glorious Spirit of Almighty God. This glorious, loving, all-knowing Holy Spirit is the real Teacher. All I shall try and do is to teach you how to turn to it - and then you shall become filled with Light and comprehend all things.

"This Spirit of God, or Holy Spirit, truly fills all space. It is also through all things, round all things, and in all things. If you will go back down the sacred experiences of your past life you will recall all the times you were inspired, directed, comforted, or given a touch of Divine help just when it was needed most. Gather up these experiences, and then know positively that you need not be inspired only occasionally, but that as you become consciously aware of this great loving power of God enfolding you, you can so place yourself in tune that you can become an actual generator to draw it within you that you might have this constant companionship and power with you at all time. This is the most glorious gift that is possible to receive on this earth. It is this glorious, loving Holy Spirit that will lead you into all Truth, that will lead you to the throne of God and our glorious Redeemer; that They too will stand revealed before you. This Holy Spirit never reproaches, never condemns, never rebukes, but in tenderness, meekness, loving compassion it instructs, inspires and directs. It is always loving and tender and patient, although It is easily grieved - a thought, a word, an act that is selfish, boisterous, unkind or out-of-tune will cause It to withdraw from us. Sometimes at the end of your day you will have a feeling of something you said or did that was out of line. Or, you may have to re-think carefully the experiences of the day in order to discover just where you failed. As you see your mistake and humbly acknowledge it, and again seek for the guidance of this glorious Light, you will find It will return without censure or condemnation to accompany you.

"To be purified and cleansed from all sin as given in the D. & C. 50:26-29 (26- He that is ordained of God and sent forth, the same is appointed to be the greatest, notwithstanding he is the least and the servant of all. 27- Wherefore, he is possessor of all things; for all things are subject unto him, both in heaven and on earth, the life and the light, the Spirit and the power, sent forth by the will of the Father through Jesus Christ, his Son.

28- But no man is possessor of all things except he be purified and cleansed from all sin.

29- And if ye are purified and cleansed from all sin, ye shall ask whatsoever you will in the name of Jesus and it shall be done.)

means to train your thoughts to think only the most loving things possible of every person, or every condition and all things. True repentance means to turn from evil. If you will immediately repent of any unworthy thought, critical thought, and replace it with loving thoughts of Christ like compassion, you will soon find that you have "overcome" the evils of your life. Your mind and life will have lost the power to hurt and wound, and you will have developed the pure, gracious Christ Spirit. It never condemns, criticizes, accuses, belittles or gives out a vibration in thought, word or act that is not as forgiving, as understanding and loving as the thoughts of Christ Himself. These laws are so simple, so easy to live, and so joyous to the soul."

Annalee Skarin

Note: There are always new people who have never heard of the Translation of Annalee Skarin, and her husband, Reason, and how they changed the very cells of their bodies to perfection and Light. Now they help Our Father-Mother God upon many planes of consciousness.

A PRAYER

Father, help me to be joyously happy, understanding, successful, perfectly free, balanced in all my activity - confident and healthy.

Help me to fear nothing, bring order out of my unbalanced life, establish peace within and without, seeing the beauty in all, and through my life style show love, strength to every one.

Father, I just described the qualities of the Christ within me, the part of me that is yours, the Christ that never fails. Father, help me to remember this. Thank you. It is done.

THE AFFIRMATION THAT WORKED

Consumed with varied kinds of arthritis in EVERY joint can be a most challenging way to live, or, at least I found it so. At one moment I was engaged with a consuming pain in one joint. A few minutes later the pain had traveled, but was no less severe, in another part of my body. Life was a constant meeting of pain. But I did not believe in heavy pain killers and so I worked and worked to solve the dilemma I had brought forth within myself.

As each stressed muscle and joint was felt, a good part of my mind's attention went to it telling it over and over "to relax", to "let God have His healing way". I tried to "see" it relaxing. Often it was necessary to lie clear down as I thus worked. The main Affirmation I used was "Thank You God for taking care of this." I did not repeat it just once, nor just a dozen times, but over and over and over. Finally the pained muscles and joint would accept the suggestion "to relax". How grateful I was. Maybe the entire procedure had to be done over in a short time to take care of the stress and pain in another area.

Most people worked to earn their living. During those months I worked to be able to live with what I had allowed to happen to me. There was no one else to blame. I believed my emotional reactions had caused it. I was convinced of it.

But then a surprising and wonderful thing began to happen. The pain would more quickly release itself as I worked and repeated my Affirmation "Thank You God for taking care of this". Finally, the releasing of the pain became almost automatic and instantaneous with the repeating of the Affirmation. At the same time I was working in this manner I was pondering and praying over my emotions so that they might become more balanced. (All of us need to learn to deal with emotions.)

It is with great gratitude in my heart that I say that "this Affirmation worked for me"! This Affirmation, or another one you would choose, can be a help in your life IF YOU TOO WORK WITH IT!

A City of the Sun Resident

I hold it true that thoughts are things;
They're endowed with bodies and breath and wings;
And that we send them forth to fill
The world with good results, or ill;
That which we call our secret thought
Speeds forth to Earth's remotest spot,
Leaving its blessings or its woes
Like tracts behind us as it goes.
We build our future 'thought by thought',
For good or ill, yet know it not;
Yet so the Universe was wrought.
Thought is another name for fate;
Choose then thy destiny and wait,
For love brings love, and hate brings hate.

THE POWER OF LOVE

From Lady Vancia's Master Diary - CP

Love seeketh not its own. Love suffereth long and is kind. This is Love that I'm talking about. If you have all the Wisdom and all the knowledge, unless you have Love you cannot manifest it. If you give much and do great good in the world, yet have not Love, it will not manifest to you. Everything that you are comes into being according to the amount of Love you have within yourself and are radiating. Love does not try to draw anything into itself - it does not ask for anything - it does not want anything. That is characteristic of the Ego that seeks what it believes to be its just dues. That is the little-self. God Loves all His people, no matter what they are doing. Whether they realize their oneness with Him or not, their I AM Presence is still within them, loving them, or they would not be alive. There can be no form without Love, for Love is THE SUBSTANCE from which Perfection takes form. The more you go into the kind of Love that demands, because it has done or is doing thus and so; or you are married to me so you owe me that; or you are my child - my mother or whatever and asking "Why are you not doing this for me?" That is NOT LOVE! Love is a quality of Spirit - it is the quality that RADIATES from you. It draws nothing. It is not trying to draw - it can only radiate.

If you are trying to make your loved ones feel guilty - that is NOT LOVE, at that point. You may love that individual, but while you are trying to make them feel guilty, or you are trying to make them do something - commanding or demanding anything, that is not radiating, and if you are not radiating - WITH JOY - you are not experiencing Love. Love is always accompanied by Joy. If it is accompanied by pain, it is not Love. You may be trying to get Love, but you can't get Love as an act - you can only radiate it.

As you radiate Love you are radiating whatever thought you have in your mind into perfect form, and if you are really radiating Love, Love will then come back to you, but Love seeketh not its own. It is not puffed up, recalling all the things it has said and done. Love is a quality of Spirit by which everything that is made into form, comes into form. It is as simple as that!

If you make yourself a radiating point of Love, no matter what takes place, or who does what to you, you are radiating Perfection into your world. The most wonderful favor you can possibly do for your enemy is to hate him, because when you hate someone you are putting hatred out into your world, and that is not good. Hatred takes the form of evil, so you are helping your enemy by carrying out his wish for you. BUT, if you Love your enemy, you are putting a projection of Love in the place of anything He could do to you, and Love is just like a FORCE FIELD OF PROTECTION.

Anything directed to you cannot penetrate a radiation of Love. You don't have to seek your own. You don't have to do anything but just radiate Love, and as you do it, those who love you will appear in your life and they will treat you right. If they do not, just leave it in the Father's Hands. Do not feel guilty. Do not feel that you have failed - in your marriage, or your relationships, or as a parent - you have not failed! You are God and all you have to do is BE GOD.

God has three attributes - Wisdom, Love and Power. You radiate the Wisdom that you draw from within, thru the heart center, which goes out by radiating Love, and those two produce the action of Perfection born in your world. Everyone coming into this world, even a Master, creates some Karma, because this is the world of cause and effect. There is no complete innocence, once you have entered the realm of humanity. Only the rising above duality into Spirituality - into conscious Godhood, activates the Law of Grace, able to wipe out karma. Only Love can pierce the veil that hides man's true identity from him. He must remember his God-Nature and radiate the Love that he is.

INDIAN PRAYER

Oh Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds - hear me.

I am small and weak and need your strength and wisdom.

Let me walk in beauty and may my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.

Make my hands respect the things you have made and my ears sharp to hear Your voice.

Make me wise so that I may understand the things You have taught my people.

Let me learn the lessons hidden in every leaf and rock.

I seek strength not so that I may be greater than my brother, but so that I may fight my greatest enemy - myself.

Make me always ready to meet You with clean hands and straight eyes.

So when life fades as with the fading sunset my spirit may come to You without shame.

THE VERY STONES WOULD HAVE CRIED

The very stones would have cried out
Had Christ not had His day,
His time for triumphant life,
His resurrection on display.

And so the stones would cry again
For Earth's redemptions nigh,
Her urgent need for freedom -
Must it wait, and why?

Man must help all life
Steadily evolve and grow.
Too long we've held it back

As useless negativities we sow.

Dear life-forms of every realm

Forgive our selfish ways.

We must become the Gods we are

Allowing ALL life its "higher day".

The stones would cease their crying

As we grasp the torched flame

Leading a triumphant march

Onward in Christ's hallowed name.

MY CUP RUNNETH OVER

Greetings you beings of Our Heavenly Father's "Light". I am Sananda.

Yea, my cup doth runneth over with love, an outpouring of love, closeness and caring for all you magnificent beings of "Light" who share your magnificence with Our Creator's beautiful little sphere you call Earth.

There is no way I can bring to you the extent of my deep appreciation for what you do in words of your communicative devices, your language. I can only wait for that time to come when your awareness opens up to the receptivity of the vibrations of love and "Light" I send your way. And that day quickly nears. For one as closely associated as I, I find the essence of my very being linked with each and every one of you upon that most beautiful planet. It cannot be otherwise, for my foremost thoughts go out to all who take measure of themselves and commit their great "Lighted" efforts toward the enlightenment of a planet known to some as Saras, the planet of sorrows.

My message to you at this time may be viewed as a reminder, a prompting to take stock of your reason for being - your chosen role in immortal life, my dear ones. Cast off the shackles of Earth thinking which place limits on your self realization, self awareness and knowledge of God self which truly you have within you. Expand your horizons of thinking to lift yourselves above and beyond the manifesting abhorances you perceive going on around you as Earth divests herself of eons of time of less-than-"Lighted" vibrations which you call darkness.

Do not allow yourselves to be swept up into the vortex of manifesting thought which is perceived as omen of impending disaster for the planet. Do not identify with those who display a callous disregard for values you know as enlightened and loving. Disassociate yourself from the Darkness which seems to pervade the planet. It shall not touch you. It cannot touch you. You are "Lighted" emissaries of God who chose to take your specialness to a small planet greatly in need of enlightenment. Your use of the "Light" your positive thought, your outpourings of love to your fellow man, your use of The White Brotherhood symbol shall see you through all challenging times unscathed.

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." Perhaps you would do well to re-read this Psalm and take it to heart. It is you. My message is short. You have God power. You are the God power, and through your efforts you shall bring heaven to Earth.

Be that beacon of "Light" to all about you, for it is you. We are one. My loving blessings to you all.

I am Sananda

Order from City of the Sun Foundation

This is the first of a two-part article by Dr. Ernest Briggs:

SELF-ENLIGHTENMENT

Self-enlightenment is essential for spiritual growth. It bridges the gap between prayer and meditation. Self-enlightenment works on the catasa (physical body) and the melra (etheric body). The procedure and steps are given below for carrying out this great spiritual task.

Unlike prayer, which works on the ocara (astral body), and meditation, which works on the melra (etheric body), self-enlightenment supplies information to the choroid plexus of the third ventricle, located in the center of the brain, and to the secondary layer of the melra.

The information one receives is important to the spiritual growth as well as to the intellectual growth of the individual. This information may be received in several forms. It may be presented through "thought implantation", mental pictures, audible sounds, dreams, or some outside information source that one is directly led to. That is why it is important to remember not to shun or discard information that may seem unimportant or unrelated to present needs. Question all information that comes in and wait for an answer, because you might just ignore information that could save your life or change your entire life for the better. A good adage to keep in mind is "take heed of your hunches". "Spiritual enlightenment" is a "do it yourself" task. If the procedures are taken seriously and carried out as given, with the faith that you have, your rewards will be great.

MODUS OPERANDI

1. Read, for about three to five minutes, passages from the Bible, or some other spiritual works, that pertain to your request.
2. Think upon the passages you have just read, and how your life may be benefited. In your mind, visualize your needs and aspirations and how they may best be met, based upon what you have just read. Let this take place for a period of several minutes. If what you are seeking is information concerning a problem, or information concerning spiritual growth, or some physical or mental discomfort, use the same procedure.
3. Relax and "let go", and let the Great Forces take over. Mentally remove yourself from the scene. You are now communicating with the upper planes. As you relax, continue to concentrate on your original request. Do not change your original visualizations. You are only interested in what is requested at this time. If this is not carried out, you will not be successful. If you are not successful in the beginning, do not be discouraged. The proceedings require your devoted concentration which comes about through practice.
4. As you continue to relax and concentrate on your objectives, still the mind - still the mind. Now allow your "image screen" to come into focus. Also allow the sensitivities of your senses to increase. In the beginning this may seem difficult, but practice will correct this problem. Now bring into your thoughts "self enlightenment". Let this flash through several times. Now bring your objectives back into thought. Now let yourself sink as if falling into a deep canyon. Continue to fall - continue to fall, until you stop falling. Now you feel as though you are floating - floating on soft clouds. Now you are at ease - now you are relaxed - so relaxed that you are ready to receive information from the upper planes.

5. You are now in a state of reception. In order to receive, you must hold your objectives in thought - meanwhile, focus your image screen and prepare to receive. The reception may come as a picture, sound, written words on the screen, directions to do something at a later date, or you may go off into dreaming. In any case, reception has begun. Now comes a case of remembering all information received. In the beginning, this may be difficult, but practice will correct all of this. As you receive information and there is doubt, or you do not understand, ask for clarification. You need answers that you can understand. You are not in a hurry - you can wait. As you become more skilled, all of this will be less tedious for you. You can carry out your proceedings as if it were a two-way conversation, if this makes things easier for you.
6. You are now receiving. You have established a communications network between yourself and the upper planes. As you become more proficient in the network proceedings, you may use key words of your choice, or be given key words to use to speed up your communications.
7. In any of your requests, do not ever forget to end your request with "Please", and your answers with "thank you". This is common courtesy.
8. Now that you have your network established and working well, there will come a time when different requests will require different techniques. This may be the case if information on a physical or a mental condition is requested, and the answer has to be referred to a particular location in the body. You do not concern yourself too much with the effect, but you put your attention on the cause, because you do not know what the end results will be. A physical condition may be caused by a mental condition, or a mental condition may be caused by a physical condition; a mental condition may be caused by a mental condition, or a physical condition may be caused by a physical condition.

It must be remembered at this point that, of all physical conditions existing in the body, the originating cause will be 95% mentally caused. That is why the word "psycho-servo-somatics" will become an important word for you to be familiar with and to use. The word literally means to use the mind to automatically correct the physical body. Once you have become proficient in the use of psychoservosomatics, you will be able to survey the physical body and automatically correct whatever is necessary, at least 95% of the time.

9. With your network communications system working exceedingly well, you can now expand your field of activity. You must realize that knowledge is of the utmost importance to your well-being. So, it would behoove you to read and gather knowledge from all sources that will enlighten you. When you bring this body of knowledge to the proceedings of "Self-enlightenment", you will leave with wisdom far more far reaching than you could ever have received by other means.

HIGHLIGHTS OF INFORMATION ON SPIRITUAL GROWTH

The wisdom gained from the proceedings of "Self-enlightenment" will allow you to become greatly enriched in spiritual development. It is wisdom that advances you along the path of spiritual development. As we look at it from the standpoint of wisdom, knowledge, and understanding, there is a relationship existing among the three. Understanding is a derivative of knowledge, and knowledge is a derivative of wisdom. So, without wisdom there can be no understanding. A wise person has wisdom and a wise person has understanding. And, last but not least, without the Great Universe, with all of its grandeur and splendor, there would be no wisdom.

Spiritual development is the essential reason why we are on this plane in the first place. Growth in spiritual development should be the aim of all beings, that is why "modus operandi" have been developed to enhance our progress along these lines. Spiritual development entails a commitment by one to pursue diligently, a-long the roadway of life, the knowledge that is essential for advancement to higher spiritual levels. There are many facets of knowledge that must be brought together in order for one to advance to a new round on the spiritual ladder. The idea at this point is to allow yourself freedom of thought so that you may choose the direction and pace you think is best for you. As you progress and become wiser, you may see the need to make changes to conform to more enlightened ideals. This is a part of the growth that is needed to reach the final goals. "Self-enlightenment" is a proceeding that takes the "trial and error" methods out of spiritual growth. It can shorten the time needed to reach the final goal. "Self-enlightenment" requires hard work and great dedication to obtain the results that are demanded. Nowhere is it stated that it would be easy, especially to fulfill the third law. "There ain't no free lunch!"

But, there is help when help is needed. Help has to be wanted. Do not be afraid to ask for help. It may not always be given, for a number of reasons, but an explanation will be given if it is asked for. Circumstances may dictate whether or not help may be tendered. If a lesson has to be learned, or if perhaps you can really do it yourself, help may not be forthcoming. These are probably the only two reasons why help would not be rendered. If one pursues the tasks diligently and with perseverance, fulfillment is always at hand. The goals that have been set are not beyond your reach, but can be attained. You set the pace. How well you master "Self-enlightenment" will gear your pace.

There are many preparations that have to be made for "Self-enlightenment". The steps given in the beginning were to establish a communications network. Now that the network has been established, additional preparations are essential in order for one to understand what is taking place.

Best results are obtained when one pursues "Self-enlightenment" with the highest positive mental attitude possible. Hang-ups and other negative influences will detract greatly from one's even beginning the proceedings. Always undertake the proceedings with an air of spirituality. This will generate the proper mental attitude. The entire proceedings are created and carried out through mental procedures. All things are mental in nature, that is why the state of one's mind must be at its highest for best results. The importance of your state of mind cannot be overemphasized. Get your state of mind high, keep it high, and eliminate most of your problems. Do not attempt the proceedings when tired. You will gain absolutely nothing. For best results, do some breathing exercises before starting - preferably with fresh air. It is essential that you understand the importance of the proceedings. The proceedings link you with the higher planes.

(Golden Dawn No. 98 will have the last part of this discourse on "Self-enlightenment")

THE VOICE OF GRATITUDE

My Child:

As you feel the warmth of the sun and the caress of the gentle breeze, as you see colorful nature all about you and hear the song of the birds, how grateful you can be for these blessings. All of these are free to all humanity. They have been created for man's enjoyment.

You may say that the sun can burn, the wind can destroy and that growing things wither and die. This is true. All things have two natures. It is man's awareness and understanding which will determine his reaction to conditions. He can understand the cycles. He can be grateful for the sun, for without it nothing could live. He can be grateful for the wind, for without it the air would stagnate and the clouds could bring no rain. He can be grateful for the rain as it refreshes and washes the earth and brings water for man and nature. He can be grateful for all growing things, for without them he would starve and also be denied the beauty which nature offers.

He can be grateful for the birds, the butterflies, the animals, for it would be a silent and lonely world without all of the joy and beauty they bring.

He can be grateful for the human relationships, for they can be a source of comfort and fulfillment for him. Without the human relationships and associations he would indeed be an island with no one to share his joys and achievements with.

Review your attitude toward all of these ideas and begin today to be grateful for everything regardless of the appearance. Appearances are changeable and what may seem to be a tragedy today may be a blessing tomorrow - some lesson learned, some growth attained because of it.

Gratitude is a key to happiness. It is a positive, creative attitude which will bring lasting results of harmony and peace of heart and mind. He who is ungrateful is filled with self pity and tensions of all kinds. Let gratitude be the password for today and all days, gratitude for Life, for Love, for Joy, for Peace. It will transform you and your world.

Bless you my grateful friends -

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

On April 8th Faun Homman joined her friend, Elsie Western, and her friend, David Ray, to go from Tucson to Reno, Nevada where we got a motel. The morning of Friday we drove to Lemmon Valley, 11925 Jeanway, 89506, to take psychic surgery treatments from Connie Arismende. We were there in the morning at nine o'clock to register all three days. At eleven o'clock Connie had her spiritual service in her Interfaith Spiritual Church. We were called to her healing room by number. One undresses all garments except pants and wears a robe to the healing room where one lies face down on a table. She puts the tips of her fingers on both hands and goes over the whole body. Soft music is being played. Then one turns over, with her fingers going over the whole body. If something is to be removed the body opens and she goes into the body to remove whatever needs to be removed. Some blood trickles down the side of the body which is wiped off with toweling. When she is through no words are spoken by her. On Sunday we saw a video tape of her surgery. People were there from Alaska, the Philippines and the U.S. On the 27th of April she would go to Canada, then to Mexico, then Hawaii, then China and Japan. She will return to Nevada in September. Some people say, "I can't believe it." I know it is true. I experienced it, there was no pain, and I think it is a miracle.

One of the most exuberant guests was a first time visitor from New Jersey, Joan Weiss, who spent 3 weeks with Barbara Hill. Barbara had been on an extended trip - first to India, and then to friends and relatives on both coasts.

An interesting May Fellowship evening was spent with the video film "Amazing Grace" being watched while we munched upon popcorn, watermelon, etc.

A lovely baby shower was given for the Webber's daughter, Lynda Murphy. Foundation hostesses, joined by July McClure, gave the lovely affair.

Helen Gason and Elizabeth Sanford were guests of the Drs. Barton.

Dorothy Rayburn enjoyed numerous guests - among them Joe Ezra Chapman, Recording artist of Waco, Texas; Barbara Goode and son, Ian Walker Goode of Florida, the Frank Holders of Colorado, Helen Massey, Ted Keeling and Jim Crabtree, Ruth Preshar, Al Carreon, Lee Zachary and Ruth Holtz. Dorothy, together with Dr. Gilbert Hollaway are planning two Seminars this fall with physicists, Dr. James Hurtak and Dr. Ernest Briggs. These will be held at Dr. Hollaway's New Age Church of Truth in Deming, N.M.

Unusual beauty has been ours to enjoy - Yucca (the kings of the desert) out-doing themselves with lovely blooms so profuse. Also, the sky cloud sculpture has been so magnificent for weeks.

Nancy Marsh was guest speaker at one of our regular weekly sessions of the Course of Miracles.
