INHALE AND EXHALE PEACE - THY BIRTHRIGHT

"Let my meditation be on the SELF-EFFULGENT LIGHT which is One without a second. As the LIGHT is infinite, Eternal and All-pervading, as I meditate on the LIGHT it includes all and excludes none. As the ONE INDIVISIBLE LIGHT covers all the world, from the tiniest atom to the biggest planet, dear friends of Peace, everywhere in the East, West, North and South please join in a deep meditation where it is ALL LIGHT - within, without, above, below and all around. Glory be unto the LIGHT OF LIGHTS WHICH IS EVERYWHERE AS IT IS OMNIPRESENT, OMNIPOTENT AND OMNISCIENT. OM OM OM "

(From India)

Dear Students of Light:

In the Temple of the Most High there is a place reserved for YOU! If it were not so we would not tell you. Ah, My Students, we in the Hierarchy do mean this. Do not think it an unconquerable task to attain Mastership. It takes courage and fortitude plus a set of rules for disciplinary action.

One must learn to obey the Understanding Force of their own mind. For, within this mind of yours is a branch or root that reaches out far beyond the everyday force that you now understand. You must bring this root into action by YOUR thinking and doing. This is the Act of Becoming in Higher Understanding, or True Spirituality. It is a root that surpasses all other roots of your mind to a far greater Mind Force above!

Everyone has this root which lies dormant within, but all must learn the Soul Ability to be able to use it properly.

Ah, my Students of Light, there is no secret attached to Becoming One with the Light. It is the ability to use the Power of LOVE at all times. No matter where you are or what you are doing . . . think of the Power of the Love Force. And above all, learn to control your TEMPER!

Temper is a negative force and when this force enters at a time of stress it can do unrepairable damage to your whole body which might take a long time to repair and sometimes never! In some instances the loss of a temper could bring forth drastic results that the whole of your life could be changed because of a momentary action in which you lost control!

Remember, my students, your body is a machine . . . but one of the greatest machines that to this day has never been duplicated on Earth. For your body mechanism is a gift of God, along with your Life and Free-Will. It is your heritage . . . A heritage like none other that you will ever receive while on this earth.

THEN LEARN TO LOVE IT AND TAKE CARE OF IT!

Start NOW to think about your body . . . We have told you before it is a Temple. A Temple is a Holy Place, so in this respect all that enters into a Holy Place must be PURE. THINK, my Students! . . . does ALL that you put into YOUR body Temple resemble PURITY?

WE THINK NOT! Here we are aware what most of you people of earth are putting into your bodies . . . It is not food, but a method of appeasing a desire for a taste sensation, which, instead of feeding, breaks down the molecules and destroys the organs of your body system. However, it is not altogether the individual fault. We learn as we grow, and more and more are now becoming educated into the Higher Ideals of Perfecting their Temple of God. And for this we in the Hierarchy are much pleased.

You must realize, my Students, that a chain is only as strong as its weakest link, and in undermining your body system you are inviting disease and old age in a very degenerative way.

Please, my Children of Light, we are telling you this because we LOVE you! Not only that, but we truly need thee to become ONE with US in the Hierarchy. We know that you have been taught to live and think in a certain manner which has been undermining your true Spiritual System. But, remember this . . . IT IS NEVER TOO LATE TO LEARN!

It is important at this time, because of earth changes, that you must have a good strong body . . . mentally, physically and spiritually . . . in order that you may withstand that which is to happen in the near future. WE CANNOT STRESS UPON YOU TOO STRONGLY THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS FACT!

Please, Dear Ones, think about what we are trying to tell you . . . not in definite words, but in a way that you will understand and begin NOW to make the necessary changes in your life-style. There is no time to waste!

With Many Blessings, I am SHEKINAH, of the ORDER OF THE RED ROSE, and

I AM GOD'S "LIFE FORCE"

I am God's own "Life Force"
Comprising all that 'is'.
I await your slight command
When thoughts and emotions are His.

You build Me into many days
And moments fraught with tears;
You make Me manifest -
To selfish patterns adhere.

Bless Me with your thinking;
Love Me with all your heart.
Then I build beauty about you,
Ne'er from Christ depart.

For I AM the very "Life Force"
Which ultimately becomes your day.
Bless Me as I rise "to be"
So I enhance your way. mjs

TAKE NOTE OF NATURE'S SONG

Behold! The autumn leaf. Behold! The releasement, the trust, the 'letting go', that a leaf in autumn does so easily. It does not struggle to hold on to a life that is finished, to a life that has reached its attainment, its completion. The golden leaf in autumn is the epitome of wisdom. It holds all truth. You need look no further, if you will discover the law of life, if you will discover the law of continuation, the law of letting go. Enjoy, My children, the beauty of the autumn. Indeed the beauty of every season. And yet, My little lambs, do not forget to look into the depths of Nature's blossoming. For surely, it is hidden inside your heart, the heart of one who yearns to know the Truth, who hungers to perceive that which nature has given so freely. A tree in autumn. Releasing! Letting go!

Ah, book of books. Ah, and do you wish some wise teacher to speak to you of these things? But it need not be so. For 'all' of nature holds for you the Truth that you will find in the book of books, the Truth that you will hear from the teacher of teachers.

Indeed, a 'lowly' tree shall be your teacher. A 'lowly' tree shall speak to you in tone of gentleness, in tone of whisperings that shout, 'Come, look at me. Come, see what I do. Come, listen to the winds as they sweep away my leaf.' Come, see the rain as it accompanies the orchestration of the winds, to join in a hallowed symphony of releasement, as together, the rains, the winds, gently kiss each leaf, allowing it to release its hold upon the branch and to fall to the sod where again it shall be embraced by the holiness of earth, and reborn into another place, another station, another phase of living.

'Wait', speaks the tree. 'Wait', speaks the leaf. See me lying there sodden, wet. I am showing you patience. I am showing you contentment with whatever my lot. For surely, this is but a moment's passing. I shall not remain here long upon the grasses 'neath the tree. Tomorrow and tomorrow. Another breeze. Another birth. Another and another... something shall occur, to move me, to place me...to sweep me away into another birthing, and I shall become again, one with the sod. And I shall crumble into bits and pieces of broken leaf. And still smaller, until I am one with the sod. Until I am...the sod. And living still, in yet another form. I shall take my place wherever nature places me. You see! Bend and turn. And learn with me. Release. Let go. Do not hold to the past. Do not hold to that which is through; Go on. Though beauty shouts, 'Ah, here I am, a tree of golden splendor. Partake. Partake.' Yet do not wish for me to stay. A golden leaf must always ever continue on its journey as the wheel of nature revolves again, again. Again, again. There is no stillness in life. For life is ever in motion. He who tries to 'still' that which is ever in motion shall cause an imbalance in his life. And he shall stumble, fall. And perhaps remain there for a time until again, the wheel sublime will pick him up and show him again, again, that change is good. That change is right. That change is God. And that to fight against change, to try to stop that which has come to pass, is futile.

Go on, you who are hurting, you who have lost a loved one, you who are in a circumstance that is not to your liking. Go on. Do what you can. And go on. And do not dwell NOT FOR A MOMENT on the darkness, on the negative. For it shall cause you to again stumble on the path.

Look to the Light. Release. Let go, as the golden leaf in fall. And accept that which shall follow, with a joyful heart, ever doing that which you deem necessary. Listen to your heart, and it shall show you the way. Listen to the stillness inside. It knows your direction. You must trust, as the leaf. When the winds and the rains make their presence known, the leaf does freely release and go, dancing to the ground in holiness and rhythm that is beauteous to behold. And the rains and the wind and the leaf and the sod. They all...are of God. As you, My children. Do you see this not? You are a part of all that is. You are your brother's keeper, for you are your brother. And your brother is you. See love. Be love where e'er you walk, no matter face, no matter present circumstances. Bless that which would cause you to fear, to stumble. Bless. Release. Let go. And go on with your day, with your life the best that you know, always listening to the stillness inside. Take the time to be still so that you will hear. Listen. It shall speak to you. It waits for your stillness. It waits for you to slow down, like the leaf. Oh, gentle, golden leaf. You give so much of self. Beauty. Wisdom. Love. My children, take note of Nature's Song, and sing along. And share of its beauty and its joy. The ever-changing season. Constant, all the same. The sun shall rise and set. The dawning shall appear. A new day. Another change. Harken, My children. Listen to the tree. And embrace its gift of love and wisdom.

I AM the Holy One, Sananda by name.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

From "Crystals of Light", 3324 Holabird Lane, Charlotte, N.C. 28208 :

- Q: Why are there so many different kinds of channeling? Some speak of cataclysm and "end of the world" times. Some speak of Space Brothers and possible world evacuation. And some, like, yourself, speak much of the healing powers of Love and the need for more Light. Which is the truth? How do you see all of this?
- A: God's wisdom is too great for any one channel, for it is as vast as the universe. Each channel receives a portion, and they, in turn, give that portion forth to those who are ready to hear it. Some are "tuned in" through prophesy, and Spirit will give dire warning through their visions and words, in order to force man to recognize the errors of his ways. Some will "communicate" with Space Brothers, and receive detailed information about what to expect in the Latter Days. And some will be led to raise consciousness by planting seeds of love and harmony, in order to try to heal the terrible wounds of our world, as well as showing a better way to live. ALL portions are necessary. After the cataclysm, if such be our pattern, many will be needed to rebuild and teach. Unless wisdom and Truth have become their state of consciousness, they will merely rebuild with the old patterns; therefore the higher understanding of God's love must become the new pattern. As for the channels, take the portion that you feel comfortable with, and let the rest teach as they are led. Concern yourself not with what another receives. Concern yourself with what you believe, for that is your truth at that moment. And when you feel led to criticize, listen to the soft, Inner voice that says "What is that to thee? Follow thou me!"
- Q: Are we going to see total cataclysm and Days of Darkness as has been predicted by so many?
- A: I say unto you that "the page of tomorrow has not yet been written by the pen of Life." We, through disobedience, hate, greed, anger and fear have created a very destructive state of consciousness on this planet. Many prophets have sounded the warning, just as was done in the final period in Atlantis. Warnings are given to force man to change. We do have the opportunity to try to correct many of our errors. An age is coming to an end, and the "birthing process" of New Age Consciousness is difficult. The hour is extremely late, but there is still time to correct our patterns, and in the doing, heal some of the difficulties. Despite the prophecies of doom, the Law of Grace and Love is still the way of the One. It is up to us, individually and as a people, to choose which law we will abide by. To fall into a pattern of Fear, waiting for "the end" is a very dangerous and foolish thing to do. For it denies God's love and mercy. To be blind to the changes upon our planet is to live in ignorance, with our heads buried in the sand. Both are anti-Christ actions. The Law of Love is the only pattern given for our lives that works. In spite of prophecies and time tables that instill fear and despair, the Law of Love has NOT been rescinded by our Creator. I don't know how severe will be our testing, or when it will come. The Masters say "soon," but God's time is greatly different from man's, and none of us have a "schedule." I only know I must continue to follow the Christ, leaving supervision of the Universe to God. Concern yourself not with tomorrow but live today as if it were your only day. And let that living be in complete trust and faith in the healing love of your Creator! You will be exactly where you need to be, should the "end" come.

NO FORCEFIELD IS STRONGER THAN LOVE

Scientists work with visible matter,
With energies coarse enough by nature
To be measured by instruments.

I work with the Infinite,
And when Man becomes his own instrument
He too will command the ethers.

Follow me through the vortex,
There is so much more to know
That is higher than earthbound reason
And microcosmic living
In the one closed dimension.

You have a body: use it
But not for making war:
Not in the service of intellect
Divorced from the loving heart.

You have a mind: use it
Not as a spendthrift on trivia
But with mastery, with discernment.

You have a heart: use it
To balance those thoughts selected
For real Creativity:
In this way you serve the human race
More lovingly than you know.

You have a soul: find it
For this is the secret agent
Who controls the outward journey
And will guide you through the vortex
To my perfect liberty.

WORDS FROM SEVERAL COUNTRIES TO HELP US GO INTO THE "NEW DIMENSION" (NEW AGE)

"Put on the whole armour of God."

Never has there been a more acute need for Light radiations than at this moment in the Earth's evolution. The descent of God's emanation of Power and Light continues at an accelerated pace, and your response upward must be absolute. Put aside unimportant things and step into this new dimension of Cosmic Light. Your own vibrations are your own responsibility. Judge not others whether low or high. Simply keep the beam out of your own eye and push forward into the Light.

"Accept no darkness"

Climb beyond limitation. Dwell in the Spirit. Lead all to God. Your leading is to be by example rather than by much talking. Let each walk in the Light of his own understanding. Spend time in secret and in silence. See the Earth cleansed and know that this is to be. See the shackles of materiality dropping away, and assert the truth that through the thought, faith and belief peace on Earth will be realized - peace out of chaos; harmony out of discord; radiant light out of darkness. See, feel and know this Truth. Only thus will your ascent in consciousness be sufficient to meet the needs of the world which you are called to serve. You are uplifted in total love.

"Understand the new level of attainment."

The vibrations of ultra-high frequency bringing hitherto new and unrealized levels of understanding to the attention of all mankind must lift the Earth into its fulfillment. Earth is to become one of the brightest celestial spheres. It is not doomed to extinction by mass folly. Earth is destined to glow more brightly in the heavens than man can presently conceive. Earth is to fulfill its destiny as a manifestation of the Light which brought it forth. All Workers in the Light must realize that God's creation is wholly spiritual. This realization is long overdue. The manifestation of low vibrations, wars and all forms of disputes and violence must of necessity cease on Earth as the realization that all is Spirit is made known with dedication and spiritual force. All Workers of the Light must be dedicated to this assignment.

"Glimpsing the Fourth Dimension"

There can be no blueprint for life as the world approaches the great and powerful entry into the New Age. Those who would wish to be most fully instrumental in the Work would do well to endeavor to understand the many contributions which are needed in every aspect of life. Each individual, each group, must come along its own path, and each one who opens himself to guidance shall be used to the fullest extent possible. When the fourth dimensional state is reached, each individual and each group will realize the fullness of its own contribution as well as that of every other group and individual in the pattern; and instead of war and jealousy and strife, there will be a "great peace". All will know the worth of the contribution which EACH has made to the ONE GREAT WORK - the ONE GREAT LIGHT. So be it!

THE POWER WITHIN

"We should turn within to find God. A sense of real completion can come only to that soul which realizes its Unity with the Great Whole. We should turn within, then, as have all of those illumined souls who have blessed the world with their presence. It should seem natural to turn to the Great Power back of everything; it should seem normal to believe in this Power. We should have a sense of a Real Presence when we do turn toward the One and Only Power in the entire Universe. Man will never be satisfied until his whole being responds to this thought, and then, indeed, 'Will God go forth anew into creation.'"

Ernest Holmes, Science of Mind

THE REFLECTION OF YOU

From Lady Vancia's Master Diary....CP

What do you think about others...your neighbors...your co-workers...your relatives...your friends...yes, and people everywhere in general? Answer this question and you'll know what you really think about YOURSELF!

Your world is nothing but the externalized reflection of your private inner self concept...the image of your own SELF-image, materialized around you, whether you consciously realize this yet or not.

Do you see society as a competitive "dog eat dog...rat race?" Do you think greed motivates those that surround you? Do you believe people are always trying to "give you a hard time" or "out to get you"... that you can't trust them...can't believe them, or turn your back, for fear someone will take advantage of your vulnerability?

Well, look inside YOURSELF, while you're complaining and you will understand the picture you're subconsciously holding about your own ensoulment. What you see in others is really what you think YOU see in you! Harsh words? Yes, still we all have to be jarred awake sometimes. We need to see out outer problems for what they are...LESSONS...not just karmic punishment for long forgotten "sins," perhaps in some "former life"

Your present difficulties and misgivings are nothing but lessons you've put before yourself, that you may learn what you need to know next, in order to take another step forward into your own individual state of Christhood.

Are you bitter toward someone? Remember, it is YOU who are bitter, and the sweet manifesting "waters" of Spiritual Perfection and Mastery cannot flow thru a "fountain" filled with gall. Can you truly forgive the neighbor or friend who hurt you so much?

Why do you NEED to forgive him? Because his treatment of you made you aware of your own mistaken feelings of separateness from God...your own distorted sense of self-imperfection. That is why his words or his deed caused you such pain! Inwardly we often HATE OURSELVES, when someone makes us feel vulnerable or stupid, and thus ungodly. We tend to blame the one who fostered our wrong self concept and caused our dilemma. After all, a God shouldn't need emotional support, help, love, or kindness should he?

God isn't supposed to NEED! GOD simply GIVES...so what is the matter with us? At heart we know we are Gods in the flesh, so we feel anger toward the one who made us feel otherwise, so we think of him as our foe! Take comfort! It isn't what HAPPENS to you that hurts. It's how YOU REACT to what happens to you.

Pain is caused by friction, whether its a scraped knee or a set of hurt feelings, but both are felt INSIDE YOURSELF. You can mentally and emotionally hold onto discord to your own detriment or you can release it in love. By setting free the transgressor who dared to disturb your complacent self concept and show you your imagined "weakness," you also free yourself from destructive thoughts that can only cause you MORE pain and suffering.

FALSE "pride (especially the kind that stubbornly refuses to forgive) goeth before a fall,"...ANOTHER fall, in addition to the one you just experienced. The pride that transfers your true sense of hidden guilt to your "enemy" simply closes the door of your wonderful productive mind, shutting out the LOVE you need to manifest perfection where the problem seems to be.

If the transgressor really does want to hurt you, you have played right into his hands. You've helped him succeed by allowing your own creative thoughts to build MORE discordant conditions at that point in your life. On the other hand, man also transfers his misunderstood self dissatisfaction with who and what he thinks he is, to the other fellow, because, at heart, he KNOWS he is Divine and he cannot bear to have his innate wisdom apparently proven wrong.

Somewhere, underneath his image of separateness from God, he actually realizes he isn't...that he is meant to be as perfect as his Divine Inner Source of Identity. Thus he blames the other fellow for showing him he's wrong about his true spirituality, when he isn't wrong at all...down in the deepest level of his BEING.

In escaping thus from this "double blind" however, he forgets that the one he wants to chastise is also God, come forth in human form, whether his "adversary" knows and acts like a perfect expression of Spirit or not.

Mark my words! The very traits you criticize in others...the characteristics you despise in those around you...these are the same characteristics you're afraid that you, yourself possess. These are the very aspects of personality you secretly berate yourself for having and all the people you scorn the most are ones you inwardly believe and fear you may be like!

The snob who looks down on his "social inferiors," is afraid he, himself, is inferior. The workaholic, who rails at the laziness of his colleagues, is hiding his own tendency to indolence, even from himself, and people should really beware of anyone who constantly insists the dishonesty of his erring acquaintances, should be severely punished.

The list goes on and on. He who wails he is misunderstood, understands himself the least. Therefore, he actually feels threatened, not by the one he calls his adversary, but by his own confusion instead. The unloving are the unloved, who do not love themselves, albeit they are the most in need of loving. He, who groans a lot because he's been misused, knows in his heart, if the chance arose, he would be thoroughly capable of hurting another in the selfsame manner.

Your earthly psychologists and advisors have long been saying that to have a friend, you must learn to BE one, unreservedly...all the way, partly because they know you perceive your present self-image in others. They also know that what a person criticizes most, is what he is trying so hard to eradicate from his own behavior. Hence, the old victorian saying, "There's no prude on Earth like a reformed 'rake'"

Never be merciless because he, who has no mercy, is also merciless against himself in his heart of hearts. Look at the puritans and what they did in the name of God, the merciful! I'm saying all this not to discourage you dear ones, but because you have reached the final stage of your unfoldment into Christhood, when ALL the dross must be eradicated from your soul...dross that the average unenlightened human scarcely notices...dross, to which he may even point with pride.

Jesus said, "Agree with thine adversary quickly," knowing that your real adversary is just self ignorance. He would never have survived his crucifixion if he had harbored hate against those who brought it about. Instead, by His uninterrupted sense of Omnipresent Love, He was able to remanifest His life on Earth and even reactivate his crucified physical form.

When you reach the stage where you're ready for "the resurrection," you'll thoroughly understand, as He did, that you have to love yourself before you can love anyone else...but you'll also have to go a step even further than that. A true Master has to know that he's divine, so thoroughly, that he can see and love the divinity in all those he encounters as well, regardless of whether their actions are friendly toward him or antagonistic.

The Nazarene told you to agree with your "enemy" at once, not because of him who opposes you, but to get the "sword" of discord out of your own heart, before it can hurt you anymore. You need to materialize the omnipresent Perfection of Spirit everywhere around you, at this point in your unfoldment, and LOVE is the only emotion from which it can take form in your affairs. Now that you've honestly asked the Father to make Love the basis for all your creative thoughts and feelings...now that you gladly say to your Divine Self, "Thy Will be done...thy perfect plan for my life be made manifest," you are ready for the final stage in your quest for Mastery. At last you realize that your own thoughts energize your desires and make them manifest to your human experience. Thus, you've found that to focus on any subject, causes "the windows of Heaven" to open and pour out such a blessing that there isn't room enough to receive it all. That indicates that you have but one more step to take before you reach total Dominion.

However, it can only be taken by loving SACRIFICE! I don't mean that all of you aspirants will have to die for your fellow man on a cross like Jesus. I mean you must prove to YOURSELF, as He did, that GOD is ALL IN ALL...that Perfection is EVERYWHERE, waiting for you to recognize Its omnipresence and bring it forth into manifestation around you, regardless of present appearances to the contrary.

You must learn to TRUST your Divine Source of Life within to handle and perfect EVERY situation, no matter how terrifying it may seem to you at the moment. Like the Master, you have to CROSS OUT ALL FEAR and belief in the Power of evil to harm you in any way. You must learn to "LET GO AND LET GOD"...to put yourself completely into the Father's care, come what may, and believe me..."come what may," (for which you are now obviously prepared) often shows up in what seems to you, a most terrifying disguise!

This is your "dark night of the soul," just before the dawn of your complete Mastery. Soon, you will be fully enlightened, and remember...you wouldn't be called upon to experience this test if you weren't ready and strong enough to endure it!

Here and now, you need to seize your courage and simply rely on the Lord of your Being, wholly and implicitly, knowing that the comforting Light of Regeneration and Christhood will be your reward. When the Day of your Conscious Godhood breaks around you, you'll find you've been saved. You will also find that you've lost NOTHING, but your own FEAR of loss. That's ALL!

Thru pain and suffering your soul has been eternally cleansed of all sense of separateness from Spirit. You recognize yourself as a Divine Being...ONE with your Source of Selfhood, and since you are now consciously aware that you are God, personified as YOU, you can no longer experience imperfection of any kind!

Yes, YOU and the FATHER are ONE, consciously, inseparably forever! His attributes are YOUR attributes and His Loving, Wise Omnipotence is in YOUR hands! In crossing out your fears with the Love that builds such utter FAITH, you have found the Christ. Your HOPE OF GLORY has enabled you to achieve Dominion over discord FOREVER.

I mean this quite literally. YOU, like Jesus, by trusting the omnipresent Lord of Love, Wisdom and Power, within you, will also, have "overcome the world!"

So be it. Amen

THE PAST

Again we shall speak of the past, for it is the past which is the barrier to the present. One cannot fully experience the newness of today when he is burdened with the weight of the past.

The past is past and nothing can change it, so why dwell on what 'could have been' - 'If I had it to do over' etc. This only saps the energy from the present. One cannot relive the past. Nor can one live the future. There is only the NOW which can be lived. To fully experience the now, one must let all of the past go and not run ahead into the future but concentrate on each moment. In this way the newness of Life can be enjoyed. One will find that new ideas are presented, that the outlook on life will be fresh and that all people and things will offer new insights!

You have repeatedly been told to release the past and the future and you say 'easier said than done!' But it CAN be done and MUST be done if you are to fully experience Life for Life deals not with the past nor the future. It simply IS! And you ARE! You ARE in the NOW of Life. Let each moment be filled with the beauty, the joy, the power of Life as it expresses through you. You will find a healing peace fill you for all tensions and worries will be gone.

There is a saying that presents it well - 'Let this day be sufficient unto itself.' We can change it to say 'Let each moment be sufficient unto itself,' If one does this he is free from the past and the future and this day or this moment is enough.

Fill each moment with praise and gratitude for the gift of life, for the opportunity to experience all it has to offer you. Let your day be a gift to the Divine. If you have lived beautifully, joyfully, harmoniously, lovingly through each moment of the day it will be as a gift to the Divine.

There is nothing more precious than THIS moment, for in reality it is all you have. You are not sure of tomorrow or the next day or the next. You cannot go back into the past, so the NOW or this moment is all you have and it is fleeting, for even as you think of it, it has melted into the past.

Be aware of the wonder of Life as it fills your moments, your hours, your days for it is filled with the wonder and the radiance of the holy spirit of God!

Moment by moment you express what you are and what you believe. Let your expression of Life be one of such beauty that it blesses your world and brings healing and harmony to mankind and to the planet.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

We did not have the City of the Sun News in last issue and so we will mention birthday gatherings - one in March when Sarah Leonard was present to be honored, and in April Rev. Wayne Taylor enjoyed an excellent pot luck dinner celebrating the occasion.

Elvin Noel shared a most knowledgeable talk on Astrology with community members and interested Columbus residents.

Mary Ruth Barton, sister of Dr. Jim Barton, spent several days here visiting from her home in Citrus Heights, California.

Lester Jackson has had several visitors - family and friends visiting from the state of Kansas, as well as Raton and Carlsbad, New Mexico. He journeyed to Silver City for five days.

We joined with the residents of Columbus in honoring, with a dinner, the first policeman to be hired for the Columbus area.

It is always a pleasure to have friends come by to see us. Blanche Carlson of Deming, N.M. and Ezabel Pearson of Vancouver, Canada visited and shared some of their current work for the Lord.

Kenneth and Alta Campbell are enjoying their Alaskan vacation trip. Kenneth's special interest is fishing.

The Drs. Jim and Verlie Barton are journeying to Camden, Arkansas for special gatherings of Dr. Verlie's family.

We look forward to Barbara Hill being here and hearing of her recent stay in Israel.

A Praise Service to God has begun every Wednesday morning at 9:00 AM.

A PRAYER:

God, our Father, ever present Love, in great humility, knowing my own unworthiness, knowing that without Thy help I can do nothing; that with Thy help I can overcome all weakness, I pray that thou wilt so direct my thoughts that they will truly desire to serve only Thee. Grant that this day I may see all persons and events with clear vision, undimmed by self. Help me to think, say and do only those things which are according to Thy Holy Will to the end that hourly, more and more I may consciously become one with Thee. Amen. From the Teacher Orion

DEAR FRIENDS OF THE "GOLDEN DAWN" PAPER:

Please accept these words of APPRECIATION being sent especially to ALL of you who are so faithful with your freewill offerings and encouragement for our little paper.

Each publication, as well as each group in the Light, contain their own SPECIAL PURPOSE from the Holy Spirit. Just as our City of the Sun does not require one leader and one exact way of going back to the Father's House - so our paper reflects this, and we have shared material and messages from a multiplicity of sources. God's Spirit is very adaptable and can function on many paths which lead one more and more into the very Presence of Christ. We have people in our membership who are fervent disciples of Annalee Skarin material, followers with Faith and Love of the path called Unity; those who have had soul stirring experiences with Sai Baba; those studying Rosecrucian, Urantia, Science of Mind, as well as many other group messages. Ours is a unique privilege, and unlimited challenge, to have respect for all these Ways bringing us closer to the Christed and God-filled Presence within.

We have followed the one spiritual philosophy of agreeing upon the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. We have felt that as long as we can build harmony from diversity we will be strong in the Light. In fact, Brother Hilarion told us one time long ago that we were set up in the way it will be in the New Age with it being necessary for everyone from every kind of religious background and Light study learning to WORK TOGETHER WITH RESPECT. So our paper reflects this philosophy and does not have one type of readership to depend upon for support, but - as it says - it is sent upon a freewill offering plan to all who feel it is of value to them. We hope to continue to send it with this arrangement, but that really is up to you.

The recent postage rate increase has surely made us think sober thoughts about the cost of sending our "Golden Dawn". We cannot cut down on the cost of putting it out because it has always been put together in the lowest cost way. A faithful volunteer cuts stencils, another mimeographs it, and the City of the Sun residents meet to put it together. As we all know, the First Class rate went up 3¢. Each piece of bulk mail went up more than that, with Canada yet higher, and Surface Mail (per envelope) to Overseas going up from 47¢ to 60¢.

Our readership overseas has increased mightily, and from many of the countries money cannot be sent out at this time. Yet, we do not turn down serious requests for Light Material. It is almost exclusively sent by Surface Mail, but this has worked out very well so far. We have a huge Light Family - particularly in Nigeria, Ghana and Cameroon. A number of you share generously and your sharing helps make much of this Light ministry possible.

We are not the paper with the deepest material, or the latest probably, but the Holy Spirit speaks through a great deal of it to whomever will listen at any time.

PLEASE KNOW WE DO APPRECIATE YOUR DONATIONS ALWAYS. OUR LOVE GOES OUT TO YOU.
