PRAYER

My children, let us discuss prayer, reducing it to the simplest implications - a yearning of the soul to contact its God and a sense of loss when such contact is not available. And why, at times, is it not available?

Because the one who is out-reaching for such contact is not entirely selfless, he or she has a desire whether conscious or unconscious, to pray for something which would benefit self only. Such prayers are unanswered, even unheard by the One to whom they are addressed. Only prayers winged with selfless love asking for the good of all reach through the Cosmic Consciousness that many call God, and only such prayers are answered.

You may be sure of this; the good of all does include your own good. When you ask for some definite good thing, either for thyself or thy friend, if thou art pure and of unquestioning faith that answer; that healing can flow through thine own higher mind to the higher mind of thy friend from the source of All Good; Cosmic Mind, God.

Yet even though thou hast embodied these requirements, if thy prayers are not answered after the manner of thy request, be ye not lessened in thy faith, for if thy praying were prefixed with THY WILL BE DONE, then of a surety art thou prepared for an otherwise answer.

Being as yet limited in thy vision, thou canst not know what is for the best good of either thy friend or thyself. The hardship, the illness, the poverty which thou hast prayed to have taken away may be the very thing required to lead thy soul or the soul of thy friend back to its God-center.

And I do mean God-center. He who does not center his every thought, word and deed in his God-Consciousness, he who is not established in God, needeth somewhat that will lift him from his self-center up to his God-center.

When we pray let it be in this wise: "

"Our God, creator of all that lives, we ask but to attain daily, hourly, momentarily a deeper understanding of thy purpose for us. Show us now what we may do to begin to fulfill the high destiny thou desirest us to fulfill, a conscious unity with thee. Help us to be grateful for our adversities. Show us how we may sublimate them, how we may transmute them into shining service for thee. There is no need to ask aught for ourselves for thou wilt provide all that we need that we may grow into Christ-likeness. Our God, our Father, help us above all else to truly want to grow into Christ-likeness. This day, this hour, this moment we would re-dedicate ourselves to thy service. Lead us now to that service which best we can do for thee today. Amen."

LOVE IS YOUR PASSPORT

Greetings, Children of the Light. I AM Raphael. I come to give you encouragement and warning. The time for the cleansing approaches and so we must be prepared for what is to come. Those of you who have been tuned in, as it were, know what is expected of you. Tuning in to the Father, loving all your brothers and sisters, engaging in no negativities of any kind, will be your salvation.

One must learn of what is to come. Many of you, I know, who have been working in the higher planes, consciously some and unconsciously some, for I have worked with you. But the ones that I am most concerned with at this time are those of you so concerned with the material life that you have neglected your spiritual side to such a degree that there is little room for evolving into the Higher Dimensions that we are approaching. Those of you who are neglecting your spiritual evolvement are going to find it most difficult to exist, for as we approach the Fourth Dimension, as we have already begun to do, the acceleration will be difficult for you to manage or understand. The time is NOW to evaluate your situation. Many of you are flowing harmoniously and balanced as we move into our higher dimension.

If you find someone whom you know who is close to you, who seems to be struggling with their life in a negative manner, help them to understand that as we flow with Mother Earth into a higher dimension, there is no place for negativity. It would be very harmful to deal with that type of darkness. There is only one emotion that will flow forth; that is Love. Every level will respond to Love. Unconditional Love is your passport. There is no door that will open to negativity anymore. The schoolroom that we have had free access to up to now has allowed Free-Will to engage in everything experimentally but now we move into the Higher Dimension and some of you will go beyond.

Those of you who have discovered that Love opens all doors will go further into many areas yet to be revealed. But, my Dear Ones, I have come to suggest to you that, as we graduate together into this magnificent Light of Our Father's Many Manifestations, experience the many Gifts He has offered you by Love, it's such a simple thing when you realize that this is what He has been giving to you all along. He loves you and all He asks you to do is to love His Children, His Family; not to judge them. Just accept them and love them and then come Home. Let go of your earth weights, your negativity and you will find that great Light will guide you into His everlasting arms.

We do tend to complicate things as we learn our lessons while on the material plane. But it's quite simple, really, to open your heart and let the Love and the Light flow freely and you will find it a passport into the Higher Realms where we are headed together.

Now I must leave you with this message of Love. Be kind to your brothers and sisters and you will find your life can be quite a joy in this New Age.

I AM Raphael, your friend.

EXERCISE IN FREEDOM

I may remove myself from the control of Time.

If I see an obstacle before me, blocking my focus for my goal I will view it as an energy, an energy form I can disintegrate in my mind.

I will see my goal already completed going past all thought forms that try to stop me.

I have the power to be all I am. I am a continuing forcefield of energy which can transcend any blocks in my consciousness.

I am a creative force. I am eternal. I AM LIGHT.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

EVERY evening it is most important that we gain P E A C E before we try to go to sleep. All the emotions of the day need to be set aside so that THE HOLY PRESENCE may function to Its capacity to heal and bless you.

From the little book "Peace, Power & Plenty" © Orison S. Marden:

"Many people cut off the best years of their lives by the continuation in their sleep of the wearing, tearing, rasping influences that have been operating upon them during the day.

Thousands of men and women are so active during the day, live such strenuous unnatural lives, that they cannot stop thinking after they retire, and sleep is driven away, or only induced after complete mental exhaustion. These people are so absorbed in the problems of their business or vocations that they do not know how to relax, to rest; so they lie down to sleep with all their cares, just as a tired camel lies down in the desert with its great burden still on its back.

The result is that, instead of being benefited by refreshing, rejuvenating sleep, they get up in the morning weary, much older than when they retired; when they ought to get up full of vigour, with a great surplus of energy and abounding vitality, strong and ambitious for the day's work before them.

The corroding, exhausting, discord producing operations which are going on when they fall asleep, and which continue into the night, counteract the good they would otherwise get from their limited amount of sleep. All this shows the importance of preparing the mind to exercise a healthful, uplifting influence during sleep. It is more important to prepare the mind for sleep than the body. The mental bath is even more necessary than the physical one.

The first thing to do is to get rid of the rasping, worrying, racking influences which have been operating upon us during the day - to clean the mental house - to tear down all the dingy, discordant pictures that have disfigured it, and hang up bright, cheerful, encouraging ones for the night.

NEVER allow yourself, under any circumstances, to retire in a discouraged, despondent, gloomy mood, or in a fit of temper. Never lie down with a frown on your brow; with a perplexed, troubled expression on your face. Smooth out the wrinkles, drive away the grudges, jealousies, all the enemies of your peace of mind. Let nothing tempt you to go to sleep with an unkind, critical, jealous thought toward another in your mind.

It is bad enough to feel unkindly toward others when under severe provocation, or when in a hot temper, but you cannot afford to deliberately continue this state of mind after the provocation has ceased and spoil your sleep. It takes too much out of you. You cannot afford the wear and tear. Life is too short, time too precious to spend any part of it in unprofitable, health wrecking, soul-racking thoughts. BE AT PEACE WITH THE WORLD, AT LEAST ONCE IN EVERY TWENTY-FOUR HOURS! You cannot afford to allow the enemies of your happiness to etch their miserable images deeper and deeper into your character as you sleep. Erase them all. Start with a clean slate.

If you have been holding a revengeful, ugly or jealous attitude toward others, wipe off your mental slate now and start anew. Obey the injunction of St. Paul "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath."

Drop Thy Burden & Thy Care

Ere thou sleepest, gently lay
Every troubled thought away,
Put off worry and distress
As thou puttest off thy dress,
Drop thy burden and thy care
In the quiet arms of prayer.

Lord, Thou knowest how I live,
All I've done amiss, forgive.
All the good I've tried to do
Strengthen, bless and carry through.
All I love in safety keep
While in Thee I fall asleep

Henry Van Dyke

SUGGESTIONS TO HELP YOU FIND THE "PEACE" YOU WANT AND NEED FOR HEALTH'S SAKE:

- 1- Read the Bible, or any inspired words.
- 2- Breath deeply and slowly and several times repeat an Affirmation -
"I claim the Peace of God for my heart and mind this night."
"I thank the Father-Mother God Presence for being with me and caring for me."
"I AM sealed forever in the Peace, Protection, Security, Love, Wisdom, Power, Supply and Freedom of the 'Light of God that never fails.' "
- 3- "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain Thee." Isalms 55:22.
Many of us carry great burdens - heavy packages of worry, fear and dread of the future, etc. We may "bring" our cares to the Lord, but we do not "release", "let them go" to the Lord! It is as a person who gets on a train with many heavy packages, but continues to clutch and hold the packages for the entire trip instead of putting them in the empty luggage rack right overhead. God's Spirit will take care of things IF we allow IT to.
- 4- Maybe your Peace will only come through forgiveness.
 - a. Ask forgiveness in person.
 - b. Write a note asking for forgiveness.
 - c. Make full restitution for what you have done to another.
 - d. Visualize often Love flowing from you to the person. "See" Christ blessing both of you as you stand in His Presence.
 - e. Remember, that one of the most important persons to forgive is yourself!
 - f. If you feel the need of an Affirmation here is a powerful one from Group Avatar (P.O.Box 41505, Tucson, AZ. 85717.)

THERE WAS ANOTHER LESSON TO LEARN

I was trying to help some people who were in great distress. BUT, instead I found myself becoming immersed in the distress, and even becoming resentful that it was so. My energy had begun to diminish, and I was less able to either help others, or myself, as day followed day.

Then one night I "saw" what was occurring, and suddenly I heard the message which became the first line of this poem:

"Resentment stops the flow of energy,"
Echoed in and around my ear.
Thank You, Father, for this message
Coming through so loud and clear.

I had become immersed
In the agonies on the Earth;
The distress of its people -
Their lack of peace and mirth.

We cannot give in to anger
At the sights we daily see.
We must keep our Inner Peace;
Our hearts serene and free.

For God NEEDS our total strength
To aid His world today.

SINGLE VISION

Let go. Release. Can you do that, My children? Can you totally and completely leave all to Me? And by that, I mean in the feeling world, be at peace. No matter what appears to be disturbing in your life, no matter the appearance, can you deal with it in a peaceful manner, all the while knowing that I AM in control, that I AM the deciding factor, that I AM responsible for all of your affairs. Can you do that? Totally trust in Me?

I know how strongly the desire encompasses one's being, to try to do something about a situation, to try to think of a plan, of a method by which the problem shall be resolved. And you mull it over again and again in your minds. And you decide, perhaps, to say this or that - to do this or that about a given situation, all the while you are stirring the pot more and more. All the while, the settlements on the bottom of the pot, the bits and pieces of disturbance that have fallen to the bottom, that are 'still', once more become activated; once more begin to infiltrate your broth, your cauldron, your world. The resentments, the fears and anxieties that you have released and let go, that have receded, that have been eliminated from your thought and feeling world, and thereto from your outer world, become once again active in your life, bringing forth manifestations of that which you do not wish for - that indeed, of which you feared the most. For it truly, My children, can and shall come upon you, the thing that you fear the most, whene'er you begin to ponder upon that which you DO NOT WANT, with intensity and continuity. Do not ever, My dear ones, allow your feelings to remain for long, if indeed at all, upon a thought that would stir up as it were, the very thing that you most fear. Look not upon the dark. Look not upon the shadow dim. Look not upon the darkness fold. And see but Me. Think upon that which you would like to see. Think upon that which you would like to be.

Think upon the right, the good and the true.

Oh, My dear ones, of course I know that this is not an easy task, when before you lies a situation that shouts, 'Beware, I am come'. 'Beware, I shall devour you'. And how indeed, does one look away from a situation such as this, when your very world is threatened, when your very soul is imploring, 'No, I cannot. I will not have it. I must act. I must do. I must quickly take over the situation. And by manipulation and sometimes various devious means, one tries to have the upper hand as it were, to control another, or a situation that is threatening.

Look unto Me for guidance. Go within. Be still. And ask the Father to take care of the situation for you. And then... and indeed, this is perhaps where most of My little lambs fall down on the job, where most of you experience the greatest difficulty - and this is in the releasing. This is in accepting that 'it is so', that I am taking care of it for you; that I AM in control. And quickly, you revert to your own way of thinking, even before I can act. You do not allow your feeling and emotional world to be still long enough for Me to do My perfect work for you. For 'I must have 'still'. I must have faith and trust. I demand and I insist that I AM the only source, that you do not seek another avenue while asking for My aid. For I AM the Single Eye. I AM the One. And I cannot be shared.

Do you not see, My Children, what then you must do after you give the problem to Me? It is for you to release, and to REMAIN AT PEACE, no matter the time. For My ways are not yours. Be still. Allow. Trust completely that I AM taking care of it for you. And whenever the situation again appears before you, do not allow yourself the expensive privilege of resting upon it with your feelings and emotions. For indeed, the expense is great. Your peace of mind shall be taken from you. Ah, what a price. And that which you most feared will befall you.

See but good. See, and constantly in your mind's eye, that which you wish to have appear in your world. Release, and know that it is so. Hold to the vision. Hold to the vision. HOLD. HOLD. Without a respite, pray ceaselessly, while going about your day. By that, I mean when'er you have a moment, look unto Me, with your acknowledgement and thanks, that indeed you trust, that indeed you know that I AM in charge. And remain at peace, until the manifestation shall come to pass.

And many times, it is not as you wish, for My ways are not yours. So do not presume or program the results. Allow Me to be the judge. Allow Me to be the deciding factor. Allow Me to choose the way and the means. It is but for you to give it to Me, the problem so called... to release it in love and faith, and to then go about your day, about your life, knowing that whatever occurs, it will be right and good.

And do not program the way. Do not decide for Me the direction. For I AM the direction and the way. Be still and know that I AM truly the Light of your world. And your world shall be emblazoned with a radiance so blinding that all will 'run to read'... that all will see, that all will know, will recognize your Light, your strength, your serenity, and will draw from you, will learn from you... and you will be their teacher, by your example.

And now, My children, go forth this day in peace, holding to you the shield and armour of My love. For with My garment, you shall not be cold. You shall not want. You shall not fear. Wear it, and proudly, the robe of righteousness. And march into 'battle', the 'battle of life'. encircled in My radiance.

I AM your own Sananda, the Wayshower, the Truth and the Light.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

Thou who art God, send forth Thy Powers in streams and in bombardments into mankind's total awareness. Let the Will of Peace be the compass guiding every man and every nation's heart. Send Thy forces of strenuous, potent activity into all the areas, hosts, governments and persons who oppose the Light of brotherhood's progress. Enable the God-loving and highly motivated members of the Earth to become custodians of Thy will for permanent and invincible Peace in, upon and throughout this planet. In the name of the Lord Christ who is powerfully present and centered in the Earth. So let this be. Amen.

POETICALLY SPEAKING

Be the Best of Whatever You Are.

(We all dream of great deeds and high positions, away from, the pettiness and humdrum of ordinary life. Dream, aspire by all means; but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams of the one you would like to lead. Make the most of what you have and are. Perhaps your trivial, immediate task is your one sure way of proving your mettle. Do the thing near at hand, and great things will come to your hand to be done.)

If you can't be a pine on the top of a hill,
Be a scrub in the valley - but be The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree,
If you can't be a bush be a bit of the grass, and some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass -
But be the liveliest bass in the lake!
There's something for all of us here,
There's big work to do, and there's lesser to do. And the task you must do is the near.
If you can't be a highway then just be a trail.
If you can't be the sun be a star; It isn't by size that you win or you fail -
Be the best of whatever you are!!!

BEHOLD THE CHRIST !

Haven't we all at one time or another been encouraged to try and "behold The Christ in everyone we meet." Yet the way we look at the world seems to make this impossible - for how could any of these imperfect beings we are so ready to judge, be critical of and find fault with, be our Teacher, our Savior, The Christ whose love we so desire and perfection we so seek to know?

We are also encouraged to "seek The Christ within," yet when we look inside ourself what do we discover but fault-finding, criticism and judgment of our own imperfections. So how could it be possible for us to "behold The Christ" under such circumstances?

Each of us is like a tuning fork. Our being sounds a note, sends forth a vibration of our essence, which radiates out through our aura as a shining light that touches all in our world. In the same way, our misqualified energies, our thoughts and feelings of anything less than perfection, also sound a vibration which radiates from us. Whatever our vibration, as it flows forth into the world it causes energies of a similar wavelength to resonate with it - just like two tuning forks of the same pitch - and this resonance will induce these similar vibrational energies to be drawn to us, or us to them. This also means that the note sounded by another person will find its sympathetic resonance with any similar vibration within us, and the intensification of this energy within our own being will draw it forth into our consciousness.

So if another being comes to us with feelings and thoughts of love, these energies will draw forth similar feelings and thoughts of love in us. We feel the intensification of this vibration, and as the other person has catalyzed this feeling of love within us, we tend to feel that we are in love with them, and thus may think that the love is coming from them. But in reality the love vibration that has been stimulated is flowing forth from within us and is our very own! So once the flow is begun, we can thank that person for revealing this fountain of love within us, and, by acknowledging with humble gratitude the Source of this blessed love focus, which is flowing forth from our own God Self within, we can continue to feel this wonderful vibration pouring out from us, whether the one who has facilitated this flow is now present or not. Thus we can understand that they have become our Teacher, our Savior who has revealed to us who we really are - and we "behold The Christ!"

But how could anything like this be possible in a negative situation? If another comes to us with feelings of hatred, anger, jealousy, doubt, anxiety, feelings of loss, pain, limitation, death, or any other such manifestation of fear and separation, the misqualified vibration from this other person will magnetize any similar discords that yet lie within our own subconscious or conscious being. The resultant intensification draws these vibrations forth into our awareness. Because the other person has stimulated these energies, this may make us feel that all this negativity is coming from them. But in reality the part we are feeling is flowing forth from within us.

When we realize this, it can be very deflating for our ego that may have thought it was doing so well and being so pure and good. So now the ego adds on feelings of guilt and self-hatred to further confuse and confound the situation - for we recognize that if these negative vibrations were not within us, we would not be seeing these qualities in the other person but would be feeling only love and compassion.

But our feelings of negativity and self-flagellation need not be indulged. For when we center ourself and call forth the all-consuming power of the Loving Light of God and affirm its transforming action working in our situation, all that we need do is to surrender these negative vibrations that have been drawn forth from us, and demand they go into that transmuting Flame. As each misqualified energy comes into our awareness, we can visualize and feel it immediately being transmitted into Pure White Light as we let go and allow The Divine to take charge - and so we become freed of this burden we were previously carrying (and may not have been even aware of.)

And so the person who appeared to be so negative can now in reality be thanked for being instrumental in drawing forth from us these misqualifications so that we can let them go. Thus we can realize they have been our Teacher and our Savior, for they have revealed to us that which we are not, and set us free - and so again in another we "behold The Christ!"

Now if we can see The Christ working within all the people we meet, whether they seem to influence us positively or negatively, if we can acknowledge their effect as a loving service which seeks to reveal the Truth that lies within ourself, and if we can use this blessing to work on ourself to free the Love Light that desires to pour forth from our being to bless the world, we can also see that, whatever our own vibration, we can also be The Christ for everyone else we meet! The more we are purified, the less will we resonate and notice the negativity within others and the more will our positive loving energies resonate and draw forth similar vibrations within others to reveal to them the Truth of who they, and we, are. And so, one day, we shall all "behold The Christ!" - one day, we shall all collectively share in that long-awaited Second Coming. Let that day begin now!

SILENCE

My dear child: Silence is a great reservoir of power which can be used in time of need.

Silence is a great teacher who can show you the wonders and the secrets hidden in activity and noise.

Silence is a balm to heal the frayed nerves, the weary brain and broken body.

Silence is a benediction which blesses and fills one with Divine peace and Cosmic bliss.

Silence is golden, it has been said. The idea being that gold is the commodity by which all is evaluated and so in silence all can be evaluated and relegated to it's proper perspective.

In the confusion and stress of earth life silence is almost lost. The time has come in the evolution of man when he must again return to the reservoir to seek the truth and find the healing and rewards which silence can provide.

Take a moment even now and still your busy thoughts, silence your prattling tongue, relax your tense body, close your eyes to the things about you. Let your ears be deaf to noise and voice and sink into blessed silence - the quiet, peaceful tranquility of being as a bubble floating on the air, drifting silently with the winds of Spirit carrying you into that holy place where there is nothing but God. Remember, God is silent at the source. It is only when energy is moved from it's source that it becomes active or noisy. So, seek the source of all, the source of your BEing. Be still and know. Be still, be silent and in the silence find your oneness, find your answers, find your peace, find your healing, find your ALL.

All creation begins in silence. So begin now to create the perfect manifestation of the pattern which lies dormant within you. Go in silent reverence to the holy of holies within the recesses of your being and seek the revelations which will come. They will not come in words or pictures or feelings but in silent awareness. As you are impressed with these impingements of spirit you translate them to fit your needs, your desires, your ambitions. If you go FIRST to the silence you will be guided, you will be inspired, you will be protected, you will be provided for - for ALL is within the realm of Silence waiting to be brought into manifestation to glorify the earth and to redeem mankind.

The wise man speaks but little, letting the silent radiation of his wisdom to flow from him. It is only the foolish one who babbles as a brook. It is a shallow brook which chatters the most!! The deep pools and lakes and ponds are quiet and still in their depths.

The temperate man moves with quiet dignity, while the emotional man is ever 'flying off the handle' as it were and lets great streams of words and emotions flow from him, wasting precious energy which could be used constructively.

The man who has the awareness of God firmly anchored in his consciousness radiates a serene peace which is felt rather than heard. He does not need to talk about his awareness for it speaks louder than he could and it speaks silently!

There is rest and relaxation in silence. Go into the deep forest and listen to the silence. It seems to thunder in your ears, yet there is no sound but the soft sounds of earth, but the power of Divine silence is so great that you can feel it, hear it and respond to it without uttering a word, moving a muscle, or hearing an outer sound.

Silence is a quality to become acquainted with, to develop and to practice.

I have spoken to you in the silent language of Spirit. You heard no word but you have written my message. You listened to the silence of your own heart and have received a lesson to share with all. As they read it they will read silently and they will receive my words silently!

Be still, my beloveds, be still and know!

I AM THE SILENT VOICE WHICH SPEAKS TO YOU IN SILENCE

THE LAKE OF BEAUTY

Let your mind be quiet realizing the beauty of the world and the immense the boundless treasures that it holds in store.

All that you have within you, all that your heart desires, all that your Nature so specially fits you for, know that the counterpart of it waits embedded in the great Whole for you. It will surely come to you.

Yet equally surely not one moment before its appointed time will it come to you. All your crying and fever and reaching out of hands will make no difference.

Therefore do not begin that game at all.

Do not recklessly spill the waters of the mind in this direction and in that, lest you become like a spring lost and dissipated in the desert.

But draw them together into a little compass, and hold them still, so still; and let them become clear, so clear - so limpid so mirror-like;

At last the mountains and the sky shall glass themselves in peaceful beauty. And the antelope shall descend to drink and to gaze at his reflected image, and the lion to quench his thirst

And Love himself shall come and bend over, and catch his own likeness in you.
Edward Carpenter
