CITY OF THE SUN FOUNDATION

NUMBER 120
(Jan., Feb., & Mar.)
1992

THE CITY OF THE SUN FOUNDATION

WOULD HONOR THE MEMORY OF A FOUNDER

WAYNE HANNIBAL TAYLOR

Rev. Wayne H. Taylor chose early Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 27, 1991, to make his transition to another Realm of God. He had been in the hospital for several weeks, and momentarily in a Nursing Care Center. He had felt his work here in the City of the Sun was complete, and he was looking forward to other Planes of Activity and Learning. He wished for cremation, and had suggested the type of service to be held. The family he left consisted of one sister and two half sisters, all of whom live on the West Coast.

On Sunday, December 1st, 1991, at 2:00 P.M. a Memorial Service was held in our Community Building. The Rev. Helen Brungardt Pope and Rev. Mark Pope conducted a meaningful service. Steven Hawson furnished guitar music throughout the service, even accompanying the people singing Wayne's favorite song - "In the Garden". Several members of the City of the Sun shared personal experiences they had had with Wayne.

The City of the Sun had been the focal point of Wayne's life since its incorporation in 1971. His time and energies had all been used for its advancement. In his own words he had expressed objectives and purposes of the wholistic project:

- 1- "To establish a non-profit community within this area of New Mexico for those who had a mutual interest in the objectives of the Foundation and wished to become residents in accordance with the By-laws.
- 2- So that the people who reside in City of the Sun could live in a healthful climate of abundant sunshine, fresh air and good water, and pursue methods of gardening and horticulture cooperatively.
- 3- So that the residents will create and live in an environment where the highest Christian principles of brotherly love, of unselfish service to one another, and cooperative endeavors will be a 'way of life' in accordance with generally accepted New Age Teachings.
- 4- To carry out research in New Age Technologies in electronics, mechanical, chemical, agricultural and other studies, and to distribute and share with others the results and knowledge of these efforts for the benefit of mankind.
- 5- To publish and distribute bulletins, magazines, books, lessons or other educational materials in pursuance of these objectives.
- 6- To do other lawful things necessary to carry out such purposes."

Wayne's mother was a Theosophist. Even during the 1920s he was an ardent student of New Thought, giving up many a lunch hour to study. He received business training in a unique "Business High School", and later became a Clerk in a shipyard. He was a voluminous correspondent, regularly corresponding with a great number of people. He became Ruth of Miami's assistant in Sologa, putting out the Solograph. His expertize was also used with The Mentor. He later became leader of the Solograph group. Thus he had great ability and know-how to start City of the Sun and publish The Golden Dawn paper. Although he hasn't worked on the Golden Dawn for a number of years, his format is yet being followed, and it surely took his ability and skill to start it.

We the residents of this City of the Sun Foundation have benefited from the learning gained here. Wayne shall always have a warm place in our hearts and lives for we would bless him for his obeying the leadings of his heart and daring to be a spiritual pioneer by founding the City of the Sun Foundation.

There is no difficulty that enough love will not conquer;
No disease that enough love will not heal;
No door that enough love will not open;
No gulf that enough love will not bridge;
No wall that enough love will not throw down;
No sin that enough love will not redeem.

It makes no difference how deeply seated may be the trouble,
How hopeless the outlook,
How muddled the tangle,
How great the mistake,
A sufficient realization of love will dissolve it all.

If only you could love enough you would be - the happiest and most powerful being in the world.

LET ME STAND

Let me stand for peace and order in a disordered world. Let me not be involved in the feverish distractions, the constant busyness and restlessness that drives so many lives, but tune my days and nights to the quiet rhythms of the universe. For these express and satisfy the spirit. Let me find my personal rhythm in that Greater Rhythm and abide in it, in all changing scenes, circumstances and events, as a ship rides the sea or a bird the air. For this is to feel one with, and at home in the universe which nourishes, sustains and for ever recreates us, through life and death.

Let me stand for good manners, good taste and good sense of values in everything, amidst much that is so shoddy, cheap and second-rate that the young amongst us no longer remember the art and the discipline of gracious living. Let me be courteous to all and superior to none, and reverence all life, since God is contained in all its forms.

Let me keep my sense of wonder before the perpetual miracles of simple things - daily bread, the fruitful earth, open skies, running water, the grace of beasts, the skill of men and the inspirations of art. Let not my senses run after false glamour in any of its allures, lest I encourage the commerce and the greed in every country which exploit the ignorant. Let me listen and try to understand everyone, every situation and circumstance, rather than judge on insufficient evidence. Let me never assault the sacred territory of another but, aware of concealed distress, do all I can to support, comfort and alleviate, thus bridging in love and sympathy the loneliness in which so many live.

Let me be happy, that I may bring happiness to others. Let my vision be clear and far-flung for those who cannot see very well or very far, thus helping them discover the patterns of eternity in the chaos of history, and be reinspired and find new hope.

Let me give thanks all the days of my life for the radiance of the opening vistas on every side for the children of God. "For they that have walked in darkness have seen a great light." Let me take the hands of all who stumble in the darkness and do all in my power to do to help them to that Light.

In this is the greatest joy anyone can know. Let me bring that joy.

ON TRANSLATION

Releasing to God, completely - body, mind and soul - house and shelter - food and nurture - clothing and raiment - spiritual maintenance.

Sheer delight in God's Promises for you! Shirking no duty regarding things. Shedding Light on your daily problems by releasing the past and reestablishing Love on your Altar of God's Holy Light. Relinquishing your own tenacious hold on your present life, with all of its many physical needs - making Peace-with-God your sole aim in life; making way for your future of service.

Souls cling to you now out of the past. They also cling tenaciously, and, due to your own will! This is not Divine order. These too need freedom. Being kind to others involves more than servitude! It demands placing the foundlings, like baby chicks, on God's Altar, first; then freeing them - teaching them to feed themselves and then build shelter and nest.

Provision for supervision outside the home:

To those who climb The Heights - the Pathway to Translation - know that each one of you, as a prerequisite, MUST be willing to release all other human beings into God's care. Also know that part of your "testing" relates to wholeheartedness for giving up all people, possessions, places, gifts, accomplishments and artifacts. No individual can translate with his or her hand seeking the hand of a child or a married partner. Freedom is an essential because - LOVE IS - and, remains impersonal - although God Almighty is a Being, PURE SPIRIT - and we belong to Him. This vibration exists in a tempo completely different from human love.

Freedom is a Major Key to Translation. Translation is a condition one works toward only after he CHOOSES to do so. FREEDOM is a condition. Shared by a Friend

From "An Affirmation of Goodwill": Lucis Trust

"The only way to guarantee a future of peace and progress for the whole human race is for enough men and women of goodwill to accept responsibility for the establishing of right relations.

"We affirm our intention to practice goodwill in all our relationships, in all daily affairs and in our attitudes and actions."

After prolonged preparation, I am no longer chained to earth by the fixation of an idea. At first I had to fight against gravity to rise. Now I rise on wings of certainty, my focus on my true star. I respond to the truth of my being: that my element is not earth but sky. I enter again the clear light, am able to see distantly the misted earth, its striving peoples, yet know they are as I am, only still laboring under that false fixation.

It is a law: one fixes the idea. One is governed or liberated by the nature of that idea. Those still chained are prisoners of the idea of time. But the truth of all human beings is as mine: they too possess eternity. They have only to fix the idea and make it their star in order to rise and be free of the life in limitation. For the enfranchised being it is a false creation: it no longer has any power to hold life in suppression.

The mighty do not enter time at all. They communicate. They lift the understanding of those who dwell in the shadow of the concept of time. But some choose to enter voluntarily to prove their wings: that is, to test out the strength and truth of their own being. This satisfies the eternal being of its own power to remain forever free of false fixations and permits it to give service to the oppressed from a position of sure knowledge. The liberation of humanity lies in such service.

I write only that which I know. And when all men and women also know, then the word "death" will be removed from the dictionaries of the world, for it will have become obsolete in human experience. For the reclamation of eternity can and will be achieved not by death but by change, transformation, enlightenment in the truest sense of all.

And it all starts in the mind. To change one's condition one must first change the thinking, for we are all where we are as a result of our mental attitudes. Advanced perceivers already know how to choose benevolent ideas which, taken in sequence, will lead them beyond servitude to any concept into the freedom of pure Love which, expressing from the deepest springs of the inner nature, is part of one's eternal makeup and wiser by far than mere human-based intellect.

It is thus mind and heart fuse and are again the Love-intelligence (or intelligent Love) of the soul returned to consciousness.

Thus I have travelled to sustain life beyond concept again, and each time I find my focus flagging to the acceptance of lesser truth, I instantly re-focus on my own being's truth (the higher self, if you will - the ideal Idea of one's being) - and find I am already there and am greeted in...

Last night, I saw myself lifting through the inner landscape into Sublime territory. The sense of freedom from earthly negativity cannot be adequately conveyed. But I know how the eagle feels when fledgling flights give strength and a true maiden flight occurs!

THE CONSCIENCE

Learn to listen to the voice of your conscience and you will hear my voice speaking to your heart. That inner voice, forever gentle, encouraging and convincing, belongs to your Father.

Truly I tell you that the most elevated and purest expression of the spirit is the conscience. That inner divine light places the spirit first and makes man the most elevated, the most noble, and the greatest among all creatures.

Who can advise you at every step? The conscience can. It is a divine light that I have given to you to be your beacon along your journey. How can you become sensitive and listen to that inner voice that speaks to you? The answer is through prayer. Prayer allows you to communicate with God. If you prepare yourself in this manner, your existence on earth will be an everlasting Eden.

When a spirit stops to listen to the voice and the judgment of the conscience, verily I say to you that at that moment it finds itself in my presence.

The one who commits wrongs does so because he ignores the voice of his conscience and not because he lacks ears to listen to that voice. His sinful behavior does not occur because he does not have eyes to see the right path, but because he voluntarily prefers blindness in order to travel a path chosen through his own free will.

It is impossible for one of my children to forget me since he carries in his spirit the conscience which is the light of my spirit, and through which, sooner or later, he must recognize me.

When you separate yourselves from the true path, or when you forget your mission, do you not feel an uneasiness that does not allow you to rest? It is because that force, inner light, and voice is your conscience. My law and your mission are eternally written in it.

Allow yourself to be gently led by that inner guide. Truly I tell you that all spiritual restlessness will disappear, leaving in its place a profound peace and a true satisfaction.

Your conscience is a judge that does not sleep. It always advises you to watch over your brethren and over yourself.

Who will be able to deceive me? No one. However, I do not come to judge your deeds, but rather the intention behind the deed. I am in your conscience and beyond it. Do you think I can be blind to your deeds and your intentions.

What great joy your spirit will feel in the hereafter if its conscience tells it that it sowed the seeds of love on earth! All of your past deeds will become visible, bringing you infinite joy.

Obey me and you will be in peace with your conscience.

FROM ONE OF OUR MEMBERS WHO IS LIVING IN ISRAEL

I thought you might be interested in reading some of my experiences.

"To be perfectly honest, I have been dismayed and alarmed at the recent rapidly increasing rise of anti Semitism not only world wide, but especially in the New Age movement! It's as though so called "spiritual" people fell back to seeing with their earth plane eyes when it comes to political subjects and exhibit a lack of information and a parroting of the media that is disheartening. I was the recipient of a package of information from a plane calling itself The Temple of St. Michael out of Edmonton, Canada - and the newsletter was simply the same old truly vicious anti Semitic lies (Hitler's ghost would have danced with glee, believe me) - and all covered over with a thin veneer of "spirituality"! Truly frightening. The ultimate test is of anything you receive from purported "spiritual" sources - be they organizations or even channels - is whether the information promotes separation, divisiveness and hate, or unity and love. (That's the bottom line.)

As soon as the war was over, a dear friend, Miriam Gilad, who had asked for, and received information and books about Sai Baba, felt suddenly compelled to go and visit him in India. Travelling over 12 hours by car after arrival from Israel, without food or sleep, she finally arrived in Kodaikanal, just in time for darshan. As Sai Baba passed her by, she called to him tremulously - "Swami" - he turned and came back to her. She held out her hand, on which she had placed a medallion with a Star of David. "Israel, Swami," she said. For Miriam - raised in a religious family that can trace its matrilineal roots back to King David - and herself a survivor of the Holocaust - had travelled all that way, not for herself, but for her people. Sai Baba placed his own dear hand over her's, and said, "God bless Israel."

During a private interview, he encouraged her to start a Sai Baba Center in Israel. It's tiny, but it's a start. Now we would like to extend our hands in love and friendship to other Sai Baba Centers in the Arab world.

With His Grace, let there be peace on earth - and please God, perhaps it can begin with us.

Since I was raised in an atheistic family, I came to know about Sathya Sai Baba the hard way - through a long process of intellectual searching. But during my first visit to his ashram in Puttaparthi in 1983 something happened that spoke directly to my heart. As a participant in the chorus, I had been practicing Christmas carols to be sung at the Christmas pageant when one day shortly before the performance I overheard two ladies in conversation. One said, "We have been given permission to sing a traditional Hebrew prayer at the beginning of the Christmas pageant and if you know any Jewish devotees who wish to participate, please let them know." I gasped at the "coincidence" of hearing this information and immediately asked if I could be included. Even though my connection with my religious roots were tenuous, - I still considered myself by birth, and culturally, Jewish. You cannot imagine the poignant feeling that swept over me while sitting on the stage of the Poornachandra auditorium (holding 20,000) with about 10 other Jewish devotees, singing "Shma Israel, Adonai Echad" - Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One. As I looked directly into Sai Baba's smiling face, I felt as though I were speaking directly into the hearts of all of the children of Israel - my people - wherever they were. How ironic, and beautiful, I thought, to have wandered in the desert of my soul for so many years and to come to India in order to feel, finally, such a strong connection with my own cultural traditions. My heart filled to overflowing with gratitude to Sai Baba for granting me such an incredible experience.

It was not surprising therefore, that shortly after a second visit to the ashram in 1986 that I found myself in a volunteer program, going to Israel to work in a hospital. My experiences were so extraordinary and illuminating from the start, that I stayed and stayed and stayed - and thus I was in Tel Aviv when the Gulf War began and the scuds started falling. Even though my family and friends in the States urged me to leave, I felt that I could not - I wanted to be together with my people in their latest trial by fire. I cannot adequately describe the fear that possessed me when I heard the rising and falling of the air raid siren. My stomach became clutched with fear and my fingers trembled so, I could hardly put on my gas mask. Gone were the feelings of self confidence - gone were the feelings of Sai Baba's protectiveness that I had enjoyed for so many years. Gone also was the treasured connection I felt with him. Being totally engulfed in fear as I was, made it impossible for me to go into a deep enough meditation that would bring me to a state of serenity where I could feel his Love, as I had in the past. As the terror filled days became weeks, I was struck as never before by the courage and bravery of all those who were victims of the Second World War and certainly those who had experienced the horrors of the concentration camps. My mind was unable to comprehend how they were able to withstand the unimaginable savagery of that war, which dragged on for years, while I was ready to fall apart after only 6 weeks.

Sitting in dejection one day, towards the end of the war, I prayed fervently to Sai Baba, telling him how disconnected I felt from him and asking for some sign that he heard me. Suddenly I heard an almost musical "ping" and there on an otherwise barren, formica topped foot stool, standing perfectly upright, had appeared the tiny sheath-like back to an earring that I had lost several days previously and that I had given up looking for. My eyes filled with tears, my heart filled with hope and love - He was there - He had always been there - watching so closely that He was even aware I had lost the back of an earring! It was I who had somehow become unplugged - hasn't He said that He would never abandon those who called Him?

COURAGE

There are many who do not have enough courage to step out, seek a job, friends, or things they need or want. Why? Fear of being told NO; rejection or the possibility of rejection is fear to keep them from progressing or improving their situation, and their lives become even more endangered because they are put in a weaker position.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

If there are no mistakes made, it means you are doing nothing. Hopefully by making mistakes the learning of each experience is a building block for the future. This process is on going on this life path.

COURAGE IS THE ABILITY TO TRY.

Even though one has a degree of fear, and nothing comes without a little risk, it is a matter of intelligence to avoid the risks that are not likely to pay off in the long run.

Be honest to yourself and others, take courage and try for your own highest and best. (Comments from T.S.:

DESERT DRAMA

by Scott

As I was walking through the desert I came upon a very strange sight - a Coyote was dancing in a circle on its hind legs and singing in a way that only Coyotes can do!

Unable to contain my curiosity I asked, "Coyote, what are you singing and dancing about?" Coyote stopped his dancing and with a small smile and a very patient look (the kind of look you give someone who has just asked a VERY STUPID question) said, "I am celebrating my Oneness with Everything! Would you care to join me my Brother?"

Well it really did look like a lot of fun to me, so I eagerly joined in the Celebration with Coyote. We started dancing and singing our Oneness with all Life. (I am sure that my singing greatly amused Coyote.)

Soon many other animals started to join our Dance. (I did notice that I, a Human, was the only one that needed to be told what was going on!) The numbers kept growing and the Circle was soon so large that it almost extended to the edge of the horizon!

That is when I became One with Everything! All I could do was laugh the joy was that intense, and everything laughed with me.... Then the Voice came from very far away and it said, "HEY! HEY! I'M TALKING TO YOU!! ARE YOU LISTENING TO ME?!" (Then a strange pain started in the back of my Head like someone slapped me there!) And the next thing I knew I was leaning on a rake, surrounded by piles of weeds, with a very IRATE Lady with her hands on her hips glowering at me and she said, "Have you heard a word I've said? You are supposed to be working for me!"

WORK?? WORK!!! Now I'm really confused! What the Hell is going on? Where did all my Brothers and Sisters go? Who is this Lady??

At which moment in my thoughts this Lady grabbed me by my shoulders and started to shake me back into "REALITY" (Ha,Ha!) Then she started saying, "I'm not paying you to stand around with a silly smile on your face. I'm paying you to finish this job!! (I was not being paid by the hour in case you were wondering.)

"Oh, I remember now!!" and by the look on her face I must of said that last statement out loud!

I then told her that I would have the job done within a half an hour at which point she just rolled her eyes and stalked off muttering something about "CRAZY AQUARIANS...."

Anyway folks the whole point of this story is.... If you see someone just standing around with a dopey smile on his/her face just leave them be - who knows where they are at!

I SEND YOU LIGHT AND JOY!!

THE MASTER SAID, "YE ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD"

My thoughts:- Am I part of the problem?

Or am I one of God's Lights?

Which actually help uplift

And make the world more bright?

Am I a negative carrier

Spewing forth energies dim -

Discouragement, tension, strife -

Instead of typifying the Higher Him?

I help create this world

The energies which everywhere abound.

Transform my heart and mind.

Let my "positiveness" astound!

COLD AND FLU SEASON

Here are a couple of things that help.

CONCENTRATED VITAMIN C AND QUININE FORMULA:

This procedure is based on Dr. Merick's grapefruit/quinine remedy for colds, sore throats, flu and upper respiratory ailments. It is high in C and quinine. Because of the high quinine produced, it is a natural method for cleansing the liver.

1. Wash 2 grapefruit thoroughly. DO NOT PEEL.
2. Cut into small sections.
3. Place in  $1\frac{1}{2}$  quarts of water. (Stainless steel or glass). Bring to a boil for 5 minutes.
4. Turn heat down and simmer, tightly covered for 30 minutes. (So the aromatic vapors do not escape.)
5. Leave covered and let the mixture cool.
6. Strain off the fiber and rind. Do not squeeze. Drip drain only.
7. Store mixture in a covered glass container in the refrigerator.

FOR LIVER CLEANSE: Add  $\frac{1}{3}$  cup mixture to  $\frac{1}{3}$  cup water. Take every 2 hours for 8 hours.

FOR COLDS, SORE THROATS, FLU, ETC: Add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup mixture to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup water. Take every 2 hrs. as needed.

DO NOT PREPARE THE MIXTURE WITH WATER AHEAD OF TIME.

Some doctors last year found people with flu, wasn't flu, but parasites. (Same symptoms as the flu.)

GARLIC TREATMENT FOR PARASITES:

The first step is to figure out how many hours you will need to take the garlic. Use the following method to determine this.

1. Take your weight and divide by 8.
2. Take the result and divide by 3. This gives you the number of hours you need to take the garlic.

Example: You weigh 100 lbs.  $100 \div 8 = 12.50$ .  $12.50 \div 3 = 4.17$ . This indicates a 100 lb. person needs to take the garlic for a total of 4 hours. The number of garlic cloves is also 4.

3. Take a fresh garlic and remove the number of cloves indicated in the procedure above. Clean cloves and cut in half. Swallow  $\frac{1}{2}$  clove every 30 minutes for the number of hours indicated above. DO NOT CHEW GARLIC. Swallow with a glass of water.
4. Next morning take a laxative to help clean the colon.
5. This can be repeated after 3 days if needed.
6. On a monthly basis you can take 1 clove ( $\frac{1}{2}$  at a time) 30 minutes to help contr the formation of larvae.

In my experiences with garlic and grapefruit, they have taken care of me.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

Boyd B. Stead from Portland, Oregon was a visitor at Marilyn's the last of September. Previously while living in New Mexico - the Land of Enchantment - he had acquired the green chili habit. So he returned to Hatch for his chili. While here he helped with the bookkeeping computer program he donated. Also his talents as a wonderful hypnotist were put to use by several people. We thank Boyd and hope he and Cindy return soon.

The last of September a friend of Drs. Barton, B. C. Chambers, came from Hot Springs, Arkansas, to visit. Bill, the eldest son of Bartons, later came from Washington D.C. Then the youngest son, Dave Holden and wife, Ann, arrived from Washington state. In their yard at sundown on October 1, Dr. Jim performed a wedding ceremony for Bill and B. C. It was an informal and happy time for all.

Marilyn took a trip to Albuquerque for a gathering of friends to honor the 11:11. The gathering and dinner was held at Shirley Lawtons and was enjoyed by all. Since Marilyn hadn't been to the big city in almost a year there was much catching up with what had happened. She wasn't able to contact all the friends/wanted to, and didn't even see her daughter, granddaughter and great grandson. She is asking forgiveness from those not contacted. On this trip she was tested as a Medicine Woman, and put into practice all the things learned here in the City of the Sun. One of the most important was to stay centered in peace and love no matter what was going on around her at the time. To maintain a peaceful heart is a wonderful place to be. She would like to thank all the friends and contacts for this opportunity; also the acceptance of being who she is - Medicine Woman.

There was some wonderful sharing by visitors. John and Patricia Bradley and Stanley and Sharon Bertsch were here and shared with the people some of their precious knowledge of Creative Healing as originated by Joseph Stephenson. This Work continues to be presented by lectures, demonstrations and videos.

In November Dr. Jim Barton was in the hospital for check-up and tests. Dr. Verlie got him out in time to get to the airport and fly to Washington D.C. to spend Thanksgiving with son, John, and wife, Cher. (They had sent a Gift Ticket.) A wonderful visit was had, sight seeing and also visiting Bill's family. A great Thanksgiving.

The 11:11 Anchors visit and give talk at City of the Sun. On Sunday, Dec. 9, the two Anchors for the State of New Mexico, Ankantara and Ravia Antara, of Taos, New Mexico, arrived. Their purpose was to explain what The 11:11 was all about and to teach the various movements related to it. In a nutshell, they said that the 20 year span of time between the dates 1-11-92 1-11-12 represents an opportunity for the planet and all beings on it to move into a higher energy octave. They said The "doorway" to higher consciousness will open on 1-11-92 and that those of us who wish may facilitate these changes by participating in certain group activities on that date, all at the same time globally. The activities amount to certain body movements done in groups, with the intention of unification at higher chakras. The movements resemble Sufi dancing, and Ravia said they are similar to ancient Celtic Rituals. The several members of our community who performed the movements later said they experienced a light-hearted feeling of unified Oneness. The date set for groups to do the movements together at the same time all over the world is 1-11-92 at 11:11 A.M., 4:11 and 11:11 P.M. Mountain Standard Time, New Mexico, U.S.A.

As the newest member at City of the Sun, I would like to thank the Foundation for taking me in with open arms, affording me the chance for rest and healing which I need at this point in my journey, and allowing me to be an active part in supporting the community. This is just where I need to be. THANK YOU SO MUCH! Tim Kunkle

Always there is much activity which is not mentioned. Steven Hawson has had a friend from Toronto, Canada visiting - Mara Ravins. Joseph Ryer has had his son, Paul, here, as well as his very good friend, Hakim Baznik.

HOW TO LOVE GOD

Meher Baba (1894-1969)

To love God in the most practical way is to love our fellow beings. If we feel for others in the same way as we feel for our own dear ones, we love God.

If, instead of seeing faults in others, we look within ourselves, we are loving God.

If, instead of robbing others to help ourselves, we rob ourselves to help others, we are loving God.

If we suffer in the suffering of others and feel happy in the happiness of others, we are loving God.

If instead of worrying over our own misfortunes, we think of ourselves more fortunate than many, many others, we are loving God.

If we endure our lot with patience and contentment, accepting it as His Will, we are loving God.

If we understand and feel that the greatest act of devotion and worship to God is not to hurt or harm any of His being, we are loving God.

To love God as He ought to be loved, we must live for God and die for God, knowing that the goal of life is to love God and find Him as our own self.
