KAY GOLBECK'S MEMORIAL SERVICE

Re a Memorial Service: "Make it a Graduation Service. Remember I've only slipped out of this troublesome body to go on with my song. I've a heart full of love, joy and peace and deepest gratitude to the one who introduced me to such everlasting bliss (Rev. G.B. Crofoot) and to all who encouraged, inspired and gave further revelation of the way. It's been an exciting, marvelous adventure here, and the glorious part is that it will continue. We've only touched the fringe of what a Partnership with God can mean. I feel no sense of loss at leaving my friends and loved ones - for I firmly believe I shall be closer to each.

Now, no gloom, please. This is the greatest thing that's ever happened. Rejoice with me! I've had a foretaste of what it will be like, now I'm being permitted to go on a little further. There are no words in human language to describe the beauty, the lightness, the wonder of the Heavenly Kingdom. There are times in this earthly pilgrimage when this frail vessel of earth body has been overflowing with such ecstasy it nearly burst. How utterly glorious it will be to be freed from human limitations and to be closer than ever before to my Beloved Lord and Savior. Here, blessed with His Presence, moment by moment, I've had such a good life, so full of blessings, but how feeble were my efforts to serve Him and to walk with Him. But He knoweth our frame and I am trusting triumphantly in His Saving Grace, Glory to Jesus! Hallelujah! Oh, that I might love Him more and more worthily; magnify His Holy Name.

Please sing my special hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving. In these later years I find it hard to do anything else but just to give thanks and worship and adore our Lord.

So rejoice, good friends, with me and be comforted.

"Death's but an open door;
We move from room to room.
There is one life.....
No dying and no tomb."

It's just going into the Upper Room where we are warm and well again and still close to all who love us."

THIS ROOM

By Helen Brungardt-Pope

Recently, Mark and I had a very potent spiritual experience associated with the blessing of a room. We would like to share the "tools" used to create this experience so that you may choose to avail yourself of them. This blessing of a room was initiated by a friend who joined us in prayer. The results have been remarkable, to say the least.

The "tools" mentioned above are the Truth and the Spoken Word. Take the following words and speak them aloud in your home, office, apartment, or any other room you like. You may be amazed.

There is only one presence in this room. This one presence is the presence of God. This one presence is the presence of Good. God, the Good, dwells here in this room. Whoever enters this room will be conscious of the divine presence of good.

There is only one presence in this room, and this presence is the presence of God, the Good. No sickness can be here for God is here in this room. The healing power of God is here in this room. And anyone who enters here will be conscious of the Wholeness of God. Healing is automatic, here in this room.

There is only one presence in this room and this presence is the presence of God, the Good. No lack or limitation can be here for God is here in this room. The prospering power of God is here in this room as Divine Substance. This substance of God blesses every one who enters this room. The substance of God takes shape to bless and prosper all who enter here according to their individual desire. This room itself is filled with the richness of God, both visible and invisible.

There is only one presence in this room and this presence is God. No fear or worry can be here for this room is filled with the wisdom of God. Everyone who enters here immediately senses the presence of God's guiding hand. Divine ideas are easy to recognize in this room. Everyone who enters this room is divinely guided and inspired immediately.

There is only one presence in this room and this presence is the presence of God, the Good. In this room is all goodness everywhere present. All who enter this room are immediately blessed beyond their wildest imaginings. Good, as never before, pours into the lives of all who enter this room.

Gratitude and joy are the natural experience of all who enter this room. I am grateful and joyful because I know that THOU ART HERE in this room. I am grateful for these many blessings that come to all who enter this room!

THRU YOU GOD WALKS THE EARTH

Rev. Frances McKay....CP

You are made "in the image and likeness of God." Therefore, what's true about the Father is also true about YOU. But is that the image that you show the world? God is never sick, poor, ill tempered or afraid, and if you seem to be facing these conditions in your life, you can be sure they are nothing but false "appearances."

Though they now seem real before your limited human sight, Jesus said you must never base your judgment upon them. Why? Because God is both perfect and omnipresent. That means there's no room for ANYTHING in your body and world except perfection. It also means you are seeing God "as in a mirror darkly," instead of facing Him in the Light of Love so you can recognize and manifest His unlimited flawlessness, throughout your physical form and environment.

In truth, YOU are SPIRIT, ensouled and living in your own self-created surroundings. When God made the world He brought all His creations before man, His external image, so each soul could name them and call them whatever they pleased. You were born, with free will to think of your self and your possessions, as well as the circumstances that surround you and all your human experiences on Earth, in any way you choose. However, your thoughts are what make them seem real to you.

This explains God's promise that you can decree a thing - think of it in a certain way - and it will be "established unto you" as a part of your life. Your perception of what goes on in your body and affairs depends on how closely you stay in tune with God, what you think about His Power, as well as your own; how willing you are to be an instrument for bringing forth His perfection, according to His plan for your life. It will show also how much of His form-making Love you are willing to radiate in order to manifest His Kingdom in your outer reality.

The problem is that man has become "decentralized." Your planet is in such a mess because you precious souls have forgotten your ONENESS with the ALL OF LIFE and the fact that Its omnipresent PERFECTION secretly lies waiting to be recognized and loved into manifestation in EVERYONE and EVERYTHING EVERYWHERE!

People think of themselves as separate little "pawns of fate," so of course that's what they APPEAR to be. Naturally, as a truth student, you know this is wrong, but do you look around at the things you've mistreated by holding discordant thoughts, and then frantically start trying to "fix things up" out there, one by one? After all, a God is supposed to have dominion over his world, and that is what Jesus insisted you were. But how are you approaching this mastery?

As the God you are, you shouldn't have to go around struggling with your self-created troubles piecemeal. UNLIMITED OMNIPRESENT PERFECTION lies within you and the Father keeps silently waiting for you to recognize it - urging you thru your own desires for peace of mind to stop worrying and simply LET Him come forth in your external affairs, so He can experience the FULLNESS of His perfect Life thru you, AS YOU. Again let me say, you've thought your world into its present state, so that's the way you will have to live it until you change your mental patterns. Perhaps you have been concentrating your attention on the deplorable condition of your pocketbook and things have been going from bad to worse. Even an enlightened soul like you, faced with mounting bills, may still be thinking, "I've got to get busy and start "treating myself for prosperity." Or perhaps you are reluctantly admitting "I don't feel so well, so I'd better learn to "demonstrate" health.

Maybe your relationship with your neighbor is something less than you'd like it to be, so you decide to sit down and start "Visualizing" harmony. With all these APPEARANCES to repair, you've become a pretty busy little neophyte! No wonder you are discouraged when "new" difficulties arrive to take the place of those you've been "working" on so hard.

If this is a description of you, it needn't be. Take heart! You've simply become "decentralized," and more than likely you are slighting the Love Quality of your whole Self by which you could just as well manifest your inner Divine Nature completely. God said, "I will keep him in PERFECT PEACE whose mind is stayed on Me." and that certainly doesn't describe the harried soul who approaches his problems like a Goliath, brandishing a "slingshot" full of truth at every one.

That busy person spends most of his time "reloading" instead of RELINQUISHING himself to the realization of his Oneness with God and therefore with the omnipresent perfection and fulfillment he so longs to enjoy. Many earnest truth seekers bog down and become depressed because they've forgotten the scriptures that say, "Delight thyself in the Lord and all these THINGS shall be ADDED unto you."

Have you been 'sowing and reaping' a whirlwind of recurring or ever-changing troubles in your life? If you are full of anxiety, you are not "delighting" yourself in God's omnipresence, nor are you sharing His peace, and RADIATING His Love as your own. If you're concentrating your thoughts on the past-due rent, instead of thanking the Father for His omnipresent abundance - if you are bemoaning the argument you had with your sister, instead of relating in His all encompassing harmony - or testing your back to see if it still aches, instead of throwing your burdens on the Lord - then lack, discord and pain will continue to be the external "crop" you are "planting."

LIFE is your RAW MATERIAL. Thought is your ARTIST'S brush, and your emotional attitude makes your mental pictures come alive before your eyes. "Ye are Gods." You are god the painter - god the sculptor of your world, and you can follow your Divine Father's happy fulfilling plan for your life by CENTERING your CONSCIOUSNESS upon Him and seeking His guidance - or you can go on working your affairs into the chaos you'll then have to live with instead.

Which will you choose? You cannot serve God AND mammon!

"Behold! I make ALL things NEW!", sayeth the Lord. That's what YOU ARE doing Beloved - creating your body and world out of your own thoughts and feelings of separateness - OR union with HIM. He who hath seen YOU, Beloved, has also seen the Father, made flesh, but if you persist in separating yourself in your mind from the wholeness (or Holiness) within you, you will go on putting up a very unconvincing demonstration of your Godliness! You need to enter your Secret Place of the Most High within your body temple and CENTRALIZE yourself again. In fact, you should do this daily, or in other words, keep "practicing the Presence of God" IN YOU - AS YOU.

You need to stop straining over details and start seeing Omnipresent Perfection filling you with Its limitless LOVE, Wisdom and Power, so you can start projecting what "our Heavenly Father" WANTS you to enjoy before your OUTER VISION as well. Be still and KNOW, in regard to yourself, "I am God as ME. Therefore, I am now as perfect as my Heavenly Source of Identity within."

"I don't have to MAKE myself perfect, I only have to LET myself BE PERFECT, for I already am. Therefore, I now LET myself BE manifesting God's omnipresent PERFECT-TION throughout my body and world, and I SEE it EVERYWHERE in EVERY ONE and EVERY-THING."

ASK and you shall receive. ASK God to CENTRALIZE you in Him, so you can say with Jesus, "I in Thee and Thou in me." Whenever you are tempted to think about your troubles, even if you're trying to "demonstrate" over them, you are still holding the mental patterns that made them so real to you in your creative mind, and that's why they continue to plague you.

LET THEM GO! FORGET them completely, by filling their place with thoughts of the Father's Omnipresent Perfection all around you and within you, enveloping you to the exclusion of anything and everything that could make you afraid, poor, discordant or ill.

STOP feeding your woes their mental diet, and you'll starve them to death. Instead, feed the omnipresence of God within you by concentrating your ATTENTION on your oneness with Him and His Perfection - especially where your problems seem to be. When you learn to do this instead of worrying, you'll soon possess the wonders He's ALREADY prepared for you who dare to Love and trust Him enough to focus your creative minds on His limitless good.

You can train yourself to be centralized in your Divine Source of Selfhood within. ASK Him to help you. Clear the pattern of your thoughts by ASKING Him to reveal His perfect plan for your life RIGHT NOW! GO ON and ASK Him to make LOVE the basis for ALL your feelings, so you will have the Substance you need to materialize His wonderful will for YOU.

Then stand and SEE the Salvation of the Lord!

So be it. Amen.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE CLASS)

BROTHER DYKES AND PSALMS 11 SPEAKING OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

As I sat there bound with the spirit of Morphemes (or being barely able to keep my eyes open) brought forth in part by too much overeating in the past few weeks, Brother Dykes asked the question, "How had we felt the Lord working in our lives recently?" I was unable to answer him, as I was too busy attempting to combat the spirit I was struggling with at that moment. But as he went on again and tried to touch base on the subject of our working it out in our lives, or turning it to the Lord to work it out, I will share with you on how the Lord is working with my life at this present time.

For many years I had been on an extended "sabbatical" for want of a better word. During that time it was relatively easy for me not to 'lose my cool', But somehow not pressing upward to the "goal of goals", stagnation set in, and over a period of time I felt myself experience emotions or feelings. If they were not new to me, they were of a past that I felt I had left behind.

Not very long ago I faced those things that were happening in my life, not wanting to pursue them any further. Upon retrospection I found they occurred whenever I was trying to hold on to appearances, or for other excuses.

However, when I found I did not have to protect either my innocence or actions, but accept them, and those of the actions around me, and just concentrate on keeping my eyes trained on the Lord, then His gifts began to arrive. Then, rather than the feelings I did not want; within my being, feelings of Love, Hope, Mercy, Compassion came. (Remember, He said, "We must put on the full vestments of the Lord.") To me this is the right use of His power.

I find when I keep my eyes on Him, I keep out of competitive or combative situations. Then Glory of Glories somehow, I see beneath the happenings in a room, community or self. As to what I see is not relative to this letter, but the knowing that I can help is. So this is how the Lord is presently working in my life, Brother Dykes, and I felt the need to answer your question on the subject.

So to me, "righteousness" is the right use of His power, or keeping my eyes trained on Him. And as I do this, I can only reflect Him. Yes, all good in the world is a reflection of Him and can only come about through Him.

Thank you again for sharing some of yourself with us that night.

Sincerely,

H.W. City of the Sun

MAN THE ADEPT
by Solaris

CHAPTER 3 - THE WORLD OF LIGHT

The heart, then, registers the paramount condition of the mind. Restore the mind to serenity and assurance by loving kindness towards all - including yourself. Your world is PART OF THE SPIRITUAL WORLD - FOR ARE YOU NOT SPIRIT HOUSED IN A MATERIAL FORM?

Therefore, we co-exist. We exist to help you and where you make use of LOVING POSITIVITY IN THOUGHT AND FEELING, WE WHO ARE OF THE SAME ARE ENABLED TO JOIN WITH YOU AND HELP YOU ALONG THE PATHWAY.

This wonderful world which we all share is given of the Bounty of Love.

Thus the Child of Light begins to shed the concepts of the finite and realign himself for life in expression of the Higher Self. Slowly he learns to leave the shadow and shine in fuller Self-expression in the World of Light.

Because he is committed to compassionate service, there is then much for him to do.

No longer does he desire proofs of the magnitude of the individual self. Now he is self-possessed of Selfless Love Itself and all his endeavors arise from his eagerness to serve others and assist them to the joy-state of fuller awareness.

He then realises that the mind as well as the heart can love, and his Kingdom of Loving Thoughts help Man to understand that Truth, Beauty and Love are only different states of awareness, and that it is truly Love which is the Monarch of All.

The heavy material of finite thought and feeling can never build the Immortal Mansion where the Master awaits to share the riches of the Absolute Self.

But the Knighthood of Man leading on to true Angelhood will cause his upliftment into that dear Dwelling Place in timelessness.

There is so much he can do to fit himself for the employment of his spiritual self in higher spheres.

Yet the beginning of his ascent lies in that POSITIVITY OF MIND AND HEART which will create him back into aware state in the Higher Octaves.

Love knows no barriers and is never at war with Itself. Therefore be in self-harmony and know yourself as self-identifiable with Love; The Higher Octaves are also those of Love.

There is a solar purpose to your life and a solar reason for your personality-equipment. This equipment ensures your adequacy to achieve the specifics for which you are under incarnation.

Some cannot see the expression of True Love in their life and its undertakings. Those who have solar vision can. It is by bringing peace of mind to bear that one may reach through self-harmony the peerless joy of Soul-Awareness and thus the understanding of all things.

WITH LOVE AND HONOR WE REMEMBER TWO RESIDENT MEMBERS

ELVIN NOEL:

Feb. 4, 1992 was the date chosen for the "passing over" of Elvin Noel. He and his wife, Althea, came here from the San Diego, California area. They set up their new mobile home in the Taylor Trailer Park, just across the road from the anticipated "City of the Sun." They arrived the first part of June, 1972. Before the year's end two other couples arrived, and these six, together with Wayne Taylor as Chairman, became the first Board of Trustees to begin the Work.

The Noels had previously lived in the Rosicrucian community of Oceanside, CA. where Elvin had been masseur, in charge of cremation and shipper of books. Elvin was deeply motivated to assist in the founding of the City of the Sun, and to that end he tirelessly worked for many years. He always wanted the project to go ahead faster than it seemed possible.

One of his greatest skills was to give "in depth" Astrology Readings. He gave countless Readings over the years. His mind was filled with Ancient Wisdom, and he shared much of it with us. He was a skilled speaker.

He had planned for cremation and for there to be no service. We shall not forget this staunch pioneer who lived in our midst for almost twenty years.

DR. JAMES BARTON

Each individual makes an imprint within a community. During the eight years of living among us Dr. Jim Barton made a very "positive" impression. He was not a dispenser of "gloom." To him everything was "fantastic", and tomorrow it would be even better.

The Drs. Jim and Verlie Barton had come here from their Care Center in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. He felt very much "led" to this area. Although he was a retired chiropractor he used his skills often to help people. He was constantly cooperating with many of the organizations of the Deming-Columbus-Palomas (Mexico) area. He was also busy with the City of the Sun Fd., as Chairman of the Trustees and our "postman."

With his friendly manner he was an "ambassador of friendship" and caused many to become acquainted with the City of the Sun.

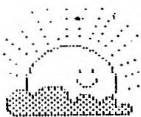

The date of his "passing over" was Feb. 18, 1992. He had planned for cremation and a service which was held on Feb. 21st. Rev. Pierre Gallerdo gave an inspiring message. Steven Hawson played both guitar and harp instruments with July McClure leading out in singing "When the Saints Come Marching Home." The extent of his friendships showed forth in the service which was mainly "standing room only."

His family was very important to him and he frequently traveled to see them. He was survived by his wife, Dr. Verlie Barton of Columbus, He had three sons, a daughter, 1 brother, 2 sisters, 12 grand children and 2 great grandchildren. Most of the family was able to attend the Memorial Service. Our Love accompanies this Light Seeker.

HOME CARE / HOSPICE NOEL

POST OFFICE BOX 370 COLUMBUS NM 86029
(505)531-2568

On March 16, 1992 the membership of The City of the Sun unanimously approved the formation of HOME CARE/ HOSPICE NOEL as an independent non-profit incorporation and donated the land for first headquarters. Mary Jane and William Switzler generously made available funds to purchase the mobile home from Elvin Noel's estate, as well as providing initial operating expenses for Home Care/Hospice Noel. Many members in the community have donated time, energy, experience and monies towards launching this effort. We envision that HC/HN will begin on a relatively small scale, but eventually will grow to meet a present and expanding need in this area. Columbus is recognized as having a proportionately high number of retirees. In order for some of these individuals to receive health care they are required to travel out of the area at considerable expense and inconvenience. We propose to offer these services at home.

Ultimately, we hope to serve as a budding model for alternative approaches and choices in this current era of unwieldy, burgeoning, and ineffective health care systems. Achieving this end will entail a significant amount of cooperation with similar hospice and home care programs throughout the region and country. The investigation of various and diverse styles of meeting health care needs beyond our national frontiers is also a goal of HC/HN. Clearly, the service potential of this program is substantial and wide-ranging.

Support from existing regional agencies as well as from numerous experienced and competent health care professionals and administrators has been eminently gratifying in just these first weeks of initial efforts. Many individuals participating in the development of HC/HN have been both involved in traditional/conventional systems of health care delivery as well as having explored newer, growing edge ideas in this field. Consequently, they are aware of the labor and perseverance entailed in creating a successful model of this kind. Currently, we are focussing on physical plant preparation [i.e., housekeeping, plumbing, etc.], networking with existing agencies and individuals with home care and hospice know-how, seeking appropriate licensing and incorporation status, and disseminating information about this endeavor to many interested parties in the area. We have faith that "where there is a genuine need it will be met" and are aware of the persistent, energetic effort it will take to concretely realize our goal to provide efficient, personalized, and dignified health care.

If these ideas inspire you as they do us, we are soliciting assistance in any form you may be guided to participate. Of course, financial support is much needed at this preliminary stage.

By Scott

How beautiful! I don't think I have ever seen skies, that are so Blue as this. They are so surreal, almost like a Salvador Dali painting! How truly beautiful!

As I gazed in absolute fascination the skies seemed to expand at a tremendous rate, so that rather quickly I was completely engulfed by them. All I could SEE was this incredible Blue-White Light! Any way that I turned as far as I could see, there was just myself and this Light, and the Light was a LIVING PRESENCE! "I am Home ! I AM HOME !" was all that I could think for what seemed like a long time. "Why are you so afraid? What is there to fear?" a voice asked from everywhere and nowhere. (don't ask me I'm only Human!) "Look around and I will show you plenty to fear!" at which point I was interrupted by the sound of gentle laughter. Then the voice continued, "but don't you realize that the only reason you find yourself in a fearful situation is because you are afraid of it and so you attract it to yourself? The POWER OF YOUR THOUGHTS is so extremely powerful! You do create your own universe. It is entirely up to you. You have been given the Right of choice, so choose well, choose out of Love and Joy! Not out of Fear and Ignorance!

Know that I AM always present! Be conscious of that fact and take strength from it! Surround yourself (CONSCIOUSLY) with My Presence and then there will be NO FEAR! There will be only PEACE! Remember what I have said and have FUN! Enjoy Life! That is why you are here."

The next thing I knew I was sitting on a large rock and laughing out loud. "How simple! How incredibly simple! Why couldn't I see this before?" I thought. "Because it is simple, it is very easy! And you tend to make things so overly complicated," a small voice whispered inside my head.

"How true" I thought. "Now where is that dog atBYE EMMETT".
