

The Journal of Borderland Research

TABLE OF CONTENTS

RADIONICS, A TACTICAL WEAPON FOR MILITARY USE
From Tom Bearden's "Specula", with Clips,
Quotes & Comment by the Editor. 1 - 10

COURTING DAYS ARE OVER, THE MARRIAGE HAS BEGUN
By David Wilkinson. 11 - 13

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY
By Albert J. Menendez 14 - 16

A SELF-POWERED PSYCHOTRONIC GENERATOR
By Robert Hoffman 17 - 20

CLIPS, QUOTES & COMMENTS
He Died With His Boots On, Take Me To Your Leader, A Close Encounter with "Close Encounters", Extended Twilight Learning, Energy
Diagrams As Healing and Protecting Agents,
The Late Inventor Of The Aurameter, Positive
Water From The Air, Meeting The Dweller On The Threshold, The Lues Of Hecate, Finding
The Truth In This Lifetime, A Religious
Dracula, Are You Pagan, Mystic or Egghead?,
The "Ayatollah" Of New York City Of 1863,
The Union Stabbed In The Back, Turning The Tables On Scientology, A Menace To Canadian
Citizens, 1978 Annual report -- Our 20th
Year Of Operation, Anxious Askers Answered, Proposed UFO Research Group At United Nations Still Alive, BSRF Literature. . . 21 - 36

THE JOURNAL OF BORDERLAND RESEARCH

BSRF No. 1 Published by Borderland Sciences Research Foundation, Inc., PO Box 548, Vista, California 92083 USA. Edited by the Director, Riley Hansard Crabb, Doctor of Metaphysics in the Society of St. Luke the Physician.

The Journal is published six issues a year with the assistance of the Associates, at the Director's home, 1103 Bobolink Drive, Vista. It is printed, 36 pages an issue. The Foundation is incorporated under California law, May 21, 1951, #254263, and has been in continuous existence since then. Address all correspondence to the PO Box. The Journal is included in the Foundation membership of $9.00 a year. Single copies and back issues of the Journal are now $2.25 each. If you don't care to join you may receive the Journal by donating $9.00 a year or more to the Foundation. The Director's wife, Ms. Judith Crabb, is office manager and Secretary-Treasurer.

PURPOSES OF BSRF: This is a non-profit organization of people who take an active interest in unusual happenings along the borderland between the visible and invisible worlds. In the words of the late Meade Layne, founder and director of BSRA from 1946 to 1959: "BSRA publications are scientific in approach but employ few technical expressions. They deal with significant phenomena which orthodox science cannot or will not investigate. For example: The Fortean falls of objects from the sky. Teleportation, Radiesthesia, PK Effects, Underground Races, Mysterious Disappearances, Occult and Psychic Phenomena, Photography of the Invisible, Nature of the Ethers and the problem of the Aeroforms (Flying Saucers). In the year 1946 BSRA obtained an interpretation of the phenomena which since has come to be known as the Etheric or 4-D interpretation, and which has not been radically altered since that time. This continues to be the only explanation which makes good science, sound metaphysics and common sense."

The chief present concern of the Foundation is to make this kind of unusual information available as a public service at reasonable cost. Headquarters acts as a receiving, coordinating and distributing center. An important part of the Director's work is to give recognition, understanding and encouragement to people who are having unusual experiences of the borderland type and/or are conducting research in any of the above fields. For consultation on borderland problems or for Spiritual healing through prayer, write or phone 714-724-2043 for help or for an appointment. Donations and bequests toward Foundation research programs and expenses are welcome.

The 35-page list of BSRF publications is available from Headquarters for $1.00 in money, check or stamps. This includes brochures on borderland subjects, tape recordings of Mr. Crabb's lectures and of members of the Inner Circle, talking through trance-medium Mark Probert. Write to BSRF, PO Box 548, Vista, California 92083 USA.

RADIONICS, A TACTICAL WEAPON FOR MILITARY USE

From An Article In "Specula", by Tom Bearden,
With Clips, Quotes & Comments by the Editor..

Bearden is a retired Lieutenant Colonel of the U.S. Army who lives near the Army's rocket center in Huntsville, Alabama. He says he holds a Master of Science degree from a Georgia college, in Nuclear Engineering. He is part of an "underground" network of physicists in 20 countries who exchange ideas and publications on advanced subjects and "unusual phenomena". For the past seven years he has been developing a theory to explain Radionic functions. He calls it "psychotronics/psychoenergetics".

What is the result of these years of research into this borderland science? The startling conclusion that Russian physicists picked up the idea of Radionics many years ago and turned its use to a tactical weapon for the military! And, it's COL Bearden's contention that the Russian push into this radical area of physics came from Stalin himself, immediately after World War II and our startling revelation of the atomic bomb at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

"Soviet scientists were ordered by Stalin to actively seek another area of great breakthrough -- such as the U.S. atomic bomb had been -- and to leave no stone unturned in their search," writes Bearden.

He attributes their success to the fact that Russian agents in the United States in the 1920s were on hand to observe the demonstration of Dr. T. Henry Moray's Free Energy device at his laboratory in Salt Lake City. "An engineer named Frazer -- a Soviet agent and perhaps even a 'double agent' -- was planted in the lab and succeeded in learning how to build the basic detector device."

Moray wanted to turn his invention over to the U.S. Government to be used for the benefit of all, fool; but the U.S. Senator invited to witness one of the successful demonstrations of the electric generating power of the Free Energy device wanted Moray to turn it over to the Utah Power and Light Company for private exploitation! This Moray refused to do; so then Frazer urged him to take his invention and creative skills to Russia where he would unlimited facilities to carry on his work with government support! Moray wisely refused to do this also but while on a trip to New York an attempt was made to kidnap him, according to Bearden, and take him to Russia. Later, when Moray returned to Salt Lake City, he was shot at, presumably by Frazer, and the double agent took a hammer and smashed the "detector", as Bearden calls it.

MIND-OVER-MATTER MESSING

So, details of Moray's Psychotronic Generator made their way to Russia long before World War II, but apparently orthodox Russian physicists were as unimpressed as were American physicists -- until Stalin was impressed by the unlimited power of Zero Vacuum, as Bearden and his physicist friends call it. A Mystic calls it God's love manifest in action. The Yogin calls it Prana. Hermetic scientists call it the Aether of the Wise, charged with elemental force which makes things happen in the physical world.

Stalin's "teacher" during World War II was Wolf Messing, a Polish Jew and Mentalist who fled the Nazi invasion of his homeland to Russia in 1939. This is not in Bearden's article but in "Psychic Discoveries Behind The Iron Curtain" by Ostrander and Schroeder, Chapter 4:

"Wolf Messing was no ordinary mentalist but a celebrated psychic who'd traveled the world, had been 'tested' by such luminaries as Einstein, Freud and Gandhi, and had hobnobbed with people in high places. His friends had included the late Marshal Pilsudski and much of the Polish government."

The Nazis were looking for Messing when they invaded Poland. He had predicted Hitler's degraded and inglorious end. There was a reward of 200,000 marks out for his apprehension and arrest. Stalin was delighted to have Messing available to read the minds of the German leaders so their next moves could be anticipated. In the 39 years since then it is to be expected that Russian mentalists have perfected the technique of picking the brains of world leaders. Stalin also hoped to use Messing's hypnotic powers to suggest Hitler and the German generals into massive mistakes in judgment.

From Messing's autobiography, "About Myself", Ostrander and Schroeder picked this story of Stalin's test of Messing's powers, the robbery of the Moscow Gosbank of 100,000 rubles.

"I walked up to the cashier and handed him a blank piece of paper torn from a school notebook," says Messing. Then he opened an attache case and put it on the counter. Then he mentally willed the cashier to hand over the enormous sum of money. The elderly cashier looked at the paper. He opened up the safe and took out 100,000 rubles. Messing stuffed the banknotes into the case and left. He joined Stalin's two official witnesses in charge of the experiment. After they had attested that the experiment had been satisfactorily performed, Messing returned to the cashier. As he began passing him the packages of bank notes, the cashier looked at him, looked at the blank piece of notepaper on his desk, and fell to the floor with a heart attack.

"'Luckily it wasn't fatal,' says Messing."

There were other tests which Messing passed with flying colors. The news was not suppressed but published freely in Russian papers as Messing toured the nation demonstrating mind over matter. He became as famous in Russia as he had been in Western Europe. Officially, the Russian government was even more skeptical and critical of psychic powers than other governments here in the West; nevertheless, the seed of belief in them had been planted in the highest circles of the Soviets; so the Russian physicists set out to top the American atomic success with something even more frightful with full encouragement and support from their leaders.

THE PAGAN PATH OF POWER

Messing, like most Jewish males, is an atheist. This made him an ideological bedfellow with Stalin and the other Russian leaders, all atheists and reincarnated Lemurians whose only "god" is power. This makes them ideological bedfellows with the godless Lunar Pitris, egg-born serpents from the Moon, which itself was once part of a larger planet which we call Maldek. Other, smaller fragments of Maldek still follow its original orbit around the Sun, between Mars and Jupiter.

If I read D.K.'s "Treatise On Cosmic Fire" aright, these Lunar Pitris failed Judgment Day on Maldek. They misguided mankind on that unfortunate planet into an allout war using weapons of absolute power -- according to certain Flying Saucer contactees. In the years since I first learned that, in my UFO research, I wondered what those weapons of "absolute power" were; for these are supposed to be even more destructive than atomic weapons. Now, with COL Bearden's revelations of Radionic weaponry development in Russia, I believe I have an answer.

The failed Lunar Pitris "fell" to the planet Earth along with their guiding genius, Lucifer or Satan. Here they are "condemned" to work with infant mankind as we struggle toward that perfection epitomized by the Christ, practicing our God-like powers on each other.

On page 392 of the "Treatise", through Alice Bailey, D.K. wrote: "It is an interesting occult fact that our Earth should now be in her fifth round, and paralleling the Venusian scheme, but the Moon chain of our scheme (which included the planet Maldek) saw a period of temporary retardation of the evolutionary process of our Heavenly Man (the God of the Earth); it resulted in a temporary slowing down of His activities, and caused 'lost time', if such an expression might reverently be permitted. The Lords of the Dark Face, or the inherent forces of matter for a time achieved success (that 'success' was the destruction of one of the school rooms of the Solar System!), and only the fifth round of our chain will see their ultimate defeat."

THE COMING OF THE GUARDIANS, FROM VENUS

The Lords of the Dark Face apparently almost succeeded in destroying the Earth back in Lemurian times, after having been dumped here from Maldek. D.K. continues: "The Venusian scheme also had its battleground, but the planetary Logos of that scheme overcame the antagonistic forces, triumphed over material forms (and their psychotronic weapons of absolute power), and was consequently in a position -- when the right time came -- to apply the needed stimulation or an increased fiery vibration to our Earth scheme.

"The fact that outside help was called in during the third (Lemurian) root race of this chain, and that the evolution of manas (mind) brought about the individualisation, in physical form, of the Avatar, needs to be pondered upon. The Divine Manasaputra, the Lord of the World, took form Himself through the driving impulse of manas, inherent in His nature, and in some mysterious way this was aided by another Heavenly Man of another scheme."

On page 618 D.K. writes: "The Lunar Pitris, 'the builders of man's lunar body', and their correspondence in the other kingdoms of nature, are the sumtotal of the dense physical body of the Logos. . . They are the product of an earlier solar system; their activity dates from there. . . That is why the physical body is considered no principle (either for man or the Solar Logos); that is why the lower nature is considered evil, and why man 'must slay his lunar body'. Evil is that which can be controlled and subdued but which is permitted to govern. The positive can always manipulate the negative. When the negative line is followed and the line of least resistance to that which is no principle is pursued, then we have evil."

And thus we have the great religions of the world and their false Gods, blindly worshipped by millions of ignorant and superstitious humans, ready to commit any crime in the name of the false Christ, Looeamong; the false Mohammed, Thoth-Gabriel; the false Buddha, Kabalactes; the false Brahm, Ennochissa; and for the priests who are their physical plane agents. There will be no peace on earth until these warring Gods and their masses of hypnotized followers are somehow neutralized; nor will there be any large-scale, public contact with advanced beings from Venus and elsewhere. The Communist "priesthood" is under the control of Lunar Pitris, Moon Gods, too; and as long as the desire for power dominates their every waking moment, these "Dr. Fausts" of Russia will continue the struggle to expand their control of a large part of the earth, with bigger and bigger weapons.

OUR ENVIOUS PRISON WARDENS!

On page 780 of the "Treatise", D.K. writes: "There are Pitris who work in connection with a planet, and with a solar system as well as those who work with the human kingdom. They embody the energy of substance as demonstrated in a system, a scheme and a human cycle.

"There are also in connection with our peculiar Earth scheme those Lunar Pitris who reached their present stage of activity in the Moon chain. They are deva groups but they have not passed through the human stage; for them it has yet to be achieved; and their present experience in connection with the Human hierarchy has that end in view. . . The Solar Pitris could give man his consciousness (his soul or Higher Self); the Lunar Pitris could give to him his instinctual consciousness of his vehicles (the lower, concrete mind, emotions and body, his Lower Self). . . but in the Earth chain a peculiar condition of affairs was brought about through the planetary failure coincident with the moon chain; that is the cause of the present balancing of forces on this chain. . . "

If we look upon the Earth as the jail for failed or straggling humans, then we see the backward Lunar Pitris who are committed to this planet too as our jailers or prison wardens who both hate us and envy us because we are ahead of them in evolution. We have souls and they do not. The relationship is well illustrated by this picture from the LA "Times", an Associated Press photo.

Dion Fortune expressed it well in her writings when she spoke of the "two-year old dog guarding a two-year old child". Trouble is our "guardians" are leading us down a self-destructive path by encouraging us to develop destructive weapons which may well destroy all life on the planet!

WHO'S IN CHARGE?—Abel Kahn, 2, of Princeton, N.J., takes his Great Dane, Sam, for a walk—or is it the other way around?

AP Wirephoto

SATAN-LUCIFER, THE OLD ADVERSARY FROM MALDEK

If our search for the genius guiding the Russian physicists in the search for the ultimate weapon is on the right track, there should be some confirmation in the literature of the Western world. We find one such in the writings of the martyred Hebrew prophet, Isaiah, about Lucifer, verse 14:12: "How art thou fallen from heaven, o day-star, son of the morning! How are thou cut down do the ground, that thou dist lay low the nations. . . ." Not only the nations but a whole planet!

Another is in the writings of the famous English man of letters, Lord Byron, who apparently came to realize that he was a reincarnated Maldekian. There is such an inference in his popular dramatic poem, "Manfred", published in 1817. The first edition of 20,000 copies sold out the first day!

We dont know where this English Lord, of Scotch ancestry, learned his ritual magick; but he was widely read; and Cabalist Francis Barrett's well known work, "The Magus or Celestial Inteligencer", was published in London in 1801. Then in his second year on the Continent he spent five months in a Franciscan convent in Athens in 1811. A lengthy stay in Switzerland, in the Alps, in 1816 and 17 gave him the setting for "Manfred".

It is supposed to be fiction but perceptive readers, including the late Richard Shaver of Cavern World fame, read "Manfred" as literally true, with Byron as the Magus, performing a successful evokation of Elementals of Earth, Air, Fire and Water in a chalet high in the Alps on a stormy night. As we point out in our brochure, "The Reality of the Cavern World", so inspired was Shaver by his reading of "Manfred" that he tried for, and obtained on first trial, an elemental world contact himself!

Lord Byron

Here are a couple of appropriate quotes from Manfred's ritual:

"If it be so. -- Spirits of Earth and Air,
Ye shall not so elude me! By a power
Deeper than all yet urged, a tyrant spell,
Which had its birthplace in a star condemned,
The burning wreck of a demolished world,
A wandering hell in the eternal Space;
By the strong curse which is upon my Soul,
The thought which is within and around me,
I do compel ye to my will -- Appear!"

And they did appear, in turn, appropriate representatives of the four elements, and several more besides!

The sixth spirit, for instance, from some unplumbed deep:

"My dwelling is the shadow of the night,
Why doth thy magic torture me with light?"

Number seven was the Old Boy himself apparently, Lucifer, who first appeared only as a spot of light, but the voice was clear enough to the expectant Manfred:

"The Star which rules thy destiny
Was ruled ere earth began, by Me;
It was a World as fresh and fair
As e'er revolved round Sun in air;
Its course was free and regular,
Space bosomed not a lovelier star.
The Hour arrived -- and it became
A wandering mass of shapeless flame
A pathless Comet, and a curse
The menace of the Universe;
Still rolling on with innate force,
Without a sphere, without a course,
A bright deformity on high,
The monster of the upper sky!
And Thou! beneath its influence born --
Thou worm! whom I obey and scorn --
Forced by a Power (which is not thine
And lent thee but to make thee mine)
For this brief moment to descend,
Where these weak Spirits round thee bend
And parley with a thing like thee --
What would'st thou, Child of Clay! with me?"

All Manfred Lord Byron wanted was forgetfulness, but this the Spirits of the unseen world could not give him. They offered him power over the kingdom of the flesh. Manfred had already learned that kind of power was dust and ashes in his mouth. Forgetfulness they could not give him; for was he not a God -- or at least an immortal being -- as they? And how can a God destroy himself? He cannot. He can only change his form! After some fruitless palaver with the Spirits Manfred asks the leader to reveal himself. It does, as a beautiful woman! Manfred tries to clasp "her" to him and falls senseless to the floor.

"THE MYSTERY OF THE MOON"

"The three lower Deva orders," writes D.K. in the "Treatise", "the lower fifth, the sixth and the seventh, have a close connection with the moon. They are the building agents which (working on the involutory matter of the three worlds) construct the lower three bodies of incarnating man. They are a branch of the Lunar Pitris, but the fact should be remembered that this particular branch of the pitris are those functioning in our particular scheme, and are closely allied with our Planetary Logos. Groups of these Pitris are found wherever man is in incarnation in all the schemes, but in other schemes they differ somewhat from ours, as the 'Mystery of the Moon' is connected with a peculiar esoteric condition which concerns our own planetary Logos."

THE SCENE OF THE CRIME

It is my belief that the "peculiar esoteric condition" D.K. speaks of is the result of the natural destructiveness of man being allowed to run its course on the planet Maldek. The planetary Logos allowed the Lunar Pitris of Maldek to guide the atomic physicists into the construction of Radionic or Psychotronic weapons of absolute power. They were used in an all-out war between the "Russia", the "China", the "America" of Maldek.

After the total destruction of Maldek billions of souls had to be parceled out among the other planets of the solar system to redeem themselves and to continue their evolution. Millions of those lost souls are incarnated here on earth, facing the test of the same crisis again, along with the Lunar Pitris who misguided them to the destruction of Maldek.

"We knew what they were doing but we did not interfere," was the message to Ric Williamson and his contact group in Arizona in 1952. The implication was that this time, on this planet, the Guardians will interfere if we cannot control ourselves.

In July 1969 our space science succeeded in putting a man on the Moon. The word circulating in esoteric circles here on the surface of the earth was that Neil Armstrong had "returned to the scene of the crime". In the light of the information we have pulled together here, the Moon is no longer a mystery; and we understand the cryptic reference to the "crime" of Armstrong's first steps on that big remnant of Maldek out there. We also understand the deeper implications of COL Bearden's revelations concerning the development of Radionic weapons by Russian physicists. The cycle repeats itself from planet to planet. Those who fail to learn to use their Cosmic Power constructively will take the work over, and over, and over again until they do learn. There are two ways to go. The Fire Elementals that D.K. writes of in his "Treatise" will help us in either direction. The choice is up to us.

It is this esoteric phase of the creation and control of power of which the Russian radionic physicists are ignorant. If they could see the gleaming eyes of the ugly elementals eagerly watching developments in the laboratories of these Russian Dr. Faustus, they would run screaming through the night! Nevertheless they have committed themselves to the destructive use of "bits of vacuum" -- as Bearden translates it. Yes, the physicists who spoke of the Zero State as being nothing, have found through Ra-dionics and the logical developments of nuclear physics that 0 is Something! In fact it is Everything. It is Infinity -- the infinite power of God, everywhere present. Dr. T. Henry Moray saw it more correctly than his fellow scientists of the 1920s when he spoke of "The Sea Of Energy In Which The Earth Floats". In fact that is the title of the book which he wrote about his success in building and using a psychotronic generator, a "free energy" device which tapped that Sea of Energy.

THE SUBQUANTUM EMISSION AND ABSORPTION OF VIRTUAL PHOTONS

It is a great mental exercise for one steeped in esoteric science, like your editor, to struggle through the tortured mental gyrations of the nuclear physicist as he uses quantum mechanics to explain the power of Mind over Matter -- or of Love -- or Hate -- in action, if you prefer.

Here's an example from COL Bearden's opus: "In quantum mechanics, electric charge is conceived as being created by the subquantum emission and absorption of virtual photons. E.G. by extinguishing the virtual photons on an electron, the electron loses its charge, being converted to a neutrino and moving away through matter or anything else at the speed of light with essentially zero probability of interaction.

"For an electron locked in orbit by integral DeBroglie waves (Bohr theory, which is sufficient here), its charge cannot normally be extinguished, but an electron in a current flowing along a wire is not so protected and it can therefore be extinguished. I.e., currents in electromagnetic circuits -- automobile systems, radars, radios, lasers, satellites, human nervous systems, etc. -- can be interfered with or even extinguished by this means. (As has been amply demonstrated by Flying Saucers over the years. RHC)

"The effect can be modulated upon electromagnetic carriers, but in an unusual sense. I.e., this type of modulation is virtual state, so it does not simply gate photons as does normal electromagnetic modulation (AM) or change frequency of the photons produced (FM) -- rather it is modulated onto each individual photon itself, in its unseparated ΔT portion (a photon is comprised of action, $\Delta E \Delta T$ without any separation).

"The virtual state may be thought of as nested shells of physical reality contained or enfolded inside the element of time contained in each quantum of action. It is thus contained in, and carried by, the photon."

Mind over matter is a Hyperfield over an Electromagnetic Field and this is the basis of Spiritual Healing or Absent treatment, with the mind or augmented by a Radionic broadcast treatment instrument. The point Bearden makes here is "there exist more fundamental component fields than electromagnetic fields, and these 'hyperfields' produce electromagnetic field itself. These hyperfields can also just as easily extinguish electromagnetic fields or virtual photons."

The dematerialization of a human form in a seance room -- or of a Flying Saucer in our atmosphere, are good examples of the "extinguishing" of electromagnetic fields -- also the regression of a cancer tumor!

THE MENTAL STATE IS THE VIRTUAL STATE

"'Mind' is also such a virtual reality. I.e., an 'observer's mind form' is equally as real as any observable, but it is merely in the virtual state and is thus carried by photons. 'Psychotronics' (Czechoslovakian term) or 'psychoenergetics' (Soviet term) simply refers to this relationship between 'mind' of the observer and 'physical change' observed by the observer. I.e., the Soviets have for some time been aware that there is no difference between mental state and virtual state, and that a thought or a thought form is a virtual object."

Radionics is the American term for the constructive use of Virtual State in therapy. While Dr. Moray was proving that the earth does indeed float in a sea of energy, in his Salt Lake City lab in the early 1920s, Dr. Abrams was proving the same thing in his clinical work in San Francisco, and a Russian emigre engineer named Georges Lakhovsky was proving something similar with his Multi-Wave Oscillators and simple wire loops in Paris. Living tissue could be affected for the better by the thought of health super-imposed upon electro-magnetic waves. The physicist calls this "the kindling effect", according to Bearden. The esotericist is reminded of the statement of Jesus in Matthew 9:22: "Thy faith hath made thee whole," and Abrams and those whole followed on after him in Radionic research in America and England added electronic amplifiers to their broadcast treatment equipment. Here's how COL Bearden explains it:

"The PT patterns/effects can be modulated onto electromagnetic signals, even of very low intensity, and still affect living systems because of the kindling effect. I.e., the psychotronic virtual state modulations are stripped off the living system (in the acupuncture points near the surface of the skin) and introduced onto the human nervous system where they begin to coherently superpose as time passes. Such collection reaches the quantum threshold and observable physical change results. This effect, e.g., is actually what changes the Kirlian photography field pattern -- human hyperfield activity is collected and kindled into weak electromagnetic field on the spark discharge, resulting in an electrical change (usually quite weak). The actual photographic film only records ordinary photochemical interaction." (How the Russian physicists have turned these PT effects into weapons will be reviewed in the next Journal.)

COURTING DAYS ARE OVER, THE MARRIAGE HAS BEGUN

By David Wilkinson
From the Findhorn "Open Letter"

I am one of those unique (odd) individuals who, from earliest memory, wanted to get married. I was content to wait until my early twenties, but I spend my adolescent and teen-age years developing a vision of what married life would be like. I met her as I envisioned to be the fulfilment of this dream when I was a junior in college. She was beautiful, comfortably quiet, musical, compassionate and a good listener. In other words I saw her as the perfect mate.

We courted for four years (can you imagine?), spending anticipating the beauty and harmony of being united as husband and wife. I distinctly remember standing at the altar, looking at my bride who was approaching me from the back of the church, and thinking "What have I gotten myself into?" No longer could I fantasize about married life. I had placed myself in a position of having to demonstrate the reality of it.

It seems God has placed us in a similar position here at Findhorn, and in many other places in our world. For years we have been receiving guidance through Eileen that we are to be a "city of light", and that our work here is to usher in the new age. That is a worthy band wagon to board as we create in our awareness what it will be like to live in this city of the future where all will be perfect, where all will be filled with love and light. It has been possible, at times, to get temporarily lost in the vision and glamour of it all. But then one day, not so long ago, Peter Caddy announced at a community meeting: "It is here! We are the new civilization, and we must be civilized!" Others in the family confirmed it. "Yes, it is here, and we must be responsible."

I was suddenly taken back to the memory of looking up the aisle from the altar at this woman who was approaching me, and thinking, "I'm not so sure I want to be a part of this after all. There's too much responsibility involved."

A number of years ago Eileen Caddy received these words that speak to this issue of responsibility:

"My beloveds, the work of this centre is to usher in the new age, to raise the vibrations by the awareness of the Christ Consciousness within each one, to find direct contact with Me, to bring down My kingdom on earth and see it start right here and go out and out to the four corners of the earth... Never forget that it all starts with you, that you are responsible and you can do something about the state of the world by a complete change of heart and mind and spirit... It is when you each shoulder your responsibilities and Do something about it that change will come about; in small ways to begin with, then spreading out and out until all is included."

THE TRANSFORMATION OF CIVILIZATION

What an exciting thought this is! Uniting our will with God's will in order to bring about a new order for civilization. The thought, however, must be expressed not just through the thinking, but also through the doing. "Be ye therefore doers of the word" is the Biblical injunction. It's far more glamorous to reflect about it, read books about it and hold seminars and workshops about it. But this isn't what ushers in the new age.

Really allowing God's will to become part of our everyday life is what brings about transformation of civilization. Weeding our gardens (our physical, emotional and spiritual gardens), beautifying our homes, contributing perfection to our work departments, establishing right relationships with each other and our environment, going the second mile, and the third, and the fourth, and the dreary fifth, are all part of the unglamorous ways of ushering in the new age. It's all part of the marriage.

Occasionally one might hear a faint voice calling out, "I dont think I can keep up this pace!"

Yet here is precisely where our thinking seems to be undergoing transition; for the pace seems no longer our pace but God's. Repeatedly in the past few weeks I have heard community members make the observation that they seem to be doing more than they ever thought possible. It's a new understanding of "doing" as well. Increasingly we are working not just to get the job done, but to actually bring into our environment (our every day working world) the "plan of love and light". The crescendo of activity continues as we extend our limits together.

"What is all this for?" you might ask. Two thousand years ago there was a man named John imprisoned on an island in the Mediterranean. (Apollonius of Tyana, RHC) He heard voices and saw visions that relate to what is happening on our planet at this time.

He recorded his vision in these words: "I saw a new heaven and a new earth... I saw a new Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband... Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne. 'You see this city? Here God lives among men... Now I am making the whole of creation new.' (Revelation 21).

WE MUST BE CIVILIZED!

All of us all over the planet are being asked to expand our awareness of what is happening. It's fun to play the "new civilization game" and spend hours reflecting on what living in the new age will be like. How will relationships change? What will our attitudes be toward money? What shape will business take? These are questions many people are dealing with right now. But then Peter Caddy's words ring out loud and clear: "It is here! We are the new civilization, and we must be civilized!"

Such a statement deals not with forms, but with consciousness; a change from a consciousness of lack to one of abundance, from mediocrity to excellence and perfection, from doubt and scepticism to absolute assurance that the plan of love and light is working out in each occasion of experience. All this does demand responsibility. But we are never challenged with more than we are able to respond to. The people are gathered and ready. The music of the spheres is already playing. The courting days are over. The marriage has begun.

* * *

"In a group meditation guided by one of the Findhorn gardeners, members of an orientation group were asked to try to communicate with the angel of the Findhorn garden. I accepted the challenge with an open mind and the spirit of adventure. After a few quiet moments I sensed a Presence. Willing, for the moment, to take it to be the angel, I greeted it telepathically with: 'Hello! You must be very pleased and proud of what you have created here,' I offered tentatively.

"'Yes,' came the reply, 'but I am busier than you can even imagine; for my responsibilities lie far beyond where you are today, far beyond Scotland.'

"'How can that be? Surely if there is an angel of Findhorn Garden then there must be an angel of Britain, China or whatever? And if that is so, then how can you have responsibilities so distant, if your concern is just with Findhorn Garden?' I asked.

"The reply was instantaneous. 'Because, you see, the Findhorn garden is not really a place. It is a spirit. And wherever that spirit is, so am I. Throughout the planet, wherever the Findhorn books are read, wherever guests of Findhorn and former community members now live, there too is the Findhorn garden. And so, there too, am I.'"

David E. Platts

"To Bigotry No Sanction"

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

By Albert J. Menendez
"Church & State" December 1978

The contributions of our First President to the cause of religious liberty are not so widely known as those of Jefferson and Madison. Nevertheless, by both word and deed, Washington lent his influence to the cause of freedom of conscience.

In his public proclamations Washington emphasized the importance of religious freedom for the peace and security of society. In a 1792 letter to Sir Edward Newenham, he spoke of the situation in Ireland in terms that could have been uttered in 1978: "Of all the animosities which have existed among mankind, those which are caused by a difference of sentiment in religion appear to me the most inveterate and distressing, and ought to be most deprecated." Though regarding "religion and morality as essential to civil government," he deplored religious antagonism and strife.

WASHINGTON

As Commander to the Continental forces, Washington told a meeting at the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in Kingston, New York on November 16, 1782, that the Revolution against England was being fought to advance both religious and civil liberty, "religious liberties being as essential as our civil" ones. In an address to the United Dutch Reformed Churches of Hackensack and Schalenburg, New Jersey at the close of the war, he mentioned the "protection of our civil and religious liberties" as one of the achievements of the Revolution. He told a German reformed congregation in New York City that the "establishment of civil and religious liberty was the motive which induced me to the field."

After his inauguration as President on April 30, 1789, Washington acknowledged the congratulations of twenty-two different religious bodies, including Roman Catholics and Jews. In thirteen of the twenty-two messages, there were direct references to religious liberty. Washington commended the Catholics and Jews for their firm support of the Revolution and hoped that they would prosper in a society where tolerance would soon, he hoped, replace prejudice. He told his fellow Episcopalians that the establishment of religious freedom through a constitutional system separating church and state would make it possible for "Christians of different denominations (to) dwell together in more charity, and conduct themselves in respect to each other with a more Christian-like spirit than ever they had done in any former age, or in any other nation."

"THE HORRORS OF SPIRITUAL TYRANNY"

Virginia Baptists expressed their fears about the omission of a Bill of Rights from the new Constitution in 1788. Washington replied by promising to use his office to "establish effectual barriers against the horrors of spiritual tyranny and every species of religious persecution". He said, "Every man, conducting himself as a good citizen, and being accountable to God above for his religious opinions, ought to be protected in worshipping the Deity according to the dictates of his own conscience." Many historians cite this exchange as a major event in the successful campaign for a federal Bill of Rights.

During the war Washington showed himself to be a zealous guardian of religious freedom. He did not repress the Quakers, who generally refused to bear arms and were pro-British by conviction. He was solicitous of Catholic sensibilities on several occasions. In 1775 he warned American emissaries to Canada to refrain from showing contempt for the predominant religious sentiments of that nation whom the Americans were seeking to woo. In 1774 he had refrained from the type of anti-Catholicism that swept over the colonies in response to the passage of the Quebec Act by the British Parliament, (John Jay and Alexander Hamilton had claimed that the British had "established the sanguinary religion of Popery" on the edge of British North America). As Commander-in-Chief of the Continental armies, Washington prohibited the celebration of "Pope's Day" or Guy Fawkes Day on November 5, 1775, calling it a "ridiculous and childish custom of burning the effigy of the Pope". Support given the colonials by Catholics in France and Poland strengthened the new spirit of tolerance.

Toward the tiny Jewish community Washington also revealed a characteristic tolerance and friendship. He supported the abolition of religious tests (Article VI of the Constitution) which had been aimed at Catholics and Jews particularly. He approved of the First Amendment's religious liberty clauses. In January 1793 Washington sent a letter to the congregation of the New Church (Swedenborgian) in Baltimore, in which he proclaimed, "We have abundant reason to rejoice that in this land the light of truth and reason has triumphed over the power of bigotry and superstition, and that ever person may here worship God according to the dictates of his own heart. In this enlightened age and in this land of equal liberty, it is our boast that a man's religious tenets will not forfeit the protection of the laws, nor deprive him of the right of attaining and holding the highest offices that are known in the United States."

DEMEAN YOURSELF AS A GOOD (WHITE, MALE) CITIZEN

Perhaps Washington's greatest moment as a religious libertarian came on August 17, 1790. Replying to felicitations tendered to him by the Hebrew Congregation Jeshuat Israel in Newport, Rhode Island, Washington replied, in part,

"The Citizens of the United States of America have a right to applaud themselves for having given to Mankind examples of an enlarged and liberal policy, a policy worthy of imitation. All possess alike liberty of conscience and immunities of citizenship. It is now no more that toleration is spoken of, as if it was by the indulgence of one class of people, that another enjoyed the exercise of their inherent natural rights. For happily the Government of the United States, which gives to bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance, requires only that they who live under its protection should demean themselves as good citizens, in giving it on all occasions their effectual support."

Washington's record on religious liberty was not unblemished. He could not bring himself to believe that a proposed Virginia law to finance religious education through public funds was violative of religious freedom. Nor was he as intellectually committed to absolute religious liberty as his contemporaries Jefferson and Madison. Nevertheless, in his quiet way, he was among the first to perceive that freedom of religion was the underlying genius of the American experiment in self-government. (Church & State magazine is published by Americans United for Separation of Church and State, $7.50 a year, 8120 Fenton St., Silver Spring, Maryland 20910.)

* * *

73% of the voting citizens of the State of Michigan showed themselves wiser than General Washington in last November's general election. They voted down the state's Parochiaid measure which would have allocated public tax credit money to Roman Catholic schools in Michigan. Michigan is far less than 73% Catholic! This indicates that enlightened Michigan Catholics listened to the still, small voice of the true Christ within their hearts and refused to obey the commands of their Bishops, who are guided and inspired by the false Christ, Looeamong. These physical plane agents of a horrible Moon God suffered another resounding defeat when Congress adjourned October 15th and the Bishops' national Parochiaid bill died in committee without getting to the floor for a vote. Here in California the religious bigots are gearing up for a fight for Parochiaid in 1980. They never quit.

A SELF-POWERED PSYCHOTRONIC GENERATOR

By Robert Hoffman

Actually, the first device of this type was invented by Christopher Hills several years ago. His invention, on which mine is based, is called a Pi-Ray Coffe. Technically speaking it is a Radionic broadcaster but that's where all similarities end. There are no selector switches, specimen wells, rheostats, rubbing plates or electrical power. Instead of utilizing rows and rows of dials like typical radionic counterparts, the Pi-Ray Coffe is tuned or pre-set to Etheric energy fields and requires no tuning or adjustment by the operator.

There are three basic components which help to power and filter the coffe's energy fields. First, it incorporates the powerful effect of the pyramid form. But here it is two-dimensional rather than three dimensional! Hills found through exhaustive testing that two-dimensional pyramid had just as much power as one of three dimensions. This was checked by careful checking with pendulums. I can assure you that Hills was correct in his findings.

Second, to further amplify and clarify the pyramid effect, a flat ceramic magnet is cemented directly under the capstone area of each pyramid. This now introduces powerful magnetic and electrostatic forces.

Third, a copper-wire spiral, rotating clockwise, is wound around the pyramid stack on the outside of the plastic tube which encloses the assembly. This component is very important because it acts as a filter. (It also creates a pulsing or oscillating field. RHC) The wire is about four inches long. It's purpose is to neutralize harmful and dangerous "negative" green energy which radiates from the bottom of the stack of pyramids.

It is not generally known that pyramids generate both positive and negative green rays. Years ago it was discovered that the top of the pyramid form generates positive green energy much like that given off by plants and trees. This force is safe and beneficial; however, there is negative green energy being generated downwards within the pyramid. This is the force that dehydrates and mummifies all organic matter including human cells. So let that be a warning to anyone planning on sleeping, meditating, etc., under a pyramid! Negative green is dangerous and shouldn't be played around with unless the person knows how to neutralize its effects.

THE HOFFMAN COFFE

THE POWERFUL "PI-RAY"

Within the negative green spiral is a narrow band called the Pi-Ray. This is extremely powerful and must be handled with care. Egyptian occultists found that this narrow band existed within the pyramid at an angle of $6^{\circ}15'$ off the east-west plane. The granite sarcophagus in the Great Pyramid was positioned to receive the Pi-Ray. But in order to filter out and cancel the negative green energy, enormous solid granite stones, shaped somewhat like shallow hemispheres, were placed directly above the sarcophagus. These also amplified the narrow Pi-Ray. Initiates to the Egyptian priesthood were irradiated by this ray to test their spiritual condition.

The three elements of our Pi-Ray Coffin incorporate the above Great Pyramid effects. It is activated by the consciousness of the operator, and will amplify whatever is present in that person's mind, whether positive or negative!

(Jesus put it very simply in Matthew 9:22: "Thy faith hath made thee whole." While the atomic physicist calls it the "Kindling effect". Re-read again COL Bearden's statement on page 10, where "virtual state modulations" of faith, of the will, "reach the quantum threshold and observable physical change results". That is, the person is healed. Werner Heisenberg was well aware that the "consciousness of the operator" could upset and make unpredictable the otherwise predictable functions of the laws of nature, as he regretfully told his German audience at Hanover in 1934, "The effect of the means of observation on the observed body has to be conceived as a disturbance partly uncontrolled. . . ." And the sick person wants his cancer disturbed, to where healing forces can effectively break up the mass and restore balance.)

It follows that whoever makes and uses my Pi-Ray instrument should have a positive attitude. Those who use it for harm or evil are going to hurt themselves because the Coffin is constantly "feeding back" to the operator. A person who wishes someone to be killed may end up killing himself.

The basic function of the Coffin is that of a psychotronic or radionic broadcaster activated by a "witness", "tuning" the instrument to the subject's personal wavelength and amplifying their vibrations. Any sample will do, blood spot, hair clipping, photograph, negative, signature, or even a thought. After all, like everything else, thoughts are resonant patterns of energy. These fields of energy are then intensified by the Pi-Ray; however, I have added four more stages of amplification to Hills'es original design, five in all for a Pi-Ray power punch, as shown in the photo at right, my Coffe seen from below, with the little ceramic disc magnets under the two-dimensional pyramids.

The pyramid assembly is housed in a plastic tube of suitable length, 8 to 12 inches, and diameter. The positive-rotation spiral is attached to the outside of the tube, beginning at the North and its other end at the South. The pyramid-magnets are separated by dowel rod cut to about $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. lengths. The pyramids are drawn or painted on square pieces of plastic cut to fit inside the tube, with the magnet glued directly below the capstone.

All of the magnets must be polarized or positioned to "pull" from the top. In other words they must all attract magnetic energy in unison from top to bottom; so be sure to check them for polarity before they are glued. Also the pyramid plates have to be arranged so their sides are parallel to each other. Leave a one inch open space at the bottom of the assembly for the Witness.

Preferably the Witness-Amplifier should be positioned away from TV sets and other electro-magnetic equipment. Mine works best outside where sunlight can radiate the assembly. The North end of the wire coil and that flat side of the pyramids should face North for maximum efficiency of the Coffe. Thus the other three sides of the pyramids point to the Cardinal compass points.

If a person wishes to energize himself, he -- or she -- should place a witness of himself at the bottom of the tube -- which has a second plastic tube outside the wire coil. Personal messages may be added, such as "energy", "love", "health" and so on. There are literally millions of uses for the Coffe. The possibilities are endless for those who live in the "borderland". Have fun!

* * *

This little psychotronic generator is ideal for the person who needs nightly protection from psychic attack, using his or her own witness plus a protective symbol. Little ceramic disc magnets can be purchased from Edmund Scientific Company, Barrington, New Jersey 08007. Send a dollar for current catalog.

SIDE
VIEW

↑
North

TOP VIEW

CLIPS, QUOTES & COMMENTS —

HE DIED WITH HIS BOOTS ON

"Well, one chief thief, Nelson Rockefeller, is gone. I say he stole the gold from Ft. Knox, Kentucky. His shoes done got quickly scattered. Only too bad some of those M-gogs cant suddenly join him like the present ones surrounding the White House. Maybe not the old boy but just his greedy advisors."

J.W.A., Carrollton, Ohio

Yes, one of the Lords of Materialism is gone, suddenly, victim of an attack. Cardiac arrest the medical experts call it. We can think of other prominent political figures who went the same way, J. Edgar Hoover suddenly dead in his office. Secretary of the Air Force Donald Quarles, only 49, found dead in his bed in Washington by his butler. A couple of years ago there was a change of government in New Zealand, from liberal to conservative; and Nelson Rockefeller flew down there to give the new government his blessing. NZ Associates Les White and John Scott were curious as to why Rockefeller took a bullet-proof car along with him for protection when driving around in that nation's capital and countryside? What had he done to others that he should live in such fear? Plenty, apparently, and in the doing developed an enormous Sin Body, a Dweller on the Threshold from which no bullet proof car or armed guards are protection when It decides to strike back at its creator. Looeamong, the false Christ, guards his servants well -- as long as their service is useful to Him; but when they are no longer useful, He delights in destroying them; for after all, this Moon God serves God-the-Destroyer; and our Dweller represents the Moon center in our bodies.

TAKE ME TO YOUR LEADER

"Saw the Merv Griffin television show this afternoon, Jan. 30, 1979. His interview guests were Durk Pearson, scientist who specializes in the study of longevity, Dr. John Lilly, who specializes in communication with animals and fish, the Dolphin, and Stanton T. Friedman, physicist who lectures widely -- especially to college audiences, on the reality of UFOs."

Ansley Hill, Monterey, California

Yes, Mrs. Crabb and I watched the same broadcast in the evening over a San Diego station. I wrote a congratulatory letter to Mr. Griffin for hosting an excellent program, but told him I had to take exception to Mr. Friedman's final conclusion that the reason the UFO-nauts dont come forth publicly is because the earth has no single leader representing the planet to whom they can be taken for public recognition and acceptance. What about the Secretary General of the United Nations? For better or for worse the United Nations is our world-government-in-being, and the Secretary General speaks for the member nations, over a hundred of them.

So, if a Flying Saucer ever lands at John F. Kennedy Interplanetary Airport on Long Island, bearing official visitors from other planets, other systems, the Secretary General is the one person who should go openly and publicly there to welcome them; and it would be his or her responsibility to see to it that interplanetary ambassadorships are established at United Nations headquarters in downtown New York City.

Remember, millions of people here on earth have been mentally and emotionally conditioned already to such an event by the Star Trek television series, and even to the planet earth joining an Interplanetary Confederation, with Earthlings taking part in space patrols.

A CLOSE ENCOUNTER WITH "CLOSE ENCOUNTERS"

"We were interested to read in the Sept-Oct 1978 Journal or reactions to the two films, 'Star Wars' and 'Close Encounters of the Third Kind'. We did not see the former but went twice to see the latter, which left a big impression on us despite the noise and confusion in it. We felt the sight of the gigantic space craft at the end of the film was reward enough -- it was the nearest thing we had seen to a description of space ships in Oahspe -- and left us at first stunned and then elated. The rest of the audience appeared stunned, too, as did the previous audience we saw coming out; and we feel that, despite its shortcomings, the film would have made a deep impression on many and maybe opened a great many closed minds. We have since been told that at the end of the making of the film a real space ship came over the set for all to see, and that the lives of many of the workers on the film have undergone uplifting change. We cannot vouch for this, of course, nor have we yet seen the report; but we would not be surprised at all if it was true. We are Faithists, studying Oahspe, and feel that judging by the impact the film seemed to make on Melbourne audiences our Space Brothers could have been behind its making, especially the last part. Best wishes for 1979."

Miss E.S.K., Melbourne, Australia

EXTENDED TWILIGHT LEARNING

"Of all approaches to life enhancement found so far, in our 16 years of research, Extended Twilight Learning appears to be the most certain, complete, effective, enjoyable, miraculous and least expensive. Send for free folder." Dr. L.A. Anderson, Anderson Research Center, 2942 Francis Ave., Los Angeles, Cal. 90005.

ENERGY DIAGRAMS AS HEALING AND PROTECTING AGENTS

"I have been using an Energy Diagram for years which consists of a lozenge with a circle inside, and above, a series of seven concentric circles into which the patient's witness is placed, treatment being in the lower circle.

"As to the use of word witnesses in place of actual medications (such as homeopathic remedies, herbs, cell salts, etc. RHC) I have for years been using circles with the names of treatments arranged radially. Placing the witness in the center and letting the pendulum pick out the required treatment, and giving it through the pendulum. I have such diagrams for Bach, Color, Gems, the 39 Forces -- or is it 36? Musical notes.

"Exactly the same principle is brought into play in my system for treating Mental Aberrations. However, no diagram nor code is necessary. Just tune the pendulum over the witness and ask for any Mental Aberrations to be treated. Pendulum will go into a series of radial swings through which the required treatment is given.

"Having been reminded by a recently read article, that one of the prominent Radiesthetists had discovered that every disease corresponds to a certain degree on a circle (the Zodiac?) it occurred to me that a similar method of treatment should give comprehensive coverage. With this idea in mind I tried it and found to my amazement that the pendulum was reacting in a similar fashion, but on a number of ranges, possibly about 1.3 cm apart. Comprehensive indeed! I have not as yet ascertained just what each range covers, but it is certainly effective.

"Sometimes the pendulum will come to a stop in the middle of a swing, in which case Positive gyrations over that spot will overcome the trouble, but care must be taken not to let it go counterclockwise as it sometimes has a tendency to do. (But suppose the patient's condition requires counterclockwise turns to restore balance? RHC) I wish the term Broadcasting could be abolished and replaced by Beaming, which would be more to the point in directing healing rays to a specific person.

THE LATE INVENTOR OF THE AURAMETER

"Verne Cameron discovered that there was a stream of energy going up from the top of a pyramid. I have not seen any mention that he found that this energy is noxious. He could easily have found out if he had taken the trouble to test my decontaminator diagram instead of brushing it off (and me) with the statement that there is no energy emanating from diagrams apart from what is imparted by the maker of them. However, I noted that the truncated pyramids have a large stone cross on top. This, I found, neutralizes the pyramid ray; and I am under the impression that such a pyramid may spread beneficial rays for some distance around it.

"There is POWER in the Sign of the Cross, the equal-armed cross without any invocation or other religious implication. It reverses the polarity of tap water which is negative, and at the same time purifies it. It also purifies foods which have some undesirable additives in them.

POSITIVE WATER FROM THE AIR

"Coming back to water, there appears to be a law that somewhere in the Evaporation-Condensation cycle the polarity of water is reversed. Thus I have found that snow and snow water, rain, and refrigerator defrostings are all positive. Perhaps that is why a good rain is said to be so much better for plant life than any amount of irrigation. And also it may in part account for the benefit derived from inhaling medicated steam for bronchial troubles, and for the benefit of steam baths.

"An inquiry in a Vancouver paper recently, as to whether distilled water was better for Arthritis patients than ordinary water, elicited a reply from a doctor that it made no difference -- that distilled water was just free from any solid matter. My tests with the pendulum indicated that the Positive water was away more suitable in such cases. The same thing may well apply to other diseases -- if only some KNOW-IT-ALL would do some testing! (It may be, dear Associate, that such testing is beyond the scope of any man-made instrument at present, and only a skilled radiesthetist could discover the difference. RHC)

"Using an energy diagram such as mentioned above, a water supply can readily be treated, using a cross for treatment and a description of the source to be covered, whether it be a settling pool or even a pipe line, the action being instantaneous. I am thankful to say that I have not yet been able, or have had to, test the effect on chlorinated or fluoridated water, but imagine these additives would also be neutralized. Nor do I know what effect the change of polarity might have on fish. For this reason I am now concentrating on the pipe lines coming to this place from my neighbour a couple of hundred yards away. It is nice to be able to enjoy a drink out of the tap, which was not at all advisable before."

C.E.S., Peachland, British Columbia

Information like the above should be of great encouragement to other Associates to make some effort to develop psychic sensitivity via the pendulum. You may find this skill a life-saver sometime, for yourself and for others! Dr. Aubrey T. Westlake, in his book, "The Patterns Of Health", describes seven patterns or symbols which have healing power. He says the most important of these are the Diamond, the Celtic Cross and the Star of Bethlehem. If it were me I would draw the pattern on a piece of paper, place my Witness on it, suspend a pendulum over it and make clockwise swings, a lot of them. Then repeat this process periodically until I got results.

Celtic

Better yet, build the self-powered Psychotronic Generator designed by Robert Hoffman elsewhere in this Journal, and energize your healing symbol, sigil or pattern with that! We had a call from Pennsylvania the other day, from a man who finally realized he would have to heal himself of his digestive and other myriad troubles. The great handfulls of pills prescribed by his doctor were doing him no good.

He was a cook in a frat house in a college town. He borrowed a Johns-Hopkins book illustrating human anatomy from a medical student. Page by page he went through this with his pendulum. If he got a clockwise swing over that symbol of a portion of his anatomy, he went on to the next drawing. If he got a counter-clockwise swing, he stayed on that page and forced his pendulum to make clockwise swings, hundreds of them, in a willed effort to balance the condition there. Driven by pain and discomfort -- not to mention mountainous doctor bills -- he kept at it for months, years, until he restored himself to reasonably good health.

The call was to get information about Radionic literature. He wants to get into more sophisticated Radiesthetic techniques. One of the fraternity brothers was having back problems and the cook offered to help give relief with his new-found healing powers. The collegian reluctantly and skeptically agreed. When results began to come the student panicked. He didn't want anything more to do with voodoo magic!

Of course if this student is a Devotional Mystic -- and the majority of the people in the world are, according to D.K. -- then the real reason for his rejecting the healing is deeply buried feelings of guilt -- for real or fancied wrongs done to others -- for which he must suffer. We were recently reminded that the high priest of Orgone, Dr. Wilhelm Reich, frankly claimed only a 10% success rate in his psychiatric counselling. The commonly shared "need to suffer" may be the reason.

MEETING THE DWELLER ON THE THRESHOLD

"Since receiving your booklet, 'Retro Me', and using the protective rituals daily, we have been doing much better. However, at this point it appears that the cause of the attacks is more on the order of the Lues of Hecate that you spoke about. Since meeting my husband two years ago I have been fighting a virus that wont go away. Sometimes it is worse and sometimes it is better. My husband had it before he gave it to me. It is terribly tiring. It uses the energy I need to meditate with. I'm interested in the Radionics that you spoke of in relation to these diseases and also the remedies. Could you send me more information on this? Is there someone in Florida who does it? I am desperate to get well and back on the Path."

Mrs. J.P., Ft. Myers, Florida

It's really a contest of wills, Mrs. J.P., and if you persist in the daily use of protective ritual, night and morning, you will eventually wear down your attackers. In fact, as a Student of the Mysteries determined to get on and stay on the Path, you will have to use protective and cleansing rituals regularly anyhow; otherwise the "fallen angels" will succeed in their never-ending efforts to drag you down to their degraded level.

THE LUES OF HECATE

Look up the word Lues in your dictionary and you will find that it is a Portuguese word meaning "plague"; but the medical fraternity has used it for years as a substitute word for syphilis. Hecate, of course, is a traditional name for the Goddess of Witchcraft and Childbirth. The founder of Radionics, Dr. Albert Abrams of San Francisco, in making radionic diagnosis of thousands of patients at his clinic, found that there are traces of syphilis in all of us! This is the "sin of Adam", an interplanetary disease, brought here originally by Lucifer and the fallen angels -- human and non-human -- from the condemned planet Maldek. That is my opinion at least; and it is hinted at broadly by D.K. in the "Treatise on Cosmic Fire" when he speaks of certain karmic conditions in the "body of the Planetary Logos".

So this is genetic venereal disease, almost impossible to escape because the aura of the planet is saturated with it. It manifests individually as the devitalising, vampirising effect described by Mrs. J.P.; and can be seen sometimes as a horrible, personal monster, the Dweller on the Threshold, a Frankenstein, a Dracula, the "Shadow" of Dr. Jung, barring our way to further spiritual advancement until we face up to it courageously and overcome it.

We don't know of any Radionist in Florida -- none who would care to have his name revealed at least; but when I was suffering such devitalisation years ago I used protective rituals regularly. I also got a set of the 12 Schussler Cell salts, each of which represents one of the Signs of the Zodiac, and a book on their use; and, following instructions, dosed myself with them. The Cell Salts are not drugs but natural substances and require no prescription from a doctor. If I had known about Psychotronic Generators then, such as the one described by Robert Hoffman in this issue of the Journal, I would have built one and placed it over a snapshot of me, along with a copy of one of the healing symbols suggested by Dr. Westlake, and left it there night and day for as long as seemed necessary.

Is Radionic diagnosis really necessary if one has a proven broadcast or beaming instrument such as the Hoffman Pi-Ray Coffin? I do not think so. I do think it is necessary to back up one's desire to get well with positive, intelligent physical action of some kind, a self-help program maintained with persistence until results are obtained -- with the help of one's Higher Self.

FINDING THE TRUTH IN THIS LIFE TIME

"I want to stay away from the Left Hand Path but being anxious to find the truth in this life time I have been indiscriminate about sending for everything that advertises Light-Truth and related subjects. Enclosed is literature of one school that I have been tempted to join except for its out-of-reach fees. Also another which has not completed its lessons, nor answered my letters, nor refunded my money!

"Three years' worth of your Journals had piled up and I was about to cancel my subscription, when I decided to read through some and found many interesting articles, especially your opinions and facts on various occult-mystic schools. Many are not what they profess to be. Many do help but because of the frauds prefer to stay in darkness. Please write more articles re: Scientology-Dianetics groups to save sincere students precious time and earned energy to devote to the Right Hand Path.

"I'm sure the fate of Jim Jones' People's Temple would have been spared if there were more publications such as yours to bring out the facts."

Mrs. D.B.M., Boulevard, California

If precept and example do not teach a person the difference between the true Christ and a false Christ, then he or she will have to learn by bitter experience! One of your most precious possessions as an evolving Goddess is Discrimination, the ability to discriminate between the false and the true. If you think you've been had consider the devout Catholic who goes to Las Vegas for a little fun, and sees his parish priest there, in civvies, in a casino, with a good-time girl on each arm; or the idealistic American in Italy, touring the Vatican with a guide, and asking in all innocence, "Who's suite of rooms are those?" And the matter-of-fact guide replies, "Oh, those belonged to the Pope's mistress."

Jim "Dracula" Jones is an extreme case, of course, but as a Student of the Mysteries you should always be aware of the fact that wherever there is the Black Magic of the Left Hand Path there is fear and there is aberrated sex. Beware the metaphysical teacher who boasts that he or she is above sex, or of the religious leader who insists, as Jones did, that married couples sleep apart. This makes them easier targets for the nightly sexual depredations of the leader's Dweller on the Threshold. Jones also forced the members of his inner circle of blind devotees to declare themselves homosexuals and lesbians, and to insist that they indulge in such relationships.

You must realize that this was the secret of his enormous hypnotic power over thousands of people, the nightly "charges" of unpolarized sex-force collected from the devotees. These constantly reinforce his image of himself as a great religious leader, savior to thousands.

A RELIGIOUS DRACULA

And if the nightly collections are not enough for his Sin Body to maintain its strength, daytime charges are needed. His secretary would call one of the women, "Jim needs you. He has this certain urge." And afterward the woman would proudly show deep bites on her body. It isn't likely that the relationship was normal and the deep bites suggest shed blood. This indicates that Jones had progressed -- better regressed -- on the Left Hand Path to where the mana or prana from freshly shed blood was necessary to maintain control. His Dweller had taken over. The commands came from Jones but they were only echoes of the desires of his invisible but very real Monster. The vicious attacks on devotees who finally woke up and tried to break away, the forcing of members to give up all their property to the People's Temple, are all indications of evil control, constantly challenging ignorant, hypnotized humans to wake up to what was going on.

This is why H.P. Blavatsky warned members of her esoteric group in London, "Treat your life force as your most precious possession!" Which indeed it is, because a Black Magician can steal it and use it to abuse his student -- but eventually he victimizes himself -- as Dion Fortune points out in the chapter on the Qliphoth in her masterpiece, "The Mystical Qabalah":

"Consequently the man who gives way to cruelty soon finds that he is not merely expressing the impulses of his own undeveloped or misshapen nature, but that a great force like a stream in spate (a Lunar Pitri, no doubt) is urging him on, driving him from one outrage to another till finally he loses his self-control and discretion, and is swept away to self-destruction by some incautious expression of his impulses."

An even more striking example than Jim Jones was Richard Nixon, who's "outrages" forced him to resign his presidential office in disgrace. It is true Jones forced the suicides of over 900 people at Jonestown in Guyana; but he was a piker compared to Nixon, who heartlessly ordered the U.S. Air Force to conduct mass bombing raids on Cambodia, Christmas Day, 1970, in which thousands upon thousands were killed. Nixon also has a distinction which can be claimed by no other president, 25 members of his staff have gone to prison for committing crimes in his name. Is he on the Left Hand Path? I don't know. That's his decision; but he doesn't seem to have shown any sign of remorse yet for his actions, no love, no compassion for those who suffered at his hands. Consider this revealing remark of his chief henchman, H.R. Haldeman, in his book, "The Ends of Power": "To this day the president doesn't know how many children I have. He never bothered to ask."

But the ex-president still has millions of blindly devoted followers who refuse to face the facts of life because it is their basic nature to lead with their hearts rather than their heads! We find the answer in the "Treatise On Cosmic Fire", where D.K. gives the approximate numbers of the human Monads using the earth as an evolutionary schoolroom: "35 thousand million Monads of love (the devotional types who flock to the religious and political spellbinders), 30 thousand million Monads of activity (the mental types), 5 thousand million Monads of power"; so the evangelists and demagogues will always have a supply of devotees, determined to be ruled by the Gods without, instead of looking to their own God within for inspiration and guidance.

"ARE YOU PAGAN, MYSTIC OR EGGHEAD?"

We discuss the three basic human types at length in our talk of the above title, and the three Paths: the First Ray or brute Power type, the Way of the Pagan; the Devotional Mystic type, the Way of the Heart; and the Hermetic Scientist type, or Way of the Mind. These are the three pillars on the Tree of Life of the Cabalist. The whole man or the whole woman must have all three in balance and under control. If you want to study this the material is in BSRF No. 24-A, Chapter Two on "The Three Paths", 95 pages, illustrated, $3.75.

It doesn't seem likely that there are any pure 1st Ray Power types in incarnation at the present time, no Genghis Khans, no Alexander the Greats; for if there were they would focus so much destructive power through themselves they would indeed make of the earth a second Maldek, a burnt out cinder breaking up in space. No, the pagan power struggles are left to lesser would-be "Napoleons" like the Shah of Iran and the "Pope" of the Moslems, the Ayatollah Khomeini. As borderland scientists we must be aware of the Moon Gods behind this holy war in Iran: Looeamong the false Christ, and Thoth-Gabriel the false Mohammed.

The great industrialists and bankers of America are physical plane agents of the false Christ. One of their instruments of pagan power is the CIA. In 1953 there was a palace revolution in one of the principalities of the false Mohammed, Thoth-Gabriel, Iran or ancient Persia. The Shah was kicked out and Mosadegh got in. The Lords of Materiality in America wanted that Persian oil. They offered the power-hungry Shah the help of the CIA to get Mosadegh out and him back in and on the throne. He accepted and won; but he was a traitor to the God of his own Moslem religion; and this 1953 coup opened the door for Looeamong to get control of one of Thoth-Gabriel's important dominions. That threat has now been stopped by the successful counter-revolution lead by his chief physical plane agent of the moment, the Ayatollah. Daily, on television newscasts, we have seen dramatic examples of the hypnotic control of a people by their priests as the Mullahs guided their revolution to success. Nevertheless, the larger purposes of the true Christ and the true Mohammed have been served. The Shah has shaken Iran out of its 19th Century feudalism. The seeds of dissatisfaction have been planted, among the younger people of both sexes, at least, and they will never be content to go back to the old Islamic ways.

Compared to the Moslem pope of Iran, Jim Jones was a small time operator! For the Ayatollah has stated that at his word he could start a Holy War, an orgy of self-destruction in Iran comparable only to our Civil War of a hundred years ago.

THE "AYATOLLAH" OF NEW YORK CITY OF 1863

No, Archbishop John Hughes of the New York Archdiocese did not start the rebellion against the Union but his Irish Catholic parishoners certainly aided the cause of the South in the Draft Riots of July 1863. Irish immigrants were low men on the economic totem pole. Months earlier, Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation had freed the blacks from slavery. Masters of mob psychology played upon Irish fears that their jobs would be taken by blacks when they would be drafted into the Union army.

"The actual drafting of men in New York City was scheduled to begin on Monday, July 13, 1863. All Sunday afternoon the Irish jammed the bars of the East Side and the headquarters of the volunteer fire companies. Their mob anger mounted as their liquor vanished," writes Emmett McLoughlin in his book, "An Inquiry Into the Assassination of President Lincoln". "When the provost marshal started drawing names at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, the worst riot in American history broke loose. Shooting started. Paving stones and brickbats came flying through the windows. Kerosene was dumped over the floor, and the Government office was set afire.

"As word spread of the defiance of the Government, the crowd grew, until some fifty thousand, practically all Irish Catholics, took over the city. They looted the liquor stores and then started on their siege of crime. Telegraph lines were torn down to disrupt police communications. The homes of the rich on Lexington Avenue were ransacked. Clothing and grocery stores were robbed and countless buildings were set on fire.

"The fury of the lawless mob was especially concentrated on Negroes. The barbaric manner in which the mobsters tracked down Negroes, tortured them, and slaughtered them is reminiscent only of the cruelest days of lynching parties in the South -- episodes which the Church would piously condemn in later years. With the usual cowardice characteristic of a mob, the group concentrated its fury on the orphan asylum for colored children, located on Fifth Avenue, between 43rd and 44th streets. They set fire to different parts of the building in an attempt to burn the 233 children alive. Some 2000 Irish men and women milled around and through the building shouting 'Murder the damned monkeys', and 'Wring the necks of the damned Lincolnites!'. .

"Many members of the police force and, later in that gruesome week, soldiers too, were wounded, beaten, and killed by the mob. . . The riot, with its hangings, beatings, pillaging and arson continued unchecked through July 13th, 14th and 15th. Only two forces could subdue the mob, the Roman Catholic Church and the United States Army. But the Church would do nothing and the Army had left New York City.

THE UNION STABBED IN THE BACK

". . . All available troops had been rushed to the Pennsylvania township (for the Gettysburg campaign, which reached its climax on July 4th) to bolster the bitterly assaulted Union lines. New York City itself was left with only its brave but all too small police force-- a force that had never been organized or trained to cope with a mob of 50,000 frenzied men and women, many intoxicated, all lawless and out of control.

"Vital as was the battle taking place in Gettysburg, the United States Army nevertheless was compelled to rush many soldiers to New York in order to crush the treacherous outbreak of the rioters. New York officials, grasping the significance of the religious issue, asked that Protestant soldiers be sent. Thus nine New York regiments and one from Michigan, all loyal American Union troops, deployed from the battle against the Confederate secessionists, were finally able to restore order in the city. The mopping up operations were completed by Thursday, July 16th. .

"During the entire course of the Draft Riots, the Archbishop had been in New York. Catholic historians depict him as a sickly, pathetic, broken man who, in response to the plea of Governor Seymour, crawled to his porch and from his chair of pain begged his Irish faithful to quit their murder and plunder and go back to work. He returned to his sick bed and, these historians state, he died six months later.

"The historical facts present a totally different picture. . . That he could have stepped in and stopped it on the first day, there is no doubt, for it was almost exclusively a mob made up of his followers. Priests moved at will, and safely, among the rioters. . . Many writers of the time felt that the New York riot was a deliberately incited act of treason, designed to mesh with riots, arson and poisoning attempts in other Northern cities, in order to subdue the Northern will to fight on. . . In this effort, Archbishop Hughes can only be viewed as an accessory to the scheme (he) showed no will or desire to restrain his people. He finally did speak to them -- after remaining silent throughout the riots. When did he break his silence? The day after the Army had returned to New York and had successfully put an end to the riot by the use of military force! . . . And when he did (speak up) what did the Archbishop have to say? His speech was nothing more than a satirical post mortem, a fitting epitaph to his days of silence.

"During the riot this feeble patriot had spent his days composing a vitriolic letter of some 3,000 words damning Horace Greeley. On the last day of the violence, Thursday, July 16th, Greeley published this historic document. It is a letter that can be described only as a justification of the riot and as further inciting the mob to continue their plunder. . .

"If the Roman Catholic Church, in the action (or lack of action) of its most vaunted leader did so little to help the nation survive, why should anyone be surprised if it followed through in its sympathy for the Confederacy and had a hand in the plot to kill the Union's most beloved leader? When it condoned all the murders in New York, why should it hesitate in being a party to the plot to assassinate the President against whose policies these murders were directed?" (from "An Inquiry Into The Assassination Of President Lincoln", published by Lyle Stuart, New York, 1963)

TURNING THE TABLES ON SCIENTOLOGY

Dear Riley: "About three years ago I wrote you asking for help (several copies of our 'Retro Me' brochure, $1.00 each) for this lady who had to defend herself by using Psychic Self Defense with our help. The enclosed news clip may be of interest insofar as it is turning the tables on Scientology in this area."

Dr. R.S., Calgary, Alberta, Canada

"SCIENTOLOGY SUIT HITS A MAJOR SNAG"

Saint John's Calgary Report, Dec. 25, 1978: "The legal battle between the Church of Scientology on the one hand and eight determined Alberta critics on the other has reached a critical development, not perhaps anticipated when the scientologists launched their suit two years ago. Last week in Supreme Court chambers at Edmonton, Mr. Justice A.M. Dechene imposed three orders upon them:

"1. Deposit $2500 with the court as security for costs (including the defendants' legal fees should scientology lose);

"2. Answer all relevant questions in the preliminary examinations for discovery.

"3. Possibly most distasteful of all to scientology and most illuminating for the public, provide a record of all its income and spending from 1975 to the present.

"This development, says Calgary lawyer Ken Staroszik who represents seven of the eight defendants, is a first in the copious legal history of scientology: 'This is the first time that one of its lawsuits has been successfully used against it, to force it to provide information on its own affairs.'

"In this particular legal action the Calgary, Edmonton and Old Strathcona missions of the Church of Scientology sued eight residents of Edmonton and Calgary: Evelyn Hamden, Les Jackman, Elizabeth McCoy, William Reid, Neil Taylor, David Wallace, Brendon Moore and Lorna Levett. . All were former followers; Lorna Levett was a senior minister and holder of the organization's Calgary franchise until she quit in 1974. Scientology officials complain that thereafter she devoted herself to working against them, offering a type of deprogramming by way of 'personality reinforcement', and a group formed around her which carried on a damaging campaign of letters to public organizations and officials.

"A MENACE TO CANADIAN CITIZENS"

"The letters are said to have been sent to Better Business Bureaus, the Canadian Mental Health Association, the immigration department and the national revenue department, among others. The message, generally, was that the scientology movement was evil and a menace to Canadian citizens, and that its financial affairs would bear looking into. The three local scientology missions sued for $100,000 in September 1976, claiming they had been damaged by false and injurious statements. The eight defendants embarked upon the defence of the truth, the most difficult, if the most effective, defence against a libel or slander action. They further argued that they had acted in the public interest. Their letters were justified, they claimed, 'for the common convenience and welfare of society'.

"After two years the lawsuit is still in its preliminary stages. There have been the usual 'examinations for discovery', where the opposing lawyers question those involved in order to establish the basic facts. But while the letter writers eagerly discussed their experiences and opinions, scientology representatives have apparently evinced less enthusiasm. Besides, argued lawyer Staroszik last week, since the Levett group's defense is that what they are saying is true, the scientologists must provide back-up documentation as required.

"Civil court judges know that a long drawn out suit can inflict such hardship on either litigant that it may become a punishment and a weapon, even if it is never completed. After a 35-minute debate, Mr. Justice Dechene laid down his conditions. The next move is up to the scientologists. They can bow to the ruling, produce the $2500 surety and the financial records the defence says it needs, and increase the general level of cooperation. Or they can appeal his ruling within 30 days. Or they could decide to cut publicity losses and drop the suit."

It's good to know we've been of help in this case.

1978 ANNUAL REPORT

Receipts from Book Sales, Memberships, Donations..$12,161.42
Cost of Goods Sold 3,243.20
Gross Profit $8,918.22

EXPENSES: Salaries, Taxes, Rent
Repairs, Supplies, Insurance,
Utilities, Depreciation, Car
$14,735.58

Net Operating Loss 5,817.36

BALANCE SHEET, End of 1978

Current Assets:
Cash on Hand 786.73
Inventory 6096.45
6883.18

Fixed Assets: Equipment and
Furniture 1820.20
Ref. Library 3374.79

Total Assets 12078.17

Current Liabilities:

Notes Payable 0
Accounts Payable
Rent 11,600.00
Accrued Sal. 73,240.00
497 Unfulfilled
Memberships 2,236.50

Total Liabilities $87,076.50

Now we're into Volume XXXV of the Round Robin Journal, and for Mrs. Crabb and I our 20th year on the job here at headquarters. We took over from Meade Layne in San Diego in May 1959 and haven't missed publishing an issue so far -- thanks to the protective work, inspiration and guidance of members of the Inner Circle -- superimposed on our own determination to carry on here at the 3-D physical level. There have been attacks and efforts to stop us, none successful because of our invisible but very real connections.

Bob Beck, with his government connections, looked into our financial condition back in 1965 and was so shocked at our shoestring finances that he predicted BSRF would fold within a year! He found that there were no secret bank accounts, no huge insurance policies, no other property but this, with its mortgage. We are what we appear to be, a non-profit organization serving the public.

What might stop us and spoil our record is catastrophic events beyond our control, earthquake, fire, flood, unusually violent storms -- such as are assaulting the mid-west and eastern parts of the United States right now; but I suppose this is one reason why we were guided to settle down here in this part of Southern California after making the big move from Hawaii in 1957. A look into the future revealed the Vista area as comparatively peaceful for years and years to come. Then there are the man-made catastrophies-- such as the strike in the paper industry, going on since last fall. This is why the yellow paper for the Journal. We weren't able to buy white at a reasonable cost. As the pace of destruction increases we can expect more such inconveniences.

ANXIOUS ASKERS ANSWERED

"We would appreciate your giving in the BSRF Journal a mention of our Radionic work and also the availability of AGRAD machines (for broadcast treatment of plants). We note that you are referring potential clients to Galen Hieronymous, but we are in a good position to respond to Radionic inquiries, and are able to do so promptly.

"As you know we are one of your supporters, and that in a big way. We have sold dozens of your fine booklets. We would like to call on your help to enable us to determine certain reagents and frequencies for various insects. We do have some of these already established due to UKACO and the late General Gross. But we need additional reagents at this time. Are you able to help us with this?"

Carl Schleicher, Mankind Research Unlimited, Inc.
1110 Fidler Lane, Suite 1215, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910, telephone (202) 882-4000

Glad to be reminded of your services and products, Carl, and we urge interested Associates and friends to write to you for information and literature. We don't have any more reagents identified for agricultural broadcasting at present but will be glad to send them along when and as they come in from researchers.

PROPOSED UFO RESEARCH GROUP AT UNITED NATIONS STILL ALIVE

But the effort of Dr. Hynek to have himself and his colleagues of the Illinois "Center For UFO Studies" to be appointed by the United Nations as Flying Saucer experts has failed, according to the latest word from Colman Von Keviczky, ICUFON. Instead, the Special Political Committee, in a Nov. 27th meeting, requested the Secretary-General to invite Member States to transmit information and proposals for UFO studies to him by May 31, 1979. Meanwhile, COL VonKeviczky has distributed to UN member secretariats a heavily illustrated, 85-page "Memorandum" of Flying Saucer data. Most important is his reproduction of official military documents stressing the reality of Flying Saucers, the possibility of invasion from outer space, and the pressing need for continued surveillance and evaluation of data. One glance through the ICUFON opus should impress United Nations officials of the seriousness of the subject. If you'd like a copy of the "Memorandum", send $14.50 to ICUFON, 35-40 75th St., Suite 4-G, Jackson Heights, New York 11372. For orders from overseas, the price is $18.50.

"PSYCHIC SELF-DEFENSE, PART II, Methods Of Attack"

We have finally finished transcribing and printing BSRF No. 24-L, Lesson Sixteen in our series on the Cabala. Psychic attack can cause illness in a student of the Mysteries; so Psychic Self-Defense -- if successful -- is healing! Thus we describe and illustrate the very successful psychic healing techniques of the Allen Kardec Spiritualist Healers of Brazil early in the book. The three factors common to most psychic attacks are discussed and illustrated. It is difficult for most students to accept the fact that they are under attack, until deeply involved; then outside help must be sought. The "why" of the need for daily protective and cleansing rituals is explained and illustrated with actual cases from the Director's own experience. The key Tarot trump for this Lesson is No. 16, "The Lightning-Struck Tower". It illustrates a successful attack, brought on by a would-be student's effort to change the direction of his or her life. This talk takes us into that most disturbing of moral questions: The problem of Good and Evil, and what you, as a Seeker, must do about it. . $3.00

THE THREE PATHS FOR MAN, OR WOMAN, or "Are You Pagan, Mystic or Egghead?" BSRF No. 24 - A.

If you want to know your basic type we offer answers in this lesson on occult science, one of three chapters or lessons in our first book of studies and practices in the Mysteries, written by Americans for Americans of the Western Tradition. Each chapter has three subsections: 1. Theory, 2. Practice or Workshop, 3. Discussion. The book is indexed. There are many drawings and illustrations to help the imagination. This material, based on the Cabala, was developed and streamlined in classes in Florida and California. There are drills in concentration, relaxation, rhythmic breathing and visualization -- all necessary conditioners for controlled ESP or the expansion of consciousness beyond the physical. You should know, the goal is Dream Control! . . . $3.75

APOLLONIUS OF TYANA, BSRF No. 35, Biographical notes on the Capadocian Sage from those who knew him personally there in Palestine in the First Century A.D. Apollonius was the prototype of the Jesus-figure and was actually worshipped as a God for over three hundred years. His writings, as Jesus, Paul and John the Revelator, make up most of the New Testament of the Christian religion. Illustrated. . . . $2.75

- - - - - CALIFORNIANS ADD 6% SALES TAX - - - - -

The JOURNAL of Borderland Research

Bulk Rate U.S. POSTAGE PAID Vista, Calif. Permit No. 42
--

A Publication of:
Borderland Sciences
Research Foundation
PO Box 548, Vista,
California USA
92083

A SELF-POWERED PSYCHOTRONIC GENERATOR

By Robert Hoffman

Actually, the first device of this type was invented by Christopher Hills several years ago. His invention, on which mine is based, is called a Pi-Ray Coffe. Technically speaking it is a Radionic broadcaster but that's where all similarities end. There are no selector switches, specimen wells, rheostats, rubbing plates or electrical power. Instead of utilizing rows and rows of dials like typical radionic counterparts, the Pi-Ray Coffe is tuned or pre-set to Etheric energy fields and requires no tuning or adjustment by the operator.

There are three basic components which help to power and filter the coffe's energy fields. First, it incorporates the powerful effect of the pyramid form. But here it is two-dimensional rather than three dimensional! Hills found through exhaustive testing that two-dimensional pyramid had just as much power as one of three dimensions. This was checked by careful checking with pendulums. I can assure you that Hills was correct in his findings.

Second, to further amplify and clarify the pyramid effect, a flat ceramic magnet is cemented directly under the capstone area of each pyramid. This now introduces powerful magnetic and electrostatic forces.

Third, a copper-wire spiral, rotating clockwise, is wound around the pyramid stack on the outside of the plastic tube which encloses the assembly. This component is very important because it acts as a filter. (It also creates a pulsing or oscillating field. RHC) The wire is about four inches long. It's purpose is to neutralize harmful and dangerous "negative" green energy which radiates from the bottom of the stack of pyramids.

It is not generally known that pyramids generate both positive and negative green rays. Years ago it was discovered that the top of the pyramid form generates positive green energy much like that given off by plants and trees. This force is safe and beneficial; however, there is negative green energy being generated downwards within the pyramid. This is the force that dehydrates and mummifies all organic matter including human cells. So let that be a warning to anyone planning on sleeping, meditating, etc., under a pyramid! Negative green is dangerous and shouldn't be played around with unless the person knows how to neutralize its effects.

THE HOFFMAN COFFER

THE POWERFUL "PI-RAY"

Within the negative green spiral is a narrow band called the Pi-Ray. This is extremely powerful and must be handled with care. Egyptian occultists found that this narrow band existed within the pyramid at an angle of $6^{\circ}15'$ off the east-west plane. The granite sarcophagus in the Great Pyramid was positioned to receive the Pi-Ray. But in order to filter out and cancel the negative green energy, enormous solid granite stones, shaped somewhat like shallow hemispheres, were placed directly above the sarcophagus. These also amplified the narrow Pi-Ray. Initiates to the Egyptian priesthood were irradiated by this ray to test their spiritual condition.

The three elements of our Pi-Ray Coffin incorporate the above Great Pyramid effects. It is activated by the consciousness of the operator, and will amplify whatever is present in that person's mind, whether positive or negative!

(Jesus put it very simply in Matthew 9:22: "Thy faith hath made thee whole." While the atomic physicist calls it the "Kindling effect". Re-read again COL Bearden's statement on page 10, where "virtual state modulations" of faith, of the will, "reach the quantum threshold and observable physical change results". That is, the person is healed. Werner Heisenberg was well aware that the "consciousness of the operator" could upset and make unpredictable the otherwise predictable functions of the laws of nature, as he regretfully told his German audience at Hanover in 1934, "The effect of the means of observation on the observed body has to be conceived as a disturbance partly uncontrolled. . . ." And the sick person wants his cancer disturbed, to where healing forces can effectively break up the mass and restore balance.)

It follows that whoever makes and uses my Pi-Ray instrument should have a positive attitude. Those who use it for harm or evil are going to hurt themselves because the Coffin is constantly "feeding back" to the operator. A person who wishes someone to be killed may end up killing himself.

The basic function of the Coffin is that of a psychotronic or radionic broadcaster activated by a "witness", "tuning" the instrument to the subject's personal wavelength and amplifying their vibrations. Any sample will do, blood spot, hair clipping, photograph, negative, signature, or even a thought. After all, like everything else, thoughts are resonant patterns of energy. These fields of energy are then intensified by the Pi-Ray; however, I have added four more stages of amplification to Hills'es original design, five in all for a Pi-Ray power punch, as shown in the photo at right, my CoffeR seen from below, with the little ceramic disc magnets under the two-dimensional pyramids.

The pyramid assembly is housed in a plastic tube of suitable length, 8 to 12 inches, and diameter. The positive-rotation spiral is attached to the outside of the tube, beginning at the North and its other end at the South. The pyramid-magnets are separated by dowel rod cut to about 1½ in. lengths. The pyramids are drawn or painted on square pieces of plastic cut to fit inside the tube, with the magnet glued directly below the capstone.

All of the magnets must be polarized or positioned to "pull" from the top. In other words they must all attract magnetic energy in unison from top to bottom; so be sure to check them for polarity before they are glued. Also the pyramid plates have to be arranged so their sides are parallel to each other. Leave a one inch open space at the bottom of the assembly for the Witness.

Preferably the Witness-Amplifier should be positioned away from TV sets and other electro-magnetic equipment. Mine works best outside where sunlight can radiate the assembly. The North end of the wire coil and that flat side of the pyramids should face North for maximum efficiency of the CoffeR. Thus the other three sides of the pyramids point to the Cardinal compass points.

If a person wishes to energize himself, he -- or she -- should place a witness of himself at the bottom of the tube -- which has a second plastic tube outside the wire coil. Personal messages may be added, such as "energy", "love", "health" and so on. There are literally millions of uses for the CoffeR. The possibilities are endless for those who live in the "borderland". Have fun!

* * *

This little psychotronic generator is ideal for the person who needs nightly protection from psychic attack, using his or her own witness plus a protective symbol. Little ceramic disc magnets can be purchased from Edmund Scientific Company, Barrington, New Jersey 08007. Send a dollar for current catalog.

SIDE
VIEW

↑
North

TOP VIEW