THE JOURNAL OF BORDERLAND RESEARCH

BSRF No. 1 Published by Borderland Sciences Research Foundation, Inc., PO Box 549, Vista, California 92083 USA. Edited by the Director, Riley Hansard Crabb, Doctor of Metaphysics in the Society of St. Luke the Physician.

The Journal is published six issues a year with the assistance of the Associates, at the Director's home, 1103 Bobolink Drive, Vista. It is printed, 36 pages an issue. The Foundation is incorporated under California law, May 21, 1951, #254263, and has been in continuous existence since then. Address all correspondence to the PO Box. The Journal is included in the Foundation membership of $10.00 a year. Single copies and back issues of the Journal are now $2.50 each. If you don't care to join you may receive the Journal by donating $10.00 a year or more to the Foundation. The Director's wife, Ms. Judith Crabb, is office manager and Secretary-Treasurer.

PURPOSES OF BSRF: This is a non-profit organization of people who take an active interest in unusual happenings along the borderland between the visible and invisible worlds. In the words of the late Meade Layne, founder and director of BSRA from 1946 to 1959: "BSRA publications are scientific in approach but employ few technical expressions. They deal with significant phenomena which orthodox science cannot or will not investigate. For example: The Fortean falls of objects from the sky. Teleportation, Radiesthesia, PK Effects, Underground Races, Mysterious Disappearances, Occult and Psychic Phenomena, Photography of the Invisible, Nature of the Ethers and the problem of the Aeroforms (Flying Saucers). In the year 1946 BSRA obtained an interpretation of the phenomena which since has come to be known as the Etheric or 4-D interpretation, and which has not been radically altered since that time. This continues to be the only explanation which makes good science, sound metaphysics and common sense."

The chief present concern of the Foundation is to make this kind of unusual information available as a public service at reasonable cost. Headquarters acts as a receiving, coordinating and distributing center. An important part of the Director's work is to give recognition, understanding and encouragement to people who are having unusual experiences of the borderland type and/or are conducting research in any of the above fields. For consultation on borderland problems or for Spiritual healing through prayer, write or phone 714-724-2043 for help or for an appointment. Donations and bequests toward Foundation research programs and expenses are welcome.

The 35-page list of BSRF publications is available from Headquarters for $1.00 in money, check or stamps. This includes brochures on borderland subjects, tape recordings of Mr. Crabb's lectures and of members of the Inner Circle, talking through trance-medium Mark Probert. THE PUHARICH INTERVIEW
ABOUT THE PHASING IN OF THE NEW RACE

Conducted by Howard Smukler, Editor,
"Journal of Occult Studies", Marc Seifer,
Parapsychology Instructor at the University of Rhode Island Extension, and Dennis Hauck, Editor, "Official UFO Magazine". From the Sept., 1978
"Gnostica" Magazine

Interviewer: "We think of you as having researched Uri Geller, Israel, and Arigo, Brazil. . . "

Dr. Puharich: "You forget Eileen Garrett and Peter Hurkos and a few other people before your time. I started 25 years ago and met some really interesting people."

Int: "The reason we brought this up -- not that you're burned out after these two discoveries -- but to you feel that you've done it? Or do you feel like you have another big one waiting?"

Doc: "Oh, yeah I have another bigger one than Geller or any of them in the frying pan right now."

Int: "Is this the Geller children that you've discovered?"

Doc: "No, I just finished a book on that. I just finished a study of 34 kids who are all in the Geller category; but they all do different things. Some of them are mathematicians, some . . . "

Int: "Is this in England mostly?"

Doc: "All over the world. I collected them. I find them in Israel, Mexico, Canada, all over."

Int: "What is the title of your book?"

Doc: "'Time No Longer'. That is simply the case: The limitations of time have now been overcome in these new people. The title is from a Biblical quote, as usual." (Published by Doubleday and supposed to have been released in January 1980.)

Int: "Do you usually spend little time with hardcore skeptics?"

Doc: "No, I have got to face them because they show up in the audiences. Magicians follow me around and they try to knock down anything I say. It's a whole routine. It's an annoying situation because they don't have the facts. They are like people who still think the earth is flat. They are not subject to growth."

Int: "When you meet those skeptics, do you feel some sort of responsibility to work on them?"

Doc: "No, because I am not a teacher, either. I have to appear publicly once in awhile before my peers. But I don't try to convert anybody."

THE OLD HUMANITY IS PHASING OUT

Int: "What could be bigger than meeting 34 individuals with special psychic talents? Is it the UFO interaction, the higher consciousness that we are moving into? Or that is moving into us?"

Doc: "Well, I think from what I have learned, the whole old type of humanity is phasing out. It's what the occultists called the 5th Root Race which is at its end; and the new root race, that's what these kids are, the 6th root race; you guys are probably part of the new race. I'm part of the old, the old dinosaur creatures, and they phase out slowly. The new ones, if they are successful -- I mean as a species that has to adapt -- they will probably dominate the planet in a few thousand years, hopefully, with a whole new way of life. Ideas, and all this hardware we live by and so on, will all be gone. Because I think things will become mental operations, teletransporting. . . ."

The Root Race idea is from Theosophical literature, but there we read that the 6th Root Race will not be coming in for thousands of years yet. We are in the transition period between the 5th and 6th Sub Races of the 5th Root Race, the Aryan. The 5th Sub Race can be generally identified as the Euro-American civilization, with emphasis on separateness and individuality. The new 6th Sub Race will emphasize brotherhood and cooperation. It is they who will unify the planet under one world government and prepare the earth for membership in the Interplanetary Confederation.

These evolutionary patterns are governed by Rays of spiritual energy from the Sun. Some of their effects are being identified by science as ELF waves, though the larger, evolutionary influences are still the domain of occult science. They are discussed at length by the Master D.K. in the book, "The Destiny of Nations", through Alice Bailey. On page 32 he writes: "At this time the whole world is embroiled in the chaos and turmoil incident upon the clashing of the forces of the sixth and seventh rays. As one ray passes out and another comes into manifestation and their impact upon the earth and upon all the forms in all the kingdoms of nature has reached the point where the two influences are equalised, then a definite point of crisis is reached. This is what has occurred today, and humanity, subjected to two types or forms of energy, is thrown 'off centre' and hence the intense difficulty and tension of the present world period. . . . You have a meeting of many conflicting forces (which can roughly be identified as either Piscean or Aquarian, RHC) and the world Arjuna is faced with a stupendous battle -- one that is recurrent and cyclic but which will, in this particular era, prove a decisive and determining factor in the age old conflict between material domination and spiritual control. . . ."

Int: "Are they genetically different?"

Doc: "We have no way of proving it. I've talked a lot with geneticists. We know if we have enough sensitivity in genetic mapping to tell, but we still don't have any good genetic mapping. The kids don't look any different from anyone else. It's mentally. Geller looks like any other good looking kid, but what he does is a little different. In the 3-dimensional world he is very much like everybody else. All these kids in the 3-D world are very much like everyone else, but when you get in a 4-D world and a 5th-Dimensional world and 6th Dimensional world and so on, then there is something else that manifests."

PISCAN vs AQUARIAN, THE GREAT RANGE OF CONFLICT

Int: "How can that be maintained, that kind of conflict between inner and outer personalities? You would think that they would put the two together."

Doc: "It's a terrible struggle. I think they have more problems in getting it together than ordinary people because the range of their conflict is greater."

Int: "But we step into that realm once in awhile -- on a drug or through a mystical experience like just walking out into the forest. It doesn't seem to be separated from the UFO trip."

Doc: "I don't think so."

Int: "They are directly linked?"

Doc: "I've been trying to tell the world for five years, but no one is listening." (And BSRF has been trying to tell the world for 35 years! "Flying Saucers and the New Consciousness", $2.75)

Int: "Why didn't they step in during World War II, like in Nazi Germany?"

Doc: "We have no evidence in history that they've ever stepped into anything. That's rule Number 1. They don't interfere with any one's affairs or violate anybody's free will. That's my experience. (And dramatized many times, rule No. 1, on 'Star Trek') I don't know of any place that they ever stepped in unless you want to make a big story about Moses in Egypt and that stuff. There is no evidence for that."

Int: "Does that mean they are insensitive or immoral?"

THE MESSAGE FROM OUTER SPACE: "THIS IS A MORAL UNIVERSE."

Doc: "No, I think they say in my book ("Uri" Doubleday, New York, 1974) that they had conversations with various representatives down here. They say the fundamental ruling in the universe is that nobody's free will can be violated because you rob the person of the opportunity of growth in evolution by either suppressing them or accelerating them or whatever, and so that's a no-no in their rule book. So man, if he's going to slaughter himself, that is his problem in evolution and that is the price he has to pay for his behavior. If everything is going smooth and great, fine; they are learning and evolving."

ANDRIJA PUHARICH

Int: "However, your book 'Uri' points out that they would step in to prevent the destruction of the earth, and in fact that is why they did interfere in the Arab-Israeli war."

Doc: "Well you notice, though, that there was a subtle point there that was not articulated, but I thought sensitive people would get the point. They did not step in directly; they called upon human will to to the stepping in, and I had to run my ass off dealing with the Israeli General Staff and the Chief of Intelligence. They (UFOs) did very little. I mean we did 90% of the work. But the boost we got made it possible. Without our ability -- our ability, shit, I wasn't even involved! It was Uri's ability to screw up radar and tanks and guns -- you know, really demonstrate his power. They wouldn't have believed a word."

Int: "What did you do?"

Doc: "Well, I dont want to put it on record because it's a very sensitive thing, especially for Uri Geller. He is always worried that somebody is going to kill him. You know, if they know what he can really do in the military. You talk to Uri. He's very paranoid."

Int: "I see, as loose as he is. . . ."

Doc: "Look, when -- I see a lot of things he is careful of -- peace comes between the Arabs and the Jews, then we can talk about it; but right now (1977) it is ultra-sensitive."

Int: "Does Uri get any death threats?"

Doc: "I dont know if he does actually, but he is afraid of them. It drives me nuts to travel with him."

Int: "He doesn't have any bodyguards, does he?"

Doc: "Well, Shipi is a bodyguard; and he is like an antenna that smells anything. He is a super bodyguard, a super space kid."

Int: "Does he have abilities?"

Doc: "He never manifested a single ability, except his incredible watchdog sensitivity."

Int: "What a lucky break to get someone who can stay back in the wings."

Doc: "Shipi is like non-visible. The magicians say he is an accomplice. But he is actually a watchdog. That's his function; so he does it like the watchdog, like a trained German shepherd."

WHERE DID YOU START YOUR HUMAN EVOLUTION?

Int: "What planet are you from?"

Doc: "I'm not from any planet."

Int: "Well, you took these kids back -- hypnosis, past-life regression -- and they all have stated that they came from different civilizations. Now all of us must have, right?"

And the interviewer might have added that these advanced souls came here to help mankind through this present crisis. This is what Dr. Puharich told Maurice Barbanell, editor and publisher of the London "Psychic News", when he was interviewed there in 1977.

Doc: "Right."

Int: "So you have never explored your own? Have you gotten any insight into that?"

Doc: "I dont come from any planet. I came from empty space in between planets."

They all laugh and interviewer Howard comments: "It's either Sheboygan or Des Moines."

Int: "There are theories that man evolves spiritually and materially. But when his psychic powers surfaced, as in Salem, he was killed off. The entire society seems geared to prevent this type of person from emerging."

The Salem, Massachusetts Witchcraft Trials of 1692 came up in the Mark Probert seances on March 13, 1949 when Control Prof. Luntz brought in Cotton Mather, the Christian bigot who was one of the chief instigators of the Trials. In the several pages of discussion by the sitters with Mather (BSRF No. 10-B, $2.50) he makes only one brief reference to his years of frying in his own self-created hell: "Believe me, I had a lot of spit-turning when I first came over here (he died in 1728). Man cannot commit degradations upon his fellowman and escape. The law of consciousness will not permit it. . . ."

Doc: "Well, it's a very peculiar situation. They dont have strength in the way that they have muscle strength or gun strength or legal strength or financial strength, but this kind of peculiar strength in water that eventually grinds down granite and mountains. That's their kind of strength.

THE TWILIGHT OF THE GODS, THE OLD GODS, THAT IS!

"The ones who have the material power now, are going to strangle themselves with too much materialism, high blood pressure, cancer, pollution, you name it. The whole ecological scene is collapsing; and those those people, they cant survive under those conditions; they will go the way of the Dinosaurs.

"The other people I deal with, the younger ones, tend to go out on the edge of civilization and try to make it on their own, in the forest and mountains and so on, and they are already preparing themselves. They dont know that there is going to be an enormous attrition of life as we know it. You know you can see it all around. You dont have to be a magician to know that; and so, to that extent, they have a kind of softness which cant be identified with sticks and stones and steel. But on the other hand they have a toughness. They survive. But if it was an open armed conflict, as with witchcraft, no I dont think that they could survive. They're not that strong."

Int: "But they may survive because they are irrelevant, i.e., because they chose to be on a farm in New Hampshire. They are tolerated."

Doc: "It depends. So much depends on how they evolve; and I think we have to see two or three generations of them. I've only seen second generations. As far as I've seen, the young kids who have young kids -- and it takes several generations to see how they adapt in terms of their advisably superior foresight, their clairvoyance and intuition, ESP, their abilities to influence matter. Even they might be clever in introducing mutations in plants that are beneficial to their way of life. A lot of powers they have can be brought into play, too."

Int: "However, this emergence of a new race of humans wasn't man's decision. At least it doesn't seem to be."

Doc: "Well, what decisions are man's? Just to give you a reference frame -- what the hell do we decide? Nothing. Everything is given. What do we decide? I mean a few characters decide this or that, but man decides very little on this planet. We are a product of natural evolution. We can seed it once in a while -- enough to survive on our own -- but we dont decide very much. The water we drink, the weather, the food -- it is all given. We did not produce a single genetic strain. We just modified some stocks."

Int: "There seems to be a linking up. I mean, when our technology reaches the point of the atom bomb and traveling to the moon, and then all of a sudden Clark writes his book, 'Childhood's End', and these children appear; now is it a product of natural evolution or is there someone out there pushing buttons?"

THE MOVEMENT TOWARD ORDER, NEGENTROPY

Doc: "Well, I think we have to redefine natural evolution. I dont personally think there was a natural evolution in the sense of Darwin or Wallace or somebody who taught it; that was a very specialized point of view, natural selection. But I dont think a genetic structure was created by a blind, chance combination of hydrogen, oxygen and nitrogen (Dont forget Carbon, Doc, the all-important fourth element! RHC). I just dont believe that.

"I do know that the laws of quantum mechanics are rightly built into those items and they could give rise to all kinds of forms. If you take the ultimate conclusion of quantum mechanics, you are going to come up with some kind of probability curve with always the uncertainty of any outcome of any combination of things. When you look at genetic blueprinting, generation after generation after generation, I mean it kind of defeats the laws of quantum mechanics. That's where you get your notion of Negentropy (Entropy is the movement towards disorder and is the Second Law of Thermodynamics. Negentropy is its opposite: movement towards Order.)

"So I personally think that natural evolution has always been under the guidance of some kind of superior intelligence who could take a handful of atoms and, with a mind just like these kids' or Geller's, can dematerialize something or himself and teletransport and so on. And I think they created these millions and millions and millions of living things that we know of on this planet, and God knows how many trillions and trillions of things on other planets. So I think natural evolution has to be redefined.

"My own opinion is that every few thousand years someone drops in from some other advanced civilization and looks the garden over and says, 'Hmmm, I'll push this a little bit,' and then they go away for a few thousand years. I think a lot of devaluation has to be done to a lot of cherished notions that we're stuck with."

Int: "What you are saying is that, besides an internal source of evolution, there is an intelligent external one; that Mother Nature, so to speak, has a conscious brain similar to ours?"

Doc: "Yeah, I think there is an intelligence hierarchy in the Universe and we are probably somewhere at the bottom of the scale, and some day when we get up there, billions of years from now, we'll look back."

Int: "There isn't any chance that the experiment has gotten so out of hand that we can override the better intentions?"

Doc: "You mean the earth experiment? Oh, I dont think it's gotten out of hand. I think it could be reversed tomorrow if everybody decided it should be reversed. But the trouble is that most humans are asleep. Most people dont really know what is going on out there. They dont want to know."

Here Dr. Puharich paraphrases the Master speaking to the Disciples 2000 years earlier about the "sleep" of the multitudes:

". . . Because they seeing, see not; and hearing, hear they not, neither do they understand." Then He refers back to Isaiah making the same complaint 500 years earlier: "By hearing ye shall hear and not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive." Then Jesus continues: "For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted (awakened), and I should heal them."

THE "NEW REALITY" OF THE AQUARIAN AGE

Int: "There is a kind of implicit optimism in your feelings that eventually this higher person will prevail, because the higher being always prevails, and I don't know why this has to be true. If the experiment has gotten a little bit out of hand, then this outer materialistic shell of ours can really prevail."

Doc: "I'll tell you why I'm optimistic. I think I have been privy to a lot of experiences which show me the power of the mind, as manifested in these kids. The mind can override anything -- materiality, energy (including nuclear weapons) and so on. That is my starting point, you see. That knowledge is not classical physics, it is not classical biology, it's not classical anything. This is really a new point of view. The mind can override anything; but higher minds can override and control anything. . ."

It was awareness of this New Reality and the need to share this idea with other like-minded people that caused Meade Layne to start the Round Robin Journal of Borderland Research in 1945. For Dr. Andrija Puharich it was forcefully brought home to him in 1971 when he was researching the psychic powers of Uri Geller in Israel. From Chapter Six of his book "Uri":

"On December 28, 1971, at 9:07 P.M. Uri called me while I was in the Sharon Hotel dining room having dinner with Ila Ziebell, who had just come to Israel. He seemed in such a state of alarm on the phone that I became deeply worried. He would not say what was wrong but begged me to come to his apartment immediately. I asked him if I could bring Ila along, and he said that would actually be helpful. We stopped dinner in mid-course and took a cab to Uri's apartment.

"When we walked in he was alone, dressed in a bathrobe. He looked at us with red eyes. 'I can't tell you what happened, but I cried. Do grown men cry?' he pleaded.

"'Yes, Uri, I have cried when someone I loved died,' I said.

"He asked us to sit down. He fiddled with his hands aimlessly, wanting to talk, yet somehow constrained. Finally, it came out in bits. He had been secretly in love with a woman for the past five years. Her situation was such that they could only meet secretly at rare intervals. An hour and a half earlier he had actually placed a revolver to his head to end his life, but something made him put down the weapon and called me instead. I was profoundly shocked at his deep depression and at the thought that he might die violently, as had Arigo (The Brazilian healer whom Puharich had researched years earlier.)

"Uri, please show me the gun!" I demanded. Uri walked into his bedroom and handed me a revolver in a brown leather case. I looked at the revolver; it was a .38-caliber Rossi loaded with six bullets.

"Uri, this gun in your hands really disturbs me. Please, may I take it?" I asked.

"Uri insisted he was all right now. I offered to spend the night at his place; he refused. I invited him to spend the night at my hotel; he refused. But through all this discussion, he refused to part with the gun, insisting that he was all right. Finally, he agreed to go to the house of a friend he trusted, Sarah Bursak. At midnight we walked with Uri some four blocks to Sarah's house and left him in her charge.

AMNESIA, BUT NOT QUITE TOTAL

"I called Uri the next morning and casually inquired how he was. He said, 'Fine. Why do you ask in such a serious way?'

"Well, I was concerned about what you said last night.'

"What do you mean? What did I say?' he asked.

"Dont you remember?' I asked in disbelief.

"No, only that you and Ila were here and we walked over to Sarah's house,' he said.

"I realized that Uri was not depressed and that I could talk very frankly with him. I then repeated very briefly what he had said about his secret love and the gun. He was stunned by my words.

"Do you mean I said all that? Well, I dont remember saying any of it. It is true about the girl, but it couldn't be true about the gun. I haven't had that gun for two months; it is at Shipi's house. Please go over and ask him.'

"Now it was my turn to be stunned. 'Okay, Uri, let's drop it,' I said. 'I'll come over to see you tonight after dinner.'

"Good, I'll be waiting for you,' he said.

"I then talked to Ila about what Uri had said the previous night and what he had said this morning. We both agreed on every detail of what had occurred the night before. We were both especially sure that Uri had handed me the gun. I then drove over to Shipi's home and asked him if had Uri's Rossi revolver. He said, 'Yes, I've had it here for the past two months.'

"I checked to see if Uri had borrowed it recently. The answer was no. Shipi then showed me the revolver; it was the same one I had handled the previous night.

"Ila and I went to see Uri at 8 p.m. He was running a fever of 38.2°C and had the flu. In spite of the illness, he was in a good mood. None of us talked about 'the night of the gun'. We chatted about many things for the next two hours. Then Uri asked Ila for a coin. She gave him a five-agaroth coin. He placed this in a wooden matchbox and asked Ila to place her hands over it. Ila felt a tingle in her hands; the box was opened. The coin had vanished.

"It was 10:30 p.m. The phone rang, and Uri picked it up. He said to be very excitedly, 'It's her calling, from the Sinai!'

"I said, 'Who? Who is calling?'

"He said, 'Yaffa. Talk to her!' and thrust the phone into my hand.

"No knowing to whom I was talking, I said, 'My name is Andrija; who are you?'

"A woman's voice said in broken English, 'Pleased to meet you. I am Yaffa. I do not speak English, only Hebrew.'

"Just then Sarah Bursak walked into the room, and Uri said to her, 'It's Yaffa on the phone from the Sinai. Talk to her!'

"So I handed Sarah the phone. She talked with great excitement and enthusiasm in Hebrew to the woman for about two minutes and then handed the phone to Uri, who talked on for several more minutes in Hebrew.

"No one discussed the phone call when it ended; it all seemed so natural. Ila and I left shortly thereafter. We drove to the Sharon Hotel discussing the phone call, speculating that Yaffa must be the secret love.

"THIS IS NOT A GOOD JOKE"

"The next morning Uri made a casual phone call to me to say that he was feeling better. Equally casually, I asked him about the phone call from the Sinai last night and who was Yaffa.

"He stated flatly, 'There was no phone call last night!'

"I insisted that there was a phone call and repeated to him in detail what Ila and I had both witnessed. Uri sounded very distressed with me. 'Andrija, there was no phone call. You must be getting sick! Please call Sarah; she'll tell you the same thing.'

"I called Sarah and repeated my story about the phone call. She, too, denied it, saying, 'Dr. Puharich, I like you very much, but I think you are very strange. This is not a good joke.'

"I called Uri back to report on Sarah's denial and Ila's confirmation of my story. He stated flatly, 'Andrija, you dreamed the whole thing and Ila is just going along with you. Forget the whole story!"

"However, Uri called me back in an hour and said, 'I don't believe there was a phone call, but how did you find out that my secret love's name is Yaffa?'

BUT IT IS A GOOD EXAMPLE OF HIDDEN MIND CONTROL!

"These two days' events numbed me. Sarah and Uri experienced one sequence, and Ila and I experienced another, in the same time frame. I had discovered the truth about Uri's deepest secret, had had a gun in my hand that felt real, and had had a phone call experience that is real in my mind to this day. But most of all I realized that the four of us had had an experience imprinted on our minds by what could only be the agency of IS. I finally learned that, given the existence of IS, I could never again know which of my experiences were directly imposed upon me by IS and which were not.

"I have never been so deeply shaken in my life as when I realized the full implication of this power of IS. I thought back to December 7 when Uri had walked toward a flashing blue light in an open field and had come back with my brass pen cartridge. All this could have been an illusion, similar to the one of the past two days. Although I still have the brass pen cartridge, I know it could have 'appeared' in Uri's hand, without lending any credence to the possible presence of spacecraft. All I can vouch for is my experience, which I'd already come to realize could have been artificially imprinted by IS. . . ."
("Uri", Doubleday, New York 1974)

Yes, Dr. Puharich's education in occult science took a giant step forward with that December 1971 experience in Israel. No amount of rationalizing on his part, nor of any other skeptic, could erase or negate the reality of that shocking experience. He knew that other minds could override his because they had more power -- though they weren't necessarily higher than his; for this editor believes that Puharich and Geller were dealing with advanced Elemental forces.

It is not surprising that this power of mind over mind was dramatized in one of the most forceful of the "Star Trek" episodes, "The Menagerie", first aired to the nation Nov. 17 & 24, 1966. It was written by Gene Roddenberry, creator of "Star Trek", and was the pilot for the series. It isn't likely that we will ever see a clearer representation of the efforts of Masters and Adepts to direct unawakened human beings along the evolutionary path laid down by the Creators of Star Systems, Solar Systems, and by Planetary Logoi -- as the Talosians sought to kidnap and bring in to their over-cerebralized and weakened race stronger stock from a younger, more virile system such as ours. We know now that such "seeding" between planets and systems goes on all the time. We'll take up Dr. Puharich's meeting with Gene Roddenberry in the next Journal.

Part III, Continued From the May-June
1980 Journal of Borderland Research.

Hypnotists of the world take note, the High Priests of Low Astral Mind Control have "graduated" from strobe lights and glittering pendulums to the Magnetic H Wave as a means of surreptitiously getting inside the subject's -- or victim's -- mind. For, as Mr. Beck told his Atlanta audience: "We abandoned that (the flashing light idea) and began using the magnetic, the H wave.

"We began using little boxes, about half this size, you'll see a picture of one in the middle. It would alter that person's state of consciousness, and I was doing this before I began to realize the consequences of it. After awhile I'll tell you why we're not doing that any more. The little box is on the left.

"After we found that this thing could alter moods, the question came up: Is this hypnosis? Suggestion? Am I a magician? Am I doing it? So it occurred to me that I'd carry this thing around with me in my pocket.

"Now I'm a bachelor. I've been divorced for twenty-some years; so I eat out three meals a day. So when I go to Denny's Coffee Shop on Sunset boulevard I put this thing in my pocket, and occasionally I set it at a specific frequency that I'm not going to mention -- because I've been asked not to by the people who can ask other people not to do things; and pretty soon the waitresses would start dropping coffee into the laps of the patrons. The babies would start screaming. People within a 10 or 12 foot radius -- that's a 20 foot room -- would begin freaking out.

"I'd surreptitiously turn this thing to two Hertz higher in frequency. Hahhhhhh (a simulated sigh of relief), you could hear the room calm down. If you had a pocket Radio Shack decibel meter, the cocktail level effect, the volume of the conversation will drop, noticeably, in decibels.

"Okay. We had something here and we knew that the Soviet research had gone underground. At least the papers were no longer being published at the same rate that they were -- "

"Is this the magnetic field you're putting -- ?" interrupted a listener.

"The magnetic field only!" replied Mr. Beck. "Like a single side-band. You strip all of the E and I, you leave only the B and H (magnets?). We're not going to go into that too much more deeply.

THE MAGNETIC "H" WAVE PENETRATES EVERYTHING

"Our own government was playing at that time -- God, I guess with the multi-billion dollars Project Sign. Their purpose was to communicate with submarines under water, with Extreme Low Frequency magnetic fields. The project was kicked out of Wisconsin, Michigan and a few other places by people who had a certain nervousness about environmental disruption. They're trying to use power lines as antenna systems, surreptitiously. (Short colloquy with a listener who apparently lived in one of the affected areas.)

"Let's look at what they were about to do so they could tell the submarines this way. There is a better way of doing it. Frequency less than 100 Hertz. How's that for coy? The total antenna length could be up to 1600 miles long, antenna line current 150 amperes, total power required -- watch this number -- 20 to 30 megawatts; and they'd need 300 to 500 acres just for the transmitter site, antenna rights-of-way up to 4400 acres. This is our answer, using brute force to communicate with under water submarines because nothing in the world will shield the Magnetic H Wave, at these frequencies. Nothing. Multiple new metal cages, Faraday cages, lead, you name it. These magnetic waves, not the E or I waves but the magnetic H factor goes through anything including the earth itself. Like you saw in the model, in Tom Bearden's slide earlier this afternoon. Nobody is safe from this type of radiation." (Mumbled observations from the audience.)

Safe? Humpf! If we were not all vulnerable to the Power, Wisdom and Love of the Logos there would be no Involution and no Evolution! These electronic sorcerers have apparently stumbled on the area of radiation or vibration by which all life on the planet is kept under control. Now we have sorcerer's apprentices in Washington and Moscow who want to use this new-found power for for their own selfish purposes, guided by gleaming eyed monsters from some Astral hell beneath the nations' capitals.

"Anyway, the caption says: "The hour is nigh. Prepare to meet thy doom. Any particular rush? (Laughter from the audience) Anyway, maybe it's later than we think. And this one: We know times are bad when every time you call Dial-A-Prayer you get a busy signal. Okay? (more laughter)

"Any of you turkeys wake up about four o'clock in the morning and cant get back to sleep until sunup, then sleep 'til noon? Let's see it. Let's see hands for four o'clock in the morning.

Okay. You know why? We've been getting some very strong Russian transmissions. There is a particular anomaly that's the same as the Dawn Chorus -- if you're familiar with atmospheric propagation research. It makes you particularly vulnerable at that time, and, if you notice on this top curve this 8 cycle per second, the thing on which we want to latch if we're pure, spiritual and psychic -- whatever that means. Four o'clock in the morning the bottom drops out and whatever is left is gonna get ya baby!

THE PHASE-ARRAY ANTENNAS OF THE RUSSIANS

"I wont embarrass a couple of our guests here by asking them where this thing really is, but the first estimate of the Soviet transmitters that were causing the problems were at Riga and Gomel. Kathleen Joyce donated her drill to the project and we drilled two little holes and put those two little tacks in it (a globe of the earth?); so you have a historical little item there.

"If you draw a Great Circle route between these phase-array antennas, that Tom Bearden described so brilliantly -- by the way, Tom, I never want to follow you again. That was one of the best papers I have ever heard in my life! How about it. (Applause from the audience)"

"I dont know," replies Tom Bearden. "You're knocking me out!"

"If you draw the Great Circle route, you are in the areas around Timmins, Canada. Now there may have been some tremendous disturbances up there about a year ago that were traceable to this particular problem.

"Anyway, when Dr. Andrija Puharich was out here (in California) and Kathleen Joyce and I hosted him, we showed him the apparatus. This is probably the first he had heard of the psychophysiological effects of the ELF fields; and I recall on your living room floor, Kathleen, where he flexed his muscle near the coil, saw the spike readout on this little oscilloscope, and realized that we finally had a detector in human captivity that could see micro-gauss levels. In other words his EMG, the few micro-volts of potential, firing through the nerve impulses, through the conductive layers of his skin, was creating enough of a magnetic field to read out on this thing.

"He got very excited; so we began showing him some of my research dating back for about the last eight years; and he decided that this was important enough to take back to the United Nations; so he contacted the chap who really runs the government. This man has survived about the last five administrations. He must remain nameless because he is in a very low-profile position. I can assure you he is no one that you have ever heard about or read about in the newspapers. I see we are getting a couple of smiles back here. He's just a normal bird watcher.

"They sent me an airline ticket and invited me to come back to the United Nations and -- it isn't that I really needed a haircut; but the weather was so bad that weekend, the winds were blowing about 30 miles an hour; and it snowed six times in one day. The next day it was so hot that we damn near -- ! Anyway, we thought that weather manipulation was happening. It was most unusual for weather.

DR. PUHARICH'S SOPHISTICATED FARADAY CAGE

"Dr. Puharich and I were supposed to have about an hour. It ran into a two-and-half-hour briefing. Kurt Waldheim (Secretary General of the United Nations) was out of the country at the time; so our host and chap that we informed was the number two man in the United Nations, Rudi himself.

"Now, the experiments which caused all of the excitement. Any of you guys ever been in Ossining, New York and seen this Faraday Cage? (The home of Dr. Puharich, 87 Hawkins Avenue, about 40 miles north of New York City) It's probably the most sophisticated cage -- yeah -- okay -- in captivity. It has three layers of copper and three layers of soft iron. In other words this is H Wave shielding, and copper shielding for the E Wave Faraday Cage. The thing probably has as much attenuation as the one at MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) the triple new metal cage."

"What is between those layers?" asked a listener.

"Uh, air," replied Mr. Beck.

"Do you realize you have a light(?) accumulator?"

"Yup. Okay, what we did here, we took this little box. Let's break it out here. This box has been disarmed. It is only mildly psycho-active; and we did this at the request of the people who tell you to do things, for damn good reasons. (Sounds of equipment being manipulated) This is the one. We placed it outside the Faraday Cage. We sealed it up. Incidentally, the pickup, the magnetic pickup coil is over here in this plastic garbage can filled with sand, to act as a microseismic damper -- so that we weren't seeing quite as much vibration.

"We worked with several subjects -- dont anybody take pictures of this today, please -- and this little box was run by one of Dr. Puharich's secretaries, outside. She was told to turn the dial a little bit. Turn it on. Dont tell us what's happening. Turn it off. Turn the dial to another number. Turn it on. Turn it off. Total double blind. No one inside the Cage knew what was going to happen or when it was going to happen.

"The subject's brain waves were going to one channel on a chart recorder, with zero cross-talk. The other chart, with a tape recorder, was going to a magnetic pickup; so we could compare the brain waves of the subjects with what was happening magnetically inside of this absolutely airtight, secure environment. . . . The chart was reading -- the one at the top and bottom were 180° changes of the magnetic pickup. The center portion of that chart was the human subject's brain waves.

THERE AINT NO HIDING PLACE DOWN HERE

"Now, if you're ready for this I dont know; but over the range of 6 Hertz to 14 Hertz, with some subjects there was 100% entrainment, of frequency and phase. Get that."

"They locked on," observed a listener.

"They locked on total! A little box the size of a package of cigarettes, when it uses the neural (?) frequency principle can entrain the brain waves of a subject inside a totally shielded room, without his knowledge, consent, etc. That's what this is all about."

Robert C. Beck—
Behavioral Control Through
Brain Entrainment

And now Dr. Puharich had an inkling of the mechanical basis for the "entrainment" he, Ila Ziebell, Sarah Bursak and Uri enjoyed? suffered? in Geller's apartment in Tel Aviv in December 1971. Do advanced Elementals on the Lower Astral plane also have their Little Black Boxes as they carry on their work for the false Gods of mankind?

"What we're saying here by entrainment," continues Mr. Beck. "If you look at the shape of this wave, they all fall on the same time rate. Starting from a half a second to four seconds, after the box goes on, the brain waves, the neurons, are being totally driven by this little magnetic oscillator. (Mumbled observation or query from a listener.) I cant answer that. (Another mumbled question.) It is down below 25 Nano Teslas at the source. A Nano is one billionth of one Tesla. A Tesla is 10 to the fourth galaxy.

"Okay. When we hit a particular magic number frequency, that's what happens. Anybody seen a petit mal attack on the screen lately? (On to the next slide)

"PRIOR TO THE TOTAL NEWS BLACKOUT"

"Back in March, the 26th and 27th of this year (1978) a chap named Mike Kelly, who is a journalist for the Eugene, Oregon 'Register Guard', decided to take his life in his hands and write about some of the things that had been happening up here. I have copies of these and many, many other articles that appeared in the public press prior to the time of the total news blackout.

"There were a few articles for a few days, Associated Press, In the Los Angeles 'Times', the Santa Monica 'Outlook', the Santa Ana 'Register'. I have copies of everything that appeared, the San Francisco 'Chronicle'. A day after this there were the denials, by the FCC, the Environmental Protection Agency, etc. Totally predictable, right? And I have a tape here of some of the signals that have been recorded. (Continued in the next Journal)

"THE FORMULA" IS AN AMERICAN, NOT A GERMAN, SECRET

By Alexander Walker and Ed Skilling
With CQC By The Editor

The Sunday, April 20th edition of the Los Angeles "Times" had an interesting and well written review of a new motion picture, "The Formula", by British journalist Alexander Walker. It had just finished filming at the Wall in Berlin, and Walker interviewed the American writer-producer, Steve Shagan, there about the story line of "The Formula":

"Shagan, who authored the novel on which it is based, set out with more in mind than a thriller of a familiar international hit-and-run kind. 'The fiction,' he says, 'is there because it grabs attention and also lets you speculate more freely about the documented fact that underpins it.' The 'fact' in this case concerns the process, actually pioneered and perfected in wartime Germany, for making synthetic fuel from coal. The Germans had it in their possession at the end of the war (World War II); then it mysteriously disappeared. To this day it remains hidden in spite of, or maybe because of, today's energy crisis.

"Shagan, the Brooklyn-born son of a pharmacist, an ex-publicist, TV-series creator, twice an Academy Award nominee for the scripts of 'Save the Tiger' and 'Voyage of the Damned', tumbled on this mystery when researching the latter film in Berlin four years ago at the U.S. Mission's Documentation Center.

"I discovered that although Germany had no natural oil resources, and the Allied bombing of the oilfields of her satellites was a round-the-clock affair by 1944, Hitler's war machine remained self-sufficient thanks to synthetic fuel. The key was a secret formula. One year later, the Allies occupied Germany -- but no one ever found that formula. It had been lost -- or suppressed."

"It is not betraying the film's own formula to report Shagan's suspicion that the villain was Big Business, the very biggest kind of Big Business that knows no allegiance except to its own survival. Not the Mafia of the underworld, but the supranational god-fathers of the 'overworld'

"'Money, not morality, is the principal commerce of civilized nations.' This dictum of (surprisingly) Thomas Jefferson served as Shagan's epigraph for his novel. (Why be surprised about that, Walker? Jefferson learned that bitter fact of life while American minister of commerce to France from 1784 to 1789, along with Benjamin Franklin and John Adams. He travelled extensively in Europe and saw at first hand the corrupt and suppressive Big Business of the aristocracy and the Church. There was no Bill of Rights in France, no legal machinery for Redress of Grievances, no way out but Civil Disobedience; so the French chopped off the heads of the aristocrats, outlawed the Jesuits and threw the Bishops and Cardinals into the Seine. The leaders were taught the hard way that power comes from the people, a lesson still to be learned by the Oil Moguls.) The Jefferson epigraph is now engraved on a paper-weight the dimensions of a gold brick, resting on the desk of Adam Steiffel, the conglomerate tycoon played by Marlon Brando.

NAILING THE AMERICAN DREAM

". . . Something of the soil from which he has wrested his mineral wealth has stuck to his dress, habits and speech; but his brain has the bite of an oil drill. When accused by Scott (actor George C. Scott, playing the part of Barney Caine, an ex-CIA man) of being not in the oil business but in the oil-shortage business, he snaps back, 'You mustn't think of us as evil, rapacious little men, clinging desperately to our numbered Swiss bank accounts. The sole function of any international oil cartel is to ensure political harmony. Power has the obligation to lead. . . If you nail me, you nail the American Dream.'"

One of the outstanding achievers of the American Dream was the industrial tycoon, Henry Ford I; and as we learn from Associate Ed Skilling, the so-called German secret of making gasoline from coal was common knowledge in Detroit 50 years ago!

GASOLINE FROM COAL, THE AMERICAN 'FORMULA'

"Today in South Africa gasoline is being produced from coal by the South Africa Coal, Oil and Gas Corp. known as SASOL. The plan is to produce fuel to meet 30% to 40% of its needs. The country has been in the process of producing gasoline from coal for the past 25 years. There is no oil in South Africa.

"The present process in production and costs is secret but the information for the process is a refinement of German technology which was used by the Germans in World War II. Where did the Germans get their knowledge? Simple! The well known American Fascist in Detroit, Michigan in the 1930s, Henry Ford I.

"Old Henry in his hey day of producing everything used in the Ford automobile, made his own steel from ore from iron mines in Michigan's upper peninsula. He fired his blast furnaces with coal. In the process of burning coal, if steam and oxygen are pumped through the coal, a gaseous mixture of carbon molecules, hydrogen and methane is produced. This gas is cleaned of tars, particulates, sulfur compounds and the carbon dioxide is removed. The gas is further processed through iron oxide (rust). The result is fuel gas (methane), gasoline and jet fuel (kerosene), and fuel oil.

"Old Henry, in the days of the Model T and Model A, had gas pumps installed at most of the gas stations in the city of Detroit and sold as Ford Benzol for 15¢ per gallon. After great pressure from the oil companies in the 1930s Henry finally had the pumps removed and discontinued the sale of gasoline from coal."

But only in the United States, Ed; for at that time Henry Ford was financing Hitler's rise to power in Germany; so that must have been when the gasoline-from-coal process was transferred across the Atlantic to the Third Reich. Imagine how much gasoline could be produced in the United States today if all of the coal-fired power plants in this nation had the Ford process in place and were producing gasoline as a byproduct of generating electrical power!

"American oil industry sources estimate that oil could not be produced from coal in the USA for less than $27 a barrel. The estimated gasoline price at the pumps would be between $1.04 to $1.47. There is no energy shortage in the USA. We have millions of tons of coal in the ground waiting for some action to be free of the Oil Moguls in Islamic nations and of American politicians."

THE UNHALLOWED MARRIAGE OF DETROIT AND DALLAS-HOUSTON

Has ended up in desertion! Two headline stories in the Los Angeles "Times" for April 24, 1980 tell the story:

"Exxon Profits Soar Highest Ever For Any U.S. Company"

"Mid-April Auto Sales Plunge 32% As Layoffs Increase"

For 50 years Detroit continued to produce gas-guzzling automobiles for the benefit of the oil industry, while buying up and shelving or destroying thousands of gasoline-saving inventions created and proven by ingenious Americans and foreigners, and look at the thanks Detroit gets!

"Exxon Corp., the world's largest oil company broke the record for the biggest quarterly profits ever made by a U.S. Corporation by earning $1.9 billion during the first three months of 1980; an increase of nearly 102% over the same period last year." That would be more than enough to bail out the floundering Chrysler Corporation which is asking our representatives in Congress to lend it $1.5 billion to keep going. Obviously the oil moguls feel no obligation to help the moguls of the auto industry. There's no honor among thieves, here or on the Lower Astral Plane where Walter Chrysler and Henry Ford, Sr. still guard and guide their physical plane empires. Relations between them and John D. Rockefeller, Sr., and J.P. Morgan, Sr. must be pretty frosty these days.-- not that there was ever any love lost between them anyway.

The "Times" article says that the great brokerage house of "Merrill Lynch estimates that Exxon's profits were boosted by $250 million because of its partnership in the Arabian American Oil Co. Aramco, also owned by Texaco, Standard Oil of California, and Mobil Corp. refines most of Saudi Arabia's 9.5 million barrels a day of crude oil. . . "

"ARAMCO PRESSES AHEAD TO DEVELOP SAUDI OIL RESOURCES"

This headline story in the business section of the April 30th LA "Times" tells a depressing story: "Aramco continues to explore for oil. It has, in fact, discovered so many fields that Saudi Arabia has the world's largest crude reserves. More new oil was discovered last year than was taken from the ground. In addition Aramco is engaged in two other gargantuan projects. It is supervising the building of facilities to harness the enormous quantities of natural gas. . . And it is in charge of building electrical generating plants that will supply power for all of Saudi Arabia east of the capital of Riyadh. . . "

Which tells us that the Oil Majors and the huge banking and brokerage houses of Wall Street continue to invest billions in the recovery and exploitation of foreign oil; and there is no intention of developing additional sources of domestic oil or of alternate sources of energy to reduce our dependence on foreign oil! Could this be called a criminal conspiracy between the leaders of the Oil Majors and the Sheikhs of Arabia? Against the people of the United States? If so, radical solutions to the problem, such as the nitrogen turbine-powered car described on pages 28, 29 and 30 of the March-April Journal will never be allowed to get on the market -- unless the economic stranglehold of these business buccaneers is broken -- and unless we can elect politicians whose first loyalty is to the people who vote them into office, and prove their loyalty by releasing such secrets as "The Formula" for the public benefit.

THE EVIL OF EXPLOITING LIFE'S NECESSITIES

The Master D.K. makes these observations relative to today's energy crisis in the world. We quote from the Alice Bailey book, "Esoteric Healing (1953), written at the time Aramco was being formed: "Confound not evil with the activities of the gangster or the criminal. Criminals and gangsters are the result of emerging massed imperfections; they are the victims of ignorance, mishandling when children and misunderstanding down the ages of right human relations; the Law of Rebirth will eventually lead them on the way to good."

What? Deke? Do you mean to say or imply that the business buccaneers, the conglomerate tycoons are soulless human monsters so steeped in evil that, in despair, their Higher Selves have separated from their Lower Selves, their personalities? Are they "beyond hope of redemption" as Blavatsky put it? She also wrote, "We elbow soul-less men and women at every step of life," and this is true of high places as well as low.

"There is no Higher Self to reincarnate when death arrives," writes Blavatsky. "It has fled years before, leaving only the lower mind and animal soul, the desire body and the Etheric Double, an independent entity. . . Such men and women are thoroughly wicked and depraved. They are highly intellectual and acutely spiritual for evil. . ." (Quoted from BSRF 24-M, "Psychic Self-Defense, Part III, The Dweller on the Threshold" $3.50.)

THEY SIN, BUT NOT THROUGH IGNORANCE

"Those men are truly evil who seek to force a return to the bad old ways," says D.K. "who endeavour to keep their fellowmen in slavery of some kind or another, who block the expression of one or all of the Four Freedoms, who gain material riches at the expense of the exploited, or who seek to hold for themselves and for gain the produce of the earth, and thus make the cost of life's necessities prohibitive to those not richly endowed.

"Those who thus work, think and plan are to be found in every nation, and are usually of prominence because of their riches and influence; however, they sin against the Light and not through ignorance; their goals are material and not spiritual. They are relatively few compared to the countless millions of men, but are exceedingly powerful; they are highly intelligent but unscrupulous, and it is through them that the Forces of Evil work, holding back progress, promoting poverty, breeding hatred and class distinctions, fostering racial differences for their own ends, and keeping ignorance in power.

"Their sin is great and it is hard for them to change, because power and the will-to-power (as it militates against the will-to-good) is a dominant all-controlling factor in their lives; these men are today (1953) working against the unity of the United Nations, through their greed, their determination to own the resources of the earth (such as oil, mineral wealth and food) and thus keep the people weak and with inadequate food. These men, who are found in every nation, thoroughly understand each other and are working together in great combines to exploit the riches of the earth at the expense of humanity." ("Esoteric Healing, Treatise on the Seven Rays, Vol. IV", by Alice A. Bailey, Lucis Trust, 866 United Nations Plaza, Suite 566-7, New York, NY 10017)

If you are reluctant to accept the word of the Master regarding the squalid morals of the captains of industry and finance, perhaps you'll find the testimony of "The Happy Hooker", Xaviera Hollander, more convincing. Here's a reference to some of the more affluent clients of her fancy whorehouse in the 1960s in New York City: "I've got a friend at the Chase Manhattan, the First National City, the Franklin National, the Marine Midland, the Dime, the Greenwich, the Bowery, Manufacturers Hanover, Bankers Trust, the New York Bank for Savings, the Bank of America, the Bank of Israel, the Bank of Tokyo, and just about every other bank major or minor, operating in this country. In other words, bankers are among my very best customers. . . There is only one other profession that outranks bankers as dedicated clients, and that is the stockbrokers. These are such a horny bunch of brothel-creepers that I would estimate fifty percent of my business is directly tied to the market trends."

And the market trends are directly tied to variations in intensity of radiation from the Sun. Refer back to the "Solar Radiation and Stock Prices" chart on page 4 of the Jan-Feb Journal. Of course our Creative Energies, some of which come out as sex, are a manifestation of the output of the Solar Logos.

"In order to keep my business lively and growing I have had to adopt that very American system of credit," writes Madam Hollander, born in Indonesia of Dutch parents. "For instance, one of the biggest stock-brokerage houses on Wall Street has a credit rating with me of up to two thousand dollars. They send their best out-of-town executives and customers up to me, and once a week the vice-president puts the cash owed me in an envelope and sends it to me with a messenger from the firm. . ."

EUNUCHS FROM BIRTH

"As long as there are grown men with adolescent originated emotional hangups that bubble to the surface as their sex drive, there will always be the 'freak'. A freak is basically anyone who needs fantasy, degradation, or punishment in order to achieve his interpretation of erotic gratification. . . Freaks are not, as many people suppose, faceless little misfits slinking around corners. . . Some of America's wealthiest and most respected citizens have been beaten, chastised, insulted, dressed up like girls, chained like dogs and even ordered to bark in my house, and have paid big money for the privilege. . ." (Our reference copy of "The Happy Hooker", a Dell paperback, is from the 18th printing, 1973, at $1.50 a copy.)

One of the most famous, or infamous, "freaks" of modern times was Adolf Hitler, physically incapable of having normal sexual relations. The choice of being a sexual cripple was made before birth. All of the Creative Energies are thus conserved for release or expression at other levels of consciousness, especially through the higher sexual center, the throat. This helped to give Hitler's speech the enormous hypnotic power which turned whole stadia of German people into roaring fanatics. Physical examination of many of America's wealthiest and most powerful, as indicated above in Xaviera's experience, would reveal also that they are sexual cripples, and for the same reason, to conserve the life force and pour it into the dream or ideal of unlimited wealth and power, thus bringing the dream into manifestation on the physical plane. But also, their only sexual pleasure must be perverted, freaky; and, as Dion Fortune observes in her extensive writings on occult science: "Wherever there is black magick, there is aberrated sex."

CLIPS, QUOTES & COMMENTS —

FROM THEIR THROATS ISSUES A POISONOUS BREATH

Who or what are the demonic forces, human and non-human, who control MIRO, the leaders of the Military-Industrial-Religious Oligarchy that runs the country at a profit? One answer is given in the little book, "The Vision of the Nazarene", written inspirationally by the English composer and occultist, Cyril Scott, and published by E.P. Dutton & Co., New York 1933. From the chapter titled "Of the Workings of Mine Adversaries" we read:

"A long way back into the Past must thou travel with me, O My Beloved, if thou wouldst behold the secret workings of My foes, and behind the Great Veil must thou look.

"As there are currents pertaining to air in the physical welkin, so are there electric currents pertaining to Thought in the spiritual welkin; and the Initiates of the Arcane Wisdom have the power to control these currents and make them subservient to beneficent ends. (Read again the experience of Dr. Puharich on pages 8 and 9.)

THE NAZARENE, also known to students as Jehoshua

"In bygone days when my convert, Saul of Tarsus, walked among men and spread the truths of My Gospel, did he utilize some of these thought-currents to quicken the minds of the peoples of the West. (Saul is now a Brother of the Great White Lodge known as the Master Hilarion, one who is concerned greatly with the development of Science.)

"But in later days My foes, in their lust for Power, gained ascendancy over those currents, perverting them to serve evil ends instead of good. Master-minds had those My enemies, and mightily trained in the arts of thought-control and self-discipline were they; and mighty were they also in arcane lore, knowing that the forces which had once been apportioned to the cause of Christendom could not be chained nor destroyed.

"Yea, because the energies of the peoples of the West were given over to the gratification of animal desires and the doing of deeds rather than to inward-turning and the training of the mind, so did they become an easy prey for Mine adversaries and their secret manipulations.

DEFENCELESS ARE THE UNAWAKENED

"For he (or she) who has not disciplined his own mind has formed, as it were, no shield to withstand the attacks of other minds; nay he wists not even that he is being attacked! Defenceless are the etheric centres in his subtler body; for of their very existence he is unaware, as of the powers whereby they may be controlled.

"And of this ignorance did Mine enemies have knowledge, taking advantage thereof. Thus were the thoughts and volitions and emotions of men as clay in their hands, to be moulded in whatsoever way they willed (including aberrated sex to obtain released creative energy to ensoul thoughtforms of power and corruption, thus are unawakened humans enslaved to their passions).

"Magicians were they, skilled in the arts of hypnotism and suggestion and the casting of spells over the unsuspecting."

One of the most informative pieces of literature on this subject is the Elizabethan drama, "Dr. Faustus". 400 years ago the young London playwright, Francis "Christopher Marlowe" Bacon tackled the subject of obsession and possession with his usual zeal and the famous character who sold his soul to the Devil was the result. "Dr. Faustus" has instructed hundreds of students of occult science ever since in the tragedy of dealing with any Mephistophilis of the Lower Astral plane. Xavier Hollander's experiences of catering to the degraded cravings of the wealthy and powerful in New York is only an echo of what Bacon saw and recorded as fiction in London of the 1580s and 90s. Consider this brief portion from Act 4, Scene 1, between the two clowns, Robin and Dick.

"ONLY FOR THE PLEASURE OF THESE DAMNED SLAVES"

Robin evokes Demogorgon, Belcher and Mephistophilis. To their surprise and delight, the latter appears. A boy with them rushes off the stage in fright.

Meph: You princely legions of infernal rule,
How am I vexed by these villains charms!
From Constantinople have they brought me now
Only for pleasure of these damned slaves.

Robin: By lady, sir, you have had a shrewd journey of it.
Will it please you to take a shoulder of mutton to supper?
And a tester in your purse to go back again?

Dick: Ay, I pray you heartily, sir.
For we called you but in jest, I promise you.

Meph: To purge the rashness of this cursed deed, (Turns to Dick)
First be thou turned to this ugly shape.
For apish deeds transformed to an ape. (Dick acts like a monkey)

Robin: A brave! An ape! I pray, sir, let me have the carrying of him about to show some tricks.

Meph: And so thou shalt. Be thou transformed to a dog, (Turns to Robin, who gets down on all fours, acts like a dog.) and carry him upon thy back. Away, be gone!

Robin: A dog! That's excellent. Let the maids look well to their porridge-pots, for I'll into the kitchen presently. Come Dick, come. (Exit the two clowns with Dick on Robin's back.) (From "The Plays of Christopher Marlowe, edited by Léo Kirschbaum," World Publishing Co., New York, 1962)

"MEFISTOFELE", the opera by Hector Boito, revived by the San Diego Opera Company in May 1980. Robert Hale plays the Dark Brother, a human devil, left; and Enrico di Giuseppe is his slave, Dr. Faust.

When Xavier Hollander watched her wealthy and powerful clients going through such degrading behavior she could not know of the Dark Brothers ordering and directing the kinky sexual antics of their physical plane agents, nor that the unpolarized sexual energy so released was used to keep those agents enslaved to their greed for money and power. But Francis Bacon knew it; and for a teacher he had one of the foremost occult scientists of that day in Europe, Dr. John Dee. Now back to Jehoshua, teacher of angels and of men.

THE INSIDIOUS SPELLS OF THE BLACK ROBED BROTHERS

"And not only religious communities and the members of religious communities did they seek to control, but over statesmen and men of learning and men of science did they cast their insidious spells. And sometimes they worked alone, but oftentimes they worked in a body, assailing their victims from afar with the concentrated force of their attack.

"Untiring were they in their will to break down resistance and lure the steadfast from the honourable pursuit of Truth. And when they were impotent to achieve their desires, like revengeful children they resorted to tricks and devices and pettinesses, calculated to harass and annoy. And lo, that they did in days of yore, their descendants in iniquity continue to do now; for Mine enemies are not dead.

"Chaste are they -- ay, irreproachable -- after the notions of men; yet even their chastity they wield as a force for the making of others unchaste. (Wherever there is black magick there is aberrated sex!) Into mind-force do they transform the sex-force but unto what end? For the strengthening of the moral weaknesses of their victims, and for the weakening of their moral strength.

"Look, O My son, behind the Veil, and behold them in all their moral nakedness. Though their garments bear the insignia of the Religion of Christ, from their throats doth issue a poisonous breath. As the holy men and ascetics of yore breathed on the sick to render them whole, do these My foes breathe on the sick to render them more sick!

"Lovers of the One Religion and the One Truth do they proclaim themselves, yet when others preach the One Truth in a slightly different guise, then behold them seated in a body projecting their thought-missiles of destruction. Leaders do they attack, founders of new communities with ideals of greater tolerance and a greater spirit of brotherhood.

"Yea, and even if those communities offer up their love and their service to Me with the chants and ceremonial magic of Christendom, even so do they work to accomplish their downfall by bringing them into obloquy. Indeed, the very similitude of that magic maketh easier their task, for the laws of Magic are ever based on the rapport set up between like and like.

"With powerful words have they denounced Magic, terming it Sorcery and the Black Art -- and verily it is, when used for evil ends. Yet are they more culpable than sorcerers; for the sorcerers practised Sorcery in the name of the Devil; but Mine enemies practise Sorcery in the name of God.

"Pity them, O My Beloved, as I pity them; for many of them know not what they do; and because God is not mocked, their day of reckoning is not far hence." ("The Vision of the Nazarene" by the author of "The Initiate", Dutton, New York, 1933)

DO YOU VIBRATE TO LOVE? OR TO HATE?

The technical difference between the Brother of Light and the Dark Brother of the Shadow -- whose God is the false Christ,

Looeamong, a Moon God -- should be of interest here. We find it on pages 986-987 of the Master D.K.'s "Treaties On Cosmic Fire":

". . . The heart centre in the Brother of the right hand path is the transmitting agency for the building force, and the triangle he uses in the work is

- a. The centre in the head which corresponds to the heart.
- b. The heart centre itself
- c. The throat centre (from whence issues the Creative Word)

"The Brother of the left hand path. . . works from the throat centre almost entirely, and manipulates primarily the forces of the physical sun. This is the reason why he achieves many of his ends through the method of pranic stimulation or of pranic devitalisation (which is the Master's nice way of saying that the Dark Brother plays on the passions of his victim, then draws off or scavenges the unpolarized sex force after it has been released. The victim is indeed devitalised!), and why, also most of his effects are carried out on the physical plane. He works therefore through

- a. The centre in the head corresponding to the throat centre.
- b. The throat centre.
- c. The centre at the base of the spine. . .

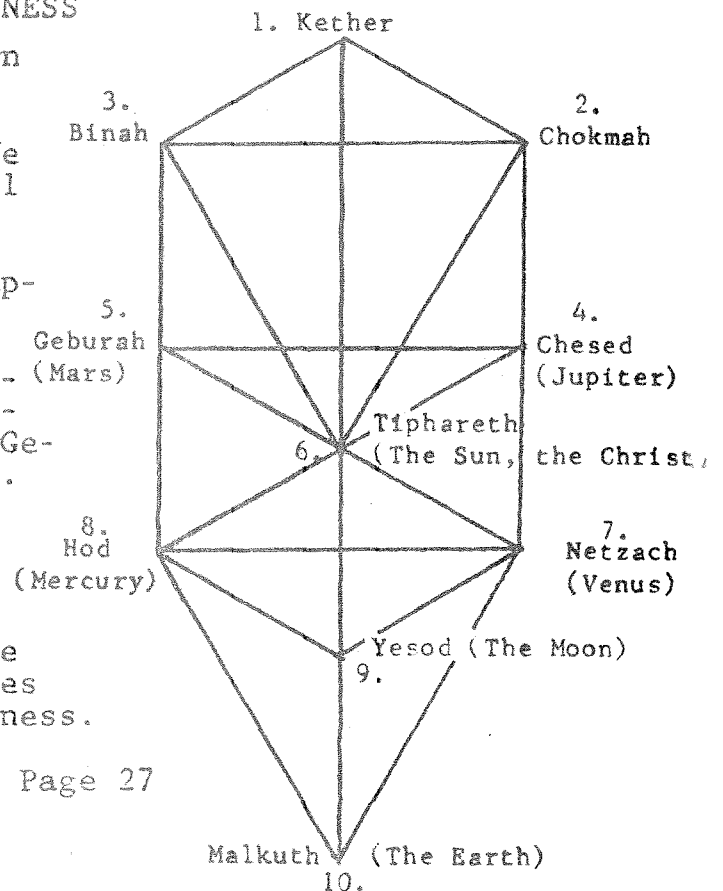

"The white magician works on the side of Evolution, with the Path of Return. The black magician occupies himself with the forces of Involution, or with the Path of Outgoing. They form a great balancing force in evolution. . . "

WITHIN THE RANGE OF HUMAN CONSCIOUSNESS

For us Cabalists of the Western Mystery Tradition that "balancing force of Evolution" is graphically illustrated by the Tree of Life. We read in Dion Fortune's "The Mystical Qabalah", in the chapter on Chesed, the Fourth Sephirah: "The Masters work in the sphere of organising, up-building, constructive Chesed on the Pillar of Mercy. The work of the Dark Masters, who are quite different from Black Adepts, is performed in the corresponding sphere of Geburah on the Pillar of Severity. . .

"The point of contact between the Masters and their human disciples is in Hod, the Sephirah of Ceremonial Magic. . . We have now reached a point in the scheme of the Tree where the type of activity comes within the range of human consciousness.

TREE OF LIFE

In our study of the preceding Sephiroth (the Supernal Trinity or triangle of Kether, Chokmah and Binah) we were formulating metaphysical concepts. These concepts, although remote from immediate application to the life of form, are exceedingly important, for unless they are at the basis of our understanding of esoteric science, we shall fall into superstition and use magic as magicians, not as adepts; in other words, we shall be unable to transcend the bondage of the planes of form and will be hallucinated and fall under the domination of the phantoms evoked by the magical imagination, instead of using them as beads on the abacus of our calculations, which is as if the engineer used the slide-rule as a foot-rule.

THE SPHERE OF THE CRUCIFIXION

"Chesed, then, reflects into Hod through the Christ-centre of Tiphareth, just as Geburah reflects through Netzach. This teaches us a great deal, for it indicates that for consciousness to rise from form to force, and for force to descend to form, it must pass through the Centre of Equilibrium and Redemption, to which are assigned the Mysteries of the Crucifixion.

"It is to the Sphere of Chesed that the exalted consciousness of the adept rises in his occult meditations; it is here that he receives the inspirations which he works out on the planes of form. It is here that he meets the Masters as spiritual influences contacted telepathically, without any intermingling of personality. This is the true, and the highest, mode of contact with the Masters, contact with them as mind to mind in their own sphere of consciousness.

"When the Masters are seen clairvoyantly as robed beings, the colours of whose robes indicate their ray, they are being perceived reflected into the sphere of Yesod, which is the kingdom of phantoms and hallucinations. We are treading on precarious ground when we have to meet the Masters here. It is here that the anthropomorphic form is given to the spiritual inspiration which so misleads those psychics who cannot rise to Chesed. It is thus that the announcement of a spiritual impulse flowing out upon the world gets interpreted as the coming of a World Teacher. . . ."

And it is here in Yesod, the sphere of the Moon, that the Lunar Pitris, the Moon Gods, get control of the mass of mankind governed by their below-the-belt passions. When the Tree is used to represent the microcosm, man or woman, the Moon center is the sexual center of the body. The Dark Brother lifts that creative energy to his throat center to empower the "poisonous breath" by which he hypnotizes and controls others. The White Brother lifts the energy to his heart center to empower his ideal of selfless service to others. The one a Mephistopheles, the other a Saint or a Sage. There are two ways to go, as illustrated in Tarot Trump No. 6, "The Lovers". Once the awakening has come, the choice must be made.

THAT SUPER-SECRET AIR FORCE CADET TRAINING

Earlier this year we had an inquiry about the Hendershot Free Energy device described and drawn up by Ed Skilling. The lady said she had been a secretary at the U.S. Air Force Academy north of Colorado Springs. In reply I asked her if she knew anything about the hypnotic programming of the cadets as described by the late Stan Deyo in his book, "The Cosmic Conspiracy"? Her reply:

"When you said you were curious about the brain washing of the cadets and what I learned -- virtually nothing. It was a very well kept secret and, of course, the cadet dorms were strictly off-limits for us. I remember one time we got lost trying to locate the official lunch room and got into the cadet area by mistake. You would have thought we were going to set off the atomic bomb! We were escorted out of there so promptly we wondered why? Now I know!! We were not to learn anything of their traing.

"Never, in all the time I worked there were we ever allowed to even speak to a cadet. I remember asking officers about UFOs and learned less than nothing. I was impressed by the brilliance of the military personnel there and we did commute to and from work with some of the Majors. I worked for some Colonels and they actually let us secretaries handle their paper work and letter writing. I was not aware of any hypnosis or anything like that. My own father was a hypnotist; and any discussion like that would have been of great interest to me, since my father had a degree in both hypnosis and psychology. These were my beginning teachings. Dad never used it to control anyone, however, only to help and heal."

Ms. V.D.C., Denver, Colorado

The poison-breath specialists from Rome are famous for their brilliance, too, not wisdom but intellect. An Air Force enlisted man told your editor that the Colonel of his outfit was an expert hypnotist and wasn't above practicing it occasionally on men of his command. He observed that this particular ability was a necessary qualification for achieving high rank in his branch of the service.

ANYONE FOR GRAVITY CONTROL?

"I have built an ELF wave generating device and in trying it out some of my friends have felt the field immediately. Our first model has too much inductance between parts to be truly effective, however. It would be great if you would put a reference to our Flying Saucer Motor project in the CQC section of the Journal, as we want to get in touch with other Gravitics researchers. And thank you for the warning of the government not being friendly to such research. I have read about such Emotional Plague behavior in Dr. Wilhelm Reich's works."

THAT PRANIC RECIRCULATION DEVICE

"I Wish to order from you one piece of RECIRCULATION PRANA IN A BODY device as stated in my drawing. Therefore, please send me this device to the address: Djordje Klickovic, Jug Bogdanova 24, 11000 Beograd, Yugoslavia. You are also kindly advised to inform me about the way of payment of your consignment. Thanking you very much in advance, Yours faithfully."

D.K., Beograd, Yugoslavia

Glad to have your order for a set of Eeman Screens, George, and on receipt of an International Money Order or check drawn on a New York bank for $10.50 American, we'll send you a pair. The illustrated Eeman Screen brochure is $2.75. Power can be added to the Eeman circuits by holding a small horseshoe magnet in one hand and a piece of carbon rod in the other, along with the brass tube handles at the ends of the wire connections.

THOSE OUTSTANDING RITES OF REJUVENATION

"Please send me two (2) copies of 'The Five Rites of Rejuvenation'. I enclose $5.00. My copies are for friends. I have been doing the Five Rites, each 21 times, for over eight months now, and am in super shape. They are outstanding!"

RADM E.M.W. (Ret), Santa Rosa, Cal.

POWERFUL REACTION TO VITIC

"I was introduced to the carbon rod and ceramic magnet two years ago. I have gotten excellent results with it. One problem, my feet and shins become very hot and tingle. It seems as if it's working its way up by body. At first it made me very sick and put me in the hospital for eight days. I wasn't about to tell the doctor what was wrong. What I had done was use the south pole on the left hand and carbon rod in the right, for an hour a day. After being discharged from the hospital I cut the time to 30 minutes a day. If you have any ideas as to why this is happening, I wish you would help me."

W.H.W.II, Des Moines, Iowa

Yours is the strongest reaction we've heard of yet, to the Vitic combination or circuit of carbon and magnet. Remember, the magnet represents the Moon, pulling effete matter out of your body; and the carbon rod represents the Sun, putting new vitality into the body. You way overdid it! Re-read the text of the Magnetic Vitality brochure, ($2.75) and you will see that we recommend only five minutes in circuit. That's enough to charge the nervous system with all the extra energy it can hold, and the charge lasts several hours; but maybe your system needed the shock.

THEM DANGED THOUGHT-CURRENTS IS FOR REAL!

"I know people who did put a certain type of magic into practice. However, I confess that I am more interested in Love (Binah) and Wisdom (Chokmah) than in magical Power (Kether), although I know that it exists and brings its results -- which often are not the expected ones.

"It comes to my mind that about 25 years ago I had some acquaintances with whom I practiced a kind of telepathic game, which went on like this: We were a group of 8, 10, 12 or more. One of us left the room and in the meantime the rest of us decided what we wanted the fellow, or the woman, to do when they came back.

"Let us say we started giving out only one task. The outsider came in. We did not say anything but concentrated our thoughts; for instance, to have him or her pick up a pencil on a certain spot, or to say a few words on a certain subject; but in the beginning, only one thing. It seems that the one supposed to do the thing felt himself or herself inclined to do it. As time went on this became too easy; so we concentrated ourselves to have the other do three or four tasks, as for instance: To pick up the newspaper (1 job), to look upon a certain page (2nd job), to say a few words about it (3rd job), to hand the newspaper to another person (4th job). However, shortly afterwards we stopped.

"One reason was that on two different occasions -- each time it was a different man -- two fellows lost their consciousness. One time I knew what to do to awake one man; the other time a fellow present used a kind of mantra or chant. The group had nothing to do with the Theosophical Society at all. It was wrong to do such a game with persons who could really respond to the vibrations, since they lost consciousness. I was then told by the leader of the Theosophical Lodge of which I was a member, to stop immediately, and that such matters should not be played with. I might add that each object on which our thoughts were concentrated, gleamed with a strong 'light' visible to some of the persons there. Consequently, there are not only mental streams or waves but also a kind of light waves which play a part in such a procedure.

"Now, if this is already done by a group as a kind of game, how much stronger must be the thoughts of some African medicine-man? Or of a Hawaiian Kahuna?"

Or even more powerful, Judy, a trained and dedicated priesthood such as the Buddhist, Brahmin, Roman Catholic, Mohammedan, Coptic, Mormon, Shinto, Confucian, Tantric, etc. These are the long established centers of power which must be dealt with somehow if the planet is to be unified under the Will of the Christ. In Iran today we see how priestly power is being used -- misused.

"ALFRED HITCHCOCK, MASTER OF MYSTERY MOVIES, DIES"

Los Angeles "Times", April 30, 1980: "Sir Alfred Hitchcock, the master motion picture director whose genius for the macabre chilled the spines of three generations of moviegoers, died peacefully in his sleep Tuesday at his Bel-Air (California) home. He was 80 years old."

And as his murder movies, "Psycho", "Dial M For Murder", etc. go on for years, being played and replayed in movie theaters and on television, will his time in the heaven world continue to be peaceful? Not likely, if the after-death experiences of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle are any criterion.

He died in 1930 and in 1931 he was able to blend his consciousness with that of medium Grace Cooke and speak at length of the problems of adjustment to life on the other side: "It was entirely different from what I had expected, and that is what most people, Orthodox and Spiritualist alike, will find -- a very different Summerland or Heaven from what they had expected. The nature of the new life turns largely on the quality of the new arrival's mentality, but still more on what his attitude has been during his former life towards his fellows and towards human life in general. . .

"The power to create, either mentally or physically, is the gift of every man. On his creative power rests the crux of the whole business of the after life. The man of whose ability bent lies in the creating of characters in literature, or in the painting of pictures, or of the writing of poetry -(or in the creation of motion pictures) - in the creation either of beauty or the reverse by his positive creative thought -- is very surely creating his environment and his habitation when he is freed from the flesh. . .

"That is the main idea; that the creations of one's own brain go on and on like the waves of a rolling sea that are ever beating against the minds of many fellow creatures. When these creations are beautiful, it is a heavenly and immeasurable joy to see the good in them radiating through the human universe; but when it is otherwise -- I dare paint no picture of this state.

"It is a rather terrible sensation when one endeavours to express one's self to one's friends and is unable to make any impression on them; and when some souls here find, as they do, their former deeds are still working evil in the minds and hearts of souls on earth, it is terrible to be unable to arrest the forces one has loosed. . .

"When I think of my former errors of thought, and when I see what resulted from them; oh, my anguish! oh, my despair! Dear God, I ask no more than to be able to give a clearer description of this truth to others! Only one thing in human life truly matters, and this is that men should realize for themselves the redeeming power of Christ's love. For only if the Christ spirit is awake in them, is abiding in them, do they live!"

THE OBVIOUS: NUNS ARE NEITHER PRIESTS NOR CLERGY

Des Moines, Iowa (AP) - "The mayor of Dubuque said Wednesday (May 7, 1980) that Pope John Paul II's order that priests stay out of politics didn't apply to her. Sister Carolyn Farrel, who was elected to the City Council more than two years ago, was chosen to be mayor about five months ago by her fellow council members.

"The mayor, who is a member of the Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary and who is also head of the continuing education department at Clarke College in Dubuque, said she doesn't intend to quit her job.

"The directive is addressed to clergy. In the Roman Catholic Church, women have never been in the category of clergy," she said."

The Church is and always has been up to its neck in politics; so Catholics like Sister Farrel are mystified by the Pope's directive. For what it's worth, we suggest that the Pope and the College of Cardinals want to put as much distance as possible between themselves and another organized priesthood, the minions of the false Mohammed, Thoth-Gabriel, who have seized control of Iran. For months on television we have had the spectacle of black robed, pistol-waving priests, controlling the mobs in front of the American embassy in Iran. The Church certainly doesn't want Americans to get the idea that any such priestly hanky panky is going on here in the United States!

WORLD WAR III AVERTED?

To us the failure of the American hostage rescue mission in Iran suggests control by the Occult Hierarchy of Masters. The mechanical failure of the helicopters was no "accident". A May 2, 1980 letter to the LA "Times" spells it out very well: ". . . Given the unstable conditions in Iran, which President Carter used as the rationale for this foolish act, the Iranians, led by a typically irrational religious leader, would surely react in a manner to harm us the most.

"The obvious retaliation would be to close the Strait of Hormuz which, being only 24 miles wide, could be closed to tankers by the artillery, planes, rockets and ships that we sold to Iran. 60 to 70% of the oil moved by sea goes through the Strait, and thus we would be faced with an impossible situation, and have to resort to large scale military action to reopen the Strait. Our action could easily set the Middle East ablaze, have Iran invite in the Russians and confront us with World War III.

"Six months from now, if no further military operations of any type are begun by us in this area, it will become clear to the American people how fortunate we were, in that mechanical failure was a blessing in disguise, as it prevented the beginning of a chain of events that could easily have led to the disaster of war in the Middle East. I believe that (Secretary of State) Vance could foresee the dangers and, with courage, resigned to warn us."

Leeds Bauman, Montecito, California

Weapons we sold to Iran, and the money which was paid for those weapons came from the exorbitant profits of the sale of crude oil to the major oil companies. Not long ago we learned from the Sunday night TV news-magazine program, 60 Minutes, that the Shah of Iran lead the way to the continued and unwarranted price increases in crude oil. And who put him up to it? The American munitions makers. They wanted to sell the egomaniac billions of dollars worth of arms and they did. Where was the money to come from? From the American people, of course, in the form of higher prices for gasoline and other oil products. Be it said to the credit of the princes of Saudi Arabia, they tried to warn us of this inflationary, wildly suicidal course of action, through our Ambassador to Arabia; but his messages to Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and President Nixon -- both under control of their Mephistofeleses -- were deliberately ignored.

There is a message from Outer Space: This is a moral universe. We are responsible for our actions. "I am my brothers keeper." And this is the key to the continued Silence Policy on Flying Saucers by every Western government -- American, British, French, German, Italian, Israeli -- all making billions out of the arms business. Powerful political leaders, and their buddies in the munitions business, dont like to be told what to do; and this is just exactly what they would be asked to do if they were to contact the Good Guys from Outer Space: The Arms Business is wrong! Get out of it. It is evil. As Christians you say you believe in the Golden Rule. Practice it!

Fortunately there are millions of little people in all lands who do believe in the Golden Rule and are trying to practice it. It is these waves of energy rising hourly, minutely, from their hearts and minds that are gathered up by the Masters of the White Brotherhood and directed to good purpose, to "seal the door where Evil dwells", as D.K. puts it. Thus the Plan of Evolution for mankind and the planet is progressing, probably pretty much on schedule.

CANADIANS VOTE FOR DEMOCRACY

Common sense prevailed in the Canadian province of Quebec in late May. By a two-to-one majority the Quebecers voted for Democracy, the Golden Mean of the true Christ, and against a return to the past. The past in this case the religious oligarchies of Western Europe under the false Christ, Looeamong, more specifically France from whence came -- according to some of our Canadian Associates -- the black robed zealots who inspired and guided the separation policy of the Church. The fear in Rome is that Italy will go Communist and a new base must be created at all costs in the New World. Quebec is the choice.

DOOM AND GLOOM FINALLY COMES TO WASHINGTON

Mt. St. Helens in southern Washington state finally erupted with a vengeance on Sunday, May 18th, and brought a lot of satisfaction to the prophets of doom. Those, however, who have lived through and under the fallout of volcanic ash are finding that it is one thing to talk glibly about the end of an Age and quite another to try to cope with the effect when it actually hits you! Many in that State are now having to make an agonizing reappraisal of their situation. Do we stay and fight it out in the face of the threat of more eruptions? Or do we abandon everything and flee to another, hopefully safer, part of the country? Washingtonians can now empathize with the Vietnamese and Cambodians who suffered a similar trauma under American bombing of those unfortunate countries ten years ago. There are some interesting observations on the care and feeding of volcanoes in the American occult classic, "Etidorhpa". A review in the Journal would be in order.

ANYONE FOR RADIONICS EQUIPMENT? THE RAU #2

J.G. Gallimore has developed a sixteen dial Radionic Analyzer for research on "plants, animals and insect pests. Any specimen to be treated, such as a photograph of an infected area of a farm, can be diagnosed with the first eight dials and then, by setting switch to bottom bank, treated for plant growth or insect control. . . Two treatment rates may be imposed on the instrument at one time for advanced control of problem areas. Likewise a photo in one well and a select insect in the other. . . Delawarr rates, dial settings for various treatments, with diagnosis numbers for elements, plants, animals and parasites. No specific claims are made for this research tool, the Radionics Agricultural Unit, RAU #2, for its effectiveness nor that any person can operate it effectively." $485.00. For more information write to J.G. Gallimore, 5627 E. Julian, Indianapolis, Indiana 46219.

U.S. PSYCHOTRONIC ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE

We have word from David Rhoads, president of the U.S.P.A. that the 1980 Conference will be held at Bergamo Hall in Dayton, Ohio, July 24th through July 27th. Those wanting to present papers on their research in Radionics, Radiesthesia, etc. should submit them to the USPA Conference Committee, 893 NE 125th St., No. Miami, Florida 33161. Registration for the Conference is being handled by Robert Beutlich, Sec'y-Treas., 3459 W. Montrose Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60618.

"POLE SHIFT" by JOHN WHITE

We have a review copy of his latest book, on the possibility of a Polar Flip "with resultant tidal waves, volcanic eruptions, devastating hurricane winds and earthquakes. . . ." The book is well researched and well written, covering the subject from the prophecies of Edgar Cayce to the well documented researches of Hapgood and Campbell. Fortunately, the experts cant agree on a date for the next Shift; otherwise every thought would be haunted! But this hardcover book is timely. "Pole Shift", published by Doubleday and Company, New York, 1980, $14.00. If that seems a little expensive, perhaps you can afford our modest opus on it.

BSRF No. 2-C: FLYING SAUCERS AND AMERICA'S DESTINY Back in 1959

we got interested in the Polar Flip hypothesis and related it to the Flying Saucer phenomenon -- that the Visitors and the Aliens were here to observe a planetary crisis, perhaps to take part in it, and even to use it to their own advantage if possible. Our subject matter includes the sinking of Atlantis -- which apparently coincided with the last Polar Flip, about 11,600 years ago, the Judgment Day of the Bible, the Trance of Change, the prophecy of George Washington. We review and illustrate the Theosophical material on such cataclysmic activity, the teachings of George Van Tassel's space contacts on such changes and the charts which illustrate their ideas, and our own chart of the master, major and minor cycles coming to a head at this time as the planet is cleansed and prepared for the New Age. 36 pages. $2.75
