COSMOGONY AND COSMOLOGY

By
DR. M. DOREAL

The Mystery of the Universe is contained in the Unwritten Kabbala; the Keys to the Understanding of the formation of the earth, the beginning of man and of his evolution to the consummation are veiled in its symbolism. In the old Kabbalistic Mystery Schools these keys were taught to the select few. Because they were never written, the Occult Wisdom of the Kabbala, the Sepher Yetzirah, the Book of Concealed Wisdom, and the rest of the Ancient Teachings have been lost to the world at large. The findings of modern Science have not as yet even scratched the surface of the Great Knowledge which the Ancient Races knew about the Laws of Creation and of the manner in which the Supreme Hidden One manifested in the material.

The Mysteries which Doreal has given in this book are much too great and all-encompassing to iterate in this review. May it suffice by saying that COSMOGONY AND COSMOLOGY is more than a history of Universal events, for he has shown the coming forth of the Laws of Creation while they were in the World of Formation even before the Cosmic Condensation became manifest.

PREHISTORIC AMERICA

By

The Supreme Voice

(DR. M. DOREAL)

(Part One)

North America was a highly civilized country at the time of the Gobian or Fourth Cycle. When the Gobians created the vibration that covered the polar cities with ice, the continent of North America also was covered, but not to the depth that the poles were. The pre-glacial continent of North America was an earthly paradise, covered in many places with sub-tropical forests of giant trees. The ice did not last for so long a time on this continent as it did on the polar continent, and when it finally vanished, man began to emigrate from other lands that had not been ice covered.

There is abundant evidence that a pre-historic, pre-glacial civilization existed. Whittlesey gives an account of a cut log found forty feet below the surface, in a bed of blue clay, resting upon the 'hard pan' or 'till', in a well dug at Columbus, Ohio. At Bloomington, Illinois, pieces of carved wood were found, one hundred and twenty-three feet below the surface, in sinking a shaft.

And it is a fact that none of the Illinois clay contain fossils. The inference, therefore, is that the clay fell upon and enclosed the trees while they were yet growing. Mr. Whittlesey, also refers to remains of the elephant and mastodan found below, and in the drift in America.

When the great ice drift descended, it was not a gradual process, but came suddenly and with overwhelming force. In examining the face of the rocks on which the drift came, we do not find them merely smoothed and ground down, as a great mass of ice moving slowly over them would grind them; there was something more than this; there was something that fell upon them with terrific force and literally smashed them, pounding, beating, pulverizing, and scattering them in confusion. We cannot conceive of anything today, that let loose upon the bare rocks, would or could produce such results.

James Geikie says, speaking of these intercalated beds, "They are twisted, bent, crumpled, and confused, often in the wildest manner. Layer of clay, sand, and gravel which were probably deposited in a nearly horizontal plane are puckered into folds and sharply curved into vertical positions. I have seen whole beds of sand which had all the appearance of having been pushed bodily forward for some distance."

We have ample proof that man existed in America before this great change. The "American Naturalist" 1873, says, "The discoveries that are constantly being made in this country, proving that man existed on this continent as far back, in geological time, as on the European continent - and it even seems that America, really the old world geologically, will soon prove to be the birthplace of the earliest race of man."

E. L. Berthaud in 1871 found ancient fireplaces, rude stone monuments and implements of stone in great numbers along Crow Creek in Colorado and also on several other rivers in that vicinity. These fireplaces indicated ancient sites of an unknown race, entirely different from the mound-builders, and the present Indians; while fossils found with the remains make it certain that the deposit in which the ancient sites are found, is as old as the Pliocene, and perhaps as old as the Miocene Age.

In the "Scientific America", 1880, Dr. R. W. Booth relates finding a human skull with portions of the vertebrae, ribs and collar bone, at a depth of eighteen feet. A few days later, at a depth of twenty-four feet, other bones were found, belonging to the first skeleton. The Calaveras skull was found in California at a depth of one hundred and fifty feet, under five beds of lava and four beds of Auriferous gravel.

The natives in the vicinity of Lake Tahoe ascribe its origin to a great convulsion. "There was a time," they say, "When their tribe possessed the whole earth. But a day came when a people rose up stronger than they and defeated and enslaved them. Afterwards the Great Spirit sent an immense wave across the continent from the sea and this wave engulfed both the oppressors and the oppressed, all but a remnant. Then the task masters made the remaining people raise up a great temple so that they of the ruling caste would have a refuge in case of another flood. Half a moon had not elapsed before earth was troubled - this time with strong convulsions, upon which the masters took refuge in the great towers, shutting the people out. Then the land tossed and flames went up to heaven and melted away stars so that molten metal rained upon the earth, forming the gold which men seek. The temple sank and the waters rushed in around it while the people clung to the dome of the tower. Then the Great Spirit walked upon the waters in his wrath and took the oppressors, one by one, and threw them into a deep cavern. There they must remain until the Great Fire that is to overturn the earth sets them free." It is very evident that this is a legend of the overthrowing of the Thothians.

The Brotherhood Newsletter

Dear Students and Friends:

The Annual Christmas Party for members and their guests will be held Saturday, Dec. 23, 1972 beginning at 5:00 P.M. in the Administration Building in Shamballa. It will be a potluck dinner, with each family bringing a covered dish and a dessert. The dinner will be followed by a program put on by our many talented students.

The Shamballa Board promises that Santa Claus will be there with treats for the children.

In preparation for the party there will be a volunteer work program for cleaning and decorating December 17th, beginning at 1:00 P.M. in the Administration Building in Shamballa.

We have sunny weather today with a cool wind. We still have lots of snow left from the previous snow storm but all the roads are clear today.

We surely wish to thank the generous contributions for funds received for the Tractor Fund. We have received about $4000. on this fund. Shamballa has great need for a new snow plow tractor as our old snow equipment is quite worn. A new tractor costing around $10,000 would be ideal but a good used tractor for somewhat less than that can probably be found.

We have recently received a shipment of incense, liquid, cake and perfume. This incense has been blessed in the way Dr. Doreal taught, imbuing it with special vibrations of harmony.

The Print Shop is putting out added effort to get the regular mail out early this month to avoid the Christmas mail stampede.

The Fellowship of the Avatar Message was given by Dr. Lyle Whitby Dec. 3 and will soon be in the mail to the Avatar members.

Please remember to address all checks and money orders to the Brotherhood of the White Temple Inc. and not to any individual. Many of you like to pay a years contributions at a time. We, in the office really appreciate your advance payments as it lessens our book-keeping. Thank you for your many gifts, Christmas Cards and good wishes. A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to one and all.

In Cosmic Harmony,
Dr. W. Whitby

SAHAJ YOGA

THE YOGA OF LIFE

By
DR. M. DOREAL

It is an absolute fact that the degree of our health, or the amount of sickness we have depends in a very great measure upon the amount of life force in the body.

People have wondered how it is that the Masters and Teachers in the Far East have the power to have lived for hundreds of years.

Exercises and techniques are given in this book so that one may bring about that inflow of life energy. The Exercises and techniques must be done very carefully and in the proper manner to get the proper results.
