From the CALIPH

ON THE HOLY BOOKS

Traditionally we have accepted 6 of Aleister Crowley's works as THE HOLY BOOKS. They are Liber AL, Liber Cordis Cincti Serpente (Liber LXV), Liber Liberi vel Lapis Lazuli (Liber VII), Liber DCCCVIII vel Ararita, History Lection (Liber LXI) & Liber Trigrammation. I verified this with Germer 20 years ago when some doubt arose. They were originally published by Crowley in a small 3 volume set very expensively in white leather with gold stamping and were entitled THELEMA in Greek. Of these we will consider Liber VII, Liber LXV & Liber DCCCXIII. These poems, hymns in praise of his H.G.A., are a record of the highest spiritual attainment: The Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel, the Crossing of the Abyss, VIII^o, Magister Templi. And they follow a curious pattern.

In the first, Liber Liberi vel Lapidis Lazuli VII, we have the ecstatic breakthrough into communication with that Unknown where the poet knows union with the geyser of the unconscious. II 11, "Thou art like a beautiful Nubian slave leaning her naked purple against the green pillars of marble that are above the bath." The poetry speaks for itself, but the pattern is curious. If we take the formula I A O, beginning with PROLOGUE OF THE UNBORN as an added chapter, the pattern goes I A O, I A O, I A O, I A, I A, I A, I A, I A O. One can presume that the failure to reach that last ecstatic O in the in-between chapters were beautiful experiences that were not quite completed.

Liber Cordis Cincti Serpente vel LXV (The Heart Girt With The Serpent) is the record of a more mature experience of the same kind, and is loaded with reverse sexuality. As Crowley goes thru the various levels of experiencing this phenomenon he slips in & out of sex roles easily as could be expected at this height of tantric androgyny. II 54, "Crush out the blood of me, as a grape upon the tongue of a white Doric girl that languishes with her lover in the moonlight." III 40, "I am become like a lucious devil of Italy; a fair strong woman with worn cheeks, eaten out with hunger for kisses." And, III 5, "That which went in as a brave boy of beautiful limbs cometh forth as a maiden, as a little child for perfection." Just about as alchemical as you can get. All of this is summed in the last verse: "So also is the end of the book, and the Lord Adonai is about it on all sides like a Thunderbolt, and a Pylon, and a Snake, and a Phallus, and in the midst thereof He is like the Woman that jetteth out the milk of the stars from her paps; yea, the milk of the stars from her paps."

With DCCCXIII vel Ararita we have the culmination of this experience recounted in a relaxed, almost familiar style. For a taste of the poetry we can try VII 7, "At the touch of the Fire Qadosh the Brilliance of our Lord was absorbed in the Naught of our Lady of the Body of the Milk of the Stars." For the pattern we notice the chapter heads. Seen across the board they run as follows:

I II III IV V VI VIII

Aleph Resh Aleph Resh Yod Tau Aleph

Obviously the formula of Ararita:

A R A R ' Th A

It's literal meaning and notation. This is the seven-fold name used to command the 7 ancient planets in Renaissance Ceremonial Magick. Agrippa, in his OCCULT PHILOSOPHY, gives the Noteriqon thusly:

AGhD RASh AchDVThV RASH "HVDV ThMVDThV
XChD

The meaning of this is roughly: "His principal is one, his beginning is one and his permutations are one." The gematria can be numbered out in the usual way. It is not often that a master of the Art can make his intentions so plain.

Of the other THREE HOLY BOOKS, Liber AL vel Legis and Liber Trigrammaton can be ordered from the O.T.O., and Liber LXI vel Causae can be found in any copy of THE BLUE EQUINOX.

These THREE HOLY BOOKS should prove invaluable to the true seeker of Initiation. May they guide you in that quest.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH**
consecrated to the destruction of the universe

Thus far we have received but one order for the literary salvation of the republic, R.*Tristan's LYRIC SUITE. The order in question came from one C.L.Farmer of Redlands, Ca. Our congratulations to you, Brother Farmer, for your commendable sense & august good taste.

The best news yet is that the Committee for the Pulitzer Prize has found LYRIC SUITE worthy of competition for the 1983 award for a distinguished volume of verse published by an American author. Of course, we may not stand a snowball's chance in hell of winning, but more importantly, the work of a living dyed-in-the-wool Thelemite will be read, scrutinized, & judged by a distinguished panel of the republic's leading newspaper editors & chief executives. Should we win the pithy $1000.00 prize we hereby swear to pay up all our back dues. Also of note: Our beloved camp Master, Brother Jeffrey Price, is musical director of Sweeny Todd the Demon Barber of Fleet Street, scheduled to run from 22 Sept. through infinity. If black-hearted fate has propelled you through Salt Lake in late Sept./early Oct. then call Theatre 138 at 322-0093 & make your reservations. See you there!

HUGIN & MUNIN
ENCAMPMENT

From the Valley of the Ravens to the Seat of the Caliphate et urbi et orbi, greetings. So, this time we will tell it backwards in the real order of the world. The last shall be first. A refugee from the land of France has visited us and turned a lot of things upside down, Lola D. Wolfe. Five Ravens who had decided to take the formal path, regardless of where each had reached in self initiation, back to zero. So five Ravens became the chicks of the Chimera.

Life as a mixed metaphor is no joke but it is never boring. "On a hot summers night, would you offer your throat to the Wolfe with the red roses?" Lola it was wonderful to have you with us, we shall build thee a well. Cthulu is an unpeeled prawn. You made ordeals for us we made ordeals for you. To be serious for one second though, we can vouch for the strength and power of what you did for with and to us. Even if some of each of us is not sure what it was. We don't give praise lightly but you are one bad, mean and heavy Lady. So now we better get the paperwork done to change from ass. encampment to encampment. Or did those 0? mice die in vain? Working backwards; before the abovementioned disturbance of our sleep in this valley, most of the work these last months has been concentrated on getting the question of our locality sorted out. This has now been solved to our satisfaction. The work of translation continues and we all managed more or less to survive the summer holidays. Before the Summer holidays we had grown from three to five and the officers do appreciate having members to be officers for. At this rate of growth we should be able to take over from the Norwegian State Church by the end of the aeon. At Whitsun one of the Ravens was staying with a friend in Stockholm (Sweden) and did a short talk on Stockholm local radio on Magick. One whole person wrote to us afterwards. Some seed may have been sown in the soil of our neighbour country, one never knows. Which brings us back to the point where we sent our last. Riverrun past Adam and Eves.

And furthermore we have kept the Thelemic Feasts!

Fr. Thanatos O^o
for and on behalf of the Ravens of Bergen.

We acknowledge with full hearts the passing of Mr. Samuel Weiser, founder of the world's largest Occult Bookstore and Publishing House. His memory will live with all Thelemites particularly, as his name has been synonymous for decades with making available the works of Aleister Crowley.

...from the Courts of CHAOS... salutations on all points of the Southern Cross. 93.

The Lodge now has a residence
an old colonial-style Sydney terrace house, near the city centre. There are 4 initiates in dwelling and a floating population of 12, also 3 cats,
6 kittens and a St. Bernard.
We have a beautiful big Temple,
and O.T.O. office space on the adjoining balcony.

Despite much confusion
during the first few weeks of getting the Lodge together, we've managed to get quite a lot of Work done.

The Gnostic Mass was celebrated on Full Moon in Pisces with Soror Egeria as Priest and Sorors Maat and Pan ordained as Priestess and Deacon respectively.

Classes have been run on Wednesday nights on the Star
Ruby and Liber Reguli. We're also getting ready for the Vernal Equinox when we intend to do Minervals and other Rituals. We intend to celebrate the Gnostic Mass each Full Moon and use the energy we generate to the benefit of the Lodge and the rest of the O.T.O.

There are now 7 Minervals
we can boast in Oceania Lodge OZ, and all the CHAOS that's been invoked is our excuse for the paper work not yet completed;
but it's on the verge of completion. (Until the next lot arrives anyway.)

We had a visit from Frater Ahephi, Dogfish Chief from Dunedin, New Zealand. Greetings to you Brother, from the Land of OZ.

Besides our Liber Resh, Reguli, Gnostic Masses and Star Ruby's, we've also been getting into the Phoenix Mass quite a lot.
So there is a prolific amount of scarred and bloody chests around at the moment. Also I might add the 93rd current is going tropoo.

By the way we've found
Patrick Kings Astral Twin (Astrologically speaking).
Frater Hermes. On the night of F. Hermes Initiation, as he was introduced the Thurible exploded. Hows that!

GENERAL GRAND LODGE REPORT

My TRIP to Europe

93. I wish to thank the 13 people who donated $ & talismans to help finance my trip to Europe. My report is as follows. I escorted a 30 ft. yellow water tank aboard a C130 out of Travis. No windows, no heat and a great deal of noise. When I reached the East Coast I flew commercial. I landed in Germany 7 Aug LXXVIII. That evening 6 men and 1 woman were initiated 0°. I traveled by Train to France where I initiated 1 man. Proper permission had not been obtained to use the home for my visit. I was asked to get out Thursday evening. I was rescued from the train station by a very fine French Family. I traveled by Train to their home where I stayed for three days. I traveled by train to Bergin Norway, where I stayed for six days. David Riette fed me the best food I could ever remember eating. There was 1 female and 6 Males initiated at Hugin & Munin Encampment. I then traveled by Train to Zargreb Yougoslavia. Once again the people were very wonderful and I felt right at home. There was 1 female and six males initiated 0°. I then traveled by train to the English Chanel. The Trip across the Chanel was Gross. I spent six days at the Warburg institute. The institute was not willing to let the O.T.O. photograph the A. Crowley material. I therefore copied by hand as much material and notes as I was able to do time and Money permitting. Finally when I was down to 10 English Pounds I flew home 'stand by'. Any people willing to help finance my next trip to Europe-- Next August please send donations to Heidrick G.T.G. and stipulate that the money is for that purpose. Love is the law, love under will. LOLA D. WOLFE Grand Secretary General. O.T.O.

As all can see, Lola's back home and O.T.O. has returned to Europe! We at Grand Lodge want to thank all who helped make this initiation visit a success--especially those friends and former Associate members on the scene who made it all possible with their kindness and their strength. We will have a number of new Camps and Chapters opening up in the wake of this visit. Most of them will be found on the Contact page of this 'Link, and we will be adding a few more next issue.

This was not what you might call a smooth operation. The decision had to be made to go almost at the last minute--job changes opened up this chance. We had very little time to notify our candidates of the excursion and quite a few were disappointed by not being able to make the connection. Next year will be another story.

We intend to work on the access+film to the London collection in the mean time. Our problems there seem to come mostly from impending and active suits at law over publication of the Crowley works--remember, you read it first here several months back when we announced Motta's actions against Weisers. The Grand Lodge will be dealing with Motta in the proper legal manner. One can't really blame the Warberg for caution when even an invalid suit against them would be extremely destructive. We do have unlimited access to the MSS there for non-publication and hand copy. This alone will give us a sizable advantage until the slow process of the courts grinds out its course for us.

Speaking of Samuel Weiser's Publishers, elsewhere in this issue we have printed a notice of the passing of the founder of that fine firm. His son has for years continued the tradition of valued publication of Thelemic works. The years of Samuel Weiser were long and productive. We join with Tahuti Lodge in honoring his life. Weiser's distributed some of the Crowley first editions for Frater Saturnus and maintains a close relationship with O.T.O. in New York. We are hopeful that we may end our days in peace and success as individuals even as has the founder of Weiser's.

There are a couple of changes in the location and time of the Rite of Mars since last issue.--please use the list here rather than the one printed last issue.

Some of the Brothers and Sisters in San Francisco and Sacramento have not received last month's Magickal Link at this writing. If your Link is late, check to find out if others in your area have received it. If they have, give the postoffice a complaint. We mail all the domestic Links at the same time and in the same box. Local mail delivery has not been very good lately in some places.

Also, let us know as soon as possible if you move. The Magickal Link is usually not forwarded, even if you have a card in.

By now word may be filtering out about the Caliph's trouble with Canadian customs in Edmonton. To put it simply, the Caliph's luggage was opened, a small pipe found and a question was asked of our Caliph: "Do you believe in Christ?" If that conjunction of events sounds odd to you, welcome to the club! Grady's answer was polite, but it was followed by arrest for a few hours and an odd charge for having the pipe in his luggage. The Caliph was not held longer and he was permitted to visit and leave Canada. Unfortunately, two of our initiates in the Edmonton Airport were given a much rougher treatment by the R.C.M.P -- involving a hospital visit to deal with the injuries. We can only assume that Order papers in the Caliph's luggage led to that odd question and may have had a significant effect on non-Thelemic minds. The Grand Lodge can and will provide most of the funds for the defense of the Caliph and our people in Edmonton, but more is needed. Contributions to the Legal Defense Fund at Nepthis Chapter, P.O. Box 1075, Edmonton, Alberta CANADA are sought. The total tab looks like $1300.00 and up. With a good lawyer much of this may come back, but not all by any means. Religious rights are involved, and the violence upon a sister of the Order by minions of the law with or without provocation is clearly a matter of civil rights. Nobody said freedom is free.

All this brings to mind a point raised by the Caliph some years ago. Crowley once told him that for every gain of major proportions, something important is lost. We saw the theft of a major remaining portion of the Crowley-Germer archive about the time the Order incorporated. Now we are truly international and on the verge of defeating one of the enemies of freedom. A little money and a lot of comfort is a small price to pay to the Lords of the Balance.

Stellar Visions publications are being assembled and inventoried now. With any luck, next issue of the 'Link will be able to list them again under the Thelema Lodge publications list. Cover quality will be a little less, but we may be able to bring down price a bit too. People who bought the "O.T.O. Collection" will be receiving a second copy free in addition to the copy ordered.

Thelema Lodge publications sales and shipment is nearly up through the back-log. The 6-8 weeks delivery projection is still solid on new orders. PTL Tape shipments are still excluded-- these have to be made up one-by-one from master reels and there is just no time this month to get caught up. We will be shipping PTL tapes, but no significant improvement in the months of delay is expected this year. Advertised titles not on the PTL list (see the Thelema Lodge list in the back of this issue) are definitely covered by the prompt delivery promise. The Liber AL's are in stock and ready to go with the rest of the titles.

BISHOPS OF THE E.G.C.! You have a mandatory elective meeting at the end of October (see calendar). Attendance in person or by written proxy is required for the good of the Church and the stability of your See's. 60% Quorum is necessary to elect a new Board.
