Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

From the CALIPH

ON DISTURBING THE TRANQUILITY OF GODS

It is written that the Lord Siva was enjoying His tranquility meditating upon Himself in a higher manifestation as the Lord Vishnu when He realized something. Which meant big trouble for someone for now He had to find the fault and correct it. What he found was that Cupid had shot His heart with the Shaft of Flowers, and that He was deeply in love with this beautiful Goddess who had desired him greatly, but had not been able to break His tranquility to tell Him about it. Having found the cause of His problem, the Lord Siva raised His third eye and burned the little asshole right out of the sky. Only to discover He had another problem. He truly loved His Goddess Queen for Love's Arrow had been true, and He could not resist Her plea that He restore the little Agent of Love for there was this beautiful little Goddess Princess who adored him and was just pining away and they would make such a wonderful couple and besides.... So to restore domestic tranquility He recreated the little idiot and went about His business of establishing how They would meditate since there were now two of Them, which reminded Him of His disturbed tranquility and what of Vishnu? Only to discover He had no problem since the Lord Vishnu was now engaged in much the same domestic situation and don't call me I'll call you for is it not written,

"That which is above is like that which is below, and that which is below is like that which is above, but with a difference?" Viva la difference. And perhaps that is what the Lord Vishnu had in mind in the first place. It's lonely at the top.

Which brings us to the Gods and how to define them. On p. 20 of MT&P Crowley says, "...for the Gods are but names for the forces of Nature themselves." Capital G. Yet he normally refers to elemental forces with a small g. After all,, just add AL to any set of letters and shake and you have a "god," i.e. angel. Hagiel, e.g. HG'AL = 49 = Intelligence of Venus, from whence we derive the word "hag" no doubt. Whereas Nuit says first AL I:11, "both their Gods & their men are fools," yet She follows with I:21, "there is no other God than me, and my lord Hadit." Which obviously makes "God" a twosome. As in Elohim (AIH'M = 86) masculine plural of feminine singular. Or, as we say in the Gnostic Mass:

"Male=female, quintessential, one, Man-being veiled in woman-form."
Still, small g or big G, the g/Gods are not to be trifled with, and there are plenty of warnings about banishings and precautions, such as Crowley took in Liber 418. Another funny thing about angels is that they have to be turned on. Thus if you want your angel to see, e.g. you would have to give it eyes, since angels are blind until you turn them ON = 120, The Eye of the Fish, a name of GOD. Otherwise it is best not to disturb them except in the course of an ordinary working relation, as they are immortal and your physical body is not.

I wonder what would happen if you disturbed the tranquility of Venus in the midst of the most fantastically erotic billions of years orgasm it is possible to imagine? Reminds me of the sci-fi story I read once where all of man's progress-history-invention-everything from whenever on was because this space biker had blown a fuze in this particular part of the galaxy and had to develop a culture with laboratory equipment of such clinical precision that he could obtain the refined material he needed to go home. In this instance, Venus having found the mischevious sprites who had tangled the dircuits and having given them proper work to do, is seen disappearing in a cosmic bang of pure ecstasy having created Her male companion, which had been the whole thing to begin with. Like Vishnu. Blessed be they who catch the faintest flash of that supernal splendour. I can hear the happy couple now as they disappear in a cloud of incense:

Well, thank god that's over. Labor disputes are such a bore. Now what shall we do for the rest of Forever?

All that energy has to come from someplace. Speaking of which, Auntie has Her color organ fixed. She says it works beautifully now that She has fine tuning. No more discordance in the lower planes.

Yes, my Lord. Now come to bed and let's forget all that...

"Work & be our bed in working!"

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

In the year since our last report in the Magical Link, a lot of plans had to be shelved due to pressing circumstances, shortages of energy and lack of coordinated planning. Collective Lodge activities have been primarily curtailed and work has progressed along independent individual lines.

A new effort is now underway to revive and reorganize ongoing and unfinished Lodge projects. A core group of two III°, one II°, one I° and one 0° is currently active.

Preparations are being made for a new presentation of the Gnostic Mass.

No Initiations are being scheduled at present, but the groundwork is being laid for renewed availability of Initiation here in the near future.

A fund has been established for the publication of Kaaba #6 which will feature an anthology of hard to find Crowley writings and original works by local initiates. All who have sent in orders or who have unexpired subscriptions will receive a copy as soon as it is ready. We apologize to all who have written for the long delay and the lapse in correspondence.

Love is the law, love under will.

HERU-RA-HA LODGE, BABALON-THERION CHAPTER
DEMOLAY, ABRAHADABRA, AHA?, AND 93 CAMPS

March came in like a lion and continued to roar all month in Southern California. Heru-ra-ha Lodge Profess house was booked for 18 days during which the handwritten facsimile of THE BOOK OF THE LAW was printed by the Guild of the Developmentally Disabled.

Babalon-Therion Chapter continued with the very popular classes in Hatha Yoga on the evenings of March 2, 9, 16, and 23 in Culver City. Along with her skill as Yoga instructor, Carolyn Felts is also showing her magical prowess by actually making the class work out on their asana and pranayama.

Lon Milo DuQuette's Saturday afternoon classes in Thelemic Ritual was held on the 13th and 20th at Heru-ra-ha Lodge-house.

The Guild of Enochian Studies met on the 4th and 21st at H-R-H. Starting in April the Guild will meet at the home of chairperson David Wilson's home in Long Beach.

Initiations? You bet! 4 SECOND DEGREE initiations on the 6th and 17th, MINERVAL on the 12th and FIRST DECREE on the 27th.

The Mass of the Gnostic Catholic Church was performed 4 times in March at Our Lady of the Stars Temple E. G. C.. First on the afternoon of the 10th (followed by the Knighthood ceremony of the Knights of Baphomet) then on the evening of the 10th (followed by another Knighthood ceremony of the Knights of Baphomet), then again on the evening of the 20th to celebrate the Spring Equinox, the Equinox of the Gods and the Feast of the Supreme Ritual (David Wilson treated us with a recitation of the Supreme Invocation of Horus), and yet again on the afternoon of the 21st. Our Lady of the Stars Priestess, Lady Constance DuQuette, performed two baptisms and Bishop DuQuette performed a Church confirmation after Mass on the 20th.

APRIL

On April 2, 3, & 4 Babalon-Therion Chapter is hosting a trip to Joshua Tree National Monument for Light, Life, Love and Liberty in the desert.

Nuit-Hathor Sanctuary E. G. C. in Los Angeles is hosting a 3 day Seminar on April 9, 10, and 11 devoted to an in-depth study of the Gnostic Catholic Mass.

The Second Southern California O. T. O. Members meeting will be hosted by DeMolay Camp, Pasadena followed by a tour of the Huntington Library and Gardens.

Members from out of town are reminded to make reservations for June-July if they wish to visit Heru-ra-ha Profess House Retreat. Information and fee schedule write: P. O. Box 3111 Newport Beach California. 92663

The Encampment of Aiwass

*Do what thou wilt shall be the whole

*Safely nestled in the shadow of Grand gathering unto itself those few souls who seek the path of enlightenment.

While there is no overt external acts* which warrant our comments, we are finding ourselves forming a group which displays the potential for great growth.

Part of the delay in becoming truly active is caused by the current trip in the VA Hospital for the Camp Leader. But that, too, will pass. In time we will find more to say about our work. For the present, let it suffice to say that we are on a great Winter retirement and just starting to "bud."

"Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Springtime in Georgia is especially beautiful, flowers in bloom everywhere. It was a perfect time to have our Caliph visit with us again. I enjoyed very much being able to perform the Minerval Ritual with him. Being my first experience, I must say it was great. Oyez. We initiated eight new Minervals into our most Holy Order. We are already planning our next Minerval Initiation. Also looking forward to the Caliph's next visit to the Land of Adventure. By that time our Temples will be properly set up and we will be able to do Mass.

The Caliph brought with him on this visit many things, among these treasures were some interesting slides. In viewing them it makes us here at Camp Spare feel more at home with the Order. Some of the Rites we looked at were done well. Well, its to bad the Grand Lodge doesn't offer such slides as these to it's Sister Lodges, Chapters and Camps. It's a great way to get to know each other. It's also nice to see other views on the performing of Rituals.

Grady you were marvelous, Thank you.

FIRST GNOSTIC MASS IN NEW ZEALAND

After an exhilarating initiation of 7 people into the O.T.O. in Dunedin on Sat. Mar. 6, a Mass was held on the Sun. evening. Fortunately we were granted the use of a beautiful temple which is used by the Sisters of the Silver Star for their magical work, so the vibrations were already well taken care of. On Sun. afternoon 4 initiates prepared the temple and went through a rehearsal of their lines. Subsequently 3 were baptised into the church, Sr Egeria performing her first baptismal ceremony. The altar was artistically decorated and the candlelight threw whimsical shadows against the opaque walls. Simple, sincere, scintillating and superb. Adjectives alone are not sufficient.

As the congregation of 16 (including a child of 2) filed into the temple the electrifying atmosphere could be felt. Fitting the premise that things are upside down in this corner of the earth plane, they entered without raiment and the Priestess (Sr Egeria), Deacon (Fr Aljilwah) and Doorkeeper (Sr Selena) were the only ones clothed. True to tradition, though, the Priestess disrobed at the appointed time. In surveying the subsequent scenario it was interesting to note that 3SS initiates were on the white side of the temple; OTO members on the black. Significant or merely coincidental? Although everyone except Sr Egeria was new to this service it flowed extremely radiantly. At the conclusion no one wanted to leave the harmonious surroundings! So instead we had an "excuse" to finish the consecrated wine, a magical brew named 'Gnostic Wine', made by Fr Aephi. At this juncture the little child went up to the font and blessed each member herself. Certainly a magical child: no doubt because she was a regular visitor to the temple right through gestation. A memorable service - one that will be ever remembered by me.

THE KNIGHT'S KORNER

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

FACT - The Knights of Baphomet are patterned after the Knights Templars.

FACT - The Knights Templars were also known as the "Knights of Jesus Christ."

FACT - The Knights of Baphomet accept the writings in the Book of the Law.

FACT - The Book of the Law says, "With my Hawk's head I peck at the eyes of Jesus as he hangs upon the cross."
(Liber Al III:51)

QUESTION - Is there a conflict of interest here? Are the Knights of Baphomet turning their back on the heritage of the Templars?

ANSWER - NO! Crowley, in "BOOK FOUR", talks about Jesus, Mohammed and Buddha as examples of Masters. Then what does it mean in the chapter of Liber Al most associated with the OKB about pecking out the eyes of Jesus?

The writer does not intend to interpret Liber Al (or anything else, for that matter) to the reader. But one possible explanation of that verse, at least one that seems to fit, is as follows.

Christians need to seek their salvation in some manifestation EXTERNAL to themselves. They need a diety who is removed from them to which they can move towards and emanate.

Gnostics, on the other hand, know that the salvation (or Jesus) is within themselves, and it is their own Holy Guardian Angel who will bring them to enlightenment. Further, if we consider the crimes against man caused "all for the Love of Jesus", perhaps Ra-Hoor-Khuit is doing Jesus a great service by pecking out his eyes, preventing Jesus from seeing all that is done "in His name."

Grand Lodge Report

For a change, this report is written by several members of Thelema Lodge, rather than your usual reporter (the GTG). Check the Calendar page for the address of Grand Lodge; and now some words from our local Lights!

The Celebration for the three days of the writing of The Book of the Law was a Howling Success. Over forty people attended each night. Considering that we mailed 93 letters, and the weather was nasty throughout, we got a good return.

The first night was hosted by Nuit-Urania Chapter of El Sobrante. Soror Chandria read the first chapter of The Book of the Law, and then led the Full Moon ritual. Glenn Turner, a well known Wicca person who recently became a woman and a sister of the O.T.O., has this to say about the ritual: "The ritual after the reading was the best amalgamation of a Wicca (NROGD) ritual with Crowley poetry I have yet seen. The quarters were Nuit, Hadit, Babalon and Therion. The invocation of the Goddess was done in great form by Frater Vandemeer with Pan's "Hymn to Artemis" from Crowley's Rites of Eleusis. It was wonderful!"

Soror Ankh-a-em-Maat, IV⁰ writes about Hadit's celebration on April 9th: "The Serpents coils enswathed the multitude as Fr. Anpu of Stellar Visions Chapter read the Second Chapter of Liber AL vel Legis. Soror Cinamon began with a banishing of the Temple and feasting followed with further invocations of a more private nature. Everyone seemed to follow Hadit's instructions as to suitable invocations and worshiping (See Liber AL; CII, v22.)

The party migrated over to Nuit Urania Chapter, where spontaneous frenzy and abandonment were in order. Once more the O.T.O. let their hair down and proved that werewolves are excellent dancers."

On the third night of the celebration Good Old Mighty Whats-His-Face read the Third chapter of The Book of the Law. It was so hot, the steam rose, the precipitation flowed, the perception knowed and the persperation rolled; as did the drums,.....Dum de Dum. Alden Jeffries, soon to be world famous drummer made a "Wiz Choice" and played solo drum sets accompanied by Haggai Hell Howler and other strange weird rightists. There was food and drink in abundance (not to mention the other dances and subdances)." Even King Tut was able to strut. The potluck was great! Some of us even got laid back when Lola D Wolfe did her world-famous stripper routine; but being a safe and sane pagan, she forgot to take off her clothes.

One of the highlights of the evening was the beer run. This act was out of sight. It was so popular, we called for more and then even more. People were throwing money just to see another beer run. Have you ever seen a beer run?

Watch this space next month for announcement and details of an O.T.O. convention at the end of July.

Be Well and be wealthy.

Dog fish Tribe Unleashed in Oceania Lodge!

The Dogfish Tribe in the Valley of Dunedin, New Zealand, is making waves within the Oceania Lodge. The Worthy Queen of Oceania, Sr. Egeria XI, initiated tribal chief, Fr. Ahephi, in January and came to Dunedin in March to conduct Minervals which brought six more into the tribe. While in the southern city, Sr. Egeria also twice celebrated the Gnostic Mass, baptised several into the Gnostic Catholic Church, and ordained two Priests and a Deacon.

Following the New Moon and with the Sun and Moon both in Aries, the Dogfish had their first tribal meeting on March 27, which included a mass performance of the Mass of the Phoenix ritual. The future is likely to be active for this group which has varied magickal interests, is already experienced in ritual work, and is keenly performing Minerval duties and pursuing the 93 current. Recent feasts and wine supplies have also been dealt with with a will! If you're worried about the name Dogfish (Liber AL; II, 19) just remember that everything is topsyturvy on the otherside of the world.

Phoenix Lodge
4 Farnham, C.P. 523, Place Bonaventure
Montreal, Québec Canada H5A 1C3

There have been many new developments at Phoenix Lodge.

We conducted field initiations in Toronto on 23 January, bringing 12 new Minervals into Toronto's Amon-Ra Chapter (formerly Konx Om Pax Encampment). On 1 February we welcomed 5 new Minervals in Montréal, in initiations hosted by Dragon's Electrum Arc Encampment. More Minerval initiations are planned for both Montréal and Toronto in coming months, and 1st initiations will begin in Montréal in late April, with the assistance of Ra-Hoor-Khuit Lodge in Syracuse.

Three Guilds have been formed in Montréal: Enochian Studies, Translators', and Survival. They will hold their respective first meetings on 8, 9, and 10 April. The Enochian Studies Guild would welcome new material from corresponding Guilds at other Lodges working the system; we will reciprocate with photocopies of unpublished Enochiana in our archives. The Translators' Guild is primarily concerned with English-to-French translations of the basic Thelemic literature, but Arabic, Japanese and Russian translations of Liber AL are underway (guess what our opening and closing remarks mean in English!). The Survival Guild is concerned with cooperative purchasing of survivalist supplies and equipment, land acquisition and development, skills exchange and (of course) a little futurology.

The Lodge has acquired an "industrial base" (Singer/Friden text and display typesetting machines and a Multilith printing press) and we plan to issue a bilingual journal entitled Horizons, as well as a Canadian O.T.O. newsletter, occasional papers and routine intra-Order printing jobs.

The Hugues de Payens Encampment, named to honour the memory of the Knights Templars' founder, has been chartered by the Caliph. This Encampment is the administrative council of Ordre du Temple d'Orient Inc./Ordo Templi Orientis Inc. The members of this service-Encampment are appointed by the Caliph's national coordinator, and are the corporate officers of O.T.O. Inc. (Canada). The Lodge intentionally made the administrative council of the corporation an Encampment, and as we grow into the higher degrees here in years to come, the corporate board will remain an Encampment (a.k.a. "keeping the planes distinct").

Two Encampments, Sebra (in Montréal) and Excalibur Sphinx (in Boston) have disbanded. Most of Sebra Camp's intended functions are subsumed in the Translators' Guild; Excalibur Sphinx plans to relocate and chooses to work privately.

Centres of initiation needing copies of Liber AL may order the 93 Publishing paperback edition from Metamorphoses, 3418A Park Avenue, Montréal, Québec, H2X 2H5, Canada. The edition is printed in red and black ink with the Stele in full colour, and the text of AL is typeset in parallel to the MS. 10 copies cost $6.66 (U.S.) postpaid bookrate (use O.T.O. letterhead and prepay via money order when ordering). Liber AL in French, Jack Parsons' essays, works by A.O. Spare and other material are also obtainable via Metamorphoses, who will send a price list on request.

Konx Om Pax Encampment

"Toronto as a city carries out the idea of Canada as a country. It is a calculated crime both against the aspirations of the soul and the affections of the heart." (Aleister Crowley)

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, and when the thunders died and the dust cleared, Toronto seemed to have developed a nasty reputation. None other than the Great Beast 666 leveled his acerbic pen at the city in his autobiography The Confessions of Aleister Crowley. But in its defense, let us say that Crowley's condemnations lean toward anachronism. For cities change as do people. And Toronto, although it may be the Great Bluenose of the North, is not without its unique charm, magickally or otherwise.

In fact the spiritual atmosphere in Toronto is quite rich. Unfortunately, in recent years only small groups worked on the 93 current in isolated areas along independent lines with little or no coordination. When O.T.O. reached Toronto a Minerval aspired to leadership, applied for an encampment to be tentatively called IAOSABAO, only to be turned down. Shall we say inappropriate behaviour put a cloud over the group... and darkness and confusion remained over the face of the Valley. (We still hear from this I.S. fellow now and then offering Aleister Crowley courses where the students are requested not to read The Book of the Law.)

And so there was another idea. And Konx Om Pax was the name assigned to this idea. Action was initiated, typewriter and paper taken to hand and an application for an encampment composed. The application of Konx Om Pax announced the intended "creation of an effective portal for the 93 current in Toronto." The application was sent. And the spirit of O.T.O. hovered over the waters...

On September 28, 1981 e.v. the prototype was conceived and Konx Om Pax was established as a fully recognized encampment of O.T.O. From that time on what was on paper transformed slowly into reality... Scattered initiates in the Toronto area were notified of the existence of an official branch of O.T.O. Various groups were contacted, clearing up what confusion resulted from the aborted IAO SABAO group. And preparations were made for the first initiations in the Valley of Toronto. The word was put out, O.T.O. (T.O.) was alive and well.

The appointed time arrived Jan. 23, 1982 e.v. and the final transformation occurred. In what proved to be a fascinating magickal operation, Frater Homo Homini Deus and Frater Aleph Tao observed as 12 aspirants uttered the words "Do what thou wilt", and the encampment known as Konx Om Pax emitted its first ray of light.

Subsequent to that time the first general meeting was held Feb. 14, 1982 e.v. and the organizational work initiated. Fra. Lloyd Crawford was named Secretary and Fra. Tralla appointed as Treasurer.

The vernal equinox was celebrated by a general meeting and the playing of our master's voice. At the meeting's end the doors were opened to the public for a celebration involving animated films, a jazz trio put together by Fra. Marcus, an impromptu punk concert and general madness into the small hours.

What is this light known as Konx Om Pax? What is its eventual path? Subsequent reports shall clarify. And as for Toronto being "a crime both against the aspirations of the soul and the affections of the heart"... indeed, we shall see!
