THE EXPRESSION OF THE WILL OF GOD THROUGH MAN

Man is primarily a spiritual being slowly re-awakening from sense consciousness to spiritual awareness and a higher expression of controlled creative power and subsequent manifestation. In the beginning he was created by God "in His image and likeness." From a state of innocent enjoyment of his creative faculties of thought and feeling, whereby he added to the glory of the Kingdom of Heaven in which he abided, he came to an individual decision to experiment with these thought and feeling centers independent of the direction and the will of God.

God, The Father-Mother Principle, counselled man on the wise use of thought and feeling explaining that it would be dangerous for him to experiment with individual creative endeavors not inspired by the Divine desire to manifest perfection. This admonition was not heeded by all the children of God and the moment the use of free will prompted creations not born of love and the desire to expand God's perfection, the fall of man took place and human nature was born through man's original sin of disobedience and rebellion against the Will of God. Through the fall, these Sons and Daughters of God created a realm for themselves, externalizing their own human thought and feeling forms which became the manifold evils, diseases and distresses, chaining the individual and the race as a whole to their own self created limitations.

Man was created in the first place to fulfill a glorious destiny, to become co-creator with the Father-Mother God in externalizing the perfect ideas from the Heart and Mind of the Universal First Cause. He was placed upon a planet which took aeons of time to prepare for his comfort and happiness. He was endowed with the creative powers of the Father-Mother God and given free will to develop that part of the Divine Plan which he, individually, might choose to forward by the voluntary contribution of his own life, talents, gifts and capacities, in glorious cooperation with the Divine Parents.

Every Being did not take part in this wilful disobedience. Many remained true to the will of the Father, fulfilled Their individual Divine destinies and returned to the Heart of the Father with Their own creative powers developed in love, wisdom and discrimination. Many of these faithful and obedient ones volunteered to return to the planet they had just left, to endeavor to turn their erring and suffering brethren from the downward path of separate and selfish desire. They were successful in awakening some who were wise enough to heed their promptings. Many of these grateful ones, returning to the Kingdom, joined what is known as The Great White Brotherhood, an organization composed of members of the Heavenly Host from other planets and universes, who are directly concerned with evolution of this planet and its peoples, as well as liberated spirits who have trod the pathways of earth and, through the sublimation of their human natures, entered the ranks of the God-free. The Beloved Archangel Michael, the Blessed Maha Chohan, the Masters Saint Germain, Morya El, Kuthumi, the Beloved Master Jesus and His Mother Mary, are a few of the members of This Brotherhood.

The purpose of creation, as well as the reasons for sustaining any system of worlds, is to allow each lifestream called forth from the Universal Heart of God to unfold a spiritual nature and become Master of his own energy through the conscious control and use of the creative faculties of thought, feeling and action. In order to become such a Master-Presence, the threefold nature of the God Parents must be nurtured and developed within every man. The development of this triple activity of the Holy Spirit, which is the Individualized Christ through self-conscious endeavor, is the purpose for man's existence in the Universe. Each man must become a God director of his own life plan (The Father); an externalized expression of God through which both The Will of God and the gifts of the Holy Spirit radiate to bless life (The Son) and a dispenser of the Holy Comfort and consecrated Spirit of God to the Universe (the Holy Spirit).

Man, containing within himself the possibilities of expressing the true nature of God, has indwelling within his heart, a focus of the God-Presence. This center of individualized God-consciousness, Jesus referred to as the Father within. It was revealed to Moses as the "I Am Presence." When Moses asked God "Whom shall I say sent me?" God answered, "Say I Am that I Am," thus revealing the name of God in man, the unity of man with God and the universal brotherhood of all men through the use of the words "I Am" to denote individualized being.

The Beloved Jesus has said that when he repeatedly referred to the Father within, as the power that accomplished all the seemingly miraculous manifestations during His ministry, He meant to point man to the Presence of God within each heart through which every man might partake of the natural God powers and qualities that are within his own nature. Every individual sooner or later must make a contact with the God Presence that is centered within his own physical heart.

When Jesus said "I Am the way, the truth and the life" He identified Himself with Universal Spirit of God, "I Am," a focus of which is within the heart of every man and which contains, in embryo, the full perfection of the Godhead, just as every drop of sea water contains all the potentialities of the great ocean.

For what purpose has man been endowed with life? Solely for the exploitation of personal interests and pleasures? No! God who has so freely endowed each individual with the limitless use of life has a purpose and plan for His creation. Life, through the beating heart, floods God's love and sustaining power through every cell and atom of man's mind, body, being and world, radiating to all he contacts. This life, God's gift to man, is charged with the particular qualities of thought and feeling which each man charges into that primal life and which influences the world around him for good or evil. The conscious qualification of primal life, so that it is a blessing and a benediction to the rest of the Universe, is the Will of God for each individual. The specific blessing which each person may contribute to the impersonal benefit of all evolution is determined by the individuals' will, talents, capacities, and interests. As each flower expresses itself through various colors, forms and perfumes, all contributing to the beauty of creation, so the nourishment and expansion of each individual's Christ nature contributes to the consummation of God's original Divine Plan for the earth and her people.

Each man's heart is a cup, a Holy Grail, a Holy of Holies within which is anchored the Presence of God Whose gift of life sustains the physical form and consciousness of each lifestream. No discord of the outer-self can ever enter into this Presence of God within man to despoil its peace and perfection. It is a sanctuary in times of trouble, a spiritual prompting in times of confusion, a source of strength in times of weakness. Think on this and ask the Presence of God within to pour forth from the Holy Grail the essence of love and light into the outer consciousness, to teach man all about himself and to make him all God's Presence wants him to be. Only then will man be Master of his world and life and the substance and energy that flows into it. Only then will the creative powers of man's world be developed and externalize the Will of God. Then can man say in truth, "Heretofore the Father worketh, now the Father and I work:"

The development of every man's individual Christ Nature and the combining of the gifts, powers, talents and radiations thus developed for the benefit of the entire human race is the endeavor to which this Sanctuary has devoted itself. Thus, as the light of even a penny candle contributes to the light of the Sun, so does the expanded light and love of every individual contribute to the progress of God's Divine Plan through the earth and to the evolutions unfolding toward ultimate perfection in, through, and around the planet.

INVOCATION

As you withdraw into the Holy of Holies of your own inner dwelling place, as you retire into the Christos within, as you enter in through the great Golden Door of your own Holy Temple of Light, look back upon the spiral of Light

Substance upon which you have ascended into that state of consciousness. It has been said to you that there is no time or space, but the ascending of the consciousness has the effect which gives to the outer consciousness the sense of time and space. As I behold each of you who have sincerely endeavored to enter in, and those of you who have accomplished the severance of the outer mind and arisen into the state of Christ Consciousness to which I have bid you, I see you as though your garments have become transmuted out of the garments which you wear, into trailing and beauteous garments of Light, which are suitable to the state of consciousness into which you have arisen. Within the Holy of Holies all things become holy.

What implies holiness? To be holy is to be pure of mind, feeling, desire, pure in body and soul. To be pure is to be holy. When we speak of the Holy of Holies, we speak of the state of pure Christ Consciousness, within which there is no human concept, but only the manifestation of the Christ Concept. You presume your outer mind to have devised the appearance of this Holy of Holies into which you enter. In the beginning you were requested to image within your outer mind the Holy of Holies. This was in order to help you to perceive that which was beautiful, pure and set apart from your daily existence, from your customary state of consciousness and from the world in which you live and move and have your being. You will agree that this world is lacking in purity. All manner of impurities assail your ears, your sight and your entire beings and worlds every moment of your existence in the material form. It becomes increasingly so. It was desired that you should begin to accept a state of consciousness apart from the outer world in which you ordinarily move, in order that you could become accustomed to new rates of vibration, and move from transformation to transition.

An individual who lives and moves and has no consciousness of any other rate of vibration or state of being other than his worldly state would pass into a state of severe shock when suddenly moved from that state into a sphere of consciousness with which he is not familiar, particularly into a higher state of consciousness. You are, therefore, being prepared to accept those thoughts, conditions and appearances, which you will encounter when you make the transition from the human to the Christ state permanently. For many of you this will take place sooner than you dream. Even if it were not to take place until another embodiment, it is the wisdom of the Masters which indicates that you should begin to be prepared. As a matter of fact the preparation within many of you has been taking place for many embodiments. The service which you render to life, though you are at the moment wholly unconscious of it, has been as out-picturing this preparation by the constant raising of your consciousness. No one of you has functioned in the lower strata of the mortal consciousness for many embodiments. The continual raising of the vibratory actions of your beings and worlds has already begun taking place. However, in most instances you, as individualized beings, have had no awareness of that which was taking place. It is now your privilege to understand in your outer conscious mind, that which is taking place. It will come about for many of you; that transformation will take place while you are still active in the mortal form. You, therefore, understand that you must begin to comprehend that which will take place and is already taking place.

None of you are functioning entirely in the worldly consciousness. Temporarily, for a few hours of each day, you become (of necessity) embroiled in the consciousness of the world about you, some in a greater degree than others. But, for more time than you are aware, your true spiritual ego is occupied in services in other realms. In drawing you together at specific intervals during the cycle of the seven day period, we are taking this opportunity to acquaint you consciously with that which is taking place within you, invoking your cooperation. For many years you have been engaged in invoking the cooperation of the Messengers, the Teachers, the Masters and Exalted Ones. Have you ever thought or believed that these Beings were invoking your cooperation? What a surprise this must be to you! I, as well as all the others, have constantly invoked your cooperation. Do you think you could have been drawn together this night, as though by some magnetic force, unless some power had drawn you together here? Think of all the places, circumstances and situations, that might have claimed your attention, had not a magnetic force, of which you were perhaps unconscious, drawn you together here. You believe yourselves to have come of your own free will. Indeed you did, after having received the inaudible call of My Invocation. Had you thought of this before? Perhaps it is unkind to strip you of your feeling of importance and self-will. Yet, I desire to bring to your attention that there are many forces acting, of which you have never dreamed, yet because of which, you continually move.

Have you not from time to time experienced a sudden inspiration, a thought, a desire, an idea, which came to you on what you thought was the spur of the moment -- an idea, a thought wholly unrelated to anything with which you were presently occupied? What think you was the cause of that inspiration? What was the source from which it came? I say that there are legions of angelic Beings who walk beside you. They are frequently able to pierce through that hard shell of self-will and deposit within your thinking processes some inspiration. Furthermore, each of you have claimed the attention of an Ascended Being. Each of you are under the radiation of a Master. At times all of you together are under the radiation of one Master who is not, however, constantly in attendance, but who is the directing force which governs and controls and directs the activities of the group for a specific purpose at a specified time.

My Plan

At this particular time, I have the privilege and opportunity of being the Focus of Light from the Great Cathedral of Peace, bringing to you a plan which I have been deemed worthy to experiment with. I am enveloping you as a group, in a plan for the purpose of expanding your concept of Divine Love. Men upon the earth have had few experiences in all their many lifetimes, which could be characterized as Divine Love. All men have known love as men and women of the earth know love. Men and women have experienced passion and devotion, but only a few have experienced Divine Love. It is difficult to describe to you something which you have not experienced, for it is beyond your comprehension. But it is possible to prepare you for such an experience. As I behold you, I perceive progress. Therefore, as an Ascended Being on the Ray of Golden Light Substance from the Cathedral of Peace, under the direction of your Great Master Jesus Sananda, I am That One entrusted with the authority to invoke your cooperation in My Plan.

You see, therefore, that invocation is not something which only you yourselves participate in, but it is an activity which all of Heaven participates in. Each individual in whatever strata or sphere of consciousness he presently occupies, utilizes the power of invocation. It is not limited to man. Invocation is the direct communication system between spheres. You invoke the Presence, the Power, the Quality of your Ascended Master friends continually in your invocations. An invocation is an activity of calling into action those powers and activities of Light which you desire to see manifest. You can readily understand that in My position, I too utilize the power of invocation. But in this particular instance, I have not invoked the Powers of the great Master Jesus. Instead I have invoked your powers, you Light, your Love, your cooperation.

Hope

Do you know, dear friends, that Hope is a form of special invocation? Hope is one of the three great qualities, of Faith, Hope and Love. Man has never understood why Hope was so important. Hope is the power of invocation. It is a subtle, often unspoken desire. A desire in itself is an invocation. It might not be addressed to any specific source of power but in itself it is an invocation. Faith, Hope and Love, these three, are God Qualities, but the greatest of these is Love. I have come to invoke the Light within your hearts and to draw it into a state of conscious Being wherein Divine Love can reveal itself. We have begun in the octave in which you presently dwell by forming links which give to you, each one, the opportunity to begin to express the added understanding, kindness, thoughtfulness and the Love which you should feel toward those to whom you might be the least attracted, or in some instances toward those who need your Love particularly.

I have observed each one of you carefully. Tonight I have invoked your conscious attention to arise into your own Christ Mind to whatever degree you are capable. As I have beheld you making the endeavor to approach that state into which I have called you, I perceive your garments transmuted into garments of shimmering beauty. I see you leaving a spiralling trail of Light upon which your consciousness has traveled, not through space but through conscious awareness, which gives the appearance of space, as I am able to perceive the results. You are seated quietly in your places. You are unaware of the beautiful spiralling trail of Light Substance which your own consciousness is emitting as it spirals upward into a closer attunement with the Christ Ego indwelling within each one of you. You have difficulty as mortals in conceiving of yourselves as multiple Beings, but that is what you presently are. You are operating in an interblended series of forms, each vibrating at a different rate, serving a different purpose, yet interblending so perfectly that no distance, time or space separates one body from another. You can, if you meditate upon this state of being, enter into a slight awareness of the idea of timelessness and spacelessness. Still, as your consciousness moves from the mortal to the Christ consciousness, there appears a spiral of dazzling Light like a skyrocket moving through the night sky, a trail of beautiful starry substance. It is not permanent. Like the skyrocket, it fades, but the consciousness remains fixed where your will, or some superior will, invokes and sustains it for a given period.

Let it be known that you cannot be detained against your will. However, let us presume that we are working with a student or a disciple who desires to ascend into the state of Christ Consciousness. This individual may find it difficult to force the conscious attention away from the physical mind. The Master stands in a sphere of Light into which it is desired to draw the disciple. He sends forth a ray of Light into the consciousness of this disciple, which acts as a magnetic power to assist him in severing the thoughts, feelings and circumstances by which his body is surrounded, and by the magnetic pull of the Master's Attention or Invocation that student is assisted in raising the consciousness to the state which the Master desires, in order that certain things may be activated or manifested to the disciple. If this disciple becomes alarmed, or for some reason desires not to fulfill the experience but to return to the outer mind, he is free to do so. The desire of the individual breaks that current of Light, and the disciple returns to his former state of consciousness. The Master could, if he desired, seal the attention of the pupil, but this is not the Master's prerogative and not in accord with Divine Wisdom and therefore is not done. You need never be concerned that you will be drawn against your will into any state of being to which you have not agreed and of your own free will decided to cooperate.

I have stood within the force field of this Sanctuary and invoked the power of Light within the consciousness of each one of you and, to the degree that you were willing, you have been drawn to Me by the gentle magnetic pull of My heart. You have of your own free will consented to ascend and to cooperate with My plan. The conscious thought did not necessarily pass through your mind that you wanted to cooperate, for there is much thought passing through your mind of which you are not aware. There is much thought taking place in your Higher Mental Body of which, for the most part, there is no awareness in the mortal mind. The higher mind has given its consent for cooperation, when it recognized and received the stimulus of the invocation from My Being. I am endeavoring to explain mechanics to you, not powers or personalities. Think not of Me but of the way and means. I send forth an invocation, which is a desire or a hope.

I hope sincerely that each one of you will desire to ascend into your Christ Consciousness and thus communicate with Me. I have so voiced My desire, intent and purpose within My own sphere, as well as in yours. That Ray of desire, or hope, has gone forth like a great thym of Light into the lower mind of each of you through the spoken word of your Preceptress at the beginning of the service. My mind and intent was made known to your Mortal Mind in the event that your own conscious Mind had not consciously received My summons. When you were invited to raise your consciousness into your own Holy of Holies, you either desired to cooperate, or you did not. You either endeavored to cooperate, or you did not. Your friends, your fellow students, have no awareness of whether you made the effort or not. I stand within your forcefield. It is to Me as though I beheld a moving picture as I behold your individual consciousnesses, clothed in their Light garments, rising and spiralling upward. You are moving of your own free will, to be sure, but you are all moving upon the substance and energy, the magnetic pull of My request and invocation. It is a simple movement of the energy, but as I endeavor to describe it to you, words, being awkward and clumsy, occupying much time and energy, make a mystery of a simple act, that is as instantaneous as you allow it in its action to become.

Let us say that the invocation is extended to the student, who is busy in his Mortal Mind, thinking of some act or circumstance or plan quite irrelevant to the particular purpose of which we speak. His attention is, therefore, not instantly engaged in the invocation or invitation to arise with the group. There is seldom, if ever, an instantaneous response in a group. Individuals are loath to cut away the consciousness of the outer world and to obey, at a signal, a request for attention. As children in school, you will oft remember that your teacher rapped on the desk many times calling for attention before the room was quiet and the eyes of the pupils were fastened upon the teacher with the mind ready to receive that which the teacher desired to impart. Within a group of adults, I find this same thing takes place. Some individuals will be engaged in the arrangement of their garments. Others will be interested in the temperature of the room or concerned with other matters, such as what happened in their individual lives in the hours preceding the service. To engage the complete attention of a group of individuals requires what you call time. If it were not for the magnetic attraction of my invocation upon your attention, you would never all give your attention at a given moment. You are fast growing into a disciplined body of individuals who do respond more and more quickly to a given stimulus or invocation from a Master's Heart than a group of individuals who have not had the discipline or the opportunity which you have had.

I speak to commend you, rather than to criticize, for the sincerity of your hearts is a beautiful thing to behold. I would that you could perceive the beauty of sincerity and spiritual desire, moving in an aura of delicate Light about your spiritual bodies. Each of you have moved into that spiritual consciousness, some to a greater degree than others, which is natural, but each of you have touched to some degree into the consciousness of your own Christos. It has taken this long since I began speaking to you to have attracted the complete attention of this group. You find it hard to believe. You may say to yourselves, "Was it I who caused the delay?" To be sure it was some one or more who caused the delay. The delay is caused by the reluctance and the lack of discipline in the student, to instantaneously lay aside the consciousness of the outer world. There are many disciplined groups who assemble quietly in their meeting room and prepare themselves, as you have been requested to do. To them I send the magnetic force of My invocation ahead of time silently in order to draw the attention of the individuals into a group, which has already stilled the outer mind. This saves much time and energy. Therefore, I request again that each one of you enter into a preparation previous to the invocation of the service. Prepare yourselves to move instantly into the state of consciousness, which the Master, or whosoever presides may require. This is My request, repeated as a necessary preparation in order that you are prepared to move forward into the activities planned for the group.

In many past instances, I have observed that Ascended Master Messengers have come to take the group consciously into an experience in a sphere beyond the human mind. Many have joyously started out on the experience but find at the conclusion of the experience that they are moving as though sleeping, with the group, unable to sustain the conscious attention, which is required to receive the benefits, perceive the beauty or receive the instruction required. The consciousness moves out with the group but falls into a somnambulant state, unable to sustain the vibrations required in the experience. Having perceived this, I again draw your attention to the necessity for stilling the mind and for preparing the consciousness to step up into higher vibrations before the invocation of the service, so that, as a group, you may all begin to move out together without the necessity of taking so much time to build a magnetized forcefield which lessens time which is allotted and which prevents experiencing all that was hoped for or planned.

A Golden Sun Around the Altar

Your preceptress drew to your attention her awareness of a great golden sun being established around your altar. You have been drawing the currents from the Sun Temple ever since your forcefield was moved to its present location. Those currents from the Sun Temple, as well as from the Great Cathedral of Mighty Sananda, and the Great Arc of Light from Shamballa, converging here within this forcefield, have at last brought forth a focus of Light, apparent to the perception of your Preceptress. It is My purpose to verify and to give some explanation of Its scope and purpose. This great Disc of Light occupies the area around your altar. As a matter of fact, it passes through your altar. There is a great disc of Golden Sun-Light which occupies the area of your Sanctuary where your altar stands. Therefore, your altar gives an appearance of being within this disc of Golden Light.

When some of you were taken to the Star Temple of the Blue Lotus, you perceived there the great arc of Blue Flame, projected from the Mighty Himalayan Retreat. It was established within the altar itself and anchored into the actual substance of that altar. You were told that this indeed formed an Arc and a Covenant. One day perhaps, the Covenant will be explained to you. This Sun disc occupies the space where your altar stands, interpenetrating it in exactly the same way that your emotional bodies and your mental bodies interpenetrate the substance of your flesh bodies. You have an intellectual concept of vibrations interpenetrating one another. Begin to recognize in your feeling, an acceptance of the reality of the interpenetration of matter from different frequencies or levels of consciousness. When you can understand the interpenetration of matter from different levels of substance, you can understand spacelessness.

I desire that you begin to understand this disc of Sun-Light which interpenetrates your altar and other affiliated altars under the direction of The Mentor's Forcefield. Although you have not perceived it, the disk rotates. The rotation is invisible to your Preceptress' vision. From It great tongues of Light are flung out into the atmosphere of the city, the substance of the earth upon which the city is builded, and into the atmosphere around the city, impregnating, magnetizing all of the earth, the atmosphere and the water element by which the city is surrounded. The focus of Golden Light Substance has been brought into being through the cooperation of your own gracious selves. You have given the cooperation required in order that this Sun Substance could be established here. You have expressed a sufficient degree of harmony so that his manifestation could begin to take place. This is only an embryonic beginning of an activity, which is, only this hour, perceived by your Preceptress. Thus, I speak of it to verify the reality of the activity which is presently beginning to take place within your forcefield.

The Forcefield

A few years ago there was established by you and others, who cooperated at that time, a magnificent forcefield. At the time that the forcefield was moved from its original location to this present location, alterations began to take place. Fundamentally, your forcefield is the same, but additional experiences and projections of Light from the Masters, who accepted the responsibility for stabilizing this forcefield, brought into manifestation other activities of Light, which were added to your forcefield and thus began altering its appearance. Your Great Chalice of Light still exists, but within that forcefield of Light, as you have seen it pictured, there has established three great gigantic triangles through the invocation of your Director. These triangles emit the ninefold power of the Mighty Sanat Kumara, the gracious Lord of the World, Guatama, and the Mighty Maitreya-Divina. Each triangle vibrates, emitting the three-fold activity of the three times three activity of each of these three Great Beings. This is another addition to your forcefield. Surrounding the three triangles, is a circle of Golden Sun Substance projected from the Cathedral of Peace of Beloved Jesus Sananda. From this rotating and vibrating circle of Sun Substance, peace is directed into the awakening consciousness of every one within the forcefield and to all in the City surrounding it, whose consciousness is receptive to it. There is also a River of Golden Sun Substance from the Sun Temples within the etheric realms of earth, which flows into the Chalice and through it, it flows out into the forcefield and thence through and around and into the City surrounding it. It assures awakening of The Spiritual awareness within the consciousness of many in the environs. Other activities of Light have been established also within your forcefield of which you have no awareness. Tonight there is the visible, tangible projection of this great disc of Golden Light Substance here within your Sanctuary. All this is in addition to the forcefield which you brought with you when you established your activities in this location.

These great triangles have assumed gigantic proportions. The great River of Golden Light Substance, which pours in from the Sun Temple, has begun to be of greater importance than the manifestations of some of the other rays. The visible appearance of this great golden disc of Light alters the activity of the forcefield. It would be of interest could a new visualization of all of the activities, as they are now in action within your forcefield, be brought to your attention. A forcefield is not a static cut-out of paper or a collage. It is a living, breathing, growing ever-active manifestation of Light Substance.

For many years your forcefield had not visibly changed because the activities which you drew forth through your invocations and your services were fairly constant. Your service was basically the same each time you were drawn together. However, when the Masters began to bring their various activities into play through your forcefield, alterations began to take place. At first, you were unaware of them. You are scarcely aware of those changes even now, for you had not realized that the difference in service which takes place within your forcefield now would alter the various forms of Light Rays playing upon, in and through your forcefield. If you would give this your personal attention, you would begin to understand how the forcefield would not remain the same any more than your aura remains the same from one year or embodiment or, as a matter of fact, from one hour to the next, depending upon the qualification of your energies and your use of energies moment by moment, hour by hour. Your forcefield is your group aura, expressing your service and externalized as a thought form through projected energy. As your service varies, your forcefield varies. Remember that basically your forcefield is the same, but certain Light Rays have been accentuated. Certain services have taken on greater importance, thus altering the flow of energy through the forcefield and of which you have been unaware. Great powers of Light are streaming into and through your forcefield. Great beams of Light have taken possession of your forcefield, altering it for the purpose of sustaining it when your own powers of Light could not or did not do so.

You will recall the time when one of your Masters revealed to you that your Healing Temple had been taken over by your Masters and altered to suit a greater need, since your own energies had not sustained it, and it had fallen into disuse. The concept out of which it came into being was great and beautiful. But with the many facets of activity which engaged your attention, you had not provided sustaining energy to keep that Temple in action. Therefore, it was taken over and altered for an even greater service and for a greater need. Built as it was upon the great Green Island in the center of the Sea of Violet Fire, the activity now under the dominant and sustaining radiation of your Ascended Master Teachers, is no longer your sole responsibility. You created a thing of great beauty, which passed as a gift into the keeping of the Masters and upon which They have builded. It had been My intent to take you there upon this occasion. Yet it has taken all the time allotted to Me to bring certain points to your conscious understanding, so that at some future time you can be drawn quickly into a state of consciousness wherein these journeys may be accomplished with greater purpose through your enlightenment, as well as for your pleasure, without the long prelude of preparation.

I desire that you think on these things, and that you meditate upon these simple ideas, and if you are agreeable, we shall move forward more swiftly in the future. It suffices for the hour to accept, to comprehend and to begin to visualize this great revolving Disc of Golden Light, which has been brought into being with sufficient intensification of power to have been drawn to the attention of your Preceptress. I so decree it that the consciousness of each one of you now perceives, within your own Christ-Conscious Mind, this Disc of Light. It is a direct anchorage with the great Sun Temple of Solel. Into that stream of Light flows the forces of all of the Sun Temples within the various spheres of this planetary system. You could not even imagine the importance of this anchorage of Light! I have not been given the authority to speak further upon this. I do, however, implore you to remain cognizant of it, to love it, to bear a reverence for it, and to invoke within your own conscious Being a rapport with it. It is not the purpose nor the plan that one should be the Preceptor for all, but it is the purpose and the plan to awaken the powers of perception within each one of you so that you may perceive for yourselves. That which you perceive for yourself, becomes for you, a Reality. That which is perceived by another, sometimes only seems to be a fantasy to you.

With the power of the Sun now beginning to be apparent within this force-field, accept its radiant, glowing outpouring, and as it streams into your individual beings and worlds, accept the expansion of its Golden Flame and of the Golden Light of the New Age with your own beings and worlds. Move forward into your own perception, in Faith, in Hope and in Love, and thus I leave you to contemplate these simple truths.

A Messenger from The Sun Temple

BEINGNESS

Feel that you are projecting from your being and worlds spiritual concepts, which are set into action through the power of your will, as an individualized being in a flesh form, sustained by the Divine Will within your Christ Self. The statements which you find in your "Order of Service," are not human thoughts or human concepts. They are Spiritual precepts. You have the opportunity of setting those precepts into action. For sometime you have enjoyed the instruction, the inspiration, the vibration of Spiritualized Beings who have attuned your awareness. You have not entered into a projection of the energies of your individual beings and worlds or expanded these perceptions which have been extended to you by the Grace of Sananda from His great Cathedral of Peace, and His Messengers. This is not to name you at fault but to remind you that your service is now required.

Think of yourselves each as a musical instrument, perhaps a harp. Before it is played, it is set in tune. Its vibrations are keyed to an attunement which, when it is set into action, produces harmonious vibration. Over the past months, you, like the harp, have been attuned to these harmonious vibrations. A spiritual awareness has been awakened and tuned to a particular pitch, varying with individuals in accord with their understanding, with their temperament, with their desire to serve. Now that there is an attunement, it is desired at this point upon the pathway, that an expression of that attunement be set into vibration within this forcefield for a designated purpose, which will be explained as we proceed. Enter into the fullest realization, insofar as you are capable of understanding the truths and realities of these statements which you are making, and understand, if you will, that, by the spoken word, your understanding and by the desire to set these concepts into vibration, you are acting in accord with Divine Will. You are setting into action Divine concepts within the atmosphere of your city. Here established within your forcefield within the very center of this metropolis, you are at a vantage point. It is now your obligation and opportunity to begin with new and more highly keyed vibrations, to expand and to express the powers which are within you.

In the past I have observed you as you gathered together for your services. Your songs, your decrees, your statements, your purpose and desire, your acknowledgements of Truth were beautiful, and in a sense from your heart, yet insufficient when one realizes the potential within each one. That which you have released in the past was insufficient to meet the needs for which you sent forth these statements. You were, in other words, in My most humble opinion, capable of releasing more intensified and higher keyed vibrations. Thus over the months you have been re-attuned. I trust that at this time in a group service, such as this, you will be able to demonstrate the release of more highly attuned energy for the purpose of producing greater results.

In a city such as yours there are all too few individuals who understand any phase of the operation of the laws of vibration. There are many who utilize the powers of the black forces, some consciously and others ignorantly and unconsciously. There are few who understand and use the powers of Light. Listen to My words. I say both understand and use. There are groups of individuals who, from the standpoint of the intellect, understand the Law of Light, but there are few who understand it sufficiently, or who can set aside self sufficiently, to set into action the Laws of Light. O yes, you say that these individuals give decrees, and they give much service to their Sanctuary and much adulations to their leaders. It is true, but lip service is of no value, and the repetition of a formula is to no purpose whatsoever, unless qualified, unless projected in spiritual understanding and by spiritual desire.

There are two reasons why individuals enter into a spiritual activity. Some enter through fear and some few through Love. There are many upon the pathway of Spiritual Illumination who have entered innocently upon the pathway and in Love, who have been caught in a snare of fear. They fear that they will not make the Ascension. They fear that they will not meet with the approval of their leaders and their directors, and thus that which started as a beautiful concept, within the consciousness of an evolving ego, becomes motivated by a fear concept, oftentimes unconsciously. There are very few by comparison who follow the pathway of Light in Love. You are shocked, and you question how this can be so. I would draw to your attention the fact that Love, as we speak of Love, is not a human activity. It is even beyond the consciousness or the ordinary concept of a mortal being. Love is the essence of the Creative Force by which you and the planet and the Universe came into being.

It has many times been cited as unfortunate that there is not another word to connote what the individual calls Love in the human relationships. The act of Beingness is an act of Love. I would that you could understand Beingness. Let us proceed with the projection of these spiritual concepts, understanding as you repeat, as you voice, as you give power and vibration to these words, understanding that you are a 'creative' Being. You are utilizing the power of Being-ness. That by which you move and have your Being is Love, the Love of the Creator, who desired to bring into manifestation beings in accord with the pattern of His choice, to manifest that same beingness through Love which exists within the Creative Force itself. There is within all Life an innate desire to reproduce or to duplicate itself. This is the Divine instinct of the Creator struggling for expression. Mankind has usurped that desire in his efforts to recreate the mortal pattern according to his own mortal formula, and thus the earth is peopled with individualized beings, stamped with personality consciousness and the desire to duplicate or to reproduce that personality consciousness according to their own desire and will and concept of that which is desirable and good.

Your True Identity

I trust I will be able to open your consciousness to a new realization of your true Beingness and cause you to withdraw from your own concept of your own personal identity. The personal identity grows with the individual as he enters into the physical body, but it is in no way a part of his Spiritual Being. You have been taught that you embody or that you take upon yourselves forms for the purpose of manifesting Life again and again, and again, each time producing a personality. Insofar as personality stamps itself upon the character, which is the soul, that much of the personality remains. All else drops away with the clay of which the flesh is builded when the spirit departs from the form. I wish you to become cognizant of your Spiritual Identity, not necessarily your Christ-Self or your Christ Consciousness, but rather your Spiritual Identity which you are as an Ego acting in a human form.

You have oftentimes heard it said, or read in your Scriptures, "I AM in Thee; Thou art in me!" How can this be true? If you look upon another individual, ordinarily you see that individual as a separate identity with which you have little or no communication or understanding. Yet I say to you that each individual upon whom you look, or all the billions of them, could as easily be you as who they are. Like you, each one has the ability to think, to see, and to hear. Each one has a head and limbs. Each one has the internal machinery which keeps the physical form in motion. Does this not answer the description of yourself? What is different? Simply this, there is anchored within each of these forms a Spiritual Identity. In the majority of mankind evolving upon the planet, the Spiritual Identity has not awakened or has not been aroused and is not functioning. There is but a human personality acting which is the result of the activities of the Body Elemental utilizing the fires and the forces of Light to operate the body itself and to sustain it in comfort and in some degree of peace while the Spiritual Ego sleeps. As you who are partially awakened look upon an individual, let it be your Spiritual Ego which beholds him. Even you are scarcely cognizant that you are utilizing the powers and activities of a Spiritual Force. You, too, sleep the sleep of ignorance and lethargy too often and too long. It is My desire to awaken you that you may sleep less or not at all, and utilize the powers and forces which are endowed upon you.

You have been told by your Master Teachers that you and all other individuals utilize but ten percent of the powers available within you. Is this not a shocking state of being? Over the years you have, to an extent, been aroused. You have been awakened, yet you still sleep too often and too long. I have expressed to you My interest in the experiment with yourselves. My part in the experiment is the awakening of the consciousness of the true identity or the real Being of each one of you. You have grown accustomed to the worlds, "I AM." You have to a degree begun to understand I AMness. There is another step which I wish you to take if you can. It is the understanding of Beingness.

Beingness Then Light

Understand that in the Beginning, according to the Scriptures, there were spoken Seven Words of Creating, and the first Word was, "Let there be Light!" I have listened while many preachers and while many teachers and students have discussed this Divine Statement, "Let there be Light!", and always that is how it was said, "Let there be Light." Tonight I wish you to say, to understand, to feel, to recognize Beingness. "Let there BE Light!" It is the Beingness which is Creative. The great finger of God pointed and said, "Let there BE Light!" and Light was the result of Beingness. Light was the result of BEING!

Dear students upon the pathway, you have an awareness of I AMness. I say to you that there are none who can say, "I AM," who have not Being. Take the words, "Let the waters divide! Let there BE land! Let there BE Light!" I would that you comprehend and understand BEINGNESS as a result of a concept set into action through the Creative Power of the word which is vested, not alone in God, but in you. You are creators by Divine Right. You, therefore, have the ability and the authority to say, "Let there BE Light!" "Let there BE Peace!" "Let there BE Healing!" "Let there BE Illumination!" BE! BE! BE! Let there BE! Through the projection of the energy produced by the speaking of the Word, "Let there BE!", you release a spiral of vibration from your beings and worlds, which is the Creative Force.

There is not one amongst you this hour, who, if he had a full realization of this Power within himself, could not stand and point his finger toward the source of any evil and say, "Let there BE Peace!" "Let there BE Light!" and it would BE. Beingness is a state of Being. "Let there BE," is a command for the activity which you require to set into action. It is perchance difficult for you to understand that you have the authority to command BEINGNESS within yourselves. It is true that you are the "I AM" which is Divine Being, but you have not taken the second step in understanding and realizing that in acknowledging your Divine Being you have the authority to create, to raise your voice and speak the words of BEINGNESS. Yes, you have decreed but without the comprehension or knowledge of the use of your energies and thus, too often, your energies are purposeless. I have observed this, as a common fault amongst many of you who follow the patterns of the decrees. You are not thoughtful as to what you decree. The human has its human will; the human has its human ideas, its human desires. To decree in accord with the human will, human ideas, or the human desires, is to often decree against God's purpose. Ofttimes I have listened to the disciples upon the pathway, giving in all innocence decrees that the Lords of Creation could never permit to externalize.

Divine Purpose

I come to you tonight to awaken within you a sense of your BEINGNESS, so that you may awaken to Divine Purpose, so that you may be able to separate, in your human consciousness, the human from the Divine, so that you may better perceive the use of your energy in accord with Divine Patterns, and so that you may better realize the Power and potential, which is within you and now prepare to utilize that energy. When you speak a command, or when you give a decree which is an ultimatum, know that the Power of the Universe stands behind you to compel the fulfillment of the ultimatum, if it be God's will. You can decree for some foolish human idea ad infinitum and produce results, which would not be to your liking. It is time that you, as Students of the Mighty Sananda, and under His Radiation from the great Cathedral of Peace, began to have some concept of the Powers with which you are endowed. When you look upon another, know that but for the consciousness, the awakened Ego within you, you might easily operate within that human form as well as within your own. It might even serve you better. As you look into the face of another individual, behold there, the sleeping Ego, or the awakening consciousness as the case may be. But for the Grace of God, that body, which you look upon, might well be your own. This is the nearest I can approach at the moment in an endeavor to have you understand your relationship, one with the other. The individual, upon whom you are looking or thinking, only differs from yourself in consciousness. The outer appearances of the forms vary slightly between individuals, but they all function the same. As an individual, God can utilize one form as well as another, except for the state of consciousness.

I am here to stir and to awaken a realization of the Spiritual Identity within you, that you may understand the Power of BEINGNESS, and become that which you are intended to be. Perhaps it will take some thought on your part to fully comprehend My meaning, for in speaking of intangibles there is no suitable vocabulary with which to approach a definite understanding. Try to think about some activity of Creation. "Let there BE," and "you are." You are and "I AM," because in the Beginning the Command went forth, "Let there BE!" Each one of you are an individual spark of that BEINGNESS. As you begin to comprehend this, you will feel the consciousness within you rising into understanding as though on wings. May it sustain you!

Now as we send forth these Spiritualized statements, for they are not human concepts or human desires, but Spiritual concepts and Spiritual desires for a Spiritualized purpose. Will you feel that you are speaking the commands of your own I AMness, because of your BEINGNESS? As you are a part of the God-head through that BEINGNESS, as you speak with authority, understanding your authority, you, therefore, cannot fail to create that upon which you center your attention and which you command or project into action. As these Spiritualized thoughts go forth into this forcefield, now feel that they are vibrating with the BEINGNESS of your individualization as a God Being. God spoke, and there was Light! Now you speak, and command perfection to manifest!

AWARENESS

BELOVED GOD PRESENCE WITHIN ME WHICH "I AM": I Invoke Thy Spiritual Awareness to the Inner Light within all being.

COMPEL (3) My inner eye to perceive the beauty in all Thy Creation.

COMPEL (3) My inner ear to respond to the finer vibrations and higher frequencies of the tones within Thy Sphere of Being.

COMPEL (3) My conscious awareness to respond to the Spiritual Stimulus of TRUTH within all being, and reveal to my outer mind the purpose and plan in all Thy Manifestations.

Seal my conscious mind in Thy Awareness. Guide and direct me at all times. I do so decree it and thank Thee for Thy Intercession and Thy Aid.

Meaning In Words

I thank you, beloved disciples upon the pathway, for your endeavor to set into motion the higher vibrations to which you have been attuned in accord with the understanding which I have endeavored to bring to you. I have listened to your service. I wish to point out to you an easy means by which you can, in all your service to Life, begin to understand and express God BEINGNESS. Whatever words you speak, place your attention upon the verb, the action word within your sentence. For instance, in this phrase, "Let naught else express but Thee," pick out the action words. I spoke in the beginning, of the great Command, "Let there be Light!" and now you say, "Let naught else express but Thee!" Express is your action word. As you move through all your decrees, pick out your action words, and utilize only those action words which serve a spiritual purpose and have no evil or negative connotations. In expressing yourselves in the days to come in the full realization of your spiritual BEINGNESS, speak not in negatives but always with a positive expression, thereby releasing positive forces rather than endeavoring to snare and strangle negative forces.

Let us take an example. Rather than think upon the Evil forces and decree for the annihilation of Evil forces, think of the forces of Light and expand their activities. Set into action the forces of Light. Light always overcomes the darkness. In these dark days through which you are passing, you will find the darkness is only brought into being through negative aspects of human beings. Wars and riots are human activities of a negative quality. You are surrounded by wars and riotings and by evils of all kinds, which are merely perpetrations of the human evil element. That which is positive expresses in perfection and in beauty. Therefore, in the days to come watch your thinking and your speaking and your writing that it may contain within it only positive force, and as you pronounce your words of action, which are your verbs, think of BEINGNESS.

Project into every word of action, which you think or speak or write, the activity of BEINGNESS, God's Power to express now in its full Power. You have the power and the authority to create perfection, through positive thinking. You can create God Beauty, Harmony and Peace but you can not do so by expressing the negative patterns of thought and action by which you have been surrounded. Now you are required to withdraw your thinking and your feeling from all negative aspects of Being and project them into positive purpose. I say, "Purpose!" I do not speak of desire, but purpose! When you have a positive purpose set into action, you will soon, if not immediately, have a positive expression or manifestation. As you think or speak through your worded expressions, release this positive power of your own BEINGNESS which is a God quality, into that which you are expressing, even silently. BEINGNESS is not of the human; BEINGNESS is of God. The mortal mind is the product of human thinking. It is overwhelmingly negative. I say to you, when you completely understand BEINGNESS, you will be operating with God energy and God will.

Powers of Darkness

There are ill-advised individuals who may endeavor to utilize the power of BEINGNESS to create or to sustain negative forces, but this is not your purpose nor your desire. Those who seek to utilize their spiritual powers to create and sustain forces of Evil are dealing with the Powers of Darkness, which can not survive. All the darkness in the world cannot prevail against the Light of a star. Darkness has no power other than the power which the human gives to it.

You are now standing, as it were, upon a platform of Light, separate and apart from your mortal sense consciousness, and upon this platform of Light you have the opportunity to choose as to whether you will serve by conscious endeavor, the forces of Light or the forces of Darkness. There are none amongst you who choose to serve the forces of Darkness, and thus I see, glowing like beautiful stars within the chalice of your own individual hearts, a pure Love-Light with the power of Love which is the desire to serve Life constructively. You can rapidly begin to control the forces of God-Being which are established already by inheritance within you. There are innumerable qualities and powers awaiting within your sleeping consciousness to be externalized.

I see that you are not pleased that I accuse you of sleeping when you have presumed yourselves to be awake. I come not to offend but to awaken within you a desire to cease from your napping and to awaken fully from your sleeping. It is true that you do not sleep the sleep of the masses. You tread the pathway of Illumination. You have awakened with courage and have started on your spiritual journey, but too often you tire; you fall into the byways of doubt, of lethargy and oftentimes fear, and you sleep awhile for comfort. Awakening again you find yourselves not progressing but remaining where you were, and you struggle awake and surge forward only to fall again and again into that same snare.

Realization

I have come tonight to bring to you the awareness of your God BEINGNESS. By the full realization of this BEINGNESS, you will not be apt to sleep longer. If perchance there are some who choose to sleep, then they must ignore My words, but those of you who acknowledge the Truth of My words or who even vaguely understand My meaning, will find sleeping less to your taste. Sleep is a lethargy of the senses. I do not speak of the hours of sleep in which your body renews and restores itself for service in the world. I speak of the sleep of the spiritual senses, where the Divine Identity lies deeply buried under self. I speak of the sleep of the unawakened consciousness within you. I come to stir into wakefulness that sleeping, lethargic Ego, that Divine Identity which was projected into BEINGNESS by the Spirit of the great Creative Being. Visualize yourselves, if you can, as great shining Stars of Light being hurled into expression from the heart of the Father-Mother God, each as a Divine concept, each a Being like unto its parent. You are one of those Beings. Awaken now to the full potential of your birthright and let it now begin to express through you and your fellowman.

Service

Service is the Law of Love. All spiritual action is the activity of the Law of Love, a Love which you do not comprehend in the mortal mind because it only has to do with that which is intangible. That which you hear spoken by My voice, and My printed words as well as that which you receive projected into your beings and worlds from the energies of My heart, shall set into action a beautiful, swirling vibration by which you shall awaken into a new concept and a new understanding of your own Identity and that of each one by whom you are surrounded. Thus you will begin to feel your oneness with your fellow man, not as a human being, but as a God Being. Through your awakening powers you will be able to awaken the sleeper within him. Through the power of positive projected spiritual conscious awareness you will arouse his divine ego. Think on these words! They are words of action, words of spiritual demonstration. Utilize such words. If you do not find them already within your vocabulary, study them out and utilize them. Use your words with the power of spiritual awareness. Speak not the lazy mortal mouthing of a language, which though it be your native tongue, you do not understand. I say, speak words of positive action with spiritual awareness. Make a practice of this in the days to come. You will bring much joy to your own heart and you will bring much joy to mine. I chose to work with you in the beginning, because I saw within each of you the potential which I AM now energizing. There would be no greater joy than to witness the successful manifestation of that which I perceive to be a possibility. There are those upon the pathway who can leap forward when the Light of Understanding shines before them on the pathway.

It is My spiritual desire to be that Light. You are many! I AM one. Know in truth that each of you and I are One. That will be your next step upon the pathway to perceive that you and I are One. Let us not rush beyond our present goal. Rest now in the acknowledgement of your BEINGNESS, for only in your BEINGNESS can you say, "I AM." Remember the positive words of action into which you can project the spiritual BEINGNESS of your identity and compel manifestations of God-purpose as measured against the puny desires of the human. Make it your purpose to utilize and to expand the Sacred Fire within your hearts, and as you do so, project that consciousness into the world about you so that the Flame within the hearts of all mankind may expand also. You will take the next step upon your pathway when you begin to understand the Oneness of All. Then you will understand that to expand your Light is to expand the Light of All.

Think on these things. As you return to your individual environments, ponder on these things. Do not forget them as you pass through the door into the world outside. I have perceived forgetfulness take place too often. My heart fairly congeals within Me as I see it. I am not condemning you. I have observed it elsewhere amongst others for sometime before choosing you as a group. Let us say it is a common fault and could be found anywhere. Let forgetfulness not occur as you pass through these doors at the culmination of this Holy Service. Remain mindful of the truths which I have spoken. Recognize the awakening consciousness within your own soul. Allow it to expand. Yours is the power to expand it. Mine is only the opportunity to prod it into wakefulness. It is yours to expand and to externalize. Lose not this opportunity. My mission in your midst will not continue for long. My opportunity to bring into manifestation that which seems so possible to Me must take place within a designated time. Let us then move forward together, if you so will it.

I pray unto Thee, My Beloved Jesus Sananda, Hierarch of the great Cathedral of Peace, that Thy Light and Thy Love may so shine upon these beloved ones that there shall awaken within them, and remain henceforth, a beautiful vision of a new horizon and a new understanding of Truth. O Beloved Master, My Beloved Teacher, Great Saviour of man, endow these blessed ones with Thy Love and Thy Light to sustain and to raise them into that which each heart desires. For Thy counsel I thank Thee; for this opportunity, I AM grateful. Before the throne of God I long to kneel and to present My victorious accomplishments.

Peace be unto you and a Love, which I long for you to understand and accept. May that Peace and that Love become a reality to each one of you soon! I may not force it. I may only give the gift. When you are ready, you will stretch forth your hand. Your heart will open to receive the Flame within My heart. My Peace and My Love I bestow upon you. I shall watch and wait until we meet again.

O thou Divine Ego within each one, take Thy Dominion and compel the sleeping consciousness of each one to awaken and to leap forward in the Light while this magnificent opportunity is provided! Gracious Presence of Light, take and hold Thy Eternal Dominion. So be it as I have spoken.

I am Your Mentor
