Before you was any history of the world, inhumanly
as it was, it was rendered possible that there was a daily, that I come to say. Perhaps it will seem at the present day, that to me was to be known.
And, justly enough, it will be known.
Desires were born and desires were entertained.
And, if you will be instructed, to know what what means the history of the world, and hence to and to act upon it. It must be to you.
It is to be supposed that at your birth,
It may be supposed that at your birth,
It may be supposed that at this time,
It may be supposed that at your birth,
It may be supposed that at this time,

I will give two hundred dollars for information that will lead to the discovery and conviction of the thief or thieves who have stolen the money belonging to the editor and publisher of this paper. The money, amounting to ninety dollars, was placed in the safe of the store of Dr. W. H. Sturgis, at 26 East Washington Street, Chicago, the night of the 24th of February, and has not been seen since.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5, 1878.

[Letter to the Editor]

Sir,—I am informed that a number of gentlemen are engaged in attempting to found a new modern spiritual society in this city. The project is of such magnitude and importance, that I trust no one will indulge in an insinuation of its being a delusion, but will make a serious effort to ascertain the facts. I have been informed that the object is to found a new modern spiritual society

Yours truly,

[Letter to the Editor]

Sir,—I have just read the account of the new spiritual society proposed to be established in this city, and I think it is a grand scheme. I have always been a friend of Spiritualism, and I am glad to see that it is gaining ground. I trust that it will be successful.

Yours faithfully,

SEPTEMBER 23, 1913.

SEND two 3-cent stamps, lock of hair, age, sex, one leading agent to receive orders for the OAHSPE on the Spiritual Experiences. After many years of experimenting between these two worlds, the author has come to believe that a better understanding of the matter of the world and the world of spirit is possible. He has published a book on this subject, "Experiences in Earth and Spirit Life," which has received wide attention.

EXPERIENCES IN EARTH AND SPIRIT LIFE.

This is a book of the most directly interesting facts known to man. It is the result of years of study and experiment by a man who has lived in each of these worlds. The book is divided into two parts: the first dealing with the world of spirit and the second with the world of matter.

"The living and working soul should be bold and fearless."

"But shall the truth be spoken?"

"And how must this truth be brought to the world?"

"The 'Truth is the same, whether we are old or young.'"
