Published Monthly by The Mystic Publishing Company, under the Direction of the Eternal and Universal Brotherhood of Mystics. Price 25 Cents a Year.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY: 25 CENTS A YEAR.

FRAMINGHAM, MASS., FEBRUARY, 1908.

VOL. VII. No. 2.

O Sacred Presence, Thou art ever with us; wherever our wandering feet may stray. Through the dim corridors of mortal life, alone and in despair, Thou art there. Thy sweet presence penetrates the gloom and bids us hope. Thy messengers come at Thy command. Heavenly Host remove the barriers and bring Joy and Peace, that all may manifest the true spirit of love. Amen

Health, strength, success, a long, useful and happy life here, depend upon how fearlessly we think, how broadly, free and boldly we hold our thoughts, and how much of truth we absorb.

We are merry and cheery and vital as we hold strong, vital truths in the mind; and are weak and impotent as we fear to think, reason, and hold thoughts of our own—thoughts of the inner man—from the self.

Men make of their minds dungeons, either because they do not think and reason for themselves, or because they fear to consider a new or higher or advanced thought.

In liberty and freedom of thought is all improvement, advancement and progress, and "the combined wisdom and genius of mankind cannot conceive of an argument against the liberty of thought."

Great words these, from one who loved liberty, freedom, justice—the truth.

Who dare tell me, an eternal soul, that I am not to think about and know the truth—the Eternal?

"The truth shall make you free," but bless you, precious souls, how can we know truth if we are afraid to think and reason and search and aspire to know?

A soul with a mind filled with fear-thought and doubt-thought that will not search for truth and light in this blessed Age of Light, is indeed holding the mind in a dungeon.

How can we be free and happy carrying these great loads of doubt, fear, anger, greed, envy and illusions.

Back of every woe and misery is a false thought of some kind—a false thought about God, man, the world, the universe.

Fear is ignorance and nothing else—a persistent ignoring of the truth—a persistent ignoring of Love, Light, Life.

If we ignore Love we are filled with fear, doubt, hate, pessimism, disease and poverty.

If we ignore Light and are afraid to think and reason and open our eyes to its glorious and beneficent rays we cannot see to break all these chains that bind us to the grinding Wheel of Delusion and Illusion.

If we ignore Life by fearing, worrying, fretting, fuming and believing in this and that false dogma and creed about it, we close the doors of the soul, mind and heart to a full influx of universal omnipresent Life.

Love, Light, Life—God—is always present and ready to manifest fully and completely in any one who can hold the mind clear, cool, calm and serene, and this is all there is of health, strength, happiness, success now and here.

With Light in the soul we have Love and Light in the heart and mind, and we come to know and realize the blessed truth that frees us forever—frees us from all these puerile fears, doubts, delusions and illusions.

Fear begins to cease the moment we begin to think and reason for ourselves.

The first step toward Liberty and Freedom is to be broad and liberal and free in thought.

By thinking broadly, widely and deeply we become en rapport with Universal Mind, or Divine Mind.

As we begin to see, and feel, and realize the ever-present, Universal God within, we begin to take on Universal Mind and Universal Love, and become fearless, broad, tolerant, kind, gentle, loving courteous, dignified, forceful and helpful; we cease to be small and narrow, dogmatic, fanatic, or pragmatic.

A courageous and fearless thinker is in the very middle of the eternal River of Life and has more of Life, Love and Light than he who lets others do his thinking.

Each man is his own Redeemer and saves his own mind by the inner light of the eternal soul that he is.

Save the mind! save it from delusion and illusion; the soul is you, and is eternal and cannot be lost—save the mind!

Save the mind from its own nonsense, silly fears and doubts about God, man, the world and the Universe.

Save the mind by looking within the soul—it will open it to all truth, and "the truth shall make you free."

And what is the truth? Look within and listen, and the Eternal Voice of the eternal soul will speak and tell you be still! be calm! be sane! there is nothing to fear!

This constant talk about the saving of the soul is enervating to the mind—disturbs the mind and retards real spiritual growth—real unfoldment.

A great soul will live now and here, knowing all things are of the Spirit and that there is only great and rapid progress when we cease to fear and doubt and cease to make an inferno of the mind.

We narrow and weaken the empire of the soul when we import into the mind delusions and illusions—when we do not think, observe and reason from the depths of our own eternal being.

All a writer or teacher can do is to suggest a plan for improvement, progress, advancement and attainment; you must do the rest.

The present Higher Thought of this age is not dogmatic, meddlesome or disturbing—it is positive in its mildness and is leading, through suggestive flashes of truth here and there, many aspiring souls to the Most High.

We writers and speakers can only give the world the results of our own patient search after the truth, and he who reads and listens must use his own God-given mind and reason to assimilate what of truth we suggest.

The essence of Spiritual Science is Love—love of all, and from our own experience we know that we can win, attract and hold all men as we love all men; that universal love opens the mind to Universal Mind; that if we write and speak from the soul we write and speak a broad, universal language that will help all who come within our pen and voice.

And what do we of the Higher Thought hold in our minds?—that all men are the eternal children of one eternal All-Father—all going onward, forward and upward to the one goal of Infinite Perfection; that if we doubt this we bring on more or less mental and physical suffering for a while; that we suggest to all to look within and know the self and the blessed God of Love.

We should not, like the Pharisee, thank God that we are not as other men, but that we are one with all men—all life, and we should love all men as God does, and not criticise, condemn or judge any man.

"Criticism and condemnation is always abundant and is infinitely less important than performance. It is much easier to be the critic of others than to be the doer of good deeds; it is much easier to behold the mote that is in thy brother's eye than to perceive the beam that is in thine own eye."

Looking complainingly at men and things only blocks the progress of the individual complainer and those who cling to him for a while; the impotence of pessimism has no show with omnipotence.

A great soul never takes cognizance of the defects in his neighbor; he silently loves his neighbor, and by the mighty power of that sacred love, in an occult and psychic way uplifts his neighbor.

This phenomenal power of silent love cannot be comprehended by the carnal-mind or mortal-mind; but, nevertheless, it is the real reforming, refining and uplifting power of the world today, and is just beginning to be understood by men of the Higher Thought.

Sacred and pure love—divine love—is silent and all-powerful, and never causes man to act in an unseemly or undignified way, and disturbs no one.

THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Spirit of Love and Truth makes us neighborly—sandy relates one to the ALL.

In no way does truth limit or restrict a man; it courts and encourages all investigation; it says the All is comprehensible; it says more—the All must be comprehended.

In this blessed Age of Light the great God is being comprehended, and as comprehended, the eternal Voice within persistently and continuously cries out to the mind to know, to know!

The true apostles of progress and humanity are now in the land!

This is the Golden Age of Liberty and Freedom!

Come! children of the All-Father, awake—throw off fear, illusion and lethargy.

"The Truth shall make you free."

OUR POWER TO OVERCOME ALL ADVERSE CONDITIONS.

All selfish men and women are more or less slaves to either Disease, Poverty or Drudgery, or all.

No one can be freed from worry, anxiety, apprehensiveness, nervousness or trouble who does not live in love, universal love for the All—God, man, all beings, this beautiful world and this grand universe.

Man must enter the Kingdom, which is always within his own soul, by coming into perfect love and oneness with the All, before he can expect to be free from strenuous strife, struggle, disease, poverty and drudgery.

There being no strife and no selfishness in the Kingdom, there is therefore no suffering, no restraint; there is perfect harmony, equipoise, peace. Those who have entered it do not follow any animal inclinations (they have none to follow), but live in accordance with the highest Wisdom. Their nature is Love, and they live in love toward all. They are never troubled about 'making a living,' as they are Life itself, living in the very Heart of Life; and should any material or other need arise, that need is immediately supplied without any anxiety or struggle on their part. Should they be called to undertake any work, the money and friends needed to carry out that work are immediately forthcoming. Having ceased to violate their principles (the Law) all their needs are supplied through legitimate channels. Any money or help required always comes through the instrumentality of good people who are either living in the Kingdom themselves or are working for its accomplishment."

"Those who live in the Kingdom of Love have all their needs supplied by the Law of Love, with all freedom from unrest, just as those who live in the Kingdom of self only meet their needs by much striving and suffering. Having altered the root cause in their heart they have altered all the effects in their inner and outer life. As self is the root cause of all strife and suffering, so Love is the root cause of all peace and bliss."

A man who is at-one with God need never think of money, clothing, food, etc., as he is in perfect health, splendid vigor, a good and wise worker, and always has the most profitable employment constantly seeking him; men compete for the services of the really Godly; all the blessings of life flow in a constant and increasing stream to the universal lover.

"Standing upon the imperishable Principles of Purity, Compassion, Wisdom and Love, they are immortal, and know they are immortal; they are one with God (the Supreme Good), and know they are one with God."

More than that!—they are in perfect bliss, because they know that all men are one with God, though men themselves may not be conscious of that blessed truth; they know that sooner or later, some time, some where, each and all will come into consciousness of their oneness and be eternally free and blissful—free from all suffering for ever and ever.

"Seeing the realities of things they (awakened men) can find no room anywhere for condemnation. All the operations that obtain upon the earth they see as instruments of the Good Law, even those called evil. All men are essentially divine, though unaware of their divine nature, and all their acts are efforts, even though many of them are dark and impotent, to realize some higher good. All so-called evil is seen to be rooted in ignorance, or those deeds that are called deliberately wicked, so that condemnation ceases, and Love and Compassion (the Christly Way) become all in all."

In oneness with God man is at once and forever endowed with a tremendous power to work; all work becomes a great joy and delight to the freed man, the non-attached man.

"Let it not be supposed that the children of the Kingdom live in ease and indolence (these two sins are the first that have to be eradicated when the search of the Kingdom is entered upon); they live in peaceful and blissful activity (without any fatigue); in fact, they only truly live, for the life of self with its train of worries, griefs and fears is not real life. They perform all their duties with the most scrupulous diligence, apart from thoughts of self, and employ all their means, as well as powers and faculties which are greatly intensified, in building up the Kingdom of Righteousness in the hearts of others and in the world around them. This is their work—first by example, then by precept. Having sold all that they have (renounced all self-interest in their possessions), they now give to the poor (give of their rich store of wisdom, love and peace to the needy in spirit, the weary and broken-hearted), and follow the Christ whose name is LOVE. And they sorrow no more, but live in perpetual gladness, for though they see suffering in the world, they also see the final Bliss and the Eternal Refuge of Love, to which whosoever is ready may come now, and to which all will come at last."

So, beloved, thou art here to love and help build up the Kingdom of Righteousness, and not for greed and mere selfish pleasures.

You are here to manifest the blessed fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, cheerfulness, meekness, temperance, and self-control."

You are here to free yourself from hate, anger, fear, jealousy, envy, greed, caprice, perverseness, anxiety and grief, and by living the life to help others to freedom and joy and bliss.

"Nothing is low that nature has evolved; everything is low that man has degraded."

ENTERING THE KINGDOM.

In seeking the Kingdom of Eternal Bliss one must be a patient, cheerful and willing worker along all lines, here and now.

He must be patient and cheerful in Prayer, Meditation and Service—he must think, pray, listen and obey.

It is thus the Temple of Righteousness is built, and the Blessed State of Life is reached—even here and now.

James Allen in his great work, "All These Things Added," says:

"The Temple of Righteousness is built, and its four walls are the four Principles—Purity, Wisdom, Compassion, Love. Peace is its roof, its floor is Steadfastness, its entrance door is Selfless Duty, its atmosphere is Inspiration and its music is the Joy of the perfect. It cannot be shaken, and, being eternal and indestructible, there is no more need to seek protection in taking thought for the things of the morrow."

He only has to strenuously think and plan and struggle and suffer who does not know—who is not at-one with the Blessed One of omniscience and omnipotence.

The more perfect the Temple (soul, mind and body) the more perfect are we in receptivity; we are open to all Light, all Love, all Life and all Knowledge and Wisdom as we are one with the All-Knowing One.

By oneness with God we establish the Kingdom of Heaven within our souls, our hearts and our minds.

"And the Kingdom of Heaven being established in the heart, the obtaining of the material necessities of life is no more considered, for, having found the Highest (Truth), all these things are added as effect to cause; the struggle for existence has ceased, and the spiritual, mental and material needs are daily supplied from the universal abundance:

"Long I sought thee, Spirit holy,
Master Spirit, meek and lowly;
Sought thee with a silent sorrow, brooding
o'er the woes of men;

Vainly sought thy yoke of meekness
'Neath the weight of woe and weakness;
Finding not, yet in my failing, seeking o'er and o'er again.

"In unrest and doubt and sadness
Dwelt I, yet I knew thy gladness
Waited somewhere; somewhere greeted torn and sorrowing hearts like mine;
Knew that somehow I should find thee,
Leaving sin and woe behind me,
And at last thy Love would bid me enter into Rest divine.

"Hatred, mockery and reviling
Scorched my seeking soul, defiling
That which should have been thy Temple, wherein thou should'st move and dwell;
Praying, striving, hoping, calling;
Suffering, sorrowing in my falling,
Still I sought thee, groping blindly in the gloomy depths of Hell.

"And I sought thee till I found thee;
And the dark Powers all around me

A CHARM.

I pray and lo! the heavy gloom is lifted,
I pray and one by one the clouds are shifted,
The darkest by bright gleams of glory rifted.

I pray and all the heavy waves that roll,
And break in billows high upon my soul,
Are taken softly 'neath Love's kind control.

The Key to Health, Wealth and Love

By JULIA SKYON SEARS, M. D.

Contains 11 pages 4x6 1/2, neatly printed in good readable type, on antique book paper, prettily bound in paper cover. Price 25 cents, postpaid, anywhere: silver or stamps.

This book is a masterpiece. Its powerful vitality prevails all through its pages. It gives the reader new hope and courage, together with the strength and consciousness to carry out its teachings. It feels its vital force permeating his entire system as he turns the pages with an all absorbing interest.

Even the "non-believer" is silent and forced to admit that "it all may be true" and it "can't hurt him anyway" to try it.

The lessons are plain, clear, concise and explicit, easily understood and easily carried out.
The teachings have rescued many lives from Poverty and brought Health and untold Joy and Love to many seeking souls.
The Great Secret which is way above and beyond the Plane of Competition, and which enables one to gain and retain Health, Wealth and Love, is directly treated in a manner new to the minds of men.

Practical Application of Divine Principle in Our Every Day Life

By PAULINE E. SAYRE

This booklet comprises a series of Three Talks upon the science of life. The teaching is couched in simple, yet forceful statements, which are applicable to every station and condition in life. Many good affirmations are given for those who need formulas.

The First Talk is upon the Science of Life, the Second upon Faith and the Power of Thought, and the Third Talk deals with Plenty, Success and Prosperity.

There is also a short talk upon Healing at the close of these sermonettes. The book is good for beginners in the study of Truth, for it contains so much practical advice to one beginning the principles of Being.

Neatly bound in white paper, stamped in gold, it is a very attractive booklet. Price, 25 cents.

THE LAW OF FINANCIAL SUCCESS

By EDWARD E. BEALS

What the most of us want is all round success, but we must remember that no one can be an all round success without FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE. To know better how much good a person may want to do, he is handicapped by a lack of money. All the air-castles he has built all the beautiful plans he has created, all the cherished desires to do good go unfulfilled because there is no money to complete them.

But these air-castles can become real buildings; these plans can become realities; these great desires can be fulfilled. The question is, "How to do it?"

The writer has placed this information in the book, "THE LAW OF FINANCIAL SUCCESS." In it he states the LAW, shows how to get in harmony with it, and then gives specific instructions for keeping it, in the closest possible touch with the powers that be in the WORLD OF FINANCE. It is no magic potion to be swallowed with wonderful results, but is a plain stating of the LAW, so that all who run may read and THEIR ACT—what they see and do in success, because he is following the LAW that has been laid down from time immemorial.

The book is now in its third edition of 20,000 copies. 120 pages. Beautifully printed and bound.

The Celestial Life

A New Book by

FREDERIC W. BURRY

Mr. Burry writes for the thoughtful—for those who seek the realization of the ideal. In his usual convincingly sincere language, he has presented in this book his very latest and best thoughts.

The following lines are from the Introduction: "Life and more of it is the first and final desire of every soul. And we want a Celestial Life, even an Existential Heaven. The race has ever been seeking for this world among the mere externals or placing it beyond the grave somewhere—heedless of the teachings of the great Masters and Philosophers that it is all within."

Following are some of the chapter headings: Concentration—Freedom—The Educational Process—Healing—Attitude Versus Platitude—Society and Solitude—The World is Mine!—Discipline—Courage—The Principle of Attraction—The March of Man—in the Silence—Expression—Memory—Celestial Illumination, etc.

The book is printed on antique laid paper from new type with initial illumination, and contains 144 pages handsomely and durably bound in fine art cloth, stamped with gold. Price $1.00 postpaid.
