"The Divine within me greets the Divine within Thee."

Published monthly, Tonganoxie, Kans. Mizanna Wolff, Editor

NO. 26

A GOLDEN RULE MAGAZINE

Its mission is to promote Health, Happiness, Kindness and Consideration to all Creation, to bring into manifestation by right thinking and living, "The Kingdom of Heaven at Hand." And recognize the good wherever we find it. For "GOD" is a "GOD" of love and we, His children, must be children of love, therefore recognizing the good in all Creation.

'THE TRUTH AS I SEE IT'

"God" is a "GOD" of love, wisdom and power. He created us in His own image and likeness declaring "Ye Are Sons of God and Joint heirs with Christ." So in view of this fact, we are capable of giving to the world just what Christ gave to the world, if we live in faith and in accordance to "GOD'S" Divine law of love. And as "GOD" is Omnipotent, Omnipresent, and Omniscience, He leads and guides us into better habitation. (Better living and thinking), bringing into Manifestation Health, Happiness and Success.

I believe that we should live the "Golden Rule" always considering how we would feel should we be placed in a like manner. I believe that all flesh was created for a Divine purpose and has a right to live. And when we radiate "GOD'S" love to all the Universe, (even to the lowly little creatures) then and not until then have we done our full duty to all Creation.

One of "GOD'S" Commandments says, "THOU SHALT NOT KILL." He did not specify what we should not kill. He merely forbid killing. I firmly believe this refers to all Creation. GOD SAID, "I AM THE GOD OF ALL FLESH."

Paul says, "If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I shall make my brother to offend." Mizanna says, "If meat causeth my fellow creatures to suffer, I will eat no flesh. Therefore, I believe all flesh is sacred regardless of station, color or creed."

"Oh Lord, give us universal Peace, Freedom from War and machinations, foolishness and waste of the present political systems, and an increasing consciousness of the Brotherhood of Man."—D. M. Thrash.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Truth:

No need for me to mention the fact that Namasta's second Birthday anniversary was a complete success, and that I am thanking each and every one of you for the co-operation you have given me in the past two years. And I am asking GOD'S Richest Blessings to be with each of you that you may have abundance of all things good at all times.

While there are quite a number that have not renewed their subscription, I feel sure that you will, so I am not counting on losing one of you, but counting on keeping you and getting more.

While the subscription list has not grown sufficient to warrant adding more pages, but I am hoping to do this soon. It has increased enough to make me quite happy. I have with a few exceptions, used my own material. I would like to hear from you and know if you would rather I would use more of others material. I desire to please you and I appreciate suggestions to make Namasta a better magazine. So please write me and tell me what you would like to see in Namasta. And please don't forget when writing to slip in a one dollar bill for your renewal. It will help Namasta grow, and make things better for Mizanna. And I assure you that you will never miss the dollar. NAMASTA is your magazine, so stand by it.

ARE YOUR HANDS FULL OF LOOSE ENDS?

Do you know the difference between an exaggerator and a falsifier? I thought so, neither do I. Well, there is about as much difference as there is in one pound, and one pound. So if you are one of the type that finds it impossible to tell a thing as it really is, better take yourself in hand and stop it, for you will never advance in truth and to the plane of successful and lasting accomplishments. For, "your sins will find you out." Or, rather your associates will find you out. And once they do you will never be able to re-establish your reliability. For lo, the exaggerator is feared, as much is not more than a real falsifier, for the real falsifier it soon branded as such, and no one believes anything they say.

But with the exaggerator it is a bit different for their mood of work generally carries a bit of truth, also just enough to make it sound real and unbelievable, for they generally weave the exaggerative tales into such a plausible pattern that at first one is led to believe them. Thus they create as much havoc as the plain out falsifier can do.

Beware of the person who does not repeat things as they hear them or as they know them to be, For they are just a falsifier not fully matured, yet just as dangerous as the full fledged falsifier. This trait will take away from a person an otherwise reliable trustworthy and beautiful character, if indulged in for any great length of time. For as I said above, "their sins will find them out," and that is not all, you will soon find that you haven't any friends.

And then, It wont be long until even strangers will give you and your story "The Once Over," and pass you by. For soon you will be wearing the "tell-a-tale" look, and you will be shunned like the "dog catcher" and rightly so too.

OPPORTUNITY

The New Year is here—dawned with its opportunities. It is best not to see trouble, evil or interruptions. Everything, every circumstance is an opportunity in some way. He was no Optimist who said, "Opportunity knocks but once at your door." Opportunity knocks every day, many times.

The interruption is an opportunity to rest your tired body, to call you out to help, maybe or change the trend of your thought. Bless the interruption. Sorrows help develop sympathy and compassion. Let it be helpful sympathy. Sympathy and patience can become vices and vises. Do not become negative then the misuse of the socalled virtues. There are no accidents. We seem to be accidently born—then we are accidently reborn into another sphere of action. And often the socalled accident is result or working out of cause and effect.

"NAMASTA"

See to it what you "believe." As you "believe" it will be unto you. It is now your opportunity to study and learn these blessed truths. It is now your opportunity to listen and heed warnings. Meditate on the visions given you. Visions and warnings are real. Learn to heed these. Opportunity awaits you on every hand. In everything you do, grasp the blessings and as you grasp and use—greater things shall come to you. Every day is a New Day of a New Year. Every day a Resurrection day, every day a Judgment day.

Let us take heed as Opportunities present themselves to us.

STATEMENT FOR FEBRUARY

I AM FREE, I AM FEARLESS, I AM BRAVE AND I AM SURE FOR GOD'S LOVING PRESENCE MAKES ME WHOLE, CALM AND PROSPERED. I AM DIVINELY PROTECTED IN HIS LOVE. I HAVE ABUNDANCE OF ALL THINGS GOOD.

JUST A LITTLE SMILE

Just a tiny little smile,
 Will make the sun shine brighter.
 Just a tiny little lift
 Will make the burdens lighter.

"I WILL INSTRUCT THEE AND TEACH THEE IN THE WAY WHICH THOU SHALT GO; I WILL GUIDE THEE WITH MINE EYE." Psalm 32:8.

ANDY BANDY-LEGS

His name was Andreas, but because of his crooked legs the children, yes, and the grown-ups also called him “Andy Bandy-Legs.” Naturally he resented this, so as a result there always was a strained friendship condition in the neighborhood, and at school, which grew worse as Andreas became older and more sensitive.

He was never happy and playful like the other children, and soon he refused to play with the children at all, always complaining that they called him “Bandy-Legs” and always wanted his to be “something they could laugh at.” Finally he lost interest in his school work and would wander away with his dog and be gone all day at times. So his parents felt that they must move away and get him in a neighborhood where there when no children hoping that he would take an interest.

And it seemed to be a strange coincident the way I met them, but it was not, it was the true working of the Divine law of love. I was on my way to see a patient, and as I entered the bus, it was so crowded that her half of seat was the only vacant seat in the bus, I asked her if the seat was reserved for some one else. She answered, “I was holding it for my boy, he does not walk fast as I do, so I hurried ahead to get the tickets and hold a seat for him, but you can have it.”

I was wondering what kind of a boy she must have to out walk him, (for she was a large woman and I knew she could not out walk a normal boy.) I did not have long to wait, for she said, "Here he is coming now." I looked out the window, and here came a boy, a small looked to be about ten years old, and he was the worst "bow-legged" person I ever beheld. He was walking as fast as he could walk, motion and gait resembling a "two year old baby in its first efforts to walk," and walking right along with him and between his legs was his dog; also the dog seemed to have an abundance of room.

I smiled, as did every one else in the bus. I smiled for two reasons, one was that the situation was funny, the other was I saw a chance to help him.

He sat on our laps, one leg over his mother's lap and over mine. I prayed for some opening remark that I might get in conversation with the mother concerning Andreas legs. Soon it came. We were passing a school and the boys were playing some kind of ball. He was all excitement, and waved his hand and screamed at them. I asked, "Do you like to play ball?" He said, "I never played, but if my legs were straight, I sure would try."

(Oh my, I did thank GOD, here was my chance.)

And I grasped it like a drowning man would a life saver. And I said; "Well little man, you can have the legs made straight, and then you can play ball or anything else you want to play." He questioned, "How can I have my legs made straight?" I answered, "By asking God to do the work for you." He turned to his mother and said, "Can I ma?" The mother seemed as much surprised as he was. But she confusingly said; "I don't know, maybe so."

IT NEVER OCCURED TO THE MOTHER THAT GOD COULD HEAL HIM.

The mother told me that the doctor she had taken him to, told her not to tamper with his legs as long as he was well and strong, just to let him go. It never occurred to her to use truth for him, in fact she said to me later, "I could not understand how you or anyone else could effect a cure when the doctors did not seem able to, or didn't desire to work with him. The only thing I seemed to desire to do was to move away and get where strangers would be more considerate of him.

Before we parted it was agreed that we would treat Andreas, so all arrangements were completed and we started treatments. We decided that he should wear leather braces on his legs in the day time, and that she would massage the legs each night, and also to pin a towel about the knees at night keeping them held tight together to assist nature in every way we could. We also held the strengthening thought. "GOD GIRDETH ANDREAS' LEGS WITH STRENGTH, AND THEY ARE MADE PERFECT."

We treated Andreas legs faithfully for two years, and they did respond, and they are strong, and they are much better looking legs than many you see on the streets each day. He is now playing not only common ball, but football, and he is happy, for no longer can anyone call him "Bandy-Legs." PRAISE GOD.

Brief, Dynamic Truths To Help YOU To More Abundant Life.

By Godin V. Greene

THE ROYAL ROAD TO ABUNDANCE

"I cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures."

Those who consciously and subconsciously, continually feel their oneness with the Creator and know that they are in constant touch with divine substance, have found the secret of gold. Prosperity and success will be lastingly theirs.

Remember that mankind creates riches through service. The more love one has for his fellow-man, the more service will he give and the more love will he be expressing toward the Father. Of course the result of usefulness, ultimately, is to become enriched by those to whom one gives loving service.

If you strongly desire the best things in life, and in abundance, (which is your birthright) and you wish to establish them in your consciousness permanently, use your affirmations for prosperity with feeling. Meditate often upon the spiritual prototype with the Creator, and continuously express gratitude for all the substance now in your possession and in the possession of all mankind. Make it your aim to give love and service to everyone with whom you come in contact. The richest blessings in life will be yours in abundance.

SUNSET ON THE PACIFIC

By Dr. Crookham

We stood amid the Tory pines
 (Around and 'round the roadway winds)
And gazed into the flaming west,
 Bedecked with red and gold its crest.

The while the great red Orb of Day
 Sheds forth its soft and soothing ray,
As if to calm in peaceful sleep
 The restless waters of the deep.

With troubled face, as day is done,
 The sea arose to greet the Sun
And kiss the Eye of Day goodnight.
 Before it swiftly sinks from sight.

And while its beauties we behold,
 There lingers still bright gleams of gold.
In penciled lines afar they rise
 Like roadways in the clear blue skies.

In silent awe we journey on
 As one by one the rays are gone,
And life in all its varied form
 Awaits once more the Glorious morn.

FOR OUR LIGHT AFFLICTIONS WHICH IS BUT
FOR A MOMENT, WORKETH FOR US A FAR MORE EXCEEDING AND ETERNAL WEIGHT OF GLORY."—Cor. 4:17.

NAMASTA HELPS

Please remember if you are not a regular enrolled patient or client, do not expect me to write you a personal letter, for my time is so taken up that I cannot do this. Also please remember to send a self addressed envelope for return of your "Mss." when sending one, else it will not be returned. And all of you who expect return letters should also remember this. It saves time, labor, expense and insures you of an answer without delay. More time is wasted by letters being returned, because you do not send and we do not make out the address correct, but if you address them yourself, all this is avoided. I may know your address, but my helper may not and then! Well, to assure you a quick response you had better send along the self-addressed envelope.

BE KIND

Don't forget to feed, water and protect your defenseless creatures. This is terrible trying weather on the poor creatures. Give to them as GOD has prospered and given to you. You will never loose by being kind and considerate for them. GOD BLESS ALL WHO ARE GOOD TO THESE DEPENDABLE CREATURES. GOD SEES ALL, KNOWS ALL, AND REWARDS ALL. So merit your reward that it may be in its fullness. DO IT NOW.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. T. Y., San Bernardino, Calif. Q. Dear Mizana Wolff: What is the matter with me. Since I wrote you last I have had many up-sets and fall downs, and I want you to tell me what is wrong. I try to do right by everybody; I treat all with consideration and I tithe; also give gifts and at Christmas, Easter, Birthdays or at other gift giving times no one ever seems to remember me, (other than my family, and they do not give me good or nice gifts such as I give them.) Is this my fault? If so, what is it?

Answer: Dear H. T. Y. The Divine Law is "AS YE GIVE, SO SHALL YE RECEIVE," so perhaps you place too high a value on the gifts you give, and others return in the spirit they receive your gift in. And again perhaps you give out with the view of receiving as good, or perhaps a tiny better gift than you have sent out; and again perhaps you give with the resentment of giving, (not because within you really desire to give,) but because you feel for prides sake, or for some other selfish reason that you are expected to give.

We are told that we should not give out with the hope of a reward, but that we should give (not hoping for a reward.) Also that we should give good and perfect gifts, so perhaps dear one, you do not give out with the right kind of a thought. Surely if you sent out thoughts of love with each gift even tho the gifts be small and inexpensive, you would receive

THE FOREST GREETING

Good hunting!—aye, good hunting,
Wherever the forests call;
But ever a heart beats hot with fear,
And what of the birds that fall?

Good hunting!—aye, good hunting,
Wherever the North winds blow;
But what of the stag that calls for his mate?
And what of the wounded doe?

Good hunting!—aye, good hunting,
And ah! we are bold and strong,
But our triumph-call through the forest hall
Is a brother's funeral song.

For we are brothers ever,
Panther and bird and bear,
Man and the weakest that fears his face,
Born to the nest or liar.

Yes, brothers, and who shall judge us?
Hunters and game are we;
But who gave the right for me to smite?
Who boasts when he smiteth me?

TRAPPED

He trod the pathless forest wild,
With easy stealth and grace,
Nor dreamed there lurked a deadly foe
In such familiar place—

A foe 'gainst which his trusty claws
And teeth, like ivory spears,
Prove helpless as his frightened cries,
Unheard by human ears.

Caught by a demon of the dark,
With jaws that clinch and probe
And grip him till he dies, at last,
To yield his seamless robe.

A beauteous thing, all must allow—
A pelt of silken sheen,
Too costly, though, for merchant prince
Or wrap of richest queen.

Who can afford the trapper's furs—
Whose gain and gold outweigh
The unknown price of agony
The forest martyrs pay?

in the same measure that you gave out in. On the other hand, if with each gift you would fill it full of thoughts that you were sure you would not receive as nice a gift as you were sending out, you are apt to receive just that very thing.

REMEMBER

Thoughts are things of mighty power,
That creates their own every hour,
So it behoves each and every one
To know from whence, each thought may come.

In the first place to weigh and measure your gift is a selfish thing to do, and one that will never compensate the sender. Far better send a post card with just a line of greeting, than to send out a dollar gift and worry for weeks for fear the recipient will return to you one that only cost 99c. For in this event, the vibration would be so very disagreeable as to cause all sorts of inharmony both in mind and body, thus your gift would do far more harm than good. And it could not be called a perfect gift.

If you desire to receive equal gifts you should send them out filled with thoughts of love and good will, claiming "my own will come to me," then be willing to leave it all to the allwise and just Father to decide just what "your own" is. Perhaps you will receive "perfect gifts" then.

GIFTS OF LOVE

I sent a trival filled with love
To a soul in dire distress,
It returned to me three fold,
Thus: I was greatly Blessed.

Try this out when you send out your next gift, and I guarantee you will not be disappointed in the gift that comes back to you.

PRIZE OF "HEART OF HEALING"

The prize of "The Heart Of Healing" goes to M. Y. of Dak. this month—

Hello Mizanna:

Here I am trying to be the lucky one this month and win that "Heart of Healing," for I have won, or I should say, "we have won," for I know that you did help me. But of course, I also know that neither of us could have won, if it had not been for God, so I am PRAISING GOD, thanking you, and patting myself on my back, and I am happy for I am to be married to G—, Christmas Day! No need I suppose to go into details as you know them suffice to say, that I think this splendid work and quick work, for we have not been working on this but about four months, and at first I was so filled with fear, that at times I doubted the chance of ever demonstrating. But all is fixed and I am sure to be a happy Christmas bride. Again
I thank you, dear helper. Love, M. Y.

Now I wish to explain here that all such demonstrations do not come about so quickly as this one has,

and again many do not take so great a length of time. I have had marriage manifest as quickly as ten days, while others took months or in some cases years, and some never do materialize. The reason for this varying, are many. In the cases of rapid demonstrations, there was a personal attraction in the first place, and in the second place the person desiring this demonstration placed their full time and attention to the work and they compiled with the Divine Law in every detail. So they won.

Many desire a marriage with some one who is not in Divine harmony with them, so in this case it takes longer. And again they may not have one thing in common not even personal attraction, and in this case it is a trying ordeal, to say the least, for both helper and the one desiring the demonstration. And then, when there is no attraction in any way, or the attraction does not border on the love side, only attraction, or in other words, admiration for the person, only in a business or some other way other than love, it is very difficult at time to harmonize the situation and win in love and marriage.

If every one who desired love and marriage would have an Astrological and Numerology reading before starting any such work, it would save much work and disappointment and sometimes disaster. It would assure you of finding one who would be apt to make an ideal agreeable mate.

KINDNESS AND CONSIDERATION TO ALL
CREATION

To the person who writes the best story each month telling about some pet dog, cat, horse, cow, sheep, bird or any other pet, that has done something out of the ordinary, I shall send NAMASTA for one year as a gift. So boys, girls and grown-ups here is a chance to try your skill in writing a short sketch about your pet. Send your story at once.

FANNY

Fanny was a small yellow and white pup that brother picked up on the roadside and brought home much to the disgust of our grandmother, who, while she liked dogs, she preferred some other kind. But we children liked her and Grandmother allowed us to keep her. She soon won the hearts of the whole family for her smartness and willingness to be a help in her puppy ways. We children never left the place that Fanny was not with us. We played at the stream quite a bit, despite the warnings, "not to go near the waters edge," we (that is the older children would wade in the stream) but my place was always on the bank where all was dry. But one day the older children desired to go farther down the stream, I being too small to keep up with them, they hired me to stay at the old place and play with Fanny until they came back.

Just what gave me the idea of going in the water, I do not know, but I do know that my feet started slipping down the bank and I could not hold on to one thing that would not slip from my grasp. Fanny ran along barking furiously and making every effort seemingly to get me to stop, but I kept sliding, even tho I tried to hold on. Finally when I did hit the water (which seemed so long) I continued to slide, then Fanny barked and barked, followed me in the stream still trying to get a hold on me somewhere. I knew no more until they were working with me on the bank. But the older children related that when they heard Fanny barking, they called to me and not receiving an answer, they ran to the place where they had left me, not finding me there they heard the noise in the water, and there they found Fanny struggling with me, my hand caught tight in her shaggy coat. Finally they managed to get me to the edge and the grown folks being attracted by the noise, came about this time and brought me back to life. So Fanny became a great favorite with us and to this day we all love her memory.

Thus another little creature won her way into the hearts of her benefactors, also returned good for good.

Send in your story today. And perhaps you will win the prize. Leastwise you can awaken an interest for the benefit of some defenseless creature.

Congratulations on the improvement of Namasta, it grows better with each issue. I never read so wonderful a thing as your article "Transforming An Old Crab Into A Sun Fish." I got a real laugh out of it, besides the real lesson it conveyed. Give us more of them, they are so plain that my little girl of 14 reads and understands every word you write. This, I call a wonderful trait in your writings, they are so understandable. I have learned more of truth since being blessed by being fortunate enough to find your writings. Which came first when I read your articles in the "North-West Farmer" of Canada, many years ago. I have read them ever since, and shall continue to do so whenever I can find them. Blessings from God be with you always, and make you a continued success. Lovingly, M. N. G. Enclosed find $5.00, send Namasta to the following six names. I know they will like it as well as I do.

GOD'S LOVE DEMONSTRATED

Dear Mizanna:—Some time ago a sample copy of "Namasta" the dear little messenger of love, came to brighten my pathway, which was dark indeed. I felt its love and help at once. I used the statement for success in it, and I did succeed. At the time I received it, my husband was away from home. I with three tiny children without visible means of support. I was frantic to say the least, but I did not give up. I memorized and kept it going. I also telephoned my different friends and offered some new quilts I had for sale. And as a result, I sold all I had, (which was 10) and have now orders for 8 more. So I am doing as you do, saying "PRAISE GOD." I am sticking tight to that success statement, and I have no fear. Enclosed is a dollar for a years subscription to the ably magazine, long may it live and you also. Sincerely, your friend,
E. W.

Mizanna Dear:—Why not tell you that I have demonstrated that home at last. I have bought the place that I had tried to get for five years. And at last I have enough to get it. (that is make the first payment) and the rest on payments I can handle. I am thanking GOD. and I am also thanking you, for your very personal work you gave me. I know without your help I would have given up. But you would not allow me to stop before I had received, and I am so gratefully to you. For I have won, and I am happy.—J. L.

NOTICE TO THOSE DESIRING HELP

Always send full name and address of all concerned. Also state frankly what you want. And to avoid mistakes and time, you should send a stamped self-addressed envelope. I may know your address but the one that addresses your envelope may not, so you help greatly by doing this.

When sending telegrams and long distance calls, know the moment I receive your message, I start working for you and keep it up as long as I feel you need me. So stop worrying, but "PRAISE GOD," the work is done.

All those sending "Manuscript," please send stamped self-addressed envelope if you desire your material returned. Thus to help bear "Namasta's" burdens.

As the free sample copy of "NAMASTA" has become a burden on account of so many writing for a free sample each month (even men do this) I am compelled to charge 10c for sample copies now. So please remember this when sending for sample copy. But to my regular subscribers, I will be glad to send your friends free sample copy. Now speed up that subscription, and get in on the free copy offer.
