The New Atlantean Research Society maintains extensive files of unusual events, paranormal phenomena and unidentified flying objects. We also mount field expeditions, research explorations, and distribute the information thus collected through both our local meetings and our Journal. We also maintain the best in equipment and manpower and have two photographic research labs, one in New Jersey and one in Dade City, Florida.

NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE NOTICE

Due to the increase of both magazine supplies and postage, we are discontinuing the Hotline Newsletter to our magazine subscribers. ALL subscribers to this extra paper will receive free an additional issue of our Journal at the end of their regular subscription. Since the amount of the Newsletter is $1 yearly, and the price of a single copy is $1, it will balance out the debt. The financial situation is such that all expenses be curbed as to assure the continuation of the Journal. The newsletter itself will continue, but will be handed out to our local members at our meetings, thus saving almost $60 a year in postage. There is no charge for the newspaper as this was given along with membership in our Society.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS!

HEADLINE: "BIGFOOT NOW AN OFFICIAL???" - Evening Independent, July 5, 1975, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Spokane, Wash - Sasquatch, the elusive legendary creature of the Pacific Northwest mountains, has been officially recognized by the Army Corps of Engineers. Though branded as a myth by some, Sasquatch, also known as BigFoot, is described in detail in the "Washington Environmental Atlas" a $200,000 Corps project designed to assist government and private planners..." ... " the atlas also provides a map pinpointing all reports of BigFoot sightings, and it notes that hair claimed to be from Sasquatch was found on FBI analysis not to have come from man or any known animal."

COMMENT: Which one of you Big Game Hunters out there will be the first in line to apply for all that gorgeous funding that will surely be doled out? If I sound cynical ---- I AM. I am just waiting for the 'grande announcement' that one has been under study all along! Think about it..

HEADLINE: "COUSTEAU JOINS SEARCH FOR MYSTERIOUS ATLANTIS" - Local Paper, July , '75. Story goes on to say he is heading for Crete, and will do a film, etc.

COMMENT: If Cousteau BELIEVES -- then I guess all the rest of us who have believed all along -- are now respectable! I feel positively conservative! No more "Kook" labels for me! Can't wait for that 'grande announcement' here, too! If I sound cynical, I AM. If it were more spiritual, and less monetary... Also, I wonder who he joined?

And ... Speaking of 'grande announcements'-- remember the headline on June 16, 1974, from The National Tattler??? "U.S. ABOUT TO ADMIT UFOs EXIST AND OPEN A GOLDEN AGE, EXPERT SAYS." Story goes on to say that Ralph and Judy Blum said: "The government is ready to tell us what it has known for some time about UFOs - that they are real, and that they're here to help us." "In fact, the government has been slowly leaking information for some time now. They've been extremely cooperative with writers and with filmmakers during the past year."

COMMENT: Well, have YOU seen any announcement, official type? Ralph and Judy are welcome newcomers to the UFO field. Too bad they didnt research the background of the field that they are so expert in! If they had, they would have found that it is an old story, and one that the 'oldies' in the UFO field are quite familiar with.... and you would have a heap of trouble trying to get a Keyhoe or a Keel to come out with that above statement! I think that Ralph and Judy should go back and re-read their own headline, especially the part about "they're here to help us", to see the WHY on the no grande announcement! Anytime they want some research help on 'help' our files are open! We can start on Villa Boas, the lead mask murders in Brazil of a few years ago, and wind up with the mental contact cases in which we have not only ONE story, but THREE. Then we could throw in the burn cases, the kidnappings, the teleportations, etc. Nice reading for a rainy afternoon.. .

African Bees - Brasilia (AP) 7/6/75 - A swarm of African bees killed a schoolteacher in the NW city of Aracaju, and firemen had to use flamethrowers to fight them off... The killer bees have spread into neighboring Argentina and Bolivia. Scientists say they are likely to continue migrating north, reaching the United States in 10 years.

Can Meditation Kill? 6/30/75 - St. Petersburg Times. Yoga instructor Robert Antosczyk, of Ann Arbor, Mich., may have died of contemplation. He was found dead in his room after telling friends he was going to attempt a state of "astroprojection," and pathologists say he may have meditated so deeply that his heart slowed down, cutting the flow of blood to his brain. Note: a later report on this case showed that he died of an overdose of a drug.

Out of the Hydrant - 6/29/75 - St. Petersburg Times. While playing in the spray of a fire hydrant in Newark, N.J., 12 year old Rahima Hoffman and her friends swear they saw five baby sharks tumble from the hydrant's nozzle. The fifth shark was over two feet long. James Buford, the city's health and welfare director said the five gray-backed fish were indeed small sharks. "I just can't tell you how they got there," he said.

New Madrid Fault Active - Infinity, May/June 75. Geologists are now predicting another major quake along the New Madrid faultline in eastern Missouri and Arkansas. The last major quake there, and one of the nation's major quakes, was in 1811, and caused the Mighty Mississippi River to flow upstream for 24 hours... Slight to moderate activity is taking place in that area now, and the geologists claim a large tremor could occur again.

Deadly Fog Is Being Checked. - The Spectator, 3/19/75, Credit: G.Duplantier.

Toronto - A blinding fog which creates peril on a section of Highway 17 just west of downtown Sudbury is under study, Environment Minister William Newman reports. "It's a strange phenomena," Mr. Newman remarked when asked by Ellie Martel whether the environment ministry was taking action to resolve the problem. "We're looking into it." Mr. Martel said the fog, which blocks visibility on the section of the highway rarely but effectively, may be the result of emission of hot effluent into a creek from an iron ore recovery plant near the highway. The fog disappeared for several years before reappearing on a sporadic basis recently and has been blamed for several fatal accidents.

Mysterious gas kills 2, leaves 6 men injured. St. Petersburg Times - 6/6/75.

Bartow - Two men drowned in a phosphate mine retention pond after being overcome by a mystery toxic gas, authorities said Thursday. Six co-workers who attempted to save the men were injured, two of them critically. The accident occurred Wednesday at the W.R. Grace phosphate mine west of Bartow as the men were working on a mine spillway, company officials said... Bartow firemen, using special breathing equipment, later recovered the bodies... A W. R. Grace spokesman said Thursday the company was trying to determine what caused the toxic gas release and just what kind of gas it was.

SHADOW PYRAMIDS AND THE CRYSTAL FROM THE "TRIANGLE"!

Reprinted from the PYRAMID GUIDE - July-August, 1975, POB 176, Elsinore, Ca.

STRANGE, SHADOW-LIKE PYRAMIDS SEEN IN ATLANTIC CRYSTAL BALL -

Early in March, 1975, Dr. Ray Brown, Mesa, Az., publicly revealed for the first time his extraordinary discovery of a perfectly formed crystal sphere, with shadow-graph appearing pyramids, found within a greater Monolithic Pyramid in the center of the Bermuda Triangle in 1968.

Brown, one of five seasoned treasure and artifact divers operating for several years off the Florida Coast, displayed his remarkable, sub-sea object at the Phoenix Psychic Seminar. Spectator responses there continued the unusual chain of physical and mental reactions to the presumed pre-history oracle. Energies from the crystal seem to direct their rays toward the solar-plexus and brow centers of some observers, with no dire consequences, but certainly shock-life effects.

Several factors associated with the luminous, transparent ball, suggest it may focus and project force-fields quickly perceived by psychically aware observers. Dr. Brown purposely withheld information on his find due to many bizarre circumstances before, during and after his encounter with the artifact, retrieved from a ninety-foot high pyramid in twenty-two fathoms of water beneath the Atlantic surface.

Brown and his cohorts were well aware of the dangers associated with their underwater searches for sunken, Spanish galleons, and usually elusive treasures. "There's an ever pervading presence of danger lurking near the occupants of smaller craft navigating throughout the so-called triangle area," Brown said. After diving on a schedule through the 1960's, the Arizona adventurer concluded: "people alone in this area of the Atlantic are often fearful of Cuban artifact pirates, sharks, water too hot or too cold for diving, international restrictions and there's always the 'Bermuda Warp'."

After studying Spanish Archives for signs of possible treasure-laden shipwrecks, the diving crew occasionally found success, and had in fact, supplied some important museums with artifacts, including Inca art treasures, gold cats with emerald eyes, and other gems of antiquity brought up from the Atlantic deep. They towed a magnetometer behind their boat and worked with sensing devices on board. Once charted, likely diving locales were pinpointed with a floating marker. An earlier designated spot drew renewed interest, so Brown and two other divers slipped over the side, alert for signs of unusual shapes, hopefully leading to a worthy find.

On this particular day, Dr. Brown, in his descent, noticed the ordinarily clear sea was now somewhat opaque with unsettled sediments, recently stirred by the outer rim of a passing hurricane. He had difficulty in seeing more than a few feet ahead. Presently, located at a greater depth, the searching diver looked upward through the murky water to see strong beams of sunlight outlining what appeared to be an Egyptian-like Pyramid. The huge stone structure loomed some ninety feet from the ocean floor.

Continued

The astonished fortune hunter wondered if it was a trick of his imagination, or was he really seeing the great stone form he thought it to be? It was a strange scene, said Brown, "This monolithic structure emerging from an ocean shelf in some hundred and thirty feet of water." He had no idea how much more of the pyramid remained concealed beneath the visible sea bottom. He noted the polished marble-like surface on the monument, entirely free of the usually expected, coral encrustations found on unmoving underwater objects.

The now electrified diver swam around the pyramid some distance below the top-stone, apparently fashioned out of Lapis Lazuli or similar material. On his third pass around the colossal form, he was surprised to see a large, doorless opening, unobserved in his other two approaches around the four sides. Without hesitation, Brown entered the room-sized chamber with a pyramid-peaked ceiling. His light source flashed on stone walls inscribed with swastika symbols. Seven stone seats, one slightly elevated, bordered the rectangular structured walls of the chamber. Brown's eyes must surely have danced when they focused upward on a two inch plus, diameter, shaft projecting downward from the peaked ceiling, obviously trained upon the pedestal mounted forms poised waist-high below. Metallic appearing arms rose up out of the stone platform with hands directed upward in the manner of semi-supplication, both gently holding the amazing, spherical crystal artifact. The bewildered diver reasoned he had certainly swum into the distant past, the culmination of an earlier traumatic experience where he temporarily left his body on an unscheduled trip into the Cosmos following a near-fatal diving accident in the Atlantic in 1968.

... Brown became immediately conscious of an ominous presence. Perhaps thinking the mysterious opening, which had eluded him during his explorations before entry, might close in on him now, the excited diver suddenly decided to abandon that very strange space, and on impulse, quickly plucked the crystal ball from between the yielding, upright metallic hands. Finally returning to the boat, Dr. Ray Brown decided not to reveal the import of his find until he had time for further reflection upon the significance of his chimerical episode. The other divers also brought up what they believed to be peculiar, inoperable electronic devices of unexplained origin. Dr. Brown, long familiar with the vagaries of governmental attitude and laws applying to discoveries of value in international waters, decided to keep his crystal ball encounter a secret. "Once the artifacts are confiscated," he said, "you go to court, maybe after you've won your case a few years later, the treasure has strangely disappeared." Besides, Brown heeding the sinister warning, intuitively imparted that memorable day, decided never to return to the site, and to further await the guidance from within as to the implied humanitarian potential connected with his find.

Thus, in March, 1975, we were privileged to witness Dr. Brown's unveiling of the classic - Atlantean Crystal. A few people reacted physically and some psychically to the noble object...

Disobeying a previous pact to heed the intuitive warning not to return to the sea pyramid, three of the five original divers are no longer alive, a blood-chilling omen. They all met death in diving accidents, their empty boats were found drifting aimlessly in the silent, untelling Atlantic.

According to a dispatch from the Toronto Sun (June 16, 1975), we could be on the edge of a new 'Ice Age'. "No one knows and weathermen are hard-pressed to forecast conditions a few days ahead, let alone decades and centuries into the future. But there ARE signs of a change. A recent Japanese study found the weather during the past 10 years has been bizarre with droughts, severe cold waves, heavy rains and unusual warm spells. This pattern of major deviations from weather norms shows no sign of abating." ... "Possible climate changes are gaining the attention of farm specialists concerned with feeding the peoples of the world. But variable weather is more of an immediate concern for grain production than a steady cooling trend. "It is when weather variables deviate greatly from normal that yields are lowest," said Dr. Louis Thompson, associate dean of agriculture at Iowa State University. "It is not primarily the advance of a major ice sheet over our farms and cities that we must fear, devastating as this would be, rather it is persistent changes of the temperature and rainfall in areas committed to agriculture use, changes in the frost content of Canadian and Siberian soils and changes of ocean temperature in areas of high nutrient production, for example, that are of more immediate concern."

"We now live in an unusual period, viewed in the context of earth's overall history, because there have only been two previous times when the globe's poles were ice covered -- about 600 million years ago and about 300 million years ago." Stuart Auerback, in a recent article from the Washington Post Service, reported that "...some climate experts believe a new Ice Age is coming, partially caused by man's interference with the atmosphere. Others believe the world's natural climate cycle is shifting and we are about to enter a long period of adverse weather. Still others, including most government experts, think there is a normal shift in weather patterns, that any new Ice Age is 15,000 or more years away..."

"On the other hand, Reid Bryson, director of the Institute for Environmental Studies at the University of Wisconsin, believes the world is on the brink of climatic disaster. "There is a very important climate change going on right now," he said, "and it's not merely something of academic interest. It is something that, if it continues, will affect the whole human occupation of the Earth -- like a billion people starving. The effects are already showing up in rather drastic ways."

These "rather drastic ways" are, in part, outlined in this article! Our Journal will begin to keep an issue by issue report on climatic changes beginning with this issue (September, 1975). This is NOT to cause panic -- but to create a preparedness. There will be food shortages, we believe, due to many things including weather changes, price fluctuations because of these -- witness the increases already in coffee prices because of the unseasonable freezing in Brazil. This is just one of the many 'changes' that lie ahead for us - and - if ever we needed a plan to learn to adjust to these changes ---- it is now. To panic is to be UNprepared.

July 16 - "3 Million Nomads face starvation" - drought in Africa.
July 20 - Brazil suspends exports of coffee due to frost.
July 20 - Torrential rains in Texas, baseball sized hail in Nebraska.
July 20 - Two earthquakes hit Western Pacific, tidal alert in Hawaii.
July 21 - Rains cause floods in Trenton, N.J. floodwaters 8½ ft. deep over train tracks, "Storms caused damage there about 30 million dollars worth mostly to crops."
July 24 - "Rains upset crop harvests" - Va., Del., N.J., Tn., and Maryland.
July 25 - "Near hurricane-force winds batter Tucson, AZ."
July 30 - "Tons of water wash Panhandle" (Florida). Nine inches in places.
"A 9 inch rainfall means that for each acre of land, 1,019 tons of water, or 244,386 gallons." A 1 inch rainfall equals 113 tons or 27,154 gallons per acre. "The parched Midwest suffered another day of hot, dry weather, and there was increasing concern among farmers over the fate of what had been predicted as a bumper corn crop a few weeks ago."

ENERGY WAVES! by HANS LAURITZEN

... We get most of our impressions from the surroundings through our five senses. Energy waves of certain frequencies and mechanical influences cause chemical and electrical effects, which carry impulses to the conscious center in the brain. Man has two conscious centers - one in each brain hemisphere. Usually one is active and one is dormant. Science now interpretes conscious awareness to be a direct emergent property of cerebral excitation. Certain subconscious impressions might be due to the activity of the dormant conscious center.

However, the human body and brain are permeated by a lot of chemical, electric, and electromagnetic phenomena, which are not connected to the conscious center. Most energy waves are of frequencies not in resonance with the 5 senses, and consequently they do not give any conscious impression. But they can be in resonance with other parts of the body and brain thus giving a tremendous physiological and psychic effects which cause man to act involuntarily as if he was controlled (what he also might be). Let us therefore take a look at the very nature of resonance.

The frequency at which a given piece of matter will absorb energy waves is called the resonance frequency. The resonance frequency depends upon the composition, shape, and dimension of the material. Any piece of matter from stellar bodies to tiny atomic particles have resonance frequencies. One of the best known examples is that a sound wave of the proper resonance frequency can put a given piano string in vibration...

Resonance frequencies for atomic nuclei are in the radio region of the spectrum, in which wavelengths range from somewhat less than a meter to several hundred metres. For electrons the resonance frequencies are in the microwave region, with wavelengths from about one millimeter to a meter. Magnetic fields increase the resonance frequencies proportional to the intensity of the applied magnetic field, thus intense magnetic fields can force the resonance frequencies of electrons up into infrared region of the spectrum.

The human body and brain are emitters of not only infrared heat waves but the entire spectrum of light, ultraviolet rays, X-rays, radio waves, etc. Each part and organ has its distince frequencies. The American scientist N.J. Stovall found the radio wave frequencies of the human brain to be different for each individual. Thus by applying amplified energy waves at the proper resonance frequencies, any involuntary physiological, psychic, or motor reaction can be induced.

Today science is slowly being aware that there exist several kinds of energies of which we yet know practically nothing. The reason is that all the known kinds of energies are dynamic, and under certain conditions they are able to produce interference phenomena with each other and to produce dynamic resonance in particles of matter. The dynamic resonance induce mechanical movements and/or oscillations in the particles, and these again may cause electric, electrogagnetic and chemical reactions. The new kinds of energies are non-dynamic and do not produce dynamic resonance in particles. That is why we know so little about them, But they have an influence upon and are in resonance with other properties of matter than the dynamic property.

The UFOs radiate these energies and use them for propulsion. One of them has a mass annihilating effect (not matter annihilating). Often it is supposed to be anti-gravity, what it is not. It is actually mass annihilation. All the kinds of energies with dynamic properties as well as particles of matter cannot move faster than the velocity of light. However, the new kinds of energies with non-dynamic properties can move much faster than the velocity of light. When these energies are used to annihilate the mass property of a space craft, it can move in right angles and with velocities much faster than that of light. Our Calculations on the possible origin of the UFOs based on the limit set by the velocity of light are thus not at all adequate.

Somes of these energies are related to or similar to the kinds of energies now known to parapsycology as mental, etheric, or psychic energies. All matter and especially living beings contain these kinds of energies. Our conscious perceives the electric impulses from our 5 senses when they are hot by dynamic energies. Sometimes we become aware of an influence of non-dynamic energies. This ability is called the 6th sense, and comprises intuition, telepathy, etc. Especially animals are sensitive to non-dynamic energies. As the ufonauts have succeeded in harnessing non-dynamic energies, they might use them to scan the human brain or induce other reactions in us, which makes us act involuntarily when a UFO is in the vicinity.

FEEDBACK - (Reprinted by special permission from Mr. John Acuff, Director, NICAP - Suite 23, 3535 University Blvd. West, Kensington, Md. 20795)

RE: Cattle Mutilations in Minnesota.

Dear Mr. Acuff: In the last few weeks I have been working in conjunction with Mr. Kevin D. Randle, Field Investigator for the 'Aerial Phenomena Research Organization, in making a careful analysis of the Minnesota mutilation situation. We could find no connection between UFOs and the mutilations. What we did find was as follows:

1. There is no correlation between UFO sightings in the area and mutilations.
2. The major advocate of the UFO link is one Terry Mitchell, affiliated loosely with MUFON, and considered by us as highly unreliable. In conversation with Mitchell and with Ray Warren, also affiliated with MUFON, we uncovered the supposed link to UFOs. Mitchell claimed that he had invented a UFO and equipped it with an electro-mercuric weapon. He was unsure what kind of wound it would cause, but when he saw the mutilated cattle, he was convinced it had been "shot" with such a weapon. His next link was a gem of deductive reasoning. Since he had included such a weapon on his UFO, aliens must have done the same. Mr. Warren reinforced this somewhat preposterous theory with an off the wall claim that U.S. Apollo space craft are armed with an intercept missile system for use against UFOs. He could offer no proof this claim. Since, according to Warren, we're armed, and according to Mitchell, the aliens are armed, then according to the both of them, it is reasoned that the cattle were shot by aliens using an electro-mercuric gun.
3. The reported area "melted in a perfect diameter" around the mutilated cow was neither a "perfect diameter" nor was it done by UFOs. It was in fact an irregularly shaped area caused by the snow being compacted by other cattle as they came to sniff the body. The compacted snow melted faster than the surrounding material and produced the patch.
4. Other evidence "pointing to UFO involvement" is as easily explained. The indentations in the frozen lake were holes chopped by the farmer. The broken tree branches were the result of pruning. The hillside of circles were silage piles. ... Sincerely yours, Robert C. Cornett, NICAP REGIONAL INVESTIGATOR - Kevin D. Randle, APRO FIELD INVESTIGATOR. ...

EDITORS NOTE:

We are grateful to NICAP for allowing us to reprint the above portion of the report that can be obtained in it's entirety from NICAP, address above. We felt that it was important to reprint this for many reasons, the LEAST of which is the subject of the current cattle deaths. This is one case that ALL of the national UFO organizations participated in, and the ground investigation was beautiful to see! How easy it is to assume a theory, such as holes in the frozen lake, to be UFO perpetrated, when it can be ascertained by intelligent questioning that the farmer himself created the holes! It didn't take a huge scientific undertaking to uncover the truth --- only common sense, logic and a right sense of WHAT to ask WHOM. May this serve as a lesson for ALL field investigators, in ALL organizations, including OURS! JOC

THE MEANING OF ORGANIZATION

by Joan O'Connell

There is an old political saying that goes: It is NOT what your country can do for you, but what YOU can do for your country. This is a statement that holds true for all of us in the UFO field. Too many times there are those who joined an Organization on an impulse, only to find later that the Organization in question expected a certain amount of their time and effort in return for that Membership Card.

There are also those who are 'professional joiners', these are the ones who join anything and everything regardless of the fact that the said Organizations, in some cases, are diametrically opposed to each other in their belief's and stated opinions. They, the 'Joiner', seem to be of the opinion that the Organization MIGHT believe so and so, BUT, they don't have to believe in the same way! IF they did not believe in the said groups belief, WHY join in the first place? The Organization is NOT going to change its' stated policies without just cause, and with more than ONE members' approval.

A good Organization is judged by the QUALITY of its' Members. When a person goes forth, in his local area or nationwide, to make an investigation and this person represents himself as a member of an Organization, he holds the integrity of the ENTIRE Organization in his hands. What he says or does personally will reflect back upon the group that issued him his membership card. If he, in any way, gives others the opinion of unreliability, underhandedness, or of being of dubious character, these impressions are left with the witnesses -- who in turn blame it on the entire Organization that this person represents. This is the primary reason that our Society trains it's own investigators and gives classes in Spotting techniques, photography, etc. But our emphasis is on the person, his training and background, as we are well aware that he reflects the views of our group.

I contend that we, in the UFO field today, must take stock not only of ourselves, but others as well. We owe a great debt to our members who put their faith and trust in our respective groups. We must be able to render them, the individual members, the services that we promised them when they joined. We must endeavor to live up to the ideals that we want to be known by ...

TIME TRACKING

by Patricia Diegel

Why don't people believe in reincarnation? First, because they are afraid they will find out they did something terrible in a past life. Secondly, they are so hung up on who they are now they don't want to know about other lives. Also, there are those who believe that you shouldn't investigate past lives and should only be aware in the Now.

However, I think everyone should know about their past lives. You are and always have been a Soul passing through various "suits of clothing" and with total knowledge of self you find the way out. The "Way" includes meditation for spiritual evolvment, plus you should study the Bagavad Gita, the Koran, and other spiritual books and lessons in order to know all facets of yourself and your universe.

I believe it is possible to reach that point where you can scan your past lives and know who you were and bring the talents, knowledge and abilities into your present consciousness. Eventually you can program your cells for who you are going to be in future incarnations.

People always ask why they can't remember past lives. It is because someplace between incarnations we have dropped the veil so that we cannot remember unpleasant experiences. I have worked out a way for you to get past these unpleasant experiences. When you go through hypnosis and go backwards on your time track, you go through the death traumas and the birth traumas and the other unpleasant experiences with your body, your emotions and your mind. By using the Moebius Strip I have found a way to take people forward on their Time Tracks to their past lives.

I use the Moebius Strip which is the figure 8, an infinity symbol, which is how your Time Track appears to me. It is continuous, it has no beginning and no end. This means that whoever you are you always have been and you always will be. It doesn't matter how many lives you have had. You go forward on your Time Track past your moment of creation and you can reach any of your past lives easily. This is how it works. Lets take the present life for number nine. This is where you are right now. Number one which is your first life is a little further ahead on your Time Track. Through meditation you learn to go past that Moment of Creation and go to number one and you can go into that lifetime mentally with some of your attention units. You go in after birth and leave it before death thereby escaping these two traumas. You will know exactly what happened to you in that lifetime and who has been with you. Then you can go forward past many of the lifetimes that are not relevant to the present one until you will come to the next or number two relevant life and examine it in the same manner.

When you move around the Time Track checking the lifetimes that are relevant to the present incarnation you bring the data forward with you bypassing the trauma of birth and move into the present time. You will actually have scanned many lifetimes with a minimum of time spent and you may have covered a million years or several hundred thousand years or perhaps just a few hundred. It will depend on the number of lives on your Time Track on the planet Earth.

Not everyone is from Earth and those who aren't know it and feel it differently. These are the people who feel as if they don't belong here and as a child look up into the sky and say, "That's home up there." Usually you have a strong desire to go home. This doesn't mean heaven but one of the planets or star systems that you came from. You enjoy Science Fiction and believe in UFOs.

The other thing that happens when you scan your Time Track is that you pick up other talents and abilities that you have had before. You bring them into this one and start doing them again with the same amount of technical ability and knowledge that you had when you left that other incarnation. I know of people who are now composing music, painting pictures and writing that have never had a lesson in this life. They have picked up the knowledge by scanning their own Time Tracks and brought this knowledge forward to the present time... You will also find that a lot of people have physical malformations due to punishing themselves for something they did wrong in another lifetime. Once the guilt is relieved and they forgive themselves the malformation will disappear or be corrected.

When you go forward into your past lives instead of backwards, then they really aren't in the past, then why can't you go forward into your present life and create your own future? You can! Visualize the Moebius Strip in your mind and picture it as a rubber band. Then you can program yourself as I did when I corrected a back condition I had by going forward and seeing my back perfect at the end of my next 7 year cycle. You can change any condition. To some it would be considered a miracle. Know that this is not the only body you have worn. It is like a "suit of clothes" that you just happen to have on for this incarnation. Therefore why not change it to suit yourself? Why not change it to look like you want it to look. It is true you can change the color of your hair with clairol but it is very difficult to change other bodily structures unless you know that it is possible to do so by stretching your Time Track, remember it's an elastic band, and create a different future.

The best way is by scanning your Time Track to get rid of the negative karmas that have "enveloped" you down through many lifetimes that are buried in your subconscious. You get rid of them through forgiveness and awareness of negative actions by you and others. Then you can go to a higher state of awareness and start to create a new future for yourself, even to the point of creating future incarnations. You have the potential to do this in your mind. The mind, not the physical brain, is the storehouse of all your incarnations. All things are possible to those who truly seek and I definitely believe one of the ways to total expression is through Time Tracking.

INVESTIGATION REPORT --- VENICE, FLORIDA --- by Thomas Stone

(Tom Stone is our Director of Investigations for The New Atlanteans)

On the evening of June 10, 1975, at about 10:00 PM, Ronnie Steves was in his room when he heard a commotion in the duck pen directly outside his room. He looked out his window and saw this large whitish thing within his pen chasing his ducks. He yelled for his parents and this apparently frightened the 'creature' and it left the pen. When Ronnie looked back out in the pen nothing could be seen but his ducks.

He got dressed and went outside to check them and saw that none were hurt but that the pen was covered with feathers. He then proceeded to go around the house to check his other pen in front. When he walked up to the pen he saw this 'it' about six feet tall, leaning against the fence. He became frightened and ran back to the house and when they look out again it was gone.

This was the report that first took me to Venice and once there I uncovered more than the sighting above, other sightings in that area went back to May, 1974. The creature above was described by Ronnie as follows: It was first seen as being whitish, later it was described as six feet tall and covered with brownish-black straight hair. The hair was seen as not being matted but instead clean-looking, and the hair seemed to be longer on the arms than elsewhere. It's face was said to be more humanoid than apeish. The eyes were not seen, and it's footprints were measured as being narrow and long with five toes. This type of print was also found, but larger, in the Antelope Valley area of Los Angeles County in the spring of 1973. The prints measured  $8\frac{1}{2}$ " long and  $2\frac{1}{2}$ " wide. The creature had no smell. This description of Ronnie's concerning the 'creature', was and still is different from any other sighting up to this time in the Venice area. There had been reports dating back to May of '74, and I will give a brief synopsis of each, including the correlations between YETI sightings and UFO reports.

May - '74 - 5' or 6' tall monkey or ape-like creature, no hair on chest.

Oct - '74 - Flurry of strange animal sightings in North Port area near Venice.

March - May - 1975 - $300 worth of chickens lost, chicken wire on tops of 6' high fence cages had big holes where unknown killer had come through. A report of a 3' to 4' tall creature with brownish-black, no hair on chest or face, with hair below armpits. Also in March, 1975, a woman reported the restlessness of her animals and a putrid odor that invaded her house the same night. In the between March and April, 1975, three boys (names on file) saw some strange animal that walked on two legs but was shorter than a man. Also, there were two girls (names on file) that said they saw a big hairy thing swaying back and forth about midnight. It was much taller than 5' four inches. "It was swaying and there was long stringy things hanging off its face, like hair. They almost covered its eyes." The eyes were glowing and its back was puffed up and looked hunchbacked. It made no noise and had no smell. The cat acted strangely and a greasy hair was found the next day.

A week later the same girls reported that they were sitting in a car when they saw glowing eyes and heard noises in the bushes, which were parted back. In April, a young boy reported his small dog disappeared and that it was found the next day with the hair ripped off, the belly ripped open and the eyes poked out. There was also a report of a dead calf.

On May 16th, '75, a local woman had a cage broken into, and hen's head ripped off, which was left on the eggs. There were reports of a horse being severely scratched. Again on May 20th, the same woman returned home to find two dead racoons lying next to the cage that they had been in, and the cage had been ripped open. One coon had a broken back and the other a broken neck. And on the 23rd of May, at the same location, another cage was smashed and the fence at the bottom of the coop was pulled up. On several more dates in June other 'creatures' were seen, such as the one by Ronnie Steves and another that was seen jumping a fence and then running across a field.

CORRELATIONS BETWEEN UFO'S AND THE CREATURE SIGHTINGS

March 2nd - UFO sighting in an area southeast of Jackson Rd. area, which is the same road on which Ronnie Steves lives.

March 8th - UFO sighted in Laurel, which is north of Venice and about 10-20 miles from the Jackson Road area. A landing is possible here. March saw approx. six different sightings of either a creature or of something being killed. April contained one known incident and May contains at least five and possibly more. June has contained at least two sightings.

In closing I would like to give my impressions of the Venice reports. It seems to me that there is more than one type of creature. There seems to be at least five different types: The whitish creature; the clean and well groomed 'Yeti'; the standard smelly creature, the tall, humpedback creature with the glowing eyes, and the short creature. Of all these different creatures only one type has actually been seen chasing animals, the whitish one. There is also another disturbing fact: that is that most people have assumed that the two different creatures Ronnie saw were one and the same. This does not seem possible because the whitish creature jumped the fence surrounding the duck pen (the sides are 6' tall!), but the other creature did not even move when Ronnie yelled and walked up to it at the other pen! If it was the same creature why didnt it also run? Maybe in the months ahead we might learn the answers to these questions...

Editors Note: Since the time when the above article was written we have been fortunate to have received additional information on the Venice UFO reports, which now appear to go back to at least 1966. And many thanks to Mrs. Helen Hartmann for relaying this data to us from her back files. In our next issue we will bring them to you in detail. Also, another investigative trip was taken by our New Atlantians, into the area, and a report on this trip and what we found will be forthcoming. During this same period of time Yeti reports were obtained from the Tarpon Springs and Oldsmar areas (north of Pinellas Park) and just last week another report from the New Port Richey area was researched. All details on these and additional sightings will be in our next issue. Thanks to all who have contributed to the local investigations! A well done job!

THE LAW AND THE UFO!

by Joan O'Connell, Editor

This article is written for those of you who STILL think it is only 'little old ladies in tennis shoes' or kooks that report seeing a UFO! When it comes to a category such as "qualified observers", you can do no better than our own law enforcement officers whose 'quality of observation' could mean the difference between life and death. To say that these highly trained specialists are 'kooks' is ridiculous, and if you were not aware before of how many police officers have reported sightings ---- you are now!

- Oct. 1 - '73 - "SHERIFF REPORTS UFOs" - Hornbeak, Tn. (He saw 3 of them himself!)
- Oct. 2 - '73 - "More POLICEMEN report sightings - Memphis, Tn.
- Oct. 2 - '73 - "Obion SHERIFF requests UFO investigation" - Union City, TN.
- Oct. 4 - '73 - "Huge UFO reported by RANGER" - Tupelo, MS. Highway patrol saw it.
- Oct. 9 - '73 - "CONSTABLE Follows UFO" - Petal, MS. (for over 30 miles!)
- Oct. 10- '73 - "27 POLICEMEN watch UFOs Dart Overhead" - Union, OH. also 60 others!
- Oct. 15 -'73 - " SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES CHASED 5 OBJECTS 12 MILES THROUGH LA. WOODS".
- Oct. 19-'73 - " SHERIFF CHASES UFO" - Natchez, MS. Speeds up to 110 MPH.
- Oct. 20-'73 - " Police reports - object over YUMA PROVING GROUNDS". Yuma, AZ.

OTHER COMBINED REPORTS FOR 1973 - Include police officers seeing UFOs at: Johnson City, Tn., Washington Parish, La., Los Angeles, Ca., Long Island, N.Y., Charleston, S.C., and more in Memphis, Tn.

One of the better known cases of 1973: "MY WIFE DIVORCED ME WHEN I GAVE HER PHOTO I TOOK OF A SPACEMAN". Dec. 1973. "A visitor from outer space has broken up the happy home of POLICE CHIEF Jeff Greenshaw of Falkville, Ala."

Of course, not ALL creditable sighters have been policemen, witness "CITY COUNCILMEN BREAK UP MEETING TO CHASE UFO"! From Howard City, Mi, came this goody! And then we can go into the reports for 1974 and 1975! However, they are mainly repeats of the above small segment of this article. It is interesting to note that again - in October of 1974 UFOs were back haunting the same places as they did in 1973!

"DETROIT PREPARES ITS COPS FOR UFO VISITS" said a headline in '73. It goes on to say that police have a plan to handle creatures from unidentified flying objects. Special officers have received the go-ahead to stop and frisk all aliens from other planets that are in the city or in the air space above it. Creatures who attempt to flee or vanish are apt to be ticketed. The department issued a seven point memo to eight field duty inspectors who were given detailed instructions on how to care for UFOs, their passengers and or crews. The top priority item said to get them to the ground even if a bullhorn or public address system must be used.

Next order of business was the traditional ticket for fleeing saucers, but with proper copy of the citation to have on hand for future court appearances. Diplomatic immunity for passengers or crew members of UFOs from alien planets was also required, including the separation of males and females for questioning." End of Quote!

"RENO POLICE DUCK UFO INVESTIGATION" is another headline, and another side to the story! Dated January 26, 1974, it states that the Reno Police Department is reluctant to investigate UFOs, Chief James Parker said Friday.

He responded to a letter from Dr. J. Allen Hynek, urging police departments to take over investigations of UFOs and to relay urgent sightings to a national headquarters via a hotline.

"I haven't seen the letter and I don't want to see it," Parker said. Hynek, chairman of the Astronomy department at Northwestern University and head of the Center for UFO studies in Evanston, Ill., wrote that help is needed to feed information on UFO sightings into a computer for analysis. He suggested police could do this. He talked of a UFO Central Hotline, which would be used only in urgent cases, and qualified investigators to assist police when necessary..."

So, Friends, the next time YOU see a UFO, please call your local, friendly, police department and let THEM see it too! Be the first one in your neighborhood to see a 'saucer' getting a ticket for "fleeing the scene"! IF they can catch it to give it a ticket - record it all on film and please send it to us! We want to be the first in OUR neighborhood, too!

Announcement

In the last several issues of our Journal we have been advertising the books that I co-authored with Brad Steiger - "FLYING SAUCERS ARE HOSTILE", "ALLENDE LETTERS - NEW UFO BREAKTHROUGH", and "FLYING SAUCER INVASION - TARGET EARTH". We just learned that the first two books on the above list are sold out and no longer available from the publisher. Two local bookstores had ordered them for the many people who have attended our monthly lectures and who wanted to buy them, only to be told that they could not be bought. However, the third book is still there, so write to:
AWARD BOOKS - 235 E. 45th St. N.Y., N.Y.

We would also like to thank our local readers and members for their support and enthusiasm when we did the Ch. 44 TV spot a few weeks ago! There were many new contacts made and hopefully new reports will come in from the outlying areas that we had not heard from before, no report too small! We also would appreciate clips from the new Florida people, from their local papers, or from papers in other states.

And another thank you to our local readers and members who took part in our new investigator's class! These will be given approx. every two weeks until appointment, and then we will give them again to the next batch. This course covers all the finer points of field investigations, reports, Spotting techniques, and knowledge of all the investigative equipment, up to and including Geiger Counters! There is no charge for this as we feel it is a service to our Members. When you read a report in these papers, and it is a local one, you can be assured that all care was taken to insure it's accuracy by reliable and competent investigators.

THE NITPICKER'S GAZETTE! (Things you always wanted to gripe about, but were afraid to say it!) UFODOM'S newest GOTTAGRIPE COLUMN!
by JCC

GRIPE NUMBER ONE! Clipping received in clipping service: Headline: "SECRET TALKS ON UFO INVASION". Dateline: AUSTRALIA! "American and European scientists are to meet in secret to discuss a possible imminent invasion of earth by beings from outer space!" Dated: April 20, 1975. This glop goes on to say that "One of the scientists who will attend the meeting in England next month is Dr. Joachim Kuettnner, a leading atmospheric physicist at Colorado University! And, last but certainly NOT least is the GRAND quote: "All we ask is for the world to at least be prepared."

NITPICKER SAYS : IF THIS IS SO "SECRET" -- WHY SEND OUT A PRESS RELEASE? WHAT, MAY I ASK, DOES AN "ATMOSPHERIC PHYSICIST" KNOW ABOUT UFO INVASIONS? AND - HOW CAN THEY BE SO SURE OF THEIR STATEMENT: "BEINGS FROM OUTER SPACE?" But, the worst farce of all is the quote about "... to at least be prepared"! THIS IS TOO MUCH, COMING FROM A PAID CLIPPING SERVICE, SENT TO A VERY FEW IN THE UFO FIELD! IF there is so much concern about an "invasion" ----- why not try putting it in front of all the readers in the world??? Oh -- if we DO get 'invaded' - remember you read here first!

GRIPE NUMBER TWO! Recent clips directed to us by our Photo Expert, Augie Roberts, are filled with average, run-of-the-mill (?) reports -- but the clips read: Parsippany-Troy hill, "Federal investigators Sunday began to question ...".

NITPICKER SAYS: FEDERAL INVESTIGATORS? Federal investigators? SINCE WHEN DO WE HAVE FEDERAL UFO INVESTIGATORS? The last we heard the Air Force could care less, as well as any other official agency. This clip winds it all up by saying - "Generally, federal authorities will investigate only if convinced that a completely unidentifiable flying object has been sighted."

Of course, we might mention that a well known UFO organization was named in the clip as having it's "officials" on the scene. I do hope we are NOT going to have a pretty sick repeat of a few years ago, where this was happening all over the place. PRIVATE UFO ORGANIZATIONS are just THAT -- PRIVATE. Not federal, at least as far as I know. UNLESS, I haven't heard the right gossip! If I stand to be corrected, please do so.

GOTTAGRIPE NUMBER THREE! THIS just has to be about the sorriest excuse for a NON ufo sighting! Shades of the paranoic '60's! "WORMPICKERS THE CAUSE OF UFO SIGHTINGS?" - Newcastle, (Canada) - May 9, '75. Const. D. McDonald of the Newcastle OPP detachment may have stumbled across the explanation for all the UFO sightings in the Oshawa-Bowmanville area recently. Investigating reports of strange lights ... found a corps of wormpickers busily plucking their unwilling crop from the soil. The wormpickers wear lamps on their head, similar to miners, to throw a little light on their subjects. " ..... GOTTAGRIPE? send it in to us! If it's Nitpickey enough, or wormy enough, we might just print it!

GLOBAL GOSSIP -

According to a clipping from Whitehall, Wisconsin, dated April 16, 1975. residents near Ellsworth are seeing a UFO...orange in close encounters, and with a flashing blue light, moving rapidly, vertically and horizontally, hovering ... "Sightings have been reported quite often in the Minnesota area. Some people have even correlated the disappearance and mutilation of farm animals with the UFOs, but nothing has ever been proven and the UFOs still remain unidentified flying etc." This is one area where the UFO has been observed in these areas. I would sincerely recommend reading the editorial in the Sept.. 1975 issue of FATE magazine. He says it all, and says it well! Enough space given here to the whole disgusting mess!

From Missouri comes the story of the Trucker who was the central figure of one of southeast Missouri's strangest UFO tales has applied for Workmen's Compensation AFTER CLAIMING HE WAS BURNED ON THE FACE AND TEMPORARILY BLINDED WHEN AN UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECT SHOT A "RAY" OR "BALL OF FIRE" AT HIM ON INTERSTATE 55... (Capitals Mine!) ... Should make for a very interesting hearing!

Gray Barker is having MIB troubles ---- at his office, no less! I am in no way demeaning this! We, here, have also had recent troubles. Not MIB ones, but of kookie mail, far kookier than usual, crazily addressed envelopes, postcards with ridiculous messages, for all the world to see, apparently trying to cast a funny eye at what we are and what we do -- this sort of harrassment. I guess it is because we are getting more publicity localwise, just did a TV thing a short time ago, and two radio programs. But, it is another sign of the times, so many unstable minds around with nothing more to do than spend hours hoking up mail!

And speak of HOKEY! -- News just in from Texas says that a movie will be made about the buried spaceman yuckee in Aurora... A lot of roara about nothing! Remember Tora, Tora, etc.? Well, get prepared to be bora -d. "The premier of the movie will be in Decatur with tickets selling for $10 each and by invitation only." Please forget mine.

The Terrible Triangle - (again, and again, and again).. I can hear you groaning now! I agree with many recent letters to us, and others, that the Triangle is the most overworked subject since cant remember when! Latest clip is dated 7/15/75. Says an 84 ft. schooner, the New Freedom, is slated to slip out of San Juan for the dreaded Bermuda Triangle.... J.H. Moss will film the expedition, which is intended to shed light on the unexplained etc... Along with the film makers, the expedition will include scientists, oceanographers and psychics. I think the very BEST story that could come out about all the expeditions, past and present -- not to mention future, would be for all to meet in the middle and 'psyche' each OTHER out! Just how many films, or psychic readings, can the paying public take? Remember Planet of the Apes? Underneath, On, Above, etc... We even add to it ourselves in this issue, but I would like to have just ONE concrete proof come out of all of it! Maybe we can come up with more data on the 'sphere'? Which is the WHY of printing the article in the first place. So, we are guilty, too! Sorry about that!
