EDITORIAL COMMENTS!

The Journal policy has always been one of openmindedness. Period. We feel that in exercising this type of policy our readers are getting the benefit of ALL opinions in this field -- NOT just those of a 'chosen few'. We have heard cries of "sensationalism", "fear-mongering", "scare tactics", and a few other UNprintables quotes. Our Journal wishes it to be crystal clear FROM HERE ON - we shall continue to print the news, even if this news comes from some UFO organizations that 'others' do not feel are 'scientific' enough, or 'famous' enough.

We do NOT censor. YOU censor! Working with the knowledge that you have stored within YOUR mind! The human mind often has been compared to a computer. A computer can only give YOU answers according to the information that has been fed into it's circuits. The same also applies to your brain and your mind. YOU, the individual researcher, can only come up with an 'answer' according to what data your mind has received.

If YOU want the same old sightings, from the same old sources, from some 'specially' picked writers, the same advertisements every issue, issue after issue, we shall be most happy to put you in touch with other publications that do just this kind of reporting. If YOU want to be your own censor and to make up YOUR own mind, and to be kept informed of ALL developments in our field -- WELCOME!

The Journal also wishes to thank those who have stood behind us -- and with us -- who have given us their physical support as well as their moral support. They have learned, along with ourselves, of the new developments, the new trends, the new patterns, which are emerging now. The UFO field today is NOT the same field that it was 5 years ago, not even 1 year ago! Changes have occurred almost overnight in some instances. Theories that could have held true 5 years ago are completely outmoded today! The 'Contact' patterns that are in the new cases today make George Adamski's 'ride' seem like a trip to Central Park! We have new forces to deal with, and NEW equipment to deal with them. It's a whole new ballgame in a different park!

YES! We have new stories and new theories to explore, BUT -- we can NOT do this using the same old, outdated reporting methods! Never before in UFOdom have we met up with the likes of "The Two" piedpipers of Doom, or the vast scale of the horrible butcheries of the recent cattle mutilations -- just to mention two new stories that you will find in this issue. 'Reporting' is ONE thing -- and --- 'Investigative Journalism' is quite another!

SUCCESSFUL LAUNCHING FOLLOWS DANCE TO WARD OFF EVIL SPIRITS - A second Viking space craft vaulted into a gray sky at Cape Canaveral Tuesday to chase its mate 505 million miles through space in a year-long search for life on Mars. The oft-delayed launching went off on schedule at 2:39 p.m. after launch officials danced to Indian tom-toms on the beach the night before and buried a knife in the sand to ward off evil spirits... Plagued by several false starts of the $1-billion Viking 2 expedition, Air Force officials donned Indian headresses on the sands of Cocoa Beach Monday night to try to drum up good luck. When lightning storms started threatening the launching, a group of Air Force officers buried a table knife, taken from a local restaurant 10 years ago. The knife, mounted on a plaque, is supposed to direct lightening away from the launch pad. (St.Pete Times - 9-10-75)

MIAMI PROFESSOR LINKS FLOOD TO NOAH, PLATO AND ATLANTIS - A University of Miami geologist says a worldwide flood 10,500 years ago could be the same one experienced by Noah in the Bible. Dr. Cesare Emilliani also says in the current issue of Science magazine that the flood could be the same one that Plato said sank Atlantis. Dr. Emilliani theorizes that the polar ice cap, which at that time reached below what is now the U.S.-Canadian border, became two kilometers thick and was too heavy to support itself. He said the ice collapsed, quickly melting in northern rivers and surging south where it raised ocean levels by 15 to 30 feet. Dr. Emilliani and Dr. Jerry J. Stipp based the flooding theory on core samples taken from the Gulf of Mexico in 1971. Fossil shells found in the cores indicated the effects of ice melt water, which has a lower oxygen content than ocean or river water. (St.Pete Times)

PHOTOS OF NESSIE - London - A U.S. laboratory which handles the U.S. Space project, and the only one in the world to process negatives by computer, is treating negatives of photographs taken of the Loch Ness Monster by a Scottish schoolteacher. A slight Scottish mist veils the pictures and it is hoped the computer can clarify the shadowy shape. (The Globe and Mail - Canada. Credit: Gene Duplantier)

$10,000 OFFERED FOR PICTURES OF 'MONSTER' - Noxie, Okla. - A Hollywood producer is offering up to $10,000 for home movies of a foul smelling, seven foot "monster" reportedly roaming the timber-covered hills south of the Oklahoma-Kansas border. "That's nice," said Nowata County Sheriff Bob Arnold. "It's gone up $5,000 since he called me last week." (The Tampa Times - 9-12-75)

CAMDEN RESIDENT REPORTS 'CREATURE' - An unidentified "creature" described as standing seven or eight feet tall and entirely covered with hair, was reportedly seen by a Camden man at the intersection of Salem and Winston streets, according to Police Chief David Bently. Police reports state that the man said he was driving home at about 12:35 a.m. when he saw the creature which demonstrated awkward movements. Reports say the creature apparently left the road and the man called the police. (Camden, Arkansas - 3-19-75)

ORDINANCES PROHIBITING FORTUNETELLING, CLAIRVOYANCE, etc. - On April 8, 1975, the Berkeley City Council reaffirmed ordinance No. 1637-N.S. (originally enacted on November 6, 1930) prohibiting psychic-spiritual abilities in the city of Berkeley. On the face of it this seems to prohibit not only psychic "readings" but will make teaching (as taught at UC) and publishing (Fate, Astrology, etc.) in these areas prohibitive. PSYCHIC TIMES will do an exhaustive study of all the ramifications involved and will publish the results. (Psychic Times - 4-1975)

TWO REINCARNATIONS - Elkton, Va. - Delores Jay, a 52 year old mother of four, wife of a Methodist preacher, excited parapsychologists and reincarnation believers with her claim that under hypnosis that she lived as the illiterate daughter of a burgermeister in Bismark's Germany. Mrs. Jay has also told of living in a small hamlet in Indiana... (UNDERSTANDING - 6, 1975)

THE COURTS VALUE OF HYPNOSIS DEBATED - Washington - The use of hypnosis last week to jog the memory of a forgetful witness added a bizarre touch to the already strange disappearance of James R. Hoffa... But despite the popular view that hypnosis is merely an exotic form of entertainment, its practical application has been a source of recurring debate in legal circles... and controversy surrounds the question of whether information obtained through hypnosis is admissible evidence in formal court proceedings... Both psychiatrists stressed the limitations of hypnotically induced information. Beware of any assumption that the information produced is accurate, since an individual under hypnosis may unknowingly distort facts and in some cases even lie. A hypnotist may also unwittingly cue the subject as to the information he is seeking... (St. Pete Times - 8-6-75)

MYSTERY BOY OF THE ANDES - IS HE REALLY DESCENDED FROM THE GODS? - There's a boy sitting on a mountain in South America and he calls himself 'Tupacyamuro'. But who is he really? Tupacyamuro can't be the boy's surname. The last Tupac Amaru was executed in 1781 for leading the Inca tribes in a bloody revolt against the government of Peru. The name died with him. The boy who appears to be about 12, claims that he has no first name and knows no other. He also states that he was never baptized and his birth was never registered. No one knows where he came from or who his parents were. Tupacyamuro lives in the Peruvian Andes in the ruins of the ancient Inca fortress, Machu Picchu. Thousands of people come from all around to see the boy offer sacrifices to the sun god in the old manner... Tupacyamuro claims that he can't remember anything from his childhood. He said that he came to Machu Picchu a few months ago after awakening from a deep sleep. Although most Peruvians are familiar with the names of the old Inca rulers, Tupacyamuro also knows the earlier history which has not been recorded. He maintains that his ancestors came from heaven in a fiery vehicle... (Source unknown, clip dated June 3, '74)

CANCER CURE SCHEME BARRED FROM MARKET - Hackensack - (UPI) - Distribution of the book "How to cure cancer in two months or less" has been permanently barred under a consent order signed here this week. Superior Court Judge George B. Gelman signed the consent agreement, which also provides restitution for 13 persons who purchased the book distributed by Bio-Search Industries Ltd. The book said cancer can be cured quickly by exercise and proper diet. The book called for cancer victims to follow a diet which includes sea salt, seaweed, buckwheat grains, soy sauce and honey. MOM BELIEVES UFO
GOT HER SON....

HOLBROOK, ARIZONA - The mother of a man who reportedly vanished "in a ray of bluish light" after chasing an unidentified flying object says her son was carried off in a spacecraft. Mrs. Mary Kellet said Monday night that further search for her son, Travis Walton, 22, would be futile.

Her views were given to reporters by another son, Duane Walton, who lived in nearby Snowflake, disappeared last Wednesday (November 5, 1975) after leaving work with six other woodcutters in the Sitgreaves-Apache National Forest. His six companions said Walton jumped from their truck when he saw a light overhead and followed it down the forest road. Moments later, the men said, the light ray struck him and he vanished. Navajo County Sheriff Marlin Gillespie said all six men told the same story. All are undergoing voluntary lie detector tests given by the State Department of Public Safety, and Gillespie said they should be completed today. But Gillespie said he doubts the results will be made public "at least for now."

One woodcutter who took the test Monday said he was told "unofficially" that he passed it. Gillespie said a ground search aided by a helicopter combed the forest but found no trace of the missing man. The sheriff said he is convinced that the men had not used intoxicants that night. "It's an interesting case, but exasperating." One of the men, John Goulette, described the object as about 15 feet in diameter and 8 to 10 feet thick. He said it was about 15 feet above the ground and about 20 yards from their truck. It had no windows, but had what appeared to be darker "dividers" outlined in a dim, yellowish glow, he said. The beam came out of the bottom of the object "in a saucer shape just like you'd see in a movie," Goulette said. (Source and date: Daily Breeze, Torrance, Ca. November 11, 1975)

MAN MISSING AFTER UFO INCIDENT FOUND - AS STORY TAKES NEW TWIST. The bizarre story of a man who disappeared in northeast Arizona after he reportedly saw a UFO took another strange twist Tuesday. The man's brother said he had found him and taken him to a Tucson hospital, far to the south. But Navajo County Sheriff Marlin Gillespie said his agency wanted to talk to the man, Travis Walton, 22, of Snowflake, and is awaiting further word on his specific whereabouts... Gillespie said Duane Walton called him long distance Tuesday morning to say he had found Travis - "crumpled up in a phone booth outside a closed service station in Heber." The sheriff said Duane, who lives in Phoenix and whose voice he recognized, told him he was in Tucson and "I'm admitting my brother to a private hospital here for some tests or some examinations." The brother said Travis was "confused and in a befuddled state of mind"... In the morning telephone call, Duane Walton said he had found his brother after Travis called a family member about midnight Monday.

The missing man's mother and brother-in-law also told authorities they saw him later for a brief time at the family's home in Snowflake before Duane Walton reportedly took him to the hospital. CONTINUED (Source: same as above -11-12)

MAN TELLS OF ENCOUNTER WITH SPACE CREATURES - Phoenix, AZ. - A story of being examined by creatures with no hair, dressed in tight-fitting blue overalls was told Wednesday by a man who vanished for five days after allegedly encountering a flying saucer. Travis Walton, 22, told his story to Navajo County sheriff Marlin Gillespie at a meeting arranged by Waltons's brother, Duane. Gillespie declined to specify the location of the meeting, but said it was not in a hospital. A spokesman from the sheriff's office revealed the story Walton told Gillespie.

Walton said he remembered getting out of a pickup, occupied by six other men, and running toward an object hovering above the ground in the Apache-Sitgreaves Forest south of Heber, AZ. Wednesday night. He said he did not remember being struck by a ray of blue light, as described by persons who were with him, but that he was hit on the head. He said when he awoke, he was on a table being examined by creatures with no hair, dressed in the blue coveralls. Walton said the creatures "never made a sound" and that he saw no weapons. He said he next remembered lying on a road about one fourth of a mile from Heber and seeing a spacecraft speeding away. UFO CHANGES FAMILY - Portland, OR. (UPI) - A father has won custody of two children on grounds their mother left on a UFO voyage to outer space and never returned. Stephen Berlow was granted the two children by circuit court in Tillamook, Or. Thursday after filing an affidavit saying the mother had chosen to leave them behind and follow the mysterious "he" and "she", the couple believed to have induced at least 20 persons in Oregon to abandon their possessions and loved ones for a flying saucer trip into eternity... MARINE MAJOR CLAIMS 3 JETS DISAPPEARED CHASING UFOS - A strange blip on a radar screen. Three Air Force jets scramble and whine away to intercept. Radar operators watch anxiously as the jets close the distance. Then suddenly, at an altitude of less than 30,000 feet, the jets go off the scope, never to be seen or heard from again. "It happened about five years ago," retired Marine Corps Maj. Donald Keyhoe, a former pilot, told MIDNIGHT matter of factly. "There's never been any trace of them since then." ... But the jets disappeared. The UFO then climbed straight up and went off the scope too... ANCIENT HARMONICS! by RONALD CALAIS (Reprinted from SAUCER SCOOP, SEPT. 1968)

No historical tradition has contributed more to the pleasant splendor of archeological romance than the immortal legend of Lost Continents. Its origination in the literary world began centuries ago with the writings of two Grecian dialogues, Timaeus and Criuias, but its real origin in folklore stretches into the very core of Man's antiquity ... perhaps beyond the dawn of recorded history.

In the Carribean, for example, a prevalent myth claims - "people did not walk up and down stairs in the very old days. They hit a plate and made a song and the song said where they wanted to go -- and so they went." On the opposite side of the Atlantic strangely similar legends are told: "In the old days," says the folk of Galway, Ireland, "everybody danced in the air like leaves in the autumn wind... people made a song to a plate." From St. Vincent Island in the West Indies comes this legend: "The wise people of old could fly quite easily. They had no wings. They slapped on a gold plate, made music on them and flew." Even the ancient Sanskrit records of India recount stories of the application of sound and vibrations thousands of years ago by a science totally familiar with advanced acoustics.

"London ... Russian archaeologists are puzzling over a remarkable collection of stone disks, thousands of years old, found in the mountains bordering China and Tibet. So hard is it to explain in terms of earthly experience that they do not rule out the possibility that the discs may have come from outer space. A total of 716 discs, like stone age 'gramophone records', have been picked up in recent years by men exploring caves in the Bayan-KaraUla mountains, reports the Soviet Union's new English magazine, SPUTNIK. "Each disc has a central hole and irregular grooves spiralling out to the edge, but the report says (quite seriously) that the grooves are not sound tracks. Chinese archaeologists estimate how the discs are about 12,000 years old, but made no headway at all in trying to explain their purpose or how they came to be in the caves. The Russians, who have examined them, some of the discs, in a Moscow laboratory, claim to have made two important discoveries. One is that the discs contain traces of metal, particularly cobalt. The second discovery, according to Vvachesiav Zaitsev, author of the SPUTNIK report, is that when the discs are scraped free of rock particles they 'vibrate' as if they carried an electric charge. In some of the Bayan-KaraUla caves, he writes, archaeologists and speleologists have found 12,000 year old skeletons. The remains belong to human beings with huge craniums and underdeveloped skeletons."

It seems this story has an earlier counterpart. For among the gifts given to Cortez by the last Aztec Emperor Montezuma, were two large, flat, gold discs about the size of gramophone records. They were intended as emblems of royalty for King Charles V of Spain and his Queen. Oddly enough, one of the discs was much thinner than the other, and it seems Montezuma failed to inform them of their proper use. But it was said how they were grooved and cut according to the owners vibrations. Russians report metal fragments adhering to the discs, and as one well knows, metal bits become attached to stone when a metallic object is struck against the stone. Now, referring to folklore, you will remember that the words "music" and "song" were used, both terms indicating sound vibrations produced by percussion of the "plates"... a word describing a circular, flat object ... And what race would be more suited mentally to produce such things than 'human beings with huge craniums?'"

HIS FEAR ATE HIM! - Brisbane, Australia - A man who lived in terror of crocodiles was eaten by one 15 feet long with three legs and no tail in far north Queensland, a coroner's inquest was held today. Witnesses told Coroner B.J. Blades they believed the crocodile was aware of Reimers' habits and stalked him for days before it took him at the end of a hunting trip on April 26. Two work friends... and police constable A.C. Bone found his severed legs at two separate points. Marks on the legs indicated a crocodile attack and they threw explosives into a waterhole, the crocodile which surfaced and disappeared, was later dragged from the water dead.
Reimer's body was found inside in eight pieces. Reimers was so scared of crocodiles he never would wade in water more than a few inches deep. (Source: Times - 8/13.)

INVASION OF THE LADY BUGS - Either a quirk in the weather, or Mother Nature's snarled sense of humor, caused millions of ladybugs and crickets to descend on buildings in downtown Ottawa, Kansas, Friday. The ladybugs, which enveloped the First National Bank shortly after dawn, may have been fooled by a cool wave into thinking it was time to seek winter quarters. Ladybugs always mass together before they start their annual hunt. Swarms of chirping crickets were found all over City Hall. (Source: Times - 8/17/75.)

TECHNIQUES OF SUBVERSION, CONFUSION, AND CONQUEST by John A. Keel

(Reprinted from SAUCER SCOOP - June, 1969)

For five thousand years or more power-mad men have played a vicious game with the lives and destinies of their followers. Even Genghis Khan was familiar with the basic precepts of psychological warfare. He ordered his men to savagely destroy cities and kill everyone in sight, and then he made sure that a few people survived and escaped to spread the story of the plunder to other cities along his route. Many centuries later Hitler employed the same techniques, with many modern embellishments, by sending his dive-bombers against the helpless city of Rotterdam and wiping out whole villages in eastern Europe.

Yes, we are wearily aware of how men have played this ugly chess game throughout history. But now let's extend this. How would you go about the capture and enslavement of an entire planet?

The rules have already been laid down. The game has already commenced. It is being played now on a global basis. Here's how it is being done.

Step #1: The press must be controlled. Mussolini started out by taking over one newspaper. Today a large part of the world is in the hands of dictators who completely control and censor the newspapers within their countries. In the U.S. more and more independent newspapers are being swallowed up by powerful chains and syndicates.

Step #2: The economic situation must be controlled. This means that currency and, more important, gold must be manipulated. Now look at what is happening to the world's monetary market today. Currencies are being devalued, or devaluation is threatened. Gold is becoming scarce. The gold market is in a panic. Economic disaster could strike worldwide at any time. Inflation is running wild in every country.

Step #3: Communications must be controlled. Radio, mail, and telephone communications have been breaking down all over the world in the past two years. The national defense communications system in the U.S. was completely knocked out twice in 1968. The "hot line" between Washington and Moscow has been disrupted twice since 1966. Our general telephone system is now so overloaded that a complete breakdown is eminent!

Step #4: Armed forces must be diverted and drained. Viet Nam.

Step #5: Religious (moral) control must be usurped. "God is Dead." Look at what's happening to the Catholic Church.

Step #6: Anarchy must be introduced. Young people throughout the world are in open revolt against "the establishment". Colleges and universities in nearly every country are in an uproar. The "sexual revolution" has been accompanied by the widespread use of drugs.

The young people are ~~rejecting the present social order~~, the draft, the materialistic attitudes of their elders. There have now been hundreds of cases in which teenagers and young adults have been caught committing acts of sabotage against communications, power plants, military installations. "Underground" Hippie newspapers are filled with instructions on how to build bombs, cut telephone cables, etc.

Step #7: Suppress or assassinate those leaders who show potential ability to control this mess. If you can't buy them off, shoot them down.

Now add all the steps up. What do you get? You have a controlled press, disrupted communications (vital in any "war"), economic chaos, strained and depleted military forces on a distant battlefield, mobs of enraged anarchists at home willfully trying to assault and undermine the established system, and that system is led by individuals who are not necessarily the men best equipped to handle the situation. Result: a complete breakdown on every level.

Back in 1933, Hitler had the German parliament building burned down. Then he howled that the communists had done the deed and Germany's only salvation was obviously to install him as head of the government so he could take a firm hand and deal with those communists. The present world situation did not come about overnight. It seems to have been carefully planned and that plan has been skillfully executed by someone hidden far behind the scenes for many years.

Now carry this to the final step. Suppose our planet is reduced finally to complete chaos economically, socially, morally? Then suppose great formations of strange objects descended in every country and strange beings of great splendor spoke to us suddenly over our radios, TVs, and telephones, and told us that we were upsetting the balance of the universe. We had made a mess of things and the only solution was for them to take over and show us the way out of our dilemma. For years a small but noisy group of people had been telling us all that benevolent space men were coming to save us from ourselves. Now — the man-in-the-street would remember all those stories he had laughed at before. Things were in a terrible mess, he would admit, and maybe these splendid beings could salvage the situation. They promised an orderly world of love and brotherhood and peace.

Would you welcome them? If we did, then you would have the answer to my question:
HOW DO YOU TAKE OVER AN ENTIRE PLANET WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT OR LOSING A SINGLE LIFE OF ONE OF YOUR OWN?

John A. Keel

We reprinted the above for several reasons, the first of which is that every word that was written in 1969 is STILL as relevant today! And, secondly, the message 'content' of the above should be read and reread until the possibilities that the article mentions have sunk into the conscious awareness level of the mind. In fact, in light of the news of the day circa 1975 -- it seems MORE relevant!

"THE TWO" by Lynn Simross (Source: I. A. Times, 11/12/75. Credit: Jack Robinson and The Jersey Journal)

BO AND PEEP: DEVOUT OR DEMEMTED?

They talk of death. Of caterpillars and kingdoms. Of butterflies and resurrection. Of Jesus Christ and UFOs. They are The Two, a couple of Texas metaphysical teachers named Marshall Herff Applewhite and Bonnie Trusdale Nettles, better known as Bo and Peep.

They travel swiftly, furtively, across the land, preaching something called Human Individual Metamorphosis (HIM), soliciting a flock to follow them into another realm. They say they have come from the "next kingdom," the same one "Christ came from." Bo and Peep also contend that Jesus left earth "in a cloud of light (what humans refer to as UFOs)" and that they and their followers will do the same thing soon. The couple also insist they will be killed in the near future and rise again from the dead in 3½ days (borrowed from Revelation: Ch. 110) in "proof of overcoming death."

Heady stuff for mere humans. You might think it a hoax until you learn that there are about 50 people trekking somewhere across the country, mesmerized by the HIM doctrine. That in itself is not easy. "If the human is a good 'prospect'," says a HIM leaflet, "he lets go of those fragments of his human foundation." What that means is to follow Bo and Peep you must give up all your worldly possessions, your family and friends, sex, smoking, drugs and alcohol. You must take along some money (for the communal fund) and have means of transportation because you will be moving around a lot. It should be pointed out here that when Bo and Peep started on their appointed rounds, mostly they were seeking out people already into metaphysical and spiritual studies -- a sort of spiritual underground. In the past two months, however, they have branched out and are contacting just plain folks, like those at the widely reported Waldport, Ore. meeting on Sept. 14, or, on Sept. 28, off the campus of Colorado State University at Ft. Collins, where Bo and Peep disciples were recruiting. Posters put up in the dorms there played up the UFO angle. What are Bo and Peep really up to? Right now, it is anybody's guess. But authorities in at least eight states - from California to Illinois -- are "unofficially studying and looking into" the case.

So far, though, lawmen have been unable to find any kind of charge against the couple that would hold up in court. The people who have left their homes are all over 18 and left willingly, so they can't be classified as missing persons. And what money they did give Bo and Peep, they gave by their own choice.

EDITORS NOTE:

The rest of this article is concerned with the stories of people who have gone with the 'Two' -- and have returned... much wiser, completely broke, and mentally confused. It is a shame that when this kind of a horrible mess erupts, the media jumps on it within a matter of hours. But, let a legit event occur, a close encounter, etc. and all are forgotten or branded kooks. However, we feel that the case of Bo and Peep is an example of some of the unstable minds that are running around, and we caution any of our readers who might happen to live in an area that is being 'visited' by the 'Two' to report what is seen and heard to the authorities and hopefully help anyone who even might have thought to join them -- to stay put!//

FANTASTIC FLORIDA! CASE HISTORY # 1

DID A CREATURE FROM A UFO LAND HERE?

After sighting a UFO and being felled by a ray apparently from an occupant of the craft, a strange "devils head" was found growing in his yard, a Jacksonville man has reported to the UFO Research Institute. Norman R. Chaistain, 62, said he delayed reporting the strange incident after it occurred for fear he would be ridiculed as "some kind of a nut."

Chaistain's photograph with the "devils head" appeared in the Journal nearly two years ago after he brought the plant to the newspaper and reported finding it in his yard. At that time, however, he did not mention the earlier incident. He said he is telling the story now because of the investigation being made by the research institute.

Chaistain is an electrician with the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Co. He was out in the St. John's River fishing late at night Jan. 26, 1972, near the eastern tip of Blount Island. At 3 A.M. he was sitting at anchor in a slack tide about 50 feet from shore when he noticed "several orange and blue lights from over St. Johns Bluff Monument," he said. At first thought it was a mosquito control or police helicopter.

"After a few minutes, the lights came directly towards my boat and I could make out the outline of something like a half of a ball with lights flashing and changing colors about every minute," he said. Chaistain also said his boats light's were on and a Coleman lantern was burning. He said the object made no noise. The object was about 150 feet in the air directly over his boat. He snapped off the lights on his boat and turned out the lantern and the object moved slowly back to the bluff. His boat had run aground by this time and he went ashore, he said.

Chaistain said he went looking for a lever to pry his boat free, found a piece of 2 by 6 wood and was carrying it back when he stopped to rest, 75 feet from his boat. "I raised my spotlight to see if my boat was still in the muck, and in the edges of the bushes, I saw the darndest-looking human-like creature one could ever imagine," he said.

He said he dropped the timber and immediately was hit by a "brilliant white light," It made him dizzy and he lay down on the grass. His arms and legs became numb and tingled, but he stayed on the ground, praying, until daybreak, he said. He then crawled farther inland and stayed until about noon, when his strength returned. He swam out to his boat, which had drifted about 50 feet from shore. He noticed an "overpowering stench" in his clothes and hair that was not present until he met the "devil-looking creature." He said he washed and threw away his old clothes before going home. Still his wife commented that he didn't look right, and asked if he were all right. Chastain said he told her he got seasick.

Three nights later he found himself dreaming that he was on a strange planet. He also noticed the same overpowering smell he experienced three days before. He was awakened by a clap of thunder and saw that it was raining outside. He remained awake the rest of the night holding a gun.

When morning came, he went outside. "There in the grass directly behind my boat at the same distance the creature was positioned on Blount Island, was a cluster of several flesh-colored heads looking at me and they looked so much like that devil looking creature I saw on the island that my first thought was the UFO was over my house that night looking for me." He went to his neighbors' homes looking for witnesses but they were all away. He dug up the plants and brought one to the Journal, he said.

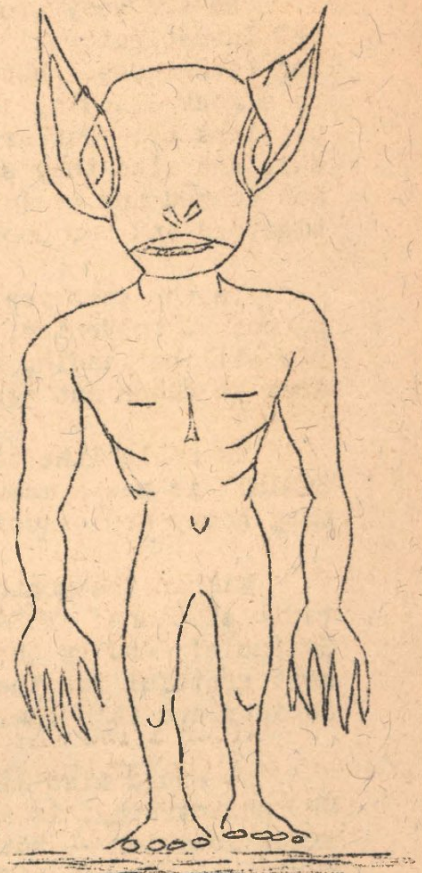

"Blood" was coming from the plant, he said. It also had teeth, big eyes, a wide mouth and pointed ears. He said each of the plants shriveled up into a ball about six hours after they came out. No more have grown since then, he said.

Since the sighting, he has been back to the same spot on Blount Island several times, he said. In fact, he was fishing in the same spot recently and caught a 40 pound red bass, good enough for a third place in a fishing tournament. He says the reaction from persons he tells his story to is "peculiar."

... When the Journal contacted the University of Florida's botany department, a mycologist there appeared to recognize the plant immediately from a verbal description. He said it is a stinkhorn, very common in Florida, especially during cold weather after a drizzly rain. It is not poisonous, but generally is not considered edible because of the smell, he said. It is a form of mushroom.

It was not until he attended a lecture at Florida Junior College by Stanton Friedman, director of the UFO Research Institute, that he decided to report the incident...

Editors Note: The drawing that you see on this page is taken from the clipping, and I quote from it's caption" THE AIR FORCE DREW THIS SKETCH OF A DEVIL-LIKE 'GOBLIN' BASED ON DESCRIPTIONS OF WITNESSES FOLLOWING UFO 'LANDINGS' IN THIS COUNTRY AND BRAZIL." Chaistain wonders if this could be the same creature he saw.

FLORIDA RESEARCH REPORT

We are very proud to announce the graduation and certification of our newest UFO Investigators! After an extensive course in radiation detection, interviewing techniques, photographic and cast making training, PLUS an actual field trip to a mock 'landing' -- all passed with flying colors! Mr. Tom Stone sends congratulations to: Barbara Lucas, Jean Chapman, Rod Perry, Raymond and Gerry Chmielewski, and also they son, Ray! Tom, who is our Director of Investigations, said he was amazed and excited by all who took his class. They now join our other Investigators and our Coordinator for our Spotters, Mrs. Betty Dickson.

In the past year our Society has sponsored field trips, for investigation purposes, to Venice, New Port Richey, Hudson, Lutz and Brooksville. By the time you will be reading this we will have taken another trip up to the Brooksville area to check out reports of 'creatures' and UFO reports there.

We would like to announce to our readers that THE NEW ATLANTIAN RESEARCH SOCIETY is now a member of our local Chamber of Commerce, and we look forward to many happy new associations there!

Within the month of November alone we have been featured on the following radio stations: WQSA, Sarasota. WWBA, St. Petersburg. WEXY, Miami, and WFSO, Seminole! And by the time you are reading this also on WPLA, Plant City. We are most grateful for these opportunities to bring before the general public our Society and it's goals.

We would also like to announce that Mr. August C. Roberts, the authority on UFO photography, is moving to Florida! As of this writing we do not have the exact location -- but -- we KNOW he is coming and we couldn't be happier! Welcome, Augie, to our beautiful state!

We have many plans for the future, but the most exciting to our President, Patrick O'Connell, is the beginning of his PYRAMID ENERGY classes. From practical applications to exotic techniques -- Pat will bring forth this little known knowledge! For any of our local readers, please call us and make your reservations early. We have had a tremendous interest generated by our radio talk shows!

In January we will put our lessons in survival techniques to use and have a SURVIVAL COOKOUT! Cook out on your own campfires -- in fact -- you will have to create the fire itself -- before you can cook! Mr. Ed Hall was kind enough to give a talk to us 'greenies' during our Investigator's classes, on the how's and do's and don'ts of surviving, lost, in the woods and what you can and can't eat to stay alive and get back to civilization. Nothing like a little armadillo and possum to tide you over! And - we thank Ed for all his help.

Our regular meeting schedule gets underway in February when our first lecture of the new year will be: "WHO WERE THE FIRST ATLANTIANANS?" We will bring you all up to date on the newest geological and archeological discoveries concerning The Old Continent! So -- until then - we thank you for your support last year, and look forward to seeing you again in the New Year.

CATTLE MUTILATIONS: UFO PHENOMENA?

Compiled by Joan O'Connell, Editor

Note: The following are reprints from the numerous clips that have reached us and for which we thank Mary and TAL Levesque, Jack and Mary Robinson, Tom Stone, and our clipping service. WHAT are the facts, WHAT are the theories? We present them here, for YOU to research. This is a prime example of what we like to call 'Investigative Journalism'. JOC

"FIRST RECORDED IN 1897 - CATTLE MUTILATIONS LINKED TO UFOS" - Portland, Ore.
A UFO lecturer who works through the speakers bureau at the University of Minnesota says there have been links between reported UFO phenomena and cattle mutilations since at least 1897, the Oregon Journal reported Thursday.

Terrence Mitchell, the UFO lecturer, said he has collected material on approx. 3,000 cattle mutilation cases in the United States since 1900. He disclosed the odd links between some of those cases and alleged UFO reports while making inquiries at the Lincoln County sheriff's office about the current UFO story and 20 missing people from Oregon. The missing apparently believe they are headed for a higher plane of life beyond this planet, with the help of UFOS.

There have been a rash of cattle mutilations reports in the West, from Colorado to Oregon in recent weeks, and the strange things about those mutilations were no tell-tale footprints, or marks of any kind were left behind... "We took some aerial pictures of some of the strangest things I've ever seen," Mitchell told the Journal. "Within an eight of a mile of a mutilated cow you can see a perfect circle melted in the snow. No footprints, but every indication that humans were involved in the deaths of these animals." He cited as "evidence" the paper said, the apparent surgical removal of lips, tongues, udders and sex organs, the anus, and in many cases, the right ear. In every known case, Mitchess said, the animal had been almost completely drained of blood.

Lt. Everett Chapman of the Oregon State Police confirmed Mitchell's general description was very similar to about 12 cattle cases in Oregon recently, including the detail that most or all the animals were discovered lying on their left sides with their "hooves extended and their tails straight out." ...

TOWN GRIPPED BY UFO FEAR - Frightened citizens in a small resort community have set up their own nightwatch following a rash of UFO sightings... Mrs. Gary Sharp, of Elsberry, Mo. saw 13 flourescent cone-shaped objects in the sky when she was driving towards Foley. She said two of the objects followed her, then dropped something into a field. It immediately burst into flames, and the UFOs darted away. When police arrived on the scene, they found a recently burned circle in the ground, 30 ft. in diameter. Since then, dozens of skywatchers have been on the alert almost every night... The tension caused by the sightings increased when a mutilated cow was found on a brush heap outside town. Its left ear, tongue and genitals had been removed -- and distraught townspeople linked the cow to the eery events in the sky. (Source: The Nat'l Star - 6/7.75)

UFOS AREN'T LINKED TO CATTLE SLAYINGS SAYS UW AUTHORITY - Laramie, Wyo. Local rumors to the contrary, local UFO expert Dr. Leo Sprinkly has seen no evidence of connection between recent cattle mutilations and UFOs. "On the other hand, the University of Wyoming professor of counseling and testing said, "there was no good theory to account for cattle mutilation on any other basis."...

Editor's note: I have heard of 'fence-sitting' - but those two conflicting statements above TAKE THE CAKE. (Source: Casper Star - Oct. 75)

MUTILATION THEORIES VARY - Casper, Wyo. ... The most recent revelation that shocked many who had watched the slain cattle toll mount higher each week came from Uinta County where Sheriff Leonard Hysell said he's fielded reports of some 15 over a two week span... Nearly as eerie as the mutilations themselves are the many theories that abound explaining the purpose of the mutilations. Some inspire incredulity like the theory offered by one Star-Tribune reader who said that occupants of UFOs, driven from their own planet by hunger, are responsible for the slayings... Others believe the bizarre slayings are the work of devil worshippers... Still others claim as a psychic from Salt Lake city said, that four or five men don white smokks and tote portable decompression machines to the kill sites along with a machine he said was developed during the Vietnam War which allowed medics to drain blood and inject a saline solution ... Psychic Dean Wilson also predicted that the men, who perform the mutilations ... will be captured by the end of November...

In Idaho and Utah, the mutilations have been accompanied by a rash of UFO sightings and authorities have been deluged by reports of lights flashing in the night sky... Rewards offered for information leading to the arrent and conviction of the cattle mutilations top $11,000 in Colorado alone. Like amounts have been offered by cattlemen's associations in other Western states, too.

RANCHERS FEAR MUTILATIONS - Saratoga, Wyo. - Carbon County Deputy Sheriff Glen Glidden spent a sleepless night tracking down reports of strange lights in the sky ... Until Monday, all 8 mutilations had occurred in that southern Wy. county or mountains and lush valleys. It was here, too, that sightings of strange lights in the sky near Savery ... but the jittery ranchers and their families who make their homes in the valley began to call Glidden last weekend to report strange lights after a horse was found mutilated in a field three miles south and east of here... The light was stationary, and flashed through what appeared to be a fog surrounding it... But searchers found no helicopter and the lights vanished as mysteriously as they appeared... The owner of two horses that bore the stamp of the cattle slayers and their meticulous method of removing organs borrowed a geiger counter from an Idaho high school and tested the slain for radioactivity. The horse owner reported that while ground surrounding the dead animals registered a mere .05 milliroentgens of radioactivity, the horses themselves kicked the needle to nearly .5 and unleashed a deluge of speculation about the source of the radioactivity. The horse carcasses were marred by pancake-shaped swellings on their necks about 6 inches above the shoulders. Authorities were also perplexed by several scraped or burned spots on one of the dead mares...

ELECTRONIC MUSIC and YOU

A NEW SAFE AND EFFECTIVE AID
FOR THE PROMOTION OF ALTERED STATES OF CONSCIOUSNESS

There is a place . . . a beautiful, peaceful place . . . where exists the Love and Freedom of YOUR OWN TRUE REALITY. Here you will discover your own CENTER OF BEING and the immeasurable creative potential of YOU and YOUR RELATIONSHIP TO THE UNIVERSE.

There are many existing methods designed to help you reach this center, most of which are verbal instructions in how to reach a non-verbal state. Music, however, can be a very dramatic, safe and effective aid in reaching this center also, but it must be specifically designed and constructed for this purpose.

In 1970, Electronic Music Research, Inc. was created for the purpose of studying the effects of sound/frequency structures upon the human organism. During 5 years of intensive research and development, EMR, Inc. has been able to create and produce for public release, 3 Stereo LP recordings of electronic musical sequences. These sequences tend to act as triggering mechanisms for altered states of consciousness. They also enhance the meditational techniques you may now be using, by contributing to your own potential for expanded awareness.

The large amount of past orders received for these recordings, from PAYING CUSTOMERS, attests to their effectiveness. Many groups, instructors and individuals throughout the country who specialize in teaching altered state techniques, have included these recordings as a permanent part of their educational programs.

Perhaps you merely wish to relax . . . or establish a peaceful atmosphere . . . or sooth frazzeled nerves. If so, these electronic musical sequences can help you. For increased creative output, try playing these sequences as soft background music while you work, or as a sub-liminal background for the understanding and working through of a particular personal problem.

Yes, there is a place . . . a beautiful, peaceful place . . . and you can go there whenever you wish! Our electronic music just makes it easier for you to make the trip.
