Free Will, Illusion or Reality ?

SCENE: A man driving down a lonely road at night. He is suddenly blinded by a very brilliant beam of light coming from a 'saucer' directly overhead. The car then stops by itself, and he hears strange cricket-like noises, or perhaps, beeping. Then ----- materializing from 'nowhere', several weird creatures approach him and he is taken to the hovering craft. He becomes unconscious, and when he awakens he finds himself in his car, and with a large gap in his memory. And - a physical loss of time.

AFTER-EFFECTS: Sleeplessness, nervous tension, sometimes a physical disorder as well as a mental state of feeling helpless. In the majority of cases, a sense of losing his own FREE WILL happens. A 'feeling' that some One or some Thing is in control of his mind, and his physical actions. In some cases he then becomes a religious fanatic and states that he is the only one to be able to save the whole world... etc...

This type of 'scene' has been played again and again for many years, and it's 'stars' have been housewives, singers, farmers, hunters, and even military people. Police-men, reporters, lawyers, sailors, pilots --- you name it, and you will find a category in which there has been a "contactee".

This has not only appeared in the United States, but in every other country, it is a world-wide 'invasion' of something. When the "contactee" is placed under proper medical hypnosis, he then reveals many things, including a 'cover' story that was told to him to reveal. In some instances, this 'story' was just that, a 'story'. When a deeper layer of the subconscious was revealed, a different 'story' emerged, which was very different from the original one. So, now we have two stories, and one "contactee", who as time goes on can come up with even MORE stories! All of them different from the first.

This is an old story to veteran UFO researchers, who learned years ago to recognize this type of effect, but hundreds of new people every year are becoming interested in formal investigations of this phenomenon, and should be made aware of the many ramifications of this type of UFO activity.

I don't pretend to have the Answer, nor does any other responsible researcher in this field. However, we DO know the effects of many UFO sightings, while we may not understand the Source. And- we also know that our greatest help in this field is a very obvious one ... KNOWLEDGE. Without it we would be as lost as the person who cannot remember two hours of his life after an encounter with strange 'beings'. And, be ever watchful for the psychic side-effects. The "contactee" may begin to feel that he or she is in telepathic contact with 'them', and who knows - they may be! So - arm yourself with PSYCHIC knowledge as well as PHYSICAL knowledge or equipment. Learn as much as you can about Parapsychology in general, learn the different types of psychic phenomena and apply some of this type of knowledge in your investigations. Always look beyond the OBVIOUS, and you may come up with some startling answers!!!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Pat and Joan:

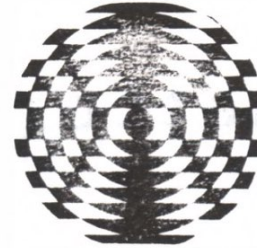

...(1) It is necessary that people using pyramid energy understand that they are using sub-atomic light. The same light field that the aura is made... (2) Our pyramid is a large antenna that refocuses cosmic light. Several UFOs have been seen over our pyramid. I believe the reason why is that they operate on cosmic light, and, our antenna puts a hole in their energy field because we drain off a large amount of their energy and collect it for ourselves. (3) We can help people build their pyramids to generate maximum energy. To advance in evolution -- Man has to change his auraic field around his body. To do this he needs a pyramid. Inside the pyramid is a large vortex. When he attunes his energy field to this vortex he can then speed up the electrons in his own field and advance into higher levels of consciousness... The secrets and design of the Cheops were carried from the Atlantean Society into the Egyptian Society. The Great Hall of Knowledge contains the history of man and marks the Alpha and Omega points of Man's evolution. It is more than a coincidence that you have a pyramid on your letter head. Maybe it was more than a coincidence that we sent you an article... Love and Light, Mary Hardy... Allegan, Michigan.

Editors' Note: We are very proud to be able to attract these type of researchers to our readership, and we will print their article in our next issue! Thanks to Dean and Mary, our knowledge will be vastly increased.

Dear Joan:

... There's a sidelight on COSMIC PULSE OF LIFE that may interest you. At the time the printing contract was signed... with Irv Trent sitting by, I said "You have no money problem with this book. You'll get paid as per contract without any doubt. The money is laid aside for this. Your biggest problem is to get this book out without your plant being burned to the ground." Well, he laughed... But on the morning of 2 April, '76, with his business and his printing plant ashed by a nocturnal fire that devoured all this -- including the nearly completed COSMIC PULSE -- Everett Stockton was not laughing. Nor was I. In New York that very evening, having dinner with John White and Richard Gallen, I felt especially urgent about returning to California, having just returned from a round the world voyage that ended in NY. After a two months absence, it would have made sense to spend a week in NY and fence-mend and plant a few seeds. Instead, I said to Dick and John, "I'm sorry, I've got to get back to California tomorrow," and that same night saw COSMIC PULSE incinerated and publication knocked out until August. Quite a tale, and 100 percent true... As Ever, Trevor... (James), Author, "THE COSMIC PULSE OF LIFE" - MERLIN PRESS, POB 12159, Santa Ana, Ca. 92712. $5.95 .

STRANGENEWS!

SIDEWALK TESTED AFTER DOG DIES - New York - 1/20/77 - One dog died and several others fled after stepping on a small section of sidewalk in Harlem... The dog stepped on a patch of sidewalk that was free of ice or snow. The animal howled, and, its hair then on end, ran a few feet, fell down and died... The vet, Dr. O. M. Vidal, said that death was caused by respiratory failure and cardiac arrest, and the dog's bloodfilled lungs indicated possible electrucution... A utility employee ran a test with a light bulb. The light bulb glowed when pressed against the sidewalk. A workman said that was enough electricity to kill a dog, but not a human. A Con Ed spokesman said the inspection's team report was being analyzed "and we don't know how it happened, or if there is any Con Edison involvement." (Credit: Ron Kelly, Washington, D.C.)

MASS ON LOCH BOTTOM - Edinburgh, Scotland - 1/13/77 - Scientists hunting for the Loch Ness monster, say sonar detectors spotted a large object on the bottom... They said it was either a sunken boat or the 80 foot carcass of the monster. (Credit: Tom Adams, Paris, TX.)

FRENCH 'WEREWOLF' ARRESTED - Senlis - 12/16/76 - Police said today they have arrested a 35 year old father of two on charges he is the 'werewolf' who killed eight persons in the past seven years, slaying each by the light of the full moon. (Credit: Mary and TAL Levesque, Hawthorne, Ca.)

'FOSSIL' PIG FOUND ALIVE IN PARAGUAY - A University of Connecticut biologist has found in a South American jungle a kind of pig thought to have been extinct for over two million years... (Credit: Jack and Mary Robinson, Jersey City, N.J.)

KILLER BEES BUZZING ANEW - Buenos Aires - 1/8/77 - The buzzing of bees has become a roar in Northern Argentina where killer bees have been swooping down without warning in recent days. The bees have struck four times in the last two weeks, and their victims have included both man and beast.. A cloud of bees engulfed a man walking along a highway and stung him repeatedly. He died in a hospital... (Credit: Mary and TAL Levesque)

ATSTONAUTS MIGHT NEED THEIR RAIN BOOTS! - Munich - 1/20/77 - West German scientists who have found signs of water vapor in a distant galaxy say they believe environmental conditions similar to those on Earth exist elsewhere. Astronomers said they have found evidence of water in the so-called spiral nebula M-33, which is 2.2 million light years away. They said it is the first water vapor cloud ever discovered outside our own galaxy. (Credit: Gene Duplantier, Ontario, Canada)

WOBBLY EARTH - As it rotates, Earth wobbles on its axis. This deviation, known as Chandler's Wobble, reaches its peak every seventh year, and some scientists believe earthquakes are more numerous in those years. The NEXT peak year will be in 1978...

Communicating With Aliens

Cross-sectional drawing of a ventla-type spacecraft made and published by George Van Tassel in his Proceedings issue of 1 December 1953. Transduction of the positive primary radiation from the sun into propulsive power takes place in the "light motor" sectioned here in the middle of the craft. Infrared photographs of vehicles of this type made by the author directly from the invisible state are consistent in what they show with Van Tassel's description of spacecraft propulsion, obtained by telepathy nearly 30 years ago.

"STAR SYMBOLS FROM MY GREAT GRANDFATHER"

by MICHAEL SMITH (KWASIND)

SHANA LOKA TA', STAR COUNCIL, SEVEN SISTERS (PLEIADES)
VIA MARS TO EARTH, CHEYENNE MEDICINEMAN (COLORADO)

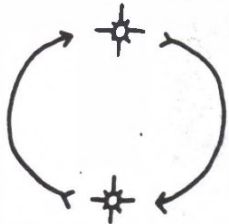

What do these words mean? They were passed on to me by my great grandfather in Colorado in 1959. He was 106 and dying --- I was 13. This, along with a piece of leather with some picture writings, was passed on to me. I thought he was crazy at the time, but maybe a better translation (like in Crazy Horse's name) - would be "enchanted."

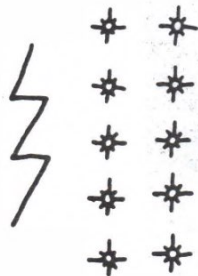

He said his name was given to him through his ancestors from the Star Council of the Seven Sisters, who sent people to this solar system where they built cities and pyramids on Mars - travelled back and forth to Earth - finally left Mars for Earth and then colonized part of North America in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, later to be the Cheyenne. He also said his name was so old and from a people so far away that it couldn't even be translated into a Cheyenne word or into English.

I also asked him if I would grow up to be a medicine man like him, and if I should try to live like an "Indian" or a "Whiteman". He didn't seem to distinguish between medicine man, white man, or Indian. He said, "You live your life as you're guided, find yourself in relation to the rest of creation - and above all, find out what it means to be a "MAN" first, then you'll know the answers to all the rest." It's taken me 15 years to find out just a little of what he meant. It's been worth it.

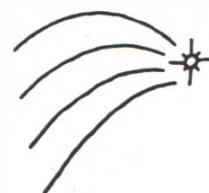

My great grandfather didn't distinguish between red and white men because he knew, as the prophecies of his people said, of a time when red brothers, white brothers, yellow brothers, and black brothers would start to recognize each other as such. He knew the planetary influences on the part of the Earth Mother we know as North America would gradually influence the humans living on it to evolve into what he called "real people", which could be recognized by the balance of the Star Father and Earth Mother apparent in their minds and hearts - inside, not outside.

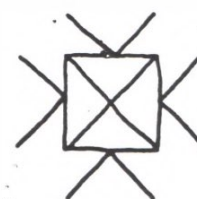

... Thinking of the Ten Commandments, I asked him about the difference between the white man's religion and the red man's religion. He said, "What difference? A person with the law of God in his heart is no different from a person with the law of the Great Spirit in his. The legends tell of a white man like Jesus who was living among the Indians a long time ago. They thought of him as a brother.

... He'd never been to school but he felt the same way about teachers of numbers. He said he didn't understand how people could use numbers with zeros in them, since zero didn't represent a reality. He said everything, everywhere in creation is, or is filled with, something. I assume he meant there is no perfect vacuum in existence in the Universe. He said zeros were probably just for counting money, but not much good for anything else. Even the old ones regard Ten as the number of the Great Spirit, but always spoke of it or wrote it with the symbol for twice five, never using a zero. In fact, many of the old ones thought it was too sacred a number (10) to even speak of - according to him.

As for the purification mentioned in the prophecies, great grandfather said, "Purification is the responsibility of individuals inside themselves. When enough people have gone through the purification, they will see that the Earth Mother is going through purification at the same time. The Star Father is part of the purification too, but many forget that!"

Great grandfather also described a sacred pipe. The bowl is made of a bright blue rock similar to turquoise, with a silver ring inlaid around the rim of the top, four silver crosses are inlaid in the four directions around the upright part of the bowl. It has a diamond-like crystal set in the outward tip of the bowl that joins the stem, on the right and left sides, are two silver lightning bolts. On the top near where the stem joins is a gold bolt of lightning with a copper bolt of lightning on the bottom. The stem is of one solid piece of crystal with no inlay or decoration at all. He said the Star Council of the Seven Sisters sent it to the Elder's Council of the civilization on Mars. When they left Mars, they put this sacred blue and crystal pipe in the temple of an underground city they built when they first came to Earth from Mars. He said the man who will claim the pipe will be a blend of many different races and that he will find the pipe during the purification spoken of in the Indian prophecies. My great grandfather said only the right man could claim the pipe, since the protector of the pipe is a small Martian animal, similar to a mink, with beautiful fur. This spirit animal wraps itself around the pipe and lives by the universal energies through the pipe. The protective animal will release the pipe to the right man - but if a wrong man attempts to take the pipe - the protector can kill with only a look from his eyes.

Great Grandfather had a strong impression on me. Before we parted, I had to ask him why, as an Indian, he had such bright blue eyes. When I asked him about this, the expression on his face was an interesting combination of a smile and a laugh. He said that to most people his eyes were brown and always had been. He was 106 years old and about to die, yet his eyes were bright, alive, and blue - his handshake was that of an incredibly strong man, radiating an amount of energy that was almost too much to believe. He said he was very happy to return his body to the Earth Mother so he could return to the star people and his Star Father. And - I believe he really was happy about it.

Great grandfather said that when the old ones first came here from the Seven Sisters there were twelve planets around the sun, but now there's only eleven, since one planet between Mars and Jupiter was destroyed. He also mentioned cities and Pyramids the old ones built on the Moon, in addition to the ones on Mars and Earth.

Among his more interesting descriptions were copper headbands with a crystal mounted over a silver disc on the forehead. He said the priests were able to send and receive pictures over great distances on Earth as well as on other planets. He said crowns were originally used in this manner but their purpose was forgotten as they became symbols and decorations. Scepters are symbols of the energy rods used for healing with crystals -- according to him.

Along with this, were descriptions of a number of underground cities connected by tunnels -- from Mt. Shasta in California to Crater Lake in Oregon - to Mt. Rainier in Washington, then to Eastern Washington, Idaho, Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Arizona, and New Mexico.

There were not references to ancient ruins but to cities fully intact with polished rock screens similar to TV sets in the walls and a number of starships underground. Brief mention was made of blond haired, blue eyed Indians from these places which were of some of the Germanic tribes. Also mentioned were the yellow people of the rising sun (Japan), and the Kahunas of the islands (Hawaii). As for the black people in Africa, he said some tribes still wore headdresses and used dances exactly like the Hopi's and looked like Kachinas.

Editor's Note: Michael and Pat Smith are now living in Boise, at 1609 1/2 - North 13th (83702). Michael is available for counseling and talks, "medicine" instruction and some "healing" work. A man of many skills, an able engineer and house-builder, and a knowledge of Indian lore... We first read this article in INNER FORUM, and we wrote to Michael, a new day for us....

PSYCHIC PHOTOGRAPHY (or)
by Terry Allison

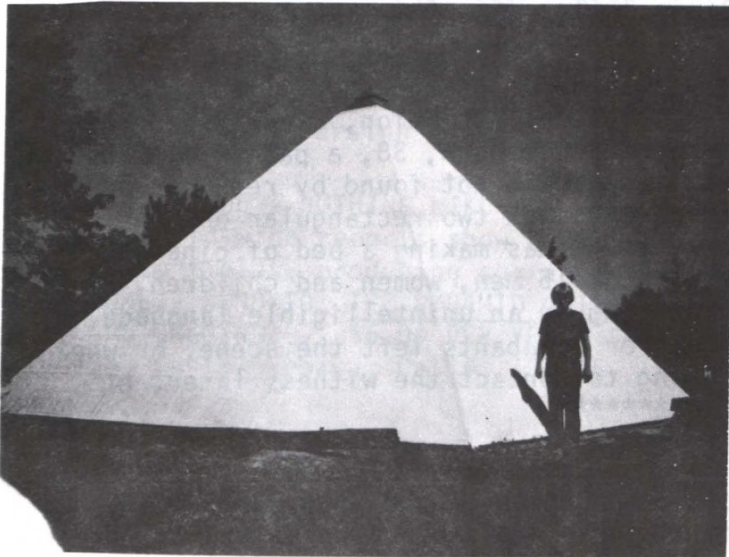

PARAPHYSICS

The three photos were taken one evening in 1975, during a photo session with my favorite subject, my wife Renee. It started with Renee going into a deep trance state, while I set up the camera and equipment. A few moments before the first photo was taken, I started to sense a presence in the room. A giant of a man was starting to take form behind Renee. He had very broad shoulders with large muscular arms crossed in front of his chest. As soon as he started to appear I began to take photos, hoping he would show up on the film. After a full roll of film had been exposed it was developed and inspected. Instead of finding this beautiful giant, there were several frames of Renee's aura. The 1st, as she meditated, the 2nd, you can see the fiber-like threads coming from the shoulder area as the aura strengthened, and the 3rd, the complete aura. (The beautiful giant we found out is a guardian of Renee's and has only made his presence known one other time since then, in March of 1977.)

Anyone can experiment with this sort of photography. The only necessary piece of equipment is a 35 mm camera that the lens can be kept open for short periods of time. For a COMPLETE set of instructions, with diagrams, on how you can conduct your own psychic photography experiments, and also including instructions on processing your own film with the equipment you have in your own home, please send a self-addressed envelope and $3.00 (Florida residents add 4% sales tax) to:

Landing and Creature Reports

ALIEN BEING PHOTOGRAPHED? -- Witnesses from a remote community in Italy claim the figure they captured on film is a genuine visitor from outer space... Ufologist Stelio Asso tells of seeing and photographing a "small man", just under 4 ft. tall, with his daughter Maria Grazia and artist Roberto Molino. They said the being did not have eyes as we know them - rather it had two slits slanted upward. It was wearing black overalls. They said the strange being walked around for a few moments -- then disappeared right in front of their eyes... first the feet and then the rest of the body...

UFO 'TRAFFIC CONTROL?' - Santa Cruz, Ca. - 9/1/76 - Richard Golding... said he saw a silvery-grey saucer-shaped object 10 ft. across that landed at the intersection of Center St. and Walnut... about 3 a.m.... "It was about 10 ft. across and maybe eight ft. high, thick in the middle... it didn't have any lights or legs." Then there was a clicking sound, and green gas began to flow from the object. It began to glow. He called his housemates, who also said they witnessed the smoke, but the UFO was gone. "The smoke or cloud hung about 4 ft. in the air, then began to descend and disappeared."

YOUTH CLAIMS SEEING 2 GREEN MEN FROM UFO - Malone, Wisc. - 8/5/76 - A UFO landed on a Malone farm and two green men were seen briefly before they disappeared... Mark said he drove over to the area where the object had landed and saw two green men when he showed the car's bright headlights, then dimmed the headlights as the two men put their hands up, he said, and then "disappeared somehow" in front of his eyes. Mark did not see the grounded flying saucer... Source: Fond Du Lac Reporter.

STRANGE 'GYPSY-LIKE' UFONAUTS! - Georgetown Clear Creek, Courant, Colorado - 6/18/76. A Virginia man's report that he saw UFOs and a band of strange, gypsy-like people while lost near Echo Lake last week has drawn national attention, Clear Creek County Sheriff Gene Kiefer said... The hiker was Michael Lusignan, 38, a patent examiner from Arlington, Va. who was reported missing... and was not found by rescuers until Sunday morning. When rescued Lusignan said he had seen two rectangular objects float down from the Clouds Wednesday evening, as he was making a bed of pine boughs. ... Lusignan approached them and encountered about 15 men, women and children, dressed like gypsies or American Indians and whispering in an unintelligible language... (Note: no mention was made of how the vehicle or occupants left the scene, or what happened after that. An investigator was going to contact the witness later, etc...)

AMAZING DISCOVERY IN THE BAHAMAS

Divers near Bimini uncovered this ancient wall buried below four feet of sand in 30 feet of emerald blue waters five miles north of North Rock Point. Bahamas Antiquities Institute licensed by the Bahamas Government to conduct explorations in the area is planning a major excavation and research of the site believed to be the first evidence of a sunken prehistoric city located in Bahamian Waters.

PYRAMID KIT

Kit will build ANY size Pyramid (within reason). Kit includes 4 high quality cast aluminum corner fittings, 1 cast aluminum apex fitting, and an assembly manual with mathematical tables already calculated for Pyramid models from 2 foot to 10 foot bases in 1 inch increments. All fittings are precision engineered to exactly duplicate the angles and relationships of the Great Pyramid of Cheops. The fittings are designed to be used with electrical conduit (not included) but will work with other tubing or even poles. The conduit is available at most hardware and electrical supply stores and most stores will even (for a small fee) cut it to size for you. The pyramid assembles and disassembles easily, for portability or for interchanging between pyramids of different sizes -- for instance -- a 2 foot base for charging food, water, etc. and a 10 foot base for meditation.

KIT CONTAINS:

- 4 cast aluminum corner fittings
 - 1 cast aluminum apex fitting
 - Complete instructions
 - Tubing length tables
- COST: $29.95 - Postpaid!

BRAVO #3

Strange, plasmatic fauna, invisible to normal human sight, cavort above the summit of Mt. Wilson, California in January 1959. The author used a Praktica FX-2 camera, exposing at f1.9 and 1/100 second, using highspeed infrared film. These organisms, according to the author, pulsate and change form when spuriously visible and account for numerous UFO reports.

LITTLE RED CRITTER

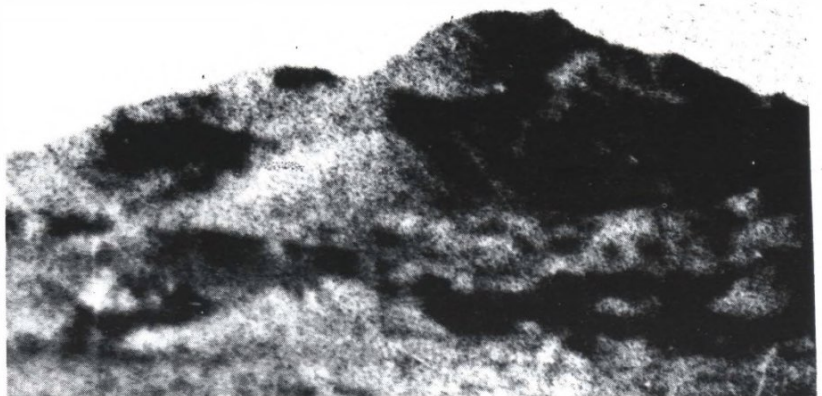

The author photographed this invisible critter from the window of an airliner at 30,000 feet between San Jose and Long Beach, California in November of 1975. He used his "dark spectrum" technique and Super 8mm Ektachrome 160 film. Four successive photos were made at 2 frames per second, in the course of which the critter "warped out", i.e., literally shrank from perceptibility while maintaining station with airliner. This was typical density change mentioned by author in text.

Conversion to monochrome and enlargement have degraded image, but author states that in direct projection of color film there is no doubt of identity between this critter and one in Strauch photo above.

"Dark spectrum" technique simply involves placing an 18A filter over the camera lens to create an artificial darkness in full daylight. The author claims that UFOs—both critters and craft—come through onto the film and out of the artificial dark in full color. He says anyone can take such pictures.

BIOFORMS IN MOVIES

Frames excerpted from infrared motion picture footage show bioforms around the author on the Mojave desert in California before sunup. The bioforms change shape, position, and also appear to divide like amoebae at tremendous speeds. This sequence was shot at 24 frames per second. The whole happening shown occurred in approximately a quarter of a second. The author's view is that such materializations into the infrared occur in response to certain positions, motions and orientations of the "target human", which are poorly understood. He holds that the same factors govern UFO materializations in the earth environment.

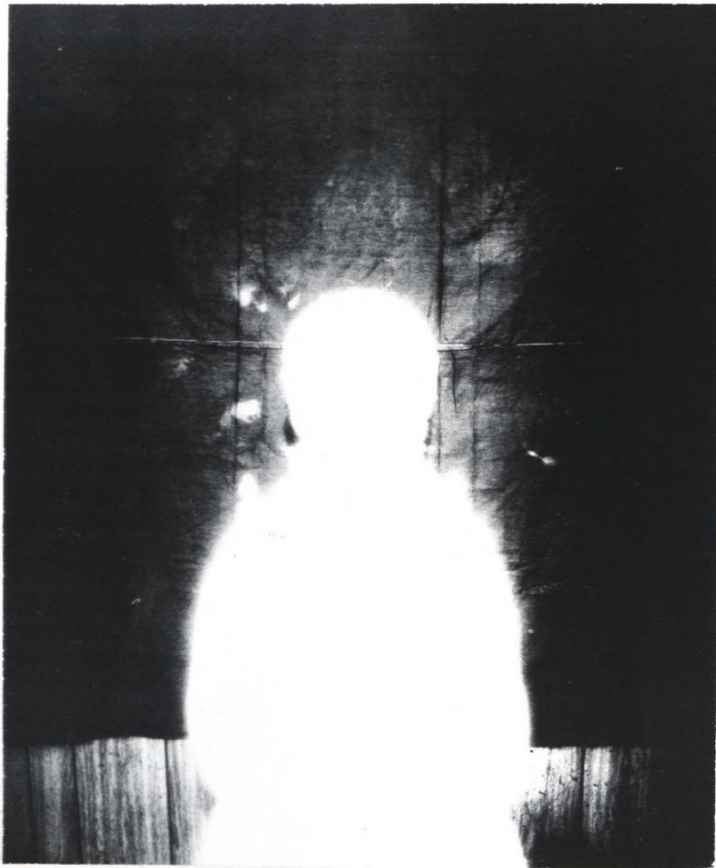

BRAVO #1

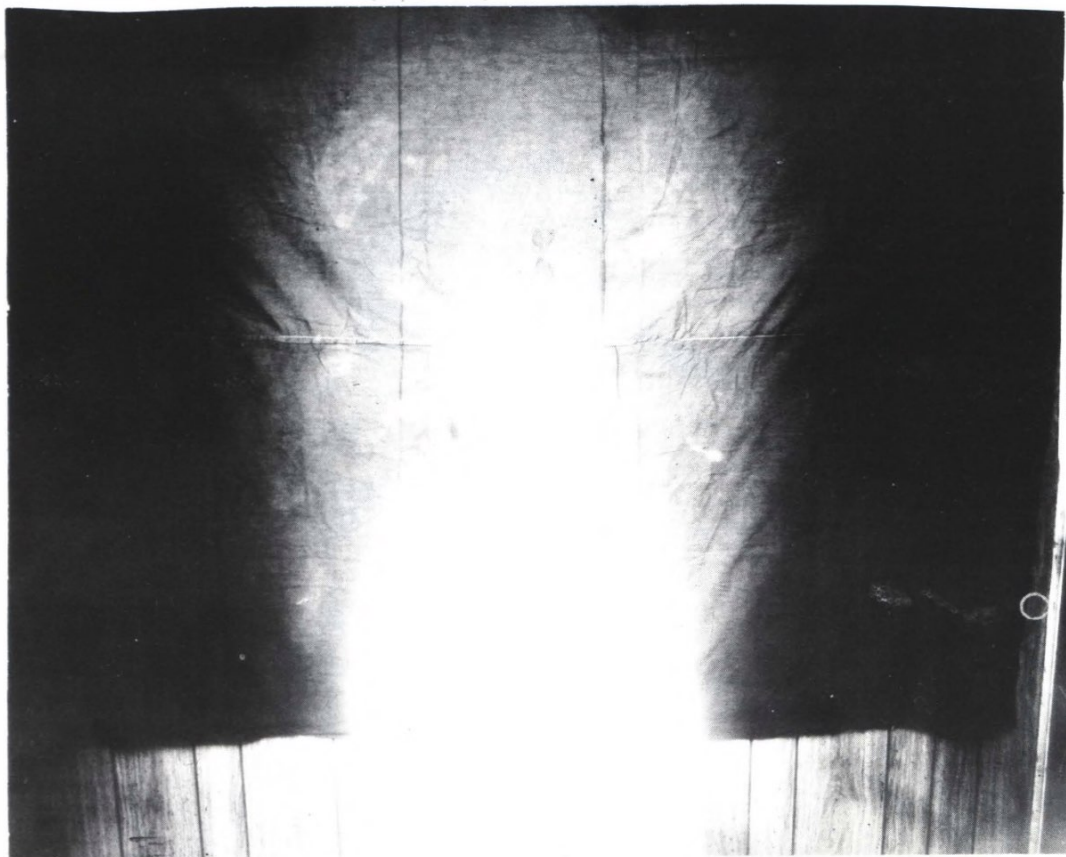

Fusiform, invisible UFO photographed with unfiltered high-speed infrared film near Giant Rock, California on 5 April 1958 near dawn. Note luminous corona around object. The author contends that many of these cigar-shaped UFOs are living organisms from the "critter" family of invisible denizens of our atmosphere. Leica G, f3.5, 1/20 second.

I'M PUTTING YOU ON - TO SOMETHING!

by DEWEY CUMMINGS

"This is a biocosmic generator", my son announced. Holding the little gadget out to me, he continued. "It performs miracles."

"Huh?", I responded. "Looks like a retarded waffle iron to me. Look at all those square and pointy heads!" "Very funny, Dad, a riot." Somehow, I didn't think he meant it. He confirmed my suspicion by staring at the top of my head longer than I thought necessary. "These square and pointy heads happen to be exact-to-scale replicas of the Great Pyramid of Giza, also known as Cheops Pyramid, the huge one guarded by the Sphinx. It is the first and most spectacular of the Seven Wonders of the World, and a mystery of mind-boggling proportions."

I countered brilliantly. "What's so mysterious about a big pile of big rocks" Anyone can pile up rocks!" He sighed. "Look, Dad, I realize that you were taught in school, back in the Dark Ages, that The Great Pyramid is just a big tomb. Modern science, however, has discovered it is much more than that. It is, in fact, the largest and heaviest, the most accurately constructed and positioned structure on earth.

"The mathematics, engineering, and architecture required for its design and erection are unmatched. Its precision is so fantastic that, with all our modern machines and technology, we could not duplicate it in a hundred years! Some respected scientists are not sure that The Great Pyramid was built by the people of earth." "Hunh", I gulped!

My son persevered. "True, Dad. More importantly, very great scientists in many countries, including Russia and the United States, are racing to unlock the secret of the energies produced by this particular pyramid form. It violates many of what were thought to be the natural laws of physics, and they do not understand it. Of course, that is the history of science -- discovery and change -- more discovery and more change.

"They do know now that this special pyramid form acts something like an optical prism in the way it alters light energy. The pyramid, however, uses the magnetic field of the Earth and the unlimited cosmic energies bombarding the Earth from outer space. Somehow, the pyramid form combines or resonates these energies to produce an energy of a frequency that is very high and cannot be measured by our instruments. In that way, and in other important ways, this energy is very much like the mysterious energy of life, itself."

I re-entered the conversation. "Hunh?" "That's right, Dad. That's why many of the scientists call this energy 'bio-cosmic', combining words meaning life and the Universe. Most people in this country just use the name of its source and call it 'Pyramid Energy'. "Anyhow, Pyramid Energy is helpful to mankind in dozens of ways. It is almost godlike, in fact, because it is so selectively useful. For example, it both relaxes and energizes us. It frees our subconscious minds, so we can make use of our natural ESP, meditate, or use self-hypnosis. It also helps our animal friends, and it is sensational for plants! They grow much faster and stronger, stay healthy, and produce more flowers, fruit, grain, or whatever.

"Even more surprising, Pyramid Energy kills harmful bacteria and molds, yet it encourages helpful bacteria. It kills disease viruses, but helps the enzymes we need for life. It preserves foodstuffs and other organic substances. You know, Pyramid Energy is what made the mummies." As we parents will, I came through in style. "You're PUTTING ME ON!" I bellowed.

As our kids will, my son came through also. He quivered, strangled, wiped his eyes, and finally laughed in uncontrollable delight. When he could get his breath, he managed to gasp, "Check it out, Dad. Just remember that you are a scientist, a West Pointer, and all that good stuff. Just ... check it out." I can't stand a smart-alec kid, either. Especially when he has just outsmarted me. So I checked it out.

You can guess what happened. I began my experiments as a complete skeptic, determined to disprove what my son had told me. That little Pyramid Energy Generator, no larger than my hand, was a little powerhouse. It worked! It purified and improved the taste of water, wine, foods, everything. It made sickly plants strong, and small plants large and bountiful.

My mother-in-law, bless her, provided the clincher. For several years she had suffered from an injury to her left hand and this had caused the hand to become very painful, stiff, and almost useless. While she was visiting us, she frequently rubbed the hand, complaining of the pain and her inability to move her fingers. I took a chance. Even though she is a charter member of the old fundamentalist school, I suggested she place her hand atop the little pyramid energy generator for a few minutes.

She squawked like a wet chicken for a full five minutes, but finally decided the devil wouldn't get her if she gave it a try. After about twenty minutes, during which time we had been discussing my assorted shortcomings, I asked her how her hand felt. She mumbled, grumbled, and then moved her hand freely and without pain. She became almost hysterical with delight and astonishment. She took the generator home with her at the conclusion of the visit, and used it daily. After only two of these months she was able to play piano and organ again. She likes me a little better now.

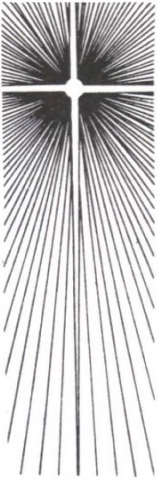

To make a long story short, I acquired the exclusive state distributorship for a great line of pyramid energy products which are inexpensive and I now have many retail dealers around the state, and am adding more daily. Business is booming. The name of my firm is PYRAMID HOUSE, and our office and showroom is situated at 4017 S.W. 95th Avenue in Miami. We invite everyone to drop in for a free demonstration of Pyramid Energy. I have continued my research, and am in contact with many other researchers. My work has qualified me as the nearest thing to an expert, and I have combined knowledge and humor to become a popular lecturer for everything from colleges to conventions. Pyramid Energy has revolutionized my life in every way -- much less stress and greatly improved health, plus a new and fascinating career! Someday, someone may say to you - "This is a bio-cosmic generator." If that happens, don't laugh. Listen!

THE HOPIS GET PROPHECY SIGN FROM UFOS
(Reprinted from NAJ - Vol.4-No. 1 -)

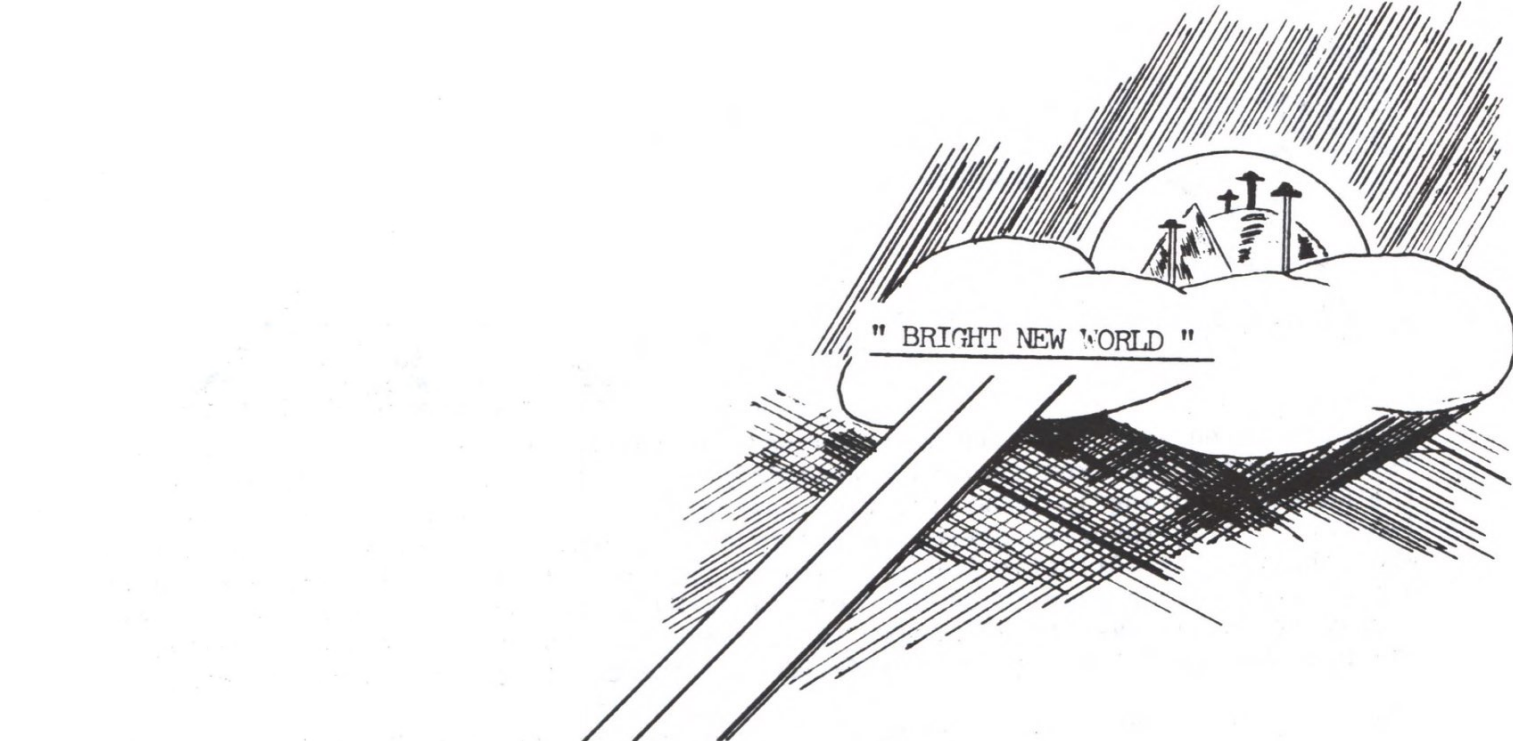

A rash of UFO sightings in the vicinity of Prescott, AZ., and the HOPI villiage of Hotevilla has been interpreted by traditionalist leaders of Hotevilla as signs that the ancient HOPI prophecy of "Purification Day" is near at hand. And - non-Indian, Paul Solem, of Powell, Idaho, claims he called the saucers down - a skill he says he has had since 1948. Solem said he came to HOPI land in 1969 on instructions from the inhabitants of the saucers. "They say the great work would commence with the Indians.

"We have seen the flying saucers and have heard their message to us," said Chief Dan Katchongva of Hotevilla, .. "We know they are real, as their pictures were drawn upon stone for all to see near Old Oraibi, Arizona, in the very beginning. "Also, HOPI indians know that other planets and worlds have people, and they are watching us."

Chief Katchongva was interpreting a petroglyph showing a horizontal line - topped with a half-circle at its center, with the head and arm of a human showing... According to HOPI legends, tell the first HOPIS at Oraibi were guided to the site by a bright star, a star Chief Katchongva and his followers now say was a flying saucer. They were guided by the great Spirit - Massau. Massau placed in the hands of the HOPI a set of stone tablets, - "Tiponi", symbol of power and authority... A second set will be brought at the day of Purification. Another indication of the approach of the time of the coming is the "True White Brother" and that "your land will be forced to be divided and shall be cut four times, each cut smaller than the other." A prophecy the Hotevilla HOPI say was accomplished by highway construction to Oraibi... "These are the last warnings, these flying saucers coming over," Mrs. Tawangyawma said. She estimated that the Purification Day would come within the present generation.

The way to escape destruction on Purification Day is for the HOPI to "go back to their teachings,"... Non Indians face the same admonition. "Only through their original teachings will they receive their salvation"... The final indication of the approach of the Day of Purification will be a massive explosion of natural causes, perhaps a volcanic eruption, the HOPIS said. This will be followed by a massive migration of all Indians to Oraibi... The HOPI say the saucers are piloted by Kachinas, the demigods of the HOPI religion. "We know the faithful are to be gathered to escape... Therefore, when the great fire and explosion takes place it will be seen all over North and South America and the Earth will shake... ..

THE MIGRATIONS OF THE ATLANTEANS

by Maxine Asher (Reprinted from NAJ - Vol. 2 - 4)

It is believed that Atlantis once spanned the entire Atlantic Ocean in a series of islands, extending from Ireland's Aran Islands, to Nova Scotia, and from Spain to the Bahamas, moving in a SW direction toward Mexico, Guatemala and the Honduras. Two conflicting theories present a dichotomy concerning the origin of the cultures who inhabited the Atlantic Ocean Islands. If, in fact, an earlier 'Mother' continent existed in the Pacific Ocean (Lemuria or Mu), then we may assume that Lemurian survivors could have passed across to California, through the SW and SE United States, finally filtering down to Mexico and the countries of Central America.

Giant megalithic heads at La Democracia in Guatemala near the Pacific Coast of that country, point to the existence of early pre-Olmec survivors of a highly developed ocean culture who may have arrived in Guatemala as early as 10,000 B.C. and were the ancestors of the later Mayan cultural complex. These survivors eventually moved out onto the Atlantic Ocean Islands where they reached the zenith of their culture about 50,000 B.C. An apparently opposing theory presupposes the migration of Indian tribes from Russia and Asia, across the Bering Straits and down through the western coast of the U.S. to Mexico and Central America. Since it is known that there have been numerous geologic land submersions since the earth's beginning, it is possible that the Bering Strait migration occurred at a different time period than the Lemurian exodus or that it was contemporary with this migration.

... The Mayan may not have emanated from either the Bering migration or the Lemurian migration, but was a survivor of the final Atlantean holocaust (circa 11,000 B.C.) travelling from Spain and Africa across the ocean to Central America. The Mayan survivor looks remarkably like the Andalusian Spaniard and Mayan glyphs have been compared favorably with the Phaistos Disc in Crete which has been identified as another possible survival site where refugees fled after the last and final destruction of Atlantis. Many of the Mayan characteristics are distinct Atlantean - as their ability to construct pyramids, their resistance to traditional religious forms (still extant today) and their scientific prowess achieved through the utilization of astronomical and cosmic forces. The corroboration of the Mayan Bible and the myths of Popul Vuh with the Koran, the Book of Mormon and the Old Testament is remarkable... The underwater Atlantean temple blocks at Bimini Island in the Bahamas attest to a highly developed culture in that region. Gravity defying tunnels in Oak Island, Nova Scotia, simulate phenomena found in the Pyramids of Egypt, and archaeological sites of Central and South America bear petroglyphs and megalithic structures identical to those in Europe and the Mediterranean. Finds off the coast of Spain parallel those of Bimini. Is it all coincidence?...

The puzzle of the migratory Atlanteans will be a problem for scientists until the discovery of written records which will validate the myriad pieces of evidence drawn from all disciplines...

Treasures

AND UFOs

WHY DO UFO CHASERS HAUNT TREASURE SPOTS? OR -- WHY DO TREASURE HUNTERS HAUNT UFO SPOTS?

The answer depends on whether you are a treasure hunter -- or -- a UFO hunter! Currently in the news now is the treasure tale of the lost golden bars hopefully to be found at White Sands, New Mexico. In order to go on this 'hunt' permission had to be granted by the U.S. government, as the 'treasure' could be found on it's famed Missile Range! Unusual, to say the least, but, what does all this have to do with UFO's? I am sure that a gentleman by the name of Dr. Daniel Fry could tell you! He made his first contact with a landed 'saucer' right on that same range, back in the 1950's. And since that time there have been numerous reports of UFOs, and even some very important photographs were taken of these elusive objects around the range areas.

In the Florida area we have what we call a 'portal' or 'window', near the town of Brooksville. And many UFO reports have been filed from there, and a quite famous 'landing' case that involved a gentleman by the name of John Reeves. And, during some of our investigative trips up into that area we have run into several 'treasure hunters' with their buzzing detectors, who were looking for everything EXCEPT UFOs!

We were aware that some of the local people there had some strange tales to tell! And this included tales of 5 'lost cities', an old abandoned railroad depot, WW I barracks, underground caves with Indian inscriptions, AND, last but absolutely NOT least, it was said that golden Roman coins were found just off the highway! How much truth is there in all this? Wellll, (!) It all depends on who you are talking to - and when. BUT, I do know for a fact that the 5 cities DID have being once -- many years ago, and this is in the exact same area that contains so many UFO reports!

I also surmise there could have been Indians in the area, as there were many in that part of the state at one time. I personally have never found any caves with inscriptions, however, that does not mean YOU can't go look for them, it only means that I haven't seen them!

As for the Roman coins? I can put you in touch with the person who told me, and then you are on your own! And, I also know that during the first World War, this same area was used as a target range, so they did have Army barracks around!

Florida has always ranked high on the lists of reported UFOs. It has always been a treasure hunter's state as well. Sunken Spanish ships, buried treasure, and Indian artifacts have drawn their share of prospectors. SO -- Who is chasing What? Depends on what you are searching or researching!

I never found any treasure, but I sure have found a lot of UFOs!

UFO ABDUCTION CASES: IS THERE A ROLE FOR HYPNOTHERAPY?

by Bryan Dickeson, B.Sc., B.A.

(Reprinted from: Xenolog, 33 Dee St., Timaru, N.Z.)

Recently there have been a number of sensational reports made concerning UFO abductions in the Northern Hemisphere, USA, France, and from South Africa. These accounts make extensive use of reports by the observer-abductee under hypnosis, and are the latest in a series of hypnotic interviews going back some 12 years. (eg. the Betty and Barney Hill case, US, first reported in the mid 60's.)

A great deal of controversy exists as to just how useful this material is to ufologists and people should be aware that hypnotherapy, improperly used, will do little to provide hard "evidence" about UFOs. Firstly, psychologists generally agree that what a person says while under hypnosis is not necessarily actual fact, but a representation of what a person believes to have happened. Of itself, hypnotherapy may not be able to distinguish between actual experience and daydreaming.

Secondly, some of the early cases on UFO abductions appear to be falling apart at the seams in the light of further re-evaluation (see "Official UFO", August, 1976) concerning the Betty and Barney Hill abduction. These counter-attacks from the establishment need to be looked at closely as well, because some of them are quite fallacious.

At present, hypnotherapy is being used too glibly by UFO Investigators, probably as a means of pushing their own ideas and biases on UFOs, rather than as a way of getting real information. Too many "improper" questions being asked the abductees, and these cannot withstand the test of time. Opportunities are being wasted. After looking at many of the abduction accounts there does seem to be a great deal of similarity between them, notably:

- (1) A UFO is seen descending near the abductee (where the abductee is in a car, he hears an unusual noise, and the car appears to run down and stop.)
- (2) The abductee has feelings of apprehension or fear (at times his conscious memory of what follows may lapse) he experiences a degree of immobility.
- (3) The abductee is "attracted" or carried into the UFO and placed on a table for "examination" (at this point the ability to recall following events even under hypnosis may lapse).
- (4) The abductee suddenly finds himself outside the UFO, once more, and then carries on "normally".
- (5) In relating the incident the abductee shows many characteristics of catatonic schizophrenia -- (a) agitated aggressive and defensive reactions after recovery, and a need to "justify" the incident. (b) a slight degree of hallucinatory/dream-like activity. (c) the loss of a sense of time (d) a feeling of emotional stress, often offset by a beneficial-philosophical view of his abductors.

The most fascinating and significant feature of all these events is the fear/trauma/shock experienced. Fear can induce or enhance an hypnotic state in animals, including man. (A chicken can be hypnotized into a state of immobility by forcing it to fixate its gaze on a line drawn on the ground - this effect is enhanced if the chicken has had little contact with man). Immobilization by this kind of process has been documented in over 50 different species of animal, including insects, crustaceans, fish, amphibia, reptiles, birds, lower mammals and primates.

Fixation probably occurs in man as well (how many abductees report that they just "froze" near a UFO). Exaggerated stress will increase the effect in duration and intensity - perhaps the possibility of an "examination" at alien hands is sufficient to place subsequent events beyond the reach of "light" hypnosis questions. (It is notable that animals which have a strong dependence on optical activity in their lifestyle (especially birds) react strongly to eyes placed near them. (vis. butterflies which have "eyes" on their wings to scare off predators). Most abductees note how their captors have large eyes and appear threatening, although they have often been described as "small" and "dwarf-like".

Applying this information to the abductee reports suggests a "model" outline for the "ideal" abduction case... The accounts of interviews under hypnosis tend to swell on embellishments in the story which could be attributed to the psychotic or hallucinatory state, and which are easily insubstantiated. Interviewers often assume that a great degree of verbal or mental communication between abductee and abductor(s) takes place and extemporise on this rather than with more immediate questions... An important grey area still exists in the accounts provided from abductees, concerning the "medical" examination and after - - few complete accounts are available (many abductees "turn off" completely).

More details from these areas would be useful. Also, this would reduce the corrosive effect of time and publicity on such incidents. Since their abduction in 1961 the Hills (USA) have produced several versions of the incident with important variations in detail... To reduce spoilage, abductee cases provided under hypnosis need to be fully recorded before time, experience and publicity can affect the memory. If UFO investigators are to keep using this material, they will need to be more exhaustive with their researches...

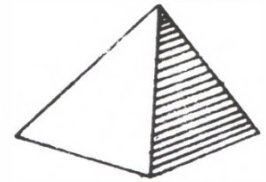

Greatest concern should be for the abductee. Also avoid indiscriminate publicity, sensationalism and anything which isolates the abductee from others in the community or puts him up to ridicule. Be discrete, and maintain the abductee's confidence.

Ufologists need to prepare this material more carefully, more sympathetically, if it is to be of continued use. If there is to be a role for hypnotherapy in UFO abduction cases then it will require a greater degree of involvement from those who want to use it, than is presently available.

THE HIDDEN PURPOSES OF THE GREAT PYRAMID
AS REVEALED BY ASTROSONIC RESONANCES

by Michael C. Heleus (All Rights Reserved)

The Great Pyramid of Gizeh in Egypt is deservedly one of the best known pieces of ancient architecture. It can be shown by study of the linear dimensions of this structure that ancient cultures possessed a far more comprehensive grasp of cosmic principles than is commonly supposed, and indeed, may have possessed a much more comprehensive grasp than moderns. Again and again investigators have been able to validly derive cosmic measurements from the dimensions of the Pyramid which have only been equalled in modern times, or which may be even better than currently accepted values. So much information has been codified and integrated into the measurements of this structure that it can be justly considered a wonder of the world, a work of surpassing genius.

In this article I propose to introduce a new method of learning the purposes of ancient structures according to the ideas which can be shown to correlate with their measurements by means of Astrosonics. Astrosonics means simply 'star-sound'. It is a term coined to refer to the authors' discovery of 1973, that reproducing the periodic motions of the planets as sound, produces directly, in hearers, many of the effects attributable to Astrology. This means that on a fairly reproduceable basis it is possible to create astrological effects. A method is now available to assign frequencies to ideas, and have the assignment be verifiable, rather than an arbitrary scheme.

Once a connection between an idea or related group of them and a frequency has been established, the frequency in turn can be correlated with a specific length. The ideas then can be seen to relate to the length, and a glimpse is had of the reason those specific lengths were used in structures such as the Great Pyramid.

If the entire subject of how ideas and frequencies correlate by Astrosonics is taken for granted, it still remains to explain how frequencies connect to lengths. This last connection is well established scientifically, unlike Astrosonics, which has only recently been found, or rediscovered, since it may be the secret of old Greek sage Orpheus' magical lyre, which was tuned to the motions of the planets, and could charm anything, man, beast, or nature. The general subject of resonance establishes the relation of length and frequency.

The base length of a side of the Pyramid is 9141.1 British inches. Multiplying this by the square root of 2 to get the diagonal of the square base, we have its length of 12,927.5 inches ("). In dry air under ordinary conditions (0°C) sound travels about 1088.5 feet (of 12") per second. This means that sound goes 13062, or so, inches in a second, just a bit more than the length of the Pyramid diagonal, in fact, a correspondence to one part in 96. While this could be a coincidence, it seems unlikely, especially in the light of the body of correlations between lengths based on motions of the planets and those incorporated into the Pyramid, which were later found. What is the meaning of this?

As Peter Tompkins has noted, the base of the Pyramid corresponds to the distance the earth turns in one half second (at the altitude of the base above sea level and at the equator) accurate to about one part in 5000. This means that the earth turns at 1523.5 feet per second on the equator). In astrophysics it is known that the velocity of an object in a given orbit must be increased by a factor of the square root of two for the object to reach escape velocity. Taking an object on the equator to be 'orbiting' about the center of the earth at 1523.5 sec. which is one part in 96 from being twice the velocity of sound, or two diagonals of the Pyramid. This could be a hint that the dimensions of the Pyramid diagonals were chosen to reflect levitations by sound, a possible means of constructing the Pyramid...

MEDICAL PARASCIENCE: THE NEW PREVENTIVE MEDICINE

Doctors and laymen are continually searching for an explanation as to why we become ill. In the past, the medical profession has relied mainly on science and technology. However, the New Age awareness has brought to light alternative methods of understanding ourselves through biofeedback, I Ching, Tarot, bio-rhythms and medical astrology.

For the past twenty-five years, Parapsychic Systems has been blending these esoteric sciences with standard medical practices to expand our view of the total individual. Trained physicians with excellent backgrounds in the parasciences provide diagnostic counseling and educational services through Parapsychic Systems to those who feel they can benefit either as patients or students. My Strength and Vitality has increased since placing a Pyramid under my chair where, for at least fifteen hours a week, I sit doing my studying and writing. At least three times a day I place a smaller Pyramid on my head. My thought forms are amplified, My brain is stimulated, My reflexes better, and my Psychic Powers in various forms, more Cosmic-Aware. Since keeping one under my bed, I relax, when I awaken, I know I am more refreshed, intensely alert, and in a better frame of mind, with an abundance of Energy. I am 67 years young. DEWEY CUMMINGS

SCIENTIST - MYSTIC

SPEAKER

ON PYRAMID ENERGY

Dewey Cummings is one of our nation's most entertaining speakers, and a frequent guest on popular television and radio shows. He possesses the unusual talent of a deceptively easy and informal manner, combined with a dynamic delivery which is altogether impressive!

Mr. Cummings educates as he entertains. When the situation permits, he erects an effective, open-sided pyramid beside him, and invites members of his audience to sit beneath it to demonstrate the effects of Pyramid Energy. The results are not predictable, but always quite amusing. Some become giddy, while others go into a trancelike state of total isolation. Those who fight the relaxing and tranquilizing effects of the energy usually are the most amusing of all!

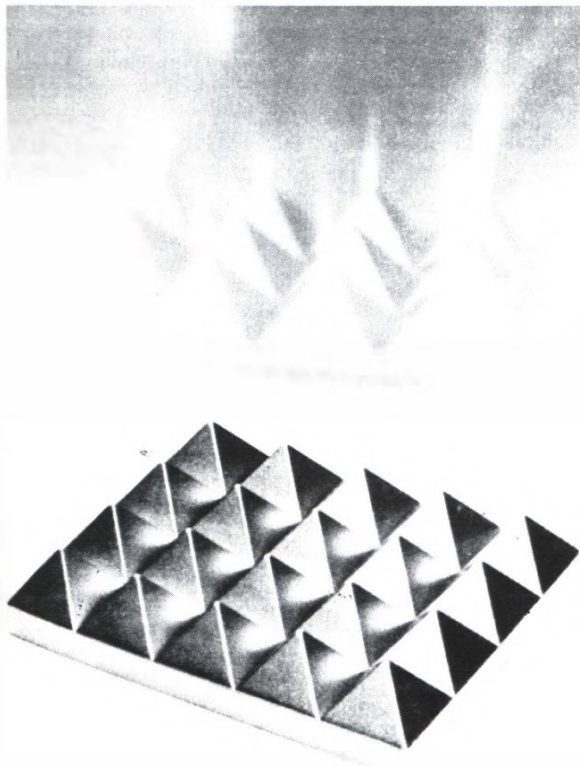

A particularly interesting feature of Mr. Cummings' lectures is his skill at reading the reactions of his audience. He can interject a very funny and true story resulting from his research at the proper moment, or just as easily, become quite serious and drop a bombshell of informed prediction upon his startled audience. He literally holds his audience on the edge of their seats, and he has won the respect and acclaim of expert critics.

One veteran booker of speakers and entertainers for a super-class resort and convention hotel, an expert who has observed the work of thousands, wrote to Mr. Cummings after attending his lecture: "I found you to be most interesting and to be one of the most knowledgeable people speaking from your own experiences that I have met in several years . . . it was a pleasure to meet you and to hear you."

A national award-winning, syndicated columnist wrote: "Refreshingly, Cummings doesn't try to convert anybody . . . no smooth talk, no apparent con. He speaks on the subject with humor, and some of his lectures have produced unforgettable results . . . Dewey is a man who is a West Point graduate, exceedingly well-versed in physics, metaphysics, and generally one most interesting gent."

Dewey Cummings sees a time in the future when Pyramid Energy will revolutionize not just civilization but mankind itself - as it has in the past, many times.

Mr. Cummings' background is unique. He was an outstanding scholar, and won his appointment to West Point in competition with hundreds of this country's most brilliant young men. Upon graduating that institution with a Science and Engineering degree, he quickly advanced in private industry to become one of the most respected engineers and creative thinkers in his or any field. Highly versatile, he later purchased secret technical equipment for all three of our major armed services.

During the Sixties, Mr. Cummings became established as a highly paid consultant, specializing in the rapid solution of complex and varied business problems. It was at this time that he fully realized for the first time in his life that he somehow acquired knowledge from unknown sources. He also was able to look back upon some of his earlier feats of physical prowess, such as becoming a champion boxer and an uncannily skilled archer, and realize that he had used psychokinetic powers for many of his achievements. This discovery dramatically changed his life.

He renounced the use of psychic energies for any purpose, convinced that he must learn their origin and proper usage before continuing to employ powers of such potential danger to others. He abandoned his former work and lifestyle, and began serious study of a broad spectrum of scientific, psychological, and metaphysical subjects. Inevitably, he learned of pyramids and their incredible energies, and became totally fascinated. He undertook many experiments with a carefully detached and scientific attitude, made many new and startling discoveries of great value to mankind, and became a man who has found his mission in life.

Today, Mr. Cummings devotes full time to working with pyramid energies, with particular emphasis on their great usefulness to people of every type, age, sex, or faith. He founded Pyramid House, Inc., which is a rapidly growing firm organized to distribute tested and guaranteed, but quite inexpensive, devices which produce Pyramid Energy more effectively than any other devices in the world. He serves as the President and guiding force of this organization, and uses the firm's products in his research. With an ample supply of Pyramid Energy, and with his extensive contacts with other researchers, he continues to be the leader in his field.

Sharing his knowledge with others has led to Mr. Cummings' emergence as an outstanding speaker. His subject, his genuine expertise as a scientist and researcher, his informal and humorous manner, and his naturally dynamic personality - all these qualities combine to make him a man respected and enjoyed by all who see and hear him, whether his audience may be in a college, church, club, coven, or convention. He makes any occasion memorable.

He is A Man For All Reasons!
