Letters to the Editor

Dear Madam: Can you help me with the following? I am trying to locate a Joan Whritenour, and have been told that she does the Editoring work for you. I want to contact this lady as I believe that she can help me with my research to do with the Men In Black... Bryan Hartley, Thornton-le-Fylde, Lancs., England.

*Dear Bryan! You have her, it's me, tell me all about it! Since our "Allende Letters" book has been reprinted several times lately in England (without my knowledge) we have had many letters about MIB and Joan Whritenour, etc. It all goes to my old address and gets forwarded here!

Sir: Recently I saw your magazine on the shelf at the library reading room at A.R.E. in Virginia Beach. Unfortunately, someone checked it out before I could get anything except the address, could you send me some information on subscritptions, etc... Dianne Varsey, Yaupon Beach, N.C.

*Dear Dianne: A thank you and a warm welcome to a new subscriber! You would do well in Research!

Dear Joan: My first copy of your Journal impressed me. I hope I can send you some of my theories, ideas. Exchange different sides on UFOs and Bigfoot, etc. I have had a couple of experiences... F.L. Holmes. Warren, Pa.

*Yes,your ideas and theories are wanted! Send them to us.

Dear Joan: Your latest issue has just reached me here in London, and is first rate. I read the article "The Sands of Time" on pages 8 and 9 with great interest...With all best wishes, Earl of Clancarty. (Brinsley Le Poer Trench.

* Thanks for the 'first rate' compliment! When is your new book due? We just got your "Secret of the Ages" - fascinating!

Dear Sirs: Enclosed is #2 check for which please send me your book of tips on how to organize, etc...Yours truly (name on file)...N.J.

*Dear (...) - You forgot to put the check in the letter! I really think you DO have a need, so I mailed it anyway! P.S. Thanks for sending the $ back.

Hello, Thank you, Joan, I read your "Free Will, Illusion or Realty?"It is a brief outline of what happened to the Hardy family in 1968. Your short article helps me understand what has happened to us... After nine years Dean and I now feel that we were picked up by a UFO. It is because of this that we have gotten the information on the Pyramid. The first of October, of that year it happened. We were coming home from Dean's folks in Auburn, Ind. That night we took a different way home, down a lonely road. Here we lost 45 minutes of our life. The boys had to go potty so we stopped. Dean and our two sons got out of the car. I watched the headlights of a car coming, but it never went by. When Dean and the boys got back in the car we felt that there was someone in the car with us. When we arrived at the next town, we realised that we had lost at least 45 minutes. We then became frightened... We had no idea what happened to us. In the last year or so we realize that we were probably picked up by a space ship... they were reported in the area that night.

Since that time we have been given much knowledge, and in a dream Dean was told he had to build a Pyramid. It all started the next Sunday night. About the same time that we were gone, we discovered our back door would not lock. Every Sunday night for months after that we could go to the back door and it would not lock. Even to this day if we have an important decision to make the door will not lock... I know now that the Pyramid is a tool to help mankind advance into the "New Age".

Inside the Pyramid is a vortex. Within this vortex, light is re-focused into its two directions of matter, anti-matter, as Jesus demonstrated when he walked on the face of the earth. One direction goes from the past to the future. The other from the future to the past...

As I said before, your article only confirms the fact that during the 45 minutes we were picked up, even though we remember nothing of it. Our lives were changed completely from that point on. I believe we were being guided into the "New Age". We needed this experience to help us go on in the evolution of Mankind. Mankind must now lose the illusion of Matter and advance into the world beyond matter, into the "New Age". Love and Light, Mary Hardy, Allegan, Michigan.

*Dear Mary: I appreciate your permission to let us print your experiences. It is through people like yourself and your husband that we all can learn the truth about such 'encounters'. Your information on Pyramid Research is progressing far beyond many others in the same field, who are still fussing about the plants or how to change the taste of wine! May you always shed the Light on the Path.

Editorial

The year 1978 should be a fantistic one! Between STAR WARS and CLOSE ENCOUNTERS the American public will be informed of the existance of ALIENS! Both from within and from without our time-frame of what we call REALITY. STAR WARS outlined the Inner Reality of the 'FORCE', the Universal Spirit which inhabits ALL. The 'Good' Force vrs. The 'Bad' Force. A totally entertaining method of instilling the Truth within us - even in a subliminal form. But - it really triggered the public with a 'message'. Of Hope.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS brushed against us with a whirlwind of many REALITIES. To those 'silent contactees' who have held their tongue and have not told of their personal experiences with 'Them', I am sure it hit with a jolt! This will trigger off an avalance of new stories, from those who have not had the courage to speak of it before. It triggered off emotions in the viewing public that I could not have forseen -- UNTIL I saw the movie myself. Then - I understood. As they shall. As will the millions yet to undergo the 'Experience'. There is a built in 'triggering' effect in CLOSE ENCOUNTERS that will aim at those for whom it is intended. The rest will leave the theatre saying "so what?" - This is as it should be. This is the culling process, the separating of the wheat from the chaff, the choosing, if you will, of the Survivors.

WHO picks them? WHO has the 'right' to make a Choice? HOW can anyone do that? YOU DO, MY FRIEND. JUST ONLY LITTLE OLD YOU. NO ONE PERSON CAN SELECT FOR ANOTHER. YOU DO IT YOURSELF. By your love, your hate, your greed, your sacrificing, your AWARENESS. Your love of HU-man life - over your love of self-life.

The physical Earth is moving into a new area of Universal Space, an area of NEW vibratory frequencies, of NEW levels of consciousness, the old frequencies of hate and intolerance must be left behind. This is truly the NEW AGE. Of New Thought and New Hope. This is the NEW AGE OF THE PHASE SHIFT. A new phrase? No. Just a misunderstood one. It merely means that we are NOT the same person we were yesterday - and TOMORROW we will not be the same as TODAY. A shifting in our AWARENESS today, will result in a changed tomorrow. A physical change, mind you, not just a mental one! A new world of dimensional change awaits us, as it has once before in our dim and mostly forgotton past. But - it takes but a wee 'trigger' to open our inner-locked memories. A Time-Lock perhaps. A self imposed one.

Our Homeland was once drowned many eons ago, drowned not only in water, but in lost dreams and hopes, broken by the waves of hatred and power-greed, A Voice was heard then, and many heeded that Voice, some did not. Some returned to the Stars, some to New Colonies, some to the bottom of our once calm and peaceful Ocean, to sink within the mud of their own doing.

UFO PHENOMENON

Santiago, Chile. A group of UFO researchers warned Corporal Armando Valdes, who was kidnapped by one of those objects 15 days ago, about the inconvience of letting himself be hypnotized in order to find out the secrets of his contact with the aliens. Cpl. Valdes commanded a Chilean military patrol engaged in routine tasks in the frontier with Bolivia when he was kidnapped by a UFO for about 15 minutes. This happened before the astonished members of the patrol who saw the man vanish before them. 15 minutes later Cpl. Valdes appeared and fainted after speaking some enigmatic word. The man, which reappeared with a 5 days growth of beard and with his calendar watch with the date changed. It should have read April 25th, but read April 30th . The Temuco Center for Space Investigations warned Cpl. Valdes not to undertake any type of tests, since in the similar Argentine case of the Truck driver Mauricio Llanks, investigations ended in the man's insanity. (Source: Buenos Aires Cronica-5/22/77)

"ABSORBED" BY A SAUCER - Rio de Janeiro - The list of strange phenomena is never closed in Brazil. Here is the latest story which is appearing abroad in the present time. One inhabitant, Sydney Walker, 33 years old, would have been "aspirated up in the air" in surroundings of Rio, and would have been found again in the north of country, some thousands of kilometres from the spot where he was "absorbed". Some countrymen, would have discovered him, with haggard face, in coconuts-palm forrest, while he was repeating, "I have been absorbed by a saucer." He added that his transfer had been instantaneous and that it elapsed any interval of time between his taking off and landing...(Source: "Nostra"-Paris,7/13/77)

SPACE MESSAGES IN ENGLAND? Southampton- A series of bleeps gradually overtook normal sound toward the end of Southern Television's evening news program Saturday night, and viewers heard a voice say: "This is the voice of Asteron. I am an authorized representative of the Inter-Galactic mission, and I have a message for the planet Earth. We are beginning to enter the period of Aquarius, and there are many corrections which have to be made by Earth people. All your weapons of evil must be destroyed. You have only a short time to learn to live together in peace. You must live together in peace -- or you leave the Galaxy."

Hundreds of alarmed viewers reached for telephones, and television technicians scrambled to find out where the message was coming from. But the source of the voice remained a mystery Sunday. "Most people took it quite seriously, and some were frightened," a police spokesman said...

"Our engineers are trying to discover exactly what happened,' said the Southern Television spokesman. "We can't imagine how it was done but it appears someone must have managed to transmit a signal over ours. The equipment used would need to be fairly sophisticated and expensive." CASE HISTORIES

UFO KIDNAPPING! FLORIDA STYLE

NOTE: This is the conclusion to our Florida UFO abduction case. The witness tells it in her own words, and says it with her wonderful drawings. This is an ongoing case insofar as her uncanny experiences continue to happen. She still feels that it would be unwise to reveal her name and that of her son. I agree with her.

"My husband and I started having marriage trouble and bad arguements, finally in November we moved into Orlando. Our arguements became worse and worse and finally one night in December he slapped me several times and told me to leave. I walked to the highway and started for Kissimmee. It's a long walk, maybe some 20 miles, but I wasn't thinking straight and I was crying... I walked for around an hour... Pretty soon I heard the whispery voice again. I still could not understand it and I kept walking. Then I saw the disc again.

"It came down fast in front of me and again 2 men got out and I went inside. We went in the same room and one man walked over with the rectangle with the needles and asked me to take off my coat. I didn't feel afraid this time for some reason and I took it off. He put it against my arm and I fainted. I don't know what happened.

"Finally there was the blue light in my eyes again and the man said I could leave. I asked him where I was and he said "Not far from where you were going." I went outside and walked a little ways and the light got bright and it took off. I was 3 or 4 blocks from my friend's house. When I got there it was 15 til 3 in the morning, and I had left home at 11 pm. I never went back to my husband but two months later I found that I was pregnant..."

"I had my child, a son, on September 13,1964. Sometimes I wonder about him, he's always been odd. Everyone in the family teased me about having a "Superbaby". He was big at birth, 9 lbs. 5 oz.,but later is when he got his nickname. At 4 months he broke the slats out of his crib, he could walk holding on to a walker or a chair, and at 5 months pushed me across the floor in a chair with wheels on it. By the time he was 11 months old it was nearly out of hand, he could move furniture, the dining table would be shoved against the couch or whatever. He could easily move the refridgerator. I didn't know what to do with him so I taught him constantly to "be gentle". He would back his sisters into a corner because they were afraid he'd hurt them just by playing.

"When he was 5 years old, a doubting Aunt of mine asked to see his strength. She had an antique house jack, the kind house movers use. It was so heavy she could not lift it off the floor, but my son easily lifted it and brought it to her!"

He doesn't look different than other boys, he's average for his age with black hair and brown eyes. The only curious thing about his appearance is a brown spot in his left eye (on the white part) that his friends call his "extra eye". He's somewhat psychic and has a rather high I.Q., but really, I've often wondered whose he is. He doesn't resemble at all my ex-husband. He has dark skin, my husband is a dirty blond with fair skin and green eyes. My hair is dark, blue eyes and medium fair complexion."

"... About the craft. I told you about the panel with the lights of color, but I didn't want to mention the other panel unless you seemed to believe me about it all. There was another panel next to the other one, but this one had colors on it that I have never seen before or since. I knew they were colors but there aren't any words to describe them. They aren't similar to anything I've come across. He said that panel was their communications board, that they didn't use words or symbols to talk back and forth to each other, they used colors that we can't intercept or record, because we don't have those colors here on earth. " Sometimes I still hear the whispery voice, but mostly I have troubling dreams , where I dream all sorts of things about the men on board the craft and how they talk to me and tell me all sorts of things. "THEY" all wear the same symbol, Looks like this (BELOW), and one had a pendant with a star with things engraved all around it and that symbol in the middle."

"My son has some telepathic abilities but they are limited. Perhaps because of lack of training or excercise. He frequently knows what some one is going to do or say. He is interested very much in astronomy and hopes to be an astronaut some day. He's never been afraid of the dark and enjoys going out at night star-gazing. He wants a telescope. He has had countless dreams about saucers, and has described the occupants as being the same as those I've seen. I guess the weirdest thing that ever happened with him was when he was 3½ years old, it was early evening and the time of the month when both the sun and moon can be seen at the same time in the sky. He looked and saw them both and bacame very excited and said "Look, Mamma, two suns, just like at home!" Another strange thing, he doesn't seem to react to pain like most people. He barely feels any."

EDITORS NOTE: There is much more to this story, and some that will will never be told. This is her wish, and I must respect it. She is a very courageous woman. Her son may be one of our leaders of the future, or of our past. Who knows? I don't. God's Blessings to the children of world's present-time, they could be our only hope.

THE AMAZING CHINESE PYRAMIDS!

by Dr. Ron Anjard

In Central China, there are spectacular Zhensi giants. These seven earthen Pyramids of enormous size lie along a seven mile plain, a short distance west of Sian-Fu. These Pyramids are in decreasing size in their relative positions. The largest Pyramid has been estimated to be a thousand feet or more in height - which is at least twice the height of the Great Pyramid of Giza. The base of the giant Pyramid is about 1500 feet - or three times that of the Great Pyramid. This indicates a much different angle of slope than used in the construction of the Pyramid of Giza. Very limited local data suggested their age as 5000 to 6000 years old. Explorers were unable to find openings to possible inner chambers or artifacts.

These astonishing Shensi mounds are dwarfed by an even greater Chinese marvel. There is an awesome, crystal-capped white pyramid located much further south in the mountainous section of Hupei Province. But this pyramid is unlike the Mayan, Egyptian and other Chinese pyramids in that it is three sided. The crystal capstone alone has been estimated at 200 feet high. The overall height has been estimated between 1700-1900 feet high. This is four times the height of the Great Pyramid of Giza. Compare the 200 foot crystal to a 200 inch crystal mirror developed for Palomar Observatory. Obviously the Ancients possessed the knowledge to grow and construct this immense crystal topstone. This may have been used as an energy accumulator and for religious purposes. The crystal capstone, as with other crystal artifacts, have been hypotized as powerful, high vibration, communicative devices.

BEYOND PHYSICAL DEATH (the electromagnetic factor)
by William Hans Weiss

The question of if there is an existance after the physical death of the body has been discussed by men for the length of recorded history. What is the evidence for and against an existance after death? What role does the bioelectromagnetic fields of the body play in the death event?

The evidence from reports of persons who have been resuscitated after having been pronounced clinicaly dead, bear an amazing similarity of experiences. The usual sequence of reported death events is as follows: as a man reaches death he starts to hear a loud ringing or buzzing in his ears, then comes a sensation of moving through a long dark tunnel. After this the person finds himself outside of his body as a spector. In this "detached" state these persons have been able to describe incidents that an unconscious person could not, such as the actions of medical persons. This sequence of death events has been reported as far back as the writings of Plato. It is possible however, that these are wish fulfilling dreams or hallucinations as Freud suggested.

However, let us look at a possible explanation for a state of consciousness that would survive physical death. It is of interest to note that the term 'soul' has an equivalent in every known language. Is it possible that what has been referred to as the soul (an invisible second body) is in fact the ENERGY of the body?

Scientific investigations have disclosed that the entire spectrum of electromagnetic energies are present in the human body to varying degrees. The brains mental functions are readily observed by its electrical activity (brain waves) thus the reason for the E.E.G. Dr. Harold Saxton Burr of Yale University School of Medicine, studied these electrical emissions with a sensitive static voltmeter, these emissions were in the range of 15 to 50 millivolts. Further more magnetic fields have been detected in the body (strongest from the heart and brain). The iron in hemoglobin is also magnetized by the earth magnetic fields to some extent, resulting in a surging bio-plasma field in the body. Beyond this ultraviolet, infrared, microwave, very low frequency, and ultra long frequency waves have been detected in the human body. Dr. Genady Sergeyer, A Soviet military scientist of the A.A. Uktonski Physiological Institute, Leningrad, U.S.S.R., while studying bio-fields detected electrostatic and magnetic fields being released from the body of a clinically dead man - (bio-electrostatic charges can be as high as 10,000 volts per cenimeter) Since physics has established that energy cannot be destroyed - only altered, and since these bioelectromagnetic fields appear to remain united and coherent, could this be, in fact, what has been identified as the soul historically? ...

As I stated earlier, the concept of the soul is universal, known among all societies on earth. My own investigations have not uncovered one society in which this concept is entirely absent. In other respects, it is very rare for non-physical concepts to be present in societies so widely separated in time and space. This itself is good evidence for the belief in the Soul, furthermore, accounts of persons revived from death and recent detection of electromagnetic energies in the human body adds further strength to this idea.

THE MAKING OF THE SAUCER MYSTERY

By PETER KOR

Much of what has been called the saucer mystery has been created by those who claim to be investigating it. Part of this mystery-creation process is intentional. Unknown to most saucer enthusiasts, there is a small band of activist "researchers" whose primary goal is to keep the saucer enigma alive. These people are committed to the psuedo-philosophies that have been spawned by the saucer movement and intend to promote those philosophies by playing-up key saucer "experiences" and speculations. Some of the "researchers involved in this war of ideas do not even believe that flying saucers are real, but they use the myth as a vehicle for advancing their own ideological objectives.

By far the greatest proportion of mystery creation is unintentional, however. It is due to the fact that the overwhelming majority of "researchers", whatever their credentials, are not capable of rational inquiry. The will to believe, an unjustifiable reliance on testimony, and errors in logic conspire to produce an estimate of the saucer situation that has no basis in reality. Here are some of the more widespread mistakes that have served to inflate the saucer mystery.

MISTAKEN ASSOCIATION: "Researchers" tend to lump all unusual incidents or claims into one category of inquiry. Thus, the saucer mystery now embraces such divergent "phenomena" as sea serpents, cattle mutilations, land monsters, pock-marked windshields, giant birds, and unusual odors.

By the time these and other ingredients are woven into a single speculation, the saucer mystery has taken on prodigious and completely fictitious proportions. Once it is recognized that many of these "phenomena" have not been proved to exist and that those that exist have not been proved to be related, the picture changes markedly. What looked liked pieces to a single super puzzle are revealed to be separate puzzles, most of which have mundane solutions.

UNJUSTIFIED SPECULATION: Many "researchers" operate on the premise that the lack of proof for any of the proposed saucer solutions justifies any speculation about what the solution might be. The premise is false. To be rational, speculation must deal with what is possible. And contrary to what most people believe, not everything that can be imagined is possible. Some ideas are self-contridictory, and contradictions cannot exist in reality. Other ideas contradict what has been found to be true. Although it is possible that such knowledge may be in error, it is the intellectual responsibility of the speculator to at least indicate where the error lies and show how the error makes his speculation possible.

Not only is most speculation vis-a-vis flying saucers unjustified, but most of the justifiable speculation is useless. The purpose of speculation is not to weave tantalizing webs of irrelevant thought, but to explore new ideas that might illuminate the saucer saga. To be useful, a speculation must be translated into a hypothesis. The hypothesis must explain specific saucer facts in a unique way. Without such uniqueness, conceptual testing is impossible because the results of the test would not be distinguishable from those gained from testing similar hypotheses.

Most claimed saucer "truths" and "theories" are merely unjustified speculations, and not very good ones at that. If such speculations were eliminated from saucer "research", little hard-core information and explanation would remain.

AUTHORITY WORSHIP: In the early days of the saucer saga, "reseachers" opposed "recognized authorities" because those authorities almost invariably took the position that flying saucers did not exist. Since "reseachers" were sure that the saucers did exist, they concluded that authorities could not be trusted -- that, more often than not, authorities try to protect vested interests rather than seek to determine the truth.

Although most of this criticism was incompetent, it was consistently espoused and was based on a kernal of truth. The kernal of truth is that the label of "authority" usually serves as a trump card to bypass logic and evidence and certify a particular conclusion or point of view by default. If a person is authoritative in the valid sense of the term, his intellectual performance will demonstrate that fact. If his performance does not warrant endorsement, no other factor justifies accepting him as an authority. It is rationality, not status, that qualifies a thinker or researcher.

What is amazing about the authority issue is that so many "researchers" have reversed their position in recent years. While almost all authorities were anti-saucer, "researchers" were anti-authority. But now that many authorities have apparently come to believe in the reality of flying saucers, many "researchers" have begun using them as trump cards in their arguments with skeptics. Nary an aricle is published these days that does not blindly endorse the beliefs of astronomers, engineers, or psychologists who have come over to the pro side of the saucer controversy.

The truth is that not even the authorities who believe in flying saucers should be trusted merely because of their credentials. Some of the "best" examples of wishful thinking and faulty investigating have been produced by bonafide, certified scientist -"researchers"! Yet, this incompetence is being heralded as the long-awaited proof that there really is an important reality at the bottom of the saucer mystery. Such blind acceptance of authority has done more to get "researchers" off the true saucer track in recent years than any other factor.

STORY-TELLING: Most of the alleged best saucer cases are anecdotal, not factual, in nature. "Researchers" hear of an interesting tale, interview the "witnesses", and check on as many aspects of the story as possible. If the story is bizarre enough, psychologists might be called in to perform hypnotic regression. If nothing turns up that positively disproves the story, it becomes "evidence" that flying saucers are real and under the purposeful control of intelligent beings.

The biggest flaw in this process is a logical error. To wit: Lack of disproof for a claim is not proof of the truth of the claim. Merely because a "researcher" has found no reason to disbelieve a claimant is not sufficient reason to believe him. The only grounds that justify an acceptance of claims are those that are independent of what the claimants, themselves, say. And it is precisely the lack of such independent evidence that plagues the saucer saga and testifies against the pet theories of "researchers".

So when "researchers" talk so confidently about the saucer "facts", they are referring to the many stories of saucer encounters that have not been disproved. But such "facts" present a false perspective. It is not a fact that such encounters have taken place. It is a fact that people have claimed to have had such encounters. Almost the entire saucer mystery consists of claims that have been documented in reports. Such documentation is not evidence, much less proof, of the truth of the claims, but merely of the willingness of claimants to put their claims on the record.

Often, "researchers" resort to invalid tactics in an attempt to make the case for the saucers appear more coherent that it actually is.

One such tactic is to use the mundane physical-effect reports (such as radar-return incidents) as "proof of the tangibility of the saucers, then point to the incredible close-up reports -- which exhibit no such independently-verifiable tangibility -- as "proof" of the nature of that reality. The effect of this tactic is to make it look like the strange machines and beings reported in the latter cases are just as tangible as the radar returns reported in the former cases.

The truth is that there is no provable connection between the causes of radar reports and the causes of so-called close encounters. Without such a connection, the two types of reports cannot be justifiably used to elucidate one another. The two types of cases remain two separate puzzles which can usually be explained in simple, although different, terms.

Such errors in method are compounded by a truly irresponsible reliance on testimony. The overwhelming majority of "researchers" are thoroughly disarmed by the apparent certainty of claimants about what they say they experienced. Such apparent certainty, however, is not proof of sincerity -- and sincerity, even if it could be definitely established, is not proof of accuracy.

An "experience" is not something that drops out of the sky fully explained. At its most fundamental level, "experience" is a complex constellation of cortical stimuli. The correct interpretation of a particular experience depends upon several factors such as the ability to distinguish between internal and external stimuli, the extent of one's repertoire of past experiences, and the rigor of one's cognitive faculty.

Often, the person who has an experience is not in the best position to interpret its nature or significance, especially when so-called paranormal experiences are involved. So it is ridiculous for "researchers" to be so impressed by the convincing manner with which many claimants tell their stories. Without independent verification, they are still only stories!

By the time these and other mistakes are fully discounted, there is not much left of what "researchers" refer to as the saucer mystery. Unfortunately, the overwhelming majority of "researchers" believe that their prime responsibility is to defend the "reality" of flying saucers at all costs. They seem to forget that their first allegiance should be to the truth, and that, without the truth, their defense is both hopeless and ridiculous.

A few "researchers" are beginning to see through the fog of belief.

Speculations about "alternate realities", "psychic projections", "subjectivist theses", and "null hypotheses" are merely roundabout attempts to account for the prime saucer fact that there is nothing in reality to account for! The major flaw in all of these efforts is that they try to perserve a supernatural or magical element that is not justified by the evidence. Perhaps, after a few more turns of the saucer cycle, the more honest and able "researchers" will begin to see the truth that has been latent in their theorizing.

The truth is that over thirty years of constant saucer commotion has not yielded a single verifiable incident that requires an extraterrestrial or paranormal explanation! The flying saucers have not come in reality; they have come in the minds of believers and enthusiasts. The impact of flying saucers has not been directly on the events and affairs of the world, but on the thinking of those people who are sufficiently estranged from the world to "encounter" and/or pursue "them".

The real saucer mystery, you see, is a saga of ideas and philosophies, not of objects and probes. The solution to that mystery is not the whence or wherefore of some alien agency, but the breakthrough in understanding that will make flying saucers unnecessary.

"SUPERSENSONIC" -- INSTRUMENTS OF KNOWING
by Patrick O'Connell, President
The New Atlantean Research Society

The term "Supersensonics" was invented by Christopher Hills to cover the fields of Radiesthesia, Radionics, Para-Psychology, and ordinary physics. "Supersensonics" may be defined as "... the human biological sensitivity to radiation of all kinds, from any source, whether living, inert, or divine."

If you have been searching for an easy-to-use, sensitive dowsing pendulum, you should seriously consider the purchase of the "Hills Positive Green Pendulum." This remarkable instrument is specifically tuned to the LIFE-FORCE, or prana, and is said to be ideal for checking one's health and vitality, the nutritional value of foods and herbs, and in checking Pyramid Energies. The positive Green Pendulum is great for detecting the electrical vertical waves, for charging up objects with prana (rotate the Pendulum in a clockwise direction over the object.)

When rotated anti-clockwise, the Positive Green Pendulum generates the opposite force, called negative Green Energy. This negative Green Energy is believed to be the Energy which sharpens razor blades in a Pyramid, and is capable of dehydrating both organic and inorganic objects, including the human body. This type of Energy is reported to exist beneath a Pyramid, whereas Positive Green Energy reportedly comes upward from the apex of a Pyramid. If held perfectly still, the Pendulum will eventually rotate in the appropriate direction: anti-clockwise if held under a Pyramid; clockwise is held over the apex of a Pyramid.

Instructions that come with the Pendulum explain how one can perform a variety of experiments - to include actually feeling the effects of rotating the Pendulum over various parts of one's body. There are many aspects of this Pendulum that space does not permit me to name them all, but if you are a serious researcher into the New Age Energies, we suggest that you contact: UNIVERSITY OF THE TREES PRESS

NOW! SIMPLY, CLEARLY, WITHOUT ANY PHYSICAL EXAMINATION A URINE/SALIVA TEST CAN ACCURATELY DETERMINE YOUR PRESENT AND FUTURE HEALTH PROBLEMS!

Health Guide for Survival

by Salem Kirban

Heart Attacks can be foreseen from minutes, to months, to years in advance—and prevented!

$3.95

Breast Cancer can be avoided!

Leukemia is one of the easiest things to correct!

Hypertension can be corrected quickly without tranquilizers!

High in the mountains of Georgia, down a 2½ mile dirt road, lives an unassuming, humble biophysicist, Dr. Carey Reams. People from all over the world beat a path to his door...although there are no signs to indicate where he lives!

Why? Because Dr. Reams has an impressive track record of saving those who medical doctors have given up all hope on and pronounced "terminally ill." Dr. Reams is NOT a medical doctor, nor does he diagnose or treat disease.

How? Through a simple, ingenious urine/saliva test. Dr. Reams is a mathematical genius. This test gives him the proper information to mathematically analyze the entire body chemistry and detect, with remarkable accuracy, both the location and severity of most physical ailments. With a unique 3-day fast and special lemon-water, distilled water diet, Dr. Reams is able to restore body chemistry to its normal range and suggest a diet for an individual's specific body chemistry.

The author, to report accurately and without bias on this revolutionary method, went through the fasting program and spent 10 days with Dr. Reams. Dr. Reams had a sheet which contained the author's urine and saliva equation analysis. There was no physical examination. Dr. Reams did not ask the author what symptoms he had. Simply by looking at the chart, he indicated to the author the present physical problems he had (to the author's amazement) and what future health problems would develop if a proper diet was not followed! In HEALTH GUIDE FOR SURVIVAL you will read what Dr. Reams said was the author's health profile upon his arrival at the retreat, and how this health profile improved after the special fast. It will surprise you!

Truth is stranger than fiction! Cancer, heart trouble, arthritis, diabetes, hypertension, leukemia, hypoglycemia, breast cancer, glaucoma, multiple sclerosis, emphysema and even leprosy—people with all these diseases and many more have passed through Dr. Reams' retreat and responded to an individualized diet!

To your loved ones and friends who are terminally ill or have a serious disease... you owe it to them to at least read HEALTH GUIDE FOR SURVIVAL. It may prove the key that will return them to perfect health and a long, full useful life!

Revealing Quotes from Health Guide for Survival

The doctor may pronounce you in perfect health. You can feel well and yet be in imminent danger of a fatal heart attack!

We welcome a challenge...whenever one takes enough time and interest to make the tests, we have never been wrong!

I do not claim to have a cure of any kind. We make no claims of any kind. We make tests and using the mathematics of body and food chemistry, compute a diet that can bring the body back towards the mathematical formula for perfect health. Whatever healing takes place is done by God and the life forces in the body.

In one two-year period alone I tested and designed nutritional programs for over 24,000 people. Over 10,000 of these people were given up to die by their doctors. Yet only 5 people out of those 10,000 terminally ill failed to respond to diet!

There is one single mineral that is of the greatest benefit in the prevention of breast cancer!

Vitamins are only a crutch. They can aggravate your problems.

People have come here bedfast by arthritis and drive away in their own car three weeks later.

I am the advisor now on diet for many, many medical doctors. I am an ordained minister teaching the health message as written in the Bible.

Cobalt cooks the flesh. Chemotheraphy destroys the liver. I think the use of these is murder!

Hypertension in children and adults can be corrected quickly without the use of tranquilizers!

Gall bladder problems in the early stages are very easy to solve.

Dr._____, a dentist, had leukemia. He was 81. I did not think he would live through the night. He had been hemorrhaging from the lips and mouth for 6 months. The medical doctors had given up on him. In 10 weeks we were able to send him home with the proper diet and he went back to his dental practice.

We have had children come here with leukemia and we have had 100% success! Leukemia is one of the easiest things to correct!

If you follow the rules of good health your weight will stay where it is supposed to be. Weight clubs treat every person as though they are obese, and they are not!

PYRAMID KIT

Kit will build any size pyramid (within reason). Kit includes 4 high-quality cast aluminum corner fittings, 1 cast aluminum apex fitting, and an assembly manual with mathematical tables already calculated for pyramid models from 2 foot to 10 foot bases in 1 inch increments. All fittings are precision engineered to exactly duplicate the angles and relationships of the Great Pyramid of Cheops. The fittings are designed to be used with electrical conduit (not included) but will work with other tubing or even poles. The conduit is available at most hardware and electrical supply stores and most stores will even (for a small fee) cut it to size for you. The pyramid assembles and disassembles easily, for portability or for interchanging between pyramids of different sizes — for instance — a 2 foot base for charging food, water, etc. and a 10 foot base for meditation.

KIT CONTAINS:

- 4 CAST ALUMINUM CORNER FITTINGS
- 1 CAST ALUMINUM APEX FITTING
- COMPLETE INSTRUCTIONS
- TUBING LENGTH TABLES

A POSTULATED MECHANISM THAT LEADS TO MATERIALIZATION AND DEMATERIALIZATION OF MATTER AND TO ANTIGRAVITY.

by T. E. Bearden

This is one of a series of reports by the author which attempt to form a theory uniting physics and metaphysics on a common basis.

In this report, a new concept is presented for the nature of the "photon", which is what the scientist calls a "little bullet of light." The author does this with a "trick" - he restates one of Einstein's postulates about light in a new form and looks at it. Briefly, Einsteins's postulate states that "the speed of light is the same for every observer." The author restates this as "the speed of every photon is the same with respect to every electron."

He then takes the reader along on an examination of this situation. Standing on an electron, an observer would see any photon one chooses, as a little hunk of two-dimensional light moving at the speed 'c' - the measured speed of light in a vacuum. On the other hand, if he were standing on the photon, he would see the electron going at the speed of light. This seems to be a great paradox, for it is commonly believed that an object, such as an electron, cannot travel at the speed of light.

The author then resolves the paradox by allowing additional 3-dimensional spaces (i.e.,additional "worlds") to exist that are all perpendicular each to the other, but which all exist at the same time - (i.e., they all share a single time dimension amongst them).

By this approach, all a photon or "little piece of light" is, is a little piece of ordinary matter that has "flipped"(turned 90 degrees) from our ordinary world into the next perpendicular world. In that world, an observer standing on what we here think is a "photon" would, if looking down at what he was standing on, see an ordinary little hard particle of matter. He would see our "electron" as a "little piece of light" or "photon".

The author then shows why the mass of an object seems to increase as the object moves faster with respect to a fixed observer: All that is really happening is that the object is rotating away from this particular world, toward the next perpendicular world. This is actually in accord with what Einstein once pointed out: that "velocity" is just rotation away fron the normal "frame" (world). All that the "speed of light" means is that the object has made a full right-angle rotation away, in which case it loses one dimension so far as the fixed observer can tell, appearing two-dimensional to him rather than 3-dimensional.

(NOTE ADDED: Since the author's original paper, an experiment has recently been conducted which shows that two protons which collide simply pass straight through each other with no impact, electrical repulsion, or other effect whatsoever, if their spins are exactly anti-parallel, in total violation to present theory. This experiment proves that what we call "hard", concrete reality" is nothing of the sort. I.e., "concrete physical reality" is simply an aspect of the relationships between things that interact. It is not anything at all "fixed and absolute" and it can be changed or even eliminated! This would indeed seem to be the death knell of the materialists.)

Based on the idea of perpendicular (orthogonal) worlds or "frames" all sharing the same "time" in common, the author then shows why an electron in orbit around the nucleus of an atom does not radiate electromagnetic signals, lose energy, and fall into the nucleus and disappear. The classical theory of electromagnetism would require that orbital electrons do this, when it is well known that they do not. The author shows that sn interaction between positive time and negative time may actually be occurring, and gives the requirement for this sort of reaction (which can dematerialize photons as they are born and before they are emitted. But this effect might also be applied to a normal-sized object under certain circumstances. If applied to a disc-shaped flying vehicle, E.g., the vehicle would be able to turn into higher dimensions and back from them at will. As it turned away from this world, it would appear to turn from a solid object to a glowing form of light and then disappear as it made additional turns further away. Turning back, it would first generate an invisible force field, then turn into a glowing form of light, and then materialize into a normal metallic object. The vehicle could also travel back and forth through time itself. It could make right angle turns at high speed with no effects on the occupants whatsoever. It could also travel in the space between the two locations. Thus it could "teleport" back and forth anywhere in the universe, at will.

And since it could also bend spacetime at will, it could accomplish antigravity at will. If the effect and the mechinism to obtain it actually can be obtained experimentally, they may be as important as the discovery of nuclear fission, and they may provide a practical propulsion system for a starship, which need not eject any mass at all for its propulsion, and which can also travel back and forth in time.

THE GREAT PYRAMID OF GIZEH - AND - THE ICOSAHEDRAL EARTH ENERGY GRID.
by Michael C. Heleus

For some time it has been realized that the Great Pyramid of Gizeh was built at a key point of the Earth Energy Grid, or one of such grids; or the intersection of such. This last being indicated in the work of Russians Goncnarov, Makarov, and Moroz.

These men, and Ivan Sanderson of the U.S.A. independently, discovered an icosahedral energy grid about the earth, with two of the twelve vertices at the geographic poles, and the other ten in the hemispheres, five on either side of the equator.

These points appear to be centers of paranormal phenomena. The ley lines of pyramid energy apparently are connected to or derived from this grid. As the work of Bruce Cathie of New Zealand and Aime Michel of France shows, UFO phenomenon tend to follow ley lines.

The Russians found another grid, following the outline approximately of the tectonic plates composing the crust of the earth - which interlaced with the first. One of these crossings occurs at Gizeh according to the Russian work.

Now, another important link between the pyramid and these grids has been found. The basic lines of force in the icosahedral grid are all the same length, and this is evenly divisible by the base and apothem lengths of the pyramid, the base dividing into the grid line 30552 times.

Since, as P. Tomkins has shown, most of the major units of measure in the megalithic system divide evenly into these dimensions of the pyramid, it was a master standard of linear measure and as the relation to the grid line makes clear, it was harmonically linked to the world-wide network of pyramid energy lines.

This means the whole megalithic measure system, and everything fashioned according to it, is tuned to resonate to the Earth Energy Grid, in decided contrast to our modern metric system.

Aladdin's Lamp Brought Me Great Happiness, Wealth And Love...And Changed My Life Forever! It Can Do The Same For You. I'll Personally Guarantee It!

The astonishing true story of the discovery of the Oriental secret of happiness, riches and success!

By Barry Brown

Five years ago, I was the world's biggest loser. I suffered from horrible blackouts. I didn't have a friend in the world. I slaved away at a dead-end job, and my take-home pay was a joke. Then something fantastic happened to change my entire life. But let me tell you my story from the beginning...

My family was very poor when I was a kid, and I had to go to work at eleven. After school, weekends, when the other kids were playing, I was delivering prescriptions for a drug store. Then I became a messenger. And, when I finished school, a soda jerk. For a while, I worked as an insurance clerk. At every job, I earned little more than the minimum wage. And I knew I didn't have a chance in the world at a promotion.

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

Even worse, for years I suffered horrible blackouts. I'd be walking down the street, and suddenly I'd pass out. Oh, I went to doctors, but they couldn't tell me what was wrong. One terrible day, I passed out on a New York City Subway platform—and only the quick action of a kind stranger saved me from being run down by an on-rushing train!

I tried everything to change my luck. I went to spiritualists, and readers. I had my horoscope cast. I bought every self-help book that was ever written. But nothing seemed to work.

A LAST-CHANCE TRIP TO GREECE

Finally, I knew that nothing I could do would change things for the better. I decided the heck with it—I might as well enjoy one last fling in my miserable life. I took every penny I had in the world—borrowed more from my folks—and took a trip to Greece.

In Athens, I finally knew some small measure of peace and happiness. The ancient city was truly beautiful! I climbed to the top of the Acropolis, to get a better view of the splendor that was ancient Greece. But up on top, my bad luck overtook me, and once again I blacked out.

A BRUISING FALL DOWN THE MOUNTAIN

I came to more than 100 feet down the mountain. I was bruised, battered, and dirty. My clothes were torn, and my arms and legs were bloodied. More than anything else in the world, I needed a few stiff drinks.

There was a tavern near by, and I hobbled in. I ordered ouzo, the thick, sweet drink so common in Greece. I ordered a second, and a third...

The ouzo really packed a whallop, and for the first time in months, I was feeling pretty good.

I decided to take a walk through the open air market where all sorts of strange characters were selling practically everything under the sun.

A BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF SILK

A beautiful piece of red and gold silk caught my eye, and I thought it would be nice to buy it, and send it home to mom. I started bargaining with the Greek peddler, but his price was just too high. The booze really got to me, and angrily I pulled the silk from his hands, falling backward into a pile of oriental-looking lamps

The lamps tumbled all over the ground, and guiltily I stopped to help the screaming Greek salesman pick them up. At the bottom of the pile, practically concealed by all the other lamps, I noticed a strange blue lamp shaped like the Aladdin's lamp in the stories I read when I was a kid.

A MYSTICAL LAMP, ALMOST HOT TO MY TOUCH

I picked the lamp up. It was warm, almost hot to my touch. And a strange feeling came over me, almost daring me to put the lamp down. Of course, I held on to it even tighter, and it seemed to get warmer and warmer, until I could hardly hold on to it any longer.

I threw my last few dollars at the Greek, and ran, wrapping the small blue lamp in the torn piece of silk I still had in my hand. Finally, I stopped, completely out of breath, and I examined the "treasure" I had blown the last few bucks I had in the world to own.

LETTERS ENGRAVED ON THE SIDE OF THE LAMP

I turned the lamp in my hands, still hardly able to hold it because of the warmth. It was made of a rough, blue glass-like material, with a handle almost like a coffee cup at one end. On the side of the lamp there was a strange legend engraved in the glass.

I tried to sound out the letters of the strange, mystical legend, and the lamp grew even hotter. I had to let go, before I burned my hand. The lamp fell to the ground, but somehow it didn't break. Maybe it was dust kicked up by the lamp, maybe it was the ouzo getting to me, I don't know—but smoke began pouring out of the opening in the lamp!

A VOICE PROMISING ME RICHES, HAPPINESS, SUCCESS

A loud voice seemed to fill the alleyway where I stood.

It spoke in what seemed like a dozen languages at once. Of course, I only understood the English—but the voice promised that if I recited the mystical legend regularly every day, I would have every wish my heart desired.

Money! Power! Success! Everything could be mine! It seemed silly—almost too good to be true—but I didn't have anything to lose, so I gave it a try.

My luck changed overnight! Before, I couldn't hold a decent job to save my soul. Now, I became Assistant to the President of one of the biggest companies in America! Before, I couldn't even watch a poker game without losing my shirt. Now, every hand I touched turned to a straight, or a flush, or three-of-a-kind. I won five hundred bucks one night, three hundred less than a week later. And, one big night, I won more than a grand! I recited that mystical legend every morning, and every night. And it seemed as if nothing I did could go wrong!

My boss gave me a piece of the business—now I was a boss myself! And the business took off like wildfire! What's more, my luck at games of chance was absolutely incredible. I had never even gone to the track before—now I just couldn't lose. Long shots, the daily double, everything I bet on finished in the money.

Within months, I was wealthy beyond my wildest dreams. I paid every debt I had in the world—and I still had thousands left in the bank. I married a beautiful girl who looks like a model, and we moved to a classy suburb outside of New York City where we bought a big, expensive home.

MY "ALADDIN'S LAMP" WORKS FOR MY FRIENDS, TOO

One of my business acquaintances was in the pottery business. And one day, I asked him to make me half a dozen copies of my amazing "Aladdin's Lamp" as gifts for some of my friends.

He did it, copying the lamp exactly, right down to putting the legend on the side. And, astonishingly, when my friends recited the strange words, they began to enjoy fantastic luck, too! One friend, a student, got the backing of some big-money financiers and went into his own publishing business. Another friend had his own business, but it had gone bankrupt. He recited the legend, and bounced back bigger and better than ever!

I began wondering—could the mystical legend work for everybody? Was it something about me, or was it really the lamp? Were my friends and I somehow different than other people, or was the legend really the secret to happiness and success?

I was sure the lamp, and its mystical legend really were the secret to happiness and success! After all, it worked for me, and my friends! That was proof, right? Was I crazy? Would people laugh at me? I didn't care—I needed still more proof—because when the lamp works for everybody, I'll make a fortune selling them at fabulous prices!

That's why I'm running this ad. I have to prove once and for all—to everybody—that the mystical legend really works—and I'm asking your help to do it.

A PROFESSOR TELLS ME ABOUT "RANDOM SAMPLING"

A college professor I met told me about "random sampling." He said I would have to get my "Aladdin's Lamp" into the hands of hundreds of different people from every part of the country. People like you.

I'd like you to take one of the lamps from me, and recite the legend yourself. Then, write and tell me about how your luck changes, too. Tell me about your success, your happiness, the fulfillment of your fondest dreams!

Then, I'll publish the best true story I receive, and pay the person who wrote it a reward of $500. Maybe I'll even write a book about my discovery of the greatest secret to happiness and success the world has ever known!

But remember, I'm not asking you to risk a single thing—not one red cent—on this experiment with my fantastic "Aladdin's Lamp"!

It doesn't matter if you're a man or a woman. It doesn't matter if you're young or old. It doesn't matter if you're the unluckiest person in the world! If the lamp doesn't change your entire life, I won't let you waste a single penny on it!

THE "ALADDIN'S LAMP" MUST WORK FOR YOU, OR IT WON'T COST YOU A THING—POWER, SUCCESS, GOOD FORTUNE, MONEY MUST BE YOURS—ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED!

Just send me $7.00 to help cover the cost of making up your copy of the lamp with its mystical message, and the tremendous cost of printing this ad, and I'll rush you the secret of happiness and success. I'll send you your personal copy of the lamp, plus an authenticated translation of the mystical Oriental legend reproduced on the side of the lamp. I'll even send you a small square of that red and gold silk to protect your furniture from the lamp's ethereal heat!

Then, recite the legend faithfully every day, just as my friends and I did, and I guarantee your luck will begin to change! When it does, you must promise to write me and tell me about your success! I am 100% sure the lamp will work for you—so sure that I won't let you keep it unless it works. If it doesn't work, send it back to me and I'll immediately send back your $7.00—plus 6% interest on your money to thank you for your help in my test!

Remember, your luck must change. You must see your life turn around like mine did. You must achieve wealth beyond your wildest dreams, happiness beyond your most secret hopes, success you never thought possible —or I'll buy back the lamp for more money than you sent me!

But I only have a limited supply of lamps for this scientific test, so I strongly suggest that you act now!

TAKE THAT FIRST STEP TO A NEW LIFE BY SENDING IN THE COUPON THIS MINUTE

Don't delay another second. You've read my story, you've seen how my life, and the lives of my friends, were dramatically changed by the fantastic "Aladdin's Lamp." Now, it's time to act! Change your life, too. Win at the numbers, poker, bingo! Clean up in everything you attempt. Get in on the gravy train of life that can be yours! Stop wishing that things could get better, and make them better! CHANGE YOUR LUCK RIGHT NOW. The only way you can get an authentic copy of my "Aladdin's Lamp" for your very own is by sending me the coupon today. REMEMBER, YOUR LUCK MUST CHANGE OR I'LL BUY BACK THE LAMP FOR MORE MONEY THAN YOU PAID!!! ©

COSMIC WISDOM

THE CORAL CASTLE by ROBERT L. BENNETT

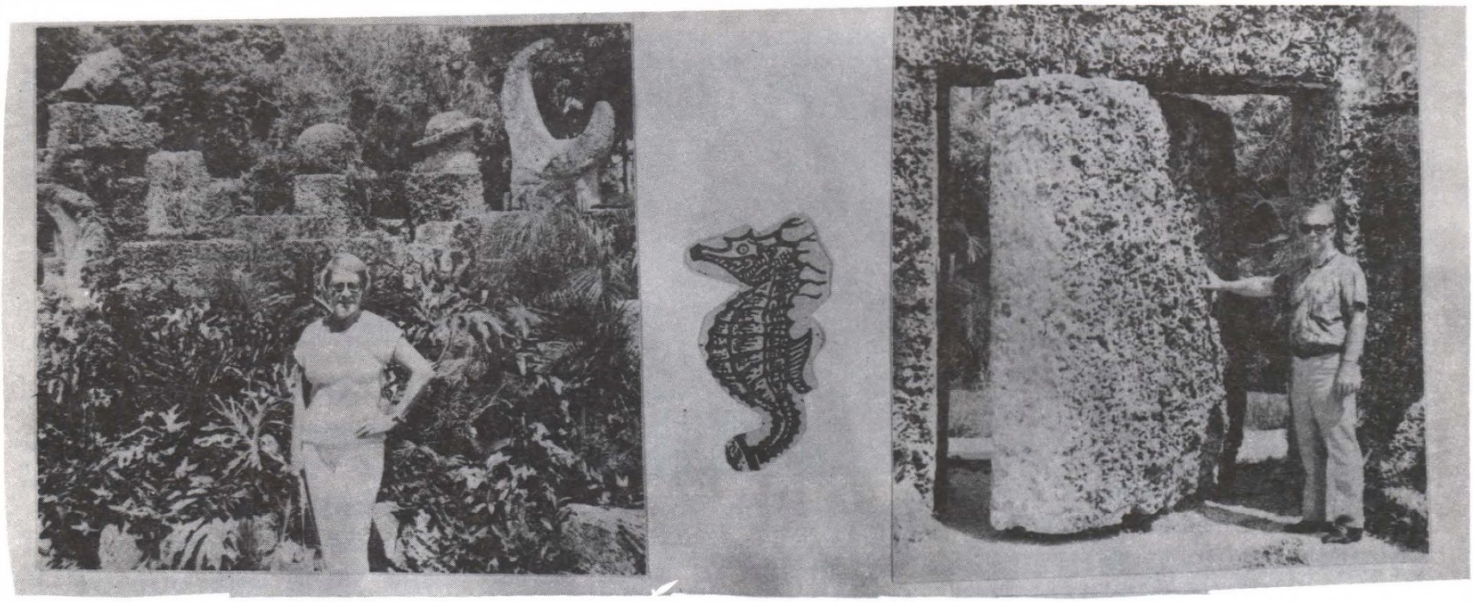
About 25 miles south of Miami is one of the great wonders of the world! It is just off the east side of Rt. 1, and most motorists pass it by without a second glance. There is a sign but no flashing neons or whirling rides for children. It does not compete with entertainment spots such as Disney World or Busch Gardens. In fact, it was not constructed for the entertainment of those of us in the physical body. The purpose behind its creation is left to your own imagination.

Called the "CORAL CASTLE", it is built completely of native coral taken out of the ground on site. Its construction without the use of any heavy equipment provides many intriguing mysteries. The greatest puzzle to engineers however, is that many of the individual stones which have been used are larger and heavier that those used in the Egyptian Pyramids! Stones weighing as much as 30 tons were cut out of the ground and lifted into place, neatly shaped and perfectly aligned!

The "CORAL CASTLE" was built by one small man - Edward Leedskalnin, who was born in Latvia and came to America in 1921. It is reported that he left Latvia after his fiancee ran away with another man. Some say that his love for that girl was the motivating factor in all that he did and built. That sounds romantic but is questionable although he never married. After his arrival in America, Ed went first to California, where he remained for a few months. He then moved to Texas and later to the southern tip of Florida where he finally selected a site.

Edward Leedskalnin was a patient man. He spent 25 years building the castle and its contents. No one ever saw him working! Ed spent his days in the nearest library studying and progress on the castle was made at night. Although Ed studied many things, his two areas of primary intret were Astrology and magnetics. In one Miami Daily News article he wrote "Every form of existence, whether it be rock, plant, or animal life, has a beginning and an end, but the three things that all matter is constructed from has no beginning and no end. They are the North and the South Poles, individual magnets, and the neutral particles of matter. These three things are the construction blocks of everything." In 1946 he published a pamphlet in which he stated, "The North and South Poles are the Cosmic Force. They hold together the earth and everything on it -- turning the earth around on its axis." Einsteins theory of Unity is remarkably similar to Ed's theory of Cosmic Forces. Did Ed use Magnetics in his construction? He had NO electrical apparatus on the site other than a small radio. Did he harness the power of the different planetary bodies?

One stone in the North Wall is called the Polaris Telescope, it is 25 ft. tall and weighs 28 tons. It has a hole drilled through it with crossed wires somehow embedded and when looked through from another strategically placed stone, Polaris can be seen. While you consider how he may have done this with only hand tools around let's review what he constructed.

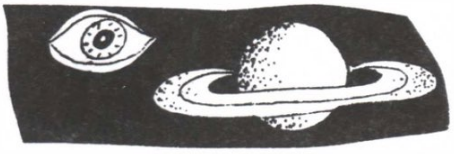


MARGARET BENNETT

ROBERT BENNETT

It has 4 massive walls and a small tower which are made up of approximately 1,000 tons of hewn or shaped coral. In the South and West walls there are 65 sections of stone weighing an average of 6½ tons each! In the North wall there are 149½ tons of stone including the 28 ton Telescope and another mantle stone weighing 29 tons! The East wall has a total of 240 tons including the following shaped stones on top:

CRESCENT OF THE EAST	23 TONS
PLANET MARS	18 TONS
PLANET SATURN	18 TONS
OBELISK	28½ TONS



In addition over 100 tons of coral rock were used in various artistic objects. At the castle entrance is a 3 ton GATE so delicately balanced that it moves at the touch of a hand. There is a dining area with a 3 ton, heart-shaped table. A stone replica of STONEHENGE is larger than the original. There is also a stone lounge chair similar to those later used in space-ships by our Astronauts. One huge table is made in the exact shap of the Florida map. A number of mediums who have visited the Castle and sat quietly in the stone chairs say that the gardens are joyfully crowded with spiritual entities. Others say they have contacted Alien Beings who assisted Edward in his work! During his life he had little money but he carried with him some of the world's greatest secrets and left one of the world's greatest monuments -THE CORAL CASTLE.

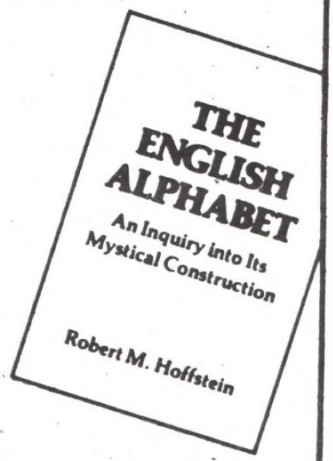
THE ENGLISH ALPHABET
is a code that, when unraveled, tells the majestic story of man.



In large measure we have forgotten that our alphabet was invented by holy men as a means of instructing us in the sacred Word of God. It is possible to rediscover some of these "secrets" in our most ordinary words if only we learn how to read them.

It is not by chance that the two middle letters of the alphabet (M and N) when animated by the A spell MAN. Thus man is concealed in the very midst of the WORD (alphabet) and is responsible for balancing it.

Neither is it a coincidence that the form of the A owes its origin to the hieroplyph of a yoked ox, or that the H can be traced back to a simple representation of a fence and the M to water.

You may have wondered why the eighth letter (H) and the eighth number (8) sound very much alike (eight-ch). It is related to the concept of self-consuming or "eight-ching." (Eight—and also H—are traditional symbols of the self that has to be consumed—eaten or "ate.")

Why is the S used to signify the plural and the D to signify the past? Why does "god" backward read "dog"? and "live"—"evil"? A clue can be found in the meaning of the letters.

Hundreds of words are analyzed in the light of these esoteric concepts. The word "true," for instance, means in this connection, "based on three" or nothing can be true which is "less than three." "Truth," then, is the realization of the three (TR) in relation to the individuating principle (TH)—the Theo or Unity. Herein is the "truth" of the Trinity or Tri-unity.

"... captivates its readers with a delight in what paradoxically seems to be truly esoteric, and at the same time perfectly obvious. Anyone with an attraction to letters or literature—or to the English language—will like the book."

CAVE PHENOMENA - CIRCA 1839!

(Reprinted from: Santa Barbara Newspress, 10/23/77. By Stella Haverland Rouse and credit thanks to Mary and TAL Levesque)

Some strange phenomena attracted the attention of local newspapers in August, 1889. ... The Morning Press reported an unusual formation in a Montecito canyon, revealed, it was thought, by a devastating forest fire which had swept over the area late in July. Asking if it was an Aztec Cave, the Morning Press described the attraction:

"On the second day of August a blue flame was seen issuing from the rocks. Upon closer examination it was ascertained that the flame came from an opening ... about eight feet high by seven feet wide. The intense blue flame continued until about the fourth day of August when a series of explosions were heard... The cannonading continued for about eight or ten hours, then died out. An attempt was made to explore the cavernous opening August 10th, but was unsuccessful on account of the intense heat.

On Sunday, August 17th, an exploring party, fully prepared, made a more successful attempt. Felix Chastine, one of the group, reported: "After entering the cave, a most brilliant and dazzling scene burst upon our vision. Stalactites and stalagmites had by the action of the waters of innumerable centuries, united and formed perfect symmetrical columns, conforming in the minutest lines to geometrical figures...About 400 feet from the mouth of the opening, a large room was found, fully 150 feet square, in the center of which was an immense rostrum, with steps hewn out of the solid granite, leading up to a throne of California marble, over which was a canopy of gold, supported by beautiful, delicately engraved pillars of solid silver."

"Mr. Chastine seated himself upon this mysterious throne, and in so doing his foot inadvertently touched a secret and hidden spring, the formation of which led him to ascribe its manufacture back to the remotest of ages of man. The spring acted upon a stone weighing at least a ton and a half, and so delicately was it balanced that it was turned without an apparent effort, revealing to his astonished gaze, a flight of steps cut into an abyss of darkness. The ceiling of this chamber was a perfect representation of the great vault of heaven, showing that the makers thereof were fully acquainted with all the movements of the starry spheres. Even the sun was perfectly illustrated, and the flight of all the great planets through the unknown and inimaginable sphere of space was perfectly demonstrated, to the minutest astronomical and geometrical detail.

"Each of its walls were differently colored. One in pink, one in pure white, one in delicate rose, and another in the color of human blood. Each of the walls bore inscriptions in mythological figures. So strange and ancient were these symbolical characters that not one of them has been deciphered.

The floor of this chamber was remarkably elastic and springy, and upon investigation it was discovered to be composed of the mummified remains of human beings, enveloped in naphtha and asphalt, a covering four feet in depth. At the corner of the room were found iron, brass-bound chests, covered with the mould of centuries gone by. Chisels and sledges were procured, and the boxes were opened. Then in each was revealed to view a parchment of some peculiar beaten and pliable metal.

These parchments were all counterparts, and were covered with the following hieroglyphics, which may perhaps be interpreted: EFIL FO RIXILE S'GRUCBNESOR. Immediately under these parchments were found possibly a hundred skin bottles, the contents of one of which is now in the hands of an experienced chemist.

It is thought by some of our local savants that this cavern was the laboratory of one of the Aztec alchemists, who possibly made their abode, and prepared their wonderful remedies in the mountains in that dim and distant past.....

EQUATION OF THE LOTUS

Lotus = E + P + C

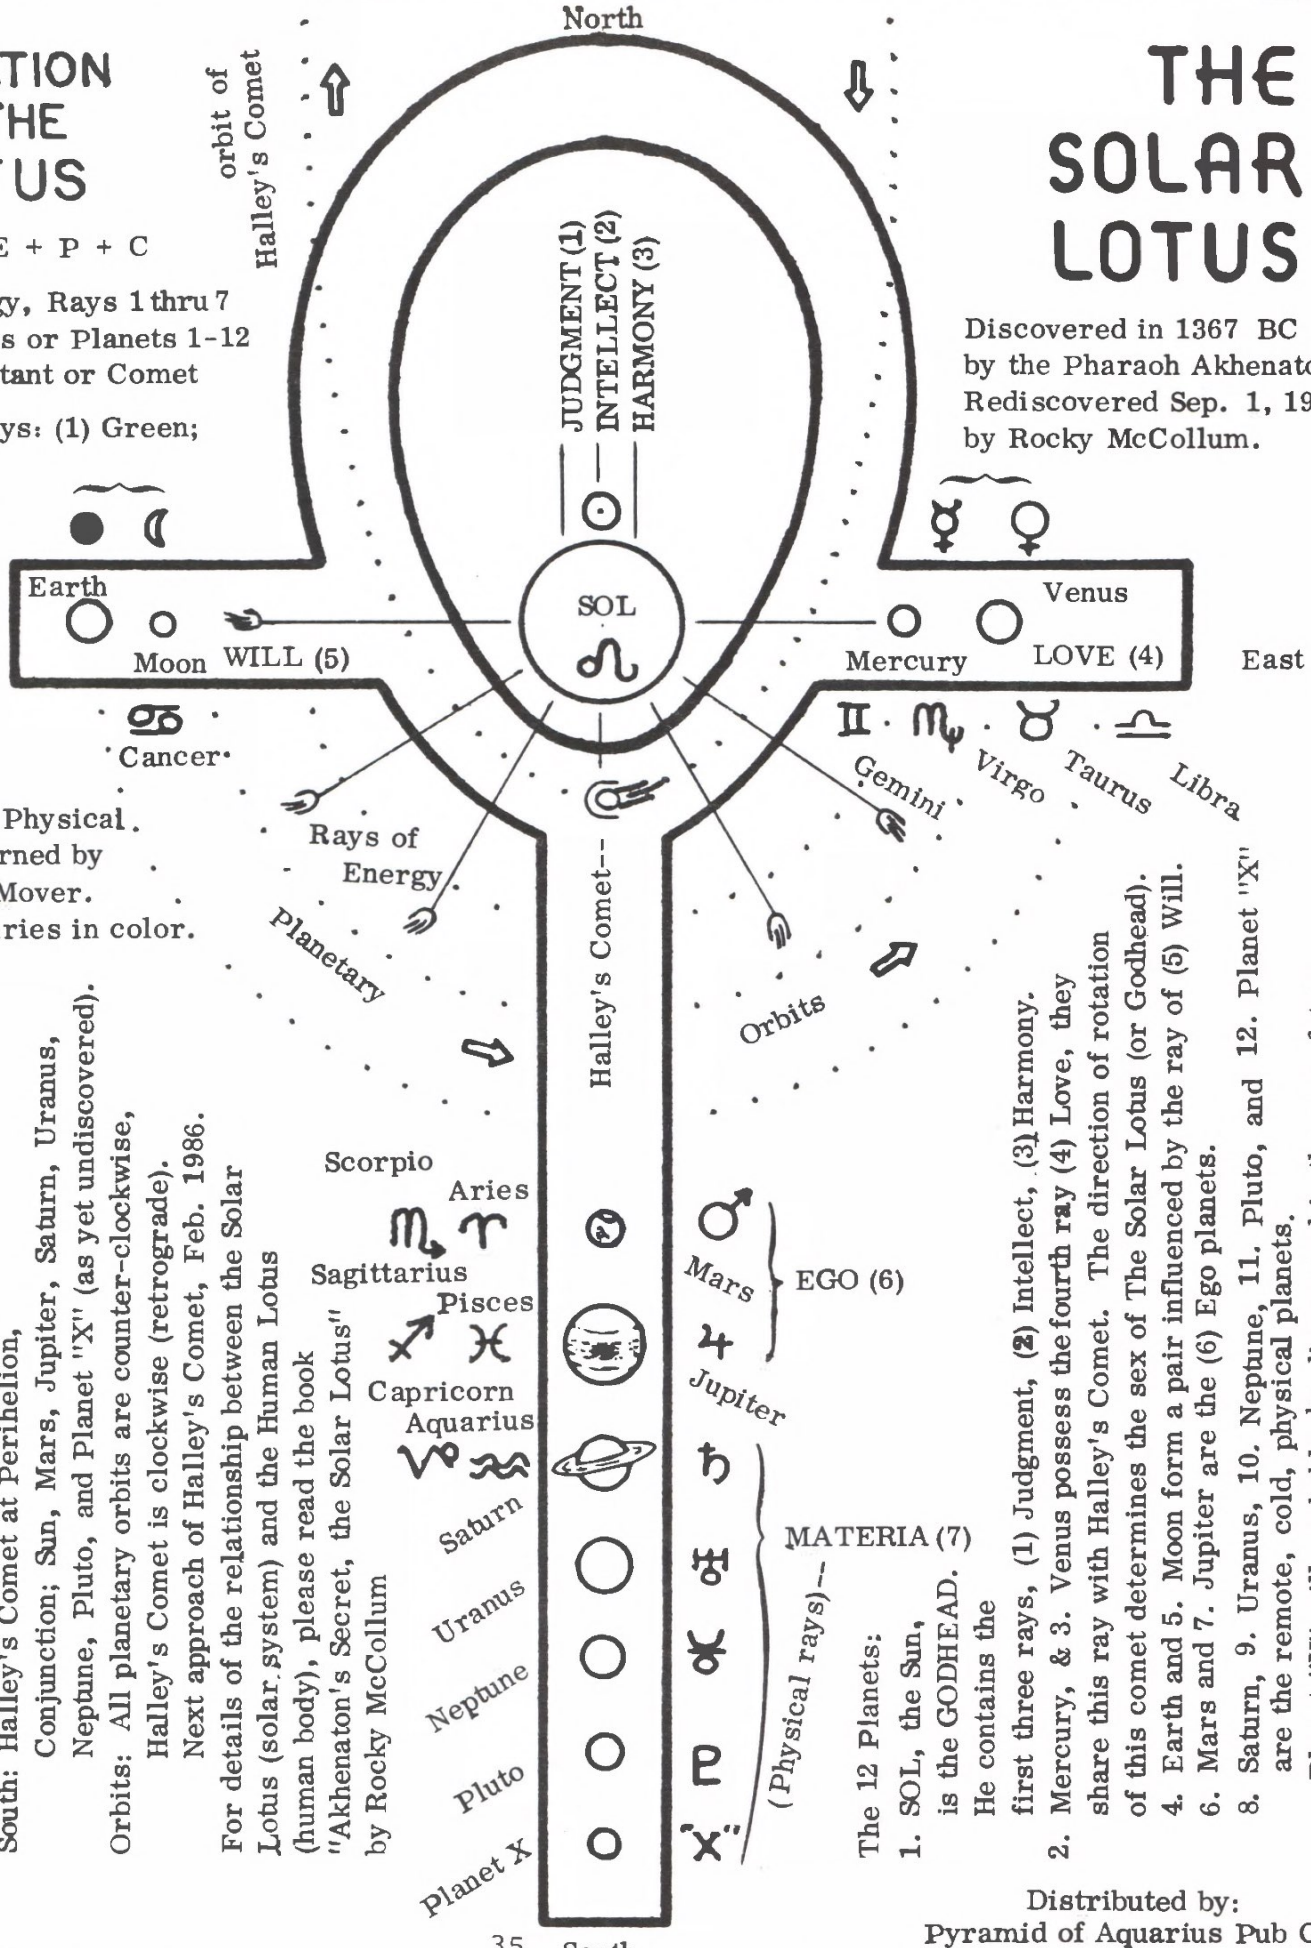
E = Energy, Rays 1 thru 7
P = Petals or Planets 1-12
C = Constant or Comet

Color of rays: (1) Green;
(2) Yellow
(3) Orange
(4) Violet
(5) Blue
(6) Red

(7)
Materia or Physical ray is governed by the Prime Mover. This ray varies in color.

THE SOLAR LOTUS

Discovered in 1367 BC by the Pharaoh Akhenaton.
Rediscovered Sep. 1, 1976 by Rocky McCollum.



Configuration: FULL SOLAR LOTUS
North: Clear
West: Conjunction; Sun, Moon, Earth; Moon Eclipsing Sun
East: Conjunction; Sun, Mercury, Venus
South: Halley's Comet at Perihelion,
Conjunction; Sun, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto, and Planet "X" (as yet undiscovered).
Orbits: All planetary orbits are counter-clockwise,
Halley's Comet is clockwise (retrograde).
Next approach of Halley's Comet, Feb. 1986.

For details of the relationship between the Solar Lotus (solar system) and the Human Lotus (human body), please read the book "Akhenaton's Secret, the Solar Lotus" by Rocky McCollum

The 12 Planets:
1. SOL, the Sun, is the GODHEAD. He contains the first three rays, (1) Judgment, (2) Intellect, (3) Harmony.
2. Mercury, & 3. Venus possess the fourth ray (4) Love, they share this ray with Halley's Comet. The direction of rotation of this comet determines the sex of The Solar Lotus (or Godhead).
4. Earth and 5. Moon form a pair influenced by the ray of (5) Will.
6. Mars and 7. Jupiter are the (6) Ego planets.
8. Saturn, 9. Uranus, 10. Neptune, 11. Pluto, and 12. Planet "X" are the remote, cold, physical planets.
Planet "X" will probably be discovered in the near future.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Pat and Joan: Note my new address. Last September was invited to go back again to speak before world's top scientists in parapsych in London. A very great honor for a layman. The SIs gave me special material to give them... On July 19 last, my two kids and I were 30 feet from THREE BIGFOOT creatures, then 28 UFOs overhead... ALL IN ONE NIGHT IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA! Am doing the wildest demonstration have ever given... for scientists... But need help on financing. Need $500. Any way you kids can help us? Even in part?... PK MAN, Ted Owens. Now in Bernalillo, New Mexico

* Ted! Glad to know where your finally settled! Sounds like New Mexico is in for more sightings! When you go to London, will you send us a report on the meetings? If any of our readers would like to get in touch to help you, just write us and we will give them the address. *

Dear Ms. O'Connell: I wonder if you could help me with somthing. My mother phoned me and asked if I could find out more about a conference which took place not long ago. She thinks it was at Long Beach, Fla. and it was a gathering of scientists, discussing 'EarthChanges - 1982-1984'. She very much wants to find out more about what was said, etc. I thought you might perhaps have heard of it, or could put me in touch with someone who would have. I would appreciate your assistance very much. Best wishes, Vivienne Verdon-Roe, San Francisco, Ca...

Just wish I DID know! I'd like to know as well as your Mother. How did I miss out? Could any of our Florida readers let us know if they have heard of it?

Read your ad in Ray Palmer's SEARCH - sound's great, your Journal. We will now need something to replace Ray Palmer's SEARCH/FORUM - since he passed away Aug. 15, 1977. Here's hoping you folks will be able to replace the empty space! ... All and Everything Seeker, Denver, Colo.

* NO ONE can ever replace Ray Palmer, we can only follow in his footsteps, and hope we can do half as well as he.*

A NAJ?NOTE TO: Marianna Marschke, Sylvia Berl, Dan Moran, William T. Thomas, Jr., Bishop E. GamBrell - Thanks to all for those fascinating letters to the Editor! They will appear in our next issue. Not enough space here.

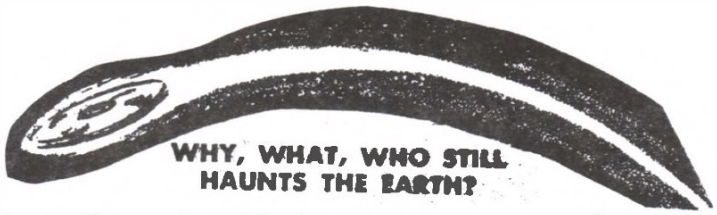
PREDICTIONS! by Rev. Thomas Allen Long
NOTE: This in the beginning of a new series of predictions concerning the Re-Discovery of the Old Continent and it's submerged treasures.

"Ecuador and Peru will make scientific news on an unprecendented scale as an underground passage is found which leads to astounding records of a highly advanced race of humans... These will be found no later than the year 1982, and may come as early as late 1977. We shall learn the true continent of Atlantis, in the beginning, was a huge mass of land, covering much of what is presently the Atlantic Ocean. Maps will be found that will show this! It was the home of the Red Race, which are now the American Indians! ... Written November 5, 1976.

" In Egypt there will come an "uncovering", by earth convulsions, which will reveal another entrance to a long suspected corridor leading from under the Sphinx paw, to the Great Pyramid. This will occur within the next 21 years. Off this corridor will be found a Hall of Records, purposefully hidden for this present generation, to aid in their survival of the 1959 to 1998 period of EarthChanges to a higher dimension of human life..." We will find that the Great Pyramid is a monument of Knowledge to a degree far beyond what many researchers can even imagine at the present. It gives a minute view of all Creation. ... Laser-type beams cut the stone... in conjunction with sound waves transported and placed the huge stones into tolerances for the builders with a knowledge of mathematics and universal elements we are all striving for -- all will be revealed in this Hall of Records. This will be the final test for earth humanity; applied in a selfless manner, it will lead to a promised age of perfection; if not, utter obliteration! Mathematics will attain dimensions in these discoveries that will unlock a Universal Knowledge almost beyond comprehension... We will find there is a complex of Pyramid Temples that were used in the process of regeneration of the human and sub-human races of that age...

"... In 1977 or '78 will come a revelation in some manner that the U.S. Government has held an Unknown Being of some life-form not native to Earth, or at least this third dimensional reality we are familiar with! It may prove to have a connection with the multitude of UFO sightings and experiences. Be sure, as we progress into these changes already outlined for the next 21 years, there will emerge more and more of the "Time-Warp" materializations. This may explain the "Bigfoot" and the "BigBird" sightings, as well as much of the other UFO phenomena. All of this will serve the purpose of advancing our growth into this higher dimensional state of being after 1998." NEXT ISSUE: New Energy Sources, Domed Powerhouse off coast of Florida, Frequency and Vibratory changes!

?? THE MASTERS OF CAMOFLAGE??????
by TAL LEVESQUE



WHO are the cunning Masters of Camoflage? Living among us undetected are creatures (not necessarily Alien) with all the outward appearances of hu-man beings. They do appear somewhat eccentric, but flourish unhindered due to the fact that - "That which is in plain view if often best hidden."

Their activities are largely confined to specific areas, precise geographical locations. Such places can be called Portals, or Entry Points, for spacecraft, through which Beings from INNER/OUTER/SPACE/TIME seep through onto our surface reality. Prescott, Az., Mt. Shasta, Sussex County, England, both Poles (North and South).

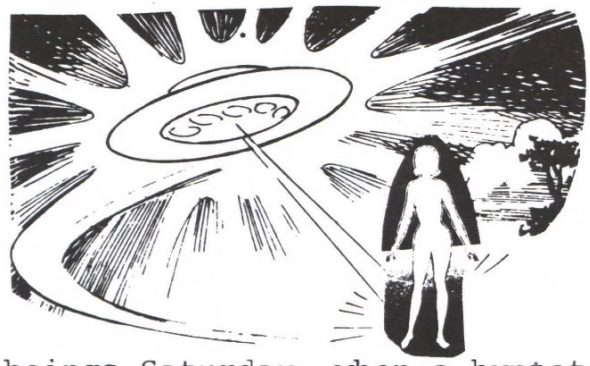
Activities in these areas are of a cyclic nature. Keys days being Wednesday and on the 24th of the month. (Zachariah 1:7) "These are they whom the Lord (leader of Regional Districts) has sent to patrol the earth." (Zachariah 1:10) Persons of high psychic potential are more prone to witness and have personal experiences of the visitations of the crafts and beings.

A definite Time cycle and Force is working here, placing all in Synchrony. The Ancients magicians and seers were quite familiar with these cyclic factors. Following specific patterns, specific people witness or become involved in these events.

Investigation also shows another significant factor. The Portal Areas tend to be places where previously known peculiar faults exist. Earth is covered with magnetic faults and interestingly enough, many of them are grouped around the ancient mounds, temple sites, and spots where Flying Saucers are seen most frequently. Psychically orientated people living in those regions tend to have extraordinary experiences with Mind Image Projections, thought-form energy activity,etc. A magnetic survey map of the United States, detailing magnetic variations, can be obtained from the Office of Geological Survey. ElectroMagnetic energy plays a key role on this earth.

THE PHANTOM PHENOMENA (persons, aircraft, etc.) are produced apparitions and Trans-vibrational energy forms. These amazing, confusing, appearing-disappearing, subjective observations are REAL TEMPORIAL FORMS - controlled transformations of ENERGY! These entities and THINGS are NOT necessarily from 'some other planet'. They are tied to human consciousness and are part of our immediate enviromnent. To a very large extent, they are primarily concerned with misleading us, misinforming us, and they are playing with our minds; it seems they educate us, as well as torment us. They have Watched and played their mischievous games.

ALL ENTITIES ARE COMPOSED OF THE DUALITIES OF EXISTENCE - OR ELSE THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO MANIFEST..... ....



UFO KIDNAPPING! -- CALIFORNIA STYLE!
(Source: THE DAVIS ENTERPRISE - CA. 1/31/77 - Reprinted from ZENOLOG - #109 - 33 Dee St.,Timaru, N.Z.)

Judy Kendell was kidnapped by space beings Saturday, when a hypnotist put her in a trance to help her remember what happened to four missing hours of her life. The way the 23 year old legal secretary told it, as she sat shivering on her warm living room couch in her Woodland apartment, the "old blue Ford" she was driving her two sisters home from Bodega Bay to Samora, was plucked up off the road somewhere on Interstate 505 near the Cache Creek Bridge.

They had left their grandmother's Bodega Bay home at 5:30pm. On a Sunday in November in 1971... It was normally only a three hour drive but they didn't get home until midnight with no explanation for why the trip took so long. All they remember was driving across the same bridge twice on a road with little traffic on a pitch dark night. Judy was realizing for the first time Saturday, that she was kidnapped by a space ship. A roomful of calm UFO researchers and incredulous friends watched Judy shield her face with her hands to prevent seeing a space creature she described as having a bulbous head with saucer-sized red-pupiled gelatonous eyes. She said it had no ears, "Just Holes."

The lower part of its almost translucent "milky white face was covered with a mask, she said, while still clutching her face. But still she saw its neck which had red veins, "not like the purple ones we have." She said its body was human looking and that it had five fingers on its hands, "like ours." "But the head was so scary looking,". "It's coming towards me, I don't want to see any more." "It's Touching me!" She said it touched her on the forehead and said in English that wasn't loud but was muffled and coming through a distant megaphone, "It's Okay, it's okay." "But it's not okay," she said in a small tight voice.

Suddenly she grabbed her right side and leaned over as if in pain, the hypnotist, Dr. W.C. McCall, who had flown up from Anaheim for this occasion, asked Judy what was happening. "I feel like I got poked," she said. McCall took her through the experience repeatedly. She got relaxed after being poked and was lying on a cold table with a sheet over her. "They are taking urine out of me. They are cathaterizing me," she said with expression of disgust passing over her face. "Uhhh." She saw three different type of creatures all dressed in gray, standing at the foot of the table. She had no clear description of their faces. Strangely, she saw a regular human woman with straight black hair and blue eyes, who handed the creature a tube of colorless fluid, "that you can't see through." The woman knew her name and was trying to reassure her.

... She got a pain at 'the top of her right thigh' and ehld her hand on it, but she couldn't say what was happening. "They are looking in my ear. I feel a strange thing there. it feels cold and hard inside," she said. She said she thought they were looking at her feet. Throughout the ordeal, Judy kept complaining of a head ache and clutching her head, which at times she said felt like it was being "pressed tightly."

The creature placed a heavy metal machine over her eyes and she heard a quiet motor whirring inside... When her head could move slightly, Judy saw what she described as a "round room with windows all around. She saw two bucket seats at one side of the room with a "console with a lever - like a car gear shift in the middle." "There were three lights over the seats." She pointed to her left and said she saw a table with what looked like doctors 'probes', she saw a black box there, too, with "speakers holes in it." She said she couldn't see behind her where she said the machine that was put over her eyes came from. But, she heard her sister, who wishes to remain unidentified and who won't have anything to do with this hypnotism, crying. She is really upset. She sounds far away...

The next thing she said, was that she was behind the wheel without really knowing how she got there. McCall ran her through her experience again and she remembered the three grey clothed creatures carrying her by her hands and feet and throwing her into the car... She didn't know where her sisters were, and they suddenly seemed to materialize, she said. When they were back in the car, it was pitch black ... and then ..."we just landed on the road - in my car!"...

They arrived in Zamora at about 12 midnight after crossing the Cache Creek Bridge on Interstate 505 twice, They had left Bodega Bay for the three hour drive at 5:30 pm on a date they still can't pinpoint for certain. The seven hour drive remains almost as much a mystery as it was when they had no idea what happened...

... McCall said he has hypnotized about six people with similar abduction stories. One of the problem's is to get collaborating stories from both her sisters. But neither of them wants anything to do with revealing the experience. "They are scared to find out what may have happened to them," Judy said...

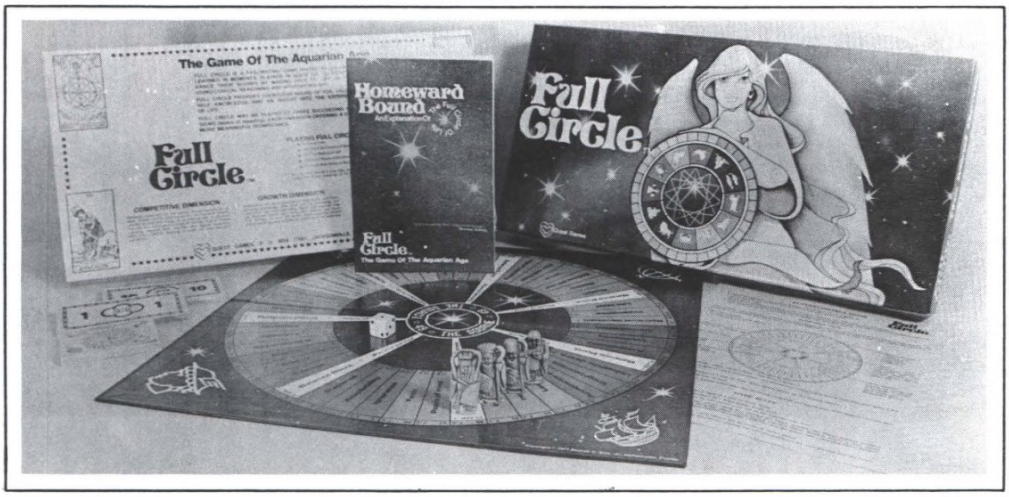
the Search for Self

The Aquarian Age Game



For Ages 8-80

Ancient civilizations including the Atlanteans and their predecessors preserved and disseminated knowledge through games, the game being an entertaining and effective teaching instrument. However, when ancient civilizations disappeared from the surface of the earth the wisdom inherent in such games and the art of gaming disappeared along with them. Now as we enter the Golden New Age one such game "FULL CIRCLE"™ has resurfaced. "FULL CIRCLE"™, patterned after ancient games of self-exploration, is offered to help souls find their path in the forthcoming years of opportunity.

"FULL CIRCLE"™ is life itself, the universal play of cosmic energy; the energy expressed as the myriad forms and feelings continuously presented to self. "FULL CIRCLE"™ is a microcosm of the larger Game. Contained within the 49 spaces (seven levels within each of seven planes) on the game board is the essence of thousands of years of self-exploration, the heart of the Atlantean heritage.

As players move from space to space they begin to see patterns in their own existence, emerging with ever-deepening clarity as their understanding of the Game broadens. Their sense of detachment grows as they see each state of being as temporary, something to move beyond. And once the temporality of any space becomes a reality for players they can detach from that space, and let it go as they seek to discover more about the wonder that is Being.

As with all games there is a goal, an object to be attained. The goal of each player is to enlarge awareness, to make the "circle full" by expanding the circumference of one's consciousness outward, ever outward, until ultimately it encompasses ALL. The goal is to identify with the Source, to attain Cosmic Consciousness, the essence of pure Being which transcends time and space and knows no limits.
The game ends when all players have completed their full circle journey and have reunited with their Source, GOD.

"FULL CIRCLE"™ is a unique and beautifully illustrated work of art. Entertaining, meaningful game pieces, an enlightening 25 page booklet entitled "Life's a Journey Homeward Bound", and the intriguing game concept are guaranteed to bring mental and spiritual growth to all who play.

"FULL CIRCLE"™, the game of personal discovery, is available through QUEST GAMES, P.O. Box 17561, JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA 32216 for the complete PRICE: $9.99.
