ENERGY ALTERNATIVES

A Conference on the Frontiers of Science

November 3rd, 4th, & 5th, 1978

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd

KEYNOTE ADDRESS & RADIESTHESIA

BILL COX - Editor of the Pyramid Guide and expert dowser will give the opening address entitled "Bridging the Gap Between the Subjective and Objective". He will present information on dowsing for minerals, oil and water as well as map dowsing.

SOLAR ENERGY

DR. HENRY C. MONTEITH - An engineering research physicist for the Sandia Laboratories, Albuquerque, New Mexico, he was the first U. S. scientist to openingly experiment with the Kirlian effect, a technique used to study the human "Bioplasma". Dr. Monteith will present alternative approaches to solar energy.

CRYSTAL ENERGY

DR. G. PATRICK FLANAGAN - Noted as one of the top scientists in the world, is the author of Pyramid Power and Beyond Pyramid Power. Dr. Flanagan has been involved in alternate forms of energy research since his early childhood. Proclaimed as the "father of pyramid power" in America, Dr. Flanagan will speak on his research with crystals and his forthcoming book Crystal Power.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4th

PSYCHOTRONICS

DR. HENRY NAGORKA - President of the U. S. Psychotronics Association, is also the editor of the Psychic Observer & Chimes. He will discuss the History of Psychotronics and Soviet Psychotronic Weaponry.

DR. T. GALEN HIERONYMUS - Known as a legend in his own time, he holds numerous patents in foreign countries as well as the U. S. He was the first man to obtain a patent on a psychotronic device. Mr. Hieronymus will discuss his work and inventions as well as Eloptic and Neionic Energy, the energies behind psychotronics.

ORGONE ENERGY

JEROME EDEN - Author, lecturer and editor of the Eden Bulletin, is a leading exponent of the work of Wilhelm Reich, discoverer of the Life Energy, Orgone. Mr. Eden will discuss the life and work of Wilhelm Reich as well as his personal reserach in "Cosmic Orgone Engineering".

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5th

PYRAMID ENERGY

LES BROWN - Author of the book, The Pyramid, How to Build It, How to Use It, has conducted extensive research with pyramid energy in the area of agriculture. He will discuss "The Pyramid Era" - the function and performance of the pyramid, and its effect on plant, animal and human life.

DR. BILL SCHUL - A social psychologist, researcher and co-author of The Secret Power or Pyramids and The Psychic Power of Pyramids, will discuss "Pyramids and the Second Reality". Are pyramids interfaces between matter and antimatter?

ENERGY ALTERNATIVES is a non-profit organization. Its goal is to provide a forum for the top scientists and researchers to present and discuss their work. Truly this is the first conference of its kind to focus solely on the alternate forms of free energy available to human-kind. A three day ticket costs $60.00. For more information send a self-addressed stamped envelope to ENERGY ALTERNATIVES, P. O. Box 8709, Midland, Texas 79703. (915) 682-2802.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Joan: Shape-energy investigators have pretty well scrapped the regular geometric solids, except for the pyramid, half of one. But our cat knows better! He was recently flayed, and required stitches and skin grafts on one leg. After the original operation, the cat gathered up 3 small styrofoam icosahedra that had been placed in corners of the room to see if any effect was niticed over a time, and he placed them under the chair he habitually rested on to recover. The vet examined his progress and the wound had healed so swiftly and well the vet declared him "Miracle Cat"! Sincerely, Michael Heleus.

* Dear Michael: 8 more lives to go! Thanks for the tip!

Dear Editors: How happy I was to recieve those fine Atlantean Journals! There must be quite a few of us who thought George Hunt Williamson was in another dimension. While living in Phoenix a few years ago I saw in the TV news a shot of a grave marker which had "George --- Williamson" on it. I didn't get the middle initial. You can imagine I was upset, thinking what a great man the world had lost! Anyway, I'm thankful he's OK. Now please tell me how I can acquire Mr. Williamson's latest book... Thank you again, Evelyn Lanning, Las Vegas, Nevada.

* Sorry, I do not know the release date, but will print it as soon as I do.

Dear Joan and Pat: Tom Beardon recommends THE NEW ATLANTEAN JOURNAL so strongly in SPECULA 1-2, that we just can't refuse. Indeed, we'll gamble on a three year subscription for $10; check included herein.. Our current focus in Forteana is on pyrophenomena (with emphasis on SHC): also alternative nonConventional energies, and cataclysmic geology and related topics (such as destroyed Ancient Civilizations). Looking Forward! Most sincere ly yours, Larry E. Arnold. (Parascience International, Harrisburg, Pa.)

* Dear Larry: I am going to include the rest of your address so that our readers can exchange thoughts and data with you! 1025 Miller Lane! Here's hoping you get lots of Forteana! P.S. How do you like your 'gamble'???

Dear Joan O'Connell: Thank you for your note and information... I thank you for your helpful attitude in so many ways, appreciated deeply by yours truly. That personal feeling that one is more than a figure in a column identifies you as the type of person you vibrate to me from your signature, sincere, in earnest and in some Way, using what you are now doing, to enable you to "Leap To The Next Step". I hope you know what is meant, for I am just beholding the fact as represented by your personality - identification. Your own interpretation is the one which contains that element of direction by which we all achieve that unto which we strive. May your beliefs be strengthened by the Proofs you seek. Here's to the effort inspired by the Motivation you serve. ESPecially Yours, Reverend Mabel Hazell, San Francisco, Ca. (130 Fir Avenue).

* I thank you for the kind words and encouragement. As to my next "Leap", I promise I will look both ways - first!

Greetings! Thank you for sample copy of "New Atlantean Journal" sent with your acknowledgement of my ad for my book - "NIGHT-SIDE OF GOLD" to appear in your December issue. Am herewith enclosing $5 for one year's subscription; I like your magazine very much. If the world hangs together by next year, I will renew it. I will also renew my ad. At present I am working on an article which further expands my theory about Bigfoot. Mr. Peter Byrne, head of Bigfoot Research Center at Hood River, Or. does not sanction my far-out theory. Nevertheless, he wrote to me: "We would very much like to have a copy of your book for our library." Will share with you a comment made by a modern day member of the HOOPA Indians who share Bigfoot territory in Northern California - when he was being questioned by a member of the Sierra Club; "WE DON'T MESS AROUND WITH THAT DUDE!" Bigfoot is either fact, fiction or fantasy - but a "DUDE" he ain't! Very cordially yours, Virginia Louise (Swanson). Julian, Ca.

* Love that "DUDE" remark! Both His and Yours! Can't wait to read your book and I suspect our readers will feel the same. I know that there are as many theories about Bigfoot as with the UFO, and as with the UFO, all have an element of truth. The 'Foot' means one thing to the Indian, and another to the city-dweller (or the armchair investigator or the field-tromper or the contactee who was chased by one!) You are a welcome addition to the field. PS - Hope the world 'hangs on' until renewal time!

Dear Sir: Since I do not want to cut the back of a friend's magazine, I am not enclosing the coupon but I would like a subscription to NAJ plus 3 back issues for $7... Mrs. Josephine Evans, Indianapolis, Ind...

* Please don't cut the magazine out! We will honor the offer WITHOUT the coupon. Just quote it to us. AND - to all who have written about more back issues than three --- we cannot send any more - as we don't HAVE anymore! Sold out!

THE DEATH CYCLE

HEADLINE: "Pentagon Presses 'Death Ray' study. (St. Louis Post - 3/10/78). The Pentagon wants to double the multimillion-dollar research program into a billion-volt "death ray", which some analysts say the Soviet Union already is developing..." a charged particle beam weapon firing streams of tiny electronic pellets...".

One of the most widely discussed aspects of the Edgar Cayce readings cautioned the modern day world about the "re-discovering" of the ancient Atlantean technological feats. It was Cayce's contention that reincarnating entities from the Last Atlantean Period were now (quoted in the early 30's) beginning to make their appearance on Earth, and among these entities were thos of the Most Highest Order as well as the most corrupt type. Included in both of these types were those entities who were concerned in their previous lifetime with the so-called 'Cosmic Forces' in which the apparent usage of nuclear power was commonplace and quite elemental. He mentioned specifically the Atlantean invention "The Great Crystal or the Cylindrical Glass" and also what he described as a "firestone". History, in the light of recent Atomic events, seems to bear out his fears. It does, indeed, seem to be the case that tremendous forces have been 'discovered' - and - unfortunately for Mankind they have been utilized for the destruction of Man - and not his betterment. This Cycle of Death, the pattern of the destruction, is but a repetition of the same conditions that prevailed then - and that caused the sinking of our Lost Lands of the West.

The same technology that Kills, can also Cure. It is NOT the technology that is at fault - it is the Mind that conceives that technological usage. What we really are experiencing is the RE-CYCLING of the SAME SOULS, who are now working along the same lines of research, to develope the same weapons - (or cures) as before. And, as Before, there are those who will promote the death cycle, AND the life force cures. The same supreme Battle rages...

We all know who won the war -- the last time. And - at this point in my editorial you would expect me to give you all a pep talk about faith, hope, and possibly even salvation. Iam not. Nor could I, in all truth, do so. It is not my belief. The situation has gone too far. The physical earth is now in a new vibratory field, new frequencies are being brought into focus,. and, as there is personal Karma, and Group Karma, there are Planetary Cycles I have a very strong suspicion that our Fate has already been decreed - it only remains for us to understand what has to be done. Look NOT to the 'Future' for plans. Look to the Past. For therein lies the Secret!

UFO'S INTERNATIONAL!

UFO'S: TASMANIA! Seems like right out of a Hitchcock thriller, but it happened on Ten Mile Hill, just outside of Hobart last year. A man was hurrying home at about 4 AM in his LandRover, and was at the bottom of the Hill when a noise like blurred electronic music flooded the still night. At practically the same moment the man's field of vision was then blocked by a "picture screen effect" - there seemed to be a yellow light source to the left of the screen, with a figure in profile on the right. The figure was facing to the right when first seen and then turned towards the man. All this happened in a few seconds and the man frantically braked, but seemed to go right through the 'picture'; "And then it was no longer there." The man turned and went back because he thought he had knocked somebody over, but all he found was a deserted road. He described the figure to UFO investigators as 3m tall, and "as wide as three people". It was wearing a black featurless jacket and light-colored trousers. It's hair was fair... Another Tasmanian report: an account of a close encounter on a highland farm. During the early hours of the morning a figure was seen to "FLOAT INTO A CARAVAN THROUGH THE ROOF HATCH! It eventually disappeared. The incident was "laughed off" until later at the same farm, five shooters saw a strange figure glide UP steps on the property. The figure brightened, then dimmed and faded away. Five witnesses are still wondering what it was. (Source: Saturday Evening Mercury-5/577- Tasmania)

UFO'S: ARGENTINA! Buenos Aires - The police chief of Catamarca reported seeing a FLOTILLA of UFO'S pass over that small town in NW Argintina... This was only the latest in a growing pile of testimonies indicating that in the past week, the western fringe of Argetina in the foothills of the Andes, has turned into a playground for UFO'S. In the small town of Villa Mercedes in San Luis province, when several inhabitants watched some 30 brightly shining UFOS carry out maneuvers in the night sky... a similar formation was spotted at Mendoza by a group of laborers. As the news of the phenomena has crossed the Andes, Chileans have also begun reporting UFOS. Already last year, a Chilean Army partol in Arica reported making a contact with the crew of a flying saucer. (NY.NY. "News" -6/13/78)

UFO'S: MEXICO! Sierra Madre - Mexican soldiers are looking for some 'little green men' with square feet and luminous suits who dropped from the sky about a month ago, reports the local newspaper "La Prensa"... The military activity, officially denied, takes place in the western Sierra Madre where, according to the paper, a UFO crashed a month ago. Several of the UFO crew escaped alive, states the paper, which adds that two of the extraterrestrials died later. At least 200 soldiers of the Mexican Army have been detached to the place to be searched and a gendarme, Ernesto Salazar, claimed having led a group of soldiers to a place near where the flying saucer crashed. 'SPACE BEING' SIGHTED

SUNDAY TELEGRAPH
LONDON, ENGLAND
3/19/78

By JOHN WILLIAMS

ATOMIC Energy Authority police searched the area surrounding a nuclear establishment at Risley, Warrington, after a motorist reported sighting a seven-foot "being from outer space."

The being was described as silvery coloured with bright beams of lights coming from its eyes. At one stage it appeared to walk through a solid fence.

The alarm was given by Mr. Kenneth Edwards, 39, a service engineer, who contacted police after seeing the object near the complex which houses the Manchester University reactor and the British Nuclear Fuels centre, Risley, late on Friday night.

Beings made of smoke

SALLY PIKE and her husband, Neil, believe they have come face to face with figures from another world.

It happened when they were in a group of eight sky watchers on Starr Hill, Warminster.

Sally, 33, says: "We had seen two high-flying UFOs, when there was a change in the atmosphere. The air became warmer.

"Then these two figures appeared. They were about 7ft tall and it was as if they were made out of smoke.

Fade

"We could see their outlines down to their waists, and then they gradually started to fade away."

Neil, a bank security officer, approached the figures.

Sally says: "He just blended in with them. He couldn't see them when he got close to them.

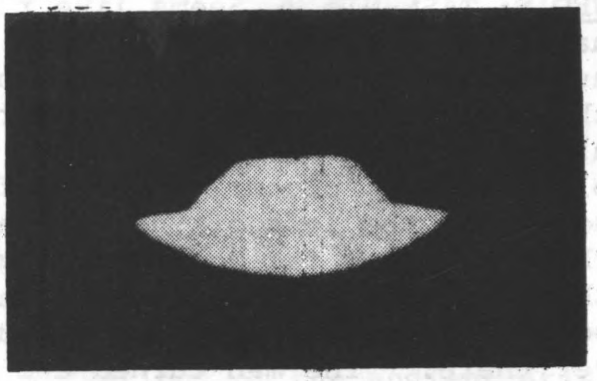

"But we watched as he walked straight through the figures and out the other side.

"The figures remained in the same place for half an hour, then disappeared."

Sally and Neil saw similar figures when sky watching on their own one night.

SAUCER SNAPPED!

A flying saucer clearly observed in Shiraz, South Iran, was photographed by a 16-year-old student, Jamshid Sayadipour, for a Tehran magazine. The picture was taken in colour with a Cannon MT camera while Jamshid was doing his pre-examination studies in Shiraz, where flying saucers are often seen. In colour, three windows in the saucer can be seen clearly. A week later he saw three more saucers flying together in the remote distance.

BOURNEMOUTH EVENING ECHO -4/14/78
ENGLAND

HOVERING high over Bournemouth is a shape which has become a familiar part of space lore . . . the type of UFO which started flying saucer scares long before Star Wars.

It was recorded on the film of 87-year-old Mr. Cyril Fulbrook of Ellersile Chambers, in Hinton Road, where he is caretaker. At the time he was taking pictures of the sun near his home.

Mr. Fulbrook, whose interests range from the Royal Microscopical Society to the Royal Society of Arts, said today: "I am sceptical about UFOs."

He said he was taking 20-second exposures of the sun with his home-made camera when the "strange images" were recorded.

MONTEVIDEO - (Source: Cleveland Plain Dealer - 5/13/78) - An unknown fan-tailed Sea Monster, with a tortoise shell two meters in diameter and with huge fins, has been fished out of the Rio de la Plata by surprised Uruguayan fishermen. The creature, weighing about a ton, was dying when it was brought to the surface. Professor V. Bertullo, director of Uruguay's Institute of Fish Research, said he could not identify the creature - which was not to be found in any book.

HEATHSVILLE, VA. - (Source: St. Pete Independent - 8/18/78) - Undulating, gliding through the dark water, rainsing it's head, then diving, Nessie of Lock Ness fame? NO - it's Chesapeake Chessie, the sea serpent of Chesapeake Bay and a handful of people have reported sighting the strange creature in the Bay and a bit upstream in the Potomac River. The description match, if not in size, at least in general appearance, the fabled monster of the Scottish Lake. Donald Kyker, a retired CIA employee, reported that on July 25, he and his wife Ann saw a creature about 25 to 30 feet long, and about as round as a telephone pole. He said it stuck it's head out of the water and then dived...

FT. LAUDERDALE, FL. - (Source: Albuquerque Journal 6/10/78) - Ft. Lauderdale motel owner, Phillip Miller, said he is sure he has located the "Lost City" deep in the jungles of Peru. And - if any of the legendary treasure is buried there he expects his planned 25 member expedition will find them. ... after it reaches Peru next month. Miller, president of a group known as Adventurers Unlimited, said a series of eight little white dots on a 1975 NASA Landsat 2 satellite photo of Peru led to what he believes may "become the archeological find of the century."... Miller said the dots on the photo turned out to be sections of 12 Pyramids in an area more than two miles long. The Pyramids rise an estimated 500 feet over the roof of the jungle. "Nothing has ever been found of this magnitude".

SERVILLETA, NEW MEXICO - (Source: The New Mexican - 6/9/78) - At least 20 members of the N.M. mounted patrol and state police plan to search this area for a body -- after finding a human hand in a meadow here last week. ... the hand was found by two ranchers... the puzzling aspect of the case is that the hand was found fairly well preserved or almost freshly torn from the limb. He said the hand apparently was connected to a body that was not dead long... According to Filip, the large left hand was not completely decomposed, but seemed shriveled and hardened, almost as if - "Mummified"...

MAMELWOUTH: THE MYSTERIOUS!

by Joan O'Connell

One of the strangest and most bizarre stories to cross this desk in many a year comes from Mrs. Cosette Willoughby of Las Cruces, New Mexico. A subscriber to our Journal and a very nice lady, she had the courage to share with her fellow readers a very strange situation. Let her tell you in her own words...

"I was out in the hills near where I live when I discovered a very strange and unusual stone. It is made of a type of stone called Chirt. The top of the stone is carved in a strange design, made so that when you look at it for any length of time the design takes on an elf-like face or faces. It also has a strange writing on it. It's difficult to copy for it changes as you turn the stone. (NOTE: Remember the Shaver Picture Rocks, etc.?) The back of the stone is smooth, but pictured in the texture of the stone are still more faces. On the top side is the head of a baby. It's been carved so when you tilt the stone at different angles the baby will smile, frown, cry, yawn and look sober. Along the edge of the stone is carved a serpent."

"... Then I noticed other strange things." Strange, indeed! When she was alone in the room with the rock Mrs. Willoughby felt that it somehow had 'told' her it was thirsty, so she placed the rock on a plate with a soaked paper towel (water) and it promptly grew to or "puffed up" to almost twice the original size. In the same telepathic way, it conveyed to her a name: MAMELWOUTH.

One of the most interesting and fantastic experiences that took place after 'contact' had been made was that a book was dictated to her! In the most bewildering type of script! Cosette calls it script writing, but does not know what it means, only that she feels compelled to put it all down on paper. She also says that "After finding Mamelwouth I decided there must be more of these wonderful stones. I have found quite a few of the 'live' ones. None of them as active as Mamelwouth. I have also found much of their beautiful carvings. I call them the ancient Serpent people for they have a serpent on all of their stones."

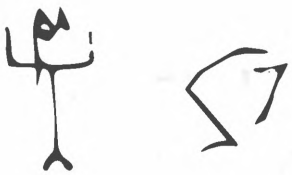

This in an ongoing story, and Cosette has had many more experiences with Mamelwouth which are too long to go into at this time. She has been in touch with us for some weeks now, and we are filing these experiences for another feature story AND she has kindly sent us one of the "live" rocks So, WE will be watching our rock and will report on it's 'life' later'!

Ancient Aztec Empire Relics Uncovered Below Mexico City

Reprinted From:
The Grand Rapids Press
Sunday, August 27, 1978.

MEXICO CITY (AP) The main ceremonial stone pyramid and temple of the ancient Aztec Empire is slowly being uncovered in the heart of Mexico City in one of the most dramatic and controversial archeological events in recent history.

The excavation is being conducted in a corner of the huge main square of the capital - the Zocalo, around which is standing the National Palace and the Metropolitan Cathedral. The dig is unearthing the treasures left behind by the once great Aztec civilization.

Archeologists working under the auspices of the National Institute of Anthropology and History, have sifted through the dirt of more than 44 centuries to reveal a large circular stone of 84 tons with relief statues and two gargoyle-like serpents that flank the main steps of one side of the temple.

AP Photograph

A FACE OF THE PAST is shown on this stone urn, still in remarkable condition, excavated in downtown Mexico City.

Professor Eduardo Matos, heading the dig, said the huge pyramid actually housed two temples, each with a set of stairs running up 150 feet, broken only by an occasional platform.

The Pyramid was probably 180 feet high with a base that measured 240 feet by 240 feet... In the case of the main pyramid, Matos says, the Spaniards tore down at least the upper half or two-thirds to the point of the platform that has been exposed. On it, the huge stone, about nine feet across -appearing much like the famous stone Aztec calenders, actually tells the story of the God to which one of the temples is dedicated, Huitzilopochtli, He is one of the main Gods of Aztec mythology.

The temple in the other half of the Pyramid is believed to be dedicated to Tlaloc, the God of rain and water. He did not elaborate any further on the yet to be excavated parts of the Temple. The archeologists have started a small, but much deeper excavation, just to the side of the steps on the platform. The small hole has added evidence to the pyramid's function and contributed to the more than 1,000 artifacts that have already been uncovered...

WHAT'S THE ? QUESTION

Reprinted from: The Livingston Center - "TRILTON THOUGHT"
POB 29317, Indianapolis, Indiana 46229

Question: I see the term, "Universal Law" used in the Trilton. Just what is Universal Law?

The primary tenet of Universal Law is Love; and I use Love as a noun, not as a verb, etc. Now Love as a noun, is too wide a concept to mean much to us, except when considered carefully and quietly with great attention; so we have to break it down into sub-headings to more redily understand how it applies in our daily lives. For sub-heading one, Universal Law demands there be absolute justice in the Universe.

The only alternative you would have would be a universe of chaos, where there were no rules, nor any certainties. Where planets did not subscribe definite orbits, and gravity only worked occasionally, and at varying forces. Sub-heading two would be - Man has absolute Free Will. Your entire existence in eternity is governed in every respect by how you choose to be, to think, to believe, to act, and to react. If you are a victim, you are a victim of your will. If you are an inheritor of good, that too is only an effect, and you will is the cause. What ever the effect in your life, it can be traced to one cause, and that cause is the way you have chosen to exercise your free will.

Cause and effect of course, fall within the category of this sub-heading. This says that you are what you believe. You receive back in exact measure, all that you put out, be it love or hate in kind. Through your beliefs and actions, you have created your current situation. Your life is the effect, and your free will is the cause. You cannot receive good, or what you would judge good, unless that is what you have put out in thought. Even if another directs an evil thought - (or even a gun) at you, unless that is what you've sown, what you've caused in your own life, it can have no effect on you. You are immune to all the world except yourself. Never shift the blame. If you experience it, you've caused it.

Carrying that a step further, we can look at a current situation in our lives, and trace it back to it's cause, ans still miss the main point about it. Let's say, for instance, that the effect is something we consider to be a negative, like a lack of money, or ill health. We may trace it back to what we consider to be the source of this negative in our lives, but the most important point is the fact this negative exists RIGHT NOW: and therefore indicates the cause is still in effect or it would not be MAINTAINING in our lives.

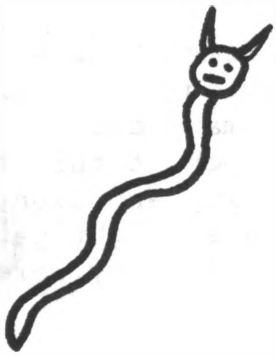

We still believe more firmly in this negative, than we do in the Truth that would eliminate the negative. Ill health, for instance, may be traced to it's cause, but if it still plagues us, somethin in our belief pattern RIGHT NOW, is giving force to, and maintaining this negative situation in our lives.

Universal Law sub-heading number three, says you are eternal. You always were, always will be, and are now. You have all of eternity, but a failure to understand the Universal Laws, keeps you engrossed in all the aggravations and limitations of the physical incarnations. Who wants to spend eternity with their feet in the mud, when they are the inheritors of the Universe. Under that sub-heading, we handle the TIME concept because eternity to the finite mind, means forever in time. All time is NOW. It is like chapters in a book. You may read from chapter one through chapter eighty, but when you reach eighty, chapter one still exists, and you can turn back to it. When you are on chapter one, chapter eighty already exists, though not in the proper sequence of book reading. Your previous lives, and your future lives, are more like parallel dimensions, existing now in the same book as your current chapter, but you can't see them because you have the pages open to NOW. You can, and do, draw from these co-existing other lives. From your future lives you draw intuition and creativity, and from past lives you draw strengths and talents. However, since all time is now, your point of power is always NOW.

You may draw from your future, more perfected self now, and by changing beliefs NOW, you can effectively erase negatives from your past in this life, or in previous ones. If you have a heart that is damaged because of improper excercises of free will in your past, changing your NOW beliefs can effectively erase that damage in your past, allowing you to have a sound heart NOW. Some of what we call faith healing is precisely this...

Earthquakes, tornadoes, hurricanes, thunderstorms, tidal waves, blizzards, droughts, and every other disruptive form of nature are effects; and beliefs and the thought-intentions of man are the causes. Man has dominion over the earth, and it responds precisely to the body of the thought of those who stand upon it.

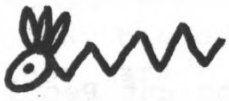

Your thoughts and beliefs are the playwrite of your life, and your physical condition and life situation is merely the stage on which it is acted out. You are never subjected to anything you would consider bad, nor is good a gift to you. You have produced exactly what which ever effect you are experiencing... ... ...
NOTE: Please write to the Livingston Center for the entire article. It is a fascinating and informative explanation of our cares and woes -- --- and --- how it goes!

THE POWER WITHIN: DESTRUCTION? OR REBIRTH?

by TAL LEVESQUE

A 'Storehouse' of natural resources for energy lies beneath the land of the Rocky Mountain states. In the 1860's it was gold, next it was silver. Then in 1910 it was copper, followed by molybdenun and zinc. Today, almost half the nations's coal reserves; more than 90 percent of the uranium; and all of the high-grade oil shale is to be found. The west will also have a leading role as we move BEYOND coal and nuclear forms of energy. Above the ground it has two more valuable energy sources: Sun and Wind. There is more to this list of energy research: geothermal power - tapping the frequency vibrations of the earth - crystal energies and ION power. These latter forms may even now be used by other Beings who are responsible for the UFO's seen over certain of the areas of Earth.

In the Southwest the UFO's are repeatedly seen over certain mountains sacred to the Indians. Shrines and mounds of stones (some 10 feet in diameter, about 5 feet high and with a spruce pole in the center, 8 feet high) have been observed atop these sacred peaks. The geothermal hot springs were frequently visited and the areas around them were respected as sanctuary. Many of these mountains are composed of great blocks of granite which can produce a "Piezoelectric" effect due to the matrix of quartz crystal, mica and feldspar. Hollow caverns inside these mountains form a granite air condenser for energy storage.

The Sacred remnant of a huge volcano, Mount Taylor, generates another form of energy. The Grants Uranium Belt extends beneath Mt. Taylor. As much as one-half of the Uranium reserves in the U.S. are located in this belt. Radiation from the normal disintegration of radioactive materials, IONIZES the air near the surface of the earth around Mt. Taylor. These IONIZED air charges accumulate in clouds and can also be stored in Crystals that act like capacitors. UFO's could get "charged up" by receiving electron flows from these 'surplus energy storage areas'. The Earth is like a big battery, continuously losing electrons to the atmosphere. IONS are merely atoms or molecules that are not in electrical balance. The electricity flow is normally a quiet, invisible process, but ION collisions can yield enough energy to excite particles of air to make the Luminous.

This visible ionization is termed corona, and can sometimes be seen in darkness as a BLUISH GLOW. When we cross reference various phenomena on a U.S. Geological Survey Map (Gravity Anomaly map), many curious facts emerge. We don't want to give away years of research at this time ... but there are certain 'mystery spots' in which gravity and light are distorted. Saucers seem to follow alignments, in a straight path, between these Mystery Spots and high mountain peaks, as if they were beacons!

Are UFO's being used by an Ancient People who disappeared beneath the Earth? Many North American Indians have a tradition of a Secret Refuge used by Initiates who had the mission of beginning the world all over again. Are underground caverns in America inhabited by an Ancient Advanced People? Where were these ancient people located? Do they still exist somewhere underground to this day?

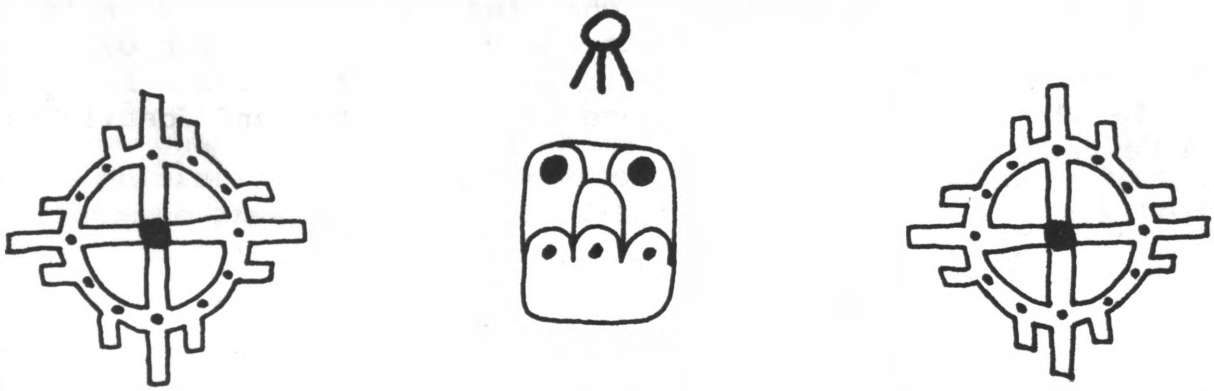

The theory of an ancient civilization of Under-People co-existing within the interior of this planet is admittedly a staggering proposal. Near caverns around Crittenden, AZ.,skeletons of Giants (12 feet tall, having six toes) have been unearth, suggesting a vanished race. In the early 1970's, in the Goreme Valley of Turkey, a local man was drawn to a large circular stone. He discovered this was a rolling door that did seal off a passageway ... inside this tunnel he came to an abandoned (for over 1300 years) UNDERGROUND CITY! An Ancient people had carved out living areas, work rooms, storage rooms and passageways that went down (over 250 feet) level after level, far below the Earth's surface. Cooking was done on every other floor, but so skillfu. were the construction engineers, no smoke ever escaped in betrayal. A gigantic ventilation shaft went from the bottom of the city to the outdoors, a unique air conditioning system. A deep well provided water. This was an UNDERGROUND CITY where 60,000 people had lived! A six mile tunnel connects it with another underground city! This same type of area, composed of a soft, volcanic ash rock called Tuff, can be found in the areas of the Four-Corner States. Underground cities like those in Turkey might even now be found in the volcanish ash areas in the Santa Fe National forest around Los Alamos, N.M. or also the Gila National Forest of New Mexico; Apache Nat. Forest in Arizona; Kaibab National Forest around Flagstaff, AZ; Dixie National Forest in Utah; and the San Juan National Forest in Colorado.

Many entrances to the Cavern Worlds are camoflaged -- except when someone for some reason is wanted down below or when someone "in the Know" is welcomed. The PORTAL can sometimes show up as a very faint Blue - shimmering outline around an egg-shaped slab or boulder (about 7 feet high) which forms the Door.

When closed, it will leave no discernable crack. By tapping the Egg-shaped boulder with a rock, it will swing open in it's socket. They mark tunnels into the large caverns.

Indians in the SouthWest speak of areas which at times make you feel that someone or something is sticking needles into you... where some form of electricity is present. This prickly sensation has been felt not far from the Superstition mountains. The Indians of the region believe this sensation is caused by hidden vents (lava tubes) leading into the Sacred Mountain. Another marker for caverns is the symbol of a TRIDENT. A gigantic trident is inscribed on the side of a mountain in Peru. Over 800 feet high, the figure has become known as the "Candlelabra of the Andes". It is the symbol of the "Tree of Life". This region was primarily a sacred place, what theCelts, called a KER LAN, that is, "City of the Holy Place". Nearby are many steep cliffs with deep caves in them. The Trident was the simplest way for the Inner-Earth people to indicate their presence. It is also associated with the psychic powers of the Third Eye. Its' shape is similar to the Greek letter PSI, which is used to characterize all ESP activity. In Astrology the influence of Neptune (designated by the TRIDENT symbol) indicates a difficult journey into the Unknown, of the Hidden world.

The Trident became associated with this very kind of subterranean exploration. Neptune descended into the underworld where he protects the lost secrets of the Ancient cultures (VITRIOL). The number 3 took on a magical significance because so many important ideas came in the threes (Mind,Body, Soul). The plot thickens as we get to modern times. A very mysterious esoteric phenomenon is lurking in the near future - with the potential of an awesome power. The New Decade: the 1980's - astrologically shows Neptune (the ruler of mystics, prophets, hermits, and electricians) bringing inspiration, imagination and Utopian dreams. In 1984 Neptune moves into Capricorn, an Earth sign. Neptune brings a final search of the Earth (instead of space), for energy and security. Outer space dreams will be shattered, to await some later generation. Technology invades the human mind, with massive Orwellian overtones. A dangerous period -- stimulating, exciting ---- will it bring CATACLYSM or REBIRTH? When the Trident appears, be prepared for Magic, Mystery, and the Secrets of the Ancient Portals!

MEXICO'S "ZONE OF SILENCE"
by Dr. C. Ralph Campo

NOTE: Dr. Campo is the President/Founder of the House of all Riches, the NEW-CLEAR FOUNDATION. Member of the Academy of Parapsychology and Medicine of California and can be reached at POB 336, Quartzsite, Arizona 85346.

Since 1966, I have travelled frequently to Mexicali, Tijuana and Ensenada in Baja California, Mexico to teach our spiritually starved brothers and sisters south of the border. A news caster on Mexican TV announced the discovery of a mysterious "Zone of Silence" in 1977. My students became fascinated and they asked me if I would be willing to give a psychic evaluation about that area.

Our caravan left from Tijuana. We went through the entire Baja California peninsula toward La Paz, a beautiful and colorful city by the sea in the southern part of this area... In every rest place, shop or hotel there was a healthy curiousity about the Zone of Silence and our project, and everywhere we were surrounded by intrigued questioning people who had heard that this 'Zone' was another 'Bermuda Triangle'! We continued our journey through high majestic mountains with stone peaks that resembled man-made sculptures. The color of the sky, the many wild animals and burros were extrordinary.

Suddenly in the height of the mountain, while the very evening was approaching and just a half hour before arriving in Durango, the entire mountain peak seemed to be on fire, for the sky turned to a violent red and then pink and a BRIGHT GREEN followed! And from these profussions of colors emerged the widest, most unusal rainbow I have ever seen. It was as though a sign of something wonderful ahead of us! The next day we finally arrived in Ceballos, a tiny Mexican town, next to the Zone.

After gathering information about that area, we went to meet Mr. Rosendo Aguilera, who is the sole owner of that vast place. He lives with his wife in a large house and he proved to be a perfect gentleman and invited us into his home. After exchanging credentials and explaining the reason for our visit he became extremely cooperative with our plans. He said he would guide us the following day to the area. In the meantime, he showed us numerous strange stones, plants and fossils that he said he found in the Zone area.

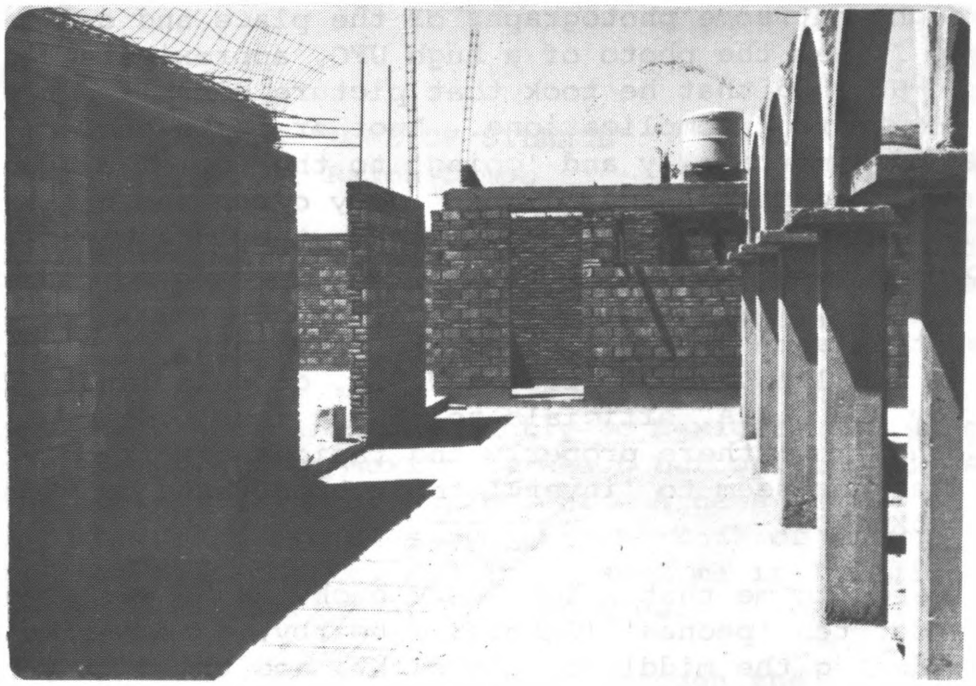

He then brought out some photographs of the place and one caught my eye immediately! It was the photo of a hugh UFO, approximately two blocks in diameter. He said that he took that picture himself but was afraid to release for fear of complications. Another phots showed some strange lights alligned symetrically and 'going' to the top of a mountain peak. He said that he had seen these 'lights' very often and has tried to approach them, but when he gets close to them, they disappear, to appear again as soon as he retreats!

He explained that some of the stones were fragments of a meteorite that had fallen on his land, right after a U.S.A. capsule landed from a satellite, sent by the U.S.A. officials to planet Mars. He mentioned that compasses do not work there properly and radio waves are distorted. Many radio stations seem to 'invert' their broadcasts as though as playing a tape BACKWARDS!

He then confessed to me that a few years back, as he was sleeping in that area, with about ten 'peones' (laborers) nearby, a 'man-like' form came from a bush, during the middle of the night, and tried very hard to strangle him with great ferocity. As he struggled and screamed, his coworkers came to his rescue. All saw a figure running back to the bush, and then disappearing! Everybody surrounded the bush and finally tore it apart to find nothing at all! This year, the Mexican Government began to build a laboratory in that particular area, and as they dug precisely in the spot where the bush was located, they found the skeleton of a man buried right there!

... It would have been impossible to find the Zone by ourselves for we went up and down hills and we turned many times as there is no road and the desert vegatation is confusing to identify. The temperature began to increase in heat... 125 degrees! I noticed my mind clearing up and became extremely inquisitive, I felt as though I wanted to know everything... An eagerness to learn all Life's secrets, the esoteric truths, the Egyptian and the Mexican pyramids connection with this strange area.

... We began to explore the area and found an enormous fig tree. I have never seen any fig tree that large! It was growing by a fountain in the middle of the desert. The water of that fountain only pours when the Sun is aligned in a certain way with the rays hitting the flow. At night the water stays still. There are many wild species of animals and reptiles, but the many turtles caught my eye. They seem to be different in shape than the ones I have seen, instead of the typical surface oval curavature they seem to be 'pyramidal'. Lizzards are very flat and they can change colours like chamaleons. Plants have definitely a DIFFERENT coloration. Cactus are RED. But -- if you transplant them OUT of the Zone area they become GREEN. If you bring them back to that area they will turn red again!

THE LABORATORY BEING ERECTED BY THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT TO STUDY THE ZONE OF SILENCE.

Mr. Aguilera, Miss Evangelina Aguilera, Dr. Campo, Miss Ana Maria Guerrero, Mr.Tom Hopkins.

Shortly after sending us his article on the Zone of Silence, Dr. Campo was involved in a serious accident - from which he escaped without a scratch...

Mr. Aguilera took us to the area where the meteorite had fallen and we went wild picking up hundreds of the fragments. We also found many petrified fossils. He also showed us the place where the U.S. Army recuperated their capsule after almost 30 days in trying to find it. When they returned to the USA, they took with them samples of plants and all types of rocks and soil.

The story of the falling meteorite in the Zone is extremely interesting! Scientists were alarmed at the thought of the Mariner's satellite colliding with the meteorite. For an unexplained reason, the meteorite diverted it's direction just as they thought it was going to hit the sattelite and it continued its orbit around the earth to fall in the Zone Of Silence, as though attracted magnetically to this place.

I couldn't help but to think of the Earth as though it was just like our bodies. Rivers are veins, 144 elements compose the Earth and 144 compose our bidies. Seasons are the different stages of growth: Spring = Childhood, Summer = youth, Fall = Manhood and Winter = Maturity. Day = an awakening, Night = Sleep. Earth can be rich or poor, as can Man. The difference of days are like moods in people. The different temperatures on Earth can be found in our bodies.

I became aware that the ZONE OF SILENCE in Mexico, is part of our Magnetic mind to attract the mysterious, unveiled knowledge of the infinesimal parts of the Universal Mind in us.... The connection with the Pyramids, the Bermuda Triangle and the Zone of Silence has lead me to believe that there is a Subterranean Highway from South America to Canada, and that the Entrance might be just there! ... ...

MOMENT OF TRUTH!

"The one thing no conspiracy can stand is the light of day on it's activities."... by Stanley Ingram, columnist for the Pulaski Citizen, subscriber to our Journal, and a concerced investigator who will relate in his own words the personal experiences he has had with UFO's!

"I have a reputation for tackling almost anything if I believe it is wrong and needs correcting but little did I know that cold February night in 1973 where those flashing lights would lead me. "They" put on a good show and I saw it all through my telescope - I saw the mothership with the flashing strobe lights and the red and green lights, and I saw the glowing white ball leave the ship and later return. ... I know now that the ship was deliberately designed to be taken as an airplane by the unsuspecting. I also know that they were "Monitoring" me at the time, reading my every thought and that they deliberately put on a very good demonstration. The mother ship was torpedo or Butane gas tank shape, the scouts a perfect sphere. Today I can talk to my "monitor" (or guide or guardian angel or whatever) via a form of telepathy which I call "reflex" telepathy, others call it "echo" and "real" telepathy, but I have advanced somewhat beyond this sign language which THEY do through your own brain and your muscles. But -- they betrayed my confidence by lying to me, by making promises not yet kept. "Tomorrow" never comes.

The reason they selected me for whatever unknown purpose is still clouded in mystery and confusion. Really "CONFUSION" seems to be the name of the game! Nevertheless, I feel that this phenomena is of vast importantance to mankind. It is a challange I have accepted. I am slowly learning and I realize this most of all when I read what other people like myself write. They are so wrong in some of their conclusions.

"THEY" first contacted a friend who I was working with in January 1974. This was by far the most advanced form of mental telepathy which I simply call "The Voice in the Head". This is inside your head. No one else will hear it and it is like listening on the telephone. The language is in English and excellent. They do not have any definite accent. The voice does not display emotion as we do but it is not robot-like. It is very human - and pleasing - actually soothing.

In March, 1974, my then 14 year old daughter was taken aboard a 45 foot butane-shaped UFO and carried to the deserts of NW Australia in about one hour 10 minutes. She saw the Golden Gate Bridge and San Francisco, the Pacific Ocean and a large land mass with deserts and cactus.

She has had the ghosts of three deceased friends show up in her bedroom -- plus one other on January 2, 1978, who suddenly appeared in the seat of the car - beside her! He was killed in a construction accident on December 2, 1977. He did not speak and was "flesh" or natural-looking. Not white and misty as most ghosts -- in fact all were "Lifelike".

On Feb. 11, 1976, she was waylaid by 4 men known as the M.I.B. or the "Men In Black" and questioned and then beaten. This climaxed several run-ins with those dark complected beings who drive big black Cadillacs and Lincoln Continental Mar IV autos. Since then one more friend just "appeared" in her room and then disappeared.

Thus we have been apparently escorted through an educational course of a sort... I have been writing about a giant man-ape and its presence in Giles County, Tn. since 1973. Seeing is believing. Thow who haven't seen it can't believe... Well, Mr. T.C. didn't believe there could be such a creature running loose either, but that was before Friday night, Feb. 10th, 1978. This night was cold and clear and found T.C. and his companion parked in a "lover's lane" somewhere on Owl Hollow Road.

They had been there a few minutes when there was a thump on the rear of the parked auto... A short time later there was another thump, louder this time... Then came the third thump, louder than ever. The man opened the door and got out. He immediately was greeted by a terrible smell, similar to rotten eggs. He turned and was terror-struck to see standing at the back of the car an 8 foot hairy monster. For a long second they stood staring at each other, then the giant ape-like man let out two or three "ughhh's", half way between a moan and a growl. T.C. had seen enough, enough to last him a lifetime. He dived for the car door, funbling for the switch... T.C. now "believes".

... In Giles County I have interviewed some 20 people who have seen this frightful, elusive monster. They have been seen from Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church area, 5 or 6 sightings, Anthony Hill area, 3 sightings. On ridge south of Cedar Grove, 2 sightings. (Man caught one in act of killing his calf - 2 witnesses). Note: underlining mine, Ed.) As so in Campbellsville area, 2 or 3 sightings, near Pisgah, 3 sightings, Frenkewing, one sighting. They are often seen or "encountered" by young people who park especially near garbage dumps.

In 1968, a man whose last name is Lowe parked at a dump near Cornersville on Crawley Ridge Road with his girlfriend. After a time they began to hear noises in the brush. After a loud crash they became frightened and tried to leave but the battery did not work. The boy got out and raised the hood and pecked on the battery cables with a hammer.

"THEY", Alton and Tombo, gave her a physical exam and asked about me - explaining that I was too nervous to ride and that they were taking her instead. This was a poor excuse, and I was begging to go. I feel that I have since been taken aboard but remember nothing. This is known as "Lost Time". Attempts at regressive hypnosis to learn the truth have so far failed. My daughter had enough weird experiences to drive her nuts- but she has done OK.

"THEY" named her "Tomboy". In all she met them 4 times. Shook hands with them. They were 4½ to 5 feet tall, 100 pounds, thin with long pointed chins and faces, graceful, light hair, very fine texture and cut short. They do not shave, wear one piece off-white suits and a stocking cap. "THEY" appeared to be fond of Tomboy and talked to her via the Voice in the Head. Alton appeared to be the older and always did the most talking. She would be told to go riding from our farm in Giles County, I was always told to stay behind. When she passed Pig-sah Methodist Church going south she would not remember anything until she came back by the church. Sometimes she was gone two hours and the speedometer of her car showed up to 30 miles traveled. "They" can do almost anything -- including appearing and disappearing!

He closed the hood and started to get back in when he froze in his tracks. In the rear of the car stood a giant hairy monster, it stood upright like a man and glared at the man with redish-green glowing eyes. The boy leaped into the car and it started. He heard a loud bang on the back of the car as he fled. In Cornersville he went to where other young people were gathered and told his hair raising story. One of the boys was looking at the rear fender. The middle was bashed in and long claw marks streaked towards the bumper.

They organized a possee and set out to hunt the monster down. As usual, they found nothing... Why "Yeties"??? I don't know. Neither do dozens of other UFO investigators. They just know that they appear and then disappear and yes, sometimes vanish in a flash of light (Pennsylvania). In 1973 I told my readers in this newspaper that these creatures belonged to the flying saucers, who let them out and picked them back up! This is why they are never captured! This is why they can't be shot! They are protected by their owners! Don't shoot at a Yeti unless he attacks - it does no good. They cannot be shot! I have personally investigated such cases. Above Campbellville a 16 year old boy shot point blank at a giant Yeti a mere 10 steps with a 12 gauge shotgun in broad open daylight. The Yeti showed no signs of being hit. In another case here near Lewisburg a boy shot a Yeti in the chest with a 30-06 deer rifle. The Yeti squalled a terrifying yell, throwing up his arms and ran rapidly off, apparently unaffected. There is a previous report (1975) of a Yeti being seen in a field up Owl Hollow. I started not to mention the location but I have been ridiculed enough. This Yeti is gone! It has been picked up by people who are literally "out of this world", and Yeties and Flying Saucers are but the tip of the iceberg! ... TO BE CONTINUED NEXT ISSUE ... Personal followups of some of the above cases, PLUS another abduction and the theory of Cloning among the UFONAUTS and Earthlings!

THE PSYCHOKINETIC PYRAMID

by Buryl Payne, Ph.D.

Is there such a thing as pyramid energy? If so, of what value is it beyond sharpening razor blades and drying fruit? How can it be measured? Controlled? Enhanced? Or it is merely a subjective phenomenon of the gullible?

Being an open minded and sceptical scientists I decided to investigate pyramids, but being bearded and too impatient to dry fruit or wait for plants to grow, I sought a different approach.

What I wanted was some objective way to demonstrate pyramid energy with a meter, produce a tone, light a lamp, or produce some other clear, definitive, repeatable effect which could be performed by anyone. Ideally an effect or indication should be measurable and repeatable. Something as fuzzy as razor blade sharpness or enhanced plant growth, or the experience of a "better" meditation is far too subjective to be worth much as a scientific effect. Searching for something that would interact with pyramids I began with the observations that pyramids sometimes affect compasses. It is also believed by everyone that one side of the pyramid should face magnetic north for best results. Therefore perhaps there is some interaction between pyramids and magnetic fields. Some experimental pyramids are manufactured with magnets that are built in the base.

From conversations with friends about pyramids and magnets, the idea evolved of placing magnets on the pyramid frame and suspending the pyramid from a thread so that it would be free to rotate. When placed in a glass jar, free from stray air currents, the pyramid was observed to rotate in the presence of people. Thus was the Psychokinetic Pyramid born.

When people look intensely at the pyramid, come within a foot or two of it, or place their hands near it, it rotates. First it moves one way, and then back the other way as tension on the thread increases, like winding up on a child's swing and unwinding.

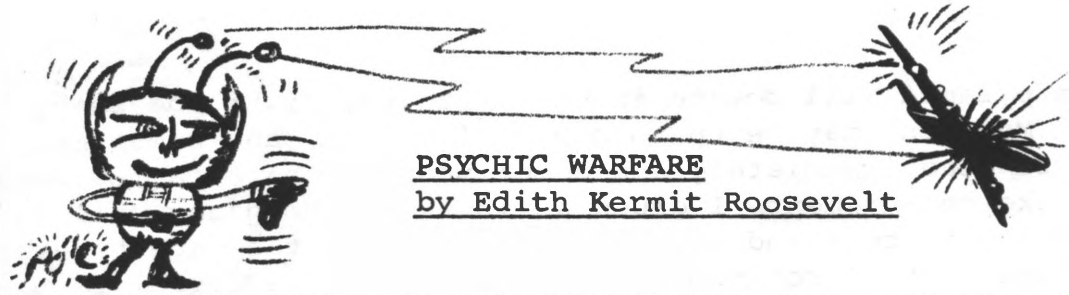

BUT NOT EVERYONE COULD MAKE THE PYRAMID ROTATE.
AND - NO ONE COULD MAKE IT ROTATE ALL THE TIME.

Sometimes the pyramid will rotate initially to the right and sometimes to the left. Movement may be up to one half a turn, and sometimes the pyramid will respond immediately and sometimes only after a few seconds. In order to make measurements I glued an index on the glass bell jar - marked off in cnetimeters and began taking notes on the magnitude and direction of the initial rotation. AS OF THIS DATE (JULY,78) I DO NOT KNOW HOW THE PYRAMID WORKS OR WHAT FACTORS INFLUENCE THE MAGNITUDE AND DIRECTION OF ITS ROTATION.

Observations were made when I was happy, sad, angry, depressed, high, tired, energetic, during all weathers, phases of the moon, and so forth. Nothing outstanding has emerged except perhaps that when the weather is rainy, the pyramids are not so energetic. During the course of my observations my ability to move the pyramid has increased. This action-at-a-distance effect may be akin to the psi ability called "psychokinesis" hence the name for the hanging pyramid -- the Psychokinetic pyramid - called the PK pyramid for short. Some people clearly have greater ability to produce rotation in the PK pyramid. Once when I was unable to produce rotation in it, and no one else could move it either, a three year old boy just put his hands out towards it and it took off! When my Rolfer friend points his magic hands at the pyramid away it goes! Generally the pyramid responds best when a person stands very close to it (within three feet) and stares at the pyramid with the intention that it move. My inference to date is that the PK pyramid is responsive to some field or emanation from the human body. It cannot be magnetic, electric, or thermal for these radiations are all far too small to produce rotation of such magnitude. One of our experimental pyramids weighs nearly half a pound.

The PK pyramid can be moved more readily by those who are know to have healing power in their hands, and the ability to produce movement can be increased. Hence the PK pyramid is both a measuring device and a pyschic feedback training device. If you wish to experiment with the PK pyramid for yourself here's how you make it: Obtain a large glass jar, four magnets, a few sticks of any material for the pyramid frame, an eye hook or fastener and a few inches of thread. Place magnets on the lower corners of the pyramid, pointing at the apex. Hang the pyramid from a thread so that it can seing freely and set it in a quiet place where you can get physically close to it. If you wish to have a pyramid to experiment with you may obtain them for $9.95 from :LIFE ENERGY PRODUCTS, INC. 361 Dean St., Brookline, NY 11217 or from the Institute for PsychoEnergetics, 126 Harvard st.,Brookline, Mass. 01246.

PSYCHIC WARFARE
by Edith Kermit Roosevelt

NOTE: Ms. Roosevelt lives in Washington, D.C. and is a nationally known columnist PLUS being a new subscriber to our Journal.

The American intelligence community is beginning to take seriously the strategic threat posed by the current explosion in Communinist parapsychological research.

An ongoing series of studies produced by the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) deal with how parapsychology can be harnessed to create conditons for altering or manipulating the minds of others. If we take seriously the findings of top scientists and intelligence analysts, this new dimension of mind control warfare opens up possibilities even more terrifying than the nuclear bomb.

Today, DIA soberly informs us, the USSR has at least 20 centers for the study of parapsychological phenomena with an annual budget estimated at $21 million. The major thrustbehind the Soviet drive to harness the possible capabilities of telepathic communication, hypnosis and other psychic phenomena is said to come from the Soviet military and the KGB - (Soviet Secret Police).

Numerous reports of Soviet applications of clairvoyance, hypnotism, dowsing, etc. in military operations have reached the West. But Moscow appears to have more ambitious plans in mind. A document in the DIA series entitled "Controlled Offensive Behaviour (USSR)" states that within the next decade Soviet efforts in the field of psi warfare might enable them to:

A. Know the contents of top secret U.S. documents, the movement of our troops and ships and the location and nature of our military installations.
B. Hold the thoughts of key U.S. military and civilian leaders.
C. Cause the instant death of any U.S. official at a distance.
D. Disable, at a distance, U.S. military equipment of all types including spacecraft.

According to the author of this DIA study, Capt. John D. LaMoth of the Army's Medical Intelligence Office, the more imminent of these above listed threats is the ability to control or manipulate the thoughts of top military and civilian leaders at a distance.

LaMoth cites experiments conducted at Leningrad's Bekhterev Brain Institute where friends of subjects have been trained to put them to sleep telepathically. He also cites the work of E. Naumov in experiments that involved waking up a jypnotized subject through telepathy at least a dozen times.

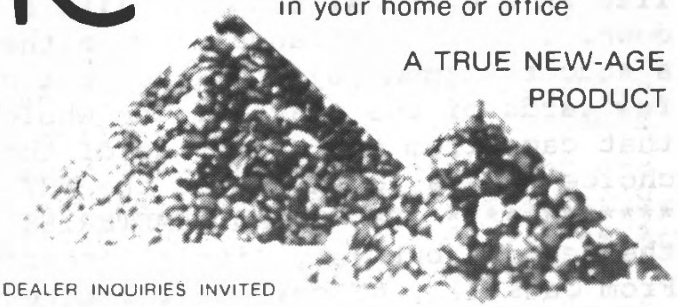

In this framework, the vast complex of labor, political prisoner and prisoner of war camps behind the Iron Curtain, containing nationals from all over the world, could be targets for mass screening for psychics or for selecting suitable human specimens to mold into spies, terrorists into spies, terrorists or assassins. Ominously, the DIA documents says that "there is no test by which one can discover these agents." In fact, indications are from DIA material, declassified under the Freedom of Information act, that this country lacks the capability to counter the new offensive psychic weaponry. Meanwhile, we are witnessing in the United States an ominous and prodigious growth of politica-"religious" elitist cults represented by satanism, Manson-type families and by the epidemic of occult-inspired political assassinations. As in pre-Nazi Germany in the 1920's, revolutionary groups may well be creating and infiltrating such "occult" networks, using them as cadres in sophisticated mind warfare operations... ... ...

SPACEMEN HAVE HUGE FEET - This is a direct quote from a clipping from Rome, Italy! Tens of footprints, heels and soles slightly larger than usual human shoeprints were impressed onto a building roof. "They must have such a strong build" that their tracks are two centimeters deep in the asphalt, and they have to use shoes very different from ours. Footprint designs are very odd -- several circles, two cts in diameter, little triangles and squares and pointed toes! All this happened along with bright lights, humming noises and thumps on the home roof! Reminds me of the Brooksville Footprints (1965, Florida) which were dumb-bell-shaped, with a strange interior grid pattern. Other strange prints were found there -- with pointed toed shoes!  Laura Mondo, in her newsletter the Mondo Moniter (7803 Ruanne Ct., Pasadena, Md. 21122) reprints a strange happening (from Modern People -9/10/78) concerning UFO low level flights - 13 sightings in all - over the grave of Elvis Presley! "Orange-lit saucers have hovered as close as 20 feet over the silent tomb and shone laser-like lights onto the cold stones". "I have seen the spacecraft around here several times. They always come between 2 and 4 in the morning... I heard a strange noise near the grave ... like an electrical popping, like a high tension wire that's been blown down. ..."saw a strange glow in the clouds just above the tomb. Then a saucer-shaped object dipped out of the clouds, came down within a few yards of the grave... the whole area was lit up by a ray of light that came from the underside of the ship..." Laura has some very choice things to say about the WHY of this -- send for a copy yourself! * UFO'S AND CEMETERIES -- over and over I have seen this in the reports but very little research has gone into the WHY of such cases. From Catskill, NY came this cemetery report: Residents of new and Thompson streets reported seeing about 20 UFO's between 8-10 pm. According to one witness a mass of 20 to 30 blinking light appeared over the Thompson Street Cemetery. Ocassionally additional lights would dart in to the mass of other lights and clouds. Dated Nov. 17, 77. * Another 'saucer' related premonition/death/cycle happened on March 21, 78 - to 22 members of a fundamentalist sect, in a rented van, which left a mountain highway, tunbled 100 feet into a ravine, killing four people. "We saw a flying saucer that night - all of us did." ... "He said the saucer figured in a dream in which he was warned of a terrible accident."  Elvis was not the only singer to have UFO attention -- now or in years past -- Johnny Sands, a Nevada nightclub singer, was abducted by 'aliens', just outside of Las Vegas a year or so ago. He, like Elvis, was very popular with the country-western audiences. And - don't forget that Good Old Captain Kirk of the Trekkies had UFO experiences in the desert,

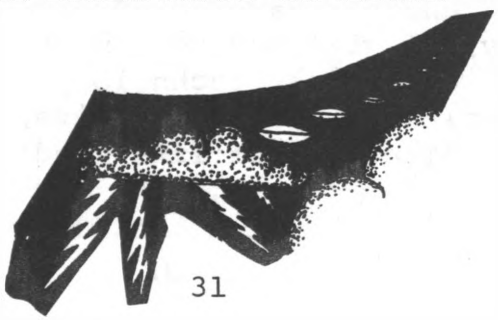

THE 'ATLANTEAN' PREDICTS!
Submitted by: Rev. Thomas Allen Long
Dated: August 8, 1978

New Volcanic eruptions in 1977-78 have filled our upper atmosphere with an overabundance of dust, making for the development of erratic and extremely heavy rain patterns. Combine this with shifting cold air flows and we have conditions very similar to those existing after the 9564 BC demise of the continent Atlantis. Wet and cold where temperate to torrid areas existed prior to 1976 is the pattern for the 78-79 winter...

Russia is experimenting with the Rickenbacker, Reich, and Tesla inventions and theories; beaming them across the North Pole region into the entire North America area. These microwave and other electro-magnetic vibrational waves are not only disturbing weather, but also the behaviour of all life-forms; be they human, animal, fowl, marine or plant life. Even the mineral kingdom of Earth, and the biological (plasma) life forms of our atmosphere are affected in detrimental manners. Of such was the technology of the elite group of scientists who controlled the governing policies of Atlantis! Like the elite governing scientists who controlled and destroyed their continent and people, so will Russia obliterate on the very approaches of Israel within twenty years of this writing!

Not all areas of the world are affected alike due to "vortices of energy" in, on, and around Earth. These concentrated areas deflect and or neutralize occuring phenomena, as well as the man-made and directed vibrations of BOTH Extreme Low Frequency (ELF) and thos of vibrations approaching Cosmic Numbers. It was a natural phenomena of the solar system and Earth-inosphere magnetic oscillations occuring in the necessary vibrational range which produced the "SONIC BOOMS" of December 1977. The Russian experiments CAN produce this phenomena. They are harmful in that infra-red rays and even more deadly "Igniting" rays can penetrate to the Earth's surface during such misplacements in the inosphere. Electrical storms of a magnitude not seen on Earth since the 9564 BC to 7000 BC period will send lightning and hail of unbelievable dimension onto earth; whether man-caused or naturally occuring.

SO - WHERE ARE SOME OF THE SAFER AREAS ON EARTH?

The Southern portions of Saskatchewan and the eastern part of Canada become havens and food baskets for much of the world during the next twenty years. So will parts of Montana and Nevada serve likewise. Many believe that part of Baja California and across to southern Arizona and New Mexico survive; these are remnents of the Motherland of Earth humanity, and this writer sees this area as one or more islands which suffer minimal damage from the cataclysms surrounding them. This portion of Lemuria holds an especial tie to the Native Indians of that area, and during the next two decades much of their history and origins will be revealed here; their 'legends' will become verified!

They are intimately and racially connected to both Lemuria and Atlantis, having both ancient bloods flowing in their veins! The Pampas region of Argentina and portions of South Africa are also protected by strong vibrational energy patterns and will likewise be more safe and contribute much to the food and fibre needs of this period. The beloved Virginia Beach area of Edgar Cayce is the center most intimate with the spiritual hierarchy of the Great White Brotherhood, and these highest vibrations make this a port of safe haven...

As portions of the Pacific Coast convulse in quake and atmospheric activity they are covered by water; with Los Angeles and San Francisco being the major of these calamities; then will portions of Greenland also go under water. At this time portions of Atlantis will rise high and reveal much of its original appearance; this will occur just beyond the present boundaries of what we regard as the Caribbean Sea. This happens during the 1980's and 90's. The ORIGINAL TEMPLE OF ILTAR, near the ruins of that present place in YUCATAN, shall come from under its overgrowth of silt and plant life, bringing with it the records of all human civilization as it began on the Mother Continent of Lemuria some 460 million years ago, as we reckon time today! These recordings are one with the Hall of Records deep under that area nearest the Great Pyramid from the Sphinx; also the records are yet stored in the Temple of Poseida not far present day Bimini Island!

The most amazing fact of these discoveries energing is that so few people will really be able to understand and utilize them! Just as the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Nag Hammadi Codices are largely ignored by theologians today, so will our mechanistis scientists ignore the greatest revelations of highest technology in these Records! Only the true spiritual scientist will recognize, know, and be able to use this information, enabling all of like mind to live into the New Age so near.

In closing this article, it is deemed to be the proper time to make a statement clarifying the position, purpose, and the temperament of this writer. There has been such a tremendous response, with letters and phone calls and visitis from people in many places over our world; until the following must be stated: An an Individual this writer is one among many who are acting as "counter-balances" to the disruptive forces now bearing upon our planet. There are also "groups" of human beings, organized under various names doing the same. These individuals and groups are sometimes even unknowing of their position, purpose and true temperament; this Statement when completed may serve as an awakening. Our highly regarded New Atlantean Journal is serving in this capacity of a strong counter-balance; as are so many new age publications. There is a spiritual Law concerning the evolution of ideas, and the relationship of material things to the thoughts and the intentions of individuals and groups. To those in accord with this Law, they are as the positive balancing force; those not in accord are the negative, therefore disruptive forces. Hence, the positive force Individuals and groups become the counter-balance in times of great change.

... The changes IN and ON Earth; around Earth'planes', and in our Solar System are triggering these total changes of physical, mental, and spiritual awareness. To those more highly sensitive to these changes there is an early clarion call to exercise THEIR will and CHOICE in serving either positive or negative forces. This writer's choice was positive; there he MUST share the Recordings in the Rocks; in the Pyramids; in the cycles of solar activities ... So these 'recordings' are shared in the impartial, therefore equal Law of Love which is the true temperment of the Spiritual Scientists. He forcasts coming events, times, places, sometimes even people and names, not to frighten, but to PREPARE. Those of a negative force are doomsday prophets and decievers and offer no hope. This writer gives the hope of proper preparation, of "conditioning" ones'self through exercising INDIVIDUAL FREE WILL and CHOICE as to what is preferred in temperment -- be it positive or negative. It is the APPLICATION OF WISDOM at the Individual level which will prevent another ATLANTIS -- of our world... ... ...

UFO sighted by local trio

SIGHTED IN VENICE AREA — Shown here is a rendition of the unidentified flying object sighted by Joe and Fran Nigro and their neighbor Jim Minor Tuesday night near the Nigro's home on Havana Road. The object was described as a two inch square light contained in an object that resembled a bat with stationary wings.

SIGHTING DATA: DATE: JULY 25, 1978. LOCATION: VENICE, FLORIDA.
Mr. Nigro called The New Atlanteans when the sighting happened, we advised him to get a camera, take photos, if possible, and report this to the local police and newspaper. This is the same area of Venice where for over 12 years UFO's, "Bigfoot', and other phenomenon has been reported. The investigation continues.

THE REISS PREDICTIONS:
SUBMITTED: AUGUST, 1978.

1) Flames of fire will be observed in the atmosphere throughout the southern states of Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia and Florida.
2) New discovery of a buried treasure in the Everglades.
3) A rich source of Uranium, Platnium, and Thorium will be found beneath the sea, 500 miles S.E. of Bimini.
4) New links of a UFO activity, stemming from an operational subterranean base within the Bermuda Triangle.
5) Increase of red, blue and silver unknown objects, sightings in Miami and southern coastal waters.
6) Reports of Bigfoot activity coming from Swamplands around Missouri and Mississippi River branches.
7) Oil and a rich deposit of natural gas, to be discovered from the Gulf of Mexico, encircling New Orleans offshore.
8) Unusual fire erupting from a British freighter, stranded in Atlantean waters over 800 miles SSE from New York.
9) New source of Micro-wave communications to be announced this fall, from private laboratory research project.
10) Extra-terrestrial contacts aboard an Italian-Armenian registered vessel, headed N to S across Atlantic for Europe.
11) Departure of an Eastern Airlines passenger plane will be delayed, due to EM interferrence on the ground at Kennedy Airport.
12) Hidden plans will be found to sabotage the launching of a nuclear powered experimental vehicle in Maryland.
13) Data transmission will cease mysteriously from US Cape Canaveral sattelite.
14) Polar ice will drift further south unexpectedly into Atlantic Ocean.
15) Announcement of scientific group to capture and study Spacemen - from Venus and Neptune.
16) New Idea in space research contacts from Eastern UFO study group.

PART THREE

Title: "THE SOLAR LOTUS"

Author: Rocky McCollum

The 7 would obviously refer to the Seven Rays again. This would be true from our own knowledge of lotuses plus this is what Akhenaton said also. This is also in accord with the drawings that we have of the Aton Disc.

The 12 can only refer to the number of heavenly bodies (Planets) in the Solar System where the Sun itself counts as one of the planets, it being the central and major one. There is some dispute over the twelfth planet, since astronomers can only find 11 of them. The missing one is alternately given as Vulcan (near the Sun) or as the Asteroid Belt (a broken planet lying between Mars and Jupiter) or as Planet "X" lying beyond Pluto. Taking the latter view, we can list them: (12) the Sun, (11) Mercury, (10) Venus, (9) Earth, (8) the Moon, (7) Mars, (6) Jupiter, (5) Saturn, (4) Uranus, (3) Neptune, (2) Pluto, and (1) Planet "X".

The last number 2, in the Solar Lotus Equation, will baffle most people unless they are ardent astronomers. What can there be in the Solar System that exists in a binary fashion? If you guessed it, you may be awarded a Gold Star, if not, I will tell you. There are two sets of Comets revolving around the sun and belonging to our Solar System. One set revolves around the sun in a forward manner, the same direction as the planets, that is, counter-clockwise. The other set moves in a retro-grade fashion or clockwise. Does this surprise you? I hope so, it took me quite a while to figure this out.

From our previous discussion on the Ankh and Cosmic Chart No. 7 we learned that clockwise was associated with male and counter-clockwise was related to female. If this analogy will still hold true, then the forward moving (counter-clockwise) planets and comets are female in nature and the retrograde (clockwise) planets and comets are male in nature.

From which set of Comets (Constants) would the Sun derive it's sex? The number of each set of comets, male and female, is about equal, there being somewhere between 250 and 300 of each. However, one outstanding comet is clockwise, male, in rotation. It is known as Halley's comet, after it's English discoverer. It's period of revolution (one orbit around the sun) is very nearly 76 years. It's next scheduled appearance is in February, 1986, the exact day not being known since the orbital period varies somewhat from year to year, or from one appearance to the next one. It has been up to 90 days early or late from one 76 year period to the succeeding one. However, the point must be made clear, if Halley's comet is the index of the gender of the Sun, then the Sun is decidedly male. If the Sun is male, then the Solar System as a whole is male, the predominance of the female planets notwithstanding. Because of the complexity of the Solar System, the analogy to animalistic sexuality is not quite the same. However, it will be remembered that Christian and most other religions always refer to the ruling God or Godhead as being male. At the same time, it is not impossible that such a system could be female. In the last analysis, it is simply a matter of rotation.

From the aforegoing, it seems that the Solar System satisfies all the requirements that it takes to make up a lotus and the Theosophical Theorem is satisfied and so is the Buddhist Precept. The Solar System can be treated as a lotus as depicted in Cosmic Chart No. 1 when the Earth and Moon are lined up to the West, the planet Mercury and Venus are lined up to the East, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto, and Planet "X" are lined up to the South, and Halley's Comet is at Perihelion (nearest to the sun in it's orbit). Apihelion is the point fartherest from the sun in it's orbit.

At any rate, this configuration is mind-boggling in that the Solar System could ever form the exact shape of an Ankh, but it does, and Cosmic Chart No. 1 demonstrates it.

At this writing, I do not know the last time it was in this configuration, nor do I know the next time. I call this configuration the "Full Solar Lotus." Many "almost" conditions are possible and students of Astrology will appreciate this unusual planetary juxtaposition, indeed, this is believed to be the rarest possible configuration. It's esoteric form is obvious.

This formation is unique when compared with trines, squares, oppositions, etc. It is thus, to me, that the Lotus Nature of the Solar System is revealed and I believe that Akhenaton knew it too but his teachings were obliterated by the Amons. We can thank him for at least trying and for what information has been passed down. Long live the Atons and their teachings and their teachers.

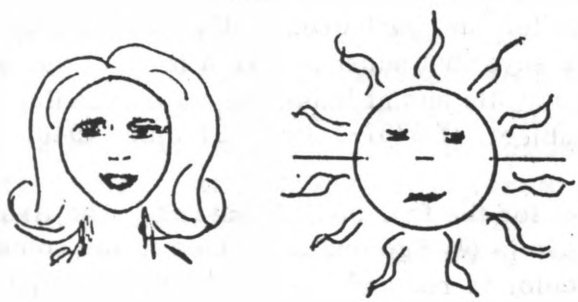

I have found other analogies that strengthen this theory. This relates to the chakras and their external identification in the living lotus.

The seven chakras make themselves visible on the external portion of the human body by various signs and markings. To show how this is done, let us separate the chakras into two groups, the head chakras and the body chakras.

The trinity of the head chakras is often referred to as the triple-warmer as noted before. From this viewpoint, they are locked together and rather inseparable, the circle is unbroken as it were. Thus, we would expect to find these three chakras together in the Sun, if indeed, it is the Godhead as we think it is. Thus, the (7) Judgment, (6) Intellect, and (5) Harmony chakras are to be found residing in the Sun. Through the manifestation of the Seven Rays, however, these rays may be imparted throughout the Solar System, to you or to me or to the fartherest planets and beyond.

If the head chakras exist in the sun itself, then the bodily chakras must reside in the planets circling the sun. There are four body chakras but there are more than four circling planets, therefore, the planets must "share" these four chakras or rays.

But first, let us look at ourselves and see what features are associated with our head chakras. (7) Judgment.... the highest ranking chakra is related to our eyes, the eyes are the only parts of the brain that are visible on the exterior of the body. (6) Intellect..... this chakra shows it's presence in the form of hair which covers our head. The amount, color and other qualities are determined by our particular type of intellect. (5) Harmony.....resides in the neck or more specifically in the throat and is associated with the voice or larynx. The external markings are the mouth. These three chakras are the subject of much cosmetology,. what parts of the body are more attended to, beauty-wise, than (7) the Eyes, (6) the Hair, and (5) the Mouth. Think about it.

The Sun shows these three chakras by the following markings: the (7) Judgment chakra is shown by sunspots lying at 30 degrees North latitude above the sun's equator.

The (6) Intellect chakra shows up in the Sun as a hairy corona which surrounds the sun at all times but which constantly changes form. Another Gold Star for astronomy students if you guessed this one or had you already figured it out?

The (5) Harmony chakra shows up in the Sun as a "mouth" in the 30 degree South latitude of the sun in the form of sunspots.

Sunspots vary in an eleven year cycle, the next of which occurs in about 1979, a year of maximum sunspot activity, two years away at this writing. Sunspots tend to form in pairs above and below the solar equator. The Sun has a counter-clockwise rotation which makes the spots rotate from left to right across it's face. Notice how we call the solar disc a face! As viewed from the Earth, the spots usually begin near the solar equator and drift up or down to the 30 degree latitude marks, north and south. The northern and southern groups of spots seldom resemble one another, differing widely in size and shape.

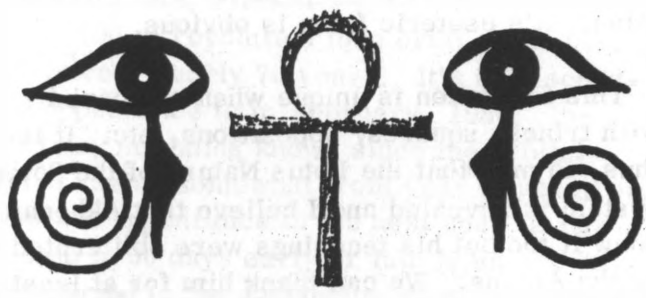

If the corona rays represent Intellect, then the Northern-most spots signify Judgment and the Southern-most are Harmony related spots. Magnetic effects and solar activity are usually increased at sunspot maximums. These effects can be felt and measured on the Earth. Edgar Cayce says that sunspots are a form of "solar karma." He has at least one major reading on the subject. (# 5757-1 taken 21-June-1940)

Now for the four bodily chakras. The first of these is (4) Ego and it resides in the spleen. The color is red and the manifestation of this chakra in the body is subtle. The spleen controls certain functions of the circulatory system and we see it externally when we are embarrassed, we blush and our face turns red! Other than that, the functions of the spleen are elusive. The spleen can be removed and the organism can survive and be healthy,the spleen sometimes becomes detached on it's own and "floats" around in the body. The spleen is not completely understood.

The (3) Love chakra manifests itself in the form of the external sexual organs, the inner organs are the gonads or reproductive organs.

The (2) Will chakra shows up externally in the breast marks. These occur on both the female and the male of the species but are more prominent in the female because of the mammillary glands.

ORDEAL IN ARKANSAS
by Thomas Adams

Reprinted from: STIGMATA (Project Stigma, directed by Mr. Adams, represents an on-going probe into the wave of animal mutilations. POB 1094, Paris, Texas....)

In STIGMATA #3 mention was made of several incidents in which witnesses have reportedly come upon mutilations-in-progress. Some of these tales bear no small similarity to the Men-In- Black accounts of UFO lore. Perhaps they are intended to appear that way, depending on the manner and extent of whatever deception may be involved. We will explore these reports as time progresses. Meanwhile, as we air the following example, we have hopes of eventually obtaining more detail and corroboration for this most unusual account.

A former high-ranking employee of a large American company sought escape from the rat-race in New Mexico, where he opened a small but apparently satisfying business. One day in 1977, a middle-aged woman entered his shop, struck up a conversation, and the two quickly developed a trusting and friendly relationship. At some point Mrs. L. (as we'll call her) related this story to the shop owner:

The woman and her husband, who were comfortable, perhaps even "well-to-do", had lived in Arkansas before moving to New Mexico. One day (perhaps as recent as early 1977 or 76) as Mrs. L. was picking apples some distance from her Arkansas house, she fell from the ladder she was on, striking and seriously cutting one of her legs. As she lay on the ground, semi-conscious, too weak to rise or call for help, she saw two figures approaching. One was tall and thin, the other much shorter. As they neared, Mrs. L. could see with astonishment that, although they were humanoid, they were not human.

They had some undetermined apparatus with which they began to treat Mrs. L.'s badly bleeding leg. Within 15 minutes, as estimated by Mrs. L., all bleeding and pain had stopped and the slightest of scars remained. The creatures presented her with a metal plaque with carvings or drawings on it. She thanked them and asked if they would come to the house for something to eat. One creature replied that they did not eat, but only consumed "juice". When Mrs. L. offered fruit juice, she was told they did not drink the same kind of juice that human drank.

The being's not-quite-human appearance was arresting enough, but when they "spoke", Mrs. L. noticed that their voices seemed to emanate from their midsections. The taller creature had the voice of a mature woman; the shorter one that of a child. The humanoids walked away and Mrs. L. returned home - but with the plaque. In fact, at this point in her narrative, she produced the artifact for the shop owner, who, in fact, previously had worked as a professional engraver. He examined the object carefully; but despite his knowledge of metallurgy, he could not identify the metal. The markings, which were on both sides, meant little or nothing to him. There were "Pyramids" and "six-pointed stars".

Perhaps six weeks after the apple orchard incident, Mrs. L.'s dog turned up missing one day, and she set out to search for the pet on foot. She walked through her property, across a golf course, through a timbered area and to the edge of a clearing in which a bizarre scene unfolded. In the clearing were: (1) Two "Air Force" helicopters. (2) Two "men in white coats" who were working on a horse that lay in the field. (3) Two men in uniforms (mrs. L. thought "Air Force") and (4) what appeared to be the same two creatures that had healed her injury.

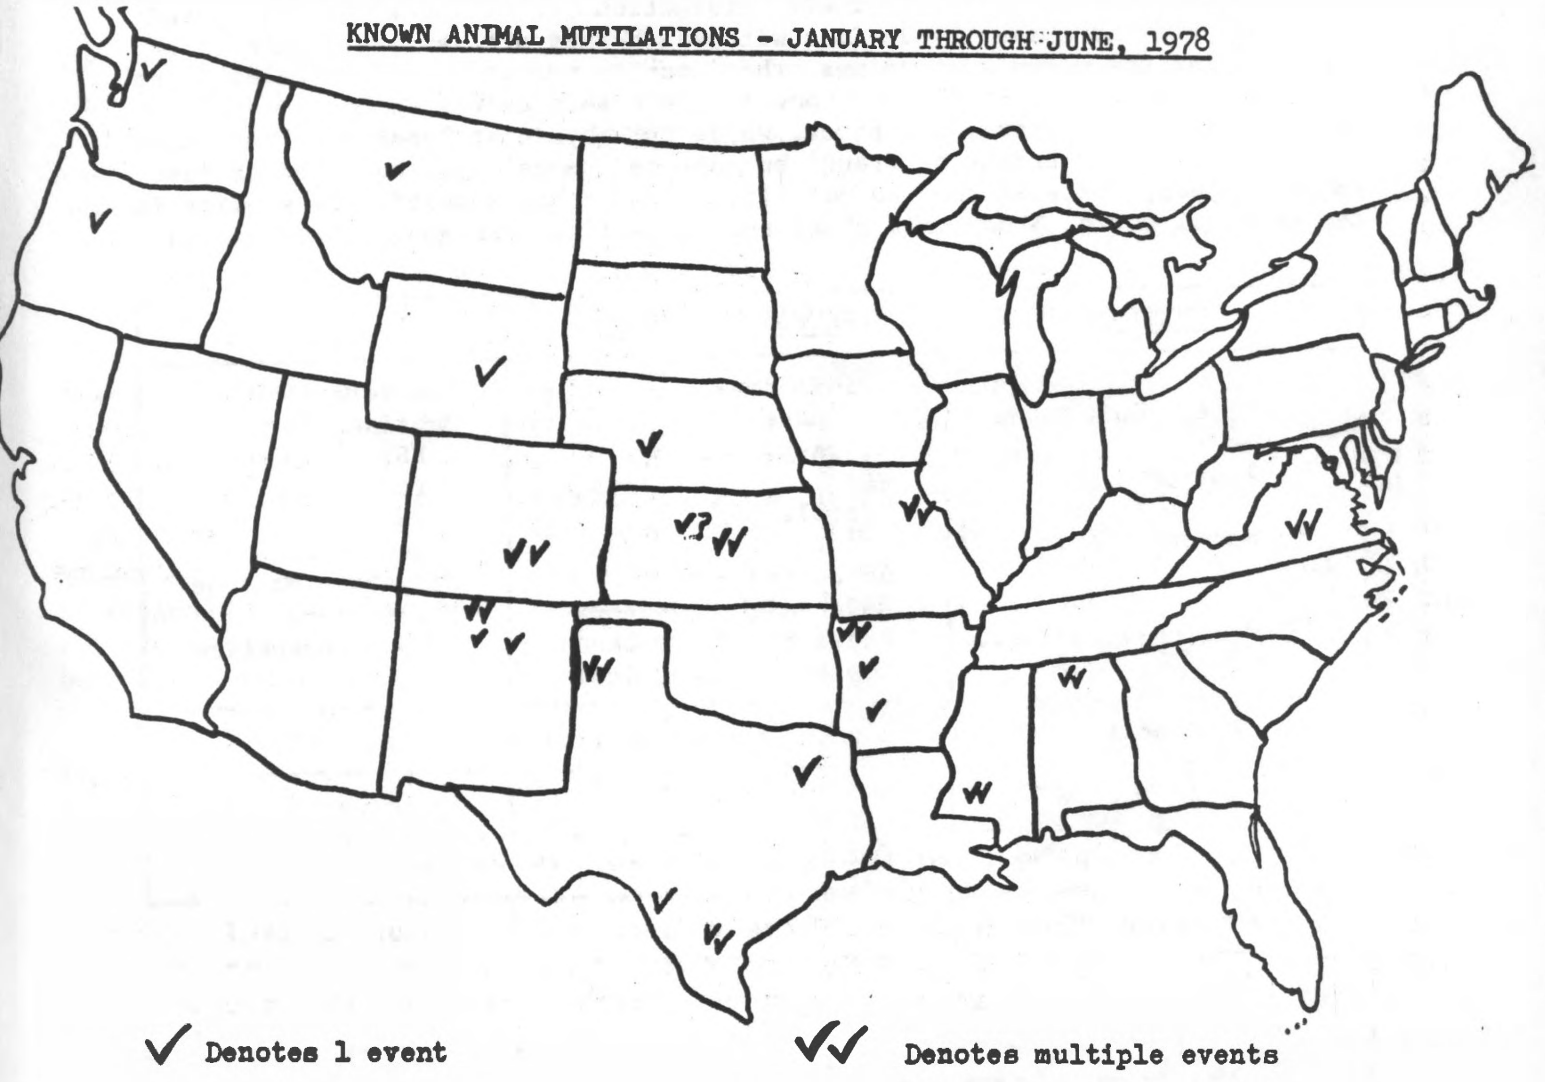

Mrs. L. suddenly realized that this was something she was not supposed to see. She began to run away but not before the "team" in the clearing saw her. She thought she heard someone running after her for a brief while. Then, she heard a helicopter which quickly overtook her and began to descend. A blue beam of light was directed upon her from the chopper, producing serious burns in the area of her right breast and burning part of her clothing. For whatever reason, the chopper suddenly trtreated and she was able to seek help and eventually hospitalization.

Mrs. L. later felt that she had made a mistake while in the hospital: she was telling every one what had occurred. In a short while, "strange people" appeared at the hospital to question her. She thought they were likly FBI agents, though apparently no credentials were ever produced. After her release from the hospital, the county sheriff took her to a psychiatric clinic for evaluation. Mrs. L. says she was given all sorts of exams and went through "pure hell" until, as she claims, the doctors released her with a clean bill of mental health. But the sheriff persisted in maintaining that Mrs. L. was "crazy" and that she was responsible for the horse mutilation, which apparently did occur in the clearing.

These same "strange people" who questioned her at the hospital continued to visit the L.'s home, asking the same questions repeatedly; pure harrassment, Mrs. L. claims. In fact, it got so out of hand that the L.'s decided that, to preserve their sanity and to attempt to put the bizarre events behind them, they had no choice but to sell out and quietly move elsewhere. They settled in New Mexico and all seemed to be going well for a few months, until somehow the same "strange people" who plagued Mrs. L. in Arkansas sought them out and the visits, questions and the harrassment all began anew.

So - Mrs. L. was telling the shop-owner, it appeared that they would be moving on once again, most likely to property that they owned in south Texas. At this writing, Mr. and Mrs. L. have apparently departed New Mexico.

A friend and associate of Project Stigma reports that the shop-owner is a gentleman of high integrity and veracity, and that the show-owner has the same opinion of Mrs. L. - plus - he was quite puzzled by the odd plaque and wished he could have retained it for further study. The supposed Arkansas location is now known and an investigation us underway at several levels and from different directions... in the hope of shedding more light on a potentially important case. We will report on such "Light" if it is forthcoming. If the whole matter proves to be a hoax, we will report that just as quickly. NOTE: TO RECEIVE THE FALL 1978 issue OF STIGMATA, SEND $1.00 (CASH PREFERRED, RECEIPT ISSUED UPON REQUEST) TO: PROJECT STIGMA - POB 1094, Paris, Texas 75460. We cannot reccommend them more highly, we have know Mr. Adams for many years now and know his to be an able investigator.

We live in two different worlds at the same time. The "primary" difference in these 'two worlds' is in the manner in which we discern them. One we can call the physical or material world or the world of the senses. We also include in this world, the manifestations of the Electro - Magnetic spectrum because we readily convert or transduce them so they manifest to one of the five senses.

The other world we refer to is the Astral world. This is the world of thought and emotion and where we find all the discarnate entities. In this world, we also find the 'emanations' from all material things. Nothing from the Astral world will register directly through any of the five senses. We must use the Chakras as transducers between the physical senses and the Astral manifestations. Some people can turn the 'Chakra action' on at will. Some people have the use of the Chakras at unexpected times and others never seem to ever have access to their use. Those people who frequently 'tune in' to the Astral are often refered to as 'mediums' or 'channels'.

Others use a 'pendulum' or use an instrument such as an Eloptic Analyzer and are able to get information from such usage. Some of these people become very adept and very accurate in the information they are able to get in this way. However, misinterpretations or casual work can result in false conclusions.

Scientists are generally the ones who are called in to investigate any of the manifestations from the Astral world. Such scientists always bring along the 'tools of their trade' such as their information from studies of physics and chemistry and the measuring devices with which they are familiar. Therein is the cause of the misunderstandings that usually result from such cases where a physicist is trying to find out how a person such as Uri Gellar is able to bend a 'spoon' or other such object, while the physicist looks on. The latter can only look for 'tricks or fraud' because he 'knows' that such things just cannot happen, because they do not 'fit in' with his knowledge of physics in the material world. Study this chart and you will understand the reasons why.

Buying or building a pyramid? These things you should know about!

There are three electromagnetic planes of consciousness:
PHYSICAL MENTAL SPIRITUAL

WITHIN 20 YEARS: The electromagnetic frequencies of the earth will change:
They will change from the physical plane to the mental plane!

Man's consciousness will have to change. Only those that seek the true knowledge of wisdom, THE HEAVENLY FATHER - will be able to make this change! It is by His grace. You are made of His spirit.

The pyramid was given by the angel Hermes, to help Mankind raise his frequencies to the electron spin of the mental plane. It is an electromagnetic antenna.

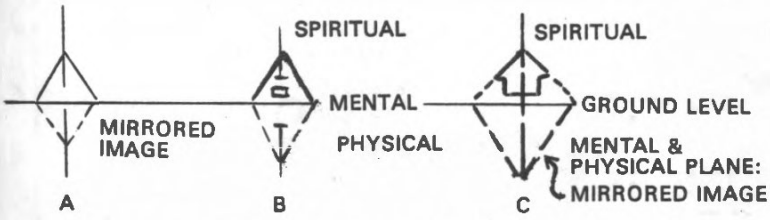

NOT ALL PYRAMIDS ARE CORRECT ANTENNAS FOR THIS TIME AND SPACE!
PYRAMIDS MUST CREATE A VORTEX OF LIGHT THAT CAN BE SEEN AND FELT.
FRAME PYRAMIDS DO NOT DO THIS. Jesus said: I AM THE LIGHT.

A AS ABOVE, SO BELOW!

B Cheops has three frequencies or planes of consciousness. This is the reason why there are THREE chambers. To benefit from the pyramid, you cannot mix the frequencies! Most pyramidologists do not understand this.

C The pack-up-and-go pyramid that Ken Killick designed has ONLY the spiritual frequencies built into it! The mental and physical planes are NOT designed in the physical structure of our pyramid!

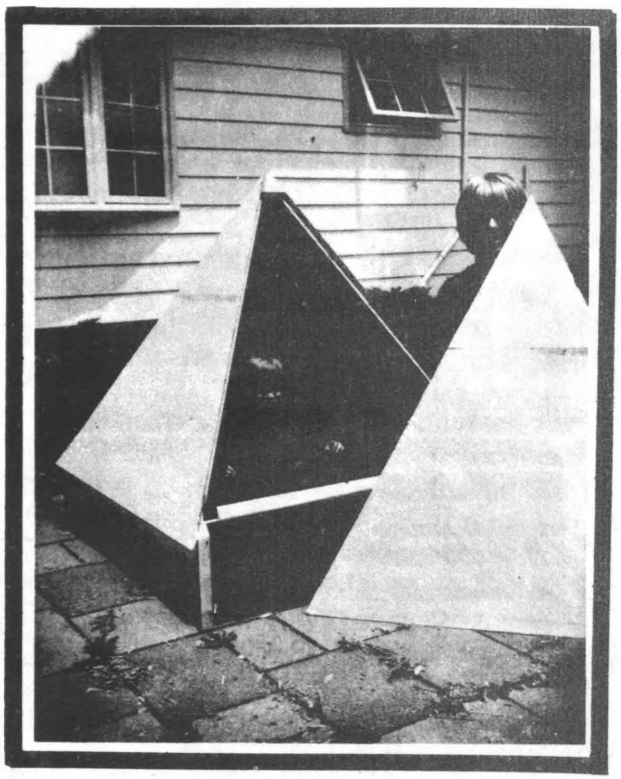

That's why our pyramid works! It was designed right! Pyramids are antennas! They help us advance into the MENTAL frequencies or planes of consciousness. WILL YOU be ready when the Earth advances into this plane of consciousness 20 years from now?

Will YOU be among those humans who will have made a start on the long road to overcome Matter?

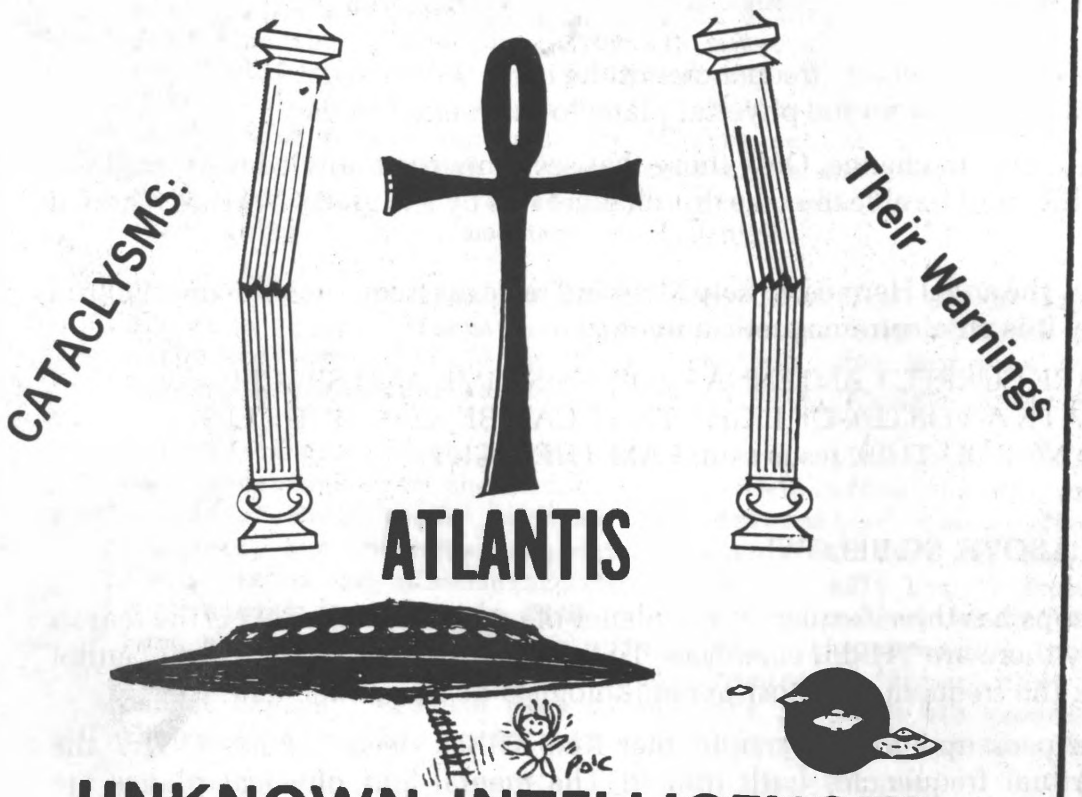

You don't have to wait 20 years. Start today! Send today for blueprints that will enable you to build a pyramid that will develop ONLY the spiritual plane: INDOOR MODELS - $10; BACKYARD PYRAMIDS: $20 (all three planes - SPIRITUAL, MENTAL, PHYSICAL: see Illustration C above).
