Letters to the Editor

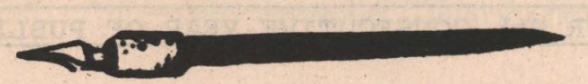
Joan O'Connell: Received my first copy of Atlantean Journal. I like it. Since there are many viewpoints of any subject, we cannot find total agreement. I offer two fundamental thoughts from my viewpoint in reaction to your articles. ONE: (Vol 8 -# 1 - page 47) Ouija responses are set by the person's own peculiar desires. Desires are cummulative unless reviewed and corrected. Psychology will never grow up until it learns to deal with desires set by the chemical mind (conscious) and responded to by the energy mind (sub-conscious). TWO: (page 58) - Much of Edgar Cayce predictions are in parable form and not meant to be taken literally. Dreams are in parable form. 'Earth Changes' indicate that man-made social behaviour is due for adjustments. The biggest Sportsman's goal is to take over possession of the Earth. The Curia is a group of 100 sportsmen who have been striving to take over for 2,000 years. The Showdown is developing right now. A 'Reversal of Poles' indicates that religion and believing is due for virtual obsolescense. People like you are helping to reverse the Poles. Thank you. You are busy. Don't reply. Yours truly, Evan Teller, Ind... ... ...

Dear Joan: I guess I can call you by your first name by this time. You (and all others connected with the magazine) seem like old friends, even though we have never met and this is my first letter to you... I have discovered that my subscription is about to (or has) run out, so here here is my check for $10.00 (3 years), that should show you how much I like your mag. Keep it up. I'm with you. Ed Bielfeldt, Evanston, Il.

* Dear Ed: I am calling you by your first name because I very much appreciate your writing and telling me of your thoughts, AND it is that renewal check that keeps us going! Thank YOU.

Greetings!: I am more than interested!!! Yes, indeed, I have just thumbed through an issue of your Atlantean Journal & had no question regarding a subscription, enclosed find a money order for 1 yrs. supply of this vital Atlantean wisdom! ... Thank you very much for your time, and I'll be waiting for you... D. M. Beauregard, Worcester, Ma.

* Dear D.M.: I would also like to thank our unnamed subscriber who passed their Journal on to you! We love our old friends and our New Ones ... Happy Reading to you and yours. P.S... Pass on YOUR copy - find us ANOTHER friend!

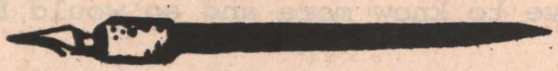


Dear Mrs. O'Connell: I am a subscriber to the New Atlantean and I have just received Vol. 8 #3. I read with interest the article on Mt. Shasta and the lady by the name of Bonnie. I am a member (teacher) of the Coptic Fellowship of America and part of my interest concerning Shasta centers around a very special birth on the Mountain, on Nov. 11, 1949, at 11 am. This birth was witnessed by 22 people (leaders of various New Age groups), along with our Space Brothers. Within the last year I have spent time on the Mountain on three separate occassions and I am a different person for it. Would it be possible for you to put me in touch with the author or Bonnie herself? Jim Heit, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Dear Jim: By this time you and many, many others who have written in to me have received William Hamilton's address, the author of the 'Bonnie' article. I have NEVER been so swamped by our avid readers! This is why we present Part Two in this issue. Since talking with you on the phone, I realize that that are many out there in ReaderLand who are looking for this type of information. Also, I am pleased to tell our readers that Jim has a fantastic beautifully colored photograph of Mt. Shasta that he took there, and he is willing to share this with you for a small re-copy fee! It is large, 8 x 10 and georgeous, so drop him a line at: 715 Springbrook Road, Ft. Wayne, Ind 46825 and request your copy. P.S. Ask him about that mysterious 'Space Birth' as well!

Editor: Enclosed in a check for $10.00 for a 3 year renewal. In my opinion you have one of the most finest publications around, it is very informative. But - the thing that gets me is, with the way the paper costs and postage costs keep on going up and up, how can you keep your costs so low? And - with the quality of magazine you have, I swear you must be losing money. Anyway, I hope you'll be around for another 8 eight years. Thanks. Robert Soderberg, Hollywood, CA.

* Dear 'Questions': You know, sometimes I ask myself the SAME questions!? I could say we 'cry' alot - OR - we 'scrimp' alot OR ... The true reason we stay in business, and we don't raise our prices is a simple one... People like you. Because YOU care, we can do it. Because we have the best of the field in writers who also do NOT care if they are paid or not. Because we have fantastic advertisers who CAN afford us, where they cannot afford the high prices in other publications -- and because they advertise with US -YOU benefit in the newest, and most innovative of products and services. All this +++++++. We love what we are doing, and believe in what we say...



Dear Editor Joan: ... I am enclosing money so you can then extend my subscription for two more years after my present subscription expires. My husband enjoyed your magazine very much before he died two years ago. The last couple of years I had to read it to him as his eye sight got so he couldn't see enough to read it himself. Sincerely, Mrs. Theodore Annonson, Bemidji, MI.

* Your letter deeply touched me and all our staff. If we had only known then... perhaps we could have inserted a special 'word' just for him. I am QUITE sure the INTERNATIONAL/INTERDIMENSIONAL POST OFFICE IN THE SKY will keep on delivering his Journals! We'll keep on 'sending' them! Again, I have to marvel at our readers, their tremendous enthusiam of their thoughts for us. It really humbles me. A mere 'Thank you' doesn't seem quite enough.

Dear Friend: Have been quite happy with your magazine. It has certainly grown the past few years. Here is my renewal but aside from that can you tell me whether it is possible to contact "Bonnie"? Reason: Several years ago I was told that I "knew more of the tunnels below ground that I did of the land above" and some time ago I had a dream that I was in a tunnel such as is described in the article by William Hamilton in the Fall issue. I had several companions and we were approaching with ship the end of the tunnel. There was no fear, just joy expressed in smiles. No words were spoken. Perhaps she can tell me whether the experience was past or future? I know I have a 'mission' and have already written 3 connected books and had them published myself, knowing that I will never recover the amounts spent, but I had to write them. They are: "DOES THE KEY TO THE FUTURE LIE IN OUR PAST?" " TELL THE WORLD", AND "NOW IS THE TIME TO USE THE MASTER KEY" . Thank you, Edith Bartoe, Langhorne, Pa.

* Dear Edith: I am sure that in the future your books will reach those people for whom they were meant to reach! Let's work on getting them out to the public! And, now that you have the address of William Hamilton, and have corresponded, read his new article in this issue, and see what else you 'remember'...!

Dear Joan: ... I have another theory about why the Great Pyramid was built and what it was used for. I believe that it was at one time an electrical generator. This article was published by Tom Valentine in the National Exchange and if you are interested I will send you a copy. I believe that it has some good evidence like why was the Pyramid built in two sections? One was built some time after the other and why are there millions of crystal chips in the leftover debris? Ernest Bellam, Scottsville, Ny...

* I DON'T know? Fascinating thoughts... and theories. I did not know about the crystal chips ... Anyone out there know? Would love to know more and so would Ernest...

There are many levels of awareness in Planetary Form just as there are in the Human Form. Each has it's own very specific vibrational frequency, and in the Endless Cosmos there is an ever-changing flow of Life-Forms transcending from Lower Forms to Higher Forms. Just as the Human can so raise it's frequency level to a higher form, the Planet upon which we now repose is changing IT'S frequency, and consequently, we, as Humans nesting upon it's shores, must ALSO raise our own personal level of vibration in order to either GO with the Planetary Impulses OR be left behind.

Does this mean an end to all we know as LIFE on this Planet? Does this now mean that as individuals we will lose our consciousness or awareness? Does this mean that we will no longer THINK, FEEL, ACT, LIVE? NO, NO, AND NO!

It means a glorious New Golden Age of enLIGHTenment. Of all things being brighter and lighter, more colorful and ALIVE! It is true and total LIFE in a more AWARE AND AWAKE form. Our Molecular and atomic structural being is being changed to a more refined, higher vibrational Light-Body. YES.... It is STILL a body. NO, you are NOT just a floating around wraith! YOU are still YOU -- but a more alive YOU than you have ever before dreamed possible!

But - all this is not just handed to you, merely because you call this Planet home, and you are on it's soil, and IT is getting vibrationally higher. YOU must personally raise you own frequency level. You must work and so struggle to Know, to Understand, to Feel and to See what is happening around you. You must live in truth and honesty, loyalty and courage. AND, you now must help others who do not know, to see and to understand. As you do this, as you LIVE this, YOU shall know and live and in so doing you INSTANTLY WILL, by your daily actions, raise your frequency yourself. It is automatic. Do good, and it will return as good, do evil and it will return as such. Forgive the past, and look forward to a New Golden Future! It is there - waiting, just over the Horizon, Beyond the Stars and into the vastness of the Eternal Cosmos. The Never-Ending Eternality - waiting for YOU!

Ariel-6, A British satellite, has scientists puzzled by its odd behavior. Apparently, two of Ariel's three energy systems regularly shut down when it passes over two spots on the globe -- British Columbia and the Caspian Sea. Writing in the English magazine Nature, astronomers Andrew Fabain and Robert Warwick call it "a space variant of the Bermuda Triangle legend." SOURCE: "CHANGES" - 710 Reid Street, DePere, WI 54115.

A NEW SATELLITE has discovered that the sun's radiation output has plunged by as much as .2 of 1 percent during the past two months. The temperature drop may be related to the extremely high levels of sunspot activity now taking place on the face of the sun. Or - to the sun's changing magnetic field. It is estimated that a drop of only 1 percent in the sun's output will decrease the planet's global average temperature by more than 2 degrees Fahrenheit. This is about the temperature drop that occurred between the mid 17th century and the mid 19th century and produced the "little ice age". Coupled with the dramatic increase in atmospheric volcanic ash levels, this energy drop will have immediate effects on our climate. It is noteworthy that the entire Earth would be covered with ice if the sun's radiation decreased by only 6 percent. SOURCE: SAME AS ABOVE.

A DINOSAUR IN AFRICA? - A mysterious elephant-sized animal with claws, a long neck, and tail, seen in the swampy jungles of Western Africa may be a dinosaur, Science 80 magazine reports. Roy Mackal of the University of Chicago said inhabitants of a remote section of the Congo call the beast "MOKELE-MBEMBE"... The natives told them the animals have smooth brownish -grayish skin, a long flexible neck, a very long tail and three-clawed feet as big as a frying pan. "We would show them picture books of normal animals, and they would identify them, we would also show them pictures of reconstructions of extinct animals. When they saw a picture of the brontosaurus they did point at it and called it "MOKELE-MBEMBE." The brontosaurus and other dinosaurs are believed to have died out 70 million years ago... CHINESE PUZZLED BY NEW SIGHTINGS OF LAKE "CREATURE" - More sightings were reported Thursday of China's Loch Ness-like monster living in the flooded crater of a dormant volcano in what is being called a new "scientific riddle." Accounts suggested there might be more than one monster in Tien Zhi, the "Lake of Heaven" situated at an altitude of 7,217 feet in northeast China. The weather officials said the creature towered almost 15 feet above the surface, it had a large buffalo-like head and a duck beak-shaped snout. SOURCE: ST. Petersburg Times 11/10/80.

LIZZARD CULT TO PROTEST TO U.N. - A three man delegation of Australian aborigines arrived Saturday in Geneva to ask the U.N. Human Rights Commission to condemn oil drilling at the sacred site of their Great Lizard God ---- Goanna. GIANT SQUID WASHES ASHORE - Boston - A 450 pound squid went on display at the New England Aquarium as experts tried to figure how the beast reached the shores of Massachusetts. The giant squid was found dead on Plum Island. Ten men carried it by stretcher from the beach, and is about eight feet long with tentacles 10 to 16 feet long. Nothing like it had been seen in Massachusetts since a similar squid was found in 1908. SOURCE: CLIPPING 2/7/80.

ANOTHER "CREATURE" LIKE EXTINCT DINOSAUR! This time sighted in a remote harbor on the northern coast of Australia. A party of fishermen sighted the 75 foot long monster "with a head like a football, long neck and floppy dorsal fins" in Bynoe Harbor near Darwin and from their descriptions an astounded naturalist and museum direction said it could be a plesiossaurus, one of the dinosaur family... "It was black with a huge head and was strange, it kept within about 60 feet of our boat and was clearly visible for about 20 minutes. It didn't appear to move much and wasn't concerned with us." ONE--GURGLE - AND THE WHOLE LAKE VANISHED! Milan, Italy - It was 5 pm, and the waters of the lake at Comelice Supiriore in the Italian Dolomites were peacefully lazy in the sun. A couple of small boys were fishing, an old man was blissfully snoozing in his rowboat, and tiny children were paddling. Five minutes later there was the sound of rushing water followed by a fountain of water rising out of the entire center of the lake, then came a great glug and a gigantic gurgling as the waters of the lake completely vanished! What happened? Nobody knows. So far the investigations of two water engineers and three geologists have been completely unable to account for the lake's disappearance. Said the town mayor "We haven't even got a theory. The lake has been there for hundreds of years, yet one minute it had gone. It was just like some conjuring trick." WHISPER FROM ATLANTIS? - Almost incidentally to its main purpose of exploring the bed of the Red Sea, the recently returned Institute of Oceanology expedition has brought back with it another whisper of the legendary lost civilization of Atlantis. The expedition, which was made up of the research ships Academician Kurchetov, Professor Shtokman and Aquanaut, broke its journey to and from the Red Sea to take a look at the submerged mountain Amper, some 400 miles from the Strait of Gilbraltar. Pictures taken four years ago by one of the Institute's staff had shown on the slopes of this mountain large rectangular areas divided into smaller squares and looking like stonework -possibly a relic of Atlantis? On its outward journey the expedition sent down the manned submarine Pisces-2 to have a closer look at the north-west slopes, but the crew were unable to find any stonework, on the way back weather conditions were too bad for a second dive, but the unmanned Zvuk-4M was towed over the north-eastern slpes. From a depth of a - bout 250 feet, it provided pictures of rectangular plates divided by smaller blocks and placed either parallel or perpendicular to each other. The Pisces crew thought that these were natural formations, similar to a square block structure they had seen on the earlier dive, but worsening weather forced the expedition to continue without solving the mystery... FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

THE FICKLE FINGER OF FATE

The November 1980 issue of Fate magazine contains an article titled "Anatomy of a Hoax" by Karl T. Pflock which is purportedly an expose' of UFO contactee claimant Thomas Monteleone. Mr. Pflock and his associates, Ted Bloecher and John Carlson, are members of the old Washington NICAP inner-circle...a group well-known for their preoccupation with personalities and polemics, their fascistic tactics and their obstructionist policies. They were heavily criticised in the past by the press, the public and the scientific community for their many abuses. In the Fate article they have continued their usual practices of quoting out of context, fabricating derogatory material with no basis in facts, and deliberately misinterpreting printed material.

All statements and actions attributed to me in the article are completely untrue. I have tape recordings, letters and other documentation from the period 1968-70, which support my publishe statements re: Thomas Monteleone and his assorted claims. These records are at total variance with false reconstructions presente by Mr. Pflock, Bloecher and Carlson. If you read Chapter 14 of m book, The Mothman Prophecies, you will find their interpretation a total, deliberate misrepresentation.

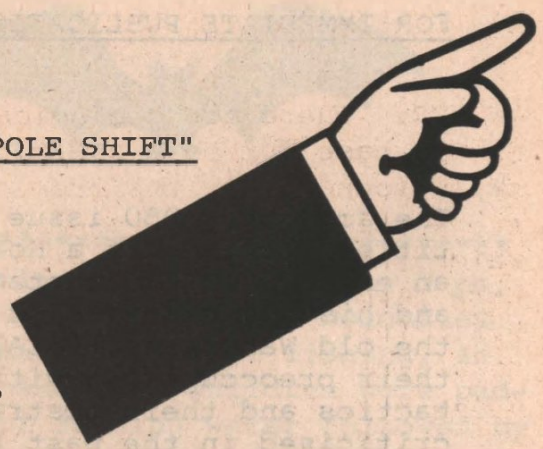
In January 1970, Mr. Monteleone visited New York City and appear on the Long John Nebel radio show on WNBC. I was invited to participate in the broadcast as a panelist. I declined in writir explaining why I felt that Mr. Monteleone's story was not an act physical experience. Long John read my disclaimer over the air a it was heard by millions of people in some thirty states. Tape recordings still exist.

In letters to me, Mr. Monteleone confessed that he feared his becoming a public contactee had injured his chances to become a sciencefiction writer. He attested to the validity of his alleg contact experience in writing several times. Later he became obs with the notion that he should repudiate his story to gain acce among the sciencefiction writers. He became a "confessed liar" 1979 when he published an article in OMNI magazine stating he h made up his contact experience. Privately, however, he has stea fastly claimed that his contact story was a true one.

The Washington NICAP group chose to exploit Mr. Monteleone in a attempt to discredit my entire body of work and my professional reputation as a journalist for over thirty-five years. This mal and libelous intent is quite apparent in the article.

John A. Keel

INTERVIEW WITH JOHN WHITE, AUTHOR OF "POLE SHIFT"



QUESTION: John, what EXACTLY is a 'pole shift'?

ANSWER: It is a global event in which the axis of the earth is displaced or the poles of the earth are moved. Strictly speaking, however, these are not the same thing. You see, the 'pole shift' is a theoretical event that has not been fully proven to the satisfaction of science. So there are differing theories about how a pole shift might occur, and these theories are the reason I've described pole shifts in two ways.

QUESTION: Would you please elaborate on those two ways?
ANSWER: Certainly. One view of how a pole shift occurs holds that the planet tumbles in space, flipping end over end. So that the north poles moves to the position occupied by the south pole, and vice versa. Another view of how a pole shift occurs maintains that the crust of the earth slips around the molten interior, so that the position of the poles change relative to the surface of the planet. In the first case, a pole shift might involve a full 180 degree movement of the entire earth. In the second case, involving crustal slippage, the poles might shift only 90 degrees.

QUESTION: You say that pole shifts are theoretical. What are some of the major pieces of evidence that suggest previous shifting of the poles?
ANSWER: The evidence is dramatic -- and controversial. One of the most important elements in the case for pole shifts are the frozen mammoths and other large animals found in well-preserved condition above the Artic Circle. These animals died in midsummer; grasses found in their mouths and stomachs prove this. Moreover, they died very quickly -- so quickly that gastric juices were prevented from decomposing those grasses. Normally, food in the stomach will continue to decompose for several days after an organism dies. The only way to prevent it, other than by removing it, is to flash-freeze the organism. Another riddle surrounding the death of the animals -- mammoths, bison-like creatures, rhinoceruses, etc. is the fact that when they expired they were grazing in a temperate climatic zone, where vegetation is sufficient to support vast herds, but today they are found in an arctic zone which could not possibly provide enough vegetation for the hundreds of thousands of mammoths whose bones litter the arctic countryside.

QUESTION: What are some of the other pieces of evidence that pole shift theorists point to?

ANSWER: There are geological, archeological and anthropological elements in the case for pole shift. Besides the frozen animals, there have been trees found under the treeless arctic permafrost, and in some cases the trees still have leaves and fruit on them. There are also ancient maps which show Antarctica in an ice-free condition. This is a gigantic mystery because Antarctica was not even discovered until 1820, according to historians. Yet these maps were drawn several centuries before then, and notations on the maps make clear that they are based on much older sources. Apparently there was once a civilization, unknown to official history - which had sufficient skill to map the globe, including Antarctica, at a time when there was no ice sheet covering the south pole. This ties in with still another piece of evidence, namely, myths and legends from around the world which tell of lost civilizations and global cataclysms which destroyed them.

QUESTION: You mentioned geological evidence? Would you be specific?
ANSWER: There are many geological mysteries which can be explained in a unified fashion through the concept of pole shift. Ice ages, for example. Reverses of the Earth's magnetic field. Fossils of such evanescent items as raindrops and jellyfish. Coral in Alaska. The frozen animals in the Arctic. Mountain building. Animal extinctions correlated with periods of global volcanism. The driving force behind continental drift. All these are, theoretically speaking, results of a single event -- pole shift.

QUESTION: What would a pole shift be like? Why do you call it "The Ultimate Disaster"?
ANSWER: Consider the immediate effects of a pole shift. Enormous tidal waves would roll across the continents as the oceans became displaced from their basins. Hurricane winds of hundreds of miles per hour would sweep the planet. Earthquakes greater than any ever measured would rack the land. Volcanic activity would pour out huge lava flows, along with poisonous gas and ash.Climates would change almost instantly and the geography of the globe would be radically altered. And if the pole shift were less than 180 degrees, the polar icecaps, exposed to strong sunlight by having moved into the tropics, would melt rapidly, raising sea levels, while new ice - caps would begin to build at the new polar locations. Last of all, large numbers of organisms, including Homo sapiens, would be decimated or even extinct, with signs of their existence hidden under thick layers of sediment and debris or at the bottom of newly-formed seas.

QUESTION: So your boo, "POLE SHIFT" looks at the evidence suggesting that pole shifts have happened before. Is that all?

ANSWER: No, it isn't. "POLE SHIFT" is really a book about the future. It deals with predictions and prophecies that another pole shift is going to happen soon -- by the end of the century!

QUESTION: That's only twenty years from now. Are you serious?

ANSWER: Yes, I'm quite serious. Understand that I, myself, an not making these predictions... I'm simply acting as an investigative journalist who is reporting that many other sources, quite independent of each other, are predicting this event in a surprisingly parallel manner.

QUESTION: Who are these sources?
ANSWER: There are three principal groups. First, there are ancient prophecies such as those in the Bible, in Hopi Indian and other Native American legends, and in Nostradamus. Second, there are contemporary psychics who also foresee a pole shift at the end of this century. The best known is Edgar Cayce. Last of all, a small group of scientifically-oriented researchers claim to have sufficient data to indicate that a pole shift is imminent --- within the next twenty years or so. These three groups, though differen from one another, nevertheless are united in their outlook.

QUESTION: What do they say will cause the poles to shift?
ANSWER: That's a good question, and there is no single answer. A number of trigger mechanisms have been identified by various groups,some are geophysical, some are astrophysical. And some are of human origin rather than being natural phenomena.

QUESTION: What does the scientific community have to say about it?
ANSWER: By and large, very little. It's an idea that has been dismissed by most scientists. However, I hope my book will generate renewed attention to the question because my position is that the scientific community has prematurely closed discussion of the matter. In my book I show that there is a strong case in support of the pole shifts, and that the predictions and prophecies of another pole shift are not without scientific grounds

QUESTION: So, you are not predicting the end of the world?
ANSWER: Definitely not. Others have, and I report what they say, but I myself am simply calling for a full-scale, international investigation by scientists into a topic that, if it has the slightest bit of truth to it, could be the decisive factor in whether civilization makes it into the 21st Century.

QUESTION: Aren't you concerned about causing panic?

ANSWER: Most definitely. I've tried to deal with this issue in a sober, responsible manner. Pole shift is a potentially sensational topic, but my intent is to raise a question, not create fear. After all, there is a case against pole shift as well. Therefore, I am trying to make a timely warning so that, depending on what the scientific community concludes, adequate preparations may be made to survive. And if it turns out that the predictions are unfulfilled, I will be quite happy to know it. After all, that is the true purpose of prophecy -- to warn in time so that a disaster is avoided or quelled.

MY "MAGIC LAWS" FOR ABUNDANT HEALTH AND PEACE OF MIND

By Luke G. Thomas

A poor Vermont boy, I was orphaned at 12. I did all the wrong things up to age 58 and yet have managed to live to age 87, sound physically and sharp mentally. I am neither retired nor in a rest home; I am truly enjoying productive activities.

Many NAJ readers believe an unseen energizing force may be tapped by receptive researchers to greater or lesser degree. Some seek mystic wisdom, mantras or amulets. I found the "magic pearl" by learning and obeying simple, natural laws of eating, deep breathing, mild exercising, resting and respecting the loving Creator.

IT PAYS TO CONSIDER NEW IDEAS

You may need the priceless information brought to me in 1950, following a fourth heart attack. Survival seemed remote. I also suffered from painful arthritis, high blood pressure, prostatitis and obesity which I blamed upon age. I WAS KIDDING MYSELF . . . it was the effects of wrong information. Since 1950 my body rebuilt itself with what I put into it. Doctors say my heart is sound . . . I suffer no pain, use no medication, exult in energy.

Once I corrected mistakes, CHANGED HABITS brought me, automatically, HEALTH, NEW IDEAS and ENTHUSIASM. Thus I gradually became PROSPEROUS and HAPPY. Life wants you to be the same. We are mysteriously endowed with body cells which replace themselves INDEFINITELY according to what goes into the mouth and through the mind. ADDING LIFE TO LIFE IS SIMPLE, for "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap". This is POSITIVE, INEXORABLE TRUTH! It is possible to undo some damage you created, as I did, through ignorance and violation of fixed, universal laws.

How far you may improve your health, circumstances and influence by following my advice, no man can tell. These "magic laws" should work for you as they have for me and thousands of others. YOUR OWN CHOICES of food, water, thoughts and action will decide the outcome. "The human body," says Dr. H. G. Bieler, M.D., "has an amazing capacity to repair its own injuries and to heal its illnesses". MY BODY DID IT WHEN I TREATED IT INTELLIGENTLY. If you dream of more abundant and productive life on earth my "magic laws" are worth trying.

CHANGE WHAT YOU CAN CHANGE

You cannot change your countenance, your genes or aptitudes but YOU CAN MAKE BETTER USE OF WHAT YOU HAVE. How you live, now that you have read this story, may determine HOW LONG YOU LIVE IN YOUR SELF-HEALING BODY. Right where you live . . . just as you are . . . start from where you stand, as I did, to feel all new. ACT NOW: Place 28¢ stamps on a long envelope self-addressed to a potentially happy, healthy, successful person . . . yourself. Mail the envelope with only $1.00 to help cover printing and labor to ACT NOW TO CHANGE YOUR LIFE THIS YEAR!

I REMEMBER ATLANTIS!
By Al Roger -
PART 111 -
ESCAPE FROM THE HELL BOMB!

AND - In less than two hours, everyone who could had joined the global exodus, and less than half of the former population remained, as for various reasons they were unable to leave Maldek.

The following day, the Omertian Air Armada took off to bomb the Alpharian capital. In order to play it safe, the bombers decided to fly at an altitude of forty miles, as they figured they would be safe from the backlash of the Hell Bomb.

Within three hours they were flying over their target and the zero hour had arrived. Most of the crew were having second thoughts, but their commander was adamant. Upon re - leasing the Hell Bomb, the space - craft quickly picked up speed to put more airspace between them - selves and the doomed planet.

Words cannot describe the holocaust that followed. One moment the planet lay beneath them, serene and beautiful, and then suddenly ... vast clouds of murky dust were mushrooming upward. This was soon followed by a dull roaring, and columns of fire and steam shot forward and upward for miles. Great tidal waves surged over the land, but the water seemed to vanish as Earth began to split open in many different places. Then - the entire planet began shuddering convulsively, and steam and smoke now hid most of the doomed planet from view. The next moment, pieces of rock of many different sizes and shapes began to fly upward into outer space as the planet Maldek exploded in one final burst of churning elements. Then several hundreds of the larger rocks seemed to achieve a sense of direction, and they all began following one another, keeping closely to the orbit that the vanished planet had. And --- thus --- the Asteroids came into existence, and the planet that had occupied center place in our solar system was gone forever. Maldek the Magnificent was no more!

For awhile no one on board the spacecraft spoke. Then from the commanders cabin came a crying, shuddering moan, this was followed by some staccato, off-key laughter --- rising and falling, and finally, high pitched screams which kept on, until the commander, who had gone stark raving mad, fell down in a dead faint. There was silence again on board the ships, but then the aftermath of the horror took hold of the rest of the crew, and each one in his own way cracked under the strain. Some began running aimlessly about, others shook continuously as if with an endless palsy, and others lay down and cried, while yet others sat perfectly still in their seats, staring ahead of them unseeingly, and muttering an occasional no, no, no! It just can't be!

The Hell Bomb had done it's work, and now the planet Maldek was only a memory, and now the Asteroids followed the robit of the vanished one, but they only constituted about a third of the bulk of the doomed planet. Huge chunks of the exploded planet flew in all directions, and now the Earth and the Moon were orbiting closer to a head-on collision with a vast number of the terrible giant meteors.

This swarm of space debris was still about three months distant from the Earth's present position, and this gave scientists of Atlantis a breathing spell of much needed time in which to prepare whatever defense they could, in an heroic attempt to somehow prevent the worst from happening -- when the meteors would reach Earth. Most of the Atlanteans reacted to the coming horror with a numb despair -- as they had to date suffered much already, in their long drawn out war with the Swern, and their allies in Eastern Europe and in North Africa. The raising of the sea level when the Martian oceans rained down on Earth had also worried the people of Atlantis greatly. In the face of so much calamity, many Atlanteans became convinced that the gods had deserted them, and this awful state of affairs warped the minds of many, so that they lost all hope and became fanatics to a very great degree.

Others took advantage of this and joined great crowds that aimlessly roamed the streets commiting acts of violence, vice and crime. The scientists of Atlantis gathered together in Center City and worked from early morning to late at night, trying to discover some effective defense against the now approaching doom of the Great Meteors. Their telescopes, their computers, and anti-gravity ray machines were in continual use, as they worked overtime in checking out many different plans, in order to try to find the answer that would save them and all of Atlantis, and the world, from the horror of destruction. Finally, they decided on a plan which seemed to be the very best under the circumstances. The Repulsion Ray Machines.

They would set up giant Repulsion Rays at three different places on the Western Isle. According to their calculations this would be closest to the meteor swarm. These great Ray machines would draw from the Earth's interior vast sources of power, and this stream of concentrated power - would then be beamed at the approaching masses. And, it was hoped that this method would deflect them to such a degree that they would be bounced away from our planet before any great harm was done to the land.

The great Rays were then set up in the three places, the position of these three places forming a vast Triangle if drawn on a map. In the center of this area a very intricate piece of machinery was set up, as large in size as the ray machines set up in the corners. This center group of machines were the power booster and ray-field regulator, which served to regulate the trememdous power drawn by the other machines from Earth's interior -- and thus prevented any unforseen mishaps. This, in brief, was the Plan. And - it was a good one, as the vast energy field to be then generated by the machines in the Triangle could very well have prevented the meteors from harming Earth. However ---- unforseen complications arose of a ser - ious nature --- that once the critical time period arrived, were to doom all of man's efforts to a horrible failure, and thus put an abrupt end to all civilization in that era of geological time... ... ... On Nov 28,1979,Radio Madrid(Spain) interrupted its normal programming at 2:00am to provide live coverage of a UFO fleet which overflew Madrid! Thousands jammed the station's switchboard and many first hand accounts of the UFO sightings were aired. One witness who observed one of the UFOs thru binoculars reported seeing square windows on one circular craft . Students reported seeing one circular ball with a smaller ball inside! At one point, a doctor stated that a luminous flash with orange,red, and violet hues lit up the "Monumental Square of Sales", the largest bull-fighting square in the world, for 10 minutes. The radio station emphasized that the broadcast was not a "set-up" and reminded the radio audience of Orson Welles' radio play of some 40 yrs ago,entitled"WAR OF THE WORLDS". During the incident in Madrid, some radio communications were cut-off,such as the"...civil protection and the Red Cross."(La Nacion:Buenes Aires,Argentina,11-25-79)

For the first time in the history of the western desert area in Egypt (Dabaa region)a UFO was seen! Loltun Cavern's Ancient Artifacts

They point to a pre-cataclysmic culture

Revised and updated version

By J. Manson Valentine, Ph.D., FN 1962

PHOTOGRAPHS BY THE AUTHOR

PART TWO

Stalactitic ceilings, some as lofty as a hundred feet, undeniably attest to the fact that the cavern once had been completely flooded, most likely during cataclysmic times when the sea invaded the entire peninsula. The stalactites had definitely been modified first by water, then by man.The same may be said of the many megalithic sculpturings on the great stalagmites that decorate the floors of the huge rooms in the upper gallery. Monstrous beasts and bearded giants, some are barely discernible under an accumulation of travertine flowstone. All can be roughly dated because they, like the neighboring natural formations, show the effects of long submergence.

Just how long ago did this miracle of human skill take place? Well, it happened at such a remote period that flowstone drippings of two separate ages appear along the shafts -- those arranged vertically and therefore formed after displacement... No flowstone has formed in the high-chambers of the Lolton in a great many years. And, since the whole assemblage appears to be just as water-worn as any of the speleothems, sculptured by man or natural, the logical inference to be drawn is that it provides a most useful guage by which to date the entire culture associated therewith as precataclysmic - at least ten to twelve thousand years!

In considering all the strange manifestations in the Loltun Cavern, it should be borne in mind that the site has always been a most sacred one in which important, secret religious ceremonies were performed since time immemorial.. It is a hallowed and haunted spot where even today the MAYA tread with utmost veneration. According to them, the spirits of the 'Ancient Ones' still dwell there. Could artists of an extinct race have been the sculptors of the great stalagmites? Who were the transporters and transplanters of enormous stones, feats which include the mysterious stalacite in the vestibule room and other impressive examples of levitation seen elsewhere in the cave?

As the U.S. swelters . . .

Compiled from AP, UPI wires

The Dallas-Fort Worth area broke a record of 25 consecutive days of 100-degree temperatures Friday as the early-summer heat wave that refuses to go away claimed more than 1,000 lives in 20 states.

Forecasters said there was no relief in sight for Texas, and the National Weather Service in Arkansas said the heat wave affecting that state is expected to last until September, if not longer, with an occasional day of cooler temperatures.

"If you were a gambler, a high roller, you might see some suggestion of a change in the pattern . . .," said Fred Ostby, director of the National Severe Storms Forecast Center in Kansas City.

But there's only an "outside chance" of relief, he added, and even if relief comes, "there's no guarantee that it'd be more than temporary."

THERE HAVE been 1,012 deaths in 20 states, according to an unofficial count by The Associated Press. Last Friday there had been more than 330 fatalities.

More than 400 have died of heat-related causes in the three states whose governors have declared a state of emergency — Alabama, Georgia and Missouri.

In comparison, Missouri state health officials say they expect 10 heat-related deaths in a normal year, but that state's heat death toll by Friday was 237.

A 73-year-old wheelchair-bound amputee was found dead in her Leonir, N.C. home Thursday afternoon. Authorities said Mrs. Rhoda Murphy was found by a Meals on Wheels worker. They said the temperature in the house was more than 100 degrees.

In Washington, Dr. Julius B. Richmond, the U.S. surgeon general, urged Americans to use common sense to avoid heat-related illnesses. Among other measures, Richmond said people should wear lightweight clothes and drink plenty of water or nonalcoholic liquids.

AFTERNOON temperatures Friday ranged from 94 degrees in Birmingham, Ala. to 102 in Little Rock, Ark., to 103 in Oklahoma City.

In Wichita Falls — just 120 miles northwest of Dallas on the Oklahoma border — the early afternoon reading was 106 degrees. Wichita Falls has been setting its own all-time record; the National Weather Service office there has recorded 25 consecutive days with temperatures of 106 degrees or higher.

The heat wave has meant boom times for motels on the North Carolina and South Carolina coast, where Carolinians were flocking to seek cool coastal breezes.

In Iowa, Robert Lounsberry, state secretary of agriculture, said soil moisture reserves are being rapidly used up. If the hot weather continues, Lounsberry said, nearly half of the state will lack the soil moisture necessary for good crops.

The Oklahoma Crop and Livestock Reporting Service said Thursday subsoil moisture levels are 60 percent below average.

In Arkansas, losses for farmers and poultry producers is estimated at $500-million so far. Soybean farmers have been hardest hit with an estimated loss of $252-million.

. . . Europe is shivering

United Press International

LONDON — An advertisement for anti-freeze in a London street market said it all: "Mix some with your suntan oil."

Europe is suffering one of its coldest summers in recent memory.

Rain and low temperatures damaged vineyards in France and West Germany, delayed the grain harvest in Britain, clogged mountain passes with snow in Austria and Switzerland and ruined thousands of summer vacations across the continent.

Olympics athletes find it too cold to train in Moscow.

It is France's coldest summer in 22 years. Beaches are half empty and hoteliers are facing a 30 to 50 percent drop in business.

An agriculture ministry expert said crops faced trouble.

"There's been no sunshine to dry the hay," he said. "Farmers will have to sell off much of their livestock for slaughter later because of the expected high cost of fodder."

"The wine harvest will be well below normal in the Burgundy, Bordeaux and Champagne areas," one expert predicted.

West Germany's rainfall is 130 percent above normal and its hours of sunshine 30 to 70 percent less. Temperatures have barely made it to 60 degrees.

For only the third time in 70 years, Swiss farmers have brought their cattle down from summer pastures in the Alps because of heavy snowfalls.

IRANIAN SKY FILLED WITH U.S. THREATS - SOURCE: THE KOREA HERALD 5/4/80 - TEHRAN (REUTER) - If some Iranian officials are to be believed, the U.S. is sending flying saucers, remote-controlled unmanned helicopters and weather balloons over Iran in a psychological war against the country holding the hostages. Ever since the abortive U.S. commando raid on Iran, an elaborate plan to rescue the hostages from the hands of their captors, reports of such sightings have abounded. The Oil Ministry announced two weeks ago that U.S. helicopters had flown low over the gulf off Iranian coastal waters, spraying foam over the sea and setting it alight. The millitant students occupying the embassy said they had fired on a suspicious helicopter which flew over the American compound last week. Its identity was never discovered. Islamic Revolution, the newspaper of the President Bani-Sadr's supporters, quoted an army "political-military expert" as saying flying saucers were being sent into Iranian air space as an American provaction to frighten the Iranian public. He said the flying saucers and pilot-less helicopters were launched from U.S. Naval vessels cruising off the Strait of Hormuz and were remotely controlled from American ships... Similar reports of sightings of unidentified flying objects have been broadcast almost every day since the U.S. raid...

THE 'LIGHT BULB' THAT TALKS!! - SOURCE: Prediction Magazine, Sept. issue, Croydon, Endland. CREDIT: Tony Lawrence, Fla. --Curious stories of UFO phenomena continue to enanate from eastern Europe. In 1977, according to a recent report, three scientists on a comping holiday outside Serpokhov, 57 miles south of Moscow, were awoken one night by the sound of several voices speaking loudly and simultaneously in a strange tongue. The sounds continued for half an hour, then ceased. Suddenly, the scientists saw a large object shaped rather like a light bulb lit by a violet glow. They estimated that the object was about 500 feet away, and 80 feet tall! As they watched, the bulb rose slowly and unsteadily into the air, then spiralled up into the sky silently and without causing a wind or leaving any odour. It finally disappeared into a cloud. Next morning, the scientists investigated the site where the flying bulb had been seen, and found a circular depression, about 15 feet in diameter, in the grass. A similar sighting was reported in the same area about six weeks later, and by the end of 1979 there were a total of eight sightings being logged. A 14 man team is now studying the reports...

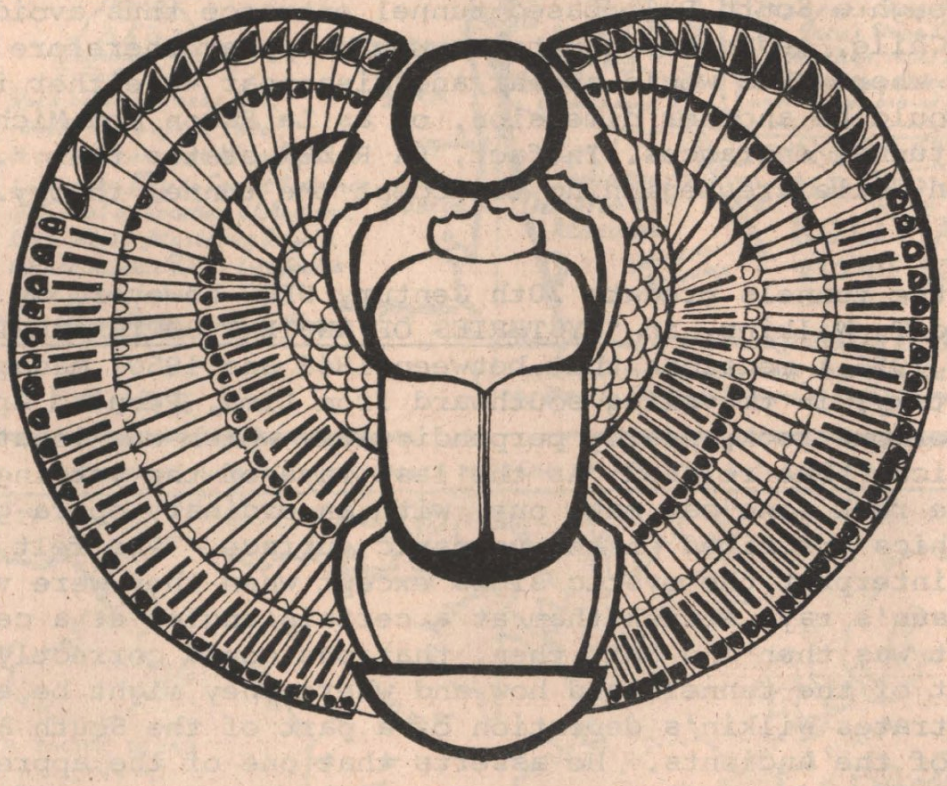
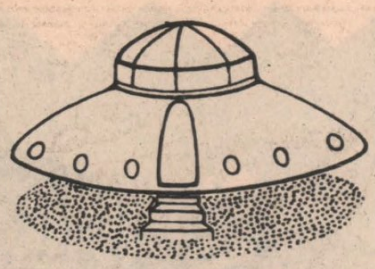
THE KINGS AND QUEENS OF EGYPT -- IN STUNNING COLOR!



Back in the 1920's, an archeologist named Brunton was often involvec in the first opening of numerous Egyptian Tombs. Because his daughter, Winifred, was an artist and frequently accompanied her father in his work, it is now through her paintings that we have some idea of how the early Kings and the Queens of Egypt actually looked. She would compare the mummys and the wall frescoes of each rules and then do a painting that incororated the composit features.

A very limited number of her paintings were put into cheaper colored prints and from an old stock of these beautiful prints there are sets of 12 now available! King Tutankhamon, Haremhad, and numerous other noted Kings and Queens from many ers are represented. These prints are not only beautiful - but they are rare. You can obtain all 12 of them by sending only $7.95 per set to: NEW ATLANTEAN JOURNAL - 5963 32 Ave No, St. Petersburg, Fl 33710...

LOST CITIES AND ANCIENT SUBTERRANEAN PASSAGES!!
by Patrick O'Connell



The May 20, 1877 edition of LA RAZON (Buenes Aires, Argentina) stated that recent UFO sightings which have taken place over Chilean cities confirmed the belief that UFOS possess a "tunnel-network" in Chile! This tunnel system doubtless dates back to pre-historical times, and likely exists in the other countries in North and South America.

According to Frenchmen Aime Michel's theory, UFOS enter and leave the earth atmosphere through a South Pole based tunnel entrance thus avoiding the Van Allen belts! Chile, and other countries would appear therefore to have 'window areas' where UFOS would appear and disappear -- either into what some believe would be another dimension, or as La Razon and Michel believe - into physical tunnel entrances. In fact, LA RAZON states that "... scientific sources in Chile are beginning to accept the tunnel theory..." concerning UFOS.

It seems that the tunnels predate 20th Century UFOS however, by many cen - turies! Harold T. Wilkins, in "MYSTERIES OF ANCIENT SOUTH AMERICA" (The Citadel Press, 1956) mentions that between 1848 and 1850, Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, in traveling southward from Lima, Peru to Arica, Chile, obserbed an enormous rock, nearly perpendicular, which was located on the shore, near Arica. She related "As the last rays of the setting sun strike the face of the rock, one can make out, with an ordinary opera-glass, cur - ious hieroglyphics inscribed on the volcanic surface. She felt that it was impossible to interpret the mystic signs except when they were visible --- only when the sun's rays struck them at a certain angle, at a certain hour of the day! It was then and ONLY then, that one could correctly interpret the "... secret of the tunnels and how and where they might be entered." Figure 1 illustrates Wilkin's depiction of a part of the South American tunnel system of the Ancients. He asserts that one of the approaches to the tunnels is to be found near Cuzco, but "... it is masked beyond discovery." The tunnel reportedly runs from Cuzco to Lima, a distance of 380 miles! Another tunnel network is said to run some 900 miles from Lima to the Ata - cama Desert. Not only does Wilkins have other independent sources that corroborate this fantastic story and alleged tunnel system, but he asserts that a chart of Madame Blavatsky's diagram of the tunnel system, purportedly exists in the Theosophical archives at Adyar, Madras, India. Wilkins states that there are ancient traditions that relate stories of the "Nephilim", or men of a golden age, that lived on an island in the middle of a vast sea in Central Asia. These Nephilim purportedly had no dealings with the inhabi - tants of mainland Asia, except by tunnels which radiated in all directions, for many hundreds of miles. The tunnels were said to have hidden entrances in old ruined cities in India.

MERCATOR'S PROJECTION

There are still unexplored caverns on the island of Iminawa -- said to be the tip of Lemuria, or Mu. One tunnel porportedly runs from Okinawa many miles under the Pacific and resurfaces on one of the small Pacific islands surrounding Okinawa.

Among the Mongolian tribes of Inner Mongolia, there are traditions about the subterranean worlds and tunnels that connect the legendary Shangri-La of Agharti, where science and the arts are said to develop peacefully, through eons of time. Legend has it that a complex network of deep underground tunnels connect Agharti with all other such sub-worlds within the Earth! Do UFOS use the tunnel networks for bases or for a means of traveling? Ufo contactees and abductees have repeatedly spoken about being taken aboard a UFO and being transported to a subterranean city or inside some remote mountain - far from civilization.

... "AN ENCOUNTER WITH THE GUARDIANS" - Channel: Tuella, City of the Sun. From Capt. Avalon: "I will be pleased to discuss these things. We of the Galactic Council are quite disturbed at the general indifference of your people to these things. It is not negative thinking to consider the possibility of these occurrences, and take such steps of preparation as are necessary for personal survival toward these days. Neither the Etheric Masters nor the Space Armada will do for you that which you are capable of doing for yourselves. We would advocate that any personal steps of preparation as are planned and desired, would be completed by spring of next year (1981) Too many events are set in the heavens to risk delay beyond that time... It is truly said that all events are first written in the heavens. Crucial periods of stress for the coming two years can best be astrologically determined by the wise among you."

"As the alignment maneuvers towards its peak in 1982, the planets are pulling magnetically all in one direction from the sun. At certain times great flares from the sun are created and tremendous electrical action surrounds the earth. Expect an abnormal abundance of electrical storms, thunder, tornados and lightning. Because of the electricity bouncing off the planet - there will be more lightning than the world has ever seen. There will be electricity in the air. There will be great flashes in the sky. You must avoid looking at the sky. You must not go outside of your house, but remain inside during these 3 dark days - really 3 days of flashing lights. The heavy, impenetrable room-darkening type of shades at each window would be wise for this purpose. Calls to God, and the Elementals, and the Space Brothers can keep these sparks away from your homes and your area. When these things begin to manifest, your television and electrical appliances must be unplugged. This particular phenomena will last about three days. Gradually the sky will darken, but there will be such a quantity of electricity in the atmosphere it will not seem dark. As you already know, there will be scattered through the alignment period adverse disturbances in weather situations and of a geological nature..."

THIRD ANNUAL WORLD HEALING SYMPOSIUM MARCH 1981

REDISCOVER THE WONDERS OF ANCIENT EGYPT

March 15th - April 1st

FEATURED AT $1598 from New York*

Tour package includes Round Trip Airfare from New York, Holiday Inn by the Pyramids, Daily American Breakfast, Guided Tours, Seminars, Workshops, and many extras.

"He who ponders well upon the Mystery may, perchance, discover under the figures and symbols of the old ceremonies allusions to ever living qualities and ever present problems."

March 18, 1937 Manley P. Hall

THE PURPOSE

In March, over the last two years, during the Spring Equinox in Egypt, Atlantis Rising brought together individuals with love and wisdom to share. The time to gather again in Egypt is close at hand. The Spring Equinox in ancient times was considered the most important moment of the yearly solar cycle. It is the "opening" of the year when the sun is in the mid-point of its rise toward the summer solar solstice.

A World Healing Symposium is planned for March 15th through April 1st, 1981. The healing energies are centered in Egypt. There is a special aspect of healing that precedes any physical manifestation. Only through proper channels can energy transfer take place. Each individual has healing ability. Once that gift is recognized there is no limit to its potential. Through the conscious awareness of the ease at which we may heal ourselves, we also realize the ease of planetary healing through mass-mind action. This then is the purpose: the visualization of world unity will initiate a universal healing at all levels. The energies required for such an event will begin with individuals and groups with love and wisdom to share.

THE JOURNEY

Atlantis Rising provides an absolutely unique introduction to the splendors of this great civilization. For the March Healing Symposium, Atlantis Rising has invited Egyptologists, scientists, scholars, medical healers, and spiritual healers as guest lecturers. Each of these experts will make their knowledge available to tour members on a personal day-to-day basis.

Everyday will feature a guided tour program. At every site, temple or tomb, the tour is accompanied by at least one, and usually by several knowledgeable authorities. Daily workshops and evening seminars will provide tour members with the opportunity to share and exchange new insights and discoveries with featured speakers. Each day will begin and end with optional group meditations, yoga, and jogging exercises.

No matter where you go in Egypt you will be in the company of people who have spent years studying Egyptology, archeology, esoteric teachings, holistic health, and pyramid science. Many of these people are pioneers in their respective fields. As a tour member, you are in a unique position to question them personally; in many cases you will be on hand to share in new insights and discoveries. To the best of our knowledge there has never been a symposium quite like the one you will experience in Egypt during the Spring Equinox of 1981.

THOUGHT OPERATED COMPUTERS!

GAINSEVILLE, FLORIDA: A University of Florida researcher is working on a new technique to enable computers to detect and interpret a person's thought waves. If successful, the technique would also allow a person to issue thought commands to a computer. Dr. Donald Childers, an electrical engineering professor, is attempting to improve communications between man and machines by monitoring and recording brain waves. Childer's research is based on evoked responses - a proceedure of monitoring brain wave activity when a subject is presented a certain stimulus. By placing electrodes on a person's head, Childers can monitor the electrical brain wave response that occurs when a light is flashed in the subject's eyes or a tone sounded in his ears. "We have found that each person has a distinct brain wave pattern that can be recognized for a particular stimulus, He said." (UNDERLINING MINE, JOC) (NOTE: It is PRECISELY this method that the small monitor discs use to 'scan' a city of hundreds of thousands of people, and can pick out just YOUR personal frequency vibration! BUT, it has to be in the higher vibrational frequency range to be 'picked up' easily.)

Since computers have been programed to recognize these brain wave patterns as specific thought processes, Childers said, many new applications for the evoked response have opened up... According to Childers, with a direct link between a person's brain and a computer, a handicapped indivudual, for instance, could communicate with a computer directly, without having to use a keyboard. The computer can identify specific thoughts and transfer the thoughts into printed words or speech. Presently, the keyboard is the only link between a computer and its operator, and that isn't really human - orientated.... ... ...

COMING CATACLYSM?

Prophets and scientists alike agree that our planet is destined for cataclysmic changes...now, new evidence indicates the change from the Piscean to the Aquarian Age will be far more cataclysmic than expected--and hastened by the power-madness and greed of Man's own actions.

This frightening and hopeful book tells why the years 1979-2000 are the critical ones in the social, economic, political and geological changes that herald the end of this cosmic cycle as predicted by the Bible, Cayce, and many others...changes necessary for clearing away the degeneracy and evil pervading our planet and for opening the way to Man's higher evolution.

These changes are ALREADY underway--the signs are all around us, in the Dow-Jones averages, in UFO's, in the observations of scientists and mystics. Read this startling book... learn to recognize the traps of fear and negativism find out what YOU can do to attune yourself with forthcoming positive changes and protect your loved ones

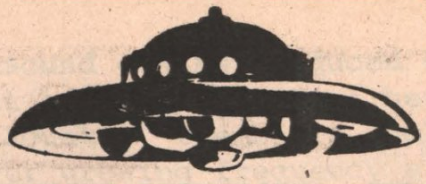
3 Tell of Ball of Light After Disappearance, Return of Teen-ager



CERGY-PONTOISE, France (AP) — Authorities in this small town northwest of Paris are trying to decide whether to charge Frank Fontaine and his friends with criminal mischief or begin a search for a mysterious glowing unidentified flying object.

"This is just too fantastic," Police Chief Roger Courcous said after listening to the testimony of Fontaine, 19, and his two friends, Jean-Pierre Prevot and Salomon N'Diaye.

Fontaine, who had been the object of a police search for a week, reappeared Monday in the exact spot where he disappeared a week ago, his friends reported. They said he was wearing the same clothes and had exactly the same amount of money as the day he vanished.

Stick to Account

The police said the three have consistently repeated this same account under long questioning:

At 4 a.m. November 26, the three young men had just finished loading a station wagon with clothes they were going to sell at an open market when they saw a brilliant light about the size of a tennis ball.

The ball became larger and larger and came to a rest on the hood of the car, causing their eyes to burn. From that moment, until his reappearance this morning, Fontaine remembers nothing.

Prevot and N'Diaye left Fontaine to watch the car as they ran home to get a camera. When they returned, their friend was gone. The car was there with the door open and a halo of light surrounded the car. The halo suddenly disappeared.

Just as mysteriously as he vanished, Fontaine reappeared at 4:30 a.m. Monday, in exactly the same spot, the story went. When he saw the car was gone, he thought it had been stolen and rushed to the house of N'Diaye.

Seeing his friend in his pajamas, he said, "What are you doing in your pajamas? Five minutes ago you were ready to leave for Gisors."

Courcous said Fontaine has not varied his account one bit and his version conforms exactly with the testimony of his two friends. But the police remain skeptical and have called in experts from the Group for the Study of Non-Identified Aerospace Phenomena, a section of the French National Space Agency.

Check Clothes

The police checked the young man and the spot where he supposedly disappeared with a geiger counter but found no trace of radioactivity. Nor was there any trace of mud on Fontaine's clothes or shoes.

INFRASOUND: "DEAFENING SILENCE"

by Joan O'Connell
Editor, New Atlantean Journal

SOURCE: THE LOS ANGELES TIMES - "Employees in the office were distracted, they couldn't keep their minds on their work and they didn't know why until an acoustical expert came up with the answer: Infrasound.

This is sound as such low frequencies that it can't be heard by the human ear, yet there is evidence to suggest that the human body is subject to possible damage from such inaudible exposure. In the case of the distracted office staff, 'silent' infrasound developed by a malfunctioning air conditioning system produced a definite physiological response shown in the workers' inability to concentrate. "

" It is known," said Dr. Richard W. Procunier at Lockheed's Palo Alto, Ca., research labs, "that subjects exposed to infrasound have experienced feelings of nausea, disequilibrium, disorientation, headache, lassitude and the blurring of vision." He added: "It appears that if someone wanted to take a 'trip' without drugs he probably could get much the same effect in a silent discotheque with the proper exposure to infrasound." Dr. Procunier explained that infrasound has a frequency BELOW that of the normal hearing range (20 cycles per second or less) and could come from a variety of other sources, both natural and artificial. As examples he gave explosions, aircraft, construction machinery, earthquakes, aurora, locomotives, certain types of agricultural and other machinery, etc... "... ... ...

In previous articles in this Journal we have presented the data concerning ELF (Extreme Low Frequency) 'sounds' OR 'non-sounds' as you may wish, and the usage of this type of technology to create havoc, panic, disruption, morale and a number of other uses, all to horrible to mention. But ---- is this NEW technology -- or are the 'Old' scientists of the Atlantean Era reincarnated back into this timeframe -- to again unleash the agony of the destruction of a civilization?

Edgar Cayce not only warned us against the reemergence of the device known as the "Great Crystal" but also repeatedly stressed the importance of the technology of SOUND itself. That pure SOUND, or the LACK OF IT, can create panic, decay, and destruction OR, in it's proper application, health, healing, wisdom and knowledge. It is an OLD battle, my friends, and again it is being waged upon this most beautiful of planets, Earth. Yet ANOTHER time. What we are talking about here is MANMADE havoc - but the good Doctor in the above article also cautioned that Infrasound can be produced by 'natural' means, Mother Nature also produces it as a byproduct of her most devastating stress-releasing mechanisms - earthquakes, tremblors, volcanic eruptions - all of which are happening with ever growing frequency all most every day, from all around the Globe.

The physical body respondes to many stimulations that are thrust at it from our own atmosphere today, the pollution, both sound and physical, all combine to jangle the nerves of all Earth's inhabitants. This is very easily shown in the statistics of crime, suicide, and other ills which now plague us. However, I feel that if the populace could but understand what this problem is, they could be more assured in meeting and overcoming it.

But, in the complete understanding of the situation, it must also be said the the so-called "EarthChanges" which we are all experiencing now, also produce a FREQUENCY CHANGE, and this very change produces the abovementioned effects, which only ADDS to the more 'normal' pollution of our homebase. These increased vibrational frequencies need to be understood, and there are steps that can be taken to lessen the impact, to change the negative into a more positive aspect. But, the key to the overcoming of the frequency change is UNDERSTANDING and KNOWING what we all are facing. Once this Key Issue is faced squarely -- then the overcoming can begin. In our next issue we will discuss the various methods by which we can understand and know, and the so-called 'secret' of overcoming! The reason it is a SECRET is only because the ordinary mind refuses to even LOOK at this type of reasoning! But - since our readers are NOT 'ordinary'- we will present THE SECRET OF THE SEVENON,

DOES THE PAST HOLD THE KEY TO OUR FUTURE?

In three fascinating books world traveler Edith F. Bartoe records her personal search from the Andes Mountains to the jungles of South America. Presenting facts and documentary photographs, linking diverse cultural patterns and archeological history, she establishes a worldwide relationship between the otherwise isolated peoples of ancient times.

Some of the questions she raises in her trilogy are: Does prehistory reveal worldwide evidence of ancient esoteric advancement? Are we the first to reach a high level of scientific development? Was ancient man skilled in medicine? Why do certain color combinations recur in diverse cultures?

"AND HE BUILT IN THE PYRAMID THIRTY ROOMS FILLED WITH RICHES..."

(Reprinted from: "FORGOTTON AGES"
Box 82863, Lincoln, Nebraska)

In 1356, after an earthquake leveled Cairo, the Arabs robbed the Pyramid of almost all of its casing stones, and rebuilt their mosques and fortresses with them. So that the words of a foreign and 'pagan' tongue should not defile their holy places of worship or abode, the Arabs made sure to remove all traces of the writing from the stone facings, as they cut them into smaller pieces, and reshaped them for their own architectural purposes....

Fortunately, there are other records and legends which claim that, despite what has been lost, the ancient knowledge may yet be rediscovered inside the Pyramid. In about A.D. 390, the Roman Ammianius Marcellinus noted: "Inscriptions which the ancients asserted were in the walls of certain underground galleries in the pyramids were intended to prevent the ancient wisdom from being lost in the Flood." Abou Balkh, in 870, preserved the same tradition, as did most later Arab writers. The most detailed tradition recounted, however, was by Ibn Abd Alhokim, and it can still be read today in the Akbar Ezzeman Manuscript, kept at Oxford. John Greaves, in 1646, offered this translation of the tradition in his work The Enduring Mystery:

"He which built the Pyramid was Saurid Ibn Salhouk, who lived three hundred years before the Flood. The occasion of this was because he saw in his sleep, that the whole earth was turned over, with the inhabitants of it, the men lying upon their faces, and the stars falling down and striking one another with terrible noise, and being troubled with his, he concealed it. Then after he saw the first stars falling to earth, in the similitude of white fowl, and they snatched men up, and they carried them between two great mountains, and these mountains closed upon them, and the shining stars were made dark. And he awakened with great fear, and assembled the chief Priests of all the provinces, a hundred and thirty priests, the chief of them called Aclimun.

He related the whole matter to them, and they took the altitude of the stars, and made their prognostication, and they foretold of the deluge. The King said will it come to our country? They answered yes, and it will destroy it. And there remained a certain number of years to come, and he commanded in the mean space to build the Pyramid. And he built in the Pyramid thirty rooms, filled with stores of riches, and utensils, and with signatures made of precious stones, and with instruments of iron, and vessels of earth and with arms which rust not, and with glass which might be bended and yet not broken, and with strange spells, and with several kinds of akakirs, single and double, and with deadly poisons, and with other things besides. He also made diverse celestial spheres and stars, and what they severely operate.

And the perfumes which are to be used to them, and the books which treat of these matters. He also put the commentaries of the Priests, in chests of black marble, and with every Priest a book, in which there were the wonders of his profession, and of his actions, and of his nature, and what was done in his time, and what is, and what shall be, from the beginning of time - to the end of it."

It was intriguing traditions such as this which led Caliph Abdul Al Mamoun to plan and execute his forced entry into the Great Pyramid in the year 820. But he only found three empty chambers, while Alhokim recorded there were at least thirty, perhaps even more. That more chambers exist does not seem unreasonable, especially when we realize that - given the area of the known chamber spaces, and comparing it with the total volume of the Pyramid and its foundation, there is still room enough for 3,700 more chambers the size of the King's Chamber. The question is, where do we start looking for the hidden rooms? ... ...

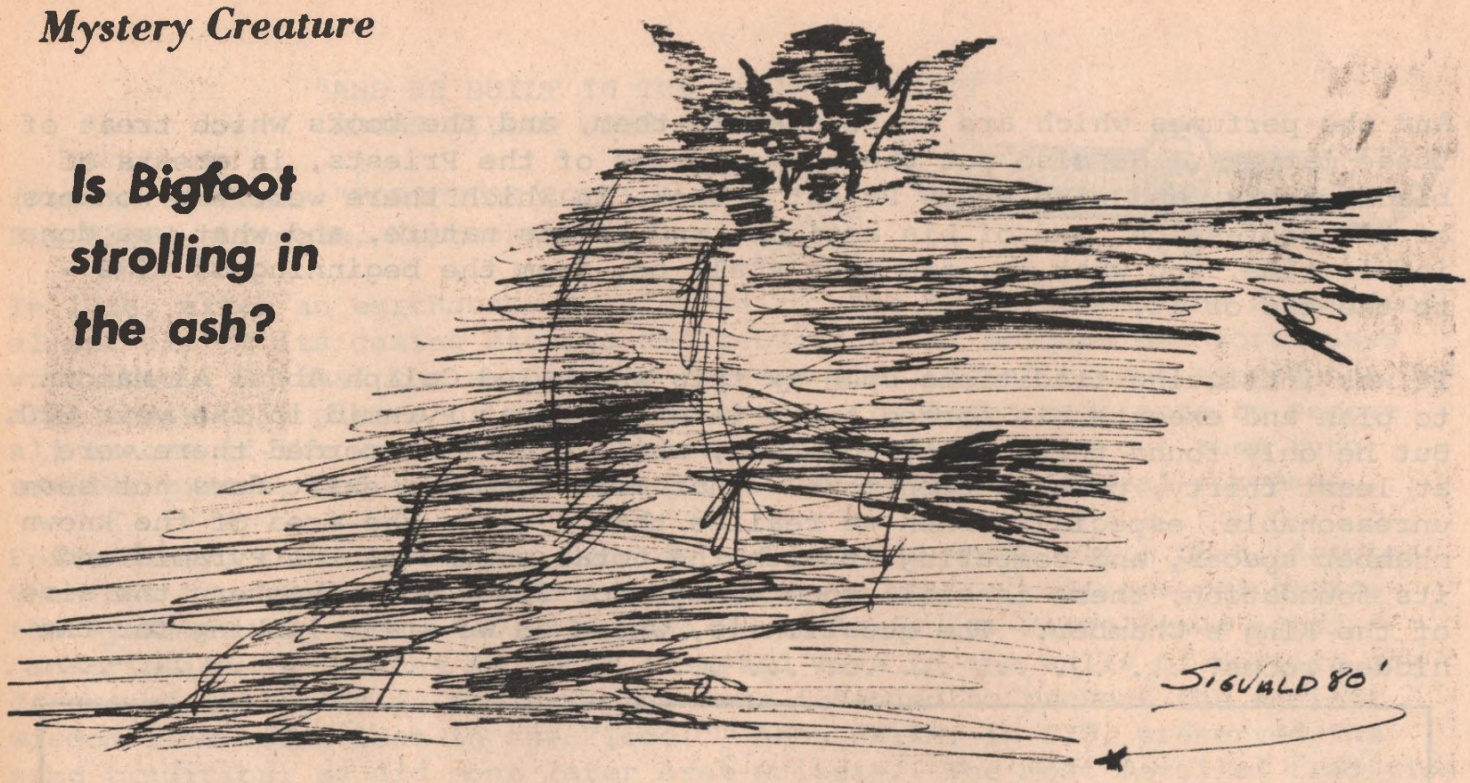
Mystery Creature

Is Bigfoot strolling in the ash?



SOURCE: HERALD, EVERETT, WA. 9/9/80 - Vancouver - A U. S. Forest Service backcountry guard reported she found, and photographed, an 18 by 18 inch ape-like track near Packwood Lake, about 35 miles northeast of Mount St. Helens. The guard, Barb Taubman, stationed at Packwood, said she told her immediate superiors but otherwise kept quiet about the find in July except to report it to Project Bigfoot, a Sasquatch Investigative group in Seat - tle. Ms. Taubman said she saw only one track, in a low wet spot next to a log across a trail into Goat Rocks Wilderness. Dry ground around the track would explain the presence of only one footprint, she said. She ad- ded there is no way to prove the track was not a hoax, but she said the trail she was on had been opened to visitors only four days before she hiked on July 31.

The lack of traffic on the trail and the lack of a destination makes it an unlikely site for someone to pick it for a hoax. "I worked up by Mount St. Helens last year and didn't pay any attention to the stories, she said, of the Sasquatch legends. Now, I guess anything is possible."

HOW TO

SURVIVE A NEW AGE FINANCIAL CRISIS!
by Joan O'Connell

Now that we have learned that we HAVE to advertise even if we don't WANT to (read Part One over again) --- where do we begin? The first step is to be sure you (1) Know your competitor, and where he advertises. Look at his ad, note his price and how he goes about selling his services, tapes, records or books, the same as you do. You will have to make sure that your ad not only LOOKS as good as his, but is priced below his! Because you see, my friends, the New Age Field is the ONLY market you can go to and reach people who are interested in the same things as you, and who will buy products that will interest them. You cannot begin to sell ESP books, or tapes, or Astrological readings (or any other type of readings) to just the general public ---- it won't work. You will have to target your ads to your market - and in our field - this limits your outlets to a few magazines and several tabloids. SO - chances are your ad will wind up on the same page as your competitor's ad! That is WHY you have to research this, learn from other ad's, and keep within your own field. Then - you will have to learn the hardest thing to learn about advertising --- TIMING!

In the first place (again) write to all the publications in the field, get their ad rates, and their DEADLINES. MOST of the publications work THREE MONTHS AHEAD. This means that if you get a bright idea to advertise, and expect to sell your product to the Christmas Trade Rush - you will have to get your ad to them by at least 3 months before you see it in print. I know it is hard to compose a Santa Claus ad in July -- but -- this is what has to be! Some publications are more flexible than others, but generally all have to work months ahead of the date on their covers.

Remember - you have to (1) Stay in your own field. (2) Be competitive in your prices and your presentation. (3) Get the right ad rates and the times to send in your ad. While you are reading this in our WINTER issue, I am now working on our SPRING issue!

THE ATLANTEAN PREDICTS!
(Rev. Thomas Allen Long)

1980 - Brought the beginning of the Earth Changes to the USA: signalled by the May 18 explosion and eruption of Mt. St. Helens. Following the weather extremes of past few years, which now accelerate in severity; food becomes more scarce, water more polluted, transportation more tedious and expensive and seeds much harder to produce and save. This was in the forecast written in 1975 and first carried by NAJ in 1977. The reaction that will occur in the population will be drastic. Each person and family should have a storm-proof, water-proof, riot-½roof, underground survival center.

1980-82 - Strong possibility of limited 90 to 100 day war as Mid-Eastern country is invaded by USA.

1982-83 - Solar system alignment (lesser) accelerating Earth Changes and economic upheavals. USA moves into depression following hyper-inflation.

1984-86 - USA neutralized; Russian influence reaches apex; full scale invasion of Mid-East; Biblical Book of Ezekiel, Chapters 38-39 fulfilled.

1986 - Halleys' Comet ushers in the end of Russian dominance.

1987-90 - World-wide economic chaos as the European Confederacy of Nations is being reshaped into one-world economic controls by nucleus of political and economic geniuses.

1988 - On MAY 10 at 3:00 PM PST, much of western coast of USA is torn by greatest "Super Quake" in history; much land area is covered by Pacific. Within one year, Japan may suffer same fate.

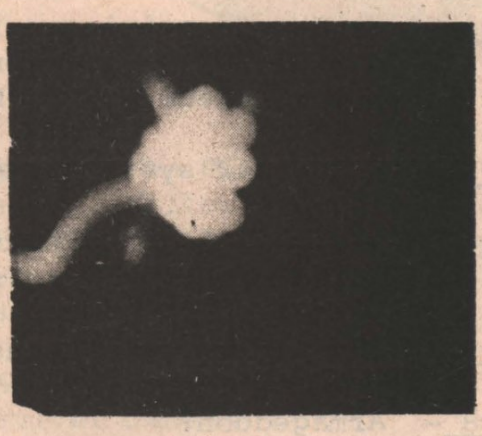
GHOST LIGHTS! SPOOK LIGHTS!

by Ernest Bellam



EXPOSURE of the 'Ghost Light of Maco

I first became interested in Ghost Lights when I read one of Edgar Cayce's readings which stated that all metals have an aura. The ones which have the most visible aura are gold and silver. As I got more and more involved in this study I found that this was the way that the Inca Indians found their gold and silver. They knew how to read this aura and to find these metals. This is why I call it the INCA METHOD, their method of transportation was unique in that they knew how to smelt this ore at the source and then to cast it into wheels, each wheel being 4' in diameter with a 4" square hole in the center in which a wooden axel was inserted and several of these were pont on this axel and were driven like a cart. None of these wheels has ever been found to my knowledge, but some of them are supposedly in Nontezuma's lost treasure.

I believe that the Ghost Lights seen in all parts of our country and Canada and Mexico, are the aura from gold and silver. I have in my collection almost 700 incidents of 'spook' lights and most of them are connected with a story of lost treasure. I believe this aura is visible over all treasures if we knew when and where to look. This aura is controlled by the phases of the moon, and seen more often after the new moon... Near Toronto is a lake named Sincoe, near this lake runs a railroad, and along this rail is a ghost light which is known as the Simcoe Light, it moves along the rail about 3' above the rails and makes a noise like pouring water on a hot stove.

On the King Ranch in Hawaii, there is a ghost light which observers say will make music as it drifts along 3' above the ground. One story of treasure being found by the aura is from Mexico, in which a woman saw this light and marked the spot with two boards crossed where the light was, and when it was dug up they found a 20 gallon earthern crock full of gold coins.... .....

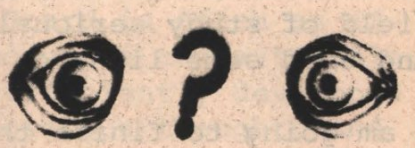
WHAT GOES BUMP IN THE NIGHT? by Richard Fishback

* If reincarnation is true, how can we have a constantly increasing world population?
* What is the life after death experience?
* What are psychic sources of information?
* What is Grace? Ghosts? Poltergiests?

And so on... and on... ad infinitum...



In the field of metaphysics or the occult, there are more questions than most other fields of study combined. Adding to this to further muddy the road to understanding, we have more sources of MISinformation than would be thought possible. If we have a question in any other field of study, there are countless, reliable sources of information available to us; from Dear Whoever in the paper, to the various scientific, governmental and religious organizations that abound in the world. Yet, how often our highly touted "experts" in the field of metaphysics spun out lengthy lists of erroneous, contradictory, illogical or totally valueless information -- when an answer was all you wanted?

Let us attempt to correct this inequity then by starting a "What's The Truth?" column in the New Atlantean Journal. As you know, a year ago you would not have known to ask the questions to which you are now finding answers. If you share your questions with me we may then develop a format for the enlightenment of all the readers (myself included). Your asking the question may well be the first step to another's learning process in any given area of occult studies.

Now, before you think me presumptious, let me admit I don't have all the answers! No one does, but I have applied the last twenty years to a rather relentless pursuit of answers to the little understood concepts and experiences of living, and to sorting the wheat from the chaff. Further assistance will be frawn from friends with expertise in some of the areas with which I'm less conversant.

BACKGROUND: I am one of the founding members of an Indianapolis based, New Age Metaphysics Group. In the first five years of it's existence, I wrote for and edited their newsletter and other printed materials. I resigned as President of that organization to move to this area to work with others in the development of a New Age Orientated, co-operative community. I wrote a small booklet on the subject of reincarnation that was published in 1975 and '76; have written for several various New Age periodicals around the country; appeared on several radio and TV programs to discuss the topics of this nature; and wrote and narrated several episodes of a weekly radio show in Indianapolis. I have been a nypnotist for several years - directing past life regressions, progressions, other dimensional explorations, trauma erradications, and so on.

In addition I have a considerable background in the Bible and Christianity as well as a passing acquaintance with many of the world's religions. These various involvements, though an abreviated list, show that I have taken the field of study seriously, and that I may well be able to cut through the fog and shed some light on the questions with which you are now faced.

I am going to finish this presentation with a sample question and answer - but I would like to make a couple of points first. (1) - Do NOT send your questions to NAJ. Write directly to me: RICHARD FISHBACK -POB 41 - JAMES-TOWN, KY 42629. (2) Every question will be ansered by mail by me personally. I will take some of the questions and answers and present them in this column each issue. In the event you do NOT want your name to appear in the column, simply request this and it will be respected. The following is a question asked of me by a teen-age girl who attended a lecture of mine. Though it is simply drawn from memory rather than being word for word, I will use this paraphrased interchange as an example.

DEAR RICHARD: My girl friend and I have been using an Ouija Board for some time now. When we first started out it was like a game to us, but we found we could get answers through the board neither of us could possibly have known. The more we used the board the more serious we became with it, but we've started getting some pretty strange information and instructions from it lately. Should be believe in and follow these instructions? ... ...

Dear Sherri: (not her real name) NO, you should not unquestionably follow the instructions of an Ouija Board, nor any other device of this nature. Every person is psychic to some extent, and an Ouija Board is often an effective crutch for such abilities, giving you quite accurate and astounding information at times. However, almost no one has s suffeciently developed psi ability to avoid coloring the information with conscious thought, and sub-conscious feelings and beliefs. For instance, if you have been very angry earlier in the day with a member of your family, this may come out during the use of the board by having that person labeled as a real danger to your life. You may be instructed to poison that person, or to take some equally drastic measure. This is not representative of a higher consciousness, but merely the waves made by our own troubled life experiences, much as a nightmare would be. If you enjoy the use of such devices, and occasionally find usable information through this source, then it can be of value to you. However, always retain a healthy akepticism of information obtained in this way, and use your own good sense in dealing with it.

If you can't, then you should avoid all such devices completely. You will find most psi abilities work the best when your quest is toward the more spiritually enlightening concepts, and at their worst when your questions are nosey, petty, mundane, or toward those things you should answer with your own common sense. Never look for a source that will take you by the hand and lead you step by step through all life's problems. Life is not designed that way. You will always be required to do your own thinking - and to take full responsibility for your life. Trying to abdicate this responsibility by leaning on such a crutch will only create more problems in your life you would have had without it! ... ...

THE SECRET OF THE SEVEN CITIES OF CIBOLA
BY MARY HARDY

History says that the Seven Cities of Cibola were cities with their streets paved with gold. When the Spanish Conquistadors came to the New World they searched for these secret cities but never found them. This is because the word 'gold' referred to light. 'Light' in this sense means that the electromagnetic fields around these cities produced a glowing sensation that the Indians mistook for GOLD. These fields of 'Light' were used to balance the electromagnetic fields of earth. These cities and their inhabitants mysteriously disappeared about the same time the white man discovered the New World.

The twelve tribes of Israel were the builders of the great system of Pyramids that held the electromagnetic fields of the earth in balance after the des - - truction of Atlantis. Remnants of these once great pyramids can be found all over this Earth. But, after a trip this summer to Arizona, I was surprised to find so many of these structures were on American soil!

If scientists understood particle energy, i.e. tachion energy, then the knowledge of pyramid energy would be understood. This great and vast system of pyramids that helped to keep the fields in balance would be also understood. And -- the Seven Cities of Cibola would not be a mystery. At one time there were twelve tribes of Israel. One tribe, the Lost Tribe, migrated to a different 'promised land'. This land was southwestern America and northern Mexico. Here they built their great pyramid system of cities known as the Seven Cities of Cibola. The fields of light were generated by placing these cities in the magnetic pattern of particle energy. This pattern forms the STAR OF DAVID, with the seventh city in the middle. This Star generated a spiraling column of particle energy. The purpose was to control the fields of earth - at the time the poles shifted. This shifting could not be stopped but it could be controlled.

In that time as in the present time, the human race raped the earth of its minerals and moved vast amounts of oil, coal, copper and other commodities so that the electromagnetic fields were out of balance. Also, the oil that we take from the earth is the natural lubricant for the continuous shifting of the huge continental plates. Someday earth will pay a price for the removing of the oil and causing an unbalance.

Also --- Earth has forgotton the great war that took place between Earth and the fifth planet of our solar system. In this war the forces of Earth blew up this planet that now forms the asteroid belt. If it was not for the great pyramid system structures our planet would have been destroyed at this time. Instead only a twelve degree shift in our poles occured.

This August my family and several friends were directed to travel to three of the seven Cities, here we were surprised to find that several Indian Tribes of southwestern U.S. kept the history of these happenings in their legends, basket weaving and dances. The dances of the HOPI Indians are similar to the movements of the particles that make up the structure of the atom. Only those that understand particle energy could understand the significance of the Dance of the Hopi.

By traveling this land we realized that the old sacred mountains were really old pyramids. It is no wonder that the Indian's ancestors were the builders of great cliff dwellings and irrigation systems. These people understood a knowledge that has yet to be re-discovered -- the secret of particle energy. They were the builders of the Great Pyramids. I know this to be true, because on the last might at Mesa Verde we met one of the old Elders of the human race. The Hopi Indians call these Elders the Kachina People. Rainbow Fire Elk, or in the past known as Elder of the Rainbow Flame, was his name. He told us he had invited us there to learn of our past and to help us to understand and direct the earth's future. His words told us, that unless the magnetic fields of the earth were balanced by the ancient method of pyramid energy, that when the poles did their shift it would not be a mere twelve degrees, but the planet would tumble 52 times before it balanced itself again. He directed us to help those in charge to re-build the Seven Cities of Cibola. The human race must return to the light of the secret flame of particle energy to the face of the earth if it wishes to advance into the New Age... ... ...

THE DESTRUCTION OF ATLANTIS AND LEMURIA - A CONVERSATION WITH BONNIE ----------
by William Hamilton ----------

So many people responded to my article on the Lemurian girl, Bonnie, that I have decided to impart further information as given by Bonnie, in hopes that it can clarify certain mysteries that we are all trying to solve. The following questions and answers are condensed and edited from a conversation we had in August, 1978... ... ...

Q. Were there ten races on Lemuria?
A. They were called sub-races. There was still only one race.

Q. Can you date that?
A. That was approximately 200,000 years ago.

Q. You once said that the early Lemurians came from the Planet Aurora?
A. Yes, and at that time the sun (of Earth) was giving off entirely too much radiation resulting in shorter life spans. The HYPROBEANS went inside the planet. They entered at the polar entrances, inside of where there is another sun which has no radiative effect. These people still live there in the major city of Shamballa. They are still ruled by the hereditary King of the World. The people who remained on top degenerated into what we call the fourth race. (Note: Bonnie corrected my first article's spelling of Hyper Beings and said it should be Hyprobeans or Tripolians).

Q. Did they continue to degenerate?
A. They continued to degenerate. There came to be more differences in the races. They started mental degeneration to the point of waring on each other. Before, fighting was unheard of.

Q. Did they have technology at that time?
A. At that time, the technology was quite high. The Lemurians started shrinking in stature from about 12 ft. to about 9 ft. The fourth race was about 9 ft. tall. The people started taking on the color of the land. The Atlantean skins were taking on a reddish hue. Asian and Lemurian skins took on a yellowish hue. (NOTE: Adam means red-man!)

Q. OK, so we had some kind of war going on at that time?
A. Right! ... The fourth race. We started to grade into the fifth race at the time the war started, approximately 25,000 years ago. At this time Atlantis chose to break away from the Motherland Mu. Atlantis was getting more and more Vindictive.

A. They were living under the Law of the One - the One God. The Lemurians were the major race at this time which had developed into the Uighers, the Maga-Mayas, and Quetzelcoatls. The Quetzels at this time started leaving Lemuria in droves.

Q. Where did they go?
A. To North America, then on to the Scandanavian countries. Some of them went south into Central and South America and some of their decendents are still there. Explorers have brought back records of white Indians (true).

Q. Do you know who Quetelcoatl and Viracocha were?
A. Quetzelcoatl was Venusian. Viracocha was a Lemurian High Priest who went to South America upon the destruction of Lemuria.

Q. What sent Lemuria to the bottom - a war or natural catastrophe?
A. It was a blowing out of the Archean gas chambers. When the earth was forming, huge gas pockects were formed, cavities within the earth, some of which were just a few feet wide, but thousands of miles long. The scientists started detecting the weakening of the Archean gas chambers on their instruments. This was about 15,000 years ago and at that time the earth's magnetic field was getting very erratic.

Q. Did you have contact with extraterrestrials at that time?
A. At that time we were still in contact with the Federation. Lemuria and Atlantis were both members of the Federation.

Q. Did they have air travel and space travel?
A. Yes, they did. Atlantis and Lemuria could both travel to other planets.

Q. What was the name of the King of Atlantis at that time?
A. Chronos.

Q. What was the name of the King of Lemuria at that time?
A. Triton was one of his names. The high priest was called a Ramu.

Q. And - your father is now?
A. A Ramu.

Q. What is it that destroyed Atlantis?
A. After the destruction of Lemuria, which was caused by natural catastrophe, for a long time the planet was unstable for about 200 or 300 years. The pryamids were built before the destruction of Lemuria. At this time the Atlanteans were becoming difficult and several of them who believed in the Law of the One did not care for what the scientists were doing. The scientists were experimenting with monster crystals that had unbelieveable power.

Q. Were there any biological experiments like cloning or with DNA?
A. Yes, there were. This had been going on for hundreds of years by that time. They were using the "things" as their slaves. Some people left Atlantis at this time and came to Mt. Shasta where the Lemurians built a city called Telos.

Q. Now the Atlanteans started experimenting with huge crystals - were these the fire crystals?
A. Yes, they generated by cosmic energy. It is the cut of the crystal which causes the generation (wavelength?). It draws it out of the atmosphere (the energy) and generates it into a high force and higher vibration. It has no moving parts. The crystal has an inner fire - they change colors. The crystals the Atlanteans used built up energy they could not control.

Q. Is this the secret of the power source on flying saucers?
A. Yes, a lot of it is crystals, particularly the atmospheric vehicles. The planet-to-planet vehicles are driven by an ion-Mercury engine. Spaceships can reach speeds way beyond light - they can enter hyperspace - you generate into the fourth dimension - this is controlled by an onboard computer that takes you into and out of hyperspace. I know this is a simplification. When your on a ship going into hyperspace, you will hear this vibration and a loud screaming sound when you enter, then you will hear nothing. (I have had many correlations on this data and am researching it further toward a comprehensive theory of space travel).

Q. Do ships travel between galaxies?
A. Yes, that is usually when you enter hyperspace when you are going a far, far distance.

Q. Have you heard stories of any advanced beings out there?
A. Yes, they are near the Center of the Universe.

Q. What is at the Center?
A. We call it the seat of God - the generation of energy.

Q. Can anyone go there?
A. In the bodies we are in, it is hard to go near there. In the astral, it's possible.(NOTE: She calls God - Tamil)

Q. Now, back to Atlantis. How did it get destroyed?
A. Atlantis was taking pot shots with their crystals at China. China was still a fairly strong colony of Lemuria and refused to come under Atlantean domination. At that time Atlantis was trying to dominate the world.

A. And they didn't dare pick on the Hyprobeans in the earth's center. During the last change in the poles, the entrances were inaccessible because of the now ice and cloud cover. Atlanteans had set up colonies in Egypt. Rata was the most famous of the high priests at this time. Atlanteans, Lemurians, and extraterrestrials built the pyramids as they knew they were needed to stabilize the planet during the coming cata - clysms. The pyramid in the Matto Grosso in Brazil still hasn't been found. That was built using radioactive paste. Sound was used to levitate the stone blocks.

Q. Now - on the destruction itself?
A. The Atlanteans were taking pot shots at china and they were using a form of vibrating crystal rays off certain elements in the atmosphere and bouncing them off satellites in orbit around earth. At this time earth had two moons. One of them was taken out of its course by the Atlanteans, the smaller moon. They were vibrating the rays of the crystal higher and higher and hoping to direct the small moon as a missle aimed at China and India. The Atlanteans' major crystal was located near Bimini and they could not control it as the force went higher and higher and the moon plunged to earth, split in two and fell on the heads of the Atlanteans themselves bringing about the final destruction.

NOTE: As before, I invite your comments if this scenario painted by Bonnie strikes a chord with you. Bonnie has told me much more on many subjects, but she has a lot to say about what is happening today and what their people expect to happen in our cataclysmic future. Hopefully, I can provide you with more as time goes on. Of course, it must be pointed out to the reader that Bonnie's references to life on Venus, the hollow earth, the Federation, the early pyramids, and certain cataclysmic changes are considered by most scientific investigators to be pure fiction that is easily refuted by scientific evidence. Bonnie does not seem bothered by such refuttation and insists she is telling it as she knows it. Either Bonnie has a great imagination or a great history. I leave it to the reader to decide!

- CONSERVE YOUR ENERGY.
- REDUCE STRESS AND HELP COPE WITH FRUSTRATION.
- CORRECT AND AMPLIFY YOUR BODY'S AURA AND POLARITY.

PULSOR is a modern solid state electronic microcrystal composite transceiver with ultra wide wave bands which corrects and amplifies the body's natural aura and polarity.

Living in the modern world means being exposed to continual electromagnetic bombardment. All metallic objects such as electrical circuits, telephone wiring, water and gas pipes as well as metal objects we carry on our body act as antennas which collect and radiate disorienting energy waves and can alter the natural polarities of our biophysical body. The typical American gets electromagnetic radiation up to 200 million times more intense than what his ancestors took in from the Sun, stars and other natural sources. Altered body polarity may cause physiological effects such as tension, frustration, apprehension and invites disease and bacteria attacks, psychic problems and poor mental and physical health. Laboratory tests on animals have shown hormone, blood sugar and enzyme changes.

PULSOR, designed by Dr. George Yao, N.D. and Chemical Engineer, creates a protective force shield. PULSOR removes the charge from electrons, converting them to neutrinos which have no further effects on the biophysical energy systems of the human body.

PULSOR is used for protection from environmental contamination, to help maintain normal blood chemistry, and to promote stress reduction thru deep neuromuscular relaxation.

PULSOR aura amplifiers are available in pendants, pins, buckles, rings and 2"x 2" box type generators. Send $2.00 for complete illustrated information packet to:

THE EXCALIBUR BRIEFING
by Colonel Thomas E. Bearden
Paperback - 288 pages - many excellent illustrations by Hal Crawford, noted UFO artist - Plus photos and diagrams.....
PRICE: $8.95 plus $1.00 postage and handling. ORDER FROM: Col. Thomas Bearden -POB 1472, Huntsville, Al 35807.....

An astounding book! New theories are presented to explain many OLD theories! There will be some who will fight this book tooth and toenail, as it gives a different explanation to many types of UFO experiences, mystery lights, free energy devices, thought photography, cattle mutilations AND - most important of all, Col. Bearden warns us - very seriously - to beware of the dangers inherent in Soviet psychotronic mind control research. All UFO and paranormal researchers MUST understand the deeper meaning of the phenomenon they are investigating! This is a dangerous situation, and all must wake up to this information. This is NOT an easy book to read, in all fairness, I must admit it was a DIFFICULT book to read. Not only because of it's implications but because of the technical wordage used in the text. I suggest that the reader takes it easy in the initial reading, slowly digesting the data, and then REreading it again. I did this, and I found that it made sense ONLY on the second reading. The first will shatter too many illusions and interfere psychologicly with pre-conceived patterns of thought. When you dig deep enough into Col. Bearden's material you will find that it is NOT against what you really believe -- but it says it in a more technical and difficult way. Good vrs. Evil, the magnificence of Nature and creation, the importance of Knowing, it is all there, as much so as if it were written in a more 'spiritual' manner.

The one fault, IF there is a fault, in the book, is that it does NOT portray a rosy future, or a money-free Utopia, or a cancer-cure for the millions. It doesn't even tell you how to get to 'Heaven', or even if you are going to get a chance to go there! It DOES tell you what problems we all are facing either along the road to Hell or any other place! There have been many words to describe WAR - but Col. Bearden has placed another new description into the halls of literature - INTERDIMENSIONAL WARFARE..... And - our minds are the worst culprits! They can be influenced by -WHO?

J. O'Connell
