Letters to the Editor

Dear Joan: Please find the enclosed cheque for $20.00 renewal subscription and also the Egyptian Prints. I really enjoy the NAJ and I have been able to buy so many books I otherwise would have missed if it had not been for the NAJ. ... I received my first newsletter The Hollow Hassle and was fascinated by the articles. Keep up the good work! Hilda Murphy, Moose Jaw, SaskatcheWan, Canada.

* Dear Hilda: Our advertisers are PEOPLE, too! They have all the very same interests as our readers. That's what makes their products great and gives our readers what they want!

Dear Friends: I have enjoyed all the copies of last years subscription and would like to renew it for 3 years. Thank you for all your interest in giving us relatively few souls the things we love to know about. In a world of destruction and fear you are most certainly alone unless one is able to meet someone who seeks more than the material aspect of life... Mrs. A.R. Farrell, APO NY, NY.

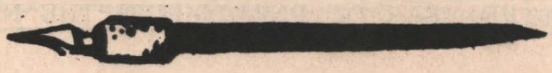
* Always remember YOU are NOT alone. We are as close as a note away. Write! We always remember friends, seekers, and UFOs!

Dear Editor: I have renewed my membership and am very happy that I have received the Summer '80' issue and I will be waiting with open arms for the new ones to come. My question is concerning inner earth entrances and ufo bases in Iowa written by Tal Levesque, I was wondering if you could send me the address or print it? ... Thoughts from Iowa ...

* Tal Levesque has moved but we will forward any letters to him and I am sure that they will reach him.

Gentlemen: Your magazine is thrilling, mysterious, exciting and a million other things which stir within me the unexplainable. I can hardly wait to receive the next issue, no matter how busy I may be, when it arrives, everything is dropped while I read it. Please keep up the good work and bless all those researchers who are continually looking for the existing truth and telling it to the world. There are far too many secrets going on that shouldn't be and I am afrain that one of these days some people are going to be in for a big surprise! Mary Eleyanick, Hamilton, Ont., Canada.

Dear Mary: I'm blushing - and - Amen for the surprises!



Dear Joan: Thank you so very much for my first copy of the New Atlantean. I am so grateful for the informative and terribly interesting stories and subjects covered. It's just one of it's kind, and I am most happy to have my ad coming out in your April issue. Please mail me Vol. 8 # 3 so I may read the first part of the Mt. Shasta story? ... Gladys E. Galvin .

* Welcome -- both as a reader - and - an advertiser. I have been so gratified to find our advertisers taking out a subscription! And - in other cases - some of our readers have developed new products... It fascinates me!

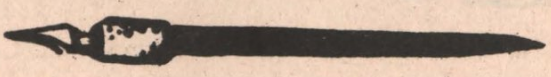
Dear Editor: There has not been a great deal of activity about UFOS in Alberta since the cattle mutilations last fall. One possibility that few people have discussed is that whoever pilots these craft might be from a more primitive culture than our own. It is possible to operate a piece of technology without knowing how it functions, let alone how to design it or manufacture it... Some of the dwarfs and giants do appear to be mutated specimens of humanity. Maybe they come from a far future where there has been nuclear war and genetic disruption. They could be quite human genetically! This would also tend to explain the performing of medical experiments on captured humans. The more intelligent members may be trying to infuse new life into their breeding stock, and they need us! There have been reports of breakdowns of UFOS in mid flight and crashes - exactly what one would expect a piece of advanced technology to do if it were starting to break down after being used for a long time... W. Ritchie Benedict - Canada.

Dear Editor: I was thinking about your editorial in Vol. 8 # 4, Winter, 1980, and two questions came to my mind that maybe some other readers have some kind of an answer for me and others who may have had the same thought. (1) At what time, during the 9 month period, did I join the fetus in my Mother's womb? (2) Where was I before I joined the fetus? These questions may be re-worded if they are in too basic a form. Yours, John Gibson Elliott, D.A. 1254 Canfield Ave, Dayton, OH 45406.

* Your wording is just fine. I am sure that among our readers are many who would love to tackle those thorny problems!

Dear Editor: Check for #10 inclosed. Tell Beastie to change my address label to read 8-84 instead of 8-81! I would like to read what Bonnie has to say about the cataclysmic Future... Samuel Faires, Little Rock, AR.

* Thank you -- and READ ON. It is in THIS issue!



Dear Joan: I have enjoyed William Hamilton's "article" conversation with Bonnie very much. Thank you for printing it and Happy I am to hear of all those soul-surfacing responses to the editor. Though it's work on your part, it's rewarding. May I also have his address so I may thank him? If not you maybe simply send him this letter of thanks...Ken Rebane, Seattle.

* I have now completely lost track of how many letters have come in for Mr. Hamilton! I loved to receive them - and so did he. This series concluded in this issue - for now.

Dear Joan: Enjoying your New Atlantean immensely. It's right up my alley since I am a long time student of such areas as Edgar Cayce, all of Ray Palmer's works, and I took Fate mag. for many years, until I ran out of storage space about two years ago because I am living in a mobile home. Anyone want to buy back copies of Fate from about 1970 thru Aug. '78? Also have Shaver Mystery - Hidden World, etc, as well as many Prevention Magazines from way back. Am a youngish 70 years, still take excercise classes, go dancing and love to read magazines like yours. I see my subscription expired Jan 1 - so am sending $10 for a 3 year renewal and -- THANKS for keeping it in a price range we "seniors" can afford on a limited income... Dorothy Smith, 1830 E. Yosemite - #218, Manteca, Ca. 95336.

* Hope some book-buyers come forth for you. And - if there is One thing I can be proud of - it is the fact of NOT raising our prices. Don't thank me - let me thank YOU!

Dear Joan O'Connell: I have received information that several people in Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas and California have received their computer issued Social Security checks to find a new paragraph printed on the reverse side that says "cashing this check requires proper identification, you must have your I.D. number on your right hand or forehead to assure your identification." This seems to smack of the 'Mark of the Beast' Have you or any of your readers heard about these checks? Kasse Zegel - 814 E. 42nd Street, NY, NY. 10470.

* NO. No word here. I tried to contact some people who printed this information in a newsletter - so far - they have not contacted me back. ANYONE out there in Readerland know anything? Write either to me or to Mr. Zegel, please. Thanks, Kasse, for bringing it to our attention, as it seems that the times are troubled enough without scrounging up a panic to boot! Let un know what you find out so that we can set this record straight. Also, you might write your 'source' again, as they don't answer me!

THE SECRET OF 'SEVEN'!

Since life in the Universe began the numeral SEVEN has been the MOST mystical, the MOST revered, the MOST 'Ancient of Secrets'. Let us just apply one 'secret' property of SEVEN - Survival during frequency changes that face all of us NOW, and in future-time. As the planetary frequency changes, going ever 'higher' in vibrations, your own personal 'frequency' must also change. In fact, it must change - or - YOU do not!

There is also a certain level of vibrational frequency that all must now reach. It is SEVEN times the level at which you are NOW operating..... And -- it is a sliding scale! This means that if YOU are at the LOWEST frequency level in your development - you need only to up it by SEVEN. If you are at the HIGHEST level in your development, you will have already achieved this, and will only have to maintain it. But - this is not as easy as it sounds! Greed, pride, ego, self-serving, in fact ALL of the SEVEN 'deadly sins' still abound in all facets of everyday life. It is even harder to maintain than it is to achieve - stability in the sense of the Seven.

The two greatest gifts that God ever gave man are - Chance and Choice. Chance means events that happen to you -good-bad-indifferent. Choice means Free Will to choose how YOU will re-act to these events. If hunger appears, and others are starving and you have food --- do you share? Or- do you shoot? Choose... Think not the cataclysms were formed to just HURT you or anyone - they are brought so that you have the CHANCE to shine - or to dim your Light. To love, to help, to aid. Or to shun, avoid, escape. It is your Chance and your Choice. It is your way of raising your own personal frequecny 'rating'. The Age of 'Saying' is now over. The Age of 'Doing' is upon us. There is Light at the end of the Tunnel! There is hope and love all around us but only because we SHOW it, in the way of living it. We receive what we give. We will have to live with what we get. To 'share' or to 'shoot'? Or - the Seven? Choose well, Mankind.

JAPANESE LOSE SATELLITE - The Japanese have launched and lost an experimental communications satellite amid circumstances strangely similar to the disappearance in December of an American communications sattellite. ...reported that its $25 million dollar satellite, named Ayame 2, was lost when sent into a low orbit and that ground stations lost contact... A spokesman for the Air Defense Command, based at Colorado Springs, Co. said the U.S. facilities had not been tracking the satellite at the time of it's disappearance, but from what is known, the American trackers said the satellite seems to have been destroyed by an explosion or otherwise disabled at almost exactly the same stage in its flight and under the same circumstances as the RCA Corp. satellite. The plane has been missing since it took off last Wednesday night from the Bahamas. A massive Coast Guard search that at one point involved eight military aircraft and dozens of provate planes and covered 60,000 square miles was called off at nightfall Tuesday, officials said. "CHESSIE", THE POTOMAC MONSTER, BACK AGAIN! COLES POINT, VA. - ... This years first sighting was June 14th, when Westmoreland County farmer Goodwin Muse and some friends saw what they described as a 14 foot snake undulating in the river. "It looked like a snake to me," said Muse, "but, I've never seen a snake this size." Sighting number two was about 15 miles downriver from the Muse sighting, by Richmond finance company manager G. F. Green, his wife, his son, two daughters and a friend. It was a bigger one this time, about 25 feet long, 5 to 6 inches in diameter, swimming smoothly and rapidly, and with humps..."There were three or four humps, and every now and then you'd see the head pop up. But when we'd get close to it, it would suddenly sink down and disappear."...SOURCE: POST-BULLETIN, MN - 6/26/80.

BELIEVER CLAIMS HE HAS PHOTO OF LAKE MONSTER! - NEW HAVEN, CT - A shipyard worker says he has a color photo of a creature resembling the Loch Ness monster, swimming in a Vermont lake, and a Chicago scientists says it looks real. Anthony Mansi, a 50 year old sheet metel worker, says his wife made the picture - which he won't release to reporters - during a family outing at Lake Champlain two years ago. He said he didn't mention it to anyone at first because he was wary of skeptics. But now, a University of Chicago scientist, Dr. Roy Mackal, says he has looked at a picture os the so-called Lake Champlain Monster and thinks it appears to be genuine. Mackal said he believes so-called monsters do inhabit Loch Ness and that their prehistoric relatives exist in some Canadian lakes and in Lake Champlain. Mansi, in a telephone interview said, "It looks like a dinosaur without legs. It has flippers instead. The picture shows 8ft. of neck out of the water. You can see the back of the head, a hump and part of one flipper." SOURCE: ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS -11/27/80.

There have now been more than 100 recorded sightings of the serpent, dating to 1609 - when Samuel de Champlain is said to have written of seeing a creature - 20 feet long, as thick as a barrel, with a horse-shaped head... "She and a female companion were wandering an abondoned fire trail in a remote, dense wilderness region when they came upon a large carcass of what was first thought to be a bear," King said. "Closer observation revealed the carcass to have two arms, two legs and an extremely broad chest, a medium head with no noticable neck, thick black hair 4 to 5 inches in length covering the entire body, large hands, with four digits and a prehensile thumb."...King refused to disclose the location of the carcass and, saying that if he did, that others might go after the remains. I REMEMBER ATLANTIS!
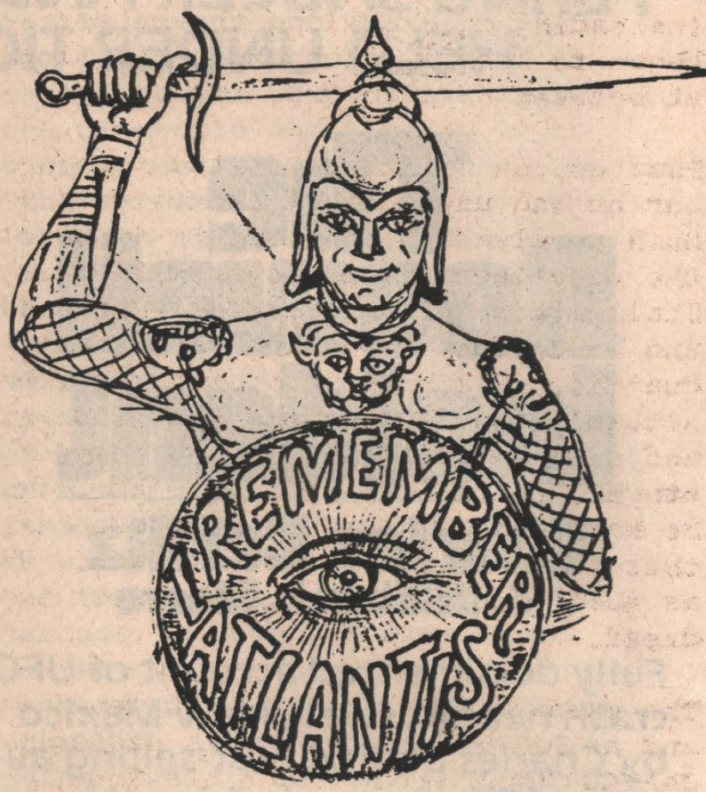
By Al Roger
PART lV
"THE ATLANTEAN RAYS &
THE GREAT TRIANGLE"



The Great Comets were drawing closer every day, and at night they could be seen with the naked eye, The little spheres of light increased with each passing night.

The Ray technicians of the machines in the Great Triangle were testing- and they had successfully bounced off into outer space many heavy objects, and everyone concerned with the operations of the Ray machines felt confident... Meanwhile, the Omertian space fleet, having lost their own home world, and with no place to land, decided to pay a visit to their allies on Earth, the Swern, they were well received but no one person could have forseen the series of vast disasters that would soon befall...

One morning the astronomers in Atlantis sent a special bulletin to the Atlan Teleradio Systems, informing them that the Moon in its orbit was going to enter directly into the path of the oncoming Giant Meteors. That there was a good chance that most of the meteors would hit the Moon ... and in this way, the Earth should be spared the worst part of the bombardment. Or- so it was hoped. Early the next morning, most Atlanteans rose before sunrise, they watched the Moon as it rose from the horizon. By midday the Moon would be directly overhead and right in the middle of the meteor storm. The fate of Earth now depended upon how many meteors the Moon intercepted. The Atlanteans knelt in their gardens, in the streets, by the riverbanks, in order to pray... After awhile some worshippers had second thoughts and ran into the caves, and feeling a bit safer, prayed there.

Meanwhile one of the leading scientists of Atlantis, tired of doing nothing while waiting for the zero hour, decided to do some experimenting - with the Ray machine - on his own, by himself! He knew how the Repell - Ray worked in the open air, but he wondered how it would work if it were totally immersed under water. He therefore constructed a small model and placing it in a large tank of water... He made an astonishing discovery- insteading of expelling the meteor -- the water all around the Ray machine began to bubble, then churn and finally boil, but at a very low temperature at between 85 and 89 degrees.

Puzzled, he switched off the machine, and discovered that the little meteor he had used in his experiment, was nowhere to be seen in the tank! Much perplexed he decided to stop work and vary his routine by exploring the many-level cavern system that lay underneath the lab grounds. The Stalagmites were mysteriously beautiful as they shone in reflected light, and he decided to decend to the next lower level, and there he found a quantity of mushrooms growing between the stalagtites - along with some natural stone formations that resembled flowers, others resembled fruits, and some butterflies --- and he found some cave pearls! Crystals of Amethyst, tourmaline and agate abounded at this level. So, entranced by all he had seen he decided to descend to the lowest level, as he knew that there was one more level beneath. It had not been thoroughly explores - as most people fearted the lowest level with an almost superstitious type dread.

The passageway to the lowest level was narrow with several twisting turns and as he emerged from this passageway he noticed that there was actually CARVED STONE steps under his feet!

An advanced electronic, space age philosophy. Thought provoking ideas about the unbroken continuity and development of life. Also, this work is about the sameness of laws that apply to all phases of the visible and invisible portions of matter, life and evolution.

This new philosophy also covers the concept of rebirth, degrees of consciousness, accumulation of experiences, and the many frequencies of existence. This intriguing book offers an informative and useful tool for prying open the secrets of this, our one and only universe.

This was a strange enough find but as he looked around he discovered that a portion of the cave ahead of him looked strange -- a portion of the wall was walled off! He fancied that at intervals he could very faintly hear a rhythmic sound, as of machinery in motion, but he could not be absolutely sure and after he had rested he started to retrace his steps to the surface and suddenly -- his right foot struck something. Looking down he was amazed to see that it was the small meteor that had vanished from his experimental tank and now it had somehow been teleported here to the cavern's lowest level - which was over 300 feet from the surface! As he retraced his steps to the surface, he thought that this IS the age of terrible wonders, and he would enlist the aid of other scientists to learn about this bizarre discovery.

The three giant repello Ray machines were now fully activated in the middle of the Triangle and the beams were sending up trillions of ergs of raw energy hopefully putting up a force field that would prevent the meteors, some of which were actual planetoids, from striking Earth. On came the huge ones and the Atlanteans breathed a sigh of relief as the first to reach the force field were enveloped in an aura of high voltage and were sent spinning back into the depths. There were too many meteors and some, coming down beyond the limits of the force field, crashed on Earth, setting off small earth tremors. One planetoid, about a mile in diameter, hit the earth - in a place known today as Meteor Crater, Arizona.

Suddenly, the emergency alert sounded! The radar outposts informed that a large number os airships have just left the boundaries of the Swern nation and were at that minute headed in the direction of Atlantis... The Cosmic Council on Saturn had been watching all these developments and now they held a conference and came to a decision, as they all agreed that they would help protect Earth! The Saturnian space fleet speedily set the course for Earth and arrived in Atlantis where the High Command then explained their plans in detail to the Atlantean government - and - when the Swern air fleet were nearing the outer limits of the Atlantean mainland - they were surprised to the the strange giant ships from Saturn hovering!

Not knowing what to expect the Swern decided to fly in a round-a-bout way to avoid invading Atlantean skies, in order to reach the mainland of America to set up a base there... so half of the fleet, about fifty ships, landed in a flat area between what is now Florida and Mexico. They immediately set up their missile launchers, all of them pointed toward Atlantis -- these were loaded with the "Bolts of Indra" which were bombs with a destructive radius of about 500 miles. As fate would have it, two large planetoids were coming in to crash - exactly where the Swern ships with their tons of Super-Bombs were resting in the Valley! ... ...

PULSOR is a modern solid state electronic microcrystal composite transceiver with ultra wide wave bands which corrects and amplifies the body's natural aura and polarity.

Living in the modern world means being exposed to continual electromagnetic bombardment. All metallic objects such as electrical circuits, telephone wiring, water and gas pipes as well as metal objects we carry on our body act as antennas which collect and radiate disorienting energy waves and can alter the natural polarities of our biophysical body. The typical American gets electromagnetic radiation up to 200 million times more intense than what his ancestors took in from the Sun, stars and other natural sources. Altered body polarity may cause physiological effects such as tension, frustration, apprehension and invites disease and bacteria attacks, psychic problems and poor mental and physical health. Laboratory tests on animals have shown hormone, blood sugar and enzyme changes.

PULSOR, designed by Dr. George Yao, N.D. and Chemical Engineer, creates a protective force shield. PULSOR removes the charge from electrons, converting them to neutrinos which have no further effects on the biophysical energy systems of the human body.

PULSOR is used for protection from environmental contamination, to help maintain normal blood chemistry, and to promote stress reduction thru deep neuromuscular relaxation.

PULSOR aura amplifiers are available in pendants, pins, buckles, rings and 2"x 2" box type generators. Send $2.00 for complete illustrated information packet to:

COSETTE'S CARVED CRYSTAL!
by Cosette Willoughby
Box 317, Fairacres, N.M. 88033
NOTE: I am presenting this as
I received it - in letter form.

Dear Joan: Not long ago I found a carved crystal out on the desert near where I live. While examining it with a magnifying glass, I discovered a little carved stage (or screen). On that little scree, and in color, appears a never-ending sequence of pictures. I have watched it for hours and I have never seen the same picture twice or seen it repeat itself. I also have seen strange landscapes (which I don't feel ever originated on Earth), I've seen strange cities similar to the Aztec structures, I have seen people who look similar to the ancient Egyptians.

I believe this crystal is really a small machine that works on the order of a Jieronymous machine or maybe by the use of Psionics which function through the shape of the structure. Another thing, there are two built-in little things on the back side of the crystal that looked like switches. I pressed one of them and the pictures on the screen became blurred. I pressed the other one and the pictures became clear. So, I guess they must be tuning switches. The entire crystal is about half the size of my little finger. All of these things that I see in the crystal are in dazzling color. Like the UFOS. Once I saw a beautiful woman with a headdress that looked like it was made out of perls. I saw a huge black cat with white stripes and big yellow eyes. I've seen kings dressed in gold - sitting on gold thrones. Their landscapes look strange. I don't think they ever were here on Earth. There is also a big purple eye that seems to stand out from the crystal. I use it to focus the pictures because when it is focused clearly the pictures are too.

I'm wondering if these things that I see in the crystal are happening now or am I tuned into some far past? It might be a piece of the old wonder mech that Shaver talked about (Atlantis?) as some of the people I see in the crystal look so real you feel like talking to them. Somehow the crystal makes it seem as if you are looking at a wide screen movie - - panaramas instead of small things ... Well, I thought you would like to hear about this. I'd like to know if any of your readers have seen such or heard of such a thing. It might help coax more ancient information out of the crystal. It seems the Atlanteans made extensive use of certain types of crystals to do powerful things. Is there any way that I could be sure this was one of those crystals?

SECOND LETTER: Here are two photos of the stone. The film had an ASA rating of 400. We used a single lens reflex 35mm camera with an electric eye. We then set it for ASA 50 which would do better than a flashbulb indoors.

We used the camera lens and a magnifier which you can see in the photo. This seems to be what you asked for in you letter. There seems to be a shaft of light coming out of the stone. On the back side of the crystal is a little blue light deep in the stone. I thought at first it was made by reflected light but one night we turned out all the lights and the little blue light still burned. This indicates there is some kind of mechansim deep inside the crystal . It's more advanced than any technology we have today if that little blue light burns forever...

By accident we think we discovered why we can say it is a machine that runs it. Ken programmed a game into his new computer called KALEIDOSCOPE. This slowly changes the pictures by changing 10 to 20 parts of the presentation simultaneously. This is identically the same process that the stone used when the picture changes... I've tried asking it to see certain things and it responded. I asked to see the tree of life - which I saw. I asked to see the second Adam, and I did see him. I asked to see the ancient wizards and I saw a lot of them. In fact, they crowded around 5 or 6 of them at a time. They were all trying to (it seemed) to see me from their side of the stone. While you lool and watch in this stone, it seems to open up and become more pliable, dense places become more clear. I am beginning to feel that I am tuned into a different dimension... ... NOTE: Our printer says the photos will not reproduce well, so we will not run them. Please contact Cosette with your comments! Perhaps some of our readers who live around her area will go over to see for themselves ---- and give us another first-hand view of what marvel she has found.....

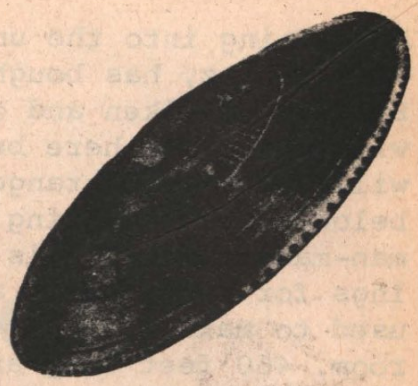
A NATURAL CRYSTAL BALL!

Seldom seen outside of a museum! Very few crystals are large enough or clear enough to use in the making of a 'ball'. Once in a blue moon a crystal will be found with a 'phantom' pyramid inside it --- and ---- when it is made up into a sphere you will really have something special.

Now we have located a 3" quartz sphere with a Phantom Pyramid within! Because it is able to capture and hold the natural energy that is given off by the Human better than almost any other substance, quartz crystal has long been put to use by the mystics and shamans of the world. It allows a contact between the 'inner' and 'outer' limits of the Mind! To 'see' many different types of images or mental 'pictures'.

There is only -ONE- sphere for sale. The NEW ATLANTEAN JOURNAL will forward all serious replys to the owner. Price: $1,800. This is also a one-time offer.



SUBTERRANEAN WORLDS UNDER OUR FEET!
BY KATHERINE H. ROE

A mystery on our planet that we should know more about is the vast system of underground tunnels, rooms, and some say, even cities, inside our Earth. The Russian explorer, Ferdinand Ossen - dowski, states that this system not only encir- cles our Earth, but pass under the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans as well. This knowledge has al- ways been known as "The Secret of the Ages" - and it is true that natives in different areas are reluctant to make known any information concerning them. But we do have the right to know about them, and, if strange people live inside our Earth, we have a right to know all about that.

Every continent has had some mysterious happening to make the people think that these undergrounds are under every continent. In his books on the "Mysteries of South America", Harold Wilkins has given much in- formation about the undergrounds there. He has found that there are splendid old ruined cities in the back country, especially in Peru. They are unexplored by white men and fierce Indians kill anyone who tries to get near them. But, underground passages lead to them and the native make use of them.

When the Spanish came to Peru in 1533, the Emperor of Peru, Atahuopa, was captured by Pizarro and held for ransom. He demanded a room full of gold and the Queen and the Quicha Indians made a great effort to comply. But, after these demands were met he said he would not release the Emperor un- til the natives told him where all the wealth came from, as Pizarro had heard rumors that the Indians had enormous wealth hidden in a vast pass- age under Cuzco. Pizarro killed the Emperor and also "killed the goose that layed the golden egg", for a caravan of 11,000 llamas loaded with gold was on its way to the Spanish -- more ransom. But when the Indians heard that Atahuopa was dead, the caravan quickly disappeared and the Spanish never found the gold, most of which was hidden in the cave system. The Queen was allowed her husband's body, which then was placed in a sec- ret underground mausoleum in Quito. Millions of gold and valuables were buried with him. Two enormous slabs of rock pivoted to turn and then to close the room so that it could not be told from the rest of the under - ground passage. The entrances were camouflaged with rocks and vegetation so cleverly that to this day the Spanish ancestors have not found them.

An opening into the underground has been found in Ecquador and a Hungarian, Juan Moriez, has bought this cave from the government. Moriez, along with Eric Von Daniken and others have explored part of this area. The natives will not enter here being afraid of 'spirits' although they guard it and will not allow strangers near it. The entrance here is nearly 1,000 ft. below the surrounding terrain, showing it to be very old. That it is a man-made structure is evident - with it's perfect right angles and openings for ventilation and glazed walls. Moriez thinks two machines were used to make this, a thermal drill and an electric ray gun. The large room, 460 feet long and 492 ft wide, he feels were blasted out. This is the room that contained many interesting artifacts made of gold and of bronze. There is an old alphabet on gold plaques, also a large table and chairs made of some durable plastic-like material...

It is claimed that openings to an underground city are in Brazil... More of these caves are bing found all the time in South America and many of them lead towards the East coast - toward sunken Atlantis? ... ...

BONNIE'S MISSION PART THREE
by BILL HAMILTON

Many psychics and astrologers have been predicting a New Age that is to be born after an emotional and physical catharsis of the planet. Out of the death of the old world, Phoenix-like, is born the new. The actual birth itself proceeds from a time after the polar shift. Many channels on the West Coast are forecasting dire consequences for the state of California. Everyone in this mode of thought is sure that Cayce's forecast will soon see fruition during the clumping of the planets in 1982.

Bonnie says it is her mission to make preparations for the coming cataclysms that will rock our physical and social world in the days to come. She speaks with little doubt of these coming events. I have taken a wait-and-see attitude toward her predictions, but I do not consider them im - possible. The California San Andreas fault is moving and one of our satellites discovered that its rate of motion was twice what it was formerly thought to be. There have also been numerous tremors in the vicinity of Mt. Shasta and also in the lower Imperial Valley.

The government has released a report that there have been more significant earthquakes in 1980 than usual. The quake in Italy hit 6.8 and the one in Algeria hit 7.3. According to its report, after 20 years of quiet, Cal - ifornia is getting more active again with about one earthquake a month with a Richter magnitude of 5.0 or greater. One earthquake struke Eureka , Ca. with a magnitude of 7 and one analyst said that if it had been 50 miles further south, it would have been very destructive to San Francisco.

We all know about the eruptions of Mt. St. Helens, but geologists have also been monitoring Mt. Hood in Oregon as well as Mt. Shasta. These volcanoes are all part of a chain called the Pacific Ring of Fire. Are the sun and the planets causing these weird conditions? That may be only part of the story. After all certain planets repeat their patterns frequently. But - listen to this. Associated Press reported that the sun is in one of its most active periods in the past 400 years, experiencing a surge of energy that has raised sunspot activity to a peak level. These sunspots are at a peak unmatched since they were first recorded in 1609. Something is certainly going on here!

What about celestial events in 1981? The giant planets Jupiter and Saturn will give us a rare triple conjunction in January, February, and July. Venus and Jupiter will be less than I degree apart in August. Around April 1, a rare multiple alignment of planets will occur. Very nearly in a line for a few days are Mars, Venus, Sun, Earth, Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto only 13 degrees out of line! WOW! I hope California survives all that pulling power.

Bonnie says the first set of cataclysms is due to hit in the Spring of 1982. Some of the first signs of this will be water rising on the EAST COAST and earthquakes all over the planet. There will be volcanic activity at Mt. Vesuvias. She says it will probably devastate Italy. On the EAST COAST, caverns will open up beneath Atlanta, Georgia, and in one day the city will sink! Shortly after this, California will start shaking and sinking, not rapidly, but gradually. In the middle eastern section of the country, atomic power plants will be shaken apart. She thinks it was "silly to build them". The safest places where the Lemurians are setting up refuge camps right now are Phoenix, Flagstaff, Prescott and Albuerquerque. She says they are building an underground complex at Groom Creek, near Prescott, AZ. She says that spacecraft will only lift off a few people and carry them to underground cities or orbiting space-stations. She says that in 1999, the poles will shift. The best place then is to be underground or off the planet. There will be a strong rumbling and winds of 500-600 mph. This will take a week and the path of the sun will be different and bring to Earth a much more even (geopgraphically) climate. Then, she says the people of Agharta and the surface will join as one people in one enlightened world and live hapily ever after (I hope).

So-- that's it folks, whether you believe it or not... Recently I received a letter in reply from Babaji, the great Indian Mahaavatar, and he says essentially the same thing.

As a matter of fact, I am far from insensitive, and do feel the truth of these words. Lemurians or no Lemurians, our world is changing at a very rapid pace and a new phenomena is becoming evident everywhere around us. In the future, we will synthesize elements, grow homes and spaceships and cars out of seed crystals programmed to the universal grid values, and derive endless energy from light and pyramid crystals that are tuned to the grid. The technology of tomorrow for us is the technology of our visitors. It is that of the Universal Mind. Bonnie's people merely tune in to the universal frequency codes and live the art of life. So, if there are then changes, don't worry about them. Just hang in there and ride out the storm. There are many lifetimes to come and many dreams yet to be fulfilled by the people of the land.

SPECIAL * NOTICE by William Hamilton

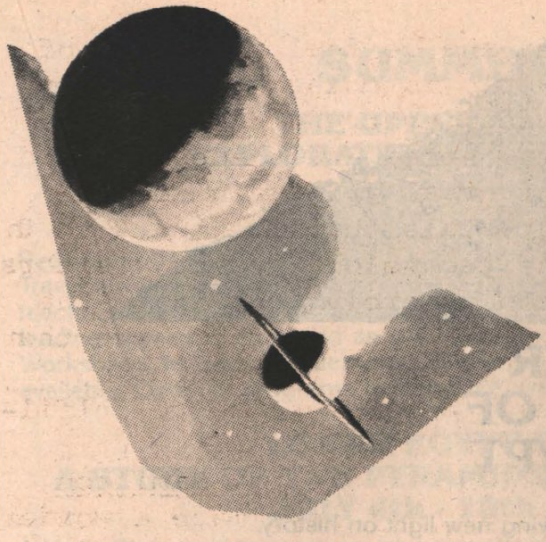
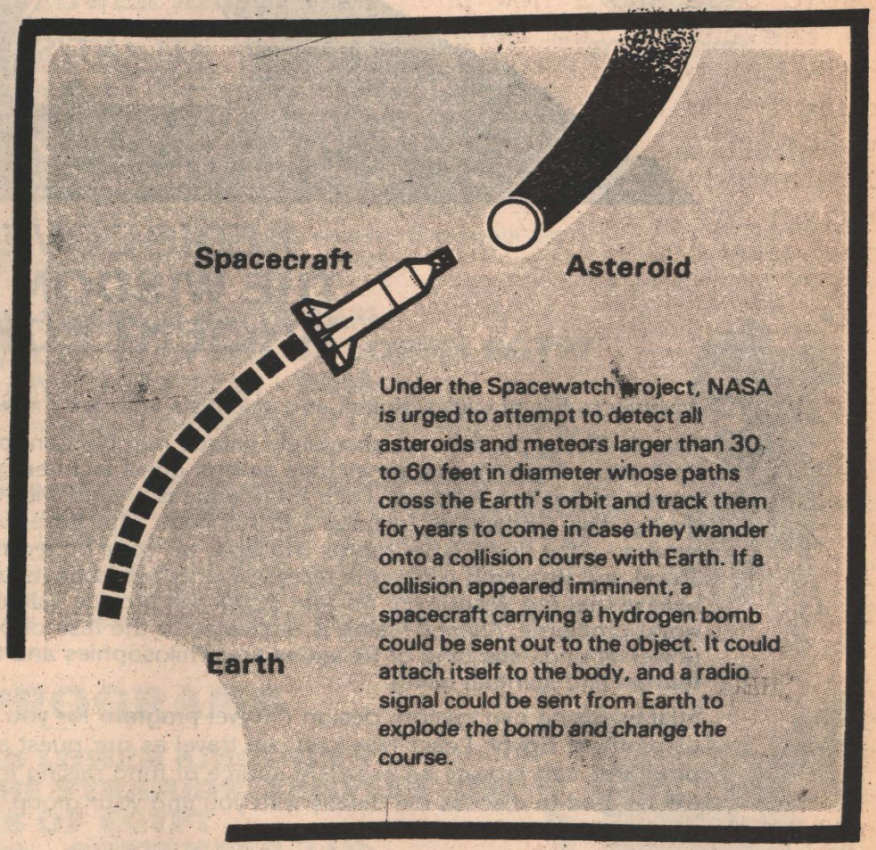
Dear Researcher, Thanks to a fellow researcher (G.L.) I have made a wonderful discovery contained at the root of mathemetics that I call JACOB'S LADDER. This led to the quantum and the discovery of THE GRID! Not just the Grid, but the REALITY GRID! I claim the GRID was first discovered by Capt. Bruce L. Cathie and it is a grid of all structure in the Universe. I claim to have found mathematical proof that the grid, the UNIFIED FIELD THEORY, THE PHYSICAL CONSTANTS (LIGHT, PLANKS, FINE STRUCTURE, ETC.) reveals the Atomic and Planetary orbitals - AND ALSO: The UNIFIED INFORMATION THEORY,LANGUAGE, MUSIC, ASTROLOGY, NUMEROLOGY, ETC. AND IS BASED ON ONE IDEA AND THE SPEED OF LIGHT AT 2400 GRID DEGREES PER GRID SECOND. The UNIVERSE appears to be a reality spun out of light as the gravitational constant and all mass factors are rooted in the above value for light and the grid is tending to reveal that bodies may be hollow with a .10 shell thickness! Engineer Ralph Nunnelley deciphered much of the grid working on the metric system only, and not the true grid values. Kudos to him. I claim the GRID was known to the ancients and used by the Pyramid builders. The Grid is far simpler than quantum physics (ugh). If you accept my challenge, then lets do something with this. Let us FORM THE THE GRID RESEARCH SOCIETY. Many of you contributed to this major discovery --- It is beyond price... Please contact me for information or your suggestions. ----6221 W. Marlette Ave, Glendale, AZ 85301.. PH-(602) 934-5037.



NOTE - Does this seem familiar to you? In our series of " REMEMBER ATLANTIS" by Al Roger, this very thing is discussed! I guarantee you I have had this in my files for many a moon!



St. Petersburg Times — FRANK PETERS

NASA says asteroids could threaten Earth

Compiled from Times wires

WASHINGTON — In a script that could have been written in Hollywood, NASA has been told to put a close watch on thousands of asteroids and meteors in the far reaches of the solar system in case one moves onto a collision course with Earth.

Deadly serious, the space agency's Advisory Council said a collision with one of the 800 known sizable asteroids in deep space could destroy most of life on Earth, just as a collision is now believed to have wiped out dinosaurs 65-million years ago. The council added in its report that there are hundreds of thousands of smaller asteroids that could demolish a single city or region.

"In the 130-million years the dinosaurs roamed the Earth, they failed to develop the technology to avoid their own extinction," the council said. "Homo sapiens has developed an adequate technology. He can avert any further extinction by asteroid impact. We think he should."

The council said the only way to avoid an impending collision would be to detect the possibility far in advance and deflect the approaching body with a hydrogen bomb.

Such a project could eventually cost billions of dollars, but the council proposed a modest beginning: half a million NASA dollars to start Project Spacewatch.

THE PROJECT would dedicate one large telescope to detect all asteroids and meteors larger than 30 to 60 feet in diameter whose paths cross the Earth's orbit and track them for years by Brother Keith E. L'Hommedieu, D.D.

THE FASTEST GROWING CHURCH IN THE WORLD

It's quite safe to say that of all the organized religious sects on the current scene, one church in particular stands above all in its unique approach to religion. The Universal Life Church is the only organized church in the world with no traditional religious doctrine. In the words of Kirby J. Hensley, founder, "The ULC only believes in what is right, and that all people have the right to determine what beliefs are right for them, as long as they do not interfere with the rights of others."

Reverend Hensley is the leader of the worldwide Universal Life Church with a membership now exceeding 7 million ordained ministers of all religious beliefs. Reverend Hensley started the church in his garage by ordaining ministers by mail. During the 1960's, he traveled all across the country appearing at college rallies held in his honor where he would perform mass ordinations of thousands of people at a time. These new ministers were then exempt from being inducted into the armed forces during the undeclared Vietnam war.

In 1966 Reverend Hensley was fighting the establishment on another front. The IRS tried to claim the ULC wasn't a legal church and proceeded to impound the ten thousand dollars in the church bank account. The feisty Hensley filed suit against the IRS in federal district court for return of the funds and to permanently establish the ULC as a legal tax exempt entity. On March 1, 1974 Judge James F. Battin ruled against the IRS in his decision which stated, "Neither this court or any branch of this government will consider the merits or fallacies of a religion. Nor will the court praise or condemn a religion. Were the court to do so, it would impinge upon the guarantees of the First Amendment." The judge then ordered the IRS to return the impounded money and to grant the Universal Life Church its tax exempt status.

Reverend Hensley has stated that he believes a church is people and not just a fancy building. He also believes in total freedom and equality for all people. The ULC will ordain anyone without regard to religious beliefs, race, nationality, sex or age.

The ULC's success formula is both effective and unquestionably legal. After a person has become an ordained minister, he or she can join with two other people and form their own Universal Life Church. These three people then make up the Board of Directors consisting of a Pastor, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The ULC will then grant the group the use of its legal church charter complete with both federal and state tax exempt numbers. The newly formed church may then open a bank account in the church's name. Any member of the church can legally donate up to 50% of his or her outside income to the church and take a corresponding tax deduction. The church in turn can pay the complete housing cost of its minister including rent or mortgage payment, insurance, taxes, furnishings and repairs. The church can also provide the minister with full use of an automobile as well as pay for travel and educational expenses. None of these expenses are reported as income to the IRS. Recently a whole town in Hardenburg, New York became Universal Life ministers and turned their homes into religious retreats and monasteries thereby relieving themselves of property taxes, at least until the state tries to figure out what to do.

Brother L Hommedieu is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Sacerdotal Order of the Universal Life and serves on the Board of Directors of the International Universal Life Church Inc

Churches enjoy certain other tax benefits over the common man on the street. For instance, a church can legally buy and sell real estate or stocks and bonds completely tax free. It can receive tax free income from bank deposits or mortgages. Many churches own large publishing, recording, or other related businesses like hospitals, clinics and schools without paying any income tax.

A church can sponsor any kind of fund raising event such as a concert, play or even bingo. Churches are also exempt from paying inheritance taxes. When the pastor of the church dies, the Board of Directors simply appoints a new pastor and the church goes on.

Reverend Hensley has stated that he personally doesn't believe in the tax exempt status of churches. However, if the government is going to give a free ride to Billy Graham and the Pope, then why not let everybody participate in these blessings. Furthermore, he backs his words up by offering to defend in court the tax exempt status of his congregations.

Since the church was founded in 1962, it has attracted members who are movie and TV personalities, businessmen, government officials, lawyers, and doctors as well as all types of regular working people. During the last 15 years the Universal Life church has blossomed into a full blown grass roots populace movement. Reverend Hensley is ordaining ten thousand new ministers a week and predicts that the church will have over 20,000,000 members by the early 1980's. In addition, requests for interviews and TV appearances continue to pour in.

Anyone who is a member of the ULC will tell you that the ULC is destined to change the world. By unifying mankind into a brotherhood of freedom orientated individuals, each respecting the other's right to live life as they see fit, the Universal Life Church hopes to put an end to all wars. Reverend Hensley admits that this is a pretty monumental task to accomplish, but he also points out that he is already well on the way to reaching his goal.

Rev. Hensley invites all those interested in becoming an ordained minister and receiving complete information and Minister's Credentials, to send a $10.00 tax deductible donation to the Universal Life Church, 1335 Seabright Ave., Dept. NAJ, Santa Cruz, CA 95062

LA PAZ (Reuter) Jan. 3, '81 - The discovery of pre-Spanish conquest ruins deep in the waters of Lake Titicaca has revived an old controversy over the mysterious disappearance of a one-flourishing civilization. A group of Bolivian and Puerto Rican film-makers recently showed stunned archeologists footage of a documentary they shot more than a year ago in the waters of the world's highest navigable lake. Unsuspecting archeologists and reporters saw algae-covered roofless walls which could be part of a temple bearing a strange resemblance to the ruins of Tihuanaco on the shore, as well as paved roads. Bolivian writer and film-maker Hugo Boero, an expert on pre-Inca civilizations, made the find. He said he stumbled on the underwater ruins by accident after being led by an old local Indian to what appeared to be a small rock protruding in the middle of the Lake...

LOST! THE ATLANTEAN STAR-FIRE CRYSTAL
by Patrick O'Connell - President -
The New Atlantean Research Society

Is 20th Century Science only now rediscovering the "lost" technology of Lemuria, which is believed to have disappeared beneath the Pacific Ocean some 7,000 years prior to the submergence of the northern part of the Atlantean continent? Are we only now relearning the secrets of the Atlantean scientists? The inserted illustration, drawn by Al Rogers, shows the purported locations of Mu (Lemuria) and Atlantis.

An excellent source on the ancient 'old lost sciences' and some more modern day inventions and scientific breakthroughs is John Freemsn's "Suppressed and Incredible Inventions" available from A. Fry, 22511 Markham, Perris, Ca. 92370, and it states that a Westinghouse electronic beam cutter was able to cut up to 4 inches of rock (like butter) in 1971. F. S. Oliver, in "Dweller on Two Planets", by Phylos (1894) states that the Atlanteans knew all about how light emitted sound when properly "resisted".

Freeman details how the Atlanteans were able to power fantastic machines using the Sun or any source of energy! He asserts that one type of a "Super-Crystal" is to be found under the area once known as Atlantis, and he relates that great numbers of people were put to work mining these crystals. Freeman continues, that in the British Museum,"... are ancient manuscripts, which give some detail to all this, and when the scholar J.R. Tolkien was gathering data for his celebrated "Lord of the Rings" he ran across much of it. The references to the deep mines of Mordor are historical facts."

There is reason to believe that such a Super-Crystal, or the "Atlantean Star-Fire Crystal" is still existing and operating in the area known as the "Bermuda Triangle". Al Rogers' depiction of what such a device may possibly look like is presented in this issue. Other applications of such a crystal would include the bending of light-waves around a person or thing so that it cannot be seen. Harold Wilkins, in "Mysteries of Ancient South America" (The Citadel Press: 1956) relates that, in a very rare manuscript that chronicled the conquest of Central and South America by the Spanish, mention is made of a mysterious white stone (crystal?) that was located in the Sun Temple of old Cuzco! The white stone, or crystal, was called by the Incas "Iuracrunu" - and was said to function as both an oracle and a crystal because it depicted pictures or visions of the future and the past! Wilkens states that it was similar to the Urim and Thummin "... and the shining light on the breast-plate of the high priest of the old Jewish Temple, themselves probably derived by Moses from the ancient Egyptian breast-plate of the goddess of truth "Thmei"."

THE DWELLER CONTROLLING THE PYRAMID OF FORCE IN THE GREAT PASSAGE HOUSING THE CHANNELS OF EARTH'S BALANCE

One significant fact about the white stone was that the rays of the rising Sun shone through the stone's aperture! It was recorded by the Spanish that on account of the stone's 'power', or the "Force" perhaps, that much damage had been done to these Indians which had been converted to Christianity. Pizarro's monks alleged that some converts had died because of some mysterious power of the crystal! Therefore, because of these beliefs, the Spanish set fire to the crystal and destroyed it. The manuscript relates, however, that in the burning of the crystal, that "... when the fire was bigger there was heard great cries and horrid howlings, that they were persuaded were those of the Devil." It seems more likely that the sounds or vibrations were low-frequency sounds (resonances?) that were released by the destruction and whatever circuits or controls that were attached to it!

The late and celebrated Richard Shaver, in an August 1975 letter to the New Atlantean Journal, stated: "I found a stone with a curved transparent front which had little moving pictures going and coming in the transparent part... I discovered a little rectangular place on the back of the stone about 1½" by ½". I pried this little oblong out with a screw driver and with much effort to break it... and a little drawer did come out, about 2" by 1½"... In the drawer was sitting a miniature court of tiny people of crystal... After prying it open I discovered the magic was gone and the little transparent picture screen no longer contained moving shadow pictures. I had broken it when I pried open the drawer." THE KACHINAS

DAY-GA-CHEE (Man with Red Whiskers)
Also known as Clair Millet - Artist

Clair has had a lifelong exposure to Indian customs and life as well as the arts which led him to his full time career. Clair was a successful self-employed artist, publisher and advertising executive when he made the realization that we were in eminent danger of losing our native American heritage with the passing of the Indian ways into more modern living. The art he is most noted for is a series of Indian including Apache and Kachina dancers. Capturing the Indian dance on canvas he vividly recalls bright colors, swirling motion, the beauty of the costumes and the spirit of the dance. Write to his studio for a free color brochure and a list of prices. EMBY ORIGINALS, Dept NAJ, 44 W. University Dr., Mesa, AZ.

The word "KACHINA" reminds most white people only of dolls, elegantly carved and ornamented and sold in tourist shops or collected in museums.... What they think of as "KACHINAS" are really no more than toys, made originally to teach the young to recognize the various Kachinas appearing in the dances that mark important events in the Hopi calendar. It is actually very difficult to define what a Kachina is, because the same word applies simultaneously to the dancer impersonating a certain spirit, and to the spirit itself and to the person, animal or plant that the spirit infuses. Everything in nature has, for the Hopi, a spiritual dimension, a spirit being who controls that person or animal or plant, and acts as a messenger to the gods when the Pueblo people wish to send them a message.

These spirits are believed to live on the peaks of the San Francisco mountains from mid-July until late December or early January, when they descend to visit the Pueblo tribes. The Hopi calendar begins with this descent and the Kachina ceremonies are the most elaborate of the dances which are performed to invoke their aid. POWAMU, or the Bean Dance, takes place in February and celebrates the continued appearance of green plants during winter. At this time the young men are initiated into the tribe. POWANU prepares for spring and sets things in order, from this point on, the Kachinas dance weekly in the plaza, or if it is too cold, in the Kiva. This close association of the spirits and the Hopi continues until the NIMAN KACHINA, or Home Dance. About ten days after the summer solstice, the tribe prepares for the departure of these spirits and in this final ceremony the Indians present the Kachinas with their prayers for the months until the next POWANU, and with reminders of the things they will need, such as water and food.

During a Kachina ceremony, the dancers feel that they have lost their individual identities and become the deities they represent. The dances they perform help accomplish this infusion and allow the people a chance to communicate with the spirits. There are two main styles or types of Kachina dance, often referred to by the names of the tribes performing them in the purest fashion, the Hopi type and the Rio Grande. The Hopi Kachina dancers sing as they dance. They enter the Plaza and line up along one side of the square and sing the first verse relevant to that ceremony...

Today a steady erosion of meaning plagues the ceremonies, as fewer and fewer young men take an active interest in the full meaning of the dance and the mythology that lies behind it. The ranks of the priesthood are only renewed by the initiation of new priests (calling for an especially elaborate version of dances that year) once in about four years. In the mean time, the dances are simpler and have now become a combination of social event for the Indians and a tourist attraction.

There are Kachina masks called "ANCIENTS" which have been passed on from tribes who have vanished to their kindred, who revere them but cannot tell exactly what they mean. Sadly, more and more of the traditional masks are becoming "ancients" in this sense. This collection of paintings is an effort to preserve some of these traditions before they fade completely - leaving only a hollow shell of commercialized entertainment behind.....
NOTE: These colorful, dramatic Kachina Dancers are printed in two sizes. 18" X 24" ($14.00) and 11½" X 15½" ($10.00). Prices include white framing border on high quality 80 lb. Karma Handmade Embossed cover paper. Each print is personally inspected to insure a perfect match with the original. A short explanation of the meaning of each dance, together with a bio - graphy and photograph of the artist is included. Please add $1.50 to each order to partially cover postage/handling... Clair and his daughter Kimberly, also an artist, are the originators of fantastic coloring books - which also tell the Indian stories and culture. There are many different styles of Kachinas --- please write to Clair/DAY-GA-CHEE for more details.

ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES: We are very proud to present to you another of Clair's writings: "THE LEGEND OF THE TUARTUMS - OF THE "VALLEY OF THE SUN"

Told for the first time - the Apache story of the origin of Camelback, Four Peaks, Hole in the Rock, and the Superstition Mountains of Arizona. Since this story has been told, the white-haired Indian has passed away. More recently she appeared to DAY-GA-CHEE in a dream and related more details regarding this legend. Specifically (among other things) her understanding of the Undervalley caverns, Weaver's Needle, the Praying Monk, Granite Reef and other sites. All these will be written at some future date...

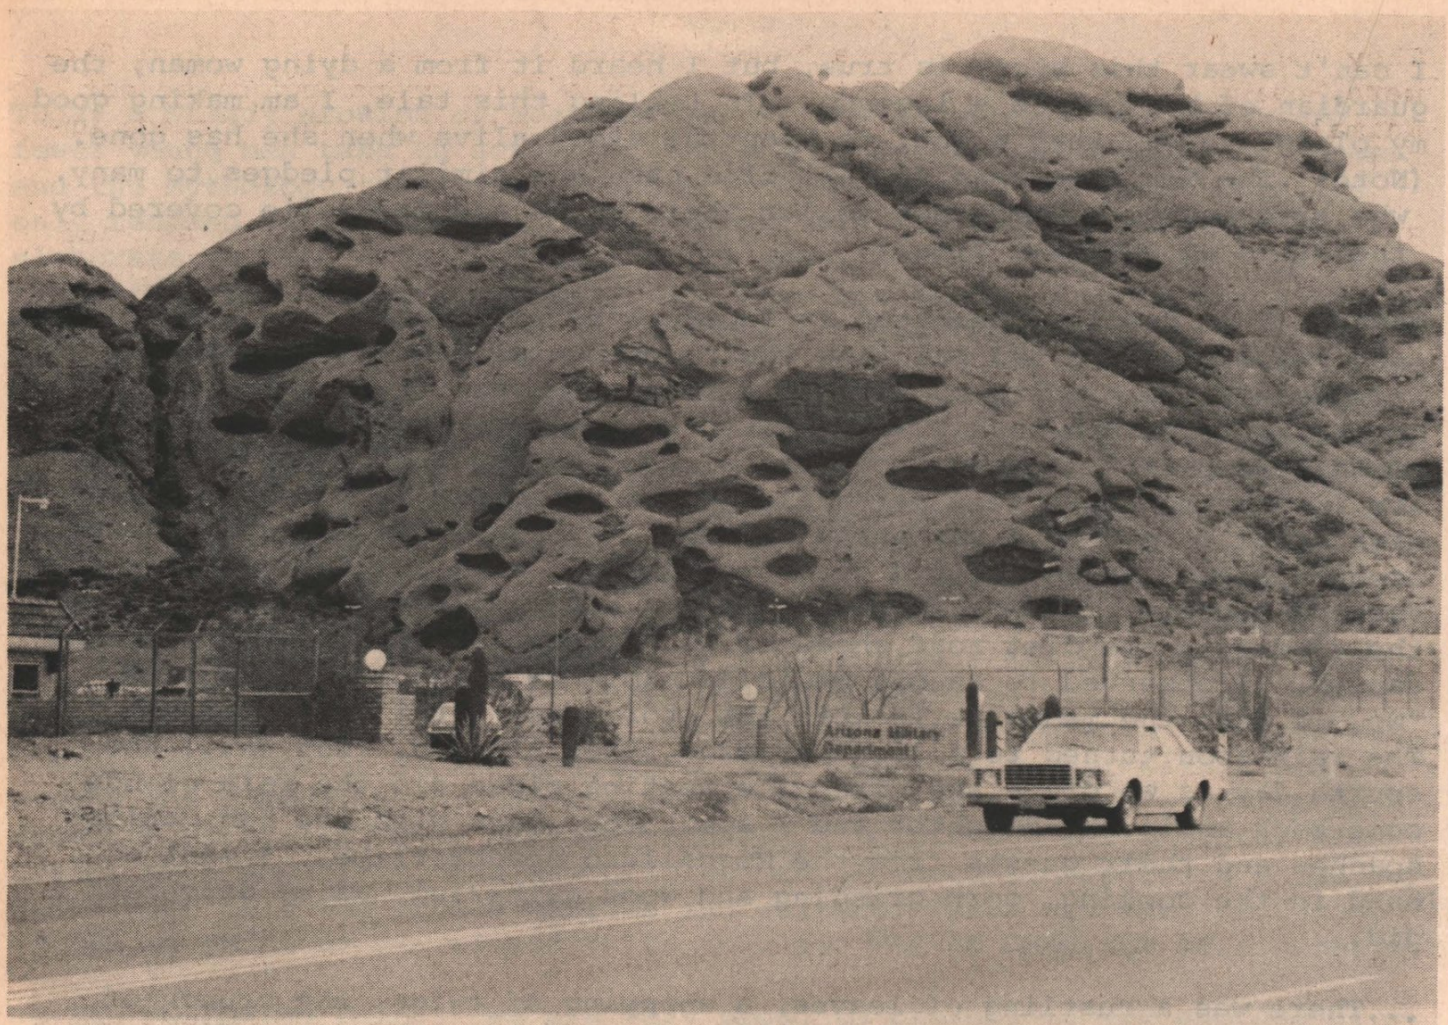
Let us join with him, and the shades of the Indians past, and journey on into the land of shadows, of the Ancient-Time, to learn of the lives of the Indian "Little People" AND the "Giant Ones".

I can't swear this story is true, but I heard it from a dying woman, the guardian of her people's legends. In telling this tale, I am making good my pledge to her that night, to keep the story alive when she has gone. (Note: The New Atlantean Journal also has made similar pledges to many, who have now gone Home, not to let their words and deeds lie covered by the ashes of unspoken Time.)

Because I am deeply interested in Indian lore and traditions, I have spent many years studying and painting their ceremonial dances. I have become friends with many of them. It was through one such friendship with an Apache medicine man that I was invited to the very impressive "CHANGING WOMAN CEREMONIAL" (Apache Crown Dance) for his daughter. Few white men are invited to these very personal, sacred ceremonies. I took it as a high compliment when I was asked to come. I recall the magic that drew around us even as we arrived at the ceremonial site in the mountains north east of Phoenix. It was raining steadily and rivulets of water ran down the tracks in the dirt road ahead of us. "Looks like bad weather for the dances," I observed to an old medicine man. He shrugged and replied, "No. I made the medicine to move the story away until we're through." The rain soon turned to a light drizzle, then stopped. Not until the sourth day as we drove away from the meeting place did the rain clouds come back again. My daughter and I spent four days with the San Carlos Apaches and their guests from the Mescallero Apache tribe. I lent a hand in the cooking, corn gringing and wood gathering, as my daughter did...

...There was a rustling of leaves, a snapping of twigs, the crunch of feet and the whisper of cloth brushing the undergrowth as two figures came toward us. As they entered the ring of light diffused by my fire, I recognized an elderly white-haired Apache woman I had ground corn for, and her granddaughter... Without preamble, the Apache grandmother leaned forward and said in a high-pitched voice, "You asked about stories, I will give you one because I like you and trust you. I will die very soon and I do not want my story to go to my grave with me." She asked me to pledge that I would preserve the story... I swore, and she slowly began the tale of the TUAR-TUMS, the little Indians who lived down in the "Big Valley" (The Salt River Valley or "Valley of the Sun") and the JIAN-DU-PIDS, the giants who invaded their land, stole their water, ruined their fields, drove them underground and were finally seared into the earth by the Great Father, the Sun.

"Long, longago, long before the people you call Ho-Ho-Kam came here and dug the first irrigation canals, a little tiny people lived in the Big Valley.



A. Eye Socket Mountain - a grim reminder of the holocaust which destroyed the giant invaders milleniums ago, and left nothing but the skeletons of the fierce Jian-du-pids. Located adjacent (East) of the Arizona National Guard area on McDowell Road near Papago Park.

The name "Valley of the Sun" is much older than most people imagine. I learned this as I listened to a strange and fascinating story. A story revealed to me by an old, wrinkled, white-haired Apache woman one clear, chilly, September evening as she huddled by my campfire. A story only she knows . . . and me, . . . and now . . . you! She explained how -- milleniums ago, the sun sent down an awesome, brilliant fireball to incinerate a band of giant invaders who threatened his children. She told me those Indians still survive today in huge caverns beneath the Valley floor. How they kidnap all who discover them, taking them away to their subterranean cities.

They were like so (holding up a hand), 'bout three feet high.' Good farmers, using water from the Salt River to grow fine crops and raise fat animals. They were very happy, singing and chanting as they worked, until the JIAN-DU-PIDS came."

She described the coming of enormous Indians, apparently as big as Paul Bunyon, who used a tree for a toothpick. They came dragging with them massive sleds containing all their wealth. Their vast horde of gold weighed down a mountainous camel (she called it a Bay-ze-lea). They also had with them a huge reddish-brown hunting dog whose head stood as high as the knees of his masters. It swept on ahead, killing the TUAR-TUMS and their animals and ruining their fields. The giants came from the Northeast, headed for their old home in the South, led by Evilkin --- a massive, hulking man who struck fear to the hearts of all who saw him. When they reached the Roosevelt Lake area, they decided they could go no farther by land, that they must build a ship to carry them Southwest to their home beyond the Gulf of Baja. But where could they find enough water in the parched desert to float such a tremendous ship?

The tiny TUAR-TUMS lived in the Big Valley using the water from the river to supply their needs --- until the giants came into the valley and diverted all the rivers, creeks and streams, destroying the dams and canals. ... In trying to do this, they destroyed much of the civilization the TUAR-TUMS had built up. Many were killed, their farms and homes ruined.

For a time the JIAN-DU-PIDS returned to the North to bring in more gold and supplies, but the TUAR-TUMS knew they would come again. To save their lives, the little people decided to build everything underground -- their homes -- their farms -- even divert the rivers into the Under-Valley. Since there were large honeycombed caverns already in existence this was not an impossible task.

To the East, the Four Peaks each held a TUAR-TUM sentry facing one of the four points of the compass. The lookouts signaled with polished copper shields to a central watchkeeper in the Valley to warn of the return of the Enemy... ... ... CONTINUED IN OUR NEXT ISSUE... ... ...

Books by Helena Elizabeth Ruhnau, Messenger

Light On a Mountain contains many Precepts of a right Life, Bible mysteries solved, Solar Mysteries revealed; also, A Message to the Nations -- Words spoken to her by the Spirit of God.

As you read her writings, you will recognize her as a Seer and Prophet of stature, a Teacher of the Greater Mystery Teachings of the Ages.

In Journeys Into the Fifth Dimension, Helena Elizabeth Ruhnau, a 20th Century Christian Mystic, gives an eyewitness account of all she has been shown on all the various Dimensions of Life, and explains how one will know where he or she fits in.

Chapters in the book include, A City of the Plains, A Trip Inside Venus, A Visit to Dark Star, A Childhood Vision, Recognizing the Dimensions Beyond, Obstacles to Avoid, Heavenly Visitors, Inside the Earth, The High Places, The Golden Bridge, Retro-Cognition, The Shepherds of Men, and A Look Into the Future.

Reappearance of the Dove .

The book contains several chapters, A Case for Rebuttal, The Rebuttal, The Descent of an Avatar to Earth, The Mysterious Changing Picture, A Look Into the Past — Egypt — Germany, The Destiny of our Planet, The Cosmic Blueprint, Sounds of Creation, and an Epilogue. The book contains some very interesting illustrations, The New World Avatar, (taken from the slide of Him given to Helena in 1967 and on which He is aging as He is aging in life, with many Spiritual manifestations which have appeared on it since it was given to her), a picture of both the Pharaoh Akhenaten and Queen Nefertiti as they appeared 3,300 years ago. (These two important people in history are also maligned by Jeane Dixon. Both were martyred for their efforts to bring forth the religion of ONE GOD to the Egyptians, who had thousands of gods in their Amon religion), there is also a two-page fold-out of the 12 Universes in operation, of which earth is the Fifth, the Spiraling Universes, and a picture of the "Dweller on the Threshold," (the Antichrist), and also the Dove, representing the Holy Spirit of the Cosmic Christ Who hovers over the New World Avatar.

The book explains in detail how the world changes will come about; those who will be sent into "outer darkness"; the system behind us, as the Christ referred to it; and those who will remain on earth.

These changes have already commenced and are accelerating as was prophesied in her book, Journeys Into the Fifth Dimension. Also, for the first time the mystery of the Solar Disk, the symbol of the religion of the One God brought forth by the Pharaoh Akhenaten and Queen Nefertiti is revealed in this book!

She explains the Message given as to when and where the final great cataclysm will commence, and repeats the warnings given to her by the Spirit of God that each will be given one chance to accept the Path of Return to their Source BEFORE the final cataclysms occur and that the New World Avatar will make His appearance. He will not come to any one church, group, cult or religion, for He is Universal, and is coming for the good of all mankind everywhere — His theme will be Universal Brotherhood under the ONE TRUE LIVING GOD — so there can be only ONE RELIGION — the worship and adoration of the Father of All, and right human relations to one another, as is practised in the Higher Worlds.

THE PENNSLYVANIA TRIANGLE

BY Larry E. Arnold

The universe, wrote Galileo, "is written in the language of mathematics, and it's characters are triangles..." In the realm of Forteana - those unconventional subjects and weird events that co-exist with but fail to find acceptance and explanation within the boundaries of conventional science, to which The New Atlantean Journal addresses itself -- the TRIANGLE plays a notable role. It has become a euphemism , because no research to our knowledge has confirmed that the Bermuda, Great Lakes, Tennessee, Sagebrush, Adriatic, and Florida TRIANGLES are truly three-sided areas defined by inexplicable events. But, in the eastern United States there is a bonafide triangle of mystery that raises many questions about man's understanding of the nature of the Universe as serious as those posed by Galileo more than three centuries ago.

The Pennsylvania Triangle, discovered by the author in 1977, is relatively easy to find -- at least in summertime. "It's like sitting on a gallon of ice cream!" exclaimed a colleague. Commonsense is refuted in northcentral Pennsylvania where, despite subfreezing winters and 90 degree F temperatures in summer, water at five spots in Potter County fails to solidify in winter while forming slabs of ice during the year's hottest months! In fact, it is confirmed by property owners os some of these "ice holes" that the hotter and dryer the summer the more ice is formed; so much so that icicles 20 feet long and "as thick as telephone poles" can be seen each June-July-August at the Coudersport Ice Mine even though tempertures elsewhere are in the 90's.

Carefully plotting these thermal enigmas on a topological map reveals that all five ice mines fall upon three intersecting straight lines, forming a huge triangle enclosing about 24 square miles! Intriguingly, this well-defined Triangle in Pennsylvania is connected with UFOS -- in truth, five different kinds. In addition to the Unexplained Frigid Orifices that identify the Triangle, UFOS of the standard definition have often been reported, appeared -- and dematerialized -- in and around the Triangle. The summer of 1966 in particular hosted a number of oval-shaped, dumbell-shaped and saucer-like objects in the sky and on the ground of Potter County. Indications are that one woman was temporarily abducted just north of the Triangle when her car almost collided with an alien craft setting on the road. Another type of UFO - an Unfathomable Flaming Object - occurred on December 5, 1966, when Dr. John Bentley of Coudersport inexplicably ignited in the midst of the Triangle and was reduced almost wholly to ashes.

Only half a leg was left intact; the remainder of his body had burned through the floor and was found heaped in a five-inch pile of ashes on the basement floor below. Yet, as with other cases of Spontaneous Human Combustion (SHC), no other damage resulted from the incredible fire; even paint on a bathtub inches away failed to blister. (The SHC of Dr. Bentley has been highlighted on ABC-TV's "THAT'S INCREDIBLE" by the author, as well as a more recent case of SHC survival in which the vic - tim's hand was totally incinerated but his pajama's escaped singeing.)

Overhead -- residents have seen Unbelievable Flying Ornithoids for hundreds of years. One of these birds, said by Indians to be powerful enough to lift a man (see the BigBird case of 1977 in Il.), was reportedly captured in northern Pennslyvania in 1892. Sightings of these Thunderbirds as recent as 1971 in the vicinity of the Triangle, have included low - level swoops over roadways, thus enabling witnesses to accurately estimate wingspans of 18,20, 25, and even an astounding 35 feet! And that's a big bird ---.

Also, Unidentified Falling Objects described as high-technology silver nitride alloy have plummeted to Earth in the Triangle. In 1960 one such sample, characterized as "15 silver dollars melted down" and "very brilliant, like platimun," affected a compass yet wouldn't adhere to a magnet! NASA apparently thought it a piece of an alien craft anc confiscated a sample, though more likely it wan an apport materialized by the strange power of this three-sided zone of mysteries.

WHAT causes this stunning variety of phenomena remains to be determined, because these enigmas cannot be resolved within the paradigms of conventional science. The logical premise is that telluric energies in the ley system converge in Potter County where their interface produces this baffling concentration of conundrums. Frenchman Aime Michel and Bruce Cathie of New Zealand have, for example, found triangular configurations in UFO flightpaths. Says Michel in Flying Saucers and the Straight-Line Mystery (1958): "It would appear as though something had assigned these mysterious objects certain rectilinear (and triangular) travel routes in preference to others." In Great Britain we have indentified a Triangle similar to the one in Pennsylvania, except it is formed by alignments -- or "telleynes," telluric ley lines of energy -- that cause spontaneous human combustion instead of icy cold spots. Such discoveries indicate that Galileo was right about more than the relationship of the Earth to the Sun. They also indicate that the concept of the mystery-producing Triangle need not be abondoned in principle, and can be applied quite literally to certain areas of this planet. The search for solutions continues, and Triangles are a key factor in that quest to comprehend reality... ...

INVESTIGATIONS

UFO PROBE OVER LOST AIRMAN!

(SOURCE: The Standard, Warrnsbool, Victoria, Australia. 7/1/80) A Victorian UFO Research Society official will spend six months in the district investigating the mystery disappearance of a Melbourne pilot in 1978. Society Vice-President Paul Norman arrived yesterday to continue a study of reported UFO sightings, strange noises and a photograph of a mystery object taken in this district.

His investigations will center on the disappearance of private pilot Frederick Valentich, between Cape Otway and King Island on October 21, 1978. No traces of Valentich have been found since he told Melbourne Flight Service there was a strange object hovering above him. His disappearance stunned aviations and Air Force officials and has become one of the biggest mysteries of Australian aviation history.

A Society investigator interviewed seven district residents in late October 1978, after UFO sightings near the city on the same night as Valentich's disappearance. Mr. Norman said there was no doubt Valentich's disappearance was linked with a UFO. He said in a recording of the conversation between Valentich and Melbourne Flight Service there was evidence of the plane engine coughing, four bright lights on the strange object and a metallic sound. The six month study would be more extensive that investigations fir made by the group in 1978. He said the latest evidence in the mystery had been produced by an amateur Melbourne photographer who was taking photos of a sunset at Cape Otway 20 minutes before Valentich was scheduled to pass the area. The camera was set automatically and was taking one frame every 20 seconds. One of the photos showa a slight uprising in the sea and another shows a strange blurred object much closer to the camera's position. Computer analysis of the negatives by American scientists revealed a highly reflective area at the top of the image, indicative of a metallic structure. Mr. Norman said the sightings and the photos were the most important clues to the disappearance in Victoria.

He said the studies during the next six months would include interviews and electromagnetic studies in areas where the UFOS were sighted. He also appeared to anyone with information of a close encounter on the day Valentich disappeared to contact the Spciety.

UFOS AND THE SPACE BROTHERS WANT YOU TO SURVIVE

DOOMSDAY

Psychics, spiritual leaders, sicentists and UFO contactees all agree that we are living in what has been called the END TIMES.

● The foundation of our civilization is about to crumble.

● The Physical world as we know it is going to be destroyed.

● Psychic, spiritual and "other-worldly" forces are about to take over!

THE TRUTH CAN NOW BE TOLD

An in depth study recently conducted by a highly qualified UFO researcher indicates drastic changes in our daily life, as well as in the shape and construction of our very planet, are imminent. This information has been channeled to at least 20 of the most highly respected contactees from more advanced beings who reside on other planets and in other dimensions. Unanimously, they agree that a global catastrophe will soon sweep over our nation as well as the rest of the world.

According to the SPACE BROTHERS whom they are in contact with time is running out. We are being told the Earth is rapidly entering the twelfth – AND FINAL! – hour for humankind. All indications are that a "time bomb of destruction" is about to go off ridding the planet of civilization as we have come to accept it. The Book of Revelations will be tomorrow's headlines as Armageddon engulfs the globe.

There are those who say a THIRD WOLRD WAR is on the immediate horizon, that an ecological imbalance is now taking place, and a shifting of the North and South Poles is due, which could tip the earth out of its present orbit and send it hurtling toward the sun.

YOU CAN BE SAVED!

While utter chaos will take place all around us, all of those who have received this highly advanced, truly prophetic warning have said that the "Chosen Ones" who "are ready" will be saved and taken off this planet just in the nick of time.

Our special, fully illustrated report, a 50,000 word book titled PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS IN THE LAST DAYS, is the most comprehensive volume ever put together on the subject. There is no other work like it as this book has been inspired from above. These are some of the important things you will learn – things you will NEED to know in order to make the transition from this physical dimension into a higher realm.

● Specific data on land changes. Find out which States will be geographically altered and the "safe" places to go to be out of immediate danger.

● A time table indicating when these events will begin to take place and the order in which they will occur.

● Exact "signs" and "wonders" to watch for which will indicate that only months are left.

● What material objects – "valuables" – you will need in order to survive, and where to obtain them.

● The day you will vanish from this planet – a mass evacuation by space ship will take place in which hundreds of flying saucers will come down out of the sky and "lift off" the worthy. What are your chances of being saved, and what can you do to make certain you are the "Chosen Ones."

Some of those who have contributed to this valuable reference include New Agers Brad and Francie Steiger; Space Channel Robert Short; the spiritual group Mark Age; UFO communicator Jane Allyson; Parasychologist Warren Freiberg; researcher John White, and the space being known as Ashtar.

If you have even a slight interest in UFOs you will want to order this book. This is not just another title filled with wild stories, but this volume actually presents useful data which could change your life and help you to survive DOOMSDAY!

Send payment in the amount of $8.95 plus $1.00 for postage & handling and we will include a subscription to our sensational UFO REVIEW newspaper, as well as a special meditation you can use in order to establish contact for yourself with these highly advanced alien beings – the space brothers – who are watching over Earth.

Brazilians Terrorized By Emboldened Bats

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Vampire bats are terrorizing rural communities near here, according to health officials.

In Tapirai; a country settlement 150 miles southwest of Sao Paulo, local health officials reported the bats have bitten 300 people during the last few weeks.

"These bats are the desmodus rotundus (vampire) type," Nildo da Cunda, head of the Regional Agriculture Division, said Wednesday. "They generally attack animals like cows and horses and drink their blood, but now they're going after people."

Da Cunha said the bats attack people because climatic conditions have led to an overpopulation of the bats and "their food supplies are short."

Most of the residents are poor farmworkers living in huts. At night the bats get in through holes in the walls and roofs and bite their sleeping victims. Many people have marks on their necks and faces caused by bat bites, according to reports. No deaths or cases of rabies were reported.

People in the area have started keeping watch at night and have tried to close the holes in their huts with grass and leaves, but authorities say the bats are getting bolder and even biting children during the day.

Da Cunha said he has assembled a team of men "to kill every bat near here. The bats are caught in fine mesh nets they can't see and then they are covered with poison and released. The bats lick each other and fight among themselves. That way one bat poisons 15 to 18 others."

In Tanzania, a curse is as easy to catch as a cold

By SANDY ROVNER
Washington Post

WASHINGTON — One thing Herbert Rappaport found out when he was in Tanzania is that you can catch a curse as easily as a cold. That's what Rappaport did, and besides, that's what his curse is — a cold.

People kind of snicker when Rappaport tells them about, you know, his curse. He knows when he got it (circa 1972) and where (Tanzania) and why (jealousy and envy, of course) and he'd really like to get back to East Africa and get it lifted.

Rappaport isn't laughing. Sniffling, yes, clearing the tickle in his throat, yes, shaking his stuffed head, sure, but not laughing.

Rappaport, a Ph.D. clinical psychologist, is associate professor of psychology at Temple University in Philadelphia. In the early '70s, he spent some time working with medicine men in East Africa, and almost every time he goes to talk about the experience — and mind you, he's given 30 or 40 presentations in all parts of the world — on the day of the talk he wakes up with a cold. Almost without exception.

When Rappaport went to Africa in 1971, medicine men were not part of his plan. His job was to combine a teaching mission at the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania with a project to set up a model for a 10-year mental health program for the Tanzanian Ministry of Health. His psychologist wife came along.

After he was there about a year, though, he began to hear colleagues occasionally kidding about going to a mganga, Swahili for medicine man or healer.

Above the herbalist is the mganga, who might be likened to a family doctor. He, as is the herbalist, is usually a member of a small village and generally has a relatively close personal relationship with his patients.

Then comes the diviner, a kind of super diagnostician who is brought in when herbalist and mganga are baffled, or "when witchcraft or action at a distance (as in curse) might be involved."

At the top are the witchfinders. "You might call them epidemiologists," says Rappaport. "They deal with 'epidemics.' Say there's a little war in an area, for example, and the witchfinder will come in and make a social diagnosis, root out the cause of a group of people suffering. And establish whether or not the village is cursed."

THE RITUALS, which can vary in form from village to village, but which often deal with the ravages of guilt or other "deviations from a person's own value system," are often so hypnotic that observer Rappaport himself on several occasions got so caught up in them that he forgot to record.

Through the rituals is imparted "a lot of wisdom, a lot of accumulated oral traditions that have built up, from how to handle marital problems, sexual difficulties, pregnancies, wanted or unwanted, the complex problems that occur in polygamous marriages . . . they have tremendous social skills," Rappaport says.

Rappaport really understands, because, in a way, that's why he is sniffling today. It was one of his earliest visits to a local Tanzanian mganga. While they were talking shop, the healer said something like, "Oh by the way, the mganga across the creek is really ticked off that you're spending so much time with me and he's cursed the lot of us."

So then, recalls Rappaport, to block the curse, "they passed around this awful black, murky stuff . . . not the kind of stuff I wanted to drink, so I kind of slipped it into the fire.

"I may regret it for a long time."

Rappaport coughs.

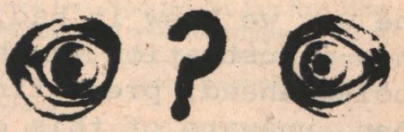
WHAT GOES BUMP IN THE NIGHT? by Richard Fishback

* If reincarnation is true, how can we have a constantly increasing world population?
* What is the life after death experience?
* What are psychic sources of information?
* What is Grace? Ghosts? Poltergiests?

And so on... and on... ad infinitum...



... Dear Richard: "... a quick way of rating an individual's psychic power is to have the person hold a psychic pendulum. The greater the power, the greater the swing ... Today I concentrated for a Notre Dame win over unbeaten Virginia. I know from the play-by-play action that N.D. would have lost without me. It isn't psychic power for a pendulum hardly moves in my grip. I would like to kear your comments." S. O.

Dear S.O. -- In experiments I have conducted, I have found that the pendulum to be a psychic crutch rather than an effective test for psi ability. Bio-feedback in conjunction with the pendulum would seem to indicate the more relaxed the subject, the LESS swing, and the MORE tense, the MORE swing. Also, talking with the person holding the pendulum, delivering a running commentary of expected results during the experiment, generally produces the results being suggested (power of suggestion). A further test using hypnosis, displayed exactly opposing results to the ones you have stated. Under hypnosis, most people were able to display a greater degree of psychic ability than in their normal states, yet were also able to hold the pendulum more steadily than they could in a normal (less psychic) state of consciousness. This brings us to the question of the game influence. There are several points to be considered.

First - from my earlier statements concerning the pendulum test, we may assume you have either more or less psi ability than you would have concluded from this test. If you have MORE ability, you could indeed have been responsible for the winning outcome of the game. Second - you would have to grant the possibility of other, more highly developed psychics in the world. It could well be that one or more of these were also concentrating on the same outcome as yourself, and that you may have had no influence at all. Third, and quite important I feel in ANY consideration of such events, you have to consider the possibility that the game could well have reached the same conclusion with no influence other than that on the playing field. Extraordinary upsets are quite possible, and just one such result would not be statistically suffecient to make any conclusion concerning the influence of psychic ability. Fourth - I will illustrate in this manner.

One day we watch a game on tv. The next day we watch a re-run of that game. On the second day we know, even before the game begins, who will be the winner.

If we then decide to use our psi abilities to make the game come out in the way we knew it had, we've really done nothing. Now, the purpose of this illustration is this: It is possible that, subconsciously, we have looled ahead, predicting the outcome of the game (psychically seeing it) then, unaware of this on a conscious level, decided to influence the game in the way we subconsciously know it will come about. We have then predicted the outcome of the game, rather than influenced it, regardless of what we thought of this from a conscious standpoint.

Fifth, we must look at the philosophy of the intent in influencing the outcome of the game. This is the attempt to use psi ability to effect the lives of others. Though you were trying to help one team to succeed, you were also, by it's nature, trying to make the other team fail. Whenever we use any psi abilities to adversly effect the lives of others, we are skirting the edges of the black arts ... usually without fully noticeing this negative coloration. This inadvertant tendency toward negative coloration and applications of psi abilities is the greatest deterrent to furthering such ability, too. If we had a well developed ability to af - fect the physical condition of another say, we might well strike out mentally, maiming or killing that pweson during a period of great anger or fear. The more subject we are to negative emotions OR to inept misuse of psi abilities, the less apt we are to develop such abilities. As we become a person more tending toward the right use of such abilities, these multiply; and on the other side of the coin, misuse will guarantee a diminishing ability.

WEATHER WOES

. . . Blizzard in Japan

Compiled from Times wires

Japan's worst blizzard since 1962 killed at least 33 people and dumped 11 feet of snow in rocky mountain provinces where 47 homes were destroyed or damaged, authorities said Thursday.

Traffic in the worst-affected areas was nearly paralyzed, but officials launched an all-out rescue operation as weathermen lifted winter storm warnings for the first time in a week.

Triggered by a massive cold front from Siberia, the blizzard began slashing extensive areas in northern Japan in the last days of December.

Among the dead were 13 people, including five mountain climbers, who were crushed by an avalanche that hit a small village in Niigata province, about 125 miles northwest of Tokyo Wednesday.

Most other fatalities were caused by falls as victims tried to shovel snows from the roofs of their houses, authorities said. National police said Thursday at least 47 houses were destroyed or damaged by the storm.

. . . Snow in Sicily, Tunisia

Snow blanketed Palermo and much of Sicily Thursday for the first time in 19 years in a wave of frigid weather that blocked mountain highway passes and isolated villages throughout Italy.

FUTURE DESTRUCTION

Snow reached a depth of one foot in the mountains throughout the Abruzzi region east and south of Rome and isolated about 100 villages in the area, police said.

In Tunisia, snow was reported for the first time since 1955 as unusually cold weather gripped parts of the North African country. Icy gusts of wind swept through the capital of Tunis, pushing temperatures almost down to freezing.

. . . as Antarctica 'sizzles'

Three British adventurers expect to complete their crossing of the frigid antarctic via the South Pole in a few days despite a most unexpected problem — warm weather, a spokesman said Thursday.

An official for the Transglobe Expedition said the three explorers had confronted above freezing temperatures. "It's the first time for a long, long time that they've experienced that," a spokesman said.

"It means they're making damp progress," he said. "The ice on the Ross ice shelf is mushy, their clothes are always damp, but their only problem is a bit of rust on the snowmobiles."

The antarctic crossing if the first leg of a three-year attempt to circle the world across both the North and South poles.

The three explorers — Sir Ranulph Fiennes, 36, Oliver Shepard, 36, and Charles Burton, 39 — set off from the American South Pole base on Dec. 23 for the hazardous 800-mile run to McMurdo Sound, on the opposite side of Antarctica from the coast where they landed 11 months ago.

Danger exists throughout all of April due to the transit of Mars which opposes Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto. Possibilities include air disasters, explosions and accidents of all kinds.

There will be a great flurry of activity relating to financial matters in May. This will also be an excellent month for romance. The last week of May and the first week of June could bring unexpected accidents.

BOOK REVIEWS
by Joan O'Connell

THE PARAPSYCHOLOGICAL IMPACT OF THE ACCIDENT AT THREE MILE ISLAND... by Larry Arnold.... Large format, detailed text, charts, photos. PRICE: $5.95.. PARASCIENCE INTERNATIONAL - 1025 Miller Lane, Harrisburg, PA 17110.....

Was Three Mile Island destined for doom? On March 28, 1979, global attention turned to the shocking drama at Three Mile Island as America's worst nuclear reactor accident unfolded. Not everyone was surprised, though! DREAMS, VISIONS, APPARITIONS, PARANORMAL NEWS BROADCASTS, presaged nuclear catastrophe. Metropolitan Edison, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and especially residents around TMI Unit 2 were all parapsychologically forewarned about the reactor's future fate... days, weeks, months, even YEARS before. No other singular large-scale calamity has generated so many paranormal precursors among the population immediately affected as the Accident at Three Mile Island. This is the FIRST through examination of what the Presidential Commission on Three Mile Island chose to overlook.

This book is an absolute jewel in the trashbin of other so-called 'new' books that the majority of publishers have dribbled out lately. NO rehash of other people's writings/findings, NO strung together clippings with a 'host' 'name' editing it, but real, LIVE, genuine, honest to God research! A rare item, indeed.

It is exciting to find that there are writers out there who actually DO research, the long hours of interviewing, sifting, seeking, searching. The personal one on one touch. This book IS a gem! Well written, well illustrated --- and best of all --- AFFORDABLE. How many times lately have YOU looked at the overblown prices on the new books and said to yourself "I can live without it"? And mainly what you were looking at were re-prints of the re-prints of the re-runs! Not so with Larry Arnold's book. Fresh, clear investigative journalism. The event was REAL, the people were REAL, and the book shows me that good research is not dead, but is alive and well in Harrisburg. I sincerely hope that Mr. Arnold NEVER makes it 'big' - because we are then in danger of him just becoming another 'Host' 'name' stringing together again another mish - mash of other people's opinions. Let him stay just Larry Arnold ------- Researcher, Investigator, and writer.

Can YOU cope with The COMING CATACLYSM?

Prophets and scientists alike agree that our planet is destined for cataclysmic changes...now, new evidence indicates the change from the Piscean to the Aquarian Age will be far more cataclysmic than expected--and hastened by the power-madness and greed of Man's own actions.

This frightening and hopeful book tells why the years 1979-2000 are the critical ones in the social, economic, political and geological changes that herald the end of this cosmic cycle as predicted by the Bible, Cayce, and many others...changes necessary for clearing away the degeneracy and evil pervading our planet and for opening the way to Man's higher evolution.

These changes are ALREADY underway--the signs are all around us, in the Dow-Jones averages, in UFO's, in the observations of scientists and mystics. Read this startling book... learn to recognize the traps of fear and negativism find out what YOU can do to attune yourself with forthcoming positive changes and protect your loved ones

Rushed into print as result of new evidence that indicates terminal phase already underway

This 64-page bound & illustrated manuscript contains correlation of seven reports with valuable explanatory text. NOT CURRENTLY AVAILABLE FROM BOOKSTORES. $2.95 postpaid (no COD's or credit cards at this price, please!)
