Letters to the Editor

Dear Joan: I am resubscribing, enclosed is a personal check. Love your mag! I am a handicapped shut-in and I would love to hear from any of your subscribers who believe in the relationships of UFOS to the Bible and other books, plus, the religions of the world. I have lots of time to read and study, but have no opportunity to meet people. I am 58 and an Aquarian. Would you please do this for me? God Bless you and all... Mrs Jean Agust, 21 North Sandune Court, Pittsburg, PA 15239

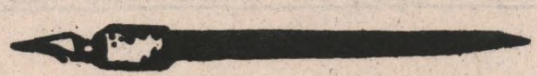

Dear Joan: ... by the way, I heard on radio this morning that your postal rates for 1st class mail were going up to 20¢. I think you are doing the right thing in cutting a few pages from NAJ to save on raising subscription prices. But, how would you like to live in Canada now with the following probably taking place starting Jan.1,'82...First class mail in Canada - from 17¢ to 30¢ for 1 once... to the U.S. - from 17¢ to 35¢ for 1 once. Printed matter - from 15¢ for 2 onces to 30¢ for same weight. Isn't that enough to make an editor or a publisher go out of his/her mind?... Gene Duplantier, SS&S Publications, Willowdale, ONT. Canada

Dear Pat and Joan O'Connell: Well pleased with your New Atlantean Journal and well pleased with the positioning of my ad.. many thanks. Levada Publications, Fort Jones, CA.

Dear New Atlanteans: I have really enjoyed your seasonal reports on your wide variety of subjects. I am sending for renewal for 3 years simply because I've enjoyed your paper so much. Thank you from a loyal fan, Mrs. Anna Massey.

New Atlanteans: I sent my check for renewal last month and received the letter back stamped no such address or moved, no forwarding address, I couldn't tell which. THEN I received my Fall '81 issue yesterday! I guess the Post Office is more confused then ever. Anyway, I'm sending another check today. Enjoy your magazine so much and hope you don't quit but I know 'things' are bad. Agnes M. McFee, Lyons, OR.

* Confused, YES - * That 'bad' - NO!

Dear Friend Patrick: On June 4, 1931, we sent you a check for $7.00, covering our classified ad in the Fall issue, which we now have. But the ad did not appear, and our bookeeper has said that you never cashed the check. Apparently, you never received either the ad or the check, and we will now have to start all over again. We are enclosing another check for the same sum, and the ad in question... Please cancel the original check should it arrive within the next year or so. HA! Keep up the good work, Cordially, H.John Zitko, D.L, President, World University Roundtable, Tucson, AZ.

* HA! more confused than before! Have you considered gremlins?

Dear Patrick and Joan: Enclosed is my COSMIC INFLUENCES column for Spring-'82. I have some other articles I will be sending soon... Also, If I may pat myself on the back, the FALL '31 column mentions an escalation in the middle east conflict, and as you know this column was written and sent in long before Sadat was killed. Sorry you had to reduce the number of the pages of the Journal, but it is still one of the most interesting maga - zines I have ever seen! Sincerely, Frank Magnus, NY NY...

* Consider yourself patted on the back! Good work! PS, sure am glad you forsee a SPRING 1932 period! We have had many good and favorable comments on your Astrology column.....

Dear Joan: I wonder if you will place the following brief ad... I want to swap true accounts of sentient behaviour in animals; also, can anyone inform me of a Canadian channel of the information and teachings of the Light Forces... I also wonder how many OTHER points in North America were treated to the brilliant Northern Lights display that was mostly red as blood in clear water. I think that points to the NW and to the SE at best could have, because there was a perfectly straight band of it stretching from the NW horizon to almost entirely overhead, where there was a brilliant display changing slowly sometimes like a bird stretching its wings down at the same time. Thence from that point there was another red band about ten degrees wide also, extending perfectly straight, in a slightly more easterly direction about five degrees out of alignment with the one to the NW. There was reportedly also a terrific white northern light display last night, October 14, Very Unusual to see northern lights more than dimly and vaguely in this central interior of British Columbia .... I wonder if it is not an ominous sign, as I can recall the terrific display three days before the outbreak of the Second World War, and according to a magazine article, a similar sign occured three days before the commencement of WW1. Dave Galvin, BX 92-Six Mile-RR 1 - Prince George...

Greetings from the 'Heart-of-Dixie': As always, the Journal is one of the many publications I read from cover to cover. The Journal is the only one that consistently presents new and interesting facts. In Particular, I must comment on the editorial "The Cycles of Life" in the last issue - which I received today. You have an excellent way of gently bringing one back to reality, forcing one to view things in the proper perspective... All articles are interesting, but my favorite in the EDITORIAL. Next in importance, is, believe it or not, the little square which makes a statement about mistakes. Each time I notice a mistake, I must smile. Having spent a few years as a Tech Editor, I appreciate the humor. This, too, helps keep things in perspective. (Notice a few of my own, too.)..... Glad to see the ad on page 38 for THE EXCALIBUR BRIEFING by my friend Tom Bearden. Think you wil find the answer to the HUMMMM problem in England you had on page 19... Jay H. Halloran, Huntsville, AL

MAN.....MIND.....REALITY.....

Reality like beauty, is in the eye of the beholder! One Man's reality is another Man's illusion. Man exists in a seeing,feeling,smelling,touching world. It 'feels' - therefore - it IS. Right? ..... Wrong!

Man also exists in an UNfeelable,UNseeable,UNsmellable, UNtouchable world. It 'doesn't feel' - therefore - it ISN'T. RIGHT? Wrong! Again.....! What, then, is the 'real' world? It is ALL the real world. What is different is HOW you, as an individual, look at it.

You don't SEE gravity. You don't SEE air currents. You don't SEE electricity. But - you certainly FEEL the effects of them all! You don't SEE love, you 'feel' it. You don't SEE sorrow, you 'sense' it. The effects of an INVISIBLE, non-touchable, non-feelable, non-seeable Reality..... You know reality when it affects your personal world.

You as a Human can only see so far, hear so much, mainly just because you are just that ... A Human-Being. And - Human-type beings have physical limitations. Yet Human-type Beings co-exist with other type of beings! And - at the same Time! Take a walk along the seashore, the warm, sandy beach. You are walking right along side of another Dimension, a fish-being can see you, sense you, swim alongside of you - but - the fish can not LIVE on your level of being anymore than YOU can LIVE and EXIST in the sea! Yet you both can be aware of each other - in the same Space/Time/Being!

Now - if you have the proper equipment, a diving suit, perhaps, you, too can exist and BE with the fish! You can enter another dimension! But - only for a limited amount of time. It is not natural for you to be there. Nor is it natural for the fish to be on your level of life. Both of you are living entities and both of you have your own worlds. And - both of you can co-exist on each others' plane - but only in a limited way. NOW YOU KNOW WHAT UFOs ARE! Simply vehicles in which to exist as 'you' proceed from one level of existence to another! The vehicle-type of UFO is utilized by OTHER 'beings' who want to go from Point A to Point B! What is so hard to understand about that? But - what IS hard to understand is that there are OTHER entities in these Invisible Realms that surround us!

AND - it is NORMAL for these 'OTHERS' to be there! It is 'HOME' to them, just as this world or 'Dimension' is 'HOME' to us, the 'Human'. If we want to fly - as a bird - we build an airplane. If we want to swim - as a fish- we build a submarine. But, it is not 'normal' for us to do either thing UN- less we prepare a special vehicle to do special things.

There are many LEVELS of LIFE in these other dimensions. Each LEVEL has it's own Vibrational Rate. And - operating on the Universal Law of like attracts like - each type of 'being' 'stays' within this frequency of their own 'HOME' There are also other Being-Types who can travel through each and every level, with or without a special vehicle. Sounds complicated? Not really! Just re- member --- to each his own!

Are there "Positive Beings" or "Negative Beings" in these realms? Yes - and - no! One man's "Positive Being" can be another man's "Negative Being! And- WHO is to say just WHICH one is which? If you see an ant crawling across your table, you would probably just reach out and crunch it, without even really thinking what it was you were doing. It matters that little to you. But - that huge hand coming down and snuffing out it's life - means one hell of a lot to that ant! So- WHO'S reality? Think about it! To the ant - his life-being was not only threatened, but eliminated, without the slightest qualm... Is this scene NEGATIVE or POSITIVE? It all depends on whether you are the Ant or yourself! This is the Law of Reality in action...

Do we, as humans, sacrifice animals in labs, to benefit the medical field? Yes. Again, one person's Positive' is another's Negative. This is the REAL reason that REALITY is always in the eye of the beholder!

Yes, the 'UFO' is real! But - in what sense? It is as your senses tell you. And - your senses reflect your intelligence in these matters of life! To a stone-age native in PaPua a cargo plane is a God! Only because he does not understand the REALITY of the phenomenon he is seeing.

The absolute truth is: ALL IS MIND. What you feel, think, sense, in your mind, is exactly what you are going to see! As you THINK, so shall you see... The more knowledge you have in your mind - the more of the REALITY of the world about you. YOU know what a submarine is - does the stone-ager? His 'truth' is not yours, but both of you are not lying!

Do you want to progress into the Future? Do you wish to be a New-Ager OR a Stone-ager? Totally up to you. I can supply you with KNOWLEDGE, YOU must supply your own reality.

SAUCER SCOOP! UFO MINI-NEWS! Compiled from our clipping service. All reports on the next three pages are filed in full in the office.....
INTERNATIONAL NEWS!

SAUCERS BY SIGVALD!

REALLY strange! How many times have you heard the name "ADAMSKI" in relation to UFOs? Thousands of times, since the early 1950's. The 'contactee's contactee'! His very famous contact in the desert with the Venusians made world-wide news -- for many years. NOW, another "ADAMSKI" is making the UFO news: Zygmunt Adamski, who was found DEAD atop a pile of coal in a coalyard at the Yorkshire town of Todmorden, 50 kilometers from his home near Leeds. His watch and his wallet were missing, but he had money in his pocket, His scalp and neck and the back of his head had been burned by a corrosive substance that forensic experts were unable to identify. By the way, this coalpile was unaccessable EXCEPT from above, due to it's height. The space connection came when one of two policemen called to the scene in the coalyard told of seeing a flying-saucer-like object only hours before. The Coroner adjourned an inquest three times on Mr. Adamski, before finally recording an "open" verdict. Mr. Turnbull (Coroner) said: " It is quite the most mysterious death I have investigated in 12 years as a coroner."..."However, I do admit that the failure of the forensic scientists to identify the corrosive substance which caused Mr. Adamski's burns could lend some weight to the UFO theory..." * SAUCERS BY THE HUNDREDS! WHERE? Where else! ENGLAND! Three early morning fishermen reported sighting a CONVOY (!) of "more than 100" UFOS over Leicester..... "We looked up and saw first one, then a stream of triangles, with lights on the side. They were not planes, as we saw a jet passing beneath them." Dated: June 13,'81. AND - In Japan! A "fleet" of 15 cigar-shaped UFOS, some with flashing red lights, were sighted by at least 50 persons..... Dated: Aug.,31, '81. According to the reports, they flew across the sky from NE to SW for about an hour from 6 pm...."...They appeared one after the other, every two minutes," * AND - In China! SOMETHING (?) was flying on July 24th, '81. Described as a "bright. spinning spiral -- that was seen between 10:30 and 11:30 pm, in places as far apart as Peking in the NE to Xinjiang province in the far west." It was seen in 13 provinces. One peasant said it resembled a dragon coiling in the sky... AND In France, in 1978, a similar account of many UFOS, was told..... In the sky of Hautes-Pyreness, from 9 to 10 July , and for more than 3 hours, 20 UFOS did a "veritable little ballet" over Bearn province... MULTIPLES of UFOS mean MULTIPLES of questions, such as WHY? or WHO?????

SAUCER SCOOP MINI-NEWS!
MONSTERS! STRANGELINGS!
AND - 'BEASTIES'!

A 'Nessie'? OK! (But in Florida?) A gentleman, John Haney, says he saw a sea serpent! Where? About two and a half miles out in the Gulf of Mexico out from Clearwater Pass! Just before sundown, on Oct. 25, '81. He described 'it' as between 10 and 20 feet long, about five to six feet around, and with "spines"! Eel-shaped. At about this same time, and on the same date, a report was received of a person seeing a 'dark blue ray of light' just about sundown time, AND, it was radiating outward from the sunset area itself. But, it was a definite 'beam' that was darker blue in color than the blue sky of the area surrounding it! Do "Nessies' and BLUE BEAMS go together? * Wallowa Lake, OR., residents, Jan and John Bryant said they say the legendary "Monter' of the Lake in July, '81! They saw a "black form about twenty feet long, they said, surfacing, which glided down the lake, turned and came back closer, trailing the wake behind. Mrs. Bryant said they could not see either a head or tail, but that it had the appearance of a serpent rather than a fish... * AND - Speaking of 'SNAKES' - a 14 foot python named Monty tried to swallow it's owners head! Of course, the owner was only trying to feet it a live rabbit --- but --- suddenly the snake opened it's jaw's wider, and tried for a tastier tidbit! The owner was rushed to the hospital and treated for shock! PLUS - three snake teeth were removed from the owner's forehead. "This should be a warning to people who do have snakes," the owner said! ..... *ANYBODY WANT A FROG? People who live in Narplion, in southern Greece, woke up one morning recently to find it raining thousands of little green frogs. (better than little green men!) - Scientists believe the frogs, weighing no more than a few ounces each, were sucked up from north African marshes as a whirlwind passed over them, then a fast air stream carried them 500 or 600 miles over the sea to Greece and there the frogs came to earth again... They have it all figured out! Or - do they??????

HE DREAMED ABOUT UFOS - AND NOW HE HEALS

Francisco Ramon Jimenez says he is an extraterrestrial. He is fourteen years old, and three years ago he found out that he possesses enough energy to cure all diseases. Since then, patients gather at the door of his house, at Plaza de San Roque, # 22, in Valencia. Paquito, as relatives and neighbors call him, has just graduated from grade school. Three courses at once, under a private teacher who comes to his house every morning. Before, he could barely go to school. A malady from birth put him in a wheelchair until the age of nine, and still makes him limp with his left leg..."because they crippled me coming out, with the forceps." At the age of 11, two operations and a science-fiction dream have changed his life.

"I dreamed about extraterrestrials. I went to bed as usual, and began to dream about an open grassy field, where I was walking. There was a tree in front of me, with a big projecting root. I tripped on the tree. I began to spin, and saw how the Earth was moving away, and two very bright saucers that were coming toward me. A man got out of one of them who showed me a piece of paper and told me that he put there what I (or 'he') had to do for the good of humanity." Francisco does not want to say what he put on the paper. There are other things he doesn't want to reveal either. He says that the extraterrestrials, whom he visits every night, forcig him to tell. "I saw that man, who was normal, tall, and pleasant, every night when I go in the ships. When I sleep, my body remains on the earth and I go the the planet (Spanish for Ganymede)... There they have explained to me how to cure people, they have given me the energy... ...

Nevertheless, he has not been able to cure himself, and his limp is forever. "They operated on me twice at the Medical Facility, and were surprised that I got so much better. But, I cannot even cure myself of a cold. All the energy I have I must use for others." .....

THE MONKA RETREAT

Electronic Alchemy is a new holistic spiritual science which brings us to the threshold of a quantum upshift in human understanding. The goal of this new science is to open, balance and energize the seven chakras of the physical body and also tune the subtler light bodies, through the harmonized use of sound, light, color, fragrance and sacred symbology. Once these centers are activated and in tune with each other, there occurs a pronounced upstep of electral-chemical activity within the body, which in turn intensifies the auric field. This process may be likened to a radio receiver. If you are running 100 watts through your radio receiver you will have access to only the strongest of radio signals. On the other hand, if you are running 10,000 watts of power through your receiver there will be access to many more, and subtler signals. This alchemical process, in turn, is the key to the link-up of the Brotherhood of man with the Brotherhood of Light which gives love and insight to the ever-evolving soul.

A new type of space is now being proposed for the utilization of this powerful awareness. Master architect John Maschino working in league with Celestial Rainbow Light Co. has drawn up architectural plans for this new Light Center, or Healing Temple, as we like to think of it, (Please refer to diagrams on center page). The center dome of this structure holds 270 persons fully reclined in chairs somewhat like those NASA designed for the astronauts, with room for up to 50 persons in wheelchairs. The inside of this "Initatory Theater" will house a new type of Light technology which will transport the audience into new dimensions of consciousness, health and illumination.

The Great Cathedrals of Europe; and their origins are reputed to go back to the times of Atlantis and Lemuria. Some of these geometries are: The circle within a circle, the 51 angle of crystals and the great pyramid, the six and twelve pointed stars of David, the golden rectangle, the sacred spiral, the 440 cycle, and many more. Just being in this space will bring greater balance and equilibrium to the individual. The architect John Maschino refers to this building as "Frozen Music" as it has been designed to emulate the music of the spheres and the principles of celestial harmonics.

Featured at this center will be the Omegatron Universal Light Projector which creates ever-unfolding mandalas in brilliant colors such that the whole audience will be suspended in sound, light, color, fragrance, and archetypical symbology. There will further be lazers, 35mm film, animation, video effects and a special new device called the crystal light bath that projects brilliant crystal patterns on the whole inside of the dome such that the entire audience is immersed in shimmering crystal patterns. A new type of ambiphonic sound system will allow holographic sound duplication through advanced computer technology so that sound can be made to emanate from any point in space.

..All of the world's religions are seen as being part of a beautiful and balanced mandala, the whole of which is respresentative of the spiritual awareness on this planet. At the core center of all the world's religions lies the concept of the ever-unfolding consciousness of the individual towards union and harmony with God, Allah, The Great Spirit, Cosmic mind, Tao, The Force, or whatever one wishes to call that Supreme consciousness which permeates the universe. This will be the focus of this new spiritual science; the individual's personal relationship to The Infinate.

Many of the finest visionary artists and technicians on this planet will help create this new transformative artform including Gilbert Williams, Aoliah, Brian McGovern, Iasos, Don Davis, Geoffrey Chandler, Don Robertson, and many more.

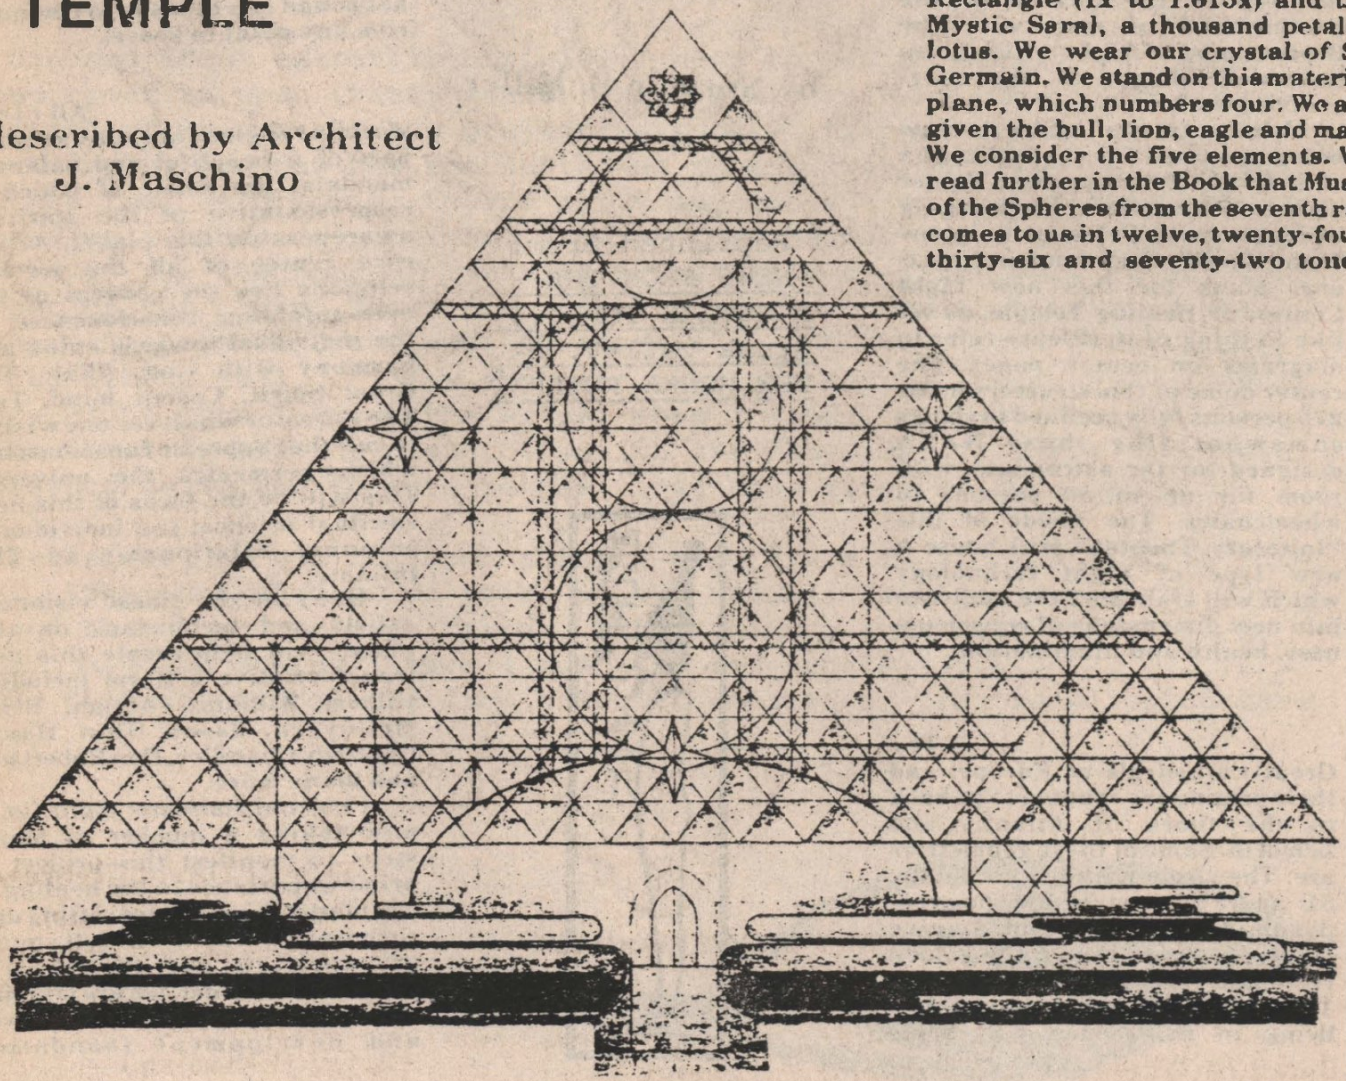

Celestial Rainbow Light Co. is now taking a number of major steps to manifest this project of prime importance to the healing of our planet. First we are setting up a corporation which will sell shares of stock to get the project underway. Second, we are starting a non-profit, tax exempt research and development foundation

More information about this project can be received by writing to the Celestial Rainbow Light Co., P.O. Box 607, Forestville, California, 95434 or telephoning Norman Miller, Director, or Mary Ellen Bickford, Associate Director, (707) 887-7266.

THE CRYSTAL HEALING TEMPLE

As described by Architect J. Maschino

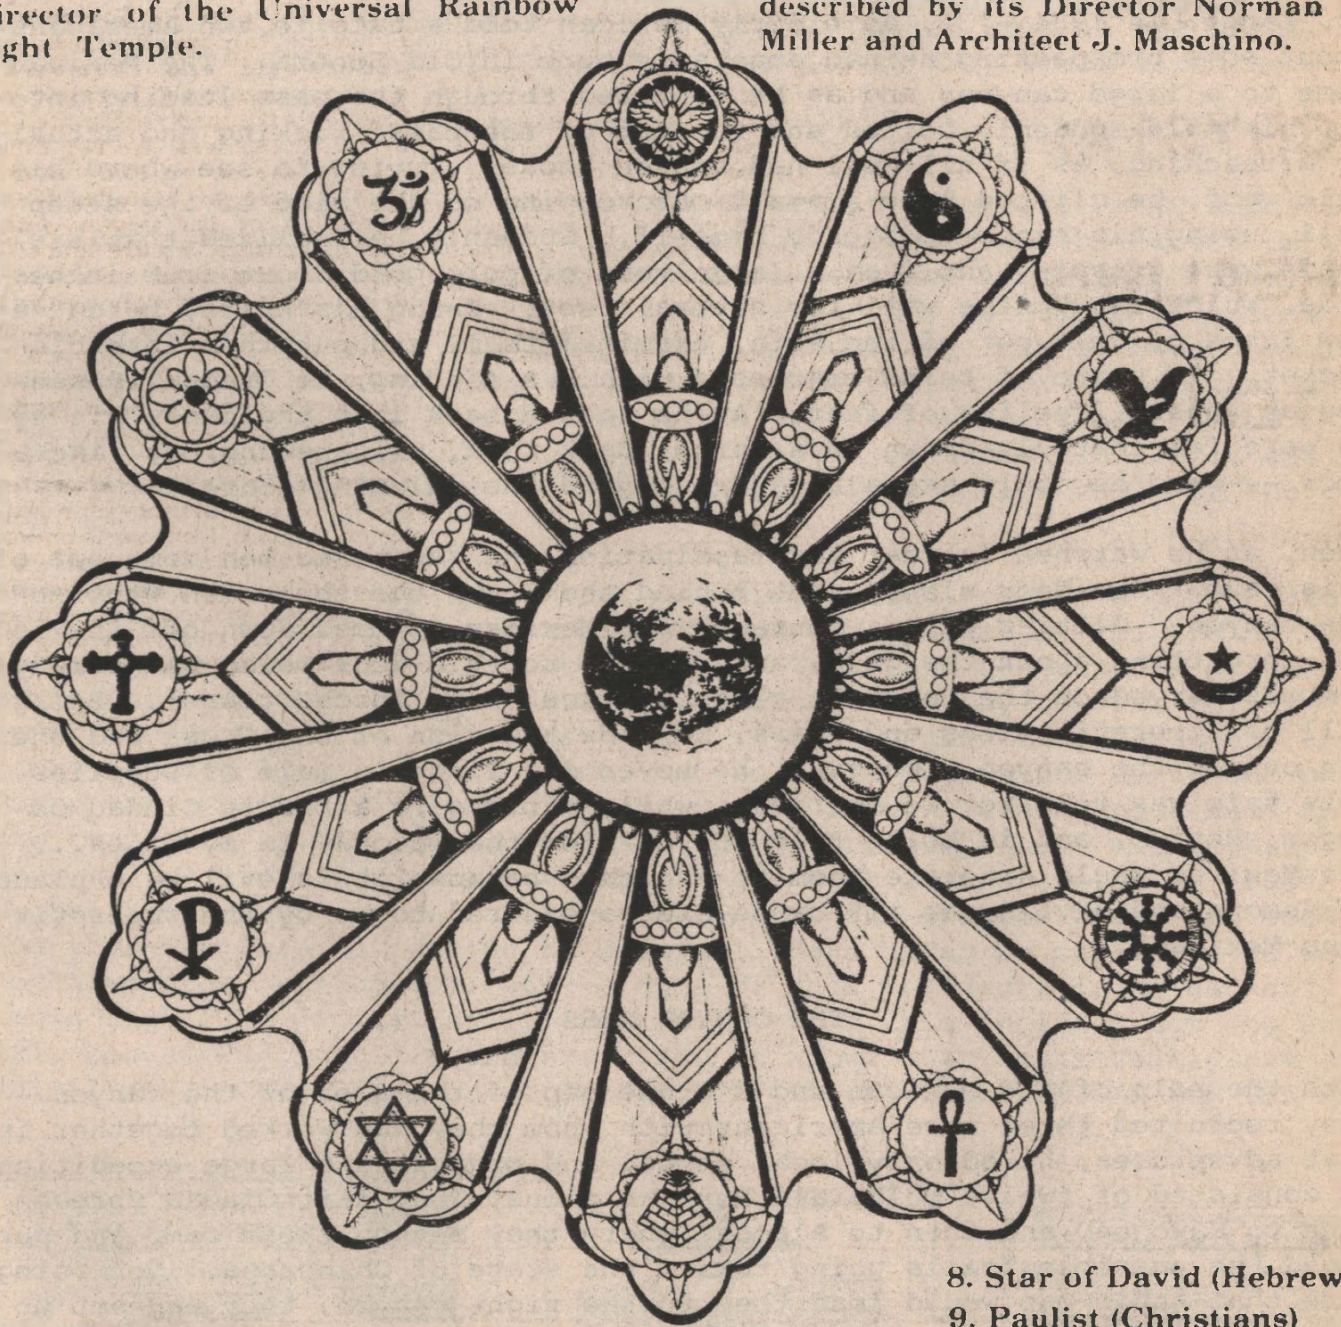

The Celestial Rainbow Center of Light Sound and Color, a New Age healing environment, is a crystal pyramid floating over a cloud covered Tonka in the Sea of Crystal. This work is dedicated to Enoch, Heru-Ur, Tenuti, and six we choose anonimity, and to Maya, the illusionist. The Keys of Enoch challenge us to unlock Mysteries of the Great Pyramid and related clestial geometries and mathematics. The keys give us the following clues: (from the great pyramid) angle of slope is 51° 51' 14.3"; altitude to base equals one to ; base and elsewhere is 365.242 Hebrew sacred cubits; add two base diagonals for 25,827.5; (this number occurs elsewhere). Other clues: Precession of the Equinoxes is 25,827.5 years. Our solar year is 365.242 days; there are twelve earth geomagnetic energy spokes, there are twelve radiations of Light into the flesh; there are twelve wandering tribes of Israel; we are given spiral radiations of Light. Lights of charged crystal are generated from placement of crystals as two Mogan Davids from the vision of Ezekial, who saw a wheel within a wheel, our Mansion faces east to the outer courtyard, of the River of Crystal; the Inner Courtyard is the Holy Feast. Ascend into Eternal Light. Bathe in the Golden Light. Cross the Rainbow Bridge over the underworld and chambers of waters beneath the Pyramid, over lost souls trapped within the River of Consciousness. We are further told of the seven fold nature of man's cycle of change. We are reminded of the seven chakras energy centers. We are told of Tri-pyramid command vehicles; the desent of the Dove giving the Eye of Horus; ten poles on initiation level; ten families; Kamala, the lotus girl. We think of the Golden Rectangle (1x to 1.615x) and the Mystic Sarai, a thousand petaled lotus. We wear our crystal of St. Germain. We stand on this material plane, which numbers four. We are given the bull, lion, eagle and man. We consider the five elements. We read further in the Book that Music of the Spheres from the seventh ray comes to us in twelve, twenty-four, thirty-six and seventy-two tones.

THE HIDDEN CITY OF CHIHUATLAN
by Charles A. Marcoux
Part Two

... Later, in 1934 -'35, an elderly Mexican told a tale to two Americans about some prospecting he had done somewhere in Old Sonora. The Mexican came to a large canyon, and as he ventured through the pass leading into it, his mule suddenly bolted and ran out of the pass, kicking and actually screaching, as if all hell had broken loose. Trying to see where his mule went, he climbed onto a small outcropping on the side of the steep wall, using his hands to steady himself. Suddenly he realized that his hands were grasping ahold of a large vein of pure gold about four inches wide, which ran up the wall for several feet. Using his knife, he cut a few lumps of gold out of the vein, examined them, and put them into his pocket. In spite of being engrossed with his finding, he gradually sensed an unusual feeling of fear. As he looked back into the pass, his eyes were fascinatedly drawn to a large, dark rock, which swung out like a door --- and he could see a big cave beyond the swinging door!

Then, as he watched in fear and fascination, he saw three men come out of this cave. The door slowly shut behind them, and the three men went up the canyon. Getting up his courage, the Mexican climbed down off the ledge, forgetting about the gold, and went up to this door which had strange symbols carved on the volcanic glass surface (like Apache tears). Being full of superstitutions and fears, he made the sign of the Cross and then ran out of the canyon. However, he never did find his mule or supplies. This tale was told to two Americans while sitting in a bar in Ciudad Obregon, Mexico, and is being told to you from the records in my files.... The Mexican would not take them to the cave because it is evil -- a place of demons and devils, as all caves are considered to be by the superstitious Mexicans.

THE CANYON PASS

With the help of the Mexican and a crude map of the area of the canyon - they recruited three more Americans with whom they had worked together in past adventures, hired only local peons, and organized a large expedition. It consisted of twelve mules and Mexican peons. They left Ciudad Obregon, went to Navojoa, and then to Alamos, where they set up their camp and surveyed the possible trails going toward the state of Chihuahua. Not being sure that their map would lead them to the right canyon, they had set up camp on the fourth day near large mountains.

On the sixth day, they found a little used trail, but there were signs showing that someone had recently been on this trail. It went up into a canyon with high walls and it showed that water did flow on this trail. Early in the morning they set out on their expedition by going through the pass and into the canyon. Everything seemed to go without incident until after they had just entered, one of the mules seemed to lose its footing and fell off the trail into a small ravine. A 15 year old Mexican boy owned the mule and had it for a pet. He, along with the American, went down to see if the animal was injured and to get it back on the trail. They told the rest to continue on ahead and that they would catch up...

THE ATTACK

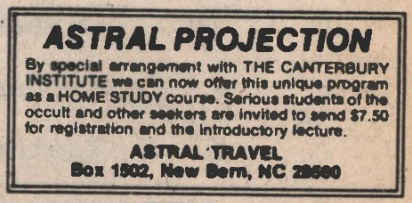

As they were attempting to get the mule back on the trail, they suddenly stiffened as they head a terrific commotion coming from the others on the trail. As they looked up, they had sudden feelings of evil and fear, and they saw, far off on the tall walls of the canyon, some form of animal - like men that seemed to FLOAT or GLIDE, without any form of wings, coming towards the explorers. They had some kind of "stick" or "wand" that shot beams of light against the men and animals, when these strange animal--men seemed to fly to and fro during their attack! In a few minutes it was all over and the attackers seemed to disappear into the high walls of the canyon.

The American tried tocalm the boy, and they waited for a few hours before they decided to leave, by following the ravine instead of the trail. The American's curiosity was greater than his fear, and he just had to know if anyone had survived this disaster. He told the boy to wait for him about twenty minutes, and if he didn't return by that time, he sould then leave and not look back. The American followed the ravine up to the point where the attack had occurred. Making sure it was safe he proceeded up the trail and he saw men and animals which were completely cut in half... Some bodies had disappeared and their guns were left unoperable. Fear became too great, and he ran back to the boy and grabbed water and food and then they made a beeline to Navojoa. Years later he said that he would not have gone back to see, at the time of this incident, if he had only known that such demons really existed. Before this incident not any animal, man or God, could scare him. Now he knows that there really are evil animal-men in the Underworld! IN OUR NEXT ISSUE: THE STRUGGLE FOR THE WORLD

"Horned or 'Asiatic' bow." The II.Bow becomes the snake which the 32.Eagle carries away when he becomes the 31.Flying bird. Now we know where the flag of Mexico came from. Birds emblemize inspirations.

."In this sign etc., etc." _____or embossed shield. The planets and other heavenly bodies progress from one shield to the next as they move in their varied orbits across the sky. The bosses on the 12.Shield form the pillars of the 24.Pagoda. At cardinal point hours, the planets really 38.Blossom!

13

"This looks like a knobbed club, etc." The human psyche gets pounded by the 23.Mallet as the moon waxes but the pounding gets compounded with the 13.Knobbed club in the fourth chakraquarter. The knobs and handle denote mathematical totals.

14

"The flat tops of the two etc." _____or manacles. At chakrawing hours there is an added flux of moon-influences. In the late afternoon, the human body is manacled by fatigue.

15

"Pickaxe." Bedtime decisions are serious. Many things "get the axe." The Minoan Double Axe cult arose from a barbarized interpretation of the axe on the Phaestos Disk.

"Apparently a knife with curved back." ____ or a leathercutters' knife, used on the 27.Hide-animal-nature of man that always needs to become more refined. We are halfway renewed at this hour and halfway to a new dawn start. The fatigues and negations of past hours are now literally cut off.

17  "Perhaps an instrument for cutting leather etc." Yes, we consciously cut out patterns for ourselves on the 27.Hide-area-of-life all the time in our waking hours.

18  "A carpenter's angle." The ashen light of the waning moon balances us and squares us away until late afternoon fatigue sets in.

19  "This resembles a kind of plane." Human consciousness is slowly shaved away in the last eighth-section of the chakra. In other words, we go to sleep at night.*

20  "Handled vase." The very symbol of Aquarius whose positive flow starts at dawn and ends at noon! Note the placement of the marked 20.Pitcher and the marked 45.Water.

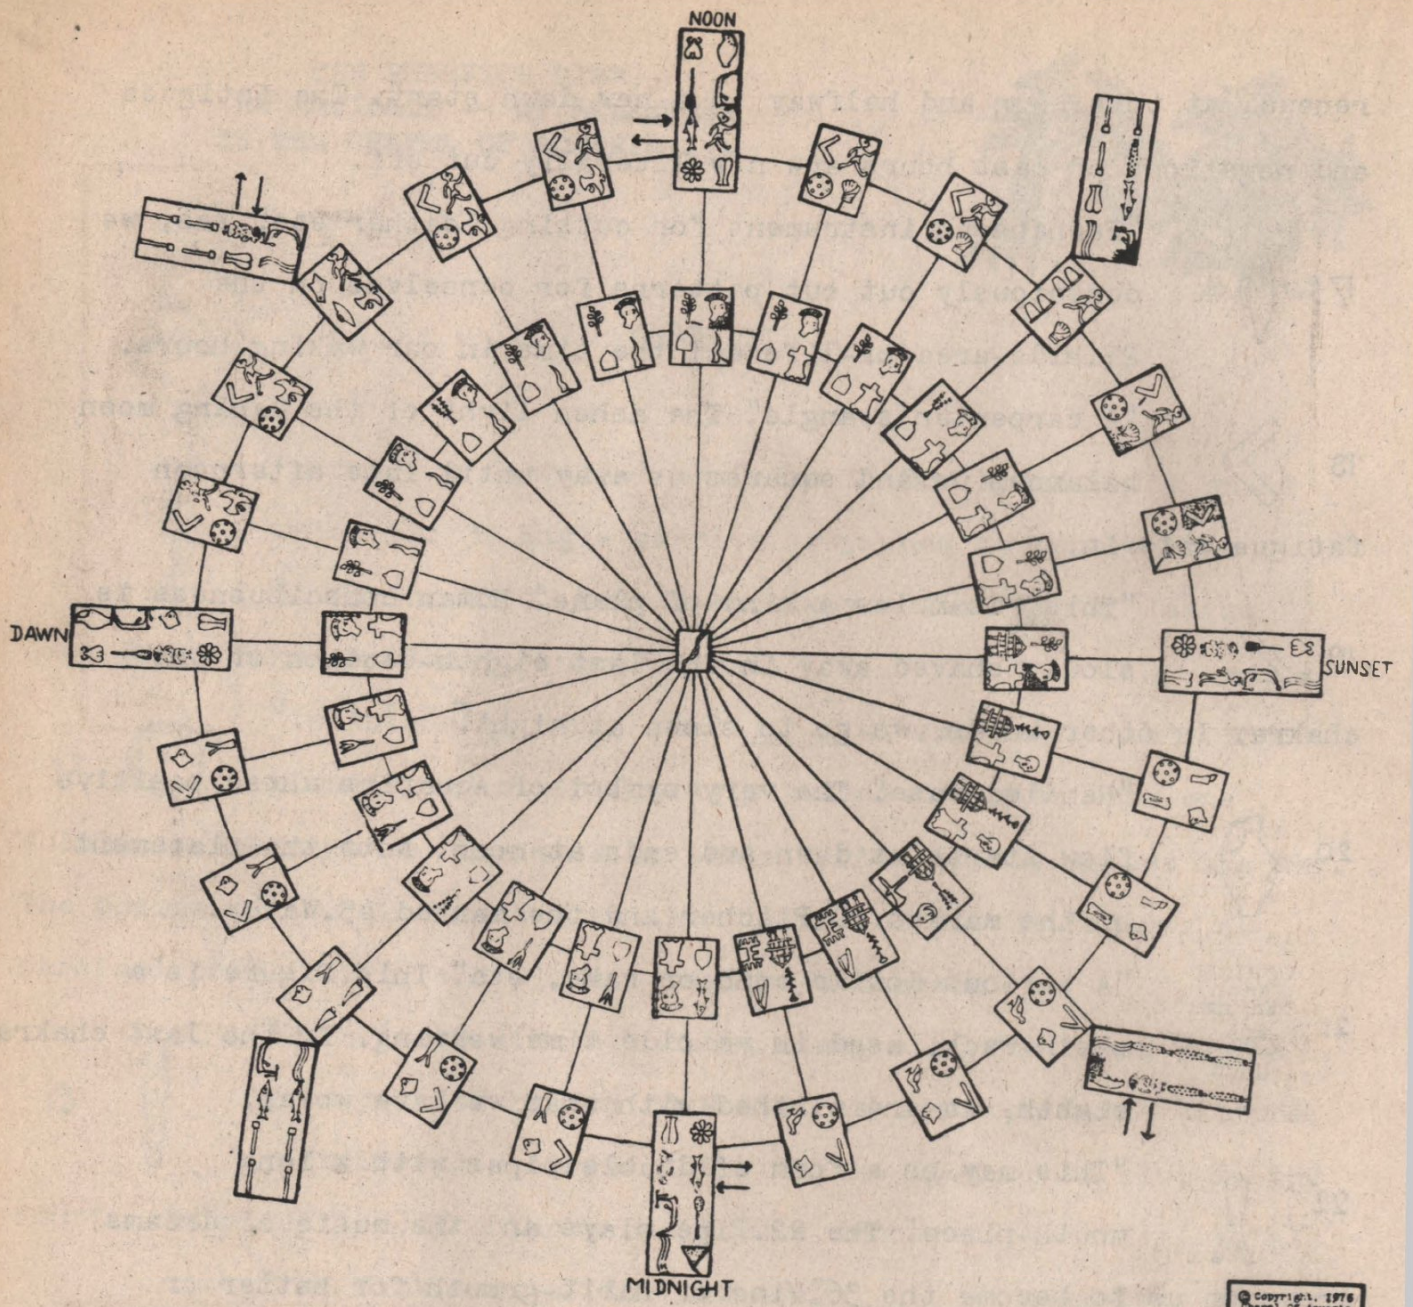

21  "A curious double comb or rake, etc." This figure is a skein-rack, used in ye olde time weaving. In the last chakra-eighth, we are clothed with what we have woven.

22  "This may be a form of double pipes with a long mouth-piece." The 22.Pipe plays and the music of dreams grows on us to become the 36.Vine of habit-growth for better or worse. Do not ignore your dreams.

23  "Possibly a square-headed mallet." As the moon fills out, astrological influences wax more intense and the 23.Mallet gradually replaces the 18.Carpenter's angle.

24  "Pagoda-like building." The Pagoda is really a mathematical artifical-house of judgment. All the astrological configurations pile up in the last chakraquarter. Evening-time is judgment-time.

BIGFOOT'S PORTAL!
by VIRGINIA LOUISE
PART 2.....

After a week of heavy storms had eased up, I sought out my Indian escort. Unlike before, he was neither friendly nor talkative. Briefly I was then told: "My people are complaining, our Tribal Spokesman is very displeased. You will not be welcome to return, with or without your friends --- and trespassers risk being shot." SO, I backed down for awhile - but I was not 'out'. For the following three months I conjectured, studied, plotted, and finanly contrived a return trip - another way. My escort had obtained permission from a certain well-known Indian to drive a friend up the mountain just to take pictures, to stay on the road and not to wander around the reservation.

From long scrutiny of my well-pinned map, I felt certain that the road did loop-circle the cave area, and that it must be close to the road where it crossed a treacherous swamp before climbing that straight-up hill. A sudden hunch compelled me to request that we reverse our direction and go to the opposite way, thus go down that hill! Fine! A steep turn was overcome and we started down. At THAT exact place we were blocked - but GOOD - by a heavy pick-up in the road next to a parked bulldozer. In front stood five Indians - shoulder to shoulder, spanning the road. WITH THEIR BACKS TOWARD US.

"Looks like we've got trouble," my escort said, very quietly. Quickly he stepped from his truck and called a cheerful greeting while approaching the men. As we had not been stopped when we entered, this blocking very definitely was not accidental. They must have had CB contact from below. But - the Captain of the Firefighters for the Forest Service is treated with respect by everyone. He was recognized personally. Two of the men approached me. "You seen Bigfoot this morning?" They knew who I was! "No, and I came up here just to shake hands with him." That brought welcome laughter, then a statement, "I have seen him. He comes up from the canyon below the Flat you just passed. He doesn't come out very often." This confirmed what my first Indian guide had told me.

The "sticky" situation had smoothed out, but not to the extent of the obstructions being removed. My friend was forced to back up, burn rubber and spew sand while zigzagging inches from a deep ditch along that narrow road. But, he made it. The opposite way might well have been disastrous! Back down that long, steep hill and across that dangerous swamp with no possible way to turn around. I thanked the good Lord that I heard and heeded my 'hunch'.

My friend kept his word to the Indians. When I made quick dashes for the photos, he stayed beside his truck. The Cave-Site - so near and yet so far, didn't even tempt me. Ultimately - YES - but only after careful planning. Safely home again, I mulled over the many reports on file of the BigFoot searches. BIG expeditions into MILES of wilderness. Here - I was eargerly pursuing a monster in a rabbit-size domain which - according to my map - could be walked over in a short time! One day my firefighter friend, now intrigued, dropped in. "Let's have another look at that map", he said.

He studied it closely. "Now I see why there are not any trails into that canyon from below - it ends in a steep drop off!" The stream following the canyon from above would end in a waterfall, at least one hundred-foot drop." A perfect place for BigFoot to hide! Possibly a tunnel entrance behind a waterfall concealed by a soggy overhang. A man couldn't reach it from above or below, even if he could see it. BgiFoot could enter here, either from a physical or invisible other-world, absorb the water he needs to anchor himself to earth while he follows whatever purpose he comes for. As the water begins to expel from his form, he no longer can imprint his heavy footprints on the earth, thus they disappear beyond human vision. Maybe I am not so silly after all! I am now presently biding my time until the right moment comes to pierce that mysterious area with two reputable witnesses.
NOTE: Virginia is a most remarkable woman and she will keep us informed of any further developments... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... .

Riddle of the Loch Ness monster 'babies'

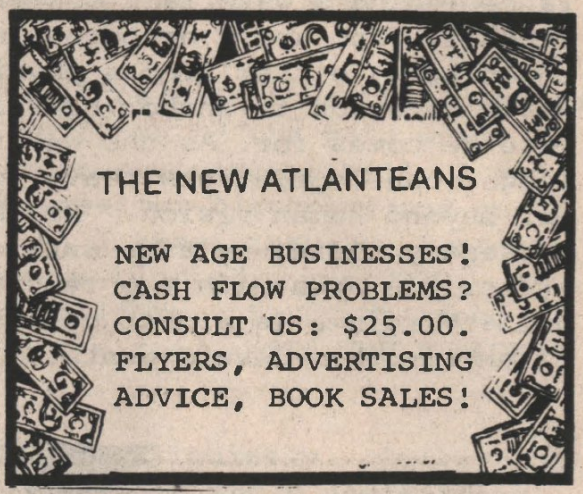

SOURCE: SUNDAY MIRROR, London, 3/2/31 - Scientists hunting the Loch Ness Monster have found what they think could be a shoal of BABY monsters. They have filmed the family of "wee Nessies" swiming along 700 feet down. The underwater investigators from the Loch Ness and Moray Project Trust are excited about their find. But they are refusing to release details or show their video film until they have been examined by experts.

Mr. Tony Harmsworth, who supplied sonar equipment to the investigators - said yesterday, "We haven't a clue what these creatures are, but we cannot rule out the possibility that they are related to Nessie." There are 400 claimed sightings of the Loch Ness monster since the first in 1933.

PART TWO

FLYING SAUCER

Now comes a shocker! A real and enormous; FLYING SAUCER was seen over the INTAGLIOS area by the writer of this article and a surprised witness .....

The circumstance of this incredible incident was quite humorous, departing from the dry and instrospect report seen or read in National tabloids.

Miss HAYDEE GLADYS FIGUEROA, is a registered nurse, born in San Salvador and living in Los Angeles, California.

Miss FIGUEROA is a graduated student from theUNIVERSITY OF PSYCHIC SCIENCES founded and directed by Dr. C. RALPH CAMPO.

She had never set foot in Arizona, and decided to take a few days off, to visit with Dr. CAMPO and to have the chance to sight-seeing the area.

At 6:30 AM on the Labor weekend (1980) Miss FIGUEROA was driving her car up North on Highway 95, admiring the beauty of the scenery and she was fascinated by some elegant cranes on the side of the road.

SUPERKNOWLEDGE! INSTANT BRAIN-TO-MIND TAP. DATA (STAMP) TO M.H. 22511 MARKHAM, PERRIS, CA. 92370

Suddenly, I noticed a fast road-runner bird crossing our way and I mentioned to Miss Figueroa.

She couldn't see it. The bird was much too fast and dissapeared in the shrubs. Miss Figueroa started to laugh with a funny look on her face. She thought road-runners were "man-created-cartoons", and she was convinced that I was trying to kidd her.

I insisted that road-runners are real and not the product of man's imagination.

She still did not believe me, for she remarked: "Yeah, yeah! and they make "be-bip! Be-bip!! C'mon!"

"No, Haydee....."be-bip" is added to make g them sound funny and that is man-made!" I responded seriously....

"I still do not believe you! You are trying to pull my leg!" was her laughing reply.

As I gazed to my left, I noticed a huge FLYING SAUCE I screamed to Haydee: "S op! Stop! There is a FLYIN SAUCER on my left!.....
That did it!

She kept the speed on her car, and laughingly she said: "Yeah! Yeah! first a phoney road-runner and now a Flyi Saucer!".....ignoring my plea to stop the car.

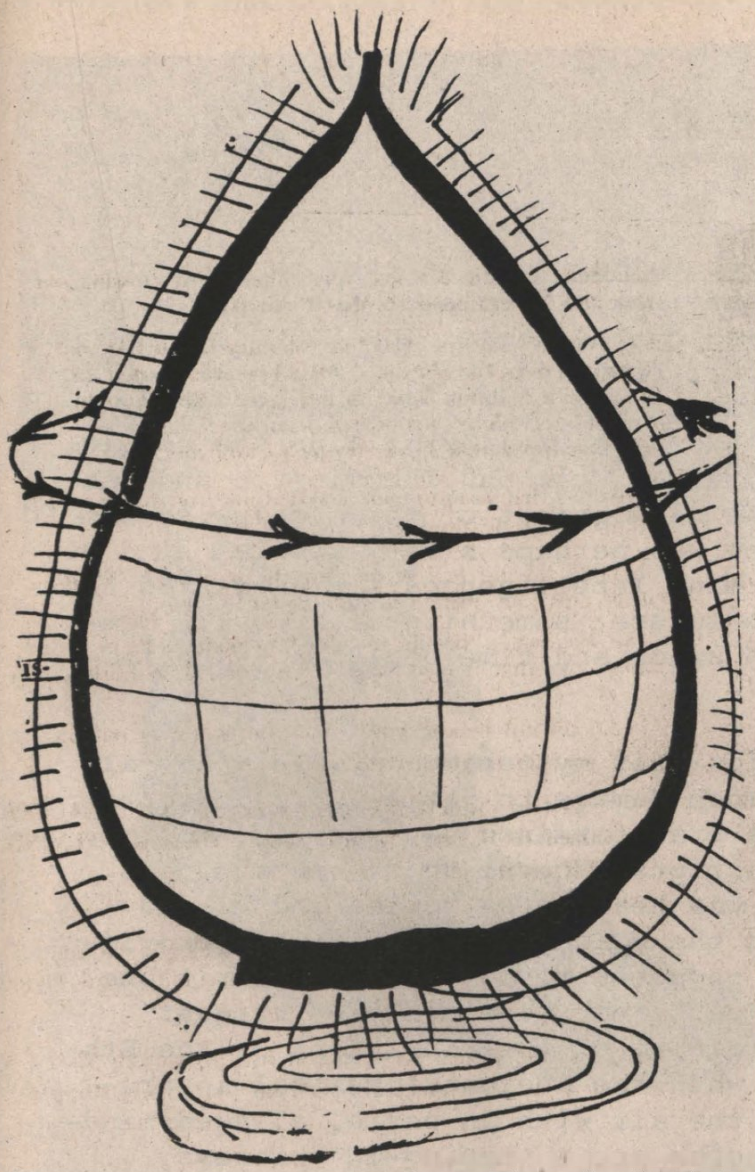

But I insisted almost screaming at her, and finally she looked at me with great disbelief and she finally stopped

Then, she suddenly saw that enormous UFO taking off at the most fantastic speed. She turned pale and swallowed saliva. She had never seen anything like this and she was simply flabbergasted!!

As I was seated on the left side of our vehicle, I had a much better view, with all the details as she did. From the driver's side it was more difficult to properly see it.

However, as the UFO glided to the right the view was clear and unobstracted to both of us.
The UFO was so beautiful. It had a form like a huge water drop, with a rainbow of colors emanating from it..... For over 15 minutes we watched that UFO ascend and disappear flying North East at a speed that was "out-of-sight". We were speechless!

I had seen UFO before near Yuma, near Quartzsite, and on New Year 1981 over the Colorado River.

But I never had any witnesses with me, and when I mentioned to the local-paper and to some people in this area, they looked at me, as though they were trying to calm a demented person!

As a Police Officer, back in my native Argentina, I have witnessed another UFO flying over Buenos Aires, during the JUAN and EVITA PERON regime.

All previous UFO sights that I had witnessed were seen at night. Eventhough those sights were spectacular, none of them can compare with the one seen over and near the Blythe INTAGLIOS in plain daylight!

By-the-way, the visibility that day was perfect. It was the brighest day, clear, without a single cloud or haze. The sky was pure blue! Both the scenery and the UFO blend in the most unique way. That experience will for ever live in my mind!

The drawing on the left, try tries to show the form the UFO was, as it was spinning to the right (clockwise). The outer lines represent the rainbow-shine emanating from the same.

Unfortunately I did not see any person or being in the UFO and eventhough I had a camera not to far from me, I forgot to snap the Flying Saucer for I was simply "hypnotized" by its presence.

The circling lines below the craft were simply wind-waves formed as the UFO ascended. Miss Haydee had trouble later, even to convince her own sister of the sight.....

We decided to keep it quiet, but we know that the NEW-ATLANTEAN readers are open-minded and they will not ridicule such an event....We have absolute no other reason to publish this, but to let people know, that UFO are real, for we have seen one, so close and so extra-ordinary that nothing can compare to its sight that is man-made.

MYSTERIOUS ORACLES - STONES OF THE ANCIENTS

by Patrick O'Connell
President - The New Atlaneans

Harold Wilkins ("Mysteries of Ancient South America")relates that when Cuzco was the capital of old Peru, it contained a Temple of the Sun, which housed a mysterious white stone - called by the Incas "IURACRUNU". Tradition has it that the stone combined "... functions of an oracle with that of a crystal in which visions and pictures were seen." Perhaps the stone traced its origin to Lemuria and Atlantis, because, as Wilkins states, it has the same characteristics of the mystical Urim and Thummin"... and the shining light on the breat-plate of the high priest of the old Jewish Temple." Researchers guess that the stone was perhaps a very special kind of crystal in which an Intelligence - or many Intelligences - transmitted the Knowledge of the past, present and the future: something of a Cosmic Computer, or Cosmic Switchboard, in which space and time could be travelled--both forward and backward!

The Spanich however, had other plans for this mysterious Oracle. They alleged that the stone's existence did much damage to native "... converts to Catholic Christianity", and so on a predetermined day set fire to the stone, and destroyed it. Spanish manuscripts recount that when the fire was at its greatest height, "...there was heard great cries and horrid howlings..." which would indicate that the Oracle-Stone evidently provided a sort of psychic link between the physical world and the 'spirit'one. Certain relics of the Ancients almost certainly were used to "trigger" such Oracle-Stones, by the so-called raising of the vibrations of the Ether! Is it more than coincidence that when the Ancients' musical instruments, when played, seem to electrify the air with an eerie, alleged mind-altering effect? Perhaps the musical notes are a 'tuning-in' process.... Figure 49 (courtesy: American Museum of Natural History) show but a small portion of the jugs, whistles, and pipes used by the Ancient Ones.

Oracle-Stones are not limited to the distant past, however! In a letter to The New Atlantean Journal in 1975, the late Richard Shaver stated that he found a stone with a "...curved transparent front, which had little moving pictures going and coming in the transparent part." Shaver thought that the stone was triggered, or activated, by the warmth of his hands. When he discovered a little rectangular place on the back of the stone, about 1½" x ½", he pried the oblong drawer out with a screwdriver, taking care not to break it. When the little drawer came out, it measured about 2" x 1½". Shaver stated "...in the drawer was sitting a miniature court of tiny people of crystal." Unfortunately, after the drawer was pried open, Shaver discovered that "... the magic was gone and the little transparent picture screen no longer contained moving shadow pictures." Shaver concluded that when he pried open the drawer, he broke the "magic" of the stone.

MUSIC

A great number of musical instruments and the frequent portrayal of musicians attest to the importance of music. No stringed instruments were used. The list comprises drums, rattles, shell castanets, panpipes, flutes, trumpets, and whistles. The last two are the oldest, appearing in Chavín times. Some, such as those produced by Nazca potters, are beautifully and accurately made and tuned.

It is certain that other Oracle-Stones may still exist. Some (the Kaaba Stone in Mecca?) are known, while others still await discovery. Buried deed within the earth, or perhaps in a out of the way site in the mountains, or even with a still-buried Ancient City of the Old Ones!.....

"FAR MEMORIES" OR ASTRAL TRAVELS

NOTE: We thank all of you who wrote, and we will publish all. We thank IAN McDONALD, ATLANTEAN ENGLISHMAN for this view of the past! His insight is ours.....

... I send you a drawing of a Temple complex from that great civilization which we know as Atlantis. Those Temples contained the most beautiful crystals which had a variety of uses, among which that had a variety of uses. Healing and weather-control. The Temples extolled the virtues and the Science of the Crystalline Forces, as did the pyramids... A crystalline ray of healing - the rays themselves are amplified by human consciousness from astral crystals. Sapphire, Ruby, Amythst, rose quartz and rock crystal, the colors.

A belief in Atlantis is a rare thing also, although there are a few of us in the west of Britain - working for the Old Continent - keeping its lamps alight and rebuilding its Temple of Knowledge and Wisdom. I understand that every assistance will be given to those who strive to restore the balance on this planet (which is clogged with the perverse currents of misguided forces). I also study the Qaballah and the ancient power sites here in Wales, Cornwall and Ireland. I have visited hundreds of sites - and dowsed many and had various psychic experiences at them. I have discovered what I believe to be a major site near Cardiff, there is a central area of seven or more stone chambers including one large boat-shaped mound with four other chambers ringing it. There are large earthworks - and ring formations and what I believe was a processional way. There are also five Atlantean sites on mountain-tops that I have located - one of them being a stone circle in the shape of an egg. Its axis is directly aligned with the Midwinter Sun. We also have a Welsh Triangle in Pembroke, West Wales. A friend who lives there has told me some strange stories... The Air Base at Brawley was the scene of some startling 'poltergeist' type activity with furniture and loose objects being thrown around by some invisible force. Things got so bad that a team of psychic investigators were called in and the building was evacuated. The investigators took in some tape recorders and film cameras - but it got so rough that they had to leave themselves as objects hurled around the rooms and smashed through windows! When it had all quieted down they went back in and replayed a tape recorder what they had left running and right at the end of the tape was a silence -- and then an eerie laugh form the invisible entity!... My interest in Atlantis has been parrallelled by an intense interest in Ancient Egypt and it wasn't long before it dawned upon me that Egypt was heir to Atlantis! As also the Mayans,Aztecs,Hopi,Arabs, Spanish and Celts!

THE "FAR MEMORY" OF:Jay Halloran
"QUIET HOUR"... ... ... ... ....

Shortly after entering my 'quiet hour', and dispensing with my prayer time, I drifted into what I classify as my 'listening mode'. During this 'mode', I blank out everything and listen, clear the deck, for spiritual guidance.. First, I had the impression I was traveling through space... After some time, I found myself standing on a vast porch, leaning against a huge column. This porch ran around the outside of a huge structure -- similar to the Parthenon in Greece. At this time, I was advanced in years, and stood looking out over the landscape. I was depressed, very sad - knowing the destruction of the Continent was forthcoming. Much destruction had been experienced over the years, and this was likely the last the land could withstand.

The building was the seat of learning. My function was teaching in the Scientific Department. The school had two departments, one for spiritual, or priest class, and the other the scientific class. There was a very narrow demarkation between the two classes. In the beginning, all were priests. As more knowledge was gained, the priesthood was divided into two separate catagories. For all intents and purposes, the populace considered both as priests. Scientists still had some spiritual duties.

Being aware of the inevitable destrition of Lemuria, delegations from both classes were making expeditions to other parts of the world. These first excursions went to Asia and the American continents. Knowing this was the last trip, I was drinking in the beauty of the scenery. How said it was we had to abandon all of this to the elements. My destination was Asia... More Astral Travels in our next issue... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ....

COSMIC INFLUENCES -- WINTER 1981-82

By Frank Magnus

The recent entry of Uranus into Sagittarius marks the beginning of a new era in such fields as communications, electronics and travel. Look for new ideas and new inventions that will result in our world becoming even smaller. Also Jupiter has recently entered Scorpio signalling a pick-up in all financial and economic transactions. The recession will be over at last but inflation will take off like a rocket. Those born under the influence of Sagittarius will be in the forefront of important changes that will now be starting to occur, as will Arians and Leos. But those born under Gemini, Virgo and Pisces should beware because sudden changes in their lives could cause problems. All of 1982 will be especially favorable for those born under the signs of Scorpio, Cancer and Pisces due to Jupiter's favorable influence but Taurians, Leos and Aquarians should beware of the tendency to be wastefully extravagent this year.

ARIES — Financial transactions could lead to trouble for you in January. February is an excellent month for parties and social activities of all kinds, you could meet some unusual people now. March will be a month of introspection for you.

TAURUS — January is a good month for your studies. You could learn new things if you are willing to make the effort now. February is a good month for making practical use of unusual ideas, you could gain public recognition as a result. Don't drink too much in March.

GEMINI — Your sex life could fulfill your wildest dreams in January. February is your lucky month and you could come into money unexpectedly. March brings confusion in matters relating to your job or career.

CANCER — Be careful not to allow your job or career ambitions to upset your home life or marriage in January. You could come into money in February. March is a good month for spiritual, occult and meta-physical studies.

LEO — Problems at work possible for you in January. You could meet new friends with unusual ideas in February. Financial loss is possible for you in March.

VIRGO — Relax and enjoy a winter vacation in January. Hard work could pay off for you in February. Someone may be plotting against you in March.

LIBRA — Make repairs in your home now before it is too late since there is danger of accidents in your home in January. All business matters as well as gambling and speculation are favored in February. Beware of danger in your place of work in March.

SCORPIO — Accidents possible during your daily commute in January. Make needed changes in your home in February. March is favorable for holding seances and consulting with the spirit world.

SAGITTARIUS — Beware of financial losses in January. Unusual ideas and new inventions could bring a big reward for you in February. March could bring you spiritual enlightenment.

CAPRICORN — Do not try to use ruthless methods to force your way to the top in January since these same methods could be used against you by those who feel threatened by you. Financial matters are favored for you in February. March should be a month of meditation and introspection for you.

AQUARIUS — Examine your innermost thoughts and feelings in January. You can use your unusual ideas and inventive abilities to earn big bucks in February. There will be considerable confusion regarding money and all financial matters in March.

PISCES — An important friendship could come abruptly to an end in January. February will be a very sensual and erotic month for you. Unselfish service has its own reward for you in March.

CLONES:

EXCERPTS FROM THE BOOK: "STARTLING REVELATIONS" by 'SARI'... Note: Due to many requests for us to reprint from 'channelings', we present these few examples of the type of 'channel' work that 'SARI' does. Address on inside front cover.....

RELATIVE TO EARTH 'CLONING': Those who are much interested in cloning, do have some recall from doing same in past lifestreams, and wish to com - plete this work. (This is why people choose certain jobs and cannot bear others. Medical science must be aware of memory image patterns in all of the four mind levels if they will ever align man's composite body. Esp- ecially now should the brain and ganglia be much better known and treat- ed accordingly. Medical sciences often forget that the four mind levels are correlated and should perfectly align with the physical component. Else, there shall also exist illness either in mind or body.

BACK TO EARTH 'CLONING': You do not have sufficient recall to go about cloning properly. Technicality is not enough in this nebulous area. "A tremendous victory for planet Earth" you proclaim. Not so, we say. Only the Creator can make man in His/Her Image. What do we mean by this? - When a fetus is being formed in the mother, a soul hovers about the auric field waiting for the baby to be born. Then that soul enters the psyche. Well, when you clone, millions of negative souls can enter that cloned body and take possession. Ludicrous? No, not at all. We speak truth, for we have seen this happen many, many times in other realms of conscious- ness. Until you evolve to the point of comprehending such things, leave clones alone. We don't often come on so strong, for we do not wish to in- terfere with free will. We simply caution you in certain areas, as pro- tecting clones and yourselves, and the population of Earth plant.

Many of you have heard about earthbound souls but have not believed it. There are (as we said) millions of earthbound souls waiting to enter a new-born baby's auric field, or 'clones'. You think there now exists much evil on your earth? Just wait until evil souls take over! Much trouble ahead unless you fully protect your auric field with the pro- tective light of Christ. We know whereof we speak. If you'll recall we told you that we are the 'power' of clones. Clones can be elect- ronically controlled, but know ye not that unseen spirits can penetrate clones?

How is this possible? Once you give clones an electronic brain, spirits from varying realms can take 'possession'. Of course, we are referring to clones that are so sophisticated, they are 'almost human'. This is a highly complex subject and we are not sure that majority of our readers shall understand. You claim that only a soul can enter a soul. Since perhaps in future books we can better explain this. Earth science is in its infancy relative to clones, perhaps they could be giving birth to future monstrosities... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ...

THE ATLANTEAN SPEAKS: HOPE!

Rev. Thomas A. Long

Hope is built upon the foundation of those things not seen, but believed in, and the faith that preparations within self-consciousness would manifest in the survival of all that is good and worthwhile in our world. SO IT WAS in the latter years of our Homeland from 10,490 BC to 9564 BC... Most of us knew we were of the Last Generation of Atlanteans to prepare for the survival of our way of life, our technology, and our achievements. That a cataclysmic convulsion of Earth would virtually wipe out all the traces of our enlightened age of civilization which had unfortunately become morally and spiritually corrupt.

Those of us who brought forward the knowledge of a Supreme Divine Mind, inherent within each of us, were the only ones holding HOPE for a future age even more greater in achieving closer development in God-Hood. SO IT IS today, in America and all countries, that we find ourselves among the HOPEful ones of these Latter Days of this Age of Civilization. We are the LAST of the enlightened physical human-beings, secure in the Knowledge of a living transition to a higher and less dense, more spiritual human-being in the near future. THIS IS THE ESSENCE OF HOPE!

The Journal of Strange Phenomena.

The war between man and nature continues; and if the battles are not always red in tooth and claw, they can at least be downright inconvenient. Here are a few animal saboteurs . . . for added humour, see also our selection of 'headlines' on this subject on the inside back cover.

MASS ATTACKS

• Mice: The San Ofre nuclear power station, California, closed down by mice which shorted the electrical system. Daily Mirror 12 November 1979.

In Arlingsaas, Sweden, a van carrying hundreds of mice to a hospital for experiments never made it. The cunning little devils would keep breathing . . . until the windscreen steamed up, and the van went off the road! D.Telegraph 27 Nov 79.

• Rats: Hordes of rats, apparently breeding for nine years in an excavated lot at Park Row and Ann Street, Manhattan, suddenly swarmed out without apparent cause, to bite women and jump on cars, gnawing windscreen wipers and vinyl roofs. Health officials fenced off the site with wire mesh and put down poison. Niagara Falls Review 12 May 79.

Between 300 & 600 telephones were disconnected in Cheltenham, Glos, when rats gnawed through an underground cable. Glos. Citizen + D. Mirror + D. Star + D. Telegraph 7 Jan 80.

A lobster farm on the island of Houat, off the Brittany coast, France, attacked by what must have been an almighty horde of rats: 5,000 lobsters eaten in one night! Sunday Express 13 Jan 80, Surrey & Hants News 29 July 80.

• Rabbits: Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota: rabbits and squirrels causing chaos in the secured weapons area by setting off security alarms. The rabbits were also breeding like crazy and burrowing into missile mounds, cause cave-ins. The Air Force were intending to go hunting . . . with bows and arrows! Toronto Sun 11 May 80.

The ancient monument of Stonehenge, Wilts, in danger of falling down due to the burrowing of a vast army of rabbits. Officials digging wire fence into the ground to keep the invaders out. D.Express 4 July 80.

• Squirrels: Air-raid sirens set off at Toronto, apparently due to squirrels gnawing through circuit wires (one of these days, a rodent's going to start World War III!) Toronto Sun 30 May 80.

New York State: hundreds of paranoids convinced their phones are bugged . . . the cause of the mystery crackling turns out to be squirrels sharpening their teeth on the wires. Five miles of cable need replacing. D.Mail 8 Aug 79.

• Pigs: New South Wales, Australia: thousands of pounds worth of damage caused by rampaging wild pigs, killing lambs and trampling crops. S. Express 11 May 80.

• Rooks: A spate of power cuts on the Isle of Man blamed on flocks of sexy rooks homing in on power-lines to whoop it up in the mating season. D.Star 25 July 80.

• Insects: A swarm of bees invaded the control tower at an airfield at Tabora, West Tanzania, driving out the air traffic team. A pilot found the controllers cowering under a tree after he landed. The Star (Sheffield) 19 Oct 79.

Gaevle, Sweden: swarms of wasps systematically eating the yellow paint off outhouses in a district of semi-detached homes. D. Telegraph 25 July 80.

• Worms: Half a mile of British Rail track threatened, where it runs across the Mawddach Estuary, near Barmough, Wales, as worms eat the track's wooden supports. Damage costs £2½ million to repair. Guardian 18 June 80.

• Mackerel: A Norwegian supertanker, the Moscliff held up for 22 hours in the English Channel, some time in December 1979, when it ran into a huge shoal of mackerel. The ship's engine stopped automatically when thousands of mackerel were squeezed through the strainers of the cooling system intake. About a ton of minced mackerel had to be removed before the ship could get underway again. London Eve. Standard 10 Jan 80.

LONE RANGERS

• Spiders: Cambridge (Canada?): Firemen responded to an alarm call from the fire-detector at the home of Mervyn Orr, but there were no flames. Instead, they opened the detector and found a spider which had spun its web between the ionization chambers and set off the alarm. Toronto Star 27 Nov 79.

• Fish: Brierley Hill, West Midlands: All Herbert the Trigger-fish wanted to do was burrow into the sand at the bottom of his 400-gallon tank, in Chris Parson's shop. Amazing what an 8-inch fish can do: the coral reefing in his tank collapsed; heating elements fell against the half-inch thick glass; the six-foot tank shattered; the gushing seawater blew up a compressor; ruined carpets, destroyed stocks, killed 8 valuable fish. £5,000 of damage (Herbert survived). D.Mirror 30 Oct 79.

• Mice: Manea, Cambs: a mouse chewed through electric wires and caused a £1,500 fire in a grain store. D.Telegraph 20 Sept 80.

A crow flew into powerlines in Japan, halting 20 high-speed trains. D.Mirror 9 April 80.

Trains halted for 2 hours at Stoke on Trent when a crow's nest on an electricity cable cut power. Weekly News 8 May 80.

An owl pecked through the cooling cable and blew a 132,000 volt cable near Black Carr Woods, Bradford, causing £13,000 damage. D.Star 5 Aug 80.

A kestrel perched on an overhead railway power cable as a train passed underneath caused a short-circuit, blowing masonry from an overhead footbridge and halting main-line services at Crewe for more than an hour. D.Telegraph 27 Dec 79.

Gifhorn, W Germany: Armin Grothe's new £60,000 house was built on the hunting ground of a stork, and the latter got rather annoyed, swooping in at night to attack. Three windows smashed at last count. D.Mirror 26 June 80.

• Lizards: Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania: two lizards caused water shortages when they crawled into an electricity junction box and short-circuited water pumps. A snake had pulled the same trick the previous year. Reuter Report 22 Jan 80.

• Cats: Cindy the cat managed to climb up an electricity pylon, causing workmen to black out the village of Streatley, Luton, for 20 minutes while they rescued her. Weekly News 5 April 80.

• Dogs: The Piccadilly Line of the London underground was brought to a halt during the morning rush hour when an alsatian dog went for a walk . . . for six miles along the tunnels between Wood Green and Holborn stations. D.Telegraph 29 Dec 79.

• Sheep: At North Wooton, near Shepton Mallet, Somerset, a 200 lb pregnant ewe ran away from the flock, apparently saw its own reflection in the window, and promptly leaped through the glass pane. Finding itself in the lounge of Mr Leslie Tincknell, a homely place with a fire just lit in the grate, it promptly proceeded to run amok, covered in blood and broken glass, causing £1,000 damage to curtains, carpets and a three-piece suite. Mr Tincknell and his wife, in the kitchen didn't hear a thing. D.Express + D.Mail + D.Telegraph 26 Nov 79.

More trouble with a ewe at Beeches Farm, Hesket Newmarket, Cumbria. Miss Ella Todhunter was up a step-ladder painting the kitchen walls when she heard her brother Joe and his son Arthur having trouble with a sheep outside. Leaving the paint-pot at the top of the ladder, she went out to help. The sheep promptly made a break for it, ran into the kitchen, tangled itself with the step-ladder and covered itself with white paint. Ella, Joe and Arthur proceeded to chase the sheep round the kitchen, leaving a trail of footprints and a pool of paint in the middle of the carpet: and naturally, the furniture got painted every time the sheep touched it. They finally got it outside and started to load it on a truck when its painted fleece slipped through their fingers. Off went the ewe again, this time entering the kitchen through the (closed) window . . . and landed right in the pool of paint. Round and round go the pursuers; round the kitchen, out into the hall, back into the kitchen . . . white paint everywhere. Yes, they did finally get it onto the truck. S.Express 4 May 80.

• Deer: Cockeysville, Maryland: obviously outraged by the hunting licences on display at Fred Forsyth's sports shop, a deer hurled itself through the front window, smashed a glass cabinet and several fishing rods, and was finally cornered and shut up in a storage room. When two policemen arrived, the deer leaped through another window and escaped back to the woods. Herald Tribune 23 Oct 80.

• Moose: Saulte Sainte Marie, Ontario: a moose leaped through the window of a launderette, scattering customers and laundry as it rampaged around, before jumping back out the window and departing for the woods, leaving a trail of laundry. D.Telegraph 19 May 80.

• Horses: Stray horses made a meal of Alex Curtis' Piper turbo plane when he left it at Doncaster racecourse, causing £2,000 damage as they chewed both wings, the rudder, and anti-static devices. D.Star 20 Aug 80.

• Bulls: A bullock escaped from Cambridge cattle market and rampaged for 36 hours before recapture; during which time it dented two police cars, demolished a brick wall, trampled down 6 gardens and knocked down a cyclist who broke an ankle. D.Telegraph 29 Nov 79.

'Bull Wrecks China Shop' reads the headline (honest!). The 18-month-old bull escaped from a cattle market in Otley, Yorkshire, and headed for Peter Jordan's shop, coming in through the door like a normal customer but then knocking over cabinets of china, crushing coffee tables and destroying lamps and ornaments. It was finally lured away with a young heifer. D.Telegraph + D.Star 25 Sept 80.

• Elephants: And finally, biggest of all . . . voting had to be suspended at a polling station in central Tanzania when an elephant strolled in, scattering voters and officials. Maybe it mistook the place for a phone booth . . . wanted to make a trunk call, y'see (Sorry).

UFO'S - OUTER SPACE - AND -
THE ORDER OF THE VAIRAGI -
By Katherine M. Roe

The question that looms up in the minds of many people these days when so many strange vehicles are seen in our skies is: Where do they come from? Why don't they make themselves known to us? And, our scientists and gov - ernment officials? Are they asleep, or do they know more than they are telling?

There is a group of Beings on our Earth who can answer many of our quest- ions on outer space and Visitors. They are the adepts of the Order of the Vairagi, many of them living in the high mountains of Tibet or other inaccessible places. These people, as high above man as man is above the apea, have been on Earth for countless centuries. They are great spirit- ual adepts and their teaching is called ECKANKAR. From it they say all other teachings of this nature are but splinters. A few years ago they decided that our Western world might be high enough on the evolutionary scale to profit by this lofty teaching. So an American, Paul Twitchell, wrote many books and discources about this old, old knowledge and became the ECK Master of the time.

These sages know much about UFOs and space for many reasons. For in their spiritual city of Agem Des, space ships land all the time. It is one of the many way stations scattered around in different parts of the Universe. These visitors know they will not be molested by these just men, as they are called. These Sages are developed Beings, who can alter their states of consciousness at will. They travel in their Soul Bodies, little more than a state of awareness, and they go all over the Universe, very fast. So, naturally they know which planets are inhabited on the physical plane and which are not.

... SRI Darwin Gross, the Living ECK Master, also has many informative things to say about UFOS: "For more centuries than Man can comprehend, the Earth has been visited by planetary and interdimensional travelers, of varying states of consciousness; from undisiplined practical jokers of the psychic worlds to spiritual giants of the God Worlds of ECK - often known as the Adepts of the Vairagi." He states that our Earth now could be thought of as a laboratory, for there is intelligence greater than Man knows of today. SRI Paul speaks of our planet being the ash-can of the Universe, it is often a warring planet. He says," The visitors in the physical vehicles are from other planets and different Universes that exist. The Earth has been mined in various places by some of these visi- tors in space vehicles." This last statement could solve a few mysteries of the past. Miners in Pennsylvania came across old, old tunnels in the coal mines, that crossed the ones they were working.

They said the tunnels were ancient and that the coal in them crumbled away when they handled it. The iron ore mines in the Lake Superior region also has reported that someone in the past had mined the ore, and as the Indians denied working it, perhaps the space people did. There is also some evidence that space people might have worked the old gold mines in South America. For iron nails were found driven into a wall, and a few screw heads were found on the ground. Since the people of South American, at that time, did not have things made of iron.

SRI Darwin states: " As the various countries on Earth are exploring outer space, they too are being watched closely, for not all people that reside on Earth were born and raised ther. Many have reincarnated from the other planets or a level of heaven, such as the astral, causal or mental worlds, where they have not yet learned their spiritual lessons. The Vistors are intelligent and no different from you and me in appearance. They are different colors such as on Earth, black, brown, yellow, red, as well as green." The interdimensional travelers, or light form, SRI Darwin thus speaks: " The non-physical ones all derive off the astral plane in a form of light and they look very real. They have escaped the network of what we would refer to as the Police network of the astral world and normally come to this planet as well as others, to poke fun at different life forms and human beings, if they possibly can. If they frighten one they keep after him, just as a practical joke, so to speak."

Visitors, in vehicles, or in the light form, always enter either at the North or South Poles to prevent puncturing a hole in what is called the Van Allen Belt. It is also called the Earth's aura or electromagnetic field. When this field is punctured by either a space shot from Earth, or from a vehicle reentering the atmosphere from outer space, it lets negative currents flow here on Earth. If you'll look at the space shots that have existed, there's always been something afterwards of what we would call a negative nature. It is since we first launched the space program and punctured the Van Allen Belt that so many vehicles of light form have entered our atmosphere. This puncturing of the Earth's aura has made it easier for these forms to come in from the astral. For the astral plane interpenetrates our physical one.

As for other interdimensional travelors, the most successful ones are the Eagle-eyed Adepts of the Vairagi. There are members of this order on other planets who visit Earth often. They originally came here from Venus, the ECK dictionary states rather casually that the first ECK Master, Gakko, came into this world about six million years ago... The now Earth has been a very narrow, provincial place for several hundred years, partly due its leaders, especially its priesthood. It has only been a short time since men were burned at the stake for saying that the Earth was round or that it revolved around the sun. During this time of darkness the Order of the Vairagi, in their places of seclusion, withdrew from the fanaticism, waiting for a more favorable time to give out Truth. Now there are going on four million followers of their teachings in our Western world. They were right. People are high enough on the evolutionary scale to profit by this teaching. SRI Darwin said: " Wars will be fought in the sky, not by nations of this world, but with planetary visitors, unless Man learns to change his conscio sness and expand his consciousness."

What does this mean, wars being fought in the sky? In the ECK -Vidya, the book of prophecy of ECKANKAR, it says, page 166, "At the present time we find the Ayran race is in charge in this world, but this will change again within a few years to the Ulemans, which is a race that presently occupies Jupiter. This race will descend upon the Earth and other planets throughout the solar system and occupy them with absolute ruling power. This will happen around the year 2100."

There is no doubt that we are under surveilance now. Are the Ulemans planning their strategy already? Some people have been told of underground bases off the coast of South America, others say the Bermuda Triangle. There is enough happening to make mature people concerned.

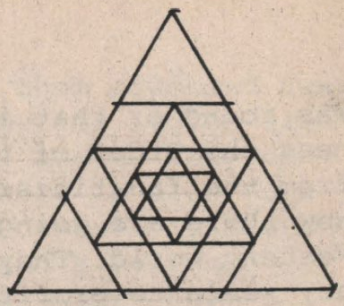

I don't like to be a Cassandra, with prophecies that no one will believe, but the Bible and many old cultures speak of a catastrophe that is to come... It has to do with a movement of the magnetic North Pole, and will cause a disturbance similar to that when Atlantis went down into the sea. People in higher altitudes will be safer than those along the coasts... Since most of our people, industry, and government affairs are along the edge of the oceans, we would be very vulnerable during such a catastrophe. It is just a thought -- but when the world is in deep trouble -- during that time -- people from outer space would have an easier time to take over.

Our world is made up of positive and negative currents, here on the physical plane. So there are the two opposites, good and bad. Some UFOS have good intentions towards us and some have bad. It is up to us to get in touch with the friendly outer space people. From them everyone could learn. And, as for those with evil intentions, we should unite in a world effort to drive them from our planet... ... ... ... ... .....

New Cattle Mutilation Baffles Huerfano Sheriff

Elusive Mutilators Again Strike Cattle

WALSENBURG, COLORADO - DATED: Sept 4, 1931. SOURCE: POST, Denver, CO. The Huerfano County sheriff's office is investigating a suspected cattle mutilation at a large dairy farm about four miles east of here,the Sheriff, Harold Martinez, confirmed Thursday. "This is the same as the mutilations we had before," Martinez said. "There's only one gate to the dairy ranch, but there were no tracks leading to the animal or around it." The remains of a heifer were found with one eye, half its face, one teat and the rectum removed, Martinez said. There are no leads yet in the investigation of the mutilated animal... The cattle mutilitions "have been going on throught the whole country since 1963," It's been two years since we had one. We've had about 15 since 1973. No one's ever been able to solve them."...

The Unknown IN WYOMING

EDITOR: "HOLLOW HASSLE"

by MARY LEVESQUE

Wyoming, or at least the northern part of the state, seems to be one of the most promising locations for an inner earth entrance. I have lived in Wyoming and can vouch for it being a very unusual state, with many mysteries attached to it, but for this article we will just touch on the highlights that concern our search.

MEDICINE WHEEL - To those who seek to restore the holy places to their rightful aspect, none is more sacred than the mysterious and brooding Medicine Wheel. It lies high in the Big Horn Mountains of Wyoming, at an elevation of 9,640 feet above sea level. Its age is unknown, as are its builders. The local native Americans deny any knowledge of its construction, and a good many of them deny knowledge of its uses. The Medicine Wheel is an almost perfect circle, seventy feet in diameter. It is composted of 28 'spokes', six of which terminate in cairns. The central 'hub' is twelve feet in diameter, and is surrounded by a stone wall two and one-half feet thick. This stone wall opens into a central circle, seven feet in diameter. At the perimeter of the wheel, the cairns are 'throne-like' in appearance. Five of these cairns face toward the center of the wheel, while the sixth, the eastern, faces to the east. When the wheel was first discovered by the white man in the late 1800's, there were many Buffalo skulls placed around this eastern cairn. These are, of course, long since gone, as well as some of the stones comprising the wheel itself, due to vandalism. Archaeologists, some of who place the date of the Medicine Wheel at 13,000 years before the present, are mystified as to its use. Recently, an astronomer by the name of Dr. John Eddy, has offered an explanation of its purpose. He feels it is an ancient astronomical observatory. By sighting along the centers of two cairns to a point on the horizon, the ancient builders could accurately determine the rising of the sun at Summer Solstice. Others of the precise alignments indicate the rising of the stars, Rigel, Sirius and Aldebaran. The twenty-eight spokes indicate the use of a Lunar Calendar. "The alignments are so precise," Dr. Eddy is Quoted, "that I don't think there's any question about what the Medicine Wheel is." On the outside of the wheel, at distances from 70 to 275 feet are other monuments, all built on high points of ground. Indian legends tell of an underground cavern beneath the wheel in which the Alumdumbay, or "Little People" lived. These were very wise people, and great chiefs and medicine men went to this cave to learn wisdom. Wilford South, in a letter to me before his death, stated the following about Medicine Wheel: "Medicine Wheel was the Venusian base in earlier times. I would venture to remark that this mountain site could well be a centre cone leading to an underground city."

Stone arrangement suggests that early Indians took sightings along pairs of cairns so star positions could help them determine times of ceremonial events.

From the Hefferlin Manuscript, printed by the BSRF Foundation, we get the following regarding a tunnel in Wyoming:

"Another branch line ends in northwestern Wyoming, due west of Sheridan and some two hundred feet or more up the side of a mountain. This tunnel seems to have been twisted and sheared off, leaving a distorted and pinched outlet. When we consider the great density and toughness of the metal lining the tunnels, a metal that even earthquakes and great land mass movements cannot break, we wonder what titanic force sheared and twisted the Sheridan tunnel end."

BOOK REVIEW
"THE KAHUNA SORCERERS OF HAWAII"
by Julius Scammon Rodman
Beautifully Illustrated
With a glossary of Ancient Terms and the Books of the Royal Hawaiian Dead.....
Price: $15.00 from EXPOSITION PRESS, INC. 900 So. Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville, NY 11301

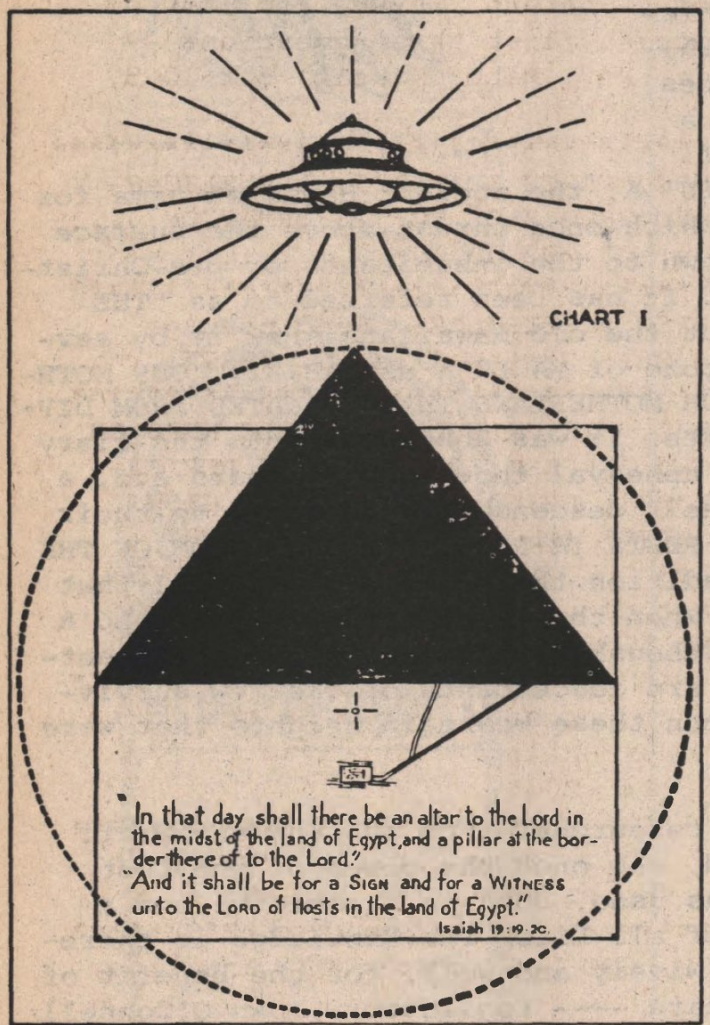

Interwoven with his story of the KAHUNA is a magnificent pageant of Hawaiian history, from the Lost Continent of KA LUA, to the immense power of the Ancient Ones of the Island Paradise! Incredible is a too mild word to describe the scope of this book. I would like to quote: KA LU' A, the ancient Hawaiian name for the Lost Continent, the vast body of which once thrust above the surface of the south Pacific. KA LU 'A was known to the inhabitants or pre-Christian Hawaii as "THE EMPIRE OF THE SUN". It has been referred to as "THE LOST CONTINENT OF MU" or "LEMURIA", but the old Hawaiians knew it by several names." The Ancients sometimes spoke of KA LU'A as KAHIKI, "OUR MOTHERLAND". Or, KAHIKE MAI KA PO MAI, "OUR MOTHERLAND THAT EMANATED FROM DIVINE ORIGIN IN THE CELESTIAL WORLD." After it was submerged into the fiery jaws of Hell, following a cataclysmic upheaval thousands of years ago, a few survivors who reach Hawaii, and their descendants, referred to their sunken MotherLand as "OUR MOTHER LAND RESTS IN PEACE AT THE BOTTOM OF THE ROYAL PACIFIC OCEAN." According to tradition their islands were all that remained above the surface of the sea when the vast continent of KA LU'A was wracked by titanic explosions, earthquakes, and tidal waves. Present-Day Hawaiians, if the legend is true, are descendants of the few survivors, who found refuges in the caves upon these mountain heights that were to be known as Hawaii.

This book is an absolute must for any researcher into the Ancient Past! The awesome power that the Kahuna held, was once the power of the Lost Lands. And, as in the Past-Time, it was used, both in a positive and a negative way. But - is that not true of all Life? The Knowledge is there- The lesson to be learned is to use it wisely and well, for the benefit of all... A lesson that Lemuria had to learn ---- too late... Joan O'Connell

THE PAINTED PYRAMID THEORY by TAL LEVESQUE

Some Arab legends say the Great Pyramid was once painted with dazzling colors, beginning with Red for Mars just below the capstone. What little stone remains has been carefully analyzed and found to indeed be painted with a red ochre paint. Research will reveal the Secrets that have been forgotton by time. So, at this point we suggest the following experiment with the Mysteries and Magic of COLOR. PAINT a pyramid with bands of the color (like a rainbow) in the following order, noting the symbolism...

| PHASE | COLOR | PLANET | SOUND | SMELL |
| Physical | Red | Mars | C-Do | Ginger |
| Wisdom | Orange | Sun | D-Re | Citric Fruits |
| Intellect | Yellow | Mercury | E-Mi | Frankinsense |
| Nature | Green | Venus | F-Fa | Pine |
| Spiritual | Blue | Jupiter | G-So | Lilly of the Valley |
| Idealism | Indigo | Saturn | A-La | Musk |
| Pure Spirit | Violet | Moon | B-Ti | Violets |

How the Great Pyramid, as a whole mass, squares the circle in the relation of its altitude (484 ft-5in.) to the length of one side of its square base (760ft-11 in.)

* Here we have, apparently, a connection between the mathematical design of the Great Pyramid and the type of craft that was seen by George Adamski, George W. Van Tassel, and others...
