Letters to the Editor

Dear Friends: Hoping you will publish the following letter. Many NAJ readers must have read the five small volumes of THE LIFE AND TEACHINGS OF THE MASTERS OF THE FAR EAST, authored by Baird T. Spalding and published by DeVorss & Co., POB 550, Marina Del Rey, CA 90291, and many of those who have not, would surely find them most interesting. One way of expressing an individual view of the books is that the main gist is how to achieve eternal life of the body. One thing that must raise a question in the minds of others as well as my own --- is that although we must admit he lived to a fairly great age in good health, if what he wrote is true, why didn't he live to be at least two or three times the normal life span? There are other things mentioned which many others such as I would appreciate information on --Does anyone know anything more about the time reverting machines that he wrote the original version of the motion picture "Sermon on the Mount" was filmed with? Also, would anyone who has further information about the contents of the books, especially if they had grandfathers or great grandfathers who were on The Expedition, please write to NAJ or to me? SIGNED: DAVE GALVIN, Box 92 - Six Mile, RR 1 - Prince George,BC Canada V2N 2H8

Dear Editor: I wonder if your readers can verify or support their own experiences, a phenomenon that I found while doing research for an upcoming book "DISABLED? NOW WHAT?". It seemed that DISABLED persons do have more psychic ability than the average person. Just as blind persons get increased sensitivity in their remaining senses, DISABLED persons may get greater psychic abilities as if nature were helping them to compensate. An example might be increased telepathy and clairvoyance in a disabled person who has an extreme mobility problem... If this can be developed in averse persons, to learn to cope with a more complex world... I will anser any letters that include a SASE. Kenneth Willoughby, Box 317, Fairacres, NM 88033.

Dear Editor: Your magazine (Fall 1982) was very much enjoyed by many people who visited us, including your display of our full page ad. I was wondering if it would be possible for you to send us another copy of the magazine as many were intriqued by the idea of there being a publication about the Atlanteans... Sarah Smith, Secretary...
MISSION OF MAITREYA, Albq. NM

Dear Editor: ... At my age, 81 tomorrow, it's one year at a time, but here is my renewal...Only the Good Lord knows where or when my time is up, In the flesh, that is. I wish I could join the Atlanteans because I could relate easily, having had an experience pertaining to Thoth, I have two books about him that hold me spell-bound! I wouldn't exchange the marvellous spiritual contacts I have now for anything on earth...
Isavel Ester DeMille...

We wish to take this opportunity to extend our wishes for a most joyous Holiday Season and A Happy New Year to all our readers... From Africa to South America, from England to Finland, from all over the USA and any points Unknown, Unexplored and Unexplained. May the Creator be One with All of you, and be blessed by the love of Universal peace and harmony in the days to come. From all of us here - to - all of you

THE SURVIVAL

As the ground crumbled into clinging mud and the veil of the night sky was rent by bloody starshine lit by a thousand fires loosed by the opening of the fissures - alone stood a small temple. Not grand and glorious and not richly decorated just a small building devoted to the One who was, is, and will always be. It's pillars were only twelve in number, not hundreds of them as in the big city temples. It's floor was of earth, not marble. It's altar was but stone slab, not golden or crystal.

It's location was hidden among the trees at the foot of the mountain... Why hidden? Because the Truth was no longer worshipped, and there were those in control who did not want the Old worship to continue, and so the Old Ones were sought out and eliminated. An unbroken line of the old Priesthood still existed, hidden in this remote valley amid the ancient hills. One of Them stood upon the crest of the hill, looking out into the night, seeing with pain and sorrow the destruction going on about him. The tears falling down his cheeks, the anguish was within his heart. Yet, he could do nothing to prevent this nor even to comfort those who were caught up in the swirling waters which were already beginning to cover his beloved land.

The Judgement was not his to execute. It had been decreed by the One, the Creator. He was but an instrument of the One, he could not undo what had been set into motion. He greived for those whom he could not help, and he prayed that the Knowledge would not be washed out to the cruel sea along with the Atlanteans.

A point of brilliance was then seen in the darkling sky above him. It came ever closer, closer, until the Priest saw the mighty Arc. It hovered over the fallen cities and towns, the untended temples, it stood in majesty over the houses of sin and sorrow, it saw the masses crying out for help. Yet, it did nothing. Nor did it lower or send out the Small-Faced ones to give guidance or assistance. It only displayed it's brilliant rainbow hues flashing and lighting up the darkness of dispair.

Then a small craft was launched, and it sped towards the Priest, it then landed, a door was opened, golden light shown within, and the Priest heard the hushed whisperings within his being.... Come within, you have earned the right to rebuild humanity. You shall survive.... To again to teach the Love of the One, the Knowledge of Truth and Justice, the timeless eternity. He looked below and wept for those who had been left behind. He felt he had failed them. But, another chance was now being given. He would not fail again... ... ...

Ancient Energies:
BUILDING FOR A NEW GOLDEN AGE

The Cataclysm, when it happened, was swift and violent. But for those who could discern what was coming, it was not unexpected. For several decades beforehand, there had been numerous warning signs that something was terribly wrong both inside and outside the Earth. A world that had once known tranquility was not struck by massive earthquakes, tidal waves, storms, erratic weather creating famines and floods,and multiplied deaths by cancer, leukemia and other physical disorders - from increased radiations reaching the surface, caused by a disapperiing magnetic field. Among peoples and nations everywhere, anger and warfare added new influxes of negative psychic energies into the surrounding levels. The most dangerous omen of all, however, could be s seen in the planet, itself. Slow but steady build-ups of vast amounts of ice near the South and North Poles, off-centered from the axis and made the Earth wobble as it spun, at first only slightly, but event - ually more and more radically, creating a worsening instability. All that was needed was a triggering mechanism - a force that would now strain the planet's collapsing natural order beyond its limits, and throw it completely out of balance.

When the force finally came, it was the result of a combination of events. A comet passed close to the Earth; a rare alignment of the planets in the solar system placed tremendous gravitational and magnetic pressures on the world; and a global war erupted among the nations, completely shattering what was left of the unified energy aura of humankind and the Earth. What followed was a planetary reaction that most of the leading scientists and scholars of that day, blind to the true nature of what was happening around them, had thought impossible. Within a 24-hour period, the entire world tumbled over - its poles leaving their long-established places. Whole continents were convulsed by giant tremors, mountains rose out of level plains, and islands teeming with great populations suddenly sank into the sea. Ocean waters were displaced in great engulfing waves, and the ice caps,moved into warmer climes, quickly melted, raising the sea by hundreds of feet and drowning all coastal lands. Hurricane winds of unbelievable force whipped across the continents, scooping up whole forests, mountains, cities and herds of animals, crushing them together and depositing them in massive fossil graveyards.

As quickly as it had begun, however, the Cataclysm was over. The planet's poles settled ack into a new spin configuration, the quakes subsided, the oceans returned to their basins, and the giant storms abated. But very little had survived. The geography of the Earth's landmasses had been now transformed, climates reversed, whole families of flora and fauna had become extinct while entirely new species were now making their appearance. Most tragic of all, the human race had almost been obliterated, except for a handful of survivors scattered here and there, isolated from one another over the surface of the globe. And to these, little if anything of the great science and technology that had once been theirs remained. With knowledge gone, many survivors fell into barbarism, struggling to exist, and leaving to their descendents only stories and myths of the great civilizations which had once flourished but disappeared amid catastrophe and mighty floods.

Fortunately, however, among the survivors were certain men of wisdom, who had foreseen the coming Cataclysm and had taken measures to preserve a special knowledge with which they planned to seek ways to permanently stabilize the earth, both physically and in its own energy aura, to prevent another Cataclysm from happening again. Once the earth had calmed down, they set out on one of the most ambitious and all-embracing enterprises ever attempted. First, using sophisticated instruments, they did measure and survey the entire earth surface, noting the new geologic and geographical features. Along with this, the men of wisdom also mapped out the earth's major energy centers and energy lines - what one might call the acupuncture points and meridians of the planet. Then, organizing the other survivors, the men of wisdom directed the construction of numerous great structures -- Pyramids.stone circles, standing stones, temples... Around the globe at key locations and along the energy pattern. Special meditators and transmitters of psychic powers were gathered around these structures, and harmonizing together as one mind, began to energize the world system. The structures and meditators also formed a link with the heavens, whereby the earth could be directly energized by the solar magnetic winds, in the physical level.

Withih a short time, the effects of the earth energy system became apparent: The world's magnetic field was revitalized, and once again helped sheild out harmful radiations. At the same time, the energy pattern acted much like a keeper bar on a magnet - it stablized and kept the magnetic field from dimishing in strength. In the earth's atmosphere, a high-altitude water vapor canopy formed, which benefitted the globe in many ways. It tempered all weather, eliminating violent storms, it gave the entire world a temperate to semi-trepical climate by creating a "greenhouse" effect, and it shielded out even more radiations than the magnetic field, allowing men and women to live hundreds of years yet remain youthful and in the peak of health. The world-wide temperate climate also reduced the growth of the polar ice caps, so that no build-up could threaten the stability of the axis spin.

Secrets of the mystic powers of crystal

Since the dawn of mankind, natural, clear quartz crystal has been used for it's phenomenal powers. Crystals were treasured above all amulets by the Ancients, who carried crystal points with them at all times. Legends say the Ancient races lived extraordinary lives, knowing the secrets of long life, prosperity and serenity . . . a serenity we long for today in our world and personal lives.

Today, we are wakening to the ageold magic of crystal. The fables of the gleaming crystal palaces of the Gods, the use of the crystal ball for thousands of years and the legendary great crystal of Atlantis . . . could they be MORE than fables? Does crystal in it's natural form carry secrets long forgotten?

Science knows that crystal has a measurable electronic charge. It is said this charge enhances the mental powers of the wearer, balancing and healing the aura, and bringing a flood of energy.

As part of a test program, we are offering the crystal to the readers of this publication in a limited number. We want you to wear the magic crystal and send us your commentaries on the benefits you receive. Feel the astounding charge in your life as the powerful protective aura of the Ancients surrounds you with the good fortune in life you deserve. We believe the widespread use of crystal could change the lives of millions.

Each crystal is unique -- nature makes no two alike. You may specify if you wish a smaller one or a larger one. The energy field exists in all crystals, regardless of size. Please indicate if you wish a gold tone chain enclosed as a free gift.

Because crystal is being used so extensively today for healing, it is increasingly hard to find. When our limited supply is exhausted, orders will be returned unopened.

We stand on the dawn of a new age. The secrets of ages past are being unearthed to help those whose awareness is developed enough to understand.

Send $10.95 plus $1.25 postage and handling for each crystal. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The earth energy system also had profound effects on the human population and their way of life: The energies flowing along the linear paths and points were "irrigated" in certain favorable areas, diss - apated across fields and forests, helping plant and animal life to grow faster and larger. The energies were also tapped by special means to levitate large weights, and even power craft to travel to and fro by air along the energy lines.

KNOW THE SECRETS OF THE PYRAMID

The pyramids are electromagnetic condensers that generate a subatomic energy field called a Standing Columnar wave. The electromagnetic fields of our planet could be balanced by the interaction of the flow of energy between the pyramid and the obelisk. The engineers of Atlantean times could control the weather by controlling the energy fields of the planet with a special box called the Ark of the Covenant. The pyramids are antennas for this system and can be rebuilt in this time period.

Because the spectrum of earth energies encompassed the same fre - quencies as the energies of all minds and all life, humanity also utilized the lines to communicate telepathically with each other, and with flora and fauna. The world energies, too, rose and fell in unison with the attractions of the sun, moon, planets and the stars, humankind soon learned the benefits of being more sensitive to and living by these cycles of change. As an ultimate result - humanity now grasped the essence behind true harmonious existence, and the key to taking the next great step in the evolution of the planetary consciousness: Earth, Mind, Life and Cosmos are ONE.

The human race, rising from a shattering Cataclysm, had created what would later be remembered as the Golden Age - an era of perfect bliss, of plenty, of tranquility and transcendence. It was a time of true Holistic being, wherein man had learned to live in total Oneness with himself and all that was around him, yet also had at his comm - and an almost limitless energy potential. During the Golden Age's flourishing, many untold thousands of men and women rapidly develop- ed to great spiritual heights because of their unified and energized enviroment, finally leaving this physical dimension behind, for high- er and purer spiritual worlds beyond, never to return. But as more and more of these Adepts departed, those who remained found it in - creasingly more difficult to maintain the original harmony. The old tendencies of competition, jealousy, divisiveness, factionalism, fear and resentment and finally outright aggression among the people came to the surface again. The earth energy system, which needed to op- erate on a truly global scale in order to be effective, could no longer function, and was abandoned.

Eventually, in the passing of time, even the purpose of the energy system and the great structures was forgotten, and humanity was left with only half-forgotton memories and rituals empty of their energy and meaning. The earth's magnetism, no longer vitalized and main - tained, began to slowly diminish. The hegh-altitude water vapor can- opy also dissipated, reducing ages and health, unleashing storms up- on the earth, and - most tragically - allowing the gradual but the steady build-up of ice caps near the poles. The Golden Age was dead. And - with it, the means of preventing another Cataclysm was also gone... ... ...

TOWNSPEOPLE RIOT OVER PREGNANCY OF "VIRGIN SAINT" - DATELINE: NUEVA JERUSALEM, MEXICO.. An announcement that Nueva Jeruselem's 'Virgin Saint' is pregnant sparked a brawl involving 2,000 town residents. State police called into the town, 130 miles west of Mexico City, said the weekend disturbance erupted when several residents charged that a 16 year old girl, known as "the Hermit of Nueva Jerusalem," was guilty of fornication. The girl, Maria de Jesus, had won fame throughout the region for her supposed vision of the town's patron saint, the Virgin of the Rosary. The local priest had revered her as a virgin saint. One police officer said the priest was able to persuade most residents that the girl had become pregnant through the act of "the Divine Spirit", but others "didn't believe in the miracle". POLLUTION BLAMED FOR 2 PERCENT OF U.S. AND CANADIAN DEATHS - Washington - As many as 51,000 people in North America may have died in 1980 from illnessed caused by sulfer pollution, like acid rain, a congressional study shows. The toll would be nearly 2 percent of total deaths for the year in the United States and Canada, and the number of deaths could climb if pollution is not curbed, the study says. If sulfur emissions remain constant, they could account for as many as 57,000 premature deaths by the year 2000, according to an interim draft report by Congress' Office of Technology Assessment... Airborne pollution, much of it from the U.S. industrial belt, is carried to earth in New England and eastern Canada by rainfall. The chemical waste has been blamed for making lakes uninhabitable and harming trees, other plants and soil...

YAO INTERNATIONAL PULSOR COSMIC LIFE FORCE LENS

- CONSERVE YOUR ENERGY.
- REDUCE STRESS AND HELP COPE WITH FRUSTRATION.
- CORRECT AND AMPLIFY YOUR BODY'S AURA AND POLARITY.

PULSOR is a modern solid state electronic microcrystal composite transceiver with ultra wide wave bands which corrects and amplifies the body's natural aura and polarity.

Living in the modern world means being exposed to continual electromagnetic bombardment. All metallic objects such as electrical circuits, telephone wiring, water and gas pipes as well as metal objects we carry on our body act as antennas which collect and radiate disorienting energy waves and can alter the natural polarities of our biophysical body. The typical American gets electromagnetic radiation up to 200 million times more intense than what his ancestors took in from the Sun, stars and other natural sources. Altered body polarity may cause physiological effects such as tension, frustration, apprehension and invites disease and bacteria attacks, psychic problems and poor mental and physical health. Laboratory tests on animals have shown hormone, blood sugar and enzyme changes.

PULSOR, designed by Dr. George Yao, N.D. and Chemical Engineer, creates a protective force shield. PULSOR removes the charge from electrons, converting them to neutrinos which have no further effects on the biophysical energy systems of the human body.

PULSOR is used for protection from environmental contamination, to help maintain normal blood chemistry, and to promote stress reduction thru deep neuromuscular relaxation.

PULSOR aura amplifiers are available in pendants, pins, buckles, rings and 2"x 2" box type generators. Send $2.00 for complete illustrated information packet to:

" INDIAN OCEAN AREA - CRADLE OF HUMAN RACE "

by

The remnants of a great civilization dating back to 25,000 years now lie beneath the Indian Ocean. This landmass, known as Lemuria which was connected with Asia and Africa, has been submerged by periodic cataclysmic landshifts, according to researchers fo the International Society for the Investigation of Ancient Civilizations.

N. Mahalingam, Chairman of Ancient India Studies, and myself (as International Director) agree that the Lemurians are a pure line of Aryan-speaking people. The continent of Lemuria, which first started sinking in the western portion, forced the people to migrate to Asia, Australia and the islands of the Pacific. It is believed that Atlantians not only spread into North and South America, but also settled in the Nile Valley and the shores of the Red Sea.

The Lemurians also colonized the Nile Valley during Lemuria's gradual sinking and developed ship building, commerce, writing and mathematics. They also established the Babylonian and Aryan civilizations. They finally invaded Punjab. Their literature developed to a very high degree. And in the 15th Century B.C., they began the compilation of more than 1,000 poems describing their early ancestry and their religion, the researchers say. They were grouped together under the general title of Rigveda. Sankrit became the national language thereafter. The language of the Maoris of New Zealand is similar to Sanskrit. Historians are of the opinion that the Lemurians, who immigrated to distant lands, had actually established colonies in America, especially in Mexico and Peru. It is pointed out that the language spoken in Tuscany, in Italy, is similar to Sanskrit. There is also a similarity with the language of the Scots. Sanskrit words abound in the Hebrew and the Greek languages. Thus, research scholars and linguists indicate that the great classical languages of the world are actually Sanskrit.

The historical information available from Sri Lanka also provides evidence to the occurrence of cataclysmic landshifts. Marine biologists are of the opinion that Lanka was once a part of a great landmass. Proffessor V.R. Ramachandran, an eminent historian and anthropologist and staff member of the esteemed Society of India, holds the view that the so-called Mediterranean race had its origin in Asia, in the submerged region of Lemuria.

All evidence so far unearthed points to the fact that the key to the cradle of mankind is now buried under the Indian Ocean and that it was a part of a large landmass known as Lemuria.

The Awareness of Life!

Surrounded by the more negative influences in life such as the poor economic conditions, climatic changes that may mean future shortages in the areas of both food and water supplies, the average person is really trying to find an easier life for himself and his family. This is also a problem within the New Age community. Armed with this knowledge, let us explore the ways and means of coping and going forward into a better life.

The first step is to realize and recognize what we all face, don't become apathetic towards the situation --- DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. There is always a way, if there is a will. We firmly believe that the barter and trade system of economics is THE way to get around the economic conditions. This can be done on both a local and a national basis, so learn to utilize this method in as many facets of your life as possible. Trade your time and goods and services for others will want what you have to offer as well. They are probably in the same boat as you are! We also have the computer set-up to help you get started in this new field.

Begin by listing your expertise in whatever field you work with, and then list your own needs and wants. Eventually, in time, we will have a great range of both goods and services with which you can contact and choose a way that is just right for you. In a local sense, you can take out in your local newspaper an ad that might say, for example, "I will trade roofing, plumbling or painting for equal value in what you have to offer." Give a phone number and then sift through the calls that come in and see what kind of bargains can be struck. This will help you AND them.

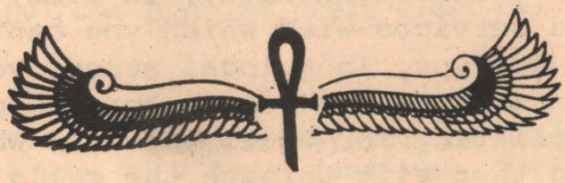
There is a terrible Spectre now stalking our land, one that is hidden and terrifying and that affects all of us. This Spectre represents the sick and degenerate minds that are now beginning to develop within our country. The poisoners. I wish to commend the companies and the products involved so far in this mad world, that they have reacted swiftly and with much care. They are as confounded by all this as you or I. And, they are doing all that they can to make their products tamper proof.

Even in apartments within a city dwelling food can be grown. There are many books available in the public libraries that can be obtained that can teach you how to do this. Of course, the ideal situation in one in which you can be away from the cities and have your own land. If you find that you cannot purchase this by yourself, get together with family or compatable friends, pool your money, and secure it for your future. If the area in which you live does not lend itself to these ideas you might consider re-locating to an area that does.

If this idea appeals to you, and you feel that you might consider moving, write to us. Let us help you to help yourself. If we work together we can accomplish our desires. By the time you read this, we will have our own greenhouse in operation, our own secured water supplies, our own vegatables and meat. And, we have room left over to help you.

A better life for all of us can be ours in the future AND in the present. We only have to recognize the need for it, and work towards receiving it. A new 'age' is upon us whether we are ready for it - or - not. An 'age' in which we must be aware and in a level of consciousness of what is transpiring around us. This is the first 'awakening'. The second one is really very simple - DO something about it. See what is happening and act... ...

Each day that goes by seems to bring more and more horror stories forth, however. Paranoia rules. Now, whether this is right or wrong, in not really the point. The truth of the matter is that when we can control our food supplies, we will not worry about them. Now, this is impossible with ALL supplies, and we will rely upon the manufacturers to keep a close eye upon their own industries. But, we can begin to grow our own fruits and vegatables, and in many cases, we can raise our own chickens or other meats. It used to be a luxury to have landspace available in which a garden may be grown, but I now feel that this should be considered a MUST.



YES! Please send me more information on how I can participate in a New Age community, and own my own land.

A NEW MODEL OF LATE PREHISTORY

Related Etymologic Evidence

-by- Michael Baran

PART ONE

In two recent books [1,2] this writer advanced a theoretic model that revises our current concepts of the late prehistoric period, based on the belief that secrecy-oriented sub-cultures in the now-vanished lands of Atlantis and Lemuria (Mu) were tapping an unusual energy by means of deep-earth excavations. The new model has been proving extremely solid both internally and with respect to the existing external evidence; and importantly, it is capable of rational hypotheses for most if not all ancient cryptologies and modern unexplained phenomena. The new overview has been derived from esoteric (cult), legendary, and archival data. Synthesizing these sources with modern concepts and scientific ideas has resulted in a picture of late prehistory startlingly different from the one now generally held. This article will present concepts underlying this new prehistoric overview along with some related theories about racial migrations and early etymology.

The writer's research into ancient sources has led him to share the belief in the theory - which first appeared in Edgar Cayce's Life Readings on Atlantis in the 1920s - that the legendary sub-continents of Mu and Atlantis were not only historically real but contained technologic subcultures which were based on the use of a unique energy. He believes an ancient polarian-Atlantean-Lemurian power complex played a key role in shaping man's ancient destinies, that only the more venerable sub-polarians survived the several prehistoric world cataclysms, and that they are the source of the modern UFO phenomenon.

Evidence will be presented indicating there were groups in ancient times aware of a natural force related to or identical with natural gravity, which was tapped at a level of about the lower earth's crust - ten to twenty miles below the surface. These ancients appear to have developed techniques to harness their occult resource and to have used it in a number of applications, including space flight (UFOs), many of the amazing megalithic constructions of antiquity, and other purposes. Another enigma apparently related to the deep-earth activities of the ancient technologic subcultures is the Bermuda Triangle; more on this to follow.

This writer believes that prehistoric humanity outside the fringes of the technologic complex was bemused by its activities, ascribing them to "acts of the gods," leading to the mythologic formulations of antiquity. The monoscience itself became partly a kind of arcane wizardry. As the result of excessive zeal in gravity-tapping activity in both Atlantis and Lemuria, earth-crustal instabilities were induced in those lands. The several world-cataclysms (described in such great detail and so reproducibly in countless archaic sources)* that occurred during late prehistory, and the ultimate demise of both island-continents, appear to have been related to these same activities.

Our own scientific technology, not bequeathed the secrets of the initiated orders of antiquity, has yet to appreciate the unique vast power potential literally under our feet. Up to now we have confined our scientific activity mainly to the surface regions and space. If at any time we had cogently and investigatively probed the earth to depths greater than the several miles our limits have extended to up to now, we likely would have traveled down somewhat different technologic avenues.

*Footnote: This author's "Insights into Prehistory" deals with mechanistic aspects of the biblical Deluge and an earlier fiery, volcanic world catastrophe apparently even more destructive. An excellent compendium of source material on this subject is Immanuel Velikovsky's "Worlds in Collision" (Doubleday, Garden City, N. Y. 1950.)

The reader may ask whether it is reasonable to propose that our scientists could have remained totally unaware of the existence of a simple, crucially important natural source of energy. The answer appears to lie in its unique nature and occult location. Deep-earth regions could possess a mass-energy ambience wholly without parallel in the surface world.

We often speak of "magnetic fields" and "gravity fields;" more accurately, they are electrogravitomagnetic fields. In some cases, the electronic end of the spectrum predominates and we observe a mainly electronic effect; in others, such as energy fields generated at the earth's surface by a cyclotron or other man-made apparatus, the magnetic component of the energy spectrum predominates; and in others, situations highly unusual in our ordinary experience on the earth's surface, such as the kinds of phenomena that have been reported in the Bermuda Triangle, direct deep-earth energy fields with a predominantly gravitonic component appear to be operative.

Actually, the concept of a unique mass-energy ambience in deep-earth regions is not difficult to picture in one's mind. One merely has to consider how such a region is positioned, or oriented, with respect to the dense solid matter surrounding it in every direction. Considering it in the geometric sense, any given point at or near the earth's surface has mostly space (actually, atmosphere, which has virtually no mass or gravitational strength) around it. In deep regions, on the other hand, there is densely packed matter in all directions, and its atoms, the ultimate source of its mass and gravitational strength, are, of course, correspondingly densely concentrated. Atomic nuclei constantly emit very tiny subparticles called gravitons by physicists. They are ultimately minuscule in size and mass and are in constant motion, with a velocity the same as the speed of light. Gravitons, like all other so-called "quantum" particles (photons, electrons, etc.) are really minute packets of energy.

If one goes deeper and deeper below the earth's surface, the surrounding atomic mass becomes greater. Thus the density of the emitted gravitons is denser as well. In deep-earth regions, gravitonic ambience could be enormous. For an ordinary surface object coming under the influence of a field arising directly from such a region, the effect on atomic structure and on the object's very solidity, could be overwhelming.* In the Bermuda Triangle, old Atlantean crustal excavations may still be providing a portal of escape for disintegrative deep energy fields, especially at times of increased solar activity, when the sun's gravity field can attract a deep-earth field up toward the surface.

It would appear impossible to duplicate such fields near the surface, even with the most powerful magnetic generators. It is the dense concentration of matter, miles underground, that gives this energy its uniqueness. Ultimately it is the sheer density of gravitons, and it only exists in deep-earth regions.

What is the actual evidence that ancient Atlanteans and Muvians were tapping a deep-earth resource? In order to examine this question one need not necessarily start with a belief in the historical reality of both those lands. If one accepts the hypothesis that a unique mass-energy potential could exist in deep-earth regions, and can find in archaic sources indicative references identifying energy-tapping activities with Atlantis and Lemuria, one could accept this as a reason to reconsider those lands' actual historicity.

*Footnote: By increasing atomic nuclear resonance. It is known that magneto-gravitonic fields stimulate the resonance (reverberation) of the subparticles within the atomic nucleus; a hyper-gravitomagnetic field (actually, just a superdense cloud of gravitons) arising directly from a deep region (through an ancient technologic excavation) could over-stimulate atomic resonance. Excessive resonance of atomic subparticles could lead to bizarre changes in the solidity of objects and to the kinds of phenomena reported to occur in the Bermuda Triangle.

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED!

BY

DIAMOS LOUDEN

A new Column for your enlightenment! This is an expert in all worlds, Material, Physical and Spiritual. Write to him and let him explain to you any questions concering the above areas. Address all queries to us at this address.

(1) WHAT IS A WALK-IN?

A walk-in is an earthly person who has one or more interdimensional beings (UFO People) operating through him by a psychic link. This psychic connection is set up with the permission of the earthly soul before his birth into this life-time. The link-up is activated at any instant by the other beings, who just "walk-in" through the earthly person...

(2) IS IT NECESSARY TO REMEMBER PAST-LIFE EXPERIENCES?

No. The recall of experiences from past lives can be helpful insights to quide you successfully through your present life if properly understood. However, situations and opportunities you need will present themselves even without remembering your past lives.

(3) CAN YOU EXPLAIN INSTANT KARMA? Instant Karma is the immediate return of what is due you, either good(positive) or bad (negative). For example, you have just finished unkindly teasing and belittling someone in front of his friends (negative thoughts and actions sent out). As you go to sit down at a table, you "accidently" bump into the table and painfully bruise your thigh (negative immediately returned).

(4) WHERE IS THE AURIC FIELD WHEN YOU ARE SLEEPING, SWIMMING, AND DURING PHYSICAL ACTIVITY? Your aura is always around you. Just like a magnet's magnetic field passes through wooden table tops, layers of glass, and the air, to pull bits of metal to it, your auric field passes unharmed through all things around you.

(5) WHAT ARE INNER EARTH DWELLERS?

These are entities (souls) who are experiencing 'life' on a plane of existance different from our familiar earth plane. Their locations on this plane just appen to match with the solid interier of our planet. One group is located near our South Pole, another very different group resides near our Nort Pole. Members of either group may be noticed from time to time when the influence of their activities shows through to our plane. This is either physically, or psychically. Hence, we sometimes hear reports of 'space ships' flying up out of the ice near to the North Pole.

(6) IS EARTH INTENTIONALLY BOMBARDED WITH BRAIN CONTROLLING WAVES CALLED "ELF"?

NO energy source, nor wave, mantural or manufactured, can affect your inner mind and soul, unless you PERMIT IT. By your own thoughts, especially the subconscious thoughts. And you DO have control over all your levels of mind and thought.

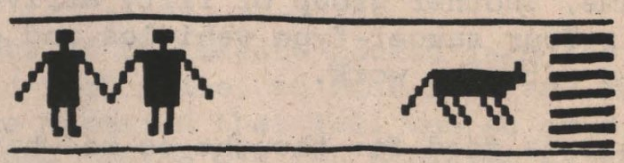
Stories Etched In The Rocks



Article by Katherine H. Roe

On the little Spokane River in Washington State is a story in old picture writing that is very precious to historians. It is so old and so valuable that a sturdy fence has been erected around the cliff on which it is etched so that people cannot touch it. For it is the oldest story in stone in the area and has a very inforative story to tell.

For years these messages on cliffs all over out Southwest were an enigma to archaeologists. "Mere rock doodlings made by the Indians," some scientists said. But the Indians deny any knowledge of them.

An Old Indian Chief in Washington said, "Indians no make markings on rocks here." Then rising on his toes and reaching high he added, "Big, big white men make markings on Little Spokane. Big, big white men. You and me like little boys."

Professor O.L. Opsjon, originally form Iceland, went all over the world studing and collecting samples of these Ancient Symbols on rocks. They were a puzzle to him until he returned to Iceland and found a man who could read them as easily as we read the newspaper.

So, just as the cuniform writings of the early Egyptians were a mystery until the Rosetta Stone was found and gave men the key, so the old rock petroglyphs took on meaning now that Professor Oluf Opsjon learned to decipher them.

He found that these messages were made by Atlanteans before their island continent was destroyed.

This oldest story on the Little Spokane River, was made by four men who flew to the area to reseed the Northwest. It was made desolate, the message said, by the great ice age, which extended down nearly to the equator in places. It was a hard task, bringing this desolate land back to life again, but the Atlanteans had been saving seeds, plants and animals for this purpose for a long time.

Other writings in the area tell that two weeks after the first four men came, another group of fifty arrived. The story tells that they came in four saucer-type vehicles and one large freight craft, to proceed with the work.

It gives us food for thought as to what seeds they planted. Were the Giant Sequois of their planting, only surviving in a small area? Perhaps the delicate Birch, the Ponderosa Pine, the colorful Spruce and even the Raspberry and Blackberry Bushes all along the West Coast, were of their planting.

They stated that they brought animals, too, so that might answer the question scientists have pondered over. How did animals get from one continent to another?

They said they went as far North as the Arctic Circle with their seeding, which was from the air. All along our Western Rivers are messages etched on Canyon Walls, giving directions for those who came later.

Not only did the Atlanteans tell about the things mentioned above but also explained what made the great ice age. They said it was the destruction of a planet out beyond Mars, called Argo.

Scientists have suspected that a planet had exploded out in space, especially since our landing on the moon. For the moon's surface shows that it was bombarded with many asteroids in the past.

The Asteriod Belt was formed and Mars received much of the debris. But the Greatest Asteriod of all hit our North Polar Region, displacing the North Magnetic Pole and making the Arctic Ocean.

The Atlanteans say this happened over twenty thousand years ago and the movement of the North Magnetic Pole caused much trouble all over our world. The Asteroid hit with such force that the detonation was heard and felt all over the world. Huge cracks were made in the earth's crust and the hot magma inside the earth was disturbed, causing more trouble. There were Volcanic Eruptions, Earthquakes and great Tidal Waves.

There was trouble everywhere, especially in the Pacific area. For there amidst seething Volcanic Eruptions the Continent of Lemuria sank into the Ocean. Millions of her people died, with only 165 boat loads of her people saved.

The story goes on. As the waters of the oceans poured into the volcanic holes created, evaporation took place, so much rain and snow fell. In the North, because the Asteriod that fell was so cold, this moisture turned to ice sheets, which was the begining of the glaciers and the ice age.

In Pigmy Kitabou, a book about the little people, their legends tell of the cold and desolation even in Africa. They tell that some of them went into caves underground and were taken care of by some black dwarfs.

The Atlanteans wrote, in condensed form, that the Constellation which we call the Southern Cross influenced the planet, Saturn, which cast a shadow on Argo for too long a time, causing it to explode. They stated that the Laws of Gravity were destroyed and the planet became very cold. The rings around Saturn are part of the debris from Argo. And Asteroids are still being caught in the gravity of planets and fall or are burnt up in the atmosphere.

For hundreds of years the ice stayed over the Nothern part of our globe. Finally most of it melted and the Atlanteans came to make life grow once more on our continent.

To let posterity know about this episode, these men took great pains to record these messages in stone so they would last a long time. The Chronogram tells that they blasted out a little cove to give protection to the powered Ruby Paint they used in etching these messages in stone. This blasting was done with directed lightning from their flying saucers. It exploded the moisture in the fine crevices of the rock formation, making a writing that withstood time.

These early people left many messages as they went about the hard task of reseeding the barren land. They left three types of messages, the Chronogram, the Painted Figures and messages in more sheltered places and a less durable form of communication, a certain alignment of Rocks, whose meanings are still a mystery to us. Perhaps down through the thousands of years since they were placed there, they may have been replaced from their original position.

In Southern Utah, all along the canyon walls of the Green River are painted human figures, conventionalized, even without faces. They are some nine feet tall, animals being with them, also being large. This petroglyph is called, "The Painted Men of Horseshoe Canyon". Being in a sheltered place it has withstood erosion, the paint still being of the figures.

Professor Opsjon found more records in Iceland and Denmark, together with some in Thebes that tell of the things mentioned above. They also tell of the submersion of Atlantis and why.

Indirectly the catastrophe that happened to Atlantis was caused by the displacement of the North Magnetic Pole when the Asteriod from Argo hit the earth. For it had been burning and pushing to get back to its true northern position.

The Nordic Saga tells that in 9564 B.C. this magnetic pole moved quite a distance, enough to create quite a vacuum under Atlantis. This caused it to collapse quickly into the ocean, with great loss of life. This disturbance caused trouble in other parts of the world also.

The rock messages, together with the writings that have survived in the Northern Countries, lead us to think that the Atlanteans had a civilization comparable to our own.

They hinted in their messages that we have not experienced the last trouble with the magnetic pole. For it is still pushing toward its true place. Should it move a long ways again as it did in 9564 B.C., then the world might be in trouble again.

Anyhow, we should be thankful to the Atlanteans for replanting our barren continent. And we are glad they took the time to etch the story on the rocks.

CENTRE FOR THE RAY

The Shining Ancient Ones had handed down the true knowledge from the stars to the stones through glyph and symbol: long before the final destruction of Atlantis. Nothing hardwon is valued lightly and that of the greatest worth is desired by many but held by few.

Early in the maritime history of the first Atlantean race (The Red Skinned Peoples of Adam) the transmigration of other cultures to the Atlantean continent caused great diversity and richness to flower from what began in a simple gathering of tribes. The benefits of commerce, trade and empire led the culture to a great and glorious material achievement. At first science and wisdom walked hand in hand but through the generations technological power came to pass into the hands of a power-hungry elite and reason was divorced from intuition. Such is the case with the White Race of today as an evolutionary wheel once more turns full circle. For nothing is new under the eye of the sun and nothing is invented but rediscovered.

All things must be born and rise to maturity and then grow old to fall into decline and wane, and Atlantis, its science and its rites, is no exception nor our culture and its institutions. But though outward form is incessantly changing multiplying in meaning, the essence is true and of one purpose. As the latter days of Atlantis unfolded the last of its seers set the seeds so the essence would be propogated and multiply anew in the soils of time past and to come. To other lands the arks set sail carrying the seeds of the tree and the records of life. To the British Isles, Africa and the Americas they came and to Ireland, Scotland, Cornwall and Wales.

With knowledge of the coming continental upheavals they chose the mountain regions and hilltops to settle and among them, one mountain in Wales which we may still climb today.

It was Winter toward the end of the day a thick mist clung to the sides of the mountain Twm Barlwm. Approaching the summit the mist hovered just clear of the tops of the fir trees planted by the Forestry Commission in a carefully calculated grid which would stifle any undergrowth of native leaf and branch. To climb up Twm Barlwm from the nearby valley town of Risca is steep and tiring and from the shoulders of its long ridge the town looks toy with minute cars and model houses.

Clustering the final summit are the foundations of buildings long crumbled - long low walls and ditches forming right-angled patterns - the remains of habitation so old they are unmarked on the Ordnance Survey maps. The ridge of Twm Barlwm is some 1250 feet above sea level and affords a view West and East far up the Severn Estuary and away to the Atlantic over the Bristol Channel. Now the mountain is home of the wandering sheep and the crawling beetle. There was mining here in Roman times and times before - battles fought and a fortress built. Local legend tells of an ancient King Barlwm who housed his gold in a tomb on the summit but today there is no record of any such King and Twm Barlwm means raised, exposed mound or motte.

Sentinel upon the peak of the ridge stands the great conical mound constructed out of stones upon the very Eastern end and this end of the mountain is mouldedinto a long vertical embankment with low mounds and ditches running at right-angles to its base. The conical mound is surrounded by a lower ringwork and has a flattened top some 25 foot above its base.

The mist is clearing now as it is swept to the East by an Atlantic wind - it is as if on a great ship sailing to the West and caught through breaks in the mist are glimpses of the far distant landscape below.

We stand due East of the great mound facing it and the imposing embankment wall. It is as if we became rooted to the spot - somehow seized by the presence of the great wall. Separating the inner eye from the outer the outline of a door takes shape directly in front of us below the exalted tumuli. Through the sealed portal of stones we extend our vision and down through a narrow corridor of stones to an oval sepulchre beneath the tumuli. Within the interior a swirling whirlpool of clouds clear in their centre to reveal a clear blue sky. A multitude of concentric ripples form across the circle - emanating not from the centre - but into it from the four cardinal points. The liquid blue sets into stone - the lapis lazuli of the chambers floor -"to cool and relax the receptive arches of the feet" said the worker in stone.

Within the centre of the circle stood the altar of white stone - unveiled, naked in its beauty. Foursquare and hollowed in its centre it was filled to the brim with water from the nearby well. To the East we sense the first rising colours of the distant star and slowly as it rises the heiroglyphs on the temple walls fade into relief and then a Ray of the star strikes through the narrow aperture of stone and one single sword of illumination pierces the long narrow shaft and the water within the hollow catches fire.

The woman robed in soft blue raises her arms and through the widening arcs of colour her fingers move casting ripples and rivulets of silver and gold - cupping her hands and dipping them into the bowl of water she drinks and stands silently.

Behind her the man kneels and listens with intent to the soundless words crystalising within the cool flowing river of his attention. Thus the language of the colours is transmitted as was the silent work set within the new frontiers built upon a new fusion of races. The tradition of the one is unbroken. There would be many names - many forms - Father, Mother and Rising Light - and out in the courtyard there grew one tree from one grain of seed and it bore many fruits.

The rays of the sun have passed across the upper aperture and now through the open door reflected light is cast around the chamber. Within and above the buried sepulchre there would gather those who held hands in a circle for so were they gathered as one, in one and by the three. For untold centuries of darkness no more would they gather upon the mountain top. "It is foolish and nonsense!" would cry the people and they would not know their true substance and think they beheld all knowledge and live forever within the Eternal Transcience of Illusion.

But across the horizon beat great wings of darkness and the void stirs uneasy within. That which permeates all cannot be withheld, the most that can be acheived is a forestalling. Verily when the white flame touches the brow a new day is dawned.

WORLD PEACE NETWORK

Co-creation Through Prayer and Meditation

In your quiet moments do you pray for world peace, do you inwardly long to do something so that our planet can be a safe and happy place with abundant life for all? For yourself? For your loved ones? For your neighbors across the way and across the seas? If so, you are not alone. And there is something you can do -- now! You can become a vital part of the WORLD PEACE NETWORK, a network of individuals all over the globe who daily offer prayer, loving meditation, and harmonizing thought projections for humanity and Planet Earth.

By realizing our true oneness with Universal Intelligence, with each other, and with the earth as a living organism, we can begin to consciously co-create a world at-one. United thus in a global NETWORK with a single Universal Purpose, we can help bring about the deeply needed world transformation. For since our life, our true being, is spiritual, the world, too, is formed of spiritual energies, which can be transformed!

How shall we accomplish this? By networking! By forming a world-wide NETWORK of God-directed spiritual Lights who daily unite through prayer and meditation in a SHARED VISION. By thousands, even millions, of us joining together as ONE MIND in a single daily "Universal Prayer for World Harmony" that can be freely expressed in every soul without barriers of language, religion, ideology, race, or creed. This Prayer is offered on the reverse side of this sheet.

By forming this NETWORK consciously, we can begin to "see ourselves" as part of an overall pattern of points of Light throughout the globe, and so, in fact, to become THAT. Together, then, we can be ONE with the grid of pure energy (pure Love, pure Life) that encompasses the world and help lift up Planet Earth and humanity to the Divine estate of true harmony.

As a WORLD PEACE NETWORKER, you will not only be provided with an avenue for service, a vehicle for channeling energy to help others, but you will also very quickly find that you are expediting your personal growth and deepening your own sense of well-being. As your own life is given this positive sense of direction, and you join with like others, you will begin to realize that this inner harmony which you are creating is manifesting in your own personal life, and you will share more and more in the earth's blessings.

It is said that many are called but few are chosen. If you feel a responsive chord in your heart to this important work, then be assured: YOU are chosen! Through you the NETWORK will encircle the globe! If you would like to take part, and become a NETWORKER, you can share in many different ways, at your own level of interest:

* Simply by projecting the "Universal Prayer for World Harmony" on a daily basis, at the times outlined on the reverse side of this sheet, you are a WORLD PEACE NETWORKER, joined with others in energy and spiritual attuning.

* By making copies of this sheet, and distributing them to friends, relatives, neighbors, and associates who you feel would be interested in making the "Universal Prayer" part of their devotions/meditations, you are helping the NETWORK to grow and multiply. (If you are unable to reproduce this sheet, send $1.00 to the address below for additional copies.)

* You may wish to help expand the NETWORK in your own way (as an individual or a group), or to help bring NETWORKERS together in your area for special weekly, monthly, or seasonal gatherings. If this interest you, and you want to become a KEY NETWORKER, please write to the address below for further information and a description of materials and help available.

* To share more fully in the WORLD PEACE NETWORK, and to keep in touch with its activities and other NETWORKERS, you can subscribe to the monthly letter for $7.00 annually.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER FOR WORLD HARMONY

Please join each day in prayer or meditation with other WORLD PEACE NETWORKERS throughout the world in a brief sharing of spirit. Just take a few moments each day from your daily routine to lovingly visualize and bless the planet and humanity in your own very special way. As a suggestion for magnifying our power through a SHARED VISION, the following Universal Prayer is offered to help bring together all people as ONE MIND, with one pure ideal, without barriers of language, religion, ideology, race, or creed.

1. Create a brief, quiet space for yourself where you will not be interrupted.
2. Take a few seconds to attune yourself to the Divine Presence, ask that God's will be done through you, and begin to see yourself as filled and surrounded by Light.
3. Focus your attention on a mental image of the planet, with a radiant white Light around it.
4. With intense feeling, spend one or two minutes pouring forth pure love to that image, silently expressing from your heart, and "seeing" brilliant white energies projecting and expanding from you to enfold the earth.
5. Mentally lift up the planet (at the same time actually "raising" it with your hands) to the healing Light of God that never fails, and visualize a Divine Light (Universal Consciousness) streaming down from above.
6. Release your request gratefully with "So be it," "Amen," or words of your choice; then allow yourself time to gently "feel" a response.
7. To greatly magnify the power of the shared Universal Prayer, join daily with other NETWORKERS at the specific times given below:

DAILY ONENESS PROJECTION: A single time, a single hour has been chosen whereby all individuals the world over can daily project together at the same instant. This hour is given for various time zones as follows: San Francisco, Seattle, 8 PM; Denver, Tuscon, 9 PM; Winnepeg, Chicago, Mexico City, 10 PM; New York, Ottowa, Bogota, 11 PM; Rio de Janerio, Buenes Aires, 1 AM; London, 4 AM; Paris, Berlin, Rome, 5 AM; Cairo, Johannesburg, 6 AM; Moscow, Nairobi, 7 AM; New Delhi, 9 AM; Pangoon, 10 AM; Peking, Hong Kong, 12 AM; Tokyo, 1 PM; Sydney, 2 PM; Wellington, 4 PM; Honolulu, Anchorage, 6 PM.

WORLD CIRCLE PROJECTION: Project whenever it is 9 AM or 9 PM in your time zone. These projections continuously enfold the planet in wavelike motions.

Introducing the TELECOM XII

TELEPATHY MACHINE !

Influence others at a distance! Send thought messages to friends and loved ones far away!There's almost no limit to what you can do with this newest discovery in Psionics!

It's now a reality!...an actual telepathy machine! Simply tune the dial and 'think'! Your message and commands will be flashed over vast distances almost instantly, to influence and communicate with others! Although it may sound incredible at first, you have to realize that this device is actually a variation of the famous psionic 'Black Box' now used widely in Europe and the Iron Curtain countries, and that the principles are soundly based in Quantum physics.

It uses empathetic resonance to couple and modulate the frequency of thought waves with the pulsating energy fields surrounding molecular matter to achieve amazing results. Actual field testing has shown that almost everyone can operate the device successfully even without prior experience in ESP!

Just think of what you could accomplish with this astounding device! Influence your boss to give you a raise-attract a mate-make people like you-even increase your luck! The possibilities are mind boggling and they're yours....right now!.

The TeleCom XII comes fully assembled, ready to start working for you so don't waste another minute ...send for yours today! Full instructions and prepaid postage incl. in the price of only $74.95

$85 outside USA .

Excerpt from ASTROLOGY: KEY TO THE RELIGION OF GOD
BY Gardiner James

Strangely the story constructed pertaining to the three years of Jesus' ministry bears a striking resemblance to a play written by Seneca (Lucius Annaeus, the Younger, b. 3 B.C.E.; d. 65 C.E.) a Roman playwright, philosopher and statesman, entitled HERCULES OETAEUS (loosely translated as the mount on which Hercules died.) There is no question but that the play was written at least ten years before the earliest Gospel account of the life and death of Jesus. A brief summary of the play presents Hercules, like Jesus, born of the virgin Alcmene, and fathered by Zeus, the God-head. He too was called saviour (Greek Solter) and the Good Shepherd. He was also the "Prince of Peace" and was sent by the Heavenly Father; "...not to subjugate nations by force but by divine wisdom and persuasion." Hercules accepts death, as did Jesus, voluntarily so that he might be elevated to a place in heaven on the right side of Zeus (Jupiter) the "God-Father". His mission was to walk the earth of bitter sorrow. Hercules humbled himself by assuming the role of a menial servant so peace could be brought to Earth. During his association with earthy mortals, he retained his divine character, but was subject, like the reputed dual nature of Jesus, to all the laws of the flesh. Although abandoned by his friends he suffers in silence and endures the most outrageous treatments. Hearing the voice of his heavenly Father, the divine Son of God, groans in his death throes; "Take thou my spirit in thy hands." A paraphrase of the Gospel quote of Jesus who is reputed to have said; "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit." Then as in the later Gospels, Nature enters the play, causing darkness to fall upon the Earth amidst the rumbling of thunder. At last Hercules calls out; "consummatum est" (it is finished or accomplished) and dies. In John, 19;30 (King James version); "When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said,' It is finished', and he bowed his head and gave up the ghost." In the Peshitta (Holy Bible of the Eastern Catholic Church) this same quote reads; "When Jesus drank the vinegar he said, 'It is fulfilled', and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit." In the prologue of the play Seneca related that ever after all things were subject to Hercules, just as the Roman Church states that to the risen Christ Jesus is given all power in Heaven and Earth.

The Church of Rome may suggest that the Herculean Play was inspired by the life of Jesus, which is highly unlikely. Rome was unaware of the Ministry of Jesus, and possessed no documents indicating a report of his religious activities, as they were confined to the Hebrews. Pontius Pilate appears to have considered the trial a local occurrence among the Jews, and "washed his hands" of the problem. It was unimportant to Roman rule.

AUTHOR: MICHAEL BARAN
HARD COVER, 114 PAGES
EXPOSITION PRESS, INC.
325 RABRO DRIVE
SMITHTOWN, N.Y. 11787-0817
PRICE: $7.00

What caused the disappearance of the fabulous island-continet of Atlantis? What power did Atlanteans possess that made them the mightiest and most advanced beings the world has ever known, yet probably contributed to their annihilation? Was this mighty power used to influence the rise of other ancient civilizations? Can there still be Atlanteans stalking the earth today-creatures immensely old by virtue of the power they possess-living deep beneath the ground, keeping watch on mankind? Are they responsible for the mysteries that have baffled mankind for centuries: The Great Pyramids, disappearances in the Bermuda Triangle, and UFO sighting?

Michael Baran, with incredible foresight, has pieced together evidence from sources old and new to present possible answers to these and other questions in Atlantis Reconsidered.

This book is very well writen and should be read by all of us. Michael Baran has presented these facts after careful research and has done a wonderful job of it. He has another article in the New Atlantean Journal.

It is my personal feeling that Michael Baran is a man needed in the times to come and we should consider him a very brave man. Many of us in the field have a hard time in saying what we know but in Michael Baran case he is able to do so very well.

Sincerely Yours,

Michael Kings

Certain ones of you would like to move to Florida. As you know this is the land of the Golden Son. We have available a certain amount of lots.

These lots are all on high ground and you can see much Beauty from them. Now if you are interrested please read futher.

The lot size is (60' X 150'). It is located 15 minutes from the Gulf and 45 Minutes from Tampa Airport. The price of these lots are $100 a month for 60 months or $4,500.

For further information please call 1-904-596-0544. This is The Land of The Golden Ones.

THE MC ALESTER, OKLAHOMA CAVE MONSTERS

by Patrick O'Connell

There is supposed to be an inner-earth cave entrance northeast of McAlester, OK. Explorers of the cave report that you can enter through a small entrance on a knoll and once inside, there are large steps going down to an unknown depth. The steps, measuring 18" high and 10' from side to side, are about 3' in width.

In "Inner Earth Entrances" (by Bruce Walton, vol. 1, part 1, P O Box 1942, Prove, UT 84601, $4.45ppd) it is reported that the cave has been explored to a depth of a mile, without finding an end to the steps! There is a "bottomless pit" alongside the steps, according to the cave explorers!

One group of 3 cave explorers encountered a gaint beast, (Yeti?) that walked on 2 feet, almost like a man. When one of the men was attacked by the creature, he fired his colt .45 at the beast. As he fired, the other 2 escaped, but only after a rock slide covered the cave entrance. While the 2 were removing the rocks to rescue their companion, the moster backed off. The man inside reloaded his gun. By the time the 2 men, outside could clear away the rocks covering the entrance, more monsters appeared, and as the man tried to escape, one of the creatures grabbed him by the feet. He fired point blank and emptied his .45 in desperation to escape.

After they escaped the tunnel, the creatures did not leave the cave. The 3 men, who later joined the military to fight in the Korean war, planned to re-enter the cave at a later date.

In May 1981, Rev. Charles Marcoux wrote the New Atlantean Journal, that unless you are a small person, it is difficult to enter the cave. He stated, "the old man who owns the land, it was on, wouldn't let any one around it after all that has happened there. He put crosses and hexes all around the place to ward off evil spirits. To many of his livestock turned up missing".

Rev. Marcoux, stated that Victor C. Johnson, personally talked to the elderly owner of the land, (now deceased), and obtained additional first hand facts concerning the owner's experiences with the cave. Later, in 1970, Rev. Marcoux was to have accompanied Mr. Johnson on an expedition to the cave. Unfortunately, the trip was postponed. If you would like to learn more of this inner earth entrance, send a stamped envelope to The New Atlantean Journal, and we will forward your letter, in your stamped envelope to Mr. Johnson, in care of Rev. Marcoux.

What forces lie behind the monsters? What energies wait untapped within the mysterious cave? Certainly, the powers are beyond the comprehension of the average "white" man. Rev. Marcoux writes that it is likely that somewhere in the Grand Canyon, there exists the remains of A Great Ancient Civilization, and that their underground tunnels spread out, in all directions, thoughout the entire Southwest.

Tradition has it that, according to Hopi legend, the tribe came from the underworld. Rev. Marcoux is convinced that somewhere from the Colorado River, the Hopi left their underworld civilizations! Coming next issue: "Sipapu- Cave? Entrance to the Hopi Underworld!

GUIDELINES FOR SPACE CONTACT
BY MYRON - Astar Command
Reprinted from: SAUCER SCOOP

(1) Do not try to contact the 'Space People'.
A. They can contact YOU at any time or place they choose. Or, in any form that they wish to use, depending on their evolvement.

(2) Prepare yourself spiritually for some useful work.
A. This does NOT mean religious practices of an orthodox nature. This means a conscious effort in attuning to that which is the highest, most beautiful, and eternal within one's self.
B. In work, we mean anything that will in some manner help those around you to find upliftment, peace and inner joy.

(3) Live each day in Service to the Creator.
A. By their works the Space People know you, and are able to judge by your aura if you are truly worthy of being a part of their work upon earth. Your aura not only tells your past - it is a good and reliable way to tell what you are best able to DO.

(4) Live each day as if it were your last.
A. Collect your mental baggage so that all which is of lasting nature can be moved at once, all else left behind. Live so at any time or place you can turn your back upon the Past without regret or a backward glance.
B. Gather unto yourself all your dreams and desires of Service to God and man - for THESE are your WEALTH.

(5) Negation breeds fear and doubt.
A. Evil loves the UNprepared, the confused, the ignorant.
B. Spiritual understanding is the key to all UFO activity, both negative and positive. Spiritual guidance is offered to all who seek it sincerely and open heartedly.

(6) The Earth is a Battleground.
A. The forces for Evil employ ships of great size and beauty - just as do the Christ Forces.
B. Unprepared Earthlings who seek contact must NOT do so without knowledge of how to set up a positive Force Field, and hold it around themselves.
C. The negative forces can and DO abduct thousands of people each year from the surface of the Earth, as well as animals and water and vegetation. These samples are used for nefarious purposes...

RICHARD SHUCK

Once more let us enter back thru the "Time Portal".

All around us the fall-out from the hundreds of erupting volcanoes continues carnage. The progress of the chosen ones will be measured thousands of years later by the legends and campfire stories told throughout the Indian tribes all across the continent.

"Giant Gods" with light coppery skin and beautiful features having great wisdom and magic taught the tribes methods of planting and medicenes from natural herbs. "Medicene sheels" across our North America, laid out with stones, described and positioned the stars in their orbits. By this means they finally had an accurate calendar. Throughout South and Central America their works and description were carried not only in oral legend but were inscribed in stone across vast areas. Not only did their teaching improve the lives of the natives, but new grains appeared during their arrival. Vast areas were put under irrigation which allowed for more compact civilizations and an opportunity to feed them easier with less effort that was required to obtain food. They were able to put time into building cities and then rapidly into complex civilizations.

Their appearance in many different places at about the same time indicate that many survived the castrophe and it is also generally noted that they were in large part accepted by the local natives and only one case recorded that were wiped out by a local sect in South America, probably a fear of their powers. Although they were accepted by the local people they always retained the status of "Gods".

But let us return back thru the "Time Portal to today. Many of you will wonder how I arrived at these theories. Please bear with me.

A. The remains around the perimeter of Atlantis on the surrounding continents - Americas Europe, Ireland, England and Africa show an influx of knowledge far in advance of the natives of that era in time.

B. Stone Henge in England was either a new beginning or as we can see, it was actually the end of a very advanced civilization.

C. The figures carved in the ground in Peru, recognizable only from the air and covering miles on the ground.

D. The pyramids and giant structures of Egypt fall in the same category as the rest, questions come in two on a horse but there are very few answers, most of them simply bring more mysteries.

E. North Salem, New Hampshire, our own "Mystery Hill" seems to fall in the same time frame as the rest with very similar architecture as the other locations.

F. There are also many such clues throughout the entire New England coast that there were many other settlements. The "Mullin's Stone", a finely carved stone, I believe was used as an indicator for the seasons. Unearthed here in South Kingstown while Mr. Earl Mullins was excavating for his cellar. The "Brusseau Stone", a large pointed stone, standing on end with a drilled hole in the side and a sign carved near the top (I believe it was the signature of the constructor) there were many stones in his yard but they were destroyed and moved when his home was built. Such, I am afraid, has been the fate of many such sites.

G. In North Scituate, Rhode Island, I viewed a "sacrificial stone" in the back yard of a home. There was a blood groove around the perimeter and a pouring lip on one side. A very similar though larger one exists at "Mystery Hill". There are many areas and clues that present to us a picutre that there was in the past a very advanced people. They appeared in at approximately the same time in a large circular pattern, centrally focusing on an an area located in the Atlantic Ocean.

Today we have had a very poor season and many scientists feel that the present conditions are caused in part by the 14 million tons of dust and debris driven into the statosphere by an erupting volcano. can you imagine the conditions caused by hundreds of volcanoes erupting? A probable reason for the early demise of those early civilizations.

I believe they knew of the impending disaster and decided to leave a map to tell us. They placed the walls outlining their homeland and included the star alignments to be sure it was found. Once one was known, the rest would follow as they have. But remember that this site covers about 14½ acres visible only if surveyed as they have done or if one was airborne and the area was barren of three growth which was highly possible at that time.

Follow the map.

1. Note that all corners are supported by huge mountains.
2. The wall lines extending beyond the enclosure - all (3) end at undersea mountain sites.
3. he double walls extending almost thru the center show how their canal separated it into two segments -(Plato described a thousand mile canal which did just this).
4. Plato also said that there were (9) states or areas and with their capital (central area) you have the (10) he described.
5. The location, terrain and latitude would insure ample warmth and moisture to support the two crops per year they were supposed to have. The fertility of the soil would have been insured by the volcanic ash and soil. Note that the fracture line runs almost thru the center of the capital. This shows a thin earth crust and would give credence to the hot baths of Atlantis.

In closing I would like to see one of our research vessels using the new "Seabeam" now in use aboard the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration Ship "Surveyer" off the coast of Washington, Oregon and northern California. They could plot the bottom and get a road map of the submerged continent. They have said that if 8,000 feet of water covered the city of Seattle the "Surveyer" could deliver an accurate street map.

I must return to "Mystery Hill", perhaps this is my destiny. It is possible by whatever means to discover the key to the knowledge stored there and bring forth the legacy they have left for us.
