Letters to the Editor

Dear Joan: First of all, thank you very much for the kind words in your comment to the gentleman who wrote such a nice note in your Letters to the Editor. It really turned a sour day into a heavenly day. We all need pats on the back once in a while. Speaking of pats on the back, I just want to take the opportunity to let you know that I read your Journal from cover to cover before putting it down. No interruptions allowed!... Lucy Colson, Ojai, Ca.

* This proves 'you get back what you put out'!

Dear Joan and Friends: You wrote that nobody writes you or comments on the contents of your Journal. That is a good sign! People used to write only if they have something to complain!... Your Journal is excellent. No wonder, with that Board of Consultants!... A psychic told me that those beings who cleaned our Earth and atmosphere have been evacuated because they cannot stand any longer that awful dirt and atomic residues etc. That is the cause why we have such bad weather now. The contrary was last summer, when we had such an excitingly good weather -- in summer 1983, "they' were still here! ... Ursula Jahnke, Dusseldorf, West Germany

* You know, I also had a feeling somebody 'left'. Just don't know 'who'!

Dear Joan: In regards to Arthur Shuttlewood and Jesus marrying Ursena, I did write to him. And, his reply is and (which is also in the book) a man he calls Matthew, who belongs to their skywatch party related this to him, among other things this is in the 12th chapter... In anser to 'rainbows', page 6, my husband saw a double rainbow a few years ago and again this summer. But it was now around the sun... Mrs. Donald Markle, Hanover, PA

* We, here at the office have been seeing double rainbows very often! Even rainbow clouds... Yup, verticle rainbow stripes. All the other clouds around were perfectly 'normal'. Have seen this on three occassions.

Dear Joan: In the Summer, 1984 NAJ, Page 3, regarding Jesus was married, Well, I heard that after the Palestine play or episode, Jesus traveled to the East again and finally landed in on one of the northern islands of Japan where he married an Ainu lady and the descendants still speak a mixture of Hebrew and Ainu to this day and they say his grave is still marked, so this information can be prooved... M. M. Davey..... Ontario, Canada

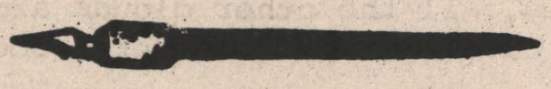

Dear Journal Friends: This month, FEB, I received the Journals mailed by you in NOVEMBER! So, you see what our mail service is here. Some - times we just have to cancel out, however, I find the Journal inter- esting and I enclose a money order for a renewal... Mrs. Marjorie Tretwold, Vancouver, BC.

* Wellllllll! At least they got there! Even if it was by dog sled by way of Lower Slobvovia.

Dear All: At present I am putting together a blockbuster on Bigfoot... I will have to figure out HOW to "suggest" that one or more branches of government have full knowledge of Bigfoot. If they can pinpoint landings on the moon - photograph car license plates from miles up in space - penetrate thru rock to locate concealed arms, they can certain- ly investigate any and all caves and caverns on this planet where Big- foot supposedly lurks. There are just too many reports to be brushing they, them, or whatever, under the run! What I am following up is in- formation that captives have been taken and imprisoned for the past 20 years and being experimented on.... Name witheld.

Dear Friends: Since leaving Findhorn in 1979, I have been preparing the foundations for a new community near Mount Shasta. This promises to be one of the most important planetary centers of the meaningful emerging age, one that will draw on its members diverse backgrounds and training weaving them together with a common vision of a positive future for hu- manity...Please share this letter with anyone you know who might be in- terested in participating... Peter Caddy, POB 659, Mount Shasta, Ca.

* For those who feel a drawing for this type of community, we urge you to write for more details. No, this is not for me, but, then again, it might be for YOU.

PSYCHIC SABOTAGE
THE SILENT WAR
by Joan O'Connell

Mind Control Telepathic Hypnosis Remote viewing Psycho - manipulation of metallic substances Psychic brainwashing Paychic search and seek missions.....

Not exactly tea-cup readings! Or, finding lost articles, OR healing. What it IS, is psychic sabotage. The invasion of the human mind by another human mind. And, in a war situation. Psychics being trained as you would train an infantryman.

It seems that the left-hand path of psychism is being researched by many, if not all, the major governments of the world. While this is not a pretty picture, it is reality. And, Americans must face it and learn to bodily combat it, to understand the ramifications, and how to learn to defend our minds against any and all assaults.

American psychics mainly are trained in the healing arts, or in the usage of their abilities to the betterment of mankind. It will not be an easy thing to change the mode of thinking. The most important motive of all, however, must be brought into being. The preser - vation of our democratic way of life. Our country and it's people must be sagely safe=guarded against an enemy that is not only in- sidious by silent.

The solution to this escalating warfare is psychic defense. NOT more and bigger psychic bombs! There are many ways to defend against a 'psychic' attack, and the more obvious ways should be brought into being. The more subtle ones are best left to those who know of them,

As for the much heard about 'psionic devices', the super-doopers of psychic warfare... No matter WHAT the physical machinery does, it does it AFTER the psychic does his thing. The devices can ably operate only after being activated! By the human mind.

And... the human mind.... is what we have to learn to defend against.

In a sperm bank mix-up, sheepdog sperm were sent to the Krangstaad Memorial Sperm Center in Copenhagen where they were kept with human sperm. Eight women were impregnated with the dog sperm, and fetuses began to develop. Examining doctors noticed that the fetuses didn't appear normal, and traced the problem to the batch of dog sperm. Five of the eight women had abortions, but three have decided to continue their pregnancies. Dr. Hooster and his team of physicians and veterinarians are trying to determine whether the fetuses are human or animal. (Sun, 5/29/84 from SPIRAL MOBIUS.

Recently discovered papyrus scrolls that are being interpreted at the Cairo University, tell about the self-inflicted destruction of an ancient civiiization. Solar laser weapons called "sun-casters" proved to be ineffective against atomic bomb blasts ("earth-eaters") as these weapons changed the formerly lush tropical Egyptian landscape into a barren desert. The discovery of what appears to be an ancient electric engine in the tomb of King Ramses 11 (1304 B.C.), together with Plato's writings about Atlantis that were recorded some time later, suggest that civiiization was very advanced thousands of years ago. TRUCK STOLEN IN 1980 IS FOUND IN SAME SPOT - Meadville, PA - A four-wheel-drive truck stolen nearly four years ago turned up here Saturday, at the same spot from which it was taken, virtually untouched and boasting a new battery. "It's amazing that somebody would take the chance to drive the stolen vehicle on the highway to bring it back," owner Thomas Moss said. Moss also said his checkbook remained on the front seat, and a loaded 357 caliber Magnum was inside the door pocket where he had kept it. A $400 stereo system, a box containing 12 cassette tapes and a CB radio, also were left "identically to where they were." The keys hung from the ignition, and the odometer had fewer than 100 additional miles on it. 7/23/84.

POWERFUL MYSTERIOUS STAR IS FOUND IN MILKY WAY - Astronomers have discovered a mysterious star in the Milky Way that is more than 1 million times as powerful as the sun and spews gas in two directions at one-quarter the speed of light... The star, known as SS-433, "is perhaps the most unusual object in the Milky Way..." The moving emission lines have a cycle that repeats once every 164 days, implying that the star is rotating like a lighthouse while ejecting gas in opposite directions at a speed of nearly 50,000 miles an hour... THE SURVIVAL: A 'REMEMBERING'
by Joan O'Connell

> As the ground disolved into clinging mud and the veil of the night sky was rent by the bloody star-shine of a thousand fires loosed by the opening fissures..... Alone stood a small Temple. Not grand and glorious - not richly decorated, just a small Temple devoted to the One who was, is, and allways will Be. It's pil - lars were only twelve in number, and in a circle, not hundreds of them as in the big city Temples. It's floor was of earth, not marble, and it's altar was but a crystal slab, not made of gold...

It's location was hidden among the trees at the foot of the mountain. Why hidden? Because the Truth was no longer worshipped, and there were ones in control who did not want the Old Worship to continue, and so the Old Ones were sought out and eliminated. An unbroken line of the Old Priesthood did still exist. They were hidden in this remote val- ley.

The Last Guardian stood upon the crest of the hill, looking out into the night, seeing with pain and sorrow on his face, the destruction going on about him. With many tears and with anguish within his heart, he knew that he could do nothing to stop the carnage. Or, to even comfort those who were caught up in the wind-crazed waters which were already beginning to cover his beloved land.

The Judgement was not his to execute. It had been decreed by the One, the Ever-Present. He was but an instrument, he could not undo what had been set into motion. He greived for those for whom he could not help, and he prayed that the Knowledge would not be washed out by the cruel sea along with the lost Atlanteans.

A small point of brilliant light appeared above him. It came ever closer, closer, until the Priest saw the mighty ARC. It hovered over the fallen cities and towns, the untended Temples. It stood in majesty over the houses of sin and sorrow. It saw the masses crying out for help. Yet, it did nothing.

Nor did it send out the Small-Faced Ones to give guidance or assistance. It only displayed it's brilliant rainbow hues, flashing and lighting up the darkness of dispair. Then - a small golden cloud appeared and within it was a small golden ship. It was launched and it then sped towards the Old Guardian. It landed, a door slid open, showing a golden glow within it's center. The Old Priest heard hushed wisperings in the depth of his very being.... "Come within, you have earned the right to re - build humanity. You shall survive. To again teach the Love of the One, the Knowledge of Truth and the balance of Justice. He looked below and he wept for those who had been left behind. He felt that he had failed them...

Another chance was now being given to him, and the next time he would not fail. What had once been, would be again...

TIME/PHASE.....TIME/LOCK.....SHIFT.....LOCK/OPEN...

This small Temple is being built and re-created, on the physical plane, at a secluded spot in Florida. It is located directly over a 'dimensional doorway' or vortex spot. It's twelve columns will be augmented by twelve differing crystal units, all of which work together to restore the harmonic balances within the physical being. The frequency level generated by this structure will maintain the correct evolutionary levels needed to withstand the disrupting energy patterns that surround this physical earth plane.

It's second-level-function: To provide an 'escape hatch' into the dimensional planes that intersect that area. When the physical body has now reached the new frequency level it will then transform itself, via the molecular and cellular structuring of the body system, into to what is loosly called 'a light body'. This is the infinitization of all physical beings, the outer limit, whereapon reached, the physical is shifted above earth frequency. This is NOT a mechanical manipulation...

All must be in coordination. The physical, mental and spiritual bodies must all be in a harmonious range of frequency levels. When this is accomplished one retains the new frequencies in a body/state that is 'lighter' than the physical state. One can never 'force' or powersurge a spiritual body! This is done from within. Only in a 'light' body can the 'escape hatch' be utilized.

Another way to explain the 'light' state would be to say that ALL the plural 'bodies' of the physical being have meshed and harmonized and became one 'body'/ or being. But, in order to do this, one has to work at upping the personal frequency level in EACH of the etheric bodies, to it's farthest limit. When all the levels are at their highest peak --- then we have a 'light' body.

No one will ever be asked either to donate money, land, or be charged a fee, for the availability of this Temple. It is being built without any solicitation from those who will eventually need it's services..... It will always be open, always accessable. It will never had a lock on it's door. But - what you MUST do, if you want to maintain your levels or to increase your levels, is to FIND IT.

On your own, with no help. You must seek it out. It is in the seeking that you will run across many places, many people, who will lead you to the location. Along the way you will have played the Game of Life..... It is in the growing and the seeking that you will have earned the right to enter.

A Universal Game of Hide and Seek!

The old saying of "When the student is ready - the teacher appears" does apply in this instance. When you have reached a certain level in your spiritual development you WILL automatically be led into the correct area. Why? Because of the Universal Law of Attraction. Like attracts like.... When your inner vibrations reach a level of awareness you will be directed inwardly towards the goal of eternity.

There is a normal progression and evolution in ALL things created. Stagnation takes place where there is no progression. That is not to be allowed. There was placed upon ALL created 'worlds', galaxies, star systems, and Universes, a, shall we say, a TIME LIMIT. There was a very particular TIME LOCK set upon physical spaceships such as our own Earth. There were very definite cycles set into motion. The Grand Progression of Earth - from a cipher, a zero, a nothing, to a fully evolutionized higher density planet, is just about over. The last of our 'time' approaches.

Seek and Ye Shall Find...

GRAIN OF GOLD

PART II

Concerning death by heart failure and the Breastplate of Judgment

"In the body is a piece of flesh which when good, the entire body is good; when corrupt, the entire body is corrupt; it is the heart."

These words were spoken by the prophet Mohammed who, it is told, at the age of three was playing in the fields with his brother, when two angels appeared before him. They laid Mohammed gently on the ground, and Gabriel, without harming him, opened his breast. Taking forth his heart, he cleansed it from all impurity - which lurks in the hearts of the best of Adam's descendents. When he thoroughly purified it, he filled it with faith and prophetic knowledge, then replacing it in the bosom of the child. From that time on a mysterious light began to emanate from the prophet.

They say that after the coming of Jesus and the final Sacrifice, the corrupt spirits were pushed back some, so man could settle down to an eon of peace. This seems to be so if we consider the great battles of elemental spirit that mark the epics of ancient times. But the battle is not won, for we have yet to conquer the demon of self-interest, the destroying angel of success, the monster of mediocrity, the imp of impatience, the dwarf of disbelief, the stone of cold-heartedness, the prankster of injustice. All of these feed on our life-essence, Spiritus which dwells in the heart. Nor will they go away; they will linger and linger until cast out by the will of man.

As investigators into the unknown, we are concerned with the many untimely deaths of our spokesmen. Charles Marcoux was a courageous seeker, whose recent death by sudden heart failure remains a mystery to those who knew him best. Eight years before, there was the sudden loss of Richard Shaver, also due to unaccountable failure of the heart, ocurring just before he was to bring the Shaver Mystery to Hollywood. And now, our foremost senior investigator in Hollow Earth, who shall remain nameless, is unable to continue. Why? Chronic angina: "at times I couldn't walk across the room without getting chest pains."

As we know, this malady is not monopolized by occultists alone. However, it is an occupational hazard. The famous curse of the pharoahs brings some more information to light. World-wide acclaim came to those who opened King Tutankhamun's tomb in 1922; but within the decade it brought death to over twenty individuals involved in the project. Circulatory failure was chief among the causes of death; strokes, seizures of the heart. For the remainder, they were either sudden (cancers) or undiagnosible (fevers and delirium).

The full syndrome of such mysterious deaths include circulatory failures and swellings, chest pains with difficulty breathing, trembling, and even phantom strangulations. Mythology knows the name of this demon which settles upon the chest, usually descending upon the sleeper at night. This creature, called incubus, is named after the act of "lying on" (incubare). Curiously, this was the basis of an ancient method of healing called incubation, whose practitioners known as "therapeutae" gave us the word therapy. Incubation was once practiced in the sacred caves of Palestine and Egypt. (see Fig. 1). To the grottoes the patient betook himself to sleep in the sacred chambers, praying for a nocturnal vision of diagnosis or healing. The vision was in the nature of an oracle, for which the therapeutae are best known. (See Grain of Gold, I). Now "therapy" and "therapeutae" are in turn relatives of seraph, serapis, Serapeum, etc. which all derive from theraphim or teraphim known to us from scriptures as small statue-oracles, household idols, often golden images which when properly invoked, gave answers to questions. In Grain of Gold I, the theraphim were shown to be fore-runners of Aaron's marvelous breastplate, also oracular. All well and good. Only there is the frightful incubus who partakes in this incubation, the mischeivous intruder of the night who comes uninvited, slipping in through the keyhole, sometimes suffocating a man to death by lying on his chest. As we will soon see, the incubi come under the command of Eblis (Satan, Azazil). In any case, incubation had its flaws, and its dangers. This is also true of the theraphim (teraphim, seraphim) as we can see from the story of Pharoah Amenophis III who became very ill toward the end of his life. It is told that he finally sent for one of the "miracle-working statues from Ninevah." ——————→ But that too failed. Even Hebrew ritual failed, as in the case of Aaron's two sons Nadab and Abihu. Aaron, the high priest of Israel, called his breastplate an instrument for learning divine will. (See Fig. 2)

We may add that the heart, which the chestpiece adorns, is the instrument of spiritus. But it is a delicate instrument. The laws of entrance into the holy of holies indicate that even the smallest imperfection can court disaster. From the Torah we learn that Aaron's two sons "drew too close" to the unmixed presence, and died. Num. 3:

> "Nadab and Abihu died by the will of the Lord when they offerred alien fire before the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai."

After this disaster, the Lord instructed Moses how Aaron was to enter the Tent of Meeting. Lev. 16:

> "...and he shall place lots upon two goats, one marked for the Lord and the other marked for Azazel."

The procedure required that the second goat be sent off to the wilderness for Azazel, who we remember is cheif of the incubi under the name of Eblis, which is Despair. Eblis was the name received by Satan after all that trouble in heaven. Of Azazil, his other name, it is said that he once was the mightiest of the archangels, but at the creation of man, refused to worship Adam : "Why should I who thou hast created of fire bow down to one formed of clay?" Thereupon he was changed to Despair and was cast down. Despite his lowered estate he retained great powers and maintained sovereignty over the ginn and many of the seraphim now stranded on the newly quarantined earth. It is said that, unlike the inferior spirits called devs or giants, Eblis and his legions maintain a balance of power and are unmoved by sacred insignia, . . . Thus the Hebrew laws of entrance were prolix and still in the process of revision. Instructions concerning the ephod or breastplate are found in Exodus 28:

> "Inside the breastplate of decision you shall place the Urim and Thummim so that they are over Aaron's heart when he comes before the Lord."

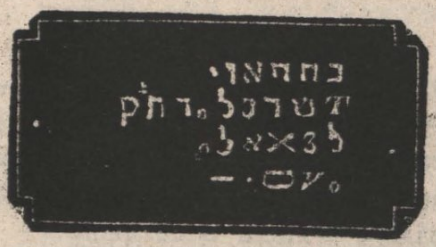

The instrument was to sit in its proper place, upon the very throne of good judgment, the heart of the high priest. Here the translators render this the breastplate of decision reminding us that the device was an oracle. In drawing the veil, it was only necessary to receive the full light:

> "...those who belong to the order of the priesthood may go within the veil with the high priest, for the veil was rent from top to bottom. Those above opened to us who are below... He who will receive that light will not be seen, nor can he be detained." (Nag Hammadi Library)

The rituals surrounding the breastplate imply concern with protection; it is a kind of shield. Outside of the ordained priesthood, simpler methods have been used. The same principle of covering and protecting may be found in the simple woolen wrap. Some say that Sufism took its name from wool, "suf;" for this mystic order, like the lamas, know to establish the proper "temperament" in the body. Every body is of a certain temperament with respect to warmth, cold, dryness and wetness. For the demons which are in the whole body are ordained to be four: hot, cold, wet, dry. These make the preconditions of spiritual influence in every body. Many examples of this influence come from ancient writ: Cain was left without protection and was "seized with eternal trembling;" King David could no more obtain warmth of body, though covered well with clothing. On Mount Hira, Mohammed heard a voice: "'Mohammed, thou art god's messenger.' I knelt and I waited. Then I slowly left, my heart was trembling. I came to Hadija and said to enwrap me, enwrap me, and my fear left." Apollonius of Tyana, the mystic contemporary of Jesus, also heard "a soft voice." He enwrapped himself completely, head to foot in a long woolen scarf kept only for this purpose. Sax Rohmer mentions that St. Germain too sometimes "wrapped himself up," and also remembers the "warm shawl of Blavatsky."

The shawl, in any case, is a device, like the breastplate, a means to an end and not sacred in itself. When Moses called his breastplate Strong Rock of Faith, he meant his own heart. The Magical Law of Moses is: Kuta-Al Lewuwat, meaning "We are great! Our hearts!" The same meaning can be found in the words of Master Jesus:

> Verily, verily I say unto you that this is my doctrine, and whoso buildeth upon this buildeth upon my rock, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against them.

THE SECRET OF THE "SEVENON"
by Joan O'Connell

On page 216 in the book, "URI", by Dr. A. Puharich, there is a communication from what they identify as a "Space Intellegence". It says, in part... "... but if we get SEVEN time the electrical equivalent of the human body, if we get it SEVEN times, do you know what would result? It would result in SEVENON of the mass of electricity. That's a very strange term, but it's true. If it gains sevenfold, corresponding ap - proximation to light velocity will be 99 percent. That is the point where human personality has to be stretched in order to achieve infinitization. This is one of the most secret insights. Our problem now boils down to this, how to get the human body SEVEN times what it is in electrical terms..."

SEVEN, the numeral, has always been the most mystical, most 'lucky', most revered... the most 'Ancient of Secrets'. Let us now apply just one aspect of the 'secret' property of the numeral SEVEN... to the question of survival during the frequency changes that are now happening all over our Earth. As the planetary frequency changes, going ever higher in levels, your own PERSONAL 'frequency' must change as well. In fact, it MUST --- or you will not achieve 'infinitization'. Which, simply put, means that the very highest level that a human body can achieve MUST be accomplished. This is the 'why' of the taskforce of Intellegences. They have a mission, a specific one, and it concerns the way that humans can change their own physical bodies, maintain it, and survive with it, until such time as their own spiritual/mental/physical bodies can 'mesh', synchronize, and become one very special body: the LIGHT body. Changed in it's molecular and cellular construction. It is in this way that the survival of the personality of Earth Level humans takes place.

The certain level of vibrational frequency that ALL must now try to reach: it is SEVEN times the level at which you are NOW operational. And, it is a sliding scale! This means that if you are at the LOWEST level in your development, you need only to up it by SEVEN levels. If you are at your HIGHEST level, you will already have achieved this, and now you must maintain this. You also must remember that these 'levels' about which we are speaking are NOT just speculative! They are quite apparent on certains physical machines.

The human brain is nothing but a 'signal generator'. It emits an electrical 'charge' which can be measured on a bio-feedback device, an EEG device, or an EKG machine. The bio-field that surrounds the physical body SHOWS physically, the strength or the weakness of the auric levels. Psychics can see the AURA fields, and just plain old Earth Science can measure it. Now --- how do we go about achieving these changes?

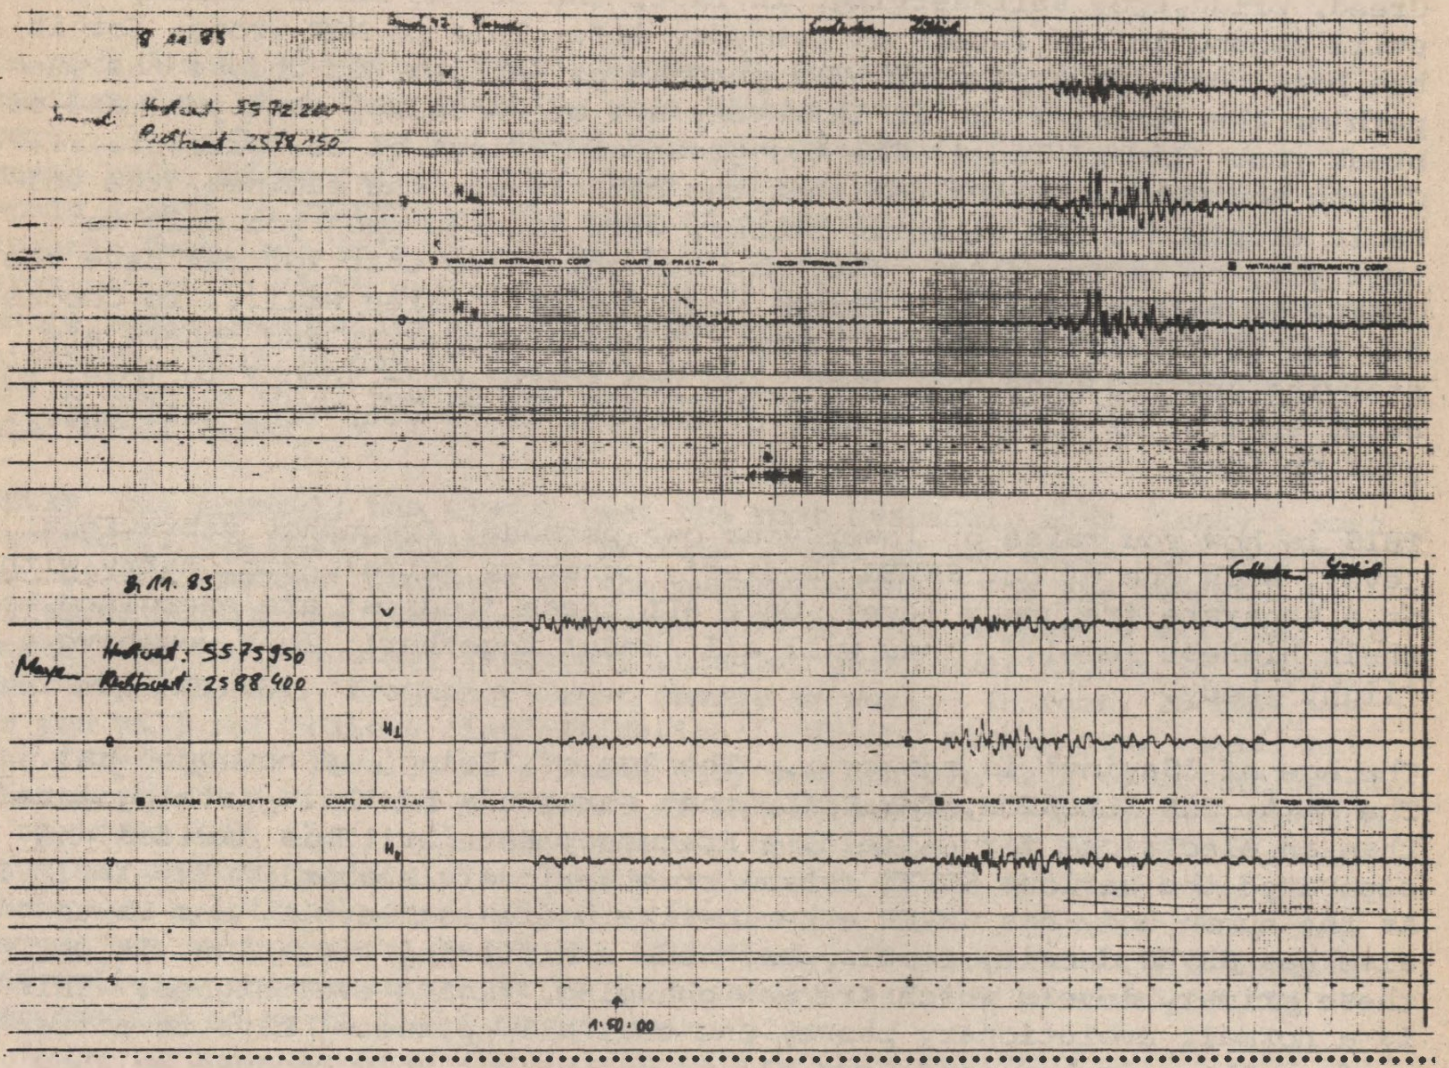

Greed, pride, ego, self-serving, in fact, ALL of the SEVEN 'deadly sins' still abound in all facets of everyday life. This is NOT wrong, for it has been done for a purpose. The purpose of letting YOU choose the one path or the other. It is in this very act of choosing, that you make or break your 'light' body! The two greatest givings of our Creator..... Chance and Choice. Think not that the cataclysms, the famines, the volcanic eruptions, the gigantic storms, were imposed upon you only to hurt you, or anyone else. They are brought in so that YOU can have the CHANCE to either 'dim' or 'shine' your 'light', Free will... to choose how you will react to these events. If hunger appears, and others are starving and you have good food...do you share? Or - shoot? To love, to help, to aid. Or to shun, avoid, or escape. It is your free will and... your choice.

THIS is how you raise or lower your own personal frequency vibrational level. Each one of our SEVEN 'bodies', etheric, astral, etc. carry with it a separate frequency level. Once ALL these 'bodies' are energized to their highest level... they will all 'mesh' together! Then you have a 'light' body.

The Age of 'Saying' is now over. The Age of 'Doing' is now upon us!... The MAYA, THE ILLUSION, THE VEIL, that surrounds Earth is nothing more than an electrical force-field, a Frequency Barrier. This divides and separated the various SEVEN astral or etheric or 'heavenly' levels..... As the human body has SEVEN etheric-like bodies or levels, our Earth also has SEVEN density levels, each one a differing vibration. It is these primary levels which are now changing, rising ever higher. This is a normal, evolutionary phase, one that all 'planets' have to correspond. There is hope and love all around us but only because we show it, in the way of LIVING it. We receive what we give. We will have to live with what we get. To "SHARE" or to "SHOOT"? Or - the SEVEN..... Choose well, ManKind...

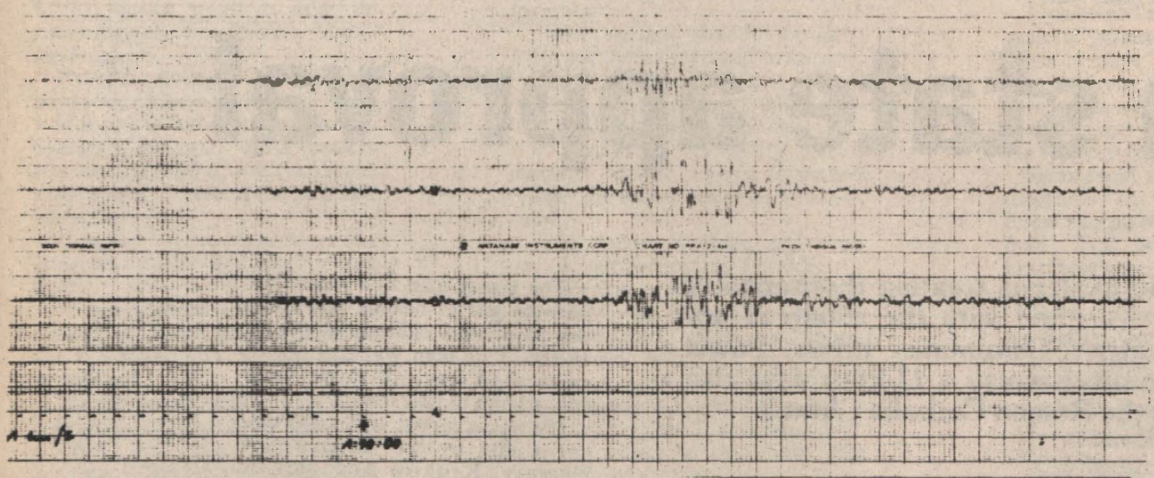

EXCERPT FROM PRIVATE LETTER FROM DR. HANS A. NIEPER. DATED: NOV. 24, 1983. THE EARTHQUAKE GRAPHS COME FROM THE TECHNICAL UNIVER - SITY OF AACHEN IN WEST GERMANY.

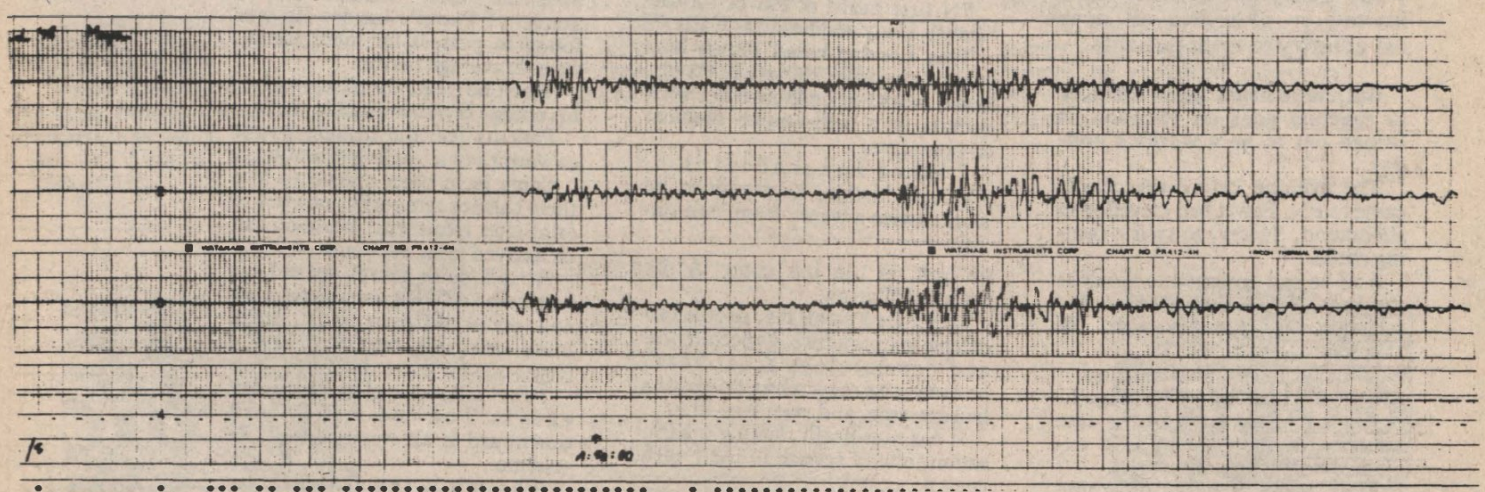

CONFIDENTIAL NEWS FROM POLITICS AND THE ECONOMY
(Vertrauliche Mitteillungen aus Politic und Wirtshaft)
Nr. 2470, November 12, 1983, Item 6

Experts have been puzzled the last few days that during the 8 Nov 83 earthquake in Luettich, Germany (the effects of which were felt throughout Northwest Germany) all foreshocks and aftershocks were missing. The quake measurement showed only one completely isolated peak. This seismographic peculiarity definitely shows an artificially caused (Tesla) quake. It is no surprise, because for a long time now we have expected the Soviets to drop a calling card for their Weather-war someplace in Europe (as they have done in the USA and Canada). In the opinion of our specialist, the target of this quake was the NATO Headquarters which is located about 70 km distant from Luettich. For those who are not familiar with the Weather-war phenomenon, we wish to emphasize that Nikola Tesla also succeeded in creating several artificial earthquakes. In the field of Tesla weapons, many more important developments can be expected. The center of the research is located in the American city of Huntsville, AL with the well known physicist Thomas E. Bearden.

THIS UNIVERSITY IS BEGINNING TO GET HEAVILY INVOLVED IN TACHYON ENERGY. THE GERMAN ASSOCIATION FOR GRAVITY FIELD ENERGY HAS RECEIVED 25 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS FROM THE UNIVERSITY ALONE.

Polish psychic healer treats thousands — with state approval

by Pam Riva

A POLISH psychic healer is treating thousands of sufferers annually . . . and with the stamp of approval of the country's Communist rulers. Pawel Polonecki, 30, who often works a 12-hour day, also has the sanction of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pawel has come to London on holiday with his wife of a year, Grazyma. He has been invited by churches all over his country to treat patients.

But, as is usual when a healer or medium goes on vacation, it turned out to be a working holiday.

The evening before the couple came to PN, Pawel had travelled to Richmond, Surrey, to visit a healing clinic.

And he had arranged to speak at the Polish Social and Cultural Association in Hammersmith, W London.

A thousand people turned up – so a second meeting was arranged.

Pawel told me some of the case histories of his patients and explained how treatment works.

"For many it was something new," he said.

Though the young, fair-haired healer speaks practically no English, our interview went amazingly well.

We were lucky to have the expert services of Magda Telluk, a Polish woman living in London. Magda told me she had little sympathy with psychics until she met Pawel.

Pawel was born in Warsaw, where he still lives. His mother is a hospital nurse; healing apparently runs in the Polonecki family! His father, who has passed on, was a social worker.

Once an amateur boxer, Pawel trained as an engineer. Now he is turning to healing full-time.

"There are so many people who need help," he said.

PN first heard of Pawel via the "Polish Daily and Soldiers Daily."

This London-based Polish language newspaper reported that the healer works in collaboration with doctors at a well-known medical co-operative.

I asked Pawel about this. Through Madga, he explained he works twice a week, from 7am until 7pm, at the Izis clinic in the centre of Warsaw.

Here, for a small fee, people can receive acupuncture, gynecological and dermatology treatment, beauty therapy that includes hairdressing, and even face-lifts.

It is a non-profit making organisation, one of several in the Polish capital.

"Many of my patients have already been treated by medicine," Pawel said. "In some cases they were regarded as 'hopeless'."

The healer works in conjunction with doctors. Patients are referred to their GP to check results.

When I asked what was his success rate, he replied, "80 per cent get better."

Pawel sees up to 150 patients a day and has been working at this clinic for 18 months.

He also treats elderly people at an old folks' home. He showed me a letter from the principal, and a photograph of Archbishop Glemp visiting the home.

Pawel takes no money for this service, Magda added.

Many of the healing clinics are Government-run. As Pawel works at such a centre he is automatically accepted by the State.

The young man first learned he had the gift of healing when one day he drove a radiesthesia practitioner. This man was sure Pawel possessed healing power and invited him to take tests.

He was accepted as having healing ability by the Biocenotycine Society. Krakow Academy of Medicine took Kirlian photographs of Pawel's hands. He was found to possess far more energy than an average person.

When he treats the sick, some of his energy is transmitted to them.

Patients feel the healing power as warmth or a tingling sensation.

Some have been known to lose their balance temporily, or even to faint after treatment! Reaction can be delayed for some hours.

At this point Pawel opened his briefcase and took out a pendulum and some divining rods, small metal ones for diagnosis, and a larger one for water divining.

Pawel offered to give me a quick check. The rod would jerk downward if all was not well, he told me.

Though it remained fairly steady as he passed it gently over me, it gave an indication there was a slight problem in my neck and back.

Most typists suffer from some degree of tension and stiffness here and I am no exception.

"Do you catch cold easily?" asked Pawel.

This has been a health problem in the past, I told him.

Pawel also gives what he terms "mesmeric" treatment during which he does not touch patients.

nd he would certainly have difficulty touching one of his clients who suffers from pain in her arms – and lives in New York!

When Pawel telephones her from Warsaw, each puts one hand on the other arm. The woman testifies that she feels warmth, and her pain ceases as the healer speaks.

Pawel is a great admirer of British healer Clive Harris, who has made many trips to Poland.

Clive has become so famous there that tickets have to be sold to enable some order to be kept as the British healer treats at open-air gatherings all over Poland. Thousands attend.

Pawel has not met Clive, though he has seen him in action.

It is one of his dearest wishes to contact Clive and other healers who do this kind of work, to share experiences to benefit the sick and suffering.

Gladly we supplied some addresses to this dedicated young Pole.

"I am pleased Clive comes to Poland and helps people," he told me. "I would like to thank him very much.

"Some people follow him from town to town to get his treatment.

"But" – a grin spread across his face – "he has got competition now!"

In case I should misunderstand, he added, "Even with both of us we can't do it all."

Pawel showed me a newspaper cutting headed, "Polski Harris," an article in which Pawel is hailed as the "Polish Harris." This pleased him.

"People of our kind are always tiny," he said. Pawel is very slim and of average height, as is Clive.

"The best age-group is between 30 and 40. We get more energy then."

Next I asked what kind of ailments Pawel treats. He began to list them – neurological problems, heart, kidney, rheumatic and arthritic pain, epilepsy, paralysis . . .

What success rate did he have with paralysis? I wanted to know.

Pawel told me of a recent case. A woman of 21 suffered urine poisoning during her pregnancy.

Though it was only three months to the baby's expected birth, she had to undergo an abortion.

This led to anemia, and even worse, paralysis of her left side.

But after 16 days of Pawel's treatment, the anemia and paralysis were gone. Now the young woman can walk.

"Doctors say it is a miracle; they can't explain it," added Magda.

Pawel told me it was very difficult to affect a condition with which a patient was born.

One 11-year-old boy he was able to help suffered brain paralysis after an accident.

After three treatments from Pawel, he can concentrate, sees better, talks, and even tries to walk.

"He looks much better and happier," said the healer.

Children always have priority with him. He never charges for their treatment.

Though he and his wife do not have any children, Pawel has 13 who he believes owe their existence to him – for he also gives healing to childless women.

He showed me a letter from one grateful patient who tried for nine years to have a baby. She is now pregnant, she tells him.

Another letter in the healer's portfolio was from a Polish doctor. He suffered from heart trouble.

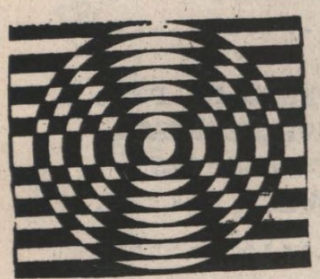

Before-and-after-treatment cardiograms showed quite a difference in pattern, the doctor testified. The second proved his heartbeat was then completely stable.

Pawel spoke of a computer being built in Germany.

It is hoped it will be able to transmit the same kind of power as a healer to energise patients. Hospitals and clinics would benefit greatly.

Pawel likened the body to a car battery that sometimes runs down.

"This machine will give patients energy and recharge the batteries," he explained. However, there is still a long way to go to perfect it.

TRIBUTE TO A HEALER

A very good friend of mine introduced me to Milton Kramer in September of 1977. At that time I was having difficulty, emotionally, concerning a man. Milton was able to help me achieve such excellent results that, over the years, I have continued to rely heavily upon his advice, knowledge and friendship. I have also been subject to tension resulting from my job and Milton has come to my aid, via long distance telephone conversations, to relieve the tension from my back, neck and shoulders. His spiritual healing by God is extremely effective. I have such high regard for Milton that I have referred several of my friends to him for the spiritual healing and advice. Needless to say, the results have been dramatic and my friends value Milton as much as I do —Joan Riewe, West Plaine, Missouri.

I have suffered for many years with a backache. It was always there and I had become adjusted to the pain. About a month ago, I started to have the pain in both hips. I read an advertisement about Milton Kramer. One phone call and both my back and hips have not ached.

I can truthfully testify, Milton Kramer has healed me.

One of the Chicago area's most respected psychic, he has given many accurate predictions on RADIO, T.V. and NEWSPAPERS and has helped many people with personal problems. I predict that the economy will recover by the end of 1983 and that Israel will never be beaten in any war. Stop suffering with your problems.

THE HEALER

I am grateful to one of your advertisers for helping me. He is Milton Kramer of Des Plaines, Ill.

I had suffered a severe backache since July 5, 1979. I went to a chiropractor 39 times and she helped me temporarily but a couple of hours after each treatment, the pain returned. I contacted Milton Kramer and within a day my back pain was gone. I can surely testify that Mr. Kramer did heal me and any time I have health problems I will contact him again. — Della Patterson, La Grange, Tex.

Mundane astrology has a period of one year, while Maha astrology has a period of 25,920 years. Quite a difference, a substantial ratio. This is why one is Greater and one is Lesser (Maha and Hina).

Each period has twelve phases called 'signs' or 'constellations.' The mundane changes signs once a month, while the Maha requires 2160 years to change. We are now said to be in the fading cusp of Pisces and the waxing (growing) cusp of Aquarius. Many say that we actually entered Aquarius on September 4, 1964. At any rate we should be firmly into Aquarius sometime shortly after 2000 A.D.

The Maha and the mundane form an interlocking system, one complements (supplements?) the other, or more correctly, they 'mesh' into one another like two cogs. See the diagram A.

The dark areas in Dia. A represent 'Yang' (positive, masculine) while the light areas are 'Yin' (negative, feminine). This, in essence, is their 'polarity.' Thus, we see.....

Aries	Libra	♈-♎
Taurus	Scorpio	♉-♏
Gemini	Sagittarius	♊-♐
Cancer	Capricorn	♋-♑
Leo	Aquarius	♌-♒
Virgo	Pisces	♍-♓

These signs are opposed in Yin-Yang and in negative-positive. For example: Capricorn in the mundane wheel is negative-yin, but in the Maha is positive-yang. This gives rise to two states of the yin-yang nature. In the Maha, the state is called Yin-Yang, while in the mundane it is Yang-Yin. Just the reverse order. It must be ordered in this way to be technically correct and explicit. Ignorance of this fact will cause some writers to refer to yin, when they really mean yang, and vice-versa. The order above is correct by Hindu standards.

The signs have other qualities, they are: cardinal, fixed, and mutable. In addition, the signs also have elements, they are: air, earth, water, and fire. These can be combined and cross referenced in a single chart. See below

ELEMENTS / QUALITIES	AIR	EARTH	WATER	FIRE
CARDINAL	Libra ♎	Capricorn ♑	Cancer ♋	Aries ♈
FIXED	Aquarius ♒	Taurus ♉	Scorpio ♏	Leo ♌
MUTABLE	Gemini ♊	Virgo ♍	Pisces ♓	Sagittarius ♐

These are sometimes referred to as the 'triplicities' and the 'quadruplicities.' In addition, there are 'rulers' to the elements: swords 'rule' over air, discs rule earth, cups rule water, and wands rule fire.

The ancients, Babylonians, Chaldeans, et al, imagined that each sign was represented by a person, an animal, or a thing, or combination thereof. For example: Aquarius is symbolized by (1) a man, (2) an urn, and (3) water. See below:

Part II - Next Issue —

Two of our foremost comtemporary astrologers are Geoffrey Dean and John Addey. Dean stresses number and harmonic analysis in astrological computations and configurations, while Addey perceives a 'wave theory' of astrology.

Addey's dissatisfaction with the confused and uncertain state of the art led him to try to find an acceptable and secure scientific approach to the subject. Over the years his own experience and observations, as well as his analysis of the statistical work of others, such as Donald Bradley, Brigadier R. C. Firebrace, and Michel Gauquelin, have led him to the conclusion that all astrological symbolism may be understood in terms of the fundamental concepts of cycle and number.

He has demonstrated that all astrological effects----from signs, houses, aspects, and midpoints to such refinements as degree areas and the Hindu shodasavargas---can most fruitfully be understood in terms of harmonics of cosmic periods. In his theory of Harmonics he has uncovered a unifying principle---which in fact reflects back to Pythagoras himself -- capable of bringing together all schools and traditions of astrology and even of integrating astrology into the total spectrum of scientific thought, where, in Addey's own words, "astrology is destined to assume an almost central role."

Addey's works include: 'Astrology Reborn'(1972),'Harmonics in Astrology'(1976),'Harmonics Anthology,' (1976), and'Selected Writings'(1976).

Notice Addey's reference to the Hindu terminology. Anyone who studies astrology long enough will sooner or later turn to the Hindus for the bottom line to any problem or area of thinking. It is to the Hindus that we owe the concept of Maha (Greater) and Hina (Lesser). Many of those among us live out their lives believing that there is only one astrology, not two or more.

There are as many astrologies as there are 'wheels and axles' in Maha Jyotisa (Hindu for Greater Astrology). See page 441. There are 8 wheels and one axle, the self. Hence, nine astrologies.

Of these nine, I consider two to be of immediate concern to mankind (and womankind). The first, of course, is natal astrology, from hereon in called 'mundane' astrolgy, and the second, 'Maha' astrology or the astrology of the 'precessional year.' The periods of the various wheels are defined also on p. 441. Periods and numbers, according to Addey.

Psychic Exterminator

During one of the final heat waves of this past summer in a town on the outskirts of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, a quiet neighborhood was visited by a wandering hobo—a transient that most any town would openly welcome into their city.

Recalls Dorothy Parker, a resident: "I was unloading groceries from my car one afternoon, when I was approached by this man. He looked like a hobo, and the way he eyed my groceries, I could tell he hadn't eaten for a long time. His clothes were tattered and he desperately needed a bath. He said to me, 'Lady, if you'll pay me $2 I'll get rid of all the bugs and roaches in your house.'

" 'Get rid of the roaches,' I thought, 'that'll be the day!' I figured the man was just asking for a handout, but wanted me to think he was working for it. He looked so pitiful, I gave him $2 and expected him to just walk away. Instead he said to me, 'OK—now I need a piece of cheese.' I was getting a little bothered by now, but I went and got a slice of American cheese and then walked back into my kitchen. A few minutes later I looked out my living room window and there he still was, sitting on my porch!

"He looked like he was in a trance. The slice of cheese lay unopened on the porch next to his knees, and as I watched I could see that he had laid a funny looking triangular-shaped object on top of the cheese. He didn't speak—but he looked to be in deep meditation. After another minute or so, he abruptly stood up, and upon seeing me in the window, smiled, motioned for me to take the cheese back, wished me a good day and walked off down the street.

"I thought the whole thing was pretty strange, and put it out of my mind until the next morning when I stepped outside, and I was shocked to see a row of dead cockroaches—belly up—in front of my door. I stepped over them and began to survey the rest of the yard. My house was completely encircled with dead cockroaches and bugs of every variety. There were even two dead mice underneath the bathroom window.

"When I started to mention my 'psychic exterminator' to people in town I thought they might not believe my story, since I have always believed in psychic phenomenon regardless of whether or not others thought I was just being foolish. However, I was told that this hobo had visited other people's homes—with the same results! For years I had tried everything to rid my home of roaches and other bugs, spent alot of money and had no luck whatsoever. It's been quite a few months now, and so far I have not had one single bug return to my home—it's just wonderful!"

BACHELOR'S GROVE CEMETERY By Dale Kaczmarek

Bachelor's Grove Cemetery is located in Cook County forest preserves along the Midlonthian Turnpike, near Midlonthian, Illinois. This spot is the most fruitful area in the entire Chicagoland area that produces genuine and authentic apparitions.

The cemetery was started by a family of German Immigrants who came from overseas and settled in the area. The graves date back to 1848 but the last grave was dug in 1965. Since that time the graveyard was abandoned and has not been used. There was and still is a lot of vandalism associated with the marking of tombstones with spray paint and the actual digging up of various graves.

The two most popular sightings at the Grove are the ghostly house and the strange blue light. The ghost house has been appearing to many people for over thirty years. All who see it always describe it in the same manner. It is a white wooden house, with wooden pillars, a porch swing and a light burning dimly in one window. The strange thing about this house, is the farther you walk toward it, the futher it keeps moving away from you. This continues until the house completely fades from view. There is no explanation for the appearance of this house. The ghost house usually appears on either side of the dirt road leading into the cemetery.

Inside the cemetery itself, however, a blue ghost light has been reported by motorist traveling along the turnpike and even people inside the graveyard at night. A Joliet man spotted the light on two occasions and actually chased the light until it faded out. He claimed the light grew as large as a basketball and that it occasionally blinked at fifteen second intervals.

Another witness was a young girl who encountered the light on a dark evening in December of 1971. Her meeting with the ghost light ws somewhat different. She claimed to have put her hand directly through the light. There was no sensation at all. No cold or heat was felt. It was as though she had put her hand through nothing at all. My personel theory of the ghost light is that it might be the restless spirit of some person buried out there. Because a true ghost light, you cannot catch up to or put your hand through.

Motorists traveling along the Midlothain Turnpike have reported seeing disappearing cars and pickup trucks. The first sighting was in June 1977 when a motorist passed what appeared to be a car parked alongside the road. However, after he had passed the car, he looked in his rearview mirror and to his amazement the car that was there a few moments ago had vanished. This seems to be the current phenomena that manifests itself at Bachelor's Grove.

On moonlit nights, people visiting the graveyard have seen what has been described as "The White Lady". A misty form of a woman that glides through the cemetery with no apparent place to go. Several people have been "spooked" by this apparition and needless to say, did not overstay their welcome. This strange "white lady" has also been seen sometimes carrying a baby in her arms, as she walks aimlessly through the forgotten burial grounds. There seems to be only a select few who have ever seen her, but apparently she really does exist.

There is a small lagoon adjacent to the cemetery, where many bizarre occurences have taken place, Perhaps, the most bizarre is the two-headed monster that crawls out of the lagoon and slithers across the two lan highway and disappears into Rubio Woods. Other people have seen the opposite route of the monster and watch it vanish under the murky, dark waters of the lagoon. This story even I find a little hard to believe. Perhaps this might stem from the fact of all the bodies that were found dumped in the lagoon during the late 1920's and early 1930's. It seems that this was a favorite spot for the mobsters to dump their murder victims. For it was secluded and less traveled than most roads in the area during the era.

There is an old legend of a farmer and his horse that drowned in the lagoon back in the 1870's. He apparently was clearing some land when his horse reared up and the farmer, horse and plow all fell backwards into the waters. A few years ago, a couple of Cook County Forest Rangers said that they saw a ghostly apparition of that farmer and his horse. They never reported it officially, probably because they were afraid of being rediculed.

Other things have happened out here such as a strange red "skyrocket" effect that wizzes up and down the main trail to the burial grounds and the old legend that the graves move by themselves. It seems that witnesses have seen what appeared to be a huge glowing red, sort of skyrocket effect, ball of light move very rapidly up and down the old dirt trail. As for the graves moving by themselves, it seems that you could go out there one day and visit a grave and then come back the next day or a week later and find them in an entirely different place.

Back in 1975 there was evidence found in one corner of the cemetery of Satan worship. The remains of decapitated animals were found. Among the kinds of animals discovered were small cats and chickens. They were all found to be totally drained of blood. On several trees and large rocks were strange occult-type symbols, which leads me to believe that some weird devil cult was involved in some black magic rituals. These remains were discovered by a couple of forest rangers who immediately alerted the Cook County Sheriff Police.

I hyponthesize that between the graves being dug up, the Satan Worship and all the bodies found in the lagoon, that would cause any dead to be restless. Perhaps that is why Bachelor's Grove Cemetery is so haunted, even today.

On May the 1st of 1982, I conducted various experiments at the cemetery with the aid of a sensitive, Pat Shenberg. She is a psychic who is able to pick up psychic vibrations which instantly become mental pictures of spirits.She can communicate with with spirits through a light trance. She is also capapble of picking up vibrations and sensations from inaminate objects, psychometry.

Ibrought along a portable tape recorder to record Pat's imprsssions and also to help document the findings. Also I used two 35mm single lens reflex cameras. One was equipped with 400 ASA color slide film and the other was color infrared film which was pushed to 400ASA. Both cmaeras were positioned to shoot the same angle and were seated firmly on tripods with separate cable releases. Ghosts were everywhere.

When first entering the cemetery, Pat was able to pick up an image near The Fulton Tombstone. Pat described what she saw. "This thing keeps switching between this hidious looking thing to a man dressed in strange looking clothes. Something very wrong. I don't know why he takes on the form of an animal, snarlilng and growling."

The most fascinating part of the experiment was to come now. While Pat and I were discussing all of these people, she began to see another form hovering over the Newman Grave. I asked her if she picked up any names and she replied, "Strange name like Dorma or Dora Myers". We walked over to the area and looked closely at the tombstone and it red Dora Myer. Pat had never been to this cemetery before and for a psychic or even a person posing as a psychic to draw a name out of the air and then walk over to the grave and find that name on the grave is beyond coincidence. I believe it is genuine proof of her abilities.

Needless to say, we di take several pictures around the area, with Pat as my guide as to where to aim my cameras. The results were very unusual. It seems that some outside force was effecting the cameras, particularly the camera with the infrared film. When I got the film back from Kodak in Rochester, New York, the entire group of pictures taken that day at Bachelor's Grove came out overexposed. Even though the high-speed and the infrared were taken at the same shutter speed and lens opening. The high-speed came out perfect, but the infrared was washed out. It's Pat's opion, and I agree with her, that something was indeed effecting the film that day and preventing us from seeing the various apparitions.

The remarkable thing about the film is that I took several other pictures later, on the same roll of infrared film, when we visited a supposedly haunted house that Pat and I were working on. That section of infrared came out perfectly normal.

I would like to sum up Bachelor's Grove with something Pat expressed earlier. "I have never just sat down and done this in a cemetery and expected to find people hanging out in one special area." She was really surprised to find so many ghosts roaming around at Bachelor"s Grove Cemetery.

I have taken dozen of rolls of infrared film and have come up with reddish streaks of lights, small faces in the trees, greenish blobs hovering in the trees and shadowy figures roaming about. Some people even captured Red Demonic looking faces on tombstones and the lagoon. What kind of aura lingers at this forgotten resting place? Only future expeditions will tell!

WATCH OUT WHERE YOU SLEEP!
by Herbert Douplas
Reprinted from: JOURNAL OF NATURAL HEALTH AND PARA - PSYCHOLOGY.....

Dowsing is a strange business. When you first see it done and a dowser says 'The water is here. It's 10 feet down', you are bewildered. Can it really be true? How does he know? How can it work? Or.. is he joking? And, when the back hoe digs down - there, by golly, right at 10 feet is the water! It's no trick. It really works. Why? No one knows!

And, when they wrote in the books published in England and Germany that people with arthritis are sleeping over water, the reaction is still the same. Disbelief. Just a myth. Baloney. And, when other books say that people with cancer are sleeping over 'noxious rays', the reaction is still the same. Baloney. Over the past 20 years, I've gone thru all these stages. Utter disbelief... then finally belief... Dowsing seems to work for the thing you are thinking of. When dowsers look for water, they are thinking of water, and that's what they will find. So that in dowsing around a bed or a TV chair for so called 'noxious rays' a dowser would think of any force that may be detrimental to a person sleeping or sitting there. Thus he would be thinking of water but also any other force, known or unknown, that may be harmful.

I have now checked 70 cases of arthritis. I've walked around their beds and find they are sleeping in a bed over which I get dowsing reaction. The rod may go down 2 or 4 or 6 times. In the past 10 years, I've checked the beds of 40 people with internal cancer. And every one of them has been sleeping over 5 or 10 or more dowsing reaction lines. In arthritis cases, the pain or trouble is directly over the points where these lines are crossing. In cancer cases, there are more lines and more crossings... so many, in fact, that the best term to describe it is 'saturated' with lines.

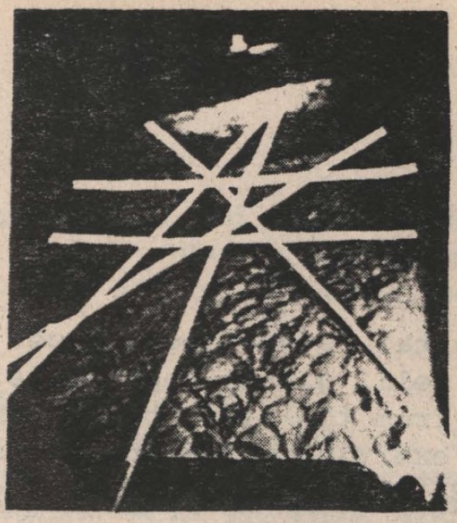

Part of these lines represent underground flowing water. In cancer, part of the lines may be due to effects in the ground that have been caused by lightning strikes.

I was impressed by the great number of dowsing reaction lines and the presence of several veins of water crossing each other directly under the tree or chimney or rock or house that was struck. And this great number of dowsing reaction lines and the presence of underground waterveins crossing each other are likewise present in every case of internal cancer I have checked. The similarity of the concentration of reaction lines in the canser area and in the lightning area is uncanny.

I believe these lines are due to waterveins, effects of lightning and possibly to other known or unknown causes. But whatever is causing these lines, the lines are always there, fewer perhaps in arthritic cases but always present and always crossing in arthritic, cancer and lightning areas. In fact I so consistintly found beds of these ill people were over these dowsing lines that I wondered whether these lines may be under everybody's bed, healthy and unhealthy. And, in truth, if they were indeed under the beds of healthy people, as well as the ill ones, then this whole theory would have no merit. The lines would have lost their significance.

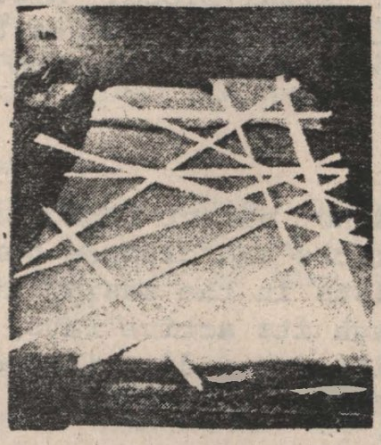

And so we sent a letter to the local newspaper asking for volunteers who were over 55 years of age, in relatively good health (free from arthritis and cancer) and who have lived in the same house for at least 10 or more years. Thus we checked a total of 70 arthritics and 40 cancer cases for the existence of dowsing reaction lines under their beds and places where they spend time. Every one of these 110 people are sleeping or spending a lot of time over 2 or more of these reaction lines and they are always crossing. In conclusion, it appears that all people with arthritis and cancer are spending time over dowsing lines which appear to be primarily watervein and lightning strike reactions. And almost all healthy people who are free of arthritis and cancer are sleeping in beds and sitting in favorite chairs that have NO dowsing reaction lines under them.

We do not know what the scientific explanation for all this may be. All we can say is that these are the facts as we found them... Herbert Douglas, R.R. 526, Shaftsbury, Vermont 05262. PH -802-442-4859. On the next page appear some of Mr. Douglas's photos...

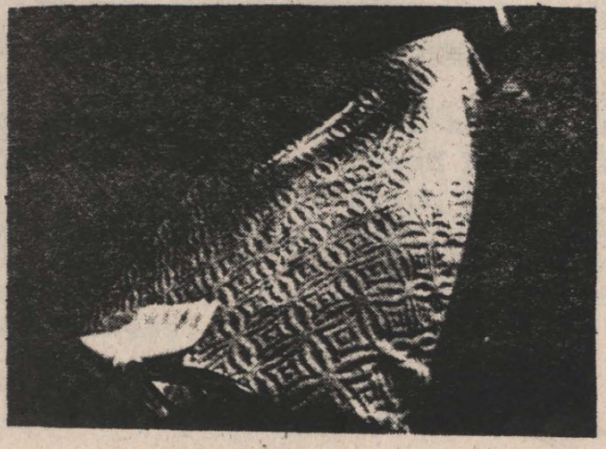

This couple slept in this bed for 25 years. The husband has had a prostate cancer operation and also has arthritis. The wife was in poor health with arthritis and gallbladder trouble.

In contrast to these beds of ill people, we found that the beds of relatively healthy people were substantially free of crossings. Of the beds of 25 healthy people, only one had crossings of these lines.

The person slept in this bed in this spot (or within 5 feet of it) for 20 years. They died of lung cancer. This is the type of saturation of lines that one finds both in internal cancer cases and in places struck by lightning.

This person is in good health. He is 68 and has slept in the same bed in the same spot for 60 years. Not a crossing!

COLOR HEALING

FROM: JOURNAL OF NATURAL HEALTH
& PARAPSYCHOLOGY - POB 91 -
Niagara Falls, NY 14305

COLOR is a cosmic power and therefore a vital, stupendous force. It works through and in us, in every nerve, cell, gland, and muscle. It shines in our Auras and radiates upon us from the atmosphere. In our higher bodies, color is an active power, exerting a tremendous influence on the consciousness. Color is LIFE. Color expresses the very Soul of the Universe.

RED - (Bone System)
Red is the Life Ray. It stimulates vitality. Good for neuralgis, rhematic conditions, and deep-seated congestions of internal organs. Stimulating mentally and benefits melancholia. Stimulates and increases action of warm red principle in body, the arterial blood. Also acts as the harmonizing affinitive of cold blue principle that causes blueness of veins, pale countenance, and so on. Oxygen devlops the red principle of blood.

ORANGE - (Chyle Blood System)
Stimulates and increases pulse rate but does not affect blood pressure. Strengthens the etheric body, enlivens emotions and creates general sense of well-being and cheerfulness. Assists in the assimulative, distributive and circulatory processes. Through its active rays, the es - sences of all foods are assimilated, classified and distributed to the various creative centres, or departments of the human system.

YELLOW - (Marrow System)
Use as a stimulant of mental faculties and useful in cases of mental lethargy or mental deficiency. Cleanses and purifies the whole system. Its affinitive colors are green and blue. Useful in tubercular cases. Central principle of nerve and brain stimulus. Acts principally on pneumagosyric nerve. Laxatives and purgatives have yellow as chief color - with red in drastic purgatives. Good for bronchial, congestion, and constipation.

GREEN - (Flesh System)
Acts on nervous system as sedative. Nature's master tonic. Good for sleeplessness. Acts on sympathetic nervous system relieving tension.

Good for exhaustion and nervous irritability. It loosens and equalizes the etheric body. When combined with blue or red, and yellow, it is a brain and nerve stimulant, also emetic and laxative. Emotionally soothing.

BLUE - (Fat System)
One of the greatest antiseptics. Cold color and causes contraction of arteries thereby raising blood pressure - dark. Use pale blue to lower blood pressure. Acts on blood and has tonic effect, being antiseptic and lessening suppuration. Nervous conditions, inward bleeding, cooling, a seditive, astringent and healing generally. Causes a contraction of the etheric body. Soothing to emotional body in cases of ever excitement.

INDIGO - (Sperm System)
Eye, ear, nose. Useful in treatment of certain forms of nervous and mental disorders. Great purifier of the physical bloodstream, and also a trememdous mental freeing and purifying agent, controlling the psychic currents of our finer bodies.

VIOLET - (Nerves)
Has effect on heart, lungs, blood vessels. Complimentary to yellow. Benefits phthisis by increasing the resistance of the tissues. Ideal purifier, and the purifier of ideals. Provides nourishment for all those cells in our upper brain.

In the human body PRANA, or breath, or life, is specialised by each individual when it is drawn into the body from the atmosphere through THE CHAKRAS and distributed over the whole system. The vital energy in PRANA is present in every cell and molecule of the body.

THE CHAKRAS, are bell-shaped vortices appearing in the etheric body (the vital counter-part of the physical). These vortices have a characteristic color and intersect the spinal cord at certain definite points. There are SEVEN major CHAKRAS in the human body. The CHAKRAS are specialized channels of color force. Each CHAKRA absorbs a special current of vital energy - through its particular color ray from the physical environment and from higher levels of consciousness.

THE COLORS OF THE CHAKRAS

VIOLET CHAKRA
Sanctuary of the Spirit, is situated at the top of the head in the region of the pituitary gland.

INDIGO CHAKRA
Sensitivity, spiritual perception and introspection is behind the mid-forehead controlling the pineal gland.

BLUE CHAKRA
Gateway to the spiritual aspect of man, in center of religious instinct, the devotional and mystical nature, lies within the throat and is based on the thyroid gland.

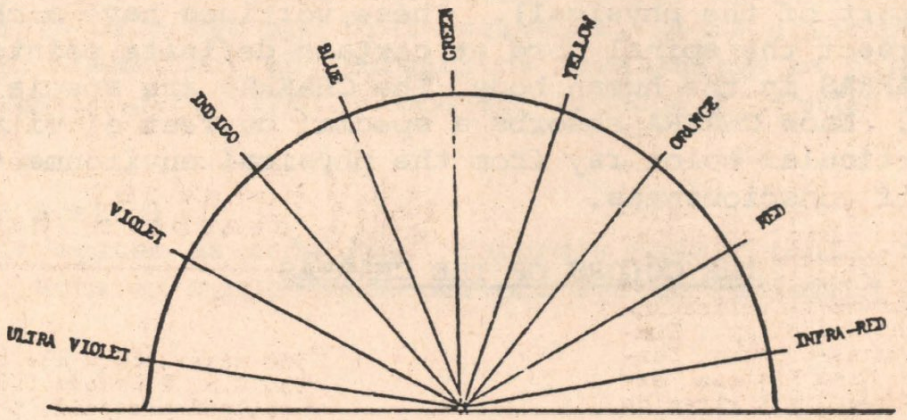

GREEN CHAKRA
Compassion and sympathy, is situated at the cardiac plexus. When working in harmony with the yellow and red chakras,there is peace and harmony in body and mind.

YELLOW CHAKRA
The golden center, lies in the solar plexus, influencing the adrenal gland, the pancreas and the liver. Color of intellect.

ORANGE CHAKRA
It is centered in the spleen.

RED CHAKRA
The coccygeal center at the base of the spine. Red and orange chakras, which have to do with the physical and etheric aspects of man are closely related and are sometimes classed together as a single unit. Red and orange rays increase the vitality.

COLOR is the most important factor in life. Cosmic colors create, maintain and destroy everything in creation.

Soviets set up probe on UFOs

GLOBE AND MAIL, Toronto, Ontario, Canada - May 30, 1984 CR: G. Duplantier

MOSCOW - The Soviet Union has set up a commission to investigate UFOs after an incident last year involving a "flying cigar" near Gorki... The commission was established in February and was headed by Pavel Popovich, a former cosmonaut. Its role to examine all sightings of moving objects or flashing lights in the sky... Mr. Popovich told the newspaper there were hundreds of reports each year...

Om the evening of March 27, 1983, air traffic controllers at Gorki's airport located a craft flying toward them which did not respond to radio signals. They saw with their own eyes the object as it approached the air field and said it was a steel-grey color "cigar" about the size of an airliner but without wings or a tailfin. It was flying at an altitude of about 900 metres and at a speed of between 175 and 200 kilometres an hour. The craft was visible on radar screens for about 40 minutes and then vanished...

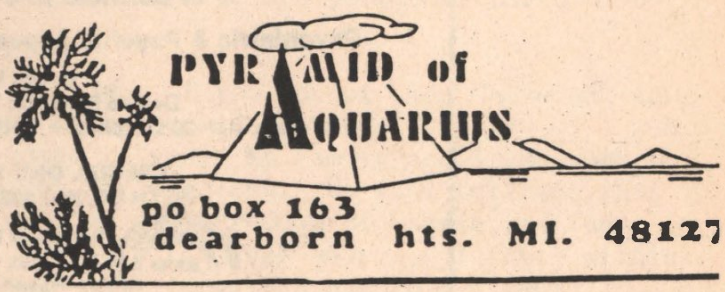

Recent unexplained sightings include another strange phenomenon in the Gorki area on Feb. 6. Several people saw "bright spheres" cruising through the air and one witness said two of them united to form a "flying saucer"... The commission has been named: The Commission on Abnormal Atmospheric Phenomenon...

INTERDIMENSIONAL COMMUNICATOR - THE "STONE" OF THE KAABA!
by Patrick O'Connell -
President, The New Atlanteans

The most sacred shrine of the Mohammedans is a flat-roofed, cube-shaped building in the center of the Great Mosque of Mecca. But - little is now known concerning the sacred Black Stone that is located in its south - east corner. Called the "HAJAR AL ASWUD", is is said to have originally been a ruby which came down from heaven, but as tradition has it, is now blackened by the tears shed for sin, by the thousands of pilgrins which visit the Kaaba each year.

The seemingly fanatical devotion which Believers exhibit toward the sacred stone may somehow be related to some researchers' belief that the stone emits a compelling force, perhaps an "etheric" wavelength or hypnotic message which maintains the fierce devotion of the Mohammedans throughout the centuries since the stone first appeared on earth.

It is well known that crystals, and in certain combinations and arrangements, will transmit messages (acoustical, and reportedly mental)... Therefore, it is not surprising to learn that the black stone is seem - ingly composed of a specific arrangement of crystals - or - stones! The CENTURY DICTIONARY AND CYCLOPEDIA (copyright 1899) states that the stone "... is an irregular oval about seven inches in diameter, and is composed of about a dozen smaller stones of different shapes and sizes."

As our Journal readers will note, this is not the only 'talking' stone or 'sacred' stone on earth! Other articles in this magazine have mentioned sacred stones discovered in both North and South America... ... Perhaps - when the Lost Hall Of Records is found, there may be similar 'lost' sacred stones rediscovered!

ATTENTION ALL EARTH BEINGS: BY GOLDEN EAGLE AND FAMILY

This is going to be a strange article and not the one that The Golden Eagle had planned for the journal at this time. The Golden Eagle was going to do a Healing Article but what has happened is to important and all must know of this. Very simply stated, all must be careful now.

There are many people that use to have a lot of power that were given to them by what we will call Alien Forces. The Alien Forces that this one is talking about are the good forces that are willing to work with Mankind. They gave their power to individuals, instead of governments so that they could reach out and help more of Mankind.

Opperating within Universal Law they left these individuals with Freedom of Choice but some of the individuals went astray. This is not to say that all did. The problem that I am talking about is those that once had this power and have abused the power, are now having this power taken away by The Aliens or the power is already gone. This does not mean that you are safe from them.

It is not a nice sight to see when this has been done to an individual. On the outside, it appears that these people do not age very fast however it is what takes place in the mind and body that we are going to talk about. These people that have abused this Alien Power have started to loose their memory and can not carry out the things that they promise other people. They have lost the healing energies that they once had. In some cases these people do not know that they have lost their power. It is said that they are still in contact with The Alien Forces. This in fact is true but it is not the same Alien forces. There are Higher and Lower Forms of Aliens and the same applies to Enities.

We have heard of several cases now where individuals feel that they are in direct contact with The Creator and receive their messages directly from him or her which ever the case may be. As if this is not bad enough there are those that have stated that they get their power from the U.F.O.s. More often than not they will blame the U.F.O.s for their down fall. Are the Aliens at fault here?

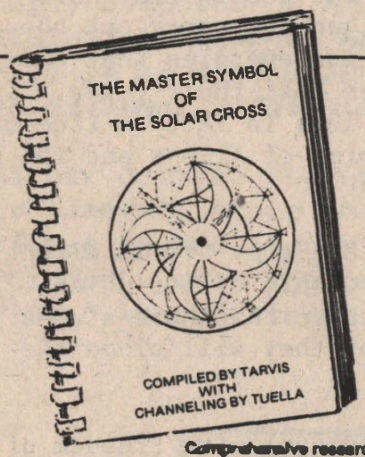

Yes, in a way. That is to say that they have left the individual with Freedom of Choice and in some cases gave them a mission that they felt would help Mankind. What The Aliens did not figure on was the greed and the E.G.O. of the individual, they gave the power to. Now just before a new day or era is to begin we the people of Earth have yet another problem. Who do we trust!

We must trust those that Operate by Universal Law. If you do not know Universal Law, you do know what is right from wrong. Therefore this one and this one's family will ask you to challenge any and all information that comes to you. My Family and I, do work with The Creators Energies but we can not make you any promises. We will tell you that we will send absent healings and we will. It will be your Freedom of Choice and The Creators, if you are to be healed. We are but channels for that energy. Is this within Universal Law? The answer here is yes. The reason why is simple enough and that is we have left you Freedom of Choice. You have the right to except the energy or reject it.

We do not sit in Judgement, that is the Creators work. What happens to those that loose their power, most of them think that they still have it. They are being controled now by the lower forces. What does this mean to us? It means that we must challenge these forces and hopefully win. We do have the right to reject these forces and that is to be sure, however they will not give up that easy. They will make you promises and yes, they will keep some of them.

Never let your guard down. The real battle for Earth will begin and end here and the only one that knows the final outcome is The Creator. We must challenge these Enities on all levels of our beings. The moment that we say some one else told me to do some thing that we felt ws not right, who is wrong? We are of course. A word to the wise should be enough. We must be responsible for our own actions and we must not blame the U.F.O.s or Aliens but we must put the blame in the proper place and that is us and no one else. We have a brain and we must use it.

We must begin to think for ourselfs because we do understand what is right and what is wrong. We must except our own responabilities. May The Creator Bless all of us and keep us safe but we must do our part as well. The Golden Eagle and his family wishes you all the good luck in the world because we are going to need it.

Greetings To All Earth Beings: By The Red Gold Sun

We see that some of you are feeling better since we last talked to you about healings. We feel at this time that we should go into it a little bit further. It does not matter if you try this in a group situation or by yourself. What we would like you to do is to take a few minutes in the morning and charge yourself up.

What we mean by charging yourself up, is to sit down and relax and say good morning to The Creator and realize that you are taking some of The Creators Energy in. You do this every day with out thinking. The very air that you breathe comes from The Creator. Now if you know that a certain person is not feeling that well or is feeling a little under the weather, we would like you to visualize that person and send them some energy.

Always remember to put The Creator at your Right Side, The Creator at your Left side, The Creator in Front of You and The Creator Behind you. Realize that you are well protected and guided. Let us now try to help those that are around us by sending them some pleasent thoughts. Try to Create a good energy flow between yourself and them. They do not need to realize this but you should remember that you are doing this for your higher good and their higher good as well.

Remember those people that did not feel so good that day and remember to try to heal them in your session at night. Remember to see them in perfect health, this is important, you do not need to feed the illness. Also remember that you will not be able to help every one out but the point is at least you have tried.

During the next several months, we are going to try to give certain ones of you some information but as we try to give you information, others will try to block it. We ask that you Challenge any and all information that you receive. You are being made aware of the higher laws. Always ask, if this is for my higher good and the higher good of those that are around me. You will be held responsible for the information that you give out.

During your evening Meditation, we would like you to picture A Red Gold Sun and we would like you to surround yourself with another color of your choosing. Some of you will visualize information coming into you well others will receive the information in still another way. We transmit information in many ways and all that we ask is for you to challenge this information.

We are telling you this because many Aliens and Enities will give you things that will take place but it will not always be for your higher good and the higher good of those that are around you. If we were to tell you that your world was going to end tomorrow and we told you that we are going to take you away from your world just before it was destroyed, would this be for your higher good? No, it would not, we can not make you these promises. Your world is not to be destroyed and therefore it would not be for your higher good. Remember that you are a responsible individual.

To All The People Of Earth: By Michael Kings

Michael Kings, also known as The Golden Eagle has a lot to say and yet such a short time to do so. The People of Earth have 2 (two) things that the lower Enities and Aliens want from them. They want your mind and body! Can you defend against this? Yes, and the best way possible is with your mind! Does this mean with rifles and bombs, most certinly not. This means, use the head that you have on your shoulders.

It means that you should do your thinking for yourself and except the responsibility for what you do. All of us know right from wrong. Is it right to let other people do your thinking for you. No, and at the same you must learn the inner you. Most of The People on Earth are stronger than what they give themselfs credit for.

Many Governments are trying to use Psychic Warfare and Weapons but they to should realize that the Psychic weapons are only as good as Psychic that is behind them. Is there a chance that these Psychic Weapons could be destroyed. The answer here is Yes, because these weapons were to be used only if and when we were attacked. This just happens to be Universal Law. There are those that have a tremendous amount of power in this area and understand that misuse will cause their downfall. They will loose their power. There is a lot more to be said about this but this one is just trying to give you a little understanding that your brain is your best weapon.

You, the individual have the right to choose what is going to happen to you. That is to say that you have Freedom of Choice. You have the right to except any and all information or the right to reject any part of the information or all of it. You must challenge the information and ask yourself if this is for my Higher Good and Those that are around me. If there is any part of the information that the answer comes back no, then you must ask yourself why.

Can the lower forces take control of you? The answer here is yes, and no, this is your choice. You had Freedom of Choice and you failed yourself and those that are around you. You did not hurt just yourself but also those that were around you. Wake-up People Earth! Not only does your country need you but you need yourself. Do you want your body to be controled by the lower forces. I most certinly hope not.

The Earth itself is seeking a higher level and the earth has begun it's transitation but that is not to say that you will be there with it. Yes, some of you will earn The Higher Earth and yet others will earn even a higher place in The Creators Kindom. Some will fail and fall to the lower forces but they to will have their place to go. This is a Promise that The Creator made and not me. I must be responsible for what I have said and what I have done and so must you.

May The Creator Bless and Guide each and every one of our paths. We are moving forward in time and only time will tell which way we will go or what we the individuals have earned. In the mean time search within your heart and seek the higher lights and may those lights leed you on the right path. Remember that you have freedom of choice and you do have a mind that tells you what is right and what is wrong. Be Free in Yourself that is the most important thing. Let your body be yours.

TO ALL OF MANKIND: BY STAR FIRE

There are those that have begun to move and give Mankind a helping hand and although all of them are not good and not all them bad, there is movement on the land. Where this movement will take Mankind, will depend on what Mankind is willing to do with it. There are many ways things could go from here but the final choice will be Mankinds, at least for a little well.

There are those that will tell you that Mankind is headed for an interplanetary war which could very likely be. We have put more that our share of equipment in space but all so often we have been told that The Aliens do not want our weapons in space. After all they have far better weapons than we do and yet can Mankind understand this. None of our flying craft can reach the speeds of their craft nor as far as that goes their movability.

Can Mankind destroy themselfs as well as the planet Earth? To me, this is a very valid question but as soon as I ask myself this question, I know the answer and of course the answer is no. The Earth will be here as long as The Creator has a need for it to be here. After all, it was here before Mankind was here and along with that Mankinds weapons.

The funny part is, is that we have a very strong weapon against those Aliens that do not work within Universal Law and that is Freedom of Choice. It is true that they can cause things to happen but is it for Mankind's betterment. More often than not, it is not. Now the question is, what can Mankind do about it? Plenty, you can either except the advice or knowledge or you can reject the knowledge or advice.

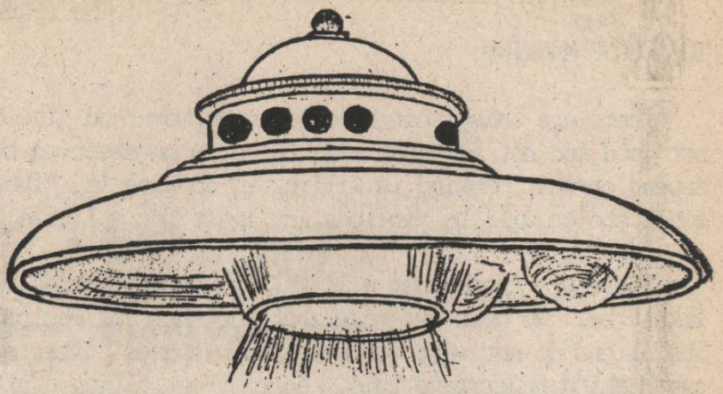

Challenge any and all information that you receive. There are many ways to do this. Such as useing the question is this for my higher good and those that are around me? If Star Fire Command would shoot a Thunder Bolt that was strong enough to destroy Earth, would this be in the best interest of Mankind or for that fact Star Fire Command? No it would not be in the best interest of Star Fire Command or for that fact any other Aliens and of course it would not be in the best interest of Mankind.

However we are not saying that Mankind can not destroy themselfs. The real facts are that the Aliens have stopped Mankind from destroying themselfs more than once already. Mankind has not yet the understanding of his own planet and yet Mankind reaches for the Stars. Mankind is not ready for the Stars and believe me when I say that the Stars are not ready for Mankind.

The Aliens from the Stars have been watching Mankind develope for a long time now and they will wait until Mankind has developed a lot more before this is over. This is not to say that Some of Mankind will will stay here because it seems that once again Mankind is headed for disaster. Is it to late, well let us see. Now let us see, how many people have been murdered this week, how many people hurt other people oh we can not how many hurt themselfs this week. How much violence has been on the T.V. lately. Yes we do have Freedom of Choice but in a way, it keeps us informed on what others are doing. To me, the worst part is watching the news. If I watched nothing else all day long and just watched the news, there is more than enough deaths. Please do not ask this one to listen to the news, very seldom is there some thing that this one wants to hear.

May The Creator help this one because I were to Judge myself, I would be as guilty as the rest of Mankind. Now once again ask me is there some thing that we can do about it, you better believe it. We must start by caring for one another. We must start to help one another. Remember those days when you felt it save to walk the streets, it could be that way again. This one only ask That The Creator Guide Us From This Point On. May The Creator Bless Us.

Woman Draws Power From Outer Space

CHIPPEWA FALLS, WI. - According to modern physics, heavy guage stainless steel cannot be bent by a person who never touches the metal - but merely thinks "bend". WRONG. This Wisconsin daily newspaper publisher and our senior editor went to Minneapolis to test psychic Greta Woodrew, a 50 year old mother of four who, like her husband, runs a successful business. Mrs. Woodrew demonstrated the powers she says are assisted by beings from many light years away. We brought her two exceptionally heavy stainless steel spoons which nested perfectly, one on the other. Holly Meier, by nature a salty, skeptical editor for 35 years - held the spoons in his hand. Mrs. Woodrew never touched them. She concentrated and said "bend". Meier opened his hand. One of the spoons had been bent sharply. Looking at another spoon, she caused it to bend upwards at the shank while it lay before us on a table. Later, she caused a fork to twist and it's tines to bend. We were told that the editor in chief of Macmillan, saw the Westport, NY woman twist metal. Next week Macmillan will publish her book, "On a Slide of Light".

Her powers, she says, are assisted by the ETIs - extraterrestrial intelligences from a planet called Ogatta, and are intended only to attract other's attention to a message for mankind. The ETI's predict that by the year 2000 worldwide natural disasters will kill between one quarter and 40 percent of the earth's population - nearly 2 billion people. Yet, later in the day she told an audience of corporate presidents that "more than 20 advanced civilations are ready to help Planet Earth."...

Mrs. Woodrew says she has been tested by Dr. Andrija Puharich, whom she describes as one of the world's foremost authorities on paranormal phenomenon. She also said she does not accept money for her lectures and will turn over the proceeds of the book to the Space Technology and Research Foundation... ... ...NOTE: Dr. Puharich is the mentor that Uri Geller sought when he found himself with the 'bends' of paranormal happenings. They became great friends and Dr. Puharich was the first to write a book about the "Geller Effect" - which is STILL in effect, I must add! Uri continues to mystify and to educate worldwide, triggering the mind of Man...

Motorists is killed avoiding ghost bus

LIGHTS blazing, the ghostly bus sped along a N Kensington, London, road.

At the junction of St Mark's Road and Cambridge Gardens, 25-year-old Ian Beaton, swerved his car to avoid the vehicle. The young engineer collided with another car, and was fatally injured.

One witness at the inquest said the story of the ghostly bus was well known in the area.

A local resident declared he had heard it at night and seen its headlights reflected on his bedroom ceiling.

Though the fatal accident occurred on June 15, 1934, many reports of the phantom vehicle have been logged over the years.

Andrew Durwan, a Cambridge Gardens resident, said after he heard the bus one night it was followed by a crash.

Opening his window, he found a car had driven into his front wall.

The driver was dazed, but unhurt. He told Mr Durwan a driverless bus with lights full on had raced towards him.

Swerving to avoid it, he had crashed into the wall.

All the many accounts of the bus tally – but London Transport knows nothing of its supernumerary vehicle.

Another phantom coach has been seen many times at Christmas along the Lamberhurst-Frant Road in Kent.

As soon as anyone gets near, it disappears, even in broad daylight.

In 1960 a lorry-driver swerved to avoid a huge pantechnicon that suddenly lurched towards him. His lorry almost overturned.

But when the driver went to investigate, he could find no trace of the vehicle, nor any side road into which it could have turned.

Several other drivers have experienced the same phenomenon; the vehicle's description always agrees.

A phantom lorry which backs into the path of oncoming traffic has caused several accidents in the same area. Yet no openings exist from which it could emerge.

Many experienced insurance investigators have made exhaustive inquiries following claims, but without success.

Drivers face another ghostly hazard near Kendal, Westmorland. A "Grey Lady" appears and stands in the centre of the road.

Several motorists believed they ran her over, but there has never been the slightest evidence a woman was on the road.

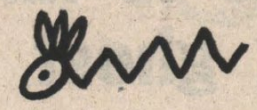

The above story is from PSYCHIC NES, London, England. Everyone has a favorite ghost story, or knows of a haunted house, or has had an experience with the 'Other World'. Why not share them with our readers? For every true, personal story that we print, the Golden Eagle, will send you a very special gift, and you will receive name credit in our magazine. There is nothing better than the true, living, story!

THE POWER WITHIN: DESTRUCTION? OR REBIRTH?

by TAL LEVESQUE

A 'Storehouse' of natural resources for energy lies beneath the land of the Rocky Mountain states. In the 1860's it was gold, next it was silver. Then in 1910 it was copper, followed by molybdenun and zinc. Today, almost half the nations's coal reserves; more than 90 percent of the uranium; and all of the high-grade oil shale is to be found. The west will also have a leading role as we move BEYOND coal and nuclear forms of energy. Above the ground it has two more valuable energy sources: Sun and Wind. There is more to this list of energy research: geothermal power - tapping the frequency vibrations of the earth - rystal energies and ION power. These latter forms may even now be used / other Beings who are responsible for the UFO's seen over certain of the areas of Earth.

In the Southwest the UFO's are repeatedly seen over certain mountains sacred to the Indians. Shrines and mounds of stones (some 10 feet in diameter, about 5 feet high and with a spruce pole in the center, 8 feet high) have been observed atop these sacred peaks. The geothermal hot springs were frequently visited and the areas around them were respected as sanctuary. Many of these mountains are composed of great blocks of granite which can produce a "Piezoelectric" effect due to the matrix of quartz crystal, mica and feldspar. Hollow caverns inside these mountains form a granite air condenser for energy storage.

The Sacred remnant of a huge volcano, Mount Taylor, generates another form of energy. The Grants Uranium Belt extends beneath Mt. Taylor. As much as one-half of the Uranium reserves in the U.S. are located in this belt. Radiation from the normal disintegration of radioactive materials, IONIZES the air near the surface of the earth around Mt. Taylor. These IONIZED air charges accumulate in clouds and can also be stored in Crystals that act like capacitors. UFO's could get "charged up" by receiving electron flows from these 'surplus energy storage areas' The Earth is like a big battery, continuously losing electrons to the atmosphere. IONS are merely atoms or molecules that are not in electrical balance. The electricity flow is normally a quiet, invisible process, but ION collisions can yield enough energy to excite particles of air to make the Luminous.

This visible ionization is termed corona, and can sometimes be seen in darkness as a BLUISH GLOW. When we cross reference various phenomena on a U.S. Geological Survey Map (Gravity Anomaly map), many curious facts emerge. We don't want to give away years of research at this time ... but there are certain 'mystery spots' in which gravity and light are distorted. Saucers seem to follow alignments, in a straight path, between these Mystery Spots and high mountain peaks, as if they were beacons!

Are UFO's being used by an Ancient People who disappeared beneath the Earth? Many North American Indians have a tradition of a Secret Refuge used by Initiates who had the mission of beginning the world all over again. Are underground caverns in America inhabited by an Ancient Advanced People? Where were these ancient people located? Do they still exist somewhere underground to this day?

The theory of an ancient civilization of Under-People co-existing within the interior of this planet is admittedly a staggering proposal. Near caverns around Crittenden, AZ.,skeletons of Giants (12 feet tall, having six toes) have been unearth, suggesting a vanished race. In the early 1970's, in the Goreme Valley of Turkey, a local man was drawn to a large circular stone. He discovered this was a rolling door that did seal off a passageway ... inside this tunnel he came to an abandoned (for over 1300 years) UNDERGROUND CITY! An Ancient people had carved out living areas, work rooms, storage rooms and passageways that went down (over 250 feet) level after level, far below the Earth's surface. Cooking was done on every other floor, but so skillful were the construction engineers, no smoke ever escaped in betrayal. A gigantic ventilation shaft went from the bottom of the city to the outdoors, a unique air conditioning system. A deep well provided water. This was an UNDERGROUND CITY where 60,000 people had lived! A six mile tunnel connects it with another underground city! This same type of area, composed of a soft, volcanic ash rock called Tuff, can be found in the areas of the Four-Corner States. Underground cities like those in Turkey might even now be found in the volcanish ash areas in the Santa Fe National forest around Los Alamos, N.M. or also the Gila National Forest of New Mexico; Apache Nat. Forest in Arizona; Kaibab National Forest around Flagstaff, AZ; Dixie National Forest in Utah; and the San Juan National Forest in Colorado.

Many entrances to the Cavern Worlds are camoflaged -- except when someone for some reason is wanted down below or when someone "in the Know" is welcomed. The PORTAL can sometimes show up as a very faint Blue - shimmering outline around an egg-shaped slab or boulder (about 7 feet high) which forms the Door.
