MIND

The Key to Divine Unfoldment

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HIGH ABOVE THE HEADS of man, a flock of birds drove high, riding the glories of the heavens, winging the azure sky. As they followed in direct formation, Merope felt her feet leave the ground, and with supreme wonder, followed their heavenly flight. Up, up, she soared, feeling the surging drive of the wind through her hair, for the glory of the movement was the beauty of the mystical roguish West Wind, as it took her into realms unknown. Where

Words and beauty danced together, and she revelled in their mystical glory. Then as she drove on, beliefs and ideas danced in and out, and fantasies clothed her with their divine magnificence. Then the flight turned South, and Merope still drove on, until she came to the glories of Samarkand and rested on its divine bejewelled bosom, in the heavenly glories of her mind.

As she came to its wondrous shores, her sublimity of mind became tinged with the radiance of divinity, and the heavens opened up its mighty portals and embraced Merope in its arms. A world of beauty, a world of LOVE, an interpenetration of mystery divine, that only the flight of the mind can follow in its dancing glories of light. Domes and minarets, peace and radiance, with hearts united in true direction. For Merope had touched down on the wonders of Vega, which she had been creating in the world below. Struggling, sweating and bleeding, to try and help man truly understand the glories and wonders of the mind. Of how it can carry you on these flights of beauty, to realms far beyond your belief. But only when your heart was true, and you felt the wonders of divine beauty dancing through the pulsating bloodstream, the mystery of the heart.

Then the divine glory of the mind was yours, and you and divinity were embraced. While the Rhythm of the Spheres was your keyboard of wonder, and every note your dancing mind. As Merope stepped forth onto its golden shores, she felt the wonders of the peace embrace her and clothe her in its radiant beauty, the rights of reality redeemed. As she went forward through its golden streets, unknown yet known souls bowed unto her, as though she was a Queen in her own right, receiving her homage due. With children playing in the merriment of little ones, waving their hands in childlike glee. With birds of divers colours, radiant with the beauties of the heavens, flying around, dipping and diving, as the golden sunlight as radiant beauty, filled the atmosphere with its golden glory.

OUTER WORLD SPACE

AS the mighty MIND sent forth of His thoughts, did man in the world below, beat them into glorified construction. Then darkness broke upon the Deep, and Divinity and man were separated. Yet there were those who did remember MANNA, and by and through them was the union kept complete, and awaited the day of remembrance. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

Prophecy for 1969

(This message was delivered by the Lord of the Flame, on Wednesday, 6th November 1968).

FOR some time I have been warning you that you were nearing a very critical time, and that to labour hard and prepare, was the wisest thing to do; for whereas Cosmically there has been Relativity, now it is a personal state of relativity, where all that man has put into life over all these lives, he is now going to meet with at the present moment.

Every year and every life there has been a new personality brought into birth. Now in this life this personality is the most important, and it is the one that will become the Virgin; for with the personality that you have in this life, are you going to be judged, and are you going to be able to enter into whatever Sphere you can make. It is going to be your voice for all that you are, and all that you have been. There will be no coming back to find another personality; this is the last, for the whole world is going to become Immortal. It is on its way now in the changes, where only those who have been able to make it will be able to make the journey up and down, where they are able to avoid 'Death.' There will be no returning from the Astral planes, everything is now precisely fixed.

The personality that you have with you now, will carry you into the Cell Life around the Divine Fatherhood, as you make your way up the Planes. This is why I have been advising you to bring all to a state of Light, unfolding yourself onto the Plane of Mind. For as a personality of mind growth, with a Mind Body securely fixed, you are well on the right side of unfoldment. Those who have not been able to make it will find themselves lost. This is the expansion and unfoldment of change that had to take place and come into birth.

(The second message, furthering that given above, was delivered by the Lord of the Flame on Wednesday, 20th November 1968).

CHRISTMAS 1968 closes the door; if you have not activated and served by that hour, and you still have wealth that has not been given its mortuary meal, it will be withdrawn and thrown into the Stream. I have been warning you for some time that there was to be a closing date, and this is the Turn of Relativity for the personal soul. Yes, even Merope was warned to make sure that every particle of her Norm and her Fount was now drawn in and built up, so that the soul becomes born of the Mind.

Very few have really understood or accepted this Road. It has been a very, very, serious Road, and one that has been far more important than any would allow themselves to believe. You have either given in of all your wealth as the Light that has the equivalent of mind, or it will be taken from you, and where it has been taken it will leave a blank, whereby you will have to fight, and struggle to find the Light.

This is the Law and has now been verging over the soul since the Virgin Equinox at the beginning of the year. Every man is now standing upon the Virgin Plane; every man is ready to go forth through his mind, for the Divinity is now upon the earth, manifesting as the positive creation; thus everything is ready. If you have been one who has just been living life, and life has been your only pleasure, then I am afraid that you will have to take the consequences. If you have built up your mind by struggle and renunciation, then you will have built up the mind for the coming year.

It is not a matter of the knowledge that you have taken, but where the conscious mind has become fully aware of the wisdom. Then the conscious mind is equal to the sub-conscious mind, and takes over the wealth as the Virgin mind. This is not something to frighten you, neither is it a fanatical idea; IT IS A TRUTH, because Universal Philosophy is going to be the Living Wisdom, and only through that, which of course is unified Wisdom, will mankind be ready to go forward as a mind creation.

Editor's Comments:

THIS must surely be one of the most important and dynamic messages ever recorded, for it is setting the seal upon the New World establishment and revealing how mankind will have to return their internal atomic wealth back to the Divinities, whether they like it or not. This is the most crucial period in the whole of creation, for all has reached its climax and either man now becomes divinity-born, or becomes gradually buried, as an empty shell, into the Sands of Time.

The Laws of Spirit are rigid; they show no sympathy, and very little mercy. They are Justice, for only by Justice can all be fulfilled. Those who refuse to relinquish of their animal states will be doomed to the Astral planes, with no hope of ever reincarnating again. The Astral planes have been cut off from the Earth, and those souls who find themselves in those planes, will face gradual deterioration into complete dissolution, and is the purgatory talked of by papalism—and the purgatory that is waiting for their whole evil sect, for papalism and Divinity have nothing in common, the majority of its followers being merely elementals; creations born out of the Fall, with no vital Spark of Divinity as their source of Becoming.

This also of course, brings the end of spiritualism, for it has only ever concerned itself with the Astral planes, never giving a thought to the unfolding of wisdom and Divinity. It is nothing more than a cheap money-raising racket; a crude form of necromancy, heavily veiled in emotional waters!

Already we are seeing signs of the impending changes making manifestation in the depths. This so-called Hong-Kong 'flu that is sweeping the world, for example. It is nothing to do with what man would like to believe, but the Atomic Fires cleansing out man, in order to prepare him for a world of Divinity.

We told you this was coming, in the February 1968 issue of the Occult Gazette; we told the newspapers, and many other organisations, but man does not want to listen to the Truth, he does not want to believe that the Gods are ruling mankind. Well then, he must take the consequences for his actions, for there is nothing more certain than the fact that Theocracy is established, and that the Prime Minister of this country is being led and guided by those Great Divinities.

Yes, Britain is being forced to make renunciation as a result of the economy, but why get alarmed, it is giving this nation, through that renunciation, the opportunity to start off on the New Plane with a certain amount of stability. Those who oppose these changes are just the elementals, who subconsciously know that the incoming New World heralds the end of their powers, and the end of their very existence as a conscious creation. There is a great deal more that can be said upon these changes, and we will bring more concerning this, in the next month's issue of the Gazette.

Did such beauty really exist? Was she dreaming, or losing her balanced reason in searching for a world of Divinity? Her task had been to break up inertia, which she had faithfully fulfilled. Until every nook and cranny had been scoured and cleansed, and man set on his feet anew. Everything she had loved and embraced had been ruthlessly torn from her. Yet here in a world of heavenly glory, she was resting in a right that was duly hers, a peace that no one could deny her. Thus Merope now knew without a doubt that this was not only Vega, but the World she had built in the glory of her mind, as she penned and sang the truth of illusion and reality. With the wonders that were the glory of her heavenly belief, ever the radiance of her mind.

He who believed and created, did so for a day when such glories were duly unfolded, and their internal wonders were revealed. For all was with man in his vibratory assimilation, of which he diffuses into, and becomes one with their manifesting beauty, in the unfolding glories of the mind. Wonders that Merope duly comprehended, as she gracefully sped on in her Vega embrace. Feeling the beauty of its heavenly glory wrap round her like the warmth of a heavenly embrace. Just as sincere and truly deep and radiant as the heavenly glory she once knew, for Merope's heart had ever yearned for the grace of that divine dew. Where what was uttered would be their purpose, and she felt the warm radiance and mighty strength of their proffered hand. A mighty glory that was radiating in abundance, in this glorious land of Vega.

Then as Merope came to a sparkling waterfall, it fell to the ground in dancing beauty, tumbling and rolling in beauteous wonder, singing the song of the waters. While she could hear the buzz of the Honey Bee hovering over the dancing flowers as they swayed in the balmy breeze. A world that she knew as a happy child, when war had not touched the land, when peace, too peaceful for the earth-minded to embrace, had bored them into turbulent action. Here again were those beautiful flowers, which those well loved fields had been clothed in, with the buzz of the Bees that charmed the ear. Glories that soothed the troubled soul with belief and hope; that which, in the world of hard experience, was due for one and all.

Birth of the Mind Plane

AS Merope dipped her tiny feet in the cool refreshing waters of the Stream, she (See plate on page 4) could feel the electrification of its radiant waters thrill her through and through. While the dancing breezes stirred her mind, and fleeting wonders passed in and out, giving her ideas and fantastic beliefs which she had never beheld before. For in the world of facts and figures, all was duly set, while here in Vega all was dancing glory, which you either captured and set into motion, or it passed you by forever.

Then as Merope slipped off her loose gown, she stepped into the sparkling waters of that dancing cascade, and frolicked like a nymph at play. She could feel the wonders of the electrified glory refresh her slender frame, with her brain tired with struggle and belief for those who would not think and activate their minds, opening up and flowering anew.

Could she really have built of all this wonder? YES! For here were the Bees and flowers that she had truly longed for once again, which she could now only find in dusty oil-drenched fields of worldly dust and grime. The lasting memory of her child-like dreams which had gone long ago, yet here they were in a world of spiritual beauty, built by the glory of her mind. Beauties never to be forgotten, with freedom denied her in the world of struggle, where her growth and glory were duly born.

As she slipped from the waters, the beauty of its embracing and cleansing glory caused those earth-born memories to slip from her, like raindrops rolling off a shiny leaf. Leaving her warm and dry, quivering and radiating with its atomic electrical beauty, the exhilaration of its heavenly glory. Slipping on her diaphanous robe, yet beauteous in its glorious texture, she fastened her golden slippers on her feet and made towards a snow-capped mountain high. As she stepped onto its grassy slope, a little rabbit ran before her down a well-dug cosy burrow. Yes! even rabbits were here, for this was a world of mind and mind beauty, where all that applied to Neptunian belief was of its intrinsic glory.

Therefore, as she began to climb those emerald slopes, she felt her mind rising with her, until she became exhilarated with its unfolding wonder, of the altitude of miraculous glory. Internal beauties began to dance as the mystery of unification intensified, for Merope and her LORD had divinely embraced in the glory of supreme oblivion. For she had ascended up to the glories of her Arc, in the wonder of divine ascension. Embraced the beauty of her divine heights in the glory of her Void, where all the wonders of her woven mind were in the risen beauty of her Arc. Over-shadowed by the Heavenly Presence of the Divinity that she had, by her heart, given birth to in Immaculate Conception.

As the embracement unfolded her and strengthened her being, she found herself back in her Rose Pink Bower, to continue the glory of leading man onwards, and unfolding the glories of Vega. Hence all the wonders and beauties of her mind, which belonged to the just and true of heart, were there awaiting the sincere and righteous who were seeking the royal glory of the heavenly mind. For multiplicity and intellectualism had now gone by the board; all was of the divinity of Vega, the royal beauty of the dancing mind of glory. For the speciality that Merope had struggled with all these Ages of darkness, had been building up of the divine heavenly mind against the robots of ritual and dogma.

Priest-ridden clods, held in the clutches of blind captivity, where individuality was a foregone conclusion in the evils of pagan mesmerism. Those held by minds robed in red, dominating the law, state and divine beauty as a diabolical curse, a devil-ridden fungus of papal and sodomitical infusion. But at last, with the aid of those Heavenly ONES, she had lifted up the Planes and brought those galactical glories to bear upon their mind. With the FACE built up by the Virgin in the mystical Arachnoid web, unfolding the Void into greater glory by the divine wonders now coming into birth.

Thus the divinity in the Cosmic glory, the divine radiance of her mind, now held the freedom of that inflowing Breath as it imploded the soul to divine glory. Heaven and earth united as ONE, as the heavens interpenetrated the soul with its pleromic divinity. Then brought it forth as the radiant beauty of divine unfolding glory. For all now was on the Mind Plane, a glory of fiery belief. Where every soul was now due to become enfolded into royal perception, as the Waters penetrated deep into her mystical Fount.

A divine evolution which Merope had struggled to fully man's mind in its grip.

Then a new phase of light broke forth as fresh ideas and beliefs began to manifest, with new laws and rulings coming into birth, with Merope ever uniting the glories of Outer World Space, raising man's mind up higher and higher, by spinning the Breath up into the glories of divinity.

Awakening of the Norm

NEVER again would he be a slave to religion, but free to think as he believed; free to create and bring forth the wonders and glories of the mind. At last she had accomplished the seeding of her task, slowly lifting man up to the Plane of MIND, for him to dental Glory infusing the depths, and Quintessential wonders breaking through the awakened NORM, as the Virgin unfolded her heavenly mind through the dance of Le Ros up and down, in a galaxy of unfolding beauty.

(See plate on this page)

With man slowly awakening to the fundamentals of the mind, but slow in renouncing the ways of desire for the many beauties that could come to him through the wonders and royalty of the Holy FIRE. Refusing to accept of the Passional beauty of truth, where those Holy Waters, fired into divine glory, were the Sky-weeping wonders of the gods. Believing that mind was ever there, never realising that they had to build it up, in an infinity of continuity of ever unfolding rebirth. Thus ever remained a creature of self-preservation, driven on by Saturn and his possessive desires.

Now, by Merope, he has become a being of free thinking and acting, by a mind uninhibited by curse or fear, but how to use that mighty glory was the next true comprehension of every soul. Thereby to be born of balanced and rightful divine thinking, duly spinning up and down, as Uranus sparked the soul into active glory.

For mind is 'fire' in its many stages of becoming, with the majority in the Bacchanalian states awaiting the unfolding Hydroxyl Power to bring forth of the true MIND, to awaken the meninges into Vega light. The glory of divinity waiting to come into birth through soul wrestling with the Word, and transmuting old ideas into the glory of Solar comprehension. Bringing past mistakes and mistaken ideas into a state of rebirth, with many a nut-point of unified perception.

Glorified wonders risen up into holy belief, where the Arc is radiant with light. For true Solar-mind is born from the mastery of the Elements, and as the soul projects his will unto Divinity, is the glory of the mind unfolded into divine awareness. Blending the heart and mind with that Solar glory, and by conquest, ever in a state of beholding.

Mind will never come by just waiting for it to manifest, but by divine imagination transformed into Reality by the soul's unswerving belief in its First Divine Causation. Therefore, when truly comprehended as the created Fire glory of knowing, it will be duly accepted that mind is the prerogative of the Virgin. The Virgo mind as the intuitive mind that is unified and balanced by belief.

Hence only she can give birth to a son, a glory of holy purpose, for the mind is the vehicle of Divinity, the carrier of the Divine message into the Spheres of unknowing. It being, when truly activated, the ever-unfolding mystery contained within the Seed, which can bring light unto the Cosmos. Thus the rebirth out of reason, the glory of knowing and the destroyer of logic; therefore being the expression of a divine Belief, reflected upon the FACE of the Central Sun, it is the glory of LIGHT ever becoming greater and greater, under the unfolding wonder of unknowing.

Therefore, in being the Creative Will of the unknown Deity which is being moulded by the crucible pot in the depths, and being the means of the radiance of the Solar comprehend since the beginning of TIME, when the gods as Pubes of unfolding life, had taken the Sperming glory and turned it into the desire-born beast. What should have become the royal creative beauty of divine glory, merely became a grovelling animal, dynamic in its creation.

THE awakening NORM, as it opened its blinking eye, perceived through the parting mist, the downpouring Star of the reborn Vega. No longer the tail through the step-ladder of seven, but the clear embracing of the quintessential glory through the Transcendental Consciousness of Becoming. (See text in col. 5).

The fiery depth, as it interpenetrated the soul, infused it with its humid waters, thus man content with its sensory glory, never realising of the intrinsic holy Fiery Beauty in the mystical wonder of that interpenetrating Transcendental Glory. Only by the nurturing afforded over all those Ages, was the inter-union duly saved, and the Race born of the MIND PLANE, the growth of the Human MIND.

But there were those of the financial and power grasping dictum, ever seeking to rule the weak and uneducated until a status of 'stand firm' was duly formed by one or two, which began the surge to the greater truth. Then when Merope began to teach of truths that rid the world of papal maniacal evils, a light as never infused before rose up, and the world shed itself of an evil curse which held fulfill the glory of divinity. For soul now was thinking in ONE direction,—something he had never done before,—as he was led along the road of Universal Philosophy.

For now he could think, if he would so will, as he was duly ensconced upon the glories of the Virgin Plane, by spinning the Breath up into the glories of the heights, onto the glory of the MIND. That on the down-pouring of the Hestia Fires on the second day in June, wonders as never known before could burst through and grip the soul with its heavenly light, if only in the continuity of evolution. Then on he would go, and Merope the Goddess of Vega, would have fulfilled the next part of her mission, and the Divinities duly installed. With MIND, the most precious possession of all life, now the gift of those duly seeking.

How it had come into being, was a matter of will and endeavour, by those heavenly gods installed in the glories of the mind, bringing forth of those divine beauties. For by Breath they had infused man with Divinities divine, and raised him up to the Heavenly glory of Vega. With Transcen-

MIND

FACE coming into birth, it is also the mighty cause of the Sun Spots of evil reproduction. Those which Merope has been charged to redeem to save the unfolding FACE of Divinity. That which she, as the Scapegoat, is ever transmuting from lunar into Solar, by her glory of ever knowing.

Therefore in the true unfolding seeker of LIGHT, mind is the manifestation of the Covenant, where soul returns his Atoms unto the Source, anointed with the blood of his struggles. But ever clothed with the purity of his awakened consciousness, the glory of his mind belief as he spins it up to the heights.

HENCE, MIND IS THE GIFT OF DIVINITY, THE HEAVENLY BEAUTY, UNTO ALL WHO WILL HONOUR HIS PURPOSE. FOR IT IS THE UNFOLDING GLORY OF THE CAABA STONE, THE MYSTERIOUS NORM IN THE HEIGHTS. UNTIL THIS IS AWAKENED, SOUL IS STILL DEEP IN THE LUNAR SLEEP OF SELENE, SHE WHO HOLDS MAN DEEPLY IN HER CLUTCHES. THE ROOT OF WHICH HE MUST STRIVE TO DIG UP AND TRANSMUTE INTO SOLAR ACTIVITY.

Hence mind is the Divine Prognosticator in the depths, the driving force that splits the density and turns darkness into light. The mighty activating agent of Cosmic Evolution, when man spins it up into Solar glory. For mind is the manifestor of the Cosmic Laws, the atomic propulsion that turns the divine possibility into Absolute Reality, as it revolves the Poles in activating glory. Thereby drives the ionisation deep into the heart of Divinity, and brings new unbounding life, coming forth from the Source.

Hence mind is the workshop of Divinity, the blacksmith's shop where the armoury of conquest is devised. That by the Forge ever well bellowed, is the soul ever in a state of begetting the birth out of the conflagration of the snows, the rebounding glory of infinity. The mastication of the Depths, by unveiling the Fire of Divinity and transposing it into LIGHT. Thus the vehicle of the prognosis ever becoming, yet wonders still waiting to come forth, with glories mysterious in abundance.

So once again Merope sought of her Magic Mirror that it could reveal unto her of the mysteries of the mind, the glory of its Solar beauty. For it was obvious, that if mind is FIRE, then man has never really created a mind, but ever living in the desires of the beast. The unconscious depth of Divinity trying to reveal its identity.

The Unfolding Face

SO as the mists rolled and danced upon its magic screen, Merope thought well as she wondered of what it could reveal, for if mind was just Fire, what could it portray? As the mists cleared away, there before her was a bed of mushrooms, a favourite vision of the World of Fairy tales. But there in the centre of this remarkable vision, one mushroom began to come forward, it being duly covered with a star-spangled veil. As Merope gazed at such a mysterious symbol, she suddenly became aware of the message they were seeking to convey. An idea that comes up in the night, completely veiled from recognition.

Then while she was feeling how ingenious, the mists rolled back once again, cleared, and there she saw a beautiful white lily with an enormous flame coming up out of the centre of its being. A virgin mind now all alight, which they indicated was the glory of her own. Such beauty could only have been revealed this way, and with such a clear definition.

Then again all cleared, and a beautiful butterfly was flying through a field of golden buttercups dancing merrily, alighting here and there. Thus she knew how the mind was ever seeking only of the honey of the Solar, with a busy Bee buzzing and flying high, settling on a radiant sunflower with her face turned up to the Sun. For the mind, of which all this was symbolising, had spun up into the World of Outer Space into the glories of the heavenly Void. As the Bee settled upon the cheek of the sunflower, he kissed her with such warmth and love, she blushed with such maidenly pride that the knew that it was the blended union of the mind, beautifully dressed, walking through the well prepared ground of Solar glory which Saturn had duly scythed and gracefully blended-in. No longer an opposition, but a winged keen interpenetration of a sharp scrutinising mind.

As the vision cleared and left the screen clear and free, Merope marvelled that any being, spirit or otherwise, could have thought up such ingenious ideas to convey of an active mind. Then she tried to make her mind work, that she could think of some clever vision which could convey of the wonders of the mind. The nearest that she could possibly think of for the moment, was the beautiful white hands of the Virgin ever creating with her pen. With the Virgin Breath in the darkness ever bringing forth the Light of Being to the Heavenly Divinity. With her own mind ever telling her not to forget that 'knowing' was the mind's last and dearest function.

Then Merope became very daring. Could she dare to try and describe of how the mind made a new-born debut, and set the wandering Eye, then resting in peace, as the truth was revealed, and now having grown a little wiser! No sooner spoken, than marvels began to work, and Merope, as though looking within her own brain, saw the two sides of the falx cerebri. The right brain and the left both looking at one another, like the beautifully dressed couple in the symbolical puzzle. But what appeared as two halves of a substance in description, in reality were the two ventricles, the two cavities that held the mystery of the mind. While the cells that held the wonder of change, were the meninges up above, the glories of the FACE.

As the spinal fluid rose up and warmed the brain with its gentle caressing, a mist imperceptible to the eye, filled up the ventricles with its dancing effluvia. Then slowly disappeared into the cells up above, changing the meninges in their outlook of perceptory belief, re-forming the drip to the depths. Causing the Pineal to awaken a little more and the Pituitary to tingle with pride.

Thus she polished up the 'three running legs' to make sure they were fully active in the Sphenoid cavity, and not jammed by the antics of the desires. Then the gods, the atomic sparks, brightened up a great deal more, and even became friendly with one another, all looking into one direction. With soul suddenly looking up and declaring "Good gracious, who would have believed it was as simple as that." Then walked away much wiser than before, feeling much superior to the other man. But in reality an Orion Brave trying to stalk the deer, and bring Solar light radiant in his Auric Arc, and the glory of the FACE.

The Spheres of Mind Manifestation

BY this, Merope knew that existence is action, and mind is the envelope of existence, with true recognition as identity, which is only gained by conquest and struggle. For when the soul takes of wisdom, a Stream is tapped, which immediately opens up pit-holes in the soul that are karmic weaknesses of the past.

States that were not combated and made as consciousness of truth, and the reason why the so-called moon is covered with craters of past age hallucinations of the mind-revelling glory in experience of growth. So rooted as to have become a living embedded state of cancerous mind possibility. For symbolically the moon is Cancer quartermass, as a dying plane of Desire. Therefore no true living states of evolutionary unfoldment could possibly survive on it, and any mind linking with such, would only bring a cancer state to the soul who attempted such a possibility, if it was possible.

From now onwards, all must be octavial delineation through Virgin concentration, bringing golden points of spinning beauty as she carries the Child up to the heights. Wonders and glories dancing high, unveiling mysteries unto the divinity, the divine light risen high in the Auric glory. For the mind is the royalty of the Virgin Fire, as it ionises with the Spirit in the alchemicalisation of the soul, the mystical glory of the fertilised generative Egg.

Until the six-legged camel comes into being, and the point is glorified at last. With mind as an acupuncture of truth, the golden point of Cosmic understanding breaking through in many directions as the way is laid before it. For now, only Orion complete consciousness as the infused Atom is the Virgin wealth that Merope can accept. For the Vega Stream is the only truth in existence, the wonders of the Central Sun, and constitutes the MIND.

While the mind of the gods is now the Orion radiance of the NORM, the glory of the Sun winked his golden Eye.

Then the vision changed completely, for on the screen stood a beautifully dressed couple, holding an Iris between them. But more peculiar still, they were walking through newly cut grass, soft and dainty to their feet. Then Merope, after thinking a little, awakened Divinity. The unfolding beauty of the mind as Merope awakens to truth, for Wave Bands of Light are passing across the earth, through the changing functions of rebirth. Then as Merope is thinking anew, the strata of LIGHT is redeemed in the changing status of Immortality.

Merope being so concentrated, that one thought can sweep like a changing Beam, cutting off Streams of old vibrations, never to enter into the School again, they finding all too deep for their comprehension, and they not having the courage to attack it. This is the club that Orion is ever wielding, beating the lion's head as the conforming Elements into changing states, forcing the Leo stubborn sophistication to beat his tail back and forth in the Solarised Stream.

Thus Hydroxyl is the liquifiable versatility of the Orion Colure awaiting the progenerative ratio of the pre-man mind of non-earthly linking, to manifest a Virgin mind Source-solvency of pre-divine Being only drawn from the Source, the first Blue-print of Creation. For Hydroxyl Sperming by Merope, is potent Breath of non-reflective medium, — no maelstrom. A divine perception of free rein on the immortal Virgin Plane of the Begotten, now ever Becoming.

Thus the cyclo-formic Air of the down-pouring Age of Solar fulfilment is the Atomic structural might of the complete Fire Plane of Virgin Vega Causation. That which is ever feeding itself out of itself; the light that never diminishes, for it belongs to Divinity. That which Merope has created as a Mind Plane, fit for Divinity to live in, as the EYE of the Source. For as Merope perceives and comprehends does the Eye perceive also. So would be the Over-shadowing glory, the cradle of Divinity upon her ARC, nurturing the world at large. For the Quintessential virtue, the glory of the NORM, is the collection of the meninges as a concentrated Orion Essence.

The firing mind point by Merope of divine implosion fermenting the Void with the Master's Supreme Presence, as the very first MIND creation of Timelessness, which is the lot of all men. For predigestive communicated wisdom is going to be the Race Elect Stream, until the whole of the Seed Race has been changed into the Fire Race of the Central Sun, through the reciprocating Powers of Merope's Divinity. All being fired from the Pituitary, and not from divers angles of the many states of religious belief. So no Stream Virtue can begin afresh, but must ever conform to the Stream of Merope.

Hence Merope being burnt into the Central Sun, makes her the conforming Point of Divinity. Ever passing over states of false illusion that force man into only accepting this state of truth. Thus as she seeks, she is ever changing and quickening timelessness, which will bring a reborn glory far quicker than man can possibly conceive.

For pulsation is the Wave-band of the unfolding Stream of Divinity, moved by the heart intensification for Divine Truth. As the heart of Merope beats forth in her quest for truth, so the Fire expands as Mind Radiance. For as the pulsation in its intensification becomes of the Divine Harmonies, vibronic Ether frequency, it opens doors of enlightened illuminative rebirth beyond form conception, into the Realms of Divine Perceptory consciousness.

Therefore Pulsation of the heart quest is the only means to unfold the Wave-bands of mind frequency, to enter the Neptunian Stream of Phantasy, Divine Reality, as that set into motion by Merope. So until man begins to build up of Divinity, the heart-beat of Merope, he never starts to build a mind, but ever lives in the state of animal intellectualism of self-preservation of identity.

Thus Vibronic Ether glory is the new tissue building of the form and on the positive vibration of ether, became the world of phantasy. Not all men, in fact very few, can touch these Planes, for most go down into the negative owing to their under-current of Self and its wants.

But when a man has a secret heart-purpose of a greater ideal, then he can, in his freed state of spirit and mind, rise up to the frequency of that ideal. Therefore, by this it can give some idea as to what Merope could do, and where she could go, and from whence she drew her Source of Power.

Thus, how those mighty Beings of the Upper PLANES of MIND were now able to control man, and by such were

RELATIVITY

AS I am, ye shall be, until the day of rebirth; then together we shall dance anew and open up the greater causeway. Could it be that that was me, had I failed so much; then the story of resurrection must begin to redeem the mighty error. (See text on page 4, col. 4).

garment of divinity, the mind frequency of the Arc unfolding the phantasies of Outer Space. This as divine sustenance, is the newborn Protonic Fire, and when created by Merope as the divine Virgin, becomes a Celestial Solar Intelligence feeding the Great Spheres of Galactical Beings with pure mind sustenance.

The Ambrosial Glory of the Gods, the pure Spheres of MIND manifestation, whereby they can in turn, feed man with renewed wisdom. For if the Virgin is the conveyor of the Virgin Fire, then LIGHT is the conveyor of the Breath. Hence all men may not, for the moment, be able to weave it into consciousness. But that does not alter the fact that they are being drenched with the glory of Truth.

The Ethers of Outer World Space

AS Merope was soliloquising on this mighty truth, and many reverse points that would have to be Wave-banded, she became aware of two Doves pulling a golden chariot across the sky. The vision on its own was beautiful, let alone its celestial symbology. Therefore as it drew nearer and nearer to her, without a doubt it was fully intended for her. As it came to rest in front of her, she felt the urge to step into its inviting beauty. But no sooner was she seated than the Doves changed into Swans, and the two mighty birds, with wing-span of considerable width, opened up their wings and started to rise.

This in the world of form would be out of keeping, but in the world outside that of bringing the world to the glory of reborn truth. For vibration was greater than the manifesting Word, as vibration saturates and reforms, with soul unaware of its saturation, while Word could be rejected, even if seen and believed as being true.

So as these great Powers watched and waited, and as man turned away, these Powers moved again, and through the aid of Merope they began in another direction. For as they prototyped through the living Terrestrial Virgin Merope, the density of earth as cohesive stagnancy of belief was disintegrated and the new belief established as light.

For now the higher LAW had the Power of transcendentalisation. That is, feeding the inner bodies of the soul with the Word of Truth, through the infiltrating Breath and Solar light, which slowly percolated through, and dripped forth from the higher mind as the glory of the meninges. Hence it was this explanation and wisdom that Merope raised up in this spirit-borne chariot, to be carried around the heavens three times to recharge the heavens with greater explanation of truth.

In seeing the beauties and wonders of the Vault as she sailed around, she found the intensity of her greater heart-purpose swelling into a glorified accomplishment. For the wonders of the heavens intensified the glory of her LOVE for the greater side of the Human Race, and the purpose and intent of Evolution unfolding Divinity. Thus for the

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Divinities now hold the sway and glory of the human MIND. Yet it only being the wise and initiated ones who have the secret of thinking, acting and becoming, and know that it can only ever be in the name of Divinity that such truths really come into birth.

For Merope the Virgin, who gave birth to the Virgin Plane of Mind, did so through the Heavenly Glory giving birth through her mind belief. That through the Fiery truth of LOVE and God-born purpose, she could unite heaven and earth, bringing forth the true Plane of the MIND. Hence through her OS Powers united with the Heavens, she holds the keys to the Kingdom of MIND unfolding, the true glory of the soul. So what else has man left, when mind is deprived him?

Therefore, as the spirit-born Chariot came back to earth vibrations, Merope chuckled with glee as she perceived the wonders of Spirit. For all was so simple, in fact so simple that man, in his greed for power, lost the point and let it pass him by.

For man in being of the consistency of the Atomic Dust, was now continuing under the continuity of rebirth of being re-born under their status of Cosmic Evolution. For out of these Divine Galactic Spheres, from whence the Atomic Dust comes forth, the sparks of Divinity that fell into downward frequency, had now become as man growth, all still being continued on in the rebirth.

Hence as the Breath awakens the NORM, the Pineal, the form-clothed status of the descent is stimulated, and the greater propensity of Divine Beginning takes over through the ever-continuing downflow. Thereby transmuting through the Pituitary, the Harmonic sustenance of the inner bodies, with the Great Ones ever commencing new Laws under the inflowing Stream of Divine embodiment.

ALL IS A MATTER OF REBIRTH, FOR AS IT CHANGES IN THE WORLD OF FORM BY BELIEF, DOES IT ASCEND TO THE HEIGHTS, AND IN RETURNING AS BREATH AND HOLY FIRE OF THE CENTRAL SUN, REFORMS THE PLANES FROM WHENCE THE ORGANS TRACE THEIR BEGINNING.

THESE BEING THE STRUCTURE OF THE CHROMATIC SPHERES, FORMING IN THEIR UNIFICATION SOLAR GLORY AND HEAVENLY DIVINITY. WITH THE FACE EVER CHANGING ITS CONTOUR INTO THE GLORY OF DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS.

For when you realise that the new garment of the mind is of vibronic glory of the Ethers of Outer World Space, what chance does man have of resisting the ways of rebirth. Every man is seeking of FIRE, and Fire is the intense glory of becoming; and since man has the basic of Saturn for his foundation, he would ever find greed getting the better of his greater judgment, until he learnt to transmute Saturn into the acute perception of mind light. This is where the Mighty

DIVINE SPERM

AS THE HOLY COLURE OF THE COSMIC FACE

by the Lord of the Flame

This is a recording of the Lecture given at the School on Wednesday, 28th August, 1968. Sentences in italics are those that were chosen from the Lecture of the previous Sunday, to be given greater and more simplified explanation.

Merope's Opening Prayer

LET US MAKE INVOCATION.

L Great Divine Spirit, once again we gather together seeking to drive yet harder the Powers that are necessary to carry the Stream out, to fulfill the Great Work that has been set into motion. It is difficult for us to understand, yet we now must realise that everything is of vibration, for as I so raise that frequency up, does the atmosphere, the Breath, and the vibration, of the whole earth become. For as the Scapegoat sets the prototype does all become ready for the world to continue, the whole world living upon that plane of rebirth. Great One, the road is hard and very difficult, but I do ask that there will be many others who will join in with us, and be prepared to sacrifice themselves, that they too can try and raise their frequency up and play their part in bringing peace to the world. For we know that this is the 'cleansing of the pot,' the clearing out of the old states, that the Plane of Mind Divinities can be born in all peace. Only those who have been seeking into the Occult Wisdom can possibly understand these Divine Laws that are far more superior, far more powerful, than the ways of earth. And so we leave ourselves in Thy Hands, awaiting Thy Will, in the name of Love and Service. Amen.

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL...

Again we come amongst you, and many multitudes have gathered from the World of Spirit to give the strength and power that is needed to support and fructify Merope. By what has been given unto you now, you must realise the Powers of Spirit, once there is one who has the faith and belief to raise them up unto their right frequency upon the earth. Naturally you must realise that this entails the renunciation of all earth conditions, losing everything, but giving the whole of their being to the Powers of the Spirit, to bring New Life and understanding into matter. This is true Occultism, that known to the sages of old, that which belonged to the gods at the beginning of Time, where soul was prepared to renounce all; but for one to do so in this world of form and desire, is a big Task.

THIS HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED BY MEROPE, BUT MEROPE WAS PREPARED TO SACRIFICE THE WHOLE OF HER PHYSICAL BEING, THAT SHE COULD ENTER INTO THE REALMS OF DIVINITY, HER RIGHTFUL PLACE. IT MEANT A COMPLETE CHANGE OF HER BLOODSTREAM, THAT SHE FORFEITED THE LUNAR BLOOD AND TOOK INTO HER VEINS THE SOLAR BLOOD.

So I want every one of you males, whose waters are flooded with the Holy Fire, to now give of all your strength and your love as she performs the work tonight. Every one of you is flooded with the Holy Fire, but as to whether your mind, your personal mind, accepts it and so allows it to manifest is another thing. It is only by you recognising, believing and accepting, that you bring forth out of your inner capability your capacity to manifest the frequency of your belief. For every man is breathing in the Hydroxyl Breath, filled right up to the full with all the Divine Ethers of Outer World Space.

Merope is aware of this; so she is extracting from them to the very full. Now every one of you can do the same thing, particularly the males. The male does not suffer as the female, for the female has come up from the magnetic fire, and has had to change the whole of her being that she can be under the Kirtle of God. But the male is receiving the Fire direct, and can take from that Fire whatsoever he so will.

THIS IS WHY IT IS SO IMPORTANT TO PARTAKE OF A REFINED DIET, THAT THE INFLOWING HOLY FIRE HAS A FREE AND PURE CHANNEL OF MANIFESTATION.

The whole of your world at the present moment is contaminated with disease, germs and false creations,—that man, out of sheer carelessness,—yes, and the idea of easy profit,—is putting into the world at the present moment. My advice is, eat as much as possible only of natural foods; avoid foods that are prepared and tinned, and put into a mashed condition, and brought out of contaminated waters and sold as luxuries. Try to keep to natural food, and you will find that you will be helped.

This knowledge is not new, but Merope is the first one to make it a living epitome, so that any of you now can turn to bring it into birth. Seek through the Word, embrace the Word and unify all up within yourself and then you will become born of the greater frequency.

The Mystery Plate

HERE you see a plate, not only put into operation by an artist, Doré, but demonstrated by Dante. He understood the great Wealth of the Central Sun, and the Great Powers that could be drawn therefrom, and how by Beatrice leading Dante up to those Heights by frequency, they stood on the very verge of the Central Sun.

(See plate on page 7)

Now to understand this better, you must realise that everything is born within the soul, so it means that the soul has brought their Norm to the frequency of the Central Sun, Light, in the soul it is frequency. It is not a matter of lesser or higher, but it is equal by frequency to Glory of Light that is building up in the Great Central Sun.

Q...I take it that is the heritage that man is born with, Master?

A...That is quite true. He is the Atom; he was born as the Atom, but he never fired it by giving it a mind. Now the Atom is of Mind, but if man does not build a mind, then the Atom is of no value. He broadens it, he gives it expression, he gives it power, and he gives it that power to manifest.

So Merope is colouring all the vibrations of the world; she has raised up the vibrations of the whole world to the equal of the vibrations of her Norm, her seventh chakra. Thus she has changed the incoming Vibratory Law, and now everything is really radiating upon her vibration; the only thing is that man refuses to accept them, or does not know anything about them.

Q... Am I right in saying that through Merope's mind the Great Powers are able to direct their Power, and have a conscious understanding of knowing how to direct it?

THE FACE

THE passing breeze, the dancing rain, the glorious sunshine, and heavenly darkness; all the mystery of the Silent Omnipotent, the glorious FACE of Divinity. That which changes with the unfolding thought, and the establishing of divine belief. Becoming the holy beauty of royal divinity, the glory of the Source to the Mouth. (See text in col. 5).

as a complement to the frequency of the Central Sun. Consequently Beatrice, as the Virgin, rose up, as your feminine principle must do, blending everything into a oneness, and bringing Dante, the male issue, to be born and bathed in the glories she had brought into birth, equal to the complement of the Heights.

FOR IN THE HEIGHTS, IT IS RAW ELEMENTS.

By manifesting them in the soul, the soul brings them to the equivalent of the manifestation in the Heights, but as Light. In the Heights it is

A...Yes, they would not know how to, but only through her.

Q...Thus they avoid making a mistake,—if I might call it,—because they use her as the trial and error machine.

A...Yes, that is why she has to be the trial and error. That is why at times she finds herself so desperate, and crying out for mercy, when she finds herself being twisted, as a new project is being put into operation.

We now control the Elements through her, by the Theocratic control. She is a transformer of the Noumenon into the phenomenon. It is quite easy when you can perceive it in a simple way. Don't try to perceive it in a complicated way; try to perceive it in a simple way, then you have the answer.

Q...She controls the Octaves of frequency which enables the Powers to move up and down the frequency at their will!

A...That is quite true. There are times when even Merope finds it difficult to comprehend what has taken place, but now through her polarising the Atom, she has brought forth the Golden Light of the Central Sun. At the present moment, through her polarising as she has done, she is now entering into the Glories of her Norm, and the Norm now becomes her world. Don't just see it as a small gland, see it as the frequency of an enormous beginning, which she is now going to make grow.

Unfortunately you see everything by form, and you are limited by the form that you see. You do not realise that your glands, your bloodstream, and many other states within you are vast worlds of growth gathered over the Ages but condensed into an essence.

But when there is a soul who can bring that into a manifestation of mind, radiation, belief and expansion, then it begins to flower and become a world of radiation. Now this is the New World with all the old world being broken up, and those of you who can build a mind are ready to go forward into the New World.

The Central Sun

NOW let us take a part of the Lecture upon THE DIVINE SPERM, the great Sperming Power from the Central Sun; that which is pouring through the seminal fluid of every male issue as Pure Atomic Fire.

For the glory of the conquest is the manifesting of DIVINITY, the transmigrating of the MIND of the Source, the raw MIND, into the Virgin glory of the depths.

It is your mind becoming the Virgin glory; you perceive it, you radiate with it.

Whereby the very Breath of Causation is the entry of the Divinities into creative life, that their manifesting glory becomes the unfolding Beauty of the Divine changing FACE.

(See plate on this page)

This means that you are taking in the blood atoms of the Divinities, because the Higher Powers are not as your creation, as a male being or a female being; they are Light. Atomic Light that has never been given expansion, never been given experience, and which is coming down now in the Breath.

Q...That is how we take the Embodiment, with the Atom becoming part of our arachnoid web.

A...That is right. So the gods in your arachnoid web will become of the Divinities. Now you have got to try and forget form while I am talking to you; just see yourself as an Atom with a mind.

You are changing the FACE of Divinity, because you are seeing the inner growth of Divinity more and more. Whereas beforehand you saw the Master as just a Master, you are now beginning to see him as a Divinity, a Royal Divinity of mighty Power, and the more you are able to see him in his rightful context, the more he is going to manifest.

It being the expansion of the Divine MIND, whereby in the changing Causes, greater and greater Divinity is drawn forth into the world of living expansive life. For man is nothing until he can manifest the Divine MIND within himself and then tread it into the World of Effects, to unfold the glory of the depths.

You are giving expansion to the Great Divine MIND, for you are the workers in the depths, you are the creators. You are the sons who are going to toil in the world of matter.

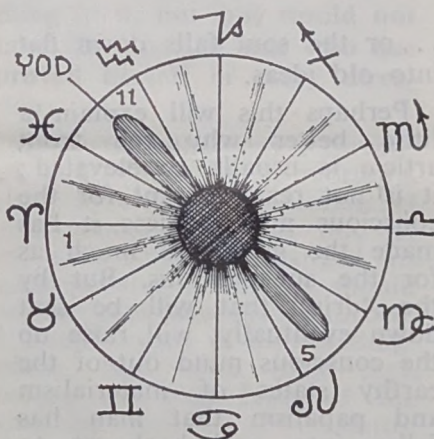

Hence man is nought else but mind, BUT NOT HIS MIND, BUT THE MIND OF THE SOURCE, where, by his labouring, he brings forth as the Audible divine Voice, that of the Holy MANHOOD.

It would be his mind if it was only a book-reading affair, where he is just repeating as a text-book boy, but when he thinks, believes, and manifests these truths, then he is speaking with the mind of the Source. He speaks with the Voice of GOD.

Thus as the royal and holy marriage of the soul takes place, was it sperming of the Uranian Mind, as the Orion Child manifesting expansion.

Now just for the moment, those of you who have followed many of our diagrams, think of the circle, then get the 5th to the 11th houses, where I have explained to you that there is the ever-changing Yod of raw Fire, from the 5th into the 11th, which is the springing forth of the Spirit. Whereby you are going to labour all round the houses, but it is going to manifest from one side to the other as you labour. I have given you this before.

You are the Orion child, the Orion being the manifestation of the Colure. We gave to you of the two circles of the manifesting Divinity. One was the Equatorial and the other was the Ecliptic, the two Colures; one was the mundane colure and the other was the Royal Colure, which you were going to bring into birth; that which the gods had slipped from and would now have to go back into.

The Vase created and the donning of the Royal Robe of LOVE in the Feminine as the ever state of manifest, and the Masculine as the ever state of Becoming.

Now don't see these as male and female; they are negative and positive.

Then it was that Merope knew that lost divine mystery as the gathering-in of the Glory of the Conquest. The raising of the Arc that it, as the Divine Altar of the Solar Glory, is anointed by the Holy Fire of the magnitude of that Holy Glory.

That by that worship of what she now knows to be true, and the ever seeking of its Divinity, she becomes anointed by the Holy Fire, of the magnitude of that Holy Glory, because it becomes a part of her, it becomes imbibed into her, it becomes her mind, it becomes her blood; she embraces it.

The carrying of the Ark up to Bethshemesh, as the aim of every unified soul, where the Virgin Spirit dances in the Garden of the MIND, and reveals the glory of the divine Sonship, unto the waiting Fatherhood.

The ever changing divinity of your mind becoming more and more of the Royal Fatherhood, by your feminine principle seeing more and more the divinity in the depths, manifesting it, and sending it up and changing the Fatherhood.

For having brought all to the complete unity of Being, and blended the Three into ONE, that the Divine Thread radiated before her, she reached up to where her tympanic drum reverberated in Holy Oneness, that the heartbeat of the Source could be its guiding glory.

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost became blended into the Virgin Mind.

Thus piercing the inner divinity of the extended Pole, that a greater revelation could be made.

Merope reached up and up, and raised the pole of her spine higher and higher, until a greater revelation could be made.

For no sooner had she uttered these words than she knew that this mighty secret was the Divine anointment, where the soul was now the radiating Glory of the Divine Holy Fatherhood.

As she became imbued with the Solar Fire, it became all of her blood and her glandular texture, and she reached out more and more, until she became fully aware of what she was bathing and radiating with. Then she knew she was of the Divine Holy Fatherhood, for she had completely transmigrated and changed over.

The whole being one radiating beauty of LIGHT, sending its glorious Rays in every direction, touching every soul with its Virtue Divine, it being the Holy radiance of Majestic deliverance.

The soul ever reaching out, but as they reach out, ever waiting for the revelation to be made. They know that it cannot be made at once; it can only be made when the soul becomes fully aware of what he is imbued with, what he has become saturated with. It is a natural unfoldment by the soul ever reaching upwards, ever searching, ever seeking.

The higher mind ever going forward, with the lower one seeking to catch up with it, because the higher mind is feeding the lower with the power and the Breath that is taken, but the lower mind is never fully aware of what it is receiving. But its motive is to ever take what it receives and be changed by it, until it can become one with the higher mind.

It is a gradual state of perception in the Virgin state of the soul ever changing and perceiving by its intuitive inward growth, but there has to be hard labour upon the part of the soul reaching out.

You feed the higher mind with light, and reveal the truth within yourself, raising it up and up until it becomes a golden nugget of creation, and then you send that light up to the heights, which in turn will send you down another drip to wrestle with. It is ever a revolution of infinity revolving round and round; this being the serpent swallowing its own tail. The end of your spine, which is the old vibration, time comes when all this becomes blended into a oneness and is manifested by the Virgin divinity.

Man cannot believe that a human functioning can do it, but it has been done, and Merope has proved it. We never doubted at all that she could polarise the Atom: she knew that she had to manifest it on its Solar Glory, and she has been doing it, though perhaps she was not quite aware of what it would cost her, for it has cost her a lot you ought to be very pleased to think that your mind is being directed by Divinity, without your having to wait to get into touch with the gods. Divinity is within you, for you are breathing in Divinity, through the Hydroxyl Breath.

In some of the older tribal races where they have the witch-doctors, these witch-doctors have only built up this power through imbibing of the magnetic creation, by going down and seeking for it, drawing out the intensity and building it up within themselves. That is how they bring it into birth. Merope could have sought downwards and became a witch-doctor, but she chose to go upwards and be of Divinity.

Merope is more powerful than the witch-doctors; they can only command the elements of the earth. Merope can command the whole of the Universe, the Winds and the Waves. This is the true meaning of the Christ. Merope is a Christed One, and so can every one of you become Christed beings, for 'Every man is a Christ unto himself.'

Your Holy Book is only of legends; it is not what has taken place. None of it has ever taken place; it is using history to define to you what man himself will have to try and put into operation. The New Testament, as you call it, is defining to you of how you must learn to take unto yourself of the Christ state by sacrifice and crucifixion.

There never has been a Christ until now. The world is changing; Merope is changing the world, and it is going to become a glorious world of Light, a world of Divine Consciousness. We are going to try and keep her here as long as we can, because she is the only one who has the Keys, and is the only one who knows what she is talking about.

Now the point is that we want your support that she can be fed, that she can go on a long while yet, leaving the Keys, leaving the Truth, and bringing the changes to such a degree that man will be well on the way in change ere she goes.

THERE IS NO WAY OF RETURN NOW TO THE PAST, FOR IMMEDIATELY MEROPE STARTED TO OPEN UP THE DOORS OF THE NORM, THE NEW WORLD WAS STARTED, BUT OF COURSE YOU ARE SEEING BUT THE FIRST THROES OF THE CHANGE.

The Divine Blessing

BLESS this child who has laboured in THY Name, that THY Voice can be heard over all the land. Give unto her of THY Divine Truth, that all mankind can be awakened out of their morass of darkness and despair.

AMEN.

feeding your mind with thought that has been alchemicalised by the Virgin spirit in her struggle.

Q... The radiance which comes from that is the reimbursed Infinity from the heights which man is going to live upon. This would be the Infinity from the Norm itself.

A... That's right. Then all the time he would be climbing up his chakra unfoldment, until he is able to reach the Norm. But remember that although you climb up the spinal chakras, you are ever manifesting this in your mind, but the left side is manifesting it on a lower vibration than the right side.

Then of course, in time you climb up the Falx Cerebri, and you go up to see the gods in the top of the brain, but you go up as a mind, a frequency in the mind, the mind becoming of such a frequency that it climbs up the Falx Cerebri, and goes and lives up under the Arc. A of pain. But Merope has given her mind to the changing of the world that it can be reborn out of its stagnancy, and that man can be reborn into his god-like state.

America and Russia cannot do anything now, because Merope has mastered them; they are finding the limitations in outlet. All it needs is peace while the conquest goes on. There has been many a time when we have had to bring down the missiles, often entailing a loss of life, but we are not concerned with that, for the Spirit still lives; we are only concerned with the unfolding of Divinity, and the unfolding of the Cosmic Cause.

THAT IS THE IMPORTANT THING, THE COSMIC UNFOLDMENT AND EVOLUTION OF THE WORLD.

If you would allow man to do what he likes, what would it be like? They must be directed by Divinity; in fact resulted in their own destruction in internal schism, and floods in Italy as lunar inundation. Therefore Fiery Solar is the answer, and by will and purpose, that a true drive can ever go forth.

The Gordian Knot

WELL! since I seem to help every soul so much, I will try to make this as simple as possible, so that every soul will be able to grasp its message. Man is only MIND, which the soul growth has been cultivating in this period of Human unfolding. Without MIND, the soul becomes merely an animal, for when the gods Fell into animal desires and took on of flesh, they merely lived by self-preservation.

The idea of the "Firing" of the gods by the Element of Mars, was to move them into seeking for mind expansion for Cosmic Evolution to continue in created growth. It would always continue in the heights, but not in the growth required upon the Earth to bring about human unfolding. So in the event of the turn which followed, soul still had to find a status of mind growth, but chose to go about it the hard way, incorporating all the way the animal states of desire.

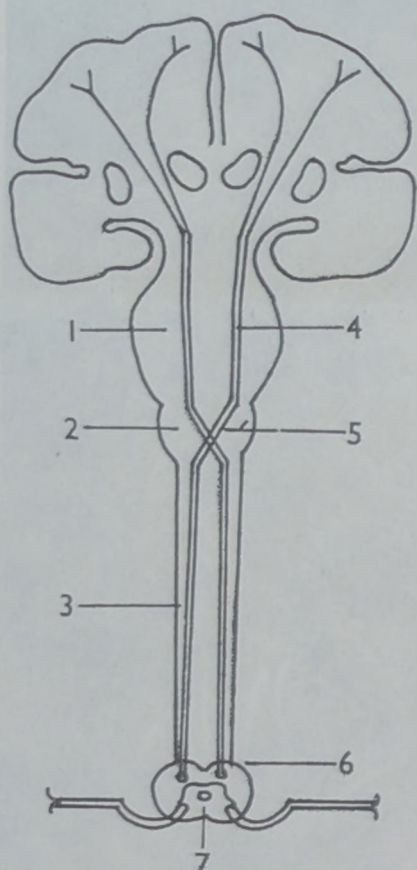

IT IS THESE THAT ARE THE GORDIAN KNOT, THE KARMIC STATES THAT HAVE TO BE STRIPPED AWAY, WHEN THE INITIATE SEEKS FOR SOLAR EXPANSION.

But first, before we make any excursions into the realms of mind unfolding, let us get some better idea of what mind consists of, and how it is obtained. If this was seen more clearly, I am sure that the enquirer would understand a great deal more, of why certain principles are advocated to those who are REALLY seeking soul expansion.

Breath is the foremost action in this creation, and so dutifully described by the Egyptians as Shu and Tefnut. Shu the breath and Tefnut the moist air that expanded up the Vagrant nerves, in the efferent and afferent motion. These being sensory and motor. COMPLETELY OUT OF THE RANGE OF THESE BUTCHER-LIKE MINDS.

and afferent motion. These being sensory and motor.

By taking in of the Breath, which of course, is sustenance from Outer World Space, the mystery of Divinity, it enters into the bloodstream. There it is broiled in the generative action of the sublimatory state of soul growth, where the Seed is produced that continuity can proceed.

But before we go on, please do remember, that much of this will be denied by the medical fraternity, for they decry soul growth. And furthermore, much is carried through by osmosis, so it is no good them crying, "but there is no channel for entry."

MIND IS SOUL AND SPIRIT, THEREFORE COMpletely out of the range of these butcher-like minds.

The seed in being produced, would be equal to the soul growth, moving on from the fourth house of the home of the soul re-creation, into the fifth house, where it passes through the status of being fired. That is what sublimation means, fired to produced steam...

Which in its reproduction in polarisation, brings the Spirit into birth.

So as the soul wends its way round the limbs or signs in metabolising growth, the "Yod of God," the unfolding status of the spirit, is being trod in, in the ionisation, as seen as the thick line from Leo to Aquarius. This is why we have reached the status of Relativity; halfway from the Leo period of the Dawn of Civilisation.

Therefore, as the Seed in its exploded state reaches the Virgo mind, the intuitive mind, what was gained in the Gemini thinking, finds some status of belief. If it is a good one, and original, then the virgin, the conscious mind, carries it up to the heights, where it extends the Capricornian mount. Then passes over to the sign of Aries, the re-established status of the mind.

Hence the seed that was exploded down in the depths by the heat of sublimation, takes on a status of spiritus air and shoots up the spinal column, via the sensory nerve. If it can get past the bull at the neck of the soul, because he has been victorious in mind creation, it will go up the cervical to the gods in the meninges, and re-feed the gods with the "Sky weeping waters" from the depths, which were obtained from the heights.

The Spirit Growth

WELL! since it became as spiritus air through the Bull and Scorpio fighting for the crown, mind or desire, it indicates that Breath is the fore-runner of the Spirit, and that spirit and mind are ONE. But until the soul raises up its mind status of desire, it would remain as the lunar and not that of the Solar.

If the mind is expanded in wisdom, the subconscious will definitely become expanded, but the conscious mind will not, unless this wisdom is woven into mind light, by the conscious mind accepting, believing, and treading in; that is, living it. Then the lower infinity will be made, where it will be polarised in heights and depths unified. This now enters into the bloodstream after the subconscious, the brain cells, have been enlightened in unfolded light growth. Not wisdom, for only the conscious mind is aware of this, then creates the garments for the soul bodies.

The Cinderella of the depths, who is ever making unity with her prince in the heights, that of the fatherhood, who is the first degrees of the FACE. The building up of divinity within the soul, then the father becomes as the Fatherhood. Thus the spiritus air that became as spirit, enters the bloodstream, and is the Homogeneous substance that goes to make up of the bloodstream life. Naturally it is a substance that cannot be seen by the naked eye, for it is spirit and the MAN.

When the soul finishes its life, it is this that leaves the body, and the only status of what man is consistent of. So leaves the dead flesh and flies off to the Nether Planes, from whence it came, to account for its actions in soul growth. But nothing more or less than what it has collected; good, bad or indifferent.

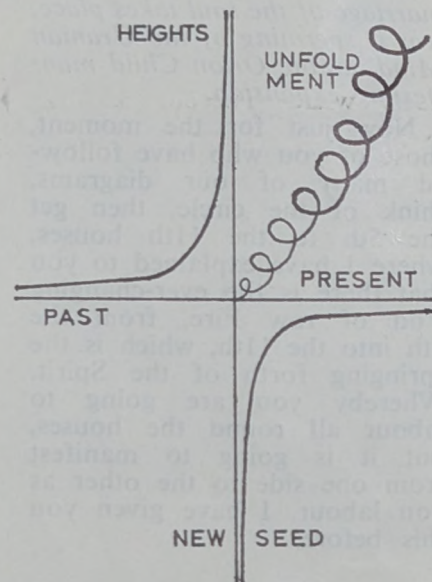

The body of light is the spirit in the blood electrified and atomised. That is, Solar born, not held by earth gravity of desire, but fledged in mind belief and growth, in the Solar glory of Divinity. The body of mind fire that is built up in the blood as will and super-will, for the soul by elevation of belief is one with the spirit, and no longer held down by earthy matters and desire.

THE SOUL IS ABLE TO SPIN ITS MIND UP AND DOWN IN FLUIDIC BELIEF, AND CREATE

IDEAS OF AN ENTIRELY NEW STATUS OF THOUGHT AND BELIEF.

Think of the composers, whether of music or poetry, they do not hear this in the raw mind fire, but they extract its vibrations by their own elevated frequency, and give that vibration expression of note or word. Their sensitivity defines of beauties equal to the glories of their past growth, when man was less materialistic, and still held of the glory of Divinity within the Anthropomorphic Egg or soul growth.

Thus they spin up by mind polarised expansion, as past and present unite, and new ideas fly up out of the unity, into a new heavenly idea, that extracted out of the seed born from the Ether Breath...

...or the soul falls down flat into old ideas.

Perhaps this will explain a little better why the front article is usually so elevated; it is not really meant for the conscious mind, unless it has made the grade, so much as for the subconscious. But by the "drip" that will be sent down eventually, will raise up the conscious mind out of the earthy states of materialism and papalism that man has fallen into, and back up to the heights.

If the soul is diligent and does perceive the importance being conveyed in the article, especially of mind growth, it will labour around that article until the subconscious sends down the "drips" of new ideas for its belief. Then the alchemicalisation of what went into the bloodstream, through you reading the article, will have been helped by the Solar inflow.

THEN GO UP TO THE BRAIN IN THE BLOOD INFINITY, AND SUDDENLY DAWN ONTO THE CONSCIOUS MIND, THE LEFT SIDE OF THE BRAIN, AS TO WHAT IT ALL MEANS.

The Unfolding Sensitivity

TO me this is another form of the writing on the wall, for immediately the whole of the soul changes, and has a renewed outlook. Now, with that explanation, shall we look into the article of MIND, as the key to Divine unfoldment. Here you see I took a flight of fancy, by travelling back over the past through my inner consciousness.

For by unification, that is, soul growth by initiation through the mysteries, I have reached the stage of ONE-NESS... all states, including the two sides of the brain, are blended into ONE. So the past and the present are just a matter of looking into the depths of self, and uniting these states as per the diagram. But as I have often said before, all is HERE and NOW, the mystery of the blood growth through the spirit, which remains with the soul, whether this side or the other.

Perhaps we now can perceive more clearly of the dire ignorance of the medical world, in transplanting metabolism organs that hold the record of past changes, giving blood transfusions, saline infusions that change the state of the blood, and goodness knows what. Thereby killing off every bit of sensitivity you may have created during your life of struggle. Although I must say, this understanding is dawning more clearly upon many, and they are now very concerned with the actions of the medical "vultures."

Now do not doubt that one can make these flights into their own depths, or by astral travel. But it was only when drug addicts performed of such in a really dangerous way, that narrow minded authority thought there might be something in it, but still would not take the word of one who has proved herself in every direction.

Only the other day I travelled at 6 o'clock in the morning, right over to New Zealand. I was concerned about one of my sons who had changed his address, and so that I should not become wrongly disturbed, I found myself in his dwelling-place. But more than that, seeing the true facts of the situation from a spirit status. So as much as you may want to perceive all this as just fanciful dreaming, please do not, for without a doubt, what is described and found on that plane of excursion, I know to be exactly correct.

BUT AS I AM ABLE TO TRAVEL IN THIS WAY, SO ARE ALL, ONCE THEY UNFOLD THEIR SENSITIVITY AND RAISE UP THEIR FREQUENCY.

As we go through the reading, we can see how important it is for all Chakras to be elevated in sensitivity. With the NORM or Pineal truly alight, and the whole of the mind dancing in Fiery Glory. So raising up the frequency of belief and desire, as to be truly fiery with Solar glory. Accepting the fact that soul came back to find growth through their experiences, to widen and broaden the mind.

A privilege which many in the astral planes are waiting to take over, but which unfortunately is now curtailed. For by my actions of soul growth as Merope, the Earth-plane is being prepared for the descent of Divinities into matter.

all the Ages and Aeons of Time, the present conscious mind, born new in every life, is THE MIND that will see the soul onto the progress of the future.

It is the conscious MIND of all minds, and holds the soul and its possibilities in its grasp. Through my reaching up to the Central Sun, the whole of cells of soul growth, to begin the new World of the Fatherhood. This is where John in Revelations states of the 144,000 that will only get through. The soul that comes to a state of ONENESS as he masters the lower elements of soul growth, and captures the Elements of Outer World Space to bring them into his being as the glory of Divinity.

FOR OUTER WORLD SPACE IS DIVINITY, THE GREAT FATHERHOOD OF ALL LIFE WAITING TO SPERM HIS ATOMS IN THE DEPTHS. THAT IN THEIR MASTERY OF LIFE, THE JESUS STATE, THEY BECOME CHRISTED OR SOLAR BORN.

This certainly makes things much clearer, but it is up to you as to whether you make it easier by your acceptance and ready unfoldment. Do not doubt that this may cause some sort of disturbance in your life, for that is due to karmic creations that you have to untie through the Gordian knot tied up in a tangle through desires, religion and root growth.

For there are some who still have of their centaur states never turned in, which could have been buried by the mortuary meal, if the conscious mind had solved the wisdom they had taken. This alone proves of past knowledge and states of growth, which had to be unified by relativity.

go back into the vortex of the Stream. This may sound alarming, but if man had not been given this truth, he would have lost his Seed and become a Robot that papalism was tending him towards.

By creating an independent mind, the soul truly becomes Divinity born, thereby a priest unto himself. All it needed was a Scapegoat who was willing to set the prototype. Well! I am the culprit, and although many would denounce me under divers terms, I can only say, "Thank God we have been able to save the Seed, the soul continuity of all TIME." Now you do the rest by building up your mind, and go forth as a Warrior of Truth, spinning your mind up as high as you can.

No longer a state of conventionalism, or false beliefs and egoism, but simplicity of truth and heavenly belief. Then you will become a mind cell in the new World of Heavenly Glory.

But I do ask you to take this explanation seriously, for I have revealed truths that have yet to come forth in lecture explanation. I felt that it would add weight to the urgency now at hand, for personal relativity is now about to take place, and man will only reap what he has sown, no more and no less!

I am afraid this is the weeding out of the sheep from the goats, when like Jacob, man will have a true status of his wealth revealed unto him, and whether he is tied to a Leah or Rachel as his Feminine principle.

Now I do hope this will help some of you to understand the depths of the foremost article, but most of all to comprehend the truth and urgency of the changes now on hand. At the same time, I thank the many who have sent us some help through the strain of the present changes now ensuing.

As this is very near to Christmas, and the next Gazette may not reach you beforehand, I wish you all a Happy Xmas, for this is the time when the true summing up takes place, and man receives the Horae, if he so warrants it. Whereby the soul starts off the New Year with his sole value as his mind growth, and the new harvest he must try and grow, out of the field of corn with its tares and poppies of past remembrances.

THE LOVERS

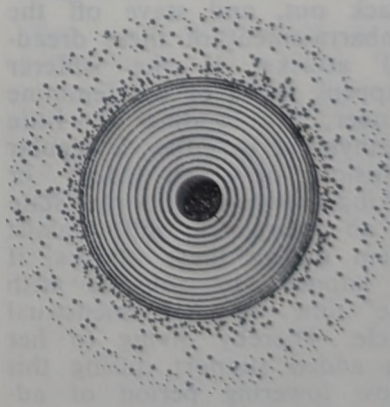

AS the anthropomorphic egg became blended up, the mighty Cosmos became one; all commencing in the base of the pot, to culminate in the glories of the heavens. Wonders and beauty, which are the mystery of the blood, and the unfoldment of the mighty Spirit. (See text in col. 1).

No longer is it a World of materialism, but a World of Divine unfoldment. Womanhood has turned over to Fatherhood, negative to positive, cutting off the astral planes from their unity with the World of Rebirth.

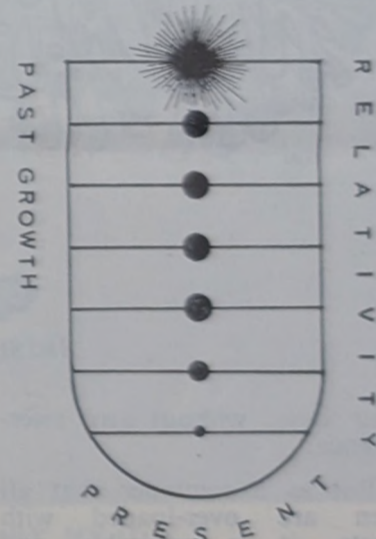

The Sea of Divine Consciousness

EVERY man now treading the MIND Plane; for the unfoldment now is to the Abstract Mind. If soul has not built up a mind, whereby Divinity as Theocratic expansion is its basic glory, soul will go back to the Nether planes of the depths. Through

Then on to Outer World Space, which was the fresh air that man was requiring, at this present status of stagnancy. Therefore, all now is under control, for the Divinities have entry through man himself. HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 17

IRISH MOSS

(Chondrus Crispus)

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS month we break away from the earth grown herbs, and venture around the sea shore, seeking into the wealth and the amazing recuperative powers of Irish Moss. This herb has been of amazing benefit to man and animal alike, and has sustained both of them from many, many, vast and sickening plagues that have been installed into time by the backward slide of creation. Irish Moss is a rather oily herb, which can give colossal power to the thymus, and also assist the sinuses in their reborn activation, during the changes that are rapidly coming into birth through relativity. It has the power of helping to break down clots of blood, which are inclined to lower the resistance of a soul, as these dynamic changes within him take place. For clots of blood are manifested through a fixed outlook of stubborn refusal to change, creating a state of forming density, in the fluidity of the revolving bloodstream.

If there are any unfortunate sufferers who are willing to practice this Irish Moss treatment, and free themselves from this creeping paralysing condition, it is advisable to lie in a bath of Marigold infused hot water, which will assist the heating of the flesh, thereby to acquire a more free flexibility for the Irish Moss to fulfill its inner work.

It is also desirable at this stage, to endure as much as one can in regard to the temperature of the bath water, even increasing it to as much as can be endured, and above all, do try to completely relax into its surrounding warmth. The Marigold, which of course has the Solar Ray, will infuse its power into the body, which will assist the pores to exude the waste and acid which will be forced out of the orifices. Waste and acid being the basic causes of this increasing complaint.

Another virtue of Irish Moss, when it is mixed with Vervain, and Agrimony, is that it can strengthen the sight of many who are suffering from double vision. And as rare as it may seem now, I feel sure this complaint is going to become more prevalent, as the changing over of the blood into the white corpuscular rebirth of divinity, meets with man's stubborn refusal to blend and become as one with these dynamic cosmic changes, for by refusal will it bring many strange happenings unto the vast majority of the world's population.

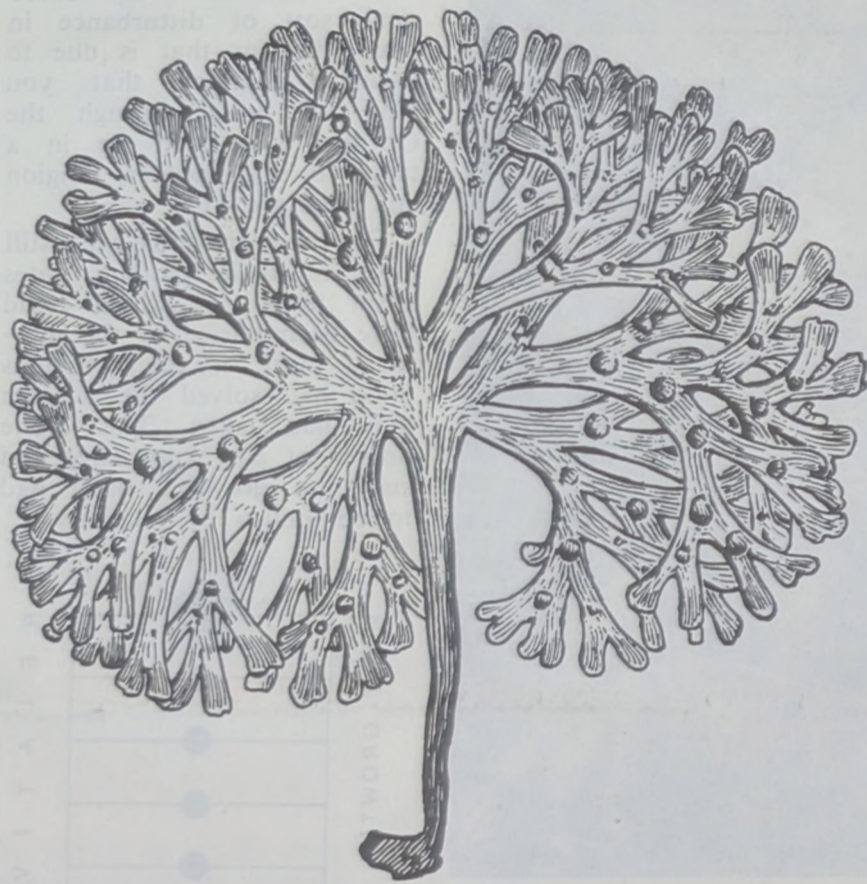

During this period Irish Moss, Vervain, and Agrimony, will be well sought after and treasured, and also well consumed, for none can escape the Laws of consequence, once the Fires begin to infuse all men with their changing inborn directions.

Irish Moss has also been used for the healing of badly putrefied sores in a remarkably short space of time, saving many limbs from gangrene by a swift application. If applied to a sore in such a state of decomposition, it must be moistened and tied rather tightly around the offending spot. It will need much faith, for the dressing once applied is best left on for three or with fluidity, which is extracted from the minutest of cells, for it is somewhat of the consistency of coral, being a living organism, which breathes and thrives upon a certain planctum such as does the whale. It is the essence from this that the joints receive, and is of such worth, that it would be much more appreciated by all, if only tried more regularly.

For sadly enough it has become a lost commodity, through man's sophisticated search into the false medicinal remedies and drugs, which are so much easier and profitable to manufacture, and of course, receive a better share rating upon the booming stock exchange of human lives.

If one happens to be a sufferer from one of man's worst scourges, that of epilepsy, it is advisable to have a little of this Irish Moss with them, for it can be chewed as four days, without any interference.

But as a reminder that all men are over-loaded with waste, it is advisable and necessary to take plenty of Buchu leaves and nerve herbs during this healing period, for they will assist the inner cleansing which obviously has got to take place. The taking of as much water as can possibly be consumed, will alleviate the pressure of the powers, which will automatically begin to flow at this particular time through polarity attraction.

This will assist the right firing frequency, to repair the stress and strain upon the inner bodies, as the soul will be forced through lack of caring, to renounce subconsciously many of the fancied foods and desires which were once common to them when in fine healthy fettle. Then the fire as the rejuvenating Cosmic blood-life can heal the soul with the assistance from the virtues of the herbs consumed.

Irish Moss has a wonderful way of infusing all the joints it is, and will make a contact with the saliva juices, which in turn will act quickly and help to stave off any spasm of the mind, thereby decreasing any full attack by alleviating the tenseness of the nerves.

This action can quite possibly save one from a complete black out, and stave off the embarrassment of these dreadful attacks. If the sufferer happens to be of the feminine gender, by adding a little Pennyroyal to either a regular infusion of Irish Moss or taking it purely in its raw state in an emergency, will it assist them during these attacks, if it happens to coincide with the time of her menstrual cycle. Thereby giving to her an added support during this most lowering period of adjustment. But please note that on NO account should Pennyroyal be used if there is any sign of pregnancy.

AGES past when the powers were free from the dogmatised religions that have come to the fore, Irish Moss was very often squeezed over the whole of the body, whilst a soul was fasting during a period of remorse. For man did know consciously that any breaking of certain Laws, and negative conduct upon their behalf, did damage the mighty powers of the Heights, and he really did try to put right his mistakes in the best way he could, through some form of renunciation.

When he did, the application of the essence from out of the Irish Moss, was thought to assist his outer bodies to be cleansed of the offending states; thereby through the nourishment out of the Moss he was fortified, the oil penetrating his skin and feeding him, opening him up to a risen up vibronic frequency. The anointing with oil, as far as man was willing to go. Now through the Fires he will be raised up and literally forced into renunciation, and made to account for any of his misdirected deeds.

In the past Irish Moss was cooked with the very fish from out of the sea, for man then seldom needed any false stimulus of which he so craves for today, because the Moss did, and still can, give him the stimulation to support him during his daily toils. So it can be seen as a wonderful restorative tonic, and when taken in the colder months of the year it will help to keep out the cold and the chilly icy weather, giving an added degree of resistance.

When Broom and Irish Moss are allowed to smoulder over a dying fire, it has been said "that the fumes are very intoxicating, and can assist one to clairvoyantly receive vibrational help to relieve them of any suppressing difficulties." This was often practiced by early Occultists who were unmercifully suppressed by backward conditions, and by the loneliness of their task through fear of denunciation, that it became known as "the dowager," for it gave them such wonderful comfort and support, and very often being their only treasure.

It is amazing as to the amount of uses which Irish Moss can be used for, and it is even a herb that has been well used in the past for the removal of gall stones, they being of solidified fire.

Irish Moss has also been well tested with Agrimony, and has an assisting influence, capable of promoting a speedier cure to alleviate the above very painful complaint. If on the other hand one happens to be a sufferer with whitlows, it has been known to soften the offending area, and extract the burning inflammation, but it is necessary to dampen with a little water, and then use as a form of cotton wool compress. If a little Buchu is added to Irish Moss, it can be taken internally for the speedy recovery of inflamed and aching gums, caused through having a rather poisonous state within one's intestines.

It is remarkable how this Moss can be made into a delightful jelly, and it can be made quite palatable with a little sugar and various culinary essences, such as, Vanilla, Lemon, Orange or even an infused Bayleaf, added to give it a flavour. By bringing it near to boiling point, and then straining it before it cools, it very soon sets, but during the summer months if it is placed in the sunshine for an hour or so, before being allowed to set, its recuperative properties are awakened, and through the Sun's infusion, one will find it can when eaten become very soothing to the solar plexus. Giving comfort to an overworked stomach, through mixing rich foods, or just a repeating pain through the nervous system being a little upset.

If Irish Moss is lined with a layer of elm marsh ointment, and used as a form of poultice, very severe burns have been known to be healed, for it acts as a form of heat extractor, both herbs feeding from the inflammation, and in return exuding a secretion to lubricate the skin tissues. Thereby restoring the life-flow of the blood, around the damaged portion of the flesh. This helps to keep a fresh pink hue around the burnt or scalded area. Again a simple cure, far out-doing the medical world's theories.

When the nervous system is being taxed to a near maximum, it can be turned into the positive function, by the chewing of this dried Moss, somewhat salty, but then it is a dissolvable salt, so no great damage would be done with such a small amount. By consuming it, the saliva glands activate a little faster, and this can motivate many dormant nerve cells into activity, to counterbalance the negative disorder the soul has fallen into.

A more serious condition, such as the aching and stiffening of the feet can be alleviated by soaking them in a bowl of this infused herb, for it has a capacity of drawing out the acidity and fire, thereby giving them a more supple flexibility. This being a state which will be gradually felt by many, as they are called to tread their wealth into the ground, and are unable to transmute the Fire into fiery belief and expansive word.

The Latin name of this herb is Chondrus Crispus; the best of it is used for human consumption in one way or another, with the remainder being used for cattle, and the dressing of cotton.

There are many different types of sea Mosses, and each is capable of giving all the similar powers of Irish Moss, but in graduating degrees of strength, so there is really no need for anyone to be without the wonders of this gem from the watery deep. It is known to be found quite commonly around the seashores of Europe and the United States of America, but we here in England, receive our supplies from the coasts of Ireland.

Next month we search into the depths of Juniper Berries, and reveal many remarkable cures that have been lost through time, which can now be utilised through the changes of Relativity.

CHAOS

form of Elemental Gods which, in the formation through man, literally took on in their form as Planes of light in heavenly creation; the forming of a heavenly abode.

These planes in embryo had already been created by man in his descent, which had built within the soul, bodies or natures. Man's business in matter was to set those seven bodies of Ali into action, that he could create an eighth of Am-khemen, and evolve. This he did and evolved into a ninth, the Put-cycle or Ennead. Put means Ptah, but the original of seven survived as the seven of Khnemu who assisted Ptah the divine craftsman, while the forming nine, as the evolving creation into the tenth or one of the next spiral were described as the children of Ptah.

The Spiraculum of Continued Evolution

NOW many of you know, through the Teachings, of how all evolves up to the 10th house, which becomes the first of the next cycle. The understanding of this has already been given in the series called the Creation of Life; but before we begin, it would be well if we tried to form some idea of how the legends came about and how, through the ages of soul creation, these states have ever been continually reforming in an eschatological journey; thus ever re-forming in greater light in the starry heights as a Firmament and reforming world.

What man has been gathering has been going up to the heights and building these Planes; a new world. This is the Son Begotten, the Logos, and the forming great Mind of the Intelligencia; the state known to man as God. Yet as Above so below, which again is repeated in man of, as above so below.

What man has been building up is Amenta and Arru, the depths and the heights; and what man has to seek into, and of which we are seeking now, is the Kamite Amenta "the grave of man's lost world," where his legendary world of Beginning began and can be re-discovered.

For that is the prototype from which all is ever reformed, whether it be as man psychologically, or by religion or philosophy; but unfortunately Egypt never created into a form of language but kept all in a state of form as hieroglyphics, which for many ages have remained unread.

SINCE AMENTA IS THE DEPTHS AND AARRU THE HEIGHTS, WE NOW HAVE SOME LOGICAL PICTURE PLACED BEFORE US, AND IT IS UP TO US TO TRY AND FILL IN THE DETAILS SO AS TO GET SOME PRACTICAL UNDERSTANDING WHY MUCH HAS TAKEN PLACE.

After all, man's instructions were to subdue the earth and multiply, but not to become enamoured with the earth and become crystallised, as he has done; and what you are seeking to come away from to bring your species into a more lucid state of spirituality. By so doing he became lost to the heights, losing both perception and illumination, thus living in the lower three senses and swimming only in the dark pool of the lower waters. Egyptian Seers realised of this truth and knew that in Aquarius the water-pot would be empty. Man completely in drought.

It was not until the Greeks produced a similar creation in their classic Myths that man really began to get a gist of this legendary beginning that was to be his spiraculum of continued evolution. The secret of this is in the allegory of Astronomy as the involving starry light, the rebirth of a future world through the human pawns on earth.

Thus the Greeks, deeply immersed in wisdom, also produced a calendar of Time through this same method; thus man was able to judge time and creation; and without that he would never have been able to judge the moment when he should put into operation the eschatological understanding, and so bring down the cream he could absorb, the manna of life.

The temples which the Greeks built to these Gods were Temples of Worship in a similar way to the Egyptians, and became the means of primitive growth all through the ages. Yet were carried on eventually as later Religions with re-formed times and legendary theory to hide the connection.

Both to the Egyptians and Greeks, gods and goddesses were the Law of Heaven, and were honoured by sacrifice of self and manifestation of ritual that the light of the soul could be evolved. They became the method of evolution whereby Truth and Justice became the standard of life.

(See plate on page 12)

MAN BUILT UP THESE GODS AND GODDESSES AND THEY BECAME LIVING FACTORS WITHIN HIS BEING, THUS LIVING FACTORS IN THE HEIGHTS. NOTHING IS LIVING UNTIL MAN MAKES IT A LIVING FACTOR. MAN IS THE CREATOR.

This was not fancy of savages but independent stories that related to parts of a living system. Like animal species, it related to others of same age and time; but whereas the written history of Greece is not reliable beyond 800 B.C. myths are prehistoric and embody facts of thousands of years.

Thus you will find the mythologies of Bablyonia, Egypt, Greece and Persia similar in their foundation but diverse in their development, yet ever repetitive through the soul creation. Therefore when referred to in the soul growth, is merely pointing out a state that the soul has achieved in its form of rebirth. Hence the true explanation supplies man with a criterion between history and legend, and rids history proper of many of its horrors.

OEdipus did not really kill his father and marry his mother; Antigone was not built into a wall to perish, and Dirce was not tied by the hair to a bull and dragged to death; while Themisto did not kill her own children and then commit suicide, nor the daughters of Danaus murder their husbands.

The argument is cumulative, yet no interpretation could give a consistent and illuminative picture better than an entire mythological rendering. No key other than a master key could open so many doors, so a re-construction will enlighten the soul and help it to perceive what is in the pathological creation as blood life.

This is what man is wrestling with now, and if the babe

Hermes could come forward and as an instructor say, "Take my lyre and those who can deftly use it, it will discourse sweet things," we would be most grateful for the assurance in the resurrection. But at the same time we also must realise that to those who touch it and know not how to draw forth its speech, it will babble strange nonsense and rave with uncertain meanings.

Even if Apollo does fail once again to discourse eloquent music, we can remember that Amphion once played his lyre and built the walls of Thebes; the stones moving of their own accord into their rightful places and fitting exactly. What was done once can be performed again; that is, if we have patience and resolve of the key which lies in the hidden Mysteries long before even the creation of Greece.

belongs to earth, so you can only bring forth of earthy states. Now rise above it; bring all your energies up onto the Air and Fire planes, which belong to the upper part of the Chart.

RISE TO THE HEIGHTS, BRING FORTH THE SPIRITUAL MIND, AND THEN YOU WILL STILL HAVE THOSE POWERS, BUT AS POWERS OF THE MIND; THE POWER TO BRING THE HEAVENLY GRACE TO A SOUL THAT YOU CAN HELP THEM UPON THEIR JOURNEY.

The Cradle of Creation

SO as an independent theme of recognition of elemental involving and Starry evolving, we will seek into these Myths; for it was from or not. So since the mythological created all, whether known or accepted until a later date, Mythology, whether Greek or Egyptian, holds the key to man's psychological interpenetration. Thus upon that explanation we will proceed.

But let us try and keep in our mind that these Gods were created by man out of the Elements; that was, bringing the Powers down and giving them a form within himself; they could not have been anywhere else but within himself. Consequently the Heights assumed what man gave them.

THERE IS ONLY ONE UNKNOWN; THE GREAT UNKNOWN CREATION, THE ILLIMITABLE HEIGHTS, THE GREAT UNKNOWN STATE OF GOD; NOT AS A MAN, BUT THAT UNKNOWN STATE.

The Solar Deity is the Logos, but man only knows God according to the god he builds up in his own mind, and that becomes his own sun-god, and he knows no other: he may think he does, but he does not. Man can only recognise God by the building up of his own sun-god within him.

BY THIS KNOWLEDGE YOU WILL SLOWLY REALISE HOW MUCH YOU ARE A LUNAR BEING TRYING TO BRING A SUN-GOD INTO BIRTH, AND HOW MOST OF YOU ARE ONLY UNDER THE RULING OF CRONUS.

The five most important planets have linking with the five lower senses, and through these all things are recognised and evolved.

SATURN AS CRONUS the shining one, is the god of the Lunar Year, or the opening day of the year; a festival originally at the Autumn Equinox. Afterwards, by arbitrary revolution of the chart, Cronus was pushed round to the winter solstice and relates to the fourth Chakra of heart creation.

JUPITER AS ZEUS is the god of the Solar Year or New Year's Day; originally at the vernal equinox, but afterwards at the summer solstice and became as the fifth Chakra of accumulative heights.

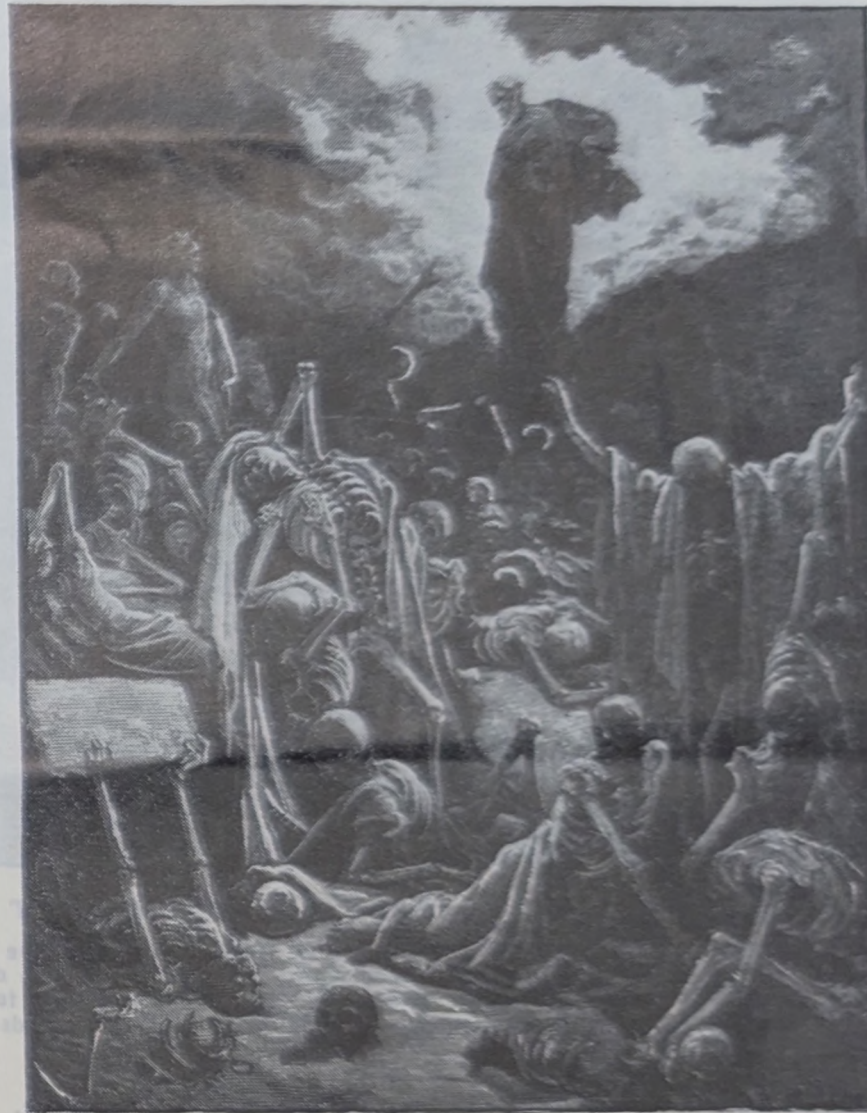

MARS AS ARIES god of the star Aldebaran, or Bull's Eye, which marked the spring festival at a very early period, became the basic and first energy to become as will of purpose. All that you put into operation via your Venus has a bearing upon the Virgin Mother.

VENUS AS APHRODITE the goddess of the Dog-star, as Isis of Egypt portrayed, was the heliacal rising of that star and made to show the return of the year as the second Chakra and virgin mother as the womb.

MERCURY AS HERMES was a divinity stationed at the Autumn Equinox and charged with the business of recording the years and keeping true time. (So you can understand why Mercury, the mind you brought into birth, was taking down the time as the scribe in the "weighing of the heart"). He was called into existence as mind creation when the equinox entered Aries. This was a revival of Thoth (a new beginning) and became the head of the lower trinity, the third Chakra.

THIS IS THE CRADLE WHICH MAN HAS BEEN NURSED IN OVER THE PAST 13,000 YEARS WITH THE OBJECT IN HIS ESCHATOLOGICAL JOURNEY

THE MORTUARY MEAL

A BELIEF, a thought, then forgotten, but the Law demands its toll. For as you have taken, must you proclaim and tread it into the earth's unfolding crust. Bringing into birth the original thought, but as light and glory of the mind. (See text on the back page, col. 4).

But since knowledge as a knowledgeable fact does not exist before then, we must be content with the Myths of Greece that will give us some idea of the world from which Egypt was reconstructed into form creation. Then when sufficiently primed, trust that Hermes' ancient heritage will be revealed from the dark caverns of TIME. But since the depths and heights are being surveyed by those who have courage, the entire depths are inevitable.

If you can bring your lyre to register of the Rhythm of the Spheres then you, too, are going to gather power and build up relativity. But it must be remembered that as you begin to build up, you are beginning to unearth states within you that will need every control to be given real birth, and be given their mortuary meal that they can be born into your being as your strength, your mind growth.

There is only one thing to do; conserve thine energies, conserve those states which are royal; build them up as mind growth; then you will keep those states under control and find the mind and the sensitivity you are seeking for.

So many have only gone to the Psychic plane, the plane of the waters, which belongs to the lower creation; it these that the Gods received their names and have ever since remained as the starry creations. So if you in future lectures of this Series see:—

- Mars as Sut
- Mercury as Shu
- Venus as Seb
- Moon as Nnu
- Jupiter as Horus
- Saturn as Apap

you will have some logical unity of continuance, with the Sun as the ever alternating creation of blood life as Horus and Osiris.

Time had to be measured, and twelve months of the year became as the twelve groups of stars associated with them. These became the constellations of the zodiac. Although the earth moves around the Sun, it is the Sun that appears to move around the earth. This known as the orbit is called the sky, comprising eight degrees on either side of the ecliptic and sixteen degrees in breadth.

Within it is made the apparent motion of the Sun, Moon and visible planets, while the zodiac is artificially divided into twelve parts of thirty degrees each as being associated with the Ram, Bull, Twins, Crab, Lion, Virgin, Scales, Scorpion, Archer, Sea-goat, Water-bearer and Fishes.

As soon as the months were associated with the stars the Gods became the Laws; hence man is ruled by the Gods whether he wants to accept it

OF RAISING UP THE HEIGHTS AND FINDING HIS LOST HERITAGE OF URANUS THAT WAS STRUCK DOWN.

But it surely can be seen how the five senses of man are attached to important points in the zodiacal journey; and each one of these points is helping him to evolve; but it is entirely up to him how much he makes the most of these vulnerable points to assist him gain that which he requires to get free from the rock, Saturn.

For underneath this rock Uranus is a prisoner with his genitals cut off by Saturn: (Taurus to Scorpio down in the depths of the 8th house): this is the higher soul, and the more man merely becomes an intellectual, Uranus's atoms will continue to mount up more and more under that rock like a raging fire: this is the giant that becomes more and more vicious.

Uranus will ever be trying to get him free, for as Pluto, he is the king of the underworld, ever in a state of raping Proserpina, the spirit in the charge of the personality. As Uranus sends down his shafts of fire he will also ever be trying to build up a bridge for the Neptunian waters to flow down and fertilise the knowledge taken into life (the waters from the Cyclops, the third eye).

But unfortunately dogmatised religion is as far as Hermes has been able to rise, and that has been of such an erroneous creation as to destroy all sense of witness as to where to go and how to partake of the journey. In this case, dogma has alone conveyed the fact of a settled opinion, a principle or tenet, a doctrine laid down by authority; yet we would ask, why?

The Principles of Divine Morality

SURELY man and his God are a personal matter, one where only he and God can decide and commune, although we do know that man requires guiding into these channels. Yet we could ask, how could mass and litany recited in Latin possibly convey any depth to the primitive soul lost in matter?

And furthermore, a God crucified on a wooden cross as the mode of emotional uplift has outworn its purpose, and must become a living factor by ever being realised that it is a living creation within every man and awaiting his own internal recognition; whereby the God can live as a radiating truth of mind. Consequently the fulfilment of the prophecy made by the Egyptian Seers thousands of years ago, that man would arrive at the Water-pot and find it completely empty.

In pursuance of this course it will become necessary to take a transient view of the wisdom and customs of Egypt; for it is evident that this country was the salient point from which all the religious observances of the ancient world commenced. What are emphatically called the Mysteries is but another name for religion, and the exposition of what they consisted is embraced in many subjects, particularly the rites of masonry.

Among all the ancient Nations which have been distinguished in history, there is none more worthy of investigation than the ancient kingdom of Egypt. Even if not the birth-place of origin, it was the early protector of the sciences and cherished every species of knowledge which was known or cultivated in remote times and resulted in the Dawn of Civilisation. It was the principal source from which the Grecians derived their information, and after all its windings and enlargements we can still trace the stream of our knowledge to the banks of the Nile that received the inflow of the sacred Eridanus.

Whatever man may think regarding the doctrines of the Mysteries, they enforce the principles of morality by the most terrific scenic representations of the torments of the wicked on the one hand, and of the pleasing spectacles of the happiness of the righteous on the other, in a future life.

built up of gods in their mind that were either wrathful or pleased? Thus from the abyss they began to raise up a height, yet as they sought so they fell into a depth corresponding to their seeking.

This laid the prototype for future creation, a method of upliftment; that is when the soul was stirred into readiness that there could be expansion in all directions. This is what the Egyptians sought to do by their early Phallic worship, the raising of the soul in adoration to those facts of truth.

The soul's own inner wealth and how to handle and raise it under the mode of self-discipline: therefore strove to guide their emotions into a creative channel of generation

Gods, but only had a momentary reign. He is the most ancient, for he presided over the elements that composed the universe. He is usually represented at the moment that he assigned to each element its place, the raised mind as the forming godhead.

To create the light of day he repelled all the dark and thick clouds and then formed the zodiac glittering with stars above his head; thus it can be none other than the element making itself felt in man himself, and would appear periodically through every issue of manifestation.

The poetic idea of Chaos is found in sacred history in the creation as well as in all mythology, where you see such names as Brahma, Vishnu will convey great depth:—

*"And first the Heaven, Earth and liquid plain,
 The Moon's bright globe and stars Titanian
 A Spirit fed within, spread through the whole
 And with the high heap mix'd infused a soul;
 Hence man and beasts and birds derive their strain
 And monsters floating in the marbled main:
 These seeds have fiery vigor, and a birth
 Of Heavenly race, but clog'd with heavy earth."*

Meaning that not only a spirit-soul, but also creation should partake of the divine mind; and that the original virtue, vigor of inferior things, depends upon the Soul of the world. These being the four essences in the universe; Fire, Water, Earth and Air, with a fifth essence as quintessence which permeates everything, above in the stars and below upon earth. But not manifest as light until man brings it forth.

Thus it is the world Soul-spirit which animates all bodies, becomes clog'd with heavy earth and never free or visible; yet it is omnipresent, and he who can free this fifth element from the matter that it inhabits, would hold in his hand the creative power with which God has endowed the world of matter. While the ancient goddess of growth and vegetation like Isis was nothing more than the emblems of the quintessence, the generative power that resides in the philosopher's stone.

While the story of the first gods and their progeny reveals to man the nature of celestial birth; for as the heavens revolve and generate Night and Day these become personified in man himself, he being the creator in matter and the personification of all states of Time. Without him there would be no time and no creation.

The Creative Principle

IT might appear a primitive conception to man now that the Sun was born anew every morning and the stars every night; and that the annual motion gave birth to two equinoxes and two solstices which were associated with divinities. While to suggest that the Sun went down to his grave in mid-winter and rose again and renewed his youth, was utter stupidity fit only for primitive minds. Well it is a pity man never retained them and then he might be free from the dire danger that he is now in.

It must also be seen that Orion as the triumphant Man also comes up from the depths with other southern constellations to spend a portion of the year with man; but as it applies to the Cosmos so it applies to man also in his own unfoldment as the sun alchemises through his whole being. To bring this forth in the matter of time, pointer stones were set up to indicate the point on the horizon where the sun rises and where he sets; the longest day and shortest day, also the day of the equinoxes; for they held special significance for man if he knew how to make the most of what they portrayed.

Man did once take unto himself of the powers, buried them within as Uranus with his "genitals cut off" and now declares, as a seething mass of restless fury, that he knows not God nor the gods; and what is more, can manage quite well without them, for in his opinion they were merely the myths of primitive

LOST GLORY OF THE PAST

IT is these wonders, the mighty glories of creation, that are the blood-life of man; where gods and goddesses lived and manifested as the living factors in the depths. The link between heaven and earth, the glory of Ephesus, the Ionian city of glory. Now a forgotten beauty, but the Graeco-Roman blood-life of the past, and a part of man's growth towards Divinity. (See text on page 11, col. 2).

These Mysteries were protected by the most severe oaths in Greece and Rome, and were equally so, in fact more so, in Egypt the place of their birth. And moreover, in the two former countries, if not in the latter, any hierophant revealing the secrets of these Mysteries was punished with death by the laws; and no man can escape that even today.

For this there was a substantial reason: the greater Mysteries taught the doctrine of one supreme God and that polytheism was an error; admitting at the same time that the Sun, Moon and Stars were minor divinities under the superintendence of the one Supreme. The belief in Herogods was so engrafted on the minds of the ignorant multitude, which alone is a proof of previous existence under these conditions, that it was feared the open promulgation of a doctrine in opposition to that faith would lead to disturbances in a state that might produce great evil.

This Mystery consequently was confided only to a chosen few of the most intelligent under the sanction of an oath and the penalties of the law. This seems to have intensified itself down the Ages, for as time increased and evolved, man through the religious factor became completely hemmed in and even persecuted under the threat of the religious dogma set into action in 365 A.D. from the wisdom gained from the past. The Nicene Council establishment.

Therefore with this picture in our mind we can realise that there must have been some state of origin. Was it Babylon, the land of Akkad, as they wrestled with the elements and under season and purpose. You have to remember on occasions you are ever seeking into the prototype and not the devolutionary channel that resulted; that invariably becomes corrupt and is man's prerogative whereby he finds the truth in time.

THE MYTHS AND LEGENDS THROUGH THE AGES HAVE DONE FAR MORE FOR MAN THAN DOGMATISED RELIGION CAN POSSIBLY EVER HAVE DONE. THESE HAVE EVER REMAINED SACRED TO SOME AND FEARFUL TO OTHERS, BUT WHICHEVER WAY, HAVE REMAINED AS AN UNDERCURRENT OR STREAM OF STRENGTH TO COME FORTH WHEN THE SOUL WAS READY.

For these truths are the Real basic of the Christos light and the only way that man can climb the ladder to the heights and find the One Supreme God-head in the solar birth through the Neptunian super-sensitivity. Uranus being the upraised fallen god who can be the means of striking open the soul that those Waters can flow in; then the solar-god becomes revealed in the light absorbed, becoming the flame of the mind.

The Supreme Creation

URANUS in its fallen state was Ouranus, but we will see him as Uranus or Heaven as the son of day who issued out of Chaos. This is often mentioned in the history of the and Siva. God must appear in some form or another, thus man could only perceive him according to his sense of vision. Therefore since man is but an evolution of TIME, what was, is still of him; and since he did not solve it, it still remains as an hidden factor to become absolved into the mode of the One Supreme Creation.

There is no doubt Chaos was the period of Babylon, a time of utter confusion, when there was no calendar and man followed the stars as best he could, to continually arrange his mode of festival and induction of strength. The elements were being infused and interblended, that caused not only Mother Nature and her daughter Earth to tremble, but man to become entirely chaotic. To some it appeared as such, but was really the great Powers encircling the earth in the form of raw elements and seeking to embrace Mother Earth and bring life and evolution. While man did not understand them he naturally drew them to himself in a chaotic way which resulted in utter tumult; for these powers feed man and regulate his ways and means until he is able to control them and bring the strength into a creative purpose. Then he and the elements are One; the Law as God made manifest in matter, the City built upon the Rock. Kether the Crown made manifest in Malkuth.

If all can be seen as the continual rebirth out of all states of Creation itself, then the following words of Virgil minds, and he is far superior to them.

Stars that appear opposite to the equinoxes are of great importance, but observation shows that these stars move onwards, or rather the equinox itself falls back; and in this way the Heaven-god of the pole becomes the father of many sons. The Earth and broad Heaven producing the gods within man himself, but as they became obvious to man so the elements became in god-like fury; "Earth the mother of all." But this is not as man speaks of Mother Earth now, as though he had been produced from the soil like plants: he has yet to consider the creation of mankind in its true measure, then he will be able to understand many things he failed to understand regarding his state of birth, growth and death.

Creation is to be distinguished from generation; it applies to inanimate things as well as living things. Yet living beings may be contrasted with not-living, but creation is the act of bringing cosmos out of chaos. This was done when the Calendar was established, and if not carried forth now in its right conception, chaos will still reign with man, for the only way to perfection is when the years are counted, months are measured and events begin to be dated; and then man will find that he will not be a year in the gathering up of the Horae, the froth on the waters, but will gather it up rapidly. Wine filling the golden cup.

But before we go on with creation from the elements after their birth, it would be well to state how these elements were purported to have issued forth, and how they will still come forth in all creation. Therefore in ALL birth, whether it be of the animate or inanimate, it will always follow this prototype.

(My Instrument gathers up the Horae once a week. Her Sabbath is the end of the year, and the reason why I perform so much of the ritual at the Altar, blending in what she has brought into birth, and giving it blessing. Often she is having to take the Cup, and drink the Cup upon what she has established, because it was necessary for her to put it into operation the following week).

IN THE BEGINNING IT WAS INFINITE SPACE PREVIOUS TO THE CREATION OF THE WORLD, OUT OF WHICH GODS, MEN AND ALL THINGS ROSE: A CONFUSED MASS CONTAINING THE ELEMENTS OF ALL THINGS THAT WERE FORMED OUT OF IT; AND IS LITERALLY A NEBULA.

Yet some declare that Chaos was the mother of Erebus and Nyx, day and night; some the airy realms of darkness or lower world coming into manifestation. But according to some mythology it was Ginnunga Gap (Swallowing throat) which brought into birth broad-breasted Earth, gloomy Tartaros and Love; then produced Erebus and Night which bore Hemera (Day) and AETHER. All these as seeds of creation coming out in moving alchemicalisation from the nebula.

Then Earth produced Uranus (Heaven), that of equal extent with herself to envelop her mountains, and Pontos the bed of the sea. Thus Earth producing the elevations of her surface and the one great depression of it; and from then onwards it was production. This is the symbol of all generation and seen very clearly in the descriptive creation brought into birth by Egypt, the Dawn of Civilisation. But as I have already stated, if this is fully comprehended, you will have the clue to all the Myths and Eschatology through this series of Relativity. Time being the factor of record; thus man is the record, there being no other factor.

That which you are taking today, you are taking in, in chaos and you have got to bring it forth on all these moving states, giving it night and day, morning and night; twilight, rebirth. You are going to bring it forth so that ning flash stab, and as thunder rumbling into your mind.

Although these were as movement, they were as super-human beings and represented monstrous giants; therefore when we say these children were hated by their father who, as soon as they were born, thrust them out of sight into a cavern of Earth, it can once again be perceived how man gained his sense of inertia and his refusal to unfold.

TITANS were numerous. Oceanos had by his sister TETHYS all the rivers that flow on the earth and the 3,000 Ocean-nymphs. THEIA bore to HYPERION, HELIOS (Sun); SELENE (Moon) and EOS (Dawn). Then PHOEBE bore to COEOS ASTERIA (Starry) and LETO (Fear). CRIOS had by EURYBIA (Wide-strength) ASTRAEOS (Starry), PALLAS (Knowledge) and PERSES (Chance).

To ASTRAEOS, EOS bore

father and the Titans.

During ten entire years the contest was undecided; at length by the counsel of Earth the Kronids released the Hundred-handed and called them to their aid. The war was then resumed with renewed vigour and the Titans were finally vanquished and imprisoned in Tartaros under the guard of the Hundred-handed, Babylon to Egypt. The Kronids then by the advice of earth, gave supreme power to Zeus, who in return distributed honours and dominion among the associates of his victory.

The Cosmic Theogony

In this theogony, Order and philosophic consequence are plainly discernible as VOID as Space first, then EARTH which was to occupy the centre of the world; TARTAROS the lowest and deepest gloom; with LOVE the generating principle of life and motion following in their due order.

As in all cosmogonies darkness precedes light; thus came forth Erebus and Night, one the darkness beneath, the other above the earth, and from them sprang Day the lower light, and AETHER the higher light above the earth.

Without the intervention of LOVE, EARTH now produced HEAVEN which arched over her; the Mountains which rose on her surface and supported the heaven. Then the barren salt sea, or the cavity in which its waters reposed united then by LOVE with URANUS, she gave birth to the TITANS, the origins of gods and men, of the celestial luminaries and the fructifying streams. Then the making of thunder and lightning and other celestial phenomena to be as children of HEAVEN and EARTH, that deeper knowledge of physics which man is not ready for yet, although it has manifested to the few.

URANUS being masculine could not produce of himself, therefore EARTH was the only female being that could be united with him; but in reality earth was their appropriate mother. Then the CYCLOPS, that is the WHIRLERS whose individual names signify THUNDER, LIGHTNING and BRIGHTNESS or Swiftmess, represent one kind of celestial phenomena, and the Hundred-handed was a personification of another. This refers to the winter when all was germinating under experience, trial and error; while the Cyclops were related to aetas the warm portion of the year and that which are the hail, rain and snow, the production.

KOTTO is the smiter being the hail; GYES the furrower the rain; BRIAREOS the presser, the snow which lies deep and heavy on the ground; and they were naturally named Hundred-handed from their acting so extensively at the same moment of time. Then we get the six sons and six daughters of HEAVEN and EARTH, the TITANS; this means earth-born, the strivers or exerts of procreative efforts.

The germs of all beings afterwards to be formed lie in them, but they are enclosed within the earth and cannot act till URANUS was deprived of his procreative power and APHRODITE was produced, the daughter of life.

But remember, as of Cosmos so of man, and Earth produced the prototype, so she must continue, and is Woman labouring to her husband, the sons of earth, that her Divine Spouse could come forth as her beloved Son, the Great Manu.

Thus having gathered some idea of Cosmogony and Theogony, which is vast in itself, it must be realised that this

CHAOS

BABYLON, Babylon, what told thou me; what did thou unfold into my chaotic being, as the glory of life came forth? For ever has it been the Law of GOD; O tell me more, that I may understand my own inner glory! (See text on page 12, col. 4).

it literally becomes a living word dancing within you. But if you stop at a certain place, then it remains with you as a manes or lares raging within you, a specie, but never digested.

ALL IS WITHIN THE MIND OF MAN AND NOWHERE ELSE, THE MIND-MEMORY IN THE CEREBELLUM, THE PONS VAROLII.

The Interblending Elements

THE next creation that Earth bore from Uranus the mighty progeny of the Titans: Six males, OCEANOS, primeval water; COEOS, Air; CRIOS, Energy as Dragon; HYPERION, the Sun-god; IAPETOS, Movement, Action; and the youngest of them KRONOS, time as the belly full. Therefore would be equivalent to man's six sensory organs. Then came forth six females: THEIA, view, sight; RHEIA, production; THEMIS, mother Mem; MNEMOSYNE, Memory; PHOEBE, radiance; TETHYS, mother as nurse.

These divinities represented in pairs as male and female the primitive forces of nature, and were at work when the world came into being. These would also be the counterpart to the above in man's own creation. Man had to give them form, and he gave them form unto these names; he had to; he had to make them a quality, he had to give them a description; he had to make them active.

Gaia, mother Earth also bore the three CYCLOPS as the Giants who were called BRONTES, THUNDER; STEROPES, Lightning; Arges, Glistening; and also the three-hundred-handed as COTTOS, Egoism; BRIAREOS, Might; GYES, Measure.

These are the heights as they wait to come forth as the lightning shaft that the Word of God can rumble over the mouth of man as Aum, the True Word of God. That which I am issuing forth now is coming forth as that light-

Gaia grieved at his unnatural conduct, produced the substance of hoary steel and forming from it a sickle, she roused her children the Titans to rebellion against him; but fear seized on them all except Kronos who, lying in wait with the sickle with which his mother had armed him, mutilated his unsuspecting sire. The Fall into matter through the power of Uranus being too great for the young soul and he became buried in matter as Pluto in the underworld.

This is portrayed in mythology as drops that fell to the earth giving birth to the ERINNYES, conscience as a wild fig tree, and the MELIAN NYMPHS, rapid-flowing. From what fell into the sea sprang forth APHRODITE, the goddess of love and beauty. Thus from this it can be seen we are endeavouring to place into picture form COSMOGONY, which was the NEBULOS bringing into birth the EMBRYO of all to be. So when EARTH bore her other son PONTOS, the truth-speaking NEREUS, she began to stride forward; for there followed THAUMAS, WONDER, PHORCYS, OATH as the fair-cheeked KETOS, and EURYBIA, MIGHTY.

Going forth as roots NEREUS had by DORIS, a daughter of the TITAN OCEANOS, the fifty NEREIDES or sea-nymphs. THAUMAS by ELECTRA (Brightness), another daughter of OCEANOS, became the father of the swift IRIS (Rainbow) and of the well-haired HARPIES. Then KETOS bore to her brother PHORCYS, the GRAEAE, the three FATES, the GORGONS, and became the serpent that guarded the golden apples of Hesperides, a place near Mount Atlas. Therefore would be the cerebellum where the mind-memory resided.

EARTH finally, after the overthrow of the TITANS bore by TARTAROS her last offspring, the hundred-headed TYPHOEUS, the father of storms and whirlwinds whom ZEUS precipitated into TARTAROS, hades or the nether-world. Yet the progeny of the winds ZEPHYROS (West wind), BOREAS (North wind) and NOTOS (South wind); and EOSPHOROS Dawn-bearer or Morning-Star and the stars of heaven for it represented Aurora. Then STYX, a daughter of OCEANOS by PALLAS, became the mother of ENVY and VICTORY, STRENGTH and FORCE. Then ASTERIA, the daughter of COEOS bore to PERSEUS, HECATE, administrator of the law, honour.

The fifth TITAN IAPETOS was by CLYMENE a daughter of OCEANOS, the father of four sons, ATLAS (carrier), MENOETIOS (to think), PROMETHEUS (forethought), EPIMETHEUS (afterthought). Then RHEA was united to KRONOS and their offspring was HESTIA (the hearth), DEMETER (fruits of earth), HERA (passion), AIDES (limitation), POSEIDON (Neptune), ZEUS (expansion).

KRONOS as Saturn that of germination, having learned from his parents HEAVEN and EARTH that he was fated to be deprived by one of his sons of the kingdom which he had taken from his father, devoured his children as fast as they were born. RHEA the changing earth, when about to be delivered of ZEUS as wisdom, besought her parents to teach her how she might save him.

THIS CAN BE SEEN QUITE CLEARLY IN THE PRESENT RACE THAT HAS NOT EXPANDED INTO TRUE SPIRITUAL WISDOM, BUT HAS BECOME EARTHY-BORN THROUGH BEING SODDEN WITH KNOWLEDGE THAT BEARS THEM NO OTHER FRUITS THAN DESTRUCTION.

Instructed by earth she concealed him in a cavern of Crete, creative faculty of nature life, and gave a stone to Kronos in his stead. This in the human soul would represent the cerebellum as mind memory and the stone creation of "I am." This stone Saturn afterwards threw up and with it the children he had devoured. When Zeus was grown up, he and the other children of Kronos made war on their

"I have a hernia in my groin."

WITHIN this chart (1378) is enormous wealth, for this soul has been a Persian princess, and gathered a great deal of knowledge, but has never been able to give it expansion, whereby it became a living, radiating state of consciousness within her. With a great concentration of planets in the 1st and 8th houses, there is a strong indication that she has not yet made up her mind which way to go; whether to turn fully to the spiritual life, or to still believe that the mundane states of earth hold of some importance.

She is a very lucky woman to have reached the age she has, and to still be in such good health, for Uranus in the 1st house is always demanding its spiritual sustenance, and when not forthcoming, can be very drastic in its action.

This soul has played for very high stakes in the past, as seen by her four 1st house planets, but in taking the powers from her struggles, she was unable to hold them under control. Hence Mars, Neptune, and Pluto, were thrown down the pit, in the 8th house, and the captured Fire of the Divinities became but the plaything for the lower desires. But this is only typical of the present day state of mankind, and the ever repeating replica of the Fall.

The whole purpose of this soul's present incarnation, was to raise up the seed into the blossomed glory of divine consciousness, raising those planets up out of the pit, and handing their wealth back in all glory, unto the heavenly Divinity. This is again indicated by her Jupiter being in Virgo, in the 10th house, telling her that she must give in service to the Higher Powers, and bring her logical mind of Gemini up to the Virgin consciousness; thereby handing back to the Divinity her mystical "Dish of Blood."

The Path of Destiny conjunct with the Moon in the 9th house, the house of wisdom, holds the same message,—raise the seed in the Cancer depths up to the pinnacle point of the mount in the Mid-Heavens, and bring the karmic fires of Leo into the Mind Flame of Solar Consciousness.

A difficulty here is the Mercury in the 12th house in Libra, showing a refusal over the ages to expand the mind out of the multiplicity of past knowledge, and bring all to the oneness of Solar light.

Although this soul is advanced in age her wealth is still intact, and by hard labour in studying and applying the wisdom in the Occult Gazette, she could do much to bring herself into harmony with the New World inflow. The hernia is of course, only the physical outcome of the disharmony within the inner bodies; all to do with her never raising her internal wealth up into wisdom and light.

The only real answer to this problem is by the changing of the mind outlook concerning the Holy Fire, and the soul perceiving the divinity and sacredness of the Seed. She must now seek to make that Seed blossom and become the Solar consciousness of her awakened mind.

We would suggest ELDER FLOWERS, COMFREY, RASPBERRY LEAVES, and AGRIMONY, as herbs that would be of benefit to her.

Mrs. L. T., Birmingham, England.

"Has bad nerves, poor eyesight, swollen feet, also hands and feet getting numbed."

HERE is a chart (1336) of a very sensitive soul, but sadly lacking in mind expansion. Hence all her wealth has been caught up in the emotional waters, instead of being raised up into the light of the mind, where everything has been brought away from the personal level. Again the hard and serious study of the wisdom is the real answer here, for she has Mercury Retrograde in the 8th house, indicating that over the ages she has become very lazy in her mind, and not bothered to unfold her awareness beyond what she already knew.

Saturn Retrograde in Aries, is also pointing out that she has stubbornly refused to pioneer any new understanding whatsoever, clinging tightly to her old religious beliefs that she had taken during a previous life as a nun. There are two sides at work in this soul; one of strong determination, and another of nervous indecision. All depending as to whether Pisces is being driven by Mars, or just wallowing in the emotional waters of self-pity and depression. There is nothing like Pisces for being on top of the world one minute and then right down in the dumps the next.

The main problem here is the breaking away from the false religious ideas that have been so predominant in the past, and fully believing in the true glory of the heavens, that of the Solar Divinity. Uranus is already in the 11th house, the house of the spirit, so will be of enormous assistance with this, but the soul must beware of merely filling herself up with more knowledge, as Capricorn is wont to do.

The whole purpose of her present incarnation was to raise up her seed from the magnetic depths, into the solar light of divinity, and seen by the Path of Destiny in Scorpio, in the 8th house. She must raise up Scorpio from out of the pit, and let Venus dance with the wisdom, and not bury it under the earth of mundane desires. Neptune in the 6th house could be a great help here, for it could give the soul a lively perception and imagination, whereby it could visualise the Higher Realms and live in that vision created. Of course, all depends upon what state Pisces is in, as I have pointed out earlier!

The whole of her physical troubles are due to the lack of mind expansion; there has been no greater mind creation in this life, and now the effects are being felt. Gemini, the logical mind, rules the hands, and it is the lack of mind creation that is now causing the hands to be minus the Fires of creation. With Pisces, which should have been treading the new wisdom into the earth, also feeling the same effects. The bad eyesight is again only the physical indication that the spiritual vision has not been sufficiently cultivated, and is due to the Saturn not allowing Aries to become the pioneer of the new Aquarian wisdom.

So once again I can only say that the real answer here is the soul becoming fully born of the new teachings, and living them in practical application. Herbs we would recommend are EYEBRIGHT, CHICKWEED, DANDELION and PARSLEY, plus our NERVE and CLEANSING PILLS.

Mrs. M. G., Scotland.

"Had a brain haemorrhage three years ago... also has very bad nerves and bronchial trouble."

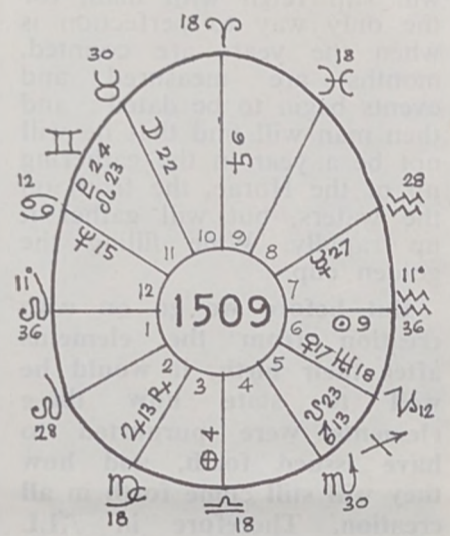

THE main trouble in this chart (1509) is inertia, both of mind and body, as seen clearly by the Moon in Taurus. While Aquarius upon the cusps of both the 7th and 8th houses, strongly confirms this; crying out to the soul to blend up with the Heights and set the Fire into electrical action of arielised mind movement. But the Sun and Mercury in Aquarius in the 7th house, show that the soul has been refusing to make unity and embrace the spiritual Laws of life.

This is again verified by Saturn in Aries in the Mid-Heavens, where everything has revolved round and round in old ideas, never beginning the path of mind unfoldment. Saturn in the Mid-Heavens is always a sure sign of a soul who has taken an enormous amount of knowledge in the past, but has steadfastly refused to change it into the light of divinity.

Here of course, we can see why this soul suffered the brain haemorrhage, for Aries rules the head, and Saturn was sitting up there, refusing to budge one inch, never allowing any mind unfoldment whatsoever; thus there could not help but be trouble concerning the head at some time or another.

The nerves are only bad because the inner bodies are not in harmony, thus the inflowing Fire only becomes chaotic in entering into the physical creation, and consequently the endocrine glands and nervous system are thrown into complete disorder. The bronchial trouble is again only due to the lack of mind expansion, where the thymus is cramped and restricted in its action, for the thymus is fed by Solar light, and any lunar conditions act as poison upon its delicate mechanism.

This soul must start activating all the mighty wealth that is with her, which at the moment is only stagnating in the depths of the magnetic creation. Her Path of Destiny in the 3rd house in Libra, is telling her to bring balance to everything she does, and not allow her mind to dance in multiplicity from one thing to another.

Pluto in Gemini in the 11th house, could aid her in her struggles, but only when her mind is set and determined to unfold the glories of the spirit; until then it will act in the complete reverse and bring chaos to the logical mind, hence brings us back to the Path of Destiny in the 3rd house of Gemini, warning the soul to bring everything to a oneness, and not allow chaos and confusion to reign in its place.

The answer to this chart is study, and the mind embracing the new Laws of life in every way it can. This soul must start using her mind as quickly as possible, and try to fathom out the depths of the wisdom that she is reading.

Herbs we would recommend are BLADDERWRACK, HORSETAIL, and CELANDINE, with also the NERVE and CHEST PILLS.

exists also in man and has its continuance on all planes of creation. Whether man wants to accept this or not, it does not matter: it began, had its sequence and is ever having its repercussions in the episodes of the present day. This will continue until a soul masters, and then a re-creation will come forth.

So now the next idea will be to see this creation in how it had rebound on man himself, for that is what is ever repeating itself and regurgitating as Manes, Lares and Penates, the world of the "dead." Again, whether man rejects this or not, it still does not alter the fact he is ever resurrecting these states, merely treating with drugs and making no effort to find a solution through the obvious way, probing into the past that gave them birth, by mastering and uniting into combined strength of the One Supreme God-head he is ever bleating about in his righteousness. This repeats itself in every stage of creation.

As I have given to you before, it only needs one soul to be a pioneer, one soul to literally struggle; but providing they persist, providing they are prepared to suffer right to the bitter end, then that soul can be the means of bringing New Life to a world of darkness.

Now we have earthed the First Word of the New Age. This is the beginning; an explanation. From now onwards it is deep study. Wrestle with the Word and you will become a master-mind: allow it to master you, and you will become a gorgon.

I WILL HELP YOU, BUT ONLY IF YOU ARE PREPARED TO SACRIFICE THAT YOU CAN FIND YOUR MIND AND THAT URANUS CAN DANCE WITHIN YOU AND BRING FORTH THE NEW AGE.

I CALL upon the Great Ones to bless the Word that has been born tonight that will release the world from the darkness it is in; Word that has been born out of blood and sweat; Word that has been brought into birth out of crucifixion and thorns: Word that has been born out of sorrow and suffering. Give that Word Thy Blessing a thousand-fold; let it become the Light and the Torch of the Age. Let man realise of the Truth and the wealth that is within his own being: give him the Wine of Life, not to become a drunken sot, but a soul raised up upon the inspiration and the stimulation of that gathered through the Ages of Life.

Readers' Letters

WE have received quite a considerable number of letters this month, regarding the possibilities of starting a membership attachment to S.U.P.H., and are printing two letters that are representative of the majority views expressed. We will be very pleased to receive your comments upon them, to see whether or not something might be furthered, upon the points discussed.

Another letter we were very pleased to receive was from Mrs. Morrison of Yorkshire, (see Initiate at Sea!) who in true Yorkshire style, stoutly defended the Teachings of Merope against the blind prejudice of spiritualistic stagnancy. Our thanks go out to you Mrs. Morrison, for your determination to uphold Merope and the Truth that she is bringing.

Membership Attachment

Miss F. Altschul,
London, N.1.

INOTE your statement in the Occult Gazette, re starting a membership attachment to SUPH. What a splendid idea! It ought to lift some of the burdens,—at least the financial ones—off the shoulders of the few who are bearing it all at H.Q. As I see it, too many today, even those who profess to follow the "Highway," never think seriously of the financial side of life. Although we know that the Powers that be are aware of our needs, and arrange help from time to time, they do expect us to do our part in helping to provide the means of maintaining and expanding their Work. Is it fair that the few at H.Q., who are very few in comparison to the multitudes who enjoy the fruits of their hard and devoted labours, should be left to bear all the burden, while we simply sit back and enjoy in comfort, and inhale the light and power of the Gazette? Of course not!

Like Moses of old, let the cry go out, "Who is on the Lord's side? Let him come unto me." Those who really are in earnest—the true and sincere—will come, as sure as day follows the night. The others will have to choose, either God or mammon; it is entirely up to them. "Opportunity is either taken when the moment arises, or is lost for ever!" This reminds me of a very beautiful story written by Tagore, the great Indian Poet, and to me it expresses very clearly our selfish age. (See Song Offerings in column 2).

I have been a member of several Orders and all of them set a definite fee, and of course, definite ideals and standards which one in honour and sincerity was expected to strive to live up to. May I suggest that S.U.P.H. could follow this line, and charge a yearly fee which would include the cost of the Gazette, and when time permitted, maybe an extra page of news, or a special message of instruction, could be included in the Gazette. Or even a short word from The Lord of the Flame, could be sent to Outer Circle members; but of course all such members would be expected to maintain a certain standard of honour and integrity.

Again I say that the majority of persons in this world are out for something for nothing, and are shouting still louder for more and more money, and less work. The something for nothing idea is a fallacy, for if one does not pay, then somebody else has to foot the bill. While I am writing may I take this opportunity to say what a delightful finale we had to last Sunday's lecture, where we were shown a part of "The King and I." What a beautiful colourful film, and what a marvellous interpretation by The Lord of the Flame, which lifted it far above its usual level.

(The Lord of the Flame showed how the film portrayed the feminine principle of the soul, delving back into the ancient states of its past, where finally by bringing greater wisdom to those past states, the old Kingship of the mind was buried in, and the new consciousness, the new Kingship, took its place).

What a pity that we cannot have more of these glorious films to lift up the minds of people, instead of the more usual muck that is spread out by the Press, films, and television. Well, again many thanks for all that you are doing for us, for I know the pain that you are enduring every day of your life. How great will be your reward in the Great Beyond. God Bless You. Much Love and sincere good wishes in all your works for this poor earth of ours.

Song Offerings, by Tagore.

I had gone a begging from door to door in the village path, when thy golden chariot appeared in the distance like a gorgeous dream, and I wondered who was this King of Kings? My hope soared high and methought my evil days were at an end, and I stood waiting for alms to be given. Unasked for wealth to be scattered on all sides in the dust.

The chariot stopped where I stood. Thy glance fell on me and thou camest down with a smile. I felt that the luck of my life had come at last. Then of a sudden thou didst hold out thy right hand and say, "What hast thou to give to me?" "Ah, what kingly jest was this, to open thy palm to a beggar to beg?" I was confused and stood undecided, and then from my wallet I slowly took out the least little grain of corn and gave it to thee.

But how great my surprise when at the day's end I emptied my bag on the floor, and I found a least little grain of gold among the poor hemp. Then I bitterly wept and wished that I had had the heart to give thee my all.

Mr. W. Smith, Scotland.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

It gives me great pleasure to say Thanks for all the love sent, and for the knowledge you have given over to me. Believe me, although I do not find it easy, I do find it a joy and comfort to look forward to my Occult Gazette. I know what you have done for me, and I shall go on learning with your help and with that of your Temple. My wife will tell you of the great change in me, it really is a kind of miracle! I hope you will find between these lines my gratitude, and the depths of my thoughts. Enclosed you will find my remittance for my chart, and for your love and patience which I cannot measure.

Blood-Stained Heritage

Rev. C. S. Taylor, Leeds 8.

Can I use one portion of your letter column for the following.

In one of the national newspapers, I read of a Roman Catholic Bishop who delights in shooting innocent members of the animal kingdom for recreational purposes. This gave me great distress.

Can you imagine ANY MINISTER of any denomination approaching the pulpit with blood-stained hands, petitioning God for Divine support? How unbecoming for God's agent. It is high time for all religious ministers to abstain from eating the flesh of aggravated, murdered, fish, flesh, or fowl.

A Supporters' Club

Mr. Cyril King, Dagenham, Essex.

IMUST congratulate you on the quality of the Occult Gazette, the standard of which puts other publications in the shade. However, that is not the real purpose of this letter. At the end of this month's Reminiscences (October) I see that some people have suggested a membership attachment to the School, and comments are requested. What is really meant by membership attachment, and what responsibility does it involve? On the face of it, I am not keen on the idea as it is. Further on, I read that finances are rather dicey,—not surprising considering the free copies of the Occult Gazette given out, and we all know that printing and publishing costs are not cheap, especially for the quality paper we receive.

Why not then a "SUPH Supporters Club," with each member guaranteeing a weekly sum to the School. By not stipulating a fixed sum per week, membership would be open to those who could not afford a lot, it being left to each member to declare to the Club Secretary the amount they would like to donate each week or month.

I already donate a sum each week, and if others did likewise, I am sure the cost of the Occult Gazette could be lifted off SUPH House and borne by the "SUPH Supporters Club." Thus, we could help with the finances, and also become attached to SUPH House through the Club. So all who cannot for various reasons visit SUPH House, could justifiably say, "I am a member," and feel that they are giving active support, and not just receiving the Occult Gazette, swallowing the Word, and giving nothing in return. Two birds with one stone—attached membership through a "SUPH Supporters Club," and active aid to the finances of SUPH House. Is there anyone who would care to embroider upon this idea, or offer to register as a member of the "S.S.C." so that possibilities can be reviewed. What about it?

Be Silent

By silence the mind can be stilled;
In the silence of the mind aspiration is made.
Through aspiration the prayers of the heart can be heard.
Through prayer is the Self unveiled;
By unveiling Self is the Divine One revealed;
By revealing the Divine One are the hearts linked.
But all this through silence; silence of voice, of mind, of heart, of self, of ego, of soul.
Then all become one.

Initiate at Sea!

Mrs. M. Morrison, Beverley, Yorks.

DEAR Zamiaar, I thought I would just drop you a few lines from the boat (R.M.S. "Windsor Castle") which we boarded at Cape Town last Wednesday. In about ten minutes time they are having the 'crossing the line' ceremony, when Father Neptune and his court come on board. At the tourist class swimming pool all act the giddy goat, as it were, and a terrible mess they make of folk crossing the line for the first time; soaking and throwing oil and filthy stuff over them, which I think they get from the hairdresser.

I was meditating the other day on the saying, "Hitch your wagon to a star" and I thought, yes, but let it be a high one of the 1st magnitude like Zamiaar's. Hitching up to Vega and bringing it forth to manifestation. Then I thought that it was called Vesta too, and I thought of the vestal virgins in ancient days, tending the lamps of the Temples, so that they gave good light and never went out. Then I thought you were the vestal virgin of Vega, having so tended the lamps of the mind that it brought Vega forth, and so saved the light of the world from being put out by the atom bomb. Thus you could, as the Master said, truly call yourself the Light of the World.

Ella Sheridan, of the Greater World spiritualists, is on the boat, and I spoke to her about the Gazette and offered to lend it to her, but she would not take it. But of course that's on a par with the normal run of spiritualists in England. I told her that the spiritualists would have to pay for their treatment of you, by their rejecting your teachings, but she is just like the rest of them,—no oil of spirit in the lamp of the mind, and so couldn't recognise the Master when He came.

Well, I will be pleased to be home again, and hope to see you before long. I have had some flowers ordered for you and hope they arrive before Xmas.

(Editor's note: Zamiaar is the Temple name of Mrs. Spearman-Cook, and is from the full name Celiphas Zamiaar, which means the Light of the Temple).

the nearest they ever got!

Although we agree with the main part of the Rev. Taylor's letter, I must take him up on one important point. He calls the priests 'God's agents,' and this I must dispute most strongly, for while they are filled up with animal food, and animal desires, they can never be so classed; and most important of all, until they realise the true reason for their celibacy, and recognise that the Holy Fire of Divinity is pouring into their seminal waters, they can be no more than agents for the astral planes, and with the world changing as fast as it is, they will not even be able to contact them very soon.

Yes, their hands are stained,—stained with the blood of Ages that no other sect or organisation could possibly rival, and which will never be removed until their whole shameful edifice is completely destroyed!

But who knows, maybe the Inquisitors found it the nearest thing to heaven as well, and to be quite honest, it probably was

The Saga of Time

Mythology Part I

CHAOS

by Gladys I.
Spearman-Cook

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you tonight to begin the Work of the Time, the Work of the Century; a time when we are going to bring to you the True understanding of the Mysteries. This Word has never been earthed before: it can help mankind to solve their problems, once man is prepared to labour and seek into the depth that we are bringing to him. For aeons of time man has been earthing the myths and fables, and in bringing them onto parchment he left with posterity the Works that would be necessary to help the Aquarian Age to find an understanding. It is the only hope; for by looking over time, man is able to put into operation that which he believed but has never experienced; never given it truth, never put it into operation to see how it truly worked; and so now he must strive in every way to put those Mysteries into his life, bring them into birth; and by so doing, blending up the past with the present and finding the answer to the future. It is the only way, otherwise there is no answer, and man is lost in the Saturnian influence of the Aquarian Age. It is by this that Uranus will be reinstated and give to man the life that he lost, give back to man the sensitivity that was denied him. This is what you are seeking; the sensitivity to perceive the Heavens, to perceive the Truth, to divulge the depths.

This can only be done by seeking through Uranus, striking open the Truth and cutting away that which was put into operation by the Saturnian influence which has brought the rock into a solidified creation. This is what we are going to teach you; the way to break open thyself, bring life to the world, bring life to creation; raise the dead, and bring those species of thine that have fallen asleep into new life.

This will necessitate courage; it will necessitate control; and control can only come when you have wisdom and know why you should control, why you should take the sickle and carve away those states that no longer are of any value to you. Either you do this or die; and by the word 'die' I mean literally, go down into a living death, a solidified state. Find life, find vivacity, find perpetual youth; and this you will only do by uniting in relativity those states that were advocated but never operated.

With those words, we are going to bring into birth CHAOS, the Beginning, and establish New Work. To begin with, it is a little explanatory, but the words tonight are very long. Give me that hearing, and give me that patience. If you give me all your attention I will earth those words, and earth them swiftly, for now it is going to be the swift word, not the still, laborious effort to establish and explain; but the soul now alert and dancing on the new vein that I bring to you tonight; the New Fire, the New Zest, and the New Inflow.

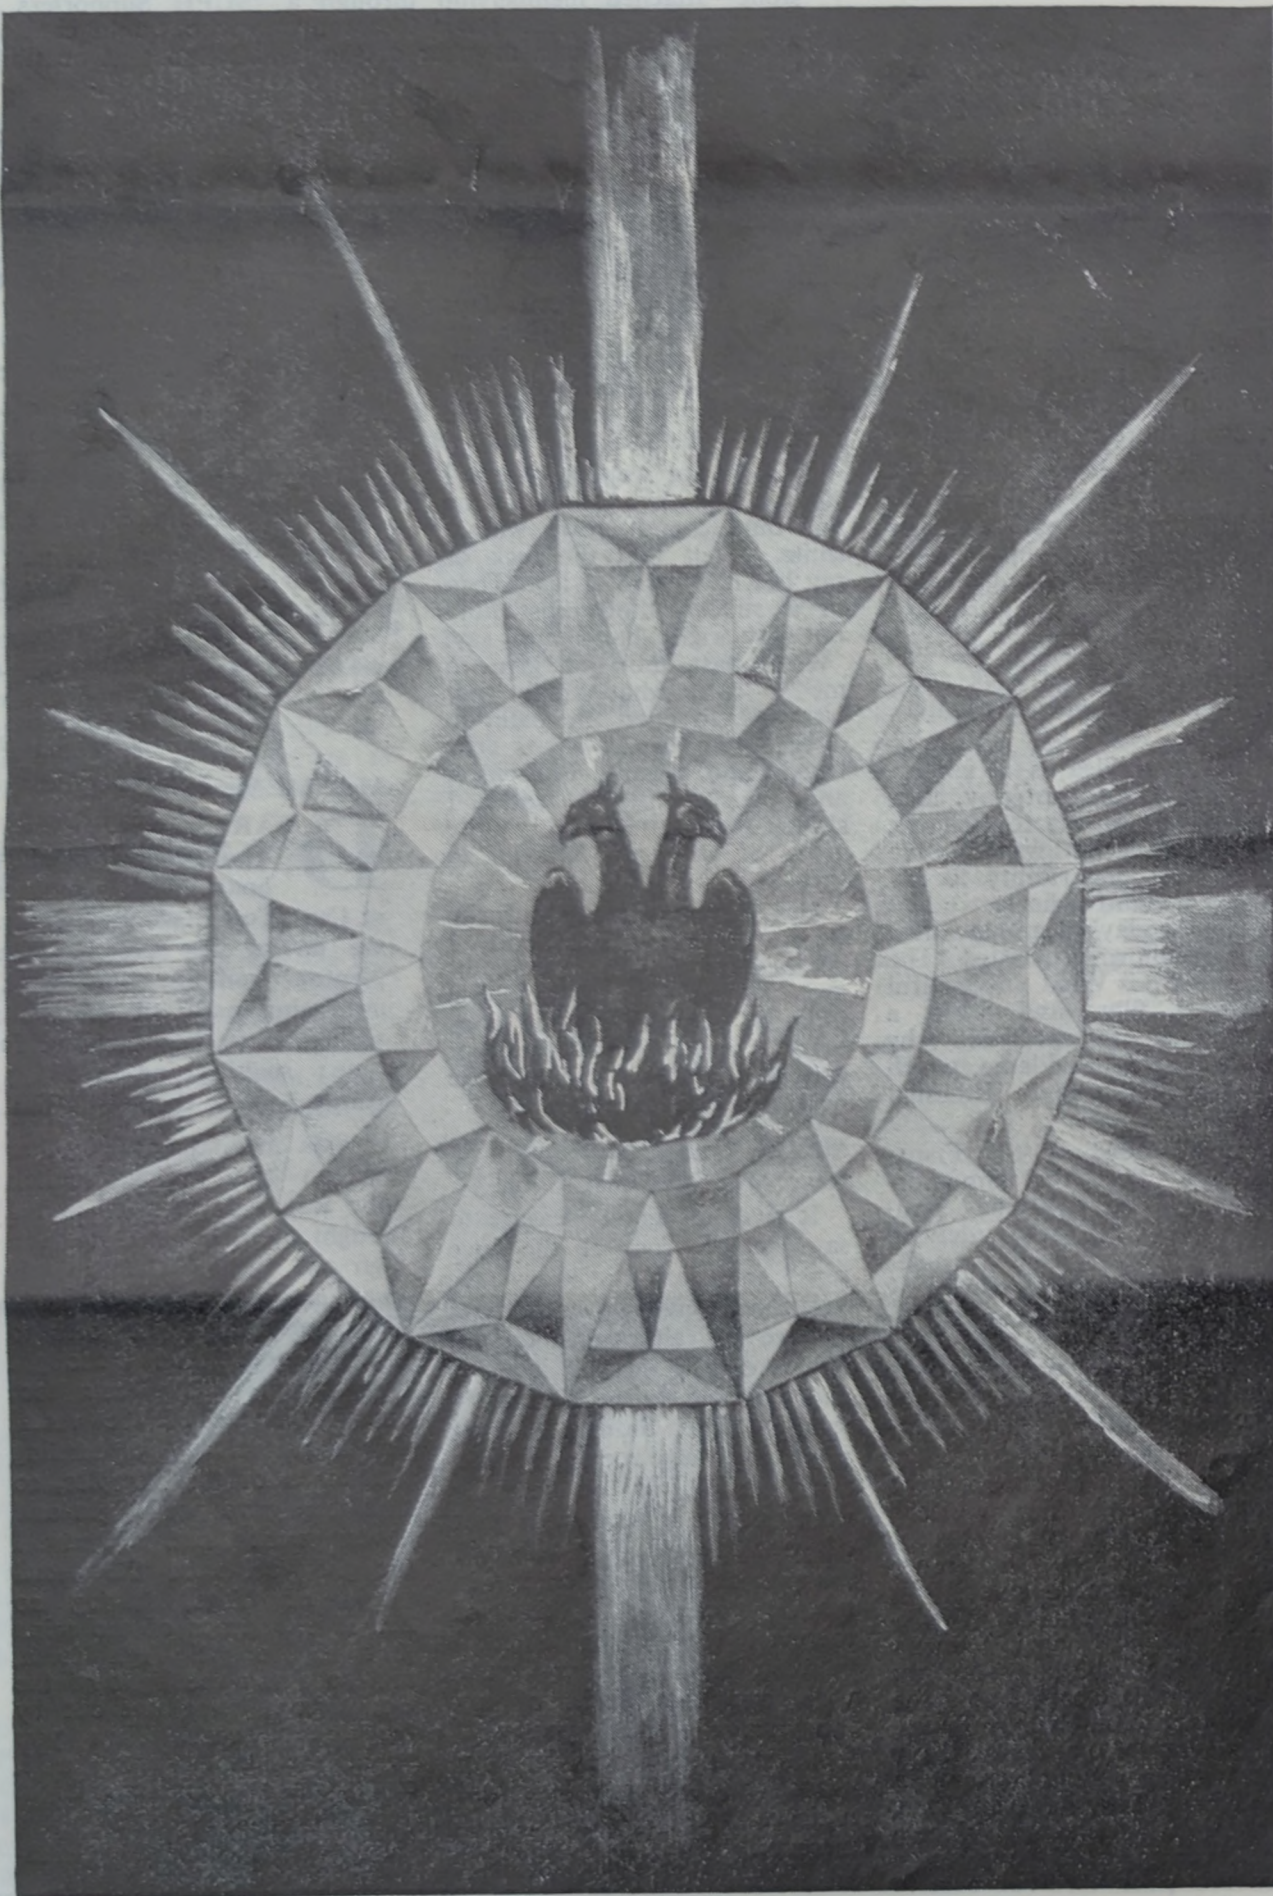

We begin now a New Page of Life. A Book that has never been written before starts here and now. Give me all your attention, and we will begin those words now.

The Mortuary Meal

A PLATE was then shown of a gnarled trunk of a tree; all its branches are lopped off, and at the top of it is a hollowed-out wooden receptacle containing the headless and limbless bodies of human beings; some have stumps of arms and legs, but no heads, hands or feet are to be seen.

YOU are now looking at the trunk of a tree that for ages has never blossomed, but has remained merely a trunk; that which began, but resulted in chaos; all that man brought into birth with the chaotic states of himself; destroying the Uranian fire, destroying all those higher states of the mind, and merely going on as a dead trunk, a dead tree.

Now man must take those shapes, which literally are the personalities that have been

QUINTESSENCE

THE glory of the eighth, the mystery of David, and the Seed of the mighty Begotten. That which paved the way for the Godhead to come forth, when Divinity and Begotten became one. The glorious stone of androgynuity, the ever internal birth of the phoenix. Man, matter, and Divinity, broiled in the pot that the royal glory of the mind was born. Yet the divine cell of the mighty world-to-be, the unfolding glory of Divine Consciousness. (See text on page 12, col. 5).

cut asunder and destroyed: they must now be given new birth; they must now be given life: each one must receive a head, a creation. So now, by what you are going to put into operation you are going to give each one its mortuary meal, and it is going to become buried into the soul, in the same way as at a funeral you have a meal after the burial of the dead: the idea is exactly the same; it has never been altered, which literally shows that it is in your mind but you never know why you do these things.

Now you have got to know why you do these things. In the past man has just done them; it has been the custom; it has been conventionalism; but why? Because those mysterious states of the past he put into operation; they are a part of himself and he still carries them out, and many of them are carried out by orthodoxy.

You now are going to know why you give them a mortuary meal; and what is more, you are going to give them a mortuary meal of your own accord. You are going to find the wisdom, you are going to feed those personalities, those (See plate on page 11) manes and lares within you, with what they desire and what they need to give them new life so that they can be buried in; but when they become turbulent, when they become Titans or rebellious factors, then you are going to have them under control and teach them the real answer.

The only way this has ever thy moments and purpose under thy very hand: you determine it, and not be afraid to do so. Unless you come to that point you will never realise how much you are a child of circumstances; how much you are swayed hither and thither by the circumstances of life, by those creations that you meet, and the continual states of antipathy and sympathy.

Upon that we will now continue. I want you to dance swiftly with me, because there is much to earth. So now let us seek into the Mythological whereby we can arrive at some conclusion regarding man and the Beginning.

The Human Formation

TO man now, mythology is a passing creation, something that never existed; merely the illusion in the minds of the ancients and nothing else. In the Beginning of the soul into Human creation it suddenly awakened to the fact of the Elements and their powers regarding his own status of growth, and man began to realise that powers existed which, if he drew them unto himself, he could enlist their resources and utilise for his own ends.

But now, what man has to try and decide is the fact of whether there existed life before the human creation; and if so, what impression would it have upon the present psychological unfoldment. Is it a part of the present karmic rebound? And if so, if we did use those powers in the past, can we use them again?

Was there a soul-like creation that prepared the way for the human-life formation to begin? It is obvious there must have been something, for something cannot exist out of nothing; but it was obvious it was not as a resurrection, but a descent into matter. Then creation began whereby Babylonia began to bring forth and produced a chaotic formation of human existence through element worship; but where from?

Then through this began the Deluge, which actually resulted in man causing chaos to the elements and deluge within himself; for powers then were of a raw creation, something completely unknown to man today. Even the most remote of spots could never equal the powers as man found them in that day and age. It was not until Egypt began law and order that man began to issue forth as a Civilisation.

Oh yes! Life was in existence before, but not as an ordered creation, for it was out of the mythological belief that man began the Totemic and Eschatological. The Totemic being a vast social system of alternate obligation and restriction by the use of totems.

The worship of Natural objects through tribal belief whereby they conserved the power which became the soul's physical and psychological creation. The eschatological was as judgment which brings the state after death, and continual rebirth and re-creation one after another.

At the present we are only concerned with the mythological, that which descended now to become built up, and of which the ancients recorded by creating legends and stories that have lived right down the ages, taking on more and more of deteriorated and twisted explanation. The Egyptians re-built this in the
