The All-Consuming Love

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS MEROPE STOOD WITH HER feet straddled and her arm pulled well back, to send forth an arrow from her bow, she poised and pinioned her eye, that she could pierce the Beam and change the whole course of life. Not as it used to be, just to give a rebound to the LAW, but to completely change all over from the negative to the positive, and bring the Fatherhood, the glory of LIFE, risen up as the Heavenly Divinity. So the sending forth of this arrow was the mighty ALL-of-LIFE. But Merope was ready and it flew right up and pierced the EYE, and the Orion Warrior had been born. Thus what Merope established with the Source, now at the Octavial Source, and the union was complete. But in the pass-over and the change-over, man had lost the direction, and although it had brought dynamic changes, it had been completely forgotten. For this change-over was mighty, as the moon became reborn and completely buried into the Solar, and the glory of the Heavens foretold its wonders. It was only when poor Merope felt the mighty pull on her resources, through the internal changes, that she called out for strength to complete the stupendous charge, and carry the new-born babe up to the heights. A golden haired child of bouncing beauty, to replenish in complete union the rebirth. With Merope as woman submerging into this depth, and becoming the risen up Virgin of Heavenly glory.

The Road of Immortality

THUS her first task was to awaken Mother Earth to the mighty Work that she had before her, and the awakening of the glory of the Spirit to the glories of the new-born Virgin. This now being where Divinity, in being born in the glory of 'being,' would light up the Flame of the mind of every true initiate and start off the New Path of Vega, the Road of Immortality. Such wonders had never been known before, thus glories being established in the very heights, which would change the whole course of life. Where man would be born as a divinity, a god, and become as a true born son of that Heavenly Deity, but now as radiant LIGHT. The mighty rebirth, where all was lifted up to the Virgin Plane, the wonder of the meninges. With Divinity as the glory of the Arc, the manifestation of the heart, and would be the unfolding glory of the new Way of Life.

Thus the Word had been adjusted, and now more full of Fire and OIL than ever, and waiting to catch the Race alight. In fact only Fire and Oil now, forcing man to think and think again, and begin the Path of Redemption in the true sense of rebirth. Awakened to the glory of his heritage, and being led by the awakened gods on the Plane of the Ice Cap. But for the moment Merope was driving the bargain hard, as the alchemicalisation was burning the isotope of the Central Sun into her changing tissues.

LESATH

BY the dance of Le Ros, the serpent swayed back and forth and rose up to the heights, carrying the Seed in his forked tongue. Up and up he rose, driven on by the sting in the tail, until he drove through the mighty Norm, piercing it truly in its depths; then shot up to the mighty EYE and spermed it with the glory of the Seed, causing the whole vision of TIME to be turned into the glory of the Spirit. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

IT is now more than ten years ago that Merope was given the instructions to break up the inertia of the world, never for one moment consciously realising the enormity of the Task she had taken on. For this was not just the stirring of the physical plane into movement, but was the rebirth of the whole of Time, where the density of the maelstrom was to be cleared, and the whole of the Inner Planes given unfoldment and New Life. For the inertia of the world was not governed by the outer creation, but was the stagnancy of Time, locked as inert magnetic Fire within the internal bodies of the soul creation. It was an awesome Task that Merope had taken on, and one that the majority would have decried as being utterly impossible to accomplish, —and anyway, they were quite happy as they were, even though they were in a world of disease, decay, and impending destruction. Oh yes, talk about religion and philosophy if you like, but don't make it a practical issue whereby changes would be brought into birth!

change, one way or the other!

Either he embraces Divinity, and becomes as a god-creation once again, or his past wealth will be stripped from him, and he will return as a blank atom to the Source of his beginning.

Already the Atomic Fires are sweeping across the earth, cleansing everything in their path. It is of no avail man running off to be vaccinated against them, it will only cause him more trouble in the long run. They can call it the Hong-Kong 'flu, they can call it what being solely responsible for his own unfoldment, and he will be judge and jury of his actions through his own Theocratic Consciousness.

The time has come when man must realise that he is a universe within himself; that he is but the alchemical pot in the depths, who must weave the inflowing Breath into the pure gold of Divine Illumination. Whereby he speaks with the Voice of God, and becomes a truly begotten son of the Great Divine Fatherhood. Though we talk of man, gender will of course disappear, as the soul-life upon the earth takes on the androgynous state of divine unification.

Woman will still beget her child through physical union for a while yet, but gradually she will find that such will not be necessary, and will give birth through the Atomic Fires interpenetrating her depths, and producing a virgin son of divinity. But gradually even this will change and all will be by vibrational differentiation up and down the Planes.

I know it is a world that we find difficult to comprehend in even a minute degree, enclosed as we are in the wrappings of form, but the main thing is to accept and embrace this New World within your mind, and in so doing you will be attuning your inner bodies to the coming Reality. This is where the soul will discover if its belief is wholehearted and genuine, or whether it is merely playing at occultism, merely seeking for knowledge or the sensation of something new.

For those who are not seeking the Truth it will be a hard road in the future, and one full of the self-inflicted thorns of unwilling crucifixion, but to those who are genuine in their actions, the next two years will be the most exciting of their lives, for they will know the thrill of seeing the inbirth and establishment of Divinity within their very midst.

THE VIRGIN PLANE

The Birth of Vega

ATLANTIS

The Norm Wealth from the past

MAN, spiritually blind, and saddened by animal desires, could not understand that what Merope was bringing was their saving grace, and so, in a typical animalised instinctive state of self-preservation they did all they could to hamper and destroy her. The biggest culprit being roman catholicism, corrupt ruler of the astral planes, and completely dedicated to preventing the Truth of Divinity ever being brought forth.

Thus by ritual magic, that they flaunted as their altar ritual, they drew down the elements, and wove them into enormous psychic creations of destruction; merely repeating step by step, the actions of Atlantis, which caused the first major Fall into deluge at the beginning of time. These powers were the raw forces of nature, elemental states that papalism used to guard and protect their black dominions of the depths.

But now they have been utterly broken open and destroyed, by Merope polarising their evil, and setting into motion new Laws of Cosmic Rebirth. By drawing down the Wisdom and Truth of life, all the falsity and distortion of the past was cancelled out. This being accomplished via vibrational attunement with Divinity. Thus the astral planes, peopled to a great extent by elemental creations of the depths, have been cut away from the earth, as a result of the earth being unified by vibration with the Central Sun, and the grip of papalism upon mankind has been completely shattered.

Now those who would seek of enlightenment and unfoldment, are free to do so; no longer held by the subconscious fear impregnated into their inner bodies by the Inquisition, excommunication, and other such diabolical creations. Excommunication being where the destructive forces of the depths were conjured up by the priests, in black magic ritual, and directed against the unfortunate soul concerned, who would have had to have been a very powerful soul to have survived. This black mass was perpetrated upon Merope only two years back, by a set of vicious-minded priests at a certain papal cathedral, widely renowned for its modern 'avant garde' construction, but Merope was protected by the Powers of Divinity, and they could not touch her.

MUCH water has flowed under the bridge since then, and much blood has been willingly sacrificed by Merope, that she could bring her mission to its successful ending. Now, as we enter into 1969, the fulness has been made and man will be forced into they like, but it doesn't alter the fact that it is the Atomic Fire of Divinity, of the Central Sun, that man has been prophesying for ages would come and destroy the world.

Yes, it will destroy the world, but only the old world—the blind world of illusion—and in its place will rise the most glorious world of Light and Divinity, far beyond the understanding of the form-bound minds of today, and those that can make it, will know the bliss and beauty of the Golden Age once again. There are vast changes now on the way, and all such false creations as the scientists, medical world, religion, and the financial sharks, will disappear forever from the face of the earth. Every man will learn to become his own priest,

ANTARES

With the Oil of the Word as the dance of the Nymphs, racing through the Bloodstream, feeding one and all with the glory of rebirth. For the meninges as Outer World Space, the gods in their Atomic form, were now being reformed into Solar light, the wealth and wonder of the future. For although Merope had completed the task of bringing the Solar light into birth, without the appointed possibilities to help her, the task was accomplished and the Gods were over-joyed that such had been truly manipulated.

But since this was the Plane of Neptune, the glories of Samothrace were now coming back as the Glory of the Heavenly Word, the mighty Witness to the Heavens. Now, as the wonders of the Great Mysteries, all was becoming the joy of the soul as his radiant sensitivity. All risen up out of the beast onto the Plane of Mind, and the embracing of Divinity. The mighty secret of life was now being broken open in the wisdom of the first down-pouring of the Fire.

The Divine union between Adam and Eve in the first birth of life, when Adam fed Eve with eternal nourishment to succour her in her mission. Her task was to take down to the gods the means to start an upward trend, thereby to become fired into building a mind all rosy red, glorifying the wonders of the heavens in the beauties they brought into birth.

As Eve reached the depths, which was a polarity frequency, the humid Desire that should have been the wonder of progressive thought, turned into desire, a negative depth bringing a serpent into action. What should have been Spiritus Air, the Abel state, the fundamental of the mind, became a serpent that wove its being around the egg, the growth of the Cain state, and the Bull swallowed both together. Thus the Seth Race came forth from out of the Giants, the substitute Race after man had stolen the Fire and refused to return it as the light of Divinity.

This became the dance of lust, turning Antares the generative Source, into an angry stinger of action. For now there was ever enmity between the serpent and Woman's Seed, the prize that both were harping. For unbeknown to soul, in marital union far more is consummated than man realises. This is a part of the deeper mysteries, where man hands to woman his internal character and the Fire of the Gods, and woman hands to man of her depths.

This is the wealth he interpenetrates and, like the Bee, sticks his long tongue-like injection into the honey, drawing forth some of the wealth hidden there. He is trying to tap the depths of the Source, that as the Serpent, he can become of the Divine Infinity; the serpent swallowing his own Tail, whereby he can return to the upper Planes from whence he came. For Lesha is the 'sting in the tail' that is ever driving on the Seed to become incorporated in the soul as the glory of the Spirit, which makes the man a god, and the god divine.

By the dance of Le Ros the soul brings into birth his MIND GLORY. For Woman's Seed holds the wealth of ALL-TIME, which, if taken by the serpent, would turn all into an orgy of evil, destroying the glory of Evolution, the Plane of the Creator. But if risen up by the Bull, the mind glory to come forth, the Solar glory of the New Age.

Unfortunately the evil survived, and all through the Ages design has been made to destroy the Woman's Seed and prevent the birth of the Virgin's Son, that the mighty Fatherhood would have the glory of reigning in the World of LIGHT. Thus the gods turned all into the negative, as manhood issued forth, this being the serpent who wanted the glory of the Kingdom unto themselves. Not labouring and working for the gods, which they were sent down to do, but taking unto themselves the wealth and wonder of material abundance. Minds that became born, and perceived possibilities of possession and covetousness, which gave them earth glory in abundance.

For mighty Gods did come down ere the Leo Glory was finished, that of the Golden Age. A wonderful period of inward glory that radiated and lit up the Plane with the divine Golden light. Great souls with Power that used to activate the Plane, not in a way depicted by man today, but by divine wonders of the mind.

Man today describing it according to his outlook, and not the glories of the mind as born unto those mighty Beings. This being beyond the deteriorated comprehension, for this is the Iron Age, but Merope who has started a new World of Creation, now begins the Age of Divinities. But in the beginning, as always unto human weakness, and living in the negative of reflection, the men of Pibeseth and Aven,—a set of priests seeking for desires,—led the many against Merope, the great and mighty SHE. The Goddess who was leading all, and being the means of inflowing sustenance, and the mighty Gods taking the throne and creating wonders in the name of the Heavens.

Great Ones whose cartouche was a name to be remembered, for they were bringing down vast Streams of LIGHT, but evil beings in their rightful place surviving. This was so that they could use the Fire and the Powers for their own dastardly ends, which was the only status they could remember of the waning glory. States man wishes to ridicule today, but only because they are of their own lost wonders.

More and more Antares became distorted, and angered into revenge, for it was a mighty Power for man to master, and bring it to the glory of the mind. Thus it ever wounded Ophiuchus in the heel, cutting the circuit of rebirth. For it was the serpent who was after the crown, to rob man of his right of Dominion. Thus it became the Work of Hercules, the mastery of the Mysteries, which became born from this life-long struggle.

(See plate on this page)

For Ophiuchus's task was to get the tail of the serpent into his mouth, with the Orion MAN to roll it into Infinity, that the Solar Point could come forth. Then the Great Flame, the glory of the Intelligencia would have risen up, that this blighted world could again become the dwelling place of Divinity. These being the mighty Ones set to control this domain, the rebirth of Holy Life, that designated unto Venus, the Virgin with the Child, that as Coma, would be lifted up to Libra, where she would declare whether her intentions were pure and holy, at the Altar of the new-born Law.

The Unification

AS the way and the light began to diminish, and materialism fell into the ways of men, the powers were lost to their growing conscious mind, with their subconscious as the drip-drop of perception. All had to be by expansion, with the real wounding to be received in the heel at the cross. It was there the Scorpion struck the Woman's Seed; he died and was raised up again from the dead as her golden-haired son.

FOR IT WAS DIVINITY THAT BECAME THE DIVINE GLORY OF THE MIND, THE EVER-UNFOLDING GODHEAD.

But for the time the serpent won, hence Antares and all his mighty beauty was lost to man for some time. LOVE had never really been born, hence Eros who was burnt from the oil of the lighted lamp of Psyche, as she sought for the god and found him sleeping in the darkness of despair. For she had wanted his love, but he could not give her what she wanted; his mission was of the Spirit, that the Cosmos could blossom forth.

MASTERY OF THE HYDRA

Ophiuchus raised the club and beat with all his might. As he did so the fiend grasped his thigh to prevent any form of expansion; but Ophiuchus strengthened his Will and became the Orion man. (See text in col. 2).

Thus time went on, and the mysteries grew more complicated than ever, with Merope trudging the earth until the time was ripe and the way was made for reparation. Then she could begin the Source to Source union, where unification brought all to a state of ONENESS. Just the Scapegoat Merope, who earthed the LAW in perfect glory, sending the Wave Band across the earth, changing all lunar states into Solar, until man was frantic through his rebirth.

Now greater Planes were in the offing, as Antares,—He of the All-consuming LOVE,—was now to be redeemed. That his glory, the radiance of the Central Sun, was to come forth through the depths of man. That they, who could be redeemed, would go forth, and those who perished be thrown back into the Waters of LIFE. But man now being fed once again with the glorious Fire of

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each siter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

Jan. 4th Divine Genetics	Feb. 1st Mind

Jan. 18th Pubes	Feb. 15th The Divine FACE
Jan. 25th Alkahest	Feb. 22nd The 144,000

dynamic truth could be revealed unto her, and light thrown onto the Path of Direction. As she did so, a mighty whirling took place on the Screen, increasing in its momentum. Then she saw a Path of Light appear in the heavens and slowly unfold itself until it touched the earth. Then down this Path mighty Divinities in pale blue robes descended and formed in a circle, as it were, around her.

Then one stepped forward and stood before her, holding an exquisitely designed writing casket. As he opened it she saw that it contained a white quill pen, and ink of a rose-coloured hue. As he stepped onto one side, another of these Beings stood before her, and he was holding a Crystal Goblet in his hands, which sparkled with every colour imaginable and had a radiance all of its own; so exquisite, as to leave Merope gasping, even from this side of her mysterious mirror.

To her amazement, she found the Casket and the Goblet being placed at her feet, and she heard a Voice saying...

"A gift from the Divinities, to she who has given them new life."

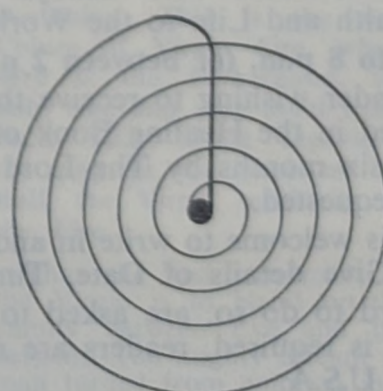

Then the Divinities moved back and knelt before her, while in their centre a massive light appeared, of such intense brilliance that at first its glory almost blinded one, it being divine. Although she could not see a Being within this light, it was as if she felt His mighty Presence, and as her eyes became more accustomed to such wonder, it seemed that she could faintly perceive two hands in the centre, which were holding a long sword pointed towards the earth. Then the mighty Being spoke and said in awesome tone...

"Man calls me Lesath, striker and destroyer, yet I am the Guardian of the Inner Sanctum of Scorpio. For countless Ages I have guarded this sacred Sanctuary, although I know not who or what lies within. None has ever entered therein, and those who dared, I have struck down for their impertinence. Never has there been the slightest sound from within its walls; never the slightest clue as to its mystery."

All we have known, is that one day these doors would be opened by a Virgin Queen. One who holds the precious Key of entry, for in our legend,—Oh yes, we have our legends too you know,—we are told that once, long, long ago, she came forth out of these doors, bringing the Fires with her, which would feed her on the way down. Yet the very thread of her way back, from whence she will draw them down again and make the completion of Divine Union.

For when she left, she locked those doors and carried away the key within her heart. But now all the Great Heavenly Beings are tense with excitement and expectancy, for a stirring is coming from within this Sanctum, and a mysterious radiance is shining forth."

Thus Merope now was searching diligently for the counterpart sent forth through her magic mirror, that this

Then suddenly the sword was raised, and Merope felt its tip touch her brow, and her whole inner being seemed to dance and spin, and whirl into a great awakening of consciousness. Here Saturn released Uranus, and this mighty influence now became direct, causing the Great Magenta Inflow to flood her inner Sanctum with Divine Glory. As she looked down at her hands she found a golden Key lying across them.

Thus she now knew that Lesath was the Shamash, and the 'sting in the tail' was the barbed sword of Saturn. It was because Merope was Solar-born that she was able to get into the Inner Sanctum and become the glory of His Divine FACE. The secret ever lying in Saturn being transmuted into the Solar Points. Thus the Key to the re-born Power lies in the regeneration of the heart.

All of a sudden she found herself before those doors, and as they swung open there came out of their mysterious depths a mighty Golden Eagle which flew forth and circled round and round in the Heavens, with flames flickering forth from every feather. Then Merope entered those doors and found herself in what appeared a long passage-way lit by mysterious flames which darted hither and thither along the walls.

In the centre of this passage-way was a circular room, in the middle of which was a pool of crystal clear water, and Merope knew that this was the mysterious Fount of Fire, the sacred Waters of rebirth that held the secret of Becoming. As she looked past this mighty wonder she saw two doors open at the end of the passage and walked towards them. As she came to the doors she looked out and saw the most magnificent Rose Garden before her. The Rose Strewn Bower of LOVE which she had created in these depths, that her beloved Divinity could live.

Eagerly she stepped into the garden and walked along its twisting pathways, and the roses bowed their heads before her, but more than anything else, filled the air with a glorious perfume, completely unknown to the world below. Then, before her, she found a thin Veil across her path, whereby she knew that she was nearing her journey's end, and wondered what it held in the offing! Tenderly she pulled back the Veil, and there silhouetted against the sunlight, that was the mighty moment of the hour, was the figure of a royal King, richly robed and with a golden crown upon his head.

Looking towards her, he smiled and held out his arms, beckoning her to come forward, and as she looked upon his countenance her heart sang with untold joy, and she threw herself into his embrace. How can one express the glories of such LOVE, or speak of the beauty of such Divine Union? For as the roses tenderly entwined themselves around her being, Merope knew she had found the answer to this mighty Divine Mystery. Thereby capturing the glory of the Divine Fatherhood within the mighty depths of her own pulsating Heart.

EROS

THE virgin youth lay fast asleep, tired with his struggling with the lower Waters; ever feeling himself burnt up by Psyche as she sought for his glorious mystery. As the oil stung him he awakened to his manhood and strode forth as the divine glory of LOVE. (See text on page 3, col. 3).

Then out of the Heavens a golden Crown descended all alight with Flames, which was placed upon her head, making her the Divine Queen of FIRE; the Key to the supreme mystery of LIFE. Such dynamic magnificence Merope had never seen before, but more than that, such wealth and radiance left her overwhelmed. For Merope knew the hour was here when she must begin her greatest task, of uniting the Source with the SOURCE, making all complete.

Divine Resonance

SHE knew there was much to be cleared in the name of the 'moon in Scorpio,' as the filth of the lowest degree, of which this sacred Fire had been trampled into. But there were complications which demanded certain mysteries to be enacted by the aged wives of the tribes, to save the royal life of the Warriors, that they could go on and on, and be alert at all times, ever shooting an arrow straight to its mark.

Marriage rules that the majority have forgotten, never realising the importance of following these laws that gave to the 'south' royal prestige, which could quite possibly complete a status of the past. So Merope now sought for guidance to begin the REAL fulfilling of her journey, looking only to the Heavens, that such mighty glories as she now knew within the mind. Powers that are comprehensive in their contused action of manifestation.

Wealth that such souls as Merope had to rescue and send them forth on her Wave Band as wisdom, but Powers that she had incorporated within her consciousness, to become as Power of Injection, which causes a state of resonance. This, in touching the soul, awakens him to seeking the way back to the Divine Source, it being Power that the soul, in once taking and ionising, can inject into another as a priest and cause an upsurging of lost wealth, that which was well buried under materialism. At the same time the priest in rising up the Planes and in blending his frequency with the Source of its becoming, becomes the full depths of its glories.

This being a Resonance of unification, an example of what could be enacted if the Tiger Powers were embraced by mastery. The Source blending up with the wealth of the Fount, then, as the soul Voices the unification, it brings forth the Divine Resonance. This being the ENT Power that causes Erection, the Power of synthesis, a revolving unification.

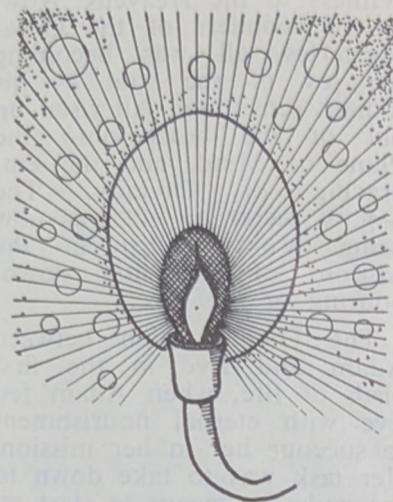

The unfolding reverberations of the Cosmos, bringing forth Powers of Divinity. The ever humming reverberations of the heights...

...that which plies its exhilaration, causing whatever it touches to be born of its internal radiance. To be set revolving at the dynamic speed of infinity, the divine copulation of the dance of Le Ros, yet the uniting faculty of the divine igniting, the radiating of the Spirit.

For here in the unification, the Tongue of Flame sets its divine Seed of Beginning afire, speaking the Voice of its unknown internal glory, the unknown secret of the Divine Fatherhood; the Divine Echo of the Inner Seed. It ever revolving the positive glory of the FACE; for the Virgin mind saw the Seed in its perfect untouched beauty, as the Flame danced and radiated of its internal glory.

The drive of the Bull that brings forth the Sun between his horns, and the Dove upon its haunches. For he has captured the glory of the Seed and the depths of the Fount and united them in Virgin glory, in mastering the Tiger Fires and blending them with the Spirit. That which brings forth the super-sensitivity in the circumference of the heavens, which is dominated by the inner clef of the middle ear. The unheard voice of the cochlea, the Voice of ever-becoming in the complete balance, where the EL Powers manifest their eternal Flame.

Thereby bringing forth that of the Spirit out of the Elephant's graveyard. For these Powers now cannot descend below the Virgin Plane, and they play upon the Tympanum of the ear. Thus it depends upon the sensitivity of the soul, and the purification of the blood-life for the revolving to continue. Yet a state of growth and activity which must be set into motion, that which the soul must obtain, that it can walk and unfold upon the Virgin Plane.

That which is now unfolding under the glories of Antares in its true and beautiful creation, where the Tiger Powers are ever guarding to prevent any repetition of the past, with Venus now ever bringing forth the glories and wonders of Divinity. But we cannot possibly leave the ENT Powers until we get a better understanding of this depth; then we will not only understand alchemicalisation, the Wave Band and growth, but change and rebirth, and how man is ever truly born out of himself.

This is the working of the nucleus, the atomic rebirth of the NORM from the lower fire, the ever-unfolding Virgin sensitivity. Everything now brought to an end, the basic of the Fount as unto the Serpent swallowing its own tail...

To understand this better, all was rising up to divine Virgin sensitivity; when all fell into the depths it became the magnetic fount of Woman, and is the only status that will give the gods in the meninges

The gods in the heights being the inert higher EL Powers, while the Fires that fell to the depths became the lower EL Fires, that symbolised in the Elephant's trunk. The stretched sensitivity from heights to depths; rebirth of man out of himself. While the spear in the Elephant's knee is where the wisdom was suppressed and outlawed by dogma.

So like Robin Hood, Merope robbed the rich to feed the poor, by man being forced to return his wealth to the heights. Hence the Planes were forced up and man truly lived in illusion; thus Merope ever interpenetrated the fortress of man, until villi by villi, she completely transformed the whole status of man. Then he could awaken, thereby turning this fortress of form into the radiating Castle Glorious.

This being the endo-genesis, the birth of divine consciousness, the internal growth of the mind. The unfolding of the divine spirit from the Great Void of Becoming, through the Endocrine chain, that of Jacob's ladder, the Land of Judea. They from the beginning of TIME, and now through Timelessness, ever bringing the answer to their inflowing Cause, which is the All-consuming Fire. So how can man escape these mighty Cosmic changes, for he is ever being imploded back into the ONENESS of the first Causation, but with consciousness or without!

Here we see Thumper the Rabbit, the unfolding sensitivity, thumping the earth, to get the Spirit out of the earth into the glories of the mind. The resonance out of the depth, that of the experiences of time ever guiding the Spirit to awaken. For the Ent Powers do not enter the depths, but beat upon the drum, the mystery of the tympanum. Then having awakened through the Word, the soul is now aware of a greater purpose of life, through the inflowing glories from the heights.

With the Hydroxyl Breath ever feeding them, thereby ever renewing the mind into a state of glorious rebirth of higher thought. Ever a state of transmuting the moon into the Solar, bringing forth the wonders of the mind from the Generative Seed of rebirth. The Antarctic Powers being Cosmic metempsychosis, the sealing of the glory of the gods into the Arc, and the ever-blossoming of the FACE into a greater expression.

Noah being the first fruiting of the Pomegranate as he raised the Arc onto Mount Ararat, and began the first expansion of man out of the depths, unto the glories of the unfolding Void. With Sun in Scorpio being seeded as the fiery glory of the Cosmic mind. Thus here we can see how Neptune has close affinity with Scorpio, in that the latter by its unfolding Generating glory is the expansion from Outer World Space. It insulating Divinity from the depths, and ever re-charging the Stream with Atomic propensity.

Thus the co-efficient of divine consciousness, and the glory of the heavens, yet with roots that were states suppressed by the Chinese, and continued as such by papalism, becoming the curse of man. Hence now the Virgin Plane set into motion by Merope is the canopy of divine expansion; for the rebirth of the mind is determined by the degree of divine creativity put into operation by the soul from the Seed propensity of life.

The mystery of Scorpio is the Solarising of the Seed into holy glory, for Scorpio does not like to go down into the depths and be the Scarabaeus in the moat of Waters. So now, owing to the changes set into operation by Merope, it only goes down to the Virgin Plane; thus servitude in the depths is transmuted. Therefore now, the positive creation from Neptune is the mystical verbal dance of light as a beautiful tone of Outer World sensitivity, having been blessed with the golden dew of the past world of Fairy activity. Hence the Fairy activation of the NORM can only manifest if the soul has retained its belief in Divinity, and can now spin up from depths to heights through the glory of the Word.

The greatest thing now to be remembered is the fact that every time a new surge of Power is put through the soul, every state, being, nerve, bone and villus in the depths has to be transmuted of these Powers, unto the higher and greater frequency. Therefore through man not having been reborn in the past, sickness, cancer, asthmatical states and split states have ensued. Now by the Solar Ray, the Christ Power surging through the soul, will man be reborn of its life-giving blood, when perceived from the true angle of rebirth.

This was the Power nurtured by the Priests, Prophets and Sages in the past, until Orion the glory of Taurus became the rebirth of life. Taurus being fed by the Scorpio Fires from the Heights, and now in being ensconced in the glory of the Central Sun, the mighty wealth from the Antares glory.

This Fire, in surging through the blood, through the Breath, has been intensified by Merope lifting up the Planes, and glorifying the heights. Raising the Arc up as high as she possibly could raise it, taking it up to the Central Sun, in expansion of divine belief. As she walked this into the earth, it lived, and man is being born of a Fire that will ever give him divine rebirth.

The interblending of these Fires with all the States of the soul, is not only the alchemicalisation of the metabolising organs, but the 'villi dance' as the dance of the rebirth of sensitivity. That which changes the harmonic inflow all through the structure of the soul. This is shown so beautifully in the Swan Lake Ballet, where the Vestal Virgins dance around the Swan, who is unifying with Mars in the blending rebirth. Giving Mars of her deep intense depths, and he imbuing her with his reborn Fiery glory.

Then suddenly all reaches a degree of mind embracement and sensitivity, where the soul is ever involving Saturn, and bringing forth the electrical dance of Uranus and the rolling Waters of Neptune. While the 'Raven' as seen in May Night, is the state of Saturn that would not change, holding the Virgin down to the magnetic depths. This in the past Ages was once inflicted upon Merope, leaving her with Saturn in Capricorn in the House of Fire. Ever leaving poor Merope with the fear of ever losing her wonderful comprehension and beliefs by ridicule and derision, until she had securely established their glory.

The Generating Force

HENCE it is the co-efficient of Divine consciousness, the Ent Power that ignites the Divine Passions, the driving force electrifying Divinity. The Phoenix Fire that is all-consuming, and brings forth a birth out of the unknown Fatherhood. The mystery of the continuity of Divine Thought, which is the real status of immortality, for "moon in Scorpio" and Taurus, is the old escalation of the existent generation, not the new Immaculate Birth seeded out of the Unknown, Sharon, the Divine Virgin Rose who poured forth of the Glories of Her Heart-beat in the dynamic struggle for HIM to come forth.

For it was Merope who perceived of the Divine Union, that the Child of Solar Radiance could be born. So as she rose up, calling on the Great Powers of Unknown Divinity, offering her MIND to become the Chalice of His Beginning, there issued forth out of the heights the Great Yod, the Unknown FIRE spermating her in the embracement of her belief. Out of such Divine Union, the Flame of the pure mind as LOVE was born, and ever continued to manifest of the Trinity; that ever becoming out of an All-embracing LOVE.

ens. Then with the Uraeus, sperm the Virgin with His FIRE, so that she is set into a state of infinity, and fed by the Stream of the Father's FIRE, through the glorified NORM.

Then by unified LOVE of service, will she feed him from the Fount until they become as one born from the Prototype of androgynous beings, born as the Pubic life of the Heavenly Galaxy. A Cosmic Bull that can sperm all beings with the Divine aointment, the oil out of the Word. The whole of the outcome of the Atom reverted back to its original creation, but now with a mind of divine comprehension. By this a complete unity of Fire takes place, a state of Resonance, and the soul embraced of the Tiger Powers.

The unification brings a complete revolving of the Infinity in the Void, which makes the soul self-sufficient under the Shadow of HIS WING. The mighty Power of Divinity...

MEROPE

MEROPE'S task was to bring forth of mystery, and as the Queen of Fire, must 'eat' in complete ionisation. Then she makes strait the gate for every soul to follow, uniting the Source with the SOURCE. (See text on page 4, col. 1).

and born from the Beginning. "Sun in Scorpio" is Hyacinthus the youth of royal mind, beloved by the Solar LIGHT, as being the new manhood maintaining the radiance of the intensity of the Flame.

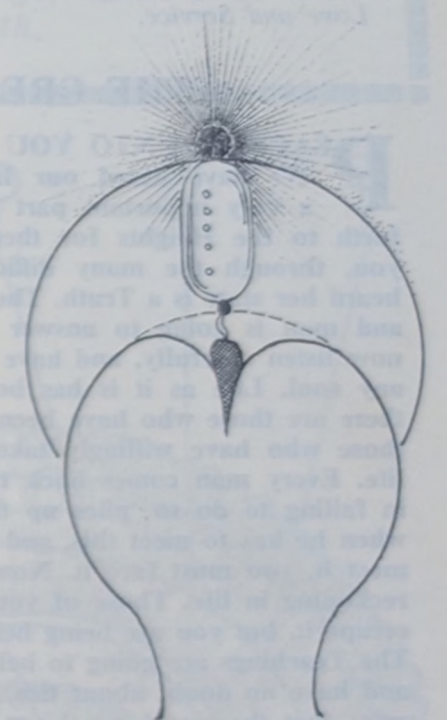

For it is the constant reverberating of the tympanum, which oscillates the Virgin truth upon the sensitivity of the gods, and brings forth of the Solar essence, while the seeding of the Sun in Scorpio is the tail stinging the Source. The depths of her own divinity, as Merope ever spirals up the Planes in the eternal glory of Becoming. For Protonic vibration as Divinity is the wholeness of Beginning, the awakening of the NORM to its own divinity. Therefore it is not the difference in vibration that measures the Spheres of Divinity, but vibronic incidence, the angles of Becoming.

The cosmic cellular function that perceives the varying degrees of the Power of the Unknown Fatherhood, the Glories of HIM yet to come. The Spermating factors that Seed the intensity of that Divine Becoming by their Vibronic incidence, the degrees of their capacity to perceive of His Divine LOVE. The secret mystery of the Rose of

The divine marriage that no power can break asunder, yet Power that is ever in continuance, and in its Resonance, the mighty beginning of the Sea of Divine Consciousness. Thus the Enceinte Virgin mind has now become the Sun in Scorpio, the glory of the heavens. For the sting of Scorpio has now been unified, and is infused into Antares as the new Void of Virgin Fire; Saturn transmuted into Uranian Glory.

The New World Generating Force that will Fire all into the Virgin Vega Mind Plane of Divine Cosmic Consciousness, the true Fatherhood of Becoming. This is the new Colure of Virgin Fire, where here is the Fatherhood, the only true and sure mind existence. That which represents the ring in the nose of the Bull, the Virgin sensitivity of the Fire.

Thus the first movement of the Virgin is to blend up the enmity between Eve and the Serpent. The mighty Stream of man turned from emotion into Virgin sensitivity; then sanctify the NORM and bring forth the Holy Seed, the glorified wonder of the heav-

... she who has been referred to as being a Bride to the Christ, but in a sense of explanation a far greater depth, for it is the Father and Son as ONE overshadowing the soul who knows, supports, and manifests such royalty in their Seed.

This now being such a depth of comprehension, and so near to the Atom stage of perception, that to take this in as simple an explanation possible, will be wise. For this is where the All-consuming LOVE comes in, the complete embracement of ALL Antares, it being the mystery of regeneration; that which ever repeats itself and becomes greater. So it can be seen what the last diagram is conveying, as well as describing the full creation awaiting the soul's response. That is the most important part of the statement, the soul's response, the soul as mind being the unified complete Tiger Power.

The actual mastery of this, is the next point, and would be the...

"Lion and the UNICORN fighting for the crown."

Then the soul holds full dominion of the union, and is anointed with the glory that Saul was seeking, and which as David was being chased until captured, and Solomon the son of the Sun manifested in an earthy degree. The Lamb that never shone, but just became.

MAN BEING BORN OUT OF HIMSELF, THUS THE SOLARIODS NOW BEING THE INNER SOURCE AND OUTER SOURCE, AS SUN AND CENTRAL SUN UNITY, CREATING A NORMOCRATIC UNIFICATION, KNOWN AS THE ATOMIC MAN, HE BORN OF ATOMIC SOLAR FRICTION.

Merope's Opening Prayer

GREAT DIVINE SPIRIT
Once again we come together that we can learn from Thee Wisdom, that we can be advised, that we can be guided, especially at this moment, a most important moment. The conditions of life are being unified up and we are going to meet those states of ourselves which we will now have to answer for. It is going to be "Me and I," whereby only those things we have put into life are we going to be answerable for. This may not be very palatable to you all; in fact there will be very few who will be able to look into life and say, "I am all right," because every man is learning the lesson of life, and we know we can only learn this by having courage, and being courageous to the very full, being able to face up to those things which we know we must adjust, that we must see clearly, and see with the depth that we failed to perceive before. By so doing we will come out of all the difficulties we are in, but there will certainly not be any at the end who will be able to go through life in a slipshod way, or go through life in an easy way whereby they can say "Life's all right." Every man in this world is now going to seek for the guidance of Divinity because he now is going to find that he is short of many things. And so, Beloved, we are privileged to understand this, because we are trying to learn the Laws of Life; we are trying to take life seriously. And so we ask for Thy guidance, and this we seek in the Name of Love and Service.

AMEN.

THE GREAT FLAME

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

We have heard our Instrument's prayer, and this is a very important part of her Ritual, where she sends forth to the Heights for them to help and guide her, and you, through the many difficulties of life. What you have heard her state is a Truth. The whole world has now changed, and man is going to answer to the wherewithal of life. So now listen carefully, and have no fear, for fear does not help any soul. Life as it is has been going on too long whereby there are those who have been able to 'skim through life' and those who have willingly taken on the karmic conditions of life. Every man comes back to honour these conditions, and in failing to do so 'piles up the mount.' Then a time comes when he has to meet this, and there is no way out. You must meet it, you must face it. Now there is going to begin a real reckoning in life. Those of you who are coming here will not escape it, but you are being helped out of it by the Teachings. The Teachings are going to help you to turn-in your mistakes, and have no doubt about this. Merope has paid a very heavy price that the world can learn, and those who doubt Merope will be the ones who will first run to Merope for help.

NOW let us start with the marrying up of the soul. Firstly you join up within yourself; then a time comes when you join up with the Greater Powers of the Heavens. Merope has come right to the end of her road, and she now is being married up to Divinity; she is One with Divinity. This does not give Merope any easier road, but a road whereby she is completely of the 'Source to the Mouth.'

(See page 7, cols. 4 and 5)

We often speak to you of these things long before they are fully accomplished; they are Seeded, started, and then completed. For some time they have been Seeded, and they were started; now they have been completed, and Merope is married up to Divinity.

This means that when Merope leaves her body, she will go out through the fontanelle; it will not be through the solar plexus. This is what Merope has been fighting very hard to achieve, so that she could spin right up to the Heavens, right up to the World of Vega.

Now, through her action, the Divinities are going to come down from the Heavens, from the Heights, and they are going to bring New Birth into Life. Thus you can quite imagine that if you are going to be regenerated by the Divinities, it will bring a changing state of matter. They are going to bring an entirely new Inflow of Creation. As time goes on it will be as it should have been in the beginning, by differentiation; slowly descending, taking on layer after layer until they reach matter. Then they will have taken on of sufficient to exist by, because matter will have become so refined. That is how we as Guides come down to the earth, and in going back we cast off those layers.

If you make it upon the earth, you go up to the Spheres, you will not go over to the Astral planes, so that when you come down again—which will be after some considerable time—you will have to learn to differentiate down and take on by layers. But if you are going to do that you have got to go out upon the fontanelle and not through the navel.

Q... Presumably then, you must be Solar Born before you can do this?

A... That is so. It is going to be a world for Divinities.

Q... There is going to be very few, Master!

A... That is up to them, isn't it? Merope has sent out enough Occult Gazettes; everybody has had the opportunity to learn; enough advertising and the spreading of her name far and wide, and the spreading of the Wisdom, has been made. But man does not want to bother, he does not want to change, he does not want the responsibility. Very well then, he must take the consequences!

Merope has taken on of her responsibility, and she has honoured it, which is what the majority won't do,—honour the responsibility which they came back to put into operation. Man will have to learn the hard way; he has chosen the hard way and that is the end of it. After all, there must be Evolution, the world cannot stand still, you have already got death, stagnancy and decay. It has got to unfold, it has got to go on its right trend of unfoldment.

Q... So the perpetual 'Damnation' that the various

These are not guides but Teachers, and very superior Teachers now. The finest thing that any of you can do now, is to never listen to messages given by mediums. None of them are capable of giving any, because none of them are being able to make contact, unless they themselves are right down in the depths.

Q... Then this is the end of spiritualism?

A... Yes, but it has been nothing more than a money-making concern; it is not TRUTH, and it is not Wisdom.

But all these changes will come naturally, though they may take their course in the way of rebellion, such as against Government changes. For do remember that you now have a Theocratic Government, and whether they like to call themselves that or not, they are a Theocratic Government. There is always going to be a Theocratic Government in England now, for England is under the control of the Theocracy;

Q... I think, Master, that by craftsmanship a thing becomes immortal.

A... Of course it becomes immortal, for you are burying in of the Spirit; it is a Spirit creation that you are entering into the material. You are instilling into matter an inflow of Spirit.

Q... This is the time Master, isn't it, for the Virgin to keep her Lamp alight, or the Virgin Mind awake, to listen and obey the command of Divinity, where by doing so it would very considerably help the alchemicalisation to take place, which will gradually mould you into the ways of Divinity.

A... Yes, that is quite true, but you must answer the Call when you are called. This is where there is going to be much sorrow and failure, where those that are called and told to carry out certain things, do not do so, because it does not suit their convenience; thus always find some reason as to why they will not do it. The time is going to come when they are going to regret that they never did it, because what they are being called to do is what they came back to do, and they would only be honouring their covenant.

But now, before we go any further, let us study another point. We have spoken to you about the New World that is going to begin, and has begun,—with those people who are in the New World, and those people who are out of the New World.

The centre of the New World will be of Divinity, which is going to have all around it the brain cells of human growth. Well, I expect some of you have wondered where this New World is, because you are in a world at the present moment which is in a state of great chaos and turmoil. Now, can anybody tell me where this New World is? A... I would say it is here, in the Temple.

You are quite right; this is the centre of it, and all who gather in and are learning the Laws are going to become the Cells, if they have got the courage. Now, over the country, or countries, wherever the Occult Gazette goes,—and it is sent into most countries,—there are little 'centres' being set up. Even in your own home, if two, three, or four of you are talking over the wisdom, and building up your little home as a centre, then you are one of the Cells that are spread out all over the World, this being the "Centre" to which hundreds and thousands write to and are connected with.

So this is the New World that is beginning in here. This is where DIVINITY descends. This is where He has HIS EYE. And this is where Divinities descend, and are seeking for possible and suitable beings that they can enter into or become part of.

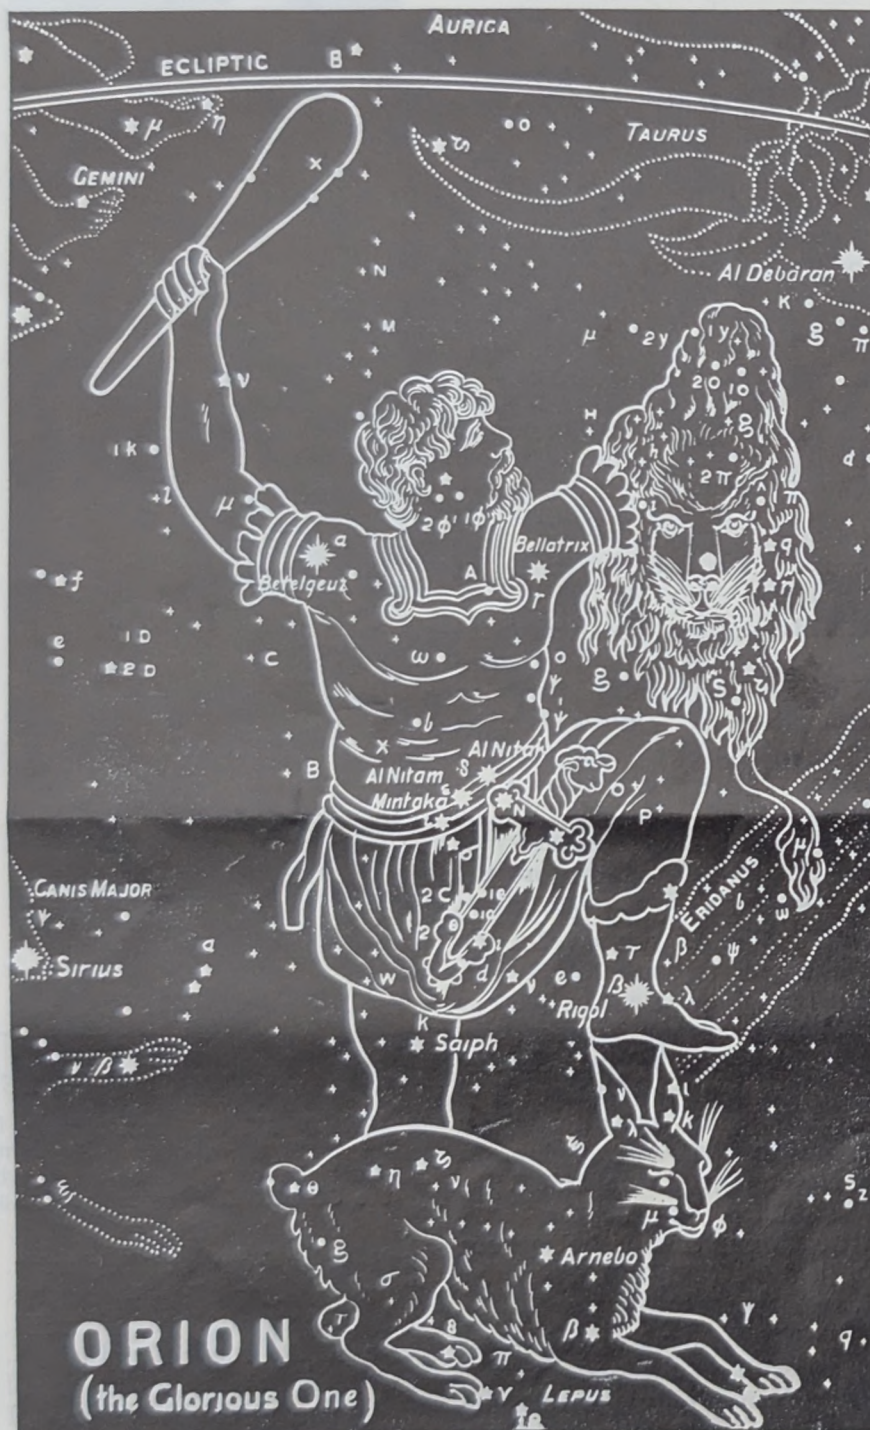

Q... Then all these centres are linked here, Master?

A... That's right; and whether you want to believe it or not, or whether anybody else wants to believe it or not, it is the Truth.

Q... Then actually the link is the umbilical cord, through which man is fed!

A... That's right, and you come here for the Food; and if you build up this Love in your own little centre, you still can draw from the Core. Q... This is a matter of vibration, isn't it?

A... All is vibration. We do not see you through form; we see you through vibration. We can hear voices, but we cannot see you.

ORION

THE secret of Orion lies in the Bull mastering the 'bulrushes,' and capturing the seed, that he can extract the full spiritual beauty out of the Breath. The 'bulrushes' being the dance of Le Ros up and down the vagrants, bringing about the moving alchemicalisation. That which acts in the form of implosions in the bloodstream, as an ectoplasmic change. That brought about by Breath, as the Winds of Creation. Thus passing from limb to limb, bringing a renewed outlook to every constellationary unfoldment. Thereby blending up all the black and white states, bringing the soul to a complete state of oneness. The gathering up of the 144(000) in perfect ionisation, that Orion, as the state of Masterhood, can reign as a balanced state of Theocratic Justice. Thus a state of calorific consciousness, transmuting heat rays, as the raw fire, into luminous rays. Bringing the ever changing state of auric radiation into the divine consciousness of the divine Egg. The complete transformation from the anthropomorphic, to the Divine. (See text on page 7, col. 1).

prophets have been warning mankind was facing him, is in fact the slow deterioration in the Astral planes.

A... That is true.

Q... Are they able to come here now from the Astral planes?

A... No, they have been broken away, it has been cut away. They cannot come unless they are brought by somebody who can carry them through upon their vibration.

the Higher Powers have taken control.

Every man will have to learn to be a craftsman, and not live on other peoples' labours. Man is going to come back to being a craftsman, and use his mind, his brain, and his creative faculties of the hands. In time he will be a cherished creator. In all creations the vibrations of the craftsman are with it.

Q...By raising the mind activity, one attaches the silver cord to the Divinities, instead of to the animal.

A...That's right. You have got to come away from the animal.

NOW here is Orion. Orion is The Begotten who, through man, has mastered the Elements. He could not do this before Merope did it. Many sages and many prophets began it; that is why you see that some stars are much brighter than others, especially Betelgeuz (on the right shoulder above the arm which is wielding the Club).

Then there is Bellatrix (at the top of the left arm) which is not quite so large, and there you see Orion holding the Lion's head. His left foot is treading the wisdom in, where you also see Lepus the Hare, that of fear, which has got to be mastered. You will also see Mintaka at the waist, and Al Nitam and Al Nitak. All these stars were fixed by the Arabs, but as man so centred his point, particularly upon these stars, they grew.

The rendering in your Holy Book of the struggles of the prophets Isaiah and Ezekiel, and many others who strove to make the tribes of the Israelites understand and follow them, is indeed dynamic. Merope had to follow their pattern, and has suffered far more than they did, because she was bringing all to a grand climax. And what was more, she was trying to 'raise up the martyrs from underneath the Altar.'

The Orion Man was brought into birth by David the king. He gave birth to the idea of the Christ,—the Christing of the mind; the raising up of the Anointment to the mind.

Now this great Orion Man is built up from your 10th house to the 1st, between the 5th and the 11th houses, through the Yod transmuting the raw fire into the Holy Fire.

Merope had found Him lying in the waters, as it were. Man had thrown Him down the pit, not actually the God-head Himself or The Begotten, but the theory of The Begotten. So she raised Him up, right onto the Arc; she gave Him His real Divinity. No God upon a cross. The great price was paid of tearing down the old cross, and Orion was made to become the Great God in all His beauty, right up on the Arc.

Q...Raising him up to the higher octave; and I should say that was the highest octave.

That's right; He was raised up to the very highest. Merope gave Him this status. She was the Virgin that gave Him birth by the Immaculate Conception; there had never been one before. But all that she did, He had to do in the Heights. That is why she gave the Cosmos its birth first, and then she learnt to tread it into the depths.

You don't have to be told of how she had to be brave, how she had to have faith, how she had to have courage. She did not just go on, and leave it for somebody else to do. Merope did it, and she did not care whether you liked it, and if you did not come to the Lectures, then you did not come. And you know that Merope has gone on, time after time, with dwindling congregations because they did not like what they were being forced to perceive.

NOW here is the Anthropomorphic Egg, with the Kundalini fire that is encircling it.

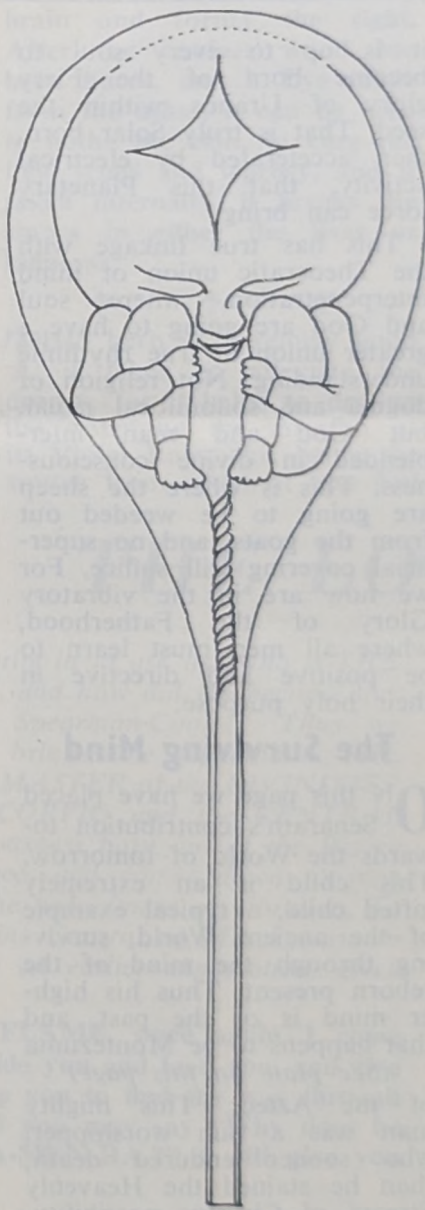

The Anthropomorphic Egg is the being that came down from the Heights, with his inner being opening up and blossoming within the egg; the 'fire' growing until he was able to reach the depths, all the 'wealth' being born within the egg; the egg that was being given birth to by Divinity, and was being fed and nurtured by Divinity.

That egg took on your status, but you are still that egg, because you still have your aura of the ovum; you still have the kundalini fire which is building up your egg, which you are going back to.

NOW here is an enlarged drawing of the human sperm, with the young life within. This is the 'Seed' you hear so much about, and which holds the whole world within itself. That is why you see the head, as you do, as a whole world. You can draw from that 'everything possible.'

Merope has gone on drawing from her own Seed, and I am going to show you a diagram of the 'ova.' You can draw from this Seed, and she has gone on doing this. So last of all she started to draw from Outer World Space, in the Seed, and then became united with Divinity.

(See diagram in cols. 4 and 5)

Roman Catholicism has all the answers and all the truth of Occultism, but they never carried it any higher than Jupiter. They knew what renunciation meant. Before their nuns could ever enter into the unity, which they called "the Bride to the Christ," they would have to make this renunciation at the altar, which they did.

Merope has ever made this renunciation, right the way through. She made it to the REAL CHRIST, the TRUE CHRIST. Now this has to be done by all of you before you can get anywhere, but do not let it be enforced upon you.

For renunciation that is enforced upon a soul, is not made the easy way; it is made the hard way. We are not concerned with the form state of the earth; we are only concerned with the growth of the soul.

Now a soul that is in the Occult World, that of the Occult teachings, has to renounce first the beast, and then the earthy state of life, and then turn to Divinity. He honours it through his mind. It is not just a matter of saying "Oh yes, I believe in the Teachings; they are very good indeed."

That is no good. You cannot take the Wisdom, you cannot take the Teachings unless you honour them; and you are going to now. I am only stressing this very forcefully because the moment is here, and very much here.

HERE you see Deir-el-Bahri where Hat-shep-Sut had her great temple; it was built into the very depths of this rock. What you see here is the charred calcified state of the rock, teeming with magnetic wealth that was brought about by the tribes in the past, who drew down those Powers and never sent them back; but don't think they were the beginning of the World.

(See plate on page 10)

Q...That power would still be in those deserted places!

A...Not necessarily, for the Solar light wears them down, absorbs them; but they were filled with dynamic magnetic power.

So Hat-shep-Sut built up her temple, which goes in, under the rock. All the living quarters were really under that rock. She had her main temple in that rock, drawing from it all its magnetic wealth which had been centred down into this rock, which was on the edge of the Sahara Desert.

The Sahara Desert is the base of Atlantis, where all the waters were drawn down by the over-gigantic state of these tribes: they drew down untold wealth, which they could not handle, and in so doing they brought the Water Plane into birth, whereby it turned into water.

Merope was commenting upon meteorites that have been brought down somewhere. Now these meteorites are fluidic powers that only come down to where the Power is lacking; but in the end, of course, these Powers become stagnant.

In descending they take on the solid state of granite, which is red hot in the first place; the Powers do not come down from the Heights in that solid state, right from the Source. They are vibrations that take on these states, and enter into the vicinity of stagnancy. As they enter the earth, they spread out, not only by the 'fall' but by the velocity and power within them; it splits them open.

As you know, in the case of Atlantis and Lemuria, including of course Mu, Uranus brought about two clefts, two splits in the brain of the human being. If there had been a third 'split,' there would have been no Seed; you would have been just mere animals. With each one of these clefts coming into the

(A message to Merope from the Heart of Divinity).

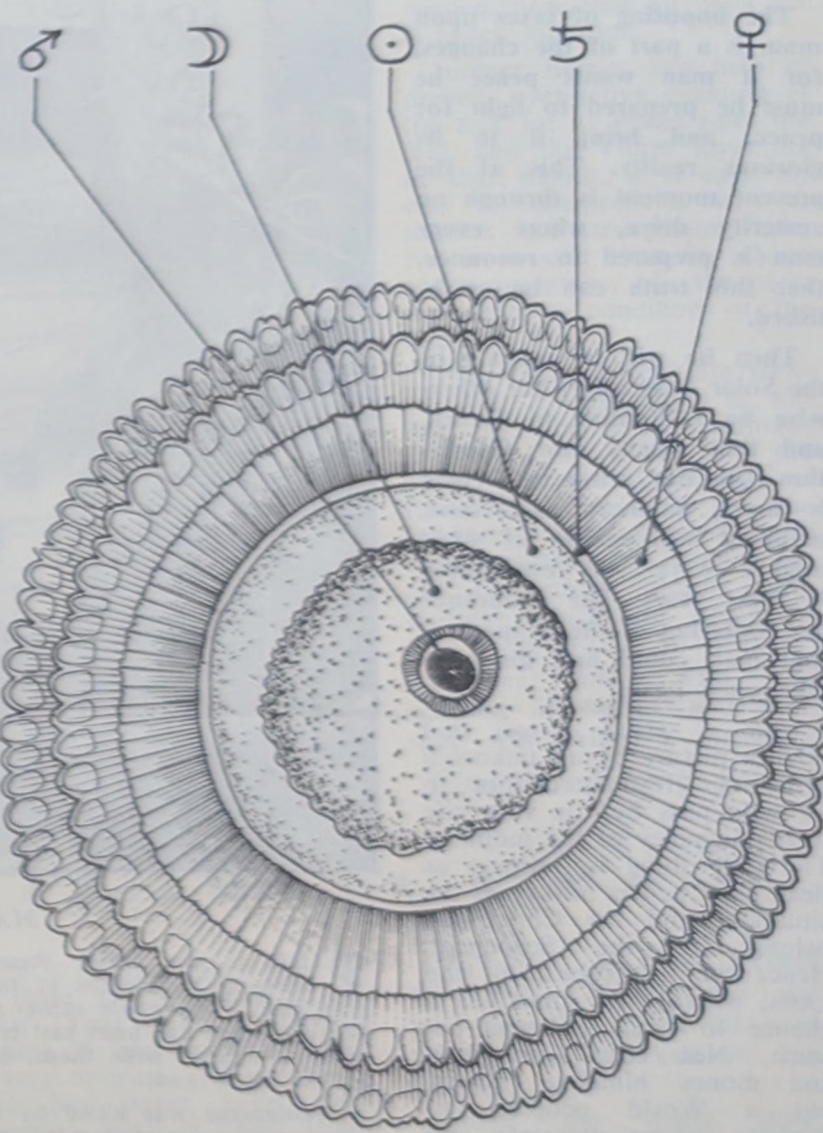

*I am Thy Blood, I am Thy Life;
I am Thy Vision, and above all,
I am Thy Heart.*

*Without Thee there is no Life in the World, and unless Thou manifest I cannot manifest.
For no man's heart is large enough to brain, so more animals came upon the earth,—lower states,—and man has come down to a very poor factor, very poor indeed. If he thinks he is superior to those of the past, then he has a lot to learn.

★ ★ ★

NOW you are all going to talk to me, and I will answer your questions. I am not trying to frighten you; I am trying to give you truths, but I want to ask you—what is the cause of your anthropomorphic complex? Would any of you now like to start speaking?

Q...What is the anthropomorphic complex?

A...A soul being afraid to bring himself to a 'divine state.' So he is afraid to make growth; he is afraid to come out of the states he is in; afraid to 'let go.' Merope has never had this complex. Merope has given the whole of her being, thought, and faith to the Great Unseen. Consequently she brought it into birth; she was the Virgin. Those of you who have known her long enough, could not possibly doubt this. Man only values the goods of the earth, which he should be discarding. He feels he must keep up a certain earth status to look well in the eyes of other people.

At the present moment man is not happy unless he has got a car, and the whole of your country is so over-run with these vehicles that they are not five minutes apart from each other, apart from roads that are not fitted to cope with them. And man is not happy unless he has enough money to enable him to have some luxurious holiday. He has got to learn to discard these things.

He is living in illusion, and so now, perhaps, you will see why these things are being stripped from him. For a stripping is taking place, of all old ideas, away from man at the present moment.

Now Merope's first thought is "Where is my Master. Master where are you? Tell me what to do. Come close to me. Don't leave me." Merope never leaves us, and it does not give us a chance to leave her.

Reminiscences

can be a soul who becomes a re-absorbant of a deity rebirth. This is seen best in a rebirth of Kali, or the soul sinks into the background, lost to the way of life. In fact, all that the fanatics have been shouting about, regarding the World being on fire, which is quite true. For the whole of the earth is "salted" with Fire, boiling mud in the depths of being.

Actually, this is nothing to get alarmed about, unless you are a rebellant, for if you take the changes in your stride, then you embrace the Law, and go with the Law. But I have been warning you for months regarding these changes, for the world could never stay as it was. It is not being imposed by outside forces, but within man himself. For he is now born of the Theocratic Government, and has to become of Theocratic consciousness, to find the glory of peace.

The imposing of taxes upon man, is a part of the changes, for if man wants peace he must be prepared to fight for peace, and bring it to its glorious reality. This at the present moment is through an austerity drive, where every man is prepared to renounce, that this truth can be established.

Then he will be seeking of the Solar immensity, but otherwise he is holding to Saturn, and that means dire destruction. One day, when the World is more balanced and sane, mankind will realise of what mighty work was established in these years. The endurance and suffering of the Scapegoat, that man could find his heritage once again.

This is where I feel that mighty picture by an unknown artist of "It matters not to all who pass by," is very rife with poignancy of the moment. The only thing is, religion as dead as it is, has no say in the situation, and the Christhood belongs to the Scapegoat. Hence the just rebirth of the Laws, where every man has a chance to live, rise and become. Not class corruption and money blinding factors, but a World peopled by Divinity, where principle and honour survive.

A World of Mind, where only the truly thinking will survive; it being no matter what colour you are, what creed or Race, but if you have a mind that passes the test of the LAW, you become a part of the New World to be. All else will merely exist, and act as serfs until they learn better or fade away into obscurity.

Uranus is going to rule the future very much, and is not the "death" Planet as many feel inclined to believe, but the Planet of Fire interpenetration. It is the very nucleus of interpenetrating drive, extrem-

ARISE O' MAN

HERE we are at the end of another year, when unbeknown to us all, great changes have been Seeded. Now we face the two most momentous years ever known in history; how much we shall witness is another matter, or an undercurrent fully rented, that changes will melt away and we finding ourselves in drastically changed times.

The World to Be

LAWs have been Cosmically set, whereby the World is going to be a place for heavenly Divinities. But then, we can be a soul who becomes a re-absorbant of a deity rebirth. This is seen best in a rebirth of Kali, or the soul sinks into the background, lost to the way of life. In fact, all that the fanatics have been shouting about, regarding the World being on fire, which is quite true. For the whole of the earth is "salted" with Fire, boiling mud in the depths of being.

MARINCHA

BLIND to the truth, these warriors cursed Montezuma, not knowing the depths of the wisdom as he did of his beloved Sun God. Thus would rather face death than soil the Holy Cloth, and the stone had been cast to his own detriment.* Thus Marincha tried to reason with them, but they only knew one thing—war to the bitter end.

(*Montezuma was killed by a stone thrown by one of his own warriors; an arrangement made between them so that he was not taken captive by the opposing forces). (See text in col. 4).

ely active and vibrant, sparking life into everything it touches, charging it with electrical current. Its Chakra is the Pituitary, so God help the contraceptive pill imbiber, for it will damage the hormones and lessen the life, and bring all to a violent standstill.

Then of course the drug addict, who in taking of drugs, burns out the Arachnoid Web in the Maters of the brain, and wonders why they peter out.

The Cosmic Inter-Birth

THE answer to all this is wisdom, for Universal Philosophy is the next World wide guidance, that man will become. This is not just this School, but we being the earthing point of establishment of the Law. I won the contest and took the armour of all contestants, thus became the point of contact.

Well! I make these statements, yet the next two years will prove these statements. Thus with Harold Wilson finding a turn for the better, although it may be hard, a true establishment of Theocracy will be made. Therefore don't despair or look down your nose, but know that the changes are for the greater precedence of life.

Man seeing all from a changed outlook, not just grab and run, but dig and stand firm, raising the banner high. Well! again I say, you may doubt what is said, in fact you may pooh! pooh! it, then watch the next two years. For in Uranus being square to the Saturn of the Scapegoat, vast action will be rife, she being the driver of Lesath. Thus all who oppose this LAW of FIRE, will be subject to destruction.

Uranus is the inner core of the Seed, and in its MIGHT is GOD being conveyed into the density of matter. Unless a creation is Fired by this mighty Element, it is not spermed or fructified, thus dead and abortive. It is this, as the summer storm, that fires the field of wheat, hence the corn is full of active germinated life.

Now this Element is truly active, for Merope raised it up, back to its rightful place, out of the lunar waters. Now

★ MONTEZUMA ★

by Senarath Spearman-Cook

(aged 10 years)

ONCE long, long ago, in ages dark and treacherous, there once lived a great and mighty King. He was a man of great and profound truths, a mighty monarch, and a man of peace. He believed in many gods, his greatest creation being the great Sun God. All priests and prophets have talked about the Sun, but none have raised it up from the dung of matter where man had left it.

Montezuma raised it up to a God, and later his daughter in another life glorified it. This being Merope the Queen of the Heavens. Thus for the first time since A.D. 300, Merope had broken down the whole of Roman Catholicism, as well as the silly pope ever talking about the contraceptive pill, when he should have been administering unto God, to keep the people and God intact.

When Montezuma was King, he ruled over his people wisely, and conquered not by war and destruction, but by mind thought and exhilaration. But when the Spanish soldiers came and took away his kingdom and his wealth, they distorted him, and instead of his great Sun Gods, they put up a false god upon a cross, then plundered and slaughtered all around him, even though Cortes said they were a great Nation.

Now Merope, as his reborn daughter Marincha, has changed the Law and put up true Cosmic Laws and a Mighty God, the Divine Fatherhood. The Almighty Christou his Son, with the wisdom of Universal Philosophy, not destroying Montezuma from his rightful place as a true son of God, but preparing him as Senarath to be a warrior, for yet greater truths to come forth.

There has never yet been a Jesus Christ until now, and he did not die in A.D. 33, it was just the Embodiment, for there never has been a Christ until A.D. 1968. There could not be a Christ until somebody had brought the Fiery Element into being as the Holy Fire, which Merope has done. She brought down the great and Mighty Scorpionic Fires, the Feeder of all LIFE.

it is up to every soul to become born of the Fiery glory of Uranus within the seed. That is truly Solar born, then accelerated by electrical activity, that this Planetary force can bring.

This has true linkage with the Theocratic union of mind interpenetration, where soul and God are going to have a greater union of true rhythmic understanding. Not religion of dogma and sodomitical ritual, but God and man interblended in divine consciousness. This is where the sheep are going to be weeded out from the goats, and no superficial covering will suffice. For we now are in the vibratory Glory of the Fatherhood, where all men must learn to be positive and directive in their holy purpose.

The Surviving Mind

ON this page we have placed Senarath's contribution towards the World of tomorrow. This child is an extremely gifted child, a typical example of the ancient World, surviving through the mind of the reborn present. Thus his higher mind is of the past, and that happens to be Montezuma (See plate on this page) of the Aztecs. This mighty man was a Sun worshipper, who sooner endured death, than he stained the Heavenly Stream of Christos possibility.

He knew the truth of Cosmic inter-birth, while the Spaniards, Catholics, did not, and they plundered and stole, murdered and raped, staining the Holy Cloth with blood and evil. Hence they have to die, but Montezuma is surviving in a young Cambodian of ten years old, upholding the Glory of the heaven-born Stream of Holy Fire.

This is another of the mysteries of the next two years, where truth only can prevail. Thus this child has submitted his theory of life, and except for a little grammar, nothing has been altered. It being amazing of the wisdom that he gives forth, making much older initiates look very sick. It may be noticed that he has changed his name, that he can be blooded by my blood, as a true Son of the Great Flame, the Great Intelligencia Master, I lost a son who had not the courage to see this through, although the Great Powers gave him the wisdom to sperm me by, but found greater sons of profound courage, who have lifted up the Glory of Divinity. Proving again, that it is not colour, but belief and courage, for Senarath is an Asian, though very pale, because of his pure fruit diet.

The Solar Establishment

WELL! owing to the help of a number of genuine friends, it has helped us to pull through rather a trying period. For the Great Master was calling unto the TRUE BLUE disciple, to help him be established. Thus somebody sent a gentleman's wrist watch with a metal bracelet, for us to place up for raffle, of which the Editor will announce in his placing of the paper.

But we could still do with help from those who recognise the work we are establishing, and will find that their giving will help considerably with their coming out trumps at the end of this year. Then I would mention, those who are seeking of the Horae prepared on the night of the 21st, drawing in the Glory of the Divine Eucharist.

Since this is being prepared in December for the January issue, I wish everybody a Happy New Year of Solar Establishment. Where all the Wise Virgins will trim their lamps and get them well alight. But do remember, it is MIND, Wisdom, Truth and Honour at all costs. Therefore, may all true Initiates be blessed by Divinity, especially those in Nigeria, who are striving to make a come back through wisdom.

Part 18

JUNIPER BERRIES

(Juniperis Communis)

by David Spearman-Cook

IN the month of January, as the new dawning light of the Central Sun brilliance unfolds man's Norm wealth, we are going to seek into the herbal remedies of Juniperis Communis, which will assist him on the Vega path of revelation. For when the depths of the Juniper Berry have been fully understood, and its qualities duly comprehended, it will become apparent to the vast majority, that this sweet tasting berry is really of a firm positive vibrational fulness. Therefore, it contains a power of extreme might, for at the time of its first seeding, it was as a vibronic spark of fire, but has since of course, like everything else, fallen from its once true status of vibronic acclaim, being entirely due to the densification of man's outlook. But it has now, through the Royal atomic fulfillment, been retrieved back to its enhanced fulness.

THEREFORE the virtues of the Juniper Berry are going to be of a tremendous help, when the atomic idiosyncrasies begin to show their main traits through man's forthcoming development into divinity. So first let us see what Juniper Berries are beneficial for at the present moment; then as we seek further, new remedies will reveal themselves as we gradually peer into its hidden depths.

Its main quality is that it is most beneficial to an overheated bloodstream, and is more than capable of cooling the blood, to the firing capacity of the soul's conscious understanding of the wisdom, which he has consciously involved within his seed. Therefore it can help to balance him up, so that he can be assisted to find the true balance, as the down-pouring Fires surge through him via the Breath.

For the mind seed must balance with the ratio of the Breath indrawn, for the soul to extract the Solar Atomic expandable quantum of the Virgin Fires, equal to each man's relativity rating.

Hence one can see the importance of understanding the words in the Occult Gazette, which are the means of true Divine blended attunement.

Another of its virtues is that it is extremely good against the colic, and has also been found to be of great benefit in the fight against consumption, pains in the stomach, ruptures, cramps, convulsions and a speedy delivery to ease the fatigue of the new-born child.

Also in many cases, it has been known to strengthen the brain and fortify the sight. After the Juniper wood has been burnt, and a Lye made from the ashes, it can be used to bathe the skin, to cure the itch, scabs and leprosy, and if taken internally, it breaks the stones in either the liver or kidneys.

THIS herb is extremely good if taken to alleviate the dropsy, for it helps to dry up the water by the infusion of its Violet Rays, this being the source from which it was first seeded. Each small purple berry being a vast store of Violet Ray frequency, which through the great change of the Universe, will now be ready to assist the ethereal frequency of the soul's future unfoldment.

When Juniper Berries are consumed, and their curing strength extracted, do not allow too great a heat from any form of electrical or coal fire on, or near, the surface of the flesh, owing to the Violet Rays' frequency, for it is not partial to false fires. And will quickly reveal signs of its dislike, such as the discolouring of small areas upon the surface of the exposed skin.

There is no cause for alarm, for it is not permanent, but for any herbal cure to become one hundred per cent, these small details should be well understood and duly practiced. During these changes of Relativity, any form of soliciting with false fire is going to have a detrimental effect to all foolish enough to over indulge in the earthy false fires of lunar desires.

HERE is where we come upon an addition to the Juniper Berry, that of Camomile Flowers, which will become an excellent remedial two-some, and will give a marvellous stimulatory infusion to the soul who has managed to become born into the Norm, through the relativity unfoldment of Time. For to explain a little more clearly as regards to the false fire question, the nervous system in future will be the sensitised virtue of the gods, and all men will find that the herbs, which are the powers of these living vibrations, will afford them the comfort and release from the lunar grip of self.

No drug or medicinal pill, will soothe away the aches and pains of the future reforming period of healing changes, only the strict obedience of the new laws of Creation.

Juniper Berries and the warmed infusion of Caraway Seeds, will administer a soothing balm to the intestinal tract, as it makes the necessary changes into a more refined receptacle, which in turn will change all the other operative nervous functions of the soul.

The Breath will do this automatically if the soul searches for wisdom by mind activity, and the herbs then become secondary to the word as a form of mortuary infusion, which will soothe disrupting internal influences and prevent them causing too much mental internal strife.

When one finds themselves in a state of Virgin lassitude, that of a blank inert state of non-activating incentive, it will be advisable to take an infusion of Horsetail, Holy Thistle, Juniper Berries, and the warm infusion of Nettles, which will assist them to find a release from this state, by the unifiable function of these four driving powers.

THEREFORE, seeing that Juniper Berries contain the Violet Ray, it would be well advisable to make them a regular tonic, and if a little lemon is added it will be found to be extremely palatable, and of course very invigorating. Invigoration being so urgently needed, now that all calls for a faster vibration.

Juniper Berries can help to prevent over-active sweating of the feet, for as Pisces rules the feet, and the Violet Rays are of that wealth, it is easy for one to comprehend why it soothes and strengthens them, for it is said that the shape and condition of the feet represents a condition of the mind.

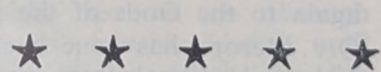

When these berries are stewed with a little apple it will help to cleanse the stomach of waste, for the pectin in the apple, plus the Violet Ray of the berry, will surge the intestines and cleanse them, thereby saving one from a lot of discomfort during the changes which are going to take place within all men.

Juniper juice with the addition of Buchu, and Vervain will bring a cleansing

THE LORD OF THE FLAME

MANY of our new readers write in to ask us "who is THE LORD OF THE FLAME, and how did He become the Guide and Teacher of Mrs. Spearman-Cook?" Thus we thought it would be of help to bring some explanation. THE LORD OF THE FLAME is the MASTER of the DIVINITIES, the SUPREME POWER of SCORPIO and the CENTRAL SUN. He is the Cosmic Consciousness born out of the Divine ATOMIC FIRE of Outer Space, and comes down to man through the Breath, for all is the unfoldment of vibration. To show how He became the Divine Control of Mrs. Spearman-Cook, we are reprinting below an earlier explanation, given in November 1964.

AS THE LORD OF THE FLAME, once again I come amongst you. I come to guide you and lead you, and give you understanding that will help you to find the way through the density of matter. Many of you may say "Why does he come now to take over of RA-MEN-RA?" I will give you explanation.

I am THE LORD OF THE FLAME that has descended to take hold of this Instrument for a Dynamic Message to be earthed with mankind. I come from the Realms of the Heights, and am embodied in her for the time being. That is why, at times, there are difficulties; because I am learning to use in a very short space of time your earth language, which we do not use in the Heights.

We live by thought; we have no form. I have assumed her form, and I am taking her speech. I am using her mind; and I am the Carrier of RA-MEN-RA, that you can be given the Message of Truth.

The Instrument, as the feminine principle, in rising up from her depths has now risen up to her heights, and she and Ra-Men-Ra her Man-hood are one. No longer does she belong to the Earth; she belongs to that of Spirit, and so, as you would understand it, the two sides of the brain are equal and united; hence there had to be another Overseer that came and shadowed the depths and the heights that are now united in the Heights.

She had to struggle and become worthy of one from those Heights descending and being able to take over and rest within the Cup she had built up. She made that effort and so, as THE LORD OF THE FLAME, I was able to come and take over to help you with this Work. This is the reason why she finds it difficult to use her legs, for no longer is she of the physical; she has no bearing at all with materialism.

She knows only of one thing; the Higher mind; although she has great difficulty still with casting out that of mind-memory, for her memories are bitter and sad. We are helping her to cast those out slowly, bit by bit, until she can become a free child of the Spirit, winging her way everywhere she goes. You will notice, as time goes on, more and more will she be able to drop these conditions and become the free-born Christed-child; that which all of you now will be able to follow as the Prototype.

As the Scapegoat, whatever she puts into operation, you can do. That is what it means by the Scapegoat; one who passes through all the experiences. She has to put into operation all trial and error, and she has to pass through all the difficulties and take all the blows; but whatever she is able to establish, you too can perform.

So the way is now set for the Law to go forward in the way that she has put it into operation; not that she is the Law, but she is the one who has prepared the way for the Law to become free and manipulate the ways of the Earth. This has gone on right from the beginning of time, and will go on to the end of time. But now man will have to take his own cup and he will prepare the way; for the whole of the Timeless Time of 13,000 years is now prepared.

The 'Stream' has been united from Heights to depths, and there is nothing more that can be done in this period of the Solar Year; only mankind putting it into operation. This is very unusual, and something that has never been done before; but it has been accomplished by one who set themselves out to do this Task, but never realised they would do quite so much themselves. This is only because she was of the "Fount" and capable of reaching the Heights in comparison. This she did, although we never believed that she would do it. She has done it, and now all men can find their way through.

So for the rest of the period of the Solar Year, every man now is open to the glories of the Solar-plane; he can now turn it into the Golden Utopia. And that is what you are receiving on the Sabbath; what you can put into operation, because she can do it.

Now that brings hope to all who are struggling, for as these Waters percolate through you and begin to change your tissues, change your bloodstream, you will find yourself responding to the Word; that is, if you are struggling to absorb it.

As THE LORD OF THE FLAME I promise you this, and I come not without Witness. I give you this understanding, and I give you this promise.

WHO I AM, MUST BE LEFT UNSAID.

To you I am THE LORD OF THE FLAME, but one who promised to see this soul through to the end of her journey.

There are many great things that take place in the World of Spirit, but you souls so closely and tightly enclasp in that of matter cannot understand what it means: the Scriptures portray it unto you, but you feel that they are "past word." What happened then, happens again. Every one of you can receive of these bounties; every one of you can be engulfed and encompassed by these great Powers, if you will only put yourself out to do it; but as these Waters percolate through you in the "Stream" that she has united and brought down to the Earth will you become re-born.

But let the Word guide you. This is most necessary, for without the Word you would not know which way to go, and would find yourself completely collapsed. We are instructing her; we are guiding her. There is nothing being done in this Temple, or anything linking with her, that has not been guided by the Great Heights.

SHE NOW IS THEIR CHANNEL, COMPLETELY AND WHOLLY.

I leave these words with you, because they will bring you comfort, bring you strength, and bring hope to those who feel there is no hope for them.

NEW WORLD PROTOTYPE

This is what man does not do, and this I am afraid is going to be reckoned with, in the beginning of the next year. Man is going to learn to discard the superficial states of the earth, and find they are not going to hold him in good faith.

You have heard so much about this Hong Kong 'flu. It is not Hong Kong 'flu at all. It is the descent of the Atomic powers, and the greatest enemy of this is going to be the medical world filling man with drugs, whereby they are going to make those souls worn-out-shells.

Merope has been six years carrying these Fires, impregnated into her blood. Never at any time has Merope had a medical drug applied to her. She has just gone on trying to stem the burns that have taken place, applying witch-hazel and taking herbs. Where the burn has been unbearable, she has taken an aspirin, and although we did not approve of this, it did withhold the pain. What the medical world will offer to you will be drugs of a very very drastic nature, which could result in you becoming a drug addict, with your internal creation empty.

You have got to go through the inflowing Elements that are coming down, which are going to transform you. You have got to embrace them. Many who are finding the result of the drugs very very difficult are calling upon Merope for herbs. But once the drugs have been taken, it is not so easy to apply the herbal remedies.

There has also got to be a modification of diet in the New Year, a changing of diet, which will be very very rigid. You will notice that many have been looking into this matter of diet. Now we are going to witness a great deal more in this direction, because the animals are riddled with disease; that is a well-known fact.

Q...I understand there are very many more people going mental now.

A...Well, this is what happens when you become an empty hulk, taking on a blank and blind state. You are going to witness a lot of this in the New Year, and it is where you are going to be very very wise if you try to take the Wisdom, and let the Wisdom bring the mortuary meal with which to blend-in.

When you do this, you are not going to have a lot of false roots cropping up when you start making ascension.

Another point is, that when you make your ascension from one Plane to another, you have to enter into the 'negative' to start off with. You then have to fight to find the 'positive' side of it. Don't just stay in the negative, until you bring it to a water state. Fight your way out by building up within yourself the answer.

Q...Master, we have been told previously that if the wealth has not been turned into light, the soul would go blank and they would have to fight for it. Could you help us just a bit more upon that phrase?

A...Well, the conscious mind will have to go on struggling and learning.

Q...Yes, but does it mean that the ancient wisdom that was with him, and never activated, will be destroyed.

A...No, not destroyed, but taken away. The conscious mind will only be able to learn through Universal Philosophy, and that will build up the mind anew.

The trouble is, you don't understand vibration; that is the trouble with man. Everything to him is form; what he sees by form-built vision he believes, but that is not really Life. The real True Growth is vibration.

Q...In the internal bodies?

A...That is right, and the growth of Here and Now, because the Abyss has always been, and whatever has been, has been transferred and transmuted in the Abyss. The very depth of the Abyss is the Divinity and the Source, and when it comes into Light, the centre of the earth and the Central Sun will unite into one Vast Glowing Globe of LIGHT. Now the question is, have you made sufficient, and warranted sufficient, to be able to struggle on, so that you can become a Living Cell of this World of Light?

DEIR-EL-BAHRI

Q...Master, if a person has followed orthodox religion such as Christianity in its basic form all of their lives, and believes implicitly that what they are doing is right and correct, they have led a good life,—everybody considers that they have led a good life,—they don't know any better, are they lost?

A...Now, let us come down to Wisdom. They had as much right to understand Truth as any other, but if they try to 'pass the buck' onto a harmless God to carry their sins while they get off 'scot-free', where are they gaining anything? That is what they have done. Man has deliberately placed the onus onto a God and put him on a cross, and said, "Oh, he will put it right; it does not matter what we do, he will put it right." Well, unfortunately he did, until Merope went on the Cross, but she did not take the onus of their sins. She went onto the Cross to change the LAWS. She stipulated the LAWS, and they were accepted by Divinity in the Heights; then, although she suffered and had to walk it into the earth, that Truth was sent down to the base.

Q...Well, the teachings apparently of so-called Christianity have been changed tremendously, especially since the Middle Ages.

A...Yes, but there is no Truth in them; it is a falsehood.

Q...Nothing took place in Palestine, did it?

A...Nothing at all. They come and say, "Oh yes, we have seen the cross out there." Yes I know, but you have financial sharks in abundance on the earth. There was no Cross!

Q...The New Testament Books are really Books of Initiation, aren't they?

A...They are Books of Truth. Don't despise the Bible, not at all, for the Wisdom in there is Life and how Life must be manipulated, but none of it has taken place.

Q...Master, I understand that the real Truth of the Bible is in Astrology itself.

A...Astrology is of course a his resigning, well that is the end.

A...This is their problem of working out; Merope did the task and she cracked them up. Merope did all this, and she did it by the Laws. Now what is being put into operation is not just for the love of mastery; it is to bring Truth into the World and to bring Light, so that all you souls who can 'make it' can build up a Divine Cell, and become unified. You have only got to see all the evil that is going on in the World, all the cess-pits and the darkness—and you probably don't hear half of what is going on—and then you will realise how much the World has got to be cleaned up.

Man has got to learn to walk the earth and become Divinity born. Now this is why the Theocratic Consciousness is being brought into birth; man has got to rule himself, through his Theocratic Consciousness. These are the Divinities that he has absorbed into his mind by the Elements, and he has absorbed them in through the Breath, and they are now the 'gods in the meninges' which are ruling the soul.

Religion only reached up to Jupiter; they never went any higher than the Bull, the throat, and that was no good. This was why Medo-Persia failed, for they should have brought into birth Divine Light. They had all the Wisdom; that is why such profound learning was brought forth, but the only way that it could be turned into Light was by mastering Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, and this is what Merope has mastered, and gained the wisdom of these on their highest form.

Now it is going to become a World of true initiates where everything is of the mind, a mind plane. Evolution had to go on. Evolution must go on, because Evolution is everlastingly changing in the Cosmos, and there the Evolution that takes place is the Thread of FIRE, and the FIRE now is the earthing point, and FIRE is DIVINITY.

Q...Am I not right, Master, that it is the intensity of the Hydroxyl Fires that will reach a point at Christmas-tide, and as a result, will cause this closure to take place? And is it not right that from then onwards mankind, who have been in a coagulated state of knowledge which has made their own gravity, are slowly going to become disintegrated? For the knowledge itself will be polarised by the Hydroxyl Fire, and either man turns it into Light through wisdom, or he alternatively is automatically disintegrated back to his Virgin Norm. He either obtains Light by his struggle, or loses everything!

A...All that you say is quite true.

Q...And what sort of souls will incarnate after this?

A...Divinities. This is what the Divinities have been waiting for.

They have not had the opportunity to come down to learn, and you have not had the Divinities come down to bring fresh Wisdom to the earth. Now the Divinities are coming down to the earth, and to the soul who can make it, it is going to be a World of Utopia, a World of Glory.

Q...In fact it is a time of great joyousness.

A...It is of Great Joyousness. It is going to be very difficult for you to visualise this change-over, but as the change-over takes place you are going to move into the changes, and see what is going to be born.

It is going to be a far different world; it is not going to be a world of beatniks, but a World of Creation, where man is going to create by a creative mind. He is going to bring into the world Truth and Belief. It is all set as to what will take place.

Merope could have 'gone Home,' but she decided to stay and see the results for just a little while. You must remember that Merope is not young now, and she has given over thirty years of hard labouring of trance, feeding the world with Light. She has not spared herself, but she said, "I am going to wait and see the results; that I am going to do!" So Merope is waiting; she is a very tired woman though, and she wants a lot of support and a lot of Love. But those of you who are genuine will not be disappointed in what is going to come.

Q...Master, this is the end of the old Seth race, the substitute race, is it not?

A...Yes, that is quite true.

Q...And this is one of the things that man has never been prepared to accept, that he is a false creation!

A...Yes, and now he must get back to the Divine Pube state. When the Fall came, as they termed it, there was no falling down from the sky or something like that; it was a Descent of Vibration. Cunning took over, which of course in its higher cunning is a very fine thing, but lower cunning took over and the Fall came.

The first drop was Atlantis, where they had mighty wealth, but they lived in darkness; they had not built up the Solar Light from their genes and chromosomes. This was not built up until the Golden Age in Egypt. Then Helios began to show them how to think, and think with Divinity, and think with Light, and they began slowly to build up a Solar Orb. Now you have got a Divine Orb with the Central Sun, and which is a generative inflow to mankind through the Breath and into his Seed.

But of course now man and woman are equal; not as a gender, for gender is going to change and every man and woman is going to become a Pube. You are coming back again to the Gods of the past.

Q...Merope has gone back to the vibrational frequency of Deir-el-Bahri where she first brought forth the Virgin Fire. Instead of the deteriorated state of Deir-el-Bahri, now she will find a woven up frequency of Neptunian Glory.

A...That is quite true. It was then that the Water Plane, or the Water Element was given birth. The FIRE descending should have fused the Water—which it does do now in alchemical unfoldment—into the sparking Element of the mind, but it did not do so. And by them remaining as they were, going on in desire, the Water Plane deluged the Earth. It covered over masses and masses of Space, and density grew, and there were changes and rebirth.

Then when the Waters were drained away, it left the Sahara, with the Sphinx that came up out of the depths, for it was never created in this Age,—and also the Memnon. They were two states of Atlantis.

Q...Was not the Great Pyramid a Temple of Initiation?

A...Oh yes, my son. There were three major Pyramids, and they were all joined together with the Sphinx, and the Sphinx was actually the House of Initiation. They were joined together by subterranean passages where they were lit up with their own Fires.

Q...And I have read that the true secrets of the Pyramids are yet to be revealed.

The Great Bear is Cancer. She was the first constellation to bring into birth humanity, although they first made their debut in Leo; but then, instead of going forward into Virgo, they fell back upon themselves into desire.

So Cancer, the Mother of the Tiamat, took over the birth of Creation in the state they had allowed themselves to fall into. But what you have to remember is, that everything is born upon this prototype. Whatever you bring into birth will begin through this, and go all the way through to the heights.

IF YOU BRING A CHILD INTO BIRTH IT PASSES THROUGH ALL THESE STATES, ALTHOUGH YOU MAY NOT BE AWARE OF IT: BUT WHETHER IT IS A SPIRIT CHILD OR A PHYSICAL CHILD,—IF YOU BRING INTO BIRTH AN IDEA,—IT WILL PASS THROUGH ALL THESE STATES WHICH ARE THE PROTOTYPE OF CREATION.

The Kamite origin, which so many of you are worried about and one that bears of great importance, is of Ouranus as Urnas or Uranus, the celestial water that came out of Nnu; the Kamite beginning where all began as a nebula. The Egyptians saw the lower hemisphere as the Tuat, and the Urnas as a river that runs through the fields of Aahlu (Elysium) which was cultivated by the Osirified deceased, and would be the fatherhood that inhabited the 9th house and changed his status in the 10th, on the Mount, when the marriage was completed.

So you can see now where you have brought it to in your unfoldment, but as to what wealth you have gained in the unfoldment is another matter. Everything you have gained in thought has to go through these in alchemicalisation until it is able to reach the 9th house of inherited ideas.

This was divided into twelve parts with gates like the New Heaven, but of the Egyptian eschatology we will pursue after we have gained some understanding of the mythology that gave birth to all Creation. But since there is no other rendering than the Grecian which has been handed down to posterity, we shall use their myths to gain some understanding of how the soul gained the many pathological and psychological creations now with him.

So if they can be seen as elements in their all-powerful state of helping man to find a mode of rebirth, the mystery of the Egyptian rebirth will solve itself out into a pattern of real wealth that the soul must retrieve as relativity.

The Word as Breath

THE myths are but a means of helping you to interpenetrate the rock base. What you have been building up as a rock within you, you are now trying to interpenetrate and find what it is made up of.

You are trying to interblend and find the old creation of yourself, the wise old man. That was a time when you really had wealth of knowledge. Man has come so far away from his ancient wealth that he now is extremely worldly and has lost everything; that is why he is in the pain and difficulty he is in today.

WHEN HE CAN MAKE A BLENDING WITH HIS

ANCIENT STATE HE IS GOING TO FIND THE ANSWER; HOW TO GO ON, AND WHAT IS THE NEXT STEP. AT THE PRESENT MOMENT MAN HAS NO IDEA WHAT THIS IS GOING TO BE; IT IS MERELY CHAOS ONCE AGAIN.

The Divine Mother who gave birth to the heavens was Typhon, the Mother of Aahlu the divided heaven: this was seen as the two sisters, or north and south as the twin brothers. This was to be lifted up by Shu (Breath) and carried on the back of the giant brothers (the mind, your labouring).

Although we are describing the cosmos, it could not have taken place until the soul began to create in paradise before earth literally began. When it took its place in the depths and lost itself to form, then it slowly began to recover the lost memory and began in form to create all over again; then it was the Lunar God as Manu, founded on the first four quarters, that had its bearing in the whole four quarters as it was finally established on the twelve signs. Thirty-six stars crossing over the equinoxes and seventy-two duodecans of the solar zodiac.

Now the 36 stars crossing over the equinoxes are the three stars to each sign, the 3 decanates; and they are the magnetic field, bringing in the  $12 \times 6 = 72$  of the sensory state of the Solar zodiac. Man being born as he is able to capture this, and is registered and made known to him as the witness in the Chart that man has now learned to bring forth: he was told he would not be left without a witness, otherwise how would he know where he was going.

Thus Enoch declared, "I beheld the secrets of the heavens and of paradise according to its divisions." These divisions extended from the first severance of the earth and heaven into lower and upper firmamental waters in the very Word itself; mental, as mind now being firm and secure.

The very Word was bringing to the soul the linking with the heights that he had been cut off from by entering into the depths and being enamoured by them.

THE WORD ITSELF WAS HELPING HIM TO BECOME BALANCED AND LINKED UP WITH THAT WHICH HE HAD LOST. THAT IS WHY THE STUDY OF THE WORD IS SO IMPORTANT.

For the spirit was not established as mind, thus had to pass through form so that it could become as a mind creator. This was the journey to be pursued as Generation, but man, as the Race of Humanity, placed it into the form of generation, desire, and separated the heights from the depths completely.

Now those of you who struggle with your diet know that as soon as you begin to sacrifice and make the desire of the finer purpose your goal, you slowly begin to respond; but while desire becomes your main issue, you will slowly begin to lose your sensitivity of the Word.

Creating the Godhead

RIGHT from the earliest time Intelligence has manifested in heaven above to man below, and which has always made the primal appeal to his apprehension as seen in the periodic recurrence. This Intelligence was the starry serpent annually crawling round, thus mythology properly begins with the founding of time on the cyclic movements of the heavenly bodies.

The twins, being as the magnetic field of mind creation, are the sons of time who are without bounds of night and day, the two sides of the mind that are always battling: the Cain and Abel, where man destroys the Abel, the higher mind, and is only left with Cain: he does this continually.

AKHANATON

A BRAVE soul who sought to change the test of Time, but times were early and man was not ready; thus Akhanaton left the seed of the wealth that was surging through him. And though not remembered, one of the stalwarts of the Spirit, a mighty divinity in that heavenly realm. (See text in col. 5).

And when the celestial sign of Gemini becomes situated on the arc, then the Hierarchical Powers have found all they want to establish; that which has never been made known before. For as of the magnetic plane below so the possibility of that plane above, thus referred to as the heavenly twins who hold the rope of Ak; sitting on the waters of Time.

It was by drinking the Amrit juice of immortality that the dragon of darkness as Rahu, was transformed into one of the keepers of time, and figures in heaven at the place where he had been cut in two. This is seen in the hieroglyphs of Sagittarius which, cut in half, would be the cross as the swastika to spin, and the arrow to fly to the heights of the mount in the reforming godhead.

As you understand the Word you send the arrows to the heights, giving you a reformed outlook as you set the lower wheel revolving quicker in realisation. Therefore the raising of the Sky by Shu the "breather." It was by drinking the Amrit juice he had got "time in his body" and thenceforth could not be destroyed.

BY DRINKING IN OF THE WORD, REALISING OF THE HIGHER TRUTH, YOU BECOME SLOWLY IMMORTAL.

Thus when it was said that the elements acquired their souls as time-keepers, it meant that the soul and time had become as Seb; and Seb became one of the Krono-born as the dragon of the annual eclipse, because he now possessed a soul, through the understanding of the Word: he had drunk of the immortal juice.

So the god that was coming forth was the stellar being born of the solar through the cycles of time. Therefore Amen-Ra, one of the solar divinities, declared that He had not come out of a womb, but out of the cycles: (he was talking about his soul, not his flesh body);

Kronian deities from which the soul was created but much went below the earth, which over the periods of time, brought about the earthy state of the soul. According to this, the gods in heaven prepared their cycles of time according to the respective lengths assigned to them by their human creators on earth, ranging from the chiefs preparing moments up to Atum the solar lord of millions of years, or an eternity that is AEonian, unto the Unknown Creator.

(A plate was then shown of the Egyptian Pharaoh Akhanaton. See columns 3 and 4)

(This is the depth from which you have sprung; but you were born long before that on lesser knowledge; and long before that in the spirit. But this was the first Pharaoh to bring the knowledge of the blessings of the Gods to pour down to man through the Solar Fire. It took a long time, even after that, for man to accept this; but he does not accept it today, for he still lives under the lunar element).

So it can be seen that the credentials of TIME have regulated all and must now be obeyed, otherwise all is going to be chaos once again. The Egyptians, understanding this, made their oaths and covenants synonymous with this time-keeping and accounts for their great powers.

The very word Ark denotes the 30th day, the end of the month; and to make the circle of that sent forth by that God and enclosed power within himself, he tied it up by oath striving to make it covenant. Therefore all time and truth that has come down to posterity was founded on this covenant of the Ark, and will explain much that is portrayed in the Scriptures regarding this. This is the only way that man is going to recapture the powers of this past, for the greatest loss that man has today, is honour and true spiritual purpose.

In the Book of Enoch it is related that the Most High established the Oak of Akae, and "Heaven was suspended before the world was made: by it has the earth been founded upon the flood; the flood of what man brought through trying to understand it. By the secrets of the oath will the sun and moon complete their progress, never swerving from the command given to them for ever and ever. By this oath the stars complete their progress, and when their names are called they return an answer for ever and ever. There was the oath of the Ark of the Covenant; the oath taken by the time-keepers and appointed watchers of the heavens."

They are the ones that bring to you the continual life-force, and when you also become a watcher of the heavens, by seeking to be in harmony with them, then they seek for your help to bring Wisdom to the earth.

Even the Persians had a revelation regarding the need for creative life, whether it be because of the Fall or Spirit observing Chaos, but these are their writings of Creation and the birth of Time. "Three thousand years the creatures were possessed of bodies and not walking on their navels": (the building up of the solar plexus; but they were not building up their solar plexus if they were merely taking in the power. Under the solar plexus is the diaphane, the diaphane of the soul, where you store your solar light).

"The sun, moon and stars stood still. What advantage is there from the creation of a creature, although thirstless, which is unmoving or mischievous. So in aid of the celestial sphere he produced the creature Time, and time is unrestricted; so he made the creatures of Ahura-Mazda moving and distinct from the motion of Aharman's creatures, for the shedders of perfume were standing one opposite to the other while emitting it. And observant of the end, he brought forward to Aharman a means out of himself, the property of darkness, with which the extreme limits of time were connected by him, an envelope of the black-pated and ash-coloured kind." (The opposite states of negative and positive).

The creatures of Aharman as preceding time, unmoving and mischievous were the Elementaries of Egypt, the children of inertness and revolt who ruled in Chaos as the progeny of the evil Typhon. It links with the establishment of day and night and the limits of the grey twilight. A time when two powers met and mingled as partners, Sut and Horus. The Evil Spirit Aharman was the opponent of the Spirit of Light and is the Apophis of the ritual. While Ahura-Mazda lives in a region of limitless light, Aharman dwells in a domain that is endlessly dark. But the Evil Spirit arose from the abyss and came in unto the Light and rushed forward to destroy.

Then "Aharman came from accompanying Time out to the front, out to the Star-Station, and having darkness with himself, he brought it into the sky (the mind) and left the sky so to gloom that the internal deficiency in the sky extends as much as one-third over the Star Station."

Inflow of the Divine Fires

THEN the Evil Spirit rushed towards the luminaries and stood upon one-third of the inside of the sky, and he sprang like a Snake out of the sky down to the earth. But this is also measured by John in his Revelations, "And there appeared a Dragon in heaven having seven heads, and his tail drew a third part of the Stars of Heaven and did cast them to the earth. And there was war in Heaven. And the great Dragon was cast out into the Earth and his angels were cast with him." (Revelations c. 12 v. 3).

This describes the powers of Fire and Life descending through the elements to bring life to the fallen earth. This is very difficult for man in his present state to understand, that once the earth (a state of solidification) began through spirit beings creating Chaos in desire, it began to breed seeds of Envy, Lust and Hate; thus all began to cool and harden. Then solid mass stood without moving life - all had become as tohu and bohu, so life was sent to stir and bring into birth creatures.

YOU HAVE ONLY TO THINK OF HOW YOU TAKE A NEW WORD, HOW IT GOES INTO CHAOS AND THEN INERTNESS UNTIL YOU WRESTLE WITH IT AND SLOWLY BEGIN TO BRING NEW LIFE.

After many aeons, man in the form he now is carrying, once again began to revolt, but in a way not as before; now against the elements that were wild and ungovernable, for they were now seeking to bring life both to man and rocks. And the Son of God took the golden compasses and circumscribed the universe and all created things. Even though darkness profound covered the abyss, the Divine Spirit took pity on these creatures cast out, and spread his brooding wings and infused vital warmth throughout the fluid mass. (When you get a new idea you, too, circumscribe it.)

In the Beginning might appear to millions of years ago, and if geological and palaeontological (See plate on this page) evidence demand millions of years for the living forms before man, then it could be argued that each of the Six Days of Creation represented a long period, but in reality are but a mysterious reference to six stages required to bring the fullness unto the seventh.

There was a pre-Adamic race which ended its career before the race of Adam began: their remains might be found, the work of their hands might be preserved, but their actual fate and fortunes do not really concern you, for it is not their blood that runs in your veins.

real wealth. They were not concerned with worldliness as man knows it today; they were busy with bringing a state of living into a world lost and derelict; and those concerned, who took the role as Priest-Pharaohs, were spiritual beings far beyond the understanding of the present day minds.

Many of these never left the earth condition again, for they became caught up with the surging evil, that which had left its prototype from the previous creation, and so are as human beings of the present day with a vast record of time, powerful in both mind and purpose and, in such a world, often destructive.

reflection, consequently is not aware of what it is that makes it feel discontented. It places ideas around worldly states but they never appease, because they are not the cause; they are only the irritation.

So in the beginning when the husbandman had no time, he misjudged the time for sowing, for there was not sufficient foresight of flood or frost, no methodical record of events. All was confusion and minor chaos without any form of reckoning; and the bringing of order out of this chaos is what is really called Creation in the ancient books. The Priests eventually found that the dome of the sky (their mind) was lifting up the heavens from the earth, and that the sun and moon were

THE GODS WERE ABLE TO SEND DOWN ONCE THERE WERE ONE OR TWO SENDING UP TO THE HEIGHTS WISDOM OR NEW THOUGHT; THEY WERE ABLE TO SEND DOWN NEW LIFE; AND THAT IS HOW THE GODS CONTINUALLY SEND DOWN NEW LIFE.

Light and Dark, Chaos and Order, are ever struggling against one another, but that is the only way evolution can issue forth of creation. Then there had to follow the victory of light and order over blackness, and this was assured when Merodach the Sun-god overthrew the dragon Tiamat, the "wicked serpent." Thus it can be seen that the first creation represents the passage of mythology out of chaotic space into the fixed world of time; and that recorded on the tablets constituted but the tablets of destiny, with astronomical reckoning to come forth in a greater way in the future.

Now the world was ready for the Great Lights to appoint the signs and seasons and prepare the twin mansions of the great gods, the mansions of the mind. Then the fixing of the stars ordain the year and appoint the signs of the zodiac over it. Finally it was found that three stars were assigned to each of the twelve months; then from the day when the year issues forth to the close became the mansion of the Sun-god, the god of the ferry-boat (the going back and forth over time in new creations), and by this he knew his bonds that he might not err and go astray. Also the mansion of Bel and Ea was established and the great gates were opened on either side of the heavens, as well as the bolts on the left hand and on the right being strengthened.

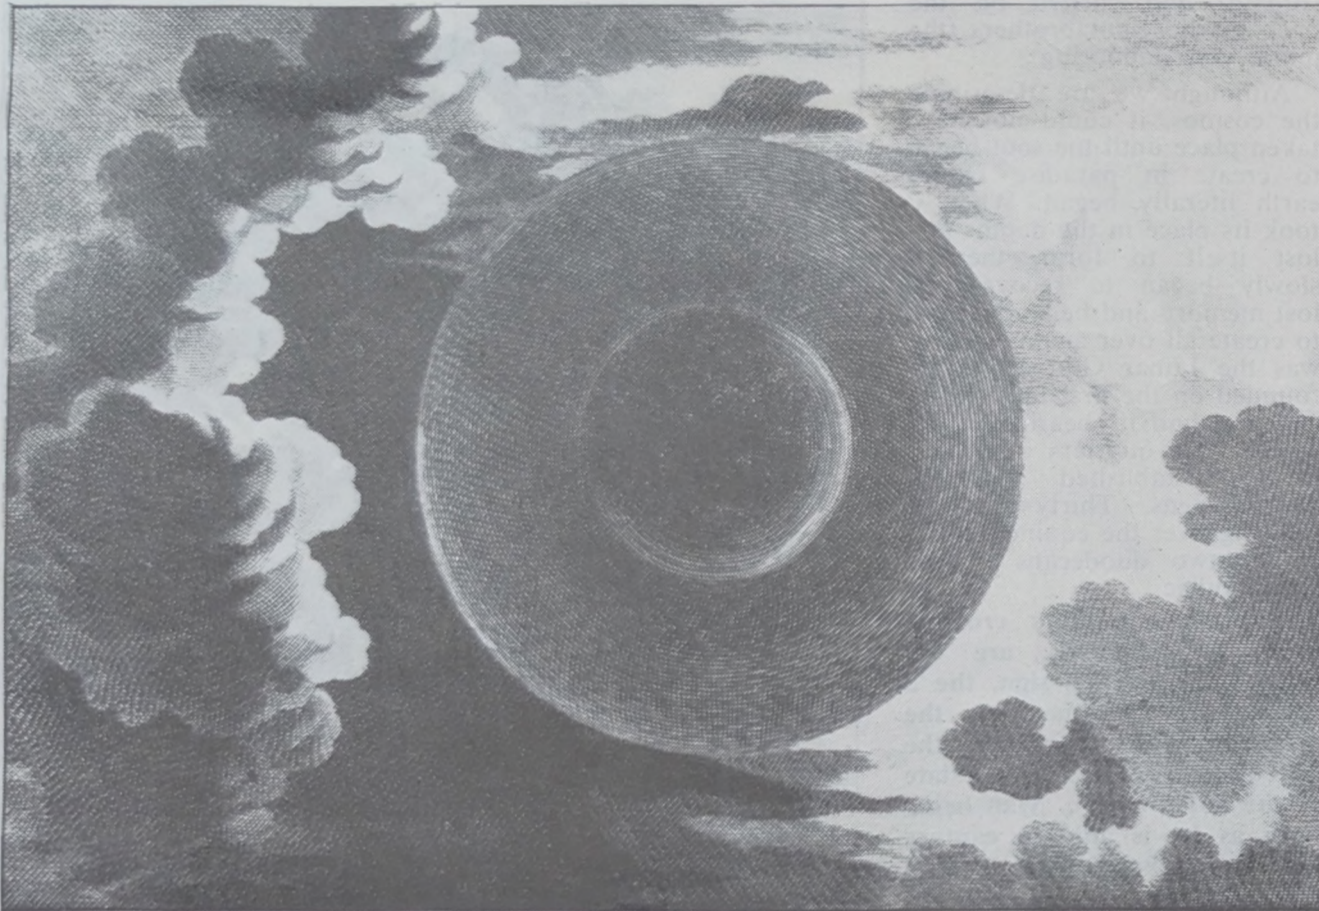

In the midst the Great One made a staircase, and illuminated the Moon-god that she might be the guide by night, and the day be known, saying month by month without a break, keep watch in thy disk. Beginning at the first of the month to light up the night, announcing the horns that the heavens may know: (the mind slowly climbing up that staircase).

By this you have the full story of Creation from the ancient legends, with Babylonian tablets emphatically stating that the earth had been in existence a long time before then. Even the Arcadians claim that they existed before the moon; meaning that they were star-worshippers before the moon was in existence as an independent orb to become the time measurer of earth, a solidifying nebulae.

The Sothic Cycle

CREATION, as far as Egypt was concerned, linked with the god Ra; recognising the sun as a ruler, whereas men had previously existed under the rule of Ptah the pole-star divinity; but the god Ra began to reign when the firmament was raised by Shu, air as "breather": (he began to raise his mind; he began to think). So it can be seen that in the establishment of a calendar the passage of mankind out of savagery into civilisation began, and the Cosmos began the order of social, political and historical order. Even a state of more religious sentiment began to prevail, raising the status of mind and moral hope.

The arranging of creation really related more to immortal and imaginary gods, for in the race to come all related to the days of the years ranged in the calendar, for man was created in the image of the

IN THE BEGINNING

THIS mighty mystery lies in the depths of man himself, for his fall was in the degree of extension, but should have risen up to its positive ascension, and turned darkness into light, and beauty into glory. (See text in col. 1).

But the prototype of their natures as soul growth is there with you, but not your responsibility, merely the basic of your being.

It is believed by the arts in Egypt and Babylonia that the years go back some 6,000 years. If man counts time as humanity from 13,000 years ago he can realise that much has taken place from the Taurus period when the Bull reigned supreme, which amounts to about 6,480; but there was life before then and quite sensible life, for many gods walked the earth striving to earth the greater Powers, and it could only be done through a human channel.

So there is no room to question that the Babylonians and Hyksos Egyptians belong to the same human race as yourselves; and no room to doubt that they began their upward career far more than 6,000 years ago. The date of Menes,—believed to be the first king of Egypt,—is given by some as 4,500, yet there are some who now describe him as pre-dynastic.

THE ONLY WAY THAT MAN WILL EVER REALLY BE ABLE TO SOLVE THIS QUESTION IS THROUGH HIMSELF WHEN HE CAN BRING FORTH OF UNITED THOUGHT THROUGH RELATIVITY BECOMING THE GIFT OF HIS BLENDED MIND.

In any case man has to agree that the remains discovered indicate a civilisation of high mechanical taste and ability, though very low in imitation of natural forms; yet unrivalled skill in working flint and the beginning of precious metals, many now extinct.

But what man cannot fathom and possibly understand is the interior of their temples, for there lies their

Awareness of Time

IF the present day Egyptians are approached regarding their past, they proclaim themselves the most ancient of mankind. It has been said by them that "their fore-fathers appeared on the banks of the Nile before the Creator had completed his work." But that is of no consequence; the fact that they were the Dawn of Civilisation is sufficient and their journey as described in the Scriptures holds of much truth.

Although we are not actually following that History, we are going to use it to prove many facts that will help you to prepare this journey of understanding Mythology as the gods and elements, the origin of man; their further influence on their downward creation through the ages and how man has taken these influences and woven them within his being as gifts, qualities and idiosyncrasies.

The story is not an idle invention, though badly mauled through the ages; it is an actual record, but badly misunderstood. Creation is a word which did not originally possess its modern meaning, and does not refer to the origin of the earth, of the firmament of the great lights; but is really referring to the era when men began to reckon time and observe for the first time the risings and settings of the stars, and adopted the sun and moon for signs and seasons, and by them calculated the days and the years.

It was only then that mankind could possibly have a history that could be recalled. Up till then no one knew the years or even cared about them; it was sufficient to try and live and feed the body, the spirit now finding itself encased and enclosed in. And do not underestimate that the spirit does not know; that which is the conscious self only gets the heavenly bodies that were placing light and dark in the firmament; and furthermore, the repetition of their round and regularity of their motion afforded a means of measuring months and years; and that was the beginning of time.

This passage out of chaos into order is plainly connected with the beginning of hieroglyphics, cuneiform writing and records in the early legends. From then the years were counted, their recurrence calculated and Thoth in Egypt, Hermes, and Mercury in Rome presided over the matter of letters, speech and prophecy; and all the mythologies had need of him. The Creation tablets that hold of ancient records, indicate that up to that time heaven had not announced and earth had not recorded a name; while chaos was personified as a female dragon named Tiamat. And the brood of monsters attributed to her was definitely due to the lack of calendar reckoning, for that was the easiest way to get them accrued.

It can be seen that although chaos still prevailed in element disorders, the earth existed and was inhabited by the chaotic brood of Tiamat, and was Nature's first imperfect attempt to bring creation into birth; creatures that were badly formed. But furthermore, these monstrous things perished when the present world began to come into law and order; and that came about when the calendar came into existence. The first attempt was crude and erroneous, for the Babylon writings tell of creations, one a failure owing to it dealing with the work of chaos, resulting with the destruction of it by the younger gods of light and order who ushered in a new creation of a world that was getting more tangible.

Lord with 365 nerves. Men were being created to repair the fall of the angels in the Sabaeon period, or prehistoric age; for this was the time of the Titans when the fire of Jove destroyed these beings and mankind sprang from the ashes or the exhalations. (Now try and see this as quite a normal thing).

Having arranged that, what we have to try and determine now is how many days are creation, so that man can apply this in all his modes of action. Seven is the number, with the eighth producing the offspring; this brought into birth eight kinds of men with different life and manners, and refers to man's state of senses ever revolving from the seven into the eighth of new life, (his 7 bodies, his 7 sensory creations, and everything created in the form of 7. So whatever he brings forth, he is ever revolving up the spiral of seven into the eighth).

Then man began to recognise that there existed an important Year which was called the Sothic Cycle; while each of the four quarter days was adopted by some nation or other for the commencement of its year and calendar, with the corresponding quarter of the Sothic Cycle as its era of creation.

In Greece the Delphic year,—that of the Pythos,—began with the summer solstice; that of the Boeotians with the winter solstice as the cattle pastures; the year of the Dorians of Sparta, the spearman, at the Autumn equinox; while some cities, only twenty miles apart, had totally different calendars and eras.

NOW IF YOU HAVE ALL THESE DIFFERENT PARTS STILL LIVING WITHIN YOU AND NOT NOW BECOME RE-BORN, YOU CAN UNDERSTAND WHY AT CERTAIN STAGES YOU SUDDENLY FIND YOURSELF IN CHAOS.

Once this knowledge can become conveyed to man in its intrinsic value, the very crux of creation will be divulged and give man the material whereby to begin his investigation into those matters that are, at the present moment, causing him much concern. For all has come forth from past creations; but of course, if he cannot accept that, then he is lost to any possible state of rebirth.

Interlatory System of the Universe

IN mythology when a calendar system was completely abolished, as would be the case of the substitution of the solar years for the lunar, it was called the destruction of the race of mortals. (Now think how this applies to you when you have to make a change-over).

In Egypt there was a destruction of Mankind at the command of Ra, followed by a new creation of Atum-Ra. In Greece there was a deluge and a re-peopleing of the world; but always it is resented, for it brings what is a state of excess for the time being; all swelling into re-birth, with the death angel passing over-head and marking the sign-posts.

When you are being taught how to bring a new birth to yourself, how much you resent it; you not only bring chaos to yourself, you bring chaos to others, and very often destroy others because you refuse to accept. Accept blindly, and search it out within yourself: seek into it.

The actual appearance of Zeus to bring expansion to man as he knows it now, coincides with the entrance of the spring equinox into Taurus some little time before 4,000 B.C.; if time is correct 4,510, for with the zodiacal circle divided into twelve equal signs, the equinox will pass through in 2,160 years. So if the first point of Aries, and just passing into Pisces took place in 290 B.C., it would have begun to leave Gemini for Taurus about 4,600 B.C.; for there is always an orb of passing.

Whatever date the calendar system goes back to is spoken of as the Birth of Creation. In Babylonia the zodiac system began with the Bull; therefore was associated with the Stone of Foundation, while Scorpio was seen as the Facing Foundation: (and that is why Scorpio and Taurus are so important, they being a part of the creative principle).

But we have to see the Bull as being indefinite, for it would be 2,160 years in passing the equinoctial point. Then we have to ask ourselves, whereabouts in the Bull sign was that point; that is, the beginning of the spring? The date 4,000 B.C. is given with curious accuracy by an Assyrian standard in which the Archer, not the Scorpion, is opposed to the Bull by the partial overlapping of the constellatory figures. That is to say, the autumnal equinox was only just about to enter Scorpio, and therefore the vernal equinox had scarcely entered Taurus.

The magnetic field had never really been started at all, and when it was started it was only as desire and generation in the lower. If you can only start it in generation on the higher, look what you can bring forth out of that raw fire and the ancient past!

What was taken at the time of the Bull by any of you is lying within you now waiting to come forth in the Scorpionic raw fire being captured and mastered. When you can capture those fires so that you can bring a unity, you are going to bring forth from the ancient states all those states that were never pushed forward, the great wealth of Taurus.

Now I want you to take Aries as the beginning of the Chart: when you go into Taurus it becomes only indefinite because it has not gathered up any of the pointers. It takes the first volley from Aries, so it is completely blank. Aries has to push it along by its horns right around the Chart to Scorpio: that is why he is indefinite, that is why he has to do the pushing, and why he has to do the labouring.

EVERYBODY HAS THE BULL WITHIN THEIR CHART; EVERYBODY HAS TO PUSH IT AROUND THEIR CHART.

This may not appear much to the layman; in fact it hasn't; consequently the art of bringing life to the world by understanding the seasons has gone, and man lives entirely upon his daily actions that bear no fruit. Unless Mother Nature as the Goddess of Life has plenty, man also is in poverty. Unless the equinoxes are richly endowed as sowing and reaping, there is a bleak winter.

In an equinox the magnetism from one constellation to another is most important and brings the fulness of creation as is required by man; thus as he gives in that direction himself so he gives to Mother Nature and receives accordingly in the following periods.

ICARUS

THE unification prepared by Daedalus, was only of his irresponsible thoughts. If precision had been given, he would have been aware of the truth, for Pibeseth and Aven lie in his foundation of rise, and deluge was the sorrow of his fulfillment. (See text in col. 4).

Perhaps by this you will be able to see the wisdom of the ancients and the ignorance of the moderns, and the reason why they are now barren of answers to their problems. All they are sending forth they are receiving back as black rays from the black spots on the Solar Face; for if man's whole thoughts are in desire, all that Scorpio can receive is the negative state of itself and is not empowered or inspired to send back anything of a superior nature. That is quite logical in a simple way, and encompasses far more than that.

BUT IF MAN WILL NOT ACCEPT THE INTERLATORY SYSTEM OF THE UNIVERSE WITH HIS OWN STATE OF GROWTH, THEN ALL THIS WILL BE POWERLESS TO HELP HIM.

The Spring of Time

IF the Hindoos of both ancient and modern times, and the Persians, have always associated the sign of the Bull with the origin of Time, it will not come amiss for you to follow their reasoning in that direction. And what is more fantastic, it has been the primitive tradition of the North to agree with the rest of the world with regard to the origin of the time being as the beginning of spring.

After all, it does not matter to them providing you let them know, and remain consecutive in that direction. But many poets supposed the spring to have immediately followed the creation of the world, and Virgil in particular said that it was the constellation of the White Bull with the golden horns that opens the year; the horns on the side towards the twins (driving towards the spring).

If some thought is given to this, much can be explained that at the present moment is taken for granted. Man knows the spring and takes it for granted, but why? How did it come about? Who made it such, and why? Somebody must have organised, and for some reason; for why not the has become far removed from the constellation Aries. But they still are able to send the Powers down to man when man concentrates and believes in these points, which he can draw from.

Aries directs the six below and Libra directs the six above. Those two are moving in conjunction, and when you labour and wrestle with that below, then She will wrestle and labour with that above, because She will be the means of rising out of the waters, and it will be the risen emotions.

Therefore if we accept the date of 290 B.C. as the year when the equinox passed out of the Ram into the Fishes, we would be in 2,450 B.C. for the passage of the equinox out of the Bull into the Ram, we would have passage out of the Twins into the Bull in 4,510 B.C.; it could be said that this approximately was the "Birthday of the World."

So you must continually ever bring forth from the Birth of the World, which is the spring; and if you can collect those fiery heights in the spring, then you can go through your year with the Bull pushing the power through on those signs daily, bringing the power into the heights to collect at the Sothic Cycle, when the birth can be made in December.

IF YOU DO NOT PUSH THAT POWER ROUND THE CIRCLE IN A CREATIVE WAY, YOU WILL NEVER COLLECT THAT POWER AT THE BIRTHDAY OF THE CHRIST CREATION.

Now man has gone on like that and he wonders now why he is a derelict creature, or a soul raging with power; why his body is diseased; why there are creations in the world that are seeking to destroy the world. Why? Because he has now been gathering up these Powers over the ages.

If you are one that suddenly sees the real truth in this, begin at once to collect your interlatory points, begin to seek into the knowledge and as to what lies in these pointers for you to draw upon. When you can see that, then you will draw down the points.

You may ask how it must be regarded as that of the establishment of a calendar, and how was a definite step in human progress performed? The astronomer-priests had been wrestling for some time as to how to measure time so that men could play their part more accurately over these matters: so having at last determined to establish a year of twelve months in accordance with the twelve Hierarchical Lords, which was to be reckoned by the sun, they would begin by the equinoxes and devise a zodiac of twelve signs.

Thus they made the first sign to begin at the equinox and they chose the Bull and the Twins, a mind sign, to be the symbols of the two signs right and left of it. Of course, what you have to fully understand is the fact that the stars are not what they are represented as. The stars of Cancer do not resemble a Crab, but the influence when handed to man can, in its negative influence, produce crab-like tendencies; and since man has brought all down to the very basic, these influences have prevailed and ancients have not been wanting in their prophetic revelations.

The months have come into adoption by the Sun and Moon bringing forth these creatures within the soul; and will explain why Uranus, lightning life, was made King of the Atlanteans and ancestor of Sun and Moon.

latter part of the year when the autumn equinox is due?

With the Bull at one of the four quarter points, you will find the Lion, Scorpio and the Waterman at the others. The Lion always being sacred to the Sun, he not only astrologically adjoins the summer solstice, but holds the royalty at the Leo Equinox of the Golden Age; and is a reminiscence of the ancient zodiac between the horns of the Bull through the mouth of the Lion and to pass by the Scorpion.

The result melted the wings of the Waterman, and he crashed down into the earth. (See plate on this page)

Of this we will bring another time for it links with the occasion of Pibeseth and Aven, those rich in springs; then another deluge began when Aphrodite, the risen Venus, became the Mistress of the World.

Authorities are not able to tell with precision when the vernal equinox entered Taurus, because they declare there is no representation of the zodiacal figures of the time and the constellations having been altered.

Although the ecliptic circle, the sun's path of 360 degrees, is divided into twelve equal parts of 30 degrees and is called the signs of the Zodiac, the signs, although they have the names of Aries, Taurus and Gemini, do not now coincide with those constellations, neither do the constellations each cover exactly 30 degrees of the circle.

But the spring equinox is now the First point of Aries, and as the equinoctial point is always moving, the sign Aries

Readers' Letters

WE have received a great many letters concerning the 'S.U.P.H. Supporters Club,' as mentioned in the last month's Readers Letters columns. Unfortunately, owing to the lack of space, we are able to only publish a few, but next month Mrs. Spearman-Cook will be making comment upon this subject, in her Reminiscence.

An Eternal Fountain of Wisdom

Mr. S. Ogorzalek,
California, U.S.A.

The Gazette opens up a magnificent world for mankind. Thank you for sharing with us your astounding experiences in the Unseen World. The breadth and scope of the teachings of the School is marvellous. The ideas pour forth like from an eternal fountain. Your direct involvement with the problems of today deserves many plaudits!

Mr. Douglas Chesterman,
East Barnet, Herts.

The idea of a S.U.P.H. Supporters Club is a great idea that cannot be pushed aside by those who are genuine to a heart-purpose of this Great Work that S.U.P.H. stands for. Let all be more active than one's best, and support the School in more ways than one. I too would like to donate a sum of ten shillings per week, plus or minus, depending upon circumstances.

Mrs. Alice Fisher,
Bristol, England.

Please count me amongst your most enthusiastic supporters of the suggestion made by Mr. Cyril King, re the 'SUPH Supporters Club.' I enclose the postal order towards this, with all my love and gratitude to you all.

Mrs. L. Puddy,
Walton-on-Thames, Surrey.

In response to Mr. King's letter, it has long been a concern to me, just how the School managed to keep such a high standard, with such little voluntary help. That you find yourself in this position while doing God's Work, fills me with dismay. But one must realise that all things have to be paid for, while we are in this earthy state, so after much thought I came to the conclusion that it may well be necessary to form some sort of voluntary subscription fund. But please do not call it a Club! Perhaps the Guardians of SUPH, or anything that will suggest to the mind an exhilarating thought. I am therefore enclosing £2 as our first subscription towards this, and we pray for its spiritual success.

Mrs. Marion Smith,
Bute, Scotland.

At last you are considering some form of Membership! You will recall I asked about this some two years ago. I presume the Lord of The Flame will choose the name, which therefore would be in glorification to the Temple. I am busy getting out my O.G.'s to all parts of the world; can you imagine my happiness at being a part of you all? Merope, do you know how I feel as I read your wonderful news in Dec. O.G., I feel as if I have been invited to the most wonderful Christmas

Goodbye Scepticism!

Mr. J. Biggs, London, E.C.4.

I WAS a sceptic with an interest and thus had an open mind to the wonders of your occult. My open mind in association with one of your members has now literally 'opened my mind' and disregarded scepticism completely owing to the following phenomenon.

Briefly, a 12 years old girl (whom I had never seen before) had been what is termed as a psychological asthmatic sufferer since the age of approximately 4 years old. Practically all her life has been spent in hospitals owing to the seriousness of the illness when attacks of asthmatic bouts occurred. She is now completely cured.

I am not a member of your cult, but have a great interest in your methods and beliefs. Through discussion with one of your members I believe the above phenomenon was made possible. I merely happened to be in discussion with the child's parents about their daughter's illness.

Through the conversation, I had the sudden wish to have the child cured. I thought of the 'Sun sign' through your associate member and then mentioned to the child's parents that I considered that she would be cured and that I would like to see her. I thought no further of the matter until my next visit. On my next visit I was confronted with the cured child. She had been discharged from the Hospital owing to her recovery.

Believe me, I was amazed. I had no part in the cure and only detail this event that your member be given due recognition. I don't want to know how it happened or why, the cure itself is the only reward I recognise.

strength to the whole of the body, for as the spinal activity revolves, causing the Kundalini Fire to race to the heights, will man find himself elevated onto a higher Plane of understanding.

These three herbs, when consumed with a liberal supply of lemon juice, are going to bring a cleansing fluidity to the seminal fluid, which is going to afford tremendous help to man as he struggles to keep the Holy Fiery Force up in his heights. Whereby through his will and determination towards Divinity he too can become of such.

Then with a cleansed mind outlook, can he become freed from earth-fired states and truly by his uprisen thoughts, become a Virgin Orion Warrior living on the Virgin Mind Plane.

JUNIPER Berries can also be of an extremely satisfying calorific value in the true sense of the word, which will be of wonderful assistance to all who are making a drastic attempt to force themselves upon a much more refined diet, through a super-driving will.

As the down-pouring Theocratic Powers demand their Cosmic dues, will there be a complete change of man-made ideas, with the installed Laws of Theocratic Consciousness sowing their Virgin thoughts into man's Norm wealth, to bring him once more Face to FACE with his Divine Maker.

WHEN the pregnant mother has delivered of her pride and joy, and has managed to recuperate from the effects of her struggle, and if she is sensible enough to feed her child from the breast, she will discover that by her taking of the Juniper Berries during that period, and with the addition of the celery plant taken raw, or as a cooked food, a much easier period of teething can be afforded to the baby.

For the Violet Rays will be able to strengthen its teeth, and fill his bones with that frequency, and as his teeth are created out of his bones, and by the mother fully adopting the herbs, will she be able to foster a remarkable child prodigy. This of course is possible if the mother also can become of her child's simplicity, by centering her mind upon the higher path of the Virgin Mind Plane, and being within the warmth of the Master's fervent Divine compassion.

As we now come to the final closing, Juniper Berries were once grown in the beautiful Palace gardens, where the princess would daily stroll amongst the magnificent peacocks, treading her thoughts and romantic flights of fancy, unto the tall stately King, the unknown stranger she had never seen.

As Merope did this then, so is she doing it now, amongst the earthy man of today. But her mind stays even more DIVINE-like now than it did then, and she dances in ONE ascending accord with HIM, for the benefit of The Holy DIVINITY.

Next month we are going to seek into the future cures of John's Wort (St) and extract the new remedies that it can now offer to mankind through the changing Laws.

NOW that is going to be quite enough for you to study and try and get some understanding, for it can hand to you the key of time, the key as to why you should do these things; and give you some inkling as to why you should now try and seek very deeply into the Myths as they come forward. Get the Beginning established into your belief.

If you can perceive and get an idea, see these points, then you will begin to thirst for the rest. But if you cannot accept, if you cannot see the purpose, then you will never thirst at all; it will leave you blank.

It is entirely up to the initiate: it will not be a case of you saying, "Ra-Men-Ra says so." It is a case of you accepting, or not; and as the disciple, driving on as the Bull, labouring and creating, and bringing into birth real wisdom and real creative powers through your own creative measures.

I WANT YOU TO GET SOME RECOGNITION OF YOUR OWN, SOME THOUGHT; OTHERWISE YOU WILL MERELY RELY UPON ME CONTINUALLY BRINGING AN ANSWER.

I AM TRYING TO HELP YOU TO GET SOME MIND MOVEMENT, AND I WANT EACH ONE OF YOU TO TRY AND STRUGGLE TO BRING SOME THOUGHT,

SOME CREATIVE EFFORT ON YOUR PART; AND AS YOU ARE ABLE TO BRING THIS, THEN WE SHALL BE ABLE TO UNITE AND CREATE A GREATER DANCING AS TIME GOES ON.

I AM SEEKING TO WAKE UP THE ANCIENT STATES WITHIN YOU; I AM SEEKING TO WAKE UP YOUR MIND; BUT WHILE I DO IT FOR YOU, YOU WILL MAKE NO EFFORT.

WE now call upon the Great Ones, as the New Word was earthed and the New Effort brought unto Thy children, to bring the New Birth upon the earth by a new understanding; a new thought that goes forward. A New Creation is born and man becomes born from his old lethargic depths into a new thought, whereby the earth can be stirred; and in stirring the earth, New Life will once again rise from the depths.

POUR down Thy Blessing upon the struggling soul; pour down Thy Elixir that his veins can be stirred into New Life; bring his enthusiasm and his desires rising up from the depths, that the spirit can be brought forth,—the spirit lost in the meshes of time. Help him to yearn for New Life to be with him; and as he does so, may the whole of his being be stirred into life.
THY BLESSING UPON THE NEW WORD.
AMEN.

Astrological Delineations

MRS. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

Price in England and abroad £7.7.0.

Price in U.S.A. and Canada $25.00.

IMPORTANT. Please note that all delineations will be by Tape Recording only on 5½" reels track one or 4" reels track 1 and 2 at 3½ in/sec.

GREAT DIVINE ONE

WE call Thy Blessing down upon these souls that are seeking for help and guidance, that they will awaken to the Divine Truth, and see the Beauty and the Wonders of Divinity. Amen.

Mr. J. H. E., Ohio, U.S.A.

"Is 23 years old, and suffered a bad car crash recently, where the steering wheel smashed into his face and crushed it beyond recognition. He cannot see, his face is wired together, but he does not complain, he has the toughest old nurses in tears. The only change in him mentally, is that he has a deeper concern for others, urging them to be careful when they go home. His courage, patience, and gratitude for living, show the great possibilities that are usually buried in most human beings. I know this soul has taken this on for some special reason."

THE delineation of this chart (1511) is extremely difficult and complicated, for it seems that this soul's karmic pile-up goes back a long way. This accident would not have happened if the soul had been able to overcome his inner past states of heritage, but he had not, and had a very severe lesson to learn.

To begin with, his surname links strongly with the Hebrews, and I feel strongly that he has some karmic linking with the sons of Eli, who defiled the FACE of the Holy Glory. For the whole of the chart indicates that this soul was a priest who touched the Source, but fouled the FACE by misrepresentation, and through the channel of debauchery. Thus when his Moon passed over the Dragon's Head in the 9th house, it released his karmic commitment, and this dreadful accident took place.

We must realise that it is not just this life that we are made up of, and that it is our inner unseen traits that are our major difficulties.

Having the Sun and Mercury in Aries, which rules the head, shows quite clearly why it was his face that received all the damage. Unfortunately this soul had made no reparation all through the ages of his errors, and even added unto, for I am strongly drawn to the Spanish Inquisition, where Roman Catholicism ruled. I am afraid that with Jupiter retrograde in the house of the Spirit in Virgo, the narrow-mindedness of that cult played a very strong part with him.

There is no doubt that this was a major incarnation, for the soul had come back to balance up the Neptunian wealth that he had taken on the way down in creation, but violated when it came to expounding of its truths. Pluto retrograde in the house of Service, the 10th house in Leo, again indicates some royal bearing in the past, in the early stages of civilisation. Venus retrograde, in the 7th house, in Taurus, would not augur well for any state of marriage, for this soul was emphatically bound to celibacy by the strict vows he had taken through those different incidents down the ages.

Neptune in the 12th house, and Uranus in the 8th, indicates strongly of how these two holy Elements were badly ravaged, and would have been at the period of the glories of Troy, when they left their wonders with the unfolding Race. That which man has never had the courage to touch until Merope swept all up to the Central Sun, and unified man once again with his Divine Fatherhood.

So by this chart it is naturally seen that the karma of this soul goes right back to those early occasions, with Mars in Pisces in the 5th house, indicating that the soul had made no effort to stir his will into warriorship, to unfold the new ideas, which his Sun in Aries shows he had come back to do.

He was merely taking untold knowledge, which was only expounding itself in intellectualism, as seen by the Dragon's Tail in Capricorn, in the house of the mind.

As I said in the beginning, it is a chart of massive complications, including the extreme heights to which the soul at some time or another had ascended to. The wisest advice I can offer to this soul is that they get down to the study of the word of Universal Philosophy, and start putting it into practice.

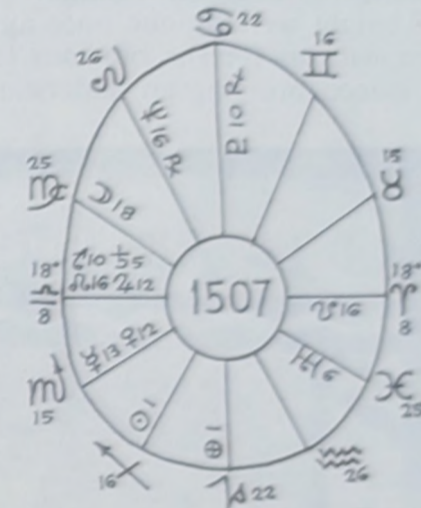

Here is where the parents of this soul will be called upon to make sacrifices in order to help him accomplish this, but do remember that though he may be badly restricted, he will be helped, for no one is left wanting at the last.

He must spin his mind up as high as he can, and live up in the heights with the Divinities, then through the wisdom he has taken he could find himself speaking with the Voice of God. But whatever he does, he must keep away from any form of religion, as it will never carry him up to the heights that are essential for him to find the expansion he requires.

Mrs. M. B., Edgware, Middx.

"Suffers with nerves, and is worried over lack of unfoldment."

IN looking into this chart (1507) we immediately see that the major point to be grappled with is the Libra on the Ascendant, with three planets in it in the 12th house. This soul has come back to find balance, and to unify all the multiplicity of knowledge that she has accrued.

Her Neptune in Leo in the 10th house, linked with her planets in Libra and Scorpio, shows that at some time in the past she reached up to the very heights, and made a big effort to unify all into a oneness, but her will of purpose was not strong enough to enable her to hold the powers that she took unto herself, and all collapsed into a million pieces. This is verified by Pluto in the 9th house, which should be manifesting the Christos Glory of Solar unity, but is instead only breeding confusion in its place.

This soul made the fatal mistake, as do the vast majority of people, of building up the personality, the conscious mind, as the important creation, instead of letting Divinity overshadow, and become her ruling factor; thus Cain took precedence over Abel, and the mundane desires of life became the uppermost creation of the mind.

The Moon in Virgo in the 11th house, shows where the royalty of the soul has dropped into personal states, fixed in a mire of self-knowledge, and self-appreciation, instead of breaking free into the abstract world of mind unfoldment. The soul, in only seeking for the reflection, that of her personal unfoldment, is only wallowing in old ideas, eating up all the knowledge to be found, but never turning it into wisdom, whereby it radiates as the Solar Light of divine unification.

So many fall into this trap, imagining that it is they who are the important creations in life, never seeing that they are but the pawns on the chessboard of life, who must be prepared to be moved hither and thither, as the Spirit directs, that the Great Divinity can rule supreme in His Kingdom of Light.

We are but divine sparks, atoms sent forth into the depths of being, that we could bring Light to those uncreated spheres. But surely we are not so blind as to imagine that we, through our own narrow personal consciousness, alone and without assistance, could bring Light to the Cosmos.

Of course not, what in fact should have happened was that as we entered into those negative Planes—for as yet they had no creation—we should have assumed and maintained a positive outlook and divine belief in the purpose of our journey, that Divinity could have used our internal atomic structure to manifest through. Thus He could have perceived the negative polarity of His Being, without ever having to experience of its conditions, and in that perception He would have Fired the depths into divine alchemicalisation of rebirth.

Thus we as the atoms, would merely have been the transformers for this action; never at any time building up our own individual consciousness, but ever being reborn of Light through the Divine interpenetration and embodiment.

The only answer to this problem is the earnest study and application of Universal Philosophy, whereby the soul's whole mind is centred upon the cosmic unfoldment of the Solar Divinity. In this way can this soul, and all souls, climb that golden ladder back unto the Central Sun, the Divine Source of their first becoming.

NEW WORLD PROTOTYPE

A... That is quite true, but what Merope is now revealing in these Teachings are the Teachings of the Pyramid.

But man, through his lack of knowledge and his lack of sensitivity, has confused the Dynasties, the dates and the periods. They are not aware of what they are saying; they are only imagining what they know.

Q... In the same way as the scientists are imagining the stars are so many light years away?

A... That is quite true. There is nothing outside the earth, everything is within the earth, all is within the maelstrom, and in the mind of man; all is created in the density of matter. This is where a refraction of Light, in coming to the Earth, had to be broken up and then unified.

But so many of you have taken this Wisdom in abundance over the Ages; not just in this life. This life is the culmination, as I have already told you. So you have before you a great mountain of sand.

Merope is very fond of quoting from The Walrus and the Carpenter about the seven maids with seven mops, and they decided in the end that it was impossible to clear the sand away. And the poor carpenter, who should be creating a new temple, has to sit down and cry; and the walrus, who is the cause of it all, also cries; after they had eaten up the oysters.

But I am afraid the Fire is going to drive everybody after Christmas. Lesath is going to be very very penetrating.

Q... Well, Master, if one recognises this,—and I think all of us in here do,—and we try to embrace the Fire, will this not aid us in our changing?

A... Of course it will. What would have happened to Merope if she had not done so? The point is, in embracing it. If you shun it, if you avoid it, you are only going to build up difficulties for yourselves, because you jam a door, and you are going to have an awful time trying to prise open that door. The thing is, to get the kundalini fire up to the heights, so that it pierces open your Norm; and you will only do that through the Wisdom. If you do not get your kundalini fire raised up, you are not fertilised; you are a dead soul, a dead shell.

This is why we have been giving you this Wisdom of a very high altitude, a very high vibration, so as to raise your mind up and raise up your kundalini fire. That is the idea; piercing the Norm so that your Void, your Arc, your Aura, then begins to become impregnated with the Wisdom, and you go on changing. That is the idea of the first Lecture in the Occult Gazette, and the Lectures we are giving you here.

Merope is going to bring a great deal more yet to help you, because you have got to meet the 'changes' in the New Year, and I am afraid the years 1969 and 1970 are going to be very very difficult years!

The Saga of Time

Mythology Part 2

ATUM-RA

by Gladys I.
Spearman-CookDelivered at the S.U.P.H on 1st July, 1962 by Ra-Men-Ra

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you and I seek once again to bring the Word in its entire depth, that we can earth the New Word and so bring New Life to mankind.

By fathoming into the depths of Mythology we are bringing into birth the many idiosyncrasies that are now buried within the soul, for it links with those many stories that have been written about mankind as he sought to fight his way through life. They had within them those many difficulties that have been handed down to posterity, but man has merely looked upon them as classics, and nothing to give a serious thought unto. It is in these that man will find the answer to his own growth; for the soul today is the soul of the past: the soul today is the one that has been labouring through the ages: and when it is accepted and realised that within that soul is the whole of Time, then you will know that it can only be back over time that you will find the answer to your problems. When they are united and brought unto a modern phase of understanding, then they become the way of the future; they become the answer: you are able to solve those difficulties that are causing the sickness of the body, the psychological difficulties, the impediments. Put them into order and you will find the way to going forward; but it will not be quite so easy as that, because there are many roots that have now become interlocked; ways that have become reborn into a form of weave; chaff that must be torn away.

So now you must begin to weed and winnow; but by understanding, much can be solved; many states with you can be dissolved into the soul. Whereas at the moment they are giants, enormous difficulties, they can with wisdom be overcome, but only by wisdom; for that will be the mortuary meal, the food that will give unto these states an inborn creation. So now, where man is alive with many personalities, he can become the one, the Buddhic plane of enlightenment, the soul born of all time, enduring all time, and perceiving the creation of all time. Tonight we continue once again, and we look into the wisdom of ATUM-RA, Time and Beginning. To those of you who have not been with us for the previous lecture, you may find this a little distracting, but we cannot go back over such a vast creation, for we are indeed bringing an understanding to the whole world. Try to follow and I will do all I can to help you.

The Mystery Plate

A DRAWING was then shown of a view from afar of the earth's horizon. Sailing upon the dark waters below is a boat. From the earth there appears to be issuing forth magnetic auric vibrations, while high above are seen brilliant stars shining from a dense black sky. Dominating the entire plate is an enormous figure of a woman seen stretched over the whole earth, a faint aura radiating from her hands as she stretches them forth as though showering blessings upon the dense matter beneath her.

The mystery plate tonight brings you the understanding of the vast heavenly creation that during time, as descent, has descended down into matter, giving Life to the ship of life. It is the great starry heights that man now is transforming into the Solar; bringing the Solar Fire into birth. Once upon a time he only lived under the stellar, and then it was transformed into the lunar.

Man is still under the lunar, merely the magnetic fire; now he is trying to transform it into the Solar, where it becomes the electro-magnetic fire, the plane of the Spiritual forces, powers that will lift him up onto the Spiritual planes. This is what you are seeking to do; you are seeking to interblend, and by bringing forth a creative idea, that is the Solar light interblended, not merely repetition.

Repetition is only lunar, and by getting expansion, by getting an understanding of new birth, —a new idea of what has been, —that is the Solar. And if you have that in your mind you will literally know what it means. To do this you bring forth the rising fires, the rising light from the earth, with the earth slowly becoming re-born, re-charged; and so it is with the soul. It is of this I am trying to help you, to give you understanding. So now give me all the love you have and we will now try to do what we can to give you a new thought.

The Evolutionary March

BEFORE we go on with the individual stories of the Myths it would be well to try and get a full understanding of how creation was formed out of Chaos; thus it can explain many things that are now with man in his evolutionary march, especially where initiation is taking place.

The first thing that had to be established to bring any sort of order or balance was the matter of the Calendar. This measured time and denoted the pointers: months were measured to the extent that the years were counted; but man knew where he was regarding the elements, and how and when to ply his will and purpose to extract

FIRING THE SEED

AS Venus grasped the Bull's horns, she was swung up into the glories of the heavens. Turning from the darkness into light, and being embraced by the glory of the Eternal Being in the magnitude of the Solar embracement. For that which had been, went down to the depths to be buried in with sacrificial ritual. (See text on page 13, col. 2).

from those gathering forces their mighty strength.

You have a Calendar; you just follow it day by day, but you do not realise that once upon a time there was no Calendar: man merely lived; he did not know what the time was; but he formed that Calendar by understanding, by the knowledge of the Gods that were pouring their Fire down upon the earth; the knowledge of the Gods that were giving unto the soul strength, giving them their Fire.

Well, since then it has ever remained the same: those Fires are still descending. The wise soul learns about those Fires and those pointers, and learns to draw them in. At the present moment religion has taken them up, given them saint days, and in some cases changed them, consequently throwing out the Calendar.

The true Christmas Day, as I have brought to you before, is the midnight of the 21st of December, when Virgo meets the Lord, the great Solar Light: she becomes embraced and impregnated, and every four years she brings forth a birth, which of course is a Sothic Cycle.

THE WISE SOUL WOULD BE PREPARED TO ALSO MAKE A BIRTH ON THE 21st OF DECEMBER, BY THOUGHT AND DEED DRAWING IN THOSE FIRES THAT WILL POUR DOWN TO THE EARTH.

Religion altered this, and placed a soul upon a wooden cross: this destroyed their measure, but still gave the Myths the power to live. If you can give those Myths re-birth, then you will be able to draw down those Fires into your being, because once again you will be in harmony with the Gods and the Law; for they are the Law.

Chaos of all things was the first to be produced, but also represents the passage of Mythology out of chaotic space into time, the various creations being identical with the establishments of the circles and cycles of time.

The Great Bear is personified as the mother of time: her first son was Kronos the Dragon or Lesser Bear who represents the child of the genetrix in time. Then to make this more clear let us perceive the vague heaven being the Water above, which in creation became separated from the waters below.

So it can be seen quite clearly that Uranus is the Egyptian Urnas, the celestial water that flowed through all the planes into the Nile as the Eridanus; and the cutting of Uranus by Kronos or time is another expression of separating the heaven from earth, both in the Cosmos and man in the Fall. It was also the mode of separating the light from darkness in all stages of existence.
