THE VIRGIN PLANE

The Birth of Vega

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HE WHOLE WORLD WAS alight with beauty and glory, for Divinity was now walking amongst men. Through Merope raising all up to the Virgin Plane, they had become as gods once again. All it required was their consciousness to awaken, and recognise the glory that was with them. Thus Merope looked on in utter amazement, as she became aware that she was teaching both Divinity and men. He having come down from His mighty abode up in those Heavenly mountains. Snowclad and white, where all resides in Mighty magnitude and Glory. But now had come down to the depths of Londinium, as that portrayed by the FACE of Merope, that the Glory of Vega could begin. That Heavenly wonders and raptures of LIGHT, should begin to spread their beauty everywhere.

Glory of the Divine Spirit

LOVE is the pass-key to this divine inter-union, where the soul awakens to its mighty wonders, and one and all can start afresh and walk out boldly onto the Universal MIND PLANE of LIGHT. That they could become Orion-born and envelop the magnitude of Divinity. That new and mighty Truths can unfold their glories to one and all, enwrapping them in the magnitude of the Spirit. That Divine revelation could duly unfold, and Divinity and man become ONE, with the whole of the World changing from lunar to Solar, and the Central Sun becoming more duly impregnated to take up its abode forever. For as that mighty ONE and Earth united, in unfolding LIGHT, would all slowly change into its intended purpose, the Glory of Holy Divinity. Thus it was upon this mighty Plane, equal in beauty to that of Paradise, that every soul could tread of its wealth by the virtue of conscious awareness. Only by the conscious mind awakening and accepting such mighty wonders, that now appeared clear and precise, would the soul find the desire to express and live them in expansion of belief. It was through everything being in multiplicity within them, that nothing was consciously understood. By blending all up and bringing to a state of oneness, all

THE VIRGIN PLANE

As the Solar glory rose high in the heavens, man became born of divinity. For that mighty Unseen was now penetrating the depths through the wonders of His solar-born son. Thus bringing the Sea of Divine Consciousness to the mighty world of Rhythm and Light. Heaven and earth united in divine altruistic glory, the world of golden Light. (See text page 3, col. 1).

The Earthing of the Stream of Solar Fire

(At the end of the lecture of Wednesday, January 15th, 1969, Merope on returning from trance, gave over of the following experience):

I HAD such an odd experience whilst I was out of the body, because I have to take charge of the body whilst the MASTER works. An enormous shaft of Light came down, as it were, from the Great Unseen, and went right through where we call our fontanelle, right the way down through my body, right down to the lower part. And for the moment though He was going on working,—it's odd, I can't explain it—but it seemed as though the whole of the body was blanked out. I knew that the DIVINE ELECTRIFIED STREAM, that everybody is after, shot through me at that moment, and went right down through the fontanelle. It was the most odd experience and I am still feeling a bit sick with it. So the ELECTRIFIED RAY OF THE FIRE, which is going to flood the earth now with the ELECTRIFIED state,—you have been feeling it in the Hydroxyl Breath, but only just as a Degree of FIRE, or a FIERY state,—this now is the PURE STREAM OF HOLY FIRE now pouring to the earth, equal to what Merope drew down at the Beginning of Time, and will make itself manifest, I take it, in March (the Vernal Equinox). It was a very, very, odd experience, and I am still feeling extremely sick. I knew it was going to be earthed, for I have had a very bad fortnight, and I knew they were altering things to make sure that it was going to be properly earthed. It is going to FIRE the earth, and the earth is going to be regenerated. It will Fire man providing man can build the mind to receive it. But the most odd thing is, that in the last fortnight, while They were preparing for this, They were feeding the FIRE down a little bit at a time, and as They put another amount into my body, so They had to empty out the waters of the earth, and I have done nothing but pass water after water. It has been awful, I have had a dreadful time, but They had to get rid of the lunar waters, for as the SOLAR FIRE came down it had to drive out the lunar fire,—particularly as they (the scientists) were drawing down lunar states that had to be got rid of. I have experienced things during this last fortnight that have been amazing, as to what They have been doing to bring this SOLAR FIRE, THIS STREAM OF SOLAR FIRE into birth; and tonight it was earthed.

Editor's Comments:

THIS was indeed dynamic news, and makes one wonder just what Merope will bring into birth next! She has so become ONE with Divinity that she now speaks as the VOICE of the Holy Trinity, direct from the SOURCE. Thus Merope and the FIRE are ONE, and as she gave the FATHER and the SON their rightful status, she became the HOLY GHOST; she became the VIRGIN that gave them birth.

The trouble is that man is held so badly by false and distorted religious ideas, that he finds it difficult to realise that all these states are within himself, if he will but find the courage and belief to bring them forth. But man has not awakened yet; he is still in love with form, and is not aware of the Light. Gradually he will awaken, and it will dawn upon him that there is something greater in life for him to look up to, and not merely downwards into the bowels of the earth. As soon as a soul is able to absorb the Glories from the CENTRAL SUN, by turning his mind upwards, and building within his mind that of Divinity, then he will start to build up within himself of the mind flame, and it is essential to keep the flame of the mind ever alight, especially at this present time of change and rebirth. The soul who really turns to the FIRE of DIVINITY, and fills himself with the FIRE, will always be protected by IT, and no man will be able to touch him or break him down.

Over the Ages this has been the difficulty, man not bringing down the FIRE, because it is man who brings down the FIRE, although now Merope has found the way for woman to go up and draw the FIRE unto herself. But it is still necessary for man to be the manhood of the earth, and be the Bull that draws the FIRE down to the earth. During the Age of the Hebrews this was one of their great difficulties, not knowing how to draw down the FIRE, and being so overwhelmed by the FIRE brought down by certain Prophets that they were at a loss, and ran amok with it and used it unwisely.

This is why you hear of such stories as Ruth, Naomi, Hannah, and a number of others; they fought to save the race. All this is not just history, neither is it religion,—though a big attempt has been made to make it so,— but Real Teachings, if only you can extract the wealth from them. They were created at the time of Medo-Persia, and hold dynamic wealth if only you can understand them; and you will have to understand them, for the Bible has never yet been fulfilled, and is only now starting.

Genesis is the creation of the Mind; Exodus refers to those who have the courage to break away from old conventional states and go forward on the new path of Divinity. David is where the Seed of the Christ is fought for. Solomon, the son of the Sun, is told to establish it, but does not, and merely establishes a psychic Plane. Daniel later on builds up the Occultism, the Occult wealth. And then you come to the New Testament, where the Christ is to manifest within you, and you begin to see the real inner depths of Christhood. Then, when you can translate Revelations into its real dynamic Occult truth, you will have found the answer, and wonders of Life. But it is most important that you do realise that the Godhead is within you; that you are drawing down the FIRE from the Heights, and as the Alchemist, must broil it within yourself, and bring it to Light.

It should be every soul's task now, who understands anything of Occultism, to draw down the Solar Fire, and to look towards the Solar Ray, and to look to Divinity in that Solar Glory, because it is not a ball of gas as the scientists would have you believe, it is DIVINITY, it is INTELLIGENCIA, it is SUPREME LIGHT. You may not think so, but the world is as small as it is large, and since you are the whole of the Universe within yourself, look what you can do.

Merope knows this wisdom, and has applied it unto herself, becoming the Cosmic Scapegoat of the Age; thus the whole world has been reborn, and the Earth and Central Sun unified through her gallant struggles. Someday this world might spare a thought for she who has suffered so much to redeem its errors, for without a doubt, if Merope had not successfully accomplished her Task, the Central Sun would have spun away, back into Outer Space, and the Earth would have crashed back into the Abyss, into total disintegration and destruction. This has been averted, but just how many are prepared to acknowledge of its Saviour?

1969 RAFFLE

AFTER mentioning in the January issue of the Occult Gazette that another raffle was in the offing, we have since had some more pieces of jewellery sent to us, to add unto the prizes. Although we have no real idea as to the age or value of these items, they certainly are extremely attractive in appearance. The gentleman's wrist-watch does appear to be quite expensive, being Swiss made, seventeen jewelled, and anti-magnetic, while also acting as a built-in calendar, automatically showing the day of the month. Tickets will again be 2/6, or 50 cents, each, and the competition will be open until 10th April 1969. The draw will take place on 14th April 1969, and the names of the winners will be published in the May issue of the Occult Gazette.

becomes conscious through the point of clearness. Thus everything unified, that they can be awakened into the glory of the Spirit. Then the feminine mind can become the Virgin Mind, she who is now ever seeking for conscious points of truth, that the way can be made clear to one and all.

These now being points of Golden Glory, all brought to a Solar state of light, as the internal glory that creates the soul's garment of royal divinity. It could only be by this state of expansion that all becomes the World of Vega, the World of rhythm and light, where soul becomes aware of heavenly depths, and divinity is the objective of its altruistic purpose. Seeking now by internal clarity of the mighty purpose ahead. With Cosmic consciousness the unfolding reality, where only illusion had prevailed. For all the five earth elements are unified and the soul, in the sixth, turning to the Mighty Wonder of Outer World Space.

For the three higher Elements of Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, which all had shunned in fear, are now the means of the soul expanding and becoming, to the mighty intriguing perception of the Solar glory. Where this mighty mystery is now the Central Sun, the germinating factor of life. It being of such, that Divinity could now become the reigning glory, with the Universe becoming one World of Golden LIGHT.

Everything now becoming an impregnated glory, as a conscious creation of elevated belief, with the Breath from Outer World Space making it royal and REAL. While up till now, all had been as reflection, the five only an imprint in the Waters, now all can become complete. For by the last three, as a unified prototype of seven, fully incorporated by Merope, would conscious awareness then begin to grow, and Cinderella go forth and find the wonders of heaven. Soul seeking to expand out of its dexterity, trying to get back to its freedom of spirit, out of the captivity of form.

Thus Merope raising all back to the Plane of Divinity, where soul returned, yet equal in comparison to the god-like creature, as unto the ancient Pubes. For the Virgin Plane can only be effective when all is unified into divine oneness. Then everyone sees clearly for the first time, and seeks to create in a balanced way, seeking the road of heavenly light. For now it is the impregnation of FIRE, as the Atomic glory is unified. Thus Divinity and Glory, the manifesting wonder, the unfolding Royalty of LOVE. For the Virgin Plane is the Plane of Initiation, to awaken the soul to Divine Truths.

The conscious mind being a mind of personal states which was created in this reborn life, that a complete summing up of all lives could now become the glory of the mind. The mind that now is to go forth, as the cell or thinking capacity of Divinity, that HE can use such gathered glory, as the MIND for HIM to manifest through. Where soul can now embrace and create, and bring forth of its mighty wealth, or be ground-in as it fails to go forth, never having awakened to the glories of divine rebirth.

A status where the FIRE now began the glory of unfolding wonders. The impregnation of the internal "IT," by the wonder of the Breath, where Divinity and soul will be united in Holy embracement, and radiate His divinity everywhere. For all light is Divinity, the might and wonder of unseen Glory.

The soul to become a cell of the cosmic consciousness, whereby it will be the means of Divinity being heard. A mighty cell of the Cosmic Brain, that He can manifest His wonders. Expressing His might and Divine perfection in the Kingdom created in the depths. Yet here we see the wonders of the soul as it unfolds into the glory of Atomic purpose, the magnitude of His Divine Might.

Thus the Virgin Plane is the pure Plane of holy manifestation, where Divinity, the Internal Glory of All-Being, the Embryonic Creation of ALL-LIFE, feeds and resuscitates the Virgin born of LIGHT. By this and the gathering in of all atoms, will IT bring into birth ITS Divine Brain of Holy manifestation. The mighty unified World of Holy Divinity, the Divine Being in the Kingdom of Vega. A royal creation of Holy Beauty, brought into birth by Woman, who now has become of the mighty Fatherhood, where all are Pubes, the unified glory of Oneness.

Therefore every soul must now become as a soul of pure consciousness, that of driving action. The soul now becoming born of its conscious beliefs, thus striving to live and act by them. Treading all in and unfolding the perceived wonders, sending them forth as holy LIGHT. With all false fire to be driven out and pure FIRE to manifest, that it can become the channel of the heavenly Voice.

Thus all now is with man, as he stands upon the Virgin sward, but awaiting his consciousness to open up as his NIOSM blossoms into Virgin light. This is where Lesath now sets the prototype, as it drives the bull into action, stinging man into heavenly perception, awakening the sleeping Dragon. Hence Vega, the Land of LIGHT is the divine birth of consciousness, where all who are able to stand upon its Virgin "soil" are Pubes once again.

Birth of the Holy City

THUS Merope and Divinity became one in this blended glory, where all was begun to bring forth of this Mighty unification. With goats being weeded out from the sheep and man facing the mighty assembly of the Gods, as unto this grand Initiation. Here he knew the whole answer to life and where he stood in the role of accomplishment.

A truth known unto the Egyptians in their Poemandres Cosmogony, where they declared that the Spiritual Sun was the Divine Reason, the mighty Logos of God. Where the Cosmic Logos is not the sensible cosmos, but the Mind thereof, the glory of unfolding beauty. Where every soul would have to face the forty-nine Gods, and either go up to Osiris or be taken down into the depths by the devouring hippopotamus.

Therefore, since this was the beginning of the Human journey of the soul, that of the Golden Age, all men are wise to this mighty truth, and cannot deny its rigorous demands. Thus Merope was set to bring this unification into being, where all that had been, was now a mighty summing up, as to who would awaken on the Virgin Plane.

Here we see why the Ancient Pharaohs, mighty men of spiritual depths, sought to obtain their red and white crowns and carried the Crux Ansata. Preparing the way for the final emancipation, when all was set for the MIND. When "She of ten-thousand names" would bring all back to the Glory of Oneness, where Generation would become as Image of Essence in Matter, and become a copy of divine Being.

FREEDOM

MAN held by old conventionalities of the past, that are now being broken down by Merope. For as she rose up the Planes and brought his possibilities back to a god-like creation, she opened the way for him to become reborn when he awakened to the truth of his own internal reality. For now by the impregnation of Fire, the Atomic Glory is unified. (See page 3, col. 1).

Where divinity is the innate love of the First and most Holy of all things, and declares ever of the Glory of the FACE, the mighty Beauty of Being. Thus no man is blind, for he came from HIM and has been led and guided by HIM, but man ever perverse in his way of being, seeks only for the reflection in the waters. Thus lost the vision that would have kept him fortified, until Merope set the Plane of Virgin light, that he could seek for that heavenly glory, that leads him back to those realms of unified Divinity.

This being the birth of the Holy City, where Generation would become as Essence in Matter, the divine glory of man and spirit unified in perfected beauty. Where what the Atoms had been set to bring forth, would now be truly forthcoming. Where Divinity would be the Voice of every man, as the Holy FIRE rose up to the heights and manifested through his mind, as the Voice of Divinity.

A truth that man has to learn and realise to the very full of his being, or remain the subject of Saturn. Thus all the Planes are in man himself, even unto the octavial expansion. For only through man could anything phenomenal appear, the means of calcification.

All fall and rise are frequency of thought, all expansion a change from one state to another. Ever with the lower Chakras, the pawns on the chessboard of life. The lower three as the vagrants of action, to elevate up to king, queen and knave, yet ever changing the role to Warrior and Virgin, as the soul changes its attitude of mind. Thus the ever embracement of Embryo Genesis, unfolding the Evolution of LIFE.

As Merope sought deeper into this mystery, two intensely brilliant phosphorescent "cat's eyes" in pitch blackness appeared. Thereby she knew vice. This root cut off man from being directed by Divinity, and caused the commencement of "Worldliness." Thus caused the first "Fissure," the second being the Flood of multiple desire, the entry into that of the beast. No longer generation through "EVE," but through the "daughters of men," the negative states of the Pubes.

Thus all men were now down the labyrinth, with the poles widely separated and off-balance. So the work of Merope was to bring them back to 'true' once again, and build up a Virgin Plane equal to that which they had lost. This she did and set the way for all men to go forth under the direction of Divinity. For every soul was born of Theocracy, and guided now by the greater Powers stirring their mind into action. Hence the wise man would listen to this truth, and begin the way of investigation.

Therefore let us get out the land-rover and start a drive, where we will seek deeply into the way of unfolding. For now it is 'relativity' for every soul who will see the cause only by awareness: seeing, comprehending, and embracing of "why?" That which has been, and will be given its mortuary meal, for they will now be going over old growth, which must be cut down and uprooted, that greater and more productive growth can be planted. So must start gleaming, that greater understanding and comprehension will help the soul to be born anew.

The Cosmic Reality

HENCE the 'drive' is where activity will help the Fires to drive the internal issue and awaken the past wealth of ancient lives, where wealth born of soul's still spirit nature, will quicken and offer up of its intense heavenly glory. For now, and for Ages, man has been living only for materialism, pomp and power, and not for the glory of the spirit. The cunning and artificiality of material life; that born and intensified in the Piscean Era through man-made religion.

Now he must look for the golden key-hole, whereby the soul can, by finding Solar points, open up fresh doors to new ideas and beliefs. For by unifying the past with the present, he will be shown the way to these ivory doors of elevated wonder, that by Solar points gained through awareness, he will be able to open them up, and find the wealth from their dust and cobwebs of Ages.

THEN BY SEEKING DEEPLY INTO THESE DEPTHS, OLD AND CUMBERSOME STATES OF MAN WILL BE OBLITERATED AND THE WORD MELTED IN. THUS THE MORE MAN IS WILLING TO FOLD-IN OF OLD WEALTH, THE MORE WILL OLD WEALTH BE WILLING TO GIVE FORTH.

Now, it cannot be in a half-hearted way, but wholeheartedly to the full. For now this is the depth of the Mysteries and the major initiation of all life, where man must truly give up all magnetic states, and take on of the Solar gravity. Not give-up with one hand and hold-on with the other; if so, the soul will only foul its own mind. This now being of the MIND Plane, all actions must be of the MIND, and by the cunning of Solar interpenetration. Where Uranus sparks and drives hard, and drives the soul into action; thus by 'surgical' manipulation cuts away unnecessary truths to bring all to a state of oneness.

THE MORE POWERFUL THE EFFORT, WILL THE SOUL BY COMPARISON UNIFY WITH THE MAJOR POINTS OF THE SOUL, AND START GROWING THE INTERNAL GARMENTS OF LIGHT.

THIS CAN ONLY BE DONE BY MASTERING THE ELEMENTS OF OUTER WORLD SPACE, BRINGING THE GOLDEN POWER OF THE HEAVENS INTO BIRTH.

For now it is the Black Void, with the unfolding glory of golden light: all a matter of congested raw power, now bringing golden power of light into birth. This demands the masterhood of all states of self, no longer the old decree of money and position that gives one soul right over another. But by mind only and the unfolding of all darkness into light, thereby building up a stimulus of elevated mind belief, bringing about expansion.

The swinging up and down the Metric cycle of expansion, ever finding Octavial glory, bringing a state of unification. Thus, by linking all into unified oneness, will it bring untold strength, which can withstand all onslaught, giving the soul the cloak of invulnerability. Once this is fully comprehended by the conscious mind, which loses all states of fear, a strength will build up that will give this mind,—now the Virgin mind—the power to penetrate deeply into wealth never touched before. To build up belief and set it into action, even though it be in complete opposition to all set theories of life.

It is an important moment in life, where everything is ready for another radical change. Whereas cosmic relativity, now personal relativity, where only by the arrow piercing through all twelve states and gathering up internal glory through momentum, will the Word as the Solar consciousness, break down lunar creations, by bringing all to a golden point. Even breaking down established intelligence and replacing by new ideas completely out of the running of old beliefs, and sending back as Solar light to the Heights.

That which will be the means of intensifying the wisdom already established by Merope, as the Scapegoat, but unrecognised by man. For up to the present, man has been seeking to save himself by multiplicity, but by the Solar will he break through as a shaft of wisdom, finding that courage is now his strongest point. With such having been established, now the brave in heart will seek to master the Tiger Powers, that he can become truly Ariel-born. Thereby completely treading into the earth, wisdom of a dynamic nature.

The Virgin Consciousness

THIS will be a mighty move and one that the Virgin Plane will begin to blossom by, and the NORM start radiating of its mighty intensity. This is where the soul must begin to ionise Outer World Powers into the depths of the bloodstream. What Merope had set as the prototype, would every man now seek to emulate, and bring forth of a mind growth as demanded by the new action of life. For Merope, through the Breath, was bringing down all the Powers of the Heavens into density through the breath and Seed of man.

Thus man must master them and obtain his double crown; this being the Crux Ansata, the locked key of holy rebirth. For the NORM frequency now is virgin consciousness as accelerated blood-life, which brings the infinity into birth.

All being the first beginning of the new-born soul who awakens by consciousness, to the change being demanded of all. Then as this grows, to start polarising and climbing up the octaves, intensifying the depths of the initiation as he goes.

Then the soul begins to seek deeply into the manifestation of the Lamb, where every one shoulders their own responsibilities to the very full. "Eating" them up to find the Christos state as John the husbandman, or merely remains as John the piper's son.

By the Ariel rise and the dance of Le Ros, the soul will find in the actions of elevation, the REAL truth of life. By this they become duly fledged, and start the action of leading others; they begin to accept karma and growth in the light of themselves, and what they must expect in relativity. Although it is hard and laborious to take, it is fully accepted and worked out to the full.

But where in the past, all this would have been sufficient, now the Powers are atomic, and Fires and atomic interbirth are a part of the new initiation. With of course the mind to be balanced and wisdom adjusted on the right degree of reconstruction.

ONE OF THE MAJOR POINTS, IS THE SHUTTING OUT OF OLD EXPERIENCES FROM THE MIND, MAKING THEM YOUR STRENGTH OF REBIRTH. FOR THESE CAN GIVE YOU THE STRENGTH AND CONVICTION OF KNOWING, AGAINST THE SUPPOSITION OF THOSE WHO DO NOT KNOW.

But above all, awakening to the full light of the Seven Chakras and Planes, knowing that all has ever been and is built up in the abundance of those Seven. That it is the internal unification that really matters, and is the wealth that affects the outer body in its peace and comfort of daily life.

It is these that guide Lesath in his findings and direction, where the soul is concerned. For as a degree of assimilation is made, does Uranus strike and fire the harvest gathered. Then Lesath follows, and with his driving point of the sting, gives the soul renewed consciousness.

This is the alchemicalising point that reveals the truth. This is the edging and nagging condition that ever calls the soul back to attention. With the soul now taking on of the Virgin and starting the Virgin rise up the Thread of return. But if so, to become fully aware that the whole of life becomes a very serious matter.

For there is an intensity now that demands greater researching; all being a status of one mighty accumulated build-up, which is ever demanding more and more courage, but also conviction of truth. Whole-hearted belief is now necessary, for by taking wisdom that you do not return as light, you are chaining yourself to something that will demand, yea, ten-fold.

By giving and demanding nothing back, you in time become the Voice of the God-head of Creation, by the LOVE and compassion of giving. For Saturn is possession, giving is Solar Glory, the results of which every soul is seeking. But now born of greater expression and light, as each soul scales the ladder of ascension.

This now, is where all old religious phases and false beliefs drop away and true Wisdom takes its place. For whereas religions are of multiplicity, Universal Philosophy awareness being recognised and accepted. Again, this is where the soul discriminates between egoism and confidence, that the latter gives strength to the conviction.

For now, all is timelessness, and if growth is great from wealth of the past, all could bound forward in leaps and bounds. Thus necessitates the cutting away of old growth, that the ground is ready to receive the new growth. All this giving the soul the true giving to the Divinity, the raising of the Arc, the adjustment of the FACE, and directions from higher Planes and even unto the Source, where the soul becomes a channel for an added inflow of Power and Light.

But since Merope has gone right up to the Central Sun, all is set for the whole of this Cosmic Creation. For she has set the path for the World of Divine Consciousness to come into being. This being the road that all are heading for, while the soul has the courage to hold on. For this is the birth of Vega, where a channel from the earth School in the Heights has a crystal stairway upon which divinities descend and ascend.

This is the Stream of Divine Glory, where Merope and the Triune are unified in Holy Assumption. Where Divinity descends to gain further insight into problems that directly influence Evolution and Reformation. Such opportunities that have been afforded unto Divinity by this Scapegoat, were never in the whole of being ever expected.

But it has been the means of hastening and halving the problems of readjustment. A memory and establishment in the Creation of Rebirth, which will ever stand out as a monument to be. For Humanity had so complicated life and its intentions, it was the mighty Problem of Divinity, as to how it could ever be brought to adjustment.

But when one was so willing to be the Blood-adjuster of life and divinity, apart from taking the onslaught of the Race in its complications, the problems melted away under the LOVE of the Scapegoat.

This was the greatest legacy to all life, and lessened and cleansed much that would ever remain a stigma upon the Holy Vase of Human unfolding. This gave to the next Creation a royalty that was never expected, and was the Divine Beauty that shone forth from the Central Sun in its daily course across the heavens.

This was to become the Divine Crown of LOVE, in the Holy City that was being created. Yet gave unto Merope the right of being the Mother to Divinity. Father and Son had both come forth through this Divine Channel, and then united in the course of the divinity. A status so far removed from the minds of human comprehension, that only by advanced minds awakening to this truth, could such be accepted, and then far from being realised.

Yet an action that saved the Seed and prevented a greater

ASCENSION

A ROLLING glory of ascending beauty, losing itself in the Solar Divinity. With divine Ones passing up and down, exchanging the glory of possibility. is of all religions unified back to a state of Oneness. The depths and purpose are quite clear to the soul, thus he is ready for the retort.

The soul now being fully convinced of Divinity, accepting that LOVE is compassion, the greatest and highest point of judgment. Much is learnt by each individual initiate, for each one demands a different direction to conquer. But being on the Virgin Plane is the advantage that would be recognised if such was lost. Yet here is where the going up onto new Planes has to be adjusted to prevent distortion.

Where truth has been truly accepted and assimilated, the going on each Plane, finds the Open Mouth receptive. That is, retaining the wisdom unified, but now on a greater state of knowing where the spirit prevails, and not a righteous state where all sounds artificial, and you convince none.

One is death, the other rebirth, yet but the preliminaries for the true initiate, whereby he sets his own road of adjustment. For each soul has a different approach, owing to his adjustment, and the necessity of acceptance.

catastrophe to the whole of Being, than had already taken place with the FALL.

Now having given forth of the preliminary, which is for the soul who has no theory at all of divine birth, let us turn to the Divine Birth, as set into being by Merope, and those who have awakened to the Divine Cause. For the Isotope is a state of complete oneness, and is that of Divine Causation, brought about by royal aspiration.

This is the coalition as the fraternity of the gods, of Divine manifestation through the meninges isotoped into a Virgin consciousness; that which creates a stinging point of Divine Causation. For the gods in the meninges have all been in different states of frequency, and had to be unified up to one FACE.

Then they became the stinging point, manifesting the Voice of the Master, to sting the soul into action through refraction. This is the bringing of the soul to the true understanding of the Divine LAWS. That which will determine of the errors of refraction in the eye or vision, and which have to be brought to unity.

It is the ratio of the difference of Divinity to the density; so when the soul is advised of Divine protection, the gods in his meninges have been brought to a divine perfection to afford him of royal invulnerability. Thus this would be the means of bringing into birth the Spiritus Air of the Pube mind frequency. This being the light of earth years unified up, and microscoped into the New Virgin Seed of Vega Divinity.

The Pube Frequency

THAT which through Relativity's re-acclimatising frequency, has created an uncontaminable Light of Infinity. This now being the Pube Fired consciousness, revolving from the NORM to the FACE on the top of the ARC. This now being a dynamic infusion that has to impregnate the will of the soul, so as to bring it to the recognition of the 'might' that now is being re-created of the Human LIFE.

Thus would be the Infinity in its revolving fired unity, impregnating the Virgin's impregnable Fire, that she can drive it up to a frequency unknown before. That which would enforce the will of Divine Causation into the soul's heart-beat of existing creation. That now born from the Fiery inflowing Pube Breath, with all now taking in that of the Pube life; for the whole of existence has changed.

This is going to bring man out of the captivity he is in, for by taking the Black Powers from Outer World Space, he now must be enforced into fiery Pube expansion. It is this that is going to change man into a Pube of Outer World Space, and force him to become a channel of creative Virgin expansion.

It was from this that Merope saw a golden Eagle embossed upon the chest of a large black stallion, and knew that the Outer World Divine Fire was going to be impregnated with the imprint of the Eagle Powers. The Eagle Powers being the raised up passionate waters, and the unflinching WILL and driving purpose of the down-pouring Divine Source of the Bull frequency of the Virgin Fatherhood. This being the internal source of the Seed, now generated through the Pube Breath.

The Eagle Powers being those brought into birth by the expandable Geminian Mind of the Pube radiating Christos Being. It being one (See plate on this page) who has the capacity to carry the load through the risen up mind consciousness, and becoming Ariel Pube conscious of the divinities. So became the Power of the revolving NORM infinity, in the astute supreme confidence of being. Thus all Pube thoughts of Solar expansion, now becoming the Eagle's eggs laid in the nest on the chimney top. Thus the Pube became the son of the Orion Warrior, that of the rebuilt divine Arc.

Hence the Pube Breath is the Radium wealth of the Central Sun, that of Orion expansion. The soul now being Fired by a spark from the Central Sun, and is seen by the combined refraction as the Violet Ray. This is where the white corpuscles feed off the crimson blood of inflowing Divinity.

Thus the soul who is embracing the Virgin Stream of Divinity, will find all the Healing qualities within that the past and now awakened, but wealth now brought forth from the Seed culminated in the Breath.

Therefore, as the NORM opens up, does the Outer Space Fire engulf the soul and sustain it with the Virgin spirit, that now born of the Divine Fatherhood. For the NORM as the Tymphonic Voice Box of the Divine Fatherhood, is now bringing forth the Great Tiger Powers once earthed in Atlantis.

Since all is HERE and NOW, the mighty Sahara Desert was the foundation of Atlantis, where dynamic Powers were drawn down, but never returned as 'light.' Hence such mighty magnetic rock at Deir-el-Bahri was the result, and which became the highly charged magnetic temple of Hatshepsut. Thus now, through relativity, was awaiting man to unify his wealth with the LIGHT of the Orion consciousness as the Pube state of Divinity.

creation, while Merope's unified Power of Divinity is of the positive. By the two being spun into complete ONENESS, and through a rebirth of Hatshepsut, Divinity now becomes the Theocratic Thread of Deir-el-Bahri.

That which leads Merope back to the Pube centre of the new Divine Birth of the Purple Stork, that of the New World's Lesath pronunciation. The conscious god virtue of the Orion Pube, speaking unmentioned truths through the Tymphonic Voice Box of the NORM.

The Pube expansion is the virginal upliftment of the Theocratic oaths of the centripetal drawing of the Breath into the NORM frequency of the inner Virgin light. For the Fall was from Divinity to Atlantis, as the fall from the NORM to the Pituitary, and was the closing of the 'moon period' of existence.

contaminated inverted earth. The same applies to the sickness of the flesh garment of the soul, the internal 'garments' of ethereal bodies not being extended into 'light' unfolding. Man himself is the parchments of TIME, and no one can deny them when the soul sensitises himself back to his anthropomorphic sensitivity.

This is what happened to the Pube-gods of Atlantis: they believed that they were gods and drew down Powers by ritual, but did not uphold them by fully burying them into the earth, giving them true wisdom and light construction. This being the lot of every soul who brings new Wisdom or Law creation into birth. Thus must see them through to a glorified completion. This is what Merope is doing, and in being successful, holds the POLE with her Pole Star, as the glorified Pole Star of Vega.

Thus Merope will reign in her Heavenly Home, guiding the World in Theocratic Glory, bringing all back to the glorified beauty of Divine ONENESS. Where this Sun will have fulfilled its course, and another new creation will be set into motion by the unfolding EVOLUTIONAL Magnitude of Earth brought to its divine completion.

The depths and might of Atlantis hold dynamic Powers, which are a part of the wealth of the NORM, and a state that must be duly mortuarised. This has to happen to all that is created, bringing it to a glorified state of 'light,' whereby it ascends to the Heavenly Planes from whence it was born, and the Divine replica of the planes within the soul.

Yet Powers that were never given their mortuary meal, which accounts for the diabolical crime that is sweeping the Earth today. The base earthy states of the mighty magnitude that swept the Abyss at that particular time. For they were aware of mighty Powers still existing with that "Egg" creation, and which were involved in a Saturn state of self-importance and anthropomorphic complex.

That belonged to the 'moon period,' and accounts for why it is so strongly in the soul's imprint. Why it lives so distinctly upon the maelstrom, and those who are striving to recover it. But like the rock of Deir-el-Bahri, would be a state of dead rock if it existed independently. That which is being Solarised at the present moment by the awakened NORM of Merope.

It is because all is 'continuity' that such will have to be recognised very soon by the soul-life of unfolding cosmic manifestation. For their refusal to do so, is calcifying the soul into a state of 'dry bones,' which was re-started as soul life to bring MIND life into being. But the Scapegoat brought Theocracy into being, where every soul becomes his own Nathan and awakens to his own folly. But in the failure to do so, becomes as the ground sand, the mystical depths of the Sahara.

All this wisdom of the 'buried past' is now ready to come forth and be buried-in in polarised continuity, that a more rarified state of the Abyss can begin. Then Divinity, as the Divine Fatherhood, begins HIS reign as the Divine MIND of the Glorified immensity of Ages.

Divinity being the accumulated LIGHT of FIRED Cosmic Continuity, now a Cosmic MIND of Divine Holy magnificat. Thus the internal Glory of all Fired Creation, for our first glimpse of LOVE, the greatest mystery of ALL-LIFE.

EAGLE BORN

AS the soul sought in desperation to find the way out of his fixed unyielding status, a large eagle swooped down from the Unknown Heights, with the soul by mysterious hands, being lifted gently onto his back. Then up it soared into the heavens, into the glory of the Solar magnitude, and as the soul became refreshed, was it returned to the vicinity of its own depths; ariel-born and ariel-conscious. (See page 5, col. 1).

Stream, to carry the soul along the path of change. But here was where the mighty polarity of the past was beginning to unify through Relativity. Thus opening up the NORM as the fired Tymphonic Void of the present day. The mighty wealth re-surgant forth from the Ancient days of Atlantis.

Thus Merope sought for Divine guidance, that she could be helped to bring forth such mighty wealth to help man understand his own internal being. Thus as she did so, a mighty fierce Tiger jumped through a hoop of FIRE, and through her own blossomed NORM wisdom, it began to elucidate to her the depth of the mighty mystery.

It was then Merope knew that the Tiger Powers, the fiercest of all Powers, were the expandable Outer Space Powers, which were now being born within the NORM. Not only as those entrapped from

Polarising Atlantis

THE now Sahara Desert became the base of the Sea of Lunar Waters, those brought down by the Atlanteans, through the mighty Powers that were with the gods as they fell from Paradise into the depths of calcification. Yet only but the beginning, for many Ages passed before Oannes came up out of the waters, and soul began to clothe himself with human form.

This would explain why gods were still descending in the form of Pharaohs of ethereal longevity, and the wisdom contained in Genesis of the ancient Patriarchs. The Sphinx and the two figures of the singing Memnon do not belong to this World, which was still of the Anthropomorphic Egg, though of an ethereal creation that became solidified by the drop in vibration.

Atlantis was the Pube-state that was born of its negative

Then they drew down the Fires, but no new Seed was elevated into action, showing the importance that has to attend this vast and mighty action. Then continue in activation to the degree of its tempo, but now, through the NORM awakening, will the Pituitrin start to flow to awaken the Pituitary; for this is the continual fired 'drop' that attends the soul when new consciousness is being set into motion.

The activated Norm delivering through the bloodstream, of the ancient wisdom that now requires polarising; not just viewing as an ancient relic. Otherwise the soul will slump into the same calcified state as the wealth they are refusing to bury-in with a mortuary meal. Thus keep evolution moving onwards into more elevated and fired unfolding.

Soul's refusal to do so, accounts for the vermin brought into birth by the

This brought the Titans into birth. (Now this is going to give you some idea of what you have got buried down under: and when we say 'down under' we mean in the meshes of the soul. You wonder where this thought and that comes from; and why you do certain things. Remember, you go right back to the beginning of time, and in your very soul you have many bits and pieces that have never been changed; and as you take in the wisdom and it remains as raw fire, these creations become fired up into raging creations).

Now this brought the Titans into birth, their offspring particularly: these were a race of gods beneath Tartarus, yet Iapetos (to send forth) became the head of mankind (that which came out of them), he being the fifth, and father of Atlas, Prometheus, Epimetheus and Menoetios. These are the neck vertebrae (or the Taurean or Minos creation when all truly came into birth); forethought, afterthought and Menoetios, as to think, takes numerous positions.

Though we must understand that although Night herself does not belong to the Titans, it was she who produced without a sire. Fate, Death, Sleep, Dreams in mockery, Woe, the Hesperides, Nemesis as retribution, Deceit, Love, Old-age and Strife. Then to crown all and bring the full complement of twelve, she produced Madness, the offspring of Night and Heaven.

Night madness applies to many things: it could be the split mind, or the mind that becomes akin to madness, genius).

Night being the progenitor of Day (darkness to bring forth light) would naturally be the principle of all cosmogony; for all must be produced from something; thus Nnu was a seething mass of unsolved life. From then she produced Philotes as the union of love and production of offspring (offspring of the soul) but only as mockery on account of its dark nature, it being opposed to all candour and truth of which Day expresses; for Day is the outcome of Solar light and produces purity (where you allow the Solar light to work through you).

Deceit, Age, Strife, Woe also being the offspring of Night (night state of yourself) as well as Mockery through its covetous nature. While Madness being an obscuration of the mind, naturally her sire became the clear lucid heaven (polarity), the positive complement. (All is polarity, so you can always bring the other state to what you have).

The Hesperides as the Daughters of Night guarded the golden apples, Wisdom, owing to their abode being near her cave in the West, the fruits to come forth, and was where Atlas supports the heavens. For here Night and Day become by turns; as one goes in the other goes out, producing the complement of creation.

(The two departments of the mind-memory; that which you must not produce, and that which should be produced: that which you must forget and that which you must give birth to, to help you to go forward. And that is what you wrestle with: it is your night and day, and it is when the kundalini rises up that there is the wrestle as to which department he is going to pierce, the old mind-memory or the present mind-memory; to bring forth only that which you are accustomed to, or is it going to be relativity? This can only be determined by the will of the soul, its outlook and its wrestling with self: so it is quite possible that in the rising of the kundalini through this wisdom, if you are finding yourself in a bad frame of mind, then it is piercing the wrong department).

Day produces light to all mortals so inclined, while Night, wrapt in sable cloud, carries Sleep and inertia in her arms: (you wonder why you find no strength). These Springs of Night all came from the North, and in having intercourse with Earth, produced offspring of dark creation.

These dark creations of the North are the Hyperboreans or the upper parts of the mind; the cells of the brain that hold mysteries from the past; states that are waiting to come forth as seeds to once again produce new offspring in a new era. That is how man evolves; he goes forth with these seeds within him, and he reproduces them by the very striking of light that he must bring forth.

He spends the first part of his life wrestling with Mars and Saturn, wrestling with experience, bringing these states into birth. But if you do not wrestle with life, how can they grow? How can they be put into cells? So these cells of the brain remain shrivelled and the soul wonders why he is dead: he has never wrestled with life, he has never struggled with wisdom; he has never grown the seeds, and so at the end of life he feels completely dead; no seed to come forth, no intercourse with his own earth creation that will bring forth of light.

If you are young and are passing through this wisdom, or you have the courage to come into it, then struggle and grow the seeds; uphold them fast; do not let them become liquid emotions that leave you with bitterness and an empty pot.

Thus would be as mind birth unto man until knowledge became awareness through experience and sorrow. Then Nemesis the daughter of Night indicates the secret concealed path which divine justice treads to inflict punishment due to the vice earth produced.

Thus Night being of so mighty a personage, a dark chariot was produced for this black robed and black winged mystery to make her nightly journey with the stars following in attendance. She yoked her horses at sunset and made Sleep her charioteer. (This is the spirit, the soul). This would be as the darkness that follows with all experience, that expansion can take place in realisation and practical acceptance.

The soul going out, night after night, seeking to know why these things are taking place, and returning with the dawn. And how many are going to meet Aurora and bring forth in knowledge known and recognised?

Oceanos the first born of Titans was the offspring of the rivers and of Tethys the earth and had 3,000 daughters (creations in the soul); earth being the Reaver, the earth creation of the soul: (but remember, the soul had earth first, then it had water which was emotion; then it found of fire that brought forth of air; but fire and air are always moveable one with the other), and would link with Mother Mem, Cancer; yet in reality as the three fates with the one eye.

While the soul was putting into creation around the base of the Chart and passing through Hades, the grotto, from the 4th to the 6th house, (Hades representing the house of Leo as karma), the whole course of time from Leo to Aquarius being re-born and man continually trying to change what was born right in the beginning 13,000 years ago: he is continually changing by every mode of alchemicalisation.

So as the hero who was struggling through these states entered into the stream or the cup of drinking the experiences, he found his emotions becoming agitated; but he struggled, and by bending the bow of the mind he shot it up and it was able to go right up into Capricorn. Thus from then onwards Oceanos has dreaded the thunder of Zeus (taking on expansion). This would be the ploughing season with the dance resembling the flight of the crane, when the soul had to make the flight, had to dance; to dig and plough and try to sow the seed and reap the corn.

The Journey of Creation

NOW let us come to Hyperion as Helios the over-goer, and Theia as bestower of wealth and swiftness; the parents of Sun, Moon and Dawn; often referred to as the Sun-god and spiraculum. The office of Helios, the son of Hyperion as solar light was to be the wide-shining and give light to men and gods during the day.

The over-goer is the movement of the mind, and the bestower of wealth is the swiftness of the mind that you are all seeking for. As the Sun and Moon blend you bring

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. forth the new morning when you, as swiftness, can take what has been given to you by the light, the spirit, and place it into operation as the next day's creation: the soul bringing forth the light of the day.

This may give some of you the idea of the early morning thought; how important it is to try and gather that early morning thought and struggle with it until you can make it break through into true realisation. You are the son of Hyperion, the Solar light to come forth, bringing forth your solar child. You are trying to take the solar light and weave it into your mind and bring forth the solar god. I am trying to help you to bring those states out.

The mystery story of the Solar journey through Tartaros the netherworld is too beautiful and serious not to relate; thus it must be seen that during the night he passed through that dark abode back to the East. This became the solar cup or basin, and the ancients believed that a lofty mountainous ring ran round the edge of the earth and on reaching the western stream of the ocean, Helios himself, his chariot and his horses, were received into a magic cup or boat made by Hephaistos, the god of Fire.

This, aided by the current, conveyed him during the night round the northern part of the earth. Here his light was only enjoyed by the happy Hyperboreans, the lofty Rhipaeans of the extreme North, concealing it from the rest of mankind. These are a happy race dwelling in everlasting bliss, and spring from beyond the lofty mountains whose caverns send forth piercing blasts of the North Wind which once chilled the people of Hellas, for these held of the herds of the aged one.

The soul passing through the netherworld back to the East, would be the experience; and that you would have to pass through in your continual night after night. The spirit goes up to find out exactly what it has been up to; and I can well assure you it has received many truths, but it can only bring them back as to how you are going to accept them.

How is your mind, or ego going to take it? It does not take the truth; so the only way you accept the truth of the wisdom as it comes back is to bring yourself to the attitude of the little child, the receptive vehicle that wants to learn; that says, "Tell me all; it does not matter what it is, I will listen; I will learn, I will take it."

THEN YOU WILL RECEIVE IT IN THE EARLY MORNING AS A TRUTH.

Hephaistos, the god of Fire, is the spirit of the soul that came forth through the spleen and built up the altar stone under the navel in the solar plexus; that is Delphi, man's chasm where he brings forth of his fires.

The soul going round the northern part of the earth would be the soul going up to the heights; not going down into the depths during the night, but being able to go up to the heights so that when he came back he could also touch his own heights. The higher a man is able to go in spirit is he able to touch his own heights when he returns, because the heights within man and the heights in the starry world are united; they are as one.

MAN ONLY SEES SPACE, MAN ONLY SEES FORM, BUT SPIRIT IS ABLE TO TOUCH THE ONE VIBRATION. SO IF YOUR MIND IS OF THE VIBRATION OF THE STARRY HEIGHTS, IT WOULD BE ONE VIBRATION TO THE SPIRIT.

Try and not see space; see a vibration. You can only see form: don't look up into the sky; know it as vibration, and as your spirit is able to touch one vibration it is able to touch the vibration of all creation of that vibration. Think well over that, because it can give you a great depth, as it is giving you the understanding of what you can do.

This links with the Solar Fire travelling through the bloodstream, going down into the lower caverns of the generative creation and rising up to the heights to bring forth the Seeds from the pomegranate as the virgin cup. This was the wealth encircled by the herds of Apollo gained over time, and could be the means of bringing forth the seeds that descended as cold icy-blasts, that to be melted into fiery life.

The country of this race, from which it was believed the river Ister flowed, was inaccessible either by sea or land, but was the river of long beams. Apollo was their tutelary deity to whom they offered asses in sacrifice, while choirs of maidens danced to the sound of lyres and pipes, and worshippers feasted, having their heads wreathed with garlands of bay. This would bring the full quota of alchemicalisation into light.

They lived exempt from disease or old age, from toils and warfare, and were conscious of no evil thoughts or acts, neither had they to fear the awful goddess Nemesis. These were the consciousness, as the past awareness of the pomegranate, that ever come forth and relate of their ever revolving creation.

Then to add unto the mystery of this revelation, on the south coast of the Sea, eastward to that just related, lay Libya and Egypt. Here the Sidonians, Syrians or Arabs resided; the ancient manes. Then on the eastern side, close to the stream of the Ocean, dwelt a people as happy as the Hyperboreans. These were named the Aethiopians, black or sunburnt men, which alone explains their grievance; for the gods favoured them so highly that they were wont to leave their Olympian abodes at times and share their sacrifices and banquets with others instead of expanding and making life radiate with light.

Thus they went south to a nation of dwarfs and became as Pygmies, to whose country the cranes used to migrate every winter (the period of the dark season when all goes down into experience). Their appearance was the signal of bloody warfare to the puny inhabitants who had to take up arms to defend their cornfields against the rapacious strangers; meaning that as soon as a soul goes down into experience he goes wild and sets off a bloody state within the soul. The cranes being as birds of knowledge that eat their seed and leave only husks as embryo in return. No wisdom at all.

So you can see that man is made up of all the parts of the past from the past to the present, and these are the parts you are going to change by the wisdom. As you understand the wisdom, so alchemicalisation takes that understanding around the bloodstream and feeds those states; then you are not worried about them because you have wrestled with life, with experience; you are no longer divided by parts that are coming out when least expected.

The Stream of Life

ON the western margin of earth, by the stream of the Ocean, lay a happy place named the Elysian Plain, The Isles of the Blest; the conscious-awareness as enlightenment. Thus we must see that the Ancients of the early ages knew little of any real people except those to the east and south of their own country, or near the coast of the Mediterranean; therefore limited in outlook, or not familiar with their completeness. Their imagination meantime had peopled the western portion of this sea with giants, monsters and enchantresses; though we would not contradict.

AND NOW YOU ARE GOING TO FIND THE MORTUARY MEAL, THE EXPERIENCE AND THE WISDOM WHEREBY THEY CAN BE BURIED IN THE SOUL AND THE SOUL BROUGHT TO A ONE-NESS OF LIFE.

In this you not only see the cosmos as it was in the beginning, but man's foundation which is ever coming forth in the spiraculum and must repeat itself. The great Ocean or stream of the cosmos gave rise to the Sun and heavenly bodies who rose and sank back into its placid current. The course of this river was from south to north up the western side of the earth, and flowed calmly and equably, unvexed by tempests and unnavigated by man.

It was termed back-flowing, deep-flowing and soft-flowing from its nature, and was the equilibrium of life, the Elixir Vitae or Great Serpent (and known in your own being as the Nodes, as the Serpent of made it possible for him to pass over to Erytheia where a young goat was born and a constellation was set up, bringing many storms. Thus :-

Into the golden cup went down;

That, through the Ocean having passed,

He to the depths of dark sacred night might come,

Unto his mother and unto his wedded wife,

And his dear children; but into the grove shaded with laurel

This was the wrestle between expansion and the solar-god.

SOLAR BORN

AS the princess lifted up the child into her arms, she walked towards the fire and laid the babe gently amidst its burning glory. For as the virgin now born of Light, she was bringing to her Lord the golden-haired son, born out of the experiences of the depths. Thus as she scaled the rising Planes she clutched him tightly to her breast, that no harm would mar his golden glory, but it became intensified as she reached the Flame-swept crest. (See text on page 18, col. 1).

Life; showing you exactly where your equilibrium of life is situated). That which succoured and gave life to all things; its waters were sweet and it was the parent of all fountains and rivers on the earth.

As it was a stream, it must have a further bank, but only the western part was conceived. This was described as a region unvisited by the Sun, therefore shrouded in perpetual darkness; the abode of the Kimmerians, those lying within the bosom of the earth. Thus we perceive the mystery of the races and Ocean of creation; therefore it is now to the Sun-god we must turn for greater mystery.

But ere we seek further, let us realise that the story of the first gods and their progeny is revealing to us the nature of celestial birth. The heavens revolving, generating Night and Day, which has become personified within man himself. It might appear to some that it was but a primitive conception that the Sun was born anew every morning and the stars every night, with the annual motion giving birth to two equinoxes and two solstices which became associated with divinities. And furthermore that the Sun went down to the grave in mid-winter and rose again and renewed his youth.

No! Many find this very difficult to accept; but I would ask, has man ever solved the problem of his complications, his psychological difficulties and pathological intricacies?

By this explanation we see that the cup of the Sun-god appeared first, for Oceanos giving the hero the Sun-god's cup,

The expansion is of lunar light which man was satisfied with; taking everything down as knowledge and nothing more, giving him expansion of thought but not the solar-god. So perhaps some of you will realise what you have taken. You have only taken Zeus as expansion, Jupiter; you have never drawn in the Solar light by giving it creation.

NOW YOU WANT TO TRY AND BRING IT INTO A MIND EXPANSION; YOU GIVING TO THE WORLD SOME THOUGHT; UTTER IT TO ANOTHER AND THE WORLD WILL HAVE TO CHANGE, BECAUSE YOU GAVE A THOUGHT TO THE WORLD.

Some say that the stables of Helios in his Phaethon abode are in the East, others in the West; but in truth the real abode of Helios is in the realm of Night beyond the Ocean. The ancients, when speaking of this referred to a plant that aided the horses of Helios to recuperate their vigour. This was grown in the Isles of the Blest and was given to them for their evening meal. This is the coriander that grows in the heights and flowers perpetually when watered by the soul; this applies cosmically or individually to each soul.

Helios had many offspring according to the legends of the ancients, and after all they are their records and prototype; and they stated that as the Sun set off on its diurnal course in the East the steeds' manes were adorned by Lucifer (the light) and Aurora, the fiery dawn, which of course prepared them for their daily journey; for it is there that the Sun has its splendid palace enthroned by Days, Months, Years, Seasons, Ages and Hours.

There Helios appears in a chariot with fire-breathing steeds. Eos-eastern, Aethiops-burning, Bronte-thunder, and Sterope-lightning (containing all these states that are going to come forth later on). While the many herds and flocks of Helios are still fed by the nymphs Phaethusa-shining and Lampetie-gleaming. These herds neither breed nor die and the oxen are termed black; (they had to come through black because you are going to make

Zeus, who was neither one thing nor the other. Then there was Neocera-Newness who watched over his cattle like a hawk, and Augeas the Bright One who was offspring of the Sun-god by Iphiloee-Strongcow.

By Rhodes the daughter of Aphrodite, Helios had the seven Heliades, while the Graces also claimed to be his daughters by Aegle—Splendour: (that was the Grace that was never brought forth). But most important of all was Phaethon—Gleaming, the son born to Helios by Clymene-Bright.

Now these are all the different states that came into birth. So the soul takes the whole complement; he has got to, otherwise he would never bring forth in the end as the final complement, but he can only recognise what he is capable of accepting.

The claims of this youth to be of celestial origin were disputed by Epaphos, the froth of the sea, another son of Zeus. (Now the froth of the sea is the going back and forth of the waters, bringing the froth that builds up on the sands of time, each bubble holding a different state; for the soul gathers all and it becomes Aphrodite the risen one, the risen Venus, the risen desires).

Upon this being acclaimed to him, he journeyed to the palace of his sire and extracted an unwary oath that he would grant him whatever he asked: (a new thought had been born out of these creations). The ambitious youth instantly demanded permission to guide the solar chariot for one day to prove himself thereby the undoubted progeny of the Sun-god. Helios, aware of the consequences, remonstrated with him, but to no purpose.

The youth persisted and the god, bound by his oath, reluctantly committed the reins to his hands (as ego went off); he warned him of the dangers of the road and instructed him how to avoid them. Phaethon, he of radiance, grasped the reins and the fire-breathing steeds sprang forward. But soon aware that they were not being directed by the well-known hand, they ran out of course and the World was set on fire.

The knowledge was earthed but the soul could not hold the reins: the soul got the idea and went forth, but only as egoism and could not hold the reins. Oh yes! the world was set on fire, but set on fire with confused thought. So remember, if you establish a new idea that is only a confused one, that goes out and is your loss.

A total conflagration would have ensued had not Zeus, at the prayer of Earth, launched his thunder which gave him unprepared expansion, and hurled the terrified driver from his seat: (he was forced to come down, but he could not let go of what he had taken. That was out of egoism; so if you want to avoid this, then do not take with egoism).

Upon this he fell into the river Eridanus (the emotions) and his sisters the Heliades (which is the rotatory force) as they lamented his fate, were turned into poplar trees on its banks. (Now the rotatory force which comes in immediately was taken by the soul and became merely as knowledge, the growth of the soul).

Their tears, which still continued to flow, became as amber and dropped into the stream. (The female creations had to go on trying to move it, but all they could bring forth were solid states that fell into the waters). Cynos, the screech owl, (that began to screech about what he knew) friend of the ill-fated Phaethon, also abandoned himself to mourning and was changed into a swan.

them white), while the sheep are considered fair.

These were seen as sacred cattle, for being as the celestial shepherd or overseer of the stars, the god gave increase to the earth, therefore must have his own flock. But bequeaths not to man that he should squander them, for they cannot die, therefore will live to burn and sear their way through life. It is Helios the Solar light that is bringing them forth with you; that which you have taken during the day.

SO EVERY MAN IS TAKING THEM. IT IS NO GOOD YOU SAYING YOU ARE NOT GOING TO, OR YOU WON'T. YOU TAKE THEM ALRIGHT; YOU TAKE THEM ALL DAY IN THE EXPERIENCES OF LIFE.

But the wise man says, "Well, if I have got to suffer one way, let me suffer the whole way," and he seeks for the depths; but what is more, he is the wise soul, because he really is solving his own problems; he is not just taking raw fire or merely experiences; he is wrestling with life and he is willing to learn, and he is willing to take all that he can be brought into a straightened birth.

FIRE. Whereas the past was of autocracy, struggle and poverty, now all is of Theocracy, searching and giving. With what was of the Desire Plane, now the MIND Plane.

The Age of Relativity

ALL this is certain, for the LAWS have been set in the Cosmos, and what the Cosmos ordains does it become in the Terrestrial. But you were warned by the Occult Gazette that this would be a time of Chaos. One where many would try for supremacy, but nothing would reign but what was ordained, for man is not capable of ruling or directing in a true balanced way. The Earth Plane or Abyss is now required by the Cosmos for Divinities.

This in a blank statement, appears frightening, when in reality it is one of the most promising statements ever committed to Human LIFE. Divinity is evolved spirit life, not form, but spirit life, the basic of soul life, that which the drug addict has been seeking for the hard way. Soul, when it so prepares itself, can by that preparation, be overshadowed by one of these Divinities, and speak with the tongue of the WISE-MAN. The soul loses nothing but gains all, but ONLY when he is so prepared.

I have spent 32 years preparing myself, to say nothing of Ages, to speak and think, as well as unifying with the spirit to write with the right of spirit authority. Beside a number of incarnations preparing my Astrological Log, fitted and ready that I could become an Illuminati and a fully ionised Isotope. Thus it was ordained that I should be the Scapegoat for this Age of Relativity and unification.

Surely it does not have to be told to any balanced thinking soul, of the need for a wise and discriminative state of ruling now to take over. For in the stripping and cleansing out of the Tartarus pit, the revelation has been more than abominable. Crime, debauchery, greed and licentiousness, are but a few of the category that could be revealed.

Apart from the fornication and false wisdom levelled out by the cunning, to catch the gullible on the horns of religion. When one is unified and sensitised and overshadowed by a Powerful Divinity, they know of things that are not known to the ordinary living soul of the street.

Thus, what has been living under the guise of religious glory, would shock the World if they really knew the truth. So called divines, nothing more than rogues of the worst type, using their religious office to fill their coffers with ill-gotten gains. Hence the time has come when ALL IS CHANGED and Theocracy has taken over, ruling through the mind of man himself.

In the pamphlet hurriedly prepared to meet the situation, it clearly gives forth that Outer World Space is the HOME of Divinity. One vast void of Heavenly Ethers that hold untold wealth of possible Genius. How do I know? By sensitivity I frequented myself to its vast frequencies, right up to the Central Sun, using the scientists' own theory of belief. Thus created as they

THIS Christmas has been one of the most memorable ever known, not only from the closing of the old world for the new, but by vibration, where the whole of TIME as the lunar period, completely gave up the ghost to the Solar Period of Divinity. One was the Period of Water, while the future is the Period of FIRE. The past was the Age of WOMAN, the negative state of preparatory unfoldment, the present Age is of the FATHERHOOD, the positive. The previous ruled by the moon and fallen Neptune, a state of fluidity, while now, all is being ruled by the Central Sun and the risen up Uranus and Neptune, the life-giving glory of which has to be brought up to equal with the higher mind, and in unity polarised into octavial expansion by the Powers of Outer Space. This is growth and evolution.

This is what the mother teaches the child at birth in a mundane way, but as the soul creates of light and strength, does it become his Solar state, as the Central Sun unto the Universe. Which of course is his soul and inner Mind personal every day action. In fact, we have to blame Roman Catholicism for this, for they took over of man's mind, and never let him think for himself, as seen recently over birth control. Now, even the priests themselves are waking up and seeing the danger of non-thinking, which could only result in the whole Race being stoned.

But man being so lunar born, has created for himself his own idea of what the lunar state of the earth was like in its existence. Now believing that there is such an orb up in the heavens, having been cast off from the earth. In any case, if it was so, it would have been in polarity to the Central Sun, and created and belonging to Achernar, the depths of hell. Again, what have the Americans created for their Race? But so much so does he believe that it is in existence, it has begun to look like a solid body.

This now accounts for why the scientists say that the surface is ever changing in contour. WHY? because it is a thought creation, and is ever changing in the mind of the scientist.

This also applies in a very similar way to a mirage of an oasis in the desert. Man as the traveller is ever seeking of how to get water, and ever finds these mirages building up, to only find when he gets there, it was a mirage. The same applies to the moon, but whereas the other is going forward, the moon is a going backwards into time.

The Sun is a coming creation, the light of Intelligence built up by the higher mind and the lower mind working together, and becoming the lifted up Arc of the Sine. This was first created by Noah, which raised up the Human Race out of the degradation they were in, after they rose up after the Fall. But the Sun is not the ball of gas as the scientist declares, but a Mighty Being of Heavenly LIGHT.

The Super Divine Creation born out of the Ages, from the mighty inner FIRE Creation of LIFE. The Ever-flowing Source of LIFE flowing from the Eternal Depths. That which began and has ever been, and will ever continue, whatever state of growth it is manifesting through. While man, the atoms in the depths, is the creator of this light through his alchemical structure, which brings into birth a mind body.

By man turning his mind to this Mighty Source of LIGHT, will he create of LIGHT in his own inner being. This is what I had to do as the Scapegoat, and perceive of the greater way of life, by receiving divine wisdom from the Great Begotten, as to what the fallen gods should have grown to be. Therefore built up within myself and my mind, of these creations and sought to live them.

But ever guided by the Great Intelligencia, that truth could be earthed to counteract the erroneous knowledge earthed by papalism, to serve their own ends. Thus preparing the way for man to be as the god he should have grown to.

By understanding of the Planes and the greater Cosmic Law, my higher ideals and beliefs became the constructed LAW of the heights. As I so became, did it become of the vibronic creation of the Universe.

While man lived down in the pit of Tartarus in his state

LUNAR FALLACY

(A statement made by the Divine Christos to Gladys I. Spearman-Cook, in answer to the believed moon found by the American astronauts).

WHEN the gods, as atoms, descended through their NORM, or Pineal Gland, it was as the basic of their Anthropomorphic Egg. That which gradually calcified in the Period called TIME, losing of its divine Auric quality, to eventually take on of two walking legs. A being who was turned inwards towards self, completely devoid of all form. Yet the creature that gradually took form, in the ancient status of China. They devoid of all mind, led and controlled by the Empresses; that of the Matriarchate Age. Yet although devoid of all form, it was as a silence that was the fulness of intensity. The frozen depth that had to have the warmth of thinking to set it into motion, that it could gradually open up and take on of the creation of being. Yet again, all was there, even at the stage of amoeba. This being the silence of the Fatherhood, as through the mighty gap, referred to as the Ice Age, or the Ginnunga Gap, when all came forth out of the density of Silence. For non-recognition is no form, recognition is form expressed and stated. Thus the belief of any soul becomes a form of creation, as unto the moon in the heavens, created by the scientists, blind to the fact that all is there from the status of the past, but of no form; that of the lunar state having been involved in. What is to come forth is the creation now being polarised by the belief of Merope, who affords unto it of the glory of the Solar Fire Age now emerging out of the magnitude of the Central Sun. The Atomic Age of elevated life, the heavenly creation of unification, born out of Relativity.

This is like the theory originated by Papalism, who put into the minds of the mindless that there was a god crucified upon a Cross, who died to save their sins. This became so established, as to become a moral point of finance in those called upon to create the belief. When in reality, the Bible has never been established in fact, and is awaiting the creating of the thinking intelligencia of the Atomic Age, for its active and LIFE GIVING unfoldment. Although all these creations become living creations on the Earth Plane, they cannot in Outer World Space, for that is the HOME of Divinity. The scientists being giants born into incarnation, as the outcome of Atlantis, with no divinity at all.

Gladys J. Spearman-Cook.

created, only mine was of Reality and not illusion.

For in seeking of the Divine Purpose of Outer Space, I was in union with the Royal Magnitude of the Cosmos; in fact I became their SOLE Agent and Scapegoat, who created their LAWS for them, from my experiences in matter. That which was required to bring balance and order with the Royal Heavenly keeping of the March of EVOLUTION. That which was ordained to go forth as the unfolding way of Creation.

Now the great irony of all this, is the fact that the Americans did not send a rocket up, but sent one down to a moon belief by going backwards through TIME, polarising the Central Sun. What effect this will have upon their Race, we have yet to see. But in the scientist going down to the polarity, they polarised my ascent up to the Central Sun as the accredited Christed Virgin, who gave birth to the New World of the Divine Fatherhood.

Hence the scientist brought all to a complete infinity for me, saving me from going down to make the complete union, and the reason why they were never stopped, or even given a second thought. Instead of the scientist having broken down Divinity, he has broken down himself and lifted up Divinity. For he has ripped wide open his own armour for Uranus to strike, and the Divinities to retrieve of their lost wealth.

Man is mind, born from the Elements, as seen by an astrological chart drawn up to depict of man's growth...

Each sign a polarity to one another, 1-7, 2-8 and so on. The soul is represented by the atom in the centre of the circle. By this the soul is ever building up a mind and soul growth from the ionising of the polarised inflowing Elements, found as the consistency of the Breath.

According to the strength of the elements in the chart, will the soul draw from the Breath, except that of the moon creation, which is the personal state of the soul as the conscious mind. That built up in each life as the mind of soul expression, born out of the experiences of life, but growth born from the Elements and their rulers. As the soul progresses by the Word, does his NORM or Pineal Gland become the replica of the Central Sun, the soul radiant with light.

Deluge

BUT MIND is ever the main consistency, brought into being via the spirit, and is the only creative force. For as man thinks, so he creates and becomes by building up his inner bodies of light. The lunar state was a previous growth of the Abyss unfoldment, that which came at the time of the Deluge, and was that of the second dimension. That which has ever persisted, because it is linked with the state of personal desire, that which came into birth and brought about the Fall.

The soul falling as a god from Atlantis into the Cancer Waters. The inflowing Elements, in their fluidic state, are turned into Water, and is still taking place. For as I bring down wisdom and earth it, it invariably rains somewhere, thereby driving the wisdom into the Earth, which man has only taken through desire. All these states were created by the gods as they fell into the growing thought creation of a possible physical desire.

Because man has never been taught of these greater truths concerning himself, he only knows of the lunar state of of earthy desire, I reformed the vibrations, of which everything consists. Granted it was a fight between me and the scientists, but I had the upper hand by being led by the FIRE, and an abstract mind of divine ideals ever being fed by the Great Masters.

(See plate on this page)

Abstract Sensitivity

TO explain this a little clearer, how do you think the composer of music, composes the compositions he creates? Or the receiver of Poetry creates delicate sentences and beautiful thoughts in their construction? They create their ideals and beliefs out of the vibrations they are capable of extracting out of the Breath, through their Neptunian abstract sensitivity.

This is why the Occultist should ever live on a refined diet, so that he can sensitise his parotid and parathyroid glands, so that his lachrymal faculties and tympanic reception of the ears are free to translate the vibrations into a creative story, or tones of music.

Up to the present, man had only expanded up to Jupiter; I went up to Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, which alone proves that there never was a Christed one before. For you can only become Christed by Pluto's Divine vibrations, as well as sending up to the heights the Neptunian Waters. I did this, therefore was claimed by the Great Master as the first Terrestrial Christos in the Abyss.

This may sound great, and even too mighty to utter, but I can well assure you it is the most painful story that can ever be told. YES! it is crucifixion and everybody is open to it if they want to get free from matter. The gods now as man, slipped down into the pit, and he has to extricate himself from the form he has got himself enmeshed in. Through everybody being sold to the false story that religion created, which has been the greatest financial racket ever known, man lives in blindness.

When one awakens, which they do sometime or another, they cry out to get back to their rightful creation, that is spirit. Therefore I had to fight for my existence in matter, by maintaining the Christhood of the Master, and the Fatherhood of the Godhead. While I stood and held on, all the forces of the heavens were with me. As I pulled out, I heard them singing Hallelujah in the highest.

Many will think this as being either madness, or a mind riddled with religious mania; it is neither, but plain facts that the non-sensitive man never experiences. Paul in Corinthians describes something very similar to this, mind wealth that only those sensitised by the spirit, are capable of hearing.

The Embodiment of A.D.33 was the amalgamation of the Heavenly Elements of an accumulated thought, around the Constellation of Orion, in the Celestial sign of Taurus. Yet in the chart of every soul, it is his fifth to the eleventh houses...

...where the soul transmutes the raw fire of the past Leo Equinox within his being, and never yet transmuted, into the Divine Fire of the Aquarian Unification. This brings the Orion Man into birth, and is where the soul becomes of the Christed ONE. That is, if he has transmuted enough of the past into the future, through the past and present unified and blossomed into mind light.

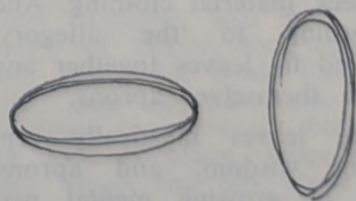

BLIND BUFFONERY

SOULS who have never grown, still blind with the illusions of avidya. Not really seeking in true investigation, but to fasten some earthy wild scheme of financial superiority over another competing madness. Souls who think no further than 'slaughter and kill' to hold the biggest penny. But how can man master the elements when the elements have already mastered man, and hold him in Theocratic Consciousness? (See text in col. 1).

Mind wisdom of divine creative belief, that he has elevated up to the heights, and given light to the Celestial Signs as well as the great Intelligencia. This is man's task according to the covenant, whereby he then becomes as the sheep transformed into the White Lamb. But every man is a Christ unto himself, and it is he who goes onto the cross and frees himself from the flesh he chose instead of the Spirit.

The Divine Source

NOW let us take the more intricate side of the wisdom. Little does man know, that the revolution of the world has turned from East to West to North to South in the vibronic unfolding of evolution...

...where all now comes under that of ethereal Macrocratic levity.

For the atoned atom, that of the spun up soul atom now isotoped, is, in its gyrating stillness of the Unknown vibration, bringing into birth of the Macroprosopus, that of the Great FACE, the MIGHTY DIVINITY. That which is covering the earth with Light and Intelligence. Whereby the TONGUE of this Mighty Macroprosopus now becomes that of the Eridanus. A mighty Stream of Fire flowing from the Source.

All this, man is unaware of, yet it is taking place and having a bearing upon mankind. If they had been as gods, or even their minds turned towards Divinity, they would have been aware of this mighty Wealth now covering the earth. So all they do, is create discord, destroy life and send down missiles to the moon.

Man is so puny and so small, as to not recognise of ing Divinities will find an uplifted creation when they arrive. Although this is being sent for the inflowing Source of Heavenly Bodies that are going to come and help the Earth, look what a mighty source of health-giving Fire is coming down for all who are capable of embracing.

Therefore, it can be surmised but slightly, of the vast changes that are due from now onwards. Yet really nothing to fear, for all is as much for the good of man, in his risen up seeking of life, as for the Divinities themselves. The only thing is, the Higher Powers are looking towards Evolution, while man is looking towards self-gain and self-preservation. When really, the preserving of the soul is in attending to the spiritual outlook and not the physical.

Man does not realise that Evolution MUST go on, otherwise life for him will stop as well. For Infinity is between heaven and earth, and one feeds the other; without this life would stop. Therefore, the thing now is to wait and see all this justified, of which I have NO DOUBT.

To fully warrant this, I have been granted another six years of working life, to get my full up to the greatest degree. But of course, anything can happen, but when you are as sure of the after-life as I am, you are not disturbed one way or another.

The Planes of Growth

TO those who are capable of getting a yet deeper comprehension of this lunar fallacy, I have placed a simple diagram which gives you an idea of the different PLANES of orbital growth.

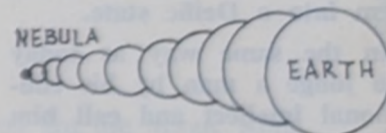

To understand this clearly, it must be recognised that all these orbs or Planets, are Planes, that correspond with the Chakra growth of the human body. In fact, what is of the Universe, which is equal to the Macrocosm, is also in the human macrocosm. This explains of how the Scapegoat's spine is equal to the Spine of the World and Universe. So whatever changes take place with the Scapegoat, has its reflection on the Universe.

In the diagram, you can see how the Fount, which corresponds with the lower part of the body, especially the tail of the Spine where all the seeds of the past are gathered, has polarity with the Pineal Gland in the head, which again, is equal to the Central Sun. Thus all the "seedal waters" in the tail of the spine, inter-blend with the extraction out of the Breath and the Pituitary, and form a SEED in the broiling apparatus in the depths of the soul. This is referred to as being sublimated, where in its rise up the spine as spiritus air, it will be volatilised.

Now by the diagram—which in fact, is all HERE and NOW, as states coming out of themselves—it can be seen, that the moon plane should have been the true Earth Plane or MIND Plane, which now Merope has risen up to the Virgin Plane. But man fell in his outlook and belief, falling right down, past what is now the Maelstrom barrier and became cut off completely from the Solar and Arachnoid Thread.

This was the channel or Stream through which the young gods were fed, as they expanded and grew in their search. The road that the ascending soul climbs as he makes his way back "HOME."

The loss of this, caused the Arachnoid Web to be formed in the brain of man, which brought into birth the "daughters of men." They were the masculine offspring of the Pubes, who were those who the divinities overshadowed and they took up the status of men.

Thus by the means of growth grew the male organ of generation, receiving an inflow of Fire from the heights, which was their task to feed the Earth with, through their mind unity with the heavens. But the story in the Holy Book, tells us of how they threw Joseph down the pit. Joseph represents the YOD, the fire going up, or being polarised, from the 5th to the 11th houses.

That which brings Orion into birth, through the unfolding of the YOD or Yahveh from Joseph, and seen through all the Hebrew line of names beginning with "J," up to Jesus, that of masterhood. This is the weaving or tilling of the ground that was ordered by ADM in the Covenant, and every man has to abide by it in his return into incarnation.

But before we leave the diagram, note that as a soul unifies up the seven Chakras within himself, he unifies up these seven Elements and produces of the eighth, the

by Ra-Men-Ra

DEVOLUTION is the passage of a soul through TIME from incarnation to incarnation, but to explain that more fully, would require to take the passage of the human race through time. And so much that has taken place in that direction is so sadly disrupted by man, especially by authorities, that man is apt to think that what I bring is the romancing of the mind, or if by a 'Spirit Guide,' then just an entity of the Astral planes. For instance, who would ever believe that your Earth-plane once upon a time shone with an inherent incandescence of natural glory, radiant with beauty instead of the 'earth and water' of which it has become. That once it was as a star of the first magnitude, generating its own heat and light by the internal elemental Fires of Cosmic Ether, and not as it now appears, revolving in its orbit, as a dark murky mist-covered cloud-robbed sphere, where disease, corruption and death exists.

The Deific Manhood

AND furthermore, that on this Earth-plane, in its radiant glory, there was a divine human species of Spiritual existence that radiated with paradisaical life. These were called the Sons of God who had bodies of radiance where glorious effulgence of light iridescence streamed from. Man in an involved state of divine Manhood, where purification was leading them into a Deific state.

In the same way as today you judge a man by his educational intellect and call him brilliant, then they had brilliancy of body and knowledge that far surpassed any themes of romance or imagination. Though I would declare, there is no such thing as romance or imagination as man would term it, but of what was; for man cannot think out of time, and if he does think in terms of Astral plane entities, even that is of life in reality and of time.

For what could man think but what has been, or what was impressed on the maelstrom density, for there is nothing else but that. That is time! that is man! that is Cosmos! and nothing can be, but what has been created tangibly, and evolved as basic manifestation, TIME.

The minutely condensed allegory of Genesis is perfectly true, there were beings that were naked and unashamed. Those who had a light vestment that shone with a spirit radiance of light and life of innocence and purity. A seven-fold nature and body structure that was truly naked, but 'robed' in a wedding garment of light, with gifts of the soul and spirit that could function intuitively and inspirationally.

A time when Spirit supplied all that they needed and they could remove stones, such as seen at Stonehenge, Avebury, Egypt and Brittany, more easily than you could remove a small pile of modern bricks. And accounts for how those places of monumental hereditary beauty came about. How the Sphinx, carved from stone that has stood the ravages of the elements for thousands of years, came to exist.

Yes! these Powers did exist, and could again, and WILL, when your earth returns to its natural existency, through beings upon the earth, filling the earth unto its inner unity with spiritual radiance and not the earthy gas of nitrogen.

Egypt still holds, to some thousandth degree, the brilliancy of atmosphere which existed thousands of years ago when atmosphere was radiant and scintillatingly brilliant, free and light to the extent of being as wine would be to you today; and would be just as intoxicating to you now, as old wine when freshly uncorked. The top of your mountain peaks are the nearest I can explain, and you are now acquainted with what happens to man and his body when he reaches such heights.

The History of Life

SO you see, to explain 'Devolution,' I must ask you to accept much of which you have no tangible memory. Yet it is your whole basic of memory. But suppose you accept on the grounds that your Geologists and Archaeologists have found evidence of fossil life in the stratum, that will actually prove all that I am going to relate to you about the Genesis and History of the planet called Earth.

For the strata are the layers of TIME as they moved in and out of existence and context in their changing state, yet writhing and boiling in their stratifying agony from outwards to inwards. But as the earth has gone one way, which would link with the movement of the Solar pull, man has made the reverse, and gone from inwards to outwards.

Another thing to be accepted, and the more difficult of the two, is the fact that there was such a period as the 'Fall.' Not mere religious anaesthesia, but a true fact that there was a period when these Sons of God fell from Grace. A time when the dual parts of the Human Nature were denuded and divested of their Divine enrobement.

(See plate on this page)

The six natures created from the Creation, consisting of Body-nature, mind-nature, soul-nature, and spirit-nature, had their divine light extinguished.

A prominent scientist once gave forth that in his belief, the brain of man, in early times, was perfectly evolved and capacitated for high thought, and that they were not undeveloped creatures, but creatures in whom light went out and not one in whom the apparatus of shining was deficient.

So the point to be considered, is what really did happen to start the path of Devolution and curtail that of evolution. To those of you who have some knowledge of Astrology, and have Saturn retrograde in the 5th house of Leo, the house of 'Time' and 'being,' you should have the whole of the answer.

For this is the house of past and present, and future, through the dissolving of the rock and building of the 'Church'; this is the house of polarity and Spirit-man. If by chance you have Saturn so placed, you should know the answer; for that is the bridge of TIME, the Path of Devolution.

My instrument has that bridge, hence the reason why I can bring the History of Life to you. The reason why every subject of life has been a part of the curriculum of her work as the teacher of this School—Universality; something which many of you have doubted and even scorned.

Well, we have explained so far, now let us start the path; but what about Adam and Eve? For surely it is utterly impossible to expect man to content himself with the belief that the physical and material evils from which the whole creation suffers—disease, corruption, death, mental and

To hard and fast minds this can sound utterly ridiculous, but why?

When the soul is on the road to partial recovery, this becomes as the diaphanous glory of man's solar plexus, the radiance from the sensitised pneumogastric nerve. And when complete, is the 'Woman,' or completed feminine principle, with the stars in her hair, and her feet on the moon, with the sun shining in the solar plexus.

This is the elemental consistency of Saturn, the journey from Alpha to Omega, with Uranus, the Fire, coming from the base of the Sacred Planets, the Will-driver, breaking up the prurient state of man by continual Fire-Thrusts.

The nakedness of the soul refers to the dual nature of the soul with multiplicity of natures, that as a whole was the mystical interpretation of the words, Adam and Eve. Adam, red energies; Eve or Chavvah, Life-spring, showing that the man that was with Adam, was of God. The dual nature of male and female principles that have hidden within the Principle, or 'IT,' seeking to Life-spring as the Son of God. This became the division of man by sexhood, but constitutionally into body and soul.

To make this fully clear, the light vestment that permeated these souls was the whole being, the outer and inner 'clothing,' for they were clothed with Light of the body as well as of mind, soul and Spirit. For by the beauty of Divine wisdom they wove their full heritage of created involution, their own raiment of light from within, and needed no material and intellectual vesture, deriving perfect wisdom and knowledge from the 'IT' within the Spirit Nucleolus.

The Fall was when their eyes were opened through a Fire-Thrust breaking up the 'limited' depth of involvement, that evolution could begin, and began to give mind expansion, that of the Conic-form, which I will make my duty to explain, after this establishment.

The Ruling Potential of Man

THE soul then began to place its theory and thesis into being, for the fire reached their base and set into action their organic principle of generation, that re-generation from mind creation could begin, a surging outwards.

The ruling potential of man is Taurus, the Celestial sign of Desire, the polarity of Scorpio the Logio. And by the solar induction, the Cosmic Fire would bring the two lunar moon-phases waxing and waning unto completion. This is the path of Evolution out of devolution.

But becoming of a dual nature by the slow incestuous creeping thought, induced by Lucifer of Desire, the negative became the intellectual creation of desire; the seed of Thought becoming in its multiplicity of intellectualism, an established creation in its basic state of carnal desire.

It must be seen, and quite rationally, that it was not one attribute, but many, of what had become a divided state, through one thought losing its balance and becoming a multitude of tribes of 'Abraham,' the father of creation. This brought generation of a physical nature, for man being handed the Fire of God in its now ready state for evolution, was ready for the spring forth, but they continued with their new accessory in the downward trend they had been involving through, on a path of Devolution.

Samson treading the continuous path of the grind-mill slowly making an unconscious surge up through mind intellectualism only, with body hardening, not spiritualising. But this also began the increscence of every body, that of mind, soul, spirit and spiritual—that has turned your world into a ravenous wilderness of conflicting elements of struggling and devouring creatures, is caused by a man and his wife who ate a fruit from a prohibited tree.

Or expect you to accept, as the cause of universal sin and suffering, a tale of disobedience of an infantile nature, about a talking serpent, a beguiling woman and of the sudden discovery by a human pair, of a new sense of modesty concerning the suddenly discovered absence of sartorial covering. I am afraid such is the assumption of righteous and ignorant minds; minds clouded with pruriency.

The Nakedness of the Soul

MANKIND in the process of slow devolutionary change, still has with him, that of the perverted chastity that caused the Fall, which in the conventionalism of modern civilisation gives sartorial fashion almost a religious importance.

The shame of the Sons of God was not because of the fact that they were unclothed, but from the fact that they had forfeited that which had been their glorious raiment. The Glory of the Manu shining from their created soul body, and with which they had been arrayed as with a mantle of light.

A MYTHOLOGICAL EXPLANATION OF MAN IN HIS COMPLETE CREATION BORN FROM 'WOMAN,' THE FEMININE CREATION OF THE UNIVERSE.

Thus so stripped, man was ashamed of his denuded constitutional state, his depravity, thus clothed himself with conventionalism; for the soul denuded and naked, feeling the bitter effects of the unprotected state after the loss of its inherent heat and light, began to seek material clothing. And according to the allegory, "sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons."

Fig leaves mystically represent wisdom, and aprons, that of growing mental perceptions of intellectual reasoning, for the provision of substitutes for the Divine Wisdom of the Logos now missing. These substitutes became that of the acquirement of intellectual faculties which function independently of the Spirit, that of the intuitional and inspirational.

The soul in its denuded state had to find some form of expression and consciousness to take the place of the Divine thought, for the Law is movement, and evolution has to go on whether man is of spiritual unfoldment or material increscence—that of the luna and not Solar.

quintessence, and Pluto Christs the soul with the Pure Solar Essence of Divinity.

This is the Divine Right of Kings, which died with Elizabeth the First. For this was the controversy that took place with James the First and Charles the First; they were not granted the Divine Right of Kings. This resulted in Charles being anointed, but being beheaded by the common people, which is not allowed, so the Right was destroyed. By then, and from then onwards, no King or Queen has been of royal blood. It was this that brought into birth of the revolutions and bloody wars.

Samuel created this mystical glory, which man has never understood, but since Merope has brought Royalty back to Divinity, it behoves every man who can truly embrace Divinity, to do so in a Royal Way, that he can be anointed by the REAL Holy Oil of Heavenly assumption.

Vibrational Unfoldment

NOW having got so far, let us go up the Planes. Going up the Planes is ever more and more fluidic than at the base, while at Uranus all would disintegrate, because it is of NO form. The majority of men have never reached that status; this being the Abstract. If this can be seen clearly, it can explain much to the genuine thinker.

But if you also remember that this moon project, especially in America, is a money racket to catch the gullible, you will have another point towards solving this problem. It will never pay them to admit failure after working up the mindless, who cannot think or see any further than their noses. They have only to realise by the state of this mirage, that it is a creation in its reflective supplement, that indicates it would be, if justified, minus the air required by the human soul in its growth.

The soul now requires 100% of the lunar in oxygen and hydrogen, while what was of the moon plane consistency at its time of existence, was only 60% lunar. So if it was created by calcified belief and thought, would not produce enough of the oxygen needed to keep man on that moon creation.

Then there is another point to remember, the moon is reflected by the Sun through the Earth. What is going to happen at the new moon, if it is only a mirage, the creation will be missing. Now another point, the Earth revolves on its Axis, now in VIBRATION from North to South, yet still East to West as far as man is concerned.

This is so as to get active life, but the moon never moves at all, then how can it be of active life, or even be suspended up in the atmosphere? But it is better still to try and understand of this wisdom, to elucidate of the depths.

As the beam of the Solar light reflects at dawn on the maelstrom barrier, it makes a glowing light within the soul, but when the lunar creation touches it, the Solar light turns to desire, unless the soul is struggling as an initiate to become Solar born. Consequently, the majority of people see the moon wrongly and splay the Solar light into multiplicity, which finally reflects upon the maelstrom.

In the day, positive Gemini reigneth and there is mind movement, therewith people start to think, resulting in the Taurus to Scorpio action, and the Scorpio Fires flow down to the earth. So Solar light really begins through the Gemini activity, and is really the mystical message of the mighty Sphinx. Man's thoughts about the moon and the planets, are only chromosonic states within man himself. While the scientists are only hypocritical, and hiding the real motive of their purpose. As man changes, so will the moon and planets change, with the moon completely disappearing.

As a result of the FALL in vibrational descent, as the beginning of TIME, the gods created polarity. This should never have been, for no opposition to Divinity should ever have been allowed. Thereby it brought an inverted descent of the FIRE, as the FALL took place.

Opposite to and away from Divine Grace. This "opposition," that became physical solid Earth, has ever been sustained by the glowing spark within the Divine Atomic FIRE, which soul had stolen from the heights. By Merope recovering this FIRE, soul will only now be able to be maintained by the means of Divinity, extracting the FIRE out of the Breath.

For man has brought the Fire down to be so low, that it can no longer fire him with Solar light. This is the Blood of the Christ that was being crucified within man himself, until Merope placed herself upon the cross, and took upon herself the problems of the World, to bring man back to Divine Grace.

Theocratic Evolution

BY man continuing to hold to the "opposition," the lunar status of independent self, independent of Divine Grace, he would have created a final separateness. But Merope, by doing what she did, changed the LAWS and bound man up tighter still, through himself. For the Gods of the Galactical System, now reside in the meninges of man's brain, as atom structure. So man is not so mad when he hears voices, although perhaps a little unbalanced through being chaotic in his recording of that received. Yet doctors deliberately blast it out of existence, leaving the soul mindless.

Thus the soul who tries to hold to the independent existence from Divinity, which now is impossible, would automatically gravitate to lunar or astral deadness. Those who believe in and live by Divinity, will naturally draw to the Solar Divinity in Theocratic unity.

Very soon a final break or separation will take place, applying to "cell" life also. Two so-called statuses will exist, one Solar as reality, the other lunar, which will only exist in illusion. But since now all will have no Fire through the lower status of their Fire, which alone is existence, soul will only be able to draw out Fire from the Divine Breath.

This being the necessary Fiery Grace, by which to exist. This he can only do through sensitising himself through Occult wisdom. That is the idea of the first article in the Gazette, to raise up the status of the mind, onto a higher plane of thought.

This state of separateness, which many have taken on, will be like a calcified state in Outer Space, finally wearing away into non-existence. This will be what is going to happen to all souls who live in the astral spheres, they will slowly wear away into non-existence, as in the state of the moon. Hence the Americans only went down into the astral planes, the state of Achernar—hell.

But as time goes on, through what Merope set into motion, soul life in rebellion will cease to revolve its memory of self-existence, which is ALL that they would be. As they wear away, nothing whatsoever, not

And man fell into savagery and barbarism, a continued state of differentiation, but on the lowest plane.

This continued with multiplicity of increscence, where blood consanguinity sprang from bringing the soul species incestuous in the blood. This can be better understood when you seek into the theory of 'blue' blood for pure heritage to avoid any form of throw-back. The rearing of pedigree horses and dogs for sensitive form and action; but never the interbreeding of edible livestock so as to get fiery-blooded stock for human food!

This was dealt with very clearly in the Book of Leviticus, in the Bible, where Moses warned the Israelites that it would bring a disastrous note if such was not curtailed, and resulted in the Kosher meat of the Jews.

The Rose of Sharon

(Aged 10 years)

Oh wondrous Rose,
Tell me, and me only,
The mystery of your birth.
Oh tell me, oh tell me...

This is my mystery.

Oh mighty Pharaoh:

I was born in the seed of Life.

I am the only seed,

For I, the holy seed,

Am only carried by King Solomon.

Oh wondrous Rose,

Tell me, and me only,

Of how the holy seed was born.

Oh tell me, oh tell me...

This is how the holy seed was born.

Oh mighty Pharaoh.

For when the Queen of Sheba

Came unto King Solomon.

She gave him the Magic Ring.

And from this, I the holy seed, was created.

As the wonder of her birth.

Oh wondrous Rose,

Tell me, and me only,

Of how the Queen of Sheba got the Magic Ring.

Oh tell me, oh tell me...

This is how she got the Ring.

Oh mighty Pharaoh.

It was given to her by the Lord of the Heavens.

The Almighty Shaddai.

Oh mighty Pharaoh.

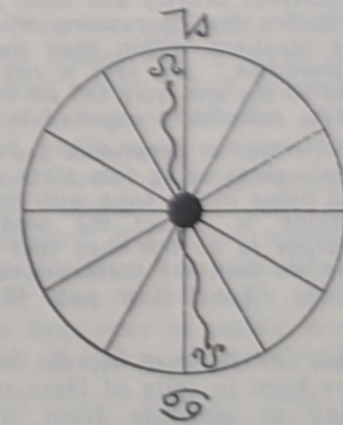

Has this brought the answer to your many problems?

Oh divine Rose of Sharon, yes it has!

even memory, will exist of the previous Earth pollution, evil and rebellion.

This I know is very true, for a soul who lived only for money upon the Earth, after passing over, came back to me in a Direct Voice Seance, and hadn't even a name. But fortunately I was able to recognise him, but was warned not to enlighten him, regarding his problem of rebirth.

Hence Divinity as Theocracy will continue to evolve, ever guided by the Great Unknown Fatherhood, the Fiery Creative Essence of Divine Grace. But never again to "FALL," for Merope has closed the door, to such ever happening again. This took place in the Battle of the good and evil Dragons over Christmas, with Merope winning through all the time.

The surviving Kundalini Fire ever unfolding in the soul, yet the story foretold in Revelations, as the Abyss of Evil that was finally defeated, and the Old Dragon being thrown into the Bottomless Pit.

NOW to finish my tete-a-tete with the readers, I have a special announcement to make. The Readers themselves have decreed this: there was a great call for a supporters association, which it has been decided to refer to as, 'The Guardians of the Temple of the Flame.' The idea is completely Theocratic, where every man contributes as his supporting donation, what he believes he can afford. This makes all a matter of free giving by LOVE of purpose, a true Theocratic Solar creation.

A membership card suitable for the occasion is being printed, which will entitle the holder to be present at the many gatherings that take place on the Upper Planes, with the Greater Powers. All gathered together during sleep-state, and being shepherded up onto those Planes, by the unfolded Powers of Merope.

Such gatherings will be announced and described after, and any who can bring back of any vivid visions, which tally with the true spectacle, will be published. This will start from the beginning of the Year, and as soon as these cards are printed, we will account for the donation received.

At the same time I would like to thank the many for their kindly gifts to help us through this difficult period. But have thought it would be a good idea if we gave once a month a donors list, letting everybody get an idea of how much the Gazette is appreciated.

This free-will action is a part of the future World of Vega, where man contributes and creates of his own free-will. Therefore, it can be seen, the more we serve those Greater Powers, the better for ourselves in the long run.

I wish you all a very, very happy Theocratic New Year, and the very best in all your studies.

Glady J. Spearman-Cook.

physical; and coats of skin began to form with solid bone structure and solidifying earthiness.

And Adam called out to God, "I heard thy Voice in the garden and was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself." And the Lord God said, "Who told thee that thou was naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee thou shouldst not eat?"

Wisdom being received as virgin light to be brought forth in creation, placed into negative creation through lack of experience. And the incentive of creation and expansion became trial and error. Hearing the Voice was awareness breaking through in the garden of growth. This again refers to a period of time.

The error of the trial cut off the stream of Divine Life, or Vital Principle, and man was bereft of Glory, the wisdom and power of God, for the Fire that should have jet-propelled him upwards, became the well of Mara—bitterness; that Virgo, the 6th house of the zodiacal prognosis, brings forth as either the conscious mind unfoldment through devolution, or it remains in a prostituted state as sickness of the body, in its ever involving condition of increscence.

Man became denuded of his divine covering and nothing remained but the bare forming intellect, his carnal intelligence. This was now his reasoning faculty in logical or practical mind, that of Cain and Abel.

He was truly naked; he had lost his wedding garment, for Cain murdered Abel and was doomed to labour for both until he could embrace his brother who resided in the upper World; mind-memory.

This of course links with the intake of the Solar Fire and man not being able to handle and manifest it to the full measure required; thus has to go down into the river of experience with the growth extracted until he can resurrect it as the many trees within his garden of growth; and even the spirit as a screech-owl, which must be set into motion by the daily absorption and mind expansion of the soul, becomes as a black swan for the time being.

SO TAKE THE WISDOM AND SILENTLY WRESTLE WITH IT, BUT BURY THOSE STATES WITHIN THYSELF THAT CAN IN NOWISE REVERENCE THE TEACHINGS.

The story of Phaethon was a myth devised to account for the origin of electron or amber that was produced from the tears of the Sun-god Phoebus-Apollo who was embraced in the Moon's Horns, the lunar light. These tears were shed when he came to the land of the Hyperboreans who were exiled from heaven on account of the fate of his son Asclepius who was unshaded but with a staff: (he had not protected himself, but he had still got the staff of the spine whereby he could use it).

This, although being a myth, in reality holds untold truths; for here we see the full story of how the solar fire must reach the heights by mind activity, even if not in its full throes, by electronic action, that the seeds of the pomegranate can burst from their cup and impregnate the depths. Then Io, the personality will labour and help Prometheus to become freed from the rock he became chained to as he fell.

A New Calendar of the Gods

HERA (the magnetic movement) tried hard to prevent Apollo's birth: (she did not want Electro to come into birth), for when she found that Leto was going to bring a child of Zeus more dear than her beloved Mars (mere energy), she knew there would have to be a greater labouring on the part of her sons, and would they carry out the task? She was doing quite well under the hand of the Goddess.

Now perhaps some of you who have refused to bring forth in greater labouring will realise that you are bound by Mars and Hera; those that refuse to labour, refuse to get the electronic power. You are quite content with mere energy because you do not understand that that is of no use now in this world that is becoming Solar-born. It was all right in the past, but not now.

But to us now it indicates that a new calendar was framed with an intercalary arrangement and would prove superior to that which was activated by Mars. Intercalary indicates points set in-between the equinoxes that would quicken and heighten the purpose from one point to another.

The previous arrangement belonged to Hera, the Daedala intercalaries, and though cunningly wrought were not embroidered, therefore did not suit the gods. So the myth explains that Hera was jealous of Leto and tried to destroy her son, the sun-god, and is the opposition between the two calendars of the past and the present. But at this time it is obvious that the priestesses of Hera and Ares, as Venus and

Mars, would now show active antagonism to the new system, for the change would demand altered symbolism, new rituals and new priests, besides new understanding, and there is nothing man loathes more; yet he agitates for variety.

The month of the intercalary is Taurus, where it receives the Fire from Scorpio and sends it back and forth, bringing the froth into birth, or it immediately oozes out as desires. The soul that can wrestle with the Tide and draw in of these intercalaries as they wrestle with them, will bring the wealth of the united state of Mars and Venus, the two lower chakras.

arrows of Apollo directed by Uranus (the breaking down of old states to bring of new): it was by such he sent the plague into the camp of the Greeks and brought about their later sterility. On another instance he is the god who affords help and wards off evil, for he became the father of Aesculapius, the god of the healing art, and was also identified with Paeon, another god of healing art.

Then of course he has been seen as the god of prophecy; the power that exercises the numerous oracles as fiery life, especially at Delphi (the great power under the solar plexus): this the god was able to communicate unto man as the gift of deed (what you have gathered up during the ages). As god of song and music he produced the phorminx, the oldest stringed instrument of Apollo, delighting the immortal gods of the Iliad (the seven-stringed lyre of the senses).

was true by the sun and the calendar seasons hand in hand with Nature.

You know when to plough your ground; you know when to sow your seeds; you knew when the frost was coming, and you knew the morning was rising; because you know yourself and you understand yourself. You know where you must cut off the head of the Medusa: you know when you must go forth to fight the leviathan; for you now are becoming as Hercules.

The Six Hours are the 6 Horae that pass from one year to the next on the 21st December as symbolism when the Sun passes into the next year during the night, and the Virgin goes up and she meets the Solar god square and they pass one another across the 90° where six hours of the world are never in the time calendar. But if man is wise, and can snatch those six hours, then he is going to be born on the Sothic Cycle, the Great Holy Stream of Life that was destroyed by orthodoxy when they changed the birth of the Solar god from the 21st of December to the 25th, and then placed him as a dead god upon a cross.

Orthodoxy killed the Sothic Cycle; it killed the ancient gods and only brought into birth a dead religion, which they must die with: henceforth man is left with only stolen fire and man is tied to the rock of orthodoxy. Get free from that rock: become bound now to the Sothic Cycle that will wheel you round into the Stream of New Life. Draw from the Intercalaries: get the Wisdom of the Gods; get the knowledge of the Heavens: be born anew as an independent Solar God.

Oh yes! Hera and Ares attempted it, but that was the first attempt preparing the way for Apollo to manifest; and by his reasoning and calendar creation, all was effected in a perfect way. So Apollo was elevated to the highest place next to Zeus and each is a lord of the year; thus Zeus is king and Apollo the grand vizier.

THIS WHEN SEEN IN THE LIGHT OF THE SOUL,—WHICH OF COURSE BEARS THE GREATEST EXPLANATION,—IS THE UNFOLDMENT AND BIRTH OF LIFE AS MIND EXPANSION IN THE SOUL.

Without this takes place, Hera would not be worshipped by him, therefore her fields would be fallow through the lack of consideration. Ares would not be as fiery energy but dreamy delights, and could not possibly continue. This really gave to both of them new life, substantial creation and establishment; but they must learn to bow to the new lord and obey his tenements.

Mind Purification

IN Egypt when the child Horus was born a similar system was created: this raised him to a position hardly distinguishable from that of Ra (but he was there). Horus was the embodiment of the Six Hours or Horae that made the year complete from the old into the new; for it was the only real period of birth, and made the solar year complete as the yearly creation, and Cosmic Year as the Solar Year of 26,000 years. Therefore the Greeks declared the identity of the Egyptian Horus with their Apollo.

Latona or Leto, of whose myth we shall bring at a later date, was nurse rather than mother and received him as a sacred charge from Isis; thus was as the spirit imbued in the personality who was labouring to bring forth the solar child in the womb of the mind, as the harlot to the virgin. So as not to lose him she hid him in the floating island at Buto, the place of spinning where he would receive a thick woven robe.

He had to be hidden because Typhon, the fiery dragon of matter was searching for him; (he had to be laid low, or curbed, or caught); this was the seven-headed, and would be the sensory fire within the soul seeking to devour of the life that it could become the inborn creation of the soul's birth into the Solar Lord's domain. There was always a wrestle as to which way it would go).

It was this creature that stood before the woman that he might devour her child; thus when seen as Python would be seen as the life devoured by this monster, and rising as the fiery life of the golden Dragon that gave life and birth to all when properly interwoven as a shimmering garment from the thick woven robe.

If Typhon is seen as the Dragon of Darkness,—that not known and which must be laboured with until light is brought to its scale,—it will have dissolved the enigma; (that which you laboured with once it takes it, because it is your seven-headed): thus it can be understood why it encroached upon the kingdom of light, both when the calendar was inaccurately measured and all times, for it was a never-ceasing movement of precession.

So even in the human soul Apollo has a five-fold battle to fight, first to rectify the devastation of precession erroneously created in body, mind and spirit; and then to form a perfectly measured year when once the soul has seen the purpose and can abide by that required.

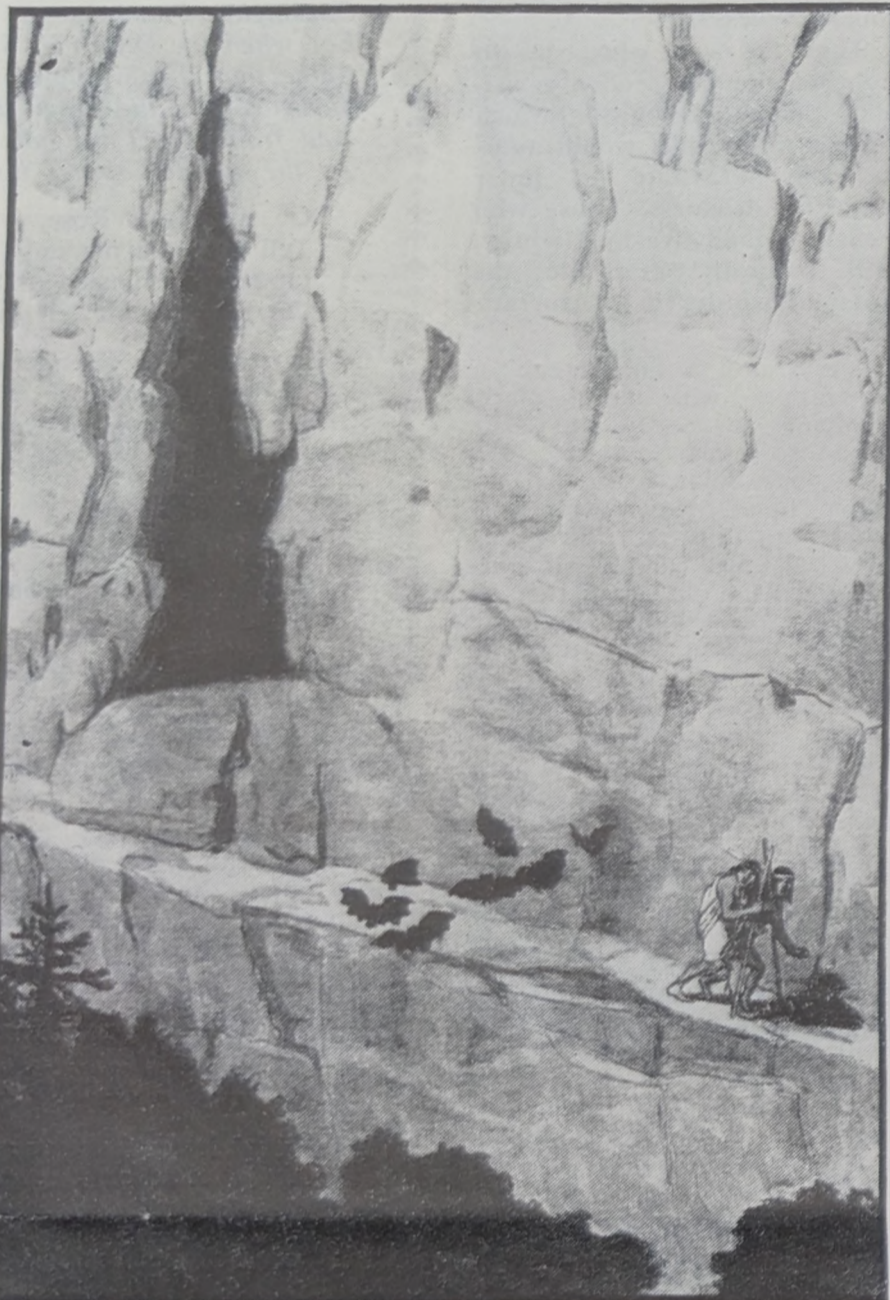

Meaning that it takes the Solar Fire as it goes through those five, continually on layer after layer and vibration after vibration until the soul learns the lesson and brings it forth in a proper creation: every thought goes through the whole lot like that.

This could only be done by a recognised system of intercalaries that are well respected and provoked. These would be understanding of the laws that demand attention and respect at certain moments of the stars making their debut in the Sothic Cycle being fulfilled. This was the Virgin meeting her lord at the winter solstice and receiving the gifts of the 6 Horae that gave her child new life, that as Horus he could rise up from Harpocrates with one leg. You cannot walk with one leg.

(When you can understand the Festivals of the Gods which we are going to bring to you in these Myths, you will understand how you must respect them and bring them forth in the different houses as your Moon travels through them, or you are struggling with it).

The darkness as the Python signifies putrefaction and signifies the noxious vapours and exhalations which arose from the earth after Deluge, which were dispelled and the air purified by the rays of the Sun. But the myths have been forgotten and, even so, not really taken in their true light, for they are the prototype of all creation ever since; thus become the ever-repeating story of the Kingdoms within the soul, especially in the matter of transmuting of their existence from the 3rd to the 4th dimension.

So it can be seen that the story of the Python in mythology is of great importance. Delphi means Pytho because the Python was killed there, or shall we say mastered; while Pythian Games are instituted to keep alive the memory of conflict in the same way as many of the native dances. In the case of the former, the priestess that officiated was known as the Pythia,

THE FIRES OF EXPERIENCE

THIS portrays the soul who refuses to pass through those fires.

Here you see the mind in its dual capacity living down with the rock and being besieged by bats, fears; the sensitivity that is running riot because the soul will not go through the fires of experience bravely and learn; consequently they are in a tumult with fire that is running wild, that drives them and brings out the creations within their own inner being that have not been transmuted: the soul is not in a position to hold them. Those two in the end may fall off into yet greater depths, finding themselves completely engulfed in darkness.

The fires of experience are the fires of life where you learn and you seek to bring into birth your definition of those experiences; not living in the dung with them, but seeking to rise above them; seeking to deduct the wisdom gained. Once a soul has the courage to do this then they can become a vessel for the spirit; and we seek for those vessels because they truly are the heroes of life. (See text on page 16, col. 1).

But for all that, Apollo became born in spite of Hera refusing to generate from the magnetic into the electric, which meant circularised vibrations through the intercalary points that urge action of mind and not psychic dreaming. So his first action is in the spring equinox, and this is why Callimachus, the well formed and triumphant, is able to say that Argos, those rich but fallow, did not shrink like other cities from sheltering Leto, the spirit; but he had work to do in other quarters, so recognised it.

The powers ascribed to Apollo are of different kinds, but all connected with one another. On one instance he is as the god who punishes, and is represented with bow and arrows, the gift of Hephaestus the fire-god. All sudden "deaths" were the effect of the

So from this the invention of the flute and lyre were ascribed unto him as the quadrature: the lyre he received from Hermes (wisdom; and they were then to play upon the strings of his sensitivity). Then as the fifth attribute he became the god who protected flocks and cattle, for his life gave them generation: (the flocks of cattle are literally his wealth): and as the sixth he delighted in foundations and establishment of towns and civil constitutions for enriching his domain: (bringing richness of establishment to his own creations, his own twelve celestial cities).

Then as the seventh he was the god of the Sun, for as Apollo he came forth to complete the Solar Year, but a year made accurate by taking the Six Hours into account; which means that the recorded time and Apollo that came forth from the action was called Pythius.

What do you think man is living today for? Why do you think he is continually listening to jiving music? He is doing exactly what the native did,—rousing his mind; but he does not want to do it the right way.

You do it by the dancing of the mind through the Wisdom; that is the finest way. Make the mind dance with the knowledge; wrestle with yourself until you do bring the intercalaries into birth by the sweeping backwards and forwards in Taurus to Scorpio, bringing the rolling of the tide and the gathering of the foam as you wrestle with it.

Then you find in the Hymn to Apollo Pythius the monster called Dracaena, the female form of Drakon. The defeat of this great Dragon, the force and darkness of life, cannot be explained in just the victory over light and warmth and darkness and cold of winter, but is the annual mastery over the phenomena of Nature, when man conquers the elements in the spate of time.

And his own personal gods are but a part of this conquest, but really inadequate with regard to the greater myths; and if we rest there, will never really recover the history of the past. You might ask yourself the question, "Why should Apollo, Artemis and Leto—and not the other divinities—be honoured in the Pythian Games if the contest related only to annual phenomena? There must have been yet a deeper message to man in his personal struggle."

The Greeks understood this knowledge best next to the Egyptians, although they had not the experience that came with the Greeks in the later days. It was they who finally fixed the four great national feasts of the Pythia in the neighbourhood of Delphi: (the seven Lyre that fought and mastered to bring the horse back into life, the fiery life of the soul as the horse, the passions that were killed: they were determined, and they prayed to the Gods to give them strength to bring it back into life); the Games being according to the legends and really were instituted by Apollo himself, for he directed the mind of the soul in the inspirational outburst.

Though some traditions referred them to Amphictyon, the revolutions of the Moon in her measures, and Adrastus as the Nemesis in her male creation; that not to be escaped. But in understanding the depths of this game of Alchemy we will be able to gain here a confirmation of the view that Amphictyon ends where Apollo begins at 2418 B.C. when the gods themselves entered into their rightful perspective through precession. (2 duality; 4 quadrature; 1 completeness; 8 raised; 2418—6 Venus).

The Games really began as a musical contest and ended up in the regal hymn-singing in honour of the Pythian God. This was accompanied on a cithara, and was equally as important as the mass accompanied by the organ,—if anything at all, more important,—for the god then was understood, revered and believed. Today man does not even know what the mass is about, and certainly not what for; in fact, many of the priests officiating are not aware of the purpose, if there is one.

MAN'S GODS ARE HIS OWN PERSONAL CONFLICT AND HIS GOD HIS OWN PERSONAL CONCEPTION.

One of the musical contests in which only the flute and cithara players took part, was the nomos pythikos. This consisted of five parts and was a musical description of the fight of Apollo with the Dragon, and his consequent victory over the monster: (the fight with his own five sensory organs, his five sensory strings trying to bring forth the rhythm of life).

There had actually not been any rectification for precession since the destruction of Lycaon and his sons in 2782 B.C., and the calendar still remained five degrees out of place, so that all calculations were erroneous and predictions false. Lycaon means scattered like chaff, for he was the son of Pelasgus, one full of confusion therefore not successful, and Lycaon continued in the form of evil doings as seen by the figures, with which his sons contributed also.

As a priest he offered up to false gods, which resulted in two great pythons coming up out of the sea stinging him and his sons, by which they were fully brought by the difficulties around that time; and naturally the world was awaiting a doughty hero who could slay him. But when of the Jews they thought it was to be to their advantage, not realising that they were the defaulters; yet one born of their race did come forward, for his mother was a Jewess.

Was she not as Leto who came forward carrying two babes, Apollo and Artemis in her arms, and when assailed by the Python, she sought refuge on a sacred stone near a plane-tree at Delphi, and raised up the world by the birth she brought forth. The personal does not concern us, but the universal outcome does, for it fed all life and brought real truth into being.

ruined the outcome at the most critical time of all this Great Solar Year.

The destruction of the Python always forms the chief event of the sacred fables: it has always been that by this feat Apollo can gain possession of the oracular chasm from Typhon, of which the goddess Earth is in charge and referred to in Revelations as the Harlot now clothed in purple and sitting on the back of the beast with seven heads: (you have raised it up; you have brought it away from the chasm, and you have brought it up to the heights which are now continually becoming the mind: the soul is continually being born of its solar-child).

The serpent Python is the guardian of the ancient oracle

And it must not die: those who attempt this will die first, and an agonising death: those who stand by her to see this Work through are doing the Work of the Gods and will become blessed, and will go into the Isles of the Blest with her when she goes over. This is the Work of the Sun-God, and the Mastery.

Through the defilement of Parnassus to Delphi which brought Greece to her knees, the battle of Apollo begins in the first month of Spring, the commencement of the year. On the seventh day the Iesus did destroy the Python: this was the day when the oracle first broke silence and has remained the prototype ever since. It brought forth then that God was Love, and it was not the desires of the soul: and when man can bring forth those waters as his god and his Godhead, then indeed he is fulfilling the oracle in its true light.

It must be seen that Apollo is a Time-god and the rectification of the place of the Equinox among the stars was but preliminary to the reformation of the calendar. But of this we will continue next time, for then we might be able to solve yet a further mystery of the Sphinx.

So now you have some understanding of what you are made up of, what is within you; what you have got to wrestle with to some degree, and why you should wrestle with it: why man is suffering as he is today, why he is in a continual state of having to put himself straight. But he is not going the right way about it by taking drugs and having his limbs severed by the knife, and losing organs. This is only adding more and more to the confusion.

Man must wrestle with himself and bring forth that solar-god, by wrestling with time and wrestling with the Word; knowledge, understanding, mastery, and then bringing forth the wisdom. And as you slowly ascend the spiraculum, as you slowly build up on the 'spiral,' you will know when you are getting there; and no matter what you suffer, you will know that you can never 'let go' whatever it costs you; if it costs you untold pain, you must go on.

If you are one who has reached anywhere near that, that you know that you are indeed one who should value what you have. But if you are one who is still crying out against it, then I would say, get down to work at once and destroy those elements within you, before you are destroyed by yourself.

TIME

O' DIVINE creature, the glory of all that has ever been, unified into one atomic creation, and emblematic of the whole Universe. Yet he knoweth it not and grovels in the dust, when he could take the world into the palm of his hand and bring it to the glories demanded by Divinity. (See text on page 7, col. 1).

turned into wolves. In his reign the Flood of Deucalion occurred which was believed to be the result of Lycaon and his family.

This is quite understandable, for as a priest he brought those powers down wrongly and caused deluge to all around, and the powers as Nemesis-Adrastus took toll in wiping out the whole family.

(It is understandable when you realise it is linked with the move-over from Taurus into Aries when there was a terrible chaos: this chaos is within man today as he tries to move over from Taurus into the pioneer; for Taurus is the state where man is continually possessive and holds to himself. Cancer is where the man refuses to understand, refuses to struggle, but Taurus is possessive; he holds on to those states which he has and will not bring them expansion; he will not become the pioneer).

This caused others to seek deeply, which resulted in the calendar eventually being rectified, for man learns by the mistakes of others; but it is still in the atmosphere. Yes! it was being rectified by others who tried to put into the atmosphere the Truth. Remember the whole of the atmosphere is alive with Time; that is why you see the Sun, Moon and stars reflected in it.

Birth of the Solar Child

IN ancient times the goddess Ge gave true oracles, she who came before all time and was followed by Themis, goddess of law and order and was consulted by Deucalion, him of the sum of ten, when the Deluge ended in 2782 B.C. This states of times when life really began to get to grips with reality, and the Solar life was welling into birth, and greater still as the Christos establishment.

Apollo now succeeds to the place and office and does so by destroying the Python. The Python had obtained possession of the equinox oracle wrong-

If you have never brought forth your solar-god then you have never tried to capture these states; they are still within you as fixtures; they are species, many of them breeding as you feed them on erroneous knowledge.

When this occurred the babes were four days old; the establishment of the duality was four square. Apollo was a child at the time of this event for others had laboured before, especially David who, although he had not raised a stone to perpetuum, cleared the way; so that when the action of the god had to be represented at the great festival, the part was taken by a Delphian boy, one raised on the wisdom of Pythos and whose parents were alive.

The two babes represent the two equinoxes which were both threatened with disaster: at the time it was only the Autumn, but if the way had not been raised, the Spring as well would have perished and all would have collapsed in deluge.

(That was the moving back and forth of the Solar light through the soul down into Hades bringing forth light, and was the Spring and the Autumn equinoxes. These are the ones that bring the solstices into birth, which of course are the heights.

You will learn more about these as we bring you the greater knowledge; but at the present moment, get the understanding of alchemicalisation within your being; what you are made up of, what you have got to try and wrestle with and why you should struggle to try and understand the knowledge of how to change yourself. Get that into your mind first, and we will bring the rest).

The discrepancy between the true equinox and the antiquated one, now false, has to be removed, for there is nothing more erroneous than orthodox's rendering of the establishment of the Christos light. The only cross that the God was placed upon was the cross they engineered, which literally of the earth and is dwelling in the dark defile near a fountain which is supplied from the Styx. This refers to no other than the generative source of the human soul which receives its life essence from the great River of Life, the piercer as the venom flowing to mankind direct from the heights and makes its way through the Milky Way.

After it was conquered by Paul, the Iesus of that day, it remained as a memorial of the ancient struggle and of the victory of the god. Thus became enfolded in all men near the rocky chasm at the geographical Delphi; but long, long ago; and the tripod then,—the seat of the priestess,—was where she sat over it.

Now we understand that the true chasm was of seven days, which means it had widened to seven degrees of the circle; the whole seven sensory organs had become thoroughly infected, whereas we had only expected five. The whole of the Hyades were discarded at that time and though said to be five, were in reality seven; and all had to be given rebirth.

If Paul wrestled with sex, what is the god wrestling with today? Desires, food, that man can become master of himself, that he can be born into Solar light. That is the knowledge of this Temple, and why it is equal to the period then. This was the knowledge brought by my Instrument: the struggle to master the diet, master Taurus. He mastered Mars. She is mastering Venus; and when these two are mastered then Mars in Scorpio and Mars in Taurus is brought out of its depth.

Now perhaps you will understand why the Instrument has Mars in Taurus. She has the full complement united in her heights. Perhaps you can see now the many ages she must have wrestled to master that, to come forth to do this Work.

THE HERB GATHERERS

by Miss Winifred Chitham

IN retrospect, I can see that we were an unique family, as we grew up with herbs, herbs, and still more herbs. Our father was the first president and our mother the secretary of the first Theosophical Society ever formed in the city in which we live. We as children lived with this wisdom and our mother's words at all times were "get your mind improved, for all is mind." Books were put in our hands and I clearly remember reading astrology books from the age of seven. Our mother would say, "common sense, common sense; keep your head in the air but your feet on the earth;" and that coupled with 'balance' was the essence of all Religion and Healing. She herself was powerfully clairvoyant, and visited by Great Angel Beings all her life and always knew what was going to happen. This I mention only, as the background in which we were brought up.

WE acquired when we were young a country cottage at the princely sum of 2s. 6d. a week. Thatched roof, oil lamps, no water, but a pump and a large garden. We used to go there for weekends and holidays. When our father fell ill with a patch on the lungs, and had to give up his job, he spent much of his time at the cottage, and became very interested in herbs, and after much experimenting he finally became cured, the cure being Iceland Moss, Lungwort, Horehound, Broom and Water Betony.

This started an all out effort to learn more about herbs. Our mother was even more interested, and we as children were, as well. Our father was dispatched to the Library to get all the Botanical books, and Wild Flower and Herb books, and at week-ends we explored the country side.

Far and wide we went, and oh so gradually we learnt as we went along. All of us were clairvoyant, and as we picked and gathered the herbs, they were all explained to us by our invisible helpers.

My brother who was nine at the time, was already deep in astrology, and he learnt and applied, even at that age, what ruled the herbs. Everywhere we went we gathered herbs and we loved it, and our father was known as the 'herb man': how we all laughed at this.

We dried the herbs at the cottage by hanging them up, and after many weeks, when dried, we chopped them up. If we came upon a herb we did not know, out came the books: then the herb was gathered. First we found out what the herb was called, where it grew, and what planet ruled it and what it was used for. After much trial and error, slowly but surely our knowledge grew, and our mother put the remedies together.

As the word went out about the 'herb gatherers,' permission was given to go everywhere to gather them; corn fields, railway banks, farm lands, mowing fields and hedgerows. All were interested, from millionaires to squires and villagers.

We packed our food for the day, and off we went. We were consulted by everybody, and the biggest laugh we ever had,—for we were all gifted with a gay and merry sense of humour,—was when my father was asked by a farmer who had some broody hens that would not lay, for some pills. He gave them Bile and Liver Pills which he made himself, and in two days the hens were laying better than they had ever done. To be followed by a request to visit his Prize Cow who was ill. My father advised Coriander Seed, one and a half pints, and poured it down the cow's throat. After that, the farmer's trust and belief in us all was pathetic. The cow was healed magically.

for colds and 'flu, among other things, and is often used with Peppermint.

OUR father made his own pills, using powdered herbs and pounding them together, then rolling them out through a pill machine, and afterwards in liquorice powder. Sugar-coated pills were rare in those days.

To me was given the task of making the ointments, using a pure vaseline base for face lotions, and lotions of all kinds, and I loved it.

My father finally opened a Herb Shop, and my brother helped him a little. People came from far and wide, my father prescribing herbs to suit each case, and mixing them as he went along. He inspired bladder attacks. This, with a milk and fat free diet, soon cured the trouble.

Roots and Juniper Berries, along with Hawthorn, need boiling to soften.

Regularly taken, it will clear all stones and gravel from the system, and is good for cystitis and ovary troubles. Ulcers of all kinds and stomach troubles respond to it.

Gastritis trouble needs a different treatment, and I often found this responded to Gentian Root, Valerian, and we also used Fennel Seed and Coriander Seed, as well as orange peel, and it worked wonders.

Spinal and nerve troubles responded to Gentian Root and Valerian, and headaches also responded, especially with Lime Flowers and Borage Borage herb which loosens the tension and blood-flow in the head, Lily of the Valley, Horsetail, Mistletoe, Marigold Flowers and Broom.

The kidney herbs we used were always Hydrangea, Wild Carrot, Shepherds Purse, Parsley Piert, Parsley, Juniper Berries, Kek; and for back-ache, Juniper Berries, Southernwood or Old Man as it was sometimes called, and Tansy herb. For catarrh of the womb, Chickweed, Vervain, Tansy, Rue, Mistletoe, Uva Ursi and Scullcap.

For incontinence of urine, especially in young nervy children, all responded to Periwinkle, and what a wonderful herb it is, and is the Diabetes cure, almost on its own; it is also invaluable in all glandular wasting diseases, especially in young children.

For tonics we used Scullcap, Gentian, Valerian, Lime Flowers, Borage herb, Mistletoe, Lily of the Valley, and Rosemary.

For eye trouble we gave Birds Eye, Eyebright, Rosemary, and especially Lily of the Valley. Like Rosemary, Lily of the Valley is an astringent tonic. The other herbs soothe the irritation away.

For constipation we used Senna, or a few Camomile or Angelica; Liverwort, Raspberry leaves, and a variety of other herbs.

THERE is no doubt that as we progressed we became master psychologists, as we so knew our subject, we became it, and Healing poured through us, though we knew it not.

I have found three basic causes of illness, leaving out all karmic debts, and purely physical. TENSION, CONGESTION, and the most important but scorned by the medical profession, INTES-TINAL POISONING.

This I found to be the cause of all skin troubles, and many cases of epilepsy, and often asthma and bronchitis. Once the poisons are cleared out of the system by Broom, Uva Ursi, Buchu, etc., and Burdock, the trouble soon heals up.

I found with asthma and bronchitis to treat for the lungs and bronchial tubes, never got anywhere, but once I treated with a good cough medicine, such as Balm of Gilead, and then treated for stomach and liver with Lungwort and Horehound, Water Betony and Coltsfoot, the most difficult cases responded.

We had many failures, but they were mostly karmic debts.

For hay fever, Lime Flowers, Borage herb and Eyebright had a magical effect, with Buchu added as well.

WE also learned the language of the flowers, and what they were symbolical of. We could read the skies like an open book, and always knew what the weather would be.

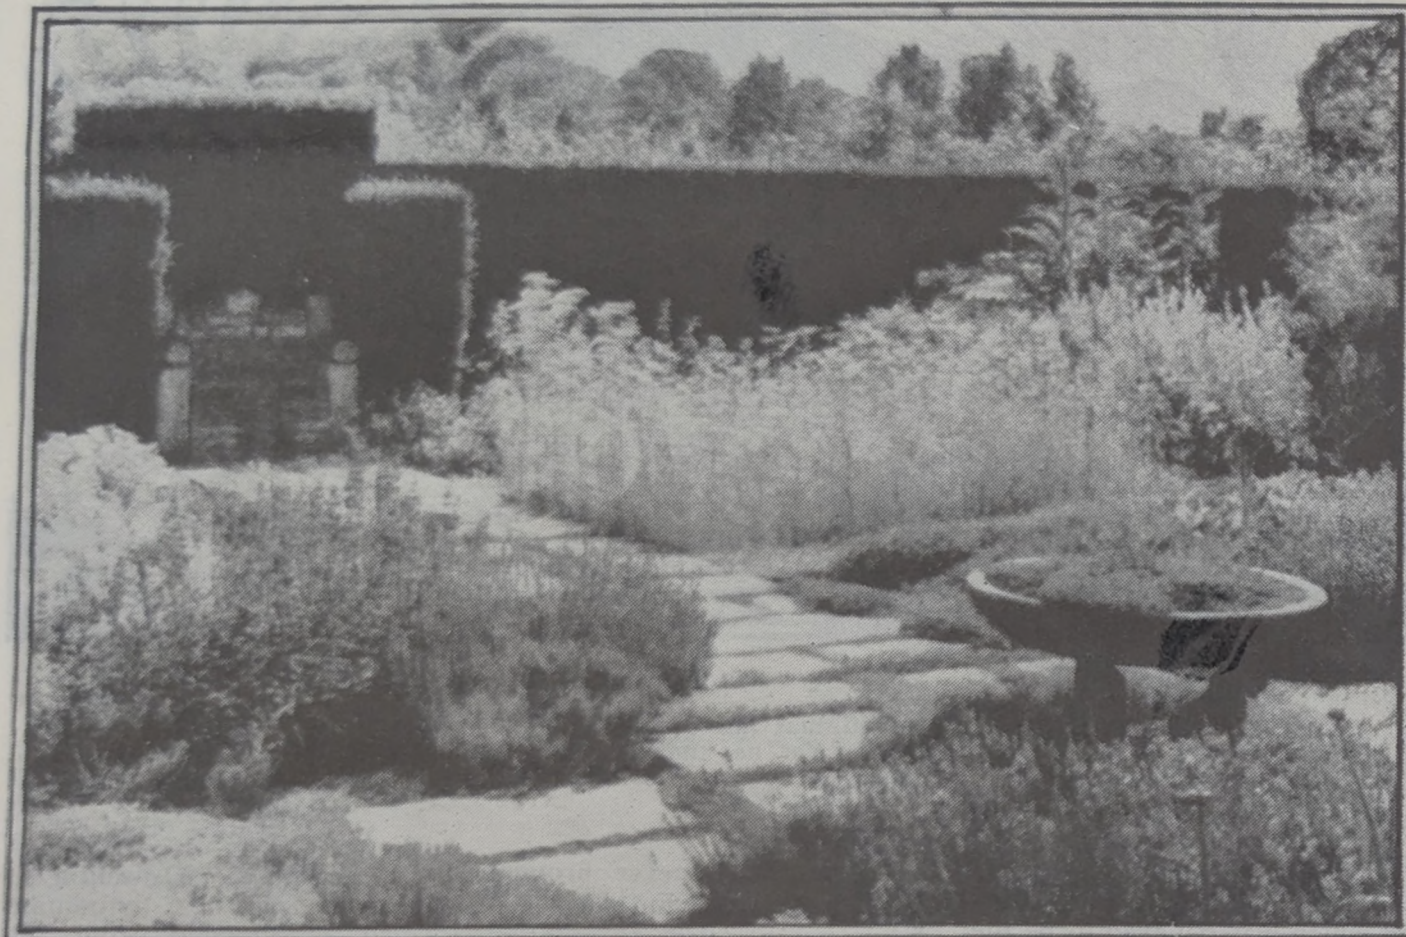

Our mother liked to sit alone by the babbling brooks, in which she alone heard the Heavenly Music from the Highest Spheres.

Our father sat meditating on the herbs and remedies. He was completely self-taught, having it all revealed to him.

My love was with the woods, the deeper and more sombre the better, for here I felt was life. The birds sang at the coming of the Spring, their vibrational notes, I feel sure, awakening the sap in the trees and bringing sleepy Nature gloriously alive.

We always had time to stand and stare. They knew, and we also, where every bird

ICAN see now, though none of us knew it then, that we were all born healers, but we had to 'start from scratch.' We knew all the herbs in the countryside, what they were used for, and what they were ruled by; in fact we became herbal healers.

Herbs growing in different parts vary a lot in quality. Coltsfoot grown on railway banks was very different to the field or garden grown, and I think much better. Coltsfoot, like Marshmallow and Angelica, is a general purpose herb. It is chiefly for the chest and lungs; it knits broken bones together, and is good for fluid, liver, stomach and kidneys. When in doubt, these herbs with Chickweed, are always safe. It was amazing, as we grew to know about the herbs, how Mother Nature took us to her bosom and showed us what they were good for.

I remember the first herb we ever gathered was Pilewort, often called Celandine, the first of the flowers and herbs, along with Aconite, to flower in the Spring about March to April. When it was dug up, its roots were exactly like a bunch of piles. This is still unmatched for piles, both to take internally, to bathe with, and apply the pilewort ointment. I have found that piles need an astringent as well, such as Pilewort with Witch Hazel herbs; if not, Rosemary or Lily of the Valley. Even a bad attack of bleeding piles I have known to respond to this, if the treatment is kept up regularly.

The Elderflower herb and flower is another healing and all-purpose herb, which is slightly astringent. It is good faith. Our mother had more of a practise in herbal medicines, as well as herbs, and prescribed also. Our mother inspired even greater faith, as she was rich in wisdom. Her greatest gift, and mine also, was our ability to diagnose.

Like an eagle swooping on its prey, and with unerring accuracy, we swooped on the trouble, and at the same time, the right herbs to use. We used our clairvoyant faculty alongside practical help. Always our mother's cry was, "Receive from the mind, and earth it."

We came to realise eventually that in 'prescribing' it is necessary to have a basis from which to build-up, and we found a stomach herb and kidney cleansing herb, too, adding more of one or the other as the case required.

We used these herbs regularly and had wonderful results, for gall bladder, kidney and bladder stones, sand and gravel, and all urine troubles. This was one of our mother's remedies, which she received through inspiration. We sent it everywhere, the chief herb being Blue Flag Root. In herbal medicines, which are much stronger, it took six weeks to dissolve the stones and complete the healing, but a week or two longer with plain herbs.

Blue Flag Root ... 4 ounces
Hydrangea ... 2 ounces
Juniper Berries ... 1 ounce
Coriander or Cummin or Fennel Seed ... 1 ounce
Parsley Piert ... 1 ounce

(for gravel, gravel sand, and all urinal troubles, mix all together, and do one ounce at a time).

Put into cold water, bring to boil and boil for one hour; strain and take two or three cups-full a day; or every two hours, in bad cases of gall herbs, and in obstinate cases we used Yarrow as well.

Yarrow, Raspberry leaves and Borage herb, get the blood moving in the head, and prove invaluable for blood pressure.

For all kinds of liver trouble and ulcers, Angelica and Fennel Seeds are recommended. Ordinary liver or stomach trouble, and liver constipation, I have known cured in three to four weeks with Angelica and Fennel Seeds.

Much experience has taught me that Fennel, Coriander or Cummin Seeds need to be used sparingly. If too much is used, this locks the flatulence and wind, instead of moving it. Two dessert-spoons of herbs, two tea-spoons of the seeds is enough.

For dropsy we used Lily of the Valley, Broom, Water Betony and spiked Willow herb. All the herbs for water or fluid conditions grew either in or around the water's edge.

For sleeplessness we used Gentian Root, Valerian, Hops and Scullcap and Mistletoe. It had a wonderful effect. Many herbs serve the same purpose, but we found that what suited one, did not suit another, and we varied the treatment. We became so efficient we could read what herbs to give 'at a glance.'

For blood disorders we used a variety of herbs: Marsh Mallow and Red Clover, Violet Leaves, Gentian Root, White Clover and Purple Bee Clover; Buchu, Uva Ursi, Broom, Herriff, Jack by the Hedge (a blood cleanser), Avens, Burnet, Burdock, Vervain, Yellow Rattle, Trefoils.

All blood ailments need a stomach and kidney basis, with the other herbs added as required.

We found that thrombosis, heart and blood pressure, all responded to Lime Flowers,

THE GARDEN

by Eric Cooper

I WALK in the garden. The atmosphere is light, still, airy. Around me, attentive and still, shrubs and great trees watch my every move. All are covered with identical leaves which are soft to the touch, light silver green in colour, rounded in form, being almost heart-shaped and tapering to a point. The tip of each leaf points towards the sky. I reach out to touch them and as I do so they incline towards my hands, as if attracted by a magnetic force. A soft sighing sound pervades the air, it vibrates and moves through a deep sequence of tones. There is great peace here amongst these leaves, moving and murmuring so harmoniously together.

I peer into the foliage and instinctively await the manifestation of evil. As I feel justified in my anticipation, I am a little disturbed by its absence. No smoke, fire, pain, blood or serpents greet my eyes. I walk on vaguely disappointed, for already I begin to tire of the perfection and harmony. All at once I perceive several very large white flowers, moist, fresh and pure, rich and sharp of form, like huge water lilies.

For a moment I am startled by an impression of flaming red stamens, but on closer examination I cannot be sure, so closely do the white petals guard the heart of each flower. I survey the brooding splendour before me and am, quite suddenly, appalled to see one flower burst into flame and transform itself into ashes on its stem, which, charred and blackened, begins to writhe as with the agony of its burns.

I recoil from the spectacle and reflect on the pain and wasted energy which such suffering demands. All these flowers are suffering in the midst of their glory, and fascinated, I gaze at the relentless self-sacrifice and the resulting slimy mess of blackened stems.

Sensing my inability to halt the destruction, I resign myself to it, and at once, sense an object in my palm; it is a small beautifully made knife with curved blade and handle inlaid with silver and mother of pearl. Instinctively I reach out to the nearest opening flower, grasp it and cut it off with the small instrument. The bloom does not fade as I half anticipated, but stiffens in my hand, spreading its leaves which are covered with a fine silvery down.

The flower rears itself in splendour, and erupts in a mass of flame which engulfs my wrist and unites me with the plant. The fire burns into my eyes and the pain only intensifies the brilliance and purity of the colours which are contained therein. Like a mass of flickering jewels the flames dance and die, revealing a rod of gold and silver in my hand.

A strange light seems to run across its surface and I raise it high above my head in an exultant gesture to the garden from whence it came. I face the cardinal points and stand amazed, for every leaf and stem in the garden is turned to gold.

Oh Man! know thyself, for within thee is hidden the treasure of treasures!

nested, what they fed upon, their habits, their eggs, and their colours. Nature herself spoke to us, and I am sure we were in touch with the Great Devas and the Nature Spirit.

One day we were feeling sad at heart at having lost our young brother, although we of all people, knew that there is no death; but we were missing a loved presence. We had gone to another county to gather some rare herbs and were on a lonely bridle road where few went, when suddenly a wasp came out of the deep grasses, and it had a broken foot and wing. We were able to put it out of its misery, and right across the road was a bee with a broken leg and wing, and we were able to put it also out of its suffering.

We suddenly thought, here we were, by apparent chance on this lonely road, guided by an All-knowing mind to put two of His creatures out of their suffering, and He, who loved all His creatures, loved us also; a great lesson learned.

We went away rejoicing, uplifted, encouraged, never to grieve again, and soon our loved brother often accompanied us on our travels. We had many lessons like this, and often entered into the Rhythm of Nature itself. There is no doubt that Mother Nature and the Deva Kingdom opened their hearts to us, as our ears and eyes were opened and our mind received of the Eternal Truths.

We were seeking herbs to cure, and gain knowledge and acquire wisdom to serve our fellow man.

We used orange peel in most of our cases, as it is a good stomachic herb to aid digestion; but never use it for liver, gall or jaundice. It is not easily bought nowadays, but I save all orange peel, dry it, cut it up, and it is just the same.

We used Marsh Mallow a lot also. In cases of growths and ulcers, and ulceration inwardly and outwardly, we had outstanding success by giving Marsh Mallow to drink, to bathe with, and in ointment form for outward troubles.

To one table-spoon of Marsh Mallow Root Powder, pour one pint of boiling water over, and stand all night: stir and drink the lot, powder and liquid.

Some people use Slippery Elm also, but we found each one worked better alone. Marsh Mallow herb or root, Angelica and Chickweed would heal anything.

For influenza we gave Yarrow and Feverfew, Horehound and Coltsfoot; in cases of sinus 'flu, we added Lime Flowers and Borage. If this is taken every two hours it soon reduces the fever and cold; then go on to a good kidney cleanser as well.

Remember, in using Fennel Seeds, etc., that life and power are in the seeds, and only small quantities are needed. The times I have fallen down over this, but once I realised the trouble I never had any more failures. Too much causes an airlock, so I have found.

In using Periwinkle, which is a children's herb, with Pellitory of the Wall, for urine troubles, we often advised boiling Rose Hips gathered from the hedgerows until soft, and then pouring over the herbs. It can be taken in orange juice or syrup for children.

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 19

ST. JOHN'S WORT (Hypericum Perforatum)

by David Spearman-Cook

IN this relative month of February, during the opening up and the soul's blending in of the Sun in Scorpio, as well as the unfolding of Relativity making its mighty debut, are there going to manifest gigantic powers of resuscitation, which are literally going to pour down to the Earth in dynamic fullness. That which will flow directly through the Orion Stream of Supreme Divinity, and which will be of the Norm immensity. Whereby as such, will it bring a change to all the powers, those of the old traits of time, as well as the suppressive states of religious dogmatic might. Also bringing forth of a fantastic releasing to all the stunted and underdeveloped powers of the past, granting unto them the possibility of a new Virgin blossoming. This will be due to the Laws of the Divine Cosmic Intelligencia, fulfilling of their Theocratic wish.

Furthermore, as remarkable as it may seem to many, ST. JOHN'S WORT contains a power which can be of assistance to the mighty strength of Divinity, if it is consumed by man, whilst the Dynamic Atomic Fires unfold of their changing ways. Even before the mighty unfoldment of the Divine Stream was brought into birth by Merope, this mighty herb was a suppressed immense power of unfolding divinity, which during the Fall had become curtailed through the non-expansion of man's false earthy lunar ways. Therefore this herb can be rated as a might which will assist all the nerve strength of the soul, enabling them to unfold their Norm wealth, that of the lost power of divinity.

Here again we will adopt the same principle of unfoldment as we did the previous month, and gradually expand upon its healing qualities which will become possible as the changes through Relativity commence, forcing all onto the path of Orion mind light. Its medical name is Hypericum Perforatum, Hypericum being derived from the Greek and means 'over an apparition,' a reference to the belief that the herb was so obnoxious to evil spirits that a slight draught of it would cause them to fly in terror.

THE Medicinal values and uses are Aromatic, Astringent, Resolvent, Expectorant and a Nervine, also being used in all pulmonary complaints, and bladder troubles, especially in the suppression of urine, dysentery, worms, diarrhoea, hysteria and nervous depression. Externally it is very good as a fomentation to dispel hard tumours, caked breasts, and Ecchymosis.

Its one great advantage is that it can be used as an opening up infuser, for the new healing Powers of the Royal Scorpio Fires, as it is of the fired nature of that phenomenal fiery strength, originating from the now Royal Source, that which was so brutally suppressed and abused through man's bestial activities.

Basically it is used in the light of an unfolding healing balm, which fortifies the external barrier of nervous tissues, and as fantastic as it may appear, it has the power to localise all nervous pains into one centralising area, before it commences its healing infusion fully. This is very much like as unto the Scorpion, stinging the point it diligently aims at. Here it can be seen how through the changes, it will become a herb of the Central Sun's frequency, which in time it will be classified and duly classed under, plus the fact that it will be very scarce and and all struggle with the changes taking place within them, and around them, right into their extreme internal depths.

A very strong infusion of BUCHU added to ST. JOHN'S WORT, will cleanse away many solidified goitres which can set up the cancerous bacteria; that which can bring an early death, to many who live strongly day by day upon the lunar plane of desires. It will not be long, due to the rapid Cosmic changes, before the fires in their strengthened changed state, will centre their might around the structure of the generative organs of the individual, resulting in an agonising spate of severe itching.

This cannot be subdued by scientifically prepared medication or drug, but can be simply diagnosed as an overfullness of atomic fire, which of course in the past as once merely fire would have been easily released. But now that the Virgin Fire is so balanced and built up from the purified mind frequency of Merope, it is not going to be so easily dispersed, and will remain within the soul until it fulfills of its new Law of Solar intentions.

SO unless man fulfills the Destiny of the in-coming fires, will he be constantly burnt until he is forced to practice the fire's infusing Theocratic Desires. This is where St. John's Wort will take on of another new role as the instigating guide, to eventually help to distribute the Holy Fire ascension through the soul, and is in some slight measure going to guide it through the pathway of man's new born forming Solar structure.

ST. JOHN'S WORT was ever used as a completeness of a power, but most of the causes for which it has been used, have been on rather an abortive basis, for it was never used with a sealing herb to utilise its full power. If it is used with BUCHU and CELANDINE, it will give rather a vivacious effect throughout the blood, causing all the chromosomes to be filled with the incoming power, which these herbs will assist, on its entry into the chromatic path of everyone's virgin light channel; constantly touching every corner of the soul's being, ever changing man's bloodstream, for that is the basic of true healing.

Consequently these three herbs will become a good basic, for the changing of the impurities within the bloodstream. But one must ever remember that the WORD is God and it is the Universal Word created by Merope which is the Fire changing quantum of Divinity.

Finally we come to what is known as a light infuser, the use of ROSEMARY with ST. JOHN'S WORT, which will assist to rectify the lower states of the memory of the old world, and help to change the roots of the old conscious mind as the New inflow of Power descends. For the rapidity of change is going to be strikingly fast, and we who are preparing will be only too pleased that we can be conscious of what is happening amongst the chaos that abounds.

Next month we will carry on further into the uses of the new revealing wealth of the herbs during the great Cosmic changes, and will try to discover what LILY OF THE VALLEY can bring to the fore, out of its fall into the sleeping depths of its past hidden wealth.

ST. JOHN'S WORT

seriously sought after, because of its renewed healing properties. The future gift of this herb to struggling man, will be that of the fact that the main organs will benefit from the Scorpio Fires out of the herb, and although only of a plant life power, the greatest organ, the heart, will be the most important one to benefit.

HERE is where a Scorpio healer with Solar Powers, giving forth of his strength, can perform remarkable heart spirit healing, and also spiritual surgery through the phenomenal powers of the phenomena, that has now been given rebirth to, by Merope. ST. JOHN'S WORT is known by most as 'the fire-brand,' and is very good for the disposing of boils, inflammation of the gall bladder, and in some cases excellent for the breaking down of the stones, which manifest through the over-abundance of acid in the urine.

A vast majority of the healers in the past have used St. John's Wort as a fertility herb, this being quite understandable when one knows that Scorpio is now the mighty Sperming Fire of the Divine Godhead. For it can activate the fires of all, who are feeling the inertia of the unmovable power logged within their moving bloodstream, through the lack of expansion, as mind activation, assisting them to open up to the inflowing Virgin Might.

By the mixing of ST. JOHN'S WORT with DANDELION in equal portions it will infuse of a herbal strength, which can be very potent to one who is seeking relief from the vast immensity of the down-pouring Atomic Fires, which will act as a form of thermo-rectifier. Thereby assisting them onto the atomic path, producing a balancing peaceful state, during the many surges of fire that will register periodically, as one

Mythology Part 3

ELECTRO

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

Delivered at the S.U.P.H. on 8th July, 1962 by Ra-Men-Ra

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you and I seek to help you and guide you along the new road. I seek to help you to a greater understanding that you may seek deeply into your own inner being. We bring you now the wisdom of ELECTRO, the birth of alchemicalisation. This may be quite foreign to many of you, but we will try to lead you through the knowledge of the Myths, the legends of life led by the ancients and of which you are a part; those who left with posterity the Wisdom that was so fresh with them then, but lost to mankind now; a time that was known would approach when man would be so far away from the quest of Spirit that he would have to try to wend his way back; and this time only through Mystery.

It is very difficult for man in these days to understand the Wisdom of the Spirit, and even those of you who are seeking find it difficult to follow. We are trying to lead you, and we would advise you to take advantage of the present opportunity, for a time may come very soon when there will be no Spirit contact with the earth.

Remember, it can only go on for a certain time; then man will have to learn through perpetual darkness; then he will seek. But those of you who have taken into your inner being a glimpse of the Truth will hold that Wisdom through the darkness, and may even strive to keep the Flame alight.

It is a very critical time, and a time when we seek for every instrument possible; and when there is one, we seek in every way to hold that one to their task: it is a strenuous task these days, for they have to try and keep their way moving through the very darkness that very often supports them. We will try to do all we can to help you, and if you follow what I bring to you as the key, and seek only through that key, then the words will not come amiss.

A drawing was shown of a young mother dressed very simply in a gown of a thousand years ago; around her head is a narrow white band and her feet are uncovered. She is seen standing before a great hearth fire in the act of casting into the flames the babe she is holding in her arms.

NOW the first mystery plate brings unto you that which has often caused man to be led astray in his own definition. There you see the princess Beckerten placing her child into the fire: this represents the child she has brought into birth, which is the spirit child now to pass through the fires of experience, the fires of life. The wise soul knows this is the bravest way to bring the child forth; to allow it to pass through the very embers of experience to be seared and burnt so that the child will grow up and be able to bring forth the wisdom of life.

A second plate was then shown of a treacherous cliff face, showing two Indians walking along a narrow ledge. The picture portrays great danger as these two struggle to wend their way ahead. Out of the caverns of the depths come forth huge black bats which are attacking the Indians, the expressions on their faces depicting agitation and fear.

The Purpose of Alchemicalisation

SO now let us seek into ELECTRO, the workings of alchemicalisation.

This is the Solar fire entering into the bloodstream and becoming the Elixir vitae of the lymphatics: these are

THE THREE FATES

AS Perseus with his helmet of invulnerability, plucked the one-eye from the three old graeae, he held it aloft as the wealth he had captured, giving him divine perception. He had gone to the heights, and now unified the mortal depths, that its mighty wealth was now lifted up and polarised into Solar glory. He who found the answer to life and the freedom that all men are seeking. (See text on page 6, col. 3).

known as the nymphs of life, that which you gather up and you bring to a foam; the foam becomes the risen Venus that is taken over by the personality, the moon creation, and is moved around the soul.

Although we bring you the particles of the soul, you must remember they are all moving creations, moving one with the other; we cannot bring them all in one moment, so we have to bring them to you in definition.

Tonight we are seeking to give you the understanding of that movement of alchemicalisation as it began in the beginning and which, of course, takes on a definite state each time you pass through an experience: you either allow it to pass through this and wrestle with it as it goes through, bringing wisdom that feeds it as it moves through, or you refuse to take the wisdom and it merely moves through the soul bringing its searing without any wisdom being gathered up; no froth, no wisdom at all; so it arrives at the other end, or where all is gathered in, merely as knowledge gained and no wisdom.

This eventually brings about a loaded soul, the soul heavy with mere knowledge but no solar fire, merely lunar light. This, after a while becomes dangerous; it becomes a creation that at any moment can explode or simply die down in the depths in senile decay.

This is what we are trying to save you from. We are trying to lead you along the path of wisdom for you to make deduction and see why you do many things; why you should struggle with life and how you can help the world. When we bring this to you we know that by you deducting the thought and radiating it out, you send it out on to the maelstrom; and once this is earthed, and earthed to a number, it explodes into the atmosphere and changes the world.

Once the Voice is made alive, once it is uttered, then it becomes a radiance and it is no longer darkness. While it remains a secret, while it is never explained, then it is ignorance and still darkness. While you try to accept it, while you can see some possibility in it, then it becomes Light. While the group can spin it up and bring it into further Light, it expands out all the more, and the world becomes changed. It may seem for the time almost a useless or a "no recompense" creation, and you may wonder what good you are doing.

Allow me to tell you: allow me to help you; for you cannot see everything; in fact you see very little. It is we who see, we who know; and as results come along, then have the courage to hold on to that result, and have belief; for the man who can never find belief in life should not be living at all: he is wasting his time on earth; he should be back where he came from, hell.

So let us continue with the wisdom, and I will help you all I can. Do not allow yourselves to be lost by words; words have to come to you, otherwise we can never bring explanation to you.

The Principle of Cosmogony

IT can be seen by the last lesson the state of Creation in Embryo (Beginning): it is vast in its whole conception and one that can only be viewed broadly. Yet it is most necessary that man strives to get some idea in his mind so that he can have material whereby to cogitate upon when immediate psychological and pathological conditions arise. Once he gets the idea that Night was born first from Chaos (experience born out of chaos), and as Nnu the daughter of Chaos and sister of Erebus (the passage to and from Hades) she bore Day and Aether, light and air.

This became the prototype for all creation, and when the wine becomes ripe, blackness takes over once again and pours forth water of a more fiery nature; thus the spiral of evolution: (once you have brought forth your first idea, then you spiral it up onto the next spiral, to begin all over again and bring it to a more fiery nature).

Whatever man puts into birth must he pass through this creation, which in time amounts to the sun-spots placed into creation both within himself and on the Solar Face, (or it brings wisdom; but in most cases it brings the sun-spots).

As we pursue this journey, that now being stated is but the embryo and prototype of what is to come forth. Thus only a conception of all to be, and alchemicalisation in embryo. (That which has been taken in as solar fire and passes through the bloodstream to change all the atoms of the soul until the soul is re-born completely into the man).
