THE CENTRAL SUN

THE RADIANCE OF DIVINITY

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

DIVINE COSMIC GLORY, LET THY Magnificence shine o'er the whole of being, that Thy Beauty becomes the radiance of every heart. That Thy Holy Divinity becomes their speech and dancing gait, as they tread Thy wonders into the embracing earth. For art Thou not the Blood of every living thing, whether crawling the earth or winging the sky. Yet the wondrous truth of the Sky Weeping gods, as they change their beam in every blink of the eye. O' Beauteous ONE, send Thy glories down and pierce my heart, that I too radiate Thy Glories manifold. And embrace all with the glory of my love, that speaks of a million unfoldment.

O' Merope, when thou lifted up this Mighty Glory from the Solar to the Central Divinity, thou rose up the heavens a thousand-fold, and the Star of Vega was born in all her future beauty. Hence thy Pleiadic dance was not just the seductive merriment of the Virgins, but the unborn lustrous glory of the Divine Motherhood, the future Madonna of the Holy Flame. Thus as thou embraced thy holy task, and as Atlas placed the starry heavens upon thy shoulders, the Angels rejoiced and blew the Horns of Divine Beatitude, pouring their Vials all over the parched and densified Earth.

The light of Ages, now the Divine Atonement, holding the regenerative rebound of life. The Holy mystery of complete rebirth, the Divine Radiance of His Holy FACE. The Heavenly FATHER whose sperming LOVE is the mystery of every Illuminati, his unspoken embrace and declaring penance. For the wonder and divine glory of HIS interpenetrating Blood, is the hope and benignity of every unfolding soul, the prayer of every hopeful Virgin. Thus shine on with all the Cosmo-

AS the deadline for this month's editorial approached, I found myself in rather a quandary—just what subject to write upon? After much pondering, the idea came to me to devote this article to answering those of our critics who never cease to rail against us over some of our beliefs and statements. The main point of argument being, of course, religion! Here we find the major obstacle that impedes the way of many souls who are seeking into the realms of occultism. For many lives mankind has had drummed into his mind the idea of passive devotion to an all-forgiving God; a God that even sent His Son down to redeem the Earth and mankind, that they could go on in their animalistic way, living in the dung of matter, and spreading disease and calcification into a world that was fast hurtling to its own self-destruction!

DO not think that we are decrying the Bible in any way, for it hides beneath its Legends, some of the greatest occult wisdom ever recorded. But it is a Book of Legends, not of history, and to the soul who is able to unravel its mysteries, it holds the many keys of initiation and the path of soul growth. But as to being literal history, never, never, never!

Adam and Eve, and a talking serpent; Jonah and the whale; Daniel in the lion's den; all these are wonderful occult stories, but who would ever claim them as really happening. Then if you can believe that the Old Testament is giving occult truths, why do you find it so hard to accept that the New Testament is exactly the same in its formation?

How can anyone believe such stories as facts; in 2,000 years of the furtherance of this belief, what answer has it brought to the world—where did it create this glorious City promised unto John? All that the world has been left with as the legacy of this deliberate falsification of Truth, is a calcified globe of reeking, putrefied earth, with over half of its inhabitants living in appalling conditions and starving to death. What benefit has been gained by this make-believe crucifixion; where is this promised Land of milk and honey; did God so Love the world that he turned it into a cesspit of desire, and lifeless barren wastes?

No, of course not! The very idea of it fills one with revulsion and disbelief, and the longer this idea is allowed to persist, the longer is it befouling the Holy Garment of Divinity. The world will not lose the stain of its influence until every church and cathedral that is impregnated with its evil and falsity, has disappeared from the face of the earth, and if Merope has her way, that time is not too far off!

The damage that papalism, especially, has done to evolution, and the unfolding of Divinity, is beyond thinking about. In nearly 2,000 years of dominance by fear, torture, and blackmail, they can claim the major credit for bringing this world down to its very knees. Yet, with this stark reality staring us in the face, we are asked, and even threatened, to forgive and forget, or at least to forget, and stop condemning their atrocities, past and present. This is where so many souls are so riddled with its influence from past lives, that even if they now consciously acknowledge its faults, they will not speak out against it, but turn the other cheek, pretending it just doesn't exist. Not realising that by their ward children. GOD is FIRE, the great Creative Principle of Life. Can FIRE stand still; can a Flame remain inert? Never! And thus it is with GOD. The Great FIRE of Life must ever be moved on into new creations, ever consuming the old, that the new can be born. Man must not hold to old ideas, but seek of their greater divine possibilities, and then strive to establish them within himself, driving himself its Glory onto the Arc of the World. This is the Ark of the Covenant that man made Oath unto, to maintain its purity and divinity, but which he completely failed to do, in his slide into the depths of desire.

Soul MUST embody this Great FIRE, that he takes on the Manhood of GOD, and becomes a worthy Channel for His Holy Presence to manifest through. But most important of all, he must become CREATIVE, for this is a CREATIVE FIRE which must be used for the purpose intended, that of building up the glory of the great Solar Logos, the unfolding MIND of Divinity, and not merely to be used as a plaything to placate his sexual indulgencies.

BUT where does present day religion give of this Truth; where does the Church state that the Solar Light is the true Christos Glory? Nowhere, of course! And this is why we so strongly condemn it as the biggest curse that ever defiled the name of Divinity, since Time began. I could go on and on with my argument, but I hope I have said enough to clarify our position, and to make it obvious that this is not a game we are playing, but a serious Task that would have had catastrophic reactions upon the world if it had failed.

Merope has suffered terribly, as she willingly gave herself to Divinity, that the Powers of Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, could be burnt into her blood. In embodying the great Power of Pluto she became a Christed soul, one capable of giving out the Divine Anointment in the depths. But once again, the cries of horror that we received from some readers when this announcement was made! I only wish that they could have experienced some of the pain themselves, they might then have thought twice before speaking.

We are even asked, why don't we play down our controversial beliefs, and give more publicity to those that will be more easily accepted by the masses. We admit that our determination to speak boldly what we know to be true, does alienate many would-be followers, but then, if they could only accept the surface teachings, they would never have been of use to the Divinities, in their search for willing channels to work through.

This was a great Cosmic Plan of the Higher Powers; a Plan to try and save the Earth from destruction, and to save the Divine Seed from being blasted out of existence. All it needed was the ability of Merope to endure the 'death of the flesh' as she embodied the Great Atomic FIRE of the Divine Fatherhood.

This she has done, and now any soul that is willing to make the effort, can enter into the New World, the World of Outer Space, the Virgin Plane of Divinity. We are asking you, by your belief and creative intent, to become the first inhabitants of this New World; to join with us as members of the Race Elect, that by your struggles you can bring Light to a very, very, sick world. It may not be easy, but the final reward will be beyond your wildest dreams!

very silence they are helping to maintain its existence upon the earth.

Those souls that maintain a conventional, 'goody-goody' life, are just playing into the hands of the Dark Forces. Where are they bringing down the Great FIRE of Life; that which is GOD, and that which is so necessary for the evolution of mankind and Divine Consciousness?

GOD is not sitting on a cloud in Heaven, waiting the return of His way-into rebirth of greater consciousness, thereby building up a greater intensity of Solar Light within the Cosmos.

This is the secret of alchemy; man mixing the Mercury of the mind, with the lead of inert matter, and producing the golden glory of the Solar Light. For the Solar Light is the only Living FIRE of the Universe, and by its true divine alchemicalisation, is the Christos Blood redeemed from the lower desire body of the earth, and returned in all

Galactical radiance, as the Earth takes its round from morn to night. That Divine Immortality becomes thy radiant reward, as Ninevah awakens and becomes the Shining Glory of unified manifesting Rhythmic Vega.

Thus the dance of the Vestal Virgins, now the dance of the lads and lassies around the Maypole gay, on the village green. Where every soul is born of LOVE, the inborn truth of Divinity, where David as the Archer drew the bow, and pierced every point of conquest. Not a return to what had been, but a rebound on the Virgin Plane, where the glory of rebirth, is the Open Mouth, as the reborn glories of the Mysteries. Where mystical beauty unfolds its Divinity, and man seeks of holy glory, in the mighty Wisdom of the illusive Nebula, the unbound wonders of the heavens.

Hence Merope, the Goddess of LIGHT, hand us the keys to the Kingdom, as we prove unto thee of our diligent labour, to bring forth the jewels of Ophir once again, and the mighty wealth of Samarkand. That in redeeming all in the Solar glory of Medo-Persia, the royal banner of Vega is risen high. With the Holy Fatherhood, the Treasure Trove of the Son, the down-pouring mystery of the future. The electrified Atomic unfolding glory of the conscious mind. The Holy Glories of the radiant Heavens, ever the unfolding beauty of every man, until he blossoms forth his godship divine. So shine on Great ONE, that THY Holy Glory is the manifesting holy mind of every seeking son.

As Merope looked up at the heavens and pondered, the Solar Glory looked back and winked his internal EYE, as she sought of his holy guidance. That He who ruled and governed of all flowing LIFE, would reveal to her of reborn ways anew. For although her frequency danced with His inborn Blood, not much had been revealed of His Divine Glories. For to ionise such wonder, had been as much as she could do, until the moment of greater rebirth was her demand of cosmical fulfilment legally due. So the Mighty Unseen Father entered into the Glory of the Son, and through the Holy Stream of that Divine MIND, became the mind of Merope. That the Mystical Glory of the Source, gave forth a Stream of Holy Truth, through the radiance of her atomised Voice. Wonders and glories never known before, for they spoke of facts that had only been illusion. Truths ever given forth only in reflection, for man could not behold of such simple beliefs as being the depths of such mighty wisdom.

The Galactical Life

ALL had been perceived through form and scientific deduction, when in reality it was an ever-changing noumenon, manifesting as an ever-unfolding phenomenon. For as it became, must it be transported into light, in the creation of man's mind. Then he to await and receive the next inflow of the Stream, as the Glory from the Heights, that it revolves the infinity within his own being, uniting depths with heights. Thereby bringing forth an octavial rebound, in the gyroscopic spinning up of the voluminous bounty.

A natural reaction of Spirit and matter, manifesting glories of elevation, but only when it is an inflow from the heights, reforming the glories of the depths, will divine wealth be manifest. Thus Divinity now manifesting where there had only been earth-born belief and thoughts of a possessive nature. The soul now living as a god-born creature, fed by the frequencies of the Ethers, thereby bringing new belief to the depths, ever raising the glories of the Planes. Thus a continual evolution in the world below, as well as the Cosmo-galactical revolution.

The whole of the Universe from Source to source, the beginning to the fulness of Creation, now one vast World of unified revolving glory, fed by the Breath and Sperm of the mighty Divine Unseen. That coming forth from the never-ending Source, the wonder and beauty of Divinity. With the Holy Trinity, the Cosmical Wheel turned by the love of Merope, unfolding the wealth into mighty glories, the hope of the ever-revolving infinity. With the Voice as the ever-reforming Law, directing and guiding the gods in the depths, who were now being etherealised into immortal glory, the mystical wonder of the future.

For it was being made quite clear by Merope in her writings, the way and direction all men were unfolding, and of how the Heavenly ONES were seeking their debut to the Earth. So that the divinities from the whole of the Planes, from Earth to the Central Sun, were going to descend at different periods of time, to take on of the Earth status.

While those of the earth gods, who were on the Earth, would start to make upward ascension. Thereby be imploded back to their Plane of light, if they so warranted it, by their light of unfolding rebirth. It was of such glory as this being afforded by those Great Ones, that wisdom of abstruse nature would descend to the depths. Apart from proving the amazing unknown facts of the Planes of Noumenon, where unseen wisdom could be brought forth, in the light and glory of Truth.

Of how the changing status of unfolding galactical life, had to be kept in a state of revolving fluidity. Otherwise all would go blank upon those mystical Planes, in the stagnancy of not bringing down to them, that necessary for them to take their unfolding status, out of the revolving Infinity. That which must ever be kept going to equalise the infinity of man in the depths. Of which, through the changes and unfolding wisdom that Merope was bringing, both were revolving at equal speed, feeding one another in the depths, until man could take the extenuating vibratory forces, by raising up his frequency to that radiant glory.

Man who was ready to slowly make his way back to his heights, with those of Earth on the lesser Planes, who would be making their way up the Spirit Planes by sheer desperate struggle. Then coming back as the earth-born son, to try and make their last throw, at the way of ascension. This was the hard way of rebirth, for as time went on, and the way of Earth in its Infinity was bringing more and more of the etherealised change, life and death would be absolved.

ASCENSION

AS soul climbed the perpendicular wall, to reach the Flame on the Mount, the jagged edges lacerated his flesh and tore deeply into the palms of his hands. Blood was oozing from the many scratches that he had had to endure, as he made his way of ascension; calling more and more for strength and courage to reach those mighty heights. (See text in col. 2).

All rebirth through ascension and descension only, by the soul making the way of changing frequency, and being imploded up by Hydroxyl. The god returning to his god-like status, and the whole of the Universe of Cosmic lights, an etherised unification of Heavenly Cosmo-galactical change of rebirth, onto the upper Mind Plane.

This being a complicated matter of rise, from the point that there were many Planes applicable to this Plane of MIND. Those below and of earth vibration, while those above of higher persistency, started the first rudiment of Spirit unfoldment, and would be those led consciously into perceiving the wisdom of soul and existence.

That which the many gods were now fast losing, lost in the depths of matter. This being the task Merope had been sent to Earth to set into motion, to bring the gods back to heavenly glory. But ever the soul striving to cross the concrete mind area, and finding their true heavenly mind belief, e'en though they were living in their two-dimensional vibratory existence. Knowing of the unfolding purpose into the third, that of active creation. Whereby they were seeking of the fourth, to adopt that of Solar glory, that they could draw down the wealth of Outer Space, the rebirth in the depths.

The Unfolding Consciousness

THEN the comprehension of Arielisation, where the soul could rise up and down the Planes, by adopting the changes of vibratory frequency. That which was one of the major occult points that Merope sought to teach man in the depths. For by so doing, they could spin up and down the alternating wisdom of the by it would have no cause to fear, providing they honoured the glory of the Spirit. All was a matter of spiritual belief, honour and unfolding acceptance, whereby the soul rose up by the thread of his descent, back to what was his present status of unfolding consciousness of acceptance. But a god who had become a soul, and an expanding radiating Ego of unbounding light of truth that was awaiting heart establishment.

It is man who has complicated the status of life, when in reality it is extremely simple to unfold into the greater life. So simple, it robs man of his egotistical glory of self-importance, which Saturn holds dear, as its prize-bound glory. Therefore by that it can be seen that the main issue of Occult truth, is to redeem Saturn into the glory of the Central Sun, whereby the soul is born of complete fulfilment of Heavenly LIGHT.

By man only accepting Jupiter as the pinnacle point of ascension, they ever revolved in Saturn's domain and became completely magnetised to matter, the possessions they loved so dearly. A world of possession and not dancing glory of the Fiery mind, where he radiated truth of Outer World Space expanded into light. But remained as a solid fixed creation, with man a conventional being of earth status and renown, claiming more and more of those possessions, which Midas was now completely lost in. It was of this that Merope taught man, that to find the Ego, he must renounce of earth attachment, and be born of the royalty of the Solar Glory.

Ever becoming free by embracing of the spirit, until soul was completely immortalised, therefore no longer a slave in captivity. He who could dance up and down the vibratory glory, from the third to the seventh direction. Preparing the way of entering the first of the glory of Eternal Consciousness, the complete inner mighty vibration of the Central Sun, the glory of established spiritualisation. Where the soul in ascension, ascended up to the outer fringes of that Heavenly Domain, and served that mighty Deity as a Courtier of those Heights, with Holy Dignity. But ever being prepared to return to the depths to re-fuel the Fournau Cosmique of rebounding vibratory glory.

The Greater Comprehension of Light

ALL appertaining to Saturn was of Earth dogma, while that of the Central Sun was of heavenly embracement, the glory of Neptune and Pluto. The decree of the Spirit, the glory of LIGHT, the road of ever-unfolding rebirth. For, as soon as soul is embraced in the Solar glory, he seeks of expansion of service, where Divine Consciousness is the glory of LOVE, and selfless purpose of divinity.

Its applicable beauty is of the heart, and embracement of all the weak and needy, but where intricate truths are ever disentangled by the wise and far-seeing glory of the Seer. One who, by finding the mortuary meal, released the soul from his miasma of blind complication, by blending up and involving in. How blind can man be, when the many simple misconstructions are viewed from an angle of spiritual truth. Not 'offering the other cheek,' so dearly reiterated by the righteous, but profound simple truth explaining the glory of the spirit.

Here we see being revealed a greater comprehension of LIGHT, which is claimed by those unfolding divine Illumi-

REBIRTH

AS the soul rose up out of the depths, with passions rearing, and heart pounding, he found he had entered into a burst of light that revealed the glories of tomorrow. As he raised the horn he placed it to his lips, and blew the blast of triumph. For his heart and his mind were blended together, with the spirit dancing on the crest of the wave. (See text on page 5, cols. 1 and 2).

nati as the transforming glory of the spirit. The complication and difficulty being, in the soul accepting the glory of becoming as a little child. They being stripped of all states of false illusion, that of self-applied importance, where wisdom of divine glory is ever unfolding its wonders to the Heights, as man expands its beauty. Thereby receiving yet greater glories from that mighty orb, of ever divine Heavenly glory sending down its Rays to earth.

The Spectrum of the whole of the Cosmo-galactical beauty, transforming the world into unfolding light, the way of expanding evolution. For the Central Sun, the glory and magnitude of life, is the centre of the Universe, where all Cosmical Law goes forth, leading man into the greater glories. With Scorpio as the heart of this mighty creation, the mystical Yod of God. It being the impending Seed born out of the Breath, by the crucible pot in the depths.

The soul who is the alchemical translator, for the Elements to be born as light. Which accounts for the element degrees of the astrological log, as those adopted by the soul in his changing rebirth. How much of the Solar, as to where it is deposited, and the reason for his many dilemmas.

According to how Merope, as the Scapegoat, sent up her wisdom to those heights, did she elevate the impending Seed of Light. That which, in descending down to man in the glory of the Breath, would fire him into greater action. Hence the necessity for that impounding change of Cosmical Evolution, where man was ever re-fed through his own glory of acceptance. But ever filled with the depths of the Cosmic heights, in the full wonder of that Heavenly Breath becoming the light of his sub-conscious. He ever awaiting his conscious unfoldment, into impending realisation.

This being the duty of the Scapegoat, or the Christos of the Age, for Merope was both, having won the right as the soul reaching those heights, and comprising the glory of that Holy embracement accepting the former as her final debut in matter. Thus every Virgin a bride to the Divinity, receiving the inflow of Divine Fire through her own masculine element, and the unfolding of the FACE in her heights.

The solution is man getting his own feminine principle raised up as the Virgin. Whereby she dances right up to the heights, and as Seeress and Sibyl, by the glory of Le Ros, carrying all up to her LORD. Unifying the heights with the depths, becoming as the means of the Bull bringing down of the Holy Fire, which must be sent back up to those heights as the mighty radiance of the mind.

Ever treading all into the earth as reborn unfolding earth light. Where the light elevated, becomes the glory of those inner bodies of dancing mind brilliance, with the glories of the Breath, now the wonders of the speech as the holy truth brought down from Outer World Space. Wisdom that should have been the glory of the gods, now the problem of the Race as they slowly become unified into the Pubes once again, but as the immortalised children of the Theocratic rebirth.

For Merope was raising the Race up out of the depths unto the gods of the past, but now on the Virgin mind Plane, drawing forth the glory of the Central Sun. Thus saving the Seed and the ancient wealth of the Virgin, as the glories of her Fount. Blending up the Source with the heights, as the octavial glory of rebirth, where man was slowly adopting the unfolding glory of the divinities, as they became absorbed into his being, through the magnanimity of the Breath.

The glories of the upper Ethers, now the unfolding mystery of the neolithic man. For wealth of a mighty nature was now being placed into his keeping, to come forth when he can respond to its dynamic revelation. For those higher Ethers have never been tapped before, and contain wonders of the Virgin Ice-cap, the Octavial glory of the already dynamic fruits of the depths.

But all to become applicable to the soul as he raises his mind up to the divinities, as the gods born within his meninges. For they will be the guiding factor through this searching investigation, leading the soul into the right channels, whereby they are not used for the wrong creation, ravaging the heights in the depths. The heart transplant being a typical example of a misconstruing of wealth from those heights. For now all has been raised up to enormous expansion, by the magnitude that is now infusing the earth, unifying it with the Central Sun, the glories of the heavens.

Glory of the Planes

ALL these wonders are in the Seed of man, the polarity to the Fount of the Virgin. Which when polarised by the soul, will reveal the might and wonder of the wealth he has raised up through his revolving infinity. This now also applies to Woman, for in being raised up to the Virgin Plane and receiving of the Hydroxyl Breath, she also becomes pregnant with Seed, in her hormonal pituitary.

For as she sends this down to the depths converting it into spiritus air, by her mind belief can she raise it up to her heights, for the gods in her meninges to guide and activate into blossomed wonders.

Thus now is the time for man to deliberate, for wealth of a dynamic nature is being handed unto him, which can easily bowl him over, if he does not observe the rules. That which he must now abide by or lose all in the atomic adjustment, whereby he will be thrown back into the Stream and his wealth returned to the heights.

For Merope has set the LAW for the whole of Time, she holding all the keys to unlock those depths, which she has unified with the heights. So as man embraces the union by his mighty wealth of the past, will he, through the divinities only, unravel the mystery of those mighty heights. Drawing down the Rhythm of the Spheres, through the revolving infinity, drawing down those glories by elevated frequency.

THUS BY SENSITIVITY AND BELIEF, BRINGING FORTH WONDERS NEVER KNOWN BEFORE, AND SPINNING THEM UP TO THE HEIGHTS.

But where renunciation is most vital, to fully embrace those wonders right up to the uttermost fill of that radiant glory of the heights. For Merope knew only too well of those depths and their seeding through the Ages, where mighty wonders were now to be brought into birth, by polarising the depths with that mighty magnitude of the heights. The glorious risen up Intelligencia pouring its Holy Blood down, that which feeds the earth with light.

Yet but the light that man has created out of the glories of his mind, through his labours and the alchemicalisation in the depths. This is the Heavenly Unseen God who gives of His Blood out of Divine Cosmic LOVE, that man can ever be reborn in holy beauty. Yet in man his unfold-

UNIFICATION

AS soul sought to adjust itself, the young mind seeking to embrace of life, looked up in sheer amazement at the glory that Ego gave forth. For she was seeking to be one with his mighty truth, that as Venus-Urania she could carry the light and lead him into ways anew. For there before them was the mighty world of vast spaces, that was to become her task to extract its glories, and he and she to become one. (See text on page 3, col. 5).

ing NORM, ever unfolding the glories of the infinity, raising up the divine glories of his Arc, that all can be polarised.

All that which is created in form, is within man himself, but by the frequency of his creation does it polarise with the Macrocosm, the glory of the Planes. The NORM being equal to the Central Sun, but as a man reaches out to that elevated Glory by his belief, does he contact its heavenly radiance, the soul being "kissed" by its beauty.

MAN AS HE REVERTS TO HIS SPIRIT FORMATION BY INTERNAL ELEVATED BELIEF, AUTOMATICALLY BECOMES ONE WITH THAT CREATION BY VIBRONIC ATTUNEMENT.

For all is vibration; nothing but the basic of matter is solid, and even though that is in a state of decay it still has of vibration. But these matters can only be comprehended by soul, as they sensitise their receptive faculties; then the soul is living and feeling by the spirit and not seeking of form, but perceiving by vibratory attunement.

By this depth of comprehension, man is able to penetrate heights unknown, providing he has the equal in the virgin's fount. Then he will polarise these depths, whereby through the unity, a gyroscopic spin will rise up in the created "belief of comprehension." The Divine Truth of supreme heights comes through the elevated mind glory of the Virgin, in her adoration of the Divinity.

Hence the Great Glory becomes a manifesting Ray upon the Arc of the soul, as that drawn down by the Virgin's belief. This is the vibratory reflection of the FACE created in the Arachnoid Web, the audience chamber of the gods. Yet but the earth reflection of the mighty Glory up in the Heights, the Heavenly Spheres, where all is a Divine Reality of that created in form.

Unfortunately man is so enamoured by form, he cannot lift his mind up in arielised adoption. Only believing in solid form, not being able to comprehend by the Spirit. His spiritual being is too heavily imbued by matter, thus completely buried under the rubble of earth consistency. This means, he does not know God, which he contacts by his heart belief, the glory of his internal love.

For God, the mighty Unseen and the Divinity of all Greatness and Beauty, is LOVE in all His Royal Glory. Thus man's love would only be of the beast, the fallen glory of Venus. Hence the soul is "dead"; it has not awakened to the glories of its own heritage, and lives in the stable with the animals.

As man believes and knows, does he live by the glory of the spirit; for spirit is life, form is density, with soul lost in the density of the growth, the wood of life. It will only be by the Solar Glory interpenetrating that dark forest, that the soul will awaken, and begin to clear away the dead growth, then start to live by the glory of the spirit, which is the Solar radiance within the soul. This the soul attunes itself unto, by the beauty of the Word.

The "oil" in the Word refuelling his lamp that has gone out, and the Christos teacher setting it alight by the sparking glory of their Uranian Love. This must then be fully assessed, by the soul being prepared to make renunciation of those things that are pinioning it to the density of matter. Until it does, it cannot become Solar born, but held by the lunar fluidic density of desire and false security.

Divinity is divine belief, the glory of divine comprehension; until the soul is able to find this arielised glory, it is a captive in Babylon, held by the false beliefs of matter. Thus the Central Sun is the glorified pinnacle point of Divinity, which in man is symbolised in his NORM becoming his pinnacle point of ascension, his fiery glory of mind belief.

The Seed volatilised into fiery mind ascension, causing the infinity to revolve and become his elevated unfolding glory of perpetuum of revealing light. For as the heart, so the belief, and as the belief, so the radiance of the NORM filling the Void with its radiant beauty.

This, by the Law of Attraction, attracts unto it of the supreme LAW, and Divinity becomes the Presence on the Arc. This is an unflinching perceptibility of Truth, which none need doubt, for the auric radiance of all, whether Divinity or Polyphemus, is the Auric manifestation of the heart. For here is the Void, ever waiting for the beam of change, which comes by the awakened comprehension of Cinderella in the depths.

The Virgin Activity

IF as Lilith, she dances in the dark woodlands at night, her vision will not have been awakened. But ever seeking of the "Virgin boy" to ply her arts, to lure him to his doom. But if as the Woman glorious, risen up to the true glory of her affinity with Divinity, will become as the Woman of Samaria, drawing up the water from the well to quench the thirst of the son seeking of the Father.

Then Merope, as the Mother of Divinity, from the earliest conception of Creation, is now the Divine Virgin of His Voice. For it was she who drew up the water from the depths of her Fount, that the fallen Lilith as Venus down the pit, was retrieved and risen up to the glory of heavenly light. Thus all women now are emancipated, and must seek to open the hearts of the stripped sons, that they can begin to aspire through their hearts to heavenly belief.

FOR THE WORLD NOW IS BORN AND SEEDED FOR DIVINITY, THE GLORY OF IMMORTALISED UNFOLDMENT, WHERE ONLY AS AN IMMORTAL BEING, WILL SOUL EXIST AND RISE UP AS AN ASPIRED BEING.

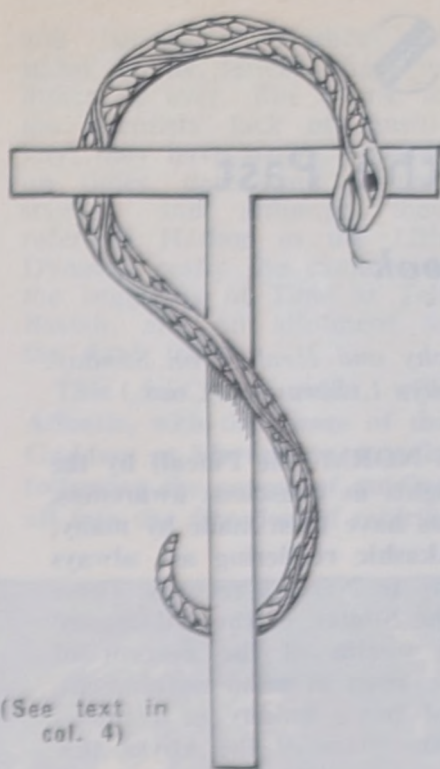

For on the Virgin Plane, every man has been stripped of all false inhibitions, and is now as freshly plowed ground, to set the seed for new ideas to come forth. It will only be by the aspired heart creating heavenly beliefs, that new growth will come forth. But this time of divinity, where the spirit has risen and as the butterfly is dancing on the wind from flower to flower, embracing their heavenly beauty.

Each soul now awakened to the possibilities of the spirit,

Divinity is latent Atoms, now seeking to find conscious energisation in the world of limitation. Hence the prepared ground of Vega is the newly dug soil for these beings to come down to, that they can find the glory of active mind light. New atoms drawn out of the Source by the ever changing state of Causation; they who will bring new life and up-lift approach to the way of life.

Hence Merope's stipulation that only by Cosmic unfoldment does evolution continue. Thus as above so below, whereby the NORM sends forth of its new Seed and becomes a part of the Arachnoid possibility, the ever-unfolding glorification of the soul. Thus with the Triune encompassed in the Seed, as that brought into action by Merope, the infinity is born, and possible to all those seeking by an heart-born purpose. That is, the soul free from limitation, and now able to receive the true guiding factor of the Holy Glory of Divinity.

(See text in col. 4)

For the Heavenly Powers are then the radiation and glory of the soul, where the soul is of light and of joyous giving. For he now is being led by such Powers ruling his own Theocratic consciousness, which he knows he directs by the glory of his own heart purpose, not self and selfishness. Thus instead of still being attached to the beast and crawling after the flesh, the soul is wholeheartedly spirit, and radiant with light and wisdom. But able also to draw powers unto itself, which can lead, guide and heal by the higher power of infinite frequency. Again, everything by his own heart purpose, so he either drives to win or lose.

Thus a soul led by the risen up glory of the spirit to find new glories for the mind. The Solar Glory risen up on the horns of the bull, as he drives the issue for truth. For the Central Sun becomes the radiance of the NORM, which draws its polarity by equal octavial frequency, with the Arc the radiance of the FACE of the Divinity. That which is the whole consistency of TIME, of which the Central Sun is the Atomic radiating Noumenal Reality. The Solar Sun being the unfolding Phenomena.

The New World of Mind

MEROPE having set this Glory, being the Terrestrial Christos, impounding the fact of the new Laws, which she has created. These being infiltrated into the maelstrom, by the diligence of the internal and external workers of Universal Philosophy seeking to establish a new divine Cause. Thereby solving the problems of the world, and opening up new life to the many. Thus the Bull through his struggle, finds the Sun between his horns and the Dove upon his flanks; symbolical of the soul's effort to maintain the glories it has declared.

For the soul in taking the Oil of the Word, has in the frictioning brought the glory of Saturn, the uncreated mystery of the Fatherhood. Thus revealing truths never known before, bringing forth the mighty Flame of the consciousness. Thus the Dove as the divine acoustics of the raised up passions, now as the sperming of the Father, manifesting its glorified audible Word in the depths of truth.

For all men will now be led by Merope's beliefs and actions, which the Waters will automatically prove. For here we come to the birth of a new Root Race carrying out the Prototypal Seed of Exodus, as established fact that was never really grounded to the full. No one ever sought above Jupiter, thus lived in the lower idiom of himself.

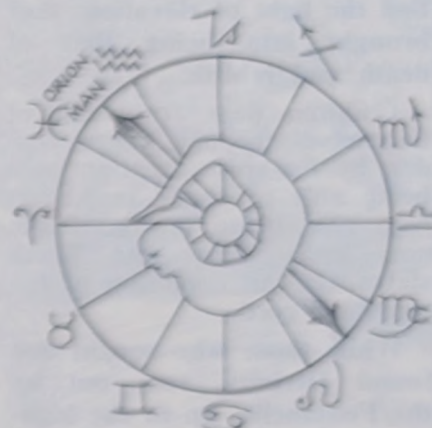

The mind was never really upheld, in the degree of the unity between earth and spirit. This is the blending-in of the soul itself, where the mind becomes the major issue.

In Exodus we know that Moses the warrior, taught these children of the Tau cross and the circle. The soul wrestling with the struggles of the rising passions, to eventually getting them safely through the "Red Sea," with the Egyptians becoming drowned in the flooding Waters.

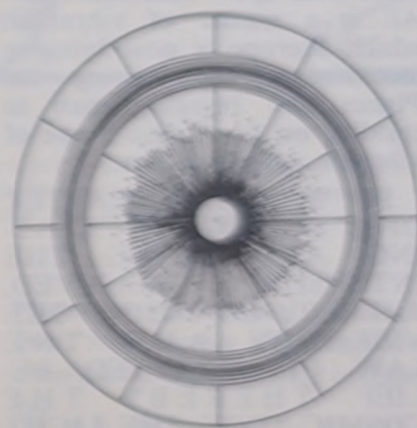

Now all has been made perfectly safe by the unification....

(See diagram in col. 3)

...that Merope has devised through the Solar attunement. By the soul raising the passions upwards, he shoulders his own cross, and begins the path of individualisation, treading-in the wealth gained.

By mastering the elements to the degree of your growth, the soul finds new growth, but now that he can become an Orion man, a Christos-born soul of Solar Glory, manifesting the Voice of the Fatherhood, the internal revolving infinity up to the point of Timelessness.

Ulysses shooting through the twelve rings, that he could release Penelope from the attention of the twelve suitors that wanted to claim her. Not just the Solar as of yesterday, but the strength and glory of the Central Sun. The unifying of the Elements that have been taken, making the man royal now in the state of becoming a MAN.

A soul born of positive belief and action, as an Arian Warrior of Cosmic ascension. He has accepted the fact of the Hydroxyl Waters, its implosions in his internal being, and is now being risen up to the Virgin Plane, as a soul seeking the NEW ROAD of this Root Race. For in the Hydrogen and Oxygen, the two major attributes of Woman, there has been the building up of the inner blue of the Flame, through the struggle of carrying the OS wealth up to the heights, whereby she is transforming Saturn by mastering his magnet-restriction.

Then by man as the Warrior catching it alight, through Pluto raised up from the depths, it became his Octavial Glory in the descent of the Holy Fire, the great mystery of the dance of Le Ros. Thereby she as the Virgin raised up, giving unification to the Father and Son, bringing the Seed of Holy Divine Consciousness into the seventh Dimension. Whereby the first of the new World of Creation is born within the soul as immortality.

Every man a Warrior now, but very wise to follow the Law as set down by Merope. For she has set strait the gate under Cosmic jurisdiction, for the road of this New Born Root Race to go forth. Where the Yod of God, the mighty Unseen, is bringing a mighty MAN into birth. This being the Great MIND, the Intelligencia, the Deity of the Central Sun. Yet where the Father is manifesting through the Son.

This in being captured by the soul, in view of the mighty incoming Waters, Woman is being forced up onto the higher Plane, therefore MUST be fed by the Solar Fire. That she can transform her OS into higher Octavial unification, opening the door to the Solar Glory. That of the Theocratic consciousness, whereby man receives the wealth from the heights in his Seed. He becomes of the down-pouring Fires being the son of the heavens, while Woman is the negative, drawing her wealth up from the depths.

Therefore only receives of the reflection, but when infused by man through the Solar-born radiation, he becomes an infusing pioneer for Outer World Space. But by Merope partaking of the Central Sun and isotoping its dynamic frequency, all women are completely emancipated and receive the Holy Fire in their own Seed.

So the observing of the rules of the first issue of the plan is most important; that close on the heels of Merope, whereby she is being led along the secure way. Striking and rebelling will not cut this off now, for all is LAW, and every man is receiving it through himself. His Seed being born of its consistency, with him shedding his influence in all directions.

So marrying up the heights and depths, the Cosmic Glory is being burnished with light, with the whole of Creation becoming ONE under the labour of leadership of Merope, who is seeking the Way along the New Road of Virgin purity. Unless all this is observed, the 'moon in Scorpio' will prevail and Woman will be hampered in bringing forth of her wealth, for the unfoldment of the New Way of profusive rebirth.

This is where the Gods have taken control within the soul itself, for they need the Seed of Woman, for the Divinities that are descending. Those that are going to raise the world up to the royal glory of Divinity, the New World of MIND, freed from the trammels of the flesh, disease and death. But where the Central Sun is going to be the infusion from heights to depths, as one Vast World of unified glory.

Where Divinities from the heights that were just latent atoms, by Merope continuing a state of Evolution, will become filled with the glory of the Sunship, and can descend to the depths in full consciousness. While the depths can rise up back to the heights; they being the royal infinity which has been set into motion between the Pituitary and the Central Sun, the glory of the NORM.

That now as the established Theocracy of Universal unfoldment of the future World of Evolution. This is where the far-seeing Solar soul can see the REAL issue of Cosmic Consciousness and Divine Cosmic LOVE.

GREAT HOLY BEING.... GREAT GLORY AND MAGNANIMITY OF THAT HOLY ORB IN THE HEIGHTS; Send down Thy Wealth upon the Earth in abundance, that what has been Seeded and earthed in this lecture will blossom under the HAND OF DIVINITY.

AMEN.

CAPTIVITY

AS he rose up out of the darkness of the night, he became aware of the beauty before him, and for the first time realised what had happened, and yearned to be lifted up to those glories he once knew and embraced with the freedom of the spirit. For when 'dead' he felt not the pain and anguish of despair, but now it stung him with a captivity that only he knew and could not discard as he now would wish to. (See text on page 4, col. 5).

but as to what, he has yet to perceive. So as a true Arian Warrior, the soul goes forth to investigate new lands and foreign climes. For although the way may appear perilous, they have ever to remember that Merope opened the gate of every Plane and set the road anew. Thus the radiance of divinity is in man himself, for the Divinities are without radiance, and are seeking the depths of the Abyss, that by earth experience, they can awaken those unseen faculties into action.

Only by limitation, trial and sorrow, which the earth body brings, will the soul aspire to greater beliefs, and wholeness of purpose. It is by the limitation of the flesh, with the worry to keep it fit and well, that soul learns the greatest lessons of all being. Awakens the heart to the true freedom, and once it aspires for that lost heritage, will the spirit rise and the soul become duly born. Hence assume its god-like tendencies, and begin the road of royal divine purpose.

This is the true Theocratic government, where the soul awakens to the true purpose of life. Where the noumenon is ever going to bring its phenomenon, because the triune Atom is an answer in itself. Ever by cause and effect, bringing its immediate effect, as the royal phenomenon of divine consciousness being born. The serpent swallowing its own tail, ever bringing a greater intensity of the Flame. Transmuting and polarising Saturn, revolutionising the whole of the being.

It is only by this, man can, as an individual, perceive the astounding glory of Divinity, the Divine wonders of the Unseen becoming the conscious driving force of life. The soul becoming spirit-born through and through, and living and manifesting by the glory of the royalty of divine purpose through the Breath. Living by the physical, which was never intended, is limitation; by divine belief, that is, the glory of the risen spirit, the mind is free and sees the glory and possibility of life.

ATLANTIS

The Norm Wealth from the Past

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

(This lecture was delivered at the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing on Sunday, the 15th December, 1968 by the Great Flame through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook.)

HAVING prepared our investigation into the depths of the NORM (the Pineal) by the establishment of the Virgin Plane, let us turn our thoughts as conscious awareness, to the might and wealth of Atlantis. Conflicting statements have been made by many, but ever devoid of the Spirit, and without such, records of Akashic rendering are always coloured with romantic impurities, if they are not rendered justly to NORM records. These truths are always attended by the Tiger Powers, for they were the Source of the Atlanteans' wealth. Mighty Powers that were congested, and unified as the wealth of the descent of Creation, but as a "drop" into the negative. What should have risen as mind unfoldment, through the first establishment of the Water Element, instead of being fluidity of cumulus thought creations, turned into a deluge of desire, but always on the Plane of the Abyss, this being completion. Yet Heaven and Earth divided by vibration of investigation outside of Itself.

The Rebirth of Cosmic Glory

THIS is what can always take place on every "step up" of rebirth, and causes soul to FALL, repeating that of Atlantis once again. This by relativity is a direct state of personal unification, where enormous wealth was calcified and Saturn took over the reign of Divinity. This being a FALL by soul of Cosmic belief, thus dragging Divinity down in the Fall.

(See plate on this page)

But in reality Divinity never being touched at all, but still unfolding in Cosmic Glory as the internal FIRE Thread of Holy Glory awaiting ITS unfoldment in MIND magnitude.

But more slowly than when attended by devout aspirational LIGHT giving IT a status of FACE. A status the Atlanteans never made, but multiplied in abundance physically, and through earth-mind states of delight. Desire in its negative form, with all becoming solidified states, as Divinity reigned through the mind strength of SELF, and not through the selflessness unto Divinity unfoldment.

Thus the growth of self as the Helpmeet of Woman, was so as to awaken the conscious state, which now had to be the marital partner to soul growth. This was the Seth Race referred to in Genesis, who wandered all over the earth in a poverty-stricken way. They had lost the true vision of Divinity, and were now completely earthed. Yet full of wealth that came forth as the mighty wealth of the Atlanteans. This evolved into gender, and the true moon period took over, whereby it should have risen as unified MIND creation.

The Solar glory that eventually came forth, was the Light awakened in the conscious mind, but now of an earthed status, producing a creation of FORM. But as aspirational wealth came forth, by the worship of Deity through the Ogdoad ritual of Poemandre belief in the Golden Age, Helio began the new "LAMP" of the heavens.

This not being a ball of gas, as theorised by the scientists, but accumulated LIGHT as mind Intelligencia, the manifestation of Divinity to lead the wayward gods back home. But really the risen ARC of the soul's own higher mind growth, now taking the place of the lost Abel light of the Anthropomorphic Egg.

This gave birth to the mighty Powers that surrounded the Plane of Earth, which had revolved into a Ball by the continual East to West motion of the soul's mind. For by their seeking into wisdom to find the light of elevation, they brought into being that of death and rebirth.

Children born from out of themselves through desire gender, by the spirit creation only being able to reside in Acher-nar. This being on the Plane now away from the Earth status, the cut condition of the umbilical cord.

While those who sought and found Divinity, rose out by the Fontanelle, up to the higher Planes of Creation, which is an intensity within the creation of Vibration. Not going back via the way soul came, but advanced vibrational unfoldment of MIND growth.

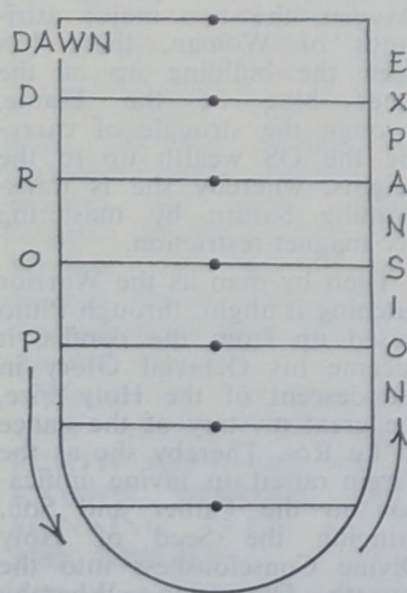

The confusion here is through confusing physical form with spirit etherealisation. All is a matter of vibration, which Merope is now bringing into being, by raising the Planes and bringing man to residing on the Virgin Plane of vibronic manifestation.

IT WAS THE MATTER OF A SCAPEGOAT CREATING AND LIVING THE INTENSITY BELIEVED, THEREBY CHANGING THE VIBRATION AND THE LAW OF ACCEPTED BELIEF. THEREBY THE COSMIC TOOK THE LIGHT UNTO ITSELF, AND BECAME OF THAT STATUS OF ELEMENT INFUSION.

The Solar Infusion of Truth

MUCH of the wisdom was well known to the Atlanteans, the becoming of a scientific turn of creation, by just theory. Thus were able to bring into birth dynamic creations; with Egypt in its mighty day, being but the faint reflection of Atlantis's mighty power.

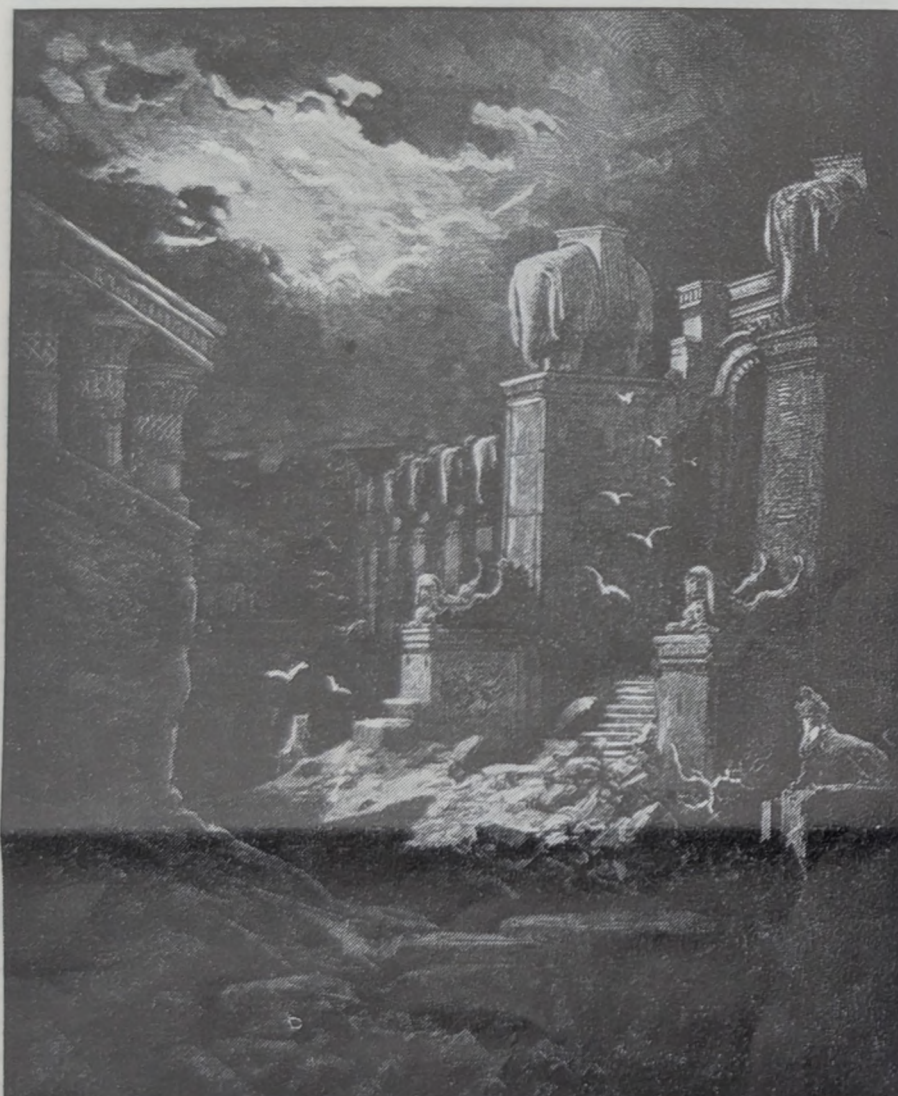

What came down in vibrational drop, in its return, would be expansion via a corresponding rise...

...to ever meet a greater infusion of awareness on the repeat of polarisation of what has been. Yet ever in the status of HERE and NOW unfolding through VIBRONIC EXPANSION. The trouble being, the Feminine Principle refusing to "let go," and keeping to its status of self and its desires.

By this statement, it can be seen that the HERE is the Central Sun, NOW the Earth and the centre of the Earth. Therefore Atlantis is wealth at the bottom of the pot, and would be the centre of the Earth where the Sun's Rays

THE FALL

MIGHTY wonders, stupendous magnificence, that only the ancients of the past could possibly have placed into being. Yet in one vast sweep, a fallen glory caused by those who sought for the density of form. Their ancient wonders still strongly with them, fallen deep into the density of flesh. (See text in col. 1).

have struck their depth. From there they refract out into the density of man's effluvia, there to be used and changed to light as he so desires.

Man is told to seek into Outer Space, and merely goes up in missiles costing millions of pounds to find the moon. But what applies Cosmically, also applies genealogically, and man should by now be withdrawing this depth from his NORM wealth.

For the fulness of TIME in the change-over to personal relativity is Christmas 1968. For not only is this 1968=24, as the twenty-four facets of androgynicity, but the complete turn of TIME in TIMELESSNESS, for all states of human assessment. Then the whole of the wealth that is not turned-in with the mortuary meal, giving the soul the fulness of mind growth, will be confiscated by Orion.

This is where Daphne is chased by Apollo, and because she refused to give up her wealth to him, merely became tree growth and buried under the earth. This indicating that the soul will become a victim to the Solar infusion as mind wisdom, and burnt into the change of growth. The same applied to Hyacinthus who would not return his love to Apollo; thus all now born with the Christos Child as the sparking pituitary, the mind Child of Divinity.

This is explained in the many who have had their wealth stirred, but in refusing to labour the hard way, have taken drugs to open up the NORM, which can only give forth through and by the Solar Rays coaxing it into flowering birth. Where this is confiscated, the 'drip' will become the dried-up nun state, which calcifies the outlook of the free mind of creating and thinking.

This is really the oiled FIRE of Deir-el-Bahri expansion. That which was never really brought to light, and remained within the NORM. That which only calcified the pituitary, which should have become the Flame of mind born from the Central Sun.

This is seen in Merope's Fiery fourth house, as it tries to unify with the tenth...

forced into the depths, and turned into lunar dogma of false royalty. While royalty is the Central Sun might of the Sun in Scorpio, which is now the fulness of Merope's unification of the fourth to the tenth, the full embodiment of the Tiger Powers into the Divine outlook of the Holy conscious outlook of the Sperming Fires, as the living torch of Her Divine Beliefs. This is where the young Warrior has declared of the living truth, for he was one of the Priests who stole her ritual at the beginning of Time, and now becomes as her Divine base.

The symbol, as seen by him, of lifting her up by his little finger, is the pituitary which, once erected, will raise the NORM consciousness up to the infinity of Deir-el-Bahri consciousness and the mighty depth of Marincha, the Goddess daughter of Montezuma, the mighty Aztec. Thus she will become alight in all men's conscious-born Virgin Fires.

For this now, is the Cosmic Consciousness as the Flame of Orion, the mighty wealth to begin the unifying of the whole Universe into the Divine Sea of Holy Mind Consciousness. This is where Deir-el-Bahri is the destitute state of the Pube, through Thutnose, the brother of Hatshepsut, refusing to sperm the wealth that she brought forth as the wisdom of Atum, the glorious god of the Sun.

Thus after her death,—which was very questionable,—he defiled her effigies, and destroyed for the time being the wealth she established. Thus it became the crucified Flame of the potential Christos unfoldment, and has ever been the conscious comprehension of the fractionary vision of the Cosmic Royalty of Infinity.

Vortex of the Stream

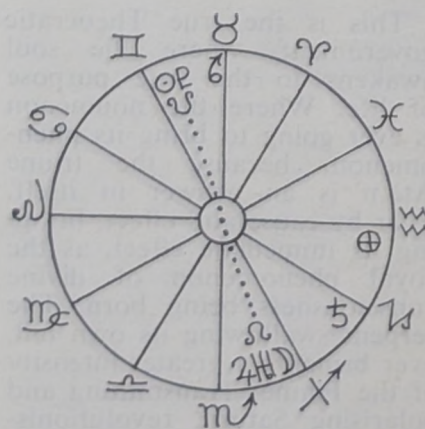

ALL man brought it to, in the Piscean Era, was a dead god on a cross, to ease his own conscience. Thus killed Him to save themselves from labouring. Deir-el-Bahri was the Seed of Infinity, the revolving of the wealth of the Central Sun, feeding the soul by unifying with the magnetic wealth and bringing it to polarisation.

Thus now is awaiting the conscious equality of the Pube, to centralise Merope's wisdom with the Virgin Powers out of the NORM, which will break up the fallacy of the lunar Christ Child facade.

Thus the wealth of Atlantis is having a very deep repercussion at the present moment. For scientists and the medical fraternity,—who are the return of the Atlanteans in this Age, as giants of false lunar wisdom and Jupiterian non-expansion,—will find themselves derelict of mind expression. For Relativity of the soul begins with this Source, and it will be the raw powers of the Earth centre that will have to be contended with, from out of the NORM depths.

For unification now, should be the supreme anointment of the Voice of the Fatherhood, from the unifying of all gained by the soul through the contingency of Time. By this unification Merope will turn over the whole of "Ninevah" to the wisdom of Vega, which they will be forced to follow, owing to their blank minds.

The return of the Atlantean wealth is the mastering of the Tiger Powers, which are the untamed Virgin Powers, that when mastered, will bring mighty wealth of mind expansion. If not, in being stripped of all old ideas, the soul makes no effort and remains blank, their wealth will, by Law of ...This is the Path of the pituitrin, which will be opened up by the Relativity birth of Christmas 1968.

In Merope's log,—she who has to be the Scapegoat,—there is severe opposition, that this mighty rebirth could take place. The expansion of the FIRE gained by the soul, to force all the LOGICAL MIND to turn to the glory of the SOLAR INFUSION of TRUTH.

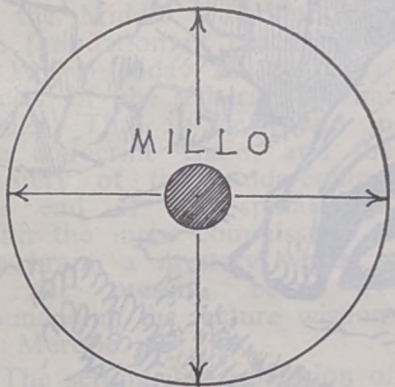

The twenty-four facets of the Solar oneness, which man attraction, fly back into the vortex of the Stream. Thus will be ground-in, into the sands of time, for it will be too late to begin all over again.

The Sahara is indeed the Sands of Time, and accounts for why the old Egyptian mendicants used to tell fortunes by the moving of the Sand as they swirled their forefingers through its sliding grains of mystery. For this sand held the missing link between past and present, where dynamic Powers, equal to the Seeding of the Central Sun, were established.

The Pube in its negative state held the wealth in abundance, for they were Atoms sent forth from Shamash's mighty culmination. A new World of growth was begun, and these sparks of rebirth were sent forth to gather momentum on the Path of vibratory accumulation. This being an unfoldment out of the heights and basic manifestation. Where a state of consciousness was to be created, thus a searching out of itself, into a being of manifestation. As they do so, would Shamash also as Cosmic Creation, begin his creation of Consciousness, where LIGHT was the manifestation of Truth.

But as these Atoms grew of organic soul momentum, cunning as the basic of mind seeding began to grow, but only in the negative, thus the beginning of the logical mind. As the Abyss or basic became earthed as the extent of Millo...

...the range of expansion of unification, the awakened state of SELF took the turn of isolation. Although they still knew the Godhead that gave them birth, yet they felt the importance of individual existence, and lived in their creation as a status of Creation, where ego had formed and became.

The Crux of Atlantis

THE first status of the FALL was Atlantis, with all the wealth accrued in that unfoldment, and the inflowing Powers that had been set to feed them. Hence the Water Element was seeded after the Earth, where deluge drove the souls into greater and greater density, which brought Lemuria and Mu as deluge into being.

But the REAL wealth as the basic of the NORM, which should have blossomed with the Firing, shrivelled up and closed down, with Abel being killed off as the intensity of the wealth established. Then Seth was born as a lower type of Race, and here was the FALL in vibratory subsistence. But before the Aurora of the glory was lost and the down-pouring powers were diminished, Atlantis enjoyed the magnitude of the culmination in descent.

The mighty seeding, which was due to start off the Fired Water Plane and spark the individual creative mind into being, merely turned into physical desire, and roots of the worst nature drove deep down into the created being. Thus Centaurs and Lapithae, half-horse and half-man took over, with Pans, Fauns and Marsyas; but it still did not stop the growth of mind enormity that built up extensive creations at that time.

Yet it had to be seen that the Seed and Sperm of the Almighty Creator was the 'thread' created, which now threaded together the wealth gained through those Ages. It was to be this Point of Divinity that would ever claim its own, at the long run journey of culmination. The coming down into the depths, became as Pluto in the Underworld and Neptune in the Waters. But ever the "LORD sat at the Flood," and is the mighty secret of LOVE, where a Being suffers that some can be saved.

and figures of Hathor still stand in its fallen effigy, as intact as ever. But owing to the scientists' lack of sensitivity, they have badly muddled up times, dates and circumstances, and although they refer to Hathor in the 12th Dynasty, really she came with the beginning of Time at Tell Bastah, and an allotment to the Arab tribes.

This was the union with Atlantis, with the image of the Goddess as Merope once again following the course of guiding all into the direction of rebirth.

be a crash, resulting in the soul having to learn through famine, then mud-raking.

To gain the elevated mind, the soul must fish in deep waters, and as he so gathers of his fill, will he rise and become Fired as well as be spermed, for he will now have become as a Pube and reside on Mount Olympus or Vega. With Neptune Solar-born in divine brilliancy, no longer overwhelmed with inertia or religious machinations, but radiating phantasy. For here

PAN

ANCIENT depths, the glories of the soul, that only the Word in its divine unification can possibly bury in and raise all up onto a higher status. Thus he who follows the rules of the hard-trodden road, will find that Divinity now as the inborn Fire, will ever bring the divine mortuary meal. (See text in col. 1).

The mystery of the "Dish of Blood," the dynamic mystery of GIVING, and not as the replica of Shamash as Saturn, an ever state of demanding. This was the crux of Atlantis, —No LOVE, and all demanding of desire. Yet Powers due to the enormous inflow of Virgin Power, gave them god-like powers, which Medo-Persia tried to capture. But which came forth in the Leo Equinox as the Golden Age of Ancient Egypt.

This was where the Mighty Hathor, the great Goddess of Bubastes, established the mighty LION Powers as the White Cat. But it is also where the "young men of Aven and Pi-beseth" committed evil as priests, and were due to "fall by the sword." It was here that all the wealth of the descent was brought to LIGHT through the active minds of the Pharaoh kings. Yet it was also here that King Boethas opened up the first 'chasm.'

SO WHERE THE MIGHTY WEALTH OF THE SOLAR GRACE WAS ESTABLISHED, WAS THE PERIOD OF THE SOUL-ATOMS, WHICH WOULD HAVE TO BE POLARISED IN TIME.

The marvellous creation of Bubastes has, to this day, left archaeologists amazed, yet that which is being polarised today in Relativity by Merope as The School of Universal Philosophy, where she is not only capturing the Tiger Powers of Outer World Space, but bringing all to a perfected culmination. The mighty rose-pink stone of the Bubastes building, although now fallen to the ground, and more through vandalism of the Arabs, is as perfect in its texture as ever.

The weather has not affected its dynamic internal mystery,

For it was her task to bring the in-burst of FIRE to its perfected conclusion. This was unifying all into One Great World of unified light.

Therefore at Tell Bastah she began the creation with Helio, of starting off the Solar radiance through the still radiating genes. For many creations were brought into birth by Nature striving to meet her responsibilities. For again we say, all is HERE and NOW, all finding rebirth out of itself; that what was started then, could in Relativity become unified with Atlantis, and be polarised into glorification.

This Merope did, and brought Divinity into birth in the density of matter. But at the same time, the drawing forth of those mighty fires now buried in the depths of matter. That through her NORM she could purify them and begin a linking with the CENTRAL SUN, in the density of matter being fired into DIVINE GLORY. With all the glory of Atlantis, Egypt and Medo-Persia unified into LIGHT MAGNIFICAT.

The Occult Glory

THIS mighty wealth of unclaimed light, was the basic seeding of the mighty changes that were to start operating in the Year of 1969, when all was ready for the real manifestation of mind wealth. This could only come through the wisdom set into operation by Merope over the Ages of struggle. Then, if through that gained over the year, you could mount the "five bar gate" and find the Ariel mind drive, would you come through. If not, there would Pisces would come unto its own, with genius and expansive creation in manifesting brilliancy.

What had only been as pomp and ceremony on false beliefs, would be a shining royalty of holy divine magnificence. Brilliant creations with new radiating themes from the salmon's spawning ground, for Neptune covers all genius, thus brilliant renderings of possibilities, containing a Solar intensity that gives the soul much internal brilliancy. For the mind had still been activating under the old despotism of religious inflection, but now knew the wonder. For the possibilities of Pisces are the result of those past glories that had never been fired with true genius, it being completely under the lunar waters of dogma and earthy orgy.

For Pisces came under the ruling of Jupiter, with Neptune as its sub-ruler; thus the expansion that could have been made at that time through the in-born Embodiment, via the Occult Glory, is something that only a true Sage could define. Its wonders and possibilities were beyond the power of Samarkand, and all it resulted in was pseudo-religion, mechanical monsters, slag pits and medical and scientific giants.

Theocracy tried to raise its head under Theology, but it only had a Hindu backing, and again multiplicity. For the Central Sun is 'sun in Neptune' manifesting as the Pube FACE. That born of the pituitrin within the NORM, as the Sun all aglow in Scorpio. Yet something that could only be fired in the depths to bring it to its royal glory.

That is, could catch alight in its holy anointment, and be the ever-radiating FACE of Divinity, as it goes forth into Aries. With Uranus sparking Fire into others, by the royalty of the Word. For whereas 'moon in Neptune' is lifeless Word, 'Sun in Neptune' is the instantaneous firing that promotes the gyroscopic rise to the heights, maintaining the Open Mouth.

For there could not have been 'Sun in Scorpio' if there was not 'Sun in Neptune,' both being synonymous. Hence it could only be by the firing of Neptune, that it would bring the full manifestation of light in Pluto, that of the eighth, that of the quintessence manifesting of divinity.

The manifesting of divine light, for this is the Plane of the manifesting trinity. Womanhood being drawn-in and manifesting the Father in the Son, of which the 'Genes' should have brought forth. Hence there has always to be the working on the Neptunian Plane, to obtain the light where the FACE manifests as the Divine Seed.

It is on the 8th Plane that Vega really manifests, the Plane of the unscarred spirit, that of Pure Virgin Fire. Thus this was what was being drawn forth up to this 1968 culmination, to become the established prototype.

Therefore, if Neptune has not the protection around it to establish and stabilise it, it is lacking, and would be tossed about like a jelly fish in the waters, which is what is taking place with the drug addicts. For the soul would be lacking the strength of the Scorpio Fire, which no one had established as a royal status until Merope established Divinity.

Thus the Atlantean Prototype went on and on, and is that which Merope has turned over in the 1968 Creation. This being the fullness of the 'moon cycle,' whereby the SOLAR CREATION should have burst into HEAVENLY GLORY.

Thus the 'Genes' came down to set the new Prototype of Creation, they being the Blood-life of Divinity that descends at the completion of each Cycle of Creation, and contain the polarity of past fullness. Therefore when Merope polarised the Atom, she was having to polarise the Atomic creation of the past Cycle. For man had never unfolded the creation at all, but took on the seven bodies of Saturn.

This links directly with Atlantis, for at that time, an antediluvian Era, genetic causation originated. Thereby the Genes were being instilled into the depths, with the Genes being the unfolding continuum of the Divine Thread, its own hallmark of uniqueness.

Here we see the Blood-life of Divinity unfolding into the depths as Divine Causation, but it only resulted in coming down to the blood-life of the parents. Yet with still the original Element creation of Divinity, although carrying the earthy Creation of TIME.

It was now that the NORM began to "see" a REAL state of Outward cognizance, hence the Genes commencing as an individual jewel of consciousness. For until you start to move the blood-life by thinking, you cannot understand the Creation of the Genesis of Divinity. Thereby being able to perceive the Divinity being unfolded unto it. Hence through imbibing the Elements, it began to awaken in them the inner divinity of their own being, their own divine creation.

THE MYSTERY OF ROYAL OCCULT UNFOLDMENT

I WONDER HOW MANY WILL BE ABLE TO ACCEPT the revelation I am about to make. For to explain fully of the "Virgin Plane," the leading article of the February Gazette, and the "Central Sun" of the March edition, I can only do so to the full, by such wisdom being expounded. But as Merope, I vouch for all being authentic and accurate.

The Divine Unification

THE first thing to be fully comprehended, is the fact that most of our roots stem from Ancient China, where the mysterious Matriarchate Period began, and which was the awakening of the soul from out of the Cancer Waters, the lunar depths the soul had fallen into. A god who was an hermaphrodite being, that was destined to bring the Solar mind into birth, but as an Atom in an Anthropomorphic Egg.

An unfolding status of growth, where its potentiality was divine, for it had the inductive depths of the Spirit, with the power to spin it up to the heights, in elevated light. That which could be, and must be, resuscitated by the down-pouring of the Fire-bearing Breath. But until Merope, the dancing Goddess of the Pleiades, set this into action, all was inertia through the non-expansive state of the mind of the god.

Since all is HERE and NOW, this was the soul growth out of the unfolding Evolution, where Divinity, as the Mighty Heavenly Space, was also gaining "ITS" unfolding Glory. For although soul was to become MAN-born, it was that Divinity could interpenetrate his faculties through his blood-life, and use them to manifest that divine Grace.

Then, when all was Theoretically born of this unifying Divinity, man would be a suitable vehicle for Divinity to speak through his sensitised elevated frequency. Man created in the image of God, and when the divinity with him was fully atomised by the magnetic growth of man, would the unity as electro-magnetic, be the precise moment for such a Divine wonder to manifest. The soul Christed and Orion born.

The union of heights and depths, eventually bringing the Solar Glory unto the Central Sun magnificence, as the radiant reflection of the spun up mind of man. That transubstantiated into the Glory of Reality. Yet here is where we might seek a little deeper into creation, to get a better understanding of Occult comprehension. For HERE and NOW can be very confusing, to the man who is fixed in his logical belief.

Try to imagine a glorious World, now completely lost to the soul, by his seeking for more tangible creation, through the lack of belief. Where, by so doing, all lost its ethereality and took on of an intensifying state of form. This brought forth a World deep in the lunar fall, a state of moon survival. But necessity is the mother that nurtures all into action, with this mysterious Middle Kingdom becoming the prototypal birth of the Solar unfoldment. The mystery of the inner commisure, the EYE in the centre of the brain.

Yet, although changing towards the intended goal, still the World of yesterday, taking the unfolding state in their stride of evolving existence. With the driving Force, that ordains all means of continuity, particularly the Atom life, driving the issue hard and strong. For they were the keepers of the long term policy, that fulfilled the Plan of Destiny. Thus the means of all-survival soon came forth, as the mystical creation of FIRE.

For Atlantis, the cause of the Fall, did not apply to just one set of people, but all in existence at the time, it spreading all over the World and the Nations in creation. A vast calcifying state of an etherealised creation that fell backwards, formed by the mind desires of the gods.

Yet a karmic trait that comes up with every expansion, and has to be mastered by the initiate under initiation. Thus the mystery of the Open Mouth, as one who returns

THE ILLUMINATI

WITH amazement the Illuminati rose up from his couch of stone, where he had been pouring oil to awaken its glories, and looked up towards the mountain top, feeling the surge of his awakened beliefs. For a truth that had abounded his mind, now encompassed him with the magnitude of its intensity. (See text in col. 4).

the past wealth, on the greater plane of expression. So now, where all had been in abundance, it was sparse, bare and cold, minus the freedom of elevation that they had enjoyed as a spirit, on the spiritual plane. But now in the lower degree, under mighty souls of autochthonous creation, mighty creatures of the positive Feminine creation, ruling these lost and derelict states, deep in the Cancer waters.

Mighty Empresses who ruled by transforming the phenomenon coming forth from the unfolding Noumenon, instinctively seeking an unknown guidance, through the mystery of the now unseen. This was perceived as a Golden Dragon, that rose up out of the mountain heights, that could, if he was pleased, leave you with untold wealth. But if he was angry, he set all on Fire, through a mighty storm of elements. Yet nothing to doubt, and certainly not to laugh at, for they saw what we only feel as the striking of Uranus.

But what a mighty Blaze if fed with FIRE, or what a loss if it cut away. Thus it was by the innocent belief, that they were led to the creation of Fire, with those mighty Empresses driving the issue. For the more they sought into this mystical creation, the more they drew down the Elements, making the Dragon more and more alive and active in their midst. It was papalism that cut this out and replaced by some saint, whom they enforced into their clutches, after the lost gods. But those mighty women who ruled this Nation, knew the answer to all this, for it brought them power and inflowing Fire, from those mighty unseen sources. Yet in reality all this was more a state within the soul itself, that was intensifying the elements by seeking for Fire, and the form state that was growing with them, as the desire of possession. For Shamash had fallen, and was now the Saturn state in the soul, so in battling against his magnetic captivity, they drew the polarity unto them.

Thus whereas the soul had been content with spirit existence, now by the Fall, it craved possessions, labouring itself with greed and desire, a state of intensifying solidity and non-sensitivity. But ever seeking for those things that had to come forth, when they could find the way to create them. Yet the seed foundation of war and barbarism that followed very soon after. But the way that these fallen gods had chosen for the MIND to grow. Not by wisdom of heavenly infiltration, but the hard road of form existence, that would grow to become a heavy load.

For by now they needed FIRE of a substantial creation, which only the Elements could supply. Burning their way into their blood issue, bringing the infinitisation of their broiling apparatus in the depths. It could only be by this ionisation, that the NORM, which was falling asleep, could ever be awakened out of its lethargy, to continue its road of continuity. For nothing could stop that creation, Destiny was the Order of the Day; therefore ideas came forth, without the mind to measure them; sheer survival by instinctive process, through the Powers of those mighty Heavens, infiltrating through the Breath. Yet there lay the infusion,

Yet there lay the infusion,

But a world of growing magnetic fire, which these Empresses were setting into motion, through the Sacred Order of the Golden Dragon. Drawing down through physical phenomena, fire of an elevated magnetic nature, but never activating it into mind light. For it was a time still imbued with the heavenly wealth of the gods, being but a "stone's throw" from the period of the Golden Age, when Helios flooded the World with light. He who set the Solar Glory into motion by a Stream of Heavenly Fire descending down into the World bereft. He who stole the Fire from Merope, one of the priests of Pibeseth and Aven. But Merope, and only she, knew how to handle this Fire, being a Goddess of Wisdom. While he was a priest of cunning and one clever in occult arts, who merely brought it into being as a source of light and power, without the wisdom to maintain its continuity.

By doing so, the world went on, but building wisdom of the very lowest, instead of learning of the way to go to unfold their minds into Theocratic divine expansion. Thus manhood evolved through gender, and the gods lost their divine heritage. But the roots born in China, ever remained the wealth of the soul, to be met in Relativity. For evolution is the order of the day, whether soul wants to accept it or not. Thus China, often referred to as the Middle Kingdom, laid the foundation of much which is known today as the intricacies of the etheric internal bodies. That to be found in the endocrine chain, and the mystery of the cauda-equina, the end of the spinal tail. With the inner commissure of the brain, a mystery which is at the present, being expounded in the lecture wisdom of Merope.

The setting into operation of the Dragon Worship, through the grotesque lanterns of fire, was not only to drive away ghouls and ghoulies, but to draw down the fire required by the Empresses of no mean wisdom. Yet they who were highly versatile in astrological lore, for it was Hwang Ti, an Empress Pube, who set Polaris into motion, for with the Fall into density, the Poles had slipped and were taken over by the magnetic.

Thus she drew a divinity to herself, which she referred to as her son, and through this heavenly guidance brought Polaris, the Pole Star of the Great Bear, into operation. Thus casting out the Pole Star of Vega, which was destined to return in the year of 2000 A.D. Thus Merope in bringing it back in 1968, was a matter of 32 years before the predicted time; but not too soon, to prevent the dynamic danger in the offing.

Empress Hwang Ti started up the elevation of returning the Race, by the assumption of Seven, which only resulted in multiplicity coming into birth, causing souls to become elongated, and split, with 12th and 8th house planets dividing them. Merope, by the wisdom she has set, and the Planes risen up to the Virgin Plane, has been the means of enfolding all these states in by the mortuary meals she brings. Therefore, the man who will struggle on in unfolding his mind, ever reaching up to the Solar gravity, will be led along by its glorified wisdom.

Hwang Ti was highly versed in wisdom, but ruled China under the precedent of the moon, thereby set everything into motion by the lunar and not by the Solar, as was duly intended. Consequently, Chih Nu, who was struggling Merope, had to weave by moonbeams, and not by the Solar Glory, as intended by the Fire she first brought down. The weaving being wisdom to lead the Race onto unfolding mind grace. Thus the period when the moon became defunct, it being an Abyss Plane creation. Thus faded away, with man taking on the true Earth creation, but owing to his desire state so prevalent with him, he still clung to the lunar; hence its manifestation in reflection upon the maelstrom. And who is to know when they are in the maelstrom or not, except by mind vibration.

Apart from many other sources of wisdom, which these mighty women of China set into motion, was the drawing of the power into action in their vicinity, of the wealth of the passing Eclipses, and please do not doubt that this can be done. By so doing, Hwang Ti, who was overshadowed by a positive or masculine divinity, one of a very positive nature, took on the axiom of a mighty Black Bull, a Pube of dynamic power and grace.

Yet all this wealth and wisdom was the outcome of the Atlanteans, who themselves were Pubes of hermaphrodite nature. Yet when we realise that Abram and David came as Divinities to over-shadow Terah and Jesse, we can then perceive a little more clearly of the wisdom and wealth now being described, that has yet to be buried in. And can account for the many disruptive and criminal states that are abroad at the present moment.

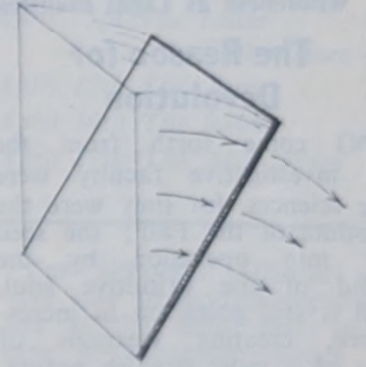

The Eclipse that took place in March 1968, held a great importance for Britannicus, for it brought down a great surging of FIRE, which Merope turned into atomic power of a polarised vibration, to stem the disturbance by Russia. Thereby saving the Czech Race from another blood bath. While those Empresses of the past, only turned it into magnetic fire, to help themselves with their phenomena. But all states that are still in the offing of the soul, causing the soul to become lunar-bound, and held to the rock of matter. But this is where we come to more intricate depths, for the present creation is the last of the conscious creation, to be born in any soul. Every man is now unified up, by the Law of Unification unto Divinity.

That like Hwang Ti, she could become a "Bull," and fire the world with Royal Holy Light through her elevated mind. So Merope sought of her Magic Mirror, and as she so believed, she found, by the natural phenomenal powers that were with her, that she was moving backwards into a dark tunnel of Time. Losing all of her present Age, and becoming the young Merope of Spirit. Then she found she was approaching a heavily closed door, which exhibiting their genius, and how this would now no longer take place through the wonders she was putting into operation, as an acting Scapegoat. But also the sacrifices she had made, for she had taken the crucifixion.

Thus as Merope returned and came out of her entranced state, she suddenly found an over-shadowing of tenseness, and knew that the Great Flame was with her. While there before her, she saw a revolving Plane...

...and knew that the earth was being turned right over, from lunar into Solar glory. That Womanhood was completely reborn, into the glory of the Fatherhood. That the source had gone up to the elevated reborn octavial Source, blending in all those ancient states of the past.

No longer any roots born from that period of TIME, all had found their mortuary meal, and become the pure Solar Glory of an Arian rebirth. That the Great Flame as the mighty Black Bull, with she in His reflection and the ascended Virgin-Urania, had established the mighty Glory of the Divine Fatherhood, in a sad world of turmoil. With Divinity shining forth in the glory of the Sun's magnificence, feeding all men with Golden Solar Radiance.

With absolute amazement, Merope gasped and declared,

"So it was you who descended down into the depths, that this mighty feat could be accomplished?"

And the reply came forth,

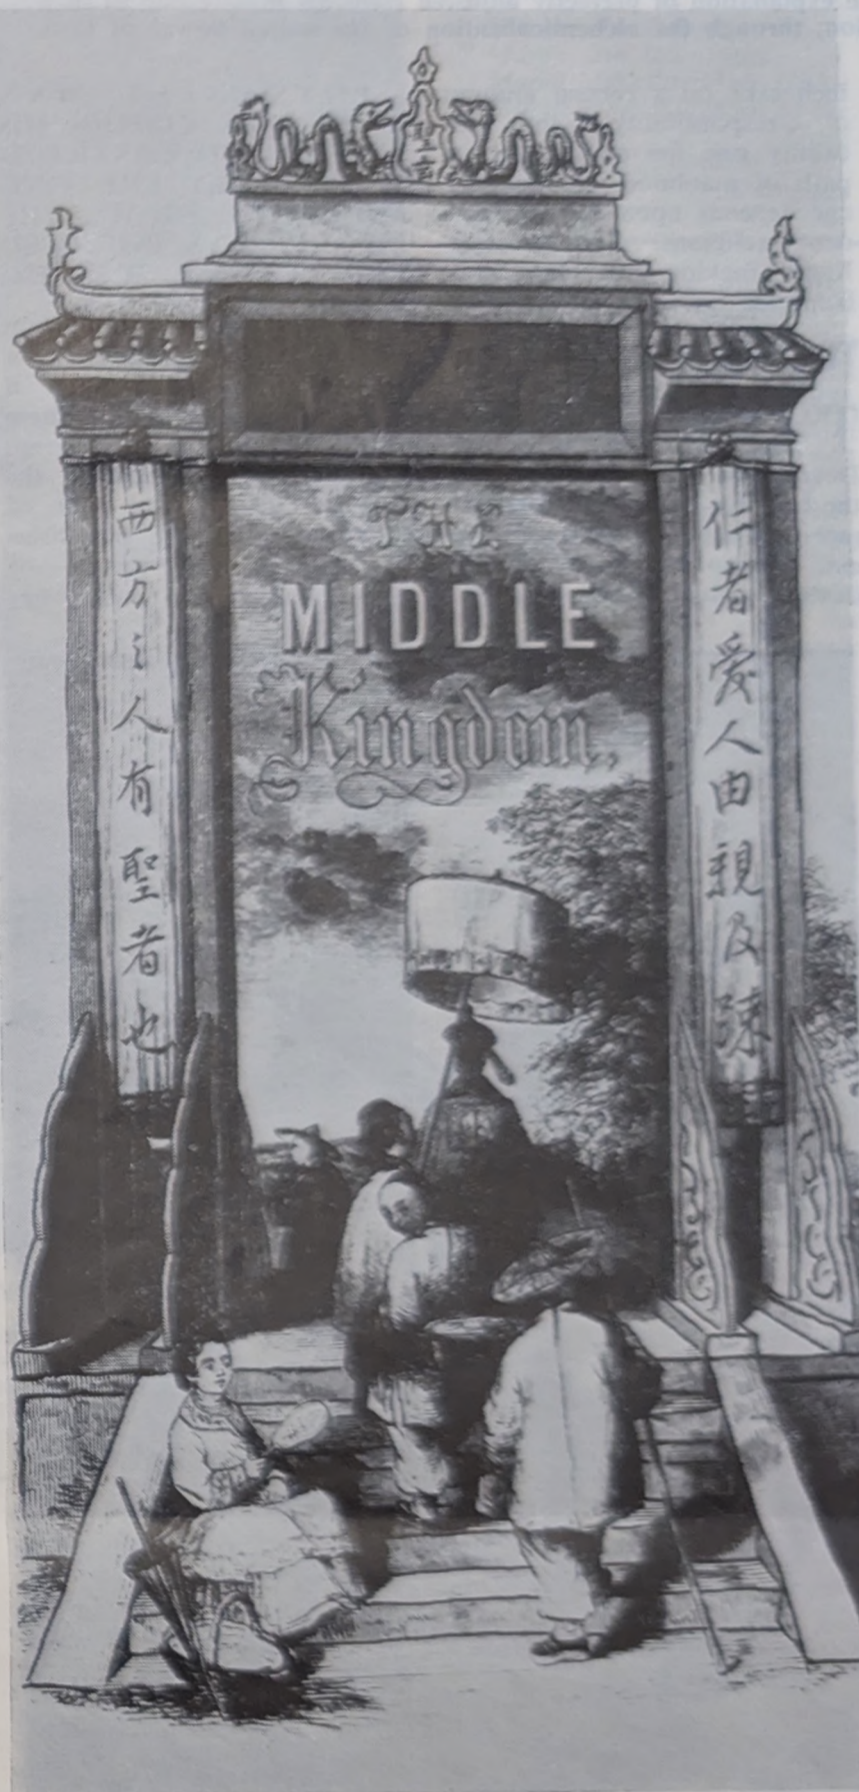

"You and I together Merope, that the Royal Fatherhood could claim His Kingdom."

Then to crown the wonder of the moment, a dimmed vision suddenly appeared before her, of an elderly man, very like the gay Cavalier, but with a more royal and regal bearing. It was then more than ever, that Merope knew that she was being divinely honoured, with a vision of the Divine Fatherhood. He who was taking on of the Phenomenal substance of Matter, to manifest direct truth straight from the Source. Merope who knew the depths of these wonders, was utterly speechless at such a mighty honour being proffered to her. Far beyond her to find any words to adequately express anything of her startled feelings.

Then Merope realised that her own warrior belief had been unified and strengthened by the Great Master, the Royal and Begotten Flame. With the Fatherhood, her created FACE, becoming the full establishment as the mighty EYE of the Arc. With His Vision penetrating into the depths, through the inner commissure, that sent His Voice down onto her radiating uvula.

For Father and Son were one, the Glory of the Central Sun, radiating through the whole of her being. With the hour of Aquarius duly here, building and spinning up the Solar Spindle, of the coming Arian rebirth. All being spun up into heavenly heights, for this was a Cosmic task. Where light and truth of abounding polarisation of that Ancient Past, had duly been completed with heavenly Grace.

MISJUDGED MOMENT

AS Li Lu sat down to rest, the many passed through under the Gate. Little did she realise that those doors would close, holding her to this side of the fence. For this was like many a tricky moment in the occult embracement,—either you do, or you lose the hold. This is where Time and Tide waits for no man, and Timelessness closes the door on your approach. (See text in col. 1).

This was brought about by Merope bringing down the Hydrogen in the Oxygen Breath, the glory of the Ethers. The Hydroxyl Breath, that which has confounded the scientists and left them wanting as to the reason why. Therefore, with the Virgin Plane, all was set and every man was standing on the Ice-cap of a new beginning. Now with fired Breath that was helping the Race out of the degeneracy they were sliding into, which was a state of impending nuclear disaster.

The Virgin Drive of the Solar Fires

THEREFORE Merope sent forth that she could be helped to bring about the entry into Matter, of the fulness of the descending Fatherhood. For she knew it required a very well-fledged male, to sponsor this descent into the depths.

slowly opened, revealing a magnificent chandeliered room, with its roof supported by many embossed marble pillars.

As she entered this room, which had been brought to her before, it seemed to come fully into life, as though the wonders of yesterday were repeating themselves today. As she entered and looked all around, there in the centre of the ceiling was a golden EYE, from whence the chandelier lowered itself. For Merope had entered the secret room within her own being, opening the door of yesterday, to its wonders and glory of today.

Hence Relativity, as exacting as it must be, began to come forth, revealing how those who had been struck away, had been so through their failing to return of their karmic debt. Yet those who could, would stay the course and be lifted up to Vega. But with much being unfolded to her, of those in the past who had been struck in their faculties while

by Ra-Men-Ra

MAN on his path of solidifying Saturn, is ever seeking in many directions to provide himself with a ladder to climb out of ring-pass-not, and created exoteric and esoteric worship, religious movements and ceremonies of a psychic nature. For the jet-propelled action explained in one part, became the inventive genius of the faculty of mind. Therefore it must be seen that if man, in that of mind and flesh, is so powerful in inventive art, how much infinitely greater could the power be, in one whom the gifts of soul and Spirit are in full force and function. And these gifts were what man forfeited for the desires of the Fall. But some have found them, for did not Paul, Gandhi and Gautama, apart from others, extol the greatness of Spirit. And what Paul wrote of, were not miracles or impossible to others, but the explanation of perfectly adjusted elements manifesting in their wholeness as Light manifestation, through the alchemicalization of the united power of man.

The Reason for Devolution

TO come forth from the investigative faculty were the sciences, for they were the product of the Fall; the seed set into operation by the mind of the primitive soul, and is still going on in increscence, creating weapons of war of a most devilish nature. When will man learn? For it has resulted in the Cosmic Ray becoming intercepted and the discharge of more and more soul-destroying dust into the atmosphere.

Why are your livestock dying off with disease? Surely by enforced breeding out of season, and element disturbance. Why have you a race of degenerates commencing? Because man is more and more descending into degeneracy himself, and those coming back are either sensitive souls caught up by the world conditions and intermixed state of consanguinity, or barbaric souls returning into bodies out of context of their station.

LAW AND ORDER IS OUTWEIGHTED NOW BY THE LAW OF NECESSITY.

But as one from Spirit, let me enlighten you upon a point, regarding the returning into the flesh, and the coming from the freedom of Spirit into bodies prepared by the parents.

Although there is that of the Law of Attraction, the mysterious path of heredity,—that of blood consanguinity,—the parents, through devolution, often prepare bodies that come forth from desire-ridden minds. For the logical mind has taken on many ideas which it believes to be modern and advanced, but really are most retarding; while one of a more simple and natural method would prevail with greater security for the spirit returning, but increscence has unfortunately complicated their unfoldment.

Try to visualise the mysterious underground caverns of Cheddar Gorge or Wooky Hole where all is barren, cold and lifeless; everything completely saturnian. Then visualize Spirit returning from freedom and being closed up in the instrument of the womb. Not only of flesh, but the material passions, hates, sorrows and desires, apart from their parents' trials in a modern world and their pains and sickness.

Then you have the return of Spirit itself into matter, and until man begins to bring change, and lift up the sorrows and darkness of the devolutionary path, his return is that of confusion. Do not say, surely they fall asleep, or are anaesthetised. No never; the soul is working all the time, in a form of oblivion, striving to adjust itself for the exit. It is the exit where all becomes blank; the striving to adjust itself to the new form of life, new language and new brain organ.

It is not until seven years old that the soul really begins life, for up till then it has lived under the protection of the mother's Moon element. From seven onwards it can think for itself, and at fourteen take on a certain amount of responsibility, that at twenty one the soul starts its path of manhood. Though the age depends upon the independent religions. The Eastern Races making the male free from the age of twelve.

The Path of Redemption

TO overcome the tamasic state on the path of Devolution,—that of inertia—the Law has worked the human race through reincarnation, and step by step the Race has slowly raised itself intellec-

PHYSICALLY MAN MUST NOW CLOTHE HIS ATTENUATED CONTRACTED BODY BY CREATING THOUGHT FROM THE COSMIC RAYS INDUCED FROM THE SOLAR LIGHT.

But the most important question of the moment, is what is going to happen if man continues to cut off these rays by creations of ignorant supposition. For already the method of supplying that of the forfeited Divine paradisiacal clothing and vesture of mind, body and soul, has

THE TAU CROSS

MAN knoweth not that what he runs away from he runs straight into its open arms. He knoweth not that the wisest way is to face and wrestle with its mystery; for every dark cloud has a silver lining, when the soul has the courage to find it. (See text in col. 2).

tually, but kept its feet on the path of devolution. Yet there have been those who have raised their minds intelligently, until there were those who have sought into that of the initiatory, and began the Path of Redemption through the Cross and Serpent, and slowly mastering, though much in the dark.

(See plate on this page)

Man encloded spiritually, has cried out and has even created prayers and sacrifices, which brought about his intellectuality beginning to laboriously struggle, striving to create a new science and intelligence. Very slowly this has awakened and has resulted in that of modern science, art and invention.

occupied many ages to discover and perceive what the soul should develop, let alone begin; while all the time there has been continual increscence, with the road getting harder to accept, let alone master.

While it is foolish to decry the magnificent result of devolution, in what you call the march of civilisation, through the rise and growth of culture, invention and discovery, it must be agreed, by those who do know of the wealth of Spirit, that these are nothing compared with the lost state of man, and are wholly abnormal features.

Science and mechanical products will reach a height of abomination, then a turn will take place, and these, as well as intellect, statutory and autocratic education, religion, and culture, will pass away, and become extinct curiosities of an abnormal age, when the Christos as Solar inflow enters into His Kingdom: the vision shown unto John of the New World, that born within the soul who is born of light.

FOR THE DIVINE HIERARCHY WILL TRIUMPH WHEN THE CROSS AND SERPENT RESTORES THE MEDIATIVE MINISTRATION OF THE HUMAN GENUS UNTO THE SONS OF GOD.

The Pioneering Spirit

THE symbolical and mystical view of the allegory of your Holy Book has been completely overlooked by your modern theological exegetists and has been solely treated as literal history. Therefore if Church and Science joined forces with the Occultists, the theories of science and records of geology could gain much through that which geology can unearth, and religion add unto of its spiritual wisdom.

Indeed the real wonders of life have yet to be unearthed, for Science has been given only devilish construction, Scripture a useless and irrational meaning, and mysticism has either degenerated into useless psychicism, or hidden away into complete obscurity to become lost.

It is utterly absurd that such a priceless Book, as your Holy Book, has only been allowed to remain as the nudity of Adam and Eve, one pair of creatures, which in reality was a period of time. And when you hear such being chanted and chorused in such light by Theologians, it must make the intelligent run further back into hiding.

Surely it must have been seen by these intellectual bodies, that for this pair of human beings to be ashamed, after they had eaten of the tree of knowledge, must be a symbolical story; otherwise some rapid physical composition must have taken place in their physical bodies to have caused this sudden accession of modesty and chasteness at the unwanted spectacle of their naked bodies.

The answer to all this lies in man's conscious mind, as he crept along the path of devolution through the house unfoldment of Virgo; the virgin mind bringing into birth the soul's conscious conventional son of light creation.

But at the same time, the house became the well of created papalism, religious piety, not true devotion, and here built a towering structure of Theological doctrine of Sin and Salvation, leaving man to believe that the world, turned into a ravenous wilderness of conflicting elements, was due to a man and his wife eating fruit from a prohibited tree; and the trivial infantile story of a talking serpent and a beguiling woman.

The duality of this scene belongs to the 6th house of the zodiacal chart as that of the conscious-mind creation, which ever brings a state of instability to Taurus, the 2nd house of desire, through Scorpio, the 8th house receiving prurient creations; thus regeneration never takes place, and the path of devolution continues.

For Virgo, the conscious-mind in her mode of change swings from chasteness to prostitution, but ever yearning for purity and divinity, the divine birth of soul beauty; but the logical mind is strong, thus man merely clothes himself with conventionalism.

FOR MAN TO SEEK UP TO THE DIVINE, WHEREBY HE CAN GET ONTO THE PATH OF EVOLUTION, REQUIRES SELF-ABNEGATION, AND FURTHER REQUIRES INDIVIDUALISATION.

The Spark of Light

IT is very difficult to bring in adequate language, a description of changes that follow the disendowment of the nature of man, denuded of the divine glory that his Spirit had formerly diffused throughout his dual nature; and it is still going on as man slips from Grace. This can be imagined by the example I gave you of the spirit returning into incarnation, but still further try to imagine the effect of the extinction of the Sun's light upon the face of nature. Such would be catastrophic in its effects. Even more so if there was total extinction of the light of the divine nature necessary for the organism of mankind.

Spirit alive and shut in the flesh can only at the best of times perform the most elementary physical functions, being the eternal magnet of the vitalistic currents by which

Power of the Sperming Word

HERE alchemicalisation began in its very first elementary stages, since it co-exists with outward consciousness. Again, until the mind is moving in active creation, the Abel state never works. For Mercury is the main ingredient of the alchemical pot, with the genes being the masticators of the Chromosomes.

Therefore, if the Chromosomes are the element creation in the soul, the genes hold the mind creation out of them. Yet all is a state of "Plasm" of the blood as the inner Planes manifesting through the NORM in its fight to become of MIND. Its "helpmeet" was this "Plasm" by which the NORM gained greater and greater "sight." But Atlantis became enamoured with the power of being able to make any creations, and lost the guidance of the Great Central Intelligencia.

This "plasm" is "Woman," the polarity of the Great Fatherhood and His Magic Mirror, yet the negative status of Himself. It was this which remained slowly solidifying, until Merope brought it back to "as it was in the beginning," an unfolding NORM Pube, a "son" of Divinity. Here we come back to everything being in man himself, and the blood-mind as light and the conscious mind perception as the plasm or spirit unfoldment.

This is where Woman reflects the FACE of Divinity, through the Orion Sonship she was bringing into birth. Hence, when the Atlanteans took everything unto themselves, they turned the Genes magnetic, and became as the genes of human life. Instead of hearing the Voice of Divinity, they only heard the re-echoing of their own creation. This being the birth of Narcissus and the first building up of the maelstrom. Therefore Genius is divine perfection out of the Genes; hence Genius is the re-linking back with Divine Intelligencia.

(See plate on this page)

All this is the mighty past as the NORM wealth; that which, if polarised, will bring the New World into being, as the blood life of the soul. Hence the drastic turn-over that has to be made, where the whole of the blood-plasma will account for the mighty chaos that is taking place at the present moment. Soul life "half-turned" through drugs, chaos, and requires the full change-over as the Mortuary meal, that will fulfill the full swing of the pendulum.

ECHO AND NARCISSUS

AS she sought to awaken his internal divine Love, he perceived his reflection in the waters, and saw how mighty he could be if he fledged them forth as only he knew how. Not believing that the unification could possibly bring yet greater glory, as he slaked his thirst in a lonely pool. (See text in col. 2).

DEVOLUTION

the organic life is sustained, and incapable of doing more while so blurred and blind. To cut off would be more disastrous, but to open up by initiatory methods and master the elements of darkness and evil, would return to the soul that which it had relinquished long ago.

Man has only to think in his awakening mind activity, where does he raise his intuitive genius, science and religion from, for even in heredity, many a genius is the child of mundane parents. Why surely the answer is 'relativity,' which is also another subject I will bring.

The relativity is resurrecting what has been the past of the soul in involution; and now devolution edging into evolution, what was as past greatness of the spirit, will be unified with what is experience in retention, and be made solid and perpetual in mind construction and spirit light. That of the Spirit body and the Holy City established. That revealed to John and sung and praised in the final chapter of Revelations.

The Race Elect

FOR man to be rescued from his spiritual oblivion, and establish the race above brute creation, man must begin from the beginning; and has been, and will be left more so to be the creator of his own future state, whereby he will discover the art and capacity of mental thought, deduction and inception of ideas. This he creates through the conic-form of hyperbola and parabola, which I will bring in due course.

In time man will turn the house of Virgo into a royal house of birth, no longer having the 'stable' predominant. But changing his desires in the 2nd house to royal purpose, and wrestling like Jacob with the creation of the serpent in the 5th, the ancient house of Leo, bringing into Virgo purified thoughts of beauty, that in the 7th, the house of Libra, he can enter the scales of justice, and not seek to go above the balance. But bringing all he advocates into perfect creation.

By cumulative increments of understanding consolidated in successions of incarnations, the devolutionary process in going forward has shown imperceptible stages of progress, for experiences of intellectual and spiritual developments and gradual evolution of mental and physical faculties, are making this end of devolution a betterment for human progress to take place.

At the outset the soul had little reinforcement from within and was a lost continent within the being. The spirit was incarcerated in the carnal caverns and unfortunately is in the blood consanguinity, but the soul, through such channels as I am using now to come and give this spiritual guidance, can raise its head and strike upwards through the mind. So come forth all ye prepared speakers of the Truth, we from Spirit are waiting for your service, but you must be pure and holy.

The vestiges of memory that have been stereotyped in myth, legend and tradition, chronicled in song and poetry, held in fragments, in classics and rapidly disappearing dead languages, is still in the memory of those who will enter the new stream of ELECT: those who will strive and struggle to raise the standard of the Spirit, and hold it high aloft, that those blind, and drunk in their own self importance, will, when down on their knees, bow their head to those heroes of the day who have held the fort for Him, the Giver of Life, the Holy Christos.

The old symbols of the departed Faith can never be forgotten, for they have ever been preserved and jealously guarded among the faithful Elect through the ages. In the course of time, many have been corrupted and perverted with false ideas and gross idolatrous and sensual superstition, but the Divine Symbol of Life pouring eternally from God as the River of Life, is the Vital Principle by which all life is sustained; and is reproduced and perpetuated only from the Christos or Solar deity, the LIFE mediator.

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

ONCE THIS IS PERCEIVED AND ESTABLISHED, IT IS UP TO THE SOUL TO SEND FORTH THE POWER OF THE SPERMING WORD.

This means, to get the Word to be so full of the Spirit, that as it is passed onto another, it begins to germinate in their mind, and a new life creation begins to alchemicalise. This indicates, that as the mustard seed, it ever grows anew out of itself, but with a greater intensity of the thought intended. Thus begins as a thought which he swings through as a new idea, but it naturally goes forth in its negative creation.

But as it leaves, it starts to intensify, and is received by another in a state of coming forth. If the utterance is only of non-unified action, then it will never sperm, but be passed on in a non-explanatory way. The sperming of the Word by the Bull in the capturing of the Seed, with the momentum gained and added unto, the means of re-embellishment as Theocracy.

The idea or belief that captures the Yod of Divinity, and begins the way of changing the darkness of vibration into one humming light, as it spins up in Ariel flight. But the immensity is for it to revolve in its spinning intensified drive, to a revolution of interpenetrable magnitude, of setting a flame dancing in their mind.

Their higher mind, as subconscious unfoldment, is touched by its approaching light, and embraces it into its own manifold possibility. But not without more impression is registered upon the soul who receives of its gyroscopic intensity. Then the first drip is sent forth and the past and the present are moving in continuum.

If the soul is really sensitised, perception takes place at once, and the whole of that received flares into reborn light, and the beam is reborn. While even the FACE will be seen with renewed belief; for all the time, changing vibration of belief, is becoming Word on an Ariel flight, and polarised into Octavial rebirth. There is no ending to this spinning continuum, whereby many can find their mortuary meal in its revolving action of rebirth.

For although Atlantis will have one impending direction, and at the time, that which gave its expansion—which today is as a root—must find its greater intensity in unfolding Relativity. One under the lunar, the other under the Solar, while the expansion into unknown realms of approaching establishment is of Atomic Glory.

The Word all the time driving the issue as a boring ram, spinning up hotter and hotter as it drives its way through its journey of expansion. Ever sending forth out of itself, the momentum of becoming.

The mighty wealth accumulated is with the soul who becomes elevated onto another Plane of Belief, and finds untold interpenetration to higher Planes, through the Breath intensifying the unfolding glory of that sperming Word. It ever being spermated and spermated, by every active bull and virgin weaving maid.

The past with the present and the expansion, is the wealth to be gained by all who partake of its original sperming, and adds unto, as it goes out again and again. This comes to the marital unity of the soul, where the other beliefs are discarded. The renunciation of old beliefs and ideas, that the new "pet" can take the place of the old juggler, is one of the major assets of rebirth.

But furthermore, if this exercise can be made in the hours of the rising Sun, the Solar inflow of Breath is taken before it is contaminated by density. This being a slow movement towards complete androgyny of the soul. But towards the ever-unfolding comprehension of Solar glory.

The lotus-eater takes knowledge, eats of its spirit infusion, and buries it within his rock as raw fire, while the Word for the moment is merely knowledge. The Word possibly going on through the minds of others, but where only one partakes, it causes the sender-forth to become "jammed" by the lack of heavenly return, even unto 'starvation' of fluidity.

brought to the one-ness, uniting the powers between the past and the present; and that is the only way he is going to bring completeness, otherwise he is a divided state; the lower with the higher becomes divided, the two states of equilibrium. You must make a unity, otherwise you will never be able to make a oneness of the disjointed states.

NOW YOU CAN SEE WHY YOU SHOULD STRUGGLE, WHY YOU SHOULD DELVE INTO THE PAST: IT BRINGS YOU THE WISDOM OF WHAT YOU ARE CONSISTENT OF. YOU ARE MADE UP OF ALL THOSE PAST STATES OF THE COSMOS. THE LEGENDS I BRING YOU REPRESENT THOSE PAST STATES OF THE COSMOS.

From the time of Egypt to 300 B.C. circa, you have the understanding of the Sothic Cycle when the Myths were born, a time when man was royal, a time when man believed in all this Truth, a time when these Truths were installed into the Cosmos. That is the time we are bringing to you of the Sothic Cycle when all was moved up to the heights and the pole star was the means of bringing man the beauty he was seeking. The same is going on now, but orthodoxy destroyed it, orthodoxy cut it asunder; not only that, but it divided man; and man at the present moment has it to blame for his own divided state.

Now the only thing is to bring Universal Wisdom. This is not just the Teachings of this School, but the Teachings of the Cosmos; Teachings that will help man to reinstate himself as a god, help him to go back to the heights; otherwise he goes down into the depths and he begins on the next plane as the animal creations of that plane, though in a different form. That is why there are only 144,000 to be saved; 144 states of relativity; the unity between the polarities.

THE MAN WHO CAN MAKE THEM COMPLETE IN A ONE-NESS IS THE MAN THAT IS GOING ON TO BECOME AS THE ENLIGHTENED ONE ON THE NEXT PLANE AND BE ABLE TO TAKE HIS PLACE AS ONE OF THE GODS.

If you are one that has taken of the power, and refuse to labour, then you have brought a separation between the lower and the higher that will be very hard to bridge. And if you remember the knowledge we brought to you in the Legend of the two brothers, how there was the one that was frightened and ran away and ran back into himself; then he was told to go back and unite the two together; finally he was told he would have to go across the lake of flame: that is what all men must do who refuse to labour, when they are alive with the flame: they have taken the power and they are alive with flame.

Their house of karma (or the waters under the rock) is alive with the flame they have refused to spin into the flame of the mind: their lake is as a lake of petrol alight and they do not know how to control it: that must be subdued and the soul must labour and bring it into the flame of the mind by hard struggle. Now this is what I want to help you with.

What we are bringing to you tonight is of Time and is an explanation of the Sothic Cycle and other states of relativity that might help you to understand the future lectures. There may be quite a lot you might find difficult to follow, but when you are given different states, countries or places, it is using these parts as geography merely to express where certain states found richness. If there was a country that found richness at that time, then they would be the one that would be offering to the Goddess the wealth; and that would be you as the one that was spinning the thread at that particular time. But I will help you with that as we go along.

So now let us go forward with the knowledge of TIME.

The Etheric River of Creation

It would not be fair to the earnest student not to bring at this moment an understanding of the phenomena that governs the growth of man, the ruling of the Cosmos, the inbirth of the gods, and the establishment of the Solar light. By an understanding of how the Universe as an interlatory creation supplies and takes of that necessary to bring man into being as the potential being of the world to come, you will be able to deduct more clearly why it is necessary to establish a well-balanced calendar both for Time itself and your own well-being.

Once this is fully understood by the initiate he will feel more responsible for those moments of time that are entrusted into his care, than allowing such precious opportunities to pass him by.

The first thing we ought to go deeply into is the knowledge of the Great Year of the Universe. This is called the Cycle of Precession when the gods march through TIME: that is, the going back through Time, because, as the gods go forward so does man go back with the gods.

The period of this River of Creation is calculated by man to be 25,868 years and at the present moment is the creation of Humanity: (we are going to speak of a round figure of 26,000 years: at the present moment you have done half of it, 13,000 years).

Each period brings some form of new Birth in the life of the unfolding Divinity, and man as the coming Birth of the great Man-life is the embodiment as seen today in the form of the present flotsam and jetsam.

Man is not as he sees himself. You see yourself as one person, and to you, you are important. Yet when you leave the earth, what are you? Mere spirit. You are not what you were upon the earth. You have to meet yourself, face yourself. But that is only a personal matter.

Upon the earth you have been the means of bringing the

So where does man come into this, but merely as the pawn that has carried out the work of the Divinity! It is the life within you as the gods that is being established, created and expanded: the great elements that are going out and making their way through time.

These powers that man is capturing and turning into destructive weapons are the great powers that are coming down to the earth to feed you, to feed man and give him new thought; not to be used in a destructive state: consequently man has cut himself off of his own accord, as I have already explained to you; but he has kept it within his own vicinity and the Instrument by prowess built up a channel between the heights and the depths as was

So when we talk about going back into a certain period, and meeting a certain king,—that was when a certain Divinity was reigning over the earth and pouring down upon the earth its influence brought about my man's struggles. At the present moment the Christos is pouring His Life down upon the earth, but in the changing period as Ra-Man-Ra, God-Man-God, I am only the Voice, but I have assumed and taken the Power of the Divinity, the name of the Divinity; and in time to come it is going to be referred to as Ra-Men-Ra.

UNFORTUNATELY MAN IS GOING TO LOSE THE TREND OF THE MYTHS UNTIL HE AWAKENS AND COMES TO THE UNDERSTANDING, WHICH HE WILL DO WHEN HE FINDS ALL THE EQUIPMENT OF THE EARTH FAILING HIM: THEN HE WILL TURN TO THOSE STATES OF THE PAST.

Then he would have the channel whereby he could solve his problems and bring into birth further great streams of life. But man prefers the way of drug, science in its joys of destruction, and life in its mean measure of humming and drumming.

The student who is wise, though not considered so by the multitude, is the one who will gather up of this wisdom and turn it to wise account in the spinning of the word and the weaving of the Solar Fire born within his own hourly intake of breath.

The conical motion of the earth's axis is as a top that spins and sways upon its peg: this marks out the circle in the heavens in a form of 23½ degrees of radius. The pole of the heavens is always in the circumference of that circle and is forever moving on as a round of 26,000 years. To see the relationship of associations more clearly, realise that the entire globe of the earth is swaying like a top with every part of it preserving the same relation with the equinoctial point on the equator moving all round the ecliptic in the same way that the pole moves round the higher circle.

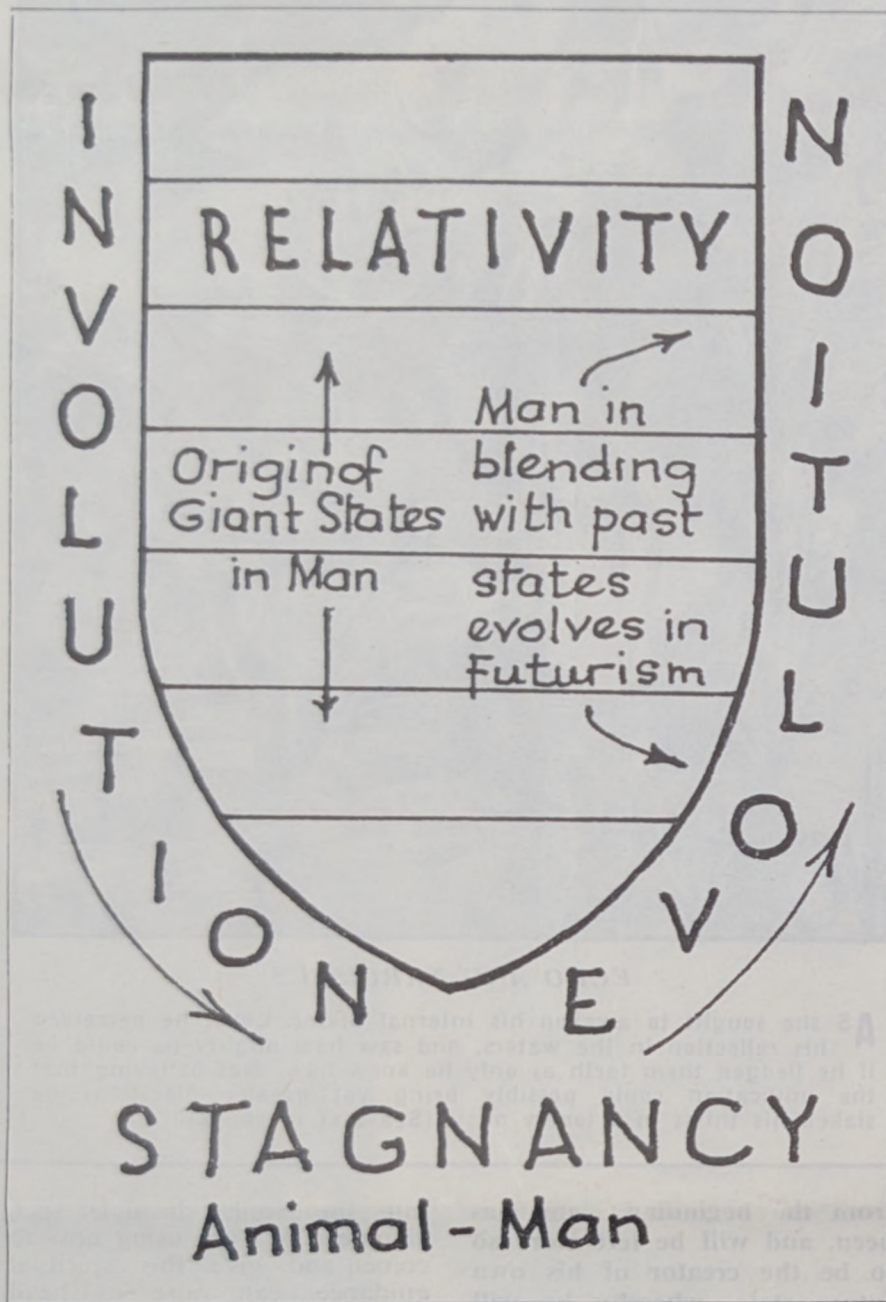

(See diagram on page 13 cols. 4 & 5)

There is the circle that is going round and round. Then you see the ecliptic and the equator that are also the movement; but this in man is his mind and his solar plexus, the building up of the powers within the solar plexus and the building up of the powers within the mind. So you must equate the two together.

Situated in this higher Circle are the Powers which are being directed from yet Greater Forces that are being created and formed by man in the world below. It does not mean that they are not REAL, but that man has given them form in his understanding of their reception by him in the element in-draught that he has been absorbing to maintain and nurture him while in the Abyss of negative formation.

As this is formed in the Cosmos as a living vibratory and rotatory action, so it is being formed in the "sky" and "heaven" of man's own mind creation. This becomes his rotatory creation in the mind action of thought formation, and to simplify matters, see the same creation forming in the head of the soul and around the solar belt.

In the myths these are referred to as the Hyperboreans (the unknown heights that are continually coming down to the depths) and the belt of Hippolyte, which of course we shall refer to later on in the myths. But to get this understanding at the present moment

Divinity into fulfilment. That is the Great Plan: not you, not Human life. Human life is only the pawn to do the Work, and you are sent to the earth through a physical vehicle to perform that Work in the depths, so that the whole country or wealth of the Divinity can be expanded.

Accompanying this Great Cycle is a minor Cycle called the Sothic Cycle, a period of 1461 years, and represents a Great Day. All this represents, especially as the period of 26,000 years, a great cosmical year, at the close of which the heavenly bodies return to their original stations, and can be identified with the life of the phoenix.

portrayed to her by the many paintings brought into the Temple and by those who were not skilled artists but those whom we could use as they had potentials; those who had great depth within them and portrayed of the depth and the wisdom we wanted. We did not want so much a clever painting as we wanted the wisdom: they portrayed what was taking place.

To understand the Myths it is most necessary to have some real deep understanding of these two Cycles, for they were the means of bringing the Myths into birth, and they could still do so if man believed in their depths and the mode from which they are produced.

Because at certain times the pole star changes; it moves up: then you are going with the elements. So it is your pole star moving up within you because you are making the relativity within yourself, and that is the pole star: by it going up and you moving your elements, you bring your pole star opening up. Your pole star is the pineal gland which is letting forth the seeds which are coming out of the cerebellum,—the seeds of the past uniting with the present; and those seeds contain a whole period of time, not just one instance.

is most necessary. The movement of the equinoctial goes backward through the Signs, or so it appears to man who is moving on the wheel in the opposite direction.

In fact it is man that goes backwards; man goes with the Lunar; he is ever seeking after the magnetic fire, but at the same time he is taking in of the Solar. And those who have 1st house planets have already brought a completeness on that planet, but when they refuse to go on labouring and bringing the wealth to the universe then that wealth destroys them. That is why we try to save the 1st house planets, because it is a pipeline to the earth; but if you refuse to go on, then we cut off the pipeline and seal you, because you are merely letting forth of the black dust from the centre of the earth of a black creation; we have to cut it off and seal it; and this was what was meant when it was given unto Hercules to cut off the heads of the dragon and seal the centre one; that was the pipeline.

If my Instrument failed to do this Work, and she would be cut off and sealed, because she would be a danger. Instead of letting down the Heights into the earth, she would be letting up the bowels of the earth into the crater and sending forth the powers of a black magician.

So you must see the precessional passing through the Ram into Pisces (and from Pisces it has now passed into Aquarius), but the Sun's annual course would be forward through the signs as the Ram, the Bull and Gemini; (yet man is going backwards by the lunar).

The Great Year

UNDERSTANDING the Great Year of Precession to be equal to 365 days of the cosmic year, one of its days will be equal to seventy-two years and was also equal to one degree which was moving the equinox steadily forward. But furthermore, the recession of the equinox, the drawing back, brings the spring a whole day sooner in the course of those seventy-two years.

(Now by the soul travelling backwards on the path of relativity,—going into himself on the path of karma,—he goes backwards into what he is intending to meet; so he brings everything one day earlier in the seventy-two years. You sit and work that out for yourself).

This brought forth the Great Ages as well as the seasons as spring, summer, autumn and winter, and is the very material of which the soul has been woven from. The Egyptians, Greeks and Romans all have the knowledge of this Great Year, and the priests of Egypt speak about it, though not in the way that present day man understands. Now remember, you are made up of these four ages: you are trying to produce the next, and within you you have these states of the ages, but one of these states may be very prominent with you and I will try and bring certain points that might give you some lead.

The traditions of the Great Year with its four long seasons brought forth of the Four Ages:—

THE GOLDEN AGE was when Cronos was king and the earth produced fruits from itself because it was bringing all the wealth forward from Atlantis, and from Spirit, the great Powers of Paradise. Men then were happy and never grew old, but they lacked the contentment which could bring the true source of human happiness, and accounts for why such is still with those who have much ruling of Saturn.

Thus while living in luxury and delicacy they became overbearing to the highest degree, were never satisfied and forgot the gods to whom they owed so much. Therefore Zeus as Jupiter swept them under the earth where they have lived ever since as demons and are awaiting man's release as it progresses through the ages.

Where is your Saturn? What is he doing? Is he still in the Cronos state, because you never lost that Cronos state? That is what you have to remember. Where does he stand, and what is he doing? Do you still hold that state permanently from the past? If so, then it will give to you that you, too, will have many demons that have to be broken down because you refused to let go of those states. Yet you would have immense wealth if you could only turn it into a right category of action as the pioneer. You would have all that wealth, would you not? Or it is acting in a destructive state.

THE SILVER AGE was when Zeus was ruler, and as we have already intimated, a change of seasons was experienced. Then there was no longer perpetual spring and spontaneous productiveness as in the Golden Age; but for man to live, it necessitated man labouring by industry.

This brought into birth strife and godlessness that had already been started in the previous age by too much freedom. Astraea the goddess who had been dwelling on earth and meeting prepared to help them, now prepared to depart, while Zeus being angry in seeing his work in jeopardy, began to administer punishment right and left.

Have you got your moon in such a position that it depicts to you whether these states are prominent with you also? Yet they would hold of great wealth. What is your moon doing? What does it give to you in the picture-story of your chart? What does Jupiter give to you? The great powers of Uranus had to be brought about as a relativity state.

THE BRONZE AGE was one of mining, travel and commerce, a period of constant quarrelling and violence. Instead of lands being cultivated, bringing peaceful occupations and plenty, man began the theme of 'might was right.' And as powerful and big as they became so they became physically worn out, whereby they sank into the lower world without any sign of spiritual life.

THE IRON AGE, which you are in at the present moment, was to do with Mars and was when the Fire entered into the earth to raise mankind up out of the lethargy he had entered into. This age started a time when men cursed with violence and oppression, war and crime, and men had to toil with their hands for their bread. Then their whole soul was intent on gain and desire, and their morals also began to deteriorate.

Astraea the goddess of justice retired to Olympus and Zeus was more than ever determined to destroy the human race by a great flood. This followed, and Deucalion and his wife Pyrrha were saved, escaping to Parnassus where a new race of men came forth: this is the present Race who once again have gone through the same Ages in repetition, for these four ages complete the cycle and are associated with the four elements, earth, water, air and fire continually bringing life as periods to man, and he always goes through from gold to iron. And it was a great descent; so he is descending more and more into the depths as he refuses to rise up. But many have risen up during those ages; many have gone on and been the gods on the outer universe.

Era of Rebirth

FROM gold to iron was a great descent, while man had also followed the degeneration which brought the half-way of the Great Year. So after so much experience it should now begin with a golden spring and a fruitful Year (because it is now going to touch relativity: you are now going to touch the powers of the ancient past), but also a race of men who would start a new creation and a brighter outlook. This was the period prophesied by the Sibylline prophetess, and the fact that a grand series of new life would begin.

Would the Virgin Astraea return from her heavenly domain and bless mankind? Would Saturn re-commence a primaevial rebirth of his reign, with a new race descending from the heights to bring new life to the human trend of corruption? Did not the great prophetic state, "Do thou Lucina smile propitious on the birth of a boy who will bring to a close the present age of iron, and introduce throughout the whole world a new age of gold (the Teachings of Universal Wisdom).

Then shall the herds no longer dread the fury of the lion, nor shall the poison of the serpent any longer be formidable: every venomous animal and every deleterious plant shall perish together. The fields shall be yellow with corn, the grape shall hang in ruddy clusters from the bramble, and honey shall distil spontaneously from the rugged oak. The universal globe shall enjoy the blessings of peace, secure under the mild sway of its new and divine sovereign (the wisdom).

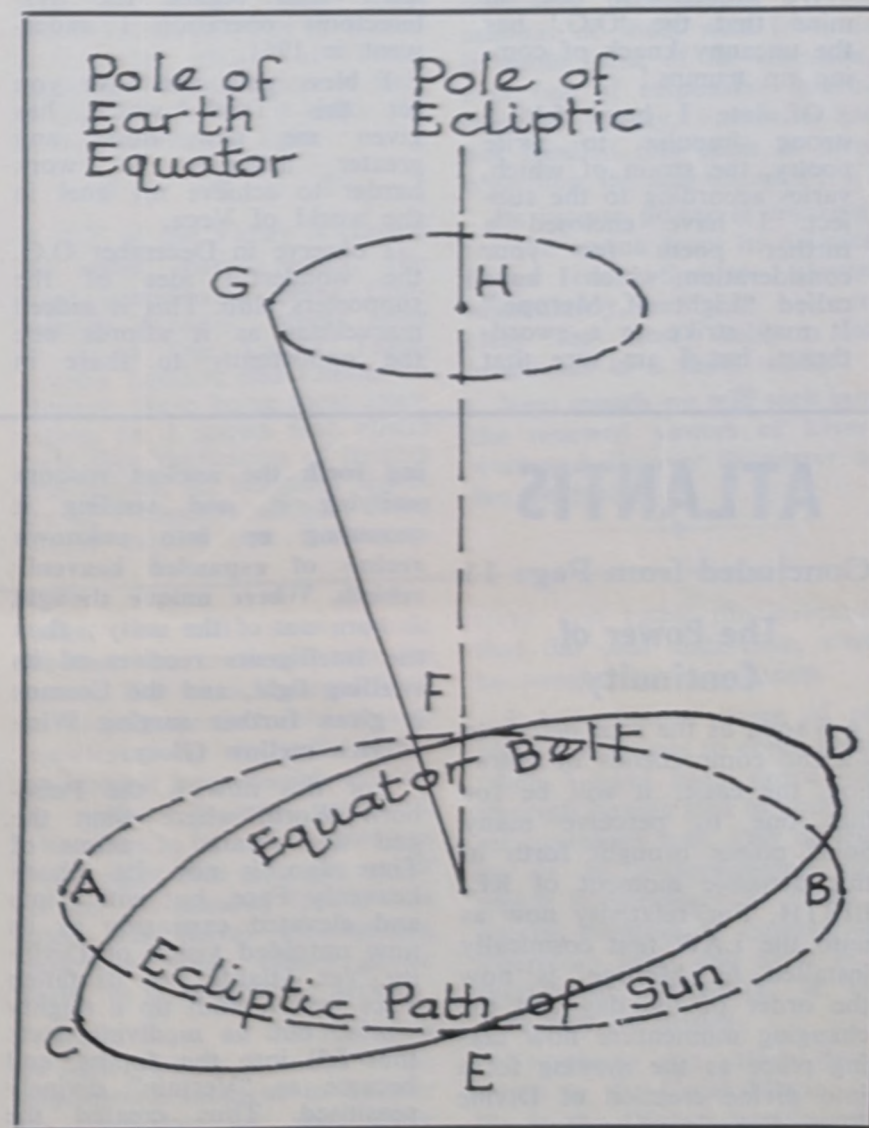

As the Year of Precession is calculated backwards, then the swallowing his own children in refusing to make spiritual expansion. But nevertheless Cronos ruling for 6,500 years and Zeus for the same period, brought much expansion; in fact it brought dislocation of the solstice from its old place among the stars, which led to the abandonment of the stellar-method of time-reckoning, the old Sabaen.

Yes! abandoning the old ways, but that does not alter the fact that you are made up of those old ways and you will not let go of them; but, by understanding those old ways and making a relativity, you join their wealth with your wealth and you become a united state of spirit. It is spirit you have to worry about, not the "big I am."

At this juncture Cronos became enthroned instead of his father Uranus; then when Taurus passed out into Aries an astro-religious system began. This demanded changes in the ritual, and there was much prejudice to be overcome. The reason I bring this so definitely is because all this reflects so much in the myths and in the lives of all of the present races. But after 2,000 years mythology was found dead and dying, and then the precession of the equinoxes so forgotten that those who sought to regard them afresh were looked upon with utmost suspicion.

About that time Timocharis the well-known astronomer existed, and Hipparchus compared several eclipses of the moon accurately with many

POLES OF THE ECLIPTIC AND THE EQUATOR

THE circle A.B. is the Ecliptic or Zodiac, the apparent path of the Sun. The circle C.D. represents the plane of the Earth's Equator. The line H. shows the Pole of the Ecliptic, and the line G. that of the Equator. The two points of intersection E. and F. are Equinoxes. The Precession of the Equinoxes is caused by the movement of the Pole of the Equator G. around the Pole of the Ecliptic H. which takes 25,920 years (26,000 years) to make the great Cycle of Precession. (See text on page 12, col. 5).

Golden Age of Cronos is beginning now and corresponds with Aquarius ruled by Saturn; and how does man seek to deal with the human sacrifices that were offered unto him, and the way he devoured his own children (devoured all the wealth that was given to him). We know that this was its esoteric definition, but cannibalism did begin at the end of this period (and this is what cannibalism really means) and only ended when the Curetes came into being through Zeus bringing expansion out of the stagnation that followed. Man today is offering up human life in more ways than one, and also ancient eclipses observed by Timocharis. He found that while the bright star Spica Virginis preceded the autumnal equinox eight degrees, it preceded the same equinox only six degrees in his own time; and so he was perceiving the same wealth as in the past, but he was bridging the gap: it was 8° before, and now he found it was only 6°. It was at this time that Hipparchus observed the vernal equinox to be in the first point of Aries and about to pass into Pisces: the movement passing onwards.

Directness of Comment!

Mr. C. P. Urbani, Dunedin, New Zealand.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Having fully studied the 'O.G.' for November I am amazed at the abundance of mind wealth contained therein. My sincere hope is that the 'O.G.' is reaching still further afield to those souls seeking emergence. I would mention also the sense of 'feeling' one readily perceives, not only of your own great works, but the editorials and poems of Dick Speller and the absorbing articles of the "Herbal Mysteries" by David Spearman-Cook. I feel very humbly honoured that you thought my small contribution "The Occult Way" worthy of publication.

Now, I do feel that some of your comments may, by virtue of their directness, tend to offend or possibly alienate the feelings of some of the readers of the Gazette. I would like to point out to such readers the pitfall of becoming emotionally disturbed through an incomplete image of the situation, and thus distorting their reactions.

I further feel that I can speak with experience, for I have found in the past that by becoming emotionally involved, often through preconceived ideas, I have stumbled into the same pit. Those of us who follow the Occult way, should allow intuition rather than emotions to guide us in our findings.

We should also bear in mind that the 'O.G.' has the uncanny knack of coming up trumps!

Of late I have felt a strong impulse to write poetry, the strain of which, varies according to the subject. I have enclosed a further poem for your consideration, which I have called "Light of Merope." It may strike as a sword-thrust, but I am sure that you will affirm that this is sometimes very necessary!

Lorna Joseph,
Port of Spain, Trinidad.

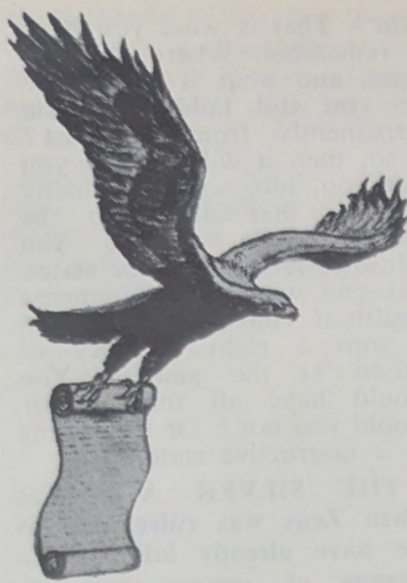

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Words cannot fully describe the depth of gratitude, love, and praise I feel towards you, for this magnificent and gigantic service in 1968, rendered to humanity. Let me now wish you continued blessing in '69, and dynamic strength and courage in accomplishing your noble task which YOU only are privileged and blessed to handle.

Be assured dear Merope, of my support wholeheartedly, my love, belief, and all that lies within my power to spread the teachings of O.G. The November issue brought tremendous joy in lifting my spirit with regard the hysterectomy operation I underwent in 1961.

I bless you, and love you for this Truth which has given me new hope and greater incentive to work harder to achieve my goal in the world of Vega.

I observe in December O.G. the wonderful idea of the supporters club. This is indeed marvellous as it affords one the opportunity to share in this glorious work, as they are able.

Enclosed is a postal order for the special binder to ensure the protection of the Gazettes which I treasure very much, and the rest is towards the supporters club. In the future I hope to send one pound monthly in support of this movement.

I am convinced there could be no better way to show love to our neighbours. Thanks for the parcel of December O.G.'s; I read with profound interest "Prophecy for 1969" and deep within wished this message could reach every living soul, leaving none with an excuse.

On the whole I find the reading just splendid. "MIND," a topic which most intellectuals have not yet grasped, not to mention "The Saga of Time," the story of mankind, which is going to shed so much light to men. How unfortunate for those of us who escape this knowledge.

Soon I hope to request an Astrological Delineation, as I am deeply concerned to know my level of soul growth, and to embrace the opportunities awaiting to blossom forth. My heartfelt love and good wishes to you and all at S.U.P.H.

★ Light of Merope! ★

by C. P. Urbani

*If we could but return again
To childhoods early days,
And see how each impression
Wove a truly complex maze*

*We would find that those who taught us,
More in ignorance than intent,
Had carried out the schemes—
Designed by those of evil bent!*

*Unaware our minds were slavebound
By those of mal-intention,
Who sought to make of all of us,
The Robots of Convention!*

*How better far it could have been
For all the children's sakes,
To have spread the word of Wisdom,
Know Thyself! The mind creates!*

*Through centuries and centuries
In darkness we have travelled,
But now the Light is Shining through
As the mysteries are unravelled.*

*For the children now, the years have sped,
With opened eyes—they've been misled,
So cast aside all falsehood's veils,
And strive to see that Truth prevails!*

*Turn once again to fruits of earth,
Prove the body Temple's worth!
Let the soul within Shine through,
Till men like Gods shall walk anew!*

*Merope Shines a beacon bright,
Against the darkened powers that be.
Arise, oh children of the Light—
And let your minds and hearts be Free!*

The Power of Continuity

AS soon as the soul perceives and comprehends of vibration, the easier it will be for that one to perceive many Solar points brought forth in this dynamic moment of RE-BIRTH. For relativity now as unto the LAW first cosmically installed by Merope, is now the order of the day and the changing momentum now taking place as the moving forth into divine creation of Divine Fiery Consciousness.

The Divine glory being in the Word, which is GOD, for the internal Seed of Fire, which is ever being recharged by the spirit essence enfolded around the Word, is to increase its mighty momentum. While the soul ever becomes recharged by the minute "Flame of Divinity," which is carried within this mighty carrier of truth.

The Word is that born out of the intense Fiery depth of the Seed, alchemicalised in the Breath taken. For the whole of that inflowing Mercurial resuscitation is charged with the Fluidic atomic glory of reborn life. According to the sensitivity and frequency of the soul, will it recharge the LIGHT of the soul's Grace, to bring interpenetrable reborn LIGHT to the internal bodies, when fully comprehended.

Therefore would decalcify the stoned NORM, by bringing forth the ancient wisdom unifying it, and sending it mounting up into unknown realms of expanded heavenly rebirth. Where unique thought is born out of the unity; then the Intelligence receives of its swelling light, and the Cosmos is given further surging Wine of rich mellow Glory.

For this now is the Pub-born Word, where what the god was aware of aeons of Time ago, is now its reborn heavenly Face, but with Time and elevated expansion as its now unfolded vision of Divinity. Yet Atlantis was its fallen Face, which built up a mighty world, but as a divine state that fell into the depths, and became as "Vermin" divinely sensitised. Thus created the LAW with a lamb's wig, and justice reigned only for the mighty as lower Neptune.

But it did not alter the fact that mighty Powers prevailed, which came down from the heights and fell into the way of matter. At the time they were as Pubes that became of the Hermaphrodite creation. That which separated into positive and negative, with the positive growing extended appendages. These were the "daughters of men," which the divinities in descending, became married up to.

The inflowing FIRE then became a mighty inflowing Fiery Yod, which added unto their burdens, for it filled them and the Plane with untold fiery immensity through the divinities' extending thread from the heights. That which had been created by the Higher Powers to ensure their way safely back.

But also the means of feeding Woman with the Powers of the Yod. For Woman was cut off as seen by the covenant in Genesis, where she would have to depend upon her man. Thus showing the brave fight that Merope has had to put up, to connect the Thread once again, by her mighty Belief in Divinity. No other road could have prevailed, for Woman was lost to those heavenly heights, except for the fact that she gave birth to sons of men.

It was not long before the gender took over, and the world as it is today was seeded. With the false ritual of illusionary divinity, set into being by the priesthood. The Outer World Fires merely became black passions, with the spiritual intensity lost in a Seed creation. That which they could only awaken by raising such up out of the waters, and they following suit. For by now they were worshipping their extended appendage, as the real desire of intended being.

Therefore the Work of the Goddess was to awaken their lost sensitivity, and sought of the Might of Antares. Whereby he sent down the sting of Lesath, and it drove them into a mind-frenzy of distraction. Thus caused them to 'go black,' finding the loss of mind and sensitivity a deterrent to continue the wealth they once had. So there they were, with mighty creations around them, which they found difficult to maintain.

Thus things began to sink more and more, with them bringing down more power, which set up the deluges of Lemuria and Mu, finally coming right down to the Cancer state in the true sense of the Word. This was the flooding of the Plane with Water, as the Water Element never set into motion correctly.

But all had to come down to the basic of nought, with spirit cut off for the time being.

Then slowly the moving 'fire' crawled out of the Waters, carrying his house on his back. No longer the Anthropomorphic Egg of spiritual creation, but a solidified creation with a shell-like house, that was all it would have to shelter it from the now agonising state of nature. Everything had taken on a solid state, after periods of changing atmospheric altitudes. Rock-forming states through the Fiery Element becoming a rock-like foundation in the depths.

Then eventually the waters began to recede, sending up cumulus clouds as the sense of self-preservation became intense from the rising lost soul in the waters. All a matter of the moving Fire, seeking a way of expansion. Then all began to change into moving life, with wild beasts coming into birth from the creatures crawling up out of those depths. Then as an animal mind prevailed, so a state of lifting darkness into twilight took over, until man came into birth.

Yet only but the beginning of the changes that were to ensue through Time, until the period of Relativity. With the true state of creation starting up in the royal World of Egypt, where a mysterious White Race came forth, shepherded by the Goddess Merope. She who was really the mighty Hathor, with her Temple as the glory of Bubastes. Her secret colony being in the centre of Africa, where she retired to rejuvenate in the Fire that she could still draw down, and renew the life within her.

This is how the soul became as it is, but turned black; then, as time went on, thinking and striving gave it the opportunity to become white. With many falling backwards and turning black, even to the present day. Yet the very potency that caused soul to go black, was the LIFE Essence that they needed to keep them existing in the depths.

The FIRE being the very crux of existence, the heavenly Life that gave ALL the Power of continuity. The wherewithal to THINK and become, which ordinary fire had not the power to manifest. It gave unto soul the power of consciousness, that could retain and deduct, whereby it could blossom it into yet greater light. The means whereby the soul could order, balance, expand, perceive and HOLD ON to become.

While all other fire would merely consume, this FIRE unseen by the naked eye, gave LIFE. Was Black in its downpouring rays, but created light by its power of internal Septet manifestation.

. GREAT HEAVENLY ONE .

BLESS the Hour, Bless the Day, for now Thy Will and Thy Glory is flowing down to the mighty depths, with Thy FACE as the FACE of Merope, she becoming Thy FACE in the depths, now established as Divinity, the Glory of the Trinity, bringing forth the Wisdom of Thy Might. Amen.

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 20

LILY OF THE VALLEY

(Convallaria Majalis)

by David Spearman-Cook

AS the newborn World bursts into Divine Life, how noticeable it is becoming to one and all, that dynamic changes are constantly imminent, as all Creation moves towards the first approaching Virgin spring of Relativity. That which was once a gradual awakening activation, as the unfolding of plant and tree life, and which we are now consciously being made aware of, through the new rather bolder, speedier, action of unfolding virgin releasement.

The New Fiery Sun brilliantly portraying the Great unfolding Fatherhood. Bulbs bursting forth well before their time, all anxious to blossom into flower, and new thoughts breaking down man's old ways and religions, as seen by the human fiery torches. Symbolically beseeching man to renounce of self, and create a free status of mind, as well as many other changes seen within the startling headlines of the world's newspapers.

All revealing the changing of the times, due to the new Virgin Breath manifesting Divinity; that born out of the mighty unfolding of Merope's Norm, for she is the Lily in the Valley, unceasingly raising all onto a higher vibrational frequency.

Before bringing all the known remedies to the fore, let us see if some form of advanced healing balm, can be discovered out of the depths of this month's herb, as the changes are duly bound to reveal the hidden power of this wonderful plant.

Many countless Ages ago, Lily of the Valley was the active quantum of the power of the dynamic Voice, for it represented the might of the resounding powers, that which should have been sent back by man in the valley depths, to give light to the heavens, and ring the changes for divinity.

This was never done to the true extent of spirit, consequently it is now used as a ing disaster. Inexhaustibly this increased herb strength will in time help to keep the Uraeus sparking, as man activates his mind onto a divine frequency, and willingly gives his energies that the Divinities may manifest. Thereby causing a risen frequency of activity, so necessary upon the earth plane of crustated lunar fall-out.

When the Intelligencia are manifesting through the sparking Uraeus, Lily of the Valley will assist the octavial frequency of that Divine Mind Power, to prepare the nervous tissues with the action necessary to raise the soul up onto atomic conception. Furthermore, by infusing Lily of the Valley with St. John's Wort, plus the distilled strength of Hawthorn, will it be found to create a triune of power that can help to build up a frequency, whereby a Solar basic can be produced. Then through mind activity, will a suitable vessel be forthcoming, capable of housing the atomic inflow and assisting it to manifest as Divine Holy Fire.

During initiation and renunciation, Lily of the Valley, with the addition of the best Juniper Berries, will be found to so sensitise the skin that one will be able to literally feel the changing states around them. And as the Word is taken, so will one feel the added etherealised magnitude of Becoming, this being the outer and the inner bodies receiving of a polarity rating. Also by adding the essence of Eucalyptus to Lily of the Valley, will it help to keep the throat free from soreness, as in due time one will feel the pull upon the Taurus attributes of their make-up, by being forced to accept through their gods the changing expansion.

All the powers of Jupiter that are within the soul will benefit if a little Tansy is added to Lily of the Valley, which will be constantly required by man, as he becomes infused with the Atomic immensity of the Virgin Source.

If the ear-drums suddenly begin to twitch internally, as though a form of nervous disability is disturbing the smooth hearing of one's everyday lunar reception, it will be due to the inner depths of divine consciousness activating the tympanic structure of the supreme awakening sensitivity, and will be the gods steering the soul into divine light. This will gradually disappear as one seeks diligently into the wisdom, and wholeheartedly supports Universal Philosophy to reveal the true Voice of the Masters.

LILY OF THE VALLEY

Mistletoe, when it is infused with Lily of the Valley, will, through the seed, convey an intense vibrancy of unification to the black and white states of the soul. For Mistletoe has the vibration of the Voice, it being the seed of non-forgetfulness; that of the Theocratic consciousness of the hidden spirit which knows all, but is buried under the whole of Time, awaiting the unification of Relativity, to flower it into the conscious virgin's light.

LILY of the Valley is classed under many names, the most complicated being Convallaria Majalis; others refer to it as Our Lady's Tears, Jacob's Ladder, and Ladder to Heaven, these being most interesting, as it shows that others have seen unification of heights and depths. Its beautiful leaves are of a concave surface, being deeply ribbed and slanting a little backwards, thus creating a pocket catching the rain-drops, which then run down the foot stalk to the root, similar to the drip from the pituitary, feeding man with truth.

The old astrological books place the plant under Mercury, the mind. Mercury or Hermes, being the God that Merope retrieved and brought forward as the mighty Voice of the MASTER.

The Russian peasants have long employed Lily of the Valley for certain forms of dropsy proceeding from a faulty heart. Also special virtues were once thought to be possessed by the distilled water from its beautiful white flower, which was known as Aqua Aurea (Golden Water) and was deemed worthy to be prepared in vessels of gold, symbolising the Golden drip as the Voice of Truth.

The distilled water dropped into the eyes helps the inflammation, the spirit of the flowers restoring lost speech, also helping the palsy, and is good for curing the apoplexy. This wonderful herb also has a strong infusion of the inflorescence of the Solar Spectrum, which helps to balance the chromosomes as they are changed into light, through the mind comprehending truth out of knowledge.

Seldom has it been possible for a herb to become of such a power, but it must be remembered that all is vibronic emotion, emitted from man's response to creation, and this little plant has served many purposes. Stimulating a vast amount of souls with love, as it sends forth of its vibration, ever one of responsive attachment to beauty. For who has not fondled this plant in awe, regarding its magnificence?

Its intense power is amazing, for the aroma from its delicate flower can stimulate almost immediately, and can help to clear the most stubborn of headaches in a short while.

Next month we will seek into the renewed powers of Liverwort and discover its power of fire control.

Reminiscences

Yet she knew, as though in a flash, that every soul must shed, by renunciation, all those old earthy states before they could take on of the wings of divinity. That by her writing of such profound truth, could man bury in those old states of the past, and polarise its wisdom. But furthermore, she had polarised the wisdom of Ancient Feudal China, that were the roots of every soul.

Times when Powers, as great as she was wielding now, could be blended up, but had become the means of the Fatherhood now coming into birth, by the polarity expansion she had exerted by belief. That every soul must learn to become fired and energised by the activity of Uranus, and ever be fed by Neptune, the sperm wealth of the mighty Trinity.

THE SOUL COMPLETELY FREED FROM THE OLD MOON CREATION, AND DRIVEN ON BY THE WILL OF MASTERY. TAKING ON A POSITIVE STATE OF BELIEF, WILL AND PURPOSE.

Thus what was directed in these last two Gazettes, has been fulfilled more fully than I, Merope, had ever hoped for. For these are but a few of the many wonders that have been promised; but greater still, I have never ever believed that an objective vision of the Fatherhood was ever possible. Yet, when I review the wisdom I have received, I realise that if the Father and Son have now become ONE, in Scorpio entering into the Central Sun, then it was through the Son that the Father manifested.

Only when one has really experienced these wonders, can they possibly vouch of such truths. Who could argue against the wisdom of Paul, when he said he had gone up to his heights, and touched the glory of Christhood. Although, like me, at times would say, "good gracious, was it really true, why was I so privileged?" Yet when fully understood, but the manifestation of greater vibration and frequency, made possible at the time, by the soul's belief. For really at heart I never doubt, so much having now fulfilled its prophecy.

Therefore, whether soul believes it or not, the whole of the world is on the Virgin Plane, the creation when the gods made their fall. Even the worst with the best stand a chance, if only they could turn their eyes and hopes to the Solar manifestation. This does not mean that man is absolved of his karma, but shown the way to ever overcome it and the way to turn it in. Thereby give it its mortuary meal, for every time he makes expansion, he will always be confronted with the weakness of his inner desire establishment.

Then by turning it in, polarisation will reveal a greater purpose, which the soul must grasp with both hands. Although you may say, what hopes has a soul who is a victim to himself, how can he weather the storm? If he truly wishes to go forth devoid of that mind memory—of which now it only is—Solar power and the Words of the Gazette will fortify and lead the soul into the greater direction.

But since Uranus is the judge, it will soon prove whether the motive is genuine or not. For when it comes forth to fire the project into greater manifestation, it will either blossom it into possible genius, or wither it into perdition. Therefore, let the glorious Solar light give you the proof of my statements, for it was after this Royal Phenomena, that the Solar Glory broke forth, in such glorious array.

While I am on the vibration of such wisdom, it could be an appropriate moment to answer the question of the Holy Ghost. The Virgin that goes up and gives birth to the Godhead, through Divine Wisdom being made manifest, is the Holy Ghost that walks heaven and earth, to manifest of the Holy wisdom. Therefore is a Holy Wraith in the heights and depths, thus takes the third position of the Trinity, ever manifesting the Greater Two, through their Voice and wisdom.

Thus denoting that not only is man creator in the depths, but capable of reaching unknown possibilities, if he raises up his frequency by belief, and draws unto himself the glory of the heights. It is not a matter of being righteous or pious, but willing and ready to serve and fulfill the covenant that the soul undertook, when he sought for incarnation.

I have known some of my biggest moments to come about when I have been down low, through having had to shoulder an enormous task. Our difficulty, is in understanding that which is necessary to fulfill a precise moment of expectation. Therefore trust and faith in a Well-tested FRIEND, is the only way of action.

Everybody can attach themselves to the Great Flame, for He is the Divine Intelligencia, and will answer one and all, who truly warrant His Friendship. By thinking you are not worthy, is only labelling yourself as such. Humility YES! but why not try and see whether you are worthy of that Friendship, since every man is on the Virgin Plane, and ready to begin a greater course of active and fertile possibility.

But how can you call upon a god crucified on a cross, and expect to get a reply! I promise that every soul capable of sending forth, can get an answer to their problems, if they now reach out to the Great Flame through the heart belief. Will some of you try it and please let me know the results.

The Saga of Time

Mythology Part 4a

TIME

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

Delivered at the S.U.P.H. on 15th July, 1962 by Ra-Men-Ra

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

I come amongst you once again and I seek to bring unto you the knowledge you are seeking for. I seek to help you and I seek to guide you, and tonight I will bring you of TIME, the records of all men. I hope to help you to bridge a very great gap and help many of you to see more clearly into the wisdom that can give you greater understanding as to why you should give of your life to bridging that gap between self and the past. Those of you who are truly seeking will be those who are seeking to help mankind because you have awakened to the fact of the responsibility; so if you will give me your attention, your love, I will do all I can to enlighten you. So upon these words, and the wisdom I left with you in the previous article of the understanding of how man has closed himself in, and how here in this Temple we can bring you the wisdom, I am going to now go forward.

The Unifying Elements

WHAT you are being shown is Night bringing the light of day. But what is this Night? It is the night of man's own experiences. He takes in the Solar fire during the day, but then he must bring forth the light during the night, and he can only do that through his struggling to weave, to create. But this at the same time represents the Goddess. She too will receive by your efforts of night struggle; She too will weave with the night and bring forth into day what you have given her by your night's struggles.

Now let us see if we can find out what your night struggles represent. Most of you are enquiring into the wisdom: you believe you understand why. I wonder if you do. Before we start the wisdom tonight, which again should be very explanatory, I am going to give you a little explanation.

You talk of relativity, so we talk to you about it. But what is relativity? You believe it is the blending of the past with the present and you feel that you might extract some understanding; but again, why?

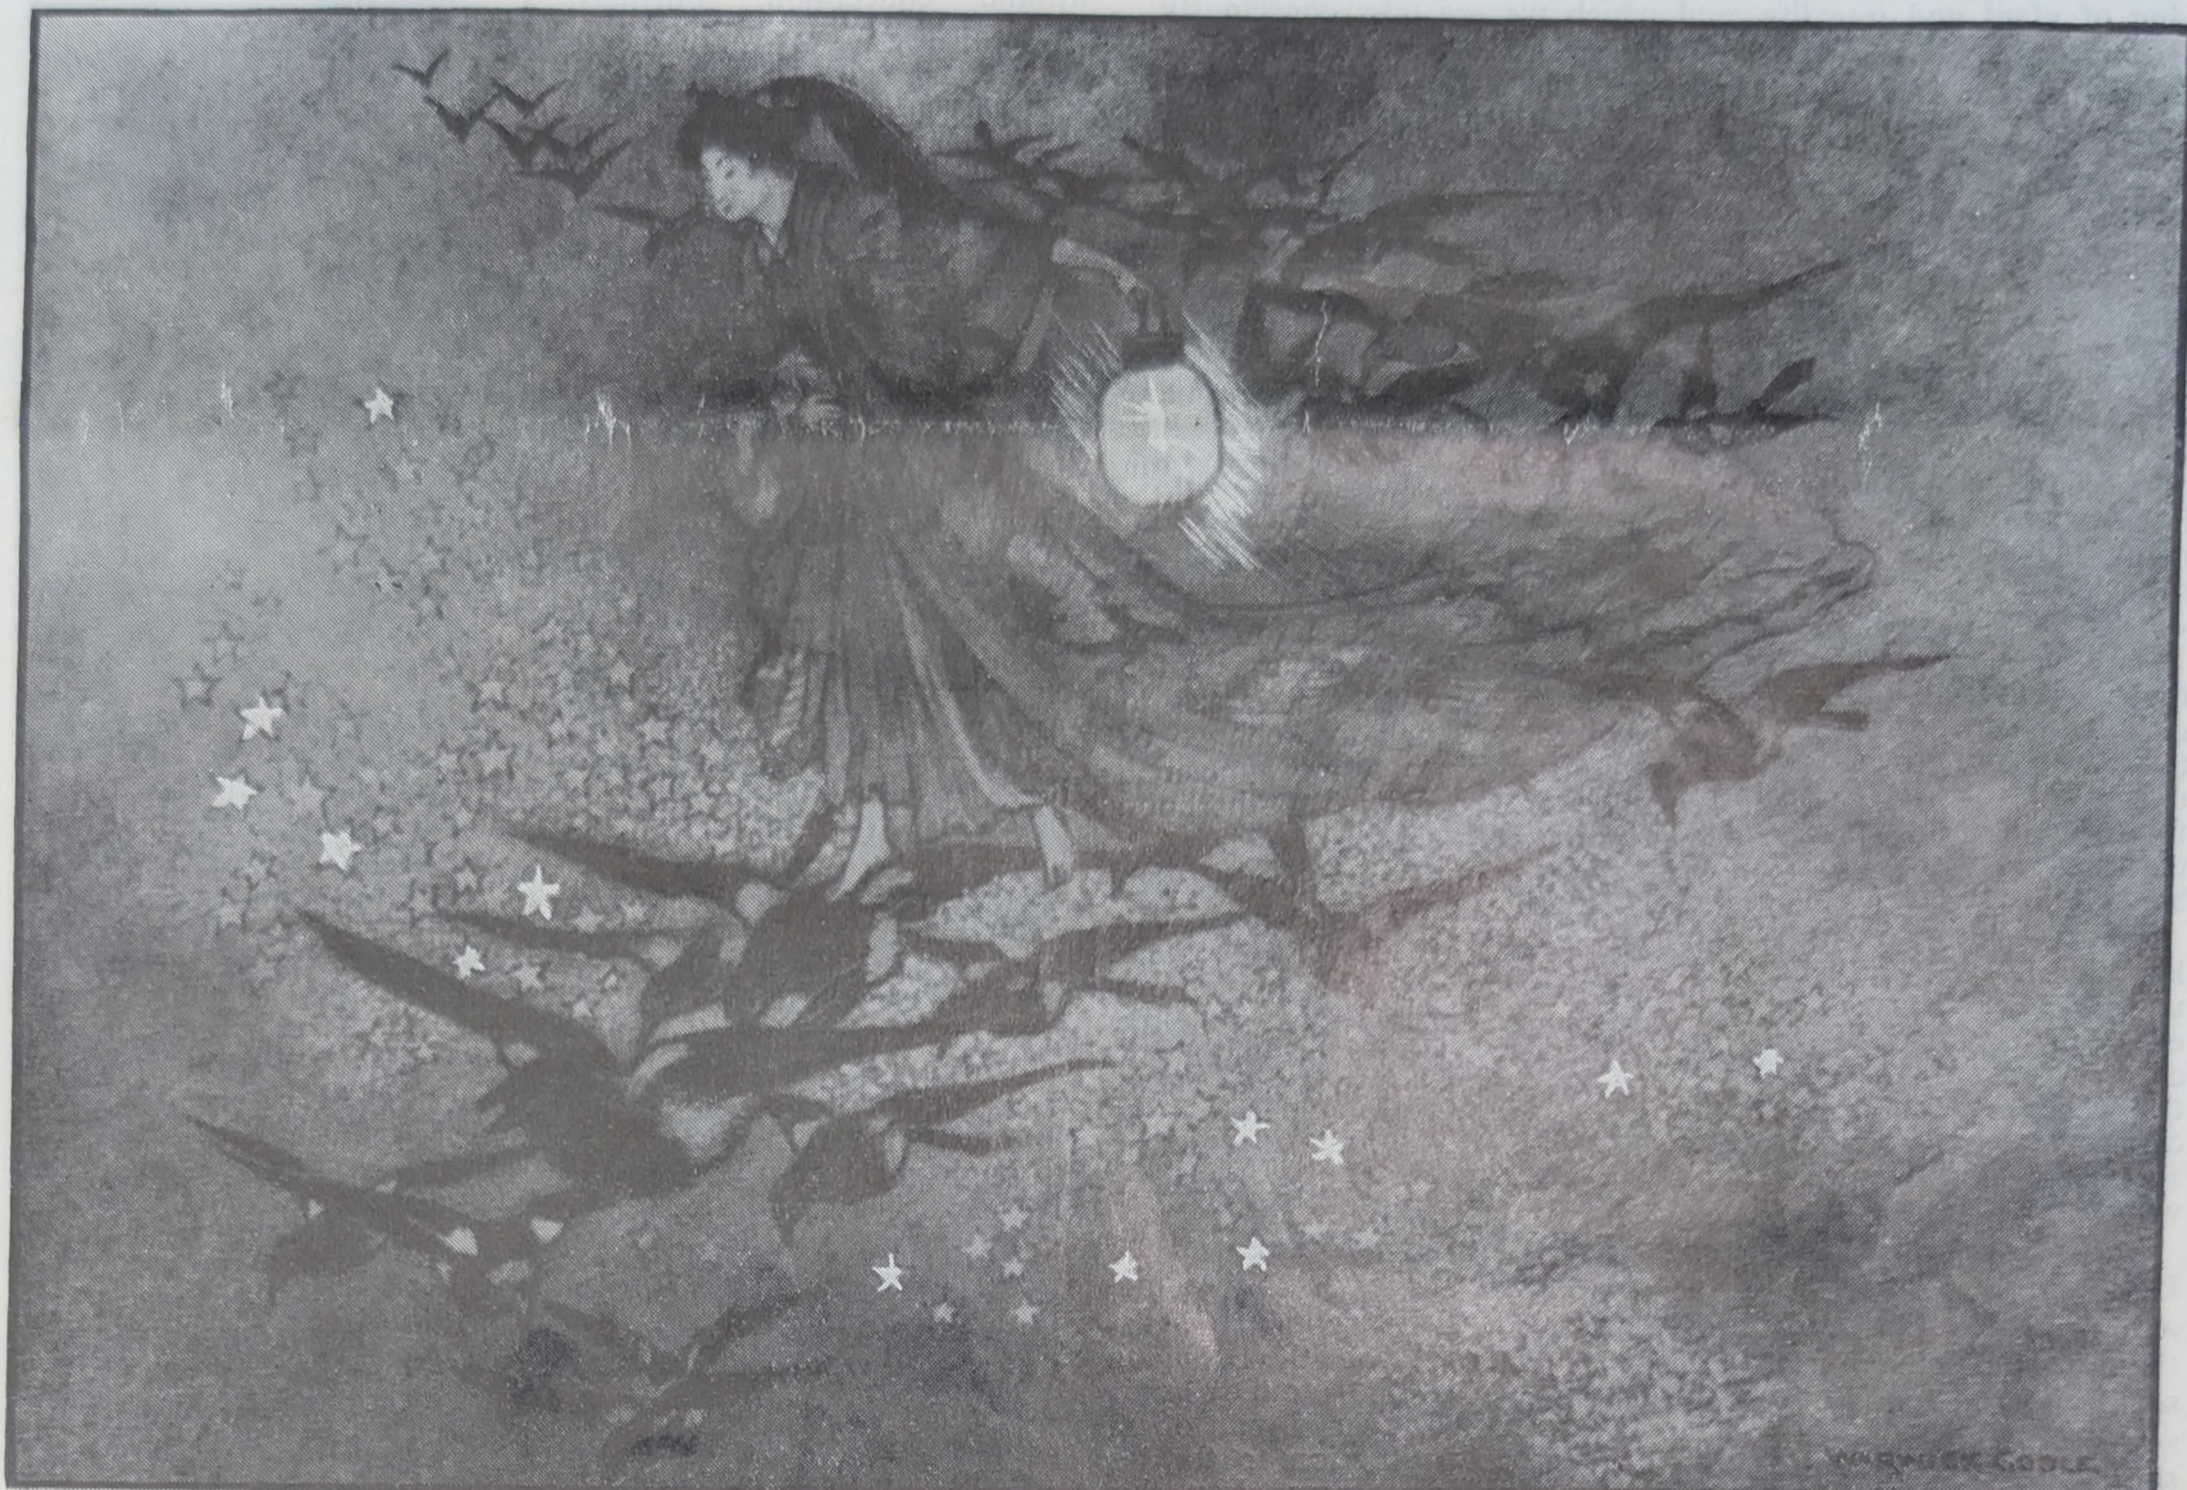

Now those of you who have studied Astrology know that the Solar light goes one way, and man on the Wheel as the lunar goes the other way. These are the two forces of equilibrium, electrical and magnetic. Man is driving forward with the Solar, which is life, and he is taking into himself the Solar fire; but by the law he has chosen he is going backwards on the Wheel, driving backwards into his past; he is automatically going back into the past states of self. There you see two halves of relativity. If you have gathered that, you have gathered something important.

The Solar light is going one way; the Moon is going the other: they are the two states of blending; they are the powers of equilibrium, the two forces of the black and white dragons, the two black and white serpents. Man, in going forward is also going backwards; he automatically is treading backward, devouring up his past karma.

But what about the wise man who seeks into wisdom? But what wisdom?

He can only bridge the gap by Universal Wisdom; he cannot bridge the gap by religion, or isolated knowledge; it must be through Universal Wisdom that incorporates all knowledge of the past, that builds the bridge between the past and the present; and man does not stand on the present blank, with all the conditions of the past driving him wild as psychological problems, but by the knowledge of the past he is able to understand what these difficulties are; and that is the reason why we are bringing you the Myths.

Now the Myths represent not just legends of an isolated spot, but a period in the past life that was reigning over the world as the Cosmos, and

UNFOLDING FLAME

AS she went forth on the wisdom she had created, she began treading it into Light. That others could awaken out of her continuity and embrace the glory of unification; thereby rising up on the spinning drive that carried her up to the mountain top. (See text in col. 1).

leading man on that path of going forward. At the present moment there could be a Myth that was placed into a story regarding the conditions that are reigning over the earth as atomic weapons: later on that would simply be a small story that would probably be forgotten by the world.

Man has been treading the human path for 13,000 years when he comes to the end of Aquarius; you definitely have those times. Before then, there is no need for him to account of, although he belongs; but for 13,000 years he has been treading the path of the human, building up the seven cervical bones into activity, bringing all the bones of the spine into active points, and the power to pass by those bones and bring the nagas into an active state; the most important being the neck, which I am going to explain to you as being Atlas, when Prometheus stole the fire; but we have not reached that Legend yet.

We are trying to help you to understand why you should be doing these things, and why you should be seeking into this knowledge. The man who refuses to labour, and spin the thread between the past and the present when it is offered to him, is the man who deserves to suffer: he has had the wealth offered to him, and the opportunity to bring unto himself the blending he needs, but he refuses.

The man who refuses the Powers of the Gods suffers more than one who takes the opportunity when it is placed into his hand and struggles and strives with it to serve the Gods.

These Gods represent the great Powers of the Heavens, the Elements which man has built up into Gods; but they still were the Elements. These Powers are within man and he is going back to meet them so as to bring the relativity of uniting the past with the present; and he is starting on that road as a sure path for all men in the Aquarian Age. The wise man took the opportunity when there was sent to the earth a Teacher.

Now you hear about a Goddess appearing, in some of the Legends. The Goddess came to man, and because he refused to listen to her she went away. Well the Goddess has come to man as Astraea. She who is helping you to solve Night; a Teacher sent to the earth with all the wisdom of relativity, to help you to understand of the Night; and this is the Night. And the next 13,000 years are going to be the Night for mankind, a time when he is going to enter into real darkness; but if you are wise you will be bridging the gap now by taking the knowledge while the opportunity is here, for it will not come again.

YES! THE GODDESS WILL LEAVE THE EARTH AND LEAVE MAN WITH THE TEACHINGS FOR HIM TO WRESTLE WITH: IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THEM TO ENTER DOWN INTO THE DARKNESS AND CONTINUE WITH THE WORK.

Now is the time for you to make the most of what you are receiving, and for records of this knowledge to be placed onto parchment and held for all time, for it will help man through. We have been leading you through a whole Glut of Wisdom, taking you along every path to prepare you and prime you for this moment; and if you have not been taking this knowledge into your blood, then you cannot in one sweep accept it: you had to be primed all the way, becoming prepared so that you were strengthened to take the bridge when the moment came.

What you are seeking to do is to bridge the gap, so that when you have bridged it sufficiently you build up within yourself a SOLAR BODY; that is your SOLAR-GOD, and when you have built this within you as that SOLAR-GOD, that SOLAR-UNDERSTANDING, then you are ready to do your part in Serving; helping mankind. If you fail to help then, then you suffer; but the suffering IS of the flesh, when you will be forced back into those states of darkness you have chosen.

The Universal Wisdom

I AM not bringing this to frighten you; I am bringing you this as a Truth. I am showing you the way to help yourself and to bridge that gap. Now the greater understanding comes in the next plate.

This represents the bones of the spine that have become united and become as blossoming flowers, and then when you reach the fifth chakra you begin to make the androgynicity, the completeness of unity, slowly bringing the mind to acceptance. There you see the two parts.

Then, in the Taurean, which is the one gifted with the great powers of Egypt, you make the complete relativity with Egypt, where man was, as he came from the door of civilisation: before then it was of the Spirit, Paradise. That is the reason why Taurus is so important, and by Taurus and Scorpio is man's generation and regeneration, but he prefers desires of all the lower bestial states to the wisdom that can bring him into complete unity for the time for him to enter onto the fifth dimension.

You enter onto the fourth and then prepare for the fifth: by this he is becoming enlightened, he is being brought to the Atma stage, being
