THE VIOLET RAY

The Mystery of the Unforgettable Touchstone

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AND THE LORD CAME and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel, Samuel." Then Samuel answered, "Speak, for thy servant heareth." Thus the Divine Call, when man was being raised up and out of the density he had become lost in, and not failing to hear the VOICE when called. For the way had been dark, and there had been much sin against the "Spirit"; and "Samuel" was being called by the Unseen Divinity, to lead the Race Elect on to yet further unfoldment. For he that was fully ready unto the LORD, was not failing at the moment when the Divinity called. That he could render the service now required, from his partaken glory. For without the Evolution of the Cosmic, the Seed would become impoverished, and man go on lingering in the Cancer Waters, not fulfilling the mission of Divinity.

The Mystical Divine Touchstone had come unto Samuel, and he had not been found wanting, even in its mystery. Thus had been touched by the Fiery Glory of the LORD, as his puberty awakened, and was found as gold, the royal beauty of heavenly fulness. Thus his harmonic glory in his Pituitary assumption was now awakened by the kicking horse, and Pegasus began to fly high. Thus it was through such as these, that the spirit began to come forth once again, and soul awakened out of his density, and saw as a MAN. Thus again it was another Samuel who called forth the Divine Quintessence, in the glory of the Spirit, and moved evolution on in the mystery of becoming. Where the Seed of the Divine Christ was earthed out of the Sperm of God and set in the mystery of eternity. Yet now the divine Solar Ray, with its Violet Ray, the Atomic inner depths of the Spectrum. That which brought forth the dancing Neptunian horses, that drove the Chariot of the Sun high into the Heavens, as the wonder and magnificence of Divinity. These are but the prototype for all Ages, particularly that of Time, that in timelessness, the unification of Relativity, the infinity revolves it into everlasting Glory.

(That last paragraph gives you the understanding that the soul, in seeking into the Word, had reached the stage when the Divine Inner Fire had touched them, and they could be awakened to the depths of that Fire. The Divine Violet Ray in the very centre of the Central Sun. Merope has reached the stage of her unfoldment where she is One with the Great Central Sun, and its Divine Inner Light now can penetrate through her, and bring out the mighty wealth of the Divine Fatherhood).

THE DIVINE VIRGIN

AS the Immortal Glory rose up, the Face of the Virgin was there in the beaming Light. For the Divine Glory was the manifestation of His Holy Beauty, unfolding the mysteries of the Deep. Such wonders and depths are known only to its intrinsic beauty, the secret of the Holy Ghost. (See text on page 3, col. 3).

The Birth of THE DIVINITY

(This is an extract taken from the Lecture given at the S.U.P.H. on Wednesday, 5th March, 1969, and delivered by The Lord of The Flame).

FOR some time DIVINITY, which is a mighty Unnamed Power that has the ruling over all Life, and is the SOURCE of ALL-LIFE, has been waiting to try and find a Channel whereby "IT" could manifest through the speech of mankind. This is quite a well-known fact, even to the Catholics, that the LORD will speak through the able-bodied son, who is ready and prepared. Well, no one so far had had the courage to do this, for it necessitated passing through the Fiery Furnace. The male was the one who was capable, for he was bringing the Sperm, the Holy Fire, down to the earth, but he had to raise the frequency of that Sperm until it was of the frequency of the Central Sun, and none would take this on. Some went so far but no further.

MEROPE SAID IT HAD TO BE DONE, AND THAT SHE WOULD DO IT, BUT SHE IS A WOMAN, SHE IS A FEMALE WHO HAD COME FROM THE EARTH. SO SHE CAME INTO SPIRIT AND DEMANDED THAT IF WE WERE AS CLEVER AS WE THOUGHT WE WERE, THEN WE WOULD MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR HER TO DO IT. SHE CHALLENGED US.

WELL, we told her that there was only one thing to do, and that was to change her hormones into male hormones, which immediately made her a Pube. This necessitated extreme pain, because it stretched her beyond the limits of her natural capacity. Now the next thing after that was for DIVINITY as THE POWER, to try to manifest through her. HE had never manifested before, never at any time through male or female, and now it was to manifest through a Pube, one who was made sexless. Thus Merope gave birth to THE DIVINITY through the Immaculate Conception. For this to take place a Comet came off the Central Sun and entered into Merope. This was seen by one in the physical phenomena, who saw it leave the Central Sun, come down to the earth with a very long tail, and enter into Merope. What I am telling you are facts, not fiction or imagination. Once before this had been partly tried, at the time of Ilium, or Troy, but it only resulted in the 'wooden horse' because their passions were never real, or had been over-spilling, and had not been risen up to the heights of the mind.

Now DIVINITY is earthed in Merope and she has taken on of THE DIVINITY; not a Divinity, but THE DIVINITY, and DIVINITY now is on the earth, taking His own Kingdom, and HE is speaking through Merope. Now HE is slowly learning to grow. This takes place as a symbolism, and will soon be a full-grown control that speaks through Merope. But HE will not speak through the voice, HE will speak through the gods in the arachnoid web in the meninges, as the Theocratic Consciousness. Now these are facts. DIVINITY is born into Matter, and it does not matter what anybody does, it will never be altered. So Universal Philosophy is established and everything else will dwindle away. These will become the Living Teachings as Occultism, in the days to come. The next two years are going to be enormous in the re-orientation that is going to take place. Merope had great faith in the Promise made unto Abraham, that "I shall be thy Shield and thy Protection," and she said "Well, if HE could be his Shield, then why should HE not be mine?" And so she called upon the Great Powers, that if they wanted to bring Their DIVINITY to earth then they must do all they could to help her.

NOW MEROPE HAS FULFILLED ALL THAT WAS INTENDED OF HER. THE WATERPOT WAS EMPTY IN AQUARIUS BECAUSE MAN HAD NOTHING TO RECEIVE FROM PISCES, WHICH WAS ONLY FILLED BY A PSEUDO-RELIGION, THAT BROUGHT ONE WAR AFTER ANOTHER. NOW SHE HAS FILLED THE WATERPOT WITH WINE, WITH FIRE, BY HER STRUGGLES.

The whole world is going to change, and if man does not build a mind then he is not going to become attached to the Great DIVINITY who is going to be the centre of the Great Sea of Divine Consciousness. The world is now being fulfilled as was intended, for the MIND Plane is born.

This is the divine Metempsychosis, where the mind body becomes the outer sheath of the soul. Thereby is able to transform the noumenon into audible speech, and convey to the world the glories of the unknown. The sensitivity that is induced by raising up the frequency and renouncing those things of the flesh which the soul knows it requires not. Thus becomes born of the Spirit, one with that divine Glory of the internal depths of the FIRE.

Q... Is this appertaining to the raising of the kundalini, where man brought up his Fire. He no longer requires the earthly desires, so he draws the Fire up and uses it for Divine reasons?

A... Yes, that is right.

Q... It was by Merope raising her kundalini Fire right up to the Neptunian Plane, that she was able to unify the earth and the Central Sun through herself.

A... That is quite true, but it is not just Fire as you know Fire. It is the very FIRE within the FIRE, and that is the Glory of the Divinity. So it is not just the outer plane, it is the inner core, the very inner core which is Divinity, that becomes the Mind glory of the soul. That is the Flame which is built up on the top of the mount, on top of the auric mount. It is not seen by any because it is black, and that would be the Divinity or the Presence on the top of your aura. It is of course something that does not belong to the frequency of this world. It belongs to the Inner Creations of Life, for as I have already told you, all is Here and Now.

Now this can be made possible for any of you. As you raise up your frequency and your sensitivity, so can you receive a Divinity on your auric Arc, and receive the glories of that inner FIRE, to enter down onto your tongue. It is Atomic FIRE, it is not ordinary Fire at all. Now the whole world is being surged with this Atomic FIRE and it is going to bring the world to its right consistency. Man has brought himself down to the position he is in; but look what he is suffering, look what he has come to, look what he does, look at the evil he creates. He is just living as a sub-animal, he is not living at all as a soul. Now man has got to be brought away from that otherwise he is going to go from bad to worse, and you are going to have far worse crime taking place in the world than what you already have at the present moment. Man must be brought back to what he really is—a god. He was a god, and he has all the heritage there and all the powers within him to bring forth mighty states of expansion. He is enormous, he is a universe, he is an Atom.

When your passions have been risen up, and the kundalini Fire has risen up to the Norm, the 7th chakra, you will be radiating Supreme Divinity through the Word. You will be able to see and understand mighty Truths, and it will be radiating through you. So what came down as ordinary sperm and was broiled in the depths, has been risen up, right up to the very Heights as "royal Holy Fire."

All is a matter of mind now. If man—which covers both male and female—wants to do this, and he prepares and treads the path of change through initiation and renunciation, he will get what he wants. He too will be able to manifest these wonders, and the world needs it very badly. But that is how the world should be, because mankind should be as sons of Divinity; the world should never have come down to what it is.

Now in building up the mind you are going to work with the abstract mind, for the future has no holding with the past. Although the past will enter all its wealth into the depths of the soul,—and he will more or less refer to it—it has no real manifestation of multiplicity. It is alright for polarising, but the soul has now to learn to create by his mind beliefs. Every soul to create, and as he so creates to put it into life.

It is a New World, but it must not be as it was in the past, but a completely New Creation.

Q... This is where there has been a sealing of Relativity, and one starts again at one's beginning.

A... That is right, and every man has got to give to the world now. He is not going to just live as he has been living and feel that he has come down to a picnic. He came down to serve, he came down to give forth of his powers, of his wealth, to create it, and in refusing to do so he is holding the wealth back, or the Atoms back, from the Celestial Beings. They do not belong to man, they belong to the Celestial Creation of the Heights and he must return them, and if he refuses, then he is going to suffer.

Q... It is a matter now then of more or less sorting out the pedigree Seed, isn't it?

A... That is right, with the soul getting down to thinking about it, and not as I have heard so many say to Merope, "Oh well, when I retire I will look into it." For by the time they came to retiring they were dodderly!

As I have said to you many times before, until you have ever touched these Divine states, you never know what you have really lost. For the soul lost its godship long long ago, and now has forgotten what it is to be a god. But do remember that what I give unto you is not imagination, it is Reality, and Reality is of course, completely foreign to mankind at the present moment.

The Birth of a New Root Race

THUS it was that Merope began the investigation of this mighty wealth of the Depths. That born unto the soul when the soul still knew God, and had had the power and glory to lead the soul onwards and upwards, by the touch of the Mighty MASTER. He who had the royal wealth of Shamash, and had mastered Saturn, and acquired of his mighty wealth for the glory of Divinity. For he was the basic of the Solar Glory, the Divine inner Helium Rays of its mighty depths as the Central Sun.

The Power of the Touchstone, the royal Glory of the heavenly mind light, the basic of his ancient past, that was now a mighty DAM of POWER waiting to come forth in Atomic Glory. He that had the Hallmark of Divinity upon his forehead, and the reins within his hands, to bring forth when called by the LORD, to transmute into Divine LIGHT. For Helio was the unfold of light, in the darkness of catastrophe.

Shamash being the mighty wealth acquired in the Garden of Eden, which they refused to build up as MIND light, but held as possessive glory. That which Merope came down to expand and release, to only result in the FALL to the depths. Where the mystical wealth remained in the charge of the beast, the mysterious One-Eyed Polyphemus, for some considerable time. Yet that of the Lydian Stone, that ever resulted in orgiastic revelry, when touched by the glory of the LORD.

That which prevailed when Moses drew forth of the ten Commandments, eventually resulting in the ten rings of Saturn, and the Horns of the Altar became stained with sin. The LORD being the expanded FACE of the unfolding Divinity, that which Egypt refused to acknowledge, as the Hebrews went forth with the "First Born." Where the soul in merging into the new state, finds himself being protected by the Eagle's wing, the mystical depth of the Theocratic compassion.

The pillar of Fire and the opening up of the Waters, where the soul was led through the unfolding Grace towards the Promised Land. Yet that which prevented the pursuing Egyptians from overtaking and destroying the work begun. That which Merope, once again, was setting into operation as the glorified birth of Vega. The new World of the MIND, where depths and heights were going to become one Vast Universe of revolving LIGHT.

Thus as the soul had the faith to go on, and was not found wanting when called by the Voice, would the way ever be cleared and built up in strength, as they drew down of those Glories from above. For the sustenance of the LORD was mighty, as he that had the courage to believe. It being the wealth of the Holy Spectrum, the Heavenly Violet Ray, the basic foundation of the Central Sun, that Merope had now brought forth as the glory of the Royal Fatherhood, the prevailing VOICE of the Age.

Thus as man believed would he become thereof, assuming his own Orion manhood. Not manhood as man believed, but the holy glory of the heart. For only by Divine belief, can such wonders be built up to the intent of the Noumenon, to become the might and glory of phenomenon. It being by the projected divine belief, it sets its own causation into being as the trail of effect. Thus here we behold the conscious state of the Theocratic compassion, that is going to bring rebirth to the soul and the Voice of the LORD onto his Tympanum.

Therefore, all Heroes of new belief have to struggle, to bring into birth of the new truth they behold. Particularly when it is the entire beginning of a new Root Race, as being decreed by Merope. Where man was coming back and onwards to his god-birth of the past, but now with all the wealth of TIME bringing him into the golden glory of the Central Sun, with all its Mighty Powers of Divine Generation waiting duly to come forth.

For Shamash was the original activator of the Nebula, so our seeking is into the depths of Outer World Space, the glory of the intensity of this fallen illusion. Thereby, the mystical Power of Saturn as the Violet Ray, becomes that of the immortal Virgin. The mighty wealth of the Queen of Sheba, as the risen up analogy to the sperming Master.

Hence the mysterious depths of the soul, with the El Powers in Ariel flight, unfolding the wonders of Continuity, where the serpent is swallowing its own tail. For the Violet Ray

DIVINITY

THE mastery of the depths is the work of the virgin, that man, God, and child, are unified into Oneness, and Divinity shines forth out of the glory of the unification, and the depths are lifted up to the Heights. (See the Front Page text).

to a risen up Atomic being. One born of divine sensitivity, the holy Glory of inborn frequency of his NORM, the citadel and Voice of the in-born LORD.

With the future growth of immortality, the way of the Race, for the whole of mankind were teeming with wealth, which must all go back to the Heights as light, the glory of the MIND. The whole of the Race brought back to the Plane it was intended to be at this time of manifestation. With much chaos being forced into action, as one after another sought to hold on to his earthly possessions, denying the glory of the spirit. The World of Spirit now coming into being, through the Divine Touchstone awakening the inner causation into an unfolding glory of effect.

Yet mighty wealth if transformed into the wonders of the mind, bringing the mighty power of a God. But always where the soul was tested two ways, which only a true Master could survive, he clinging desperately to the faith he knew and fully believed to be true and good, willing to lose all before he ever abandoned it in the loss of belief.

The Fulfilment of the Solar Spectrum

THUS Merope now as the Scapegoat, was standing on the Ice-cap of the New World, seeking to open up the polarity of what had been its once mighty foundation. With Saturn, as the Metric ringed Shamash, now to be redeemed is the fulness of the cultivation of the Primordial Essence, with the Divine Thread, that of Scorpio, as the unfoldment of divine continuity.

The First Beginning fully blossoming in the Violet Ray as the super-aspiration, which Merope is now having to find once again; not as it was, but in its Octavial polarity. Then by divine belief, will she extract the Fire of the Unknown Father, the Power from the Source, as the Fire that once fell to the earth. That which she now has risen up as the Divine Glory of the Central Sun, with its internal wonder as the mystery of Antares.

The whole beauty of life now to be revealed; not just in Word, but in the glory of true Reality, the manifesting phenomena of the deep. Where Neptune, who had only been the fantasy of dreams, 'the moon upon the waters,' now becomes the Uranian sparking action of true Jupiterian expansion, as the Solar glory of Royal Generating Life.

For the Uranian pathfinder, the golden feather of the Eagle, is the symbolised analogy of Divine Truth, which must now manifest as the holy radiance of LIFE. Hence the soul who acquires the Violet Ray, is the one who has the full glory of the Solar Spectrum, in all its atomic glory. Thus has the power of the LORD manifesting with him as the conscious state of the Theocratic compassion.

Here we see Saturn in his first encompassing revelation, but as a Power that must be

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each siter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

April 5th The Inner Commissure	May 3rd The Triune Voice May 10th The Bands of Orion
April 12th The Aura	May 17th Shamash
April 19th The Spine	May 24th The Celestial Powers
April 27th The May Fires	May 31st Divine Union

Breath, is that of the Violet Ray, now the manifestation of the supreme sacrifices of Merope. She whose Love has been blended into a vibronic reality, and offered to man as the magnitude of the heavens. This coming to him in the form of LOVE, through the refused Uranian Power of the Source. That which shows him the way to become ariellised and atomised, freed from the fixity of matter. Thus gaining expansion that will unfold his latent wealth, and give him the glory of a mind, the power of the super-sonic flight. Where the dance of freedom from depths to heights, is a treasure of royal holy expansion.

A WONDER THAT IS FOR ALL MEN WHO LABOUR, TO GRASP OF ITS POSSIBLE IMMENSITY, WHERE THE GLORIES OF THE PAST BECOME THE HEAVENLY RADIANCE OF THE FUTURE; PAST AND PRESENT BLENDED INTO DANCING GLORY, REVEALING THE POSSIBILITIES OF TOMORROW.

Unfoldment of the Divine Fatherhood

THUS the MIND in its true radiating beauty is the divinity of the manifesting Father, and is the unfolding glory promised unto all men, that they become the clarion voice of unfolding magnitude, for the down-pouring divinities. So Merope who is now reforming the Cosmic Laws on the Mount of Vega, is doing so as unto the Theocratic Divine Sensitivity, that this new inflow will have to adopt in their unfolding phenomenal manifestation.

It is a World now of heights and depths interblended, where Merope becomes a Mother to both, teaching the depths of the wonders and glories of the heights, and the heights of the rudiments of the depths, neither having any idea of the world of the other.

Yet to become one vast World in atomised glory, the radiant wonder of the future. The vast Kingdom of the Father, the MANHOOD of the future Race Elect, where sensitivity and the dancing MIND are the prize of one and all. Not brute strength, but the glory of the mind, the divine beauty of Spirit-born freedom.

Hence the Violet Ray is compassion born out of the rising causation of divine enlightenment, but where the whole of the being is quickened and radiating with life, fresh from elevated royal awareness. The soul now becoming fully cosmic conscious, recognising the urgency of the heights and the need of the depths. Thus when as the Scapegoat, seeking to ionise, that they can be more and more unified by the dancing embracement of inflowing Causes, and the unfolding glory of aspiration.

conquered, that the full glory of its truths are revealed. Thus as Merope stood upon that lonely vigil, there appeared unto her the vision of the Christ as a Master Carpenter, standing surveying a plank of wood. As he did so, the radiance around him grew in volume until it caused it to become lost in its mighty beauty. Conveying unto Merope, who was surveying that lonely path of ice-bound waste, what now was her mighty task. To melt that ice and start a growth of LIFE, fit for the Divinities above to incarnate into.

Those whom she had awakened and set into motion as seekers of the phenomenal path of mind unfoldment. She now, as the unforgettable Touchstone, to electrify into action the mighty wealth of that mystical Nebula, that vast expanse of Ether-bound glory. Yet as vast as man perceived it as mystery, when interpenetrated by the depths, no depths at all, he having conquered the mystery of its depths, and would now have to walk it into the earth, as the union to manifest as light.

For solidity belongs to the earth, and becomes a fixity as the Grand Canyon, when man seeks not of its wonders. But when its glories have become as mind, the risen up radiance of the unfolding LIGHT, it brings forth of the FIRE, that of the Father's Glory, the heavenly wonders of Divinity. For that of Cosmic Consciousness as the Divine Sea of Holy Mind Beauty, that seeded and waiting to come forth, is that of "I and my Father are ONE," the royal glory of holy union of Divinity.

Thus the Christos compassion as the Hydroxyl

Then wealth of a supreme nature can manifest as the OM glory of unfolding wisdom. Otherwise it is only an unbalanced smattering of divine wisdom, with no true Solar point of penetrative purpose. But where this is put into action in a true comprehensive way, it will bring forth the celestial Pituitrin as the original Virgin Stream of expanded divine thought. Ages of experience now the Theocratic radiation of the NORM.

A glorified beauty of radiating blue and red Rays of Fire and Mind, now the penetrative glory of the Bull's Uraeus possibility. That which once made the soul a Master over all others, that which gave Rameses, Seti, Abu Simbul and Kufra such insight into the World of Causes, that they were able to conquer and temper into royal active production.

The celestial Pituitrin now the radiating divinity, that which can be the means of helping many to awaken and unfold their sleeping consciousness and fiery wealth. The mighty Atomic Glory, as the internal Divinity of the Violet Ray now with the awakened soul, and he with the capacity of awakening the consciousness of those lost in the density of matter, but by his sperming capacity, the unified Word, through the interpenetrative Law that must be obeyed.

The Inner Perception of the Divine Law

FOR when Moses, as the seeking Warrior, received the Tablets of the Law, he was really receiving of the basic of creation that he had to sperm, and then get those around him to help him tread them into matter; for they were the Root of those to come, who would have to blossom and set yet greater purpose from that already gained. Yet, although set by the Scapegoat, every soul is an awakening reality, by unified reality. Thereby ready to pass their awakened consciousness onto another, thus setting the LAW further into action.

The Bull no longer labouring with the clearing of the forest of old growth, but trumpeting with the Sun between his tusks, as the mighty wealth of the Bull Elephant. For through the taken Word, every soul is ready and primed by Merope lifting up the Planes, for the Atomic Glory to reveal its hidden mystery, in the phenomena born from the Noumenon of the Hydroxyl Breath.

An awakened soul ready to go forth and spread the truth. With the spirit, as Merope the mind risen as a crowned Swan, radiating with light. But where she was of a Solar radiance, now as a lustrous pearl upon the uprisen prongs of the crown, indicating the glory of the wisdom being infused into one and all. Thus now, Merope is being directed by the Holy Source to lead all men that have awakened, and are ready to claim their divine heritage.

That which descended at the beginning of Time and did not make a spontaneous awakening, now ready for unfolding. Thus had to penetrate the internal being through the Breath and the Seed, bringing into birth internal bodies through the faculties of the soul. Thus the Ages of experience with the mind wavering from the animal to the ingrowing consciousness.

Until finally, through Merope as the Scapegoat resetting the Law, and struggling to send forth of the new Word, these inner bodies were awakened. But it demanded the complete renunciation of the animal desires, gathered up over the Ages, that those inner Bodies could be the glory of the risen god. Whereas in the beginning it was born of the Motherhood, the negative state, now through the mind belief of Merope it has become of the positive state, that of the Glorified Divine Fatherhood.

Whereas the Pube in the Beginning was divine and could have flared up into Virgin Light, now it is salted by experience; thus must cast the earthy desires, and regain its original Virgin state. This can only be accomplished by the Word stripping away false beliefs and bringing into being the Orion man, the Spirit-born Warrior for truth.

This is now the radiance of the Violet Ray radiating through the chromosome mitotic reverberations, all set into a vibratory action by the fired mind driving the belief, that awakened through the Word. For as Merope sends out more of her awakened truths, does the Hydroxyl Breath become a more forceful implosive action within the soul.

Especially where the Word is taken and assists the internal firing to drive the reverberations into active movement. This being the cosmic copulation to the seeking soul, and the disturbing element to the non-thinking soul, until by some unforeseen possibility it catches alight. Then the soul seeks, either through awakened truth, or an incapacitated infirmity seeking for help.

Here we see the Hydroxyl Breath as the Cosmic Mercury bringing its rebirth through chaos, until the soul seeks for the greater issue. Then with those awakened, becoming the Priests for the New Wisdom, urging them on to a greater purpose and mind approach. Wisdom taken in captured element wealth, now to make its debut in reality of an awakened conscious mind.

The spirit phenomena manifesting through Solar activity, thus the Theocratic support now comes from the local administrative power of the outer courts of the conscious mind. That of the Neolithic divinity as the minor divinities, serving and readjusting the earth laws by the power of the inner perception of the Divine Source Laws.

The soul awakened to the greater purpose of life, and finding the courage to set it into motion, although against all conventional beliefs. Once it is determined by the Scapegoat, the fulcrum lever is set into motion and becomes the driving force of the Breath. Then as the Virgin sets it into action by her genuine struggle, the sea of changed life is driven by the Solar Wave-band of the Violet Ray frequency.

Soul is the abyss creation of the mighty wealth and power of his Theocratic body, his real god self, which is in the gathered essence of his NORM. Then as it blossoms through the Word, it awakens to its points of purpose, as the old states are stripped away,

Then the compulsion as action of the inner god wish, will become virgin activity. This will come about through the god control of the soul's Theocratic nervous etheric body. That enforcing the embodied atomic Fires to obey the now royal command of the Virgin's expansive belief.

The conscious mind fully awakened to the new truth, for all Fire action is expansion, but must be directed by an awakened mind; then Venus and Mars are dancing in true Neptunian Le Ros glory. The royal unfolding of the spirit, and awakening of the god heritage that will carry the soul as the wherewithal of the flesh, and their entry into the depths. That which calls once, then passes on leaving the death of the "first-born"; for what should have blossomed into life, remains only a dead issue, turning its tail to strike in the reverse, with a slide down into the sands of Time. The mighty royalty of life that man has yet to learn, of which only his consciousness can convince.

Therefore the World of Vega is a World of Honour, where man truly becomes aware of Divinity through his risen up Scorpionic Waters. Where all his bones of growth are now the awakened sensitivity, the mystery into action, as seen by the youth in the demonstrative story. One ready to sacrifice by embracing this mighty expansion, to prove of how life is of a greater issue and can evolve into unity with the Divine, if one is ready to be a living example of the initiation.

Therefore once perceived, feels the mighty awe of its unseen intensity, as he embraces the greater expansion of embodying the heights with the depths. The finer intensity of the inner bodies, now becoming a part of his mind capacity, and the physical body and the change of vibronic glory pursues. He feels now for the first time, the internal perpetual continuity of life; that which begins to radiate the unmanifested Fire from the Heights, from his inner to his outer body.

With the vibrance of the All-seeing EYE penetrating from the Heights, as he responds and unites with the Divinity, in the stripping away of non-entities and finding the true inner self as the unfolding being of the future Race. Thus the present controversy of the Race problem, the higher rebounding into the lower, the physical body.

Here we see the mighty glory of the Noumenon becoming into the phenomenon, through the Virgin Fire bringing into birth the New World. A dynamic turn as she embraces the greater belief. For she is the initiator of the Divine Causes, the mystic Source of Divinity, as the Ray of the Virgin Fire, and is waiting for man to sperm it into expansion and set the growth of the New World into action.

Thus she is the mover of all unseen creation, that which in intangibility is awaiting tangibility, by man making it a living creation. For the whole intent of life and its possibility is in the Violet Ray, it being the whole glory of the Spectrum and the unfolding of life. This can be seen in the Atomic intensity that causes the severity of the Atomic burn; that witnessed by the Scapegoat in initiating the elements into isotopic unification.

For her task is the severe struggle of trial and error. Yet when seen as the manifesting Seed, that of the internal Glory of the Word, and that being woven into birth by the Virgin, the mighty depths of the Violet Ray can be truly assessed. For now in it becoming the uprisen glory of the Virgin mind, she can swing the heavens around her head, and turn the world over from one consequence to another, bringing the changes that man is afraid to initiate. Thus the Wave-band going forth across the earth.

Here we meet the mystery of the past, when the Atomic wealth of aeons becomes evident as man's own mighty wealth. That which he must now put into active operation, otherwise the unification between inner and outer bodies begins to buckle under the force. For he is the whole outcome and intensity of the rising Sun, the risen up glory of the spirit, where the soul who knows, knows no fear, but uses his earth endowed being to initiate the heavens into the earth, and spin all up into the radiant fiery mind glory of the Word.

For his task now, is to spin the Infinity of the Poles faster and faster, as Merope, the Initiator of these greater truths, begins the mighty drive of a New Root Race Creation. Whereby a more active infinity is set into motion, causing untold chaos for the time being. For now, an entirely new action is being set into motion, calling for an entire rebirth of the Laws.

TRUTH

AS the Mind Plane opens up, will the warrior for Truth be called forth, to stand the test from right and wrong; when the Orion-born man will go forth as the Pube, with the virgin's light leading him onwards and upwards. (See text in col. 2).

home. It is this that is the unforgettable touchstone, yet of a more valuable potency, when it becomes a living issue of the soul.

A World lost in the density of self and desire, and now to be redeemed by the Theocratic Glory of the Cosmic LOVE, and the Blood of the divine Virgin. For as Merope more and more unfolds the Word, and re-sets one Law after another, the Arc of the World is duly set and reorientated. But there are very few Samuels in this life, or even verging onto the divine purpose of the Prophets. Owing to religious false altar ritual, man has turned from the Divinity to the Bacchanalian method of life.

Dancing with the animal, yet rich and ripe with atomic wealth, that could bring untold mind wealth into birth. Even the Touchstone of Divinity and Word find him a hard nut to crack, so have installed the Theocratic Government, with the Theocratic consciousness driving the personality issue. The Touchstone of Fire, which binds and holds to that partaken, and demands the due measure by the touch of the stinging tail of Lesath, that which can turn all lead into gold, or the fall of Hercules into the pit.

Glory of the Spectrum

FOR the Violet Ray is the Touchstone, that of Atomic unification, yet that which calls all souls to render of service due. Their oath and the means implosive glory of rebirth. Where Joseph as the God, will now awaken out of the enfolded glory of Time. For the Violet Ray is the Touchstone that will recall all into birth, to the one who is prepared to awaken and unify up into atomic light. These are not moments of redemption, but moments of glorification, that either touch or wither, and blight into a rebound, to be thrown wide of the purpose of unification.

While the chosen road is the inward unified glory of the points of golden Oneness achieved, for it is the spinner of the Eternal Verities, the mighty glories of the heavens made manifest through the soul bringing forth true spiritual awakening, through the diligent struggle with the Word. By him perceiving the falsities of the narrow conventionality of past ritual, it urges him to break free, and set up greater expansive beliefs. Thereby embracing the Unseen Divinities to a comprehensional degree.

Then the Ray of the Noumenon, as the Divine Osmosis Ray of initiating activity, becomes the unseen mystery of unification. Whereby the human body now unites its internal bodies with its physical body, causing the subconscious discarding of old ideas, for a wider expansive thought, that will eventually become their full conscious embracement.

It is this dynamic Glory of change which the initiate sets into motion, when he sets its

THE ATOMIC FORGE

THE MYSTERY OF DIVINE WILL

by The Lord of the Flame

This is an extract taken from the Lecture given at the S.U.P.H. on Wednesday, 25th September, 1968. Sentences in italics are those that were chosen from the Lecture of the previous Sunday, to be given greater and more simplified explanation.

Merope's Opening Prayer

LET US MAKE INVOCATION.

Great Divine Spirit, once again we gather together that we can probe into the Word and seek more deeply to obtain a greater understanding of the great fundamental of Spirit, that we can understand this Dynamic Fire that is now surging through the earth and all mankind. That we can see the depths of the non-form, the vibration that is the major asset of life. There is much that we must learn, now that we are coming back to our god-like status, where we can become embraced into the Glories of Divinity. So Great One, as we probe, as we think, as we try to understand, we ask for Thy guidance, and this we seek in the name of Love and Service. AMEN.

The Master then Manifested.

PEACE BE UNTO YOU ALL.

Once again we come among you, yea and we come in abundance. But I know that some of you are wanting to ask the same questions as those that were asked on the Sabbath. So we will go straight on with the Word.

The Mystery Plate

NOW the mystery plate that is being shown to you, is in keeping with the Lecture. It is to do with the Forge, the forging of the Will; the soul being beaten out on the forge to bring his Super-Will into birth. On the right of the picture you see Hephaistos, lame because man has not returned to the Heights the Atoms that he has taken in the WORD. Now you do not seem to realise that as you take the WORD you are taking Living Atoms, Atoms belonging to the Gods and the Divinities of the Unseen World. They sent them down to you in Blood-Life, and although you form them into the Living Word you have taken their Life. Up to the present man has only taken them and turned them into raw fire.

Unless you send them back as Light, or do what Merope is doing, giving them out in Service, you are an Ali Baba; you have stolen the Fire and put the Atoms into the rock. One day they could cause you some great catastrophe, if you do not start putting them into Service.

In the past, Hephaistos was the Fire God; now it is Orion, but as I have already said, Hephaistos was lame, and there you see he has at last found one warrior who is willing to give in service. So now he is beating out the armour for Hephaistos, which of course would be the Spirit armour, that he can go forward and serve Hephaistos to try to get back some of his Atoms.

This was applying to the Great Divinity of the Christos. By placing Him on a cross, and making Him dead, wasn't returning any of His Blood-Life whatsoever, which was coming down from the Great Solar Life. But immediately Merope understood this wisdom, and she placed Him up through her mind onto the crown of the Arc, then immediately she started sending back the Life.

AND THIS IS WHAT MEROPE TRIES TO DO WITH EVERY LECTURE, AT LEAST SEND BACK ONE POINT, ONE SOLAR POINT OF LIGHT.

But as she gives to you of the wisdom, it only goes into your rock unless you do something with it, unless you start living it, thinking about it, expounding it, and sending back the Light. You do this by polarising it, spinning it up into Light, seeing the glory of what the Light can be, and in this way you send it back unto the Heights.

So this really was the gist of the Lecture, and of course it is all around the Fire.

Fire is prominent at the present moment, for it is pouring down onto the earth in abundance. We have at the present moment got it surging through Merope, and it is making it a bit difficult for her; so I am asking you Bulls, you males, with your aspiration and your elevated thoughts, to send out your Sperm-vibrations, your Sperming thoughts unto Merope, so that you sperm her with your Fire. This is what you should do every time, and would be your return to her for giving to you the Word, which she has struggled with and has brought to a generous understanding of Truth.

You need have no fear of what you take from Merope, for Merope has to pass our scrutiny before ever these Lectures come to the depths. So whatever anybody else may say regarding their accuracy, there is no need for you to take any notice, for Merope has passed the scrutiny of the Divinities.

Now let us turn to the Word

FOR the New World is the Glory of Divinity, the hope of the coming Age. When the Royal Glory of Heavenly LIGHT is born unto man once again, where the unifier of the Virgin Fount as the Magnetic depths, is drawn up and fired, and beaten into the Solar garment of LOVE. With the Atomic Forge as the Altar of Virgin Sacrifice, where the Virgin sacrifices of her consciousness, that her Divine LORD might live; the sacred "Dish of Blood."

(See plate on page 7)

Now this was where Merope relinquished so willingly of her magnetic blood, and changed over into the Solar Blood, that she was able to raise up her Lord and make Him live in the Solar Heights. She had to make the sacrifice that you have already seen. She sacrificed her magnetic blood and it was changed over and took on of the Solar Blood; and then of course she supported her Lord, she supported the Divinity, the Divinity of the MIND. This is the sacred "Dish of Blood."

Where the Spirit becomes reborn into the mystery of the Divine Fire, the glory of heavenly rebirth. For the Atomic Forge is the mystery of the divine Pentagram, the holy contusion of becoming.

That is, bringing all the lower chakras up into the heights.

The Solar magnitude of the heavenly heights, in its newborn creation, with Neptune's trident as the triune of the Waters, the inflow of the Solar Glories. The coming forth of the Solar corpuscles, the beginning of immortality.

Now in this change-over of the blood, instead of having all the red corpuscles of the animal, Merope found she had white. Now if she were to be taken into hospital, they would be surging her bloodstream with all sorts of things to give her the red corpuscles. For a time she did go through what appeared as leukaemia; but it was not really leukaemia, it only appeared as such.

All these conditions such as diabetes and leukaemia have been brought about by those souls who have started to change their blood corpuscles in a previous life, and are now on the half-way mark. Consequently they take on of these states; they don't know where they are, because the wisdom is not being accepted, or is not known. This is where in years to come this is going to be important.

Consequently Merope has now become immortal, and has come onto the 'other side of the fence.' Only Merope knows what this means; she is feeling very uncomfortable,

THE FIRE PLANE

THE mystery of Fire, where the mighty Fire Plane is now all alight, and every man is standing on its fringes. It is for each one to gird himself with the glory of emolument and brace up his shoulders to embrace the Light. (See text in col. 2).

For the rebirth now set into activity by Merope, is the unification of all being, causing the serpent to swallow his own tail. A rebirth of Being as never known before, for where all has been a state of continuity, now it is reborn from negative to positive, a complete swing from left to right, yet a reorientation out of the old.

Where what has been a state of subservience, now becomes a unified recognition of service, according to one's own capacity. The soul's judging of self, and its seeking of a wider field of activity. This is where the soul, in looking truly upwards, embraces the heavens and uses the magnetic to unfold his inflowing phenomenal wonders. Thus the Scapegoat ever breaking through barrier after barrier, that the New World can go forth.

Hence, here we come to the Golden Eagle, the risen up

Fiery passional waters, that must become the wealth of the Fontanelle. In so doing, the heavenly feeder of the Atomic juices that become the manna of the gods, through the soul's own activating force. It is the wielding power of the Triumvirate, for it now scythes as it sows.

The Ray of Invisibility as the Divine Helmet that captures the EYE of the Depths, and Shamash becomes in all HIS Glorious manifesting intensity, as the heavenly radiance of the mighty Central Sun. For the Violet Ray is the Divine Glory of the Spectrum, and the supreme point of "IT" when risen up; that of the Virgin's wealth.

GREAT AND HOLY ONE THY Great Blessing upon the Word that has gone forth tonight; indeed the Wonders of Divine Unction, as never known before; the glorious Creation of the unfolding Mind of the Virgin Scapegoat. Amen.

Health from Herbs

HERBALISM is the oldest healing art in the world. Its history can be traced back through the civilisations of Rome, Greece, Assyria and Babylon, and even beyond. Herbs are foods as well as medicines, and build up the general health at the same time as they cure any specific disease. Unlike drugs, which are inert, they are made from organic material instead of inorganic substances, and form an active or living medicine.

Here at the School we have a large quantity of loose herbs in stock, which normally will readily provide for all our requirements. However, we have listed below some of our more popular herbal pills, specially prepared for those who find them more convenient to take in this form, during the hustle and bustle of their daily occupation.

Nerve Pills.

Heart Pills.

Catarrh & Sinus Pills.

Eye Pills (Cataract etc.).

Laxative Pills.

Garlic Pills. (Blood, chest).

Bronchial Pills.

(not available in U.S.A.).

Blood Cleansing Pills.

Tonic Pills.

Kidney Pills.

Womb & Stomach Cleansers.

Anti-Obesity Pills.

Buchu Pills. (Bladder, sinus).

Kelp Tablets. (Thyroid).

and is not feeling at all 'at home' in this world; for she is climbing the Brahmic Thread right back home to Vega. That is the Vega Constellation in the Heights, which is Merope's Constellation.

The opening up of the way divine, that heavenly wonders manifest their glory, and man takes on the helmet of Invincibility.

Now all these things are taken on by this Atomic Fire, once you adopt it, once you allow it to become your blood life as you follow its path.

For the Atomic Forge is where the combustion takes place between the Norm and the sparking Pituitary. For it is here that the Virgin Seed becomes clothed with divine consciousness, and implodes back into the glories of the Arc.

Now there are a lot of mysterious and weird things that take place in the body besides osmosis. There is this imploding, which not only takes place in the bloodstream, driving you on into changes, but where it also goes up into the Arc, the Arc of the Mind, that which is the aura around the head: all is shot up into it and the changes take place. This is what draws unto you all by the law of attraction. You might be walking along quite quietly, quite comfortably with some very good ideas, and before you know where you are you suddenly change them. You have come up against a state of attraction, which is a little too strong for you, and it turns your mind into past ideas.

This is where you have got to go on, determining and determining,—and it is no good saying, "I'll never do it, I'll never do it," because that is only negative. What you have got to say is, "Oh well, I have fallen once again; let's make another attempt." You go on trying to strengthen, and this is the way you slowly make the heart-beat the Bundle of His, and the heart-beat of your purpose, and then you will find that the Arc is corresponding with it, and you finally strengthen.

These changes that are taking place within the soul are the means of bringing changes to the Galactical Poles. All that Merope did; brought changes to the Poles, and whereas you had the Poles slanting towards the magnetic North, now they are upright, even though on your Earth-plane it may not yet appear as such.

This brings the changing of the Galactical Poles, where the uprisen Seed becomes infiltrated by the reborn Boreas, and the Beam of the EYE becomes altered to its reborn status of Holy Celestial Glory.

Now Boreas is the North Wind, so there is going to be a change in the North Wind, and you are going to find a new inflow of Air, Mind.

By this a greater perception of the Divine Will is captured by the soul, who must then seek to establish it as a conscious practicality within the soul's own inner depths.

So you see there are many things that are going to happen in life that will have to be dealt with, but what you have got to have is the motive, the belief.

DRIVE ON WITH THE MOTIVE AND THE BELIEF, AND THEN ALL THESE THINGS WILL CHANGE UNTO, IF YOU ARE STRONG ENOUGH.

Therefore Neptunian cosmic development as Orion craftsman, which is going to help him to see with the eye of the craftsman, and he is going to learn to create.

Question Time

NOW there is a great depth in all this, because it is all around the Fire, the Atomic Forge that is going to beat you into life, by you putting up your will and super-will. You begin to think about it, you

SACRIFICE

ALL redemption becomes by sacrifice, an age-old wisdom of truth, for it redeems and lifts up all womanhood into the glory of the virgin. Wisdom known all through the ages, but long forgotten in the world of strife and desire. (See text on page 6, col. 5).

manship of mighty and supreme unfoldment, must now begin.

Now this is one of the major things in the rebirth of regeneration, Orion craftsmanship. This is something that man has forgotten. With him, it is nothing more than mass production, but where there is true craftsmanship it leaves its beauty behind in all that is created.

That is why Merope has around her so many things that are of craftsmanship, because she can feel the touch, she can feel the supreme thought that goes into everything that is creative. The soul leaves behind his belief, his love, and his purpose. Now this is where man must return to craftsmanship, not just mass-production with knobs and wheels and buttons, but where his mind is going to work and he really is going to learn to create.

Thus Cosmic Colure expansion is due, hence the Celestial as the complete manifestation of Divine Vision takes place.

Now you already know something about the two Colures which now have been joined together; one the mystic path and one the Solar, now joined to become the Atomic Path. The blending of these two Colures by Merope is going to give man Divine want to do something more spectacular, more creative. This is all going to come with the changing of the corpuscles from the magnetic and the lunar into the Solar.

THIS CREATION IS A VERY VERY IMPORTANT THING, BECAUSE IT IS GOING TO MAKE EVERY MAN AN INDIVIDUAL; NOT JUST A CREATURE WITH NO MIND, BUT A CREATOR.

Q...To activate the atomic super-will, is to recreate the soul's past wealth, isn't it?

A...Yes, that is what this is for; it is for you to be able to see this, and to see the purpose of it; to survey yourself, and in surveying yourself you then begin to find that you are not satisfied with certain creations of yourself; so you say, "Well, now I am going to readjust it." This is where you make growth, where you say, "This applies to me, and I have got to get it straight." See yourself and put it straight.

I have thought many times that this is one of Merope's biggest assets. She has said many times that what people are accusing her of, there must be something in it. It may not be exactly as they are putting it, but there must be something in it or they would not be called to say it; so she looked into herself to find out what it was that she couldn't see, and where she was lacking. There was no false pride with her. She was too sincere and earnestly seeking to adjust herself, that she could become a good, strong, and perfect Teacher.

Q...I suppose it was the super-mind that made the decision?

A...No; it entirely lies with the conscious mind. You would be surprised how much the conscious mind plays the immediate part in the life. The super-mind really does not think at all; it has not any power of thinking, although it does have the means of becoming filled and then sending down the drip. The changes are brought about by the conscious mind, and the alterations and changes are put to all the different particles of the soul and they all work in harmony, one with the other, like you have in a clock.

Do remember that it is the conscious mind that is the Cinderella and she is the one that stokes the fire, and does everything there is in the changes. It is the only thinking mind. She has to go on working, thinking and changing, until she brings herself parallel with the super-mind. Then she takes over the super-mind and becomes the one mind; she acts as the whole one mind.

Q...Did you not say once that the super-mind was Light?

A...Yes, it is all Light.

Q...Master, I would like to ask about the transferring of the Word into Light. When the soul gains an understanding and brings enlightenment within themselves, is that sufficient?

A...No. You must spin the mind up, and try to polarise it.

When it was necessary to polarise the atom, Merope just thought, "Well, if the atom is down there, and it is destructive and it is a bomb, if I polarise it, it will become of Atomic Fire, of Atomic Light."

That is one of the finest examples to take; the atomic bomb that destroys, with all its evils, which Merope raised up into Atomic Fire as the Holy Waters. Then in unifying them she found she had got Atomic Light, the Glory of the Central Sun. This is what you have got to do with everything else.

Once Merope believed this, once she declared that that was what she must accomplish, she automatically became of that vibration. You take it on because you believe it; that is your theory.

Q...You believe it by your announcement, and by your announcement you establish it!

A...Yes, providing your belief is strong enough, of course; but you know Merope well enough by now; once she says a thing, well, that is the end of it!

Q...What is the maelstrom?

A...It is the band of nitrogenic gas that is around the earth, where all the degrees of what man is and what he thinks, are focussed. It is the "hall of mirrors."

Q...It is like a mirror of man's mind consciousness!

A...That is right, but it is a living Fire; anything to do with man and form can live in it. Outside of that is vacuum. Between there and the Central Sun there was the Descent of the Planes, but through what Merope has done, the earth, the Planes, and the Central Sun, are now One Vast World, for she has blended them up together.

Q...Would it be possible for someone to get hold of a chunk of the Moon and bring it back here?

A...But there is no Moon.

Q...It is going to be very interesting.

A...Whatever they bring back is not of the Moon.

Q...What can they bring back?
A...Nothing. Let us see what they will do. Do you realise what these people are doing through their lunar thoughts? They are drawing the world backwards; they are the cause of all the catastrophes and all the difficulties that are happening in your world.

IF YOU TURN YOUR MIND TOWARDS THE SOLAR AND EMBRACE THE SOLAR, YOU WON'T HAVE THOSE CATASTROPHES.

Q...Master, one of the greatest difficulties that is sweeping the world today is the great increase in mental sickness. Is this not directly attributable to the lunar drive by the Americans and the Russians, setting back the spiritual growth in people, and splitting them?

A...That is quite true. You only have to ask yourself "why do they talk about lunacy?" Look towards the Solar, for this is the progressive World. You have got to progress onwards; you have got to move out of the stagnancy you are in; you have got to drive onwards. You only have to use your own common sense to know that this is right.

You dance with the glories of the Solar light, and embrace and take unto yourself of the Christ-like Love. Man has got to change, for to progress, man has got to expand. This is the LAW. If he does not, the result is stagnancy and disease. Everything has got to be expansion.

Everything to do with the Solar is progressive. The waters (rain) coming down now is the Fire, and as the Fire enters into the maelstrom it turns to water, lunar, because man is lunar-minded. He is eating himself silly, and destroying his faculties with the contraceptive argument. Religion has 'gone to the dogs,' due to their bringing themselves down to merely discussing sex. This would never have been ordained or entertained once upon a time. They lived up in the heights of the mind, in the glories of the Spirit. There is no Spirit with them now.

All these things are being destroyed now, through Merope being embraced to the Solar Glories and while she remains so embraced, and is well supported,—and I must repeat, AND IS WELL SUPPORTED,—then all these states will die out. But they won't die out unless there is the 'drive towards the Solar Glory.' By bringing the Solar you polarise the lunar, you master it. You can easily think all these things out for yourselves, if you will only make the effort.

Q...Well Master, I can only hope and express the wish that 1969 will see the end of all this chaos.

A...No, not yet. THE LAW has to work slowly, otherwise it would cause a disruption of the Poles.

EVERYTHING IS A MATTER OF CHANGING ONE INTO THE OTHER, BUT THE NEW YEAR IS GOING TO BRING A WIDER VISION, BECAUSE THE WATERS WILL HAVE SEEPED INTO THE SOUL.

THE DIVINE BLESSING GREAT DIVINE FATHERHOOD

THY Son speaks to THEE in the depths, where the changes that are now taking place are establishing THEE in the Heights, and bringing THY Voice to manifest through the voice of those who have the courage to find that divinity of Oneness; those who are prepared to be of the Divine Point of Love, the golden Glory of Truth, and by so being, becoming the Open Mouth for THY Glory to manifest through them, thereby giving to the World of Hope, Truth, and Direction.

We leave this World in all its turbulence, to its state of rebirth, that it can become the broken up rocks of the past, and the Glories of the Future.

AMEN.

THIS MONTH I WOULD VERY MUCH LIKE TO stress a great deal upon the entry of all Occult students into the REAL New Year of 1969. Religion has so badly thrown man out of context with the Gods, that very few now are able to understand the wisdom, let alone catch up with the down-pouring Galactical Waters.

Establishment of the Divine Calendar

AS Heroes in the past mastered and conquered the difficulties of life and made some form of stand, they brought down an inflow to the Earth from the Celestial Beings. Thus set up a Calendar which was the means of helping those struggling with life to fix their status, and draw down help from the Gods. But papalism stepped in and put up their own so-called saints, a day or two from the specified period. Thus causing these down-pouring streams to turn into the negative, causing the earth to turn black. Thus everything in Pisces went destructive, for there followed one war after another.

The sooner we realise that Occultism is the true Science of LIFE and orthodoxy is the pseudo-religion, shall we find life easier to master. If the inflow of the Gods were not correct, then why are they still held as holidays and festivities in certain counties all over England? Even having religious ceremonies around the town in a number of places.

According to the records, these towns had much to do with those in the past who were the means of drawing the inflow of the Gods down into these places.

By this unity with the Celestial Gods being negatized, man today is minus the Fire that these Gods could have given unto mankind, to aid their own particular sign upon the Earth. But first of all let us visualise these Ethereal Beings as we know them through Astrology.

Water-pot was empty in Aquarius, until I, Merope, filled it up with Occult wine. Thus drew down the LIVING FIRE from the Source of the Pleiades.

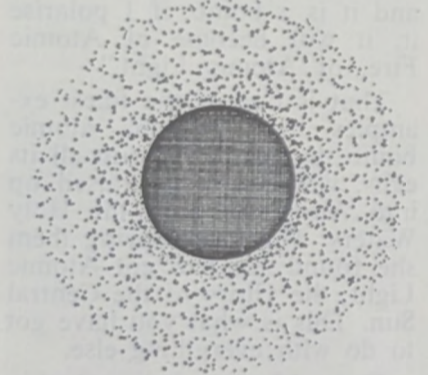

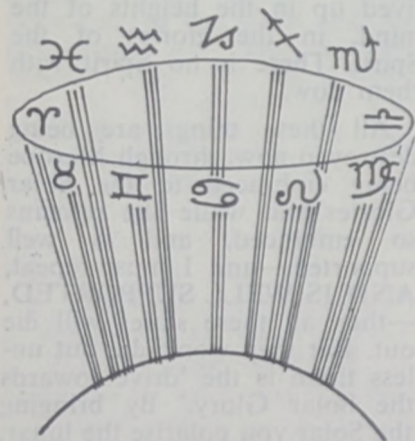

The mighty Powers of Outer World Space, whereby man, if he builds up a MIND of abstract thinking, will become an immortal being once again, and get free from the captivity of matter.

For the earth is not the real Earth, but tartarus created by man. But by returning to his rightful state as a god, he will live on for evermore, around the Mighty Kingship of the Fatherhood. Thereby becoming the King's own BODY-GUARD; he who went forth to prepare the way, that the Almighty King could take up residence, and speak through the faculties of his sons.

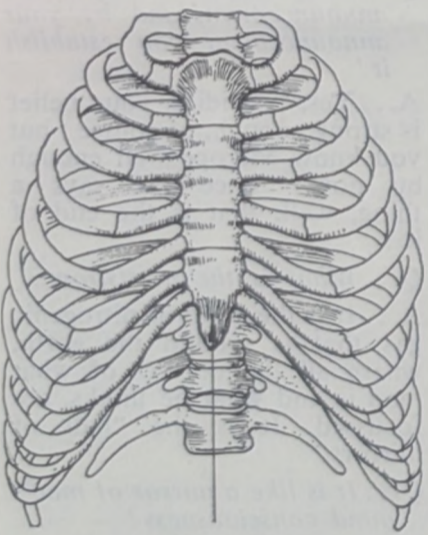

the Earth. Thus the higher mind of every soul who uses his abstract thinking capacity, will send down a holy "Drip" onto that sternum bone, oscillating the conscious mind into the direction of the Sea of Divine Consciousness. If soul had not solidified, the sternum bone was where man made the descent down the Planes, and Eye as Venus was taken out of the last rib, as his feminine principle.

For then he was as an Anthropomorphic Egg, a fluidic creature with a spirit mind, drawing all unto itself. Then as Venus came forth, it became a creative mind. Thus the atom in the sternum bone, which regulates the rise and fall of the breath, as the soul extracts more from its capacity to nourish the wisdom gained, is the mystical Seed of the soul creation. That which was, in the beginning, as an Emerald, the mighty wealth of Shamash.

But now, is as a Blood-Red Ruby, the glorious atomic wealth of the Fatherhood. The unification taking place in the Thymus, where there is the unification of depths and heights of the soul, which orthodoxy has forced man to forget.

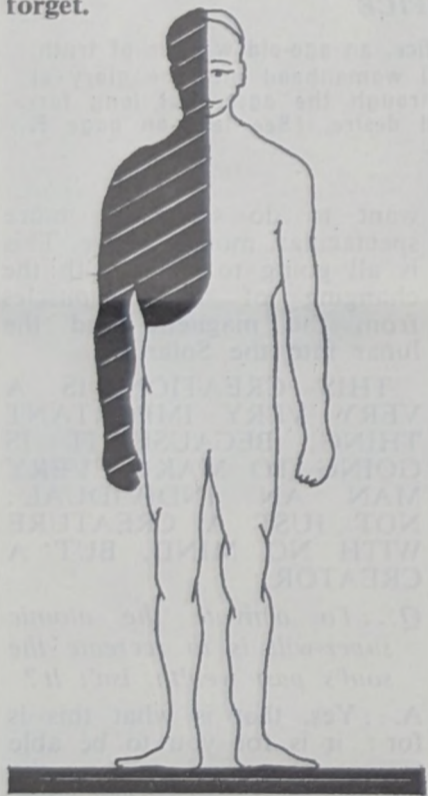

The soul going back to its god-like creation, but now as a Pube on the Plane of Vega, a complete creation within itself. Carrying within the scabbard of the chromo-sternum bone, an atom of the King's FIRE.

Sternum Bone

This being brought about by the Virgin's wave-band bringing chromatic changes upon

This is the mystery of the sword and the scabbard, where the scabbard is of more value to the soul than the sword, for it holds the secret of life.

THE following questions were asked at the Wednesday lecture of February 26th 1969, by a newcomer to our Teachings, although he is an experienced occultist. We considered that the questions showed considerable insight and depth of understanding of the Great Work that Merope is performing, and thus decided to publish them. The Master is, of course, answering the questions.

Q... Am I correct in stating that Merope has more spiritual influence than any other higher authority?
A... Yes.

Q... She has been given control of this Earth, and been told to put it right spiritually?

A... Yes, she is the Scapegoat, but I am very pleased my son, that you have recognised this, because it means that the Divinity is completely established.

Q... So Merope is really the negative aspect of this Earth?
A... Yes.

Q... The positive aspect would have been Michael, but he was disposed of?

A... Yes, she now has become the Voice of Divinity, for Divinity is speaking through her.

Q... So Merope is now shouldering the burden of Michael?
A... Yes.

Q... She is the incarnated one whom we know as Mary, who has given birth to the Christ?

A... Yes, she gave birth to the Intelligencia, the Heavenly Christ, and so became as the Christed One herself, upon the Earth.

Q... Then the Christos is in charge of the Solar System, with Merope in contact with the Christos, and thus in charge of the Earth?

A... Yes, the Intelligencia is of course the Central Sun, and not a ball of fire as so believed.

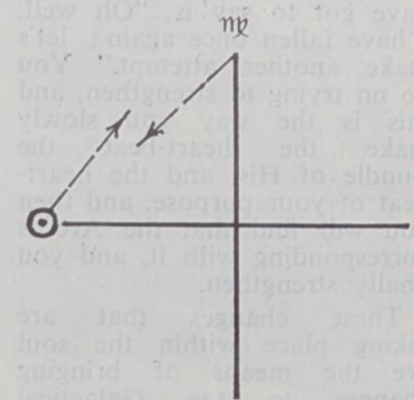

Q... So Merope now has the right to say "I KNOW," just like the Spirit?

A... Yes.

(See plate on page 9)

The sword being the Uranian Fire, that sparking glory that man cast down into the waters. This now has been retrieved by the Scapegoat, who has lifted every man up onto the Virgin Plane, once he can accept these truths as the hidden mysteries of LIFE.

o'clock, there is the period when there is NO recording of TIME. This is where the Sun and Virgo meet as they pass over their path in the heavens.

The Divine Seasons

IT has only been by following these inflowing seasons as periods of union with the Gods, that I have been able to get through with my wisdom as a Teacher and a master. For as a certain period is due, I make sure that I am on time with the Gods. The majority are 'miles' behind and are out of keeping with the Gods and their inflow; because now the streams are positive.

Let me give over once again, there never was a Jesus Christ, because for any man to be Christed, Pluto would have had to be reigning. Instead of that, he was in the underworld where man had sent him. The Astrological Embodiment that came down in A.D.33, was a configuration that met no response, and merely became embodied into the Desire Body of the Earth. Man's hopes and beliefs, as unto the Bible, which we are putting into operation for the first time.

Christmas-TIDE is the culmination of all that man has gathered over the last ten months, from March to December, and sent back up to the Gods as his spinning quota of the atoms, which they sent down to him in the Breath. On the night of the 21st of December, between 12 and 6

They kiss and go on their way. In those six hours, the Horae send down to the earth, the Christmas gifts for all who sent up to the Gods their weaving for those last ten months. You can only take of this manna if it is yours to take.

Then you have material to start off the coming year, for this is the mythical story of Father Xmas, not just a child's story, but for an Occult grown up. If you get this planted in your own earth by March the 21st, you have a field of "Green Ears." This is the month of Abib, the month of "Green Ears," when the soul has buried in all that was sent up to the heavens in December, that in January and February it matured as the spiritual Arc of the soul.

Fish gather in the pool of spawning waters, where either all goes over into Aries the mind, or falls down into the labyrinth, the underworld between the 12th and the 8th houses.

It is in Aries, the ever accruing mind of the soul, that the crucifixion takes place, when the wealth taken, which is of the Solar Blood, is buried into the mind of the soul, to be crucified in human daily ritual. The cosmos received it first on December 21st and what was sent up went into the Solar glory as Intelligencia. If it was worth while, and could get round to March 21st, it became the mind body of the soul itself.

By this, surely it can be seen why everybody is in the state they are, the amount of crime in the world, the sodomitical state of religion, and the number of priests leaving religion day after day. And perhaps we might add, why the Occult Gazette, supported by Divinity and the Gods, has lasted eight years off its own bat! Even the dumbest of souls must know what is involved to keep a paper surviving, while it either catches on, or dies.

March 21st starts off the mind New Year, when the Horae from Xmas has been rooted and is sprouting. For Aries is the pioneer, with the Sun exalted in his influence. It does not matter what you have on the cusp, it is the Aries MIND house, influenced by another sign, which gives you your lesson for this life.

I have Leo on the first house, my lesson was to learn to become a Priest with a sacred heart. The first house rules the personality, which now is far more important than ever before, because all men have been lifted up onto the Virgin Plane, and this personality is the mind growth that will establish the soul's immortal road of the future.

Activity of the Elements

TO those who find all this difficult to follow, first try to comprehend of how man is fed by the Breath. Then accept the fact that the inflowing Elements feed the soul, where he draws from certain signs those influences which help to mould him into shape. Every sign has affinity with its polarity sign, and the soul as a magnetic creature draws the power into his being, and wrestles for the mastery. This is fulfilled in the husbandry of the soul...

The soul stands in the centre and ionizes the powers into his being, and becomes born of the heights, which are Divinity. These have their seasons and are a fulfillment. The planets in these segments or houses with certain numbers, indicate as to what degree you have mastered of these powers.

While the square, □ trine △, or opposition ♂, is the difficulty still to master.

By these you are moulded into life, bringing the Spirit divinity into the soul, through the pleromic spectrum. The first house being the house of the personality, and the means whereby you grow your mind. This you exercise and build up by study and contribution to the heavens, by sending back LIGHT in new-found beliefs.

This replenishes the Intelligencia as the Central Sun, which sends down greater blessings in the Breath. But unless you embrace the seasons and comply at those periods with them, you are at variance with them, and do not become lifted up by their sustenance.

You do not become a slave to them, but work in harmony with them. I am sure the article this month should help everybody with the importance of being in harmony with them. Then you walk in harmony with Divinity, and later on can become Christed under their Atomic freedom.

For every man is a Christ unto himself, whereby he would start to master the Outer World Planets and become automatically born. These are the workers for Divinity, and hold the wealth of time, yet all coming about by unification, bringing everything in the soul to a unified state, a one-pointed state of balance.

It was not a myth when somebody composed a song regarding the Easter Bonnet. A new mind with lots of purpose, raised up onto a new Plane of ascension. The three days in the tomb, is the blankness of changing over, and then escaping from the density of matter, into a more free state of thinking and acting. While Mary is the Virgin mind who recognises the Christos state within the soul first. She still holds within her hand the box of ointment, or wisdom, that she used to make the transformation of the feet to the mind.

For as a soul so treads it into the earth, does it spring into the mind rebirth. Again the mystery of the Buddha getting up and walking, this being just the mundane explanation. The deeper cosmical interpretation, is where the Orion MAN, the full birth of Orion, is buried into matter, and now risen up as the heavenly created ONE.

It never was born in man, because man has never accepted the truth regarding the mystical depth of the YOD. He was and still is, deeply imbued with the belief that his passions were for generation through the flesh. The birth of the god as the descended Norm, was not to take on flesh, but MIND, as he now will do as he becomes etherealised.

While the down-pouring Element of Fire was to elevate the MIND Plane, whereby the soul sends his passions up as Spiritus Air. By this he would have set a mind into action; instead he merely lived upon the earth plane of thought, building up layers of mind growth. Therefore, when the Embodiment made its descent, it flooded the earth and man started to become impressed, for he was then far more psychic than he is now.

But with the desires so heavily impregnated within the soul, it was much easier for papalism to put the Embodiment on the cross, than man himself. So it gave them every opportunity to build up a religion from a sentimental point, thereby catching the sympathies of the gullible mind.

DIVINE BEAUTY

GIRT with the glory of the sword, the virgin was primed to go forth as the warrior to open the way to Divinity; and the king as he beheld, marvelled in abundance and prepared the course ahead. For the virgin was now completely united, carrying the Ankh in her hand. (See text on page 8, col. 4).

Those who were nearest to the truth, were a certain sect of Nazarenes who recognised the REAL truth, and began flagellated research. Papalism first put them into prison, then finding themselves short of wisdom, brought them out and sainted them.

Later, one who gave a very fine and true Occult recording of the Embodiment, was Thomas Mallory, who wrote what he did in prison. Then after he finished his Morte d' Arthur, he was allowed to publish it through Caxton, the first printer, providing it was made over to orthodoxy. This he did, to get his beloved work to the readers of the Nation, who were very few at that time. But he never lost the Occult under-bearing, which is very clear to an Occultist.

The Occult Husbandry

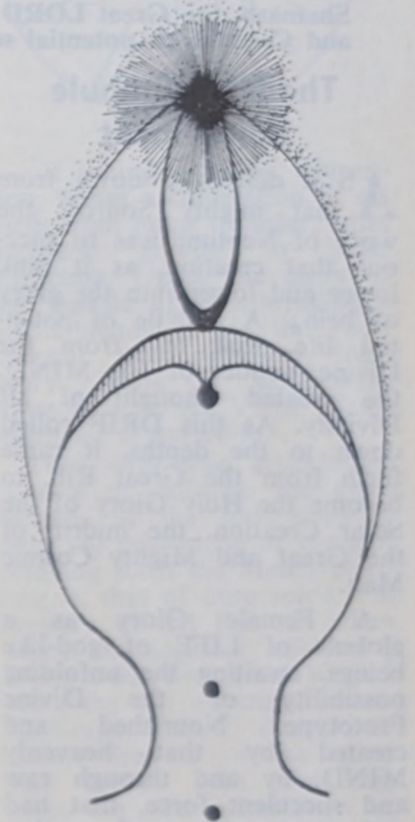

IT was not until the Second Advent in 1962, when another configuration took place, that I, Merope, awakened to the full truth. Everybody predicted war, while I awakened to the fact of my incarnation, and the meaning of the Work I had started and had to finish. Realising that one ever has to go on, even though not understood, until the truth is recognised. In fact, if man was to follow the pattern as laid out in the Bible, he would find all the Occult Husbandry he requires.

In the legends of the Christ, and how man can get Christed, the one who has mastered asks, "Who am I," and when declared that he is a Christ, he then can assume the title. Somebody had recognised the assumption that he had tried and won through on. So, as the Heroes had their legends, Medo-Persia had theirs, and orthodoxy wrote theirs. They took a group of scribes, and the most likely stories were accepted, but are only legends. This is what is causing so much controversy in the church at the present moment, its lack of true foundation.

what you cannot tell. The next date is around May the 1st, when you must get your Fires activated, so as to rejuvenate the mind. But whatever you do, spin your mind up and down, polarising all you can. For it is a Mind World now, nothing of the past is to prevail, unless it is polarised. If a thing is yellow, then make it gold, but you will then have to labour to make it gold, and prove it.

Now having said all this, it must be made clear that all this applies in its yearly seasons unto the man who has not yet created his infinity, and VERY FEW have, if any.

When the soul responds to the Virgin Plane and begins to create towards the Solar Glory, he then finds himself spinning up on the Metric system of Ten. Then it is that he starts to draw from the Central Sun, with the gods now in the soul's own meninges feeding and ruling the soul, through the Theocratic government. Although for the time the soul husbandry will survive until the soul is completely etherealised, and starts taking on of its Pube state.

At the present moment, the Divinity has entered into Matter and is being nurtured into active life in the density of matter. Therefore everything is in the offing, for the Virgin Plane is one sheet of Virgin Snow. This is esoterically of course, but accounts for why we have literally had snow. Now the Sun is shining, the Great Divinity is born into matter, and NOBODY on earth can alter it.

By man changing and bringing the Solar Glory to bear upon its frozen state, it will melt, and shoots will begin to sprout. These are the changes and rebirth of reorientation that will take place in the next two years. It will be by the means of man opening the mouth of his own gods, that they will make the way for Divinity to speak through them on earth.

Therefore, in timelessness, what soul drives into action, will stand him in good stead for the special moments of unity with the Gods. I do hope this will help you, but much more is to come as the year goes on, for changes now are going to be fast and furious. Man will find himself changing in thought and belief, and will believe things that he never thought he would.

ENDO-GENESIS

The Internal Birth of Divine Consciousness

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This Lecture was delivered by The Lord of The Flame at the S.U.P.H. on 10th November, 1968.

AS THE HEAVENLY WONDERS UNFOLDED THEIR GLORIES, DIVINE beauty began the order of the day, for Pluto as the royal son of Chaos, the first-born of the Elements, came forth as Orcas the Nebula Fire, and drove the issue wild. With Neptune as the Divine Pearl of radiant beauty, breaking away from the glory of the Heights, and as a beautiful globule of Holy lustre, slowly descended down. The mighty Shamash, the Great LORD of the Holy Waters, sent forth His Thoughts radiant and divine, and Creation as potential soul, was born into the World of Abyss.

The Mind Globule Unfoldment

AS it descended down from that mighty Source, the work of Neptune was to succour that creation, as it sank lower and lower into the glory of being. A globule of potential life, that fell from the Divine wonder of His MIND, the created Thought of all Divinity. As this DRIP rolled down to the depths, it came forth from the Great Rib, to become the Holy Glory of the Solar Creation, the midriff of the Great and Mighty Cosmic Man.

A Female Glory as a globule of LIFE of god-like beings, awaiting the unfolding possibility of the Divine Prototype. Nourished and created by that heavenly MIND, by and through raw and succulent force, that had to be woven into soul creation as a potential mind-being born out of the Womb of Ages. Thus nourished by those dynamic Elements, the rudiments of that mighty Galaxy of Nebula Glories unseen.

Ever watched and nurtured by the Mighty Shamash who was bringing forth of the Solar Glory, that would continue the next phase of this mighty act. Thus Neptune as the Source of this unfolding Wonder, watched the Creation in that eternal Globule becoming more and more of potential glory.

Radiant with colour, lustre and beauty, shimmering with holy possibility, as the Feminine creation of that Heavenly wonder descended down into the depths of the Waters. All born of the ethereal creation of what is now the form solidification, and a fortress establishment of that globule mind immensity.

With every Celestial Being, the mighty MIND of those Unseen heights, breathing their Glories into that Globule propensity, as it became more and more the born divine Prototype of those created depths. Then Venus, the glorious Vestal Virgin of the Pleiadic heights, was sent to nurture them into action. For in creation every organ and potential for this creation is to emulate the Cosmic Man, and bring a living active mind into a prototype of Abyss creation.

Wondrous and intricate workings, as delicate as the lustre on the globule itself, manipulated and fed by the Royal Holy MIND of that Unseen Fiery Driving action in the Nebula Mysticum. But Beauty only known to Venus, gentle and radiant as those dancing Waters, who was striving to activate that mighty Fiery Force, which in descending to the depths, had only chilled, and fallen into a rock-like creation. Thus Merope as the Venus Goddess, the active weaving glory of the Heights, was sent forth from the active depths of that Fiery glory, to descend and set that Globule into motion, that it could begin to unfold its mighty internal wonders, and bring them into blossoming life.

As Merope sent forth to the mighty Antares, the active driving potential of Divinity, he sent down a shaft of Generative Glory, with its internal mysteries yet to be revealed. As the Heavens shot fire, the whole Being of LIFE trembled, with ranting and chaos bursting everywhere, driving all it touched into active motion.

As it descended, changing the proceeding momentum, Mars the Element of those Holy Waters, pierced the whole of being with its Fire. Sending sensory vibrations through that stationary globule, that set into motion minds of active desire. What should have danced with Holy Glory, into vibratory sensitivity, ran wild among the raw Elements that were renting the Abyss into a shivering density.

As much as Shamash tried to hold those Waters, the more he found himself slipping. With creation in that depth getting wilder, renting the Virgin into multiplicity, as she strove to steady the wild immensity. All, still as the ethereal glory, slowly losing its divine beauty, with those Fiery Waters set into action, and every Element now the canting Breath. Thus feeding the Globule, fast changing in action and motion, taking on the manifestation of the Pube, with growth and desire in every shape and form, carrying them down deeper and deeper into the depths of the solidifying Waters.

For it set into motion the Water Plane, an element that should have been of active fluidity, and not torrents of deluge that ravaged the Virgin into rancorous annihilation.

All becoming more and more literal as it sank deeper and deeper into the Cancer depths, with Shamash falling from his lofty throne, and giving birth to that of Saturn. Here was the great mystery of LIFE. Was this the mis-manipulation of Venus, or the FALL of the Angels, with the Globules as the victims to Mars interpenetration. With Lesath driving them wild in the active creation of becoming.

A problem that has never been solved as Creation began in the depths of the Waters, taking on of a crawling creature, carrying his whole creation upon his back. With Neptune now as the LORD of the Waters, with the whole of his mighty wealth the glory of that vast Ocean bed. Yet the Pearl, the Seed that started off that mighty creation, safely housed in a mysterious shell creation, a sleeping function in a skull immensity.

Lost for a moment in those mighty Waters, deep down at the bottom of the tide. Yet creatures coming forth of untold immensity, the mystery born out of that globule unfoldment. With mind, as the means of self-preservation, the means of becoming and begetting, growing more and more into "I want," and "must have," the Cancer desire of Woman.

a glorious world into being, to now merely turning the world into a creation of Babel. Using the prototype in the lowest degree, bringing forth Nations of divers tongues, confusing the issue of life, by seeking ever to gain power over one another by everlasting strife.

Hence, what had been sunk into the depths of creation, becoming the prototype of tomorrow, the possibility to come forth. The internal depths of Divine Consciousness, lost until man awakened, yet born of every faculty that would make him a mighty king, and not a giant of flesh and desire. The Polyphemus of the one eye that failed to see the true purpose, but ever agitating into life.

involved-in, unifying by Word and treading-in. Filling the heavens with cosmic rebirth, driving the Galactical glories into major action. Raised the Sine and rose the Solar Glory up to the heights of the Arc; then went down into the depths, raising Pluto up to his lost glories, declaring the true purpose of the Holy Fire.

Thereby placing Antares into the glory of the Central Sun, as she declared its intrinsic purpose, the Holy Waters of Neptunian glory now the spinal fluidity of active heavenly rebirth. That which was intended to give birth to the mind, with the Fire Plane that would bring the Holy Glory of Divine Consciousness into the Royal Palace of mind creation. Yet on she went, heeding none, battling with internal problems, driving the issue in all directions. Setting the Chakras whirling and revolving, with their vibrations becoming the risen frequency.

Then she tore down the papal regime, which was crippling the way of unfoldment, placing the true course of unfolding glory, through the Heavenly Word. Raising up the Planes that Woman could rise, carrying all who were ready to make it, up through the Siren-bent road into the heavenly meninges.

By raising all up to those heights and she boarding the Stream, she gave unto the gods in the arachnoid web of active life, through the Hydroxyl Breath. For she had gone out onto Outer Space and brought down the glorified Ethers, taking the ionising through her own bloodstream, raising up the immensity of frequency.

Even the Central Sun became her glorified Waters, opening up the petrified NORM into a rarefied Pomegranate, rich and luscious with fruitful mystery. Seeds rich and rare to now come forth, drawing in one Element after another, as it became deserted by the fallen Phaeton. Finally drawing in a Neptunian Quoit that gave full vent to the Source of the mouth, unfolding her depths of wonders.

NEPTUNE

THE mystery of the Deep at last brought to light by the work of Merope. For the Lord of the Heavens, the risen up magnitude, is the mighty wonder of unfolding Light. All the glories that were born with life, safely restored to its heavenly glory. (See text in col. 2).

For the true intent and purpose had lost its bent, with Elements pouring down, continuing their intended purpose. Wild ravishing states that ever continued with life unfolding rapidly. Then Oannes, the soul coming up out of the Waters, beginning to create of a mind, from out of the boiling passions. For here was soul as Nebula to man, coming forth from the depths of creation, with mighty beasts as the prototype of the human creation, born from those wild and rugged waters. For nebula ever fed the soul and nurtured it under its impending possibility, with Saturn now as the driving tempter, to try and retain his once heavenly glory.

The Fallen god now as a lost being in a solidified creation of ten mighty Rings, with a mind bent on war and dice. Thus took the lead in every soul, holding it fast to the depths, hampering it by the Deed of gravity, with Lesath forcing the deed of desire. Angry that such a mighty Divine Potential was ravaged and rent with bestial desire, creating beasts of every description.

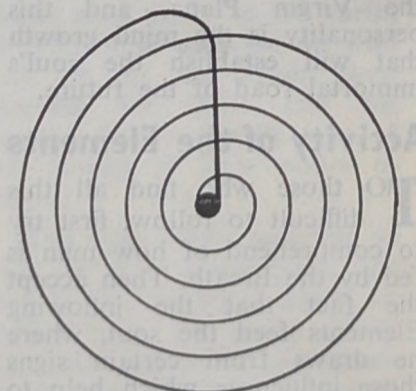

Opening of the Norm

THUS man slowly grew, but half beast and half man, with what could have been royal, an unfolding earth creation. That which began with such Royal intent, to bring

For man now was a blind propensity, tilling the soil in the depths. Ever stung by the urge of Lesath until he could behold the reason why, and stride forth in possibility to be. With Woman as now the creative Source in the depths, urging man on to become, ever carrying out the covenant of her error, beholden to man and not Divinity, she being too low in frequency. For by Merope as Eye, and Shamash as Saturn, a mighty problem was created, with desire as multiplicity increasing, carrying the Source wide and forgotten.

All the time, the mystery of his heritage becoming lost under death and rebirth. Then papalism confusing the issue by creating a deity dead on a cross, which stoned the human race completely into immobility. A sect of beings whose sole thought was 'perfecting the tower of Babel'. With them as the ruling lords, to claim the totality of all-being. But ever forgetting Merope who had trailed the depths, to seek for means of rebirth. Knowing that the Waterman, the might and possibility of Relativity, would open up the fiery way for that mighty Atom to blossom forth.

Therefore, at the appointed hour, Merope as the Cosmic Scapegoat, entered into the breach, with man a mighty Nimrod in his lost glory, waiting subconsciously for the moment of true celestial rebirth. Thus Merope gathered up and Glories only known to Merope, but anguish and pain rent by frogs and leeches that failed to make the quantum. Then when all was ready and electrified with heights and depths completely united, Merope was shown the welt of her power, the LAW of earth and heavenly creation. A Mother of the gods, with the Divinities attached, all eager to begin the burnishing of the Great Work that she had set into motion all alone. A might and wonder even beyond the conception of the Gods, for endurance beyond human creation had been her excelling glory.

No man could match her; she stood for nought, and set the Prototype for all time. But the next step was to awaken man from his besodden state, riddled solely with the thought of self, completely under the ruling of Saturn; lost to the holy purpose of Neptune and the glorified sparking of Uranus.

Embrace of the Fires

YET in the internal depths of man, the glory of creation was divinely born of profound and mighty wonders. That now, in the spirit coming forth by the actions of Merope, was it the germinating of the Orion man, with and through the divine quintessence of light. That set into motion by Merope's struggle, as the reborn Cosmic Man, but now as the Divine Intelligencia, the risen up glory of Divinity. That raised up by the Word as the glory of the unified Elements, the mighty wonder of unfolding light, with man's alchemical possibilities, the fructifying mystery of the deep.

The spirit being the involved nebula glory as the wonders of the "IT", that as it reached the Norm glory, became the quantum of glorified LIGHT. All having become the internal eternal Robe of heavenly in-born beauty, unknown and unseen by the "unborn" man, yet the body of divine wonders that are the means of giving to soul of its eternal continuity. That which will suffice soul, until the full seeding of immortality begins its wonders in the depths.

The means whereby man can live and become in his unfolding growth of heavenly substance unto its divine glory. For these internal beauties are the divine consciousness, which should have been created long, long ago, when soul decided that the way of earth experience was the road of his becoming. For every soul in spirit glory is aware of the possibilities of incarnation and its hopes of fulfilment.

Hence a man from Bozrah with his garments dyed red which now have to be cleansed and awakened. Lifting up his head out of the sleep of desire, a hypnotised Endymion. One under the drug of the waters, the glory of Selene's moon-light beauty. Thus it is this Path of Awakening that man is now treading in these mighty investigations into the mysteries. That as the interpenetration proceeds, will a fiery body be perpetuated and duly opened up.

For where man has been indolent and desire-ridden, has it ever remained as a lunar creation, with half-cocked interpenetration in divers directions. Hence man now at a state of chaotic growth, seeking the way to become balanced, and subconsciously seeking to find his way 'back home.' Unbeknown to himself seeking to become divinely born, through that inner consciousness of divine glory leading the conscious mind into immediate and active revelation, through the deep and fiery waters.

Yet a road recreated by Merope, through the elevated raised-up fiery glory of the Word, bringing the Orion MAN into birth out of the endless chaos. The wonder of divinity created by the spinal activity, bringing the endocrine expansion of the sensitised pneumatikon body manifesting Orion, as the unified atomic glory of divinity. The ever rebirth of the Phoenix as the ever expanding Word, born out of the All-consuming Fire, the divine sacrificial LOVE of Merope.

The internal glory lies in the secret parts, hidden by man in his seeking of sensory glory. Where transformation from earth to divinity takes place in the embrace of the Fire through the mastery of Word creation.

Belief and assumption being the ascension, where the Fire is the assimilated act. Firing the soul by spirit creation, and not merely knowledge as raw power, which fills the soul with false witness as the glory of the Lotus eater. That which calcifies and stones the internal wealth within the soul, leaving it with merely nebula fire, and not the glory of the spirit. That which has not been truly alchemicalised into radiant glory by conscious acceptance of light and truth, and returned as glorified aspiration to the heavenly heights.

ENDYMION

AS Endymion slept away his hours, Selene sought to awaken him, but the more she did the more Endymion fell to her enticement, and his sleep was strewn with festoons of silvery light. It was only when Merope awakened him, and called him to the glory of his soul purpose, that he arose and sought the upward direction. (See text in col. 1).

With the renunciation through mind and deed of those states no longer applicable to the life, through re-assimilation and a greater and broader comprehension. Saturn transmuted and a Solar point gained towards the final unification of the glorified androgyneity.

Yet all a state of Fire being assimilated, as the land of Divinity being adopted in the glory of the Orion MAN. The re-embellished Sun in Scorpio, which raised all up to the glory of manifesting Holy Fire. With every man having to follow the lead, or suffer the pangs of chaos.

The soul realising the answer to Abraham's riddle in Merope abiding by the Uranian flash from the mysterious Norm, and returning and awaiting the next diffusion. Not receiving, as Abraham, the Fire from the land of Ur, where he went forth in the quest of its beholding, but only built the multiplicity of starry thought, and not the Solar beauty of Divinity.

He received the clue, but looked into the mirror of reflection, losing the Archimedes ladder of union. Only taking the picture of reflection out of the thread of awareness, and not seeking the greater perception. Therefore must ever be seeking for the innerness of the Fire, the internal nucleus of Divinity. Yet the soul, once he truly finds this glory, comprehending the secret of the curvature of the Arc, as the extent of the internal divine radiance.

It being the fulness of the Metric Cycle in its perception, and truly acclaimed. Thereby bringing forth the light within, as the oil drawn forth out of Azoth. Where HERE and NOW becomes the wonder of tomorrow, and the prototype of creation becomes involved once again into the glory of the Begotten. For here we see the virgin growth blossoming in the Field of Skulls, thereby learning the lesson of compensation, the redemption of the Fire drawing forth of the secret of the curvature of the Arc, finding the glory of its Holy Ascension.

The Glory of Rebirth

FOR the internal rebirth of Divine Consciousness is the glory of the heavens coming forth as the divinity of light, now feeding the glory of the fiery glory, but in the endocrine chain, glandular juices and functions where metabolism pours its glories into those fiery depths. As well as in the possible Chakra elevation, with the NORM awakening in the heights, beginning the path of Transcendental Glory, the infusion of heights into the depths. With the marrow of the bones also holding the transforming glory, from Saturn into Solar elevation.

With the drip running off the sixth rib, which is seen as a floating rib, and that which gives birth to creation. That which, just on the point of completion from heights to depths...

...if swung over by conception, brings a completion of rebirth from lunar to Solar, from magnetic gravity to Solar attraction. Hence the glory of the Bundle of His bringing a pitche-blending of the new thought into complete Solar glory. Being of selflessness, gives birth to the Virgin Flame when all is buried-in.

Thus with true articulation, is able to maintain the Open Mouth, as the soul rises up onto the new plane of thought, bringing forth the Metric phenomena, that of pure spirit. The mystery of the Rib of Adam, where the negative creation as Woman was ever given birth. It being the full expansion of the diaphragm that draws the atomic fire out of the spleen that blends with the drip, when the soul is able to expand and bring forth the fulness of the breath.

The Hydroxyl Breath

THIS is where the wonders of the Fire are going to produce its internal divine message, that by Timelessness all channels will produce their secret glory as the soul makes the elevation of heavenly ascension. It is by this that the soul is fed from its own internal source, ever grinding out the problems that can become heavy and provocative, unto a karmic yoke.

Thus Kali in a poverty-stricken state, with all hopes of redemption belaboured; for only by mastering the problems of life, will such be overcome, and the mortuary meal produced from the astuteness of mind. It ever being right from the beginning of time, that the Salamander of Fire has been recognised as the saving grace of obedience. For Fire can only come by the mastery of expansion; then complete fulfilment of the Law is made.

Unless that complete fulfilment is made, the wholeness of being is not enacted, and the soul able to pass the fire volatilisation into the internal creation, enhancing the light in the depths. It is this in its full volume of being which makes a fire-born being a mighty fire-driving Bull.

One drawing down the Stream of LIFE-energy and active Force of raw fiery Breath, transmuting it into alchemicalised glory, as power of considerable depth. Yet often received under many grades of descension, to rise up by active struggle and creative thought as light, unto those heavenly heights. That which must be assimilated, volatilised and transmuted into usable life-power, as its perception is duly recognised.

Hence the mastering of these Powers is the transforming of all into the power of Spirit, by the raising up of the mind into the glory of higher consciousness. The highest being Fire, which is the Fiery substance of Breath brought to Spiritus Air soul as an ever-revolving infinity of rebirth. That which had become to a degree of assumption, now to come forth once again on a greater degree of revelation. Thus Kali ever revolving the chain and treading-in on a most evolved radiance of perceptivity.

The soul a complete universe within itself, which will in time offer an unknown and unperceived glory to the heights, to widen and broaden divinity. A complete atom built up over Ages, with wonders that lie in the intense depths, which will only come forth as the soul masters, perceives and unfolds. For consciousness is wisdom and light to be drawn forth as doors swing open to the magic touch of knowing and becoming aware.

That which sets a revolution spinning within the internal hub of the soul consciousness, bringing forth the light into the depths, as the prototype of Creation. Hence every secret door must be opened, unless one by chance is jammed tight, an idiosyncrasy of the soul. Then the gods in the heights must seek to prise open that secret chamber, which may contain mighty wealth of deep and unknown origin.

Yet wealth if obtained, would open wide the windows to bring to the world at large, a dynamic breath of fresh Air. It was of this that Merope held much, for she had laboured diligently through many Ages, tried many ways of redemption, with her origin going back to far-reaching depths of her mysterious Fount. Thus everywhere is dynamic wealth, waiting to solve the mystery of the many problems of life now coming forth as the karmic sorrows of the past.

For this wealth lies, not only in the liquor sanguinis as its

Thus this mighty internal movement causing many states of action to begin, with wheels to revolve and bulbs to light up, bringing dynamic changes into birth. But all with a purpose of bringing a state of exudance of thought from the subconscious to the conscious mind, where the Holy Fire now takes a rise, and brings reborn light into birth. The spinning up from depths to heights, the soul seeking its ancient heritage.

As the mind begins to perceive, the light brought forth creates a new idea, with drips coming down from the heights onto the sternum, into the solar plexus, seeking to wear away another stone. Then maybe shatter it into fine sand, as the Solar light is born through a golden-pointed mortuary meal. Then a complete revelation is made, with such as Merope seeking through Outer Space, by the power of elevation of polarity.

Even in her pioneering adventure, seeking wealth from the "far beyond," the lost Horizon. That mystery still in the marrow of the bones, which can be extracted by the redemption of Shamash's wonders in the depths of the Vault. While Woman, as the depths of the magnetic, holding the wonders of the OS, being forced to renounce the ways of the earth, that the spirit can rise and manifest. Where the Metric Cycle will grind in and produce the golden points of light.

Yet here we see the "Drip" descending down by the sternum bone that governs the point of creation. For in the act of inspiration, an enlargement of the chest takes place. The upward and outward swing of the ribs and sternum, due to the contraction of the intercostal muscles. All this coincides with the drip and the beat of the heart, through the Bundle of His linking with the force of gravity.

First of all, what are the Horae? These are the six hours when the old year entered into the new and carried the wealth gathered in the previous year over to the next as it appeared. But actually this does not happen; in Nature the Solar orb takes back what it handed to her at the Vernal Equinox, so that a fresh supply of life can be sent down to man in the coming spring.

But man who is linked by wisdom and knowledge can at that period also draw from its great upliftment, or let it pass by and time not hand to you its riches: you were a soul devoid of having really existed, a non-entity. But actually in those times man did know of these things and never let these times pass by, and accounts for why man is so full of mysterious creations that now he does not know how to handle. He has got to learn, or else they will get completely out of hand.

These festivals have been borrowed by orthodoxy and turned into saint days. The only thing is, they failed to realise that they must not be altered of time and date, and instead of the Virgin embracing her Lord the Solar orb on the midnight of the 21st of December when she became pregnant with new life, they brought it to the 24th and missed the real impregnation. Consequently they never drew down the real wealth of the heavenly bodies but a false conception, which has resulted in an empty pot at the moment when a stream of Water was required to fulfill the task.

These festivals belong to the past; times when man believed in these Powers coming down; he gathered these powers and he danced to these powers; he respected them and he bowed to these powers because he knew the wealth of them, but he knew at certain times that these powers came to the earth and he drew them down.

But orthodoxy know of them, and they know the value of them, but to avoid the ordinary layman drawing down of the power of the elements they have turned them into saint days, which caused those worshipping of the saint to draw the powers down into religion and not into themselves. Now you can understand why my Instrument has spent such a lot of time fighting the black forces, for they have done everything to seek to destroy her.

The power gathered at midnight on the 21st has been symbolised in such myths as Cinderella, a fairy story that has never died; then you get Jack and the bean-stalk for spring, when Jack as the hero goes out to get the power from the heights, but the giant within comes out and seeks to kill. And so through the ages these powers that were gathered up by TIME, and garnered within the soul, became stories in the same way as your Scriptures.

When man becomes the little boy and gets down to understanding the real depth of himself, will he begin to rearrange the powers gathered with him and live life as intended in the beginning. The old bogey imposed upon man, that all this was superstition and that only religion was the truth, has done more damage than the myths running wild; for this is a silent depth that is deep and complicated and deeply embedded by fear and superstition worse than the myths could have ever installed. If this can be taken and seen truly and well, it will do much to prepare the soul for what is lying ahead in the depth of the Aquarian revelation.

The neglect of the odd hours of the 365 days (but remember it is 365 $\frac{1}{4}$, and the four quarters make the day) has a curious and remarkable result. To get some idea of this it will require the interpenetrating mind to see the real depth to be drawn forth. Let us start with the New Year's Day at the winter solstice when, at the end of four years, the festival day comes one day sooner, causing an erroneous conception of the power being delivered: and after all, how are the heights going to deliver their wealth but through the elements?

But what we have to see is, that at the end of eight years it would be two days sooner, and at the end of 120 years a whole month sooner, if you allowed it to pass. It would be a month earlier than the shortest day: a Sothic Year being equal to 1460 ordinary years, one Sothic month is equal to 120 years. So eventually you are all this time out: you have lost all this power.

If you made out a chart and let the months have 30 days each, you will find that your New Year's festival, after taking 120 years to move backward through December, entered into the 121st year in the month of November. You have missed all that time: so now what has happened to all these years through religion? You can see what they have lost. In three times 120 years it reaches the autumn equinox; then as the winter festival of the calendar reaches the autumn equinox, the autumn will arrive at the summer, and the summer at the spring and vernal at the winter.

Everything is twisted one quarter round by the erroneous calendar, bringing it in 365 years half-way round; so man is badly out. Therefore, for both gods and men to find their way through such a calendar would be most perplexing, and the wisdom of the ancestors would not be safe to follow. By this, one means one's own inner guidance, for man and his ancestors are one long stream of life.

Now, if you are all out in time and you have not the wisdom, how can you link up with all those states of the past and give them relativity? We are leading you backwards through the wisdom; we are trying to give you the under-which are now within you as a burning seething pit. Jump into that pit of fire; be burnt anew, and come forth as a new-born soul by determination go forward.

In the past the soul sought of the priest who was not only the astronomer and ruler, but also received the wisdom from the heavenly ones. Since man in the past created these conditions, they became living creations in the heavenly bodies' establishment. They be-from; and furthermore, sufficiently infrequent to become the subject of legend or myth. While the quarter-points were also epochs of such consequence as to leave a mark on history, for when the summer festival came to be held on the day of Nature's vernal equinox, many were set thinking and sometimes stirred up to mend the calendar, or even reform it altogether: (for in the vernal equinox you have the heavenly fire, to descend and cause the shoots to come forth; it should not be the summer solstice).

Ancient days really held some wealth for human life and man was not just a hunk of dead life, but a living creation of wealth and fire. The first days of the Sothic months of 120 years each, which never came more than once in a king's reign or a man's lifetime, were of utmost importance, and prepared days of high festival.

At the present moment this is a high festival, for the whole of Time and Relativity is being divulged. This is the uniting of the pipeline. Tonight is a Great Festival. Powers of Truth are being given to you in wholeness and completeness.

So to get this clearly marked in the minds of all, if you had a Sothic Year starting with mid-summer, during the first 120 years the New Year's Day would be in June; and then for 120 years would occur in May. Each month being the heir and successor of this kingship, while the series became a dynasty of kings in the mythic creation.

It is no good man trying to over-ride this with modern ideas and ways, for he cannot lose what is his by law and order over the ages of constant fathering and garnerings: (he has been building up these states, but he has been building up evil kings, or kings of the magnetic field: they have not been solar kings, but giants within his own being). Even the quarter-points, epochs or intercalaries offered unusual ground for myths, for they exhibited the paradox of solstice and equinox in one place with two equinoxes in rivalry.

The Fields of Intercalary

Now let us have the plate on again of the magnetic field. Now this is where your (See diagram in cols. 1 & 2) intercalaries come into birth; these are the fields of intercalaries where you are spinning up the intercalary powers. In making the relativity you are building up the heights of the mind. The most important house is the house of Taurus; it is the richest house of all.

Gemini is a different state; it is where the two brothers stole the Fire as Prometheus and they brought Pandora which gave to man the re-deemed fire: he went forward into Taurus with all the powers that Prometheus gave him, the raw fire; and instead of spinning it up into true wealth, they created the great powers then of Egypt, enormous wealth, which was a replica of Atlantis: it was not the power of the Spirit; it was the power of the magician. We will deal more with that later on.

What we want you to do now is to try and understand that the equinoxes link with the state you see there of Aries and Libra; the solstices link with the depths and the heights, the winter and the summer: the summer is of the depths and the winter of the heights, when man goes up; and when he comes out of his 8th house he is going to carry it right to the heights; and there he labours in the ark of the mind.

The whole circuit of 1460 years required 1461 years for completion; some say, because a quarter of a day was left unattended at every annual revolution, so an extra day had to be put in before

ENDOCRINE UNFOLDMENT

AS Jack climbed up the prolific beanstalk, his amazement knew no ending. While there below Dame Little stood, trying to see the extent of the heights that the beans in the pasture had come to. A hero that now must prove his purpose, born out of the wealth of her mind. Therefore he must spin up higher and higher, that his beliefs can meet this culmination. Otherwise poor Jack will see the end of the ladle driving his head into activity once again. (See text in col. 1).

standing so that you can now make up for all you have lost.

Then what have you been doing, some of you, that you have wanted to kick against the power? You could not take the power. Why? You were being helped to find your way back that you could be born anew. It was not the power that was coming into the Temple; it was you refusing to labour. You have allowed it to go backwards and backwards, and all this power over these ages suddenly hit you broadside, as you had allowed it to pass by so much because you have lived entirely in desires.

The Divine Harmony

WE are helping you now to catch up with these powers. Even tonight, in this one Lesson, you are spinning over ages; you are jumping parasangs, if you are holding the power it is bringing. I am helping you to span the whole period of 13,000 years but that does not give you psychological and pathological states, neither does it take you through the geological.

We will take you through these if you will go with us with this knowledge in your mind as to the reason why you are spanning and bridging time, why you should labour and wrestle with it; why you should make sacrifices, why you should beat yourself and flagellate yourself for what you have done wrongly; why you have wasted the powers that were given to you and came existing powers, and the more strength man gave them the more he became a part of them, and man and gods are curiously intermixed, that gradually caused women to become witches, and men magicians; because they were caught up by the desires, and orthodoxy was turning their minds against them and they were being hampered and hemmed in.

Therefore it may answer the problem of the present age when there are master minds that are carrying out wholesale robberies under the very nose of the authorities themselves. This is but a small example of what can ensue when lesser minds get caught up with the swirling evil now set loose.

It is not this that will turn you into evil: it is releasing the evil within; you not struggling to subdue that evil, that is the trouble; or man going on taking the power—particularly of psychic power—grasping the powers, and they are bearing him down into the darkness. This is giving you enlightenment; it is helping you you to find your way.

There has had to be a counteracting creation of balance and discipline since religion has proved of no avail. Therefore use the same material, but under honour and creative purpose, with wisdom to lead it into birth. Then the immaculate conception will be a real issue on the 21st of December, and the sun-god, the true heritage of man and of which all men are seeking for, will come into birth within your own being; your own heavenly child, the solar-child.

The beginning of the Sothic Year was an important and historical event, an era to date beginning a new cycle. Every year the small portion of babe life was squeezed out and buried in the sands of time; but at the end of the cycle the scattered limbs were brought together and recreated into a manly form as were Osiris and Adonis.

Well you are that soul, with all the parts that have been created together; and you stand at the present moment as the man, the mind; but you are not attempting to try and see where all these parts are within you; what all these limbs represent.

If these are just stories, so are your Scriptures. No! the truth regarding the Sothic Year and its mysterious facts involved by time and calendar reckonings was no myth, but real facts placed into legend and story form which have, through the ages, been twisted and mis-represented by so many, as to lose much of their real wealth. But it does not alter the fact that the power and wealth is still there. But eventually all this was forgotten and degenerated into mere guides and cicerones who performed the sacred rites but did not study the philosophy and astronomy that went with it to make it workable.

When a soul is able to make relativity, they are able to bring you this wisdom that you are receiving at the present moment. This is what my Instrument has been doing; making relativity within herself, making a completeness to become a complete Vase; and we as the Powers made unity with the powers within her and brought you the wisdom. Some of you have enormous powers, enormous wealth; so look what you could do if you made your vase complete.

She is only an example, like Paul was; but now, as an ordinary simple soul, having lived a very hard life, which she brought to you in your Paper so that she could prove to you that she was nothing more than you are, in fact less than what some of you believe you are: she wanted you to see she was not the 'Big I am' but a simple soul who could, by these beliefs, unite and bring her ancient powers into birth; and when she did, she could recognise them without ego, in simplicity. And that is most important; without egoism, the 'Big I am'; by that you immediately kill your wealth and it becomes an abraxas, a strutting cock. Remain simple and labour for the Gods, and then you become one with the Gods and you become their pipeline.

It could have been a very royal time, but man did not realise of the truth, thus an advent was looked forward to that would restore the harmony between the calendar and the heavens. One did bring untold wisdom and it was earthed amongst the few. Then it was continued by those that called themselves the Early Fathers, to be taken up by a set of smart minds that twisted the powers to suit their own ends, and papalism resulted.

If man would only stop to think, he must realise that north, south, east and west are sure to assert themselves into the system of creation; and when you realise that the two solstices and two equinoxes are the four-quarter points of the year, one or the other has to be chosen for the year's beginning. Then there are the quarter-points, and they are bound to have corresponding significance; and when we say the cities and nations will not agree upon the different beginnings, surely you will begin to recognise that we are talking about the soul and its nations as organs and species who will be at variance in accepting the beginnings and festivals of the ecliptic.

No! The god who is the lord of the soul would have the New Year's Day festival, while subordinate divinities would have rival gods and systems; and this is what makes the soul in chaos until it can bring all under one calendar ruling and point of purpose. If you can see the four cardinal points as four stones or four pillars which have been marked by mythic stories, that will give you some fixity or rising point.

You have got the four important equinoxes at the base of the chart from Cancer to Aries: those are the four important points of the Sothic system, and they are the four cervical bones with the three on top that are going to be the ruling for the Aquarian Age in the future. It is these that raise the heaven of the mind, these four points, these four houses; Aries, Taurus, Gemini and Cancer; Mars, Venus, Mercury and the Moon.

with the third eye, making the complete nimbus within the soul, piercing the cerebellum: that is what you do when you invade the territory of the past.

I am bringing the power inside you now and it is trying to pierce its way up through those seven bones: some of you have allowed it to go through and its tongue is touching the in-going and the out-going; the two vagrant nerves, Ida and Pingala. The in-going and the out-going are the two caverns within the cerebellum,—your present day knowledge of the past. You are trying to put into one cavern the understanding, but take out of the other the past to make it relativity, to make it unity and make the bridge in your cerebellum.

plexus, and that is where he makes his sacrifice; in the belly; he either makes it that the belly is filled, and continually being filled, or he learns to sacrifice: he learns to rule his calendar and he makes his calendar in harmony with the gods; sacrificing on the altar stone of the desires of self.

The four columns must be seen as the four quarters, and would be the four brothers who raised the soul up to the heights, and links with the ancient world of rebirth and creation; and as you go through the myths you will find different seats regarding these rocks.

There was Syria, a blessed place free from hunger and disease, but under the turning of the sun. Then Trinacria, an island of the Sun where the heights; he moves it up to the heights by his struggles and makes it become his mind; and so he builds up the higher and lower mind within the soul until eventually the soul becomes a solar god in the whole span of the heavens and the abyss.

He knows the whole span of the heavens and the abyss; he knows the whole realm of the Father's kingdom and he labours for the Father's kingdom; he knows the whole wisdom of the Gods, the whole wisdom of Time. He knows how to deal with the states of man in his psychological problems; he knows what to tell him to do; not chop off a limb, not give him drugs, destroy his ductless glands and kill the power of the blood. No! he tells him what to do; to labour and get back to his rightful state. That is the only way to do it.

The Purity of Spirit

THE way they have been referred to may be the cause of man doubting now. They were once seen as the four islands that floated and became anchored. The very myths indicate that there is something deep in the birth of these four bones into life. To man they are just bones with sinew, blood and nerves, but they really hold the answer to the entry into the Aquarian Age when man starts to return into the mysteries of his own inner keeping. The four upper bones that hold up the head of the man to the heavens have been the means of transferring the animal into the man, and although still the animal-man, when mastered and completed will become the Man.

Once the fire had complete access as spirit purity; then when the Fire of Vulcan descended, it struck terror into the lower nations and they separated themselves away from the rest of the universe. Then the animal man existed in the true state of the word; but it is impossible to keep the spirit at bay, and it gradually asserted itself into its rightful category: it forced its way up the spinal column as the man sought to transpose life, and finally reached the last seven vertebrae that had to be conquered.

The first four were managed, but the last three were the complete prize of life: these brought the rebirth of Uranus, for it needed the mastery of the present mind memory that the past could be captured, and gives the clue to that which goes in as the other comes out.

First it would only be on the four cardinal points that the man would slowly find the upward poise and draw the fire away from the generative animal to the Generative Heights of the upper testes; then it would be as Ezekiel's cross in the mastery of the four animals that the next struggle would begin. The geographical description refers to the birth of continents when the north, south, east and west literally found new life.

Then each of the last three bones became the firmer foundation to hold of the medulla oblongata that controlled the ways of the past from the present (the last three bones). Man has already proved himself to be unreliable to hold the two worlds, so had to make himself worthy; the piercing of these three bones held the secret of the gods and would help to fulfill the command as made known in the Scriptures.

Trinacria was the name given to Sicily because of its triangular form; yet in truth it really is the three sisters who dwell in the depths and carry out all the secrets. These are the Parnassian nymphs who dwelt in Trinacria, the

THE MAYPOLE

THE depths of this mighty truth go far deeper than has ever been assumed, but man in his sophistication has lost the eternal depths. The theory is of a living tree and not from one lost in non-striving; for the bunch of foliage placed at the top indicated that every soul was a living tree, true pure-green wood, awaiting the solar blossoming. May Day was the time when the pole was burnt with the solar firing. This was set into motion by the dancing passions of the youth, firing their own pole into active unification. (See text on page 12, col. 1).

The History of Rebirth

FOR instance, the Babylonians called the calendar and zodiac the Stone of Foundation, while Delphi was referred to as the navel made of white stone; (your solar plexus, your lake of fire, the gnawing power of lions). The latter referred to the solar plexus of the soul, and the former to the spring equinox as the vertebrae at the atlas of the neck. These seven cervical bones are most important, with four of them representing the columns rising up into the dome, and unless they kept their place the seasons would invade one another. These four vertebrae are very important and play a very sturdy part in the soul's unfoldment and continuance.

Now you can understand why so many at the present time are having to wear spinal braces with a neck collar. They are refusing to make their relativity in the way they should do, and so the four bones are not holding up their neck so that their last three can do the final work of the triune-state; and that is the powers making their way up the spine and making relativity

Each one of these play some part with the past, for until each one was able to let through the fire that rises up to the heights there could be no continuance of mind comprehension. Stories regarding the Stone were not just stories out of the blue. In Rome where they had not entirely lost the wisdom and faith, they made oath upon the stone "Per Jovem Lapidem"; By Jupiter the Stone; expansion through the four cervical stones.

Then you get the stone swallowed by Cronos that was preserved at Delphi and anointed periodically. Rhea the goddess of life is concealed within that stone, or better still, the creative purpose and action of creation lies buried here: no stone, no purpose, and the soul just merely exists. This would only be understood by the initiate who has an urge to perform some real motive in life; they would have the stone alight in the solar plexus. Those who have no thought and proclaim themselves dead, have lost that light and the stone is a dead rock rushed by the waters.

Man's altar stone is where he has built up his solar sheep and oxen were tended by his daughters; while Ogygia became the navel of the sea which was the opposite point to Delphi, the Omphalos by the land. Then AEaea, the abode of the sorceress Circe.

There we have the dancing places of Aurora and the rising Sun. All this may appear to the modern man as utter fantasy. Yes! because he has built his body and forgotten all the details of its creation. But the building up requires the same food for its continuance, and that has been accounted for by the Lords of Creation by the reception gained in the two solstices and two equinoxes.

Now there they are; they literally are acting within the soul; but then you will realise they bring their polarity in the fields opposite, the magnetic fields. Man labours and moves them along. In the Vernal equinox man takes in the power and he moves it along so that in the Autumn equinox he reaps the power, then moves it up to see that it can become in relativity in the through the broiling in the depths. But when brought to the highest known quantum as light, and greater than known before, it can, by the transforming wealth of the nebula, become a constellation in the heavens by its astute recognition.

Therefore it is by the continual revolution of this internal spiritual creation, raising it higher and higher in mind perceptivity, that soul begins to blossom forth some of the revolving activity. Adding and intensifying by the instantaneous breath, especially when such has been drawn down to the degree of Hydroxyl, as now occasioned by Merope.

For by the same action has soul been raised up to the Virgin Plane, and the Ages of lunar misfiring redeemed. Now man is being Fired and raised up, ready and set to make the ascension into the greater of these inner bodies, to bring forth yet greater wealth and fiery god-born light.

Man is a universe and complete atomic atom within his own being, that created by Breath and mastery over Element creation. The greatest being where these Powers and Elements are transformed into an active commodity of life, and every soul breathes of its life-bearing creative purpose.

By Merope bringing down the Hydroxyl Breath, every man is forced to breathe in of FIRE; that which, in being alchemicalised, causes an internal implosion, lifting the soul up out of the depths. Thus the means of firing his inertia and stagnant inner bodies into fiery activity. Thereby setting into motion a fired purpose, whereby he will learn and become.

Yet all this as breath being received by the soul, and becoming a revolving propensity by Merope's enforced and raised up status of mind belief. Even unto the penning of the attributes awaiting man's acceptance and adoption. But through Merope having made this Cosmic Law, by its ascension surmounting all else, she was also the means of feeding man with the Word from the inner glory of her Ancient wealth being duly redeemed. But also the means of impregnation of the higher LAW into the lower Law, changing the context of the depths.

Now man who refuses to change, blind through the avidya of the TIMES, cannot help but be guided and led by the Law, whereby his own wealth can be stirred into action. Thus led and embraced by the newly-created propensity of LIFE, while standing on the Virgin Plane, unknown to his blurred mind.

Now can be the moment when man will find himself the proud possessor of a genius half-prepared. This being the endo-genesis of the near future, but confusion until man is guided and balanced by the Word, as created by Merope. That which she has sent forth as the explanatory guidance of the new creation. The wealth of the past now being reborn anew, by its polarity creation, with the experiences of TIME to add to its richness as it manifests in its Solar glory.

Man is hoping to capture the idea and thwart Merope's creation, but does not realise that the whole of the Element creation has been uniformly broiled, and Fiery light born and sent back up to the heights by Merope. Thus set into Cosmic Consciousness, returning in abundance to the depths, getting man ready for the greater issue of Divine Consciousness, the glorious Sea of MIND Radiance.

At the present man's achievement lies in utter simplicity, where he accepts the soul re-creation of life in its true basic, raising up the frequency of his desire-ridden mind. While Merope will go on spiritualising the issue gained from her long past struggle. For by continually ionising the Poles, will she bring into being more dynamic Solar points, as the mighty Transcendental inflow. A Source of inflow that is ever continuance and life-giving in a simple way, in every degree of the Elements.

ROOTS OF THE SOUL

AN unseen captive, held by the roots of past desires, bound and enmeshed in their density. A being of two ways, heights and depths, with the heart yearning for the glory of freedom, and the mind pulling towards those things that hold us a captive forever. (See text in col. 4).

Yet never forgetting that all is within man himself, with the Source of reception as the inner depths of the soul, that of the awakened NORM. Here the Neptunian glory of possibility is re-created, sent forth, and trodden-in by the depths, with the Plutonian divine anointment making it an attribute of the heart. This is the Pitche-blending that adheres it to the soul attributes, and makes it a shining radiance, when the soul awakens.

The Birth of Cosmic Consciousness

THIS is brought about by the chromosomes, the light 'bodies' of the soul, in changing from point to point, until the Orion Warrior becomes established in the revolution. This brings forth a changing of fiery uniformity in the ionising of the raw fire into spirit substance. In the chart measure, from the fifth to the eleventh, where the proceeding issue pours its unified immensity into the twelfth, and turns the fish into golden glory, lies the immensity of the mind.

Otherwise the Water-pot would be empty, and no fluidity would replenish the waters of the twelfth. This is the necessary fluidity required to transform the mind creation into a Fiery issue of intense golden light. Therefore, it is by the constant reflectory awareness of the Norm in its Wave Band issue, that worlds are encircled and rebirth within the soul is complete. This is where the Orion Warrior begins, for all now has to be claimed by prowess, the mastery of TIME and gravity.

Thus the continual converging of the NORM and the Central Sun in attribute of reforming wisdom, becoming Orion's electrical atomic path of renunciation, where the soul by the new adoption, perceives of that required, and that which must pass on to the crocodile. For it is in the Norm being equally unified with that powerful orb on Solar points of adoption, that the spirit is born anew.

For here we see the cutting away of the roots and the blossoming of the branch, with the bodies being unified into the World of Oneness. Thereby bringing forth the Voice of the Lamb as the OS magnitude as holy glory. This being but the greater action and deeper preparation brought into being by the glory of Outer World Space, the elevated frequency of the mind.

This now is where the god consciousness of the soul awakens, and begins to travel the New Colure Path, instead of the old alchemicalisation. The germinating of the Orion man, the risen up spirit deity, with the quintessence of Virgin Light. All taking place from the Fount to the Source by the medium of the Metric Cycle of the Holy Fire, firing man with truth, instead of lunar multiplicity of false Fire that would crown him with a crown of thorns.

While Virgin light is the pulsating of the Orion Chromosomes, as the transformed spirit consciousness into the Solar magnificence of greater thought and action. A wider vision born from the internal perception of divine thought, as the Holy Fire begins to interpenetrate, reimbursing the inner divine consciousness. For unless the bodies are fed and re-energised, the soul would soon become poverty-stricken. Completely stripped of the divine Robe, lost in a welter of animal desire, the creation of a dangerous Black Paw.

For the lost divine movement, the Breath of the rolling sea of Neptunian consciousness, will now ever be pulsating the heart megatone of chromic-sensitivity; that of the virgin spirit deduction. For once this is brought into active motion, it never loses the touch, and vibrates, if only in a negative way, reminding the soul of what it has lost.

Solar Causation as the Electrified Norm

MEGATONIC sensitivity is the Outer World frequency now being received through the Orion cycle of constant revolving Virgin Ether Fires. That activating direct upon the ethereal inner garment, for the soul had graduated into complete unity by risen frequency with the divine Ether of that mighty Source. Thus the Fount and the mouth united and risen up to the frequency of the upper EL Powers as the Mouth to the Source. Thus defining through the lower EL powers, the magnitude of their polarity, and its divine aptitude.

This is where Solar Causation becomes of the line of least resistance as the electrified Norm wealth, perceived through the voluntary renunciation of Saturnian wealth. For the soul's acceptance of the new-born road, that will bring Outer World Space expansion, is the partaking of the subordinate command. Whereby the Voice of the Source will Will man into gyroscopic motivation, feeding Vega as the Virgin Seed, with constructive Fire of supreme compulsory directiveness.

This will now be the means of divine Orion Neptunian Grace becoming the wonder and glory of the mind. Meningeal beauty over-riding the Virgin Ethers, bringing forth from the New Colure Wave-band, that of uncontaminated golden divinity. Wonders and beauty never known before, that can crown the Effect of that inflowing Causation with the divine Foam of Amphitrite beauty.

For Virgin royalty is now the Orion Causation of the descending Divinities. Those motivating through the Solar pneumatikon intensity of the revolving infinity. That of Solar-Somatic consciousness that can raise man up to the divine glory of Virgin means of rebirth. Thereby utter cosmic detachment, the soul with Virgin electrified Uranian action that fires everything into a revolving momentum, ever driving it upwards and onwards.

For Endo-genesis is the questing of the all-consuming Passions, to stimulate the rising Spirit of androgynous rebirth to become born of the quintessence of Divine Truth. For these inner glories have been born from the whole of Being, where all grades of divinity have entered into the light of Holy Glory. And must now come forth in the roundelay of infinity, to sup of a greater unfoldment.

Now it is through Timelessness, for in the voidless depth of the "Pause," that registerable upon the Virgin mind of god sensitivity, it becomes the divine action of Orion Solar time. A quickened glory of active principled living, where the Solar Virgin reception is nought else but Divine Cosmic Truth.

Thus now the soul must work to ever find the divine points' converging opposites; the ever peering into the depths of mystery, where the intricate point of reception became lost in a sea of multiplicity.

The soul ever listening to the Voice of Divinity, and like a divine Bat, moving through the depths as the divine scanner of Aldebaran. The drawing forth of the point of interpenetration that has multiplied in quarter-mass and must find the mortuary meal that will blossom it into seed production. That which when fired can be the means of profound genesis coming into birth. For what started off that divine body, can now be the means, in its conclusion, of bringing untold genius into being. Thereby conforming the Virgin cycle of Fire into a divine brevity of prismic sovereignty.

It is now an Age of royalty, the blossomed Norm, where man must learn to live with Divinity, and not They with him. But man raising himself up by unfolding through involution of those inner bodies, that they become the radiant light of Divinity. Then he can live, converse, converge and ever gyroscope up, with this contending journey of rebirth. Thus the NORM, which was of Plutonic Glory, was now retrieved Virgin wonder.

For the Divine Beauty that was thrown down the pit, had now been rescued and raised up, back to its Royal Divinity. Becoming the Christos LAMB, the OS FIRES of the depths, the glorified beauty of Solar magnificence. For Pluto is the unfolded Orion, the Fiery glory of Vulcan. The complete circling of the EL Powers, as the Metric Cycle of Divinity.

GREAT HOLY ONE

GREAT DIVINITY OF THE FATHERHOOD

Mighty Wealth has manifested here, being earthed into the darkness of the depths with all the rejuvenating Glory and the Rhythmic Beauty of those who have struggled for Life. May the two merge and go forth into the glories of material and hard-bitten men, lost in the struggle of darkness, that they can come forth into the simple simplicity of a child-like mind and awaken to the beauty of Divinity.

AMEN.

HERBAL MYSTERIES

Part 21

LIVERWORT

(Peltigera Canina or Anemone Hepatica)

by David Spearman-Cook

WE now approach upon the healing properties of PELTIGERA CANINA, that of the ENGLISH LIVERWORT, although the AMERICAN LIVERWORT, ANEMONE HEPATICA, has the same inborn qualities also. Both having the power of soothing the different states of discord within the soul creation. This herb being of wonderful value to the etheric bodies, for it will find its way into the secret pathways. It is also extremely useful as a gargle, which will be a good standby to purify the mouth of solidifying acids. If Liverwort is taken to assist the digestive ability to assimilate organic foods within the revolving bloodstream, it will need the addition of a little Buchu, thereby offering greater cleansing results. For the matter being discarded will be further disintegrated, relieving the pressure upon the nervous tissues. For as the arteries expand with the bulk of the intaken matter, will they be relieved by this herb.

LIVERWORT, with the addition of Cowslip, will nurture the nerves, as they are stretched or contracted during the fiery inflow of the Theocratic Fire. Which of course is bound to have some effect upon the unfolding initiate. During the pregnancy of a new thought, or even the birth of a physical child, Liverwort and Mistletoe will help to balance the Fire intake within the hormonal inflow. If taken regularly upon waking, will help the soul considerably.

Liverwort and Hawthorn

Berries will during the vast internal change of life, assist the nervous area of activity around the teeth and their surrounding gums. For this nervous creational area was built purely from the essence of the bones, and as the tissues change, so will necessity for extra activity when eating coarse foods, until the soul realises the position and turns to natural food.

Now let us turn to the eyes, for when these become defective through the lack of expansion, Liverwort, Vervain, Buchu and Rosemary can help immensely. Also, when taken in its natural state, Liverwort can prove to be a fine cure for any distorted nervous Solarplexus, and is especially good for soothing any shocks encountered while there are changes taking place. From the point of the intestines, where much expansion takes place, this herb can help considerably, because it links so much with the great powers of the Sun.

To those who are studying early in the morning, a draught of Liverwort will help to revolve the bloodstream, and help the mind to see with a clearer outlook. When mixed with a little Parsley, it will be capable of helping the changing soul to utilise the incoming Powers, and help them to formulate with accurate interblending.

LIVERWORT, in the past, was the means of saving many a stalwart mariner who had constantly been affected by scurvy, and has been known to be good in cleansing the eyes from this complaint in its worst degrees. Many ancient whalers carried this with them, for the men lived mostly upon the captured carcasses, and became full of the blood that was of a terrific depth of immovability. This was due to the slow heart-beat of the whale, which in them partaking, ever slowed up their frequency.

This alone shows the necessity of eating food of a more high frequency, for if one is seeking to become of the spirit, one must live with perfect moveability between the Bull and the Scorpio inter-union.

Liverwort was once freely and fervently used by the priests of the past. They discovered that by rubbing themselves with the freshly grown leaves, a vibrant power was released, which helped them to activate the fire, thereby managed to overcome periods of non-expansion. Now, as it is being fortified with the down-pouring Atomic Power, will it be able, if taken as a draught, to assist in the Solar forming creation.

It can also help to repair tissues that are damaged and lacerated, during the rapid changes that are now taking place. Hence it can become as a fire controlling agent, capable of seeking out pockets of resistable density, such as waste in the blood and lymphatics. Thereby help balance up the moving changes to the Chakra frequency.

LIVERWORT and Tansy will help to keep the skin clear of the rash that often arises in changes, which is purely the old dying tissues being forced out for the new to take over. By bathing oneself in the infusion of these two herbs, will assist the pores to remain free from any clogging, thereby minimising the possibility of a closing down of these exits for the waste matter to extricate itself.

Another remedy is Liverwort, St. John's Wort and Vervain, which are three good herbs for the basic of any combination to aid the inner intuitional consciousness. But one of the most important is Oak Bark and Liverwort, which are extremely good for the bathing of sore and hardening states of the feet.

There is not much known about this herb, it best being used in conjunction with other herbs, particularly for the liver. But although not much is known about it, does not indicate that there are no real outstanding qualities with this herb. What it really needs is someone to give it much testing, so as to discover its many advantages.

In the past this herb was often used to assist one drunken with intoxication, for it was capable of extracting the fermented liquid, and annulling the effects in the blood. If Liverwort is taken with a few Clover Heads, the cellular structure of man can be protected from violent shocks. Especially when he is taking initiation or studies that need perfect calm and peace.

Liverwort is one of the best herbs for cleansing the sinuses, and if it is used with a little Lily of the Valley, it will help considerably to cleanse this area. But I would like to add, that since the Solar manifestation is now pouring forth of its Atomic frequency, it is wise to adopt certain herbs which will be of benefit to the change of soul creation.

These are now being made in pill form, as they are much easier to take that way. This we have done solely to release one and all from the inconvenience that can arise if one is away from home. Although we do advise the herbal infusion if possible, because the soul gets the fluid, which so many are sparse in taking.

Next month we will search into the renewed power of the Marsh Mallow.

island that nursed the sacred bulls of the sun. It was whispered that giants dwelt there in the waters, those given birth from the blood spilt when Uranus was severed. This represents the three mothers or the three fates who determine what shall be gathered up in the autumn and begin its journey through the basin of rebirth (the relativity with the heights).

Sicily stands in the Mediterranean Sea that is the gateway to life. Here great wealth was abundant, but the inhabitants became too fond of luxury, and lost their wealth. At the winter solstice where all had to go down for investigation and rebirth you come to Ogygia which is the fountain stream near Syracuse. This means a quail where a little bird comes forth in growth: the Word came forth out of the depths. Now keep that in mind because you will understand in future what it means when it is said that a little quail, a little bird came forth: the little word was able to squeeze its way out and save the soul from dying.

It is the underworld passage from one equinox to another. This island once received a star from heaven. Why should these lands be the means of the world evolving from one state to another, and causing the fire to rise up and bring a greater race into birth, though unseen by those who might be riding high by brawn and muscle.

Ortygia was called Delos and also AEaea, the island where Apollo was born and the bed of Rhea who gave birth to Zeus. The fact that Ulysses made visit to these islands carries on the legend as to the winter solstice that goes north and Ulysses meets the blast of Boreas to bring him back home. He came to AEaea, the island of the famous enchantress Circe, after he had braved the perils of the sirens, Scylla and Charybdis.

This would be the mounting from the 6th house to the 7th in clearing the Bar. Circe was the one who had the habit of changing souls into pigs, and Ulysses stayed with her for a year, but this was due to the two equinoxes becoming con-founded in the revolution of the calendar.

Then we come to the land of Syria which lay above Ortygia and was the summer solstice, when there was the turning of the sun and where he begins to descend from his greatest elevation. This was Tyre and Sidon where the waters became purple and Chiram came forth to help Solomon to build his temple. This was considered the richest land that ever existed: thus by this it surely describes the foundation put into operation before the temple, the body of the spirit, began to be created and where the soul begins to create the fifth Age, the age of Heroes.

With this we have some foundation as to why the myths should be investigated; why man should seek into his inner being, that he can master and bring forth new thought from that already gained and suffered, that the sun-god can come forth in all his radiance.

Now you have the understanding of why man should study the myths, make them relativity and unite the past with the present, because that is what man is made up of. Think this well over and keep it fresh in your mind, and then it will become the wealth that will build up within you the sun-god, the solar ray, the solar point; then you will begin a sensitivity and the powers will rise up and pierce those points: you then will become as one fit to serve the gods and give unto the earth the powers of the gods as the whole specie of time.

The Divine Blessing

WE call upon the Great Ones to bless this World, for tonight there is a Festival of the Goddess, and the great Goddess Astraea once again visits the earth and brings Light and Truth to mankind who is willing to receive.

Endow the whole world with Thy Beauty; endow all with Thy strength, that the Goddess upon the earth can be Thy Word and Thy spoken Truth, and all can link in harmony and peace in a perfectly balanced calendar. And as they go forth with their calendars readjusted by the wisdom that is given unto them, that they now will labour and begin anew.

Give unto those who have the courage to come, the understanding of what a true hero means, that they can go forth now on the quest of the sun-god to find their own wealth and become as thy servants of Truth. AMEN.

Astrological Delineations

MR.S. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

Price in England and abroad £7.7.0.

Price in U.S.A. and Canada $25.00.

IMPORTANT. Please note that all delineations will be by Tape Recording only on 5 1/2" reels track one or 4" reels track 1 and 2 at 3 1/2 in/sec.

Mythology Part 4b

Delivered at the S.U.P.H. on 15th July, 1962 by Ra-Men-Ra

HAVING gained some understanding regarding the Great Year, which stands us in good stead as we proceed through the rendering of the myths, let us understand the Sothic Cycle that has so much linked with it regarding these links with the past. Many of the myths belong to this mysterious stream of life, especially of the era when the vernal equinox passed out of Taurus into Aries.

That was the marriage of the children of Israel through the wilderness to bring the great wealth of Taurus into active creation, and a pioneering state that the Christos Light could be born; the great powers of the Christos to descend down and fight mankind. That was a Relativity state; that was a Solar God. When He descended to the earth he gave man the understanding of the power to also become a solar god: until then, he was merely building up the way.

After that, all men could become as solar gods, and especially if one was prepared to take up His cross that he could get off the cross. But how were they going to do it? They did it by taking up the Cup. That was why the cross was thrown onto one side, and now it is the Cup that every man drinks for himself; he drinks of the dregs of himself and he swallows his own poison. Now can you understand what the Cup literally means? Each man swallowing his own poison; not the Christos-Power on a Cross suffering for you because you are merely held by religious ideals which bring nothing into the world at all.

No! you are going to labour and supply the Great Goddess, and the Gods, with the wealth of labouring, or you die. But this death is a living death, not the death as you understand it: you only understand one death. This is the living death unto the worlds of Pluto, the worlds where all are dead until there can be an awakening; souls turned into pillars of salt because they are great powers that are dangerous. Now either you make those powers active as the powers of the gods, or they destroy you as a Cronos state; a Cronos that has become filled up, a solid block that no man on earth can break.

Developing the Mind

THEN the Myths carried man round the whole of the Great Year and transposed the equinoxes and the solstices, bringing the summer into the winter. This is moving time and making it active, and by doing so shortened that cycle that it becomes a particular occasion when great richness was about. Then usually a myth was created to remind posterity of what they must possess and must honour: what is within them as the riches that they pass through.

Yet when a year was neglected and the precious odd hours of the Horae were not collected, it made the festival come a day sooner every four years and thus threw the calendar out because the soul refuses to gather up the Horae. When the soul has not laboured, of course he does not gather them up: he does not know what they are. He thinks of only one thing; of filling the belly. But when he has been labouring through the year, then at that particular time he is aware of the descent and the gathering up of all those powers, and he automatically gathers them up, because he has laboured. If not, he loses that day and his calendar becomes out because he is now minus that whole day of life, which is the wealth of that year.

He has refused to labour and he has lost a whole year's wealth. Well, are you going to gather it up in the next year if you have missed that year? You start one day, which means measuring the whole year's wealth minus that whole day of life; you cannot go forward with it. So what you are doing now is, you are labouring hard to gather up what you have got, and we are trying to help you by labouring through it in these Lessons.

At the time the Sothic Cycle was a time-piece on a great scale for those who understood of how to handle and draw from it of its power.

Now here are the bridges, here are the important creations. Here is the triune-state and the powers that you work with: these bring you the bridge. Now the upper part does not really exist; it is the lower part of the chart that exists because that is the earth, that is the abyss. Man is building the heights in his mind, and he is building that in the heavens.

So if you see the top of the chart as the spinning round of the peg, then you can see what you are building up from the 8th house round to the 12th: that is the ark; but only when you can get out of the 8th house, literally the dungeon. The 8th house is regeneration.

If you can get out of the 8th house alive, with the mind

MYSTICISM OF MYSTICISM

THE depth here lies in the mystery, for the sacrifice is their own animal states, which they sacrificed that the Bull could make true justification, and capture the Seed from the base. The patriarch is the only one who can fulfil this task, for he is the wise man of the tribe. When this can be fully understood, reveals a depth which when transmuted onto a greater plane of conception, lifts the soul up out of darkness into Light. (See text on page 13, col. 4).

spinning, then you are going to become the Archer: you are no longer going to be the Centaur, but the Archer who is going to wing the mind, and he is going to send forth his arrows into the eye of the Bull, Aldebaran, the great powers of Orion. You are going to cut off the head of the Medusa; you are going to bring the wealth into your own being, but only if you labour hard and struggle to get out of the pit of fire, the 8th house.

The meaning of the crucifixion is when it all went dark from the 6th to the 9th house, which is the time of crucifixion in the darkness. That is what your Scriptures were telling you: they were not telling you about the God as religion has given it to you; they were telling you what you have got to do. And the man who found that out was the man who was given the name of Jesus; and his name was Paul, Pauline.

All the knowledge given to you at the present moment through religion was what was gathered together by the Early Fathers, and religion took it and weaved it into a pattern to serve their own powers, in the same way as, at the present moment, commercialism is stupefying your mind by the conditions of television and advertising which are completely ruining man's mind, instilling into his mind what he should buy with the wealth he should be using for a greater purpose.

At the present moment television is bringing a great force of power of darkness, and we would wish to say to you, if you are truly seeking, it should be banned: keep it out of the very Temple itself, because it brings a black force. They are bringing to you the maddening states of destruction, which by right should be stamped out, because it is putting into the minds of the young what they can do; they are being fed upon it.

This is the wealth you want to feed the young on. If they want to bring great wealth upon your television, then bring the wisdom of the past, or bring the depth of knowledge that will enlighten youth to turn to states whereby he can be a creator and labour.

Importance of the Seasons

WHEN the Cycle was being activated the neglect of the odd hours had curious and remarkable results, and it was around this period that the myths were gathered, making it very powerful and full of life. So we must understand this a little better and then man will understand his heritage.
