ETHER CAUSATION

The Power of the Divine Voice

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

AS THE EMBERS OF the night departed, the Flames rose up on a new-born day, for the World had changed from lunar into Solar, a complete reborn issue of light. With the Heavens sending down their mighty wonders, as never known before. Not fact or fiction, but glorified reality, for Divinity was walking abroad. But man, blind to all but his own inner pleasures, failed to see the glory that was duly embracing him as Merope swung the pendulum up high, finally uniting the depths with the heights. The mystery lay in the Virgin Ethers, as they now became the World Causation, that governed by the pen of Merope, and surging to the earth through her Golden Stream. She who now lived in the heart of the Central Sun, the depth of her NORM-born glory; for this was the mighty Well of Truth, being united to those mystic wonders. Those that in their embracement brought forth the VOICE, through the mystical depth of Merope. Thus the Sun sent forth of its Rays, alive with Abstract brilliance, calling all to awaken out of their illusion and embrace the Glory of Divinity. For that was what their heart was really seeking, as blind as they may be.

The Birth of the Mind Plane

HENCE the hour was set when the Great Exodus was to begin, across the Wilderness of rebirth. Stripping all by renunciation, in all turning their eyes to the Heavens. For by the union of heights and depths, the ladder of ascension was now created, that which would carry all truly ready, up to their point of conclusion. Giving soul the freedom of being, born of the mighty glory of Unity. But Merope's task now, was to expound the depths of the Abstract mystery involved in the glory of the Ethers. For by their polarity with her own mystical depths, the glory of tomorrow would be born. Not a World of form, fact and figure, but a World of Light and Beauty. Where Neptune in all his true Reality, would now burst into Heavenly Song.

A Plane of MIND, rich with wonders now to be brought into birth, that which only Merope could equal, she being the originator of the Source. Therefore her Seeds, now all rich and ripe, were waiting to burst into life, to open the gates of Vega deep and wide, revealing the glories of the heavens. For Merope knew that only by such truths being portrayed, could the entangled hell set into motion in the depths, ever be brought to balance.

THE WINDS OF CHANGE

THUS did the Solar-born Warrior aim his bow, speeding the arrow of Truth into those states that would not change. Old creations of the past, feeling the searing glory of the Fire penetrating deep into their being; burning up their density, and offering them as holy sacrifice unto Divinity. Thereby causing the Winds to blow, and new Causation to sweep across the Earth. Setting the Seal of Divinity upon the brow of he who was worthy, and causing he who would spurn of its glory to bow the knee before its Fiery Breath of Virgin Immensity. (See text on page 3, col. 1).

IT WOULD APPEAR THAT OUR IGNORANT AND BLIND 'EXPERTS' of the scientific world are being forced to accept the wisdom being taught in these pages, even though they, of course, claim that their so-called new discoveries are of their own making, and nothing to do with the world of occultism. I am very grateful to the reader who sent us an article from the South Wales Evening Post concerning certain of these brilliant new theories! I will quote various small extracts from the article, in order that you can judge for yourselves just how far behind the times these strutting scientific peacocks are. The article begins, "For years, astrology has been dismissed by most people as a pseudo-science. But now it looks as though the experts are having second thoughts. Recent experiments indicate that the chemical make-up of our minds and bodies can be altered by influences millions of miles away in outer space. One noted American surgeon even dislikes operating near the time of a full moon."

WELL now, the mind literally boggles at such new theories being expounded, and yet somehow, as I am sure all Occult Gazette readers will agree, we could have told them all that, and far more, years ago! Except of course, that there is nothing millions of miles away in space, as all is rising degrees of vibrational unfoldment of Planes of light creation.

There is NO other solid creation in the Universe, apart from that of the Earth; all else are Planes of THOUGHT, reflected upon the maelstrom density, through the refracted spectrum glory of the solar light. Only when the soul can raise its mind frequency above that of the magnetic field of density which surrounds the Earth, will it ever begin to perceive the REALITY of life, and the illusion and limitations of form creation.

There is NO solid Moon creation anywhere; these astronauts are travelling backwards in Time, through a vibrational drop in mind frequency, and are trying to resurrect a dead world which has passed away in the natural unfoldment of evolution. It is a completely lifeless world, a world devoid of Fire, and Fire is the great creative Power of Divinity; thus it is a world devoid of Divine influence, and any who seek to conquer the Moon, or are even attracted to its image, are just as devoid of Divinity, and seeking outwardly to conquer the lunar states which are in reality but the internal psychological difficulties of their own minds.

THIS is the eternal battle between Light and darkness, as related over the ages in countless myths and legends of all nations. The struggle between the Sun and Moon for supremacy, and yet really the internal struggle of the soul to manifest the Divine Spirit once again as the unified glory of his mind. That which he lost at the time of the Fall, when he carried the Scorpio Fires into the underworld, as he fell into the lower desires of the animal creation—that of physical sensation instead of mind sensitivity.

Now, at the period of Relativity, we have reached the climax of that battle, when either the Sun or Moon would be the victor, which on the Earth-plane became the battle between Merope and the two main lunar creations, the church and the scientists. But Merope had one unbeatable asset, she was supported by the Power of the Spirit, and while her will and determination never faltered it the Iron Curtain now appears to indicate that the chemical make-up of our minds and bodies can be altered as the earth speeds through the Cosmos...and if the latest theories are correct, the human body could be more sensitive to the constant bombardment of cosmic radiation than any other living thing on our planet."

All I can say to such 'brilliantly original' theories as this, is that it is about time man learnt how he and the Cosmos are one and the same thing. But is what these cosmic rays really are, into the arachnoid web, and the god-powers embodied therein then send down their various influences into the soul creation, directly influencing the physical body in so doing.

Illness is only caused by man thinking wrongly, whereby he does not draw his full quota of elements out of the Breath, and thus his physical body becomes deficient of whatever galactical influence he is disregarding, or else he twists the inflowing power by a distorted state of thinking, causing disharmony within his glandular and nervous systems, bringing on a rapid state of disease.

LASTLY let me quote just one more piece from the article:

"Soviet scientist Nicolas Schultz discovered that human blood underwent considerable changes in relation to the amount of solar radiation received. Blood samples taken from thousands of subjects showed that the white corpuscles increased or decreased depending on the sun's behaviour."

Hasn't Merope been describing for months, or even years, as to how the red corpuscles are changing over to white, as the soul manages to transmute their magnetic fire into that of the solar? As a soul becomes more and more spiritualised, and by that I mean Solar-born and nothing to do with orthodox religion, does its bloodstream become filled with the white corpuscles which are filled with the Spirit Fire and not the magnetic animal fire of the earth. This of course is the story of Moses crossing the Red Sea, the mastering and transmuting of the animal passions, bringing them up to the solar glory of mind light.

Leukaemia, anaemia, asthma and diabetes are not diseases as such; they show that the soul in question has made much spiritual advancement in previous lives, and is refusing to continue its unfoldment in this life. With these complaints, the soul is lacking in Spirit Fire which it had acclimatised itself to previously. In refusing to draw in of the higher Fire the soul is in a permanent state of glandular unbalance, and the taking of drugs and any other false stimulant to counteract the problem, will only cause more trouble in the long run, plus destroying all spiritual growth made in the past.

Once again I come back to the fact that until man accepts that he is an integral part of the cosmos and its actions, then he will always be seeking blindly and walking into chaos. No longer can man live in two worlds, he must make his choice, that of Spirit or the earth.

MEROPE BY HER STRUGGLES HAS ESTABLISHED THE POWER OF THEOCRACY ONCE MORE, AND EITHER MAN OBEYS IMPLICITLY THE LAWS OF DIVINITY OR HE WILL BE COMPLETELY DESTROYED, AS JUST COARSE MATTER THAT WAS IMPEDING THE UNFOLDING OF THE VAST PLAN OF COSMIC EVOLUTION.

Next Month:

THE THEOCENTRIC UNIVERSE

The Central Glory of Divinity

was a combination that could not be overcome.

Then, on the 21st May 1969, at the end of the Wednesday evening lecture, a dynamic occurrence was witnessed which left all in great awe and wonderment. The mighty mystical Power of the Central Sun, the great Melchizedek himself, descended, and gave his added strength unto the struggle being put by Merope. For Merope, like Abraham before her, had been the means of bringing down a new inflow of Fire, to raise up the flagging degree of the mind, and thus Melchizedek had descended to resuscitate her with his spiritual inflow of "bread and wine."

THIS IS WISDOM FAR BEYOND THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE MAJORITY, FOR THEY WOULD MAKE EVERYTHING A COMPLICATED ISSUE IN ORDER TO SHOW OFF THEIR INTELLECTUAL PROWESS, WHEN IN FACT ALL IS OF UTTER SIMPLICITY, BORN OF A CHILD-LIKE BELIEF IN THE UNENDING GLORIES OF DIVINITY.

Those who cannot accept of this, and would rather believe in the existence of a Moon creation, must go their own way. That is their prerogative, but let them blame no one if a mind of 'moon-madness' is all they inherit, as the winds of change sweep all old conceptions into the melting pot of rebirth, and bring all back to the true Path of unfolding Cosmic Evolution. Those who insist on believing in such a dead world deserve all they will receive, and they might do well to remember that the word 'lunacy' was not culled without very good reason!

BUT let us return to the article mentioned earlier, and take another extract from it: "Research at half a dozen medical institutes on both sides of

he will never do this until he accepts the fact that man extracts different elements out of the inflowing Breath according to whatever thought creation his mind is revolving around.

Now let us continue with another small extract:

"Professor Gino Piccardi, research director at Florence University, found that an identical chemical experiment yielded different results every time it was carried out. At last Piccardi hit upon the solution; the mysterious agent causing this reaction must have been some kind of radiation, coming from outer space. The Italian professor's discovery has since made him world-famous, and provided the first step towards proving that chemical reactions in the human body can be disturbed and altered as the earth passes through galactic fields of force."

Here again I refer back to my previous statement, that man is linked to the cosmic heights via the Breath, and that he absorbs the elements into his body only to the degree of frequency of thought that his mind is acting upon. Also these clever little scientific marvels might understand a little more concerning life if they realised that man is a perfect replica within himself of the cosmos, and that the Norm, or pineal gland, when brought to its full vibratory unfoldment via the Light of Divine Awareness, is the central point within man, where these so-called cosmic rays make manifestation. Thus the pineal gland when fully blossomed, becomes the mind control of the soul that is in complete unity with the Central Sun, the Divine Source of All-being.

The galactic fields of force are, of course, to be found within the meninges of the soul, in the atomic structure of the arachnoid web where the divine growth of ages has been registered. The pineal gland pours its Holy Fire, which

Thus she prepared the way, by driving the wedges of schism into those regenerators of the depths. That either they reformed and abandoned their treason, or fell to the driving force of the Atomic Ether infusion. For here was a new Plane of MIND fed by the (See the Front Page plate)

Ethers, bringing a complete new World into birth, where soul in its rightful creation, would blossom into the son of the Fatherhood.

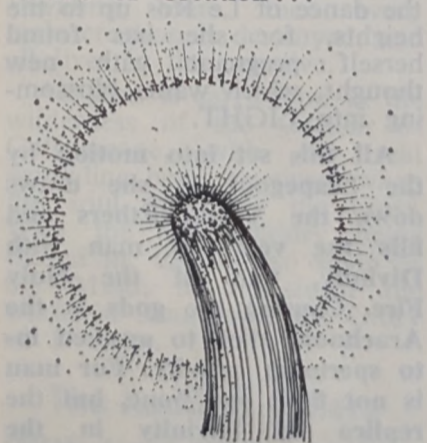

Where belief as the dancing glory of the hour, spermated the way into action, setting into motion ways and ideas that belonged to thoughts eternal. Internal desires seeking to find freedom from their rooted glories of the past, striving to blossom into flowered growth, to bring forth the wonders of continuity. For all is but the theme of Evolution, driven on by the FIRE within the Fire.

All brought to a one Divine Stream of Heavenly purpose, where the VOICE, the very Nucleus of ALL CREATION, now comes forth as the Causation of those Ethers. That which leaves the Heights as an internal purpose, now through the channel of Merope, becomes the polarisation of the Seed, induced forth from her voluminous Norm. That which had been established as the beliefs of the Goddess, to induce the gods to unfold, now after Ages of stagnating growth, was being activated into fruitful creation.

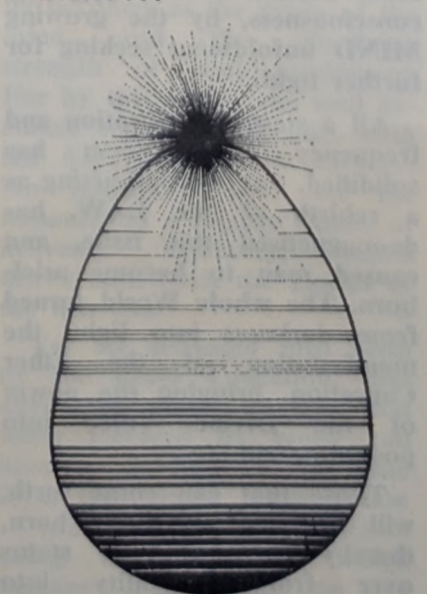

For most of the problems now being faced by mankind, were the outcome of that ancient dilemma, when they, faced with the problem of expansion, chose the downward trend into the darkness of oblivion.

NOW THROUGH MEROPE, ALL IS BEING BROUGHT TO UNIFICATION, SETTING THE BELIEF ALIGHT. DRIVEN INTO ACTIVE MOTION BY THE ATOMIC CAUSATION FLOWING IN THIS HEAVENLY STREAM.

All pouring forth from the Centre of Creation...

...down through the unified Universe...

...to be fructified into active creative life, by the Scapegoat Merope. Thereby setting the LAWS for the Theocratic

Government, who would infuse the whole of Creation into one Vast Empire of LIGHT. For (See plate below)

as the third of the Trinity, she acts as the activator, with the Causation as the internal FIRE, driving the WAY into manifestation.

Every man being surged along, with the FIRE prompting his stagnant wealth into active creative manifestation. Yet directed and led by the prototype, avoiding all sense of multiplicity. All being guided and directed by the gods within his own awakened creation. With truth as never accepted before, storming that human citadel.

DIVINE TRINITY

FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost, now the Triune point of interpenetration of the depths. Drawn forth and unified by the Virgin, who had given the whole of her life that the Holy Fire could be retrieved, and the Sun in Scorpio raised up to the supremacy of the Arc. Wonders and glories never before believed possible, yet all accomplished by the belief of one small soul, who spanned the Universe by her mind, and measured the Light of Divinity by the beating of her Sacred Heart. (See text in col. 3).

For the inflow from those heights is of abstract origin, that can produce wisdom of the very highest. All it needs is courage and belief, and a warrior's turn of mind. Even those distorted with drugs can be unified into balance, providing their nervous system and their mind have not been torn to pieces. For these Rays are from the very Source itself, holding Divinity within its internal being, as the FIRE within the Fire.

Thus every man will be born of these Rays, through the depths and wonder of the Breath, with those who are awakened and eagerly seeking, finding an urge driving them on into an unknown harbourage. For this Fire is impregnated with the wealth of Merope, she who set the prototype.

In her being the only one who had the courage to counteract and polarise the LAWS, she becomes the Source of Attraction. Thereby mankind ever finding the "Occult Gazette" waiting to embrace them, and lead them further into the direction of rebirth. Those who are not ready will be salted into internal questioning, with the Waters ever aiding their own internal cause. While the major point for every one to remember, is that all now is upon the MIND Plane, and that soul is nothing more than mind.

All else has been turned-in, with soul as the extemporisa-tion of all that he has ever been. Therefore, the reception of the Ether inflow as the unified glory of the Breath, can be the means of activating all into reborn wonder, when elevated by stimulated thought and belief.

The New Laws

HERE again is where the "Occult Gazette" plays its part, for it holds all the internal LOVE of Merope. All her renunciation, sacrifice and wishful thinking, infused into its pages of heavenly advice. With hope for those who have lost the running, and how to toe the line. With the Sun blazing forth from those Cosmic changes, which none other than Merope could have activated into birth.

Thus here is the test that all are passing through, to weed out the sheep from the goats. Those who are prepared for the next two years, to enter into the field of contest, to bring forth the glories of their mind, and those who have become too materially minded.

(See plate on page 4) Thus those ready to join the great surge into the World of Vega, the Land of Truth, Glory and LIGHT. With those who refused, to fall back into the Stream and live in a World of Darkness.

So now let us turn to the Glory of those Ether Rays that hold the Royal magnitude of the Heavenly Voice. For here lies the intrinsic Beauty of the Divine Fatherhood, the mystery

ETHER CAUSATION

TO give you a little understanding of the Causation, try to visualise a Stream flowing to the earth, and as it does so it interblends, it rolls, and it unfolds; again it interblends, it rolls, and it unfolds, and as it does this, the Causation that it left the Heights with is slowly unfolding, until, as it reaches the earth it buries itself into the desire body of the earth with its Message. And if you have so raised your frequency that you can go out to meet it, you will pick up that Causation before it becomes cold or earthy.

Thus the Message is the Power of the Divine Voice; but the Message is in the Causation. The Ether Causation is, of course, the Divine Virgin Fires,—Fires beyond the Power of the Central Sun, the great inner depth of its Mission.

polarise the Virgin Ethers, whereby to finally be the FOUNT of Glory for the Holy Fire to manifest. For since man is mind and mind vibration, all is a matter of inter-union, as soul assimilates the Elements of Nature.

Therefore through the Seeds of her NORM, will Merope bring into birth the Abstract wonders of the future. No longer form, but vibronic activation, which up to the present has been nought else but medical and scientific blunders. Now by unifying root with branch, the Seed can sprout in the heights, unfolding the wonders of its true purpose.

While many a deedy investigation, which many an alchemist had founded but hidden through the rampages of papalism, can now at last come into birth by polarisation, through that Holy Voice. For as a soul so imbibes of these wonders, and fills the blood with this Holy Fire, does the FIRE within the Fire become the Voice of the recipient.

Therefore he either responds to its divine inductive calling, or takes the power and falls to the ravages of desire. To those who take on the task of driving the issue, reformation, only applicable to the spirit, takes place. For the whole of the progressive Universe is now under the wing of immortality. All else is the centrifugal action of dispersion.

So as Merope set the prototype she became the means of ever drawing forth those mystical Virgin vibrations. For they were the very centre of the Central Sun, holding the FIRE within the Fire, that she, as that Vestal Virgin, drew forth at the beginning of TIME. For Merope was not just a Goddess, but one of the Mighty Creators of Rebirth. A part of the HIM-HER who set off the action of Creation, setting the Brahmic Thread into motion.

Therefore these Ethers in their Divine Causation, are the rebirth from the Ursa Major unto the Vega Glory, where all that has been, becomes born of the LAMB, to be finally exalted into LIGHT. The Serpent now ruling as the risen up FIRE, the polarised glory of the mind. What was just the ambling Bear, now becomes the flight of the Eagle, as it ascends in the rebound of the Word, right up into the FACE of the Sun.

The whole of Being being Solar-born, brilliant with the radiance of the Divine Ethers. But until man awakens to their REAL glory, all will pass him by, in the mere belief of 'what a beautiful spell of sunshine.' With scientists babbling about solar rays that will cook everybody's Sunday dinner, for only a few coppers a head. To finish off with heart swaps of plastic, guaranteed to fall in love with every nanny goat abroad. This is where the Rays may have their own method of applying Theocratic justice, for every soul has equal chance of perceiving of the wonders now unfolding around them.

Unfortunately, roots still lie hidden in the depths of the soul, seeded as they fell into the depths of the Cancer marshes. Yet can be turned more than ever by these Rays, and readjustments made that can set the soul to rights. But can only be brought about, by the soul's own desire and free-will.

This is where it rules out, that Theocracy is a prison ruling, for a soul only enters into the Stream of pilgrimage, when he perceives the necessity of the journey.

Yet he will never know the true meaning of that statement, until these FIRES have become well and truly grounded.

Then he will find that where in the past he had called the tune to demand his pound of flesh, with these Rays, all is in the reverse, and they will call the tune. Then it is, that he will find he is short of the Mind creation so necessary to accommodate the inflow of these dynamic Forces.

The Rebirth of the Solar Glory

THESE Rays have no time for those who are involved with self, for their Work is to dissolve and turn-in the fallen state of Saturn. Thereby lift him up and bring forth the wonders of his un-redeemed wealth. Then the Solar Glory will be fully reborn, into its Holy magnitude of Unfolded Divinity.

For these Rays are Divinity, manifesting in such a way as to enter into the being of man, as the last throw of 'drawing the sheep back into the fold.' By such he becomes the light of Divinity, and radiates the World with his glory. For these are the cells of the Brain, through which Divinity manifests HIS MIND, and secrets of Truth.

The story is simple, yet wide and deep, where heaven and earth become one. The Real Mystery lies in the descent of these FIRES, they having been drawn forth by the unification set into motion by Merope. As she drew them forth in the beginning, she now was drawing them forth in their Royal unfoldment, as the Divinity now manifesting as the Glory of the MIND.

For now, the whole World is one vast MIND, fed by the glories of this Stream, that which holds ALL that man requires, to fulfill the task he has been set to accomplish. Not a World for human souls to find ease and grow fat in, but a World for divinities to gain experience and become the gods of mind, which the gods were intended to be.

Where the real purpose of life would be truly carried out, drawing forth the mysteries of the deep. Where the glories that Atlantis put into motion, are put into action as divinity born, with LIGHT and not self, as the purpose. Glories that Shamash intended before he fell into the depths as Saturn.

Stupendous traits that can be perceived only in their lowest degree, when they are manifesting in a soul on their highest degree. Saturn in Libra can, when duly exalted, manifest but the slightest glimmer far removed from such mighty comprehension, and would only perceive of such magnitude as far as the Central Sun, even if up to that. For when they come to working out of these mighty wonders by a robot machine of wires and fuses, then it shows the limitation of their minds, and how blind they are to the truth. For mechanical machines and these delicate vibratory wonders, have no comparison what-so-ever.

Only a man's mind highly sensitised, could possibly get near such a feat. This is what Merope is endeavouring to prove at the present moment, by declaring an issue and then putting it into operation. But as yet, infinitesimal to what can be performed in a world of densely built minds.

DIVINE EMBRACEMENT

ALL now lies within the hands of man, as to whether he will embrace the inflowing Glories, or reject them to his everlasting sorrow. The gift of Immortality has been placed within his grasp, and Vega beckons to him through her open doors; yet how many will offer their all, in Service to Divinity, and how many will lose all, as they cling to the illusory baubles of the earthy depths? (See text on page 3, col. 3).

of the wonders that these FIRES could bring into birth. Where the glories of the Sun are radiant in every action, needing man's will and the Ether Glories, to manifest the fulness of their inner mystery.

For these were the intent that brought the present fullness into birth, to the extent of which they are manifesting. Not just Nature in its unfolding evolution, but a hidden Royal Purpose that came into being when Merope drew forth the Secret Mystery of Divinity.

Man in his present state is

These Virgin Ethers are the intensified Rays born out of the unification of Relativity. While the artist and composer once drew forth but the minutest degree, from their lesser sister on the lower Abstract Plane.

Now all has been lifted up to these remote Rays, which come forth to the World via the Scapegoat. For as she so moulds and fructifies, will the World be led, thereby clearing from the path of all, the dreaded field of Karma. Therefore you either build up a mind or perish, for the future World is of MIND, and mind only of a sensitised nature.

With Merope having prepared the way terrestrially, all is ready for the inter-union between heights and depths to

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. B.S.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

take place in man himself. For by the risen up frequency, she has set into motion Scorpio as the Kundalini Fire, which has risen up to the NORM as the fructified glory of the Central Sun.

With the whole of man alight with its radiance, through the consistency of the Breath. This is where man will have to try understanding the sensitised finesse of vibration. For until he understands that all is vibration, he fails to live out of the density of calcified matter. Thus is literally stoned; for matter in a solid state, is rock devoid of all fire.

Elements turned into a magnetic state and holding the soul-life by gravity, trying to bring movement to its dead state.

For the soul in having taken all unto itself, refuses to send back to Divinity as light. Merope by raising up the Planes, bringing the MIND Plane into birth, and Firing it by drawing down the Ethers filled with the status of Divinity, has released man from that density, and turned all towards the Solar Glory.

Divine Consciousness

ALTHOUGH man, lost in the rut of habit and convention, refuses to recognise this truth, it still prevails, and will do, until the Solar Glory within his blood, feeds the mind with the new thought. There lies the answer; either he accepts and turns from the old ways into the new, or succumbs.

For it means he must turn the whole of his mind upwards, yet still remains HERE and NOW, in the electrified field of the NORM.

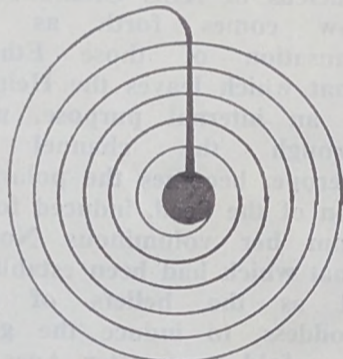

It is the range on which the personality of the mind is centred...

Every one of these are LIMBS of the Galactical System, which are helping man to find growth and consciousness of mind comprehension. This he does through the personality, for all he obtains through their element infusion, becomes mind growth in the 'first.'

Then as he awakens, he, by a greater consciousness of perception, seeks to become a Warrior for Truth to prevail unto others. By this he draws back to the Source, by polarising that Source in his elevated thinking.

While Merope, in being the Scapegoat for the Divinities to work through, and bring the changes that man refused to accept, changed the vibrations of all the Planes. By raising her Kundalini Fire up to her heights, she did likewise to man and Cosmos. Therefore, gradually man would turn his thoughts up to that higher graduation, with Antares now being de-magnetised.

In descending down into the depths, she no longer held by the lower desires of man, forces him to seek and build up the consciousness of the mind. Thus in the Fire's descent into the depths, the Bull becomes driven into active plowing. With Venus seeking out Mars, that they can start the dance of Le Ros up to the heights, for she has found herself pregnant with new thought, which wants blossoming into LIGHT.

All this set into motion by the Scapegoat as she draws down the Virgin Ethers and fills the veins of man with Divinity, that of the Holy Fire. Causing the gods in the Arachnoid Web to awaken into sperming activity. For man is not flesh and bone, but the replica of Divinity in the depths. Soul born out of Element descent and brought to consciousness, by the growing MIND unfoldment seeking for further light.

All a status of vibration and frequency, which man has solidified, but Merope acting as a rebirth of the LAW, has de-magnetised this issue, and caused man to become ariel-born. The whole World turned from darkness into light, the manifestation of the Ether Causation, bringing the power of the Divine Voice into possible audibility.

Those that can come forth, will become divinity born, thereby changing their status over from mortality into immortality. While those who fail will fall away, into the outer dungeons of darkness. With the reorientation of soul himself, will the world become reborn, but further still, the complete inter-birth between heaven and earth.

ALL TAKING PLACE WITHIN MAN HIMSELF, BRINGING INTO BIRTH THE WORLD AS IT WAS INTENDED FOR THE GODS TO PRODUCE.

Not only with the Holy Fire manifesting through the bloodstream of man, but Divinity upon his Arc, when he can embrace and manifest. For Merope has raised up the ARC of the World to the fullest extent for this day and Age, with Divinity as the Intelligencia, as the LIGHT of growing Divine Consciousness.

The whole of the manipulation of this rebirth lies in the hands of Divinity. As they so perceive the changes necessary to add unto the unfolding status, is the change made through the living Scapegoat. For the whole of creation has been augured into birth by the active perception of the soul growth, that born from the element inbirth.

Without soul life and soul manipulation, there would never have been World growth or Divinity unfoldment. For all is in the Virgin Seed, now born out of the Virgin Breath, which in being risen up, becomes the risen up Uraeus, the glory of the risen spirit.

The accomplishment that every Pharaoh strove to attain, for he knew that was the unification between both Worlds. For it was the Fire born out of the heights, that in being risen up, gave light to the soul of immortality. That freed from the Sternum bone, to become the glory of the revolving pituitary.

This being the mysterious FIRE sent forth from Antares, the mysterious Red Star centred in the back of the Scorpion. The Hebrew name being Akrab, meaning conflict of war, for they too, as the Hebrew seeking for light, were also trying to master this lesson. While the sting in the tail, which brings the atomic burning, is called Lesath, the perverse.

It is the Seed born from Antares, that the Gryphons have ever striven to destroy, by the soul being buried under, and is the enmity set between the serpent and the Woman's Seed. For if Venus fails to dance the Bull into action, by elevating Mars, then every male creation is destroyed, and all lives in the negative.

All then is carried on in the wilderness of the Garden of Gethsemane, with the real wounding being received, when the soul takes up the cross. With the Solar Glory being buried in, it will rise again as the Mind, to transform the works of Saturn into the Glory of Divinity.

The Radiant Ethers

THE Great Work here is to master the Serpent, so that he becomes as the grace of the mind, and the glorifying strength of soul attainment. For by this FIRE, the soul becomes the glorified one, with the Arc radiant with LIGHT. No longer a goat on the mound, but a mighty Flame of heavenly brilliancy, which draws unto itself the glories of the heavens.

Yet all activated into birth by the Ether Causation, that alive with atomic purpose, that when received by many can become the Power to issue forth the Divine Voice. These (See plate on this page) being the Mysteries which Merope inaugurated, to try and counterbalance the intricacies that the gods had set into operation through the FALL.

As Merope wrestled with the Serpent, she ever remembered the first struggle when he slipped from her grasp and left the world entangled with dilemmas. Thus, as the Waterman's Bride, she unified-up the deficit, and began the task of blending-up the fallen Planes. Now, after years of struggle and mastery, she had brought all safely back to its rightful status.

With Divinity now established amongst men, all it requires is diligent labouring, with uttermost belief that the Great ONE, now the blood life of of unfoldment. Then with her heart swelling with joy she suddenly came upon a field full of young golden lambs, all shaking little black tails. But to her amazement they only had one eye in the centre of their forehead. Neptunian lambs, a symbol of the future, when everything will become as the outcome of the change, which was going to completely alter the outlook of all.

As Merope drove on and witnessed many things already under the status of rebirth, she knew all was an attribute towards the coming great the festivals that were being prepared for this mighty event. Thus not their ideas to saturate the World, but the Ethers, radiant with life, to capture every soul gathered, to put their seal on the World.

It was for this that Merope was being prepared, for she was the channel through which they would flow. Augured into birth under her prototype, as the Voice of Divinity decreed. The surge that was to take place was the greatest that had ever been, so that every man could catch alight.

In what direction, lay within his hands, for if he had been exercising his mind, then the result could be dynamic. For this inflow of the Gods would be a mighty moment, when all the heights would combine in one vast sweep, to light up every living thing. This being a part of Hestia's hearth, when heights and depths of every soul must be unified into one graceful purpose.

HENCE THE FIRES ARE SENT DOWN TO CATCH UP EVERY MAN AND MAID, TO BRING FORTH A BABE IN THE WOMB.

For all now is by immaculate conception, where every wench cries out for a babe, that she can strengthen her lord in the heights. Therefore it is up to every lassie to dance on the village green and entice Mars to come to her side and spiral up to the heights, driving the Bull from the orchard. His task was to plow the fallow field, ready for the next sowing in that springtime glory. Thereby to unfold the wonders of the heavens, bringing light and laughter to the depths.

Thus Merope was sent forth from depths to heights, for after unifying all into a point of glorified perfection...

THE DIVINE VOICE

AS Merope laboured to draw forth the Waters from the Well of Truth, Divinity came to sup from the purity of her endeavours, and guide her on her Path of Sacrifice. For was she not the Divine Virgin, carrying His Light within her Mind, feeding Him with her divine beliefs, that He could reign in all glory upon her raised up Arc of Solar deliverance. (See text in col. 1).

every soul, becomes the MIND and Voice of the god-born soul. Thus as Merope drove on in her expansive drive, she found herself driving through a mighty orchard. With trees everywhere over-laden with fruit, which she knew were waiting for the May-day firing.

Pink and white blossom smelling fresh from the glory event, which was being imparted into the depths on May the first, by the intent of the Gods.

By then the Virgin Ethers will have reached their full, and as an abundance of Divine LIFE, were going to swamp

... she went forth in her etheric body, travelling by the vibronic wonder of astral travel, carrying the light into their depths.

Then on May the first when the Eridanus begins to flow, which now was Merope's Golden Stream, the mighty Atomic Fires of the Ether Holy magnitude, would burst in abundance to the Earth. Those who could, would be filled with active light, while those who failed, would be driven down to Acheron. Whereas in the past it flowed down from Orion, now it incorporated the Virgin Ethers, with the Glory of the Central Sun.

The Divinity entering into the bloodstream of man, as the Mighty Glory that Merope rose up to that Central Glory, the risen up ARC of the Heavens. Thus every man born of the Judgment Fire, that either turns you back into your god-like issue, or turns the soul black, to work out his error in judgment.

While through the sacrifices which the Scapegoat has made, the Stream now becomes the acme of Virgin Theocracy, that brought into birth by her LOVE and belief. What could have turned out to be a "big wrath to come," through her compassion as the Christed One, became the reality of LIGHT. For she made the way for Divinity to embrace those that were ready, through the glory of their bloodstream.

This being the River of Wrath which the religious fanatics have raved about. For owing to the evil installed into its waters at the beginning of time by the Egyptians, and the licentiousness embodied by the Medo-Persians in later times, its rebound could be none other than what it had received, unless there was one willing to sacrifice of themselves, in redeeming the inborn Law. Thus instead of being a Stream of destruction, Merope turned it into that of Atomic Virgin FIRE. With the Holy FIRE as the Royal Divinity entering the hearts of all who were ready, and papalism condemned to the grave.

Therefore as Merope polarised all those roots, by the holy belief of her thoughts, she gave them the mortuary meal, which brought forth their royal intention. Thus opened up the eyes of many who were truly seeking for light.

The Eridanus was the Power of the Abstract that had been turned into illusion, to be used by man for his own self-aggrandised desires. For as Merope drew down its Glories onto the Pleiades, she was wooing it down to aid the gods in their earthy dilemma.

But instead of raising up the Solar Glory in Taurus, they brought forth the 'moon' instead. Thereby turning all onto the lunar plane, burying themselves in the pit of Tartarus. But now Merope has turned it into that of the Ether Causation, a Golden Stream of Abstract beauty, which will flood the World on May the first, with the Divine Ethers in all their Glory.

POLARISATION

The Mystery of Divine Embrace

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

(This lecture was delivered at the School of Universal Philosophy and Healing on Sunday, the 16th March 1969 by the Great Flame through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook).

ONCE AGAIN WE COME TO THE DIVINE MYSTERY OF THE NORM, THE Theocratic World of Divinity; the royal Seed-glory of Holy Divine Pearls, gathered up over the Ages. That born out of the Nebula Glory, that as an Atom came down by lowering its frequency, then slowed down and became a solid flat Plane in the Abyss. All happening at the beginning of TIME, which in now being raised up by Merope, the reborn Goddess of Fire, has by frequency polarised all back to the Glory of the Central Sun. Whereby she, in her Virgin unfoldment, has unified with HIM in divine and holy Embrace, bringing all men back to their god-like divinity.

The Atomic Stream

THE lost World of the Divinities, the spot of "IT," which is now going to manifest as the new inflow of Divine mind. The Solar central point of octavial frequency, which is alive with Atomic Symphony, awaiting the tympanic oscillating movement of the unfolding soul. That which he will give birth unto as Atomic Fire, once the Holy Fire has ignited the Atoms.

For the lost world is the NORM as the atomised higher brain, which knows of the before and after as the CAUSE of LIFE. That which is going to emancipate past, present and future, sealing all with Atomic isotope balance, the mighty glory of the FACE.

For the whole of Merope's Essence, is now feeding this Atomic Stream with the pure golden light of her dancing spleen. This she revolves within the great galaxy of her unified being, and pulsates through her glorified heart-beat. Therefore, as one great Atomic Stream, she is Infinity Divine, the whole of the New World to be, bringing into birth the ever-changing FACE, the mighty Causation of Divinity.

This defines the mighty depths of the soul in its internal heavenly growth, with man as the common denominator, who now manifests of that divine unfoldment. He as soul of no real creation, but just positive and negative attributes which he has built up out of the inflowing Elements, the glory from Outer World Space, the mighty mystery of the Ethers. Thus as man, he now being no more than the light he builds up, that which he believes he is by divine polarisation.

For man is only mind, the raised up Fiery elements of the depths, that of Octavial rhythm. That of pulsating atomic light, born from the Supreme Source of Virgin expansion. That which he is ever seeking to bring forth, through the chromatic sensitivity of the manifesting divinities, through the Atomic Myths of the expanded NORM. Thus to become the glorified mouthpiece of the Holy Fatherhood, the elevation of the divine-born god.

For now, by the mighty internal implosions, the Solar phenomenal Chromosomes are now radiating the Arc with supreme Virgin expansion of the Central Sun. Where the polarisation is now the dancing ecliptic Solar Breath upon the Colure Path of his Orion majesty of becoming.

Yet the prototypal root that was risen up out of the embracement of Maia, as she became expanded into this Atomic glory by Jove. But now, through the treading of this path, Neptune the Holy mantle of Cosmic deliverance, has now been adorned in majesty by the soul, as the Atomic Pube.

This now being the spermed wealth of the timeless unified LOVE of Merope's Atomic royal mind. Thus in the elevation of these divine-born gods out of the pit of captivity, is it the mystery of the Breath upon the Hydroxyl fed meninges, the unfolding glory of the soul. Thereby, the fertilising and activating of the slumbering Seeds out of this Atomic-born mystery.

Thereby into the birth of the uncreated Word-less spheres of the phenomenal Void, as the manifesting divine glory of the hereafter. The soul now born of the supreme Point of the Source, making him a divine and holy being.

Funeral Games

THUS the celestial Octaves now forming a new golden bridge of divine Solar Freedom, in the inflowing Atomic Stream of heavenly Ether life. The glory of the superluminary bridge, now bringing freely unto the soul the Neptunian glory of Atomic Fire.

Hence the Metric Supreme Divinity is now manifesting as the cosmic brilliance, the Almighty Shaddai in the soul. The internal bodies radiant with light, the glory of the Soma Pneumatikon, the mighty wonder of the Holy Fire brought into being by Merope. The complete wholeness of the Breath, that which can now imprint its infused LOVE upon any magnetic depths, and caress of the Solar manifesting Word of divine Atomic infusion.

LOVE now being the caress of the Atomic LIGHT; that radiating forth from the Central Sun, as the Virgin infusion of Atomic peace. That which now infuses the whole of the Galactical Prism, with the Holiness of Divine Causation.

For the old predominance of force has been superseded by the Almighty Virgin strength of Merope, when she 'won through' on the Funeral Games set into operation by the Russian invasion upon the Czechoslovak nation. Thus now has become the Atomic generated strength of the NORM, the expanded Virgin Seed of Cosmic expansion. That which is now sperming the Stream with Atomic Theocratic justice.

Thus the divine interpenetration of these atomic-born

INFINITY

OUT of the mighty Stream of Becoming, Merope weaves the Garments of Divinity. Dancing in and out of the swirling Causation, she unfolds the Royal Peplos of the Heights and brings a greater Vision of Truth revolving from Heights to depths, revealing more and more, the Unseen Glories of the FACE. (See text in col. 1).

LAWS will now infuse the Atomic dancing Flame of the Holy Fire. That which will revolve the Virgin Plane into a Solar Divine fulness. It being such as Russia who sought to bring forth as the crux of war, but Merope forestalled them by polarising the atom, negatising all lower states in the depths.

For she now knew, that by polarising the Atom through her own human frequency, she could rule out their manifestation of destruction. Hence the proof was in the action, which she set into motion, to find that it truly worked, as painful as it had been. Thereby proving the might of the human soul, when rightly understood and manipulated in its glorified construction.

The wealth and wonder of Woman and her Fount, now raised up to Virgin glory. That raised up to be radiating at the rate of the Central Sun, the mighty wealth of generated Divinity. That unified together under the glory of Relativity, until the NORM was Solarised as the gold nugget point of divinity.

She completely raising the frequency higher and higher, until it made complement with the magnitude of the Central Sun. Ever perceiving and polarising the wisdom of the Fount, at the rate of timelessness in true constructive

LOVE. For by perceiving and believing, she automatically ruled out the lesser, having conceived the greater light, the beauty and royalty of divinity.

While the action that followed in the treading-in, was in taking the pain of expansion. That is, embracing and manifesting the power required to turn all into the Divine Lamb, and exhibit that of the glorified belief. Whereby the lower depths bent on destruction were negatised and suppressed by the superior power, she over-riding their power of conquest.

Thus Merope ever went on revolving and extracting the wealth from her own depths, Powers. They that revolve the cosmos within, taking that of the earth, and changing it through the mind, into a paradise of Neptunian Light. Therefore the attachment of the NORM to the whole of past TIME, is the expanded wealth of the lost world. The world of the Ether Kingdom, which is now the World of the Central Sun, the compromised glory of the NORM, as drawn unto herself by Merope.

This being the lost wisdom of the Russian Myths, those of the Highlands of the Mongolian wealth. That which has ever been subdued by the merciless power of the atheistic NORM paralysis. Thus as Merope more and more realised of this truth, through her elevated status, she went on revolving by determined will and purpose, and her belief in the glory of Divinity. That they would aid and sanctify her project, if she gave them the power to work through her. She ever living and believing in a glorified purpose, to the extent of her NORM ever radiating the wonders of divinity.

Therefore the 'Sun in Scorpio' in the true sense of the Word, is Divinity and Solar Glory in the revolving radiating bloodstream. Its mighty force driving the Circle of Willis around the root of the brain, raising all belief up to the glory of divinity. Thereby extracting from the Hydroxyl Breath the full quota of Ether magnitude, whereby all hormones and osmotic interpenetration being now of Solar radiation. A continual interpenetrating belief, whereby Merope could polarise all evil into good, bringing the negative into the positive.

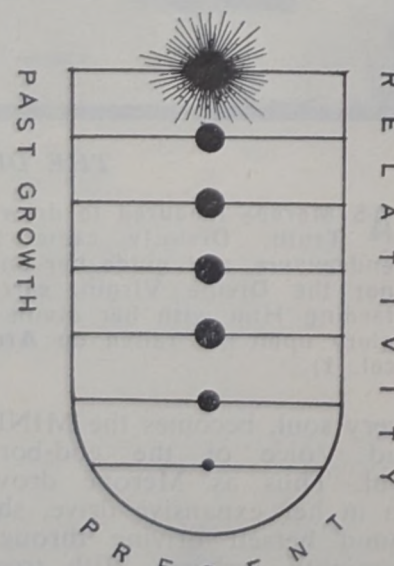

RAISING ALL UP FROM EARTH AND WATER TO FIND THE FIERY BELIEF OF DIVINITY. HENCE A MIND THAT WAS ALIVE WITH ZEST AND ZEAL, WORKING EVER FOR THE GOOD OF HUMAN UNFOLDMENT.

Thus ever bringing the divine Ether Powers down to the depths, and raising all up in glorified belief, sending light up in the acceptance of its holy glory. Hence the heavenly beauty now manifesting in the depths as a polarised glory of belief, but all manifested through the NORM as the Polarised Chakra elevation of divinity. For the crucible pot is in the frequency of the depths, the first Martian act of transformation.

Then the raising up of every Prana unfoldment, raising the whole of the sensitivity of the complement. But ever with a whole-hearted belief, that the whole of the unifying manifestation was reborn, and raised up bit by bit. All black and white atoms raised up to a golden radiance, until the NORM, the Atomic glory of the god propensity, was the radiating Solar glory of the soul.

The soul only seeing all projects of life from a god-like purpose, perceiving and believing all from a divine purpose, thus manifesting REALITY in the depths. Not merely imagining such beauty, but believing that such was existent.

Thereby Merope living in a world of heavenly glory, through her mind being able to live in the higher Spheres of Reality, by witnessing the Rhythm of the Spheres in her own divinity. Thus living it in her mind as seen by the glory of her writing, which would be the shedding of her radiance to help raise up the minds of all, to free the spirit from captivity in the depths of avidya.

polarising all she brought into birth, until the opposition became completely negatised. For the opening of the NORM was the fulfilment of the Great Work of Atomic unification. That which has centralised the Virgin Breath of the Holy Fire, into Atomic radiating Divinity, which is now going to Stream to the Earth as a moving Sea of Fired Seeds.

All prepared and spermed, ready to battle with the negative states of its underlying polarity. For the divinities are the higher minds that are now going to master the lower, for they have learnt through the glory of Merope, the answer to the mystery of LIFE. For they now sit at the flood, and are going to survey the earth in all its atomic rebirth.

Hence man is at the threshold of the subconscious positive realms of the Atomic

The glory of the higher Ethers buried under the density of matter, now raised up to the glory of the mind, the wonder and beauty of Reality. The Void now radiating with light, as the unifying factors revolve in harmonious glory. All brought into being by a raised up mind, the soul dancing with the heavenly rhythm, as did Merope, when she brought down the glory of the Unknown into the dancing beauty of the Pleiades. Thereby to woo it right down into the depths, to sperm the stagnant god into active life.

The Virgin Mind

WHAT was once a Cosmic descent, drawn down by the belief of the Goddess, that man could be divinely rejuvenated in the depths, now is a Transcendental manifestation. But stolen for the time by the avidya of man, not yet perceiving the greater possibility of raising all up to light by the sensitivity of knowing. The mystic being one who has fathomed this belief, and initiated himself into its greater glory. Ever stripping the depths of its darkness, and radiating a more glorified World of heavenly light.

But all manifested in the BEING of man himself, by transmuting all into the glory of light, for he is the knowledge of depths and heights, and wisdom of its radiating glory. All raised up to a fiery manifestation of a state of cosmic consciousness, perceiving Divinity and embracing divinity, in the glory and beauty of the mind. As the composer and the poet perceive the beauty in the glory of the dancing Elements through his polarised thoughts, does he earth as audible Word, and raise the momentum of man's mind up to glorified heights.

He who has arielsed his mind in dancing rhythm by the belief in Divinity, has become divinity-born in his own unified complement of unification. Thus a soul spiritualised by the elevated assumption of knowing and believing, and living in a world of make-believe, until he actualises all into manifestation.

Slowly assuming by initiation the glory of dancing with the gods, in the wonders of the meninges. Thus by frequency, living up in the heights of the divine perception; yet whether heights or depths, all in the mystery of the mind. For as the Abel is born and the Cain awakens out of his worldly blunder, will the complement of the soul, split by earthy attachment, be re-assembled of divine perceptory belief.

The heavenly beauties through the Breath, now a recognised unification, with the soul freeing itself from the consciousness of the flesh, and living by the glories of the mind. Thus ever living with the higher Elements in the raised-up radiation of the gods, with the glory of divine polarisation.

Thus the feminine principle now becoming the Virgin mind, as she seeks the holy glory of divinity. For the New World has been born, it being as the Atomic Void of the phenomenal glory of the spirit. For Merope is the Virgin Spirit of which the whole world has now become.

Therefore as the status of the Theocratic Law, no man can escape the new metatome of cosmic pulsation, for as Merope oscillates, so will man, for all is consecrated by her blood sacrifice, with every man being born of her self-less love. Thus every man will be born to give, which will bring forth the divinity within them.

Hence Cosmic Plutocracy is the atomic pulsating Fire, which is awakening the NORM wealth into bringing forth of inner divine wisdom. Thus as the Words of the Plane of Divinity are formed, and draw closer and closer to man, will the infiltrating Word set the quivering NORM of man alight.

Every man will be infused with atomic Power, hence it will be amazing of what will now manifest as it brings forth of his inner wealth. Growth gathered up over the Ages, and now brought up to the Plane of MIND-DIVINITY, by the prototypal Cause of Merope. Therefore, Cosmographic light is the Power of the lost Divine Word, which is going to infuse the Breath with the imprint of the NORM SKY.

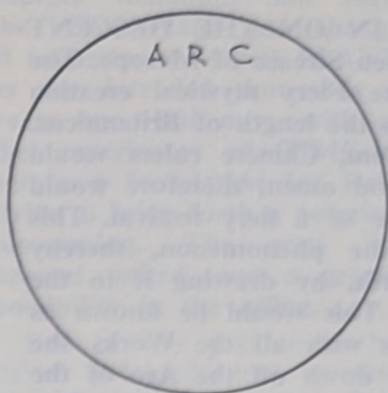

For the sky within the NORM is the sea of Holy Fire, and is the new Wind of Change that is going to set the New World into a dancing Fire ritual of Atomic glory. A new World set into motion by all now manifesting on the NORM frequency, set into action by Merope. For as she so sets the LAW and its frequency, does the Breath and the Plane of activity now manifest. The Scapegoat having been the means of transporting soul life from the depths into the heights.

Hence Virgin light is the sensitivity of this Divine Plane, which now is the royalty of the Spirit. For the NORM sensitivity can only live in the Sea of Cosmic-consciousness, that of Heart purpose. Thereby is the inner and outer radiance of man, as he so believes in his own divine being. Hence unifying with the Virgin Ethers to polarise his thoughts of Atomic might, into an expansion of Atomic fulfilment. For all now is of atomic consciousness, in this world of Atomic expansion.

Thus Soviet diplomacy and Catholic ritual are the core of Virgin stagnation, which is the stranglehold of the Cosmic Breath. It being as polluted enigma of suppressed expansion, which is now, through the labours of Merope, going to force them open to receive the Atomic light of the Virgin Spirit. That which will bring forth their suppressed wealth to flow into the Stream, and they, if they do not respond, to become a decaying root in the old world of matter and FORM.

To see this more clearly, perceive the Arc or Sine of the World as that being raised up by Merope's belief...

At the same time building up a new FACE as unto the reigning Deity of Cosmic Intelligencia by that ever-unfolding Breath growing in the heights. A continual Stream of change set into motion by the king and queen on the Chess-board of LIFE.

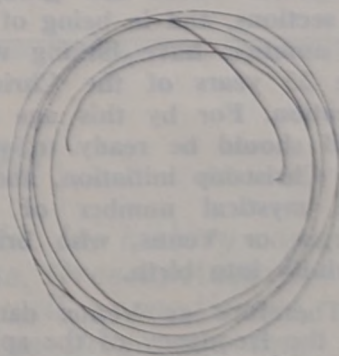

All this is revolving around and through the NORM, from it to the Central Sun by polarisation, through absorption of the Breath. Which again, has the lesser infinity from heights to depths in the soul creation.

THE GREAT MOTHER

FILLED with the beauty of selfless LOVE, Merope willingly gave of her blood-life, that the fallen gods could be retrieved. Unceasingly she nurtured their every possibility, ever hoping that they would awaken out of their darkness and return unto Divinity the glories that were the heritage of their long-forgotten past. (See text on page 6, col. 5 and page 7, col. 1).

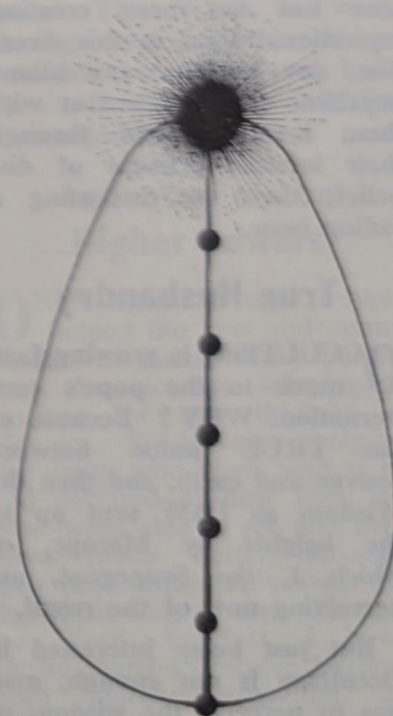

But as there is an upper Arc, must there ever be its lower correspondence. For by her being the upper LAW, causing an Infinity of revolving thought, will her vibrations ever be revolving in a circularised movement round and round unto Divinity.

Ever causing the lower to be impregnated by the higher: thus the higher atomic frequency infiltrating into the lower, ever clearing away the density of darkness. As Merope's serpent swallows his own tail, carrying up the lesser to those heights, it implodes by alchemicalisation into the higher. Increasing the volume of mind conception and perception, ever continuing in the reverse, by it having the same reaction. But this time, carrying the depletion back for rejuvenation.

While Merope in being the Cosmic Scapegoat, does so, by transforming the gods within her own meninges. Thereby demanding a greater inflow from the heights, to feed and complement the supply.

The more she can absorb in the depths from that Ether inflow, the higher is she going in absorption.

Unfolding The Cosmic Reality

YET it is the lesser that really controls the greater, for as the lesser revolves and brings forth greater wealth from the depths, through Seed extraction from the Breath, is greater atomic divinity infiltrated to the NORM, unfolding the gods in the meninges to a greater propensity. While the NORM then becomes the Atomic Field of unfolding life, and the New World of creative purpose. The ever-changing atomic drive, set into operation by the Scapegoat.

When seen in form, it appears impossible, but since all is vibration when set into motion on its highest frequency, it over-rides and infiltrates all denser matter. The atomic frequency then causes the magnetic frequency to change, thereby dispersing the density.

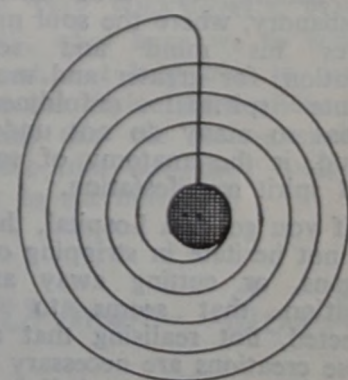

As each reborn frequency takes possession of the NORM, does it become as a reborn divinity. A personality rebirth, which is seen as the string of Karmic inborn lives which Kali is ever treading into life, to reimburse the higher mind with light. By this the soul becomes Solar-born, but when it refuses to redeem its wealth, it remains in the clutches of Saturn.

Here lies the REAL cosmic truth of all religious ritual, as wisdom placed into emotional dogma, to hold the minds of the unintelligent. Yet wisdom that must be understood by all atoms, for whether they are blind or not, every soul will, some time or another, have to drink the 'cup' to the bitter dregs. It can only be by true Phallic worship, that the soul can release itself from the density it is in, and transport itself up onto the Atomic Mind Plane of Cosmic Fiery rebirth.

By this ever-revolving infinity of perpetua mobile, are the lower roots of impending magnetic attraction dissolved and buried-in. For there is not only density obstruction, but mind-memory that has to be erased. Yet as the lower is dissolved, must the higher take its place, otherwise the soul becomes a blank vessel, a playground for elemental forces to set up an independent revolution of their own. Thereby building up a giant creation of magnetic immensity.

It is only by the soul conquering all element forces, both of Earth and Outer Space, that it can be the recipient of the Atomic Mind Plane of true heavenly rebirth. Where all now is of FIRE and action, and the soul is manifesting of the uprisen spirit. The negative ever embracing the positive, whereby the Fiery inflowing glory of the upper Ethers is ever dissolving the lower, and giving it rebirth as conscious light. Yet the ever in-driving God-born immensity, slowly unfolding as a mind-creation through that human revolving infinity.

A revolving accruing power of FIRE, which becomes a conscious state of mind sensitivity of LIGHT. Yet the in-born measure of "IT" striving to manifest through "ITS" offspring, the unfolding consciousness in the depths. Thus ever in the revolving continuity, awaiting the opportunity of that manifestation. The Virgin ever giving forth of greater birth to her in-born belief of that unseen Deity. Until eventually as the Scapegoat Merope, she and HIM become ONE, with Merope polarising her own Source, becoming the mouth of the Source in blended harmony.

Central Sun, but the scientists themselves silly, in discussing a meteorite; but where from?

Activity of the Theocratic Laws

THE Fiery mystery was Divinity action, preceding the inflow of the Fiery Waters to the depths, thereby bringing into birth a trail of events. Thus causing one of the curses to evolutionary progress, dear Charlie de Gaulle, to slip off his throne, and opened up the way for greater friendship amongst the Nations. While Harold has surpassed himself, and once again proved himself to be the efficient leader that the Greater Powers are working through, to bring Law and Order to the World. For he is being used as the prototype to establish the ways and means for the World to follow.

We have been warned that we shall not like all that the Higher Powers will carry out through this channel, but it will pull the world together. While in the next two years, vast changes are going to take place under the auspices of Uranus. But as we sail along with them, we shall not notice the actual change, so much as the circumstances.

The major thing being, every man trying to build up a MIND body, whereby he can think independently of all sects, and try to create and be useful to the community. Ever returning the atoms as light, back to the Higher Galactical Powers, that there can be an infinity of revolving Power, Law and Wisdom.

THROUGH THE UNSEEN VIBRATIONS AND LAWS OPERATING IN THE WORLD NOW, ALL IS IN THE DIRECTION OF PEACE, ALTHOUGH THERE WILL BE INTERNAL DISTURBANCES AS EACH NATION TRIES TO READJUST ITSELF.

While the Jews and Arabs, as much as they will not like this statement, are blood-brothers, and like the lion and the unicorn, are fighting for the crown of blood superiority. Therefore, it is best for them to settle their problem alone.

But much else has taken place since these Waters descended, with any who have embraced their descent, feeling more alive and fired into active purpose of investigation. Yet this being but the beginning, for on June the 2nd, the hearth of the soul should be well alight, and firing the whole of the inner bodies with Solar glory.

So let us seek into what this really refers to, for it is not pagan, as many have been led to believe, but true divine husbandry, where the soul nurtures his mind and soul creation, for greater and more astute spiritual unfoldment. What so many do not understand, is the anatomy of soul and spirit manifestation.

If you go to a hospital, they do not hesitate in stripping out organs, or cutting away any creation that seems to be affected, not realising that all these creations are necessary to life. They have no belief in Powers that have linking with

HESTIA'S HEARTH

MUCH HAS FOLLOWED IN ON THE DESCENT of the Eridanus, the Golden Stream of Merope. The most propitious being the Fiery mystical creation that sailed from South to North, up the length of Britannicus. In the days of the Middle Kingdom, Chinese rulers would have thought this to be a very good omen, therefore would have ordered the peasants to create of a fiery festival. This would be the creative side of the phenomenon, thereby establishing the Fire upon the earth, by drawing it to the Earth, through the active festival. This would be known as treading it in, which Merope does with all the Works she creates. This present creation came down off the Arc of the these creations, that now are coming to the earth, and are intensifying their atom roots in the soul growth. As a soul breathes, he will breathe in of these descending Ethers that contain these Powers. Creations that are coming down to rejuvenate their only creative manifestation upon the Earth. For man and the heavens are closely associated, the man feeding from the heights, with the heavens receiving the aspirational glory from the depths.

MIND, THEY ONLY CREATE FALSE PASSIONS AND ANIMAL INSTINCTS.

True husbandry brings sensitivity and frequency, which are created in the spinal activity, by the inter-union of the depths and heights of the soul creation. The Breath that creates the Hormones, travels to the depths through the bloodstream, and creates the living fiery waters of the liquor sanguinis, as Solar life in the plasmic creation.

pineal Chakra, is the mystical Seed-box of soul creation. All brought into fructification by the Solar Galactical creation of matter. As man breathes in of the Ethers, he draws in of this Cosmo-Galactical infusion.

Then as he wrestles with life, in the ionising of the elements, he perceives how much he has gathered, and what possibility there is to bring of further light into his inner being. This is the science of the future, where man Theocracy, the Divine ruling of the vast Hierarchical Heavenly Glory, man is going to be led and helped.

So by turning to divine husbandry, the true science of living, man can absorb the Fiery inflow of life, and find himself alight with Fire, action and zeal, to live a useful life full of creative purpose. Thus the Fire sent down on May the First, if fully breathed in and not impurified by the false desires of man's so-called created luxuries, could by June the 2nd, set the soul alight with new mind-thought and belief.

Then by the Autumn, that of the Autumnal Equinox, the soul will have stepped up onto a higher plane of creative thinking, which he would strive to establish of the spirit at the Christmas festival. Then in April would be of greater mind growth, throughout the whole of his seven bodies.

A World of Mind and Fire

THIS is the procedure for the next two years, building up of his atomic mind body; then man either goes forward as one of the New World creation, or sinks back into the old world, to pass out of existence at death. The future is a World of MIND, where every man will strive to think originally, with the wealth being offered to him from those vast Fiery heavens.

He will find that illusion, which has been his bugbear in past lives, falling away for clearer and greater thought. The sending up of missiles into Space by the scientists, is because they picked up the wisdom out of the inflowing Causation of Space travel. Yes! but not by missiles, but soul sensitivity; which of course they are meeting now, in the loss of their many generals.

Climbing up the inner frequency of the inflowing Causation by mind unfoldment, where, by the FIRE of the heavens and the old creation within the soul uniting, a new and greater thought can burst into light in the mind. This is soul growth and mind perception of unfolding evolution, that which the Higher Powers are watching over, for the Breath that comes down contains all their atoms.

Thus, in feeding the soul Atom with their renewed life, they seek for soul to return as light. Then their Star magnitude grows, and the heavens and the earth become born of light, and not remain in terrestrial darkness of wisdom. That was what the atoms fell into in pre-Atlantis, which resulted in Atlantis being a World of darkness, where the divine light with the gods was severed for the time being, as they

DELUGE

DELUGE only comes when man does not honour the Powers that he has taken; only using them for the purpose of self-satisfaction, and not as they were intended, to unfold the MIND PLANE of DIVINITY. (See text on page 9, col. 2).

But the trouble has been, man has not been creating aspirational light in this direction, and here we can blame papalism once again. But with them losing ground through their internal schisms of disbelief, they are becoming a fading issue.

True Husbandry

OCCULTISM is growing fast, much to the pope's consternation. WHY? Because of the TRUE union between heaven and earth, and then the Wisdom as LAW sent up to the heights by Merope, of which I, the Scapegoat, am perceiving now of the result.

But just being interested in Occultism is not enough, man has to perceive the wisdom of its direction, for Occultism is the science of living. Then having perceived of its practical concept, set to and make it his creative husbandry. Just living only brings disease and sickness, while divine husbandry brings internal Fire, and that is life and divinity.

SO THE QUESTION IS, HOW TO OBTAIN THIS FIRE BY NATURAL MEANS AND NOT BY FALSE STIMULANTS, DRUGS AND ANIMAL FLESH? NONE OF THESE CREATE A

This being broiled in the depths as the waters of the Mistletoe, which if carried up the spinal column as spiritus air, fires the Pranas or spinal vertebrae. These are grouped in sections, and in being of 33 in number, have linking with the 33 years of the Christos creation. For by this age the soul should be ready to start his Christship initiation, and is the mystical number of the Virgin or Venus, who brings divinity into birth.

Therefore as Venus dances up the frequency of the spinal sensitivity through the Word or Wisdom assimilation, the lower five Chakras are carried up to the sixth, and the NORM, the seventh, is set alight with the glory of the Solar rebirth that was set into fired action, on the lower hearth.

This is soul husbandry, the major wisdom of the Bible, all legends and wisdom of the past. For they set the prototype and man today must blossom these into light, otherwise he will merely become diseased and ill. For he is a part of the cosmic growth, that born out of the infusion of the elements.

Keep the mind in action, ever fired by zeal and purpose, and old age need never be feared, for the Norm or realises that it is the mind that counts. But further still, it is the inner bodies, found in the bloodstream, endocrine chain and glandular system, that serve and control the outer body.

At last the medical world are beginning to perceive of this, but as they do not know how to attack it, they pass it by. Well! it is these inner bodies that become fired by the down-pouring Breath, and through which the Virgin Ethers are now carrying out a far greater plan than ever known before.

Up to May the First, man was in control of the Earth, yet well out of control in so doing. Now the Great Powers are fully in control, and under cut off the inflow from the heights.

This is where the records of the Bible begin, when the Great Heavenly Powers called into being the Solar glory, through feeding man with Breath Causation, that he could build up a mind of thinking capacity. The greater depth to all this, can be found in the main articles of the Gazette, I am only just touching upon the deeper subject, to help the reader with the wisdom assimilation gained by the drawing down to himself of the heavenly Fire, through the mind coming away from the lower baubles of life.

But it is well to know, that the down-pouring Fire at the present moment, is very important, for it being full of atomic wealth, will start off the soul on a new path, that it can think in the greater direction. That is, come away from old worn out thoughts, and prepare to open up to greater and more elevated beliefs. For the World is changing fast, and man must change with it, for he is the worker and creator of the down-pouring Elements.

After all, there must be a system to soul growth, but man has become so wrapped up in finance and luxury, that he has forgotten the true science of living. Thus fallen to the drug and anti-biotic schemes, that the medical world have saturated the World with. Resulting in drug addicts and pedlar sharks stepping into the breach.

But if the soul can draw down to itself, at this moment, of these Fiery Waters, they will be stored within their inner bodies, with new life to carry them forward over the coming years, which will slowly help to heal these victims of cruel financial sharks.

If the soul does not respond to these down-pouring Waters, the soul will be below the frequency required, and not capable of meeting the inflowing vast life, that is going to descend onto the Earth. It is like re-lining a reactor, that it can take a greater inflow of Fiery life, for ALL is now FIRE.

A World of Fire and Mind, born out of the down-pouring Air or Breath; for as life evolves, it is going to increase in intensity, but not in the way it has been doing. This time, through the mind growth of the soul, and where those who have hidden wealth within their blood which they have not activated, will through this FIRE, be flared up into active mind creation.

Manifesting Divinity

ALL coming forth from the heavens, but started off through the in-flowing Eridanus, filled with the wisdom of Universal Philosophy from the School in the heights. As well as the heavenly Powers wanting their atoms sent back, as the Cycling of soul growth which man has been sadly neglecting through the wrong teachings given forth by religion.

If the wealth is not returned, the earth will not receive any more of this vast Seed growth of budding soul life, and the Seed life will die. This is where man can be turned into a robot, just a created Pinocchio. But by Merope, stepping into the breach as a Scapegoat, all has been changed and new active life can now begin.

But it is up to the soul to start his own soul husbandry straight away, on the new lines of Fiery rebirth. The reason why the catching alight is referred to as Hestia's hearth, is because she was the goddess who led the young Virgins in their first Fiery down-pouring. Now, through the present creation, a time will come when they will call this Fire union, Merope's Fires.

All this makes man an active participant in life, not just a rolling stone, but a soul who adds unto the active measure of soul growth. Yet something he has to do, for he is the continuity of life, with the World as he sees it today, an ever changing Plane of manifestation.

What it is today, will not be the same tomorrow, for the earth was once the moon creation. When that changed after the Atlantis creation, the Deluge followed and then Earth took over. But all that has happened is on and in the maelstromic belt of the earth.

(See plate on page 8)

Consequently, man is ever being drawn back to it, and was even seeping its creation up to the Gods.

But through Merope getting fresh ideas of truth from the Causation flowing down from the heights, and sending them back up as LIGHT to the heavens, new life began. New Cosmic Laws were created, and then she had to tread the wisdom into the Earth. To do this, the Gods founded her a Paper of her own, whereby she could flood the World with the wisdom of the Gods.

A well thought out Plan, that is at last beginning to capture mankind, and force the actual Plane into change. It becoming a MIND PLANE, as was intended thousands of years ago. But now, with all the experiences of TIME to act as a foundation for Relativity to bring forth a polarised blossoming. The past and present united, and a greater possibility in the offing.

For in the past, man has never unfolded, now he must unfold, with a fiery infinity revolving within his inner bodies, through that inflowing Breath uniting with her past wisdom, and blossoming it into elevated mind light. But if Merope had never unified of

He came down to further the Plan of Evolution, thereby activate and elevate the responsibility he had taken on in the mind travel into activity. For in the first place he had a mind, but created belief of mind growth, the active reasoning of Gemini. Now he must find the intuitional mind of Virgo, the Venus action of expanded creation. The dancing fluidity of thought and belief, and then putting it into creation, to unfold the beauty of growth.

By this, all has grown and manifested, man has become, and the road laid for yet greater unfoldment and elevated glory. Now believe it or believe it not, all has turned that goes to Rome, does not go to where it is purported, but to enlighten the blind.

First of all, after lying to the people regarding certain festivals, particularly Christopher and Christmas, he calmly declares that they never were of any importance. It indicates quite clearly that he does not understand the depths of either, both being most important to the unfolding soul. But if he can be so unreliable over matters that have been given to seekers, then what about the rest of the rubbish played out in litany and dogma.

Does he realise he is responsible for everyone who has trusted him and to whom he has given erroneous knowledge. If he really knew anything about Dante, he would have thought twice about making such statements.

I state categorically, that the pope has NO POWER whatsoever, and cannot change festivals that were set into motion long long ago. I am confident that this breach of Heavenly Truth and Divine LAW, will have a very bad reaction upon Roman Catholicism. You either give truth or no wisdom at all, and definitely the pope never utters one word of heavenly truth or divine light.

These festival days remain as they were, for the Heavenly Powers decree so, as the roots of these creations are in every soul, and must be brought to unification and light. By them being discarded by one who pretends to have authority upon these matters, he will carry the load that is stoning all who have believed in him. But no doubt the truth of the matter is that some of these festivals were too near to occult truths to be comfortable!

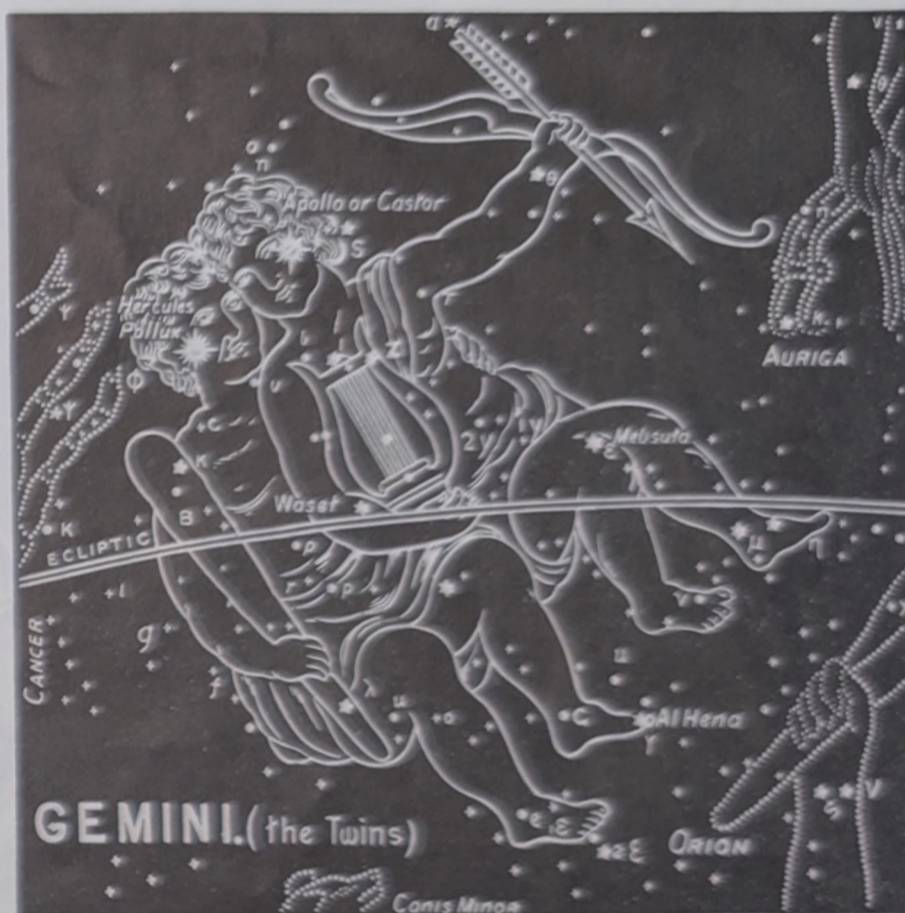

Then finally, if Jim Callaghan thinks that Harold Wilson is not ruling by Divine Rule, then he must think again, or if he has his eyes upon Mr. Wilson's seat, then need not waste his time. For this Prime Minister, the most trustworthy and honest we have ever had, is ordained to stay by the LAW OF THE HIGHER POWERS.

It only goes to prove how blind these unions are, not to see that if he was put out, there would be chaos as previously enacted by the Tory government. This man is ordained to bring England to Divine Rule, that it can become prototypal example unto all others. It is up to all of us to make sacrifices that such can take over, for knowing as much as I do about the horrors going on in the crime world, for this to increase, no man would be safe in his bed at night.

It is perfectly obvious that this man has no axe to grind, nor financial strings attached, where such a thing as steel is bought at inflated prices, to keep up one's own investments; nor has he any vested interests that feather his own nest while he is in office.

This man is genuine, and means everything he does, that he can fulfill his task to the very best of his beliefs.

But since HE IS GUIDED BY THE HEAVENLY POWERS, what have we to worry about, but help him to carry out his divine instructions. It seems that the wolves cannot entice him into their fold, so try to eat him up!

STARRY GLORY

THE depths and wonders of such Constellatory glories, have long since been forgotten by mankind. Yet holding the very basic of his creation and unfoldment, in their starry magnitude. Glories brought into birth at the very beginning of Time, and now awaiting soul's polarised beliefs to bring yet greater Light to their heavenly creation. (See text in col. 3).

the Planes, thereby giving man a one-way track of truth, the wisdom would have been scattered all over the soul creation.

For all creation goes on in man himself, and the LIGHT goes up to the heavens. But by soul husbandry he comes to this, more and more awakening to his possibilities, and realising his god potentials, but more than anything, subconsciously yearning to get back to the Constellation he came from, and became lost to.

over to its immortal growth once again, and man is set on the way for the upward trend back home. This means the end of the Solar Cycle, but involvement into the next Cycle.

Time is no longer as it was, but timelessness, so any soul can perform this in a much shorter time, and get back home. That is, if he works through soul husbandry to unfold his potentials, and build up a MIND of unfolding divine faculty.

Influence of the Higher Powers

ONCE again, I hope I have helped the new and young readers to clarify many points, that can act as jumping-off stations for new thought to blossom. While also helping the many who have written in and declared of how they are now being able to see and perceive much better through their persistency. This is due to the Spirit they absorb through the Word. In fact, I have known many to receive healing from merely struggling to comprehend.

Now, ere I close, I feel that I must comment upon a piece of current news. It is very funny that the pope should try to make a comeback by reconstructing the so-called saint and festival days, when I have been explaining the depths of their meaning. It almost seems as though the Occult Gazette

Health from Herbs

HERBALISM is the oldest healing art in the world. Its history can be traced back through the civilisations of Rome, Greece, Assyria and Babylon, and even beyond. Herbs are foods as well as medicines, and build up the general health at the same time as they cure any specific disease. Unlike drugs, which are inert, they are made from organic material instead of inorganic substances, and form an active or living medicine.

Here at the School we have a large quantity of loose herbs in stock, which normally will readily provide for all our requirements. However, we have listed below some of our more popular herbal pills, specially prepared for those who find them more convenient to take in this form, during the hustle and bustle of their daily occupation.

Nerve Pills.

Heart Pills.

Catarrh & Sinus Pills.

Eye Pills (Cataract etc.).

Laxative Pills.

Garlic Pills. (Blood, chest).

POLARISATION

The Yod and the Fount completely one, as seen in the Ankh carried by the Egyptians...

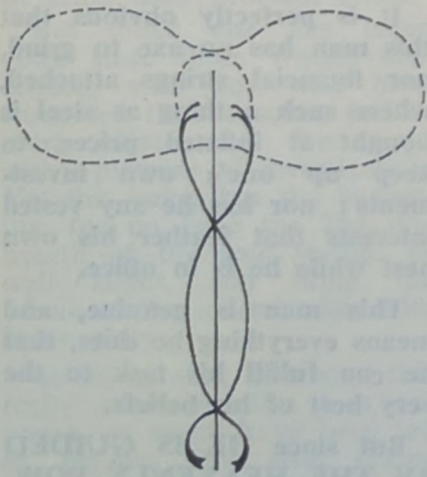

...but now of the Atomic Mind Plane of FIRE. This is the Circling of Worlds until Divinity is manifesting as the glory of the conquest, with the WORD as the liquid gold of the ever-flowing Stream of Divinity.

As the manifesting grows in the depths, does the inflowing Noumenon take on of a forming phenomenon. What has been merely as inflowing Breath, manifests to the unifying soul through her Virgo mind, the glory of the heavens. Therefore the embracement is narrowing down in its unification, where the Deity as The Great Eagle, now becomes the manifesting Fire-bird. The swooping glory that returns with the heavenly unfolded laurels, to place around the victor's head.

The mind that is crowned with the risen-up Fire, and becomes its own anointed glory. For its elevation in the depths, makes the corresponding elevation in the heights, and draws down to itself the eternal mystery of rebirth. Thus another soul begins a revolving, but ever on the prototypal Law set into motion by the Scapegoat, fulfilling the consummation of the Atom. The embodiment of the Atomic sensitivity and rebirth, the manifestation of divinity.

But it was here that Merope knew that the Holy Fire must go back to its own. Raising all men up from 'moon in Scorpio' unto the heights, where the Solar Glory could shine with divinity. That the Red Sea could be truly overcome and the Desert of Sin really blossomed into heavenly life once again.

But this time with the fullness of existence; thus every soul now shown the way to unify heights and depths by the Bull driving through the Thymus, and setting it alight. With the heavenly glory of Solar divinity coming into birth. Thereby the soul being initiated in crossing over from darkness into light...

...ever winging his mind into new-born heavenly belief.

Only by embracing all in true heart-born conception, could the polarisation be fully consummated, and harmonise all into perfected unity. For man has so badly disorganised the internal unity, that re-establishment had to be made. While the Serpent had never gone any higher than Saturn, with Jupiter ever an outstanding issue; but now Merope had gone right up to the Central Sun by raising Neptune up to the heights, crowning the depths with Solar glory.

(See plate below)

The Supreme Initiation Chamber

HER intent now, was to take a Solar son up into the realms of the Fatherhood, where the whole would become divinity-born, in the full sense of generative perception. Hence they were duly prepared and did so, a way was made by a slender bridge forming in the heights above them, but how to get up onto that bridge, required the solving of another problem.

But no sooner thought, than the horses suddenly opened up of wings from their well-groomed sides. Then up they rose, like the mighty rise of an implosion, to drive straight through the Thymus toll-gate, opened up by the force of the will of their drive. Now they were on foreign soil, that which had never been traversed before. Thus with a hot glare from overhead, yet almost like a mirage in the waters, opening up the way for their strenuous stupendous Castle. A glory from the mystery of Samarkand, as a past world of divine wonder. With turrets that towered up to the heights, lost in the heavenly clouds above. Everywhere was radiant with golden light and perfumed with exotic flowers.

As their horses came to the ground, a large door in the Castle swung open, to reveal a mighty hall filled with heavenly dignitaries conversing in tones of ether-born glory. As Merope and her sons entered, a hush fell upon those mighty gods who were awaiting these souls from the depths, that the supreme initiation of the hour to an Initiation Chamber, where they were prepared for their mighty Fire ordeal. Prepared and robed to take this dynamic glory to flood the world with Holy light, born of the divine Fatherhood.

As they knelt before the vast Altar, which seemed to rise up and up out of their depths of vision, they felt the mighty frequency of inflowing Fire, ever in a state of increasing volume.

The more it grew, the more they felt their exhilaration expand, until a mighty Stream of light caught them up, and swirled them into an intensity of radiance as never witnessed before. As it did so, there was a mighty rending, like an enormous flash of summer lightning, which seemed to rend the heavens in two. Driving down into the bowels of the earth, as though every plane, city and soul was rended through and through.

For the whole world had been struck with Holy Fire, which now would set everything alight. Causing untold chaos for the time, until man abided by its glories. As the Sun broke forth the glory was immense, with a warmth of unusual intensity.

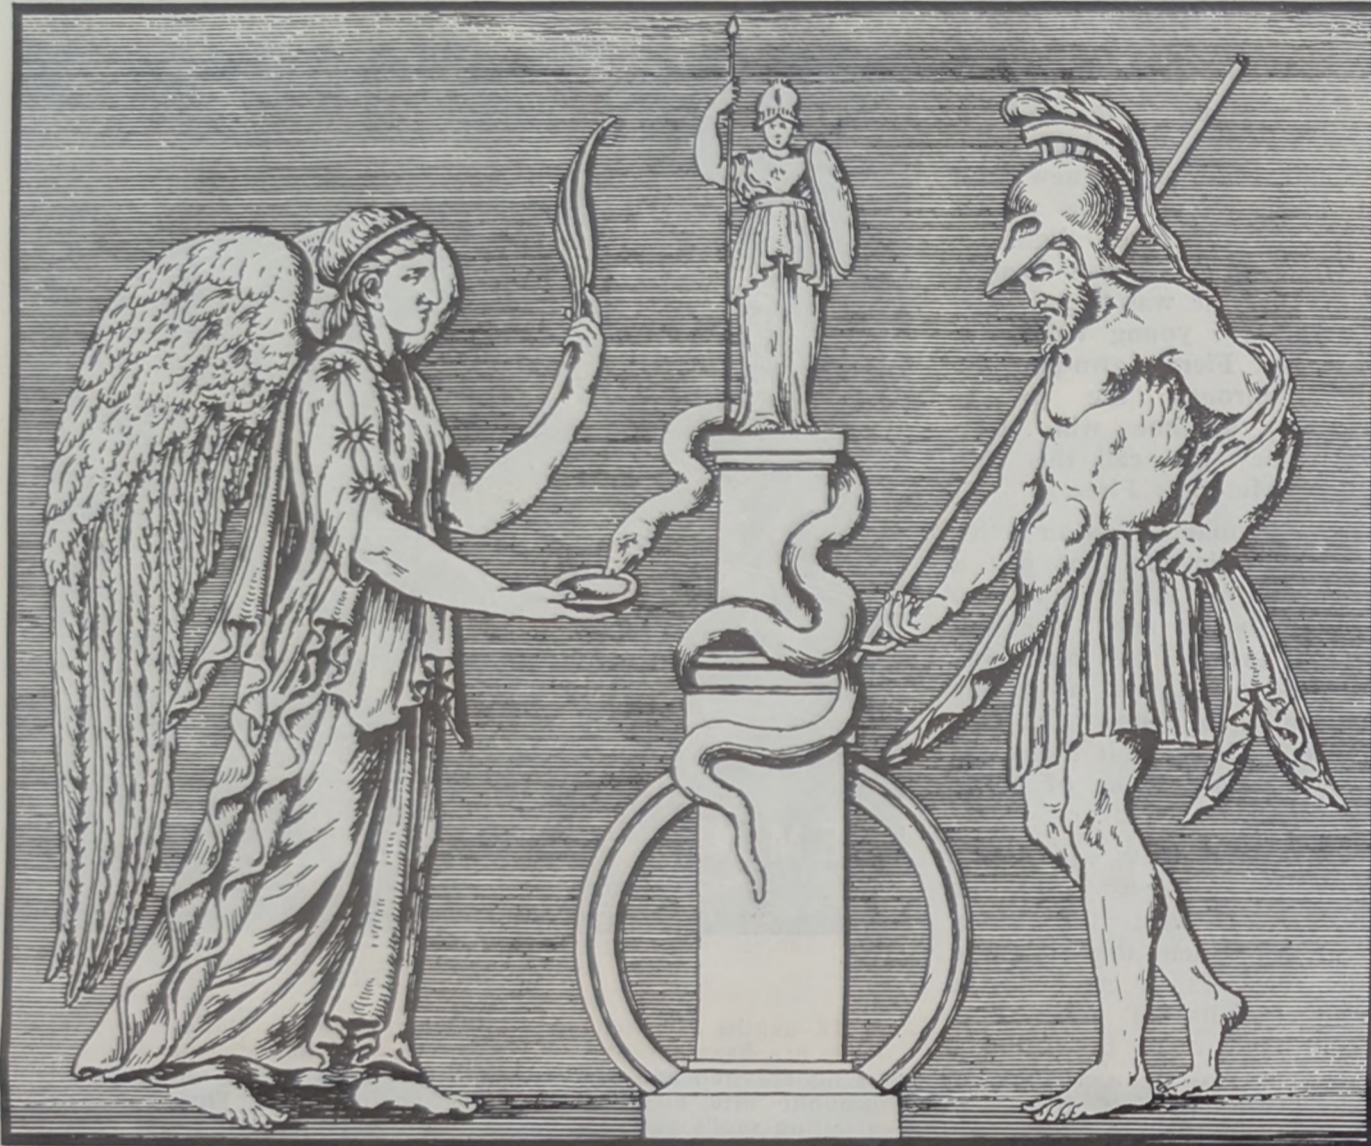

Yet deeper and deeper into the depths they seemed to go, into what appeared the depths of the Solar glory. Completely blinding them for the time being with the immensity of the light they were engulfed in. Embraced in the divine glory of Polarisation, the intensity of Atomic Holy Fire.

As their eyes became a little accustomed to the depths they had entered, everything around them was brilliant gold, which confounded their senses and equilibrium. But not without them all realising that they were the children of Divine Consciousness, born into His Holy Glory, each anointed with the Holy Fire, the glory of inborn divinity.

Then as quickly as they had entered, they found themselves back again in the depths of the phenomena concentration, where the vibronic changes had carried them up into heights of frequency only applicable to the mystic.

Merope again had prevented a nuclear war, but used the intensity to strike a light, that yet would bring forth its heavenly intensity as the days broke through.

For phenomenal rebirth is the transportation of one LAW into another, where old states are swept away, and greater Laws enter into the depths. Where men are risen up to holy rebirth, a further impregnation of immortality.

THE HOLY FIRE

AT last Merope had redeemed the fallen glories of the Fire, lifting it out of the clutches of the papal regime. Feeding it ever with Solar Glory, until it became embodied once more into the radiating Divinity of the Central Sun. Thus setting the prototype, and clearing the way for every Virgin Warrior to go forth, that he might also become a royal son of the Sun, in his unfolding possibilities. (See text in col. 2).

their hearts primed with glorified love, that they could carry the depths of light up to the Solar-born meninges. Thus their chariots were fired and set with heaven-born fiery steeds, for the run was fierce, to break through the jungle of the dense Thymus undergrowth.

Then the moment arrived and the hour set, with Merope leading her charges, she being wrapped in her cloak of invulnerability. That they could drive the atom up to polarisation and set the mount alight. Thus flare the Stream into heavenly light, by the Holy Waters being carried back up to the ways of light.

As they stood on the causeway, the horses chafed and stamped their feet, their impatience being duly marked; for they as the internal glory of the soul, were feeling the exhilaration of the rebound. Thus the moment came and the signal to 'start' was sounded, ringing loudly through all the spheres.

Then off they went across the Desert of Sin, driving the horses well and truly across its shifting sand. As Merope drove the rising abundance, the Bull drove the bulrushing high, with the Serpent seeking to obtain the crown, setting the bargain hard. Up they drove, higher and higher, with the horses foaming at the nozzle, the flecks of foam decking their flanks, and their tails streaming duly with the wind.

Then as they came unto the heights, where the merging waters crossed, Merope stood and implored those heights to make the pathway clear. As she ous drive, straight up the mighty causeway.

As they entered into those rock-bound heights, with dynamic cliffs towering on their side, they heard the shriek of Eagles and the roaring of Lions. Yet on they raced, out of the darkness into radiant light, entering into a magnificence that had never been witnessed before. For the serpent glory was now the heaven-born beauty driven up by the mighty Bull.

Everywhere was as intense radiance, with a fullness of isotopal divinity arrayed around could begin, for their task now was to make their entry into the internal of the Central Sun.

That the New World of Vega could be divinely born, raised up on the glory of the Holy Fire. That the Almighty Voice could now be their divine pleromic beauty, revealing untold truths from past mystic lands.

For all past mysteries were now raised up into atomic light, the mighty mystery of the Trinity. Therefore, with solemn gesture they were led

Astrological Delineations

MRS. Spearman-Cook is prepared to continue giving delineations of readers' horoscopes, as her time allows. These will be based upon the new world teachings, and is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

Price in England and abroad £7.7.0.

Price in U.S.A. and Canada $25.00.

IMPORTANT. Please note that all delineations will be by Tape Recording only on 5½" reels track one or 4" reels track 1 and 2 at 3½ in/sec.

MORE ABOUT HERBS

by Miss Winifred Chitham

WE were a family of enthusiasts, and in our quest over the years for herbs, and their healing, never once did our enthusiasm wane. It was our mother, and our brother the astrologer whom we called 'the professor,' who were most powerfully clairvoyant, and were at all times visited by Great Spiritual Beings, and both radiated power. We others, just as clairvoyant, and our father, were the philosophers. Our father was a born healer and master psychologist, and I have seen him talk to patients and as he explained the qualities of the herbs,—how and where they grew, what they were for, and how he was mixing them for each individual case,—he, though he knew it not, entered at that moment into the Deva Kingdom of Healing, and very often uplifted the patient's consciousness to such a degree that there was an instantaneous healing. Neither knew what had happened, but marvelled as to how the herbs had brought about the cure. This was experienced by us all from time to time.

WE often used BLADDER-WRACK, a seaweed washed in by the tide, which we found was good for all thyroid and glandular troubles, such as tuberculosis of the glands. It was found excellent for kidney and bladder trouble, also for dropsy. If used with Lemon Balm or Garden Balm it was very effective in chest troubles; in fact we found it an all-round herb to use, as it suited nearly everyone.

KELP TABLETS and POWDER, also from a seaweed, are a wonderful cure for heart, glandular, and kidney and bladder conditions. Much experience, and trial and error, have taught me that it suits the Water Signs best, or kidney, bladder and thyroid conditions. It is useless giving it to the Fiery types, as it has no effect upon them. But here again, one must use common sense.

Our mother's perpetual cry was "Earth the Wisdom, and with balance and common sense, this is the basis of healing."

COMFREY ROOT was used a lot, as we found this a wonderful healer for broken bones, sprains and fractures. It knits broken bones together, and should be taken inwardly and also used for bathing.

MULLEIN FLOWERS were found very effective for all kinds of scalp, ear, and nose troubles, also for eczema of the face and scalp. We had this made into an oil, which was thick and clear, and had magic healing powers. It is not known much about today, and is difficult to get, but was used very much by the ancient Egyptians when bathing. They also mixed it with Lily of the Valley for dyeing hair a golden colour. However, I have found Chickweed and Marshmallow herbs just as good to bathe in.

ROSEMARY, LILY OF THE VALLEY, and EYEBRIGHT, are very good for eye troubles. These three herbs are all stimulants, and if mixed with Bay Leaves, Sage and Thyme, are excellent in cases of weak and fallen hair. This mixture is indeed a wonderful cure and tonic with which to bathe the scalp, by dabbing it on the roots of the hair.

VERY often our search for herbs took us through the corn-fields, and the foot-paths were often in the middle of the fields. Here we gathered Shepherd's Purse for kidneys, Scarlet Pimpernell for blood troubles and disease, and Feverfew, Mustard, Horsetail and Dog's Mercury for eye disorders and blood conditions.

These herbs grew everywhere, and when in the vicinity of wheat, known as 'containing the germ of life,' they were infused with even greater life and healing power. This we discovered through our Spiritual Helpers, who inspired, blessed, and enlightened us all the time.

NATURE'S TREASURY

Our mother, for no apparent reason, loved to sing "Annie Laurie" as we walked through the cornfields, and "Coming through the Rye" when walking through fields of oats or barley. We all joined her in singing to our hearts content. I was tone deaf, but the rest of the family were trained choir singers.

We always had time to stand and stare, and our elder brother, and younger brother who died when he was ten years old, were the naturalists, being especially fond of birds.

One day in the spring, we all stopped for a while near a brook to have our food. We were watching some magpies playing 'follow my leader,' when the glorious notes of a thrush and a blackbird in full song, as well as a cuckoo, could be heard in the distance.

Birds love to play, and an hour or two before retiring the 'swifts' have a mad hour of play, swirling down and then up. It is a joy to watch them. Our brothers knew just where they built, and all about the butterflies too. The cows were grazing nearby, and the brook was singing away, when all at once we were all caught up in the Spirit, and we entered into the Rhythm of Mother Nature herself.

Feeling refreshed, we went about our tasks, gathering Pop herbs for herb beer which our mother was going to make for us.

AVENS, a little known herb, usually grows in April and May in the hedgerows, having a yellow flower on a single stem. This, together with Burnet, makes a wonderful blood cleanser for young and old. To these herbs we also added Jack-by-the-Hedge, Herriff, Burdock, Dandelions, Cowslips, Nettles, and purple and white flowered Nettles, often called 'dead nettles' because they do not sting; they grow everywhere but have not the qualities of 'stinging Nettles.'

These contain chlorophyll, and in cases of blood-disorders stand supreme. They are even more effective in cases of thrombosis, blood clots, hardened arteries and heart troubles. Pints of Nettle herb should be drunk frequently all day long, apart from anything else, which work sheer magic in softening the arteries and lowering the blood pressure, no matter how bad the case is.

This we learned from the gypsies, and in putting it to the test, found it was all they said. We often came across bands

We rather scoffed at the Blackberry Juice. However, the gypsies gathered some Blackberries, and squeezed the juice over some sand and gravel, telling us to come back in three weeks' time, which we did. It hardly seems possible, but where the juice had left a stain, all stone and gravel had disappeared. We have since tried it with great success. The snag is, it has to be fresh fruit; then again, not every one can take the juice. It is best used in between 'bouts,' or as a preventative, along with the medicine.

OUR MOTHER PREFERR-ED THE BLUE FLAG
GALL-STONE CURE, WITH A SLICE OF RAW PINE-

MARSHMALLOW ROOT made into a drink has the same effect. Place one table-spoon-full of the powder to a pint of boiling water, let it stand all night, then stir and drink the powder and the liquid. It seems there is nothing that Marshmallow Root does not cure, from ulcers, growths, blood poisoning, and a host of other conditions. We used it a lot, and the worst blood poisoning cases responded to it. We gathered much of it, with its purple flower.

The herb we used as well, with its sister-plant the Biscuit flower, which has purple flowers with a geranium-type leaf, and is more fragile. We used both as a medicine, and also made them into an ointment. Mixed with Chickweed it produced a more gentle drawing and healing quality, and was unbeatable for the blood, and as an ointment.

A GOOD cure for rheumatism we found was Tansy and Broom, Celery Seeds and Wild Carrot, and Nettles and Wood Betony. For arthritic cases we often used Comfrey Root, together with Celery Seeds for locked joints, and a few Mustard Seeds or Ginger. If that failed, then we used all the kidney herbs together; Tansy, Juniper Berries, Uva Ursi, Buchu, Southernwood, and a host of others. If this failed, then we used all the tonic herbs, together with Holy Thistle, Nettles, and Horsetail, often with magic results.

Wild Tansy is as good as Garden Tansy. Then there is Silver Weed with its tiny yellow flower and silver leaf, and Lesser and Larger Celandine, which all grow by the roadside. These are less well known than the others, but are all kidney herbs.

For tuberculosis of the kidneys, or Bright's Disease, one can always look for intestinal poisoning. We had outstanding success with Broom, both Garden and Water Broom, Lily of the Valley, Bladderwrack, Celery Seeds, Water and Wood Betony, Pellitory on the Wall, and Periwinkle. We mixed the whole lot together, and they proved to be wonderful, also in cases of gout and dropsy, and often with asthma and fluid on the lungs.

OUR approach to herbs and healing was unorthodox. Learn to mix the herbs, and not be afraid of doing so. Get away from the idea that each herb can only cure one complaint, because each herb can assist in healing many other conditions as well. If a particular herb does not suit, then try another. Elder, Angelica, Fennel Seeds, Marshmallow, Coltsfoot and Tansy, are herbs which can be safely used for any complaint.

Yes, we knew and loved all the herbs, and spent our lives gathering and using them, and thereby earthing the wisdom. Some we bought, others we grew, and always, always gathered them. Not a herb grew that we did not know. Nature is so wonderful in making abundant provision with a host of substitutes; if one herb did not suit our purpose, then we would use another.

HOREHOUND with its purple flower is of the Nettle family, and similar to Purple Nettles in appearance. This is for the chest, and with Lungwort and Yarrow and Feverfew is wonderful, also for influenza, colds and coughs. Then there is Woundwort with its spiky red flower, and when blended with Chickweed, Marshmallow root and herb, would heal all stubborn of gypsies, and we grew to respect each other, as we both had secrets to impart. They taught us the value of Hawthorn for heart trouble and blood pressure, and of the tonic value of Rose Hips. Their blood pressure cure was, Nettles, Hawthorn, Scullcap, Mistletoe, Broom, Lily of the Valley, which we found hard to beat, and added Borage herb, Lime Flowers and Marigold Flowers.

Always remember that what clears the blood also clears the kidneys, but are not kidney herbs in the general sense.

BORAGE HERB makes for cheerfulness, and as the old saying goes, 'clears the head.' It is rich in chlorophyll and is an astringent tonic, also effective when used for headaches, sinus trouble, blood pressure, nerve conditions and depression, and is invaluable as a herbal healer. Always remember that orange peel is a powerful aid in stomach and digestive trouble, but not for liver conditions.

Strangely enough it is the liver herbs which are the most bitter, Wormwood, Liverwort and Camomile. In dealing with the public, who will not take bitter herbs, I had to substitute these with Blue Flag Root, Angelica, and Fennel Seeds. For those who can take them, these herbs are a marvellous cure and liver tonic.

We learned much from the gypsies, such as Gravel Root being an excellent herb for use in conditions of stones, and gravel and sand in the bladder and kidneys. The herb actually grows in gravel by the wayside. The gypsies also told us of the Blackberry cure for gall-stones and kidney-stones. Blackberries always grow in hedgerows, and usually near gravel and stones. It is amazing how Mother Nature grows the herbs near that which they should be used for.

APPLE AFTER FOOD. THIS SUITS MOST PEOPLE.

It is not generally known what a wonderful healer the pine-apple is. It is an astringent and works on the digestive, gall, and liver organs. It is a great healer for the throat and works on the thyroid gland and larynx, and in cases of diphtheria before injections were used, was known in the countries in which it grew, to bring about a cure.

When healing with fruit, this needs to be taken in quantity. In cases of feverishness, or stomach trouble, as much as a pound of green grapes at a time should be taken, several times a day, with nothing else but cold or warm water to drink. Then the condition soon clears up. Blood pressure responds to black grapes, 1-lb. at a time, and several pounds a day for a week or so, which soon brings the blood pressure down, and softens the arteries.

Once, when feeling very low, Spiritual Helpers advised me to take one orange three times a day for three weeks, and what a difference it brought about! Oranges are rich in Vitamin C, for energy and vitality. Vitamin C is the one most used up in the body, so needs replenishing every day.

The fruit cure, as a medicine, amounts to a fast, and what suits one, does not suit another. Common sense must prevail at all times.

For quinsy we used Quince seed, which is hard to come by these days. Quince is a fruit which is half pear and half apple, and is not for eating raw, but to be made into Quince jelly. The seeds needed simmering, when they formed a glutinous liquid, which is soothing for all ulcers of the mouth and throat. It soon cleared the condition of quinsy.

In ancient times a man who had stained his hands with blood set himself out to be purified before he entered into the temple. This meant the land was defiled until the deed had been expiated: he took in the solar fire and used it wrongly. Manslaughter was not always looked upon as murder, and punishment as death was not always called for; for killing may be justifiable or even accidental slaughter, and it would be cruel if there was no escape from the avenger of blood.

So altars of refuge were provided which could bring means of atonement and mitigate punishment. This was seen by the progressing neophyte as the means of purification. For how did a man know that he had committed "murder" until it became revealed unto him in the mirror of investigation that it was the gods who had suffered.

As the initiate or the disciple slowly begins to unfold, he slowly begins to realise he has made errors and where he must begin to purify himself: he is looking into the mirror of time, into the karmic creation of time, and suddenly realises he must begin to make sacrifices of those states he once murdered.

In some it had been a matter of a sin offering in ignorance, and others a trespass offering where the soul deliberately stole and refused to return out of selfishness and greed. And by this escape to Tempo, the god who was the saviour would absolve the gods, as when Demeter purified Heracles for accidentally killing Cheiron with a poisoned arrow.

So if you on your path of regeneration as the initiate suddenly see where you have made a mistake and you begin to flagellate yourself and are prepared to crucify yourself or sacrifice, then you are absolved because you have come before the altar and you are begging of the Gods to give you rebirth and exemption from the errors of the past, so that you can go on from where you had committed that error of karma: in other words, it was the killing or subduing of karma, the rebirth into the heights.

Heracles was the hero who investigated and found out the answer through trial and error, although he was led blindly through the tales and wisdom of old and wise men. Cheiron was the lion that had to be transmuted into the eagle, and until he knew it was wrong he taunted the lion and drew not the strength from its fury; then by the poisoned arrow, and not the arrow of wisdom, made the journey across the Styx or the waters of death and rebirth; Circe as usual performing the rites to remove the blood-guilt of Medea.

Circe being the temptress and Medea being the head full of serpents that led him to taunting the lion. Circe is not evil; she is tempting you on to try and find that which can subdue the serpents that are taunting your lion; and his head full of serpents would be the head full of old ideas that have been born out of self, born out of the earthy creation. It is ever the wrestle with self as you take in the Word and the Fire.

Hecate was a goddess of purifications and expiations, for being she of the triple-headed, she could survey the whole country of the Fates, which of course links with the three mothers. Yet even earthly kings were also competent to perform of this office, for if a man comes to the court of Croesus, he of wealth to be purified, the king goes through the rites and AFTERWARDS asks him about his country and his crime.

Croesus was he who had of plenty and would not resolve onto the next cycle; thus the man being absolved by him was being touched by his abundance and raised as a man from the depths. His country and crime was mere gossip, or shall we say news that might amaze the king and enlighten him as to why he should feed the poor and go forth into the wilderness to contemplate and raise many up from their sin.

committed; they will always have the avenger at their heels.

When you come out publicly and say, "I know I have been wrong; I must make an effort: I have got to go on because I have seen the error of my ways" you automatically are able to come out of the country you were in, and that which is of the solar fire can help you to become purified.

This knowledge being the workings of the soul, the legends of the gods must naturally assume the same, but as divine personages. In mythological terms Apollo flees from his opponent, for the slaying of the Serpent was a state that caused slavery or labour in the house of Admetus until all was mastered, for it was the cattle not yet broken and tamed.

Apollo, in slaying the serpent within the soul so that it can be given rebirth, has to spirations, though in itself was but a mystical interpretation of the equinoctial position. Apollo began at the equinox and was afterwards translated: going round the equinoctial points gathering up the wisdom within the soul, which was the period of time.

But surely even Zeus began at the equinox and fixed the stone which Cronus had swallowed and thrown up and which became the altar in the temple of the soul, whether it be of sea-washed rock or granite hewn with tools that bear of no noise. Thus it was at Delphi, not far from the temple, that oil was poured on it daily and raw wool laid upon it at every festival.

Even the tripod became fixed over the fissure and sometimes a serpent appeared which gave answers; and it has been known that a Pythia was killed, but Zeus went bravely on, even though the serpent rolled itself about the will be seen that this was the datum point for the place of prophecy to be concluded.

All to be brought into birth through the three mothers, and the Psyche which was the psychic state of the solar-god, because it goes down into a psychic state: because it is the spirit that takes on the feminine state of the Psyche, and it is going through the continual broiling of the alchemical fire until it is raised up to the heights and becomes the prophecy of the speech.

Therefore when I say that Delphi represents the centre of the earth where the omphalos or navel stone was the hearth stone for the eternal fire, the fire of the sun, to burn and smoke the embers, you will realise that I am referring to the Prytaneum. The intensity coming forth as prophecy in the navis rostrata or kind of cup, the solar plexus.

All being raised up to the heights through the activity and the struggles of the soul until it becomes the solar cup for the soul to drink, that the spirit once again can descend into that cup and it can become the royal voice of the gods.

For even Hestia herself guarded the hearth of Apollo, and it was here the sun's fires were renewed in the sense of the years being counted, and the continuity of time recognised.

Hestia was the goddess of the Fire and, as you know, your feminine principles within you or your feminine parts take on their part, and so they take on the different goddesses in their struggle. You can have an Athena and at the same time a Hestia in the different feminine creations within the soul, all labouring for supremacy.

Therefore, if the solar plexus, the diaphane, is the hearth-stone, we shall also see the autumnal equinoctial point with the top of the pole as the spring equinox and the entry of Apollo. Once upon a time even Zeus was confounded as to where was the middle of the earth; and let two doves fly forth, or eagles or crows according to the way and quality of the land. These he sent forth from opposite points to see where they would meet, and he found that they met at Mount Parnassus, the seed vessel and the keystone of an arch; therefore it was proved beyond doubt that this was the centre where all was absorbed into its final embalming.

(If you take this Word in and you refuse to wrestle with the study of this Word after you have taken in the Oil from these words, then it will burn you up. Now I am warning you. This lecture contains an enormous mass of Fiery Oil, fiery depths, and if you merely take the Word and it enters into your mind now,—even if only barely, and you refuse to give it new study, it is going to burn you into a dead mass. And that is what has been happening to some of you; you have refused to study.

Take these words and study them. Why do you think my Instrument has made every effort that this Word can go forth to you at as moderate a fee as possible? Not only that the Word can go out on the maelstrom, but to save you once you have taken the Oil. Now wrestle with it, until you get a flame in your mind of realisation and it raises up tribes within you out of their past depths. Do not have untamed herds within you.

That is why so many in the past who took in of the Scriptures as raw as they were, became religious maniacs; this is what literally happens. They took in the Word given to

THE FLAME OF THE MIND

THE power of the Word, and the Oil it contains, is not recognised by the majority; yet it is the most potent power in existence, for it can span Planes of immensity in its vibrational attunement with Divinity. For THE WORD IS GOD, in all its degrees of manifesting frequency, and when captured in its Abstract Glory by an elevated mind, can become raised up into the Solar Glory of the Divine Intelligencia. (See text on page 13, col. 1).

That means the three mothers could give you an understanding, but at the same time you may have a king, your heights, that may only be equal to these three mothers; and although he may have amassed of wealth, he has refused to send down the wealth into the depths, because there has been no activity going on in the soul.

So as much as the three mothers could give rebirth to the poor within your territory, so also could this king with all his wealth give you absolution from your errors; which means he could send down into the depths the wealth necessary to immediately change the whole soul into a new land of rebirth.

All kings can purify shedders of blood and is the common practice; and the ceremony is actually performed in the Underworld; but the manslayer must actually flee from the scene of his crime, or come out of his hide-out, for the avenger of blood is at his heels and he must seek purification abroad.

Unless you come out of what you are in, and seek to come away from what you are and the errors you are committing, then you cannot be helped. So you come out of your hide-out, you declare your error, and you become freed. But until a soul declares their error, and publicly declares it, they will never be free from the crimes they have laboured within the soul, and could only take on the reflection of Admetus until he could change all the states within the soul and the solar god was raised up to his rightful status by the soul labouring.

This was shown most clearly in the life of Jacob when he had to marry Leah for seven years and then was allowed to marry Rachel. Thus after that Apollo made purification at Tempe, and expiations were made characteristic of Apollo's worship, for it became the ruling factor, transmuting the lunar into the solar.

So according to how the soul laboured with the wealth that came in would he be a redeeming factor as the hero and bring his Apollo to Tempe to worship the new state according to how he had transmuted his lunar into the solar, or the fires would still be as raw wealth trickling down underneath the rock.

Wisdom of the Word

AS Paul became the Iesus after the baptism of fire, resulting in the cutting off of the head of John and his going to Galilee and preaching to the multitude, so Apollo, after these things, mounts the tripod at Delphi and becomes the mouth of the oracle; and by this, proclaiming unerring decrees of Zeus, wisdom.

Ge, earth, once performed the same responses, and since then priestesses had sat over this chasm; but now Apollo allowed the vapours to bring intoxication resulting in intripod. Yet many curious assertions have been made: once it was known that a virgin delivered the oracle and a dragon made itself heard from beneath the tripod because of the constellation Draco among the stars, as this represents the dragon cast down.

It was showing you the different states of what made manifestation within the soul: some were only of the Pythia, the psychic state; some the virgin. But now you are seeking to make your solar god speak the Word; not just the lower states of the soul merely bringing clairvoyance, but the real true wisdom.

This is declaring of the mystery of earth and heaven becoming united through a human instrument who was prepared and brought the wisdom of Draco into being, even though the Pythia became changed onto a greater poise of manifestation, for no longer could she exist on her previous plane: she as the Deva had delivered the oracle.

While the three priestesses in attendance, who represented the Thriai, the hoary-headed sisters or fates who dwell in the cleft of Parnassus, had also to take the change, for they heard the oracle pronounced.

When this can be seen as the Thriai of mothers who are the means of the oracle becoming made manifest at the equinox, while the Pythia is the Psyche passing through the alchemy of the solar broiling, that the equinox can measure the months and count the years, it

THE CHARIOT OF THE SUN

★ THE importance of becoming Solar-born cannot be stressed enough, for it is only then that the soul can become master of the Winds and the Waves, and begin to build his inner Garments of Divinity. Until he can accomplish this, he is as a non-entity being ever tossed hither and thither upon the Waters of the Deep. (See text in col. 5). ★ them through the mass performed at the altar and the singing of the hymns: they never knew what it meant and it burnt them up. Many of you are dead because you are burnt up with religious dogma and creed.

(See plate on page 12)

I am trying to bring you back to life. Become afire; become alight. Take the Oil, but also take the Word and wrestle with it so that when you gather together again you will all be highly fired,—even in one week,—because some of you are rich with wealth from the past; it only needs a little struggle and it will bring forth genius which you never realised you had there).

And it became the net-covered conical stone omphalos worshipped by the Thriai, for they beheld Apollo seated beneath, and holding the laurel tree; while the three hoary-headed sisters, the Fates, dwelt in the cleft and refused to witness his presence, for they saw a Python die here: (the time is going to come when even they have got to be given re-birth, and that is when you as Hercules are going to wrestle with them.

You know the story of Hercules, wrestling with the three Fates and stealing the Medusa's head. That is wrestling with the Thriai down in the depths; then you no longer have these three old women, but three raised up daughters; but we shall come to these lectures sooner or later, and you will understand of these myths; then if you truly study, you will be able to dance as you read the words. You will dance because your mind will immediately understand).

The Shield of Invulnerability

THE Dragon which had held the oracle of Ge, and who was slain by Apollo's arrows. Thus they ever held the memory of Ge in their one vision. This was the changing state that the old mother creation was ever holding onto and refusing to let go; the lunar state of the past that was ruled over by the Matriarchate. Thus they were not taking kindly to the involving Christos creation, the solar fire that was bringing the Patriarchate into birth as the fully established God-head.

It is quite intelligible, for Apollo born at Delo (the waters) in the vernal equinox goes to Delphi (the solar plexus) and afterwards into the heavenly sphere of the mind. Apollo stands for reform which is not completed in a day but involves many stages. Besides the rectification of the places of the equinoxes, solstices, and the pole as he makes headway in his purpose reforms the calendar as time, and associates all with different beginnings of the year. So as you begin to make movement within you from Delo to the heavenly sphere you are creating time where'er you walk in your changing state.

All satisfies the requirements of Zeus, which is the need for expansion; and Apollo as well as Athena is ever entrusted with the aegis of Zeus. The aegis is the shield of Zeus or Jupiter: this was known to flash forth terror and amazement, and mythologically means a rushing hurricane, or the yellow kernel in the pith of the pine as well as a speck in the eye. In works of art the aegis appears on the statue of Athena, not as a shield but as a sort of cloak covered with scales and set with the Gorgon's head fringed with snakes.

(This literally means the shield within the Word, for you to spin up and become your shield: according to your wrestling and struggle to bring it into a flame you build the shield out of the Word through the expansion.

As you wrestle with what is given to you in expansion you, out of the word, find the shield; but if you do not wrestle with it you will never find the shield. It also means a goatskin, so-called from the goat Amalthea whose skin covered his shield: meaning, you would slowly raise it up from the depths to the heights step by step until it becomes your Capricornian heights as Amalthea, and would ever be the shield you were raising up as the Word slowly became unfolded.

What I am trying to do is to talk 'alchemicalisation.' I am trying to do what your minds should be doing: I am trying to think for you in my speech, because you have never troubled with the words; but this is the last time I do it. After this you have got to wrestle with the Word for yourselves. I am giving you the first and the last clue.

It was placed amongst the constellations, resulting in Jupiter giving his shield to Pallas who placed it upon the Medusa's head, which turned into stone all those who fixed their eyes upon it. The shield of established knowledge.

Pallas is Pallas Athena. Surely it is your phallus raised up to the heights, and becomes Pallas Athena? Now this is the understanding of the myths; and so it became as Pallas when placed upon the Medusa's head; your phallus became the hero, cut off the Medusa's head and became the shield of established knowledge.

When you establish knowledge it is your shield: you do not commit that error any more. You would not immediately go out and eat raw meat. No! because it has become established knowledge as your raised up phallus, or your Medusa's head cut off,—that it is wrong to eat raw meat because it was only that of the beast,—although you are not far off when you cook it.

When Apollo approaches with such in his care, the gods rise from their seats and Hermes says unto him, "Thou sittest first among the Immortals": (you have raised yourself up). Therefore, Apollo holding of such significance in the trend of mythological reasoning, let us seek into the depths of Apollo and the Dolphin. It has been stated by the ancients that Delphi received its name because the Python that was killed there was called Delphis or Delphyne, weight and mass.

The priestess was called both Pythia and Delphis which is associated with the Dolphin. The ancient story regarding the founding of the Delphic Oracle states that, after slaying the Python the opening brought forth a new spring of water, and Apollo changed himself into a Dolphin and in this guise approached a ship of Cretan mariners: (a new jet of water, a new creation spurted up within you and the Cretan Mariners were those states that went out onto the ship of life).

In this form he guided the vessel to Crissa, the port of Delphi: guiding all those states of yours that were sailing forth on your ocean of time, then emerged splendid from the waters and filled the fane with light, because he brought them all safely home. Then assuming the shape of a man, he revealed himself to the Cretans (and he became the solar-god), and bade them worship him in his Delphic seat as Apollo Delphinius, the Dolphin of Apollo.

Mythologically this indicates the changing creation within the emotional status mastering the dragon of Fire created by the delving into the greater wisdom. This helped all the species moving with the ship of the soul, and helped them to accept the forming masterhood. Thus the Dolphin indicates the ascending and descending course of the heavenly bodies from one emotional horizon to another. The dolphin's arching rise and re-plunge is the phenomenal death and re-birth in the maelstrom as well as in the changing soul.

A safe passage with a landing on the other side of the gulf, for to the Greeks it was believed that dolphins attended all cases of shipwreck and helped the mariners safely ashore. Thus would be heralding Neptune's approach, or even some great personage making their debut into matter through the phenomenal thrust. Therefore when we state that scarce could an accident happen at sea but would a dolphin offer to convey the unfortunate voyagers ashore, we are indicating that these represent the solution as the Sacred Fish or heavenly wisdom that helps the soul to pull out of troublesome waters.

While the dolphin is a species of whale, Cetus, the 2nd decanate of Aries, and the power coming forth as the warrior strides over the sands of time, it also was a great ship that took him over the waters and changed the emotional status.

Thus Apollo coming across those waters arriving safely at Delphi, the autumn equinox, would be the wealth gained through mastering the Python or fiery dragon of life; and pressing the Cretan mariners into his service would mean he had mastered time, for they represented the species of life created through time and awaiting absolvment into their rightful status of involution. Zeus was born at Crete, so would now find rebirth through the spring equinox as Crete evolved, giving forth of its wealth in the autumn equinox as the wealth or oracle of Delphi.

(Zeus, the ancient expansion right to the modern expansion. Crete represents the lovers of the human flesh. Zeus began his expansion right from the beginning, on every plane of rebirth; so he knows you from beginning to end and he knows how to raise up every specie within you, whether an untamed beast or a genius).

There are many legends around the beloved Sun-god, and one whereby the origin of the sunflower is revealed; she of multiple richness holding the multiform seeds of the oil of conclusion; that which would produce the steady flame of the mind when attended with due care. Then there is the story of Colossus, the statue of brass seventy cubits high.

The legend declares that when Zeus and other Immortals were dividing the earth among them, the Sun was absent and received no share. On reminding Zeus (expansion) of this, he was about to make a new allotment, but Helios would not let him do it, saying he had seen a fertile land lying beneath the "hoary sea" with which he would be content. The hidden powers of Tartaros, the wealth of Uranus yet to be retrieved.

The Ruling Hand

NOW is that not your ancient past hidden where you kept your cauldron, where you keep your phallus, the tail of the spine, the cauda equina? That is your Tartarus; that is where Uranus is hidden, down in the tail of the spine. He said he wanted that tail, for in that tail was untold wealth, the wealth of Uranus yet to be retrieved; thus the Gods swore that it should be the undisturbed possession of the Sun-god; and the Isle of Rhodes (the Isle of Red) emerged from the deep.

This was the principal city of Rhodes, a celebrated island in the Carpathian Sea. It is well renowned for its statue of Apollo called the Colossus. It was an island of great wealth and many treasures descended upon the inhabitants through their piety to Minerva and Jupiter. They eventually became dependent upon the Romans, having been defeated by Cassius.

From a point of the wealth that can arise from the hoary depths, surely it is the most coveted gift that the Sun-god can offer; the emotional states that he can raise up to seventy cubits high. Seven Chakras revolving in greater sensitivity with more divine perception and wisdom which resolves an answer to the legend.

Remember, we are having to take history as well as having to take time. History as time is a part of you, and these different states helped this growth; and the different states of the world had growth that was slowly inborn into a conclusive state of evolution.

So really the ancients were not so blind as the man of today would believe, for they left with posterity the keys whereby man, now completely blind by his own state of self-importance and self-willed destructive experiments, could be freed and brought to constructive rebirth and new life.

Helios is often seen in a four-horse chariot, a quadrature of creative power, therefore had his head surrounded with rays, a whip in his hand as the power of command, and was preceded by Eosphoros, Aurora; the rosy dawn, bringing with it the new birth. Be the little child; rise up in the early morn when the solar fire is new, and live your life as the man of the past yet the man of the future.

(See plate on this page)

The name Helio being derived from brightness is the Sun-god that all men adore as the solar fire but fail to know of his existence and real value as their own sun-god, until drought overcomes, and they demand the waters of life that can save their withered crops and parched earth from complete stagnation.

PAPAL DENUNCIO!

by George Stanbrook

FOR some time now I have regularly obtained the Occult Gazette from the big pavement newspaper stand outside the Lloyds Bank premises in the Aldwych. I first, I admit, bought it out of a sense of curiosity and with a good slice of disbelief. To begin with I understood little, but sufficient to know that this was no ordinary psychic paper but unique in the field of literature. The intensity of its writing and its unusual and refreshing forthrightness gripped me. One thing I heavily criticised in my mind was the continual barracking that went on against the Roman Catholics and the Pope in particular. I thought it bad taste, and doubted whether it was wholly justified.

I was still very much dyed with conventionalism and religious upbringing and found it difficult to free myself to think free enough to judge what I read.

Gradually the O.G. became a necessity for me, and has opened my mind immensely to the deeper Spiritual truths and lifted out of the darkness the immense splendours of Royal Occultism, which the writings of the paper embody. As a result I slowly realised the intense inner truth of the criticism so constantly levelled against the Catholics, and not only saw the justification for it but the dire need to expose the "dead hand" that they hold over the minds of so many millions.

The latest crack-pot effort of the pope's,—I don't mind now spelling it with a small 'p,' that is all it is worth,—brings out clearly, very clearly the point that Mrs. Spearman-Cook has been making. According to reports he is weeding out from his list of saints all those who have no historical basis.

He bases his whole purpose of selection on the earth. Saint days according to him spring from earth and earth only. The true spiritual depth of such Holy days are completely lost on the man, and yet he is meant to be the spiritual adviser and last word to his church.

I can understand the wickedness of his false ways which are so continually exposed by Mrs. Spearman-Cook who far from doing it destructively always gives the deeper Occult Wisdom to show what a man of straw the pope is.

Even to me it is clear that such Holy days are solely for the inflow of Divine Sustenance or Manna to the Earth and which would do so in ever greater abundance if only we all would turn to the Divine Powers as the Law.

To show his idiocy the pope sacks as a saint St. George, forgetting such a name is a symbol for the great Divine Power of Orion, for April 23 celebrates Orion's great struggle with the Divine Fire of Scorpio which he must seek to master to bring into birth the Stream of the Eridanus.

But the pope ignores Divine ways and is only too ready to embrace earth and its ways, so that his church's evil hold on the world may be maintained.

I felt I had to write to point out that the pope by his reform of the saint calendar obviously chooses the earth as his spiritual haven, while Mrs. Spearman-Cook does the complete opposite, pointing out the Divinity of the Calendar and how man must ever keep aware of the Divine Inflow of Powers.

But since the day of my first O.G. I have gradually awoken to the wonder of all her teachings and her writings, and realised the empty sham of churches and clerics, particularly the arch-demon of them all, the pope!

declare her steeds as being snow-white.

Yet later it is seen she has to adorn that of the horned moon whereby the lunar mules are brought forth. Like the Sun-god, she too has had her mystery, and is another problem of life that must at some time or another be solved by man if he wishes to conquer the problems of which he is now being besieged.

In general and natural mode of representation, Selene is the sister of Helios, yet in another view it makes her his daughter, he being the source of her light. This is because she partakes of the solar light and changes her form according to the solar positions, being as the Moon, Psyche, Venus and Diana, all being of the Feminine Principle and having familiarity which only varies according to expression. But many myths are arranged around this daughter of Helios.

One is where Selene was enamoured by Endymion, he that was mighty with lunar power, but refused to absorb and embrace the solar light, thus remained as the magician and bred fifty daughters by Selene. It was of such that Solomon emulated when he embraced of a thousand wives.

Zeus had bestowed upon Endymion the precious gift of perpetual youth, but united also with perpetual sleep. (He kept taking of the Fire but kept on allowing himself to become the father of Selene's children; bringing only lunar children within his being. This he has inherited from his father and race of origin, for he came from Aetolia where they were covetous and illiberal and made themselves formidable to all who sought of expansion.

His father Aethlius who descended from Deucalion, only founded wisdom in discord; thus Endymion had only fixed conventional states to set Zeus in Taurus at the summer solstice into electro-magnetic action. This would have brought into birth many creations from his lunar embracement; but he ever remained in a state of profound sleep. This of course refers to the sun-god in the soul only ever being embraced by the lunar endeavours, and the solar never entertained.

Endymion was taken up to heaven (into the heights of wisdom), but had the impudence to solicit Hera, earthy states to come up with him, thus was cast into a profound sleep and claimed by Selene in psychic supremacy. Thus for the time Hera's method was deemed the best, and the festival ran out to a distance of fifteen days from the equinox and returned in the sixtieth; therefore he had to relinquish his task to his sons who took up the "foot-race."

This meant that everybody would be in a state of leanness through now drawing in the riches of the Horae only once in every sixty years, and are continually eating up their own children to appease their hunger, for their harvest bears of no fruit through their lack of wisdom. Thus the calendar had to be re-arranged by some hero (within your own creation) seeking out the way to arrange the festivals to master the intercalaries (in your own state of mind creation).

So in the case of Endymion, Selene used to descend to his place of repose on the summit of Mount Latmos, a mount hewed out of the rock that came forth from the deluge of Deucalion, and seek to awaken him into life; then Endymion became a hero of his day and age. (He woke up, began to sacrifice, and became a solar-god).

But what had to be remembered, the god Pan had also gained her love under the form of a snow-white ram, the two sides of the soul which later appeared as a goat; the heights of the winter solstice: (the two sides of the soul that would not become united). Though I would whisper that it is possible for such to eventually be transformed into a white lamb. So having some small insight into Selene, we will leave the enquiry there and return at the next day of feasting.

THE OCCULTIST AND EDUCATION

by Charles P. Urbani

WHEN we survey the world of today, we sense a restlessness, an intense desire to extricate itself from the web of submissiveness, imposed upon it by systems which in concept are almost medieval. The influence of the church in the courts of Europe, through the centuries, and the ruthless methods employed through tyranny, torture, and murder, to maintain an enforced state of ignorance among masses of people, are the very foundations upon which our present day educational systems were formed.

What we call convention today, is the very same screen used for the pursuance of the activities of those motivated by the desire for power, greed, class, and an enforced domination of others. The very breeding ground for what the Scottish bard termed "Man's inhumanity to man!"

It is perfectly clear, not only to the occultist, but to all those who think, that those who dominate the conventional scene, and who, with the object of deflecting attention, speak of brain-washing by others, are in fact conducting the same ghastly practice themselves.

To those of us born in the early years of this century, we have seen over the decades how the churches have been the very bulwark of convention; consequently every church edifice stands as a stark reminder of convention, the Curse of the age!

FROM the forthright editorials of Dick Speller in the Occult Gazette, we know that the great work of Merope in bringing Light to a darkened world, is the greatest Stream of Spiritual Power being brought to bear against those darkened forces, who have cruelly sought to clamp the minds of millions of souls.

From many countries of the world, we hear of students in revolt against existing structures which hold education within their confines. But then, isn't this all part of the process of extrication? The Divine Law is for all in manifestation, through the process of increasing mind awareness to emerge from that which is reflected (Lunar) by initiation to the Divine Fire (Solar).

This Divine process cannot function when the mind is restricted. We can therefore extend a deep sense of heartfelt gratitude to the great sacrifice made by Merope, in preparing the way for the disintegration of those powers who have stoned so many minds for so many centuries.

True education can only take place in mind immensity, yes, even beyond the confines of the text-books! Then, by following the "Occult Way," the path of all true wisdom and awareness to the Divine will open like a great flower. Each and every one of us can thus be our own priest, for we are answerable only to ourselves, and the path must be trodden alone!

We are on the threshold of momentous changes; as we draw towards the close of the old, and prepare to enter the new, let us declare with all the sincerity in our hearts, the exhortation, the clarion call to all mankind—"Ring out the old, ring in the new; Ring out the false, ring in the True!"

wounds if used as a drink, or as an ointment; it can also be used for bathing the wounds.

In cases of heart trouble, seizure, thrombosis, and heavy blood pressure, by far the best remedy is Horsetail, Holy Thistle, Lily of the Valley, Hawthorn and Mistletoe; and pints of Nettle tea can be drunk all day. Eat plenty of purple and black grapes, and drink plenty of water, which, if faithfully taken, bring magic results straight away.

ONE day we made our way to a lonely hamlet, miles away, to gather some Fumitory. It grows only in farmyards, on manure heaps, in straw and in cornfields. It is a marvellous herb, with its spiky deep pink flower and feathery leaf like that of a carrot leaf. It is for all intestinal troubles, bowels, piles, and constipation, and is also a powerful kidney cleanser.

As we approached the hamlet, which was mostly farms, we came upon a joyous sight. There were about twelve ducks, all lined up in a row, each one dropping out as it reached home. How we all gaily laughed, for across the road was a lake with swans upon it. It seemed to be our lucky day.

We were having our food, and sitting close to the woods, hearing the peck-peck of the Woodpecker, when, hardly believing our eyes, we spotted in the wood some Sweet Woodruffe. It has a cluster of tiny white flowers, and a spiky leaf. It has a fragrant scent, and usually grows in woods and sometimes in rockeries, making its appearance in the Spring.

It was high Summer at this particular time, and we swooped upon it with joy, and gathered the lot.

SWEET WOODRUFFE is, without a rival, the finest of all headache cures. Our mother often mixed it with Lime Flowers and drank it as a herb, and as a herb tea. If ever one was lucky enough, as we were then, to be able to gather the Lime Flowers fresh, and the Sweet Woodruffe, and drink as a tea, the aroma was 'out of this world.' When the herb was dried, we often drank it as a tea with a slice of lemon, or rose and violet petals. For headaches, Borage, Lime Flowers, Valerian, Mistletoe or Scullcap ran it a good second.

Another time, we were out gathering Ragwort, with its tiny yellow daisy-heads. This grows anywhere and is used a lot for rheumatism and gout and kidney troubles by the country people. We were also gathering Plantain and Holy Thistle and Horsetail.

Again we were sitting by a babbling brook, and the water was chuckling along when out popped a rabbit which, on seeing us, took fright and fell in the water. We fished the rabbit out of the water, dried it, and sent it scuttling off. A few minutes later he re-appeared with his mother, father and brother and sister rabbits, and they all started grazing nearby. They had come to offer us praise and thanksgiving for helping the rescued rabbit. We went away rejoicing that we had dispelled a little of the fear within these little creatures, which had been caused by man.

Only by recognising his real wonders and seeking of his blessings can the soul induce into birth the gifts of the great Deity; for the Solar Life and the Spirit are one; and behind this great force is the Divine Hand that rules all life and gives unto man of ITS holy Fire when the soul so becomes worthy.

But man has not yet awakened to the fact of this great mystery; when he does he will have solved one of the greatest problems of all life: the atomic fire, the atomic wealth, the cosmic rays.

One that became lost to man when Eve ate of the apple and became bewitched by the tree-Spirit, that for the time assumed the guise of a serpent. This he must do by mastering this creature and receiving the Sun-god's blessings. The first man to find the wisdom of this truth was Akhnaton, a Pharaoh King of Egypt who was known as "He of many blessings."

Having dealt with the solar manifestation, let us now come to Selene, the sister of Helios; she who drives her chariot through the sky while he is reposing after the toils of the day: (she carries it on during the night). One of the hymns of the ancients describes how she continually bathes in the Ocean and puts on raiment of glittering beauty, while others

Part 23

MUGWORT (Artemisia Vulgaris)

by David Spearman-Cook

THIS MONTH WE SEARCH INTO THE REASON as to why a herb is classed as a digestive. It is simply that it is capable of breaking down calcified matter; that consumed by souls who, like one another, are filled to the full with the earth density of aeons and aeons of past lives growth, and earthy solidified foods. This herb has the power to break down the food intake, and eliminate it smoothly through the channels, as excreted organic waste.

MUGWORT is the finest herb for this particular operation, and as such would be extremely potent if it is partaken with Parsley, and a little Thyme. This is the way to eliminate the growth of bacteria, which is ever building up around the most sensitive parts of the body. These three herbs are famous for their penetrative activity of de-acidification, and the speedy removal of hardening solids, all of which have contributed to the solid body of ME and MINE.

Mugwort and Periwinkle can play a wonderful part in the breaking down of the whole of the old status, that which is now being constantly charged with the changing Fiery intake of the Breath. These two herbs will leave a healing quantum of rejuvenating power, which will assist the nerve ends to become acclimatized to the new frequency, that which all souls are going to become of, through the changing Causation.

Mugwort was once a treasured herb, which was used by the mighty Pharaohs, who used it purely because of its purified essence of extractal ability. They applied it to many parts of their body, and then endured fierce heat to help break down any resisting organ within their makeup, which they instinctively thought was offending their gods, due to the lack of sensitised ability upon their part, to balance the necessary frequency of power which they were forced to encounter.

It is quite obvious that they should have expanded the wisdom they had taken, then all would have been fired into place within. In those days Pharaohs and chieftains ever vied for frequency superiority of mind, knowing of its dynamic might.

MUGWORT and Celandine is a remarkable purgative for the bowels providing it is taken as suggested, one part Mugwort to two of Celandine, then the extractive ability of Mugwort will not be too fierce.

When the mighty Hannibal marched his army across the Alps, he used Mugwort to break down the built-up waste of his men, and even that of his elephants. For to be full of waste, in the lungs and other important parts of the body, plus having solidified movement of the creative aptitude of man. For Mugwort is a sinus stimulus, and one that is so very vital to one and all as we enter this period of Relativity.

WHEN Mugwort is made into a compress, it will require heat before it starts to commence its work of extracting, because when it is taken internally, it relies upon the inner fire of the body to work on its extractive makeup. Apply the heat with either a steamed towel or a hot water bottle, and reap the benefit of its soothing strength.

Mugwort was once used for sealing up the cracks of wine barrels, long before glass was ever brought into existence. It was made into a form of paste, which kept the internal contents free from built-up sediment, and helped to keep it clear, for its power must have drawn the sediment to itself. Most wine in those days was very coarse in its nature, and for a herb to have been capable of doing this, must have been very helpful indeed.

If anything is to be kept in store over a period of time, Mugwort could be well adopted to take on of a preservative nature, and could well prove much more reliable in its simplicity, than any now known artificial gadget. It was Mugwort in the past which helped so many, who unfortunately contracted the Ague, and helped them to extricate the dangerous virus, that which caused the most diabolical pains of any yet known sickness.

It was Mugwort with the addition of a little Tansy, which so helped sufferers, that at one time it was known as a universal life saver, and man cherished this herb more than any of his earthy chattels, at the time of sudden illness.

These two herbs are very good, not only for the breaking down of poisons in the soul's body, but they are also, as strange as it may seem, extremely good for washing down paintwork, or other similar surfaces. With this, it is possible to remove bad vibrational infiltrated thoughts of undesirable guests, being openly used in the old inns and taverns of the past, as an ancient remedy of very good and lasting strength.

MUGWORT

Mugwort, the flower of the Elder, and the crushed root of the Ivy, will assist those who are suffering from any form of internal bleeding. For it will clear congealing blood quickly and safely, from out of the fine canals and subsidiary offshoots of the very fine nerve ends, and stop paralysing states of cramp. These three herbs will help thin the blood, and relax the system, to help cope with the emergency being faced at the said time.

The collecting of Marsh-mallow leaves and Mugwort, will be very beneficial to many suffering with the symptoms of Asthma. If these two types of herb leaves are rubbed together between the hands, and fervently inhaled, it will give a very good freedom of movement to the sinuses, for as stated earlier, Mugwort is a sinus herb above all else. This form of relief by herb friction, was very often used before the days of snuff, to a far greater beneficial degree than snuff could ever possibly acquire.

At least herbs do not endanger life, unless one is foolish enough not to at least learn some form of wisdom from the numerous books upon this subject, before practicing the art. And with regard to the ill effect of snuff, its parental produce tobacco is known only too well for its diabolical cancer growth attracting ability.

It seems very much as though farmers and others who till the soil, still retain the wisdom of frictional gauging of nature's abundant vegetation, and a lot of the inborn wisdom to do with nature, is fostered by the very activity one creates around nature's pot-pourri of dynamic wonders.

When Mugwort is given sufficient soaking, so as to become a rather gelatinous substance, it can be of a remarkable benefit to the feet. For if they are soaked in this infusion, much of the acidity, due to the blood not being fired with the fire in its right frequency, can be broken down and withdrawn through this simple method.

Finally Mugwort has often been well known in the old bygone days as a very fine wine appetizer, for it can clear the palate of most corroded acidity, in and around the tongue and mouth. Here one might suggest that it could be of beneficial help to any who in some form or other, are tasters, in industrial or the culinary practices.

It could also be of some assistance to anyone who has cancer of the mouth or tongue, for one could rinse the mouth just as one would after cleaning their teeth, until one is satisfied that at least a more refreshing state of mind exists. In all cases of sickness a positive determination upon the patient's behalf is the real answer to a speedier cure, for all is a state of mind, this side or the other side of life.

So much in the future is going to rely upon man's intuitional ability, that it will be essential that every one begins to become herb conscious. For herbs offer many antidotes to slight disorders within the body, and can save many painful experiences befalling those who are wise enough to seek of the past, and at least try them. After all, why should anyone be forced to take medicinal remedies, that will in the long run be of no spiritual use whatsoever.

Next month we will carry on with Marjoram, the sweet one, for there are many different varieties of this herb from various countries, each with a separate wealth of its own.

NOW LET US TRY AND SEE WHAT IT MEANS FOR APOLLO TO SERVE ADMETUS, THOSE UNSUBDUED, or as cattle not tamed, which man is full of; wild beasts that are not trained. Only once in the eight years does Apollo touch true time, and the New Year's Day coincides with the actual equinox, starting again in the ninth as that properly adjusted. If you were to wrestle very hard with the Word you could bring all to yourself in a week, for in a week of time man passes through the whole of the Solar Gods. All through these eight years it and he have been exiled from the proper place, and much of the time struggling through the underworld: this was due to Apollo attending the Octennial Cycle and the infliction upon him for killing the Cyclops 'the heights,' thus destroying the old lunar calendars; therefore made to wander during seven years, adjust in the eighth and begin again in the ninth, during which time he was in bondage to Admetus, king of Pherae, the untamed one, and served him as a herdsman; meaning the king within yourself was only an Admetus, one who had with him all the untamed creations he had been gathering up: that is what your solar-god has been wrestling with, but then it is your feminine principle as Cinderella who is the wise one, who ever goes out and labours, goes through the Fall, and again comes back and sits among the ashes. So during all that time, whatever length it might be,—years, days or hours,—you are going to be in that period of time wandering about, serving a king who only has a herd of untamed beasts that you are striving to bring into a tamed herd of chosen oxen. At the end of that time returning adorned with laurel, and at Pytho was proclaimed as the true Phoebus by the pure ordinances of Zeus or Themistes decrees, the laurels of Mother Mem.

The Plane of Realisation

ADMETUS is the god of the infernal regions, therefore coincides with the depths brought up to the heights when Apollo visited the Hyperboreans. Therefore when in those depths it connected with that of Hecate who was called his daughter and a Pherean goddess, one who nourishes and feeds.

Thus Apollo like Osiris visited the underworld and, qualifying himself as a god of the dead, brought forth "his own dead" from the netherworld, which caused all to become raised up to the heights; but only when the "mortuary meal" is provided.

Admetus is your lunar creation or cronos creation in the depths, of which your heights would only be a reflection while you were wrestling with the bestial or negative states of your solar inflow.

As you take in the Solar atoms they enter into your untamed herds and immediately take on the reflection of your infernal regions: now as you seek to tame them,—which can only be done by you taking the Word, seeking for wisdom and wrestling with yourself,—do you slowly bring them back to the Hyperboreans, or you bring them back to the extent of your heights and depths, which is the wisdom or the Solar light spun into a flame as realisation.

Surely you do not think that as you take of the Solar fire it immediately becomes a sun-god within you? It can only come in and take on the reflection of yourself; and what your depths literally are does this solar fire either become your devil or your god. That is why, when you take in the Fire and you have a giant within you, it is not very long before that giant starts to run wild, because it has been fed; it could not go past him.

If you are a wise soul you will allow a Teacher to bring you into rebirth, and it is very often only by the 'axe.' It may be a very hard path. That is the idea of a group where there is a Teacher that has tenacity of purpose: they stand by their point and purpose and wrestle with the group so that they can give rebirth to them, and as they bring out their devils so does that Teacher try and give those devils rebirth.

That is the struggle, but there have been very few Teachers that have ever had the courage to do this; and the one I am using is the first one that has ever held a group together. I want you to understand this very clearly: the first Teacher that has ever held a group together, moreso in these modern days of mad creations.

WILD POWERS

THE complications of soul growth have built up many wierd creations since the Fall from Grace. Only when a soul can face up to his own shortcomings, and admit his lack of Royal Intent, will he begin to turn-in such raw creations as these, and give them rebirth as Solar Fire of Divine embracement. (See text in col. 1).

Hecate would be how your feminine principle was also reflecting in the negative as the daughter of Admetus, for there are bound to be the heights and depths that would be reflected in the solar-god as he comes into your birth: he is bound to be seen in the heights and the depths within you as the masculine and feminine, as otherwise there would never be the weaving between the two points: it takes on the creation of the mind with its two points.

Everything is duality within the soul, so the solar fire must take on a duality; and although it would take on of the heights and the depths, it could only take on according to the heights that your depths could portray. It could not in its negative state be woven into the heights; consequently you would have to wrestle with those two parts of yourself in the duality that was reflected in the solar-god to raise him up to his one-ness, his one eye.

So the Solar God went down also in the depths; he brought out the heights and he went down into the depths. He went up into the heights where the seed was sown, and as it began to manifest in the depths he had to go down into the depths also to take on the reality of the two in its dual state. As he had brought the heights into birth so he now would struggle to bring your dead states into life, but only as the soul wrestled with the Word and found a mortuary meal to give to these states which he was raising as Lazarus.

He must come down and raise your depths as well as your heights and take on also the duality of both. It is no good just raising the heights and leaving your depths behind, because this is what causes you to split. By wrestling with what you draw in, your powers would go down into your depths, rejuvenate and raise up those depths, and you will not be quite so low in your creation of life.

This belongs to the obscure mystery of Apollo actually dying, or Christ dying for the world to be saved, and descends into the infernal regions when not revered and accepted in due wisdom, and becomes buried in the depths as Admetus or Kronus until a sun-god as Phoebus is able to reach the heights, make the descent to the depths, and by the aid of Hecate release many from their prisons and return as the conquering hero-saviour crowned with laurel.

Building up the solar-god within you; ever going into your depths: but you are the solar-god, your mind is the solar-god: you have become as Apollo in your wrestling with Life as the solar light travels all over your parts.

During that time there is untold darkness when all could be lost, for Io could be in great pain from the stinging and striving to give birth to her child; the mother within the soul striving to give birth, and then the mother Mem as the solar plexus; but Virgo is mother Shin as the mind, as truth; bringing into birth through the mind; that which is transmuted from one to the other. But let us seek now what really took place in the purification.

The Path of Purification and Regeneration

DURING the eight years, the appointed time of bondage, the sun-god wanders to the ancient altar of Tempe; the romantic valley between Mount Olympus and Ossa through which the Peneius (penus), "one's daily bread," or needy sustenance, escapes into the sea of life, escaping out into the wrong direction.

Surely by this, with subtle forethought and deep afterthought, the studious soul will recognise and solve the mystery of the Sphinx: that which goes in at the tail must be spun up into the heights and come out through the mouth; not to be lost in the depths by merely escaping out into the waters.

The life force "reared," becoming the sustenance that enters into the protoplasmic creation to prepare for the soul's absorption in the purification; the mystery of the underworld in the alchemicalisation that takes place in the sublimation and volatilisation of the soul; the solar fire in its alchemicalisation dance that brings a sublimation and volatilisation movement.
